2 to accompany: he followed Isabel everywhere

◇ SYNONYMS: accompany, attend, escort, go behind, tag along behind, come behind

3 to be a logical or natural consequence of ◇ SYNONYMS: result, issue, develop, spring, flow, proceed, arise, ensue

4 to keep to the course or track of 5 to act in accordance with: follow the rules below and it will help you a great deal

◇ SYNONYMS: obey, observe, adhere to, stick to, heed, conform to, keep to, pay attention to 6 to accept the ideas or beliefs of 7 to understand (an explanation)

◇ SYNONYMS: understand, realize, appreciate, take in, grasp, catch on (informal), comprehend, fathom

8 to have a keen interest in: he's followed the singer's career for more than 25 years

◇ SYNONYMS: keep up with, support, be interested in, cultivate, be a fan of, keep abreast of 9 to choose to receive messages or blogs posted online by (a particular person)

► See also follow up follower n

1 a person who accepts the teachings of another: a follower of Nietzsche

◇ SYNONYMS: supporter, fan, disciple, devotee, apostle, pupil, adherent, groupie (slang)

2 a supporter, such as of a sport or team

◇ SYNONYMS: supporter, fan, disciple, devotee, apostle, pupil, adherent, groupie (slang)

following adj

1 about to be mentioned

◇ SYNONYMS: coming, about to be mentioned

2 next in time

◇ SYNONYMS: next, subsequent, successive, ensuing, later, succeeding, consequent

3 (of winds or currents) moving in the same direction as a vessel

► prep

4 as a result of: uncertainty following the collapse of communism

► n

5 a group of supporters or enthusiasts

◇ SYNONYMS: supporters, backing, train, fans, suite, clientele, entourage, coterie follow up vb

1 to investigate (a person, evidence, etc.) closely

2 to continue (action) after a beginning, esp. to increase its effect

► n follow-up

3 something done to reinforce an initial action: a routine follow-up to his operation

folly n, pl -lies

1 the quality of being foolish

◇ SYNONYMS: foolishness, nonsense, madness, stupidity, indiscretion, imprudence, rashness

2 a foolish action, idea, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: foolishness, nonsense, madness, stupidity, indiscretion, imprudence, rashness

3 an imitation castle, temple, etc., built as a decoration in a large garden or park foment (foam-ent) vb to encourage or stir up (trouble) > fomentation n

fond adj

1 fond of having a liking for ◇ SYNONYMS fond of: attached to, in love with, keen on, attracted to, having a soft spot for, enamoured of

2 loving and affectionate: his fond parents

◇ SYNONYMS: loving, caring, warm, devoted, tender, adoring, affectionate, indulgent

3 (of hopes or wishes) cherished but unlikely to be realized

◇ SYNONYMS: unrealistic, empty, naive, vain, foolish, deluded, overoptimistic, delusive > fondly adv

> fondness n

fondant n (a sweet made from) a thick flavoured paste of sugar and water fondle vb -dling, -dled to touch or stroke tenderly fondue n a Swiss dish, consisting of melted cheese into which small pieces of bread are dipped font¹ n a large bowl in a church for baptismal water font² n (printing) a complete set of type of one style and size fontanelle or (esp US) fontanel n (anatomy) a soft membranous gap between the bones of a baby's skull food n any substance that can be taken into the body by a living organism and changed into energy and body tissue. RELATED ADJECTIVE: gastronomic

◇ SYNONYMS: nourishment, fare, diet, tucker (Austral & NZ informal), rations, nutrition, cuisine, refreshment, nibbles, kai (NZ informal) food group n any of the categories into which different foods may be placed according to the type of nourishment they supply foodie n (informal) a person with a keen interest in food and cookery foodstuff n any substance that can be used as food fool¹ n

1 a person who lacks sense or judgment

◇ SYNONYMS: idiot, mug (Brit slang), dummy (slang), twit (informal, chiefly Brit), dunce, dorba or dorb (Austral slang), mampara (S African informal)

2 a person who is made to appear ridiculous

◇ SYNONYMS: dupe, mug (Brit slang), sucker (slang), stooge (slang), laughing stock, pushover (informal), fall guy (informal)

3 (formerly) a professional jester living in a royal or noble household

◇ SYNONYMS: jester, clown, harlequin, buffoon, court jester

4 play or act the fool to deliberately act foolishly

► vb

5 to deceive (someone), esp. in order to make them look ridiculous

◇ SYNONYMS: deceive, mislead, delude, trick, take in, con (informal), dupe, beguile, scam (slang)

6 fool around or about with (informal) to act or play with irresponsibly or aimlessly

7 to speak or act in a playful or jesting manner fool² n (chiefly Brit) a dessert made from a puree of fruit with cream foolery n foolish behaviour foolhardy adj -hardier, -hardiest recklessly adventurous > foolhardily adv

> foolhardiness n

foolish adj very silly, unwise, or absurd

◇ SYNONYMS: unwise, silly, absurd, rash, senseless, foolhardy, ill-judged, imprudent > foolishly adv

> foolishness n

foolproof adj (informal)

1 incapable of going wrong; infallible: a foolproof identification system

2 (of machines, etc.) guaranteed to function as intended despite human misuse or error foosball n (US & Canad) a game in which opponents on either side of a purpose-built table attempt to strike a ball into the other side's goal by moving horizontal bars with miniatures of footballers attached foot n, pl feet

1 the part of the leg below the ankle joint that is in contact with the ground during standing and walking

2 the part of a garment covering a foot

3 a unit of length equal to 12 inches (0.3048 metre)

4 the bottom, base, or lower end of something: at the foot of the hill; the foot of the page

5 (old-fashioned) infantry

6 (prosody) a group of two or more syllables in which one syllable has the major stress, forming the basic unit of poetic rhythm

7 one foot in the grave (informal) near to death

8 on foot walking

9 put one's best foot forward to try to do one's best

10 put one's foot down (informal) to act firmly

11 put one's foot in it (informal) to make an embarrassing and tactless mistake

12 under foot on the ground

► vb

13 foot it (informal) to travel on foot

14 foot the bill to pay the entire cost of something ► See also feet > footless adj

footage n

1 a length of film

2 the sequences of filmed material: footage of refugees leaving the city foot-and-mouth disease n a highly infectious viral disease of cattle, pigs, sheep, and goats, in which blisters form in the mouth and on the feet football n

1 any of various games played with a ball in which two teams compete to kick, head, or propel the ball into each other's goal

2 the ball used in any of these games > footballer n

footbridge n a narrow bridge for the use of pedestrians footfall n the sound of a footstep foothills pl n relatively low hills at the foot of a mountain foothold n

1 a secure position from which further progress may be made: a firm foothold in Europe's telecommunications market

2 a ledge or other place where a foot can be securely positioned, as during climbing footing n

1 basis or foundation: on a sound financial footing

◇ SYNONYMS: basis, foundation, base position, groundwork

2 the relationship between two people or groups: on an equal footing

◇ SYNONYMS: relationship, position, basis, standing, rank, status, grade 3 a secure grip by or for the feet footlights pl n (theatre) lights set in a row along the front of the stage floor footloose adj free to go or do as one wishes footman n, pl -men a male servant in uniform footnote n a note printed at the bottom of a page footpath n

1 a narrow path for walkers only

2 (Austral) a raised space alongside a road, for pedestrians

◇ SYNONYMS: pavement, sidewalk (US & Canad) footplate n (chiefly Brit) a platform in the cab of a steam locomotive on which the crew stand to operate the controls footprint n

1 an indentation or outline of the foot on a surface

2 the shape and size of the area something occupies: enlarging the footprint of the building

3 impact on the environment footsie n (informal) flirtation involving the touching together of feet footstep n

1 a step in walking

◇ SYNONYMS: step, tread, footfall

2 the sound made by walking

3 a footmark

4 follow in someone's footsteps to continue the example of another footstool n a low stool used for supporting the feet of a seated person footwear n anything worn to cover the feet footwork n the way in which the feet are used, for example in sports or dancing: nimble footwork

fop n a man who is excessively concerned with fashion > foppery n

> foppish adj

for prep

1 directed or belonging to: a bottle of beer for himself

2 to the advantage of: he spelt it out for her

3 in the direction of: he headed for the door

4 over a span of (time or distance): she considered him coolly for a moment

5 in favour of: support for the war

6 in order to get: for a bit of company

7 designed to meet the needs of: the instructions are for right-handed players

8 at a cost of: two dishes for one

9 in place of: she had to substitute for her mother because they woke late

10 because of: dancing for joy

11 regarding the usual characteristics of: unusually warm for the time of year

12 concerning: our idea for the last scene

13 as being: do you take me for an idiot?

14 at (a specified time): multiparty elections are planned for next year

15 to do or take part in: two guests for dinner

16 in the duty or task of: that's for you to decide

17 in relation to; as it affects: it's too hard for me

18 in order to preserve or retain: fighting for survival

19 as a direct equivalent to: word for word

20 in order to become or enter: training for the priesthood

21 in exchange for: the cash was used to pay for food, shelter, and medical supplies

22 for all See all

23 for it (Brit & Austral informal) liable for punishment or blame: you'll be for it if you get caught

► conj

24 (formal) because or seeing that: implausibility cries aloud, and this is a pity, for much of the narrative is entertaining forage (for-ridge) vb -aging, -aged

1 to search for food

2 to obtain (something) by searching about: she foraged for her shoes

► n

3 food for horses or cattle, esp. hay or straw

4 the act of searching for food or provisions foray n

1 a short raid or incursion

◇ SYNONYMS: raid, sally, incursion, inroad, attack, assault, invasion, swoop

2 a first attempt or new undertaking: his first foray into films forbear vb -bearing, -bore, -borne to cease or refrain (from doing something) > forbearance n

forbid vb -bidding, -bade or -bad, -bidden or -bid to prohibit or refuse to allow ◇ SYNONYMS: prohibit, ban, disallow, exclude, rule out, veto, outlaw, preclude forbidding adj severe and threatening in appearance or manner: a very large and forbidding building

◇ SYNONYMS: threatening, severe, frightening, hostile, menacing, sinister, daunting, ominous force n

1 strength or power: the force of the impact had thrown him into the fireplace

◇ SYNONYMS: power, might, pressure, energy, strength, momentum, impulse, vigour

2 exertion or the use of exertion against a person or thing that resists: they used force and repression against those who opposed their policies

◇ SYNONYMS: compulsion, pressure, violence, constraint, oppression, coercion, duress, arm-twisting (informal)

3 (physics) an influence that changes a body from a state of rest to one of motion or changes its rate of motion. SYMBOL: F

4

A intellectual or moral influence: the Superintendent acknowledged the force of the Chief Constable's argument

B a person or thing with such influence: the major force behind the group's success

5 drive or intensity: she reacted with frightening speed and force

◇ SYNONYMS: intensity, vigour, vehemence, fierceness, emphasis

6 a group of people organized for particular duties or tasks: a UN peacekeeping force

◇ SYNONYMS: army, unit, company, host, troop, squad, patrol, regiment

7 in force

A (of a law) having legal validity

◇ SYNONYMS in force: valid, working, current, effective, binding, operative, operational, in operation

B in great strength or numbers

◇ SYNONYMS in force: in great numbers, all together, in full strength

► vb forcing, forced

8 to compel (a person, group, etc.) to do something through effort, superior strength, etc.: forced into an arranged marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: compel, make, drive, press, oblige, constrain, coerce, impel

9 to acquire or produce through effort, superior strength, etc.: I forced a smile

10 to propel or drive despite resistance

◇ SYNONYMS: push, thrust, propel

11 to break down or open (a lock, door, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: break open, blast, wrench, prise, wrest

12 to impose or inflict: a series of opposition strikes forced the appointment of a coalition government

13 to cause (plants or farm animals) to grow at an increased rate forced adj

1 done because of force: forced labour

◇ SYNONYMS: compulsory, enforced, mandatory, obligatory, involuntary, conscripted

2 false or unnatural: forced jollity

◇ SYNONYMS: false, affected, strained, wooden, stiff, artificial, contrived, unnatural

3 due to an emergency: a forced landing forceful adj

1 strong, emphatic, and confident: a forceful speech ◇ SYNONYMS: dynamic, powerful, assertive

2 effective

◇ SYNONYMS: powerful, strong, convincing, effective, compelling, persuasive, cogent > forcefully adv

forceps n, pl -ceps a surgical instrument in the form of a pair of pincers forcible adj

1 involving physical force

2 convincing or effective: a strong shrewd mind and a steady forcible manner > forcibly adv

ford n

1 a shallow area in a river that can be crossed by car, on horseback, etc.

► vb

2 to cross (a river) over a shallow area > fordable adj

fore adj

1 at, in, or towards the front: the fore foot

► n

2 the front part

3 fore and aft located at both ends of a vessel: two double cabins fore and aft
4 to the fore to the front or prominent position

► interj

5 a golfer's shouted warning to a person in the path of a flying ball fore- prefix

1 before in time or rank: foregoing

2 at or near the front: foreground forearm¹ n the part of the arm from the elbow to the wrist forearm² vb to prepare or arm beforehand forebear or forbear n an ancestor foreboding n a strong feeling that something bad is about to happen forecast vb -casting, -cast or -casted

1 to predict or calculate (weather, events, etc.), in advance

◇ SYNONYMS: predict, anticipate, foresee, foretell, divine, prophesy, augur, forewarn

► n

2 a statement predicting the weather

3 a prediction

◇ SYNONYMS: prediction, prognosis, guess, prophecy, conjecture, forewarning > forecaster n

forecastle or fo'c's'le or fo'c'sle (foke-sl) n the raised front part of a ship foreclose vb -closing, -closed (law) to take possession of property bought with borrowed money because repayment has not been made: the banks have been reluctant to foreclose on troubled borrowers > foreclosure n

forecourt n a courtyard in front of a building, such as one in a filling station forefather n an ancestor forefinger n the finger next to the thumb. Also called: index finger forefront n

- 1 the most active or prominent position: at the forefront of medical research ◇ SYNONYMS: lead, centre, front, fore, spearhead, prominence, vanguard, foreground
- 2 the very front

foregather or forgather vb to gather together or assemble forego vb -goes, -going, -went, -gone to precede in time, place, etc.

foregoing adj (esp. of writing or speech) going before; preceding foregone conclusion n an inevitable result foreground n

- 1 the part of a view, esp. in a picture, nearest the viewer
- 2 an important or prominent position forehand (tennis, squash, etc.) adj

- 1 (of a stroke) made so that the racket is held with the wrist facing the direction of play

► n

2 a forehand stroke forehead n the part of the face between the natural hairline and the eyes foreign adj

1 of, located in, or coming from another country, area, or people

◇ SYNONYMS: alien, exotic, unknown, strange, imported, remote, external, unfamiliar

2 dealing or concerned with another country, area, or people: the Foreign Minister

3 not familiar; strange

4 in an abnormal place or position: a foreign body in the food foreigner n

1 a person from a foreign country

◇ SYNONYMS: alien, incomer, immigrant, non-native, stranger, settler

2 an outsider

◇ SYNONYMS: alien, incomer, immigrant, non-native, stranger, settler

foreleg n either of the front legs of an animal forelock n a lock of hair growing or falling over the forehead foreman n, pl -men

1 a person who supervises other workers

2 (law) the leader of a jury foremast n the mast nearest the bow of a ship foremost adj

1 first in time, place, or importance: Germany's foremost conductor

◇ SYNONYMS: leading, best, highest, chief, prime, primary, supreme, most important

► adv

2 first in time, place, or importance forename n first name forenoon n the daylight hours before noon forensic (for-ren-sik) adj used in or connected with a court of law > forensically adv

forensic medicine n the application of medical knowledge for the purposes of the law, such as in determining the cause of death foreplay n sexual stimulation before intercourse forerunner n

1 a person or thing that existed or happened before another and is similar in some way: a forerunner of the surrealist painters

2 a person or thing that is a sign of what will happen in the future foresail n the main sail on the foremast of a ship foresee vb -seeing, -saw, -seen to see or know beforehand

◇ SYNONYMS: predict, forecast, anticipate, envisage, prophesy, foretell > foreseeable adj

foreshadow vb to show, indicate, or suggest in advance foreshore n the part of the shore between high- and low-tide marks foreshorten vb to see or draw (an object) from such an angle that it appears to be shorter than it really is foresight n

1 the ability to anticipate and provide for future needs

2 the front sight on a firearm foreskin n (anatomy) the fold of skin covering the tip of the penis forest n

1 a large wooded area with a thick growth of trees and plants

2 a group of narrow or tall objects standing upright: a forest of waving arms

3 (NZ) an area planted with pines or other trees that are not native to the country > forested adj

forestall vb to delay, stop, or guard against beforehand: an action forestalling any further talks forester n a person skilled in forestry or in charge of a forest forestry n the science or skill of growing and maintaining trees in a forest, esp. to obtain wood foretaste n an early but limited experience of something to come foretell vb -telling, -told (literary) to correctly predict (an event, a result, etc.) beforehand forethought n thoughtful planning for future events: a little forethought can avoid a lot of problems later

for ever or forever adv

1 without end

◇ SYNONYMS: evermore, always, ever, for good, for keeps, for all time, in perpetuity, till the cows come home (informal)

2 at all times

◇ SYNONYMS: constantly, always, all the time, continually, endlessly, persistently, eternally, perpetually

3 (informal) for a long time: I could go on for ever about similar incidents forewarn vb to warn beforehand foreword n an introductory statement to a book forfeit (for-fit) n

1 something lost or given up as a penalty for a fault, mistake, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: penalty, fine, damages, forfeiture, loss, mulct

► vb

2 to lose as a forfeit

◇ SYNONYMS: relinquish, lose, give up, surrender, renounce, be deprived of, say goodbye to, be stripped of

► adj

3 lost as a forfeit > forfeiture n

forge¹ n

1 a place in which metal is worked by heating and hammering; smithy

2 a furnace used for heating metal

► vb forging, forged

3 to shape (metal) by heating and hammering

◇ SYNONYMS: create, make, work, found, form, model, fashion, shape

4 to make a fraudulent imitation of (a signature, money, a painting, etc.)

- ◇ SYNONYMS: fake, copy, reproduce, imitate, counterfeit, feign, falsify
- 5 to create (an alliance, relationship, etc.)
- ◇ SYNONYMS: form, build, create, establish, set up, fashion, shape, frame
- > forgery n forge² vb forging, forged

- 1 to move at a steady pace
- 2 forge ahead to increase speed or progress; take the lead forgery n, pl -geries

- 1 an illegal copy of a painting, banknote, antique, etc.
- 2 the crime of making a fraudulent imitation forget vb -getting, -got, -gotten

- 1 to fail to remember (someone or something once known)
- 2 to neglect, either by mistake or on purpose
- ◇ SYNONYMS: neglect, overlook, omit, not remember, be remiss, fail to remember
- 3 to leave behind by mistake
- ◇ SYNONYMS: leave behind, lose, lose sight of, mislay
- 4 forget oneself to act in an uncharacteristically unrestrained or unacceptable manner: behave yourself or I might forget myself and slap your wrists
- > forgettable adj

forgetful adj

- 1 tending to forget
- 2 forgetful of inattentive to or neglectful of: Fiona, forgetful of the time, was still in bed
- > forgetfully adv
- > forgetfulness n forget-me-not n a low-growing plant with clusters of small blue flowers forgive vb -giving, -gave, -given

1 to stop feeling anger and resentment towards (a person) or at (an action that has caused upset or harm)

◇ SYNONYMS: excuse, pardon, not hold something against, understand, acquit, condone, let off (informal), turn a blind eye to

2 to pardon (a mistake)

3 to free from (a debt) forgiveness n the act of forgiving or the state of being forgiven ◇ SYNONYMS: pardon, mercy, absolution, exoneration, amnesty, acquittal, remission forgo or forego vb -goes, -going, -went, -gone to give up or do without forgot vb

1 the past tense of forget

2 (old-fashioned, or dialect) a past participle of forget forgotten vb a past participle of forget fork n

1 a small tool with long thin prongs on the end of a handle, used for lifting food to the mouth

2 a larger similar-shaped gardening tool, used for lifting or digging

3 forks the part of a bicycle that links the handlebars to the front wheel

4

A (of a road, river, etc.) a division into two or more branches

B the point where the division begins

C such a branch

► vb

5 to pick up, dig, etc., with a fork

6 to be divided into two or more branches

◇ SYNONYMS: branch, part, separate, split, divide, diverge, subdivide, bifurcate

7 to take one or other branch at a fork in a road, etc.

forked adj

1 having a fork or forklike parts

◇ SYNONYMS: branching, split, branched, divided, angled, pronged, zigzag, Y-shaped

2 zigzag: forked lightning

◇ SYNONYMS: branching, split, branched, divided, angled, pronged, zigzag, Y-shaped fork-lift truck n a vehicle with two moveable arms at the front that can be raised and lowered for transporting and unloading goods fork out vb (slang) to pay, esp. with reluctance forlorn adj

1 lonely, unhappy, and uncared-for

2 (of a place) having a deserted appearance

3 desperate and without any expectation of success: a final, apparently forlorn attempt to save the war-torn country

> forlornly adv

forlorn hope n

1 a hopeless enterprise

2 a faint hope form n

1 the shape or appearance of something ◇ SYNONYMS: shape, formation, configuration, structure, pattern, appearance

2 a visible person or animal

3 the particular mode in which a thing or person appears: wood in the form of paper

4 a type or kind: shells were used as a form of currency

◇ SYNONYMS: type, sort, kind, variety, class, style

5 physical or mental condition

◇ SYNONYMS: condition, health, shape, nick (informal), fitness, trim, fettle

6 a printed document, esp. one with spaces in which to fill details or answers

◇ SYNONYMS: document, paper, sheet, questionnaire, application

7 the previous record of a horse, athlete, etc.

8 (Brit slang) a criminal record

9 (education, chiefly Brit & NZ) a group of children who are taught together

◇ SYNONYMS: class, year, set, rank, grade, stream

10 manners and etiquette: it is considered bad form not to wear a tie

◇ SYNONYMS: procedure, etiquette, use, custom, convention, usage, protocol, wont, kawa (NZ), tikanga (NZ)

11 the structure and arrangement of a work of art or piece of writing as distinguished from its content

12 a bench

13 a hare's nest

14 any of the various ways in which a word may be spelt or inflected

► vb

15 to give shape to or take shape, esp. a particular shape ◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, combine, line up, organize, assemble, draw up

16 to come or bring into existence: glaciers dammed the valley bottoms with debris behind which lakes have formed

◇ SYNONYMS: establish, start, launch

17 to make or construct or be made or constructed ◇ SYNONYMS: make, produce, fashion, build, create, shape, construct, forge

18 to train or mould by instruction or example

19 to acquire or develop: they've formed this impression; we formed a bond

◇ SYNONYMS: develop, pick up, acquire, cultivate, contract

20 to be an element of: they had formed part of a special murder unit

◇ SYNONYMS: constitute, make up, compose, comprise formal adj

1 of or following established conventions: formal talks; a formal announcement

◇ SYNONYMS: official, authorized, endorsed, certified, solemn

2 characterized by conventional forms of ceremony and behaviour: a small formal dinner party

◇ SYNONYMS: ceremonial, traditional, solemn, ritualistic, dressy

3 suitable for occasions organized according to conventional ceremony: formal cocktail frocks

4 methodical and organized: a formal approach

5 (of education and training) given officially at a school, college, etc.: he had no formal training in maths

6 symmetrical in form: a formal garden

7 relating to the form or structure of something as distinguished from its substance or content: they addressed the formal elements of the structure of police work

8 (philosophy) logically deductive rather than based on facts and observation > formally adv

formaldehyde (for-mal-de-hide) n a colourless poisonous strong-smelling gas, used as formalin and in synthetic resins. Also: methanal formalin n a solution of formaldehyde in water, used as a disinfectant and as a preservative for biological specimens formality n, pl -ties

1 something done as a requirement of custom or good manners: he dealt with the formalities regarding the cremation

◇ SYNONYMS: convention, procedure, custom, ritual, rite

2 a necessary procedure without real effect: trials were often a mere formality with the verdict decided beforehand

◇ SYNONYMS: convention, procedure, custom, ritual, rite

3 strict observance of ceremony

◇ SYNONYMS: correctness, seriousness, decorum, protocol, etiquette formalize or -ise vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised

1 to make official or valid

2 to give a definite form to > formalization or -isation n

format n

1 the shape, size, and general appearance of a publication

◇ SYNONYMS: arrangement, form, style, make-up, look, plan, design, type

2 style or arrangement, such as of a television programme: a chat-show format

3 (computers) the arrangement of data on disk or magnetic tape to comply with a computer's input device

► vb -matting, -matted

4 to arrange in a specified format formation n

1 the act of having or taking form or existence

◇ SYNONYMS: establishment, founding, forming, setting up, starting, production, generation, manufacture

2 something that is formed

3 the manner in which something is arranged

◇ SYNONYMS: development, shaping, constitution, moulding, genesis

4 an arrangement of people or things acting as a unit, such as a troop of soldiers

◇ SYNONYMS: arrangement, grouping, design, structure, pattern, organization, array, configuration

5 a series of rocks or clouds of a particular structure or shape ◇ SYNONYMS: arrangement, grouping, design, structure, pattern, organization, array, configuration

formative adj

1 of or relating to formation, development, or growth: formative years at school

2 shaping or moulding: the formative influence on his life

former adj

1 belonging to or occurring in an earlier time: a grotesque parody of a former greatness

2 having been at a previous time: the former prime minister

◇ SYNONYMS: previous, one-time, erstwhile, earlier, prior, sometime, foregoing

► n

3 the former the first or first mentioned of two formerly adv in the past

◇ SYNONYMS: previously, earlier, in the past, at one time, before, lately, once

Formica n (trademark) a hard laminated plastic used esp. for heat-resistant surfaces formic acid n an acid derived from ants formidable adj

1 frightening because very difficult to deal with or overcome: the Finnish winter presents formidable problems to drivers

2 extremely impressive: a formidable Juventus squad

◇ SYNONYMS: impressive, great (informal), powerful, tremendous, mighty, terrific, awesome, invincible > formidably adv

formless adj without a definite shape or form formula (form-yew-la) n, pl -las or -lae (-lee)

1 a group of letters, numbers, or other symbols which represents a mathematical or scientific rule

2 a plan or set of rules for doing or producing something: a formula for peace in the Middle East

◇ SYNONYMS: method, plan, policy, rule, principle, procedure, recipe, blueprint 3 an established form of words, as used in religious ceremonies, legal proceedings, etc.

4 a powder used to make a milky drink for babies

5 (motor racing) the category in which a car competes, judged according to various criteria including engine size > formulaic adj

formulate vb -lating, -lated

1 to express in a formula

◇ SYNONYMS: express, detail, frame, define, specify, articulate, set down, put into words

2 to plan or describe precisely and clearly: formulate a regional energy strategy

◇ SYNONYMS: devise, plan, develop, prepare, work out, invent, forge, draw up > formulation n fornicate vb -cating, -cated to have sexual intercourse without being married > fornicator n fornication n voluntary sexual intercourse outside marriage forsake vb -saking, -sook, -saken

1 to withdraw support or friendship from 2 to give up (something valued or enjoyed) forsooth adv (old-fashioned) in truth or indeed forswear vb -swearing, -swore, -sworn

1 to reject or renounce with determination

2 to testify falsely in a court of law forsythia (for-syth-ee-a) n a shrub with yellow flowers which appear in spring before the leaves fort n

1 a fortified building or position

◇ SYNONYMS: fortress, keep, camp, tower, castle, garrison, stronghold, citadel, fortified pa (NZ)

2 hold the fort (informal) to keep things in operation during someone's absence

◇ SYNONYMS hold the fort: take responsibility, cover, stand in, carry on, take over the reins, deputize, keep things on an even keel forte¹ (for-tay) n something at which a person excels: cooking is his forte

◇ SYNONYMS: speciality, strength, talent, strong point, métier, long suit (informal), gift forte² adv (music) loudly forth adv

1 (formal, or old-fashioned) forward, out, or away: running back and forth across the street; Christopher Columbus set forth on his epic voyage of discovery

◇ SYNONYMS: out

2 and so forth and so on forthcoming adj

1 about to appear or happen: the forthcoming elections

◇ SYNONYMS: approaching, coming, expected, future, imminent, prospective, impending, upcoming

2 given or made available

◇ SYNONYMS: available, ready, accessible, at hand, in evidence, obtainable, on tap (informal)

3 (of a person) willing to give information

◇ SYNONYMS: communicative, open, free, informative, expansive, sociable, chatty, talkative forthright adj direct and outspoken forthwith adv at once fortification n

1 the act of fortifying

2 fortifications walls, mounds, etc., used to strengthen the defences of a place fortify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to make (a place) defensible, such as by building walls

◇ SYNONYMS: protect, defend, strengthen, reinforce, support, shore up, augment, buttress

2 to strengthen physically, mentally, or morally: the news fortified their resolve to succeed

3 to increase the nutritious value of (a food), such as by adding vitamins fortissimo adv (music) very loudly fortitude n calm and patient courage in trouble or pain

◇ SYNONYMS: courage, strength, resolution, grit, bravery, backbone, perseverance, valour fortnight n a period of 14 consecutive days fortnightly (chiefly Brit) adj

1 occurring or appearing once each fortnight

► adv

2 once a fortnight fortress n a large fort or fortified town

◇ SYNONYMS: castle, fort, stronghold, citadel, redoubt, fastness, fortified place (NZ) fortuitous (for-tyew-it-uss) adj happening by chance, esp. by a lucky chance > fortuitously adv

fortunate adj

1 having good luck

◇ SYNONYMS: lucky, favoured, jammy (Brit slang), in luck

2 occurring by good luck

◇ SYNONYMS: providential, fortuitous, felicitous, timely, helpful, convenient, favourable, advantageous > fortunately adv

fortune n

1 a very large sum of money

2 luck, esp. when favourable

◇ SYNONYMS: luck, fluke (informal), stroke of luck, serendipity, twist of fate, run of luck

3 (often pl) a person's destiny

◇ SYNONYMS: destiny, lot, experiences, history, condition, success, means, adventures

4 a power regarded as being responsible for human affairs

◇ SYNONYMS: chance, fate, destiny, providence, the stars, Lady Luck, kismet

5 wealth or material prosperity

◇ SYNONYMS: wealth, means, property, riches, resources, assets, possessions, treasure fortune-teller n a person who claims to predict events in other people's lives forty n, pl -ties

1 the cardinal number that is the product of ten and four

2 a numeral, 40 or XL, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of 40 units

► adj

4 amounting to forty: forty pages > fortieth adj, n

forum n

1 a meeting or medium for the open discussion of subjects of public interest

2 (in ancient Roman cities) an open space serving as a marketplace and centre of public business

3 (in South Africa) a pressure group of leaders and representatives forward adj

1 directed or moving ahead

2 at, in, or near the front

◇ SYNONYMS: leading, first, head, front, advance, foremost

3 overfamiliar or disrespectful

◇ SYNONYMS: presumptuous, familiar, bold, cheeky, brash, pushy (informal), brazen, shameless

4 well developed or advanced

◇ SYNONYMS: future, advanced, premature, prospective

5 of or relating to the future or favouring change

► n

6 an attacking player in any of various sports, such as soccer

► adv

7 same as forwards

► vb

8 to send (a letter, etc.) on to an ultimate destination

◇ SYNONYMS: send on, send, post, pass on, dispatch, redirect

9 to advance or promote: the veneer of street credibility he had used to forward his career

◇ SYNONYMS: further, advance, promote, assist, hurry, hasten, expedite forwards or forward adv

1 towards or at a place ahead or in advance, esp. in space but also in time

◇ SYNONYMS: forth (formal, old-fashioned), on, ahead, onwards

2 towards the front fossick vb (Austral & NZ)

1 to search for gold or precious stones in abandoned workings, rivers, etc.

2 to search for, through, or in something; to forage ◇ SYNONYMS: search, hunt, explore, ferret, check, forage, rummage fossil n

1 remains of a plant or animal that existed in a past geological age, occurring in the form of mineralized bones, shells, etc.

► adj

2 of, like, or being a fossil fossilize or -ise vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised

1 to convert or be converted into a fossil

2 to become out-of-date or inflexible: fossilized political attitudes

foster adj

1 of or involved in the bringing up of a child not one's own: foster care

► vb

2 to bring up (a child not one's own)

◇ SYNONYMS: bring up, raise, parent, nurse, look after, rear, care for, take care of

3 to promote the growth or development of: Catherine fostered knowledge and patronized the arts

◇ SYNONYMS: develop, support, further, encourage, feed, promote, stimulate, uphold > fostering n fought vb the past of fight foul adj

1 offensive or loathsome: a foul deed

◇ SYNONYMS: offensive, bad, wrong, evil, corrupt, disgraceful, shameful, immoral

2 stinking or dirty

◇ SYNONYMS: dirty, unpleasant, stinking, filthy, grubby, repellent, squalid, repulsive, festy (Austral slang), yucko (Austral slang)

3 full of dirt or offensive matter

◇ SYNONYMS: dirty, unpleasant, stinking, filthy, grubby, repellent, squalid, repulsive, festy (Austral slang), yucko (Austral slang)

4 (of language) obscene or vulgar

◇ SYNONYMS: obscene, crude, indecent, blue, abusive, coarse, vulgar, lewd

5 unfair: by fair or foul means

◇ SYNONYMS: unfair, illegal, crooked (informal), shady (informal), fraudulent, dishonest, unscrupulous, underhand

6 (of weather) unpleasant

7 very bad-tempered and irritable: he was in a foul mood

8 (informal) disgustingly bad

► n

9 (sport) a violation of the rules

► vb

10 to make dirty or polluted

◇ SYNONYMS: dirty, stain, contaminate, pollute, taint, sully, defile, besmirch

11 to make or become entangled

12 to make or become clogged

13 (sport) to commit a foul against (an opponent)

► adv

14 fall foul of to come into conflict with foul-mouthed adj habitually using swearwords and bad language foul play n

1 violent activity, esp. murder

2 a violation of the rules in a game found¹ vb the past of find found² vb

1 to bring into being or establish (something, such as an institution)

◇ SYNONYMS: establish, start, set up, begin, create, institute, organize, constitute

2 to lay the foundation of

◇ SYNONYMS: establish, start, set up, begin, create, institute, organize, constitute

3 founded on to have a basis in: a political system founded on fear

> founder n

> founding adj

found³ vb

1 to cast (metal or glass) by melting and pouring into a mould

2 to make (articles) in this way

> founder n

foundation n

1 the basic experience, idea, or attitude on which a way of life or belief is based: respect for the law is the foundation of commercial society

◇ SYNONYMS: basis

2 a construction below the ground that distributes the load of a building, wall, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: substructure, underpinning, groundwork, bedrock, base, footing, bottom

3 the base on which something stands

◇ SYNONYMS: substructure, underpinning, groundwork, bedrock, base, footing, bottom

4 the act of founding

◇ SYNONYMS: setting up, institution, instituting, organization, settlement, establishment, initiating, originating

5 an endowment for the support of an institution, such as a college

6 an institution supported by an endowment

7 a cosmetic used as a base for make-up founder vb

1 to break down or fail: his negotiations have foundered on economic grounds

◇ SYNONYMS: fail, collapse, break down, fall through, be unsuccessful, come unstuck, miscarry, misfire

2 (of a ship) to sink

◇ SYNONYMS: sink, go down, be lost, submerge, capsize, go to the bottom

3 to sink into or become stuck in soft ground

4 (of a horse) to stumble or go lame foundling n (chiefly Brit) an abandoned baby whose parents are not known foundry n, pl -ries a place where metal is melted and cast fount¹ n

1 (poetic) a spring or fountain

2 a source or supply: a fount of knowledge fount² n (printing, chiefly Brit) same as font fountain n

1 an ornamental feature in a pool or lake consisting of a jet of water forced into the air by a pump

◇ SYNONYMS: font, spring, reservoir, spout, fount, water feature, well

2 a jet or spray of water

◇ SYNONYMS: jet, stream, spray, gush

3 a natural spring of water

◇ SYNONYMS: font, spring, reservoir, spout, fount, water feature, well

4 a cascade of sparks, lava, etc.

fountainhead n a principal or original source fountain pen n a pen supplied with ink from a container inside it four n

1 the cardinal number that is the sum of one and three

2 a numeral, 4 or IV, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of four units

4 (cricket) a score of four runs, obtained by hitting the ball so that it crosses the boundary after hitting the ground

5 (rowing)

A a rowing boat propelled by four oarsmen

B the crew of such a rowing boat

► adj

6 amounting to four: four zones four-letter word n any of several short English words referring to sex or excrement: regarded generally as offensive or obscene four-poster n a bed with posts at each corner supporting a canopy and curtains foursome n

1 a group of four people

2 (golf) a game between two pairs of players fourteen n

1 the cardinal number that is the sum of ten and four

2 a numeral, 14 or XIV, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of 14 units

► adj

4 amounting to fourteen: fourteen points > fourteenth adj, n

fourth adj

1 of or being number four in a series

2 denoting the fourth from lowest forward gear in a motor vehicle

► n

3 the fourth from lowest forward gear in a motor vehicle fourth dimension n

1 the dimension of time, which in addition to three spatial dimensions specifies the position of a point or particle

2 the concept in science fiction of an extra dimension > fourth-dimensional adj fourth estate n the press fowl n

1 a domesticated bird such as a hen

2 any other bird that is used as food or hunted as game

◇ SYNONYMS: poultry

3 the meat of fowl

◇ SYNONYMS: poultry

4 (old-fashioned) a bird

► vb

5 to hunt or snare wild birds fox n, pl foxes or fox

1 a doglike wild animal with a pointed muzzle and a bushy tail

2 its reddish-brown or grey fur

3 a person who is cunning and sly

► vb

4 (informal) to confuse or puzzle foxglove n a tall plant with purple or white flowers foxhole n (military) a small pit dug to provide shelter against enemy fire foxhound n a breed of short-haired terrier, originally kept for hunting foxes foxtrot n

1 a ballroom dance with slow and quick steps

2 music for this

► vb -trotting, -trotted

3 to perform this dance foxy adj foxier, foxiest

1 of or resembling a fox, esp. in craftiness

2 reddish-brown

> foxily adv

> foxiness n foyer (foy-ay) n an entrance hall in a hotel, theatre, or cinema

◇ SYNONYMS: entrance hall, lobby, reception area, vestibule, anteroom, antechamber fracas (frak-ah) n a noisy quarrel or fight fracking n a method of extracting oil or gas from rock by forcing liquid at high pressure into the rock fraction n

1 (maths) a numerical quantity that is not a whole number

2 any part or subdivision

◇ SYNONYMS: fragment, part, piece, section, sector, segment

3 a very small proportion or amount of something

4 (chem) a component of a mixture separated by distillation > fractional adj

> fractionally adv

fractious adj (esp. of children) easily upset and angered, often due to tiredness fracture n

1 breaking, esp. the breaking or cracking of a bone

◇ SYNONYMS: break, split, crack

► vb -turing, -tured

2 to break

◇ SYNONYMS: break, crack > fractural adj

fragile adj

1 able to be broken or damaged easily

◇ SYNONYMS: unstable, weak, vulnerable, delicate, uncertain, insecure, precarious, flimsy

2 in a weakened physical state: you're looking a bit fragile this morning

◇ SYNONYMS: unwell, poorly (informal), weak, delicate, crook (Austral & NZ informal), shaky, frail, feeble, sickly > fragility n

fragment n

1 a piece broken off

◇ SYNONYMS: piece, bit, scrap, particle, portion, shred, speck, sliver

2 an incomplete piece: fragments of information

◇ SYNONYMS: piece, bit, scrap, particle, portion, shred, speck, sliver

► vb

3 to break into small pieces or different parts

◇ SYNONYMS: break, shatter, crumble, disintegrate, splinter, come apart, break into pieces, come to pieces > fragmentation n

fragmentary adj made up of small or unconnected pieces: fragmentary evidence to support his theory fragrance n

1 a pleasant smell

◇ SYNONYMS: scent, smell, perfume, bouquet, aroma, sweet smell, sweet odour, redolence

2 a perfume or scent

◇ SYNONYMS: perfume, scent, cologne, eau de toilette, eau de Cologne, toilet water, Cologne water fragrant adj having a pleasant smell

◇ SYNONYMS: aromatic, perfumed, balmy, redolent, sweet-smelling, sweet-scented, odorous frail adj

1 physically weak and delicate

◇ SYNONYMS: feeble, weak, puny, infirm

2 easily damaged: the frail aircraft

◇ SYNONYMS: flimsy, weak, vulnerable, delicate, fragile, insubstantial

3 easily tempted frailty n

1 physical or moral weakness

2 pl -ties an inadequacy or fault resulting from moral weakness frame n

1 an open structure that gives shape and support to something, such as a building

2 an enclosing case or border into which something is fitted: the window frame

◇ SYNONYMS: casing, framework, structure, shell, construction, skeleton, chassis

3 the system around which something is built up: caught up in the frame of the revolution

4 the structure of the human body

◇ SYNONYMS: physique, build, form, body, figure, anatomy, carcass

5 one of a series of exposures on film used in making motion pictures

6 a television picture scanned by electron beams at a particular frequency

7 (snooker)

A a single game in a match

B a wooden triangle used to arrange the red balls in formation before the start of a game

8 (slang) a frame-up

9 frame of mind a state of mind: in a complacent frame of mind

◇ SYNONYMS frame of mind: mood, state, attitude, humour, temper, outlook, disposition, mind-set

► vb framing, framed

10 to construct by fitting parts together

11 to create and develop (plans or a policy)

◇ SYNONYMS: devise, draft, compose, sketch, put together, draw up, formulate, map out

12 to construct (a statement) in a particular kind of language

13 to provide or enclose with a frame

◇ SYNONYMS: mount, case, enclose

14 (slang) to conspire to incriminate (someone) on a false charge frame-up n (slang) a conspiracy to incriminate someone on a false charge framework n

1 a particular set of beliefs, ideas, or rules referred to in order to solve a problem: a moral framework

◇ SYNONYMS: system, plan, order, scheme, arrangement, the bare bones

2 a structure supporting something

◇ SYNONYMS: structure, body, frame, foundation, shell, skeleton franc n the standard monetary unit of Switzerland, various African countries, and formerly of France and Belgium franchise n

1 the right to vote, esp. for a member of parliament

2 any exemption, privilege, or right granted by a public authority

3

A (commerce) authorization granted by a manufacturing or entertainment enterprise to market its products

B an organization that receives such an authorization

4 a series of films, video games, etc that has a strong identity and lends itself to merchandising

► vb -chising, -chised

5 (commerce, chiefly US & Canad) to grant (a person, firm, etc.) a franchise

Franciscan n

1 a member of a Christian religious order of friars or nuns founded by Saint Francis of Assisi

► adj

2 of this order

francium n (chem) an unstable radioactive element of the alkali-metal group.

SYMBOL: Fr

Franco- combining form indicating France or French: the Franco-Prussian war frangipani (fran-jee-pah-nee) n

1 an Australian evergreen tree with large yellow fragrant flowers

2 a tropical shrub with fragrant white or pink flowers frank adj

1 honest and straightforward in speech or attitude

◇ SYNONYMS: candid, open, direct, straightforward, blunt, sincere, outspoken, honest

► vb

2 to put a mark on (a letter), ensuring free carriage

► n

3 an official mark stamped to a letter ensuring free delivery > frankly adv

> frankness n

frankfurter n a smoked sausage of pork or beef frankincense n an aromatic gum resin burnt as incense frantic adj

1 distracted with fear, pain, joy, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: frenzied, wild, furious, distracted, distraught, berserk, at the end of your tether, beside yourself, berko (Austral slang)

2 hurried and disorganized: frantic activity

◇ SYNONYMS: hectic, desperate, frenzied, fraught (informal), frenetic > frantically adv

fraternal adj

1 of a brother; brotherly

2 designating twins that developed from two separate fertilized ova > fraternally adv

fraternity n, pl -ties

1 a body of people united in interests, aims, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: brotherhood, club, union, society, league, association

2 friendship between groups of people

◇ SYNONYMS: companionship, fellowship, brotherhood, kinship, camaraderie

3 (US & Canad) a society of male students fraternize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised to associate on friendly terms: fraternizing with the customers is off-limits

> fraternization or -nisation n fratricide n

1 the act of killing one's brother

2 a person who kills his or her brother > fratricidal adj

Frau (rhymes with how) n, pl Frauen or Fraus a German form of address equivalent to Mrs or Ms

fraud n

1 deliberate deception or cheating intended to gain an advantage

◇ SYNONYMS: deception, deceit, treachery, swindling, trickery, duplicity, double-dealing, chicanery

2 an act of such deception

◇ SYNONYMS: scam, deception (slang)

3 (informal) a person who acts in a false or deceitful way

◇ SYNONYMS: impostor, fake, hoaxer, pretender, charlatan, fraudster, swindler, phoney or phony (informal) fraudulent adj

1 acting with intent to deceive

◇ SYNONYMS: deceitful, crooked (informal), untrue, sham, treacherous, dishonest, swindling, double-dealing

2 proceeding from fraud: fraudulent income

◇ SYNONYMS: deceitful, crooked (informal), untrue, sham, treacherous, dishonest, swindling, double-dealing > fraudulence n fraught (frawt) adj

1 fraught with involving or filled with: we expected the trip to be fraught with difficulties

2 tense or anxious

Fräulein (froy-line) n, pl -lein or -leins a German form of address equivalent to Miss

fray¹ n

1 (Brit & Austral & NZ) a noisy quarrel or brawl

2 the fray any challenging conflict: at the last minute a rival bidder entered the fray

fray² vb

1 to wear away into loose threads, esp. at an edge

◇ SYNONYMS: wear thin, wear, rub, wear out, chafe

2 to make or become strained or irritated frazzle n (informal) the state of being exhausted: worn to a frazzle

freak n

1 a person, animal, or plant that is abnormal or deformed

2 an object, event, etc., that is abnormal: a statistical freak

3 (informal) a person whose appearance or behaviour is very unusual

◇ SYNONYMS: eccentric, character (informal), oddball (informal), nonconformist

4 (informal) a person who is very enthusiastic about something specified: a health freak

◇ SYNONYMS: enthusiast, fan, nut (slang), addict, buff (informal), fanatic, devotee, fiend (informal)

► adj

5 abnormal or unusual: a freak accident

◇ SYNONYMS: abnormal, chance, unusual, exceptional, unparalleled > freakish adj

> freaky adj

freak out vb (informal) to be or cause to be in a heightened emotional state freckle n

1 a small brownish spot on the skin

► vb -ling, -led

2 to mark or become marked with freckles > freckled adj

free adj freer, freest

1 able to act at will; not under compulsion or restraint ◇ SYNONYMS: allowed, permitted, unrestricted, unimpeded, clear, able

2 not enslaved or confined

◇ SYNONYMS: at liberty, loose, liberated, at large, on the loose

3 (of a country) independent

4 (of a translation) not exact or literal

5 provided without charge: free school meals

◇ SYNONYMS: complimentary, for free (informal), for nothing, unpaid, for love, free of charge, on the house, without charge, open or open source (computers)

6 not occupied or in use; available: is this seat free?

◇ SYNONYMS: available, empty, spare, vacant, unused, unoccupied, untaken

7 (of a person) not busy

8 open or available to all

9 not fixed or joined; loose: the free end

10 without obstruction or blockage: the free flow of capital

11 (chem) chemically uncombined: free nitrogen

12 free and easy casual or tolerant

13 free from not subject to: free from surveillance

14 free with using or giving (something) a lot: he was free with his tongue

15 make free with to behave too familiarly towards

► adv

16 in a free manner

17 without charge or cost

► vb freeing, freed

18 to release or liberate

◇ SYNONYMS: clear, disengage, cut loose, release, rescue, extricate

19 to remove obstructions or impediments from ◇ SYNONYMS: disentangle, extricate, disengage, loose, unravel, disconnect, untangle

20 to make available or usable: capital freed by the local authority

21 free of or from to relieve or rid of (obstacles, pain, etc.)

> freely adv

-free combining form free from: duty-free; gluten-free

Freecycle n (trademark)

1 a network of citizens who promote recycling online by offering one another unwanted items free of charge

► vb freecycle

2 to recycle (an unwanted item) by offering it free of charge freedom n

1 the state of being free, esp. to enjoy political and civil liberties

2 exemption or immunity: freedom from government control

3 liberation, such as from slavery

◇ SYNONYMS: liberty, release, discharge, emancipation, deliverance

4 the right or privilege of unrestricted access: freedom of the skies

5 self-government or independence

◇ SYNONYMS: independence, democracy, sovereignty, self-determination, emancipation, autarchy, rangatiratanga (NZ)

6 the power to order one's own actions

◇ SYNONYMS: licence, latitude, free rein, opportunity, discretion, carte blanche, blank cheque

7 ease or frankness of manner free fall n

- 1 the part of a parachute descent before the parachute opens
- 2 free descent of a body in which gravity is the only force acting on it free-for-all n (informal) a disorganized brawl or argument involving all those present free hand n

- 1 unrestricted freedom to act: the president must be able to deal with foreign hostilities with a free hand
- ▶ adj, adv freehand
- 2 (done) by hand without the use of guiding instruments freehold (property law) n

- 1 tenure of property for life without restrictions
- ▶ adj
- 2 of or held by freehold
- > freeholder n

free house n (Brit) a public house not bound to sell only one brewer's products freelance n

- 1 a self-employed person doing specific pieces of work for various employers
- ▶ vb -lancing, -lanced
- 2 to work as a freelance
- ▶ adj, adv
- 3 of or as a freelance freeloader n (slang) a person who habitually depends on others for food, accommodation, etc.

Freemason n Also called Mason a member of a widespread secret order whose members are pledged to help each other > Freemasonry n

free-range adj kept or produced in natural conditions: free-range eggs

freesia n a plant with fragrant tubular flowers

Freeview n (trademark) (in Britain) a free service providing digital terrestrial television freeway n (US & Austral) a motorway

◇ SYNONYMS: motorway (Brit), autobahn (German), autoroute (French), autostrada (Italian)

freewheel vb

1 to travel downhill on a bicycle without pedalling

► n

2 a device in the rear hub of a bicycle wheel that permits it to rotate freely while the pedals are stationary freeze vb freezing, froze, frozen

1 to change from a liquid to a solid by the reduction of temperature, such as water to ice

◇ SYNONYMS: ice over or up, harden, stiffen, solidify, become solid

2 to preserve (food) by subjection to extreme cold

3 to cover or become covered with ice

4 to fix fast or become fixed (to something) because of frost

5 to feel or cause to feel the effects of extreme cold

◇ SYNONYMS: chill

6 to die of extreme cold

7 to become motionless through fear, shock, etc.

8 to cause (moving film) to stop at a particular frame

9 to fix (prices, incomes, etc.) at a particular level

◇ SYNONYMS: fix, hold, limit, hold up

10 to forbid by law the exchange or collection of (loans, assets, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: suspend, stop, shelve, curb, cut short, discontinue

► n

11 the act of freezing or state of being frozen

12 (meteorol) a spell of temperatures below freezing point

13 the fixing of incomes, prices, etc. by legislation freeze-dry vb -dries, -drying, -dried to preserve (food) by rapid freezing and drying in a vacuum freezer n an insulated cabinet for cold-storage of perishable foods freezing adj (informal) very cold ◇ SYNONYMS: icy, biting, bitter, raw, chill, arctic (informal), frosty, glacial freight (frate) n

1

A commercial transport of goods

◇ SYNONYMS: transportation, traffic, delivery, carriage, shipment, haulage, conveyance, transport

B the cargo transported

C the cost of this

2 (chiefly Brit) a ship's cargo or part of it

◇ SYNONYMS: cargo, goods, load, delivery, burden, shipment, merchandise, consignment

► vb

3 to transport (goods) by freight

4 to load with goods for transport freighter n a ship or aircraft designed for transporting cargo

French adj

1 of France

◇ SYNONYMS: Gallic

► n

2 the official language of France and an official language of Switzerland, Belgium, Canada, and certain other countries

► pl n

3 the French the people of France

French bread n white bread in a long thin crusty loaf

French dressing n a salad dressing made from oil and vinegar with seasonings

French fries pl n (chiefly US & Canad) potato chips

French horn n (music) a valved brass wind instrument with a coiled tube

French letter n (Brit & NZ slang) a condom

French polish n a shellac varnish for wood, giving a high gloss frenetic (frin-net-ik) adj wild, excited, and uncontrolled > frenetically adv

frenzy n, pl -zies

1 violent or wild and uncontrollable behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: fury, passion, rage, seizure, hysteria, paroxysm

2 excited or agitated activity: a frenzy of speculation > frenzied adj

frequency n, pl -cies

- 1 the number of times that an event occurs within a given period
- 2 the state of being frequent
- 3 (physics) the number of times a wave repeats itself in a given time frequent adj

- 1 happening often
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: common, repeated, usual, familiar, everyday, persistent, customary, recurrent
- 2 habitual
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: common, repeated, usual, familiar, everyday, persistent, customary, recurrent
- ▶ vb
- 3 to visit often: a spa town frequented by the Prussian nobility
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: visit, attend, haunt, be found at, patronize, hang out at (informal), visit often, go to regularly
- > frequently adv

fresco n, pl -coes or -cos

- 1 a method of wall-painting using watercolours on wet plaster
- 2 a painting done in this way

fresh adj

- 1 newly made, acquired, etc.
- 2 not thought of before; novel: fresh ideas
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: new, original, novel, different, recent, modern, up-to-date, unorthodox
- 3 most recent: fresh allegations
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: new, original, novel, different, recent, modern, up-to-date, unorthodox
- 4 further or additional: a fresh supply
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: additional, more, new, other, added, further, extra, supplementary
- 5 (of food) not canned or frozen
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: natural, unprocessed, unpreserved
- 6 (of water) not salty

7 bright and clear: a fresh morning

8 (of a wind) cold and fairly strong

◇ SYNONYMS: cool, cold, refreshing, brisk, chilly, nippy

9 not tired; alert

◇ SYNONYMS: lively, keen, alert, refreshed, vigorous, energetic, sprightly, spry

10 not worn or faded: the fresh colours of spring

11 having a healthy or ruddy appearance

12 having recently come (from somewhere): cakes fresh from the oven

13 youthful or inexperienced

14 (informal) overfamiliar or disrespectful

◇ SYNONYMS: cheeky (informal), impertinent, forward, familiar, audacious, disrespectful, presumptuous, insolent

► adv

15 recently: a delicious fresh-baked cake > freshly adv

> freshness n

freshen vb

1 to make or become fresh or fresher

2 (of the wind) to become stronger

3 freshen up to wash and tidy up one's appearance: I'll go and freshen up fresher or freshman n, pl -ers or -men (Brit & US) a first-year student at college or university fret¹ vb fretting, fretted

1 to worry: he would fret about the smallest of problems

◇ SYNONYMS: worry, brood, agonize, obsess, lose sleep, upset yourself, distress yourself

2 to rub or wear away

3 to feel or give annoyance

► n

4 a state of irritation or anxiety fret³ n a small metal bar set across the fingerboard of a musical instrument, such as a guitar, as a guide to fingering fretful adj irritable or upset > fretfully adv

fret saw n a fine-toothed saw with a long thin narrow blade, used for cutting designs in thin wood or metal fretwork n decorative geometrical carving in wood

Freudian (froy-dee-an) adj of or relating to Sigmund Freud (1856–1939), Austrian psychiatrist, or his ideas > Freudianism n

friable (fry-a-bl) adj easily broken up > friability n

friar n a member of a male Roman Catholic religious order friary n, pl -aries a house of friars fricassee n stewed meat, esp. chicken or veal, served in a thick white sauce friction n

1 a resistance encountered when one body moves relative to another body with which it is in contact

◇ SYNONYMS: resistance, rubbing, scraping, grating, rasping, chafing, abrasion

2 the act of rubbing one object against another

3 disagreement or conflict

◇ SYNONYMS: conflict, hostility, resentment, disagreement, animosity, discord, bad blood, dissension > frictional adj

Friday n the sixth day of the week fridge n a cabinet for keeping food and drink cool. In full: refrigerator fried vb the past of fry friend n

1 a person known well to another and regarded with liking, affection, and loyalty

◇ SYNONYMS: companion, pal (informal), mate (informal), buddy (informal), best friend, close friend, comrade, chum (informal), blood (Brit slang), cobber (Austral & NZ), cuzzie or cuzzie-bro (NZ), E hoa (NZ old-fashioned, informal)

2 an ally in a fight or cause

◇ SYNONYMS: supporter, ally, associate, sponsor, patron, well-wisher

3 a patron or supporter: our cause has many influential friends throughout Europe

◇ SYNONYMS: supporter, ally, associate, sponsor, patron, well-wisher

4 make friends (with) to become friendly (with)

► vb

5 to add (a person) as a contact on a social networking site > friendless adj

> friendship n

Friend n a member of the Society of Friends; Quaker friendly adj -lier, -liest

1 showing or expressing liking, goodwill, or trust

◇ SYNONYMS: amiable, welcoming, warm, neighbourly, pally (informal), helpful, sympathetic, affectionate

2 on the same side; not hostile

3 tending to help or support

► n, pl -lies

4 (sport) a match played for its own sake and not as part of a competition > friendliness n

-friendly combining form helpful, easy, or good for the person or thing specified: a user-friendly computer system; the development of an environment-friendly weedkiller friendly society n (Brit) an association of people who pay regular dues in return for old-age pensions, sickness benefits, etc.

Friesian (free-zhan) n any of several breeds of black-and-white dairy cattle frieze (freeze) n

1 a sculptured or decorated band on a wall

2 (archit) the horizontal band between the architrave and cornice of a classical temple frigate (frig-it) n

1 a fast warship, smaller than a destroyer

2 a medium-sized warship of the 18th and 19th centuries fright n

1 sudden fear or alarm

◇ SYNONYMS: fear, shock, alarm, horror, panic, dread, consternation, trepidation (formal)

2 a sudden alarming shock

◇ SYNONYMS: scare, start, turn (informal), surprise, shock, jolt, the creeps (informal), the willies (slang)

3 (informal) a very strange or unattractive person or thing frighten vb

1 to terrify or scare

◇ SYNONYMS: scare, shock, alarm, terrify, startle, intimidate, unnerve, petrify

2 to force (someone) to do something from fear > frightening adj

frightful adj

1 very alarming or horrifying

2 annoying or disagreeable: a frightful pair of socks

3 (informal) extreme: a frightful mess > frightfully adv

frigid (frij-id) adj

1 (esp. of a woman) lacking sexual responsiveness

2 very cold: the frigid air

3 formal or stiff in behaviour or temperament > frigidity n

frill n

1 a long narrow strip of fabric with many folds in it, attached at one edge of something as a decoration

2 an unnecessary part of something added to make it more attractive or interesting: no fuss, no frills, just a purity of sound and clarity of vision

> frilly or frilled adj frilled lizard n a large tree-living Australian lizard with an erectile fold of skin around the neck fringe n

1 (chiefly Brit) hair cut short and hanging over the forehead

2 an ornamental edge of hanging threads, tassels, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: border, edging, edge, trimming, hem, frill, flounce

3 an outer edge: London's southern fringe

◇ SYNONYMS: edge, limits, border, margin, outskirts, perimeter, periphery, borderline

4 the minor and less important parts of an activity or organization: two agents on the fringes of espionage activity

5 a small group of people within a larger body, but differing from it in certain aims and ideas: the radical fringe of the Green Party

► adj

6 (of theatre) unofficial or unconventional

◇ SYNONYMS: unofficial, alternative, radical, innovative, avant-garde, unconventional, unorthodox

► vb fringing, fringed

7 to form a border for: sandy paths fringing the water's edge

8 to decorate with a fringe: tinsel fringed the desk fringe benefit n a benefit given in addition to a regular salary or wage fringed adj

1 (of clothes, curtains, etc.) decorated with a fringe

2 fringed with or by bordered with or by: a field fringed with trees

frippery n, pl -peries

1 showy but useless ornamentation

2 unimportant or trivial matters frisk vb

1 to leap, move about, or act in a playful manner

2 (informal) to search (someone) by feeling for concealed weapons, etc.

► n

3 a playful movement

4 (informal) an instance of frisking a person frisky adj friskier, friskiest lively, high-spirited, or playful > friskily adv

frisson (freess-on) n a short sudden feeling of fear or excitement fritter n a piece of food, such as apple, that is dipped in batter and fried in deep fat fritter away vb to waste: he did not fritter away his energy on trivialities

frivolous adj

1 not serious or sensible in content, attitude, or behaviour

2 unworthy of serious or sensible treatment: frivolous distractions > frivolity n

frizz vb

1 (of hair) to form or cause (hair) to form tight curls

► n

2 hair that has been frizzed > frizzy adj

frock n (old-fashioned)

1 a dress

2 a loose garment, formerly worn by peasants frock coat n a man's skirted coat, as worn in the 19th century frog n

1 a smooth-skinned tailless amphibian with long back legs used for jumping

2 a frog in one's throat phlegm on the vocal cords, hindering speech frogman n, pl -men a swimmer equipped with a rubber suit, flippers, and breathing equipment for working underwater frogspawn n a jelly-like substance containing a frog's eggs frolic vb -icking, -icked

1 to run and play in a lively way

► n

2 lively and merry behaviour

3 a light-hearted occasion frolicsome adj merry and playful from prep

1 indicating the original location, situation, etc.: from America

2 in a period of time starting at: from 1950 to the current year

3 indicating the distance between two things or places: 60 miles from the Iraqi border

4 indicating a lower amount: from 5 to 6

5 showing the model of: drawn from life

6 used with a verbal noun to denote prohibition, etc.: she was banned from smoking at meetings

7 because of: five hundred horses collapsed from exhaustion frond n

1 the compound leaf of a fern

2 the leaf of a palm front n

1 that part or side that is forward, or most often seen or used

◇ SYNONYMS: foreground, fore, forefront, nearest part

2 a position or place directly before or ahead

◇ SYNONYMS: exterior, face, façade, frontage

3 the beginning, opening, or first part

◇ SYNONYMS: head, start, lead, forefront

4 the position of leadership

5 a promenade at a seaside resort

6 (military)

A the total area in which opposing armies face each other

◇ SYNONYMS: front line, trenches, vanguard, firing line

B the space in which a military unit is operating 7 (meteorol) the dividing line between two different air masses

8 an outward appearance: he put on a bold front

9 (informal) a business or other activity serving as a respectable cover for another, usually criminal, organization

◇ SYNONYMS: disguise, cover, blind, mask, cover-up, cloak, façade, pretext

10 Also called: front man, front woman a nominal leader of an organization

11 a particular field of activity: on the economic front

12 a group of people with a common goal: the National Liberation Front

► adj

13 of, at, or in the front

◇ SYNONYMS: foremost, at the front

► vb

14 to face (onto)

◇ SYNONYMS: face onto, overlook, look out on, have a view of, look over or onto 15 to be a front of or for 16 to appear as a presenter in (a television show, etc.)

17 to be the leader of (a band) on stage frontage n

1 the facade of a building or the front of a plot of ground

2 the extent of the front of a shop, plot of land, etc.

frontal adj

1 of, at, or in the front

2 of or relating to the forehead front bench n (in Britain) the leadership of either the Government or Opposition in the House of Commons or in various other legislative assemblies > front-bencher n

frontier n

1 the region of a country bordering on another, or a line marking such a boundary

◇ SYNONYMS: border, limit, edge, boundary, verge (Brit), perimeter, borderline, dividing line

2 the edge of the settled area of a country

3 frontiers the limit of knowledge in a particular field: at that time, laser spectroscopy was on the frontiers of chemical research

frontispiece n an illustration facing the title page of a book frontrunner n (informal) the leader or a favoured contestant in a race or election frost n

1 a white deposit of ice particles

◇ SYNONYMS: hoarfrost, freeze, rime

2 an atmospheric temperature of below freezing point, producing this deposit

◇ SYNONYMS: hoarfrost, freeze, rime

► vb

3 to cover with frost

4 to kill or damage (plants) with frost frostbite n destruction of tissues, esp. of the fingers, ears, toes, and nose, by freezing > frostbitten adj

frosted adj (of glass) having the surface roughened so that it cannot be seen through clearly frosting n (chiefly US & Canad) icing frosty adj frostier, frostiest

- 1 characterized by frost: the frosty air
- 2 covered by frost
- 3 unfriendly or disapproving: a frosty reception from the bank manager
 - > frostily adv
 - > frostiness n

froth n

- 1 a mass of small bubbles of air or a gas in a liquid
- 2 a mixture of saliva and air bubbles formed at the lips in certain diseases, such as rabies
- 3 trivial but superficially attractive ideas or entertainment
 - ▶ vb
- 4 to produce or cause to produce froth
 - > frothy adj

frown vb

- 1 to wrinkle one's brows in worry, anger, or concentration
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: scowl, glare, glower, make a face, look daggers, knit your brows, lour or lower
- 2 frown on to disapprove of: unnecessary waste is frowned on
 - ▶ n
- 3 the act of frowning
- 4 a look of disapproval or displeasure
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: scowl, glare, glower, dirty look frowsty adj frowstier, frowstiest (Brit) stale or musty frowzy or frowsy adj frowzier, frowziest or frowsier, frowsiest

- 1 slovenly or unkempt in appearance
- 2 musty and stale froze vb the past tense of freeze frozen vb

1 the past participle of freeze

► adj

2 turned into or covered with ice

◇ SYNONYMS: icy, hard, solid, frosted, arctic (informal), ice-covered, icebound

3 killed or stiffened by extreme cold

◇ SYNONYMS: ice-cold, freezing, numb, very cold, frigid, frozen stiff

4 (of food) preserved by a freezing process

◇ SYNONYMS: chilled, cold, iced, refrigerated, ice-cold

5

A (of prices or wages) officially fixed at a certain level

B (of business assets) not convertible into cash

6 motionless: she was frozen in horror frugal (froo-gl) adj

1 economical in the use of money or resources; thrifty

2 meagre and inexpensive: a frugal meal > frugality n

> frugally adv

fruit n

1 any fleshy part of a plant that supports the seeds and is edible, such as the strawberry

2 (botany) the ripened ovary of a flowering plant, containing one or more seeds

3 any plant product useful to man, including grain and vegetables

4 fruits the results of an action or effort, esp. if pleasant: they have enjoyed the fruits of a complete victory

◇ SYNONYMS: result, reward, outcome, end result, return, effect, benefit, profit

► vb

5 to bear fruit fruiterer n (chiefly Brit & Austral) a person who sells fruit fruit fly n

- 1 a small fly that feeds on and lays its eggs in plant tissues
- 2 a similar fly that feeds on plant sap, decaying fruit, etc., and is widely used in genetic experiments fruitful adj

- 1 producing good and useful results: a fruitful relationship
 - 2 bearing much fruit
- > fruitfully adv

fruition (froo-ish-on) n

- 1 the fulfilment of something worked for or desired
- 2 the act or condition of bearing fruit fruitless adj

- 1 producing nothing of value: a fruitless debate
 - 2 without fruit
- > fruitlessly adv

fruit machine n (Brit & NZ) a coin-operated gambling machine that pays out money when a particular combination of symbols, usually representing fruit, appears on a screen fruity adj fruitier, fruitiest

- 1 of or like fruit
 - 2 (of a voice) mellow or rich
 - 3 (informal, chiefly Brit) referring humorously to things relating to sex
- > fruitiness n

frump n (derogatory) a woman whose appearance is considered dull or old-fashioned > frumpy or frumpish adj frustrate vb -trating, -trated

1 to upset or anger (a person) by presenting difficulties that cannot be overcome: his lack of ambition frustrated me

2 to hinder or prevent (the efforts, plans, or desires of) ◇ SYNONYMS: thwart, stop, check, block, defeat, disappoint, counter, spoil, crool or cruel (Austral slang) > frustrating adj

> frustration n

frustrated adj dissatisfied or unfulfilled

◇ SYNONYMS: disappointed, discouraged, infuriated, exasperated, resentful, embittered, disheartened fry¹ vb fries, frying, fried

1 to cook or be cooked in fat or oil, usually over direct heat

► n, pl fries

2 Also: fry-up (informal) a dish of mixed fried food > fryer or frier n fry² pl n the young of various species of fish

ft. foot or feet

ftp file transfer protocol: a standard protocol for transferring files across a network, esp. the internet fuchsia (fyew-sha) n an ornamental shrub with hanging purple, red, or white flowers fuddle vb -dling, -dled

1 to cause to be confused or intoxicated

► n

2 a confused state > fuddled adj

fuddy-duddy n, pl -dies (informal) a person, esp. an elderly one, who is extremely conservative or dull fudge¹ n a soft sweet made from sugar, butter, and milk fudge² vb fudging, fudged

- 1 to make (an issue or problem) less clear deliberately
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: misrepresent, hedge, stall, flannel (Brit informal), equivocate
- 2 to avoid making a firm statement or decision
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: misrepresent, hedge, stall, flannel (Brit informal), equivocate

fuel n

- 1 any substance burned for heat or power, such as coal or petrol
- 2 the material that produces energy by fission in a nuclear reactor
- 3 add fuel to to make (a difficult situation) worse
 - vb fuelling, fuelled (US) fueling, fueled
- 4 to supply with or receive fuel
- 5 to intensify or make worse (a feeling or situation): the move is bound to fuel speculation

fug n (chiefly Brit & NZ) a hot stale atmosphere > fuggy adj

fugitive (fyew-jit-iv) n

- 1 a person who flees, esp. from arrest or pursuit
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: runaway, refugee, deserter, outlaw, escapee
- adj
- 2 fleeing
- 3 not permanent; fleeting fugue (fyewg) n a musical form consisting of a theme repeated above or below the continuing first statement > fugal adj

fulcrum n, pl -crums or -cra the pivot about which a lever turns fulfil or (US) fulfill vb -filling, -filled

1 to bring about the achievement of (a desire or promise)

◇ SYNONYMS: achieve, realize, satisfy, attain, consummate, bring to fruition

2 to carry out (a request or order)

◇ SYNONYMS: carry out, perform, complete, achieve, accomplish

3 to satisfy (demands or conditions)

◇ SYNONYMS: satisfy, please, content, cheer, refresh, gratify, make happy

4 fulfil oneself to achieve one's potential > fulfilment or (US) fulfillment n full adj

1 holding as much or as many as possible

◇ SYNONYMS: filled, stocked, brimming, replete, complete, loaded, saturated

2 abundant in supply: full of enthusiasm

3 having consumed enough food or drink

◇ SYNONYMS: satiated, having had enough, replete

4 (of the face or figure) rounded or plump

◇ SYNONYMS: plump, rounded, voluptuous, shapely, well-rounded, buxom, curvaceous (informal)

5 complete: the full amount

6 with all privileges or rights: full membership

◇ SYNONYMS: comprehensive, complete, exhaustive, all-embracing

7 (music) powerful or rich in volume and sound

◇ SYNONYMS: rich, strong, deep, loud, distinct, resonant, sonorous, clear

8 (of a garment) containing a large amount of fabric

◇ SYNONYMS: voluminous, large, loose, baggy, billowing, puffy, capacious, loose-fitting

9 full of engrossed with: she had been full of her own plans lately

10 full of oneself full of pride or conceit

11 full up filled to capacity

► adv

12 completely or entirely

13 directly or right: she hit him full in the face

14 full well very or extremely well: we knew full well that she was watching every move we made

► n

15 in full without omitting or shortening

16 to the full thoroughly or fully > fullness or (esp US) fulness n full-blooded adj

1 vigorous or enthusiastic

2 (esp. of horses) having ancestors of a single race or breed full-blown adj fully developed full moon n the phase of the moon when it is visible as a fully illuminated disc full-scale adj

1 (of a plan) of actual size

2 using all resources; all-out

◇ SYNONYMS: major, wide-ranging, all-out, sweeping, comprehensive, thorough, in-depth, exhaustive full stop n the punctuation mark (.) used at the end of a sentence and after abbreviations. Also called (esp. US and Canad): period fully adv

1 to the greatest degree or extent

◇ SYNONYMS: completely, totally, perfectly, entirely, altogether, thoroughly, wholly, utterly

2 amply or adequately

3 at least: fully a hundred people fulmar n a heavily-built Arctic sea bird with a short tail fulminate vb -nating, -nated

- > fulminate against to criticize or denounce angrily
- > fulmination n fulsome adj

- 1 exaggerated and elaborate, and often sounding insincere: fulsome praise
- 2 (not standard) extremely complimentary fumble vb -bling, -bled

- 1 to use the hands clumsily or grope about blindly: fumbling for a torch
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: grope, flounder, scrabble, feel around
- 2 to say or do awkwardly
- ▶ n
- 3 the act of fumbling

fume vb fuming, fumed

- 1 to be overcome with anger or fury
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: rage, seethe, see red (informal), storm, rant, smoulder, get hot under the collar (informal)
- 2 to give off (fumes) or (of fumes) to be given off, esp. during a chemical reaction
- 3 to treat with fumes
- ▶ n
- 4 (often pl) pungent or toxic vapour, gas, or smoke: exhaust fumes
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: smoke, gas, exhaust, pollution, vapour, smog fumigate (fyew-mig-gate) vb -gating, -gated to treat (something contaminated) with fumes

- > fumigation n

fun n

1 pleasant, enjoyable, and light-hearted activity or amusement

◇ SYNONYMS: amusement, sport, pleasure, entertainment, recreation, enjoyment, merriment, jollity

2 for or in fun for amusement or as a joke

3 make fun of or poke fun at to ridicule or tease

◇ SYNONYMS make fun of something or someone: mock, tease, ridicule, poke fun at, laugh at, mimic, parody, send up (Brit informal)

► adj

4 (of a person) amusing and likeable

5 (of a place or activity) amusing and enjoyable

◇ SYNONYMS: enjoyable, entertaining, pleasant, amusing, lively, diverting, witty, convivial function n

1 the intended role or purpose of a person or thing

◇ SYNONYMS: purpose, business, job, use, role, responsibility, task, duty

2 an official or formal social gathering

◇ SYNONYMS: reception, party, affair, gathering, bash (informal), social occasion, soiree, do (informal)

3 a factor, the precise nature of which depends upon another thing in some way: muscle breakdown is a function of vitamin E deficiency

4 (maths) a quantity, the value of which depends on the varying value of another quantity

5 a sequence of operations that a computer or calculator performs when a specified key is pressed

► vb

6 to operate or work

◇ SYNONYMS: work, run, operate, perform, go

7 function as to perform the action or role of (something or someone else)

◇ SYNONYMS: act, operate, perform, behave, do duty, have the role of functional adj

1 of or performing a function

2 practical rather than decorative

◇ SYNONYMS: practical, utilitarian, serviceable, hard-wearing, useful

3 in working order

◇ SYNONYMS: working, operative, operational, going, prepared, ready, viable, up and running

4 (med) affecting a function of an organ without structural change > functionally adv

functionary n, pl -aries a person acting in an official capacity, such as for a government; official fund n

1 a reserve of money set aside for a certain purpose

◇ SYNONYMS: reserve, stock, supply, store, collection, pool

2 a supply or store of something

► vb

3 to provide money to

◇ SYNONYMS: finance, back, support, pay for, subsidize, provide money for, put up the money for 4 (finance) to convert (short-term debt) into long-term debt bearing fixed interest > funder n

fundamental adj

1 essential or primary: fundamental mathematical concepts

◇ SYNONYMS: central, key, basic, essential, primary, principal, cardinal

2 basic: a fundamental error

◇ SYNONYMS: basic, essential, underlying, profound, elementary, rudimentary

► n

3 fundamentals the most important and basic parts of a subject or activity

4 the lowest note of a harmonic series > fundamentally adv

fundamentalism n

1 (Christianity) the view that the Bible is literally true

2 (Islam) a movement favouring strict observance of Islamic law > fundamentalist n, adj fundi (foon-dee) n (S African) an expert

◇ SYNONYMS: expert

funding n

1 the provision of money for a project or organization

2 the amount of money provided funeral n

1 a ceremony at which a dead person is buried or cremated

◇ SYNONYMS: burial, committal, laying to rest, cremation, interment, obsequies, entombment

2 it's your funeral (informal) a mistake has been made and you alone will be responsible for its consequences

► adj

3 of or for a funeral > funerary adj

funereal (fyew-neer-ee-al) adj suggestive of a funeral; gloomy or sombre > funereally adv

funfair n (Brit) an amusement park with machines to ride on and stalls fungicide n a substance used to destroy fungi fungus n, pl fungi or funguses a plant without leaves, flowers, or roots, that reproduces by spores, including moulds, yeasts, and mushrooms > fungal adj

funicular (fyew-nik-yew-lar) n a railway up the side of a mountain, consisting of two cars at either end of a cable passing round a driving wheel at the summit. Also called: funicular railway

funk¹ (old-fashioned, Brit) n

1 a state of nervousness, fear, or depression

2 a coward

► vb

3 to avoid doing (something) through fear funk² n a type of dance music with a strong beat funky adj -kier, -kiest (of jazz or pop) having a strong beat funnel n

1 a tube with a wide mouth tapering to a small hole, used for pouring liquids into narrow openings

2 a chimney of a ship or steam train

► vb -nelling, -nelled (US) -neling, -neled

3 to move or cause to move through, or as if through, a funnel funnel-web n (Austral) a large poisonous black spider that builds funnel-shaped webs funny adj -nier, -niest

1 causing amusement or laughter; humorous

◇ SYNONYMS: humorous, amusing, comical, entertaining, comic, witty, hilarious, riotous

2 peculiar or odd

◇ SYNONYMS: peculiar, odd, strange, unusual, bizarre, curious, weird, mysterious

3 (informal) faint or ill: this smell is making me feel a bit funny

◇ SYNONYMS: ill, poorly (informal), sick, odd, crook (Austral & NZ informal), ailing, unhealthy, unwell, off-colour (informal)

4 funny business (informal) suspicious or dubious behaviour > funnily adv

> funniness n

funny bone n a sensitive area near the elbow where the nerve is close to the surface of the skin fur n

1 the dense coat of fine silky hairs on many mammals

2 the skin of certain animals, with the hair left on 3 a garment made of fur

4 make the fur fly to cause a scene or disturbance

5 (informal) a whitish coating on the tongue, caused by illness

6 (Brit) a deposit on the insides of water pipes or kettles, caused by hard water

► vb furring, furred

7 Also: fur up to cover or become covered with a furlike deposit furbish vb (formal) to brighten up or renovate furious adj

1 extremely angry or annoyed

◇ SYNONYMS: angry, raging, fuming, infuriated, incensed, enraged, inflamed, very angry, tooshie (Austral slang)

2 violent or unrestrained, such as in speed or energy: fast and furious dance routines

◇ SYNONYMS: violent, intense, fierce, savage, turbulent, vehement, unrestrained > furiously adv

furl vb to roll up (an umbrella, flag, or sail) neatly and securely furlong n a unit of length equal to 220 yards (201.168 metres) furlough (fur-loh) n leave of absence from military or other duty furnace n

- 1 an enclosed chamber in which heat is produced to destroy refuse or smelt ores 2 (informal) a very hot place furnish vb

- 1 to provide (a house or room) with furniture, etc.
◇ SYNONYMS: decorate, fit out, stock, equip 2 to supply or provide ◇ SYNONYMS: supply, give, offer, provide, present, grant, hand out > furnished adj

furnishings pl n furniture, carpets, and fittings with which a room or house is furnished furniture n the large movable articles, such as chairs and tables, that equip a room or house

- ◇ SYNONYMS: household goods, furnishings, fittings, house fittings, goods, things (informal), possessions, appliances furore (fyew-ror-ee) n a very angry or excited reaction by people to something: the latest furore over executive pay

- ◇ SYNONYMS: commotion, to-do, stir, disturbance, outcry, uproar, hullabaloo furrier n a person who makes or sells fur garments furrow n

- 1 a long narrow trench made in the ground by a plough 2 any long deep groove, esp. a deep wrinkle on the forehead
► vb
3 to become wrinkled 4 to make furrows in (land) furry adj -rier, -riest like or covered with fur or something furlike further adv

1 in addition

◇ SYNONYMS: in addition, moreover, besides, furthermore, also, to boot, additionally, into the bargain

2 to a greater degree or extent

3 to or at a more advanced point

4 to or at a greater distance in time or space

► adj

5 additional

◇ SYNONYMS: additional, more, new, other, extra, fresh, supplementary

6 more distant or remote in time or space

► vb

7 to assist the progress of (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: promote, help, develop, forward, encourage, advance, work for, assist > furtherance n

further education n (in Britain, Australia, and South Africa) formal education beyond school other than at university

furthermore adv in addition ◇ SYNONYMS: moreover, further, in addition, besides, too, as well, to boot, additionally furthest adv

1 to the greatest degree or extent

2 to or at the greatest distance in time or space; farthest

► adj

3 most distant in time or space; farthest

◇ SYNONYMS: most distant, extreme, ultimate, remotest, furthestmost, outmost furtive adj sly, cautious, and secretive > furtively adv

fury n, pl -ries

1 violent anger

◇ SYNONYMS: anger, passion, rage, madness (informal), frenzy, wrath, impetuosity

2 uncontrolled violence: the fury of the sea

◇ SYNONYMS: violence, force, intensity, severity, ferocity, savagery, vehemence, fierceness

3 an outburst of violent anger

4 a person with a violent temper

5 like fury (old-fashioned) with great energy, strength, or power furze n gorse

> furzy adj

fuse¹ *or (US) fuze¹ *n

1 a lead containing an explosive for detonating a bomb

► vb fusing, fused (US) fuzing, fuzed

2 to equip with such a fuse

fuse² n

1 a protective device for safeguarding electric circuits, containing a wire that melts and breaks the circuit when the current exceeds a certain value

► vb fusing, fused

2 (Brit) to fail or cause to fail as a result of a fuse blowing

3 to equip (a plug or circuit) with a fuse

4 to join or become combined: the two ideas fused in his mind

5 to unite or become united by melting

6 to become or cause to become liquid, esp. by the action of heat fuselage (fyew-zill-lahzh) n the main body of an aircraft fusilier (fyew-zill-leer) n (formerly) an infantryman armed with a light musket:

a term still used in the names of certain British regiments fusillade (fyew-zill-lade) n

- 1 a rapid continual discharge of firearms
- 2 a sudden outburst of criticism, questions, etc.

fusion n

- 1 the act or process of melting together
- 2 something produced by fusing
- 3 a kind of popular music that is a blend of two or more styles, such as jazz and funk
- 4 something new created by a mixture of qualities, ideas, or things
- 5 See nuclear fusion
- ▶ adj
- 6 relating to a style of cooking that combines traditional Western techniques and ingredients with those used in Eastern cuisine fuss n

- 1 needless activity and worry
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: commotion, to-do, bother, stir, excitement, ado, hue and cry, palaver
- 2 complaint or objection: it was silly to make a fuss over seating arrangements
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: complaint, row, protest, objection, trouble, argument, squabble, furore
- 3 an exhibition of affection or admiration: when I arrived my nephews made a big fuss of me
- ▶ vb
- 4 to worry unnecessarily
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: worry, flap (informal), fret, fidget, take pains, be agitated, get worked up
- 5 to be excessively concerned over trivial matters
- 6 to bother (a person)
- 7 fuss over to show great or excessive concern or affection for fussy adj fussier, fussiest

- 1 inclined to fuss
- 2 very particular about detail
- 3 overelaborate: a fussy, overdecorated palace
- > fussily adv

fusty adj -tier, -tiest

- 1 smelling of damp or mould
- 2 old-fashioned
- > fustiness n

futile (fyew-tile) adj

- 1 useless or having no chance of success
- ◇ SYNONYMS: useless, vain, unsuccessful, pointless, worthless, fruitless, ineffectual, unprofitable
- 2 foolish and of no value: her futile remarks began to annoy me
- > futility n

futon (foo-tonn) n a Japanese padded quilt, laid on the floor as a bed future n

- 1 the time yet to come
- ◇ SYNONYMS: time to come, hereafter, what lies ahead
- 2 undetermined events that will occur in that time
- 3 the condition of a person or thing at a later date
- 4 prospects: he had faith in its future
- ◇ SYNONYMS: prospect, expectation, outlook
- 5 (grammar) a tense of verbs used when the action specified has not yet taken place
- 6 in future from now on
- ▶ adj
- 7 that is yet to come or be
- ◇ SYNONYMS: forthcoming, coming, later, approaching, to come, succeeding, fated, subsequent
- 8 of or expressing time yet to come

9 destined to become

◇ SYNONYMS: forthcoming, coming, later, approaching, to come, succeeding, fated, subsequent

10 (grammar) in or denoting the future as a tense of verbs futuristic adj

1 of design or technology that appears to belong to some future time

2 of futurism

fuzz¹ n a mass or covering of fine or curly hairs, fibres, etc.

fuzz² n (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) the police or a police officer fuzzy adj fuzzier, fuzziest

1 of, like, or covered with fuzz

◇ SYNONYMS: frizzy, fluffy, woolly, downy

2 unclear, blurred, or distorted: just a few fuzzy pictures of the creature exist

◇ SYNONYMS: indistinct, blurred, vague, distorted, unclear, bleary, out of focus, ill-defined

3 (of hair) tightly curled > fuzzily adv

> fuzziness n

FYI for your information

Gg

g

- 1 gallon(s)
- 2 gram(s)
- 3 acceleration due to gravity gab (informal) vb gabbing, gabbed

- 1 to talk a lot, esp. about unimportant things
 - n
- 2 idle talk
- 3 gift of the gab the ability to talk easily and persuasively gabardine or gaberdine n

- 1 a strong twill cloth used esp. for raincoats
- 2 a coat made of this cloth gabble vb -bling, -bled

- 1 to speak rapidly and indistinctly: the interviewee started to gabble furiously
 - n
- 2 rapid and indistinct speech gable n the triangular upper part of a wall between the sloping ends of a ridged roof > gabled adj

gad vb gadding, gadded (foll. by about or around) to go about in search of pleasure gadabout n (informal) a person who restlessly seeks amusement gadfly n, pl -flies

- 1 a large fly that bites livestock
- 2 a constantly irritating person gadget n a small mechanical device or appliance

- ◇ SYNONYMS: device, thing, appliance, machine, tool, implement, invention, instrument
- > gadgetry n

Gael (gayl) n a Gaelic-speaker of Scotland, Ireland, or the Isle of Man

- > Gaeldom n

Gaelic (gal-lik, gay-lik) n

- 1 any of the closely related Celtic languages of Scotland, Ireland, or the Isle of Man
- ▶ adj
- 2 of the Celtic people of Scotland, Ireland, or the Isle of Man, or their language gaff¹ n

- 1 (angling) a pole with a hook attached for landing large fish
- 2 (naut) a spar hoisted to support a fore-and-aft sail gaff² n blow the gaff (Brit slang) to give away a secret gaffe n something said or done that is socially upsetting or incorrect gaffer n

- 1 (informal, chiefly Brit) a boss or foreman
- 2 an old man: often used affectionately
- 3 (informal) the senior electrician on a television or film set

gag¹ vb gagging, gagged

1 to choke as if about to vomit or as if struggling for breath

◇ SYNONYMS: retch, heave

2 to stop up (a person's mouth), usually with a piece of cloth, to prevent them from speaking or crying out

3 to deprive of free speech ◇ SYNONYMS: suppress, silence, muffle, curb, stifle, muzzle, quieten

► n

4 something, usually a piece of cloth, stuffed into or tied across the mouth

◇ SYNONYMS: muzzle, tie, restraint

5 any restraint on free speech

6 a device for keeping the jaws apart: a dentist's gag gag² (informal) n

1 a joke, usually one told by a professional comedian ◇ SYNONYMS: joke, crack (slang), funny (informal), quip, pun, jest, wisecrack (informal), witticism

► vb gagging, gagged

2 to tell jokes gaga (gah-gah) adj (informal)

1 confused and having some memory loss, esp. as a result of old age

2 foolishly doting: she's gaga over him

gaggle n

1 (informal) a group of people gathered together

2 a flock of geese gaiety n, pl -ties

1 a state of lively good spirits

2 festivity; merrymaking gaily adv

1 in a lively manner; cheerfully

2 with bright colours gain vb

1 to acquire (something desirable)

◇ SYNONYMS: acquire, get, receive, pick up, secure, collect, gather, obtain

2 to increase, improve, or advance: wholesale prices gained 5.6 percent

3 to get to; reach: gaining the top of the hill

4 (of a watch or clock) to become or be too fast

5 gain on to get nearer to or catch up on ◇ SYNONYMS gain on something or someone: get nearer to, close in on, approach, catch up with, narrow the gap on

► n

6 something won or acquired; profit; advantage: a clear gain would result

◇ SYNONYMS: profit, return, benefit, advantage, yield, dividend

7 an increase in size or amount

8 (electronics) the ratio of the output signal of an amplifier to the input signal, usually measured in decibels gainful adj useful or profitable > gainfully adv

gainsay vb -saying, -said (archaic, or literary) to deny or contradict gait n

1 manner of walking

2 (of horses and dogs) the pattern of footsteps at a particular speed, such as a trot gaiters pl n cloth or leather coverings for the legs or ankles gala (gah-la) n

1 a special social occasion, esp. a special performance

◇ SYNONYMS: festival, fête, celebration, carnival, festivity, pageant, jamboree

2 (chiefly Brit) a sporting occasion with competitions in several events: next week's sports gala galactic adj of the Galaxy or other galaxies galaxy n, pl -axies

1 a star system held together by gravitational attraction

2 a collection of brilliant people or things: a galaxy of legal talent

gale n

1 a strong wind, specifically one of force 8 on the Beaufort scale

◇ SYNONYMS: storm, hurricane, tornado, cyclone, blast, typhoon, tempest (literary), squall

2 gales a loud outburst: gales of laughter

◇ SYNONYMS: outburst, scream, roar, fit, storm, shout, burst, explosion gall¹ (gawl) n

1 (informal) bold impudence: she was stunned I had the gall to ask

2 a feeling of great bitterness

3 (physiol, obsolete) same as bile gall² (gawl) vb

1 to annoy or irritate

◇ SYNONYMS: annoy, provoke, irritate, trouble, disturb, madden, exasperate, vex

2 to make the skin sore by rubbing

► n

3 something that causes annoyance

4 a sore on the skin caused by rubbing gall³ (gawl) n an abnormal outgrowth on a tree or plant caused by parasites gallant adj

1 persistent and courageous in the face of overwhelming odds: a gallant fight

2 (of a man) making a show of polite attentiveness to women

3 having a reputation for bravery: Police Medal for gallant and meritorious services

► n

4 (history) a young man who tried to impress women with his fashionable clothes or daring acts > gallantly adv

gallantry n

1 showy, attentive treatment of women

2 great bravery in war or danger gall bladder n a muscular sac, attached to the liver, that stores bile galleon n a large three-masted sailing ship used from the 15th to the 18th centuries gallery n, pl -leries

1 a room or building for displaying works of art

2 a balcony running along or around the inside wall of a church, hall, or other building

3 (theatre)

A an upper floor that projects from the rear and contains the cheapest seats

B the audience seated there

4 an underground passage in a mine or cave

5 a group of spectators, for instance at a golf match

6 play to the gallery to try to gain approval by appealing to popular taste galley n

1 the kitchen of a ship, boat, or aircraft

2 a ship propelled by oars or sails, used in ancient or medieval times galley slave n

- 1 a criminal or slave forced to row in a galley
- 2 (informal) a drudge

Gallic adj

- 1 French
- 2 of ancient Gaul or the Gauls gallium n (chem) a silvery metallic element used in high-temperature thermometers and low-melting alloys. SYMBOL: Ga

gallivant vb to go about in search of pleasure gallon n

- 1 (Brit) a unit of liquid measure equal to 4.55 litres
- 2 (US) a unit of liquid measure equal to 3.79 litres gallop vb

- 1 (of a horse) to run fast with a two-beat stride in which all four legs are off the ground at once

◇ SYNONYMS: run, race, career, speed, bolt

- 2 to ride (a horse) at a gallop

- 3 to move or progress rapidly

◇ SYNONYMS: dash, run, race, career, speed, rush, sprint

► n

- 4 the fast two-beat gait of horses

- 5 an instance of galloping gallows n, pl -lowses or -lows

- 1 a wooden structure consisting of two upright posts with a crossbeam, used for hanging criminals

- 2 the gallows execution by hanging gallstone n a small hard mass formed in the gall bladder or its ducts

Gallup Poll n a sampling of the views of a representative cross section of the population, usually used to forecast voting galore adj in abundance: there were bargains galore galoshes pl n (Brit & Austral & NZ) a pair of waterproof overshoes galumph vb (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) to leap or move about clumsily or joyfully galvanic adj

1 of or producing an electric current by chemical means, such as in a battery

2 (informal) stimulating, startling, or energetic galvanize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised

1 to stimulate into action

2 to cover (metal) with a protective zinc coating

3 to stimulate by an electric current > galvanization or -nisation n gambit n

1 an opening remark or action intended to gain an advantage

2 (chess) an opening move in which a piece, usually a pawn, is sacrificed to gain an advantageous position gamble vb -bling, -bled

1 to play games of chance to win money or prizes

◇ SYNONYMS: bet, play, game, speculate, punt (chiefly Brit), wager, have a flutter (informal)

2 to risk or bet (something) on the outcome of an event or sport

◇ SYNONYMS: risk, chance, hazard, wager

3 gamble away to lose by gambling

4 gamble on to act with the expectation of: she has gambled on proving everyone wrong

◇ SYNONYMS: take a chance, speculate, stick your neck out (informal)

► n

5 a risky act or venture

◇ SYNONYMS: risk, chance, venture, lottery, speculation, uncertainty, leap in the dark

6 a bet or wager

◇ SYNONYMS: bet, flutter (informal), punt (chiefly Brit), wager > gambler n

> gambling n

gamboge (gam-boje) n a gum resin obtained from a tropical Asian tree, used as a yellow pigment and as a purgative gambol vb -bolling, -bolled (US) -boling, -boled

1 to jump about playfully; frolic

► n

2 a playful jumping about; frolicking game¹ n

1 an amusement for children

◇ SYNONYMS: amusement, joke, entertainment, diversion

2 a competitive activity with rules

3 a single period of play in such an activity

4 (in some sports) the score needed to win

5 a single contest in a series; match

◇ SYNONYMS: match, meeting, event, competition, tournament, clash, contest, head-to-head

6 style or ability in playing a game: in the second set his overall game improved markedly

7 an activity that seems to operate according to unwritten rules: the political game of power

8 an activity undertaken in a spirit of playfulness: people who regard life as a game

◇ SYNONYMS: amusement, joke, entertainment, diversion

9 wild animals, birds, or fish, hunted for sport or food

◇ SYNONYMS: wild animals or birds, prey, quarry

10 the flesh of such animals, used as food

11 an object of pursuit: fair game

12 (informal) a trick or scheme: what's his game?

◇ SYNONYMS: scheme, plan, design, trick, plot, tactic, manoeuvre, ploy, fastie (Austral slang)

13 games an event consisting of various sporting contests, usually in athletics: Commonwealth Games

14 give the game away to reveal one's intentions or a secret

15 on the game (slang) working as a prostitute

16 play the game to behave fairly

17 the game is up the scheme or trick has been found out and so cannot succeed

► adj

18 (informal) full of fighting spirit; plucky

◇ SYNONYMS: brave, courageous, spirited, daring, persistent, gritty, feisty (informal), intrepid, plucky, (as) game as Ned Kelly (Austral slang)

19 (informal) prepared or willing: I'm always game for a new sensation

◇ SYNONYMS: willing, prepared, ready, keen, eager, interested, desirous

► vb gaming, gamed

20 to play games of chance for money; gamble

21 to play computer games > gamely adv

> gameness n

game² adj (Brit & Austral & NZ) lame: he had a game leg gamekeeper n (Brit) a person employed to take care of game on an estate gamer n a person who plays computer games games console n an electronic device, linked to a television set, used for playing video games gamesmanship n (informal) the art of winning by cunning practices without actually cheating gamete (gam-eet) n a cell that can fuse with another in reproduction > gametic or gametal adj gamine (gam-een) n a slim and boyish girl or young woman gaming n gambling gamma n the third letter in the Greek alphabet (Γ, γ) gammon n

1 cured or smoked ham

2 the hindquarter of a side of bacon gammy adj -mier, -miest (Brit & NZ slang) (of the leg) lame gamut n

1 entire range or scale: a rich gamut of facial expressions

2 (music)

A a scale

B the whole range of notes gander n

1 a male goose

2 (informal) a quick look: have a gander gang n

1 a group of people who go around together, often to commit crime

◇ SYNONYMS: group, crowd, pack, company, band, bunch, mob

2 an organized group of manual workers

► vb

3 to become or act as a gang gangland n the criminal underworld gangling or gangly adj lanky and awkward in movement ganglion n, pl -glia or -glions a collection of nerve cells outside the brain and spinal cord > ganglionic adj

gangplank n (naut) a portable bridge for boarding and leaving a ship gangrene n decay of body tissue caused by the blood supply being interrupted by disease or injury > gangrenous adj

gangsta rap n a style of rap music, often with lyrics referring to crime or violence gangster n a member of an organized gang of criminals

◇ SYNONYMS: hoodlum (chiefly US), crook (informal), bandit, hood (US slang), robber, mobster (US slang), racketeer, ruffian, tsotsi (S African) > gangsterism n

gangway n

1 (Brit) an aisle between rows of seats

2 same as gangplank

3 an opening in a ship's side to take a gangplank gannet n

1 a heavily built white sea bird

2 (Brit slang) a greedy person gantry n, pl -tries a large metal framework used to support something, such as a travelling crane, or to position a rocket on its launch pad gaol (jail) n, vb (Brit & Austral) same as jail > gaoler n

gap n

1 a break or opening in something

◇ SYNONYMS: opening, space, hole, break, crack, slot, aperture, cleft

2 an interruption or interval

◇ SYNONYMS: interval, pause, interruption, respite, lull, interlude, breathing space, hiatus

3 a difference in ideas or viewpoint: the generation gap

◇ SYNONYMS: difference, gulf, contrast, disagreement, discrepancy, inconsistency, disparity, divergence > gappy adj

gape vb gaping, gaped

1 to stare in wonder with the mouth open

◇ SYNONYMS: stare, wonder, goggle, gawp (Brit slang), gawk

2 to open the mouth wide, as in yawning

3 to be or become wide open: a hole gaped in the roof

◇ SYNONYMS: open, split, crack, yawn > gaping adj

garage n

- 1 a building used to keep cars
- 2 a place where cars are repaired and petrol is sold
- vb -aging, -aged
- 3 to put or keep a car in a garage garb n

- 1 clothes, usually the distinctive dress of an occupation or group: modern military garb
- vb
- 2 to clothe garbage n

- 1 (US & Austral & NZ) household waste
- 2 worthless rubbish or nonsense garbled adj (of a story, message, etc.) jumbled and confused garden n

- 1 an area of land usually next to a house, for growing flowers, fruit, or vegetables. RELATED ADJECTIVE: horticultural
- 2 Also: gardens a cultivated area of land open to the public: Kensington Gardens
- 3 lead someone up the garden path (informal) to mislead or deceive someone
- vb
- 4 to work in or take care of a garden
- > gardener n
- > gardening n

garden centre n a place where plants and gardening tools and equipment are sold gardenia (gar-deen-ya) n

- 1 a large fragrant waxy white flower
- 2 the evergreen shrub on which it grows garfish n

- 1 a freshwater fish with a long body and very long toothed jaws
- 2 a sea fish with similar characteristics gargantuan adj huge or enormous gargle vb -gling, -gled

- 1 to rinse the mouth and throat with (a liquid) by slowly breathing out through the liquid
- ▶ n
- 2 the liquid used for gargling
- 3 the act or sound of gargling gargoyle n (on ancient buildings) a waterspout below the roof, carved in the form of a grotesque face or figure garish adj crudely bright or colourful

- > garishly adv
- > garishness n

garland n

- 1 a wreath of flowers and leaves worn round the head or neck or hung up
- ◇ SYNONYMS: wreath, band, bays, crown, honours, laurels, festoon, chaplet
- ▶ vb
- 2 to decorate with a garland or garlands
- ◇ SYNONYMS: adorn, crown, deck, festoon, wreath garlic n the bulb of a plant of the onion family, with a strong taste and smell, made up of small segments which are used in cooking

> garlicky adj

garment n an article of clothing

◇ SYNONYMS: clothes, dress, clothing, gear (slang), uniform, outfit, costume, apparel garner vb to collect or gather: the financial rewards garnered by his book garnet n a red semiprecious gemstone garnish vb

1 to decorate (food) with something to add to its appearance or flavour

◇ SYNONYMS: decorate, adorn, ornament, embellish, trim

► n

2 a decoration for food

◇ SYNONYMS: decoration, embellishment, adornment, ornamentation, trimming garret n an attic in a house garrison n

1 soldiers who guard a base or fort

◇ SYNONYMS: troops, group, unit, section, command, armed force, detachment

2 the place itself

◇ SYNONYMS: fort, fortress, camp, base, post, station, stronghold, fortification, fortified pa (NZ)

► vb

3 to station (soldiers) in (a fort or base)

◇ SYNONYMS: station, position, post, install, assign, put on duty garrotte or garotte n

1 a Spanish method of execution by strangling

2 a cord, wire, or iron collar, used to strangle someone ► vb -rotting, -rotted

3 to execute with a garrotte garrulous adj constantly chattering; talkative > garrulousness n

garter n

1 a band, usually of elastic, worn round the leg to hold up a sock or stocking

2 (US & Canad) a suspender gas n, pl gases or gasses

1 an airlike substance that is neither liquid nor solid at room temperature and atmospheric pressure

◇ SYNONYMS: fumes, vapour

2 a fossil fuel in the form of a gas, used as a source of heat

3 an anaesthetic in the form of a gas

4 (mining) firedamp or the explosive mixture of firedamp and air

5 (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) petrol

◇ SYNONYMS: petrol, gasoline (US & Canad & NZ)

6 a poisonous gas used in war

7 (informal) idle talk or boasting

8 (slang) an entertaining person or thing: Monterey was a gas for musicians and fans alike

9 (US informal) gas generated in the alimentary canal

► vb gases or gasses, gassing, gassed

10 to subject to gas fumes so as to make unconscious or to suffocate

11 (informal) to talk a lot; chatter gasbag n (informal) a person who talks too much gas chamber n an airtight room which is filled with poison gas to kill people gaseous (gass-ee-uss, gay-see-uss) adj of or like a gas gash n

1 a long deep cut

► vb

2 to make a long deep cut in gasholder n a large tank for storing gas before distributing it to users gasket n a piece of paper, rubber, or metal sandwiched between the faces of a metal joint to provide a seal gas mask n a mask fitted with a chemical filter to protect the wearer from breathing in harmful gases gasoline or gasolene n (US & Canad) petrol gasp vb

1 to draw in the breath sharply or with difficulty

◇ SYNONYMS: pant, blow, puff, choke, gulp, catch your breath

2 to utter breathlessly

► n

3 a short convulsive intake of breath

◇ SYNONYMS: pant, puff, gulp, sharp intake of breath gassy adj -sier, -siest filled with, containing, or like gas > gassiness n

gastric adj of the stomach gastritis n inflammation of the lining of the stomach, causing vomiting or gastric ulcers gastroenteritis n inflammation of the stomach and intestine, causing vomiting and diarrhoea gastronomy n the art of good eating > gastronomic adj

gastropod n a mollusc, such as a snail or whelk, that has a single flat muscular foot, eyes on stalks, and usually a spiral shell gastropub n a pub that serves high-quality food gate n

1 a movable barrier, usually hinged, for closing an opening in a wall or fence

◇ SYNONYMS: barrier, opening, door, entrance, exit, gateway, portal (literary)

2

A the number of people admitted to a sporting event or entertainment

B the total entrance money received from them

3 an exit at an airport by which passengers get to an aircraft

4 (electronics) a circuit with one or more input terminals and one output terminal, the output being determined by the combination of input signals

5 a slotted metal frame that controls the positions of the gear lever in a motor vehicle gateau (gat-toe) n, pl -teaux (-toes) a large rich layered cake gate-crash vb (informal) to gain entry to (a party) without invitation > gate-crasher n

gatehouse n a building at or above a gateway gateway n

1 an entrance that may be closed by a gate

2 a means of entry or access: his only gateway to the outside world

3 (computers) hardware and software that connect incompatible computer networks, allowing them to communicate gather vb

1 to come or bring together

◇ SYNONYMS: congregate, assemble, collect, meet, mass, come together, muster, converge

2 to increase gradually in (pace, speed, or momentum)

◇ SYNONYMS: build up, rise, increase, grow, expand, swell, intensify, heighten

3 to prepare oneself for a task or challenge by collecting one's thoughts, strength, or courage

4 to learn from information given; conclude: this is pretty important, I gather

◇ SYNONYMS: understand, believe, hear, learn, assume, conclude, presume, infer

5 to draw (fabric) into small folds or tucks

◇ SYNONYMS: fold, tuck, pleat

6 to pick or harvest (crops)

◇ SYNONYMS: pick, harvest, pluck, reap, garner, glean

► n

7 gathers small folds or tucks in fabric gathering n a group of people, usually meeting for some particular purpose: the Braemar Highland Gathering

◇ SYNONYMS: assembly, group, crowd, meeting, conference, company, congress, mass, hui (NZ), runanga (NZ) gatvol (hhut-fol) adj (S African vulgar, slang) annoyed; fed up gauche (gohsh) adj socially awkward gaucho (gow-choh) n, pl -chos a cowboy of the South American pampas gaudy adj gaudier, gaudiest vulgarly bright or colourful > gaudily adv

> gaudiness n

gauge (gayj) vb gauging, gauged

1 to estimate or judge (people's feelings or reactions)

◇ SYNONYMS: judge, estimate, guess, assess, evaluate, rate, appraise, reckon

2 to measure using a gauge

◇ SYNONYMS: measure, calculate, evaluate, value, determine, count, weigh, compute

► n

3 an instrument for measuring quantities: a petrol gauge

◇ SYNONYMS: meter, dial, measuring instrument

4 a scale or standard of measurement

5 a standard for estimating people's feelings or reactions: a gauge of public opinion

6 the diameter of the barrel of a gun

7 the distance between the rails of a railway track gaunt adj

1 bony and emaciated in appearance

2 (of a place) bleak or desolate: the gaunt disused flour mill > gauntness n

gauntlet¹ n

1 a long heavy protective glove

2 a medieval armoured glove

3 take up the gauntlet to accept a challenge

4 throw down the gauntlet to offer a challenge gauntlet² n run the gauntlet to be exposed to criticism or harsh treatment gauze n a transparent, loosely woven cloth, often used for surgical dressings > gauzy adj

gave vb the past tense of give gavel (gav-vl) n a small hammer used by a judge, auctioneer, or chair of a meeting to call for order or attention gavotte n

1 an old formal dance in quadruple time 2 music for this dance

gawk vb
1 to stare stupidly
► n
2 a clumsy stupid person gawky adj gawkier, gawkiest clumsy and awkward gawp vb (slang) to stare stupidly > gawper n

gay adj
1 homosexual
◇ SYNONYMS: homosexual, lesbian 2 (old-fashioned) carefree and merry: with gay abandon ◇ SYNONYMS: cheerful, lively, sparkling, merry, upbeat (informal), buoyant, cheery, carefree 3 (old-fashioned) bright and cheerful: smartly dressed in gay colours ◇ SYNONYMS: colourful, rich, bright, brilliant, vivid, flamboyant, flashy, showy
► n

4 a homosexual person

◇ SYNONYMS: homosexual, lesbian gayness n homosexuality gaze vb gazing, gazed

1 to look long and steadily at someone or something

◇ SYNONYMS: stare, look, view, watch, regard, gape

► n

2 a long steady look

◇ SYNONYMS: stare, look, fixed look gazebo (gaz-zee-boh) n, pl -bos a summerhouse or pavilion with a good view gazelle n a small graceful fawn-coloured antelope of Africa and Asia gazette n an official newspaper that gives lists of announcements, for instance in legal or military affairs

◇ SYNONYMS: newspaper, paper, journal, periodical, news-sheet gazetteer n a book or section of a book that lists and describes places gazump vb (Brit & Austral informal) to raise the price of a house after agreeing a price verbally with an intending buyer

GB

1 Great Britain

2 Also: Gb gigabyte

GBH (in Britain and South Africa) grievous bodily harm

GCE

- 1 (formerly in Britain) General Certificate of Education
- 2 (informal) a pass in a GCE examination

GCSE

- 1 (in Britain) General Certificate of Secondary Education; an examination in specified subjects which replaced the GCE O level and CSE
- 2 (informal) a pass in a GCSE examination

g'day

GDP gross domestic product gear n

- 1 a set of toothed wheels that engages with another or with a rack in order to change the speed or direction of transmitted motion
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: mechanism, works, machinery, cogs, cogwheels, gearwheels
- 2 a mechanism for transmitting motion by gears
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: mechanism, works, machinery, cogs, cogwheels, gearwheels
- 3 the setting of a gear to suit engine speed or direction: a higher gear; reverse gear
- 4 clothing or personal belongings
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: clothing, wear, dress, clothes, outfit, costume, garments, togs
- 5 equipment for a particular task: police in riot gear
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: equipment, supplies, tackle, tools, instruments, apparatus, paraphernalia, accoutrements
- 6 in or out of gear with the gear mechanism engaged or disengaged
 - ▶ vb
- 7 to prepare or organize for something: to gear for war
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: equip, fit, adjust, adapt
 - ▶ See also gear up gearbox n the metal casing enclosing a set of gears in a motor vehicle gear up vb to prepare for an activity: to gear up for a massive relief operation

gecko n, pl geckos a small tropical lizard geebung (gee-bung) n

1 an Australian tree or shrub with an edible but tasteless fruit

2 the fruit of this tree geek n (informal)

1 a person who is knowledgeable and enthusiastic about a specific subject

2 a boring and unattractive person > geeky adj

geelbek (heel-bek) n (S African) an edible marine fish with yellow jaws geese n the plural of goose geezer n (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) a man

Geiger counter (guy-ger) or Geiger-Müller counter n an instrument for detecting and measuring radiation geisha (gay-sha) n a professional female companion for men in Japan, trained in music, dancing, and conversation

gel (jell) n

1 a thick jelly-like substance, esp. one used to keep a hairstyle in shape

► vb gelling, gelled

2 to become a gel

3 same as jell

4 to apply gel to (one's hair) gelatine (jell-a-teen) or gelatin n a clear water-soluble protein made by boiling animal hides and bones, used in cooking, in glue, and in photographic film processes gelatinous (jill-at-in-uss) adj with a thick, semiliquid consistency geld vb gelding, gelded or gelt to castrate (a horse or other animal) gelding n a castrated male horse gelignite n a type of dynamite used for blasting gem n

1 a precious stone used for decoration. RELATED ADJECTIVE: lapidary

◇ SYNONYMS: precious stone, jewel, stone

2 a person or thing regarded as precious or special: a perfect gem of a hotel

◇ SYNONYMS: treasure, prize, jewel, pearl, masterpiece, humdinger (slang), taonga (NZ)

gemfish n an Australian food fish with a delicate flavour gen n (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) information: I want to get as much gen as I can about the American market See also gen up on gender n

1 the state of being male or female with reference to socially and culturally defined characteristics of masculinity or femininity

2 the classification of nouns in certain languages as masculine, feminine, or neuter

gender identity n a person's understanding of having a particular gender, which may or may not correspond with the gender assigned to them at birth gender-neutral adj

- 1 suitable for both female and male genders: gender-neutral toys
- 2 not referring to one gender only: gender-neutral language

gene (jean) n a unit composed of DNA forming part of a chromosome, by which inherited characteristics are transmitted from parent to offspring genealogy (jean-ee-al-a-jee) n

- 1 the direct descent of an individual or group from an ancestor
- 2 pl -gies a chart showing the descent of an individual or group
 - > genealogical adj
 - > genealogist n genera (jen-er-a) n a plural of genus general adj

- 1 common or widespread: general goodwill
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: widespread, accepted, popular, public, common, broad, extensive, universal
- 2 of, affecting, or including all or most of the members of a group
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: universal, overall, widespread, collective, across-the-board
- 3 not specialized or specializing: a general hospital
- 4 including various or miscellaneous items: general knowledge
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: widespread, accepted, popular, public, common, broad, extensive, universal
- 5 not definite; vague: the examples used will give a general idea
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: vague, loose, blanket, sweeping, unclear, approximate, woolly, indefinite

6 highest in authority or rank: the club's general manager

► n

7 a very senior military officer

8 in general generally; mostly or usually general election n an election in which representatives are chosen in all constituencies of a state generality n

1 pl -ties a general principle or observation: speaking in generalities

2 (old-fashioned) the majority: the generality of mankind generalization or -lisation n a principle or statement based on specific instances but applied generally: the argument sinks to generalizations and name-calling

generalize or -lise vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to form general principles or conclusions from specific instances

2 to speak in generalities

3 to make widely used or known: generalized violence generally adv

1 usually; as a rule: these protests have generally been peaceful

◇ SYNONYMS: usually, commonly, typically, normally, on the whole, by and large, ordinarily, as a rule

2 commonly or widely: it's generally agreed he has performed well

◇ SYNONYMS: commonly, widely, publicly, universally, extensively, popularly, conventionally, customarily 3 not specifically; broadly: what are your thoughts generally about the war?

general practitioner n a doctor who does not specialize but has a general medical practice in which he or she treats all illnesses generate vb -rating, -rated to produce or create ◇ SYNONYMS: produce, create, make, cause, give rise to, engender generation n

1 all the people of approximately the same age: the younger generation

◇ SYNONYMS: age group, peer group

2 a successive stage in descent of people or animals: passed on from generation to generation

◇ SYNONYMS: age, period, era, time, lifetime, span, epoch

3 the average time between two generations of a species, about 35 years for humans: an alliance which has lasted a generation

◇ SYNONYMS: age, period, era, time, lifetime, span, epoch

4 a specified stage of development: the next generation of fighter aircraft

5 production, esp. of electricity or heat generative adj capable of producing or originating something generator n a device for converting mechanical energy into electrical energy generic (jin-ner-ik) adj of a whole class, or group, or genus ◇ SYNONYMS: collective, general, common, wide, comprehensive, universal, blanket, inclusive > generically adv

generous adj

1 ready to give freely; unselfish

◇ SYNONYMS: liberal, lavish, charitable, hospitable, bountiful, open-handed, unstinting, beneficent

2 free from pettiness in character and mind

◇ SYNONYMS: magnanimous, kind, noble, good, high-minded, unselfish, big-hearted

3 large or plentiful: a generous donation

◇ SYNONYMS: plentiful, lavish, ample, abundant, full, rich, liberal, copious > generously adv > generosity n

genesis (jen-iss-iss) n, pl -ses (-seez) the beginning or origin of anything ◇ SYNONYMS: beginning, origin, start, birth, creation, formation, inception gene therapy n (genetics) the replacement or alteration of defective genes in order to prevent the occurrence of inherited diseases genetic (jin-net-tik) adj of genetics, genes, or the origin of something > genetically adv

genetic engineering n alteration of the genetic structure of an organism in order to produce more desirable traits genetic fingerprinting n the use of a person's unique pattern of DNA, which can be obtained from blood, saliva, or tissue, as a means of identification > genetic fingerprint n genetics n the study of heredity and variation in organisms > geneticist n genial (jean-ee-al) adj cheerful, easy-going, and friendly > geniality n > genially adv

genie (jean-ee) n (in fairy tales) a servant who appears by magic and fulfils a person's wishes genital adj of the sexual organs or reproduction genitals or genitalia (jen-it-ail-ya) pl n the external sexual organs genitive n (grammar) a grammatical case in some languages used to indicate a relation of ownership or association genius (jean-yuss) n, pl -uses

1 a person with exceptional ability in a particular subject or activity

◇ SYNONYMS: master, expert, mastermind, maestro, virtuoso, whiz (informal), hotshot (informal), brainbox, fundi (S African)

2 such ability

◇ SYNONYMS: brilliance, ability, talent, capacity, gift, bent, excellence, flair

3 a person considered as exerting influence of a certain sort: the evil genius behind the drug-smuggling empire genocide (jen-no-side) n the deliberate killing of a people or nation > genocidal adj

genome n

1 the full complement of genetic material within an organism

2 all the genes comprising a haploid set of chromosomes genre (zhahn-ra) n

1 a kind or type of literary, musical, or artistic work: the mystery and supernatural genres

◇ SYNONYMS: type, group, order, sort, kind, class, style, species

2 a kind of painting depicting incidents from everyday life gent n (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) short for gentleman genteel adj

1 overly concerned with being polite

2 respectable, polite, and well-bred > genteelly adv

gentian (jen-shun) n a mountain plant with blue or purple flowers

Gentile n

1 a person who is not a Jew

► adj

2 not Jewish gentle adj

1 kind and calm in character

◇ SYNONYMS: kind, kindly, tender, mild, humane, compassionate, meek, placid

2 temperate or moderate: gentle autumn rain

◇ SYNONYMS: moderate, light, soft, slight, mild, soothing

3 soft; not sharp or harsh: gentle curves

◇ SYNONYMS: kind, kindly, tender, mild, humane, compassionate, meek, placid

> gentleness n

> gently adv

gentleman n, pl -men

1 a cultured, courteous, and well-bred man

2 a man who comes from a family of high social position

3 a polite name for a man > gentlemanly adj

gentrification n a process by which the character of a traditionally working-class area is made fashionable by middle-class people > gentrify vb

gentry n (Brit old-fashioned) people just below the nobility in social rank gents n (Brit & Austral informal) a men's public toilet genuflect vb to bend the knee as a sign of reverence or deference, esp. in church > genuflection n

genuine adj

1 real and exactly what it appears to be: a genuine antique

◇ SYNONYMS: authentic, real, actual, true, valid, legitimate, veritable, bona fide, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal)

2 sincerely felt: genuine concern

◇ SYNONYMS: heartfelt, sincere, honest, earnest, real, true, frank, unaffected

3 (of a person) honest and without pretence

◇ SYNONYMS: sincere, honest, frank, candid, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal), guileless > genuinely adv

> genuineness n

gen up on vb genning, genned (Brit & Austral informal) to become, or make someone else, fully informed about genus (jean-uss) n, pl genera or genuses

1 (biol) one of the groups into which a family is divided, containing one or more species

2 a class or group

geocentric adj

1 having the earth as a centre

2 measured as from the centre of the earth geography n

1 the study of the earth's surface, including physical features, climate, and population

2 the physical features of a region > geographer n

> geographical or geographic adj > geographically adv

geology n

1 the study of the origin, structure, and composition of the earth

2 the geological features of an area > geological adj

> geologically adv

> geologist n

geometric or geometrical adj

1 of geometry

2 consisting of shapes used in geometry, such as circles, triangles, and straight lines: geometric design

> geometrically adv

geometry n the branch of mathematics concerned with points, lines, curves, and surfaces > geometrician n

Geordie (Brit) n

1 a person from Tyneside

2 the Tyneside dialect

► adj

3 of Tyneside: a Geordie accent

Georgian adj

1 of or in the reigns of any of the kings of Great Britain and Ireland called George

2 denoting a style of architecture or furniture prevalent in Britain in the 18th century: an elegant Georgian terrace in Edinburgh geostationary adj (of a satellite) orbiting so as to remain over the same point on the earth's surface geothermal adj of or using the heat in the earth's interior geranium n a cultivated plant with scarlet, pink, or white flowers gerbil (jur-bill) n a small rodent with long back legs, often kept as a pet geriatric adj

1 of geriatrics or old people

► n

2 (old-fashioned, offensive) an older person geriatrics n the branch of medicine concerned with illnesses affecting old people germ n

1 a tiny living thing, esp. one that causes disease: a diphtheria germ

◇ SYNONYMS: microbe, virus, bug (informal), bacterium, bacillus, microorganism

2 the beginning from which something may develop: the germ of a book

◇ SYNONYMS: beginning, root, seed, origin, spark, embryo, rudiment

German adj

1 of Germany

► n

2 a person from Germany

3 the official language of Germany, Austria, and parts of Switzerland germane adj relevant: the studies provided some evidence germane to these questions

Germanic n

1 the ancient language from which English, German, and the Scandinavian languages developed

► adj

2 of this ancient language or the languages that developed from it

3 characteristic of German people or things: Germanic-looking individuals germanium n (chem) a brittle grey metalloid element that is a semiconductor and is used in transistors. SYMBOL: Ge

German measles n same as rubella

German shepherd dog n same as Alsatian germinal adj

1 of or in the earliest stage of development: the germinal phases of the case

2 of germ cells germinate vb -nating, -nated to grow or cause to grow > germination n

gerrymandering n the practice of dividing the constituencies of a voting area so as to give one party an unfair advantage

gerund (jer-rund) n a noun formed from a verb, ending in -ing, denoting an action or state, for example running

Gestapo n the secret state police of Nazi Germany gestation n

1 the process of carrying and developing babies in the womb during pregnancy, or the time during which this process takes place

2 the process of developing a plan or idea in the mind gesticulate vb -lating, -lated to make expressive movements with the hands and arms, usually while talking > gesticulation n gesture n

1 a movement of the hands, head, or body to express or emphasize an idea or emotion

◇ SYNONYMS: sign, action, signal, motion, indication, gesticulation

2 something said or done to indicate intention, or as a formality: a gesture of goodwill

► vb -turing, -tured

3 to make expressive movements with the hands and arms

◇ SYNONYMS: signal, sign, wave, indicate, motion, beckon, gesticulate get vb getting, got

1 to come into possession of ◇ SYNONYMS: obtain, receive, gain, acquire, win, land (informal), net, pick up

2 to bring or fetch

◇ SYNONYMS: fetch, bring, collect

3 to catch (an illness)

◇ SYNONYMS: catch, develop, contract, succumb to, fall victim to, go down with, come down with

4 to become: they get frustrated and angry

◇ SYNONYMS: become, grow, turn, come to be

5 to cause to be done or to happen: he got a wart removed; to get steamed up

6 to hear or understand: did you get that joke?

◇ SYNONYMS: understand, follow, catch, see, realize, take in, perceive, grasp

7 to reach (a place or point): we could not get to the airport in time

8 to catch (a bus or train)

9 to persuade: she was trying to get him to give secrets away

◇ SYNONYMS: persuade, convince, induce, influence, entice, incite, impel, prevail upon 10 (informal) to annoy: you know what really gets me?

◇ SYNONYMS: annoy, upset, anger, disturb, trouble, bug (informal), irritate, gall

11 (informal) to baffle: now you've got me

12 (informal) to hit: a bit of grenade got me on the left hip

13 (informal) to be revenged on 14 (informal) to start: we got talking about it; it got me thinking

► See also get across etc get across vb to make (something) understood ◇ SYNONYMS get something across: communicate, pass on, transmit, convey, impart, bring home, make known, put over get at vb

1 to succeed in reaching or discovering: the inquiry tried to get at the truth

◇ SYNONYMS get at something: reach, touch, grasp, get (a) hold of, stretch to

2 to imply or mean: it is hard to see quite what he is getting at

◇ SYNONYMS get at something: imply, mean, suggest, hint, intimate, lead up to, insinuate

3 to annoy or criticize persistently: people who know they're being got at ◇ SYNONYMS get at someone: criticize, attack, blame, put down, knock (informal), nag, pick on, disparage get away vb

1 to escape or leave

2 get away with to do (something wrong) without being caught or punished

► interj

3 an exclamation of disbelief

► n getaway

4 the act of escaping, usually by criminals

► adj getaway

5 used to escape: the getaway car was abandoned get by vb (informal) to manage in spite of difficulties: he saw for himself what people did to get by

◇ SYNONYMS get by: manage, survive, cope, fare, exist, get along, make do, muddle through get off vb

1 to leave (a bus, train, etc.)

2 to escape the consequences of or punishment for an action: the real culprits have got off scot-free

3 get off with (Brit & Austral informal) to begin a romantic or sexual relationship with get over vb

1 to recover from (an illness or unhappy experience)

2 to overcome (a problem)

3 get over with to bring (something necessary but unpleasant) to an end: better to get it over with get through vb

1 to complete (a task or process)

2 to use up (money or supplies)

3 to succeed in (an examination or test)

4 get through to

A to succeed in making (someone) understand

B to contact (someone) by telephone geyser (geez-er) n

1 a spring that discharges steam and hot water

2 (Brit & S African) a domestic gas water heater

GF or gf girlfriendghastly adj -lier, -liest

1 (informal) very unpleasant

◇ SYNONYMS: horrible, shocking (informal), terrible (informal), awful, dreadful, horrendous, hideous, frightful

2 deathly pale

3 horrible: a ghastly accident

ghat n (in India)

1 stairs leading down to a river

2 a place of cremation

3 a mountain pass ghee (gee) n clarified butter, used in Indian cookery gherkin n a small pickled cucumber ghetto n, pl -tos or -toes an area that is inhabited by people of a particular race, religion, nationality, or class ghillie n same as gillie ghost n

1 the disembodied spirit of a dead person, supposed to haunt the living

◇ SYNONYMS: spirit, soul, phantom, spectre, spook (informal), apparition, wraith, atua (NZ), kehua (NZ), wairua (NZ)

2 a faint trace: the ghost of a smile on his face

◇ SYNONYMS: trace, shadow, suggestion, hint, suspicion, glimmer, semblance

3 a faint secondary image in an optical instrument or on a television screen ghost gum n (Austral) a eucalyptus with a white trunk and branches ghostly adj -lier, -liest frightening in appearance or effect: ghostly noises

◇ SYNONYMS: unearthly, phantom, eerie, supernatural, spooky (informal), spectral ghost town n a town that used to be busy but is now deserted ghoul (gool) n

1 a person who is interested in morbid or disgusting things

2 a demon that eats corpses > ghoulish adj

> ghoulishly adv

GI n, pl GIs or GI's (US informal) a soldier in the US Army giant n

1 a mythical figure of superhuman size and strength

◇ SYNONYMS: ogre, monster, titan, colossus

2 a person or thing of exceptional size, ability, or importance: industrial giants

► adj

3 remarkably large

◇ SYNONYMS: huge, vast, enormous, tremendous, immense, titanic, gigantic, monumental (informal), supsize

4 (of an atom or ion or its structure) having large numbers of particles present in a crystal lattice, with each particle exerting a strong force of attraction on those near to it gibber¹ (jib-ber) vb to talk in a fast and unintelligible manner gibber² (gib-ber) n (Austral)

1 a boulder

2 barren land covered with stones gibberish (jib-ber-rish) n rapid incomprehensible talk; nonsense gibbet (jib-bit) n a gallows gibbon (gib-bon) n a small agile ape of the forests of S Asia gibbous (gib-bus) adj (of the moon) more than half but less than fully illuminated gibe (jibe) n, vb gibing, giped same as jibe giblets (jib-lits) pl n the gizzard, liver, heart, and neck of a fowl giddy or g'day interj (Austral & NZ) a variant of g'day giddy adj -dier, -diest

1 feeling weak and unsteady on one's feet, as if about to faint

2 happy and excited: a state of giddy expectation > giddiness n

gift n

1 something given to someone: a birthday gift

◇ SYNONYMS: donation, offering, present, contribution, grant, legacy, hand-out, endowment, bonsela (S African), koha (NZ)

2 a special ability or power: a gift for caricature

◇ SYNONYMS: talent, ability, capacity, genius, power, capability, flair, knack gifted adj having natural talent or aptitude: that era's most gifted director

◇ SYNONYMS: talented, able, skilled, expert, masterly, brilliant, capable, clever gig¹ n

1 a single performance by jazz or pop musicians

► vb gigging, gighed

2 to play gigs

gig² n a light open two-wheeled one-horse carriage gig³ n (computers, informal) short for gigabyte gigabyte n (computers) one thousand and twenty-four megabytes gigantic adj extremely large: the most gigantic gold paperweight ever

◇ SYNONYMS: huge, large, giant, massive, enormous, tremendous, immense, titanic, supersize gig economy n (informal) an economy in which there are few permanent employees and most jobs are assigned to temporary or freelance workers

giggle vb -gling, -gled

1 to laugh nervously or foolishly

◇ SYNONYMS: laugh, chuckle, snigger, chortle, titter, twitter

► n

2 a nervous or foolish laugh

◇ SYNONYMS: laugh, chuckle, snigger, chortle, titter, twitter

3 (informal) an amusing person or thing > giggly adj

gigolo (jig-a-lo) n, pl -los a man who is paid by an older woman to be her escort or lover gigot n (chiefly Brit) a leg of lamb or mutton gild vb gilding, gilded or gilt

1 to cover with a thin layer of gold

2 to make (something) appear golden: the morning sun gilded the hills

3 gild the lily

A to adorn unnecessarily something already beautiful

B to praise someone excessively gill (jill) n a unit of liquid measure equal to one quarter of a pint (0.14 litres) gillie or ghillie n (Scot) an attendant or guide for hunting or fishing gills (gillz) pl n the breathing organs of fish and other water creatures gilt vb

1 a past of gild

► adj

2 covered with a thin layer of gold

► n

3 a thin layer of gold, used as decoration gilt-edged adj denoting government securities on which interest payments and final repayments are guaranteed gimcrack (jim-krak) adj showy but cheap; shoddy gimlet (gim-let) n

1 a small hand tool with a pointed spiral tip, used for boring holes in wood

► adj

2 penetrating or piercing: gimlet eyes gimmick n (informal) something designed to attract attention or publicity > gimmickry n

> gimmicky adj

gin¹ n an alcoholic drink distilled from malted grain and flavoured with juniper berries gin² n a noose of thin strong wire for catching small mammals ginger n

1 the root of a tropical plant, chopped or powdered and used as a spice, or sugared and eaten as a sweet

► adj

2 light reddish-brown: ginger hair

> gingery adj

ginger ale n a nonalcoholic fizzy drink flavoured with ginger extract gingerbread n a moist brown cake flavoured with ginger ginger group n (Brit & Austral & NZ) a group within a larger group that agitates for a more active policy gingerly adv carefully or cautiously: she sat gingerly on the edge of the chair

ginger nut or ginger snap n a hard biscuit flavoured with ginger gingham n a cotton fabric with a checked or striped design gingivitis (jin-jiv-vite-iss) n inflammation of the gums ginseng (jin-seng) n the root of a plant of China and N America, believed to have tonic and energy-giving properties

Gipsy n, pl -sies same as Gypsy giraffe n a cud-chewing African mammal with a very long neck and long legs and a spotted yellowy skin gird vb girding, girded or girt

1 to put a belt or girdle around

2 gird (up) one's loins to prepare oneself for action girder n a large steel or iron beam used in the construction of bridges and buildings girdle n

1 an elastic corset that covers the stomach and hips

2 anything that surrounds something or someone: encased in a girdle of concrete

3 (anatomy) an encircling arrangement of bones: the shoulder girdle

► vb -dling, -dled

4 to surround: a ring of volcanic ash girdling the earth

girl n

1 a female child

◇ SYNONYMS: female child, lass, lassie (informal), miss (old-fashioned, or derogatory), maiden (archaic), maid (archaic)

2 a young woman > girlhood n

> girlish adj

girlfriend n

1 a female friend with whom a person is romantically or sexually involved

◇ SYNONYMS: sweetheart, love, girl, lover, beloved, valentine, truelove, steady (informal), GF or gf (informal), bae (US informal)

2 any female friend girlie adj (informal)

- 1 featuring naked or scantily dressed women: girlie magazines 2 suited to or designed to appeal to young women: a real girlie night out

giro (jire-oh) n, pl -ros

- 1 (in some countries) a system of transferring money within a bank or post office, directly from one account into another 2 (Brit informal) an unemployment or income support payment by giro cheque girt vb a past of gird girth n

- 1 the measurement around something 2 a band fastened round a horse's middle to keep the saddle in position gist (jist) n the main point or meaning of something: the gist of the letter give vb giving, gave, given

- 1 to present or hand (something) to someone ◇ SYNONYMS: present, contribute, donate, provide, supply, award, grant, deliver 2 to pay (an amount of money) for a purchase 3 to grant or provide: to give an answer 4 to utter (a shout or cry) ◇ SYNONYMS: communicate, announce, transmit, pronounce, utter, issue 5 to perform, make, or do: the prime minister gave a speech ◇ SYNONYMS: perform, do, carry out, execute 6 to host (a party)
7 to sacrifice or devote: comrades who gave their lives for their country ◇ SYNONYMS: surrender, yield, devote, hand over, relinquish, part with 8 to concede: he was very efficient, I have to give him that ◇ SYNONYMS: concede, allow, grant 9 to yield or break under pressure: something has got to give 10 give or take plus or minus: about one hundred metres, give or take five

► n

11 a tendency to yield under pressure; elasticity

► See also give away, give in etc > giver n

give away vb

1 to donate as a gift

2 to reveal (a secret)

◇ SYNONYMS give something away: reveal, expose, leak, disclose, betray, uncover, let out, divulge

3 to present (a bride) formally to her spouse in a marriage ceremony

4 give something away (NZ) to give something up

► n giveaway

5 something that reveals hidden feelings or intentions

► adj giveaway

6 very cheap or free: a giveaway rent give in vb to admit defeat

◇ SYNONYMS give in: admit defeat, yield, concede, collapse, quit, submit, surrender, succumb give off vb to send out (heat, light, or a smell)

◇ SYNONYMS give something off or out: emit, produce, release, discharge, send out, throw out, exude give out vb

1 to hand out: the bloke that was giving out those tickets

2 to send out (heat, light, or a smell)

3 to make known: the woman who gave out the news

4 to fail: the engine gave out give over vb

1 to set aside for a specific purpose: the amount of space given over to advertisements

2 (informal) to stop doing something annoying: tell him to give over give up vb

1 to stop (doing something): I did give up smoking

◇ SYNONYMS give something up: abandon, stop, quit, cease, renounce, leave off, desist

2 to resign from (a job or position)

3 to admit defeat or failure

4 to abandon (hope)

5 give oneself up

A to surrender to the police or other authorities

B to devote oneself completely: she gave herself up to her work gizzard n the part of a bird's stomach in which hard food is broken up glacé (glass-say) adj preserved in a thick sugary syrup: glacé cherries glacial adj

1 of glaciers or ice

2 extremely cold

3 cold and unfriendly: a glacial stare glaciation n the process of covering part of the earth's surface with glaciers or masses of ice > glaciated adj

glacier n a slowly moving mass of ice formed by an accumulation of snow glad adj gladder, gladdest

1 happy and pleased

◇ SYNONYMS: happy, pleased, delighted, contented, gratified, joyful, overjoyed

2 very willing: he was only too glad to help

3 (archaic) causing happiness: glad tidings

◇ SYNONYMS: pleasing, happy, cheering, pleasant, cheerful, gratifying > gladly adv

> gladness n

> gladden vb

glade n an open space in a forest: a peaceful and sheltered glade gladiator n (in ancient Rome) a man trained to fight in arenas to provide entertainment > gladiatorial adj

gladiolus (glad-ee-oh-luss) n, pl -li (-lie) a garden plant with brightly coloured funnel-shaped flowers glad rags pl n (informal) one's best clothes gladwrap (Austral & NZ & S African) n

1 (trademark) thin polythene material for wrapping

► vb

2 to wrap in gladwrap glamorous adj attractive or fascinating

◇ SYNONYMS: attractive, elegant, dazzling glamour or (US) glamor n exciting or alluring charm or beauty ◇ SYNONYMS: charm, appeal, beauty, attraction, fascination, allure, enchantment > glamorize or -ise vb

glance n

1 a quick look

◇ SYNONYMS: peek, look, glimpse, peep, dekho (slang, old-fashioned)

► vb glancing, glanced

2 to look quickly at something

◇ SYNONYMS: peek, look, view, glimpse, peep

3 to be deflected off an object at an oblique angle: the ball glanced off a spectator > glancing adj

gland n

1 an organ that synthesizes and secretes chemical substances for the body to use or eliminate

2 a similar organ in plants glandular adj of or affecting a gland or glands glare vb glaring, glared

1 to stare angrily

◇ SYNONYMS: scowl, frown, glower, look daggers, lour or lower

2 (of light or colour) to be too bright

◇ SYNONYMS: dazzle, blaze, flare, flame

► n

3 an angry stare

◇ SYNONYMS: scowl, frown, glower, dirty look, black look, lour or lower

4 a dazzling light or brilliance

◇ SYNONYMS: dazzle, glow, blaze, flame, brilliance

5 in the glare of publicity receiving a lot of attention from the media or the public glaring adj conspicuous or obvious: glaring inconsistencies

◇ SYNONYMS: obvious, gross, outrageous, manifest, blatant, conspicuous, flagrant, unconcealed > glaringly adv

glass n

- 1 a hard brittle transparent solid, consisting of metal silicates or similar compounds
- 2 a drinking vessel made of glass
- 3 the amount contained in a drinking glass: a glass of wine
- 4 objects made of glass, such as drinking glasses and bowls glasshouse n (Brit & NZ) same as greenhouse glassy adj glassier, glassiest

- 1 smooth, clear, and shiny, like glass: the glassy sea
- 2 expressionless: that glassy look glaucoma n an eye disease in which increased pressure in the eyeball causes gradual loss of sight glaze vb glazing, glazed

- 1 to fit or cover with glass
- 2 to cover (a piece of pottery) with a protective shiny coating
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: coat, polish, gloss, varnish, enamel, lacquer
- 3 to cover (food) with beaten egg or milk before cooking, in order to produce a shiny coating
 - n
 - 4 a protective shiny coating applied to a piece of pottery
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: coat, finish, polish, shine, gloss, varnish, enamel, lacquer
 - 5 a shiny coating of beaten egg or milk applied to food
 - > glazed adj
 - > glazing n glazier n a person who fits windows or doors with glass gleam n

- 1 a small beam or glow of light

◇ SYNONYMS: glimmer, flash, beam, glow, sparkle

2 a brief or dim indication: a gleam of anticipation in his eye

◇ SYNONYMS: trace, suggestion, hint, flicker, glimmer, inkling

► vb

3 to shine

◇ SYNONYMS: shine, flash, glow, sparkle, glitter, shimmer, glint, glimmer > gleaming adj

glean vb

1 to gather (information) bit by bit

2 to gather the useful remnants of (a crop) after harvesting > gleaner n

glee n great merriment or joy, esp. caused by the misfortune of another person gleeful adj merry or joyful, esp. over someone else's mistake or misfortune > gleefully adv

glen n a deep narrow mountain valley glib adj glibber, glibbest fluent and easy, often in an insincere or deceptive way: there were no glib or easy answers

> glibly adv

> glibness n

glide vb gliding, glided

1 to move easily and smoothly

◇ SYNONYMS: slip, sail, slide

2 (of an aircraft) to land without engine power

3 to fly a glider

4 to float on currents of air glider n

- 1 an aircraft that does not use an engine, but flies by floating on air currents
- 2 (Austral) a flying phalanger gliding n the sport of flying in a glider glimmer vb

- 1 (of a light) to glow faintly or flickeringly
- n
- 2 a faint indication: a glimmer of hope
- 3 a glow or twinkle glimpse n

- 1 a brief view: a glimpse of a rare snow leopard
- ◇ SYNONYMS: look, sighting, sight, glance, peep, peek
- 2 a vague indication: glimpses of insecurity
- vb glimpsing, glimpsed
- 3 to catch sight of momentarily
- ◇ SYNONYMS: catch sight of, spot, sight, view, spy, espy

glint vb

- 1 to gleam brightly
- n
- 2 a bright gleam glissando n, pl -dos (music) a slide between two notes in which all intermediate notes are played glisten vb (of a wet or glossy surface) to gleam by reflecting light: sweat glistened above her eyes glitch n a small problem that stops something from working properly glitter vb

1 (of a surface) to reflect light in bright flashes

◇ SYNONYMS: shine, flash, sparkle, glare, gleam, shimmer, twinkle, glint

2 (of light) to be reflected in bright flashes

◇ SYNONYMS: shine, flash, sparkle, glare, gleam, shimmer, twinkle, glint

3 to be brilliant in a showy way: she glitters socially

◇ SYNONYMS: shine, flash, sparkle, glare, gleam, shimmer, twinkle, glint

► n

4 a sparkling light

◇ SYNONYMS: sparkle, flash, shine, glare, gleam, sheen, shimmer, brightness

5 superficial glamour: the trappings and glitter of the European aristocracy

◇ SYNONYMS: glamour, show, display, splendour, tinsel, pageantry, gaudiness, showiness

6 tiny pieces of shiny decorative material

7 (Canad) ice formed from freezing rain > glittering adj

> glittery adj

glitzy adj glitzier, glitziest (slang) showily attractive gloaming n (Scot poetic) twilight; dusk gloat vb to regard one's own good fortune or the misfortune of others with smug or malicious pleasure glob n (informal) a rounded mass of thick fluid global adj

1 of or applying to the whole earth: global environmental problems

◇ SYNONYMS: worldwide, world, international, universal

2 of or applying to the whole of something: a global total for local-authority revenue

◇ SYNONYMS: comprehensive, general, total, unlimited, exhaustive, all-inclusive > globally adv

globalize or -lize vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised

1 to do business in countries all around the world

2 to put (something) into effect worldwide > globalization or -lisation n global warming n an increase in the overall temperature worldwide believed to be caused by the greenhouse effect globe n

1 a sphere on which a map of the world is drawn

◇ SYNONYMS: planet, world, earth, sphere, orb

2 the globe the earth

◇ SYNONYMS: planet, world, earth, sphere, orb

3 a spherical object, such as a glass lamp shade or fishbowl

4 (S African) an electric light bulb globetrotter n a habitual worldwide traveller > globetrotting n, adj globular adj shaped like a globe or globule globule n a small round drop of liquid glockenspiel n a percussion instrument consisting of tuned metal plates played with a pair of small hammers gloom n

1 depression or melancholy: all doom and gloom

◇ SYNONYMS: depression, sorrow, woe, melancholy, unhappiness, despondency, dejection, low spirits

2 partial or total darkness

◇ SYNONYMS: darkness, dark, shadow, shade, twilight, dusk (poetic), obscurity, blackness gloomy adj gloomier, gloomiest

1 despairing or sad

◇ SYNONYMS: miserable, sad, pessimistic, melancholy, glum, dejected, dispirited, downcast

2 causing depression or gloom: gloomy economic forecasts

◇ SYNONYMS: depressing, bad, dreary, sombre, dispiriting, disheartening, cheerless

3 dark or dismal

◇ SYNONYMS: dark, dull, dim, dismal, black, grey, murky, dreary > gloomily adv

glorify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to make (something) seem more important than it really is: the discussion forum is just a glorified noticeboard

2 to praise: few countries have glorified success in business more than the United States

3 to worship (God) > glorification n

glorious adj

1 brilliantly beautiful: in glorious colour

◇ SYNONYMS: splendid, beautiful, brilliant, shining, superb, gorgeous, dazzling

2 delightful or enjoyable: the glorious summer weather

◇ SYNONYMS: delightful, fine, wonderful, excellent, marvellous, gorgeous

3 having or full of glory: glorious successes

◇ SYNONYMS: illustrious, famous, celebrated, distinguished, honoured, magnificent, renowned, eminent > gloriously adv

glory n, pl -ries

1 fame, praise, or honour: tales of glory

◇ SYNONYMS: honour, praise, fame, distinction, acclaim, prestige, eminence, renown

2 beauty: the glory of the tropical day

3 something worthy of praise: the Lady Chapel is the great glory of Lichfield

4 adoration or worship: the greater glory of God

► vb -ries, -rying, -ried

5 glory in to take great pleasure in: the workers were glorying in their new-found freedom

◇ SYNONYMS: triumph, boast, relish, revel, exult, take delight in, pride yourself on glory hole n an untidy cupboard or storeroom gloss¹ n

1 a bright shine on a surface

◇ SYNONYMS: shine, gleam, sheen, polish, brightness, veneer, lustre, patina

2 a superficially attractive appearance

3 a paint with a shiny finish

4 a cosmetic used to give a shiny appearance: lip gloss

► vb

5 to paint with gloss

6 gloss over to conceal (an error, failing, or awkward moment) by minimizing it: don't try to gloss over bad news

gloss² n

1 an explanatory comment added to the text of a book

◇ SYNONYMS: interpretation, comment, note, explanation, commentary, translation, footnote, elucidation

► vb

2 to add a gloss or glosses to ◇ SYNONYMS: interpret, explain, comment, translate, annotate, elucidate glossary n, pl -ries an alphabetical list of technical or specialist words in a book, with explanations glossy adj glossier, glossiest

1 smooth and shiny: glossy black hair

◇ SYNONYMS: shiny, polished, shining, glazed, bright, silky, glassy, lustrous

2 superficially attractive or sophisticated: his glossy Manhattan flat

3 (of a magazine) produced on expensive shiny paper glottis n the opening at the top of the windpipe, between the vocal cords glove n

1 a shaped covering for the hand with individual sheaths for each finger and the thumb

2 a protective hand covering worn in sports such as boxing glove compartment n a small storage area in the dashboard of a car gloved adj covered by a glove or gloves: a gloved hand glow n

1 light produced as a result of great heat

◇ SYNONYMS: light, gleam, splendour, glimmer, brilliance, brightness, radiance, luminosity

2 a steady light without flames

◇ SYNONYMS: light, gleam, splendour, glimmer, brilliance, brightness, radiance, luminosity

3 brightness of complexion

4 a feeling of wellbeing or satisfaction

► vb

5 to produce a steady light without flames

◇ SYNONYMS: shine, burn, gleam, brighten, glimmer, smoulder

6 to shine intensely

◇ SYNONYMS: shine, burn, gleam, brighten, glimmer, smoulder

7 to experience a feeling of wellbeing or satisfaction: she glowed with pleasure

8 (of the complexion) to have a strong bright colour: his pale face glowing at the recollection glower (rhymes with power) vb

1 to stare angrily

► n

2 an angry stare

glow-worm n a European beetle, the females and larvae of which have organs producing a soft greenish light gloxinia n a plant with white, red, or purple bell-shaped flowers glucose n a white crystalline sugar found in plant and animal tissues glue n

1 a substance used for sticking things together

◇ SYNONYMS: adhesive, cement, gum, paste

► vb gluing or glueing, glued

2 to join or stick together with glue

◇ SYNONYMS: stick, fix, seal, cement, gum, paste, affix

3 glued to paying full attention to: she lay on the sofa, glued to her phone

> gluey adj

glue-sniffing n the practice of inhaling glue fumes to produce intoxicating or hallucinatory effects > glue-sniffer n

glum adj glummer, glummost gloomy and quiet, usually because of a disappointment > glumly adv

glut n

1 an excessive supply

► vb glutting, glutted

2 to supply (a market) with a commodity in excess of the demand for it

3 glut oneself to eat or drink more than one really needs gluten (gloo-ten) n a sticky protein found in cereal grains, such as wheat glutinous (gloo-tin-uss) adj gluelike in texture glutton n

1 someone who eats and drinks too much

2 a person who has a great capacity for something: a glutton for work > gluttonous adj gluttony n the practice of eating too much glycerine (gliss-ser-reen) or glycerin n a nontechnical name for glycerol glycerol (gliss-ser-ol) n a colourless odourless syrupy liquid obtained from animal and vegetable fats, used as a solvent, antifreeze, and sweetener, and in explosives

gm gram

GM

1 genetically modified

2 (Brit) grant-maintained

GMO genetically modified organism

GMT Greenwich Mean Time

gnarled adj rough, twisted, and knobbly, usually through age gnash vb to grind (the teeth) together in pain or anger gnat n a small biting two-winged insect gnaw vb

1 to bite or chew constantly so as to wear away bit by bit

2 gnaw at to cause constant distress or anxiety to: uneasiness gnawed at his mind > gnawing adj

gneiss n a coarse-grained layered metamorphic rock gnome n

1 an imaginary creature in fairy tales that looks like a little old man

2 a small statue of a gnome in a garden gnomic (no-mik) adj (literary) of or containing short clever sayings: gnomic pronouncements

Gnosticism (noss-tiss-siz-zum) n a religious movement involving belief in intuitive spiritual knowledge

> Gnostic n, adj

gnu (noo) n, pl gnus or gnu a sturdy African antelope with an oxlike head go vb goes, going, went, gone

1 to move or proceed to or from a place: go forward

◇ SYNONYMS: move, travel, advance, journey, proceed, pass, set off

2 to be in regular attendance at (work, church, or a place of learning)

3 to lead to a particular place: the path that goes right along the bank

4 to be kept in a particular place: where does this go?

5 to do or become as specified: he went white; the gun went bang

6 to be or continue to be in a specified state: to go to sleep

7 to operate or function: the car wouldn't go

◇ SYNONYMS: function, work, run, move, operate, perform

8 to follow a specified course; fare: I'd hate the meeting to go badly

9 to be allotted to a particular purpose or recipient: a third of the total budget goes on the army

◇ SYNONYMS: be given, be spent, be awarded, be allotted

10 to be sold: the portrait went for a fortune to a telephone bidder

11 (of words or music) to be expressed or sung: the song goes like this

12 to fail or break down: my eyesight is going; he was on lap 19 when the engine went

13 to die: she went quickly at the end

14 to be spent or finished: all tension and all hope had gone

15 to proceed up to or beyond certain limits: I think this is going too far

16 to carry authority: what Mummy says goes

17 to endure or last out: they go for eight or ten hours without resting

18 (not standard) to say: then she goes, 'shut up'

19 anything goes anything is acceptable

20 be going to to intend or be about to: he was afraid of what was going to happen next

21 let go to relax one's hold on; release

22 let oneself go

A to act in an uninhibited manner

B to lose interest in one's appearance

23 to go remaining: two days to go till the holidays

► n, pl goes

24 an attempt: he had a go at the furniture business

◇ SYNONYMS: attempt, try, effort, bid, shot (informal), crack (informal)

25 a verbal or physical attack: she couldn't resist having another go at me

26 a turn to do something in a game: 'Your go now!' I shouted

◇ SYNONYMS: turn, shot (informal), stint

27 (informal) the quality of being active and energetic: a grand old man, full of go and determination

◇ SYNONYMS: energy, life, drive, spirit, vitality, vigour, verve, force

28 from the word go (informal) from the very beginning

29 make a go of (informal) to be successful in (a business venture or a relationship)

30 on the go (informal) active and energetic goad vb

1 to provoke (someone) to take some kind of action, usually in anger

► n

2 something that provokes someone to take some kind of action

3 a sharp pointed stick for driving cattle goal n

1 (sport) the space into which players try to propel the ball or puck to score

2 (sport)

A a successful attempt at scoring

B the score so made

3 an aim or purpose: the goal is to get homeless people on their feet

◇ SYNONYMS: aim, end, target, purpose, object, intention, objective, ambition > goalless adj

goalie n (informal) a goalkeeper goalkeeper n (sport) a player whose duty is to prevent the ball or puck from entering the goal goalpost n

1 either of two uprights supporting the crossbar of a goal

2 move the goalposts to change the aims of an activity to ensure the desired results goanna n a large Australian lizard goat n

1 an agile cud-chewing mammal with hollow horns

2 act the goat (informal) to behave in a silly manner

3 get someone's goat (slang) to annoy someone goatee n a small pointed beard that does not cover the cheeks gob¹ n a thick mass of a soft substance gob² n (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) the mouth go back on vb to fail to fulfil (a promise): he went back on his promise not to raise taxes

gobbet n a chunk or lump gobble¹ vb -bling, -bled to eat quickly and greedily gobble² n

1 the loud rapid gurgling sound made by a turkey

► vb -bling, -bled

2 to make this sound

gobbledegook or gobbledygook n pretentious or unintelligible language go-between n a person who acts as a messenger between two people or groups goblet n a drinking vessel with a base and stem but without handles goblin n a small grotesque creature in fairy tales that causes trouble for people goby n, pl -by or -bies a small spiny-finned fish

god n

1 a supernatural being, worshipped as the controller of the universe or some aspect of life, or as the personification of some force

◇ SYNONYMS: deity, immortal, divinity, divine being, supreme being, atua (NZ)

2 an image of such a being

3 a person or thing to which excessive attention is given: the All Blacks are gods in New Zealand

4 the gods the top balcony in a theatre

God n

1 the sole Supreme Being, Creator and ruler of all, in religions such as Christianity, Judaism, and Islam

► interj

2 an oath or exclamation of surprise or annoyance godchild n, pl -children a person who is sponsored by godparents at baptism goddaughter n a female godchild goddess n a female god godetia n a garden plant with showy flowers godfather n

1 a male godparent

2 the head of a Mafia family or other criminal ring godforsaken adj desolate or dreary: some godforsaken village in the Himalayas godly adj -lier, -liest deeply religious ◇ SYNONYMS: devout, religious, holy, righteous, pious, good, saintly, god-fearing > godliness n godmother n a female godparent godparent n a person who promises at a person's baptism to look after his or her religious upbringing godsend n a person or thing that comes unexpectedly but is very welcome godson n a male godchild go for vb

1 to choose: any politician will go for the soft option

2 (informal) to like very much

3 to attack

4 to apply equally to: the same might go for the other woman go-getter n (informal) an ambitious enterprising person > go-getting adj gogga (hohh-a) n (S African informal) an insect ◇ SYNONYMS: insect, bug, creepy-crawly (Brit informal) goggle vb -gling, -gled to stare with wide-open eyes ► See also goggles > goggle-eyed adj goggles pl n close-fitting protective spectacles going n

1 the condition of the ground with regard to walking or riding: the going for the cross-country is perfect

2 (informal) speed or progress: not bad going for a lad of 58

► adj

3 thriving: the racecourse was a going concern

4 current or accepted: this is the going rate for graduates going-over n, pl goings-over (informal)

1 a thorough examination or investigation

2 a physical beating goings-on pl n (informal) mysterious or shady activities goitre or (US) goiter (goy-ter) n (pathol) a swelling of the thyroid gland in the neck go-kart n a small four-wheeled motor vehicle, used for racing gold n

1 a bright yellow precious metal, used as a monetary standard and in jewellery and plating. SYMBOL: Au

2 jewellery or coins made of this metal

3 short for gold medal

► adj

4 deep yellow

goldcrest n a small bird with a bright yellow-and-black crown gold-digger n (informal) someone who enters into a relationship with a more affluent person in order to get money or expensive things

golden adj

1 made of gold: golden bangles

2 of the colour of gold: golden corn

◇ SYNONYMS: yellow, blonde, blond, flaxen

3 (informal) very successful or destined for success: the golden girl of British athletics

◇ SYNONYMS: successful, glorious, prosperous, rich, flourishing, halcyon

4 excellent or valuable: a golden opportunity for peace

◇ SYNONYMS: promising, excellent, favourable, opportune (formal)

5 (of an anniversary) the fiftieth: golden wedding; Golden Jubilee golden eagle n a large mountain eagle of the N hemisphere with golden-brown feathers golden handshake n (informal) money given to an employee either on retirement or to compensate for loss of employment golden rule n an important principle: the golden rule is to start with the least difficult problems golden wattle n an Australian plant with yellow flowers that yields a useful gum and bark goldfinch n a European finch, the adult of which has yellow-and-black wings goldfish n, pl -fish or -fishes a gold or orange-red freshwater fish, often kept as a pet gold leaf n very thin gold sheet made by rolling or hammering gold and used for gilding gold medal n a medal made of gold, awarded to the winner of a race or competition golf n

1 a game in which a ball is struck with clubs into a series of eighteen holes in a grassy course

► vb

2 to play golf > golfer n

gondola n

1 a long narrow flat-bottomed boat with a high ornamented stem, traditionally used on the canals of Venice

2 a moving cabin suspended from a cable, used as a ski lift gondolier n a person who propels a gondola gone vb

1 the past participle of go

► adj

2 no longer present or no longer in existence

◇ SYNONYMS: past, over, ended, finished, elapsed goner n (slang) a person who is about to die or who is beyond help gong n

1 a flat circular metal disc that is hit with a hammer to give out a loud sound

2 (Brit slang) a medal gonorrhoea or (esp US) gonorrhea (gon-or-ree-a) n a sexually transmitted disease that causes inflammation and a discharge from the genital organs good adj better, best

1 having admirable, pleasing, or superior qualities: a good listener

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, great (informal), fine, pleasing, acceptable, first-class, splendid, satisfactory, booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal)

2 morally excellent; virtuous: a good person

◇ SYNONYMS: honourable, moral, worthy, ethical, upright, admirable, honest, righteous

3 beneficial: exercise is good for the heart

◇ SYNONYMS: beneficial, useful, helpful, favourable, wholesome, advantageous

4 kindly or generous: he is so good to us

◇ SYNONYMS: kind, kindly, friendly, obliging, charitable, humane, benevolent, merciful

5 competent or talented: she's good at physics

◇ SYNONYMS: proficient, able, skilled, expert, talented, clever, accomplished, first-class

6 obedient or well-behaved: a good boy

◇ SYNONYMS: well-behaved, polite, orderly, obedient, dutiful, well-mannered

7 reliable or recommended: a good make

◇ SYNONYMS: true, real, genuine, proper, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal)

8 complete or thorough: she went to have a good look round

◇ SYNONYMS: considerable, large, substantial, sufficient, adequate, ample

9 appropriate or opportune: a good time to clear the air

◇ SYNONYMS: convenient, timely, fitting, appropriate, suitable

10 satisfying or enjoyable: a good holiday

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, great (informal), fine, pleasing, acceptable, first-class, splendid, satisfactory, booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal)

11 newest or of the best quality: keep the good dishes for guests

12 fairly large, extensive, or long: they contain a good amount of protein

◇ SYNONYMS: full, complete, extensive 13 as good as virtually or practically: the war was as good as over

► n

14 advantage or benefit: what is the good of it all?

◇ SYNONYMS: benefit, interest, gain, advantage, use, profit, welfare, usefulness

15 positive moral qualities; virtue

◇ SYNONYMS: virtue, goodness, righteousness, worth, merit, excellence, morality, rectitude

16 for good for ever; permanently: his political career was over for good goodbye interj

1 an expression used on parting

◇ SYNONYMS: farewell, see you, see you later, ciao (Italian), cheerio, adieu, ta-ta, au revoir (French), haere ra (NZ)

► n

2 the act of saying goodbye: he said his goodbyes

◇ SYNONYMS: farewell, parting, leave-taking good-for-nothing n

1 an irresponsible or worthless person

► adj

2 irresponsible or worthless goodly adj -lier, -liest fairly large: a goodly number of children goodness n

1 the quality of being good

◇ SYNONYMS: kindness, charity, humanity, goodwill, mercy, compassion, generosity, friendliness

► interj

2 an exclamation of surprise

Good Samaritan n a person who helps someone in difficulty or distress goodwill n

1 kindly feelings towards other people

◇ SYNONYMS: friendliness, friendship, benevolence, amity (formal), kindness

2 the popularity and good reputation of a well-established business, considered as a valuable asset goody interj

1 a child's exclamation of pleasure

► n, pl goodies

2 (informal) the hero in a film or book goody-goody (informal) n, pl -goodies

1 a person who behaves well in order to please people in authority

► adj

2 behaving well in order to please people in authority gooey adj gooier, gooiest (informal)

1 sticky, soft, and often sweet

2 sentimental: one knows the whole gooey performance is an act

goof vb (informal)

1 to bungle or botch

2 goof off (US & Canad) to spend time in a lazy or foolish way: he's goofing off on the Costa del Sol

go off vb

1 to stop functioning: the heating went off

2 to make a sudden loud noise: a bomb went off

◇ SYNONYMS go off: explode, fire, blow up, detonate

3 to occur as specified: the actual launch went off perfectly

◇ SYNONYMS go off: take place, come about 4 (informal) (of food) to become stale or rotten

◇ SYNONYMS go off: go bad, turn, spoil, rot, go stale

5 (Brit informal) to stop liking google vb

1 to search for (something) on the internet using a search engine

2 to check the credentials of (someone) by searching for websites containing his or her name googly n, pl -lies (cricket) a ball bowled like a leg break but spinning from off to leg on pitching goon n

1 a stupid person

2 (US informal) a hired thug goose n, pl geese

1 a fairly large web-footed long-necked migratory bird

2 the female of such a bird

3 the flesh of the goose used for food

4 (informal) a silly person gooseberry n, pl -ries

1 a small edible green berry with tiny hairs on the skin

2 play gooseberry (Brit & NZ informal) to be an unwanted single person accompanying a couple goose flesh n the bumpy condition of the skin due to cold or fear, in which the muscles at the base of the hair follicles contract, making the hair bristle. Also:

goose pimples

go out vb

1 to go to entertainments or social functions

2 to be extinguished or cease to function: the lights went out

◇ SYNONYMS go out: be extinguished, die out, fade out

3 (of information) to be released publicly

4 (of a broadcast) to be transmitted

5 go out with to have a romantic relationship with ◇ SYNONYMS go out with: see someone, court, date (informal), woo, go steady with (informal), be romantically involved with, step out with (informal)

go over vb

1 to examine very carefully

2 go over to to change to: he went over to the Free Orthodox Church gopher (go-fer) n an American burrowing rodent with wide cheek pouches gore¹ n blood shed from a wound

◇ SYNONYMS: blood, slaughter, bloodshed, carnage, butchery gore² vb goring, gored (of an animal) to pierce or stab (a person or another animal) with a horn or tusk

◇ SYNONYMS: pierce, wound, transfix, impale gorge n

1 a deep narrow steep-sided valley

◇ SYNONYMS: ravine, canyon, pass, chasm, cleft, fissure, defile, gulch (US & Canad)

2 one's gorge rises one feels disgusted or nauseated

► vb gorging, gorged

3 Also: gorge oneself to eat greedily

◇ SYNONYMS: stuff, feed, cram, glut gorgeous adj

1 strikingly beautiful or attractive

◇ SYNONYMS: beautiful, lovely, stunning (informal), elegant, handsome, exquisite, ravishing, hot (informal) 2 (informal) warm, sunny, and very pleasant: a gorgeous day > gorgeously adv

Gorgon n

1 (Greek myth) one of three monstrous sisters who had live snakes for hair, and were so horrifying that anyone who looked at them was turned to stone 2 (derogatory) a terrifying or repulsive woman

Gorgonzola n a sharp-flavoured blue-veined Italian cheese gorilla n a very large W African ape with coarse black hair gormless adj (Brit & NZ informal) stupid or dull-witted gorse n an evergreen shrub with small yellow flowers and prickles, which grows wild in the countryside gory adj gorier, goriest

1 horrific or bloodthirsty: the gory details 2 bloody: gory remains goshawk n a large swift short-winged hawk gosling n a young goose go-slow n (Brit & NZ) a deliberate slowing of the rate of production by workers as a tactic in industrial conflict gospel n

1 (Christianity)

A the teachings of Jesus Christ

◇ SYNONYMS: doctrine, news, teachings, message, revelation, creed, credo, tidings

B the story of Christ's life and teachings

◇ SYNONYMS: doctrine, news, teachings, message, revelation, creed, credo, tidings

2 a doctrine held to be of great importance: the gospel of self-help

◇ SYNONYMS: doctrine, news, teachings, message, revelation, creed, credo, tidings

3 Also called: gospel truth unquestionable truth: gross inaccuracies which are sometimes taken as gospel

◇ SYNONYMS: truth, fact, certainty, the last word

► adj

4 denoting a kind of religious music originating in the churches of Black people in the Southern US

Gospel n (Christianity) any of the first four books of the New Testament, namely Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, which tell the story of Jesus Christ

gossamer n

1 a very fine fabric

2 a filmy cobweb often seen on foliage or floating in the air gossip n

1 idle talk, usually about other people's private lives, esp. of a disapproving or malicious nature: office gossip

◇ SYNONYMS: idle talk, scandal, hearsay, tittle-tattle, goss (informal), small talk, chitchat, blether, chinwag (Brit informal)

2 an informal conversation, esp. about other people's private lives: to have a gossip and a giggle

3 a person who habitually talks about other people, usually maliciously

◇ SYNONYMS: busybody, chatterbox (informal), chatterer, scandalmonger, gossipmonger, tattletale (chiefly US & Canad)

► vb

4 to talk idly or maliciously, esp. about other people's private lives

◇ SYNONYMS: chat, chatter, jaw (slang), blether > gossipy adj

got vb

1 the past of get

2 have got to possess

3 have got to must: you have got to be prepared to work hard

Gothic adj

1 of a style of architecture used in W Europe from the 12th to the 16th centuries, characterized by pointed arches, ribbed vaults, and flying buttresses

2 of a literary style featuring stories of gloom, horror, and the supernatural, popular in the late 18th century

3 of or in a heavy ornate script typeface

► n

4 Gothic architecture or art go through vb

1 to experience (a difficult time or process)

◇ SYNONYMS go through something: suffer, experience, bear, endure, brave, undergo, tolerate, withstand

2 to name or describe: the president went through a list of government ministers

3 to qualify for the next stage of a competition: Belgium, Spain and Uruguay all went through from Group E

4 to be approved: the bill went through parliament

5 go through with to bring to a successful conclusion, often by persistence gouache (goo-ahsh) n opaque watercolour paint bound with glue

Gouda n a round mild-flavoured Dutch cheese gouge (gowj) vb gouging, gouged

1 to scoop or force (something) out of its position

2 to cut (a hole or groove) in something with a pointed object

► n

3 a mark or groove made by gouging goulash (goo-lash) n a rich stew seasoned with paprika, originating in Hungary gourd (goord) n

1 a large hard-shelled fruit similar to a cucumber or marrow

2 a container made from a dried gourd shell gourmand (goor-mand) n a person devoted to eating and drinking, usually to excess gourmet (goor-may) n an expert on good food and drink ◇ SYNONYMS: connoisseur, foodie (informal), bon vivant (French), epicure, gastronome gout (gowt) n a disease that causes painful inflammation of certain joints, for example of the big toe > gouty adj

govern vb

1 to direct and control the policy and affairs of (a country or an organization)

◇ SYNONYMS: rule, lead, control, command, manage, direct, guide, handle

2 to control or determine: the international organizations governing athletics and rugby > governable adj

governance n government, control, or authority governess n a woman employed in a private household to teach the children government n

1 the executive policy-making body of a country or state

◇ SYNONYMS: administration, executive, ministry, regime, powers-that-be, e-government or egovernment

2 the state and its administration: the assembled heads of state and government

◇ SYNONYMS: administration, executive, ministry, regime, powers-that-be, e-government or egovernment

3 the system by which a country or state is ruled: the old hard-line government

◇ SYNONYMS: rule, authority, administration, sovereignty, governance, statecraft > governmental adj

governor n

1 the chief political administrator of a region, such as a US state or a colony.

RELATED ADJECTIVE: gubernatorial

◇ SYNONYMS: leader, administrator, ruler, head, director, manager, chief, executive

2 (Brit) the senior administrator of a school, prison, or other institution

3 (Brit informal) one's employer or father > governorship n

governor general n, pl governors general or governor generals the chief representative of the British government in a Commonwealth country gown n

1 a woman's long formal dress

◇ SYNONYMS: dress, costume, garment, robe, frock, garb, habit

2 a surgeon's overall

3 a loose wide official robe worn by judges, lawyers, and academics goy n, pl goyim or goys a Jewish word for a Gentile

GP general practitioner

GPS Global Positioning System: a satellite-based navigation system grab vb grabbing, grabbed

1 to seize hold of ◇ SYNONYMS: snatch, catch, seize, capture, grip, grasp, clutch, snap up

2 to take (food, drink, or rest) hurriedly

3 to take (an opportunity) eagerly

4 to seize illegally or unscrupulously: land grabbing

5 (informal) to interest or impress

► n

6 the act of grabbing grace n

1 elegance and beauty of movement, form, or expression

◇ SYNONYMS: elegance, poise, ease, polish, refinement, fluency, suppleness, gracefulness

2 a pleasing or charming quality: architecture with few redeeming graces

3 courtesy or decency: at least she had the grace to laugh

◇ SYNONYMS: manners, decency, etiquette, consideration, propriety, tact, decorum

4 a delay granted for the completion of a task or payment of a debt: another year's grace

◇ SYNONYMS: indulgence, mercy, pardon, reprieve

5 (Christian theol) the free and unmerited favour of God shown towards humankind

◇ SYNONYMS: benevolence, favour, goodness, goodwill, generosity, kindness, kindliness

6 a short prayer of thanks for a meal

◇ SYNONYMS: prayer, thanks, blessing, thanksgiving, benediction

7 airs and graces an affected manner

8 with bad grace unwillingly or grudgingly: independence was granted with bad grace

9 with good grace willingly or ungrudgingly: to accept with good grace

► vb gracing, graced

10 to honour or favour: graced by the presence of the ambassador

◇ SYNONYMS: honour, favour, dignify

11 to decorate or make more attractive: bedsit walls graced by Che Guevara and James Dean

◇ SYNONYMS: adorn, enhance, decorate, enrich, set off, ornament, embellish

Grace n Your or His or Her Grace a title used to address or refer to a duke, duchess, or archbishop graceful adj having beauty of movement, style, or form

◇ SYNONYMS: elegant, easy, pleasing, beautiful > gracefully adv

> gracefulness n

graceless adj

1 lacking elegance

2 lacking manners grace note n (music) a note that ornaments a melody gracious adj

1 showing kindness and courtesy

◇ SYNONYMS: courteous, polite, civil, accommodating, kind, friendly, cordial, well-mannered

2 characterized by elegance, ease, and indulgence: gracious living

► interj

3 an expression of mild surprise or wonder > graciously adv

> graciousness n

gradation n

1 a series of systematic stages; gradual progression

2 a stage in such a series or progression > graduate vb

grade n

1 a place on a scale of quality, rank, or size

◇ SYNONYMS: class

2 a mark or rating indicating a student's level of achievement

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, degree (archaic)

3 a rank or level of importance in a company or organization

◇ SYNONYMS: level, rank, group, class, stage, category, echelon

4 (US & Canad & Austral & S African) a class or year in a school

5 make the grade (informal) to be successful by reaching a required standard ► vb grading, graded

6 to arrange according to quality or rank: passes are graded from A down to E

◇ SYNONYMS: classify, rate, order, class, group, sort, range, rank

7 to give a grade to: students are graded by teachers based entirely on their coursework gradient n

1 Also (esp. US): grade a sloping part of a railway, road, or path

2 Also (esp. US): grade a measure of the steepness of such a slope

3 a measure of the change in something, such as the angle of a curve, over a specified distance gradual adj occurring, developing, or moving in small stages: a gradual handover of power

◇ SYNONYMS: steady, slow, regular, gentle, progressive, piecemeal, unhurried > gradually adv

graduate n

1 a person who holds a university or college degree

2 (US & Canad) a student who has completed a course of studies at a high school and received a diploma

3 same as postgraduate

► vb -ating, -ated

4 to receive a degree or diploma

5 to change by degrees: the winds graduate from tropical storms to cyclones

6 to mark (a measuring flask or instrument) with units of measurement

◇ SYNONYMS: mark off, grade, proportion, regulate, gauge, calibrate, measure out graduation n

1 the act of graduating from university or college

2 (US & Canad) the act of graduating from high school

3 the ceremony at which degrees and diplomas are given to graduating students

4 a mark indicating measure on an instrument or container graffiti (graf-fee-tee) n drawings or words scribbled or sprayed on walls or posters graft¹ n

1 (surgery) a piece of tissue transplanted to an area of the body in need of the tissue

2 a small piece of tissue from one plant that is joined to another plant so that they grow together as one

◇ SYNONYMS: shoot, bud, implant, sprout, splice, scion

► vb

3 to transplant (tissue) to an area of the body in need of the tissue

4 to join (part of one plant) onto another plant so that they grow together as one

◇ SYNONYMS: join, insert, transplant, implant, splice, affix

5 to attach or incorporate: to graft Japanese production methods onto the American talent for innovation

graft² n

1 (Brit informal) hard work

◇ SYNONYMS: labour, work, effort, struggle, sweat, toil, slog, exertion

2 the practice of obtaining money by taking advantage of one's position

► vb

3 (informal) to work hard

◇ SYNONYMS: work, labour, struggle, sweat (informal), slave, strive, toil

Grail n See Holy Grail

grain n

1 the small hard seedlike fruit of a cereal plant

◇ SYNONYMS: seed, kernel, grist

2 a mass of such fruits gathered for food

◇ SYNONYMS: cereal, corn

3 cereal plants in general

◇ SYNONYMS: cereal, corn

4 a small hard particle: a grain of salt

◇ SYNONYMS: bit, piece, trace, scrap, particle, fragment, speck, morsel

5 a very small amount: a grain of compassion

◇ SYNONYMS: bit, piece, trace, scrap, particle, fragment, speck, morsel

6

A the arrangement of the fibres, layers, or particles in wood, leather, or stone

◇ SYNONYMS: texture, pattern, surface, fibre, weave, nap

B the pattern or texture resulting from this

◇ SYNONYMS: texture, pattern, surface, fibre, weave, nap

7 go against the grain to be contrary to one's natural inclinations > grainy adj

gram or gramme n a metric unit of weight equal to one thousandth of a kilogram grammar n

1 the rules of a language, that show how sentences are formed, or how words are inflected

2 the way in which grammar is used: the teacher found errors of spelling and grammar

3 a book on the rules of grammar grammarian n a person who studies or writes about grammar for a living grammar school n

1 (Brit) (esp. formerly) a secondary school for children of high academic ability

2 (Austral) a private school, usually one controlled by a church grammatical adj

1 of grammar

2 (of a sentence) following the rules of grammar > grammatically adv

gramme n same as gram gramophone n an old-fashioned type of record player grampus n, pl -puses a dolphin-like mammal with a blunt snout gran n (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) a grandmother granary n, pl -ries

1 a building for storing threshed grain

2 a region that produces a large amount of grain grand adj

1 large or impressive in size or appearance; magnificent: the grand hall

◇ SYNONYMS: impressive, great, large, magnificent, imposing, splendid, regal, stately

2 ambitious or important: grand themes

◇ SYNONYMS: ambitious, great, grandiose

3 dignified or haughty

◇ SYNONYMS: superior, great, dignified, stately

4 (informal) excellent or wonderful ◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, great (informal), fine, wonderful, outstanding, smashing (informal), first-class, splendid

5 comprehensive or complete: the grand total

► n

6 pl grand (slang) a thousand pounds or dollars

7 short for grand piano > grandly adv

grandchild n, pl -children a son or daughter of one's son or daughter granddaughter n a daughter of one's son or daughter grandee n

1 a high-ranking Spanish nobleman

2 a person who has a high rank or position: the Party's grandees grandeur n

1 personal greatness, dignity, or nobility: delusions of grandeur

2 magnificence or splendour: cathedral-like grandeur

◇ SYNONYMS: splendour, glory, majesty, nobility, pomp, magnificence, sumptuousness, sublimity grandfather n the father of one's father or mother grandfather clock n an old-fashioned clock in a tall wooden case that stands on the floor grandiloquent adj using pompous or unnecessarily complicated language > grandiloquence n

grandiose adj impressive, or meant to impress: grandiose plans for constructing a new stadium grandmother n the mother of one's father or mother grandparent n the father or mother of one's father or mother grand piano n a large piano in which the strings are arranged horizontally grand slam n the achievement of winning all the games or major tournaments in a sport in one season grandson n a son of one's son or daughter grandstand n the main block of seats giving the best view at a sports ground grange n (Brit) a farmhouse or country house with its farm buildings granite (gran-nit) n a very hard rock consisting of quartz and feldspars that is widely used for building granny or grannie n, pl -nies (informal) a grandmother granny flat n a flat in or joined on to a house, suitable for an elderly relative to live in grant vb

1 to give (a sum of money or a right) formally: to grant a 38% pay rise; only the President can grant a pardon

2 to consent to perform or fulfil: granting the men's request for sanctuary

◇ SYNONYMS: give, allow, present, award, permit, assign, allocate, hand out

3 to admit that (something) is true: I grant that her claims must be true

◇ SYNONYMS: accept, allow, admit, acknowledge, concede

4 take for granted

A to accept that something is true without requiring proof

B to take advantage of (someone or something) without showing appreciation

► n

5 a sum of money provided by a government or public fund to a person or organization for a specific purpose: student grants

◇ SYNONYMS: award, allowance, donation, endowment, gift, subsidy, hand-out granular adj of, like, or containing granules: granular materials such as powders granulated adj (of sugar) in the form of coarse grains granule n a small grain of something: gravy granules grape n a small round sweet juicy fruit with a purple or green skin, which can be eaten raw, dried to make raisins, currants, or sultanas, or used to make wine grapefruit n, pl -fruit or -fruits a large round yellow juicy citrus fruit with a slightly bitter taste grapevine n

1 a vine grown for its grapes

2 (informal) an unofficial means of passing on information from person to person: he'd doubtless heard rumours on the grapevine graph n a diagram showing the relation between certain sets of numbers or quantities by means of a series of dots or lines plotted with reference to a set of axes graphene n a very thin, strong material consisting of a single layer of carbon atoms arranged in a hexagonal pattern graphic adj

1 vividly described: a graphic account of her three days in captivity

◇ SYNONYMS: vivid, clear, detailed, striking, explicit, expressive

2 of the graphic arts: graphic design

◇ SYNONYMS: pictorial, visual, diagrammatic

3 Also: graphical (maths) of or using a graph: a graphic presentation

◇ SYNONYMS: pictorial, visual, diagrammatic

> graphically adv

graphics n

1 the art of drawing in accordance with mathematical rules

► pl n

2 the illustrations in a magazine or book, or in a television or film production

3 (computers) information displayed in the form of diagrams or graphs graphite n a soft black form of carbon used in pencils, as a lubricant, and in some nuclear reactors graphology n the study of handwriting, usually to analyse the writer's character > graphologist n

grapnel n a device with several hooks at one end, which is used to grasp or secure an object, esp. in sailing grapple vb -pling, -pled > grapple with

A to try to cope with: a difficult concept to grapple with

◇ SYNONYMS: deal, tackle, struggle, take on, confront, get to grips, address yourself to

B to come to grips with (someone) in hand-to-hand combat ◇ SYNONYMS: struggle, fight, combat, wrestle, battle, clash, tussle, scuffle grappling iron n same as grapnel grasp vb

1 to grip firmly

◇ SYNONYMS: grip, hold, catch, grab, seize, snatch, clutch, clinch

2 to understand: his failure to grasp the gravity of the crisis

◇ SYNONYMS: understand, realize, take in, get, see, catch on (informal), comprehend, catch or get the drift of

► n

3 a very firm grip

◇ SYNONYMS: grip, hold, possession, embrace, clutches, clasp

4 understanding or comprehension: a good grasp of detail

◇ SYNONYMS: understanding, knowledge, grip, awareness, mastery, comprehension

5 within someone's grasp almost certain to be accomplished or won: she now has that prize within her grasp grasping adj greedy for money

◇ SYNONYMS: greedy, acquisitive, rapacious, avaricious, covetous, snoop (S African informal) grass n

1 a very common green plant with jointed stems and long narrow leaves, eaten by animals such as sheep and cows, and used for lawns and sports fields

2 a particular kind of grass, such as bamboo

3 a lawn

4 (slang) marijuana

5 (Brit & Austral slang) a person who informs, usually on criminals

► vb

6 grass on or up (Brit slang) to inform on (someone) to the police or some other authority

7 grass over to cover with grass > grassy adj

grasshopper n an insect with long hind legs which it uses for leaping grass roots pl n

1 ordinary members of a group or organization, as distinct from its leaders

► adj grassroots

2 of the ordinary members of a group or organization: the focus of a virulent grassroots campaign grass tree n an Australian plant with stiff grass-like leaves and small white flowers grate¹ vb grating, grated

1 to reduce to shreds by rubbing against a rough surface: grated cheese

◇ SYNONYMS: shred, mince, pulverize

2 to produce a harsh rasping sound by scraping against an object or surface: the clutch plates grated

◇ SYNONYMS: scrape, grind, rub, scratch, creak, rasp

3 grate on to annoy: his manner always grated on me grate² n

1 a framework of metal bars for holding coal or wood in a fireplace

2 same as grating

grateful adj feeling or showing thanks

◇ SYNONYMS: thankful, obliged, in (someone's) debt, indebted, appreciative, beholden > gratefully adv

grater n a tool with a sharp surface for grating food gratify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to satisfy or please (someone)

2 to yield to (a desire or whim): all his wishes were to be gratified > gratification n

grating¹ n a framework of metal bars covering an opening in a wall or in the ground

◇ SYNONYMS: grille, grid, grate, lattice, trellis, gridiron grating² adj

1 (of a sound) rough or unpleasant

◇ SYNONYMS: irritating, harsh, annoying, jarring, unpleasant, raucous, strident, discordant

2 annoying or irritating: his cringing obsequiousness was grating

◇ SYNONYMS: irritating, harsh, annoying, jarring, unpleasant, raucous, strident, discordant gratis adv, adj without payment; free: the gifts are gratis gratitude n a feeling of being grateful for gifts or favours ◇ SYNONYMS: thankfulness, thanks, recognition, obligation, appreciation, indebtedness, gratefulness gratuitous (grat-tyoo-it-uss) adj

1 unjustified or unreasonable: gratuitous violence

2 given or received without charge or obligation: his gratuitous voluntary services > gratuitously adv

gratuity (grat-tyoo-it-ee) n, pl -ties money given for services rendered; tip grave¹ adj (rhymes with save)

1 serious and worrying: grave concern

◇ SYNONYMS: serious, important, critical, pressing, threatening, dangerous, acute, severe

2 serious and solemn in appearance or behaviour: the woman looked grave and respectful

◇ SYNONYMS: solemn, sober, sombre, dour, unsmiling

3 (rhymes with halve) denoting an accent (') over a vowel in some languages, such as French, which indicates that the vowel is pronounced in a particular way

► n (rhymes with halve)

4 a grave accent > gravely adv

grave² (rhymes with save) n a place where a dead person is buried. RELATED

ADJECTIVE: sepulchral

◇ SYNONYMS: tomb, vault, crypt, mausoleum, sepulchre, pit, burying place gravel n

1 a mixture of rock fragments and pebbles that is coarser than sand

2 (pathol) small rough stones in the kidneys or bladder

► vb -elling, -elled (US) -eling, -eled

3 to cover with gravel gravelly adj

1 covered with gravel

2 (of a voice or sound) harsh and grating gravestone n a stone marking a grave graveyard n a place where dead people are buried, esp. one by a church

◇ SYNONYMS: cemetery, churchyard, burial ground, charnel house, necropolis gravid (grav-id) adj (med) pregnant gravitate vb -tating, -tated

1 gravitate towards to be attracted or influenced by: the mathematically inclined often gravitate towards computers

2 (physics) to move under the influence of gravity gravitation n (physics)

1 the force of attraction that bodies exert on one another as a result of their mass

2 the process or result of this interaction > gravitational adj gravity n, pl -ties

1 (physics)

A the force that attracts bodies towards the centre of the earth, a moon, or any planet

B same as gravitation

2 seriousness or importance: the gravity of the situation

◇ SYNONYMS: seriousness, importance, significance, urgency, severity, acuteness, weightiness, momentousness

3 seriousness or solemnity of appearance or behaviour: his priestly gravity

◇ SYNONYMS: solemnity, seriousness, gravitas gravy n, pl -vies

A the juices that come from meat during cooking

B the sauce made by thickening and flavouring these juices gray adj, n, vb (chiefly US) grey graze¹ vb grazing, grazed

A (of an animal) to eat (grass or other growing plants)

◇ SYNONYMS: feed, crop, browse, pasture

B to feed (animals) on grass or other growing plants graze² vb grazing, grazed

1 to break the skin of (a part of the body) by scraping

◇ SYNONYMS: scratch, skin, scrape, chafe, abrade

2 to brush against someone gently in passing

◇ SYNONYMS: touch, brush, rub, scrape, shave, skim, glance off

► n

3 an injury on the skin caused by scraping

◇ SYNONYMS: scratch, scrape, abrasion grease n

1 soft melted animal fat

2 a thick oily substance, such as the kind put on machine parts to make them work smoothly

► vb greasing, greased

3 to apply grease to: lightly grease a baking tin

4 grease someone's palm (slang) to bribe someone greasepaint n theatrical make-up greasy adj greasier, greasiest

1 covered with or containing grease

◇ SYNONYMS: fatty, slippery, oily, slimy (Brit), oleaginous

2 excessively pleasant or flattering in an insincere manner > greasiness n

great adj

1 large in size

◇ SYNONYMS: large, big, huge, vast, enormous, immense, gigantic, prodigious, supersize

2 large in number or amount: the great majority

◇ SYNONYMS: large, big, huge, vast, enormous, immense, gigantic, prodigious, supersize

3 larger than others of its kind: the great white whale

4 extreme or more than usual: great difficulty

5 of importance or consequence: a great discovery

6 of exceptional talents or achievements: a great artist

7 skilful: he's a great storyteller; they are great at problem solving

8 (informal) excellent

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, fine, wonderful, superb, fantastic (informal), tremendous (informal), marvellous (informal), terrific (informal), booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal)

► n

9 the greats the most successful people in a particular field: the all-time greats of golf > greatly adv > greatness n

great- prefix (in expressing relationship) one generation older or younger than:
great-grandmother

greatcoat n a heavy overcoat

Great Dane n a very large dog with short smooth hair grebe n a diving water bird

Grecian (gree-shan) adj of ancient Greece greed n excessive desire for something, such as food or money ◇ SYNONYMS: avarice, longing, desire, hunger, craving, selfishness, acquisitiveness, covetousness greedy adj greedier, greediest having an excessive desire for something, such as food or money: greedy for personal possessions ◇ SYNONYMS: avaricious, grasping, selfish, insatiable, acquisitive, rapacious, materialistic, desirous > greedily adv

Greek adj

1 of Greece

► n

2 a person from Greece

3 the language of Greece green adj

1 of a colour between yellow and blue; of the colour of grass

2 covered with grass, plants, or trees: green fields

◇ SYNONYMS: verdant (literary), leafy, grassy

3 of or concerned with conservation and improvement of the environment: used in a political context: green issues

◇ SYNONYMS: ecological, conservationist, environment-friendly, ozone-friendly, non-polluting, sustainable, recyclable, green-collar

4 (of fruit) fresh, raw, or unripe

5 pale and sick-looking

6 inexperienced or gullible

◇ SYNONYMS: inexperienced, new, raw, naive, immature, gullible, untrained, wet behind the ears (informal)

7 green with envy very envious

► n

8 a colour between yellow and blue

9 anything green, such as green clothing or green ink: printed in green

10 a small area of grassy land: the village green

◇ SYNONYMS: lawn, common, turf, sward

11 an area of smooth turf kept for a special purpose: putting greens

◇ SYNONYMS: lawn, common, turf, sward

12 greens the leaves and stems of certain plants, eaten as a vegetable: turnip greens

13 Green a person who supports environmentalist issues > greenish or greeny adj > greenness n

green belt n a protected zone of parkland or open country surrounding a town or city greenery n green leaves or growing plants: lush greenery greenfinch n a European finch, the male of which has olive-green feathers green fingers pl n skill in growing plants greenfly n, pl -flies a green aphid commonly occurring as a pest on plants greengage n a green sweet variety of plum greengrocer n (Brit & Austral) a shopkeeper who sells fruit and vegetables greenhorn n an inexperienced person; novice greenhouse n

1 a building with glass walls and roof where plants are grown under controlled conditions

► adj

2 relating to or contributing to the greenhouse effect: greenhouse gases such as carbon dioxide greenhouse effect n the gradual rise in temperature in the earth's atmosphere due to heat being absorbed from the sun and being trapped by gases such as carbon dioxide in the air around the earth greenhouse gas n any gas that contributes to the greenhouse effect green light n

1 a signal to go

2 permission to proceed with a project

► vb greenlight-lighting, -lighted

3 to permit (a project) to proceed greenstone n (NZ) a type of green jade used for Māori carvings and ornaments greet vb

1 to address or meet with expressions of friendliness or welcome

◇ SYNONYMS: welcome, meet, receive, karanga (NZ), mihi (NZ), haeremai (NZ)

2 to receive in a specified manner: a direct request would be greeted coolly

◇ SYNONYMS: receive, take, respond to, react to 3 to be immediately noticeable to: the scene of devastation which greeted him greeting n the act or words of welcoming on meeting

◇ SYNONYMS: welcome, reception, salute, address, salutation (formal), hongī (NZ), kia ora (NZ) gregarious adj

1 enjoying the company of others

2 (of animals) living together in herds or in flocks gremlin n an imaginary imp jokingly blamed for malfunctions in machinery grenade n a small bomb filled with explosive or gas, thrown by hand or fired from a rifle grenadier n (military)

1 (in the British Army) a member of the senior regiment of infantry in the Household Brigade (the Grenadier Guards)

2 (formerly) a soldier trained to throw grenades grenadine (gren-a-deen) n a syrup made from pomegranate juice, often used as an ingredient in cocktails grevillea n any of various Australian evergreen trees and shrubs grew vb the past tense of grow

grey or (US) gray adj

1 of a colour between black and white; of the colour of ashes

◇ SYNONYMS: dull, dark, dim, gloomy, drab

2

A (of hair) having partly turned white

B (of a person) having grey hair

3 dismal, dark, or gloomy: a grey and misty morning

◇ SYNONYMS: dull, dark, dim, gloomy, drab

4 dull or boring: in 1948 life generally was grey

◇ SYNONYMS: boring, dull, anonymous, faceless, colourless, nondescript, characterless

► n

5 a colour between black and white

6 anything grey, such as grey paint or grey clothing: available in grey or brown

7 a grey or whitish horse > greyness n

> greyish adj

greyed out adj (of a navigation button, menu item, etc. on a computer screen) not highlighted, indicating that the function is not available greyhound n a tall slender dog that can run very fast and is used for racing greying adj becoming grey: greying hair grey matter n (informal) intellect or brains: those who don't have lots of grey matter

grid n

1 a network of crossing parallel lines on a map, plan, or graph paper for locating points

2 the grid the national network of cables or pipes by which electricity, gas, or water is distributed

3 (electronics) an electrode that controls the flow of electrons between the cathode and anode of a valve griddle n a thick round iron plate placed on top of a cooker and used to cook food gridiron n

1 a utensil of parallel metal bars, used to grill food

2 the field of play in American football gridlock n

1 obstruction of traffic caused by queues of vehicles forming across junctions and so causing queues in intersecting streets

2 a point in a dispute at which no agreement can be reached: political gridlock

► vb

3 (of traffic) to obstruct (an area) grief n

1 deep or intense sorrow

◇ SYNONYMS: sadness, suffering, regret, distress, misery, sorrow, woe, anguish

2 (informal) trouble or annoyance: people were giving me grief for leaving ten minutes early

3 come to grief to have an unfortunate or unsuccessful end or outcome grievance n

1 a real or imaginary cause for complaint

◇ SYNONYMS: complaint, gripe (informal), axe to grind

2 a feeling of resentment at having been unfairly treated grieve vb grieving, grieved to feel or cause to feel great sorrow or distress

◇ SYNONYMS: sadden, hurt, injure, distress, wound, pain, afflict, upset > grieved adj

> grieving adj

grievous adj

1 very severe or painful: grievous injuries

2 very serious or worrying: a grievous loss > grievously adv

griffin or griffon or gryphon n a mythical winged monster with an eagle's head and a lion's body grill vb

1 to cook by direct heat under a grill or over a hot fire

2 (informal) to subject to relentless questioning: the jury pool was grilled for signs of prejudice

► n

3 a device on a cooker that radiates heat downwards for grilling food

4 a gridiron for cooking food

5 a dish of grilled food > grilled adj

> grilling n

grille or grill n a metal or wooden grating, used as a screen or partition grilse (grillss) n, pl grilses or grilse a salmon on its first return from the sea to fresh water grim adj grimmer, grimmost

1 unfavourable and worrying: grim figures on unemployment

◇ SYNONYMS: terrible, severe, harsh, forbidding, formidable, sinister

2 harsh and unpleasant: grim conditions in the detention centres

3 stern or resolute: a grim determination to fight on 4 (informal) unpleasant or disagreeable > grimly adv

> grimness n

grimace n

1 an ugly or distorted facial expression of disgust, pain, or displeasure

► vb -macing, -maced

2 to make a grimace grime n

1 ingrained dirt

2 a type of British rap music

► vb griming, grimed

3 to make very dirty: sweat-grimed faces > grimy adj

grin vb grinning, grinned

1 to smile broadly, showing one's teeth

2 grin and bear it (informal) to suffer hardship without complaint

► n

3 a broad smile > grinning adj

grind vb grinding, ground

1 to reduce to small particles by pounding or rubbing: grinding coffee

◇ SYNONYMS: crush, mill, powder, grate, pulverize, pound, abrade, granulate

2 to smooth, sharpen, or polish by friction

◇ SYNONYMS: sharpen, polish, sand, smooth, whet

3 (of two objects) to scrape together with a harsh rasping sound

◇ SYNONYMS: grate, scrape, gnash

4 an axe to grind See axe

5 grind one's teeth to rub one's upper and lower teeth against each other, as if chewing

6 grind to a halt to come to an end or a standstill: without enzymes life would grind to a halt

► n

7 (informal) hard or tedious work: the grind of everyday life

◇ SYNONYMS: hard work (informal), labour, sweat (informal), chore, toil, drudgery grind out n to produce (a result) in a routine or uninspired manner grindstone n

1 a revolving stone disc used for sharpening, grinding, or polishing things

2 keep one's nose to the grindstone to work hard and steadily grip n

1 a very tight hold: he felt a grip at his throat

◇ SYNONYMS: clasp, hold, grasp

2 the style or manner of holding something, such as a golf club or tennis racket

3 power or control over a situation, person, or activity: rebel forces tighten their grip around the capital

◇ SYNONYMS: control, rule, influence, command, power, possession, domination, mastery

4 a travelling bag or holdall

5 a small bent clasp used to fasten the hair

6 a handle

7 a person who manoeuvres the cameras in a film or television studio

8 get or come to grips with to face up to and deal with (a problem or subject)

► vb gripping, gripped

9 to take a tight hold of ◇ SYNONYMS: grasp, hold, catch, seize, clutch, clasp, take hold of 10 to affect strongly: sudden panic gripped her

11 to hold the interest or attention of: gripped by the intensity of the film; the story gripped him

◇ SYNONYMS: engross, fascinate, absorb, entrance, hold, compel, rivet, enthrall gripe vb griping, griped

1 (informal) to complain persistently

2 to cause sudden intense pain in the bowels

► n

3 (informal) a complaint

4 the gripes a sudden intense pain in the bowels gripping adj very interesting and exciting: a gripping story

◇ SYNONYMS: fascinating, exciting, thrilling, entrancing, compelling, riveting, enthralling, engrossing grisly adj -lier, -liest causing horror or dread: grisly murders grist n

1 grain that is to be or that has been ground

2 grist to the mill anything that can be turned to profit or advantage gristle n tough stringy animal tissue found in meat > gristly adj

grit n

1 small hard particles of sand, earth, or stone

◇ SYNONYMS: gravel, sand, dust, pebbles

2 courage and determination

◇ SYNONYMS: courage, spirit, resolution, determination, guts (informal), backbone, fortitude, tenacity

► vb gritting, gritted

3 to cover (an icy road) with grit

4 grit one's teeth

A to rub one's upper and lower teeth against each other, as if chewing

B to decide to carry on in a difficult situation: he urged the Cabinet to grit its teeth and continue cutting public spending

gritty adj -tier, -tiest

1 courageous and tough

◇ SYNONYMS: courageous, dogged, determined, spirited, brave, feisty (informal), resolute, tenacious, plucky, (as) game as Ned Kelly (Austral slang)

2 covered with grit

◇ SYNONYMS: rough, sandy, dusty, rasping, gravelly, granular grizzle vb -zling, -zled (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) to whine or complain grizzled adj

1 (of hair) streaked or mixed with grey

2 (of a person) having grey hair grizzly n, pl -zlies a large fierce greyish-brown bear of N America. In full: grizzly bear

groan n

1 a long deep cry of pain, grief, or disapproval

◇ SYNONYMS: moan, cry, sigh, whine

2 (informal) a grumble or complaint

◇ SYNONYMS: complaint, protest, objection, grumble, grouse, gripe (informal)

► vb

3 to give a long deep cry of pain, grief, or disapproval

◇ SYNONYMS: moan, cry, sigh

4 (informal) to complain or grumble

◇ SYNONYMS: complain, object, moan (informal), grumble, gripe (informal), carp, lament, whine

5 groan under to be weighed down by: chemists' shelves groan under the weight of slimming aids > groaning adj, n

groat n a former British coin worth four old pennies grocer n a shopkeeper who sells food and other household supplies grocery n, pl -ceries the business or premises of a grocer grog n

- 1 an alcoholic drink, usually rum, diluted with water
- 2 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) any alcoholic drink groggy adj -gier, -giest (informal) faint, weak, or dizzy groin n

- 1 the part of the body where the abdomen joins the legs
- 2 (archit) a curved edge formed where two intersecting vaults meet grommet n

- 1 a rubber, plastic, or metal ring or eyelet
- 2 (med) a small tube inserted into the eardrum to drain fluid from the middle ear groom n

- 1 a person employed to clean and look after horses
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: stableman, stableboy, hostler or ostler (archaic)
- 2 short for bridegroom
- vb
- 3 to clean and smarten (a horse or other animal)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: brush, clean, tend, rub down, curry
- 4 to keep (oneself or one's appearance) clean and tidy: carefully groomed hair
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: smarten up, clean, tidy, preen, spruce up, primp
- 5 to train (someone) for a particular task or occupation: groomed for future leadership
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: train, prime, prepare, coach, ready, educate, drill, nurture
- > grooming n

groove n

- 1 a long narrow furrow cut into a surface
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: indentation, cut, hollow, channel, trench, flute, trough, furrow
- 2 (informal) a pleasing rhythm
- > grooved adj

grope vb groping, groped

1 to feel about uncertainly for something

◇ SYNONYMS: feel, search, fumble, flounder, fish, scrabble, cast about, fossick
(Austral & NZ)

2 to find (one's way) by groping

3 to search uncertainly for a solution or expression: the new democracies are groping for stability

◇ SYNONYMS: feel, search, fumble, flounder, fish, scrabble, cast about, fossick
(Austral & NZ)

4 (slang) to fondle (someone) in a rough sexual way

► n

5 an instance of groping gross adj

1 outrageously wrong: gross violations of human rights

◇ SYNONYMS: flagrant, blatant, rank, sheer, utter, grievous, heinous, unmitigated

2 very coarse or vulgar: gross bad taste

◇ SYNONYMS: vulgar, offensive, crude, obscene, coarse, indelicate

3 (slang) disgusting or repulsive: I think beards are gross

◇ SYNONYMS: vulgar, offensive, crude, obscene, coarse, indelicate

4 repulsively fat

◇ SYNONYMS: fat, obese, overweight, hulking, corpulent

5 with no deductions for tax or the weight of the container; total: gross income; a gross weight of 20 000 lbs

◇ SYNONYMS: total, whole, entire, aggregate, before tax, before deductions

► n

6 pl gross twelve dozen (144)

7 the entire amount or weight

► vb

8 to earn as total revenue, before deductions

◇ SYNONYMS: earn, make, take, bring in, rake in (informal) > grossly adv

grotesque (groh-tesk) adj

1 strangely distorted or bizarre: a grotesque and pervasive personality cult

◇ SYNONYMS: absurd, preposterous

2 ugly or repulsive

► n

3 a grotesque person or thing

4 an artistic style in which parts of human, animal, and plant forms are distorted and mixed, or a work of art in this style > grotesquely adv

grotto n, pl -toes or -tos a small picturesque cave grotty adj -tier, -tiest (Brit & NZ slang)

1 nasty or unattractive

2 in bad condition

grouch (informal) vb

1 to complain or grumble

► n

2 a person who is always complaining

3 a persistent complaint

grouchy adj grouchier, grouchiest bad-tempered ground¹ n

1 the land surface

◇ SYNONYMS: earth, land, dry land, terra firma

2 earth or soil

3 an area used for a particular purpose: a cricket ground

◇ SYNONYMS: arena, pitch, stadium, park, field, enclosure

4 a matter for consideration or discussion: there is no need to cover the same ground

5 an advantage in an argument or competition: neither side seems willing to give ground in this trial of strength

6 the background colour of a painting

7 (US & Canad) an electrical earth

8 grounds

A the land around a building

◇ SYNONYMS: estate, land, fields, gardens, territory

B reason or justification: the hostages should be freed on humanitarian grounds

◇ SYNONYMS: reason, cause, basis, occasion, foundation, excuse, motive, justification

C sediment or dregs: coffee grounds

◇ SYNONYMS: dregs, lees, deposit, sediment

9 break new ground to do something that has not been done before

10 common ground an agreed basis for identifying issues in an argument

11 get something off the ground to get something started: to get the peace conference off the ground

12 into the ground to exhaustion or excess: he was running himself into the ground

13 suit someone down to the ground (Brit informal) to be totally suitable or appropriate for someone

► adj

14 on the ground: ground troops

► vb

15 to confine (an aircraft or pilot) to the ground

16 (naut) to move (a ship) onto the bottom of shallow water, so that it cannot move

17 to instruct in the basics of a subject: the student who is not grounded in the elements cannot understand the advanced teaching

◇ SYNONYMS: instruct, train, teach, initiate, tutor, acquaint with, familiarize with 18 to provide a basis for; establish: a scientifically grounded documentation

◇ SYNONYMS: base, found, establish, set, settle, fix

19 to forbid (a child) to go out and enjoy himself or herself as a punishment

20 (US & Canad) to connect (a circuit or electrical device) to an earth ground² vb

1 the past of grind

► adj

2 reduced to fine particles by grinding: ground glass ground-breaking adj innovative ground floor n the floor of a building that is level, or almost level, with the ground grounding n a foundation, esp. the basic general knowledge of a subject groundless adj without reason or justification: the scare turned out to be groundless groundnut n (Brit) a peanut groundsheet n a waterproof sheet placed on the ground in a tent to keep out damp groundsman n, pl -men a person employed to maintain a sports ground or park groundswell n a rapidly developing general feeling or opinion groundwork n preliminary work as a foundation or basis group n

1 a number of people or things considered as a unit

◇ SYNONYMS: crowd, party, band, pack, gang, bunch (informal)

2 a small band of players or singers, esp. of popular music

3 an association of business firms that have the same owner

4 (chem) two or more atoms that are bound together in a molecule and behave as a single unit: a methyl group $-CH_3$

5 (chem) a vertical column of elements in the periodic table that all have similar properties: the halogen group

► vb

6 to put into or form into a group

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, order, sort, class, classify, marshal, bracket grouse¹ n, pl grouse

- 1 a game bird with a stocky body and feathered legs and feet
- 2 the flesh of this bird used for food grouse² vb grousing, groused

- 1 to complain or grumble
- ▶ n
- 2 a persistent complaint

grout n

- 1 a thin mortar for filling joints between tiles or masonry
- ▶ vb
- 2 to fill with grout

grove n a small wood or group of trees: orange groves

◇ SYNONYMS: wood, plantation, covert, thicket, copse, coppice, spinney grovel (grov-el) vb -elling, -elled (US) -eling, -eled

- 1 to behave excessively humbly towards someone, esp. a superior, in an attempt to win his or her favour
- 2 to crawl on the floor, often in search of something: grovelling on the floor for missing cards
- > grovelling or (US) groveling adj, n grow vb growing, grew, grown

- 1 (of a person or animal) to increase in size and develop physically
- ◇ SYNONYMS: develop, get bigger
- 2 (of a plant) to exist and increase in size: an ancient meadow where wild flowers grow
- 3 to produce (a plant) by planting seeds, bulbs, or cuttings, and looking after it: many farmers have expressed a wish to grow more cotton

- ◇ SYNONYMS: cultivate, produce, raise, farm, breed, nurture, propagate
- 4 to let (one's hair or nails) develop: to grow a beard
- 5 to increase in size or degree: the gulf between rich and poor is growing
- ◇ SYNONYMS: get bigger, spread, swell, stretch, expand, enlarge, multiply
- 6 to originate or develop: Melbourne grew from a sheep-farming outstation and occasional port to a city
- ◇ SYNONYMS: originate, spring, arise, stem, issue
- 7 to become increasingly as specified: as the night wore on the audience grew more intolerant
- ◇ SYNONYMS: become, get, turn, come to be
- > growing adj
- > grower n

growl vb

- 1 (of a dog or other animal) to make a low rumbling sound, usually in anger
- 2 to say in a gruff or angry manner: 'You're late,' he growled
- 3 to make a deep rumbling sound: her stomach growled
- n
- 4 the act or sound of growling grown-up adj

- 1 having reached maturity; adult
- ◇ SYNONYMS: mature, adult, of age, fully-grown
- 2 of or suitable for an adult
- ◇ SYNONYMS: mature, adult, of age, fully-grown
- n
- 3 an adult
- ◇ SYNONYMS: adult, man, woman growth n

- 1 the process of growing
- ◇ SYNONYMS: increase, development, expansion, proliferation, enlargement, multiplication
- 2 an increase in size, number, or significance: the growth of drug trafficking
- ◇ SYNONYMS: progress, success, improvement, expansion, advance, prosperity
- 3 something grown or growing: a thick growth of ivy

4 any abnormal tissue, such as a tumour

◇ SYNONYMS: tumour, cancer, swelling, lump, carcinoma (pathol), sarcoma (med)

► adj

5 of or relating to growth: growth hormone grow up vb to reach maturity; become adult groyne n a wall or breakwater built out from a shore to control erosion grub n

1 (slang) food

2 the short legless larva of certain insects, such as beetles

► vb grubbing, grubbed

3 to search carefully for something by digging or by moving things about 4 grub up to dig (roots or plants) out of the ground grubby adj -bier, -biest

1 rather dirty

2 unsavoury or morally unacceptable: grubby activities > grubbiness n

grudge n

1 a persistent feeling of resentment against a person who has caused harm or upset

◇ SYNONYMS: resentment, bitterness, grievance, dislike, animosity, antipathy, enmity, rancour

► vb grudging, grudged

2 to give unwillingly: the rich men who grudged pennies for poor people

◇ SYNONYMS: resent, mind, envy, covet, begrudge

3 to resent or envy the success or possessions of: none of their guests grudged them this celebration

◇ SYNONYMS: resent, mind, envy, covet, begrudge

► adj

4 planned or carried out in order to settle a grudge: a grudge match

gruel n thin porridge made by boiling oatmeal in water or milk gruelling or (US) grueling adj extremely severe or tiring: a gruelling journey

◇ SYNONYMS: exhausting, demanding, tiring, taxing, severe, punishing, strenuous, arduous gruesome adj inspiring horror and disgust

◇ SYNONYMS: horrific, shocking, terrible, horrible, grim, ghastly, grisly, macabre gruff adj

1 rough or surly in manner or speech

2 (of a voice) low and throaty > gruffly adv

> gruffness n

grumble vb -bling, -bled

1 to complain in a nagging way: his neighbour grumbled about the long wait

◇ SYNONYMS: complain, moan (informal), gripe (informal), whinge (informal), carp, whine, grouse, bleat

2 to make low rumbling sounds: the storm grumbled in the distance

◇ SYNONYMS: rumble, growl, gurgle

► n

3 a complaint

◇ SYNONYMS: complaint, protest, objection, moan (informal), grievance, grouse, gripe (informal), grouch (informal)

4 a low rumbling sound: a distant grumble of artillery fire

◇ SYNONYMS: rumble, growl, gurgle

> grumbling adj, n grumpy adj grumpier, grumpiest sulky and bad-tempered > grumpily adv

grunge n

- 1 a style of rock music with a fuzzy guitar sound
- 2 a deliberately untidy and uncoordinated fashion style grunt vb

- 1 to make a low short gruff noise, such as the sound made by a pig, or by a person to express annoyance
 - 2 to express (something) gruffly: he grunted his thanks
- n
- 3 a low short gruff noise, such as the sound made by a pig, or by a person to express annoyance

Gruyère (grew-yair) n a hard flat pale yellow cheese with holes gryphon n same as griffin

GST (in Australia, New Zealand, and Canada) Goods and Services Tax

G-string n a strip of cloth worn between the legs and attached to a waistband

GT gran turismo: a touring car, usually a fast sports car with a hard fixed roof guano (gwah-no) n the dried manure of sea birds, used as a fertilizer guarantee n

- 1 a formal assurance in writing that a product or service will meet certain standards or specifications
- ◇ SYNONYMS: warranty, contract, bond

2 something that makes a specified condition or outcome certain: there was no guarantee that there would not be another military coup

► vb -teeing, -teed

3 to promise or make certain: to guarantee absolute loyalty

◇ SYNONYMS: promise, pledge, undertake

4 (of a company) to provide a guarantee in writing for (a product or service)

5 to take responsibility for the debts or obligations of (another person) guarantor n a person who gives or is bound by a guarantee or guaranty guard vb

1 to watch over or shield from danger or harm; protect: US marines who guard the American embassy

◇ SYNONYMS: protect, defend, secure, mind, preserve, shield, safeguard, watch over

2 to keep watch over (a prisoner) to prevent escape

3 to protect (a right or privilege)

◇ SYNONYMS: protect, defend, secure, mind, preserve, shield, safeguard, watch over

4 to take precautions: to guard against a possible coup attempt

◇ SYNONYMS: protect, defend, secure, mind, preserve, shield, safeguard, watch over

► n

5 a person or group of people who protect or watch over people or things

6 (Brit & Austral & NZ) the official in charge of a train

7 a device or part of a machine designed to protect the user against injury

8 anything that provides protection: a guard against future shocks

◇ SYNONYMS: shield, security, defence, screen, protection, safeguard, buffer

9 off guard having one's defences down; unprepared: England were caught off guard as the Dutch struck two telling blows

10 on guard on duty to protect or watch over people or things

11 on one's guard prepared to face danger or difficulties: parents have been warned to be on their guard against kidnappers

12 stand guard (of a sentry) to keep watch guarded adj cautious and avoiding any commitment: a guarded welcome

◇ SYNONYMS: cautious, reserved, careful, suspicious, wary, prudent, reticent, circumspect > guardedly adv

guardian n

1 one who looks after, protects, or defends someone or something: the nation's moral guardians

◇ SYNONYMS: keeper, champion, defender, guard, warden, curator, protector, custodian

2 someone legally appointed to manage the affairs of another person, such as a child or other vulnerable person > guardianship n

guardsman n, pl -men (military) a member of a regiment responsible for ceremonial duties guava (gwah-va) n a round tropical fruit with yellow skin and pink pulp gudgeon n a small slender European freshwater fish, used as bait by anglers

Guernsey (gurn-zee) n a breed of dairy cattle that produces rich creamy milk, originating from Guernsey, in the Channel Islands guerrilla or guerilla n a member of an irregular, politically motivated, armed force that fights regular forces

◇ SYNONYMS: freedom fighter, partisan, underground fighter guess vb

1 to form an estimate or conclusion about (something), without proper knowledge: a competition to guess the weight of the cake

◇ SYNONYMS: estimate, predict, work out, speculate, conjecture, postulate, hypothesize

2 to arrive at a correct estimate of (something) by guessing: I had a notion that he guessed my thoughts

◇ SYNONYMS: estimate, predict, work out, speculate, conjecture, postulate, hypothesize

3 (informal) to think or suppose: I guess he must have been a great athlete

◇ SYNONYMS: suppose, think, believe, suspect, judge, imagine, reckon (informal), fancy

► n

4 an estimate or conclusion arrived at by guessing: we can hazard a guess at the answer

◇ SYNONYMS: estimate, speculation, judgment, hypothesis, conjecture, shot in the dark guesswork n the process of arriving at conclusions or estimates by guessing guest n

1 a person who receives hospitality at someone else's home

◇ SYNONYMS: visitor, company, caller, manu(w)hiri (NZ)

2 a person who is taken out socially by someone else who pays all the expenses

3 a performer or speaker taking part in an event, show, or programme by special invitation

4 a person who is staying in a hotel

► vb

5 to be a guest in an event, show, or programme: she guested in concert with Kylie Minogue guesthouse n a private home or boarding house offering accommodation guff n (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) ridiculous talk; nonsense guffaw vb

1 to laugh loudly and raucously

► n

2 a loud raucous laugh guidance n help, advice, or instruction, usually from someone more experienced or more qualified: marriage guidance

◇ SYNONYMS: advice, direction, leadership, instruction, help, management, teaching, counselling guide n

1 a person who conducts parties of tourists around places of interest, such as museums

◇ SYNONYMS: escort, leader, usher

2 a person who leads travellers to a place, usually in a dangerous area: a mountain guide

◇ SYNONYMS: escort, leader, usher

3 something that can be used to gauge something or to help in planning one's actions: starting salary was not an accurate guide to future earnings

◇ SYNONYMS: model, example, standard, ideal, inspiration, paradigm

4 a book that explains the basics of a subject or skill: a guide to higher education

◇ SYNONYMS: handbook, manual, guidebook, instructions, catalogue

► vb guiding, guided

5 to lead the way for (tourists or travellers)

◇ SYNONYMS: lead, direct, escort, conduct, accompany, shepherd, usher, show the way

6 to control the movement or course of; steer

◇ SYNONYMS: steer, control, manage, direct, handle, command, manoeuvre

7 to direct the affairs of (a person, team, or country): he will stay with the club he guided to promotion to the First Division

◇ SYNONYMS: supervise, train, teach, influence, advise, counsel, instruct, oversee

8 to influence (a person) in his or her actions or opinions: to be guided by the law

◇ SYNONYMS: supervise, train, teach, influence, advise, counsel, instruct, oversee > guiding adj

Guide n a member of an organization for girls that encourages discipline and practical skills guided missile n a missile whose course is controlled electronically guide dog n a dog that has been trained to lead a blind person guideline n a principle put forward to set standards or determine a course of action: guidelines for arms exporting guild n

1 an organization or club for people with shared interests

◇ SYNONYMS: society, union, league, association, company, club, order, organization

2 (in Medieval Europe) an association of men in the same trade or craft guilder n, pl -ders or -der a former monetary unit of the Netherlands guile (gile) n craftiness or deviousness > guileless adj

guillemot (gil-lee-mot) n a northern oceanic black-and-white diving sea bird guillotine n

1 a device formerly used, esp. in France, for beheading people, consisting of a weighted blade between two upright posts, which was dropped on the neck

2 a device with a blade for cutting paper

► vb -tining, -tined

3 to behead with a guillotine guilt n

1 the fact or state of having done wrong: the court was unable to establish guilt

◇ SYNONYMS: culpability, blame, responsibility, misconduct, wickedness, sinfulness, guiltiness

2 remorse or self-reproach caused by feeling that one has done something wrong: he feels no guilt about the planned cutbacks

◇ SYNONYMS: shame, regret, remorse, contrition, guilty conscience, self-reproach guiltless adj free of all responsibility for wrongdoing or crime; innocent guilty adj guiltier, guiltiest

1 (law) judged to have committed a crime: she has been found guilty of drug trafficking

◇ SYNONYMS: culpable, responsible, to blame, offending, erring, at fault, reprehensible, blameworthy

2 responsible for doing something wrong: students who are guilty of cheating

◇ SYNONYMS: culpable, responsible, to blame, offending, erring, at fault, reprehensible, blameworthy

3 showing, feeling, or indicating guilt: guilty conscience

◇ SYNONYMS: ashamed, sorry, rueful, sheepish, contrite, remorseful, regretful, shamefaced > guiltily adv

guinea n a former British unit of currency worth £1.05 (21 shillings), sometimes still used in quoting professional fees guinea fowl n a domestic bird with a heavy rounded body and speckled feathers guinea pig n

1 a tailless S American rodent, commonly kept as a pet or used in scientific experiments

2 a person used in an experiment guise (rhymes with size) n

1 a false appearance: in the guise of a wood-cutter

◇ SYNONYMS: pretence, disguise, aspect, semblance

2 general appearance or form: haricot beans are best known in Britain in their popular guise of baked beans

◇ SYNONYMS: form, appearance, shape, aspect, mode, semblance guitar n a stringed instrument with a flat back and a long neck with a fretted fingerboard, which is played by plucking or strumming > guitarist n

gulch n (US & Canad) a narrow ravine with a stream running through it ◇ SYNONYMS: ravine, canyon, defile, gorge, gully, pass gulf n

1 a large deep bay

◇ SYNONYMS: bay, bight, sea inlet

2 something that divides or separates people, such as a lack of understanding: gradually the gulf between father and son has lessened

◇ SYNONYMS: chasm, opening, split, gap, separation, void, rift, abyss gull n a large sea bird with white feathers tipped with black or grey gullet n the muscular tube through which food passes from the throat to the stomach gullible adj easily tricked; too trusting > gullibility n

gully or gulley n, pl -lies or -leys

- 1 a channel or small valley originally worn away by running water
- 2 (cricket) a fielding position on the off side, between the slips and point gulp vb

- 1 to swallow (a drink or food) rapidly in large mouthfuls
 - 2 to gasp or breathe in violently, for example when nervous or when swimming
 - 3 gulp back to stifle or suppress: he gulped back the tears as he said his goodbyes
- n
- 4 the act of gulping
 - 5 the quantity taken in a gulp gum¹ n

- 1 a sticky substance obtained from certain plants, which hardens on exposure to air and dissolves in water
- ◇ SYNONYMS: glue, adhesive, resin, cement, paste
- 2 a substance used for sticking things together
- ◇ SYNONYMS: glue, adhesive, resin, cement, paste
- 3 short for chewing gum
 - 4 (chiefly Brit) a gumdrop
- vb gumming, gummed
- 5 to stick with gum
- ◇ SYNONYMS: stick, glue, affix, cement, paste

gum² n the fleshy tissue that covers the bases of the teeth gumboots pl n (Brit & NZ) long rubber boots, worn in wet or muddy conditions gumdrop n a small hard fruit-flavoured jelly-like sweet gummy¹ adj -mier, -miest sticky or tacky gummy² adj -mier, -miest toothless gumption n (Brit & NZ informal) common sense or initiative gun n

1 a weapon with a metallic tube or barrel from which a missile is fired, usually by force of an explosion

◇ SYNONYMS: firearm, shooter (slang), piece (slang), handgun

2 a device used to force out (a substance, such as grease or paint) under pressure: a spray gun

3 jump the gun (informal) to act prematurely

4 stick to one's guns (informal) to stand by one's opinions or intentions in spite of opposition

► vb gunning, gunned

5 to press hard on the accelerator of (a vehicle's engine)

6 gun down to shoot (someone) with a gun

► adj

7 (NZ slang) expert: a gun surfer

► See also gun for gunboat n a small ship carrying mounted guns gun dog n

1 a dog trained to locate or retrieve birds or animals that have been shot in a hunt

2 a dog belonging to any breed traditionally used for these activities gun for vb (informal) to search for (someone) in order to harm him or her in some way gunge n (informal) a sticky or congealed substance > gungy adj

gunman n, pl -men a man who uses a gun to commit a crime ◇ SYNONYMS: armed man or woman or person, gunslinger (US slang) gunmetal n

1 a type of bronze containing copper, tin, and zinc
► adj
2 dark grey gunnel (gun-nel) n same as gunwale gunner n a member of the armed forces who works with, uses, or specializes in guns gunnery n the art and science of the efficient design and use of large guns gunny n (chiefly US) a coarse hard-wearing fabric, made from jute and used for sacks gunpowder n an explosive mixture of potassium nitrate, charcoal, and sulphur, used to make fireworks gunrunning n the practice of smuggling guns and ammunition into a country > gunrunner n gunshot n

1 bullets fired from a gun 2 the sound of a gun being fired

3 the firing range of a gun: within gunshot gunwale (gun-nel) n (naut) the top of the side of a ship gunyah n (Austral) a hut or shelter in the bush guppy n, pl -pies a small brightly coloured tropical fish, often kept in aquariums in people's homes gurgle vb -gling, -gled

1 (of water) to make low bubbling noises when flowing

2 to make low throaty bubbling noises: the baby gurgled in delight

► n

3 the sound of gurgling

Gurkha n

1 a member of a Hindu people living mainly in Nepal

2 a member of a Gurkha regiment in the Indian or British Army guru n

1 a Hindu or Sikh religious teacher or leader

◇ SYNONYMS: teacher, mentor, sage, master, tutor

2 a leader or adviser of a person or group of people: inside a team of advertising gurus are at work

◇ SYNONYMS: authority, expert, leader, master, pundit, Svengali, fundi (S African) gush vb

1 to pour out suddenly and profusely

◇ SYNONYMS: flow, run, rush, flood, pour, stream, cascade, spurt

2 to speak or behave in an overenthusiastic manner: I'm not about to start gushing about raspberry coulis

► n

3 a sudden large flow of liquid

◇ SYNONYMS: stream, flow, rush, flood, jet, cascade, torrent, spurt

4 a sudden surge of strong feeling: she felt a gush of pure affection for her mother gusher n

1 a person who gushes

2 a spurting oil well gusset n a piece of material sewn into a garment to strengthen it gust n

1 a sudden blast of wind

2 a sudden surge of strong feeling: a gust of joviality

► vb

3 to blow in gusts > gusty adj

gusto n vigorous enjoyment: we all sang with great gusto

gut n

1 same as intestine

2 (slang) the belly; paunch

◇ SYNONYMS: paunch (informal), belly, spare tyre (Brit slang), potbelly, puku (NZ)

3 short for catgut

4 a silky fibrous substance extracted from silkworms and used in the manufacture of fishing tackle

► vb gutting, gutted

5 to remove the internal organs from (a dead animal or fish)

◇ SYNONYMS: disembowel, clean

6 (of a fire) to destroy the inside of (a building): a local pub was gutted

◇ SYNONYMS: ravage, empty, clean out, despoil (formal)

► adj

7 (informal) basic, essential, or natural: I have a gut feeling she's after something

◇ SYNONYMS: instinctive, natural, basic, spontaneous, intuitive, involuntary, heartfelt, unthinking gutsy adj gutsier, gutsiest (slang)

1 bold or courageous: the gutsy kid who lost a leg to cancer

2 robust or vigorous: a gutsy rendering of 'Bobby Shaftoe'

gutta-percha n a whitish rubber substance, obtained from a tropical Asian tree and used in electrical insulation and dentistry gutted adj (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) disappointed and upset: the supporters will be absolutely gutted if the manager leaves the club

gutter n

1 a channel on the roof of a building or alongside a kerb, used to collect and carry away rainwater

◇ SYNONYMS: drain, channel, ditch, trench, trough, conduit, sluice

2 (tenpin bowling) one of the channels on either side of an alley

3 the gutter a poverty-stricken, degraded, or criminal environment: he dragged himself up from the gutter

► vb

4 (of a candle) to flicker and be about to go out > guttering n

gutter press n (informal) the section of the popular press that concentrates on the sensational aspects of the news guttersnipe n (Brit) a child who spends most of his or her time in the streets, usually in a slum area guttural (gut-ter-al) adj

1 (phonetics) pronounced at the back of the throat

2 harsh-sounding guy¹ n

1 (informal) a man or boy

◇ SYNONYMS: man, person, fellow (old-fashioned), lad, bloke (Brit informal), chap

2 (informal) a person of either sex: it's been very nice talking to you guys again

◇ SYNONYMS: man, person, fellow (old-fashioned), lad, bloke (Brit informal), chap

3 (Brit) a crude model of Guy Fawkes, that is burnt on top of a bonfire on Guy Fawkes Day (November 5) guy² n a rope or chain for steadying or securing something such as a tent. Also:

guyrope

guzzle vb -zling, -zled to eat or drink quickly or greedily: the guests guzzled their way through squid with mushrooms

gybe or jibe (jibe) (naut) vb gybing, gybed or jibing, jibed

1 (of a fore-and-aft sail) to swing suddenly from one side of a ship to the other

2 to change the course of (a ship) by letting the sail gybe

► n

3 an instance of gybing gym n short for gymnasium, gymnastics gymkhana (jim-kah-na) n (Brit & Austral & NZ) an event in which horses and riders take part in various races and contests gymnasium n a large room containing equipment such as bars, weights, and ropes, for physical exercise gymnast n a person who is skilled or trained in gymnastics gymnastics n

1 practice or training in exercises that develop physical strength and agility

► pl n

2 such exercises > gymnastic adj gynaecology or (US) gynecology (guy-nee-kol-la-jee) n the branch of medicine concerned with diseases and conditions specific to women > gynaecological or (US) gynecological adj > gynaecologist or (US) gynecologist n gypsophila n a garden plant with small white flowers gypsum n a mineral used in making plaster of Paris

Gypsy or Gipsy n, pl -sies (sometimes offensive) a member of a travelling people, esp. a Roma or Irish traveller gyrate (jire-rate) vb -rating, -rated to turn round and round in a circle > gyration n

gyrocompass n a nonmagnetic compass that uses a motor-driven gyroscope to indicate true north gyroscope (jire-oh-skope) n a device containing a disc rotating on an axis that can turn freely in any direction, so that the disc maintains the same position regardless of the movement of the surrounding structure > gyroscopic adj

Hh

H

1 (chem) hydrogen

2 (physics) henry habeas corpus (hay-bee-ass kor-puss) n (law) a writ ordering a person to be brought before a judge, so as to decide whether his or her detention is lawful haberdasher n (Brit & Austral & NZ) a dealer in small articles used for sewing > haberdashery n

habit n

1 a tendency to act in a particular way

◇ SYNONYMS: mannerism, custom, way, practice, characteristic, tendency, quirk, propensity

2 established custom or use: the English habit of taking tea in the afternoon

3 an addiction to a drug

◇ SYNONYMS: addiction, dependence, compulsion

4 mental disposition or attitude: deference was a deeply ingrained habit of mind

5 the costume of a nun or monk

6 a woman's riding costume habitable adj fit to be lived in > habitability n

habitat n the natural home of an animal or plant habitation n

- 1 occupation of a dwelling place: unfit for human habitation 2 (formal) a dwelling place habitual adj

- 1 done regularly and repeatedly: habitual behaviour patterns 2 by habit: a habitual criminal > habitually adv

habituate vb -ating, -ated to accustom; get used to: habituated to failure > habituation n

habitué (hab-it-yew-ay) n a frequent visitor to a place hacienda (hass-ee-end-a) n (in Spanish-speaking countries) a ranch or large estate with a house on it hack¹ vb

- 1 to chop roughly or violently ◇ SYNONYMS: cut, chop, slash, mutilate, mangle, mangle (Austral slang), hew, lacerate
2 to cut and clear (a way) through undergrowth ◇ SYNONYMS: cut, chop, slash, mutilate, mangle, mangle (Austral slang), hew, lacerate
3 (in sport) to foul (an opposing player) by kicking his or her shins 4 (Brit & NZ informal) to tolerate 5 to manipulate a computer program skilfully, esp. to gain unauthorized access to another computer system
► n
6 a cut or gash 7 a tool, such as a pick 8 a chopping blow 9 a kick on the shins, such as in rugby > hacker n > hacking or hackery n

hack² n

- 1 a writer or journalist who produces work fast and on a regular basis ◇ SYNONYMS: reporter, writer, correspondent, journalist, scribbler, contributor, literary hack
- 2 a horse kept for riding, often one for hire
- 3 (Brit) a country ride on horseback
- ▶ vb
- 4 (Brit) to ride (a horse) cross-country for pleasure
- ▶ adj
- 5 unoriginal or of a low standard: clumsily contrived hack verse hackles pl n

- 1 the hairs or feathers on the back of the neck of certain animals or birds, which rise when they are angry
- 2 raise someone's hackles to make someone feel angry or hostile hackney n

- 1 (Brit) a taxi
- 2 same as hack

hackneyed (hak-need) adj (of a word or phrase) unoriginal and overused hacksaw n a small saw for cutting metal had vb the past of have haddock n, pl -dock a North Atlantic food fish

Hades (hay-deez) n (Greek myth)

- 1 the underworld home of the souls of the dead
- 2 the god of the underworld hadj n same as hajj haematology or (US) hematology n the branch of medical science concerned with the blood > haematologist or (US) hematologist n haemoglobin or (US) hemoglobin (hee-moh-globe-in) n a protein in red blood cells that carries oxygen from the lungs to the tissues haemophilia or (US) hemophilia (hee-moh-fill-lee-a) n a hereditary disorder, usually affecting males, in which the blood does not clot properly > haemophiliac n

haemorrhage or (US) hemorrhage (hem-or-ij) n 1 heavy bleeding from ruptured blood vessels ◇ SYNONYMS: drain, outpouring, rapid loss ► vb -rhaging, -rhaged 2 to bleed heavily ◇ SYNONYMS: drain, bleed (informal), flow rapidly haemorrhoids or (US) hemorrhoids (hem-or-oydz) pl n (pathol) swollen veins in the wall of the anus hafnium n (chem) a metallic element found in zirconium ores. SYMBOL: Hf haft n the handle of an axe, knife, or dagger hag n

1 (derogatory) an unpleasant or ugly old woman 2 a witch > haggish adj

haggard adj looking tired and ill haggis n a Scottish dish made from sheep's or calf's offal, oatmeal, suet, and seasonings boiled in a skin made from the animal's stomach haggle vb -gling, -gled to bargain or wrangle (over a price) hagiography n, pl -phies the writing of lives of the saints > hagiographer n

hag-ridden adj distressed or worried hail¹ n

1 small pellets of ice falling from thunderclouds

◇ SYNONYMS: hailstones, sleet, hailstorm, frozen rain

2 words, ideas, missiles, etc., directed with force and in great quantity: a hail of abuse

◇ SYNONYMS: shower, rain, storm, battery, volley, barrage, bombardment, downpour

► vb

3 to fall as hail: it's hailing

◇ SYNONYMS: rain, shower, pelt

4 to fall like hail: blows hailed down on him

◇ SYNONYMS: batter, rain, bombard, pelt, rain down on, beat down upon hail² vb

1 to call out to; greet: a voice from behind hailed him

◇ SYNONYMS: salute, greet, address, welcome, say hello to, halloo

2 to praise, acclaim, or acknowledge: his crew had been hailed as heroes

◇ SYNONYMS: acclaim, honour, acknowledge, cheer, applaud

3 to stop (a taxi) by shouting or gesturing

◇ SYNONYMS: flag down, summon, signal to, wave down

4 hail from to come originally from: she hails from Nova Scotia

◇ SYNONYMS hail from somewhere: come from, be born in, originate in, be a native of, have your roots in

5 within hailing distance within hearing range

► interj

6 (poetic) an exclamation of greeting hailstone n a pellet of hail hair n

1 any of the threadlike outgrowths on the skin of mammals

2 a mass of such outgrowths, such as on a person's head or an animal's body

◇ SYNONYMS: locks, mane, tresses, shock, mop, head of hair

3 (botany) a threadlike growth from the outer layer of a plant

4 a very small distance or margin: he missed death by a hair

5 get in someone's hair (informal) to annoy someone

6 hair of the dog an alcoholic drink taken as a cure for a hangover

7 let one's hair down to enjoy oneself without restraint

8 not turn a hair to show no reaction

9 split hairs to make petty and unnecessary distinctions > hairless adj

hairclip n a small clip used to hold the hair in place hairdo n, pl -dos (informal) the style of a person's hair hairdresser n

1 a person who cuts and styles hair. RELATED ADJECTIVE: tonorial

◇ SYNONYMS: stylist, barber, coiffeur or coiffeuse

2 a hairdresser's premises > hairdressing n

hairgrip n (chiefly Brit) a small bent clasp used to fasten the hair hairline n

1 the edge of hair at the top of the forehead

► adj

2 very fine or narrow: a hairline crack hairpin n a thin U-shaped pin used to fasten the hair hairpin bend n a bend in the road that curves very sharply hair-raising adj very frightening or exciting hairstyle n the cut and arrangement of a person's hair > hairstylist n

hairy adj hairier, hairiest

1 covered with hair

◇ SYNONYMS: shaggy, woolly, furry, stubbly, bushy, unshaven, hirsute (formal)

2 (slang) dangerous, exciting, and difficult

◇ SYNONYMS: dangerous, risky, unpredictable, hazardous, perilous > hairiness n

hajj or hadj n the pilgrimage a Muslim makes to Mecca haka n (NZ)

1 a Māori war chant accompanied by actions

2 a similar chant by a sports team hake n, pl hake or hakes

1 an edible fish of the cod family

2 (Austral) same as barracuda hakea (hah-kee-a) n an Australian tree or shrub with hard woody fruit halal or hallal n meat from animals that have been slaughtered according to Muslim law halberd n (history) a tall spear that includes an axe blade and a pick halcyon (hal-see-on) adj

1 peaceful, gentle, and calm

2 halcyon days a time, usually in the past, of greatest happiness or success hale adj healthy and robust: hale and hearty

◇ SYNONYMS: healthy, well, strong, sound, fit, flourishing, robust, vigorous half n, pl halves

1 either of two equal or corresponding parts that together make up a whole

◇ SYNONYMS: fifty per cent, equal part

2 the fraction equal to one divided by two

◇ SYNONYMS: fifty per cent, equal part

3 half a pint, esp. of beer

4 (sport) one of two equal periods of play in a game

5 a half-price ticket

6 by half to an excessive degree: too clever by half

7 by halves without being thorough: they rarely do things by halves

8 go halves to share expenses

► adj

9 denoting one of two equal parts: a half chicken

◇ SYNONYMS: partial, limited, moderate, halved

► adv

10 half in degree or quantity: half as much

11 partially; to an extent: half hidden in the trees

◇ SYNONYMS: partially, partly, in part

12 not half (Brit informal)

A very; indeed: it isn't half hard to look at these charts

B yes, indeed

half-baked adj (informal) poorly planned: half-baked policies half-brother n the son of either one's mother or father by another partner half-caste n (offensive) a person of mixed race half-hearted adj without enthusiasm or determination > half-heartedly adv

half-life n the time taken for radioactive material to lose half its radioactivity half-nelson n a wrestling hold in which a wrestler places an arm under the opponent's arm from behind and exerts pressure with his or her palm on the back of the opponent's neck halfpenny or ha'penny (hayp-nee) n, pl -pennies a former British coin worth half a penny half-pie adj (NZ informal) badly planned; not properly thought out: a half-pie scheme half-pipe n a structure with a U-shaped cross section, used in skateboarding, snowboarding, Rollerblading, etc.

half-timbered adj (of a building) having an exposed timber framework filled with brick or plaster half-time n (sport) an interval between the two halves of a game halftone n a photographic illustration in which the image is composed of a large number of black and white dots halfway adv

1 at or to half the distance

◇ SYNONYMS: midway, to or in the middle

2 at or towards the middle of a period of time or of an event or process

◇ SYNONYMS: midway, to or in the middle

3 rather: halfway decent

4 meet someone halfway to compromise with someone

► adj

5 at the same distance from two points: the halfway line

◇ SYNONYMS: midway, middle, mid, central, intermediate, equidistant halfwit n a foolish or inane person > halfwitted adj

halibut n a large edible flatfish halitosis n bad-smelling breath hall n

1 an entry area to other rooms in a house

◇ SYNONYMS: passage, lobby, corridor, hallway, foyer, entry, passageway, entrance hall

2 a building or room for public meetings, dances, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: meeting place, chamber, auditorium, concert hall, assembly room

3 a residential building in a college or university

4 (Brit) a great house of an estate; manor

5 a large dining room in a college or university

6 the large room of a castle or stately home hallelujah or halleluiah (hal-ee-loo-ya) or alleluia interj an exclamation of praise to God hallmark n

1 a typical feature: secrecy became the hallmark of government

◇ SYNONYMS: trademark, sure sign, telltale sign

2 (Brit) an official seal stamped on gold, silver, or platinum articles to guarantee purity and date of manufacture

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, sign, device, stamp, seal, symbol

3 a mark of authenticity or excellence

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, sign, device, stamp, seal, symbol

► vb

4 to stamp with a hallmark hallo interj, n same as hello hallowed adj

1 regarded as holy: hallowed ground

2 respected and revered because of age, importance, or reputation: the hallowed pitch at Lord's

Halloween or Hallowe'en n October 31, celebrated by children by dressing up as ghosts, witches, etc.

hallucinate vb -nating, -nated to seem to see something that is not really there hallucination n the experience of seeming to see something that is not really there > hallucinatory adj hallucinogen n any drug that causes hallucinations > hallucinogenic adj hallway n an entrance area halo (hay-loh) n, pl -loes or -los

- 1 a ring of light around the head of a sacred figure
- 2 a circle of refracted light around the sun or moon
- vb -loes or -los, -loing, -loed
- 3 to surround with a halo halogen (hal-oh-jen) n (chem) any of the nonmetallic chemical elements fluorine, chlorine, bromine, iodine, and astatine, which form salts when combined with metal halt vb

- 1 to come to a stop or bring (someone or something) to a stop
- ◇ SYNONYMS: stop, break off, stand still, wait, rest
- n
- 2 a temporary standstill
- ◇ SYNONYMS: stop, end, close, pause, standstill, stoppage
- 3 a military command to stop
- 4 (chiefly Brit) a minor railway station without a building: Deeside Halt
- 5 call a halt to to put an end to halter n

- 1 a strap around a horse's head with a rope to lead it with
- vb
- 2 to put a halter on (a horse) halterneck n a woman's top or dress which fastens behind the neck, leaving the back and arms bare halting adj hesitant or uncertain: she spoke halting Italian

◇ SYNONYMS: faltering, stumbling, awkward, hesitant, laboured, stammering, stuttering halve vb halving, halved

1 to divide (something) into two equal parts

◇ SYNONYMS: split in two, cut in half, bisect, divide in two, share equally, divide equally

2 to reduce (the size or amount of something) by half

◇ SYNONYMS: cut in half, reduce by fifty per cent, decrease by fifty per cent, lessen by fifty per cent

3 (golf) to draw with one's opponent on (a hole or round) halyard n (naut) a line for hoisting or lowering a ship's sail or flag ham¹ n smoked or salted meat from a pig's thigh ham² n

1 (informal) an amateur radio operator

2 (theatre, informal) an actor who overacts and exaggerates the emotions and gestures of a part

► adj

3 (of actors or their performances) exaggerated and overstated

► vb hamming, hammed

4 ham it up (informal) to overact hamburger n a flat round of minced beef, often served in a bread roll ham-fisted or ham-handed adj (informal) very clumsy or awkward hamlet n a small village hammer n

1 a hand tool consisting of a heavy metal head on the end of a handle, used for driving in nails, beating metal, etc.

2 the part of a gun that causes the bullet to shoot when the trigger is pulled

3 (athletics)

A a heavy metal ball attached to a flexible wire: thrown in competitions

B the sport of throwing the hammer

4 an auctioneer's mallet

5 the part of a piano that hits a string when a key is pressed

6 come or go under the hammer to be on sale at auction

7 hammer and tongs with great effort or energy

► vb

8 to hit with or as if with a hammer

◇ SYNONYMS: hit, drive, knock, beat, strike, tap, bang

9 (Brit) to criticize severely

10 (informal) to defeat heavily

◇ SYNONYMS: defeat, beat, thrash, trounce, run rings around (informal), wipe the floor with (informal), drub

11 to feel or sound like hammering: his heart was hammering

12 hammer in to force (facts or ideas) into someone through repetition

13 hammer away at to work at (something) constantly: the paper hammered away at the same theme all the way through the campaign

hammerhead n a shark with a wide flattened headhammock n a hanging bed made of canvas or nethamper¹ vb to make it difficult for (someone or something) to move or progress

◇ SYNONYMS: hinder, handicap, prevent, restrict, frustrate, hamstring, interfere with, obstruct hamper² n

1 a large basket with a lid

2 (Brit) a selection of food and drink packed as a gift hamster n a small rodent with a stocky body, short tail, and cheek pouches hamstring n

1 one of the tendons at the back of the knee

► vb -stringing, -strung

2 to make it difficult for someone to take any action hand n

1 the part of the body at the end of the arm, consisting of a thumb, four fingers, and a palm. RELATED ADJECTIVE: manual

◇ SYNONYMS: palm, fist, paw (informal), mitt (slang)

2 a person's style of writing: scrolls written in her own hand

◇ SYNONYMS: writing, script, handwriting, calligraphy

3 the influence a person or thing has over a particular situation: the hand of the military in shaping policy was obvious

4 a part in some activity: I remember with gratitude Fortune's hand in starting my collection

5 assistance: give me a hand with the rice

6 a round of applause: give a big hand to the most exciting duo in the game

◇ SYNONYMS: round of applause, clap, ovation, big hand

7 consent to marry someone: he asked for her hand in marriage

8 a manual worker

◇ SYNONYMS: worker, employee, labourer, workman, operative, craftsman or woman or person, artisan, hired hand

9 a member of a ship's crew

10 a pointer on a dial or gauge, esp. on a clock

11

A the cards dealt in one round of a card game

B one round of a card game

12 a position indicated by its location to the side of an object or the observer: on the right hand

13 a contrasting aspect or condition: on the other hand

14 source: I had experienced at first hand many management styles

15 a person who creates something: a good hand at baking

16 a unit of length equalling four inches, used for measuring the height of horses

17 by hand

A by manual rather than mechanical means

B by messenger: the letter was delivered by hand

18 from hand to mouth with no food or money in reserve: living from hand to mouth

19 hand in glove in close association

20 hand over fist steadily and quickly: losing money hand over fist

21 in hand

A under control

B receiving attention: the business in hand

C available in reserve: Pakistan have a game in hand

22 keep one's hand in to continue to practise something

23 (near) at hand very close

24 on hand close by; available

25 out of hand

A beyond control

B decisively, without possible reconsideration: he dismissed the competition out of hand

26 show one's hand to reveal one's plans

27 to hand accessible

► vb

28 to pass or give by the hand or hands

◇ SYNONYMS: give, pass, hand over, present to, deliver

29 hand it to someone to give credit to someone > handless adj

handbag n a small bag carried to contain personal articles handbill n a small printed notice for distribution by hand handbook n a reference manual giving practical information on a subject ◇ SYNONYMS: guidebook, guide, manual, instruction book handcuff n

1 handcuffs a linked pair of locking metal rings used for securing prisoners

◇ SYNONYMS: shackles, cuffs (informal), fetters, manacles

► vb

2 to put handcuffs on (a person)

◇ SYNONYMS: shackle, secure, restrain, fetter, manacle handful n, pl -fuls

1 the amount that can be held in the hand

2 a small number: a handful of parents

◇ SYNONYMS: few, sprinkling, small amount, smattering, small number

3 (informal) a person or animal that is difficult to control: as a child she was a real handful hand-held adj

1 held in position by the hand

► n

2 a device, such as a computer, that can be held in the hand handicap n

1 (old-fashioned, offensive) a physical or mental disability

2 something that makes progress difficult

◇ SYNONYMS: disadvantage, barrier, restriction, obstacle, limitation, drawback, stumbling block, impediment

3

A a contest in which competitors are given advantages or disadvantages in an attempt to equalize their chances

B the advantage or disadvantage given

◇ SYNONYMS: advantage, head start

4 (golf) the number of strokes by which a player's averaged score exceeds par for the course

► vb -capping, -capped

5 to make it difficult for (someone) to do something ◇ SYNONYMS: hinder, limit, restrict, burden, hamstring, hamper, hold back, impede handicraft n

1 a skill performed with the hands, such as weaving

2 the objects produced by people with such skills handiwork n

1 the result of someone's work or activity

2 work produced by hand handkerchief n a small square of fabric used to wipe the nose handle n

1 the part of an object that is held or operated in order that it may be used

◇ SYNONYMS: grip, hilt, haft, stock

2 a small lever used to open and close a door or window

3 (slang) a person's name

4 a means of understanding or dealing with something: trying to get a handle on why companies borrow money

5 fly off the handle (informal) to become suddenly extremely angry

► vb -dling, -dled

6 to hold, move, operate, or touch with the hands

◇ SYNONYMS: control, manage, direct, guide, manipulate, manoeuvre

7 to have responsibility for: she handles all their affairs personally

8 to manage successfully: I can handle this challenge

◇ SYNONYMS: manage, deal with, tackle, cope with 9 to discuss (a subject)

10 to deal with in a specified way: the affair was neatly handled

11 to trade or deal in (specified merchandise): we handle 1800 properties in Normandy

12 to react or respond in a specified way to operation or control: it's light and handles well > handling n

handlebars pl n a metal tube with handles at each end, used for steering a bicycle or motorcycle handler n

- 1 a person who trains and controls an animal
- 2 a person who handles something: a baggage handler hand-out n, pl hand-outs

- 1 clothing, food, or money given to a needy person
- 2 a leaflet, free sample, etc., given out to publicize something
- 3 a piece of written information given out to the audience at a talk, lecture, etc.

► vb hand out

- 4 to distribute hands-free adj, n (of) a device allowing the user to make and receive telephone calls without holding the handset handsome adj

- 1 (esp. of a man) good-looking
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: good-looking, attractive, gorgeous (informal), elegant, personable, dishy (informal, chiefly Brit), comely (old-fashioned), hot (informal), fit (Brit informal)
 - 2 (of a building, garden, etc.) large, well-made, and with an attractive appearance: a handsome building
 - 3 (of an amount of money) generous or large: a handsome dividend
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: generous, large, princely, liberal, considerable, lavish, ample, abundant
- > handsomely adv

hands-on adj involving practical experience of equipment: Navy personnel joined the 1986 expedition for hands-on operating experience

handstand n the act of supporting the body on the hands in an upside-down position handwriting n

1 writing by hand rather than by typing or printing

2 a person's characteristic writing style > handwritten adj

handy adj handier, handiest

1 conveniently within reach

◇ SYNONYMS: convenient, close, available, nearby, accessible, on hand, at hand, within reach

2 easy to handle or use

◇ SYNONYMS: useful, practical, helpful, neat, convenient, easy to use, manageable, user-friendly

3 good at manual work

◇ SYNONYMS: skilful, skilled, expert, adept, deft, proficient, adroit, dexterous > handily adv

handyman n, pl -men a man skilled at odd jobs hang vb hanging, hung

1 to fasten or be fastened from above

◇ SYNONYMS: dangle, swing, suspend

2 to place (something) in position, for instance by a hinge, so as to allow free movement: to hang a door

◇ SYNONYMS: lower, suspend, dangle

3 to be suspended so as to allow movement from the place where it is attached: her long hair hung over her face

4 to decorate with something suspended, such as pictures

5 (of cloth or clothing) to fall or flow in a particular way: the fine gauge knit hangs loosely with graceful femininity

6 past tense & past participle hanged to suspend or be suspended by the neck until dead

◇ SYNONYMS: execute, lynch, string up (informal)

7 to hover: clouds hung over the mountains

8 to fasten to a wall: to hang wallpaper

9 to exhibit or be exhibited in an art gallery

10 past tense & past participle hanged (slang) to damn: used in mild curses or interjections

11 hang fire to put off doing something

12 hang over to threaten or overshadow: the threat of war hung over the Middle East

► n

13 the way in which something hangs

14 get the hang of something (informal) to understand the technique of doing something ◇ SYNONYMS get the hang of something: grasp, understand, learn, master, comprehend, catch on to, acquire the technique of

► See also hang back etc hangar n a large building for storing aircraft hang back vb to be reluctant to do something ◇ SYNONYMS hang back: be reluctant, hesitate, hold back, recoil, demur hangdog adj dejected, ashamed, or guilty in appearance or manner hanger n same as coat hanger hang-glider n an unpowered aircraft consisting of a large cloth wing stretched over a light framework from which the pilot hangs in a harness > hang-gliding n

hangi (hung-ee) n (NZ)

1 an open-air cooking pit

2 the food cooked in it

3 the social gathering at the resultant meal hangman n, pl -men an official who carries out a sentence of hanging hangover n a feeling of sickness and headache after drinking too much alcohol ◇ SYNONYMS: aftereffects, morning after (informal) hank n a loop or coil, esp. of yarn ◇ SYNONYMS: coil, roll, length, bunch, piece, loop, clump, skein hanker vb (foll. by for or after) to have a great desire for > hankering n hanky or hankie n, pl hankies (informal) short for handkerchief hanky-panky n (informal) 1 casual sexual relations 2 mischievous behaviour hansom n (formerly) a two-wheeled one-horse carriage with a fixed hood. Also called: hansom cab haphazard adj not organized or planned > haphazardly adv

hapless adj unlucky: the hapless victim of a misplaced murder attempt happen vb

1 to take place; occur ◇ SYNONYMS: occur, take place, come about, result, develop, transpire (informal), come to pass 2 to chance (to be or do something): I happen to know him ◇ SYNONYMS: chance, turn out (informal) 3 to be the case, esp. by chance: it happens that I know him 4 happen to (of some unforeseen event, such as death) to be the experience or fate of: if anything happens to me you will know happening n an event that often occurs in a way that is unexpected or hard to explain: some strange happenings in the village recently ◇ SYNONYMS: event, incident, experience, affair, proceeding, episode, occurrence happy adj -pier, -piest

1 feeling or expressing joy

◇ SYNONYMS: pleased, delighted, content, thrilled, glad, cheerful, merry, ecstatic, stoked (informal)

2 causing joy or gladness: the happiest day of my life

◇ SYNONYMS: contented, joyful, blissful

3 fortunate or lucky: it was a happy coincidence

◇ SYNONYMS: fortunate, lucky, timely, favourable, auspicious, propitious, advantageous

4 satisfied or content: he seems happy to let things go on as they are

5 willing: I'll be happy to arrange a loan for you > happily adv

> happiness n

happy-go-lucky adj carefree or easy-going hara-kiri n (formerly, in Japan) ritual suicide by disembowelment when disgraced or under sentence of death harangue vb -ranguing, -ranged

1 to address (a person or group) in an angry or forcefully persuasive way

► n

2 a forceful or angry speech harass vb to trouble or annoy (someone) by repeated attacks, questions, or problems

- ◇ SYNONYMS: annoy, trouble, bother, harry, plague, hound, hassle (informal), persecute
- > harassed adj
- > harassment n harbinger (har-binge-er) n (literary) a person or thing that announces or indicates the approach of something: a harbinger of death

harbour or (US) harbor n

- 1 a sheltered port
- ◇ SYNONYMS: port, haven, dock, mooring, marina, pier, wharf, anchorage
- 2 a place of refuge or safety
- ▶ vb
- 3 to maintain secretly in the mind: he might be harbouring a death wish
- ◇ SYNONYMS: hold, bear, maintain, nurse, retain, foster, entertain, nurture
- 4 to give shelter or protection to: the government accused her of harbouring criminals
- ◇ SYNONYMS: shelter, protect, hide, shield, provide refuge, give asylum to hard adj

- 1 firm, solid, or rigid
- ◇ SYNONYMS: tough, strong, firm, solid, stiff, rigid, resistant, compressed
- 2 difficult to do or understand: a hard sum
- ◇ SYNONYMS: difficult, involved, complicated, puzzling, intricate, perplexing, impenetrable, thorny
- 3 showing or requiring a lot of effort or application: hard work
- ◇ SYNONYMS: exhausting, tough, exacting, rigorous, gruelling, strenuous, arduous, laborious
- 4 unkind or unfeeling: she's very hard, no pity for anyone
- ◇ SYNONYMS: harsh, cold, cruel, stern, callous, unkind, unsympathetic, pitiless
- 5 causing pain, sorrow, or hardship: the hard life of a northern settler
- ◇ SYNONYMS: grim, painful, distressing, harsh, unpleasant, intolerable, grievous, disagreeable
- 6 tough or violent: a hard man
- 7 forceful: a hard knock
- 8 cool or uncompromising: we took a long hard look at our profit factor

- 9 indisputable and proven to be true: hard facts
- 10 (of water) containing calcium salts which stop soap lathering freely
- 11 practical, shrewd, or calculating: I am a hard businesswoman
- 12 harsh: hard light
- 13 (of currency) high and stable in exchange value
- 14 (of alcoholic drink) being a spirit rather than a wine or beer
- 15 (of a drug) highly addictive
- 16 hard-core
- 17 (phonetics) denoting the consonants c and g when they are pronounced as in cat and got
- 18 politically extreme: the hard left
- 19 hard of hearing slightly deaf
- 20 hard up (informal) in need of money
- adv
- 21 with great energy or force: they fought so hard and well in Spain
- ◇ SYNONYMS: forcefully, strongly, heavily, sharply, severely, fiercely, vigorously, intensely
- 22 with great intensity: thinking hard about the conversation
- ◇ SYNONYMS: intently, closely, carefully, sharply, keenly
- 23 hard by very close to: Cleveland Place, hard by Bruntsfield Square
- 24 hard put (to it) scarcely having the capacity (to do something)
- n
- 25 have a hard on (vulgar, slang) to have an erection of the penis
- > hardness n

hardback n

- 1 a book with stiff covers
- adj
- 2 of or denoting a hardback hard-bitten adj (informal) tough and determined hardboard n stiff board made in thin sheets of compressed sawdust and wood pulp hard-boiled adj

1 (of an egg) boiled until solid

2 (informal) tough, realistic, and unemotional hard copy n computer output printed on paper hard disk n (computers) a rigid magnetic storage disk that is permanently mounted in a computer hard drive n (computers) the mechanism that handles the reading, writing, and storage of data on the hard disk harden vb

1 to make or become hard; freeze, stiffen, or set

◇ SYNONYMS: solidify, set, freeze, cake, bake, clot, thicken, stiffen

2 to make or become tough or unfeeling: life in the camp had hardened her considerably

◇ SYNONYMS: accustom, season, toughen, train, inure, habituate

3 to make or become stronger or firmer: they hardened defences

4 to make or become more determined or resolute: the government has hardened its attitude to the crisis

5 (commerce) (of prices or a market) to cease to fluctuate hardfill n (NZ & S African) a stone waste material used for landscaping hard-headed adj tough, realistic, or shrewd, esp. in business hardhearted adj unsympathetic and uncaring hardly adv

1 scarcely; barely: he'd hardly sipped his whisky

- ◇ SYNONYMS: barely, only just, scarcely, just, with difficulty, with effort 2 (humorous) not at all: it was hardly in the Great Train Robbery league 3 with difficulty: their own families would hardly recognize them hard sell n an aggressive insistent technique of selling hardship n

- 1 conditions of life that are difficult to endure ◇ SYNONYMS: suffering, need, difficulty, misfortune, adversity, discomfort, tribulation, privation (formal) 2 something that causes suffering ◇ SYNONYMS: suffering, need, difficulty, misfortune, adversity, discomfort, tribulation, privation (formal)

hard shoulder n (Brit & NZ) a surfaced verge running along the edge of a motorway and other roads for emergency stops hardware n

- 1 metal tools or implements, esp. cutlery or cooking utensils 2 the physical equipment used in a computer system 3 heavy military equipment, such as tanks and missiles hardwood n the wood of a deciduous tree such as oak, beech, or ash hardy adj -dier, -diest

- 1 able to stand difficult conditions ◇ SYNONYMS: strong, tough, robust, sound, rugged (US & Canad), sturdy, stout 2 (of plants) able to live out of doors throughout the winter > hardiness n

hare n, pl hares or hare

1 a mammal like a large rabbit, with longer ears and legs

► vb haring, hared

2 (foll. by off or after) (Brit & Austral informal) to run fast or wildly harebell n a blue bell-shaped flower harebrained adj foolish or impractical: harebrained schemes haricot bean or haricot (har-rik-oh) n a white edible bean, which can be dried harissa n a hot paste or sauce made from chilli peppers, tomatoes, spices, and olive oil, used in North African cuisine harlequin n

1 (theatre) a stock comic character, usually wearing a diamond-patterned multicoloured costume and a black mask

► adj

2 in varied colours harlot n (literary) a prostitute > harlotry n

harm vb

1 to injure physically, morally, or mentally

◇ SYNONYMS: injure, hurt, wound, abuse, ill-treat, maltreat

► n

2 physical, moral, or mental injury

◇ SYNONYMS: injury, suffering, damage, ill, hurt, distress harmful adj causing or tending to cause harm, esp. to a person's health ◇ SYNONYMS: damaging, dangerous, negative, destructive, hazardous, unhealthy, detrimental, hurtful, toxic harmless adj

1 safe to use, touch, or be near

◇ SYNONYMS: safe, benign, wholesome, innocuous, nontoxic

2 unlikely to annoy or worry people: a harmless habit

◇ SYNONYMS: inoffensive, innocent, innocuous, gentle, tame, unobjectionable harmonic adj

1 of, producing, or characterized by harmony; harmonious

► n

2 (music) an overtone of a musical note produced when that note is played, but not usually heard as a separate note

► See also harmonics > harmonically adv

harmonica n a small wind instrument in which reeds enclosed in a narrow oblong box are made to vibrate by blowing and sucking harmonics n the science of musical sounds harmonious adj

1 (esp. of colours or sounds) consisting of parts which blend together well

2 showing agreement, peacefulness, and friendship: a harmonious relationship

3 tuneful or melodious > harmoniously adv

harmonium n a musical keyboard instrument in which air from pedal-operated bellows causes the reeds to vibrate harmonize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised

- 1 to sing or play in harmony, such as with another singer or player
- 2 to make or become harmonious harmony n, pl -nies

- 1 a state of peaceful agreement and cooperation
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: accord, peace, agreement, friendship, sympathy, cooperation, rapport, compatibility
- 2 (music) a pleasant combination of two or more notes sounded at the same time
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: tune, melody, unison, tunefulness, euphony
- 3 the way parts combine well together or into a whole harness n

- 1 an arrangement of straps for attaching a horse to a cart or plough
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: equipment, tackle, gear, tack
- 2 something resembling this, for attaching something to a person's body: a parachute harness
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: equipment, tackle, gear, tack
- 3 in harness at one's routine work
 - ▶ vb
 - 4 to put a harness on (a horse or other animal)
 - 5 to control something in order to make use of it: learning to harness the power of your own mind
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: exploit, control, channel, employ, utilize, mobilize harp n

- 1 a large upright triangular stringed instrument played by plucking the strings with the fingers
 - ▶ vb
- 2 harp on to speak in a persistent and tedious manner (about a subject)
 - > harpist n

harpoon n

- 1 a barbed spear attached to a long rope and thrown or fired when hunting whales, etc.

► vb

2 to spear with a harpoon harpsichord n a keyboard instrument, resembling a small piano, with strings that are plucked mechanically > harpsichordist n

harridan n (derogatory) a scolding old woman; nag harrier n a cross-country runner harrow n

1 an implement used to break up clods of soil

► vb

2 to draw a harrow over (land) harrowing adj very upsetting or disturbing

◇ SYNONYMS: distressing, disturbing, painful, terrifying, traumatic, tormenting, agonizing, nerve-racking

harry vb -ries, -rying, -ried to keep asking (someone) to do something; pester ◇ SYNONYMS: pester, bother, plague, harass, hassle (informal), badger, chivvy (Brit) harsh adj

1 severe and difficult to cope with: harsh winters

◇ SYNONYMS: severe, hard, tough, stark, austere, inhospitable, bare-bones

2 unkind and showing no understanding: the judge was very harsh on the demonstrators

◇ SYNONYMS: cruel, savage, ruthless, barbarous, pitiless

3 excessively hard, bright, or rough: harsh sunlight

4 (of sounds) unpleasant and grating

◇ SYNONYMS: raucous, rough, grating, strident, rasping, discordant, guttural, dissonant > harshly adv

> harshness n

harvest n

1 the gathering of a ripened crop

◇ SYNONYMS: harvesting, picking, gathering, collecting, reaping, harvest-time

2 the crop itself

◇ SYNONYMS: crop, yield, year's growth, produce

3 the season for gathering crops

4 the product of an effort or action

► vb

5 to gather (a ripened crop)

◇ SYNONYMS: gather, pick, collect, bring in, pluck, reap

6 (chiefly US) to remove (an organ) from the body for transplantation harvester n

1 a harvesting machine, esp. a combine harvester

2 a person who harvests has vb third person singular of the present tense of have has-been n (informal) a person who is no longer popular or successful hash¹ n

1 a dish of diced cooked meat, vegetables, etc., reheated: corned-beef hash

2 a reworking of old material

3 make a hash of (informal) to mess up or destroy hash² n (slang) short for hashish hash³ or hashmark³ n the character (#) used to precede a number hashish (hash-eesh) n a drug made from the hemp plant, smoked for its intoxicating effects hashtag n (on the Twitter website) a word or phrase preceded by a hash, indicating the topic being discussed hasp n a clasp which fits over a staple and is secured by a pin, bolt, or padlock, used as a fastening hassle (informal) n

1 a great deal of trouble

◇ SYNONYMS: trouble, problem, difficulty, bother, grief (informal), uphill (S African), inconvenience

2 a prolonged argument

► vb -sling, -sled

3 to cause annoyance or trouble to (someone): stop hassling me!

◇ SYNONYMS: bother, bug (informal), annoy, hound, harass, badger, pester hassock n a cushion for kneeling on in church haste n

1 speed, esp. in an action

2 the act of hurrying in a careless manner

3 make haste to hurry or rush

► vb hasting, hasted

4 (poetic) to hasten hasten vb

1 to hurry or cause to hurry

2 to be anxious (to say something) hasty adj -tier, -tiest

1 done or happening suddenly or quickly

2 done too quickly and without thought; rash > hastily adv

hat n

- 1 a head covering, often with a brim, usually worn to give protection from the weather
- 2 (informal) a role or capacity: I'm wearing my honorary consul's hat
- 3 keep something under one's hat to keep something secret
- 4 pass the hat round to collect money for a cause
- 5 take off one's hat to someone to admire or congratulate someone hatch¹ vb

- 1 to cause (the young of various animals, esp. birds) to emerge from the egg or (of young birds, etc.) to emerge from the egg
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: incubate, breed, sit on, brood, bring forth
- 2 (of eggs) to break and release the young animal within
- 3 to devise (a plot or plan)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: devise, design, invent, put together, conceive, brew, formulate, contrive hatch² n

- 1 a hinged door covering an opening in a floor or wall
- 2
 - A short for hatchway
 - B a door in an aircraft or spacecraft
- 3 Also called: serving hatch an opening in a wall between a kitchen and a dining area
- 4 (informal) short for hatchback hatchback n a car with a single lifting door in the rear hatchet n

- 1 a short axe used for chopping wood, etc.
- 2 bury the hatchet to make peace or resolve a disagreement
 - adj
- 3 narrow and sharp: a hatchet face hatchet job n (informal) a malicious verbal or written attack hatchet man n (informal) a person who carries out unpleasant tasks on behalf of an employer hatchway n an opening in the deck of a vessel to provide access below hate vb hating, hated

1 to dislike (someone or something) intensely

◇ SYNONYMS: detest, loathe, despise, dislike, abhor, recoil from, not be able to bear

2 to be unwilling (to do something): I hate to trouble you

◇ SYNONYMS: be unwilling, regret, be reluctant, hesitate, be sorry, be loath, feel disinclined

► n

3 intense dislike

◇ SYNONYMS: dislike, hostility, hatred, loathing, animosity, aversion, antipathy, enmity

4 (informal) a person or thing that is hated: my own pet hate is restaurants > hater n

hateful adj causing or deserving hate hatred n intense dislike ◇ SYNONYMS: hate, dislike, animosity, aversion, revulsion, antipathy, enmity, repugnance hat trick n

1 (cricket) the achievement of a bowler in taking three wickets with three successive balls

2 any achievement of three successive goals, victories, etc.

haughty adj -tier, -tiest having or showing excessive pride or arrogance > haughtily adv

> haughtiness n

haul vb

1 to drag or pull (something) with effort

◇ SYNONYMS: drag, draw, pull, heave

2 to transport, such as in a lorry

3 (naut) to alter the course of (a vessel)

► n

4 the act of dragging with effort

5 a quantity of something obtained: a good haul of fish; a huge haul of stolen goods

◇ SYNONYMS: yield, gain, spoils, catch, harvest, loot, takings, booty

6 long haul

A a long journey

B a long difficult process haulage n

1 the business of transporting goods

2 a charge for transporting goods haulier n (Brit & Austral) a person or firm that transports goods by road haunch n

1 the human hip or fleshy hindquarter of an animal

2 the leg and loin of an animal, used for food haunt vb

1 to visit (a person or place) in the form of a ghost

2 to remain in the memory or thoughts of: it was a belief which haunted her

◇ SYNONYMS: plague, trouble, obsess, torment, possess, stay with, recur, prey on

3 to visit (a place) frequently

► n

4 a place visited frequently

◇ SYNONYMS: meeting place, hangout (informal), rendezvous, stamping ground haunted adj

1 (of a place) frequented or visited by ghosts

◇ SYNONYMS: possessed, ghostly, cursed, eerie, spooky (informal), jinxed

2 (of a person) obsessed or worried

◇ SYNONYMS: preoccupied, worried, troubled, plagued, obsessed, tormented haunting adj having a quality of great beauty or sadness so as to be memorable: a haunting melody

◇ SYNONYMS: evocative, poignant, unforgettable haute couture (oat koo-ture) n high fashion hauteur (oat-ur) n haughtiness have vb has, having, had

1 to possess: he has a collection of classic cars; I have an iron constitution

◇ SYNONYMS: own, keep, possess, hold, retain, boast, be the owner of 2 to receive, take, or obtain: I had a long letter

◇ SYNONYMS: get, obtain, take, receive, accept, gain, secure, acquire

3 to hold in the mind: she always had a yearning to be a schoolteacher

4 to possess a knowledge of: I have no German

5 to experience or be affected by: a good way to have a change

◇ SYNONYMS: experience, go through, undergo, meet with, come across, run into, be faced with

6 to suffer from: to have a blood pressure problem

◇ SYNONYMS: suffer, experience, undergo, sustain, endure, be suffering from 7 to gain control of or advantage over: you have me on that point

8 (slang) to cheat or outwit: I've been had

9 to show: have mercy on me

10 to take part in; hold: I had a telephone conversation

11 to cause to be done: have my shoes mended by Friday

12 to eat or drink

13 (vulgar, slang) to have sexual intercourse with 14 to tolerate or allow: I won't have all this noise

15 to receive as a guest: we have visitors

16 to be pregnant with or give birth to (offspring)

◇ SYNONYMS: give birth to, bear, deliver, bring forth, beget

17 used to form past tenses: I have gone; I had gone

18 have had it (informal)

A to be exhausted or killed

B to have lost one's last chance

19 have it off (Brit vulgar, slang) to have sexual intercourse

20 have to used to express compulsion or necessity: you'd have to wait six months

◇ SYNONYMS have to: must, should, be forced, ought, be obliged, be bound, have got to, be compelled

► n

21 haves (informal) people who have wealth, security, etc.: the haves and the have-nots

► See also have on haven n

1 a place of safety

◇ SYNONYMS: sanctuary, shelter, retreat, asylum, refuge, oasis, sanctum

2 a harbour for shipping have on vb

1 to wear: he had a pair of long trousers on

◇ SYNONYMS have something on: wear, be wearing, be dressed in, be clothed in, be attired in

2 to have a commitment: what do you have on this afternoon?

3 (informal) to trick or tease: he's having you on

◇ SYNONYMS have someone on: tease, kid (informal), wind up (Brit slang), trick, deceive, take the mickey, pull someone's leg

4 to have (information, esp. when incriminating) about (a person): she has something on him haversack n a canvas bag carried on the back or shoulder have up vb to bring to trial: what, and get me had up for kidnapping?

havoc n

1 (informal) chaos, disorder, and confusion

◇ SYNONYMS: disorder, confusion, chaos, disruption, mayhem, shambles

2 play havoc with to cause a great deal of damage or confusion to haw n the fruit of the hawthorn hawk¹ n

1 a bird of prey with short rounded wings and a long tail

2 a supporter or advocate of warlike policies

► vb

3 to hunt with falcons or hawks > hawkish adj

> hawklike adj

hawk² vb to offer (goods) for sale in the street or door-to-door hawk³ vb

1 to clear the throat noisily

2 to force (phlegm) up from the throat hawker n a person who travels from place to place selling goods hawk-eyed adj having extremely keen eyesight hawser n (naut) a large heavy rope hawthorn n a thorny tree or shrub with white or pink flowers and reddish fruits hay n

1 grass cut and dried as fodder

2 hit the hay (slang) to go to bed

3 make hay while the sun shines to take full advantage of an opportunity hay fever n an allergic reaction to pollen, which causes sneezing, runny nose, and watery eyes haystack or hayrick n a large pile of hay built in the open and covered with thatch haywire adj go haywire (informal) to stop functioning properly hazard n

1 a thing likely to cause injury, loss, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: danger, risk, threat, problem, menace, peril, jeopardy, pitfall

2 risk or likelihood of injury, loss, etc.: evaluate the level of hazard in a situation

◇ SYNONYMS: danger, risk, threat, problem, menace, peril, jeopardy, pitfall

3 (golf) an obstacle such as a bunker

4 at hazard at risk

► vb

5 to risk: hazarding the health of his crew

◇ SYNONYMS: jeopardize, risk, endanger, threaten, expose, imperil, put in jeopardy

6 hazard a guess to make a guess

◇ SYNONYMS hazard a guess: guess, conjecture, presume, take a guess hazardous adj involving great risk ◇ SYNONYMS: dangerous, risky, difficult, insecure, unsafe, precarious, perilous, dicey (informal, chiefly Brit)

haze n

1 (meteorol) reduced visibility as a result of condensed water vapour, dust, etc., in the air

◇ SYNONYMS: mist, cloud, fog, obscurity, vapour

2 confused or unclear understanding or feeling hazel n

1 a shrub with edible rounded nuts

► adj

2 greenish-brown: hazel eyes hazelnut n the nut of a hazel shrub, which has a smooth shiny hard shell hazy adj -zier, -ziest

1 (of the sky or a view) unable to be seen clearly because of dust or heat

2 dim or vague: my memory is a little hazy on this > hazily adv

> haziness n

H-bomb n short for hydrogen bomb

HD high definition

he pron

1 (refers to) a male person or animal

► n

2 (refers to) a male person or animal: a he-goat head n

1 the upper or front part of the body that contains the brain, eyes, mouth, nose, and ears

◇ SYNONYMS: skull, crown, pate, nut (slang), loaf (slang)

- 2 a person's mind and mental abilities: I haven't any head for figures ◇ SYNONYMS: mind, reasoning, understanding, thought, sense, brain, brains (informal), intelligence
- 3 the most forward part of a thing: the head of a queue
- 4 the highest part of a thing; upper end: the head of the pass ◇ SYNONYMS: top, crown, summit, peak, crest, pinnacle
- 5 something resembling a head in form or function, such as the top of a tool
- 6 the position of leadership or command
- 7 the person commanding most authority within a group or an organization ◇ SYNONYMS: leader, president, director, manager, chief, boss (informal), captain, master, sherrang (Austral & NZ)
- 8 (botany) the top part of a plant, where the leaves or flowers grow in a cluster
- 9 a culmination or crisis: the matter came to a head in December 1928
- 10 the froth on the top of a glass of beer
- 11 the pus-filled tip of a pimple or boil
- 12 part of a computer or tape recorder that can read, write, or erase information
- 13 the source of a river or stream
- 14 the side of a coin that usually bears a portrait of the head of a monarch, etc.
- 15 a headland or promontory: Beachy Head
- 16 pressure of water or steam in an enclosed space
- 17 pl head a person or animal considered as a unit: the cost per head of Paris's refuse collection; six hundred head of cattle
- 18 a headline or heading
- 19 (informal) short for headache
- 20 give someone his or her head to allow someone greater freedom or responsibility
- 21 go to one's head
A (of an alcoholic drink) to make one slightly drunk ◇ SYNONYMS go to your head: intoxicate B to make one conceited: success has gone to his head ◇ SYNONYMS go to your head: make someone conceited, puff someone up, make someone full of themselves
- 22 head over heels (in love) very much (in love) ◇ SYNONYMS head over heels: completely, thoroughly, utterly, intensely, wholeheartedly, uncontrollably
- 23 keep one's head to remain calm
- 24 not make head nor tail of not to understand (a problem, etc.)
- 25 off one's head (slang) very foolish or mentally unstable

26 on one's own head at one's own risk

27 over someone's head

A to a higher authority: the taboo of going over the head of their immediate boss

B beyond a person's understanding

28 put our or your or their heads together (informal) to consult together

29 turn someone's head to make someone conceited

► vb

30 to be at the front or top of: Barnes headed the list

◇ SYNONYMS: lead, precede, be the leader of, be or go first, be or go at the front of, lead the way

31 to be in charge of ◇ SYNONYMS: be in charge of, run, manage, lead, control, direct, guide, command

32 (often foll. by for) to go or cause to go (towards): to head for the Channel ports

33 (soccer) to propel (the ball) by striking it with the head

34 to provide with a heading

► See also heads headache n

1 a continuous pain in the head

◇ SYNONYMS: migraine, head (informal), neuralgia

2 (informal) any cause of worry, difficulty, or annoyance: financial headaches

◇ SYNONYMS: problem, worry, trouble, bother, nuisance, inconvenience, bane, vexation headboard n a vertical board at the head of a bed headdress n any decorative head covering header n

1 (soccer) the action of striking a ball with the head

2 (informal) a headlong fall or dive heading n

1 a title for a page, chapter, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: title, name, caption, headline, rubric

2 a main division, such as of a speech

3 (mining) a horizontal tunnel headland n a narrow area of land jutting out into a sea headlight or headlamp n a powerful light on the front of a vehicle headline n

1 a phrase in heavy large type at the top of a newspaper or magazine article indicating the subject

2 headlines the main points of a television or radio news broadcast

► vb -lining, -lined

3 to provide with a headline

4 to be the main performer in (a show) > headliner n

headlong adv

1 with the head foremost; headfirst

2 with great haste and without much thought: they rushed headlong into buying a house

► adj

3 hasty or reckless headphones pl n two small loudspeakers held against the ears, worn to listen to the radio or recorded music without other people hearing it headquarters pl n any centre from which operations are directed headroom or headway n the space below a roof or bridge which allows an object to pass or stay underneath it without touching it heads adv with the side of a coin uppermost which has a portrait of a head on it head start n an initial advantage in a competitive situation headstone n a memorial stone at the head of a grave headstrong adj determined to do something in one's own way and ignoring the advice of others headway n

1 progress towards achieving something: have the police made any headway?

2 motion forward: we felt our way out to the open sea, barely making headway

3 same as headroom headwind n a wind blowing directly against the course of an aircraft or ship heady adj headier, headiest

1 (of an experience or period of time) extremely exciting

◇ SYNONYMS: exciting, thrilling, stimulating, exhilarating, intoxicating

2 (of alcoholic drink, atmosphere, etc.) strongly affecting the physical senses: a powerful, heady scent of cologne

◇ SYNONYMS: intoxicating, strong, potent, inebriating

3 rash and impetuous heal vb

1 (of a wound) to repair by natural processes, such as by scar formation

◇ SYNONYMS: mend, get better, get well, regenerate, show improvement

2 to restore (someone) to health

◇ SYNONYMS: cure, restore, mend, make better, remedy, make good, make well

3 to repair (a rift in a personal relationship or an emotional wound) > healer n > healing n, adj

health n

1 the general condition of body and mind: better health

◇ SYNONYMS: condition, state, shape, constitution, fettle

2 the state of being bodily and mentally vigorous and free from disease ◇ SYNONYMS: wellbeing, strength, fitness, vigour, good condition, soundness, robustness, healthiness

3 the condition of an organization, society, etc.: the economic health of the republics

◇ SYNONYMS: state, condition, shape health food n natural food, organically grown and free from additives healthy adj healthier, healthiest

1 having or showing good health

◇ SYNONYMS: well, fit, strong, active, robust, in good shape (informal), in the pink, in fine fettle

2 likely to produce good health: healthy seaside air

◇ SYNONYMS: wholesome, beneficial, nourishing, nutritious, salutary, hygienic, salubrious

3 functioning well or being sound: this is a very healthy business to be in

4 (informal) considerable: healthy profits

5 sensible: a healthy scepticism about his promises > healthily adv

> healthiness n

heap n

1 a pile of things lying one on top of another

◇ SYNONYMS: pile, lot, collection, mass, stack, mound, accumulation, hoard

2 (often pl, informal) a large number or quantity

◇ SYNONYMS: a lot, lots, plenty, masses, load(s) (informal), great deal, tons (informal), stack(s)

► adv

3 heaps (informal) much: he was heaps better

► vb

4 to collect into a pile

◇ SYNONYMS: pile, collect, gather, stack, accumulate, amass, hoard

5 to give freely (to): film roles were heaped on her hear vb hearing, heard

1 to perceive (a sound) with the sense of hearing

◇ SYNONYMS: overhear, catch, detect

2 to listen to: I didn't want to hear what he had to say

◇ SYNONYMS: listen to

3 to be informed (of something); receive information (about something): I hear you mean to join the crusade

◇ SYNONYMS: learn, discover, find out, pick up, gather, ascertain, get wind of (informal)

4 (law) to give a hearing to (a case)

◇ SYNONYMS: try, judge, examine, investigate

5 hear from to receive a letter or telephone call from 6 hear! hear! an exclamation of approval

7 hear of to allow: she wouldn't hear of it > hearer n

hearing n

1 the sense by which sound is perceived

2 an opportunity for someone to be listened to 3 the range within which sound can be heard; earshot

4 the investigation of a matter by a court of law

◇ SYNONYMS: inquiry, trial, investigation, industrial tribunal hearsay n gossip or rumour hearse n a large car used to carry a coffin at a funeral heart n

1 a hollow muscular organ whose contractions pump the blood throughout the body

2 this organ considered as the centre of emotions, esp. love

◇ SYNONYMS: emotions, feelings, love, affection

3 tenderness or pity: my heart went out to her

4 courage or spirit

◇ SYNONYMS: courage, will, spirit, purpose, bottle (Brit informal), resolution, resolve, stomach

5 the most central part or important part: at the heart of Italian motor racing

◇ SYNONYMS: root, core, centre, nucleus, hub, gist, nitty-gritty (informal), nub

6 (of vegetables such as cabbage) the inner compact part 7 the breast: she held him to her heart

8 a shape representing the heart, with two rounded lobes at the top meeting in a point at the bottom

9

A a red heart-shaped symbol on a playing card

B a card with one or more of these symbols or (when pl) the suit of cards so marked

10 break someone's heart to cause someone to grieve very deeply, esp. by ending a love affair

11 by heart by memorizing

◇ SYNONYMS by heart: from or by memory, verbatim, word for word, pat, word-perfect, by rote, off by heart, off pat

12 have a change of heart to experience a profound change of outlook or attitude

13 have one's heart in one's mouth to be full of apprehension, excitement, or fear

14 have the heart to have the necessary will or callousness (to do something): I didn't have the heart to tell him

15 set one's heart on something to have something as one's ambition

16 take heart to become encouraged

17 take something to heart to take something seriously or be upset about something

18 wear one's heart on one's sleeve to show one's feelings openly 19 with all one's heart deeply and sincerely heartache n very great sadness and emotional suffering heart attack n a sudden severe malfunction of the heart heartbeat n one complete pulsation of the heart heartbreak n intense and overwhelming grief, esp. after the end of a love affair > heartbreaking adj

> heartbroken adj

heartburn n a burning sensation in the chest caused by indigestion hearten vb to encourage or make cheerful > heartening adj

heart failure n

1 a condition in which the heart is unable to pump an adequate amount of blood to the tissues

2 sudden stopping of the heartbeat, resulting in death heartfelt adj sincerely and strongly felt: heartfelt thanks hearth n

1 the floor of a fireplace

2 this as a symbol of the home heartless adj unkind or cruel > heartlessly adv

heart-rending adj causing great sadness and pity: a heart-rending story heart-throb n a man, esp. a film or pop star, who is attractive to a lot of people heartily adj heartier, heartiest

1 warm, friendly, and enthusiastic

2 strongly felt: a hearty dislike

3 (of a meal) substantial and nourishing > heartily adv

heat vb

1 to make or become hot or warm

◇ SYNONYMS: warm (up), cook, boil, roast, reheat, make hot

► n

2 the state of being hot

◇ SYNONYMS: warmth, hotness, temperature

3 the energy transferred as a result of a difference in temperature. RELATED

ADJECTIVES: thermal, calorific

4 hot weather: he loves the heat of Africa

◇ SYNONYMS: hot weather, warmth, closeness, high temperature, heatwave, warm weather, hot climate, mugginess

5 intensity of feeling: the heat of their argument

◇ SYNONYMS: passion, excitement, intensity, fury, fervour, vehemence

6 the most intense part: in the heat of an election campaign

7 pressure: political heat on the government

8 (sport) a preliminary eliminating contest in a competition

9 on or in heat (of some female mammals) ready for mating > heating n

heated adj impassioned or highly emotional: a heated debate

◇ SYNONYMS: impassioned, intense, spirited, excited, angry, furious, fierce, lively > heatedly adv

heater n a device for supplying heat heath n

- 1 (Brit) a large open area, usually with sandy soil, low shrubs, and heather
- 2 a low-growing evergreen shrub with small bell-shaped pink or purple flowers heathen (old-fashioned) n, pl -thens or -then

- 1 a person who does not believe in an established religion; pagan
- adj
- 2 of or relating to heathen peoples heather n a shrub with small bell-shaped flowers growing on heaths and mountainsheave vb heaving, heaved

- 1 to lift or move (something) with a great effort
- 2 to throw (something heavy) with effort
- 3 to utter (a sigh) noisily or unhappily
- 4 to rise and fall heavily
- 5 past tense & past participle hove (naut)
- A to move in a specified direction: heave her bows around and head north
- B (of a vessel) to pitch or roll
- 6 to vomit or retch
- n
- 7 the act of heaving heaven n

- 1 (in some religions) the place where God is believed to live and where those leading good lives are believed to go when they die
- ◊ SYNONYMS: paradise, next world, hereafter, nirvana (Buddhism, Hinduism), bliss, Zion (Christianity), life everlasting, Elysium or Elysian fields (Greek myth)
- 2 a place or state of happiness
- ◊ SYNONYMS: happiness, paradise, ecstasy, bliss, utopia, rapture, seventh heaven
- 3 heavens the sky

◇ SYNONYMS the heavens: sky, ether, firmament

4 Also: heavens God or the gods, used in exclamatory phrases: for heaven's sake!

heavenly adj

1 (informal) wonderful or very enjoyable: a heavenly meal

◇ SYNONYMS: wonderful, lovely, delightful, beautiful, divine (informal), exquisite, sublime, blissful

2 of or occurring in space: a heavenly body

3 of or relating to heaven

◇ SYNONYMS: celestial, holy, divine, blessed, immortal, angelic heavy adj heavier, heaviest

1 of comparatively great weight

◇ SYNONYMS: weighty, large, massive, hefty, bulky, ponderous

2 with a relatively high density: lead is a heavy metal

3 great in degree or amount: heavy traffic

◇ SYNONYMS: intensive, severe, serious, concentrated, fierce, excessive, relentless

4 considerable: heavy emphasis

◇ SYNONYMS: considerable, large, huge, substantial, abundant, copious, profuse

5 hard to fulfil: an exceptionally heavy demand for this issue

6 using or consuming a lot of something quickly: a heavy drinker

7 deep and loud: heavy breathing

8 clumsy and slow: a heavy lumbering trot

9 (of a movement or action) with great downward force or pressure: a heavy blow with a club

10 solid or fat: mountain animals acquire a heavy layer of fat

11 not easily digestible: a heavy meal

12 (of cakes or bread) insufficiently raised

13 (of soil) with a high clay content

14 sad or dejected: you feel heavy or sad afterwards

15 (of facial features) looking sad and tired

16 (of a situation) serious and causing anxiety or sadness

17 cloudy or overcast: heavy clouds obscured the sun

18 (of an industry) engaged in the large-scale manufacture of large objects or extraction of raw materials

19 (military) (of guns, etc.) large and powerful

20 dull and uninteresting: Helen finds his friends very heavy going

21 (of music, literature, etc.) difficult to understand or not immediately appealing

22 (slang) (of rock music) loud and having a powerful beat

23 (slang) using, or prepared to use, violence or brutality

► n, pl heavies

24 (slang) a large strong man hired to threaten violence or deter others by his presence

25

A a villainous role

B an actor who plays such a part

26 the heavies (informal) serious newspapers

► adv

27 heavily: time hung heavy > heavily adv

> heaviness n

heavy metal n a type of very loud rock music featuring guitar riffs heavyweight n

1 a professional boxer weighing over 195 pounds (88.5 kg) or an amateur weighing over 91 kg

2 a person who is heavier than average

3 (informal) an important or highly influential person

Hebrew n

1 the ancient language of the Hebrews, revived as the official language of Israel

2 a member of an ancient Semitic people; an Israelite

► adj

3 of the Hebrews or their language heckle vb -ling, -led to interrupt (a public speaker) with comments, questions, or taunts > heckler n

hectare n a unit of measure equal to one hundred ares (10 000 square metres or 2.471 acres)

hectic adj involving a lot of rushed activity ◇ SYNONYMS: frantic, chaotic, heated, animated, turbulent, frenetic, feverish hector vb

1 to bully or torment
► n
2 a blustering bully hedge n

1 a row of shrubs or bushes forming a boundary 2 a barrier or protection against something, esp. against the risk of loss on an investment ► vb hedging, hedged
3 to avoid making a decision by making noncommittal statements ◇ SYNONYMS: prevaricate, evade, sidestep, duck (informal), dodge, flannel (Brit informal), equivocate, temporize 4 hedge against to guard against the risk of loss in (a bet or disagreement), by supporting the opposition as well ◇ SYNONYMS hedge against something: protect, insure, guard, safeguard, shield, cover hedge fund n (finance) a speculative fund which offers substantial returns for high-risk investments hedgehog n a small mammal with a protective covering of spines hedgerow n a hedge of shrubs or low trees bordering a field hedonism n the doctrine that the pursuit of pleasure is the most important thing in life > hedonist n

> hedonistic adj

heed (formal) n

1 careful attention: he must have taken heed of her warning

◇ SYNONYMS: thought, care, mind, attention, regard, respect, notice

► vb

2 to pay close attention to (a warning or piece of advice)

◇ SYNONYMS: pay attention to, listen to, take notice of, follow, consider, note, observe, obey heedless adj taking no notice; careless or thoughtless > heedlessly adv

heel¹ n

1 the back part of the foot

2 the part of a stocking or sock designed to fit the heel

3 the part of a shoe supporting the heel

4 (slang) a contemptible person

◇ SYNONYMS: swine, cad (Brit informal), bounder (Brit old-fashioned, slang), rotter (old-fashioned, chiefly Brit), wrong 'un (slang)

5 at one's heels following closely behind one

6 down at heel untidy and in poor condition

7 kick or cool one's heels to be kept waiting

8 take to one's heels to run off

9 to heel under control, such as a dog walking by a person's heel

► vb

10 to repair or replace the heel of (a shoe or boot) heel² vb to lean to one side heeler n (Austral & NZ) a dog that herds cattle by biting at their heels hefty adj heftier, heftiest (informal)

1 large in size, weight, or amount

◇ SYNONYMS: big, strong, massive, strapping, robust, muscular, burly, hulking

2 forceful and vigorous: a hefty slap on the back

3 involving a large amount of money: a hefty fine

hegemony (hig-em-on-ee) n, pl -nies domination of one state, country, or class within a group of others

Hegira n the flight of Mohammed from Mecca to Medina in 622 AD, regarded as being the starting point of the Muslim era heifer (hef-fer) n a young cow height n

1 the vertical distance from the bottom of something to the top

◇ SYNONYMS: altitude, measurement, highness, elevation, tallness

2 the vertical distance of a place above sea level

◇ SYNONYMS: altitude, measurement, highness, elevation, tallness

3 relatively great distance from bottom to top

◇ SYNONYMS: tallness, stature, highness, loftiness

4 the topmost point; summit

◇ SYNONYMS: peak, top, crown, summit, crest, pinnacle, apex

5 the period of greatest intensity: the height of the shelling

◇ SYNONYMS: culmination, climax, zenith, limit, maximum, ultimate

6 an extreme example: the height of luxury

7 heights extremes: dizzy heights of success heighten vb to make or become higher or more intense ◇ SYNONYMS: intensify, increase, add to, improve, strengthen, enhance, sharpen, magnify > heightened adj heinous adj evil and shocking heir or (fem) heiress n the person legally succeeding to the property of a deceased person

◇ SYNONYMS: successor, beneficiary, inheritor, heiress (fem.), next in line heirloom n an object that has been in a family for generations held vb the past of hold helical adj of or like a helix helicopter n an aircraft, powered by rotating overhead blades, that is capable of hovering, vertical flight, and horizontal flight in any direction heliotrope n a plant with small fragrant purple flowers heliport n an airport for helicopters helium (heel-ee-um) n (chem) a very light colourless odourless inert gas.

SYMBOL: He

helix (heel-iks) n, pl helices (hell-iss-seez) or helixes a spiral hell n

1 (in Christianity and some other religions) the place or state of eternal punishment of the wicked after death

◇ SYNONYMS: the underworld, the abyss, Hades (Greek myth), hellfire, the inferno, fire and brimstone, the nether world, the bad fire (informal)

2 (in various religions and cultures) the abode of the spirits of the dead

◇ SYNONYMS: the underworld, the abyss, Hades (Greek myth), hellfire, the inferno, fire and brimstone, the nether world, the bad fire (informal)

3 (informal) a situation that causes suffering or extreme difficulty: war is hell

◇ SYNONYMS: torment, suffering, agony, nightmare, misery, ordeal, anguish, wretchedness

4 come hell or high water (informal) whatever difficulties may arise

5 for the hell of it (informal) for the fun of it

6 from hell (informal) denoting a person or thing that is particularly bad or alarming: the neighbour from hell

7 give someone hell (informal)

A to give someone a severe reprimand or punishment

B to be a torment to someone

8 hell for leather at great speed

9 the hell (informal)

A used for emphasis: what the hell

B an expression of strong disagreement: the hell you do!

► interj

10 (informal) an exclamation of anger or surprise hellbent adj (informal) rashly intent: hellbent on revenge

Hellenic adj

1 of the Greeks or their language

2 of or relating to ancient Greece during the classical period (776–323 BC) hellish adj (informal) very unpleasant hello or hallo or hullo interj

1 an expression of greeting or surprise

◇ SYNONYMS: hi (informal), greetings, how do you do?, good morning, good evening, good afternoon, welcome, kia ora (NZ), giddyay or g'day (Austral & NZ)

2 a call used to attract attention

► n, pl -los

3 the act of saying 'hello' helm n

1 (naut) the tiller or wheel for steering a ship

◇ SYNONYMS: tiller, wheel, rudder

2 at the helm in a position of leadership or control > helmsman n

helmet n a piece of protective headgear worn by motorcyclists, soldiers, police officers, divers, etc.

help vb

1 to assist (someone to do something)

◇ SYNONYMS: aid, support, assist, cooperate with, abet, lend a hand, succour

2 to contribute to: to help Latin America's economies

◇ SYNONYMS: aid, support, assist, cooperate with, abet, lend a hand, succour

3 to improve a situation: a felt or rubber underlay will help

◇ SYNONYMS: improve, ease, relieve, facilitate, alleviate, mitigate, ameliorate

4

A to refrain from: I couldn't help feeling foolish

◇ SYNONYMS: resist, refrain from, avoid, prevent, keep from

B to be responsible for: you must not blame him, he simply can't help it

5 to serve (a customer)

6 help oneself to take something, esp. food or drink, for oneself, without being served

► n

7 the act of helping

◇ SYNONYMS: assistance, aid, support, advice, guidance, cooperation, helping hand

8 a person or thing that helps, esp. a farm worker or domestic servant

9 a remedy: there's no help for it

► interj

10 used to call for assistance > helper n

helpful adj giving help

◇ SYNONYMS: cooperative, accommodating, kind, friendly, neighbourly, sympathetic, supportive, considerate > helpfully adv

> helpfulness n

helping n a single portion of food

◇ SYNONYMS: portion, serving, ration, piece, dollop (informal), plateful helpless adj

1 unable to manage independently

2 made weak: it reduced her to helpless laughter

◇ SYNONYMS: powerless, weak, incapable, paralysed, impotent, infirm > helplessly adv

> helplessness n

helpline n a telephone line set aside for callers to contact an organization for help with a problem helpmate or helpmeet n a companion and helper, esp. a husband or wife helter-skelter adj

1 hurried or disorganized

▶ adv

2 in a hurried or disorganized manner

▶ n

3 (Brit) a high spiral slide at a fairground hem n

1 the bottom edge of a garment, folded under and stitched down

◇ SYNONYMS: edge, border, margin, trimming, fringe

▶ vb hemming, hemmed

2 to provide (a garment) with a hem

► See also hem in hem in vb to surround and prevent from moving ◇ SYNONYMS hem something or someone in: surround, confine, enclose, shut in hemisphere n one half of a sphere, esp. of the earth (northern and southern hemisphere) or of the brain > hemispherical adj

hemline n the level to which the hem of a skirt or dress hangs: a mid-calf hemline

hemlock n a poisonous drug derived from a plant with spotted stems and small white flowers hemp n

- 1 an Asian plant with tough fibres
 - 2 the fibre of this plant, used to make canvas and rope
 - 3 a narcotic drug obtained from this plant
- > hempen adj

hen n the female of any bird, esp. the domestic fowl hence adv

- 1 for this reason; therefore
- ◇ SYNONYMS: therefore, thus, consequently, for this reason, in consequence, ergo, on that account
- 2 from this time: two weeks hence
 - 3 (archaic) from here henceforth or henceforward adv from now on henchman or (fem) henchwoman n, pl -men or -women a person employed by someone powerful to carry out orders henna n

1 a reddish dye, obtained from a shrub or tree of Asia and N Africa which is used to colour hair

► vb

2 to dye (the hair) with henna hen night or hen party n (informal) a party for women only, esp. held for a woman shortly before she is married henpecked adj (of a man) harassed by the persistent nagging of his wife henry n, pl -ry, -ries or -rys the SI unit of electric inductance hepatitis n inflammation of the liver, causing fever, jaundice, and weakness heptagon n (geom) a figure with seven sides > heptagonal adj

heptathlon n an athletic contest for women in which athletes compete in seven different events her pron

1 (refers to) a female person or animal: he loves her

2 (refers to) things personified as feminine, such as ships and nations

► adj

3 of, belonging to, or associated with her: her hair

Hera or Here n (Greek myth) the queen of the gods herald n

1 a person who announces important news

◇ SYNONYMS: messenger, courier, proclaimer, announcer, crier, town crier

2 (often literary) a forerunner

◇ SYNONYMS: forerunner, sign, signal, indication, token, omen, precursor, harbinger (literary)

► vb

3 to announce or signal the approach of: his arrival was heralded by excited barking

◇ SYNONYMS: indicate, promise, usher in, presage, portend, foretoken > heraldic adj

heraldry n, pl -ries the study of coats of arms and family trees herb n

1 an aromatic plant that is used for flavouring in cookery, and in medicine

2 (botany) a seed-bearing plant whose parts above ground die back at the end of the growing season > herbal adj

> herby adj

herbaceous adj designating plants that are soft-stemmed rather than woody herbalist n a person who grows or specializes in the use of medicinal herbs herbicide n a substance used to destroy plants, esp. weeds herbivore (her-biv-vore) n

- 1 an animal that feeds only on plants
- 2 (informal) a liberal or idealistic person
- > herbivorous (her-biv-or-uss) adj herculean (her-kew-lee-an) adj

- 1 (of a task) requiring tremendous effort or strength
- 2 (sometimes cap) resembling Hercules, hero of classical myth, in strength or courage herd n

- 1 a large group of mammals, esp. cattle, living and feeding together
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: flock, crowd, collection, mass, drove, mob, swarm, horde
- 2 (often derogatory) a large group of people
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: flock, crowd, collection, mass, drove, mob, swarm, horde
- vb
- 3 to collect or be collected into, or as if into, a herd herdsman n, pl -men (chiefly Brit) a man who looks after a herd of animals here adv

- 1 in, at, or to this place, point, case, or respect: I am pleased to be back here
- 2 here and there at several places in or throughout an area
- 3 here's to a convention used in proposing a toast
- 4 neither here nor there of no relevance
- n
- 5 this place: they leave here tonight hereabouts or hereabout adv in this region hereafter adv

- 1 (formal, or law) in a subsequent part of this document, matter, or case
- 2 at some time in the future

► n

3 the hereafter

A life after death

B the future

hereby adv (used in official statements and documents) by means of or as a result of this hereditary adj

1 passed on genetically from one generation to another

◇ SYNONYMS: genetic, inborn, inbred, transmissible, inheritable

2 (law) passed on to succeeding generations by inheritance

◇ SYNONYMS: inherited, passed down, traditional, ancestral heredity (hir-red-it-ee) n, pl -ties the passing on from one generation to another of genetic factors that determine individual characteristics herein adv (formal, or law) in this place, matter, or document heresy (herr-iss-ee) n, pl -sies

1 an opinion contrary to the principles of a religion

2 any belief thought to be contrary to official or established theory heretic (herr-it-ik) n

1 (chiefly RC Church) a person who maintains beliefs contrary to the established teachings of the Church

2 a person who holds unorthodox opinions in any field > heretical (hir-ret-ik-kl) adj herewith adv (formal) together with this: a schedule of the event is appended herewith heritage n

1 something inherited at birth

◇ SYNONYMS: inheritance, legacy, birthright, tradition, endowment, bequest

2 anything that has been carried over from the past or handed down by tradition

3 the evidence of the past, such as historical sites, considered as the inheritance of present-day society hermaphrodite (her-maf-roe-dite) n an animal, flower, or person that has both male and female reproductive organs > hermaphroditic adj hermetic adj sealed so as to be airtight > hermetically adv

hermit n a person living in solitude, esp. for religious reasons hermitage n

1 the home of a hermit

2 any retreat hernia n protrusion of an organ or part through the lining of the body cavity in which it is normally situated hero n, pl -roes

1 the principal male character in a novel, play, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: protagonist, leading man

2 a man of exceptional courage, nobility, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: star, champion, victor, superstar, conqueror

3 a man who is idealized for having superior qualities in any field

◇ SYNONYMS: idol, favourite, pin-up (slang), fave (informal) heroic adj

1 brave and courageous: heroic work by the army engineers

◇ SYNONYMS: courageous, brave, daring, fearless, gallant, intrepid, valiant, lion-hearted

2 of, like, or befitting a hero > heroically adv

heroics pl n behaviour or language considered too melodramatic or extravagant for the particular situation in which they are used heroin n a highly addictive drug derived from morphine heroine n

1 the principal female character in a novel, play, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: protagonist, leading lady, diva, prima donna

2 a woman of exceptional courage, nobility, etc.

3 a woman who is idealized for having superior qualities in any field

◇ SYNONYMS: idol, favourite, pin-up (slang), fave (informal) heroism (herr-oh-izz-um) n great courage and bravery heron n a wading bird with a long neck, long legs, and grey or white feathers herpes (her-pee-z) n any of several inflammatory skin diseases, including shingles and cold sores

Herr (hair) n, pl Herren a German form of address equivalent to Mr herring n, pl -rings or -ring a food fish of northern seas, with a long silver-coloured body herringbone n a zigzag pattern consisting of short lines of V shapes herself pron

1

A the reflexive form of she or her: she busied herself with work

B used for emphasis: none other than The Great Mother herself

2 her normal self: she hasn't been herself all week hertz n, pl hertz the SI unit of frequency, equal to one cycle per second hesitant adj doubtful and unsure in speech or action > hesitancy n

> hesitantly adv

hesitate vb -tating, -tated

1 to be slow and uncertain in acting

◇ SYNONYMS: waver, delay, pause, wait, doubt, falter, dither (chiefly Brit), vacillate

2 to be reluctant (to do something): I hesitate to use the word 'squandered'

◇ SYNONYMS: be reluctant, be unwilling, shrink from, think twice, scruple, demur, hang back, be disinclined

3 to pause during speech because of uncertainty > hesitation n

hessian n a coarse jute fabric similar to sacking heterodox adj different from established or accepted doctrines or beliefs > heterodoxy n

heterogeneous (het-er-oh-jean-ee-uss) adj varied in content; composed of different parts: a heterogeneous collection of art

> heterogeneity n heterosexual n

1 a person who is sexually attracted to members of the opposite sex

► adj

2 (of a person) sexually attracted to members of the opposite sex

3 (of a sexual relationship) between a man and a woman > heterosexuality n

heuristic (hew-rist-ik) adj (of a method of teaching) allowing students to learn things for themselves by trial and error hew vb hewing, hewed, hewed or hewn

1 to chop or cut with an axe

2 to carve (something) from a substance: a tunnel hewn out of the living rock hexagon n (geom) a figure with six sides > hexagonal adj

hey interj

1 an expression of surprise or for catching attention

2 hey presto! an exclamation used by conjurors at the climax of a trick heyday n the time of most power, popularity, or success: the heyday of classical composition hiatus (hie-ay-tuss) n, pl -tuses or -tus a pause or an interruption in continuity:

diplomatic relations restored after a four-year hiatus hibernate vb -nating, -nated (of some animals) to pass the winter in a resting state in which heartbeat, temperature, and breathing rate are very low > hibernation n

hibiscus n, pl -cuses a tropical plant with large brightly coloured flowers hiccup n

1 a spasm of the breathing organs with a sharp coughlike sound

2 hiccups the state of having such spasms

3 (informal) a minor difficulty

► vb -cuping, -cuped or -cupping, -cupped

4 to make a hiccup or hiccups. Also: hiccough hick n (US & Austral & NZ informal) an unsophisticated country person hickory n, pl -ries

1 a North American tree with edible nuts

2 the hard wood of this tree hide¹ vb hiding, hid, hidden or hid

1 to conceal (oneself or an object) from view or discovery: in an attempt to hide from his wife

◇ SYNONYMS: conceal, stash (informal), secrete, put out of sight

2 to keep (information or one's feelings) secret

◇ SYNONYMS: keep secret, suppress, withhold, keep quiet about, hush up, draw a veil over, keep dark, keep under your hat

3 to obscure or cover (something) from view: the collar hid his face ◇ SYNONYMS: obscure, cover, mask, disguise, conceal, veil, cloak, shroud

► n

4 (Brit) a place of concealment, disguised to appear as part of its surroundings, used by hunters, bird-watchers, etc.

hide² n the skin of an animal, either tanned or raw

◇ SYNONYMS: skin, leather, pelt hidebound adj restricted by petty rules and unwilling to accept new ideas hideous (hid-ee-uss) adj extremely ugly or unpleasant

◇ SYNONYMS: ugly, revolting, ghastly, monstrous, grotesque, gruesome, grisly, unsightly > hideously adv

hide-out n a hiding place hiding¹ n a state of concealment: in hiding

hiding² n (informal) a severe beating

◇ SYNONYMS: beating, whipping, thrashing, licking (informal), spanking, walloping (informal), drubbing hierarchy (hire-ark-ee) n, pl -chies

1 a system of people or things arranged in a graded order

◇ SYNONYMS: grading, ranking, social order, pecking order, class system, social stratum

2 the hierarchy the people in power in any organization > hierarchical adj

hieroglyphic (hire-oh-gliff-ik) adj

1 of or relating to a form of writing using picture symbols, as used in ancient

Egypt

► n also hieroglyph

2 a symbol that is difficult to decipher

3 a picture or symbol representing an object, idea, or sound hi-fi n (informal)

1 a set of high-quality sound-reproducing equipment

► adj

2 producing high-quality sound: a hi-fi amplifier higgledy-piggledy (informal) adj, adv in a muddle high adj

1 being a relatively great distance from top to bottom: a high stone wall

◇ SYNONYMS: tall, towering, soaring, steep, elevated, lofty

2 being at a relatively great distance above sea level: a high village

3 being a specified distance from top to bottom: three feet high

4 coming up to a specified level: waist-high

5 being at its peak: high summer

6 of greater than average height: a high ceiling

◇ SYNONYMS: tall, towering, soaring, steep, elevated, lofty

7 greater than usual in intensity or amount: high blood pressure; high fees

◇ SYNONYMS: extreme, great, acute, severe, extraordinary, excessive

8 (of a sound) acute in pitch

◇ SYNONYMS: high-pitched, piercing, shrill, penetrating, strident, sharp, acute, piping

9 (of food) slightly decomposed, regarded as enhancing the flavour of game

10 towards the top of a scale of importance or quality: high fashion

◇ SYNONYMS: important, chief, powerful, superior, eminent, exalted, skookum (Canad)

11 intensely emotional: high drama

12 very cheerful: high spirits

13 (informal) under the influence of alcohol or drugs

◇ SYNONYMS: intoxicated, stoned (slang), tripping (informal)

14 luxurious or extravagant: high life

15 advanced in complexity: high finance

16 formal and elaborate: High Mass

17 high and dry abandoned in a difficult situation

18 high and mighty (informal) too confident and full of self-importance

19 high opinion a favourable opinion

► adv

20 at or to a height: flying high

◇ SYNONYMS: way up, aloft, far up, to a great height

► n

21 a high level

22 same as anticyclone

23 on a high (informal)

A in a state of intoxication by alcohol or drugs

B in a state of great excitement and happiness highbrow (often derogatory) adj

1 concerned with serious, intellectual subjects

► n

2 a person with such tastes high definition n a digital technology that produces a television picture with superior definition to the standard higher education n education at universities and colleges high-flown adj extravagant or pretentious: high-flown language

◇ SYNONYMS: extravagant, elaborate, pretentious, exaggerated, inflated, lofty, grandiose, overblown high-handed adj using authority in an unnecessarily forceful way > high-handedness n

Highland adj of or denoting the Highlands, a mountainous region of NW Scotland

> Highlander n

highlands pl n relatively high ground highlight n

1 Also called: high spot the most exciting or memorable part of something

◇ SYNONYMS: high point, peak, climax, feature, focus, focal point, high spot

2 an area of the lightest tone in a painting or photograph

3 a lightened streak in the hair produced by bleaching

► vb

4 to give emphasis to: the prime minister repeatedly highlighted the need for lower pay

◇ SYNONYMS: emphasize, stress, accent, show up, underline, spotlight, accentuate, flag, call attention to highly adv

1 extremely: highly desirable

◇ SYNONYMS: extremely, very, greatly, vastly, exceptionally, immensely, tremendously

2 towards the top of a scale of importance, admiration, or respect: highly paid doctors highly strung or (US & Canad) high-strung adj tense and easily upset high-maintenance adj

1 (of a piece of equipment, motor vehicle, etc.) requiring regular maintenance to keep it in working order

2 (informal) (of a person) requiring a high level of care and attention; demanding

Highness n (preceded by Your or His or Her) a title used to address or refer to a royal person high-rise adj

1 of or relating to a building that has many storeys: a high-rise estate

► n

2 a building that has many storeys high street n the main street of a town, usually containing the most important shops high tea n (Brit) an early evening meal consisting of a cooked dish, bread, cakes, and tea high time adv (informal) the latest possible time, which is almost too late: it's high time we mended that shelf

highway n

1 a public road that everyone may use

2 (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) a main road, esp. one that connects towns

Highway Code n (in Britain) a booklet of regulations and recommendations for all road users highwayman n, pl -men (formerly) a robber, usually on horseback, who held up travellers on public roads hijab or hejab n a covering for the head and face, worn by some Muslim women hijack vb

1 to seize control of or divert (a vehicle or aircraft) while travelling

◇ SYNONYMS: seize, take over, commandeer, expropriate (formal)

► n

2 an instance of hijacking > hijacker n

hike vb hiking, hiked

1 to walk a long way in the country, usually for pleasure ◇ SYNONYMS: walk, march, trek, ramble, tramp, back-pack 2 to raise (prices)
3 to pull up with a quick movement: he hiked up his trouser legs
► n
4 a long walk ◇ SYNONYMS: walk, march, trek, ramble, tramp, traipse 5 a rise in price > hiker n

hilarious adj very funny

◇ SYNONYMS: funny, entertaining, amusing, hysterical (informal), humorous, comical, side-splitting > hilariously adv
> hilarity n

hill n

1 a natural elevation of the earth's surface, less high than a mountain ◇ SYNONYMS: mount, fell, height, mound, hilltop, tor, knoll, hillock, kopje or koppie (S African) 2 a heap or mound 3 an incline or slope > hilly adj

hillbilly n, pl -lies

1 (usually derogatory) an unsophisticated person from the mountainous areas in the southeastern US 2 same as country and western hillock n a small hill or mound hilt n

1 the handle or shaft of a sword, dagger, or knife

2 to the hilt to the full: he plays the role to the hilt him pron refers to a male person or animal: I greeted him at the hotel; I must send him a note of congratulation

himself pron

1

A the reflexive form of he or him: he secretly asked himself

B used for emphasis: approved of by the Creator himself

2 his normal self: he was almost himself again

hind¹ adj hinder, hindmost situated at the back: a hind leg hind² n, pl hinds or hind the female of the deer, esp. the red deer hinder (hin-der) vb to get in the way of (someone or something)

◇ SYNONYMS: obstruct, stop, check, block, delay, frustrate, handicap, interrupt

Hindi n

1 a language or group of dialects of N central India

2 a formal literary dialect of this language, the official language of India hindrance n

1 an obstruction or snag

2 the act of hindering

Hindu n, pl -dus

1 a person who practises Hinduism

► adj

2 of Hinduism

Hinduism n the dominant religion of India, which involves the worship of many gods and belief in reincarnation hinge n

1 a device for holding together two parts, such as a door and its frame, so that one can swing freely

► vb hinging, hinged

2 to join or open (something) by means of a hinge

3 hinge on to depend on: billions of dollars of western aid hinged on the outcome of the talks > hinged adj

hint n

1 a suggestion given in an indirect or subtle manner

◇ SYNONYMS: clue, suggestion, implication, indication, pointer, allusion, innuendo, intimation

2 a helpful piece of advice

◇ SYNONYMS: advice, help, tip(s), suggestion(s), pointer(s)

3 a small amount: a hint of irony

◇ SYNONYMS: trace, touch, suggestion, dash, suspicion, tinge, undertone

► vb

4 (sometimes foll. by at) to suggest indirectly: a solution has been hinted at by a few politicians

◇ SYNONYMS: suggest, indicate, imply, intimate, insinuate hinterland n

1 land lying behind a coast or the shore of a river

2 an area near and dependent on a large city, esp. a port hip¹ n either side of the body below the waist and above the thigh hip² n the berry-like brightly coloured fruit of a rose bush. Also called: rosehip hip⁴ adj hipper, hippest (slang) aware of or following the latest trends hip-hop n a US pop-culture movement originating in the 1980s, comprising rap music, graffiti, and break dancing hippie n same as hippy hippo n, pl -pos (informal) short for hippopotamus hippodrome n

1 a music hall, variety theatre, or circus

2 (in ancient Greece or Rome) an open-air course for horse and chariot races hippopotamus n, pl -muses or -mi a very large mammal with thick wrinkled skin and short legs, which lives around the rivers of tropical Africa hippy or hippie n, pl -pies (esp. during the 1960s) a person whose behaviour and dress imply a rejection of conventional values hipster n (informal) a person who believes he or she is following trends that are outside the mainstream hire vb hiring, hired

1 to acquire the temporary use of (a thing) or the services of (a person) in exchange for payment

◇ SYNONYMS: employ, commission, take on, engage, appoint, sign up, enlist

2 to employ (a person) for wages

◇ SYNONYMS: employ, commission, take on, engage, appoint, sign up, enlist

3 to provide (something) or the services of (oneself or others) for payment

◇ SYNONYMS: rent, charter, lease, let, engage

4 hire out (chiefly Brit) to pay independent contractors for (work to be done)

► n

5 the act of hiring

◇ SYNONYMS: rental, hiring, rent, lease

6 for hire available to be hired hireling n (derogatory) a person who works only for money hire-purchase n a system in which a buyer takes possession of merchandise on payment of a deposit and completes the purchase by paying a series of instalments while the seller retains ownership until the final instalment is paid hirsute (her-suit) adj hairy his adj

1 of, belonging to, or associated with him: his birthday

► pron

2 something belonging to him: his is on the left; that book is his

3 of his belonging to him

Hispanic adj

1 of or derived from Spain or the Spanish

► n

2 (US) a US citizen of Spanish or Latin-American descent hiss n

1 a sound like that of a prolonged s

◇ SYNONYMS: fizz, buzz, hissing, fizzing, sibilation

2 such a sound as an expression of dislike or disapproval

► vb

3 to utter a hiss

◇ SYNONYMS: whistle, wheeze, whiz, whirr, sibilate

4 to express with a hiss: she hissed the name

◇ SYNONYMS: whistle, wheeze, whiz, whirr, sibilate

5 to show dislike or disapproval towards (a speaker or performer) by hissing

◇ SYNONYMS: jeer, mock, deride histamine (hiss-ta-meen) n a chemical compound released by the body tissues in allergic reactions histogram n a statistical graph that represents the frequency of values of a quantity by vertical bars of varying heights and widths histology n the study of the tissues of an animal or plant historian n a person who writes or studies history historic adj important in history, or likely to be seen as important in the future

◇ SYNONYMS: significant, notable, momentous, famous, extraordinary, outstanding, remarkable, ground-breaking historical adj

1 occurring in the past

◇ SYNONYMS: factual, real, documented, actual, authentic, attested

2 describing or representing situations or people that existed in the past: a historical novel

3 belonging to or typical of the study of history: historical perspective

> historically adv

history n, pl -ries

1 a record or account of past events and developments

◇ SYNONYMS: chronicle, record, story, account, narrative, recital, annals

2 all that is preserved of the past, esp. in written form

- ◇ SYNONYMS: the past, antiquity, yesterday, yesteryear, olden days
- 3 the study of interpreting past events
- 4 the past events or previous experiences of a place, thing, or person: he knew the whole history of the place
- 5 a play that depicts historical events histrionic adj

- 1 very dramatic and full of exaggerated emotion: histrionic bursts of invective
- n
- 2 histrionics behaviour of this kind
- > histrionically adv

hit vb hitting, hit

- 1 to strike or touch (a person or thing) forcefully
- ◇ SYNONYMS: strike, beat, knock, bang, slap, smack, thump, clout (informal)
- 2 to come into violent contact with: a helicopter hit a Volvo
- ◇ SYNONYMS: collide with, run into, bump into, clash with, smash into, crash against, bang into
- 3 to propel (a ball) by striking
- 4 (cricket) to score (runs)
- 5 to affect (a person, place, or thing) badly: the airline says that its revenue will be hit
- ◇ SYNONYMS: affect, damage, harm, ruin, devastate, overwhelm, touch, impact on
- 6 to reach (a point or place): the city's crime level hit new heights
- ◇ SYNONYMS: reach, gain, achieve, arrive at, accomplish, attain
- 7 hit the bottle (slang) to start drinking excessive amounts of alcohol
- 8 hit the road (informal) to set out on a journey
- n
- 9 an impact or collision
- ◇ SYNONYMS: shot, blow
- 10 a shot or blow that reaches its target
- ◇ SYNONYMS: blow, knock, stroke, belt (informal), rap, slap, smack, clout (informal)
- 11 (informal) a person or thing that gains wide appeal: those early collections made her a hit with the club set
- ◇ SYNONYMS: success, winner, triumph, smash (informal), sensation

12 a single visit to a website: over 500,000 hits a day to its site

► See also hit on hit-and-miss adj (informal) happening in an unplanned way: farming can be very much a hit-and-miss affair

hitch n

1 a temporary or minor problem or difficulty

◇ SYNONYMS: problem, catch (informal), difficulty, hold-up, obstacle, drawback, snag, uphill (S African), impediment

2 a knot that can be undone by pulling against the direction of the strain that holds it

► vb

3 (informal)

A to obtain (a ride) by hitchhiking

B to hitchhike

◇ SYNONYMS: hitchhike, thumb a lift

4 to fasten with a knot or tie

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, join, attach, couple, tie, connect, harness, tether

5 get hitched (slang) to get married

6 hitch up to pull up (one's trousers, etc.) with a quick jerk ◇ SYNONYMS hitch something up: pull up, tug, jerk, yank hitchhike vb -hiking, -hiked to travel by getting free lifts in motor vehicles > hitchhiker n

hi-tech adj using sophisticated, esp. electronic, technology hither adv (old-fashioned) to or towards this place: come hither hitherto adv (formal) until this time: fundamental questions which have hitherto been ignored

◇ SYNONYMS: previously, so far, until now, thus far, heretofore hit man n a person hired by terrorists or gangsters to murder someone hit on or hit upon vb to think of (an idea or a solution)

◇ SYNONYMS hit on something: think up, discover, arrive at, invent, stumble on, light upon, strike upon

HIV human immunodeficiency virus, the cause of AIDS hive n

1 a structure in which bees live

2 hive of activity a busy place with many people working hard hive off vb hiving, hived to transfer (part of a business, esp. the profitable part of a nationalized industry) to new ownership hives n (pathol) an allergic reaction in which itchy red or whitish raised patches develop on the skin

HM (in Britain) Her (or His) Majesty

H.M.S. or HMS (in Britain) Her (or His) Majesty's Ship

HNC (in Britain) Higher National Certificate; a qualification recognized by many national technical and professional institutions

HND (in Britain) Higher National Diploma; a qualification in a technical subject equivalent to an ordinary degree

hoard n

1 a store of money, food, etc., hidden away for future use

► vb

2 to save or store (money, food, etc.)

> hoarder n

hoarding n a large board at the side of a road, used for displaying advertising posters hoarfrost n a white layer of ice crystals formed on the ground by condensation at temperatures below freezing point hoarse adj

1 (of a voice) rough and unclear through illness or too much shouting

2 having a rough and unclear voice > hoarsely adv

> hoarseness n

hoary adj hoarier, hoariest

1 having grey or white hair

2 very old: a hoary old problem

hoax n

1 a deception, esp. a practical joke

► vb

2 to deceive or play a joke on (someone) > hoaxer n

hob n (Brit) the flat top part of a cooker, or a separate flat surface, containing hotplates or burners hobble vb -bling, -bled

1 to walk with a lame awkward movement

2 to tie the legs of (a horse) together in order to restrict its movement hobby n, pl -bies an activity pursued in one's spare time for pleasure or relaxation

◇ SYNONYMS: pastime, relaxation, leisure pursuit, diversion, avocation (formal), (leisure) activity hobbyhorse n

1 a favourite topic about which a person likes to talk at every opportunity: public transport is his hobbyhorse

2 a toy consisting of a stick with a figure of a horse's head at one end

3 a figure of a horse attached to a performer's waist in a morris dance hobgoblin n a small, mischievous creature in fairy stories hobnail boots pl n (old-fashioned) heavy boots with short nails in the soles to lessen wear and tear hobnob vb -nobbing, -nobbed to socialize or talk informally: hobnobbing with the rich hobo n, pl -bos or -boes (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) a tramp or vagrant hock¹ n the joint in the leg of a horse or similar animal that corresponds to the human ankle hock² n a white wine from the German Rhine hock³ (informal) vb

1 to pawn or pledge

► n

2 in hock

A in debt

B in pawn hockey n

1 a game played on a field by two teams of 11 players who try to hit a ball into their opponents' goal using long sticks curved at the end

2 (US & Canad) ice hockey hocus-pocus n (informal) something said or done in order to confuse or trick someone hod n an open metal or plastic box attached to a pole, for carrying bricks or mortar hodgepodge n (chiefly US & Canad) same as hotchpotch hoe n

1 a long-handled implement used to loosen the soil or to weed

► vb hoeing, hoed

2 to scrape or weed with a hoe hog n

1 a castrated male pig

2 (US & Canad) any mammal of the pig family

3 (informal) a greedy person

4 go the whole hog (slang) to do something in the most complete way possible

► vb hogging, hogged

5 (slang) to take more than one's share of (something)

Hogmanay n New Year's Eve in Scotland hogshead n a large cask for storing alcoholic drinks hogwash n (informal) nonsense hoick vb

- 1 to raise abruptly and sharply
- 2 (NZ) to clear the throat and spit hoi polloi pl n the ordinary people when compared to the rich or well-educated hoisin n a sweet spicy sauce of soya beans, sugar, garlic, and vinegar, used in Chinese cookery hoist vb

- 1 to raise or lift up, esp. by mechanical means
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: raise, lift, erect, elevate, heave
- n
- 2 any apparatus or device for lifting things
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: lift, crane, elevator, winch hoity-toity adj (informal) arrogant or haughty hokey-pokey n (NZ) a brittle toffee sold in lumps hold¹ vb holding, held

- 1 to keep (an object or a person) with or within the hands or arms
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: embrace, grasp, clutch, hug, squeeze, cradle, clasp, enfold
- 2 to support: a rope made from 1000 hairs would hold a large adult

3 to maintain in a specified state or position: his reputation continued to hold secure

4 to have the capacity for: trains designed to hold more than 400

◇ SYNONYMS: accommodate, take, contain, seat, have a capacity for 5 to set aside or reserve: they will hold our tickets until tomorrow

6 to restrain or keep back: designed to hold dangerous criminals

◇ SYNONYMS: restrain

7 to remain unbroken: if the elastic holds

8 (of the weather) to remain dry and bright

9 to keep (the attention of): a writer holds a reader by his temperament

10 to arrange and cause to take place: we must hold an inquiry

◇ SYNONYMS: conduct, convene, call, run, preside over

11 to have the ownership or possession of: she holds a degree in Egyptology

12 to have responsibility for: she cannot hold an elective office

◇ SYNONYMS: occupy, have, fill, maintain, retain, possess, hold down (informal)

13 to be able to control the outward effects of drinking (alcohol): he can't hold his drink

14 to (cause to) remain committed to (a promise, etc.)

15 to claim or believe: some Sufis hold that all religious leaders were prophets

◇ SYNONYMS: consider, think, believe, judge, regard, assume, reckon, deem 16 to remain valid or true: the categories are not the same and equivalency does not hold

17 to consider in a specified manner: philosophies which we hold so dear

18 to defend successfully: the Russians were holding the Volga front

19 (music) to sustain the sound of (a note)

► n

20 a way of holding something or the act of holding it

◇ SYNONYMS: grip, grasp, clasp

21 something to hold onto for support

22 controlling influence: drugs will take a hold

◇ SYNONYMS: control, influence, mastery, mana (NZ)

23 with no holds barred with all limitations removed > holder n

hold² n the space in a ship or aircraft for storing cargo or luggage holdall n (Brit) a large strong travelling bag holding n

1 land held under a lease

2 property to which the holder has legal title, such as land, stocks, or shares hold-up n

1 an armed robbery

◇ SYNONYMS: robbery, theft, mugging (informal), stick-up (slang, chiefly US)

2 a delay: a traffic hold-up

◇ SYNONYMS: delay, wait, hitch, setback, snag, traffic jam, stoppage, bottleneck

► vb hold up

3 to delay

4 to support (an object)

5 to stop and rob (someone), using a weapon

6 to exhibit or present (something) as an example: he was held up as a model professional hole n

1 an area hollowed out in a solid

◇ SYNONYMS: cavity, pit, hollow, chamber, cave, cavern

2 an opening in or through something ◇ SYNONYMS: opening, crack, tear, gap, breach, vent, puncture, aperture

3 an animal's burrow

◇ SYNONYMS: burrow, den, earth, shelter, lair

4 (informal) a fault or error: this points to a very big hole in parliamentary security

5 (informal) an unattractive town or other place

◇ SYNONYMS: hovel, dump (informal), dive (slang), slum

6 (on a golf course) any one of the divisions of a course (usually 18) represented by the distance between the tee and the sunken cup on the green into which the ball is to be played

7 in a hole (slang) in a difficult and embarrassing situation

8 make a hole in (informal) to use a great amount of (one's money or food supply)

9 pick holes in to point out faults in ► vb holing, holed

10 to make a hole or holes in (something)

11 to hit (a golf ball) into a hole > holey adj

holiday n

1 a period of time spent away from home for enjoyment and relaxation

◇ SYNONYMS: vacation, leave, break, time off, recess, schoolie (Austral), accumulated day off or ADO (Austral), staycation or stacation (informal)

2 (often pl, chiefly Brit & NZ) a period in which a break is taken from work or studies for rest or recreation

3 a day on which work is suspended by law or custom, such as a bank holiday

◇ SYNONYMS: festival, fête, celebration, feast, gala

► vb

4 (chiefly Brit) to spend a holiday holier-than-thou adj offensively self-righteous

Holiness n (preceded by His or Your) a title reserved for the pope holism n

1 the view that a whole is greater than the sum of its parts

2 (in medicine) consideration of the complete person in the treatment of disease > holistic adj

hollow adj

1 having a hole or space within; not solid: a hollow tree

◇ SYNONYMS: empty, vacant, void, unfilled

2 curving inwards: hollow cheeks

3 (of sounds) as if echoing in a hollow place

◇ SYNONYMS: dull, low, deep, muted, toneless, reverberant

4 without any real value or worth: a hollow enterprise, lacking purpose, and lacking soul

◇ SYNONYMS: worthless, useless, vain, meaningless, pointless, futile, fruitless

► adv

5 beat someone hollow (Brit & NZ informal) to defeat someone thoroughly

► n

6 a cavity or space in something

◇ SYNONYMS: cavity, hole, bowl, depression, pit, basin, crater, trough

7 a dip in the land

◇ SYNONYMS: valley, dale, glen, dell, dingle

► vb

8 (often foll. by out) to form a hole or cavity in ◇ SYNONYMS: scoop out, dig out, excavate, gouge out > hollowly adv

holly n an evergreen tree with prickly leaves and bright red berries, used for Christmas decorations hollyhock n a tall garden plant with spikes of colourful flowers holocaust n

1 destruction or loss of life on a massive scale

◇ SYNONYMS: devastation, destruction, genocide, annihilation, conflagration

2 the Holocaust mass murder of the Jews in Europe by the Nazis (1940–45) hologram n a three-dimensional photographic image produced by means of a split laser beam holograph n a book or document handwritten by its author holster n a sheathlike leather case for a pistol, worn attached to a belt holy adj -lier, -liest

1 of or associated with God or a deity

◇ SYNONYMS: sacred, blessed, hallowed, venerable, consecrated, sacrosanct, sanctified

2 (of a person) religious and leading a virtuous life

◇ SYNONYMS: devout, godly, religious, pure, righteous, pious, virtuous, saintly > holiness n

Holy Communion n (Christianity) a church service in which people take bread and wine in remembrance of Christ's Last Supper and His atonement for the sins of the world

Holy Grail n

1 the Holy Grail (in medieval legend) the bowl used by Jesus at the Last Supper

2 (informal) any ambition or goal

Holy Spirit n the Holy Spirit (Christianity) one of the three aspects of God

Holy Week n (Christianity) the week before Easter Sunday homage n a public show of respect or honour towards someone or something:

the master's jazzy-classical homage to Gershwin ◇ SYNONYMS: respect, honour, worship, devotion, reverence, deference, adulation, adoration home n

1 the place where one lives

◇ SYNONYMS: dwelling (formal, literary), house, residence, abode, habitation (formal), pad (slang, old-fashioned), domicile

2 the country or area of one's birth

◇ SYNONYMS: birthplace, homeland, home town, native land, Godzone (Austral informal)

3 a building or organization set up to care for people in a certain category, such as orphans or elderly people

4 the place where something is invented or started: the home of the first aircraft

5 (sport) a team's own ground: the match is at home

6 (baseball, rounders, etc.) the objective towards which a player runs after striking the ball

7 at home

A in one's own home or country

◇ SYNONYMS at home: in, present, available

B at ease: he felt more at home with the Russians

◇ SYNONYMS at home: at ease, relaxed, comfortable, content, at peace

C receiving visitors

► adj

8 of one's home, birthplace, or native country

◇ SYNONYMS: domestic, local, internal, native

9 (of an activity) done in one's house: home movies

10 (sport) played on one's own ground: a home game

11 home and dry (Brit slang) definitely safe or successful

► adv

12 to or at home: I came home

13 to or on the point: the message struck home

14 to the fullest extent: they drove their spears home

15 bring something home to someone to make something clear to someone

◇ SYNONYMS bring something home to someone: make clear, emphasize, drive home, press home, impress upon

► vb homing, homed

16 (of birds) to return home accurately from a distance

17 home in on to be directed towards (a goal or target) home-brew n beer or other alcoholic drink brewed at home homeland n

1 the country from which the ancestors of a person or group came: defending their homeland

◇ SYNONYMS: native land, birthplace, motherland, fatherland, country of origin, mother country, Godzone (Austral informal)

2 (S African) (formerly) an area reserved for occupation by a Black African people

homeless adj

1 having nowhere to live

◇ SYNONYMS: destitute, displaced, dispossessed, down-and-out

► pl n

2 the homeless people who have nowhere to live: night shelters for the homeless > homelessness n

homely adj -lier, -liest

1 simple, ordinary, and comfortable

◇ SYNONYMS: comfortable, welcoming, friendly, cosy, homespun

2

A (Brit) (of a person) warm and friendly

B (chiefly US & Canad) (of a person) plain or unattractive > homeliness n

home-made adj (esp. of foods) made at home or on the premises homeopathy or homoeopathy (home-ee-op-ath-ee) n a method of treating disease by the use of small amounts of a drug that produces symptoms of the disease in healthy people > homeopath or homoeopath (home-ee-oh-path) n > homeopathic or homoeopathic adj home page n (internet) the introductory information about a website with links to the information or services provided homesick adj depressed by being away from home and family > homesickness n

homestead n

1 a farmhouse and the adjoining land

2 (in the western US & Canada) a house and adjoining tract of land (originally often 160 acres) that was granted by the government for development as a farm home truths pl n unpleasant facts told to a person about himself or herself homeward adj

1 going home

► adv also homewards

2 towards home homework n

1 school work done at home

2 research or preparation homicide n

1 the act of killing someone

◇ SYNONYMS: murder, killing, manslaughter, slaying, bloodshed

2 a person who kills someone > homicidal adj

homily n, pl -lies a moralizing talk or piece of writing > homiletic adj

hominid n

1 any member of the family of primates that includes modern humans and the extinct forerunners of humans

► adj

2 of or belonging to this family homo- combining form same or like: homologous homogeneous (home-oh-jean-ee-uss) adj having parts or members which are all the same or which consist of only one substance: the Arabs are not a single, homogeneous nation > homogeneity n

homogenize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised

1 to break up the fat globules in (milk or cream) so that they are evenly distributed

2 to make different elements the same or similar: homogenized products for a mass market homograph n a word spelt the same as another, but having a different meaning, such as bear (to carry) and bear (the animal)

homologous (hom-ol-log-uss) adj

1 having a related or similar position or structure

2 (biol) (of organs and parts) having the same origin but different functions: the wing of a bat and the arm of a monkey are homologous homonym n a word pronounced and spelt the same as another, but having a different meaning, such as novel (a book) and novel (new) homophobia n intense hatred or fear of homosexuals > homophobic adj

homophone n a word pronounced the same as another, but having a different meaning or spelling or both, such as bear and bare

Homo sapiens (home-oh sap-ee-enz) n the name for modern humans as a species

homosexual n

1 a person who is sexually attracted to members of the same sex

► adj

2 (of a person) sexually attracted to members of the same sex

3 (of a sexual relationship) between members of the same sex > homosexuality n

Hon. Honourable (title)

hone vb honing, honed

1 to develop and improve (a quality or ability): a workshop to hone interview techniques

◇ SYNONYMS: improve, better, enhance, upgrade, refine, sharpen, help

2 to sharpen (a tool)

◇ SYNONYMS: sharpen, point, grind, edge, file, polish, whet

► n

3 a fine whetstone used for sharpening edged tools and knives honest adj

1 truthful and moral in behaviour; trustworthy

◇ SYNONYMS: trustworthy, upright, ethical, honourable, reputable, truthful, virtuous, law-abiding

2 open and sincere in relationships and attitudes; without pretensions ◇ SYNONYMS: open, direct, frank, plain, sincere, candid, forthright, upfront (informal)

3 gained or earned fairly: an honest income honestly adv

1 in an honest manner

◇ SYNONYMS: ethically, legally, lawfully, honourably, by fair means

2 truly: honestly, that's all I can recall honesty n, pl -ties

1 the quality of being truthful and trustworthy

◇ SYNONYMS: integrity, honour, virtue, morality, probity (formal), rectitude, truthfulness, trustworthiness

2 a plant with flattened silvery pods which are used for indoor decoration honey n

1 a sweet edible sticky substance made by bees from nectar

2 (chiefly US & Canad) a term of affection

3 (informal, chiefly US & Canad) something very good of its kind: a honey of a picture about American family life honeycomb n a waxy structure, constructed by bees in a hive, that consists of many six-sided cells in which honey is stored honeydew melon n a melon with yellow skin and sweet pale flesh honeymoon n

1 a holiday taken by a newly married couple

2 the early period of an undertaking or activity, such as the start of a new government's term of office, when an attitude of goodwill prevails

► vb

3 to take a honeymoon > honeymooner n

honeysuckle n a climbing shrub with sweet-smelling white, yellow, or pink flowers hongi (hong-jee) n (NZ) a Māori greeting in which people touch noses honk n

1 the sound made by a motor horn

2 the sound made by a goose

► vb

3 to make or cause (something) to make a honking sound honorary adj

A held or given as a mark of respect, without the usual qualifications, payment, or work: an honorary degree

◇ SYNONYMS: nominal, unofficial, titular, in name or title only

B (of a secretary, treasurer, etc.) unpaid honorific adj showing respect: an honorific title honour or (US) honor n

1 allegiance to moral principles

◇ SYNONYMS: integrity, morality, honesty, goodness, fairness, decency, probity (formal), rectitude

2 a person's good reputation and the respect they are given by other people ◇ SYNONYMS: reputation, standing, prestige, image, status, stature, good name, cachet

3

A fame or glory

◇ SYNONYMS: prestige, credit, reputation, glory, fame, distinction, dignity, renown

B a person who wins fame or glory for his or her country, school, etc.: he was an honour to his nation

4 great respect or esteem, or an outward sign of this

◇ SYNONYMS: acclaim, praise, recognition, compliments, homage, accolades, commendation

5 a privilege or pleasure: it was an honour to meet him

◇ SYNONYMS: privilege, credit, pleasure, compliment

6 (old-fashioned) a woman's virginity

7 (bridge, whist) any of the top four or five cards in a suit

8 (golf) the right to tee off first 9 in honour of out of respect for 10 on one's honour under a moral obligation

► vb

11 to hold someone in respect

◇ SYNONYMS: respect, value, esteem, prize, appreciate, adore

12 to give (someone) special praise, attention, or an award

◇ SYNONYMS: acclaim, praise, decorate, commemorate, commend

13 to accept and then pay (a cheque or bill)

◇ SYNONYMS: pay, take, accept, pass, acknowledge

14 to keep (one's promise); fulfil (a previous agreement)

◇ SYNONYMS: fulfil, keep, carry out, observe, discharge, live up to, be true to honourable or (US) honorable adj

1 principled

◇ SYNONYMS: principled, moral, ethical, fair, upright, honest, virtuous, trustworthy

2 worthy of respect or esteem

◇ SYNONYMS: proper, respectable, virtuous, creditable > honourably adv

hood¹ n

1 a loose head covering either attached to a coat or made as a separate garment

2 (US & Canad & Austral) the bonnet of a car

3 the folding roof of a convertible car or a pram

► vb

4 to cover with or as if with a hood > hoodlike adj

hood² n (slang) short for hoodlum hooded adj

1 (of a garment) having a hood

2 (of eyes) having heavy eyelids that appear to be half-closed hoodie n (informal)

1 a hooded sweatshirt

2 a young person who wears a hooded sweatshirt, regarded by some as a potential hooligan hoodlum n a violent criminal, esp. one who is a member of a gang hoodoo n, pl -doos

1 (informal) bad luck

2 (informal) a person or thing that brings bad luck

3 (chiefly US) same as voodoo hoodwink vb to trick or deceive hoof n, pl hooves or hoofs

1 the horny covering of the end of the foot in the horse, deer, and certain other mammals

2 on the hoof

A (of livestock) alive

B in an impromptu way: thinking on the hoof

► vb

3 hoof it (slang) to walk > hoofed adj

hoo-ha n (informal) a noisy commotion or fuss hook n

1 a curved piece of metal or plastic used to hang, hold, or pull something

◇ SYNONYMS: fastener, catch, link, peg, clasp

2 something resembling a hook, such as a sharp bend in a river or a sharply curved strip of land

3 (boxing) a short swinging blow with the elbow bent

4 (cricket, golf) a shot that causes the ball to go to the player's left

5 by hook or by crook by any means: get into the charts by hook or by crook

6 hook, line, and sinker (informal) completely: we fell for it hook, line, and sinker

7 let someone off the hook (slang) to free someone from an obligation or a difficult situation

8 sling one's hook (Brit & Austral slang) to leave

► vb

9 to fasten with, or as if with, a hook

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, fix, secure, clasp

10 to catch (a fish) on a hook

◇ SYNONYMS: catch, land, trap, entrap

11 (cricket, golf) to play (a ball) with a hook

12 (rugby) to obtain and pass (the ball) backwards from a scrum, using the feet hookah n (esp. in Arab countries) a pipe for smoking marijuana or tobacco, with a long flexible stem connected to a container of water through which smoke is drawn and cooled hooked adj

1 bent like a hook

◇ SYNONYMS: bent, curved, aquiline, hook-shaped

2 (often foll. by on)

A (slang) addicted (to): hooked on drugs

◇ SYNONYMS: addicted, dependent, using (informal), having a habit

B obsessed (with): hooked on football

◇ SYNONYMS: obsessed, addicted, taken, devoted, turned on (slang), enamoured hooker n

1 (slang) a prostitute

2 (rugby) a player who uses his feet to get the ball in a scrum hook-up n the linking of broadcasting equipment or stations to transmit a special programme hookworm n a blood-sucking worm with hooked mouthparts hooligan n (slang) a young person who behaves in a noisy and violent way in public ◇ SYNONYMS: delinquent, vandal, hoon (Austral & NZ informal), ruffian, lager lout, yob or yobbo (Brit slang), cougan (Austral slang), scozza (Austral slang), bogan (Austral slang), hoodie (informal) > hooliganism n hoon (Austral & NZ informal) n

1 a loutish youth who drives irresponsibly

► vb

2 to drive irresponsibly hoop n

1 a rigid circular band of metal, plastic, or wood

◇ SYNONYMS: ring, band, loop, wheel, round, girdle, circlet

2 a child's toy shaped like a hoop and rolled on the ground or whirled around the body

3 (croquet) any of the iron arches through which the ball is driven

4 a large ring through which performers or animals jump

5 go or be put through the hoops to go through an ordeal or test

► vb

6 to surround (something) with a hoop > hooped adj

hoopla n (Brit & Austral) a fairground game in which hoops are thrown over objects in an attempt to win them hoop pine n an Australian tree or shrub with flowers in dense spikes hooray interj, n same as hurrah hoot n

- 1 the sound of a car horn
 - 2 the cry of an owl
 - 3 a high-pitched noise showing disapproval
 - 4 (informal) an amusing person or thing
- vb
- 5 (Brit) to blow (a car horn)
 - 6 to make a hoot
 - 7 to jeer or yell contemptuously at someone
 - 8 to drive (speakers or performers on stage) off by hooting hooter n (chiefly Brit)

- 1 a device that hoots, such as a car horn
- 2 (slang) a nose

Hoover n

- 1 (trademark) a vacuum cleaner
- vb hoover
- 2 to vacuum-clean (a carpet)
 - 3 (often foll. by up) to devour (something) quickly and completely hooves n a plural of hoof hop¹ vb hopping, hopped

1 to jump forwards or upwards on one foot

2 (of frogs, birds, etc.) to move forwards in short jumps

3 to jump over something

◇ SYNONYMS: jump, spring, bound, leap, skip, vault, caper

4 (informal) to move quickly (in, on, out of, etc.): hop into bed

5 hop it (Brit & Austral slang) to go away

► n

6 an instance of hopping

◇ SYNONYMS: jump, step, spring, bound, leap, bounce, skip, vault

7 (informal) an informal dance

8 (informal) a short journey, usually in an aircraft

9 on the hop (informal)

A active or busy: he keeps me on the hop

B unawares or unprepared: you caught me on the hop hop² n a climbing plant with green conelike flowers hope vb hoping, hoped

1 to desire (something), usually with some possibility of fulfilment: you would hope for their cooperation

2 to trust or believe: I hope I've arranged that

◇ SYNONYMS: believe, look forward to, cross your fingers

► n

3 a feeling of desire for something, usually with confidence in the possibility of its fulfilment: the news was greeted by some as hope for further interest rate cuts

◇ SYNONYMS: belief, confidence, expectation, longing, dream, desire, ambition, assumption

4 a reasonable ground for this feeling: there is hope for you yet

5 the person, thing, situation, or event that gives cause for hope or is desired: the young are a symbol of hope for the future

hopeful adj

1 having, inspiring, or expressing hope

◇ SYNONYMS: optimistic, confident, looking forward to, buoyant, sanguine, expectant

► n

2 a person considered to be on the brink of success: a young hopeful

hopefully adv

1 in a hopeful manner

◇ SYNONYMS: optimistically, confidently, expectantly, with anticipation

2 (informal) it is hoped: hopefully I've got a long career ahead of me hopeless adj

1 having or offering no hope

◇ SYNONYMS: impossible, pointless, futile, useless, vain, no-win, unattainable

2 impossible to solve

3 (informal) without skill or ability: I'm hopeless at maths > hopelessly adv

> hopelessness n

hopper n a funnel-shaped device from which solid materials can be discharged into a receptacle below hopscotch n a children's game in which a player throws a stone to land in one of a pattern of squares marked on the ground and then hops over to it to pick it up horde n a very large crowd, often frightening or unpleasant

◇ SYNONYMS: crowd, mob, swarm, host, band, pack, drove, gang horizon n

1 the apparent line that divides the earth and the sky

◇ SYNONYMS: skyline, view, vista

2 horizons the limits of a person's interests and activities: seeking to broaden

his horizons at college

3 on the horizon almost certainly going to happen or be done in the future: a new type of computer is on the horizon

horizontal adj

1 flat and level with the ground or with a line considered as a base

◇ SYNONYMS: level, flat, parallel

2 affecting or happening at one level in a system or organization: a horizontal division of labour

► n

3 a horizontal plane, position, or line > horizontally adv

hormone n

1 a chemical substance produced in an endocrine gland and transported in the blood to a certain tissue, on which it has a specific effect

2 a similar substance produced by a plant that is essential for growth

3 a synthetic substance having the same effects > hormonal adj

horn n

1 either of a pair of permanent bony outgrowths on the heads of animals such as cattle and antelopes

2 any hornlike projection, such as the eyestalk of a snail

3 the antler of a deer

4 the hard substance of which horns are made

5 a musical wind instrument made from horn

6 any musical instrument consisting of a pipe or tube of brass fitted with a mouthpiece

7 a device, such as on a vehicle, for producing a warning or signalling noise > horned adj

hornbeam n a tree with smooth grey bark hornbill n a tropical bird with a bony growth on its large beak hornblende n a green-to-black mineral containing aluminium, calcium, sodium, magnesium, and iron hornet n

1 a large wasp that can inflict a severe sting

2 hornet's nest a very unpleasant situation that is difficult to deal with: you'll stir up a hornet's nest

hornpipe n

1 a solo dance, traditionally performed by sailors

2 music for this dance

horny adj hornier, horniest

1 of, like, or hard as horn

2 (slang)

A sexually aroused

B provoking sexual arousal

C sexually eager

horoscope n

1 the prediction of a person's future based on the positions of the planets, sun, and moon at the time of birth

2 a diagram showing the positions of the planets, sun, and moon at a particular time and place horrendous adj very unpleasant or shocking horrible adj

1 disagreeable and unpleasant: a horrible hotel room

2 causing fear, shock, or disgust: he died a horrible death

◇ SYNONYMS: dreadful, terrible, awful, nasty, cruel, mean, unpleasant, horrid (informal) > horribly adv

horrid adj

- 1 disagreeable or unpleasant: it had been a horrid day at school
- 2 (informal) (of a person) unkind and nasty: her horrid parents

horrific adj provoking horror: horrific injuries

◇ SYNONYMS: horrifying, shocking (informal), appalling, awful, terrifying, dreadful, horrendous, ghastly > horrifically adv

horrify vb -fies, -fying, -fied to cause feelings of horror in (someone); shock (someone) greatly

◇ SYNONYMS: terrify, alarm, frighten, scare, intimidate, petrify, make your hair stand on end horror n

- 1 extreme fear or terror

◇ SYNONYMS: terror, fear, alarm, panic, dread, fright, consternation, trepidation (formal)

- 2 intense hatred: she had a horror of violence

◇ SYNONYMS: hatred, disgust, loathing, aversion, revulsion, repugnance, odium (formal), detestation

- 3 a thing or person causing fear, loathing, or distaste

► adj

- 4 having a frightening subject, usually concerned with the supernatural: a horror film

hors d'oeuvre (or durv) n, pl hors d'oeuvre or hors d'oeuvres (or durv) an appetizer, usually served before the main meal horse n

1 a four-footed mammal with hooves, a mane, and a tail, used for riding and pulling carts, etc.. RELATED ADJECTIVES: equestrian, equine

◇ SYNONYMS: nag, mount, mare, colt, filly, stallion, steed (archaic, literary), moke (Austral slang), yarraman or yarramin (Austral), gee-gee (slang)

2 the adult male of this species; stallion

3 (gymnastics) a padded apparatus on legs, used for vaulting

4 be or get on one's high horse (informal) to act in a haughty manner

5 the horses (informal) horse races on which bets may be placed: an occasional flutter on the horses

6 the horse's mouth the most reliable source: I'll tell you straight from the horse's mouth

► See also horse around horse around or horse about vb (informal) to play roughly or boisterously horse chestnut n

1 a tree with broad leaves and brown shiny inedible nuts enclosed in a spiky case

2 the nut of this tree horsefly n, pl -flies a large fly which sucks the blood of horses, cattle, and people horsehair n hair from the tail or mane of a horse, used in upholstery horse laugh n a loud and coarse laugh horseman or (fem) horsewoman n, pl -men or -women

1 a person who is skilled in riding

2 a person riding a horse > horsemanship n

horseplay n rough or rowdy play horsepower n a unit of power (equivalent to 745.7 watts), used to measure the power of an engine horseradish n a plant with a white strong-tasting root, which is used to make a sauce horseshoe n

1 a piece of iron shaped like a U, nailed to the bottom of a horse's hoof to protect the foot

2 an object of similar shape: often regarded as a symbol of good luck horsey or horsy adj horsier, horsiest

1 of or relating to horses: a horsey smell

2 devoted to horses: the horsey set

3 like a horse: a horsey face horticulture n the art or science of cultivating gardens > horticultural adj > horticulturalist or horticulturist n hosanna interj an exclamation of praise to God hose¹ n

1 a flexible pipe, for conveying a liquid or gas

► vb hosing, hosed

2 to wash or water (a person or thing) with a hose hose² n

1 (old-fashioned) stockings, socks, and tights collectively

2 (history) a man's garment covering the legs and reaching up to the waist hosiery n stockings, socks, and knitted underclothing collectively hospice (hoss-piss) n

1 a nursing home that specializes in caring for the terminally ill

2 (archaic) a place of shelter for travellers, esp. one kept by a religious order hospitable adj generous, friendly, and welcoming to guests or strangers:

charming and hospitable lodgings > hospitably adv

hospital n an institution for the medical or psychiatric care and treatment of patients hospitality n, pl -ties kindness in welcoming strangers or guests

◇ SYNONYMS: welcome, warmth, kindness, friendliness, sociability, conviviality, neighbourliness, cordiality hospitalize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to admit or send (a person) into a hospital > hospitalization or -lisation n host¹ n

1 a person who receives or entertains guests, esp. in his or her own home

2 the organization or country providing the facilities for a function or event:

Rio de Janeiro, host of the 2016 Olympic Games

3 the compere of a radio or television programme

◇ SYNONYMS: presenter, compere (Brit), anchorman or anchorwoman

4 (biol) an animal or plant in or on which a parasite lives

5 a computer connected to a network and providing facilities to other computers and their users

6 (old-fashioned) the owner or manager of an inn

► vb

7 to be the host of (a party, programme, or event): he's hosting a radio show

◇ SYNONYMS: present, introduce, compere (Brit), front (informal) host² n a great number; multitude ◇ SYNONYMS: multitude, lot, load (informal), wealth, array, myriad, great quantity, large number

Host n (Christianity) the bread used in Holy Communion hostage n a person who is illegally held prisoner until certain demands are met by other people

◇ SYNONYMS: captive, prisoner, pawn hostel n

1 a building providing overnight accommodation at a low cost for particular groups of people, such as the homeless

2 same as youth hostel

3 (Brit & NZ) a supervised lodging house for nurses, students, etc.

> hosteller or (US) hosteler n hostelry n, pl -ries (archaic, or facetious) an inn hostess n

1 a woman who receives and entertains guests, esp. in her own house

2 a woman who receives and entertains patrons of a club, restaurant, or dance hall hostile adj

1 unfriendly and aggressive

◇ SYNONYMS: unfriendly, belligerent, antagonistic, rancorous, ill-disposed

2 opposed (to): hostile to the referendum

◇ SYNONYMS: antagonistic, opposed, contrary, ill-disposed

3 relating to or involving the enemies of a country hostility n, pl -ties

1 unfriendly and aggressive feelings or behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: unfriendliness, hatred, animosity, spite, bitterness, malice, venom, enmity

2 hostilities acts of warfare

◇ SYNONYMS: warfare, war, fighting, conflict, combat, armed conflict hot adj hotter, hottest

1 having a relatively high temperature

◇ SYNONYMS: heated, boiling, steaming, roasting, searing, scorching, scalding

2 having a temperature higher than desirable

◇ SYNONYMS: warm, close, stifling, humid, torrid, sultry, sweltering, balmy

3 spicy or causing a burning sensation on the tongue: hot chillies

◇ SYNONYMS: spicy, pungent, peppery, piquant, biting, sharp

4 (of a temper) quick to flare up

◇ SYNONYMS: fiery, violent, raging, passionate, stormy

5 (of a contest or conflict) intense

◇ SYNONYMS: fierce, intense, strong, keen, competitive, cut-throat

6 recent or new: hot from the press

◇ SYNONYMS: new, latest, fresh, recent, up to date, just out, up to the minute, bang up to date (informal)

7 much favoured: a hot favourite

8 (informal) having a dangerously high level of radioactivity

9 (slang) stolen or otherwise illegally obtained

10 (of a colour) intense; striking: hot pink

11 following closely: this album appeared hot on the heels of the debut smash

12 (informal) dangerous or unpleasant: they're making it hot for me here

13 (in various games) very near the answer

14 hot on (informal)

A strict about: they are extremely hot on sloppy language

B particularly knowledgeable about 15 hot under the collar (informal) aroused with anger, annoyance, or resentment

16 in hot water (informal) in trouble > hotly adv

hot air n (informal) empty and usually boastful talk hotbed n a place offering ideal conditions for the growth of an idea or activity:

a hotbed of resistance hot-blooded adj passionate or excitable hotchpotch or (esp US & Canad) hodgepodge n a jumbled mixture hot dog n a long roll split lengthways with a hot sausage inside hotel n a commercially run establishment providing lodging and meals for guests hotelier n an owner or manager of a hotel hotfoot adv with all possible speed: hotfoot to the accident hot-headed adj impetuous, rash, or hot-tempered > hot-headedness n

hothouse n a greenhouse in which the temperature is maintained at a fixed level hotline n a direct telephone link between heads of government for emergency use hotplate n

- 1 a heated metal surface on an electric cooker
- 2 a portable device on which food can be kept warm hot pool n (NZ) a geothermally heated poolhound n

- 1 a dog used for hunting: to ride with the hounds
► vb
- 2 to pursue, disturb, or criticize relentlessly: hounded by the press ◇ SYNONYMS: harass, harry, bother, provoke, annoy, torment, hassle (informal), badger hour n

- 1 a period of time equal to 60 minutes; $\frac{1}{24}$ of a day
- 2 any of the points on the face of a clock or watch that indicate intervals of 60 minutes: in my hurry I mistook the hour
- 3 the time of day
- 4 the time allowed for, or used for, something: a three-and-a-half-hour test
- 5 the distance covered in an hour: an hour from the heart of Tokyo
- 6 a special moment: the decisive hour

hourglass n a device consisting of two transparent sections linked by a narrow channel, containing a quantity of sand that takes an hour to trickle from one section to the otherhourī n, pl -ris (in Muslim belief) any of the nymphs of Paradisehourly adj

- 1 of, occurring, or done once every hour
- 2 measured by the hour: hourly charges
- 3 frequent
► adv

4 once every hour

5 by the hour: hourly paid

6 frequently

7 at any moment: the arrival of the men was hourly expected house n

1 a building used as a home; dwelling

◇ SYNONYMS: home, residence, dwelling (formal, literary), pad (slang, old-fashioned), homestead, abode, habitation (formal), domicile, whare (NZ)

2 the people in a house

◇ SYNONYMS: household, family

3 a building for some specific purpose: beach house

4 a family or dynasty: the House of Windsor

◇ SYNONYMS: dynasty, tribe, clan

5 a commercial company: auction house

◇ SYNONYMS: firm, company, business, organization, outfit (informal)

6 a law-making body or the hall where it meets

◇ SYNONYMS: assembly, parliament, Commons, legislative body

7 a division of a large school: he was captain of the house rugby team

8 the audience in a theatre or cinema

9 (astrol) any of the 12 divisions of the zodiac

10 (informal) a brothel

11 get on like a house on fire (informal) (of people) to get on very well together

12 on the house (usually of drinks) paid for by the management

◇ SYNONYMS on the house: free, for free (informal), for nothing, free of charge, gratis

13 put one's house in order to settle or organize one's affairs

► adj

14 (of wine) sold unnamed by a restaurant, at a lower price than wines specified on the wine list: house red

► vb housing, housed

15 to give accommodation to ◇ SYNONYMS: accommodate, quarter, take in, put up, lodge, harbour, billet

16 to contain or cover (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: contain, keep, hold, cover, store, protect, shelter house arrest n confinement to one's own home rather than in prison houseboat n a stationary boat used as a home housecoat n a woman's loose robe-like garment for indoor wear household n

1 all the people living together in one house

◇ SYNONYMS: family, home, house, family circle, ainga (NZ)

► adj

2 relating to the running of a household: household budget householder n a person who owns or rents a house housekeeper n a person employed to run someone else's household housekeeping n

1 the running of a household

2 money allotted for this housemaid n (esp. formerly) a female servant employed to do housework

House music or House n a type of dance music of the late 1980s, based on funk, with fragments of other recordings edited in electronically house officer n a junior doctor in a hospital house-train vb to train (a pet) to urinate and defecate outside house-warming n a party given after moving into a new home housewife n, pl -wives a woman who runs her own household and does not have a paid job > housewifely adj

housework n the work of running a home, such as cleaning, cooking, and shopping housing n

1 houses collectively

◇ SYNONYMS: accommodation, homes, houses, dwellings, domiciles

2 the job of providing people with accommodation

3 a part designed to contain and support a component or mechanism: the inspection panel set within the concrete housing

◇ SYNONYMS: case, casing, covering, cover, shell, jacket, holder, container hovea n an Australian plant with purple flowers hovel n a small house or hut that is dirty or badly in need of repair hover vb

1 (of a bird, insect, or helicopter) to remain suspended in one place in the air

◇ SYNONYMS: float, fly, hang, drift, flutter

2 to linger uncertainly in a place

◇ SYNONYMS: linger, loiter, hang about or around (informal)

3 to be in an unsettled or uncertain situation or frame of mind: hovering between two options

◇ SYNONYMS: waver, fluctuate, dither (chiefly Brit), oscillate, vacillate hovercraft n a vehicle that is able to travel across both land and water on a cushion of air how adv

1 in what way, by what means: how did you spend the evening?; observing how elderly people coped

2 to what extent: they don't know how tough I am

3 how good, how well, what ... like: how good are the copies?; so that's how things are 4 how about? used to suggest something: how about some tea?

5 how are you? what is your state of health?

6 how's that?

A what is your opinion?: we'll go out for a late-night supper – how's that?

B (cricket) Also written: howzat (an appeal to the umpire) is the batsman out?

howdah n a seat for riding on an elephant's back however adv

1 still; nevertheless: the book does, however, almost get funny

◇ SYNONYMS: but, nevertheless, still, though, yet, nonetheless, notwithstanding, anyhow

2 by whatever means: get there however you can

3 (with an adjective or adverb) no matter how: however low we plunge, there is always hope howitzer n a large gun that fires shells at a steep angle howl n

1 the long, loud wailing noise made by a wolf or dog

◇ SYNONYMS: baying, cry, bay, bark, barking, yelping

2 a similar cry of pain or sorrow

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, scream, roar, bay, wail, shriek, clamour, bawl

3 a loud burst of laughter

► vb

4 to express (something) in a howl or utter such cries

◇ SYNONYMS: bay, cry

5 (of the wind, etc.) to make a wailing noise howler n (informal) a glaring mistake hoyden n (old-fashioned) a wild boisterous girl; tomboy > hoydenish adj

HP or h.p.

1 (Brit) hire-purchase

2 horsepower

HQ or h.q. headquarters

HRH Her (or His) Royal Highness

HRT

1 hormone replacement therapy

2 (Austral & NZ) high rising terminal

HTML n (computers) hypertext markup language: a text description language that is used on the internet hub n

1 the central portion of a wheel, through which the axle passes

2 the central, most important, or active part of a place or organization

◇ SYNONYMS: centre, heart, focus, core, middle, focal point, nerve centre

3 an airport, railway station, etc. from which many services operate and connecting journeys can be made

4 a device for connecting computers in a network hubbub n

1 a confused noise of many voices

2 great confusion or excitement hubby n, pl -bies (informal) a husband hubris (hew-briss) n (formal) pride or arrogance > hubristic adj

huckster n

- 1 a person who uses aggressive methods of selling
- 2 (rare) a person who sells small articles or fruit in the street huddle n

- 1 a small group of people or things standing or lying close together
- 2 go into a huddle (informal) to have a private conference
 - ▶ vb -dling, -dled
- 3 (of a group of people) to crowd or nestle closely together
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: crowd, press, gather, collect, squeeze, cluster, flock, herd
- 4 to curl up one's arms and legs close to one's body through cold or fear
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: curl up, crouch, hunch up hue n

- 1 the feature of colour that enables an observer to classify it as red, blue, etc.
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: colour, tone, shade, dye, tint, tinge
- 2 a shade of a colour
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: colour, tone, shade, dye, tint, tinge

huff n

- 1 a passing mood of anger or resentment: in a huff
 - ▶ vb
- 2 to blow or puff heavily
- 3 (draughts) to remove (an opponent's draught) from the board for failure to make a capture
- 4 huffing and puffing empty threats or objections
 - > huffy adj
 - > huffily adv

hug vb hugging, hugged

1 to clasp (someone or something) tightly, usually with affection

◇ SYNONYMS: embrace, cuddle, squeeze, clasp, enfold, hold close, take in your arms

2 to keep close to (a shore or the kerb)

► n

3 a tight or fond embrace

◇ SYNONYMS: embrace, squeeze, bear hug, clinch (slang), clasp huge adj extremely large ◇ SYNONYMS: enormous, large, massive, vast, tremendous, immense, gigantic, monumental (informal) > hugely adv

huh interj an exclamation of derision, bewilderment, or inquiry hui (hoo-ee) n, pl hui (NZ)

1 a Māori social gathering

◇ SYNONYMS: meeting, gathering, assembly, conference, congress, rally, convention, get-together (informal)

2 a meeting to discuss Māori matters

◇ SYNONYMS: meeting, gathering, assembly, conference, congress, rally, convention, get-together (informal)

3 any party hula n a Hawaiian dance performed by a woman

Hula Hoop n (trademark) a plastic hoop swung round the body by wiggling the hips hulk n

1 the body of an abandoned ship

2 (derogatory) a large ungainly person or thing hulking adj big and ungainly hull n

1 the main body of a boat

◇ SYNONYMS: framework, casing, body, covering, frame

2 the outer covering of a fruit or seed such as a pea or bean

3 the leaves round the stem of a strawberry, raspberry, or similar fruit

► vb

4 to remove the hulls from (fruit or seeds) hullabaloo n, pl -loos a loud confused noise or commotion hullo interj, n same as hello hum vb humming, hummed

1 to make a low continuous vibrating sound

◇ SYNONYMS: drone, buzz, murmur, throb, vibrate, purr, thrum, whir

2 (of a person) to sing with the lips closed

3 to utter an indistinct sound when hesitating

4 (informal) to be in a state of feverish activity: the town hums with activity and life

◇ SYNONYMS: be busy, buzz, bustle, stir, pulse, pulsate

5 (slang) to smell unpleasant

► n

6 a low continuous murmuring sound

7 an unpleasant smell

► interj, n

8 an indistinct sound of hesitation human adj

1 of or relating to people: human occupants

◇ SYNONYMS: mortal, manlike

2 having the qualities of people as opposed to animals, divine beings, or machines: human nature

3 kind or considerate

► n

4 a human being

◇ SYNONYMS: human being, person, individual, creature, mortal, man or woman human being n a man, woman, or child humane adj

1 showing kindness and sympathy

◇ SYNONYMS: kind, compassionate, understanding, forgiving, tender, sympathetic, benign, merciful

2 inflicting as little pain as possible: a humane method of reducing animal numbers

3 considered to have a civilizing effect on people: the humane tradition of a literary education > humanely adv

humanism n the rejection of religion in favour of a belief in the advancement of humanity by its own efforts > humanist n, adj

> humanistic adj

humanitarian adj

1 having the interests of mankind at heart

◇ SYNONYMS: charitable, philanthropic, public-spirited

► n

2 a person who has the interests of mankind at heart

◇ SYNONYMS: philanthropist, benefactor, Good Samaritan, altruist > humanitarianism n

humanity n, pl -ties

1 the human race

◇ SYNONYMS: the human race, humankind, mankind, man, men and women, people, mortals, Homo sapiens

2 the quality of being human

◇ SYNONYMS: human nature, mortality

3 kindness or mercy

◇ SYNONYMS: kindness, charity, compassion, sympathy, mercy, philanthropy, fellow feeling, kind-heartedness

4 humanities the study of literature, philosophy, and the arts humanize or -ise vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised to make human or humane > humanization or -isation n humankind n the human race; humanity humanly adv by human powers or means: as fast as is humanly possible humble adj

1 conscious of one's failings

◇ SYNONYMS: modest, meek, unassuming, unpretentious, self-effacing, unostentatious

2 modest and unpretentious: humble domestic objects

◇ SYNONYMS: lowly, poor, mean, simple, ordinary, modest, obscure, undistinguished

3 ordinary or not very important: humble beginnings

► vb -bling, -bled

4 to cause to become humble; humiliate

◇ SYNONYMS: humiliate, disgrace, crush, subdue, chasten, put (someone) in their place, take down a peg (informal) > humbly adv

humbug n

1 (Brit) a hard peppermint sweet with a striped pattern

2 a speech or piece of writing that is obviously untrue, dishonest, or nonsense

3 a dishonest person humdinger n (slang)

- 1 something unusually large
- 2 an excellent person or thing humdrum adj ordinary, dull, and uninteresting humerus (hew-mer-uss) n, pl -meri (-mer-rye) the bone from the shoulder to the elbow > humeral adj

humid adj (of the weather) damp and warm humidify vb -fies, -fying, -fied to make the air in (a room) more humid or damp > humidifier n

humidity n

1 dampness

◇ SYNONYMS: damp, moisture, dampness, wetness, moistness, dankness, clamminess, mugginess

2 a measure of the amount of moisture in the air humiliate vb -ating, -ated to hurt the dignity or pride of: the English cricket team was humiliated by Australia

◇ SYNONYMS: embarrass, shame, humble, crush, put down, degrade, chasten, mortify > humiliating adj

> humiliation n

humility n the quality of being humble and modest hummingbird n a very small brightly-coloured American bird with a long slender bill, and powerful wings that hum as they vibrate hummock n a very small hill or a mound humorist n a person who speaks or writes in a humorous way humorous adj amusing, esp. in a witty or clever way ◇ SYNONYMS: funny, comic, amusing, entertaining, witty, comical, droll, jocular > humorously adv

humour or (US) humor n

1 the quality of being funny

◇ SYNONYMS: comedy, funniness, fun, amusement, funny side, jocular, facetiousness, ludicrousness

2 the ability to appreciate or express things that are humorous: a sense of humour

3 situations, speech, or writings that are humorous

◇ SYNONYMS: joking, comedy, wit, farce, jesting, wisecracks (informal), witticisms

4 a state of mind; mood: in astoundingly good humour

◇ SYNONYMS: mood, spirits, temper, disposition, frame of mind

5 (archaic) any of various fluids in the body: aqueous humour

► vb

6 to be kind and indulgent to: he decided the patient needed to be humoured

◇ SYNONYMS: indulge, accommodate, go along with, flatter, gratify, pander to, mollify > humourless adj

hump n

1 a rounded lump on the ground

2 a rounded deformity of the back

3 a rounded lump on the back of a camel or related animal

4 the hump (Brit informal) a fit of sulking: you've got the hump today

► vb

5 (slang) to carry or heave: who would be responsible if they were injured humping heavy gear around?

humus (hew-muss) n a dark brown or black mass of partially decomposed plant and animal matter in the soil hunch n

1 a feeling or suspicion not based on facts: she said that she had had a hunch that the coup would not succeed

◇ SYNONYMS: feeling, idea, impression, suspicion, intuition, premonition, inkling, presentiment

2 same as hump

► vb

3 to draw (oneself or one's shoulders) up or together

◇ SYNONYMS: crouch, bend, curve, arch, draw in hunchback n (old-fashioned, offensive) a person who has an abnormal curvature of the spine > hunchbacked adj

hundred n, pl -dreds or -dred

1 the cardinal number that is the product of ten and ten

2 a numeral, 100 or C, representing this number

3 (often pl) a large but unspecified number

► adj

4 amounting to a hundred: a hundred yards > hundredth adj, n

hundredweight n, pl -weights or -weight

1 (Brit) a unit of weight equal to 112 pounds or 50.802kg

2 (US & Canad) a unit of weight equal to 100 pounds or 45.359kg

3 a metric unit of weight equal to 50 kilograms hung vb

1 the past of hang

► adj

2 (of a parliament or jury) with no side having a clear majority

3 hung over (informal) suffering the effects of a hangover

Hungarian adj

1 of Hungary

► n

2 a person from Hungary

3 the language of Hungary hunger n

1 a feeling of emptiness or weakness caused by lack of food

◇ SYNONYMS: appetite, emptiness, hungriness, ravenousness

2 a lack of food that causes suffering or death: refugees dying of hunger and disease

◇ SYNONYMS: starvation, famine, malnutrition, undernourishment

3 desire or craving: Europe's hunger for bullion

◇ SYNONYMS: desire, appetite, craving, ache, lust, yearning, itch, thirst

► vb

4 hunger for or after to have a great desire for ◇ SYNONYMS hunger for or after something: want, desire, crave, long for, wish for, yearn for, hanker after, ache for hunger strike n a refusal of all food, usually by a prisoner, as a means of protest hungry adj -grier, -griest

1 desiring food

◇ SYNONYMS: starving, ravenous, famished, starved, empty (informal), voracious, peckish (informal, chiefly Brit)

2 (foll. by for) having a craving, desire, or need for: hungry for revenge

◇ SYNONYMS: eager, keen, craving, yearning, greedy, avid, desirous, covetous

3 expressing greed, craving, or desire: the media's hungry search for impact

◇ SYNONYMS: eager, keen, craving, yearning, greedy, avid, desirous, covetous > hungrily adv

hunk n

1 a large piece: a hunk of bread

◇ SYNONYMS: lump, piece, chunk, block, mass, wedge, slab, nugget

2 (slang) a well-built, sexually attractive man hunt vb

1 to seek out and kill (animals) for food or sport

◇ SYNONYMS: stalk, track, chase, pursue, trail, hound

2 hunt down to track in an attempt to capture (someone): hunting down villains

3 hunt for to search for: Western companies are hunting for opportunities to invest

◇ SYNONYMS hunt for something or someone: search for, look for, seek for, forage for, scour for, fossick for (Austral & NZ), ferret about for

► n

4 the act or an instance of hunting

◇ SYNONYMS: search, hunting, investigation, chase, pursuit, quest

5 a party organized for the pursuit of wild animals for sport

6 the members of such a party > hunting n

huntaway n (NZ) a sheepdog trained to drive sheep by barking hunter n

1 a person or animal that seeks out and kills or captures game

2 a person who looks carefully for something: a house hunter

3 a horse or dog bred for hunting

4 a watch with a hinged metal lid or case to protect the glass hunter n, pl -men

1 a person who hunts

2 a person who trains hounds and manages them during a hunt hurdle n

1 (athletics) one of a number of light barriers over which runners leap in certain events

◇ SYNONYMS: fence, barrier, barricade

2 a difficulty or problem: the main technical hurdle is the environment

◇ SYNONYMS: obstacle, difficulty, barrier, handicap, hazard, uphill (S African), obstruction, stumbling block

3 hurdles a race involving hurdles

► vb -dling, -dled

4 to jump over (a hurdle or other obstacle) > hurdler n

hurdy-gurdy n, pl hurdy-gurdies a mechanical musical instrument, such as a barrel organ hurl vb

1 to throw (something) with great force

◇ SYNONYMS: throw, fling, launch, cast, pitch, toss, propel, sling (informal)

2 to utter (something) with force; yell: onlookers hurled abuse at them hurling or hurley n a traditional Irish game resembling hockey hurly-burly n great noise and activity; commotion hurrah or hooray interj, n a cheer of joy or victory hurricane n a severe, often destructive storm, esp. a tropical cyclone

◇ SYNONYMS: storm, gale, tornado, cyclone, typhoon, tempest (literary), twister (US informal), willy-willy (Austral) hurricane lamp n a paraffin lamp with a glass covering hurry vb -ries, -rying, -ried

1 to move or act, or cause to move or act, in great haste: the umpires hurried the players off the ground

◇ SYNONYMS: rush, fly, dash, scurry, scoot

2 to speed up the completion or progress of: eat a small snack rather than hurry a main meal

► n

3 haste

◇ SYNONYMS: rush, haste, speed, urgency, flurry, quickness

4 urgency or eagerness

◇ SYNONYMS: rush, haste, speed, urgency, flurry, quickness

5 in a hurry (informal)

A easily: a striking old guy, not the sort you'd forget in a hurry

B willingly: he would not ease interest rates again in a hurry

hurt vb hurting, hurt

1 to cause physical or mental injury to: is she badly hurt?

◇ SYNONYMS: injure, damage, wound, cut, bruise, scrape, impair

2 to cause someone to feel pain: my head hurt

◇ SYNONYMS: ache, be sore, be painful, burn, smart, sting, throb, be tender

3 (informal) to feel pain: she was hurting

► n

4 physical or mental pain or suffering

◇ SYNONYMS: distress, suffering, pain, grief, misery, sorrow, heartache, wretchedness

► adj

5 injured or pained: his hurt head; a hurt expression

◇ SYNONYMS: injured, wounded, damaged, harmed, cut, bruised, scarred > hurtful adj

hurtle vb -ling, -led to move very quickly or violently

◇ SYNONYMS: rush, charge, race, shoot, fly, speed, tear, crash husband n

1 the man to whom a person is married

◇ SYNONYMS: partner, spouse, mate, better half (humorous)

► vb

2 to use (resources, finances, etc.) economically

◇ SYNONYMS: conserve, budget, save, store, hoard, economize on, use economically husbandry n

1 the art or skill of farming

2 management of resources hush vb

1 to make or be silent

◇ SYNONYMS: quieten, silence, mute, muzzle, shush

► n

2 stillness or silence

◇ SYNONYMS: quiet, silence, calm, peace, tranquillity, stillness

► interj

3 a plea or demand for silence

► See also hush up > hushed adj

hush-hush adj (informal) (esp. of official work) secret and confidential hush up vb to suppress information or rumours about (something) husk n

1 the outer covering of certain fruits and seeds

► vb

2 to remove the husk from husky¹ adj huskier, huskiest

- 1 (of a voice) slightly hoarse 2 (informal) (of a man) big and strong > huskily adv

husky² n, pl huskies an Arctic sledge dog with thick hair and a curled tail hussar (hoo-zar) n (history) a member of a light cavalry regiment hussy n, pl -sies (old-fashioned, derogatory) a woman considered to be sexually immoral hustings pl n the campaigns and speeches at a parliamentary election hustle vb -tling, -tled

- 1 to make (someone) move by pushing or jostling them: he hustled her away 2 to deal with (something) hurriedly: they did not heedlessly hustle the tempo 3 (US & Canad slang) (of a prostitute) to solicit clients
► n
4 lively activity and excitement hut n a small house or shelter

◇ SYNONYMS: cabin, shack, shanty, hovel, whare (NZ) hutch n a cage for small animals hyacinth n a plant with bell-shaped sweet-smelling flowers hyaena n same as hyena hybrid n

1 an animal or plant resulting from a cross between two different types of animal or plant

◇ SYNONYMS: crossbreed, cross, mixture, compound, composite, amalgam, mongrel, half-breed

2 a vehicle that is powered by an internal-combustion engine and another source of power

3 anything that is a mixture of two different things

◇ SYNONYMS: mixture, compound, composite, amalgam

► adj

4 of mixed origin

5 (of a vehicle) powered by an internal-combustion engine and another source of power hydra n

1 a mythical many-headed serpent

2 a persistent problem: killing the hydra of drug production is impossible

3 a microscopic freshwater creature with a slender tubular body and tentacles around the mouth hydrangea n an ornamental shrub with large clusters of white, pink, or blue flowers hydrant n an outlet from a water main, from which water can be tapped for fighting fires hydrate (chem) n

1 a compound containing water chemically combined with a substance: chloral hydrate

► vb -drating, -drated

2 to treat or impregnate (a substance) with water > hydration n

hydraulic adj operated by pressure transmitted through a pipe by a liquid, such as water or oil > hydraulically adv

hydraulics n the study of the mechanical properties of fluids as they apply to practical engineering hydro¹ n, pl -dros (Brit) a hotel offering facilities for hydropathic treatment hydro² adj

1 short for hydroelectric

► n

2 (Canad) electricity as supplied to a residence, business, etc.

hydro- or (before a vowel) hydr- combining form

1 indicating water or fluid: hydrodynamics

2 (chem) indicating hydrogen in a chemical compound: hydrochloric acid hydrocarbon n (chem) a compound containing only carbon and hydrogen hydrochloric acid n (chem) a solution of hydrogen chloride in water: a strong acid used in many industrial and laboratory processes hydroelectric adj

1 generated by the pressure of falling water: hydroelectric power

2 of the generation of electricity by water pressure: a hydroelectric scheme > hydroelectricity n hydrofoil n

1 a fast light vessel the hull of which is raised out of the water on one or more pairs of fins

2 any of these fins hydrogen n (chem) a colourless gas that burns easily and is the lightest element in the universe. It occurs in water and in most organic compounds.

SYMBOL: H

> hydrogenous adj

hydrogen bomb n an extremely powerful bomb in which energy is released by fusion of hydrogen nuclei to give helium nuclei hydrogen peroxide n a colourless oily unstable liquid chemical used as a hair bleach and as an antiseptic hydrolysis (hide-rol-iss-iss) n (chem) a process of decomposition in which a compound reacts with water to produce other compounds hydrometer (hide-rom-it-er) n an instrument for measuring the density of a liquid hydropathy n a method of treating disease by the use of large quantities of water both internally and externally > hydropathic adj hydrophobia n

1 same as rabies

2 (esp. of a person with rabies) a fear of drinking fluids > hydrophobic adj

hydroplane n

1 a motorboat that raises its hull out of the water at high speeds

2 a fin on the hull of a submarine for controlling its vertical motion hydroponics n a method of growing plants in gravel, etc., through which water containing the necessary nutrients is pumped hydrotherapy n (med) the treatment of certain diseases by exercise in water hyena or hyaena n a meat-eating doglike mammal of Africa and S Asia hygiene n

1 the principles and practices of health and cleanliness: personal hygiene

◇ SYNONYMS: cleanliness, sanitation, disinfection, sterility

2 Also called: hygienics the science concerned with the maintenance of health > hygienic adj

> hygienically adv

> hygienist n

hymen n (anatomy) a membrane that partly covers the entrance to the vagina and is usually ruptured when sexual intercourse takes place for the first time hymn n a Christian song of praise sung to God or a saint ◇ SYNONYMS: religious song, song of praise, carol, chant, anthem, psalm, paean hymnal n a book of hymns. Also: hymn book hype (slang) n

1 intensive or exaggerated publicity or sales promotion

◇ SYNONYMS: publicity, promotion, plugging (informal), razzmatazz (slang), brouhaha, ballyhoo (informal)

► vb hyping, hyped

2 to market or promote (a commodity) using intensive or exaggerated publicity hyper adj (informal) overactive or overexcited hyper- prefix above, over, or in excess: hypercritical hyperbola (hie-per-bol-a) n (geom) a curve produced when a cone is cut by a plane at a steeper angle to its base than its side hyperbole (hie-per-bol-ee) n a deliberate exaggeration of speech or writing used for effect, such as he embraced her a thousand times

hyperbolic or hyperbolical adj

1 exaggerated

2 of a hyperbola or a hyperbole hyperlink (computers) n

1 a word, picture, etc., in a computer document on which a user may click to move to another part of the document or to another document

► vb

2 to link (files) in this way hypermarket n a huge self-service store hypersensitive adj

1 unduly emotionally vulnerable

2 abnormally sensitive to an allergen, a drug, or high or low temperatures hypersonic adj having a speed of at least five times the speed of sound hypertension n (pathol) abnormally high blood pressure hypertext n computer software and hardware that allows users to store and view text and move between related items easily hyphen n the punctuation mark (-), used to separate parts of compound words and between syllables of a word split between two consecutive lines hyphenated adj having two words or syllables connected by a hyphen hypnosis n an artificially induced state of relaxation in which the mind is more than usually receptive to suggestion hypnotic adj

1 of or producing hypnosis or sleep

2 having an effect resembling hypnosis: the film makes for hypnotic viewing

► n

3 a drug that induces sleep > hypnotically adv

hypnotism n the practice of or process of inducing hypnosis > hypnotist n

hypnotize or -tise vb -tizing, -tized or -tising, -tised

1 to induce hypnosis in (a person)

2 to hold the attention of (someone) completely; fascinate; mesmerize: hypnotized by her beauty hypo- or (before a vowel) hyp- prefix beneath; less than: hypodermic hypoallergenic adj not likely to cause an allergic reaction hypochondria n abnormal anxiety concerning one's health hypochondriac n a person abnormally concerned about his or her health hypocrisy (hip-ok-rass-ee) n, pl -sies

1 the practice of claiming to have standards or beliefs that are contrary to one's real character or actual behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: insincerity, pretence, deception, cant, duplicity, deceitfulness

2 an act or instance of this hypocrite (hip-oh-krit) n a person who pretends to be what he or she is not > hypocritical adj

hypodermic adj

1 used for injecting

► n

2 a hypodermic syringe or needle hypotension n (pathol) abnormally low blood pressure hypotenuse (hie-pot-a-news) n the side in a right-angled triangle that is opposite the right angle hypothalamus n, pl -mi an area at the base of the brain, which controls hunger, thirst, and other functions hypothermia n (pathol) an abnormally low body temperature, as a result of exposure to cold weather hypothesis (hie-poth-iss-iss) n, pl -ses (-seez) a suggested explanation for a group of facts, accepted either as a basis for further verification or as likely to be true

◇ SYNONYMS: theory, premise, proposition, assumption, thesis, postulate, supposition > hypothesize or -ise vb

hypothetical adj based on assumption rather than fact or reality > hypothetically adv

hyrax (hire-ax) n, pl hyraxes or hyraces (hire-a-seez) a genus of hoofed rodent-like animals hysterectomy n, pl -mies surgical removal of the womb hysteria n

1 a psychological disorder marked by emotional outbursts and, often, symptoms such as paralysis

2 any uncontrolled emotional state, such as of panic, anger, or excitement

◇ SYNONYMS: frenzy, panic, madness, agitation, delirium, hysterics hysterical adj

1 in a state of uncontrolled panic, anger, or excitement

◇ SYNONYMS: frenzied, frantic, raving, distracted, distraught, crazed, overwrought

2 (informal) wildly funny

◇ SYNONYMS: hilarious, uproarious, side-splitting, comical > hysterically adv

hysterics n

1 an attack of hysteria

2 (informal) wild uncontrollable bursts of laughter

Hz hertz

Ii

I pron used by a speaker or writer to refer to himself or herself as the subject of a verb

Iberian adj

1 of Iberia, the peninsula made up of Spain and Portugal

► n

2 a person from Iberia ibex (ibe-eks) n, pl ibexes or ibex a wild mountain goat with large backward-curving horns ibid. in the same place: used to refer to a book, page, or passage previously cited ibis (ibe-iss) n, pl ibises or ibis a large wading bird with a long thin curved bill ice n

1 water that has frozen and become solid

2 (chiefly Brit) a portion of ice cream

3 break the ice to relax the atmosphere, esp. between strangers

4 on ice in readiness or reserve

5 on thin ice in a dangerous situation: he knew he was on thin ice

6 the Ice (NZ informal) Antarctica

► vb icing, iced

7 (foll. by up or over) to become covered with ice

8 to cover with icing

9 to cool or chill with ice iceberg n

1 a large mass of ice floating in the sea

2 tip of the iceberg the small visible part of a problem that is much larger icebox n

1 (US & Canad) a refrigerator

2 a compartment in a refrigerator for making or storing ice

3 a container packed with ice for keeping food and drink cold icecap n a thick mass of glacial ice that permanently covers an area ice cream n a sweet frozen food, made from cream, milk, or a custard base, flavoured in various ways iced adj

1 served very cold

2 covered with icing ice floe n a sheet of ice floating in the sea ice hockey n a game like hockey played on ice by two teams wearing skates

Icelander n a person from Iceland

Icelandic adj

1 of Iceland

► n

2 the official language of Iceland ice lolly n (Brit informal) a water ice or an ice cream on a stick ice skate n

1 a boot with a steel blade fitted to the sole, which enables the wearer to glide over ice

► vb ice-skate-skating, -skated

2 to glide over ice on ice skates > ice-skater n

icicle n a tapering spike of ice hanging where water has dripped icing n

1 Also (esp. US and Canad.): frosting a mixture of sugar and water or egg whites used to cover and decorate cakes

2 the formation of ice on a ship or aircraft

3 icing on the cake any unexpected extra or bonus icing sugar n a very finely ground sugar used for making icing or sweets icon or ikon n

1 a picture of Christ, the Virgin Mary, or a saint, venerated in the Orthodox Church

◇ SYNONYMS: representation, image, likeness, avatar, favicon (computers)

2 a picture on a computer screen representing a computer function that can be activated by moving the cursor over it

3 a person or thing regarded as a symbol of a belief or cultural movement: a feminist icon

◇ SYNONYMS: idol, hero, superstar iconoclast n

1 a person who attacks established or traditional ideas or principles

2 a destroyer of religious images or objects > iconoclastic adj

> iconoclasm n

ICT Information and Communications Technology icy adj icier, iciest

1 freezing or very cold

◇ SYNONYMS: cold, freezing, bitter, biting, raw, chill, chilly, frosty

2 covered with ice: an icy runway

◇ SYNONYMS: slippery, glassy, slippy (informal, dialect), like a sheet of glass

3 cold or reserved in manner

◇ SYNONYMS: unfriendly, cold, distant, aloof, frosty, frigid, unwelcoming

> icily adv

> iciness n

id n (psychoanalysis) the primitive instincts and energies in the unconscious mind that underlie all psychological impulses

ID

1 Idaho

2 identification idea n

1 any product of mental activity; thought

◇ SYNONYMS: notion, thought, view, teaching, opinion, belief, conclusion, hypothesis

2 a scheme, intention, or plan

3 the thought of something: the idea excites me

4 a belief or opinion

◇ SYNONYMS: notion, thought, view, teaching, opinion, belief, conclusion, hypothesis

5 a vague notion; inkling: they had no idea of the severity of my injuries

6 a person's conception of something: his idea of integrity is not the same as mine

◇ SYNONYMS: understanding, thought, view, opinion, concept, impression, perception

7 aim or purpose: the idea is to economize on transport

◇ SYNONYMS: intention, aim, purpose, object, plan, objective

8 (philosophy) (in Plato) a universal model of which all things in the same class are only imperfect imitations ideal n

1 (often pl) a principle or model of ethical behaviour

2 a conception of something that is perfect

◇ SYNONYMS: model, prototype, paradigm

3 a person or thing considered to represent perfection

◇ SYNONYMS: epitome, standard, dream, pattern, perfection, last word, paragon

4 something existing only as an idea

► adj

5 most suitable: the ideal person to head the delegation

◇ SYNONYMS: perfect, best, model, classic, supreme, ultimate, archetypal, exemplary

6 of, involving, or existing only as an idea; imaginary: an ideal world

> ideally adv

idealism n

1 belief in or striving towards ideals

2 the tendency to represent things in their ideal forms, rather than as they are

3 (philosophy) the doctrine that material objects and the external world do not exist in reality, but are creations of the mind > idealist n

> idealistic adj

idealize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to consider or represent (something) as ideal or more nearly perfect than is true > idealization or -lisation n

idem pron, adj the same: used to refer to an article, chapter, or book already quoted identical adj

1 that is the same: they got the identical motel room as last year

◇ SYNONYMS: alike, matching, twin, duplicate, indistinguishable, interchangeable

2 exactly alike or equal

◇ SYNONYMS: alike, matching, twin, duplicate, indistinguishable, interchangeable

3 (of twins) developed from a single fertilized ovum that has split into two, and thus of the same sex and very much alike > identically adv

identify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to prove or recognize as being a certain person or thing; determine the identity of

◇ SYNONYMS: recognize, place, name, remember, spot, diagnose, make out, pinpoint

2 (often foll. by with) to understand and sympathize with a person or group because one regards oneself as being similar or similarly situated

◇ SYNONYMS identify with someone: relate to, respond to, feel for, empathize with

3 to consider or treat as the same

4 to connect or associate closely: he was closely identified with the community charge

◇ SYNONYMS identify something or someone with something or someone: equate with, associate with > identifiable adj

> identification n

Identikit n

1 (trademark) a composite picture, assembled from descriptions given, of a person wanted by the police

► adj

2 artificially created; formulaic: an identikit pop group

3 stereotypical: the identikit tenacious lawyer identity n, pl -ties

1 the state of being a specified person or thing: the identity of his murderers was not immediately established

2 the individual characteristics by which a person or thing is recognized

◇ SYNONYMS: individuality, self, character, personality, existence, originality, separateness

3 the state of being the same

4 (maths) Also called: identity element a member of a set that when combined with any other member of the set, leaves it unchanged: the identity for multiplication of numbers is 1 identity card n a card with a person's name, photograph, and other personal information on it identity theft n the fraudulent use of another person's name and personal details to open a bank account, obtain credit, etc.

ideology n, pl -gies the body of ideas and beliefs of a person, group, or nation > ideological adj

> ideologically adv

> ideologist n

idiocy n, pl -cies

1 utter stupidity

2 a foolish act or remark

idiom n

1 a group of words which, when used together, have a different meaning from the one suggested by the individual words, eg it was raining cats and dogs

2 linguistic usage that is grammatical and natural to native speakers

3 the characteristic vocabulary or usage of a person or group

4 the characteristic artistic style of an individual or school > idiomatic adj

idiosyncrasy n, pl -sies a personal peculiarity of mind, habit, or behaviour;

quirk

> idiosyncratic adj

idiot n

1 a foolish or senseless person

◇ SYNONYMS: fool, twit (informal, chiefly Brit), chump, halfwit, galah (Austral & NZ informal), dorba or dorb (Austral slang), dill (Austral & NZ informal), mampara (S African informal)

2 (old-fashioned, offensive) a person with severe learning difficulties > idiotic adj

> idiotically adv

idle adj

1 not doing anything

◇ SYNONYMS: unoccupied, unemployed, redundant, inactive

2 not operating or being used

◇ SYNONYMS: unused, inactive, out of order, out of service

3 not wanting to work; lazy

◇ SYNONYMS: lazy, slow, slack, sluggish, lax, negligent, inactive, inert

4 ineffective or useless: it would be idle to look for a solution at this stage

◇ SYNONYMS: useless, vain, pointless, unsuccessful, ineffective, worthless, futile, fruitless

5 frivolous or trivial: idle pleasures

6 without basis; unfounded: idle rumours

► vb idling, idled

7 (often foll. by away) to waste or pass (time) in idleness

◇ SYNONYMS: fritter, lounge, potter, loaf, dally, loiter, dawdle, laze

8 (of an engine) to run at low speed without transmitting any power > idleness n

> idler n

> idly adv

idol (eye-dl) n

1 an object of excessive devotion or admiration

◇ SYNONYMS: hero, pin-up, favourite, pet, darling, beloved (slang), fave (informal)

2 an image of a god used as an object of worship

◇ SYNONYMS: graven image, god, deity idolatry (ide-ol-a-tree) n

1 the worship of idols

2 excessive devotion or reverence > idolater n

> idolatrous adj

idolize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to love or admire excessively

2 to worship as an idol > idolization or -lisation n idyll or (US, sometimes) idyl (id-ill) n

1 a scene or time of peace and happiness

2 a poem or prose work describing a charming rural scene or episode > idyllic adj

i.e. that is to say

IED improvised explosive device

if conj

1 in the event that, or on condition that: if you work hard you'll succeed

◇ SYNONYMS: provided, assuming, given that, providing, supposing, presuming, on condition that, as long as

2 used to introduce an indirect question to which the answer is either yes or no; whether: it doesn't matter if the play is any good or not

3 even though: a splendid if slightly decaying house

4 used to introduce an unfulfilled wish, with only: if only you had told her

► n

5 a condition or stipulation: there are no hidden ifs or buts iffy adj iffier, iffiest (informal) full of uncertainty igloo n, pl -loos a dome-shaped Inuit dwelling, built of blocks of solid snow igneous (ig-nee-uss) adj

1 (of rocks) formed as molten rock cools and hardens

2 of or like fire ignite vb -niting, -nited

1 to catch fire

◇ SYNONYMS: catch fire, burn, burst into flames, inflame, flare up, take fire

2 to set fire to

◇ SYNONYMS: set fire to, light, set alight, torch, kindle > ignitable adj

ignition n

1 the system used to ignite the fuel in an internal-combustion engine

2 an igniting or the process of igniting ignoble adj

1 dishonourable

2 of humble origin or social status > ignobly adv

ignominy (ig-nom-in-ee) n, pl -minies disgrace or public shame: the ignominy of being replaced > ignominious adj

ignoramus n, pl -muses an ignorant person ignorance n lack of knowledge or education

◇ SYNONYMS: lack of education, stupidity, foolishness ignorant adj

1 lacking in knowledge or education

◇ SYNONYMS: uneducated, illiterate

2 rude through lack of knowledge of good manners: an ignorant remark

◇ SYNONYMS: insensitive, rude, crass

3 ignorant of lacking in awareness or knowledge of: ignorant of Asian culture

◇ SYNONYMS: uninformed of, unaware of, oblivious to, innocent of, unconscious of, inexperienced of, uninitiated about, unenlightened about ignore vb -noring, -nored to refuse to notice; disregard deliberately ◇ SYNONYMS: pay no attention to, neglect, disregard, slight, overlook, scorn, spurn, rebuff iguana n a large tropical tree lizard of the W Indies and S America with a spiny back ill adj worse, worst

1 not in good health

◇ SYNONYMS: unwell, sick, poorly (informal), diseased, weak, crook (Austral & NZ slang), ailing, frail

2 bad, harmful, or hostile: ill effects

◇ SYNONYMS: harmful, bad, damaging, evil, foul, unfortunate, destructive, detrimental

3 promising an unfavourable outcome: ill omen

4 ill at ease unable to relax

► n

5 evil or harm

◇ SYNONYMS: problem, trouble, suffering, worry, injury, hurt, strain, harm

► adv

6 badly, wrongly: the title ill befits him

7 with difficulty; hardly: we can ill afford another scandal

◇ SYNONYMS: hardly, barely, scarcely, just, only just, by no means, at a push ill-advised adj

1 (of a plan or action) badly thought out

2 (of a person) acting without reasonable care or thought ill-disposed adj unfriendly or unsympathetic illegal adj against the law

◇ SYNONYMS: unlawful, banned, forbidden, prohibited, criminal, outlawed, illicit, unlicensed > illegally adv

> illegality n

illegible adj unable to be read or deciphered > illegibility n

illegitimate adj

1 born of parents who were not married to each other at the time

2 illegal; unlawful > illegitimacy n

ill-fated adj doomed or unlucky ill-gotten adj obtained dishonestly or illegally: ill-gotten gains ill-health n the condition of being unwell illicit adj

1 same as illegal

◇ SYNONYMS: illegal, criminal, prohibited, unlawful, illegitimate, unlicensed, unauthorized, felonious

2 forbidden or disapproved of by society: an illicit kiss

◇ SYNONYMS: forbidden, improper, immoral, guilty, clandestine, furtive illiterate adj

1 unable to read and write

2 uneducated or ignorant: linguistically illiterate

► n

3 an illiterate person > illiteracy n

ill-mannered adj having bad manners illness n

1 a disease or indisposition

◇ SYNONYMS: sickness, disease, infection, disorder, bug (informal), ailment, affliction, malady

2 a state of ill health

◇ SYNONYMS: sickness, disease, infection, disorder, bug (informal), ailment, affliction, malady

illogical adj

1 senseless or unreasonable

2 not following logical principles > illogicality n

> illogically adv

ill-treat vb to treat cruelly or harshly > ill-treatment n illuminate vb -nating, -nated

1 to light up

◇ SYNONYMS: light up, brighten

2 to make easily understood; explain: the report obscures rather than illuminates the most relevant facts

◇ SYNONYMS: explain, interpret, make clear, clarify, clear up, enlighten, shed light on, elucidate

3 to decorate with lights

4 to decorate (an initial letter or manuscript) with designs of gold, silver, or bright colours > illuminating adj

> illuminative adj

illumination n

1 an illuminating or being illuminated

2 a source of light

3 illuminations (chiefly Brit) lights used as decorations in streets or towns

4 the decoration in colours, gold, or silver used on some manuscripts illusion n

1 a false appearance or deceptive impression of reality: her upswept hair gave the illusion of above average height

◇ SYNONYMS: false impression, appearance, impression, deception, fallacy

2 a false or misleading idea or belief: we may suffer from the illusion that we are special

◇ SYNONYMS: delusion, misconception, misapprehension, fancy, fallacy, false impression, false belief illusionist n a conjuror illusory or illusive adj seeming to be true, but actually false: the economic benefits of such reforms were largely illusory

illustrate vb -trating, -trated

1 to clarify or explain by use of examples or comparisons

◇ SYNONYMS: explain, sum up, summarize, bring home, point up, elucidate

2 to provide (a book or text) with pictures

3 to be an example of ◇ SYNONYMS: demonstrate, emphasize

- > illustrative adj
- > illustrator n

illustration n

- 1 a picture or diagram used to explain or decorate a text
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: picture, drawing, painting, image, print, plate, figure, portrait
- 2 an example: an illustration of the brutality of the regime
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: example, case, instance, sample, specimen, exemplar
- 3 the art of illustrating illustrious adj famous and distinguished ill will n unkind feeling; hostility

IM instant messaging

image n

- 1 a mental picture of someone or something produced by the imagination or memory
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: thought, idea, vision, concept, impression, perception, mental picture, conceptualization
- 2 the appearance or impression given to the public by a person or organization
- 3 a simile or metaphor
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: figure of speech
- 4 a representation of a person or thing in a work of art or literature
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: figure, idol, icon, fetish, talisman, avatar
- 5 an optical reproduction of an object, formed by the lens of an eye or camera, or by a mirror
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: reflection, likeness, mirror image
- 6 a person or thing that resembles another closely
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: replica, copy, reproduction, counterpart, clone, facsimile, spitting image (informal), Doppelgänger
- 7 a personification of a specified quality; epitome: the image of good breeding
- vb imaging, imaged

- 8 to picture in the mind
- 9 to mirror or reflect an image of
- 10 to portray or describe imagery n, pl -ries

- 1 figurative or descriptive language in a literary work
- 2 mental images
- 3 images collectively, esp. statues or carvings imaginary adj

- 1 existing only in the imagination
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: fictional, made-up, invented, imagined, unreal, hypothetical, fictitious, illusory
- 2 (maths) relating to the square root of a negative number imagination n

- 1 the faculty or action of producing mental images of what is not present or in one's experience
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: mind's eye, fancy (old-fashioned, literary)
- 2 creative mental ability
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: creativity, vision, invention, ingenuity, enterprise, originality, inventiveness, resourcefulness imaginative adj

- 1 produced by or showing a creative imagination
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: creative, original, inspired, enterprising, clever, ingenious, inventive
- 2 having a vivid imagination
 - > imaginatively adv

imagine vb -ining, -ined

- 1 to form a mental image of
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: envisage, see, picture, plan, think of, conjure up, envision, visualize

2 to think, believe, or guess: I would imagine they'll be here soon

◇ SYNONYMS: believe, think, suppose, assume, suspect, guess (informal), take it, reckon (informal) > imaginable adj imago (im-may-go) n, pl imagoes or imagines (im-maj-in-eez) a sexually mature adult insect imam n (Islam)

1 a leader of congregational prayer in a mosque

2 the title of some Muslim leaders

IMAX (eye-max) n a film projection process that produces an image ten times larger than standard imbalance n a lack of balance, for instance in emphasis or proportion: a chemical imbalance in the brain

imbecile (im-biss-eel) n

1 (informal) an extremely stupid person

2 (psychol, obsolete) a person of abnormally low intelligence

► adj

3 stupid or senseless: imbecile fanaticism > imbecility n

imbibe vb -bibilg, -bibil (formal)

1 to drink (alcoholic drinks)

2 to take in or assimilate (ideas): values she had imbibed as a child imbroglio (imb-role-ee-oh) n, pl -glios a confusing and complicated situation imbue vb -buing, -bued to fill or inspire (with ideals or principles)

IMF International Monetary Fund

imitate vb -tating, -tated

1 to copy the manner or style of, or take as a model: he remains rock's most imitated guitarist

◇ SYNONYMS: copy, follow, repeat, echo, emulate, ape, simulate, mirror

2 to mimic or impersonate, esp. for amusement

◇ SYNONYMS: do an impression of, mimic, copy

3 to make a copy or reproduction of; duplicate > imitable adj

> imitator n

imitation n

1 a copy of an original or genuine article

◇ SYNONYMS: replica, fake, reproduction, sham, forgery, counterfeiting, likeness, duplication

2 an instance of imitating someone: her Coward imitations were not the best thing she did

◇ SYNONYMS: impression, impersonation

3 behaviour modelled on the behaviour of someone else: to learn by imitation

◇ SYNONYMS: copying, resemblance, mimicry

► adj

4 made to resemble something which is usually superior or more expensive: imitation leather

◇ SYNONYMS: artificial, mock, reproduction, dummy, synthetic, man-made, simulated, sham imitative adj

1 imitating or tending to copy

2 copying or reproducing an original, esp. in an inferior manner: imitative painting

3 onomatopoeic immaculate adj

1 completely clean or tidy: an immaculate pinstripe suit

◇ SYNONYMS: clean, spotless, neat, spruce, squeaky-clean, spick-and-span

2 completely flawless: his equestrian pedigree is immaculate

◇ SYNONYMS: perfect, flawless, impeccable, faultless, unblemished, untarnished, unexceptionable > immaculately adv

immanent adj

1 present within and throughout something

2 (of God) present throughout the universe > immanence n immaterial adj

1 of no real importance or relevance

2 not formed of matter immature adj

1 not fully grown or developed

2 lacking wisdom, insight, or stability because of youth > immaturity n

immediate adj

1 taking place without delay: an immediate cut in interest rates

◇ SYNONYMS: instant, prompt, instantaneous, quick, on-the-spot, split-second

2 next or nearest in space, time, or relationship: our immediate neighbour

◇ SYNONYMS: nearest, next, direct, close, near 3 present; current: they had no immediate plans to close it > immediacy n > immediately adv

immemorial adj having existed or happened for longer than anyone can remember: this has been the custom since time immemorial

immense adj

1 huge or vast

◇ SYNONYMS: huge, great, massive, vast, enormous, extensive, tremendous, very big, supersize

2 (informal) very great > immensely adv

> immensity n

immerse vb -mersing, -mersed

1 to plunge or dip into liquid

◇ SYNONYMS: plunge, dip, submerge, sink, duck, bathe, douse, dunk

2 to involve deeply: he immersed himself in the history of Rome

◇ SYNONYMS: engross, involve, absorb, busy, occupy, engage

3 to baptize by dipping the whole body into water > immersion n

immersion heater n an electrical device in a domestic hot-water tank for heating water immersive adj making one feel completely surrounded by and involved in something immigrant n a person who comes to a foreign country in order to settle there

◇ SYNONYMS: settler, incomer, alien, stranger, outsider, newcomer, migrant, emigrant immigration n the act of coming to a foreign country in order to settle there > immigrate vb

imminent adj likely to happen soon

◇ SYNONYMS: near, coming, close, approaching, gathering, forthcoming, looming, impending > imminence n

> imminently adv

immobile adj

1 not moving

2 not able to move or be moved > immobility n

immobilize or -lise vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to make unable to move or work: a device for immobilizing steering wheels

> immobilization or -lisation n immoderate adj excessive or unreasonable: immoderate consumption of alcohol > immoderately adv

immolate vb -lating, -lated (literary) to kill or offer as a sacrifice, esp. by fire > immolation n immoral adj morally wrong; corrupt

◇ SYNONYMS: wicked, bad, wrong, corrupt, indecent, sinful, unethical, depraved > immorality n

immortal adj

1 not subject to death or decay

◇ SYNONYMS: undying, eternal, imperishable, deathless

2 famous for all time

3 everlasting

◇ SYNONYMS: timeless, eternal, everlasting, lasting, traditional, classic, enduring, perennial

► n

4 a person whose fame will last for all time

◇ SYNONYMS: hero, genius, great

5 an immortal being

◇ SYNONYMS: god, goddess, deity, divine being, immortal being, atua (NZ) > immortality n

immortalize or -ise vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised

1 to give everlasting fame to: a name immortalized by countless writers

2 to give immortality to immune adj

1 protected against a specific disease by inoculation or as the result of natural resistance

◇ SYNONYMS immune to: resistant to, free from, protected from, safe from, not open to, spared from, secure against, invulnerable to

2 exempt from obligation or penalty

3 immune to secure against: football is not immune to economic recession

◇ SYNONYMS immune to: unaffected by, invulnerable to immunity n, pl -ties

1 the ability of an organism to resist disease

◇ SYNONYMS: resistance, protection, resilience, inoculation, immunization

2 freedom from prosecution, tax, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: exemption, amnesty, indemnity, release, freedom, invulnerability immunize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised to make (someone) immune to a disease, esp. by inoculation > immunization or -nisation n immunodeficiency n a deficiency in or breakdown of a person's ability to fight diseases immunology n the branch of medicine concerned with the study of immunity > immunological adj

> immunologist n

immutable (im-mute-a-bl) adj unchangeable or unchanging: the immutable sequence of night and day

> immutability n

imp n

1 a small demon

2 a mischievous child

impact n

1 the effect or impression made by something

◇ SYNONYMS: effect, influence, consequences, impression, repercussions, ramifications

2 the act of one object striking another; collision

◇ SYNONYMS: collision, contact, crash, knock, stroke, smash, bump, thump

3 the force of a collision

► vb

4 to press firmly against or into

◇ SYNONYMS: hit, strike, crash, clash, crush, ram, smack, collide

5 impact on to have an effect on > impaction n

impair vb to damage or weaken in strength or quality

◇ SYNONYMS: worsen, reduce, damage, injure, harm, undermine, weaken, diminish > impairment n

impala (imp-ah-la) n, pl -las or -la an African antelope with lyre-shaped horns impale vb -paling, -paled to pierce through or fix with a sharp object: they impaled his severed head on a spear > impalement n

impalpable adj (formal)

1 not able to be felt by touching: impalpable shadows

2 difficult to understand > impalpability n impart vb

1 to communicate (information or knowledge)

2 to give (a specified quality): flavouring to impart a sweet taste impartial adj not favouring one side or the other > impartiality n

> impartially adv

impassable adj (of terrain or roads) not able to be travelled through or over > impassability n

impasse (am-pass) n a situation in which progress or escape is impossible ◇ SYNONYMS: deadlock, stalemate, standstill, dead end, standoff impassioned adj full of emotion: an impassioned plea to the United Nations impassive adj not showing or feeling emotion > impassively adv

> impassivity n

impatient adj

1 irritable at any delay or difficulty

◇ SYNONYMS: cross, annoyed, irritated, prickly, touchy, bad-tempered, intolerant, ill-tempered

2 restless to have or do something ◇ SYNONYMS: eager, longing, keen, anxious, hungry, enthusiastic, restless, avid

- > impatience n
- > impatiently adv

impeach vb

- 1 (chiefly US) to charge (a public official) with an offence committed in office
- 2 (Brit & Austral, criminal law) to accuse of treason or serious crime
- 3 to challenge or question (a person's honesty or honour)
- > impeachable adj
- > impeachment n

impeccable adj without flaw or error: impeccable manners

- ◇ SYNONYMS: faultless, perfect, immaculate, flawless, squeaky-clean, unblemished, unimpeachable, irreproachable
- > impeccably adv

impecunious adj (formal) without money; penniless impedance (imp-eed-anss) n (electronics) the total effective resistance in an electric circuit to the flow of an alternating current impede vb -peding, -peded to block or make progress or action difficult impediment n

- 1 a hindrance or obstruction
- 2 a physical disability that makes speech or walking difficult impel vb -elling, -pelled

- 1 to urge or force (a person) to do something
- 2 to push, drive, or force into motion impending adj (esp. of something bad) about to happen

◇ SYNONYMS: looming, coming, approaching, near, forthcoming, imminent, upcoming, in the pipeline impenetrable adj

1 impossible to get through: an impenetrable barrier

2 impossible to understand

3 not receptive to ideas or influence: impenetrable ignorance > impenetrability n

> impenetrably adv

imperative adj

1 extremely urgent; essential

◇ SYNONYMS: urgent, essential, pressing, vital, crucial (informal)

2 commanding or authoritative: an imperative tone of voice

3 (grammar) denoting a mood of verbs used in commands

► n

4 (grammar) the imperative mood imperceptible adj too slight, subtle, or gradual to be noticed > imperceptibly adv

imperfect adj

1 having faults or errors

2 not complete

3 (grammar) denoting a tense of verbs describing continuous, incomplete, or repeated past actions

► n

4 (grammar) the imperfect tense > imperfectly adv

imperfection n

1 the state of being imperfect

2 a fault or defect imperial adj

1 of an empire, emperor, or empress

◇ SYNONYMS: royal, regal, kingly, queenly, princely, sovereign, majestic, monarchical

2 majestic; commanding

3 exercising supreme authority; imperious

4 (of weights or measures) conforming to the standards of a system formerly official in Great Britain

► n

5 a wine bottle holding the equivalent of eight normal bottles imperialism n

1 the policy or practice of extending a country's influence over other territories by conquest, colonization, or economic domination

2 an imperial system, authority, or government > imperialist adj, n

> imperialistic adj imperil vb -rilling, -rilled (US) -riling, -riled (formal) to put in danger imperious adj used to being obeyed; domineering > imperiously adv

impersonal adj

1 without reference to any individual person; objective: Buddhism began as a very impersonal doctrine

2 without human warmth or sympathy: an impersonal manner

3 (grammar)

A (of a verb) having no subject, as in it is raining

B (of a pronoun) not referring to a person > impersonality n

> impersonally adv

impersonate vb -ating, -ated

1 to pretend to be (another person)

2 to imitate the character or mannerisms of (another person) for entertainment > impersonation n > impersonator n impertinent adj disrespectful or rude > impertinence n

imperturbable adj not easily upset; calm > imperturbability n > imperturbably adv

impervious adj

1 not letting water, etc. through

2 not influenced by a feeling, argument, etc.

impetigo (imp-it-tie-go) n a contagious skin disease causing spots or pimples impetuous adj

1 acting without consideration

2 done rashly or hastily > impetuosity n

impetus (imp-it-uss) n, pl -tuses

1 an incentive or impulse

◇ SYNONYMS: incentive, push, spur, motivation, impulse, stimulus, catalyst, goad

2 (physics) the force that starts a body moving or that tends to resist changes in its speed or direction once it is moving

◇ SYNONYMS: force, power, energy, momentum impinge vb -pinging, -pinged (often foll. by on) to encroach (on), affect or restrict: international economic forces impinging on the local economy > impingement n

impious (imp-e-uss) adj showing a lack of respect or religious reverence impish adj mischievous > impishness n

implacable adj
1 incapable of being appeased or pacified 2 unyielding > implacability n > implacably adv

implant vb
1 to fix firmly in the mind: to implant sound moral principles ◇ SYNONYMS: instil, infuse, inculcate 2 to plant or embed ◇ SYNONYMS: insert, fix, graft
3 (surgery) to graft or insert (a tissue or hormone) into the body
► n
4 anything implanted in the body, such as a tissue graft > implantation n

implement vb
1 to carry out (instructions, etc.): she refused to implement the agreed plan ◇ SYNONYMS: carry out, effect, carry through, complete, apply, perform, realize, fulfil
► n
2 a tool or other piece of equipment ◇ SYNONYMS: tool, machine, device, instrument, appliance, apparatus, gadget, utensil > implementation n

implicate vb -cating, -cated

1 to show (someone) to be involved, esp. in a crime

◇ SYNONYMS: incriminate, involve, embroil, entangle, inculcate (formal)

2 to imply implication n

1 something that is suggested or implied

◇ SYNONYMS: suggestion, hint, inference, meaning, significance, presumption, overtone, innuendo

2 an act or instance of suggesting, implying, or being implied

◇ SYNONYMS: suggestion, hint, inference, meaning, significance, presumption, overtone, innuendo

3 a probable consequence (of something)

◇ SYNONYMS: consequence, result, development, upshot implicit adj

1 expressed indirectly: an implicit agreement

◇ SYNONYMS: implied, understood, suggested, hinted at, taken for granted, unspoken, inferred, tacit

2 absolute and unquestioning: implicit trust

◇ SYNONYMS: absolute, full, complete, firm, fixed, constant, utter, outright

3 contained in, although not stated openly: this view of the mind was implicit in all his work

◇ SYNONYMS: inherent, underlying, intrinsic, latent, ingrained, inbuilt > implicitly adv

implode vb -ploding, -ploded to collapse inwardsimplore vb -ploring, -plored to beg desperatelyimply vb -plies, -plying, -plied

1 to express or indicate by a hint; suggest

◇ SYNONYMS: suggest, hint, insinuate, indicate, intimate, signify

2 to suggest or involve as a necessary consequence: a spending commitment implies a corresponding tax imposition ◇ SYNONYMS: involve, mean, entail, require, indicate, point to, signify, presuppose impolitic adj ill-advised; unwise imponderable adj

1 unable to be weighed or assessed

► n

2 something difficult or impossible to assess import vb

1 to bring in (goods) from another country

◇ SYNONYMS: bring in, buy in, ship in, introduce

2 (formal) to signify; mean: to import doom

► n

3 something imported

4 (formal) importance: his new work is of great import

◇ SYNONYMS: significance, concern, value, weight, consequence, substance, moment, magnitude

5 meaning

◇ SYNONYMS: meaning, implication, significance, sense, intention, substance, drift, thrust

6 (informal) a sportsperson who is not native to the area where they play > importer n > importation n

important adj

1 of great significance, value, or consequence

◇ SYNONYMS: significant, critical, substantial, urgent, serious, far-reaching, momentous, seminal

2 of social significance: the second most important person in the government

◇ SYNONYMS: powerful, prominent, commanding, dominant, influential, eminent, high-ranking, authoritative, skookum (Canad)

3 of great concern: it was important to me to know

- > importance n
- > importantly adv

importunate adj (formal) persistent or demanding importune vb -tuning, -tuned (formal) to harass with persistent requests > importunity n

impose vb -posing, -posed

1 to establish (a rule, condition, etc.) as something to be obeyed or complied with ◇ SYNONYMS impose something on someone: levy, introduce, charge, establish, fix, institute, decree, ordain (formal)

2 to force (oneself) on others

3 (printing) to arrange (pages) in the correct order for printing

4 to pass off (something) deceptively on someone

5 impose on to take advantage of (a person or quality): she imposed on his kindness imposing adj grand or impressive: an imposing building

◇ SYNONYMS: impressive, striking, grand, powerful, commanding, awesome, majestic, dignified imposition n

1 the act of imposing

◇ SYNONYMS: application, introduction, levying

2 something imposed, esp. unfairly on someone

◇ SYNONYMS: intrusion, liberty, presumption

3 the arrangement of pages for printing

4 (old-fashioned) a task set as a school punishment impossibility n, pl -ties

1 the state or quality of being impossible

2 something that is impossible impossible adj

1 not able to be done or to happen

◇ SYNONYMS: not possible, out of the question, impracticable, unfeasible

2 absurd or unreasonable

◇ SYNONYMS: absurd, crazy (informal), ridiculous, outrageous, ludicrous, unreasonable, preposterous, farcical

3 (informal) intolerable or outrageous: those children are impossible > impossibly adv

impostor or imposter n a person who cheats or swindles by pretending to be someone else impotent (imp-a-tent) adj

1 not having the power to influence people or events

2 (of a man) incapable of sexual intercourse > impotence n

impound vb

1 to take legal possession of; confiscate

2 to confine (an animal) in a pound impoverish vb

1 to make (someone) poor

◇ SYNONYMS: bankrupt, ruin, beggar, break

2 weaken the quality of something ◇ SYNONYMS: deplete, drain, exhaust, diminish, use up, sap, wear out, reduce > impoverished adj

> impoverishment n

impracticable adj

1 not able to be put into practice

2 unsuitable for a desired use > impracticability n

impractical adj

1 not sensible or workable: the use of force was viewed as impractical 2 not having practical skills > impracticality n imprecation n (formal) a curse > imprecate vb

impregnable adj

1 unable to be broken into or taken by force: an impregnable fortress 2 unable to be affected or overcome: a confident, impregnable person > impregnability n impregnate vb -nating, -nated

1 to saturate, soak, or fill throughout 2 to make pregnant 3 to imbue or permeate: the party has been impregnated with an enthusiasm for reform > impregnation n

impresario n, pl -sarios a person who runs theatre performances, concerts, etc.

impress vb

1 to make a strong, lasting, or favourable impression on: he was impressed by the standard of play ◇ SYNONYMS: excite, move, strike, touch, affect, inspire, amaze, overcome 2 to stress or emphasize 3 to imprint or stamp by pressure: a pattern impressed in paint on the rock
► n
4 an impressing

5 a mark produced by impressing > impressible adj

impression n

1 an effect produced in the mind by a person or thing: she was keen to create a relaxed impression

◇ SYNONYMS: effect, influence, impact

2 a vague idea or belief: he only had a vague impression of how it worked

◇ SYNONYMS: idea, feeling, thought, sense, view, assessment, judgment, reaction

3 a strong, favourable, or remarkable effect

4 an impersonation for entertainment

◇ SYNONYMS: imitation, parody, impersonation, send-up (Brit informal), takeoff (informal)

5 an imprint or mark produced by pressing

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, imprint, stamp, outline, hollow, dent, indentation

6 (printing) the number of copies of a publication printed at one time impressionable adj easily impressed or influenced: the promotion of smoking to the impressionable young

> impressionability n

Impressionism n a style of painting developed in 19th-century France, with the aim of reproducing the immediate impression or mood of things, esp. the effects of light and atmosphere, rather than form or structure impressive adj capable of impressing, esp. by size, magnificence, or importance ◇ SYNONYMS: grand, striking, splendid, good, great (informal), fine, powerful, exciting > impressively adv

imprimatur (imp-rim-ah-ter) n official approval for something to be printed, usually given by the Roman Catholic Church imprint n

1 a mark or impression produced by pressing, printing, or stamping

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, impression, stamp, indentation

2 the publisher's name and address, often with the date of publication, printed on the title page of a book

► vb

3 to produce (a mark) by pressing, printing, or stamping: T-shirts imprinted with slogans

◇ SYNONYMS: engrave, print, stamp, impress, etch, emboss

4 to establish firmly; impress: he couldn't dislodge the images imprinted on his brain imprison vb to confine in or as if in prison

◇ SYNONYMS: jail, confine, detain, lock up, put away, intern, incarcerate, send down (informal) > imprisonment n improbable adj not likely or probable ◇ SYNONYMS: doubtful, unlikely, dubious, questionable, fanciful, far-fetched, implausible > improbability n

> improbably adv

impromptu adj

1 without planning or preparation; improvised

► adv

2 in a spontaneous or improvised way: he spoke impromptu

► n

3 a short piece of instrumental music resembling improvisation

4 something that is impromptu improper adj

1 indecent

◇ SYNONYMS: indecent, vulgar, suggestive, unseemly, untoward, risqué, smutty, unbecoming

2 irregular or incorrect > improperly adv

improper fraction n a fraction in which the numerator is greater than the denominator, as $\frac{7}{6}$ impropriety (imp-roe-pry-a-tee) n, pl -ties (formal) unsuitable or slightly improper behaviour improve vb -proving, -proved

1 to make or become better in quality

◇ SYNONYMS: enhance, better, add to, upgrade, touch up, ameliorate

2 improve on to achieve a better standard or quality in comparison with: both had improved on their previous performance

> improvable adj

improvement n

1 the act of improving or the state of being improved

◇ SYNONYMS: enhancement, advancement, betterment

2 a change that makes something better or adds to its value: home improvements

◇ SYNONYMS: advance, development, progress, recovery, upswing

3 (Austral & NZ) a building on a piece of land, adding to its value improvident adj

1 not providing for the future

2 incautious or rash > improvidence n

improvise vb -vising, -vised

1 to do or make quickly from whatever is available, without previous planning

◇ SYNONYMS: devise, contrive, concoct, throw together

2 to make up (a piece of music, speech, etc.) as one goes along ◇ SYNONYMS: ad-lib, invent, busk, wing it (informal), play it by ear (informal), extemporize, speak off the cuff (informal) > improvisation n

impudent adj impertinent or insolent > impudence n > impudently adv

impugn (imp-yoon) vb (formal) to challenge or attack as false > impugnment n

impulse n
1 a sudden desire or whim ◇ SYNONYMS: urge, longing, wish, notion, yearning, inclination, itch, whim
2 an instinctive drive; urge: the mothering impulse ◇ SYNONYMS: urge, longing, wish, notion, yearning, inclination, itch, whim
3 (physics)
A the product of a force acting on a body and the time for which it acts
B the change in the momentum of a body as a result of a force acting upon it 4 (physiol) a stimulus transmitted in a nerve or muscle impulsive adj

1 tending to act without thinking first: an impulsive man 2 done without thinking first 3 forceful or impelling impunity (imp-yoon-it-ee) n with impunity without punishment or unpleasant consequences impure adj

1 having unwanted substances mixed in 2 immoral or obscene: impure thoughts 3 dirty or unclean

impurity n, pl -ties

1 an impure element or thing: impurities in the water

2 the quality of being impure impute vb -puting, -puted

1 to attribute (blame or a crime) to a person

2 to attribute to a source or cause: I impute your success to nepotism > imputation n

in prep

1 inside; within: in the room

2 at a place where there is: in the shade

3 indicating a state, situation, or condition: in silence

4 when (a period of time) has elapsed: come back in one year

5 using: written in code

6 wearing: the man in the blue suit

7 with regard to (a specified activity or occupation): in journalism

8 while performing the action of: in crossing the street he was run over

9 having as purpose: in honour of the president

10 (of certain animals) pregnant with: in calf

11 into: he fell in the water

12 have it in one to have the ability (to do something)

13 in that or in so far as because or to the extent that: it was of great help in that it gave me more confidence

► adv

14 in or into a particular place; indoors: come in 15 at one's home or place of work: he's not in at the moment

16 in office or power: the Conservatives got in at the last election

17 so as to enclose: block in 18 (in certain games) so as to take one's turn of the play: you have to get the other side out before you go in

19 (Brit) (of a fire) alight

20 (in combination) indicating prolonged activity, esp. by a large number: teach-in; sit-in

21 have got it in for (informal) to wish or intend harm towards 22 in for about to experience (something, esp. something unpleasant): they're in for a shock

23 in on acquainted with or sharing in: I was in on all his plans

24 in with friendly with

► adj

25 fashionable; modish: the in thing to do

► n

26 ins and outs the detailed points or facts (of a situation) inability n the fact of not being able to do something inaccessible adj

1 impossible or very difficult to reach

2 unable to be used or seen: his works are inaccessible to English-speaking readers

3 difficult to understand or appreciate: Webern's music is still considered inaccessible > inaccessibility n

inaccuracy n, pl -cies

1 lack of accuracy; imprecision

2 an error or mistake > inaccurate adj inadequacy n, pl -cies

1 lack or shortage

◇ SYNONYMS: shortage, poverty, dearth, paucity (formal), insufficiency, meagreness, scantiness

2 the state of being or feeling inferior

◇ SYNONYMS: incompetence, inability, deficiency, incapacity, ineffectiveness

3 a weakness or failing: their own failures or inadequacies

◇ SYNONYMS: shortcoming, failing, weakness, defect, imperfection inadequate adj

1 not enough; insufficient

◇ SYNONYMS: insufficient, meagre, poor, lacking, scant, sparse, sketchy

2 not good enough

◇ SYNONYMS: incapable, incompetent, faulty, deficient, unqualified, not up to scratch (informal) > inadequately adv

inadvertent adj done unintentionally > inadvertence n

> inadvertently adv

inalienable adj not able to be taken away or transferred to another: the inalienable rights of the citizen

inane adj senseless or silly: inane remarks > inanity n

inanimate adj lacking the qualities of living beings: inanimate objects inappropriate adj not suitable or proper > inappropriately adv

inarticulate adj unable to express oneself clearly or well inasmuch as conj 1 since; because 2 in so far as inaugural adj

1 of or for an inauguration ◇ SYNONYMS: first, opening, initial, maiden, introductory ► n
2 (US) a speech made at an inauguration inaugurate vb -rating, -rated 1 to open or celebrate the first public use of ceremonially: the newest electrified line was inaugurated today

2 to formally establish (a new leader) in office 3 to begin officially or formally > inauguration n > inaugurator n

inauspicious adj unlucky; suggesting an unfavourable outcome inauthentic adj not genuine or real inboard adj

1 (of a boat's motor or engine) situated within the hull

2 situated close to the fuselage of an aircraft

► adv

3 within the sides of, or towards the centre of, a vessel or aircraft inborn adj existing from birth: an inborn sense of optimism inbox n a folder in a computer mailbox in which incoming messages are stored inbred adj

1 produced as a result of inbreeding

2 inborn or ingrained: inbred good manners inbreeding n breeding from closely related individuals inbuilt adj (of a quality or feeling) present from the beginning: an inbuilt prejudice

Inc. (US & Austral) (of a company) incorporated incalculable adj impossible to estimate or predict > incalculability n

in camera adv in private session: the proceedings were held in camera incandescent adj

1 glowing with heat

2 (of artificial light) produced by a glowing filament > incandescence n

incantation n

1 ritual chanting of magic words or sounds

2 a magic spell > incantatory adj

incapable adj

1 helpless: drunk and incapable

2 incapable of lacking the ability to incapacitate vb -tating, -tated to deprive (a person) of strength, power, or ability; disable incapacity n, pl -ties

1 lack of power, strength, or ability

2 (law) legal disqualification or ineligibility incarcerate vb -rating, -rated (formal) to confine or imprison > incarceration n

incarnate adj

1 possessing human form: a devil incarnate

2 personified or typified: stupidity incarnate

► vb -nating, -nated

3 to give a bodily or concrete form to 4 to be representative or typical of incarnation n

- 1 the act of embodying or state of being embodied in human form
- 2 a person or thing that typifies some quality or idea
- ◇ SYNONYMS: embodiment, manifestation, epitome, type, personification, avatar

Incarnation n (Christian theol) God's coming to earth in human form as Jesus Christ incendiary (in-send-ya-ree) adj

- 1 (of bombs, etc.) designed to cause fires
- 2 tending to create strife or violence
- 3 relating to the illegal burning of property or goods
- n, pl -aries
- 4 a bomb that is designed to start fires
- 5 a person who illegally sets fire to property or goods
- > incendiarism n

incense¹ n an aromatic substance burnt for its fragrant odour, esp. in religious ceremonies incense² vb -censing, -censed to make very angry

- ◇ SYNONYMS: anger, infuriate, enrage, irritate, madden, inflame, rile (informal), make your blood boil (informal)
- > incensed adj

incentive n

- 1 something that encourages effort or action
- ◇ SYNONYMS: inducement, encouragement, spur, lure, bait, motivation, carrot (informal), stimulus
- 2 an additional payment made to employees to increase production
- adj
- 3 encouraging greater effort: an incentive scheme for workers inception n the beginning of a project incessant adj never stopping > incessantly adv

incest n sexual intercourse between two people who are too closely related to marry > incestuous adj

inch n

1 a unit of length equal to one twelfth of a foot (2.54cm)

2 (meteorol) the amount of rain or snow that would cover a surface to a depth of one inch

3 a very small distance, degree, or amount: neither side was prepared to give an inch

4 every inch in every way: she arrived looking every inch a star

5 inch by inch gradually

6 within an inch of one's life almost to death

► vb

7 to move very slowly or gradually: I inched my way to the bar incidence n

1 extent or frequency of occurrence: the rising incidence of car fires

2 (physics) the arrival of a beam of light or particles at a surface

3 (geom) the partial overlapping of two figures or a figure and a line incident n

1 an occurrence or event, esp. a minor one

◇ SYNONYMS: happening, event, affair, business, fact, matter, occasion, episode

2 a relatively insignificant event that might have serious consequences

3 a public disturbance

◇ SYNONYMS: disturbance, scene, clash, disorder, confrontation, brawl, fracas, commotion

► adj

4 (physics) (of a beam of light or particles) arriving at or striking a surface

5 incident to (formal) likely to occur in connection with: the dangers are incident to a police officer's job

incidental adj

1 happening in connection with or resulting from something more important

2 secondary or minor: incidental expenses

> incidentally adv

incidental music n background music for a film or play incinerate vb -ating, -ated to burn up completely > incineration n

incinerator n a furnace for burning rubbish incipient adj (formal) just starting to be or happen incise vb -cising, -cised to cut into with a sharp tool incision n a cut, esp. one made during a surgical operation incisive adj direct and forceful: witty and incisive comments incisor n a sharp cutting tooth at the front of the mouth incite vb -citing, -cited to stir up or provoke to action > incitement n

incivility n, pl -ties

1 rudeness

2 an impolite act or remark inclement adj (formal) (of weather) stormy or severe > inclemency n

inclination n

1 a liking, tendency, or preference: he showed no inclination to change his routine

◇ SYNONYMS: desire, longing, aspiration, craving, hankering

2 the degree of slope from a horizontal or vertical plane

3 a slope or slant

4 (surveying) the angular distance of the horizon below the plane of observation incline vb -clining, -clined

1 to veer from a vertical or horizontal plane; slope or slant

2 to have or cause to have a certain tendency or disposition: that does not incline me to think that you are right

◇ SYNONYMS: predispose, influence, persuade, prejudice, sway, dispose

3 to bend or lower (part of the body, esp. the head)

4 incline one's ear to listen favourably

► n

5 an inclined surface or slope

◇ SYNONYMS: slope, rise, dip, grade, descent, ascent, gradient > inclined adj

include vb -cluding, -cluded

1 to have as part of the whole

◇ SYNONYMS: contain, involve, incorporate, cover, consist of, take in, embrace, comprise

2 to put in as part of a set, group, or category

◇ SYNONYMS: add, enter, put in, insert inclusion n

1 an including or being included

◇ SYNONYMS: addition, incorporation, introduction, insertion

2 something included inclusive adj

1 including everything: capital inclusive of profit

◇ SYNONYMS: comprehensive, general, global, sweeping, blanket, umbrella, across-the-board, all-embracing

2 including the limits specified: Monday to Friday inclusive

3 comprehensive

◇ SYNONYMS: comprehensive, general, global, sweeping, blanket, umbrella, across-the-board, all-embracing incognito (in-kog-nee-toe) adv, adj

1 under an assumed name or appearance

► n, pl -tos

2 a false identity

3 a person who is incognito incoherent adj

1 unable to express oneself clearly

2 not logically connected or ordered: an incoherent argument > incoherence n

income n the total amount of money earned from work or obtained from other sources over a given period of time

◇ SYNONYMS: revenue, earnings, pay, returns, profits, wages, yield, proceeds income support n (chiefly Brit) an allowance paid to people with a very low income income tax n a personal tax levied on annual income incoming adj

1 about to arrive

◇ SYNONYMS: arriving, landing, approaching, entering, returning, homeward

2 about to come into office

◇ SYNONYMS: new incommod vb -moding, -moded (formal) to bother, disturb, or inconvenience incommunicado adv, adj not allowed to communicate with other people, for instance while in solitary confinement incomparable adj so excellent as to be beyond or above comparison > incomparably adv

incompatible adj not able to exist together in harmony; conflicting or inconsistent ◇ SYNONYMS: inconsistent, conflicting, contradictory, incongruous, unsuited, mismatched > incompatibility n

incompetent adj

1 not having the necessary ability or skill to do something

◇ SYNONYMS: inept, useless (informal), incapable, floundering, bungling, unfit, ineffectual, inexperienced

2 (law) not legally qualified: an incompetent witness

► n

3 an incompetent person > incompetence n inconceivable adj so unlikely to be true as to be unthinkable > inconceivability n inconclusive adj not giving a final decision or result incongruous adj out of place; inappropriate: an incongruous figure among the tourists > incongruously adv

> incongruity n

inconsequential or inconsequent adj

1 unimportant or insignificant

2 not following logically as a consequence > inconsequentially adv

inconsiderable adj

1 not worth considering; insignificant

2 not inconsiderable fairly large: he gets not inconsiderable royalties from his musicals > inconsiderably adv

inconstant adj

1 liable to change one's loyalties or opinions

2 variable: their household income is inconstant > inconstancy n

incontinent adj

1 unable to control the bladder and bowels

2 lacking self-restraint > incontinence n incontrovertible adj absolutely certain; undeniable > incontrovertibly adv

inconvenience n

1 a state or instance of trouble or difficulty

◇ SYNONYMS: trouble, difficulty, bother, fuss, disadvantage, disturbance, disruption, nuisance, uphill (S African)

► vb -iencing, -ienced

2 to cause trouble or difficulty to (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: trouble, bother, disturb, upset, disrupt, put out, discommode > inconvenient adj

incorporate vb -rating, -rated

1 to include or be included as part of a larger unit ◇ SYNONYMS: include, contain, take in, embrace, integrate, encompass, assimilate, comprise of

2 to form a united whole or mass

◇ SYNONYMS: blend, combine, compound, mingle

3 to form into a corporation

► adj

4 incorporated > incorporated adj

> incorporation n

incorporeal (in-kore-pore-ee-al) adj without material form, substance, or existence incorrigible adj (of a person or behaviour) beyond correction or reform;

incurably bad

> incorrigibility n

> incorrigibly adv

incorruptible adj

1 too honest to be bribed or corrupted

2 not prone to decay or disintegration > incorruptibility n

increase vb -creasing, -creased

1 to make or become greater in size, degree, or frequency

◇ SYNONYMS: raise, extend, boost, expand, develop, advance, strengthen, widen

► n

2 a rise in size, degree, or frequency

◇ SYNONYMS: growth, rise, development, gain, expansion, extension, proliferation, enlargement

3 the amount by which something increases

◇ SYNONYMS: growth, rise, development, gain, expansion, extension, proliferation, enlargement

4 on the increase becoming more common > increasingly adv

incredible adj

1 unbelievable

◇ SYNONYMS: unbelievable, unthinkable, improbable, inconceivable, preposterous, unconvincing, unimaginable, far-fetched

2 (informal) marvellous; amazing

◇ SYNONYMS: amazing, wonderful, stunning (informal), extraordinary, overwhelming, astonishing, staggering, sensational (informal) > incredibility n

> incredibly adv

incredulity n unwillingness to believe incredulous adj not prepared or willing to believe something increment n

1 the amount by which something increases

2 a regular salary increase

3 (maths) a small positive or negative change in a variable or function > incremental adj incriminate vb -nating, -nated

1 to make (someone) seem guilty of a crime

2 to charge (someone) with a crime > incrimination n

> incriminatory adj

incubate (in-cube-ate) vb -bating, -bated

1 (of birds) to hatch (eggs) by sitting on them

2 to cause (bacteria) to develop, esp. in an incubator or culture medium

3 (of disease germs) to remain inactive in an animal or human before causing disease

4 to develop gradually > incubation n

incubator n

1 (med) a heated enclosed apparatus for rearing premature babies

2 an apparatus for hatching birds' eggs or growing bacterial cultures incubus (in-cube-uss) n, pl -bi or -buses

1 a demon believed in folklore to have sexual intercourse with sleeping women

2 a nightmarish burden or worry inculcate vb -cating, -cated to fix in someone's mind by constant repetition > inculcation n

incumbency n, pl -cies the office, duty, or tenure of an incumbent incumbent (formal) n

1 a person who holds a particular office or position

◇ SYNONYMS: holder, keeper, bearer

► adj

2 morally binding as a duty: it is incumbent on cricketers to respect the umpire's impartiality

◇ SYNONYMS: obligatory, required, necessary, essential, binding, compulsory, mandatory, imperative incur vb -curring, -curred to bring (something undesirable) upon oneself

◇ SYNONYMS: sustain, experience, suffer, gain, earn, collect, meet with, provoke incurable adj

1 not able to be cured: an incurable tumour

2 not able to be changed: he is an incurable romantic

► n

3 a person with an incurable disease > incurability n

> incurably adv

incurious adj showing no curiosity or interest > incuriously adv

incursion n

1 a sudden or brief invasion

2 an inroad or encroachment: a successful incursion into the American book-shop market

> incursive adj

indebted adj

1 owing gratitude for help or favours

2 owing money > indebtedness n

indecent adj

1 morally or sexually offensive

◇ SYNONYMS: obscene, lewd, dirty, inappropriate, rude, crude, filthy, improper

2 unseemly or improper: indecent haste

◇ SYNONYMS: unbecoming, unsuitable, vulgar, unseemly, undignified, indecorous > indecently n

> indecently adv

indecent assault n a sexual attack which does not include rape indecent exposure n the crime of showing of one's genitals in public indecipherable adj impossible to read indeed adv

1 certainly; actually: indeed, the sea featured heavily in his poems

◇ SYNONYMS: certainly, yes, definitely, surely, truly, undoubtedly, without doubt, indisputably

2 truly, very: it has become a dangerous place indeed

3 in fact; what is more: it is necessary, indeed indispensable

◇ SYNONYMS: really, actually, in fact, certainly, genuinely, in truth, in actuality

► interj

4 an expression of doubt or surprise indefatigable adj never getting tired or giving up: an indefatigable organizer > indefatigably adv

indefensible adj

1 (of behaviour or statements) unable to be justified or supported

2 (of places or buildings) impossible to defend against attack > indefensibility n

indefinite adj

1 without exact limits: an indefinite number

2 vague or unclear > indefinitely adv

indefinite article n (grammar) either of the words 'a' or 'an' indelible adj

1 impossible to erase or remove 2 making indelible marks: indelible ink > indelibly adv

indelicate adj

1 offensive, embarrassing, or tasteless 2 coarse, crude, or rough > indelicacy n

indemnify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to secure against loss, damage, or liability 2 to compensate for loss or damage > indemnification n indemnity n, pl -ties

1 insurance against loss or damage 2 compensation for loss or damage 3 legal exemption from penalties incurred indent vb

1 to start (a line of text) or position (a block of text) further from the margin than the main part of the text 2 to order (goods) using a special order form 3 to notch (an edge or border) 4 to write out (a document) in duplicate 5 to bind (an apprentice) by indenture
► n

6 (chiefly Brit) an official order for goods, esp. foreign merchandise indentation n

1 a hollow, notch, or cut, as on an edge or on a coastline

2 an indenting or being indented

3 Also: indention the leaving of space or the amount of space left between a margin and the start of an indented line indenture n

1 a contract, esp. one binding an apprentice to his or her employer

► vb -turing, -tured

2 to bind (an apprentice) by indenture

3 to enter into an agreement by indenture independent adj

1 free from the influence or control of others

◇ SYNONYMS: separate, unattached, uncontrolled, unconstrained

2 not dependent on anything else for function or validity

3 not relying on the support, esp. financial support, of others

◇ SYNONYMS: self-sufficient, free, liberated, self-contained, self-reliant, self-supporting

4 capable of acting for oneself or on one's own

◇ SYNONYMS: self-governing, free, autonomous, liberated, sovereign, self-determining, nonaligned

5 of or having a private income large enough to enable one to live without working: independent means

6 (maths) (of a variable) not dependent on another variable

► n

7 an independent person or thing

8 a politician who does not represent any political party > independence n > independently adv

in-depth adj detailed or thorough: an in-depth analysis indescribable adj too intense or extreme for words > indescribably adv

indeterminate adj

1 uncertain in extent, amount, or nature

2 left doubtful; inconclusive: an indeterminate reply

3 (maths)

A having no numerical meaning, as ∞

B (of an equation) having more than one variable and an unlimited number of solutions > indeterminable adj > indeterminacy n

index n, pl -dexes or -dices

1 an alphabetical list of names or subjects dealt with in a book, indicating where they are referred to

2 a file or catalogue in a library which enables a book or reference to be found

3 a number indicating the level of wages or prices as compared with some standard value

4 an indication or sign: national birth rate was once an index of military power

5 (maths)

A same as exponent

B a superscript number placed to the left of a radical sign indicating the root to be extracted: the index of $\sqrt[3]{8}$ is 3

6 a number or ratio indicating a specific characteristic or property: refractive index

► vb

7 to put an index in (a book)

8 to enter (a word or item) in an index

9 to make index-linked index finger n the finger next to the thumb. Also called: forefinger index-linked adj (of pensions, wages, or interest rates) rising and falling in line with the cost of living

Indian adj

1 of India

2 of the original inhabitants of the American continent

► n

3 a person from India

4 a person descended from the original inhabitants of the American continent

Indian summer n

1 a period of warm sunny weather in autumn

2 a period of tranquillity or of renewed productivity towards the end of a person's life or career indicate vb -cating, -cated

1 to be or give a sign or symptom of: to concede 18 goals in 7 games indicates a serious malaise

◇ SYNONYMS: show, suggest, reveal, display, demonstrate, point to, imply, manifest, flag up

2 to point out or show

◇ SYNONYMS: point to, point out, specify, gesture towards, designate

3 to state briefly

4 to switch on the indicators in a motor vehicle to show that one is changing direction

5 (of measuring instruments) to show a reading of ◇ SYNONYMS: register, show, record, read, express, display, demonstrate 6 (usually passive) to recommend or require: surgery seems to be indicated for this patient > indication n

indicative (in-dik-a-tiv) adj

1 indicative of suggesting: the symptoms aren't indicative of anything serious

2 (grammar) denoting a mood of verbs used to make a statement

► n

3 (grammar) the indicative mood indicator n

1 something that acts as a sign or indication: an indicator of the moral decline of our society

◇ SYNONYMS: sign, mark, measure, guide, signal, symbol, meter, gauge

2 a device for indicating that a motor vehicle is about to turn left or right, esp. two pairs of lights that flash

3 an instrument, such as a gauge, that registers or measures something

4 (chem) a substance used to indicate the completion of a chemical reaction, usually by a change of colour indict (in-dite) vb (criminal law) to charge (a person) formally with a crime, esp. in writing

◇ SYNONYMS: charge, accuse, prosecute, summon, impeach, arraign > indictable adj

indictment n

1 (criminal law) a formal charge of crime, esp. in writing: the indictment contained three similar charges against each of the defendants

◇ SYNONYMS: charge, allegation, prosecution, accusation, impeachment, summons, arraignment

2 a serious criticism: a scathing indictment of faith healing indie n (informal) an independent record or film company indifference n

1 lack of concern or interest: elite indifference to mass opinion

◇ SYNONYMS: disregard, apathy, negligence, detachment, coolness, coldness, nonchalance, aloofness

2 lack of importance: a matter of indifference to me indifferent adj

1 showing no concern or interest: he was indifferent to politics

◇ SYNONYMS: unconcerned, detached, cold, cool, callous, aloof, unmoved, unsympathetic

2 of only average standard or quality

◇ SYNONYMS: mediocre, ordinary, moderate, so-so (informal), passable, undistinguished, no great shakes (informal), half-pie (NZ informal)

3 not at all good: she had starred in several very indifferent movies

4 unimportant

5 showing or having no preferences indigenous (in-dij-in-uss) adj originating or occurring naturally in a country or area: the indigenous population is under threat indigent adj (formal) so poor as to lack even necessities: the indigent widow of a fellow writer

> indigence n

indigestible adj difficult or impossible to digest > indigestibility n

indigestion n difficulty in digesting food, accompanied by stomach pain, heartburn, and belching indignant adj feeling or showing indignation > indignantly adv

indignation n anger aroused by something felt to be unfair or wrong

◇ SYNONYMS: resentment, anger, rage, exasperation, pique, umbrage indignity n, pl -ties embarrassing or humiliating treatment indigo adj

1 deep violet-blue

► n, pl -gos or -goes

2 a dye of this colour originally obtained from plants indirect adj

1 done or caused by someone or something else: indirect benefits

◇ SYNONYMS: related, secondary, subsidiary, incidental, unintended

2 not going in a direct course or line: he took the indirect route home

◇ SYNONYMS: circuitous, roundabout, curving, wandering, rambling, deviant (old-fashioned), meandering, tortuous

3 not coming straight to the point: an indirect question > indirectly adv

indirect object n (grammar) the person or thing indirectly affected by the action of a verb and its direct object, as John in the sentence I bought John a newspaper

indirect tax n a tax levied on goods or services which is paid indirectly by being added to the price indiscreet adj incautious or tactless in revealing secrets indiscretion n

1 lack of discretion

2 an indiscreet act or remark indiscriminate adj lacking discrimination or careful choice: an indiscriminate bombing campaign > indiscriminately adv

> indiscrimination n indispensable adj absolutely necessary: an indispensable guide for any traveller

◇ SYNONYMS: essential, necessary, needed, key, vital, crucial (informal), imperative, requisite > indispensability n indisposed adj

1 sick or ill

2 unwilling > indisposition n indisputable adj beyond doubt > indisputably adv

indissoluble adj permanent: joining a political party is not an indissoluble marriage indium n (chem) a rare soft silvery metallic element. SYMBOL: In individual adj

1 of, relating to, or meant for a single person or thing: small sums from individual donors

◇ SYNONYMS: separate, independent, isolated, lone, solitary

2 separate or distinct from others of its kind: please mark the individual pages

3 characterized by unusual and striking qualities

◇ SYNONYMS: unique, special, fresh, novel, exclusive, singular, idiosyncratic, unorthodox

► n

4 a single person, esp. when regarded as distinct from others: respect for the individual

◇ SYNONYMS: person, being, human, unit, character (informal), soul, creature

5 (informal) a person: a most annoying individual

6 (biol) a single animal or plant, esp. as distinct from a species > individually adv

individualism n

- 1 the principle of leading one's life in one's own way
- 2 same as laissez faire
- 3 egotism
- > individualist n
- > individualistic adj

individuality n, pl -ties

- 1 distinctive or unique character or personality: a house of great individuality
- 2 the qualities that distinguish one person or thing from another
- 3 a separate existence

indoctrinate vb -nating, -nated to teach (someone) systematically to accept a doctrine or opinion uncritically

- > indoctrination n

Indo-European adj

- 1 of a family of languages spoken in most of Europe and much of Asia, including English, Russian, and Hindi
- n
- 2 the Indo-European family of languages indolent adj lazy; idle

- > indolence n

indomitable adj too strong to be defeated or discouraged: an indomitable work ethic indoor adj situated, happening, or used inside a building: an indoor pool indoors adv, adj inside or into a building indubitable (in-dew-bit-a-bl) adj beyond doubt; definite > indubitably adv

induce vb -ducing, -duced

1 to persuade or use influence on ◇ SYNONYMS: persuade, encourage, influence, convince, urge, prompt, sway, entice

2 to cause or bring about ◇ SYNONYMS: cause, produce, create, effect, lead to, occasion (formal), generate, bring about

3 (med) to cause (labour) to begin by the use of drugs or other means

4 (logic, obsolete) to draw (a general conclusion) from particular instances

5 to produce (an electromotive force or electrical current) by induction

6 to transmit (magnetism) by induction > inducible adj

inducement n

1 something that encourages someone to do something

2 the act of inducing induct vb

1 to bring in formally or install in a job, rank, or position

2 to initiate in knowledge of (a group or profession): boys are inducted into the world of men inductance n the property of an electric circuit as a result of which an electromotive force is created by a change of current in the same or in a neighbouring circuit induction n

1 (logic) a process of reasoning by which a general conclusion is drawn from particular instances

2 (med) the process of inducing labour

3 the process by which electrical or magnetic properties are transferred, without physical contact, from one circuit or body to another

4 a formal introduction or entry into an office or position

5 (in an internal-combustion engine) the drawing in of mixed air and fuel from the carburettor to the cylinder > inductional adj

induction coil n a transformer for producing a high voltage from a low voltage. It consists of a soft-iron core, a primary coil of few turns, and a concentric secondary coil of many turns induction course n a training course to help familiarize someone with a new job inductive adj

1 (logic) of or using induction: inductive reasoning

2 of or operated by electrical or magnetic induction indulge vb -dulging, -dulged

1 (often foll. by in) to yield to or gratify (a whim or desire for): to indulge in new clothes

◇ SYNONYMS: gratify, satisfy, feed, give way to, yield to, pander to, gladden

2 to allow (someone) to have or do everything he or she wants: he had given her too much, indulged her in everything

◇ SYNONYMS: spoil, pamper, cosset, humour, give in to, coddle, mollycoddle, overindulge

3 to allow (oneself) the pleasure of something: he indulged himself

◇ SYNONYMS indulge yourself: treat yourself, splash out, spoil yourself, luxuriate in something, overindulge yourself

4 (informal) to take alcoholic drink indulgence n

1 something that is allowed because it gives pleasure; extravagance

◇ SYNONYMS: luxury, treat, extravagance, favour, privilege

2 the act of indulging oneself or someone else

3 liberal or tolerant treatment

4 something granted as a favour or privilege

◇ SYNONYMS: luxury, treat, extravagance, favour, privilege

5 (RC Church) a remission of the temporal punishment for sin after its guilt has been forgiven indulgent adj kind or lenient, often to excess > indulgently adv

industrial adj

1 of, used in, or employed in industry

2 with an economy relying heavily on industry: northern industrial cities industrial action n action, such as a strike or work-to-rule, by which workers complain about their conditions industrial estate n (Brit & Austral & NZ & S African) an area of land set aside for factories and warehouses industrialize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to develop industry on a large scale in (a country or region)

> industrialization or -lisation n industrial relations pl n the relations between management and workers industrious adj hard-working industry n, pl -tries

1 the work and process involved in manufacture: Japanese industry increased output considerably last year

◇ SYNONYMS: business, production, manufacturing, trade, commerce

2 a branch of commercial enterprise concerned with the manufacture of a specified product: the steel industry

◇ SYNONYMS: trade, world, business, service, line, field, profession, occupation

3 the quality of working hard ◇ SYNONYMS: diligence, effort, labour, hard work, trouble, activity, application, endeavour inebriate n

1 a person who is habitually drunk

► adj

2 drunk, esp. habitually > inebriation n

inebriated adj drunk inedible adj not fit to be eaten ineffable adj too great or intense to be expressed in words > ineffably adv

ineffectual adj having no effect or an inadequate effect: the raids were costly and ineffectual ineligible adj not qualified for or entitled to something ineluctable adj (formal) impossible to avoid: the ineluctable collapse of the coalition

inept adj

1 awkward, clumsy, or incompetent

2 not suitable or fitting; out of place > ineptitude n

inequitable adj unjust or unfair ineradicable adj impossible to remove or root out: an ineradicable sense of guilt inert adj

- 1 without the power to move or to resist motion
- 2 inactive or lifeless
- 3 having only a limited ability to react chemically inertia n

- 1 a feeling of unwillingness to do anything
 - 2 (physics) the tendency of a body to remain still or continue moving unless a force is applied to it
- > inertial adj

inescapable adj not able to be avoided inestimable adj too great to be calculated inevitable adj

- 1 unavoidable; sure to happen
- ◇ SYNONYMS: unavoidable, inescapable, inexorable, sure, certain, fixed, assured, fated
- 2 (informal) so regular as to be predictable: the inevitable guitar solo
- n
- 3 (often preceded by the) something that is unavoidable
- > inevitability n > inevitably adv

inexorable adj unable to be prevented from continuing or progressing: an inexorable trend > inexorably adv

inexpert adj lacking skill inexplicable adj impossible to explain > inexplicably adv

in extremis adv
1 in dire straits 2 at the point of death inextricable adj

1 impossible to escape from: an inextricable dilemma 2 impossible to disentangle or separate: an inextricable mass of twisted metal > inextricably adv

infallible adj
1 incapable of error
2 always successful: an infallible cure 3 (of the Pope, in Roman Catholic belief) incapable of error in setting forth matters of doctrine on faith and morals > infallibility n > infallibly adv

infamous (in-fam-uss) adj well-known for something bad ◇ SYNONYMS: notorious, ignominious, disreputable, ill-famed infamy n, pl -mies 1 the state of being infamous 2 an infamous act or event infancy n, pl -cies

1 the state or period of being an infant

2 an early stage of growth or development: the technology is still in its infancy

◇ SYNONYMS: beginnings, start, birth, roots, seeds, origins, dawn (literary), outset

3 (law) the state or period of being a minor infant n

1 a very young child; baby

◇ SYNONYMS: baby, child, babe, toddler, tot, bairn (Scot & N English), little (Austral informal), ankle-biter (Austral slang), tacker (Austral slang)

2 (law) same as minor

3 (Brit) a young schoolchild

► adj

4 of, relating to, or designed for young children: infant school

5 in an early stage of development: an infant democracy infanticide n

1 the act of killing an infant

2 a person who kills an infant infantile adj

1 childishly immature

2 of infants or infancy infantry n, pl -tries soldiers who fight on footinfatuated adj (often foll. by with) carried away by an intense and unreasoning passion for someoneinfect vb

1 to contaminate (a person or thing) with a germ or virus or its consequent disease

◇ SYNONYMS: contaminate

2 to taint or contaminate

◇ SYNONYMS: pollute, poison, corrupt, contaminate, taint, defile

3 to affect with an opinion or feeling as if by contagion: even she was infected by the excitement

◇ SYNONYMS: affect, move, upset, overcome, stir, disturb infection n

1 an infectious disease

◇ SYNONYMS: disease, condition, complaint, illness, virus, disorder, corruption, poison

2 contamination of a person or thing by a germ or virus or its consequent disease infectious adj

1 (of a disease) capable of being transmitted without actual contact ◇ SYNONYMS: catching, spreading, contagious, communicable, virulent, transmittable

2 causing or transmitting infection

3 spreading from one person to another: infectious laughter infer vb -ferring, -ferred

1 to conclude by reasoning from evidence; deduce

2 (not standard) to imply or suggest inference n

1 the act or process of reaching a conclusion by reasoning from evidence

2 an inferred conclusion or deduction inferior adj

1 lower in quality, quantity, or usefulness

◇ SYNONYMS: lower, minor, secondary, subsidiary, lesser, humble, subordinate, lowly

2 lower in rank, position, or status

- ◇ SYNONYMS: lower, minor, secondary, subsidiary, lesser, humble, subordinate, lowly 3 of poor quality 4 lower in position
5 (printing) (of a character) printed at the foot of an ordinary character
► n
6 a person inferior to another, esp. in rank ◇ SYNONYMS: underling (derogatory), junior, subordinate, lesser, menial, minion > inferiority n

infernal adj

- 1 of or relating to hell 2 (informal) irritating: stop that infernal noise inferno n, pl -nos

- 1 an intense raging fire 2 a place or situation resembling hell, because it is crowded and noisy 3 the inferno hell infertile adj

- 1 not capable of producing offspring 2 (of soil) not productive; barren > infertility n

- infest vb to inhabit or overrun (a place, plant, etc.) in unpleasantly large numbers: the area was infested with moles
> infestation n

infidel n

- 1 a person who has no religious belief 2 a person who rejects a specific religion, esp. Christianity or Islam
► adj
3 of unbelievers or unbelief infidelity n, pl -ties

- 1 sexual unfaithfulness to one's husband, wife, or lover
- 2 an act or instance of unfaithfulness infighting n

- 1 rivalry or quarrelling between members of the same group or organization
- 2 (boxing) combat at close quarters infiltrate vb -trating, -trated

- 1 to enter (an organization, area, etc.) gradually and in secret, so as to gain influence or control: they infiltrated the party structure
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: penetrate, pervade, permeate, percolate, filter through to, make inroads into, sneak into (informal), insinuate yourself
- 2 to pass (a liquid or gas) through (a substance) by filtering or (of a liquid or gas) to pass through (a substance) by filtering
 - > infiltration n
 - > infiltrator n infinite (in-fin-it) adj

- 1 having no limits or boundaries in time, space, extent, or size
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: limitless, endless, unlimited, eternal, never-ending, boundless, everlasting, inexhaustible
- 2 extremely or immeasurably great or numerous: infinite wealth
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: vast, enormous, immense, countless, measureless
- 3 (maths) having an unlimited or uncountable number of digits, factors, or terms
 - > infinitely adv

infinitesimal adj

- 1 extremely small: an infinitesimal risk
- 2 (maths) of or involving a small change in the value of a variable that approaches zero as a limit
 - n
- 3 (maths) an infinitesimal quantity infinitive (in-fin-it-iv) n (grammar) a form of the verb which in most languages is not inflected for tense or person and is used without a particular subject: in English, the infinitive usually consists of the word to followed by the verb infinity n, pl -ties

- 1 an infinitely great number or amount
- 2 endless time, space, or quantity
- 3 (maths) the concept of a value greater than any finite numerical value infirm adj physically or mentally weak, esp. from old age infirmary n, pl -ries a place for the treatment of sick or injured people; hospital infirmity n, pl -ties

- 1 the state of being infirm
- 2 physical weakness or frailty inflame vb -flaming, -flamed

- 1 to make angry or excited ◇ SYNONYMS: enrage, stimulate, provoke, excite, anger, arouse, rouse, infuriate
- 2 to increase or intensify; aggravate
- 3 to produce inflammation in or become inflamed
- 4 to set or be set on fire inflamed adj (of part of the body) red, swollen, and painful because of infection inflammable adj

- 1 liable to catch fire

2 easily aroused to anger or passion > inflammability n

inflammation n

1 the reaction of living tissue to injury or infection, characterized by heat, redness, swelling, and pain 2 an inflaming or being inflamed inflammatory adj

1 likely to provoke anger 2 characterized by or caused by inflammation inflatable adj

1 capable of being inflated
► n
2 a plastic or rubber object which can be inflated inflate vb -flating, -flated

1 to expand or cause to expand by filling with gas or air ◇ SYNONYMS: blow up, pump up, swell, dilate, distend, bloat, puff up or out 2 to give an impression of greater importance than is justified: something to inflate their self-esteem ◇ SYNONYMS: increase, expand, enlarge 3 to cause or undergo economic inflation inflation n

1 an inflating or being inflated
◇ SYNONYMS: increase, expansion, extension, swelling, escalation, enlargement 2 (econ) a progressive increase in the general level of prices brought about by an increase in the amount of money in circulation or by increases in costs 3 (informal) the rate of increase of prices > inflationary adj

inflection or inflexion n

- 1 change in the pitch of the voice
 - 2 (grammar) a change in the form of a word, signalling change in such grammatical functions as tense or number
 - 3 an angle or bend
 - 4 an inflecting or being inflected
 - 5 (maths) a change in curvature from concave to convex or vice versa
- > inflectional or inflexional adj

inflexible adj

- 1 unwilling to be persuaded; obstinate
 - 2 (of a rule, etc.) firmly fixed: inflexible schedules
 - 3 incapable of being bent: inflexible joints
- > inflexibility n

inflict vb

- 1 to impose (something unpleasant) on
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: impose, administer, visit, apply, deliver, levy, wreak, mete or deal out
 - 2 to deliver (a blow or wound)
- > infliction n
- > inflictor n

inflorescence n (botany)

- 1 the part of a plant that consists of the flower-bearing stalks
- 2 the arrangement of the flowers on the stalks
- 3 the process of flowering; blossoming influence n

- 1 an effect of one person or thing on another
- 2 the power of a person or thing to have such an effect
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: power, authority, pull (informal), importance, prestige, clout (informal), leverage
- 3 power resulting from ability, wealth, or position
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: control, power, authority, direction, command, domination, supremacy, mastery, mana (NZ)

4 a person or thing with influence

5 under the influence (informal) drunk

► vb -encing, -enced

6 to have an effect upon (actions or events)

◇ SYNONYMS: affect, have an effect on, have an impact on, control, concern, direct, guide, bear upon

7 to persuade or induce

◇ SYNONYMS: persuade, prompt, urge, induce, entice, coax, incite, instigate > influencer n influential adj having or exerting influence

◇ SYNONYMS: important, powerful, telling, leading, inspiring, potent, authoritative, weighty influenza n a highly contagious viral disease characterized by fever, muscular pains, and catarrh influx n

1 the arrival or entry of many people or things

◇ SYNONYMS: arrival, rush, invasion, incursion, inundation, inrush

2 the act of flowing in info n (informal) short for information inform vb

1 to give information to; tell: he informed me that he would be free after lunch

◇ SYNONYMS: tell, advise, notify, instruct, enlighten, communicate to, tip someone off

2 to make knowledgeable (about) or familiar (with): he'll be informed of his rights

◇ SYNONYMS: tell, advise, notify, instruct, enlighten, communicate to, tip someone off

3 to give incriminating information to the police

4 to impart some essential or formative characteristic to 5 to animate or inspire > informed adj

informal adj

1 relaxed and friendly: an informal interview

◇ SYNONYMS: natural, relaxed, casual, familiar, unofficial, laid-back, easy-going, colloquial

2 appropriate to everyday life or use rather than formal occasions: informal clothes

◇ SYNONYMS: casual, comfortable, leisure, everyday, simple

3 (of speech or writing) appropriate to ordinary conversation rather than to formal written language > informality n > informally adv

informant n a person who gives information information n

1 knowledge acquired in any manner; facts

◇ SYNONYMS: facts, news, report, message, notice, knowledge, data, intelligence, drum (Austral informal), heads up

2 (computers)

A the meaning given to data by the way it is interpreted

B same as data information technology n the production, storage, and communication of information using computers and electronic technology informative adj giving useful information

◇ SYNONYMS: instructive, revealing, educational, forthcoming, illuminating, enlightening, chatty, communicative informer n a person who informs to the police infra dig adj (informal) beneath one's dignity infrared adj

1 of or using rays with a wavelength just beyond the red end of the visible spectrum

► n

2 the infrared part of the spectrum infrastructure n

1 the basic structure of an organization or system

2 the stock of facilities, services, and equipment in a country, including factories, roads, and schools, that are needed for it to function properly infringe vb -fringing, -fringed

1 to violate or break (a law or agreement)

2 infringe on or upon to encroach or trespass on: the press infringed on their privacy > infringement n

infuriate vb -ating, -ated to make very angry

◇ SYNONYMS: enrage, anger, provoke, irritate, incense, madden, exasperate, rile > infuriating adj

> infuriatingly adv

infuse vb -fusing, -fused

1 to fill with (an emotion or quality)

2 to soak or be soaked in order to extract flavour infusion n

1 the act of infusing

2 a liquid obtained by infusing ingenious (in-jean-ee-uss) adj showing cleverness and originality: a truly ingenious invention

◇ SYNONYMS: creative, original, brilliant, clever, bright, shrewd, inventive, crafty ingenue (an-jay-new) n an innocent or inexperienced young woman, esp. as a role played by an actress ingenuity (in-jen-new-it-ee) n cleverness at inventing things ingenuous (in-jen-new-uss) adj

1 unsophisticated and trusting

2 frank and straightforward ingest vb to take (food or liquid) into the body > ingestion n

inglorious adj dishonourable or shameful ingot n a piece of metal cast in a form suitable for storage, usually a bar ingrained or engrained adj

1 (of a habit, feeling, or belief) deeply impressed or instilled

2 (of dirt) worked into or through the fibre or pores ingratiate vb -ating, -ated to act in order to bring (oneself) into favour (with someone) > ingratiating adj

ingredient n a component of a mixture or compound, esp. in cooking ◇ SYNONYMS: component, part, element, feature, piece, unit, item, aspect ingress n (formal) 1 the act of going or coming in 2 the right or permission to enter ingrowing adj (esp. of a toenail) growing abnormally into the flesh > ingrown adj inhabit vb to live or dwell in ◇ SYNONYMS: live in, occupy, populate, reside in, dwell in, abide in > inhabitable adj

inhabitant n a person or animal that is a permanent resident of a particular place or region ◇ SYNONYMS: occupant, resident, citizen, local, native, tenant, inmate, dweller inhalant (in-hale-ant) n a medicinal preparation inhaled to help breathing problems inhale vb -haling, -haled to breathe in (air, smoke, or vapour) ◇ SYNONYMS: breathe in, gasp, draw in, suck in, respire > inhalation n

inhaler n a container used to administer an inhalant inherent adj existing as an inseparable part ◇ SYNONYMS: intrinsic, natural, essential, native, fundamental, hereditary, instinctive, innate > inherently adv inherit vb

1 to receive money, property, or a title from someone who has died ◇ SYNONYMS: be left, come into, be willed, succeed to, fall heir to

2 to receive (a characteristic) from an earlier generation by heredity

3 to receive (a position or situation) from a predecessor: he inherited a mess > inheritor n

inheritance n

1 (law)

A hereditary succession to an estate or title

B the right of an heir to succeed on the death of an ancestor

2 something inherited or to be inherited

◇ SYNONYMS: legacy, heritage, bequest, birthright, patrimony

3 the act of inheriting

4 the fact of receiving characteristics from an earlier generation by heredity inheritance tax n (in Britain) a tax consisting of a percentage levied on the part of an inheritance that exceeds a specified allowance inhibit vb

1 to restrain or hinder (an impulse or desire)

◇ SYNONYMS: hinder, check, frustrate, curb, restrain, constrain, obstruct, impede

2 to prohibit or prevent: an attempt to inhibit nuclear proliferation

◇ SYNONYMS: prevent, stop, frustrate

3 (chem) to stop, prevent, or decrease the rate of (a chemical reaction) > inhibited adj

> inhibitor n

inhibition n

1 (psychol) a feeling of fear or embarrassment that stops one from behaving naturally

2 an inhibiting or being inhibited

3 the process of stopping or retarding a chemical reaction inhospitable adj

- 1 not welcoming; unfriendly
- 2 (of a place or climate) not easy to live in; harsh inhuman adj

- 1 cruel or brutal
- 2 not human inhumane adj extremely cruel or brutal inhumanity n, pl -ties

- 1 lack of kindness or compassion
- 2 an inhumane act inimical adj

- 1 adverse or unfavourable: inimical to change
- 2 unfriendly or hostile inimitable adj impossible to imitate

- > inimitably adv

iniquity n, pl -ties

- 1 injustice or wickedness
- 2 a wicked act
- > iniquitous adj

initial adj

- 1 of or at the beginning
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: opening, first, earliest, beginning, primary, maiden, introductory, embryonic
- ▶ n
- 2 the first letter of a word, esp. a person's name

3 (printing) a large letter set at the beginning of a chapter or work

► vb -tialling, -tialled (US) -tialing, -tialed

4 to sign with one's initials, esp. to indicate approval > initially adv

initiate vb -ating, -ated

1 to begin or set going: they wanted to initiate a discussion

◇ SYNONYMS: begin, start, open, launch, kick off (informal), embark on, originate, set about

2 to accept (new members) into a group, often through secret ceremonies

◇ SYNONYMS: introduce, admit, enlist, enrol, launch, establish, invest, recruit

3 to teach the fundamentals of a skill or knowledge to (someone)

► n

4 a person who has been initiated, esp. recently

◇ SYNONYMS: novice, member, pupil, convert, amateur, newcomer, beginner, trainee

5 a beginner

> initiation n > initiator n

initiative n

1 a first step; a commencing move: a peace initiative

2 the right or power to initiate something: it forced local people to take the initiative

◇ SYNONYMS: advantage, start, lead, upper hand

3 enterprise: the drive and initiative to create new products

◇ SYNONYMS: enterprise, drive, energy, leadership, ambition, daring, enthusiasm, dynamism

4 on one's own initiative without being prompted inject vb

1 (med) to put (a fluid) into the body with a syringe

◇ SYNONYMS: vaccinate, administer, inoculate

2 to introduce (a new element): to inject a dose of realism into the assessment

◇ SYNONYMS: introduce, bring in, insert, instil, infuse, breathe > injection n

injudicious adj showing poor judgment; unwise injunction n

1 (law) a court order not to do something

2 an authoritative command

◇ SYNONYMS: order, ruling, command, instruction, mandate, precept, exhortation (formal) > injunctive adj

injure vb -juring, -jured

1 to hurt physically or mentally

◇ SYNONYMS: hurt, wound, harm, damage, smash, crush, mar, shatter, mangle (Austral slang)

2 to do wrong to (a person), esp. by an injustice: the injured party

◇ SYNONYMS: undermine, damage

3 to damage: an opportunity to injure your reputation

◇ SYNONYMS: damage, harm, ruin, wreck, spoil, impair, crool or cruel (Austral slang) > injured adj

injurious adj

1 causing harm

2 abusive, slanderous, or libellous injury n, pl -ries

1 physical hurt

◇ SYNONYMS: harm, suffering, damage, ill, hurt, misfortune, affliction

2 a specific instance of this: a leg injury

◇ SYNONYMS: wound, cut, damage, trauma (pathol), gash, lesion, laceration

3 harm done to the feelings

◇ SYNONYMS: wrong, offence, insult, detriment, disservice

4 damage: inflict no injury on the wealth of the nation injury time n (sport) playing time added at the end of a match to compensate for time spent treating injured players. Also called: stoppage time injustice n

1 unfairness

◇ SYNONYMS: unfairness, discrimination, prejudice, bias, inequality, oppression, intolerance, bigotry

2 an unfair action

◇ SYNONYMS: wrong, injury, crime, error, offence, sin, misdeed, transgression ink n

1 a black or coloured liquid used for printing, writing, and drawing

2 a dark brown fluid squirted for self-concealment by an octopus or cuttlefish

3 (informal) a tattoo or a series of tattoos

► vb

4 to mark or cover with ink

5 ink in to arrange or confirm definitely inkling n a vague idea or suspicion inky adj inkier, inkier

1 dark or black, like ink

2 stained with ink > inkiness n

inlaid adj

1 set in another material so that the surface is smooth, such as a design in wood

2 made in this way: an inlaid table-top inland adj

1 of or in the interior of a country or region, away from a sea or border

◇ SYNONYMS: interior, internal, upcountry

2 (chiefly Brit) operating within a country or region; domestic: inland trade

► n

3 the interior of a country or region

► adv

4 towards or into the interior of a country or region

Inland Revenue n (in New Zealand and formerly in Britain) a government department that collects major direct taxes, such as income tax in-law n

1 a relative by marriage

► adj

2 (in combination) related by marriage: his brother-in-law

inlay vb -laying, -laid

1 to decorate (an article, esp. of furniture) by inserting pieces of wood, ivory, or metal so that the surfaces are smooth and flat

► n

2 decoration made by inlaying

3 an inlaid article

4 (dentistry) a filling shaped to fit a cavity inlet n

1 a narrow strip of water extending from the sea into the land

2 a passage or valve through which a liquid or gas enters a machine in loco parentis (par-rent-iss) in place of a parent: said of a person acting for a parent inmate n a person who is confined to an institution such as a prison or hospital inmost adj same as innermost inn n a pub or small hotel providing food and accommodation innards pl n (informal)

- 1 the internal organs of the body, esp. the entrails
- 2 the working parts of a machine innate adj existing from birth, rather than acquired; inborn: his innate decency > innately adv

inner adj

- 1 happening or located inside or further inside: the door to the inner office ◇ SYNONYMS: inside, internal, interior, inward
 - 2 of the mind or spirit: her inner self
 - 3 exclusive or private: the inner sanctum of the party secretariat
 - 4 more profound; less apparent: the inner meaning ◇ SYNONYMS: hidden, deep, secret, underlying, obscure, repressed, unrevealed
- n
- 5 (archery)
A the red innermost ring on a target B a shot which hits this ring inner city n the parts of a city in or near its centre, where there are often social and economic problems innermost adj

- 1 most intimate or private: innermost secrets
- 2 furthest within innings n

- 1 (cricket)
A the batting turn of a player or team B the runs scored during such a turn
- 2 a period of opportunity or action innkeeper n an owner or manager of an inn innocence n the quality or state of being innocent

◇ SYNONYMS: naiveté, simplicity, inexperience, credulity, gullibility, ingenuousness, artlessness, unworldliness innocent adj

1 not guilty of a particular crime

◇ SYNONYMS: not guilty, in the clear, blameless, clean, honest, uninvolved, irreproachable, guiltless

2 without experience of evil

3 harmless or innocuous

◇ SYNONYMS: harmless, innocuous, inoffensive, well-meant, unobjectionable, well-intentioned

4 innocent of without or lacking: innocent of prejudice

► n

5 an innocent person, esp. a young child or a naive adult > innocently adv

innocuous adj having no adverse or harmful effect innovate vb -vating, -vated to introduce new ideas or methods > innovative or innovatory adj > innovator n

innovation n

1 something newly introduced, such as a new method or device

◇ SYNONYMS: change, revolution, departure, introduction, variation, transformation, upheaval, alteration

2 the act of innovating

◇ SYNONYMS: change, revolution, departure, introduction, variation, transformation, upheaval, alteration

innuendo n, pl -dos or -does an indirect or subtle reference to something rude or unpleasant innumerable adj too many to be counted > innumerably adv

innumerate adj having no understanding of mathematics or science > innumeracy n

inoculate vb -lating, -lated 1 to protect against disease by injecting with a vaccine 2 to introduce (microorganisms, esp. bacteria) into (a culture medium) > inoculation n

inoperable adj (surgery) unable to be safely operated on: an inoperable tumour inopportune adj badly timed or inappropriate inordinate adj

1 excessive: an inordinate amount of time spent arguing 2 unrestrained, as in behaviour or emotion: inordinate anger > inordinately adv

inorganic adj
1 not having the structure or characteristics of living organisms 2 (chem) of or denoting chemical compounds that do not contain carbon 3 not resulting from or produced by growth; artificial: inorganic fertilizers inpatient n a patient who stays in a hospital for treatment input n

1 resources, such as money, labour, or power, put into a project

2 (computers) the data fed into a computer

► vb -putting, -put

3 to enter (data) in a computer inquest n

1 an official inquiry into an unexplained, sudden, or violent death, held by a coroner

◇ SYNONYMS: inquiry, investigation, probe, inquisition

2 (informal) an investigation or discussion inquire or enquire vb -quiring, -quired

1 to seek information (about)

◇ SYNONYMS: ask, question, query, quiz

2 inquire after to ask about the health or progress of (a person)

3 inquire into to make an investigation

◇ SYNONYMS inquire into: investigate, study, examine, research, explore, look into, probe into, make inquiries into

4 inquire of to ask (a person) for information: I'll inquire of my aunt when she is coming > inquirer or enquirer n inquiry or enquiry n, pl -ries

1 a question

◇ SYNONYMS: question, query, investigation

2 an investigation

◇ SYNONYMS: investigation, study, review, survey, examination, probe, inspection, exploration inquisition n

1 a thorough investigation

2 (archaic) a judicial or official inquiry > inquisitional adj

Inquisition n (history) an organization within the Catholic Church (1232–1820) for suppressing heresy inquisitive adj

1 excessively curious about other people's business

2 eager to learn > inquisitively adv

> inquisitiveness n inquisitor n

1 a person who inquires, esp. deeply or ruthlessly

2 Inquisitor an officer of the Inquisition inquisitorial adj

1 of or like an inquisition or an inquisitor

2 offensively curious > inquisitorially adv

inquorate adj without enough people present to make a quorum inroads pl n make inroads into to start affecting or reducing: my gambling has made great inroads into my savings

insane adj

1 of unsound mind

2 stupidly irresponsible: acting on an insane impulse

◇ SYNONYMS: stupid, foolish, daft (informal), irresponsible, irrational, senseless, preposterous, impractical > insanely adv

insanitary adj dirty or unhealthy insanity n, pl -ties

1 the state of being insane

2 stupidity

insatiable (in-saysh-a-bl) adj impossible to satisfy > insatiability n

> insatiably adv

inscribe vb -scribing, -scribed

1 to mark or engrave with (words, symbols, or letters)

2 to write one's name, and sometimes a brief dedication, on (a book) before giving to someone

3 to enter (a name) on a list

4 (geom) to draw (a geometric construction) inside another construction so that the two are in contact at as many points as possible but do not intersect inscription n

1 something inscribed, esp. words carved or engraved on a coin, tomb, or ring

2 a signature or brief dedication in a book or on a work of art inscrutable adj mysterious or enigmatic > inscrutability n

insect n

1 a small animal that has six legs and usually has wings, such as an ant, fly, or butterfly

2 (loosely) any similar invertebrate, such as a spider, tick, or centipede

◇ SYNONYMS: bug, creepy-crawly (Brit informal), gogga (S African informal) insecticide n a substance used to destroy insects insecure adj

1 anxious or uncertain

◇ SYNONYMS: unconfident, worried, anxious, afraid, shy, uncertain, unsure, timid

2 not adequately protected: low-paid or insecure employment

◇ SYNONYMS: unsafe, exposed, vulnerable, wide-open, unprotected, defenceless, unguarded

3 unstable or shaky > insecurity n

inseminate vb -nating, -nated to impregnate (a female) with semen > insemination n

insensate adj

1 lacking sensation or consciousness

2 insensitive or unfeeling

3 foolish insensible adj

1 unconscious

2 without feeling

3 imperceptible

4 insensible of or to unaware of or indifferent to: insensible to suffering > insensibility n insensitive adj unaware of or ignoring other people's feelings > insensitivity n

inseparable adj

1 constantly together because of mutual liking: they became inseparable companions

2 too closely connected to be separated > inseparably adv

insert vb

1 to place or fit (something) inside something else

◇ SYNONYMS: put, place, position, slip, slide, slot, thrust, stick in

2 to introduce (a clause or comment) into text or a speech

► n

3 something inserted, esp. an advertisement in between the pages of a magazine insertion n

1 the act of inserting

2 something inserted, such as an advertisement in a newspaper inset vb -setting, -set

1 to place in or within; insert

► n

2 something inserted

3 (printing) a small map or diagram set within the borders of a larger one

► adj

4 decorated with something inserted inshore adj

1 in or on the water, but close to the shore: inshore fishermen

► adv, adj

2 towards the shore from the water: the boat was forced inshore; a strong wind blowing inshore

inside prep

1 in or to the interior of: a bomb had gone off inside the parliament building

2 in a period of time less than: they took the lead inside seven minutes

► adj

3 on or of the inside: an article on the paper's inside pages

◇ SYNONYMS: inner, internal, interior, inward

4 by or from someone within an organization, esp. illicitly: inside information

◇ SYNONYMS: confidential, private, secret, internal, exclusive, restricted, privileged, classified

5 of or being the lane in a road which is nearer the side than other lanes going in the same direction: all the lorries were in the inside lane

► adv

6 on, in, or to the inside; indoors: when the rain started we took our drinks inside

◇ SYNONYMS: indoors, in, within, under cover

7 (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) in or into prison

► n

8 the inner side, surface, or part of something

◇ SYNONYMS: interior, contents, core, nucleus

9 inside out with the inside facing outwards

10 know inside out to know thoroughly insider n a member of a group or organization who therefore has exclusive information about it insidious adj working in a subtle or apparently harmless way, but nevertheless dangerous or deadly: an insidious virus

> insidiously adv

> insidiousness n

insight n

1 a penetrating understanding, as of a complex situation or problem

◇ SYNONYMS: perception, understanding, sense, knowledge, vision, judgment, awareness, grasp

2 the ability to perceive clearly or deeply the inner nature of things insignia (in-sig-nee-a) n, pl -nias or -nia a badge or emblem of membership, office, or honour insignificant adj having little or no importance ◇ SYNONYMS: unimportant, minor, irrelevant, petty, trivial, meaningless, trifling, paltry > insignificance n insincere adj pretending what one does not feel > insincerely adv

> insincerity n

insinuate vb -ating, -ated

1 to suggest indirectly by allusion, hints, or innuendo

2 to get (someone, esp. oneself) into a position by gradual manoeuvres: she insinuated herself into the conversation

insinuation n

1 an indirect or devious hint or suggestion

2 an act or the practice of insinuating insipid adj

1 dull and boring

2 lacking flavour > insipidity n

insist vb (often foll. by on or upon)

1 to make a determined demand (for): he insisted on his rights

◇ SYNONYMS: demand, order, require, command, dictate, entreat

2 to express a convinced belief (in) or assertion (of): she insisted that she had been given permission

◇ SYNONYMS: assert, state, maintain, claim, declare, repeat, vow, swear insistent adj

1 making continual and persistent demands

2 demanding attention: the chirruping of an insistent bird > insistence n

> insistently adv

in situ adv, adj in the original position in so far as or insofar as prep to the degree or extent that insole n

1 the inner sole of a shoe or boot

2 a loose inner sole used to give extra warmth or to make a shoe fit insolent adj rude and disrespectful > insolence n

> insolently adv

insoluble adj

1 impossible to solve

2 not able to be dissolved > insolubility n

insolvent adj

1 unable to pay one's debts

► n

2 a person who is insolvent > insolvency n

insomnia n inability to sleep > insomniac n, adj

insouciant adj carefree or unconcerned > insouciance n

inspect vb

1 to examine closely, esp. for faults or errors

◇ SYNONYMS: examine, check, look at, view, survey, look over, scrutinize, go over or through

2 to examine officially ◇ SYNONYMS: check, examine, investigate, look at, survey, vet, look over, go over or through > inspection n

inspector n

1 an official who checks that things or places meet certain regulations and standards

◇ SYNONYMS: examiner, investigator, supervisor, monitor, superintendent, auditor, censor, surveyor

2 a police officer ranking below a superintendent and above a sergeant inspiration n

1 stimulation of the mind or feelings to activity or creativity

◇ SYNONYMS: imagination, creativity, ingenuity, insight, originality, inventiveness, cleverness

2 a person or thing that causes this state

◇ SYNONYMS: influence, spur, stimulus, muse

3 an inspired idea or action > inspirational adj

inspire vb -spiring, -spired

1 to stimulate (a person) to activity or creativity

◇ SYNONYMS: motivate, stimulate, encourage, influence, spur, animate, enliven, galvanize

2 to arouse (an emotion or a reaction): he inspires confidence instability n lack of steadiness or reliability

◇ SYNONYMS: uncertainty, insecurity, vulnerability, volatility, unpredictability, fluctuation, impermanence, unsteadiness install vb

1 to put in and prepare (equipment) for use

◇ SYNONYMS: set up, put in, place, position, station, establish, lay, fix

2 to place (a person) formally in a position or rank

◇ SYNONYMS: institute, establish, introduce, invest, ordain, inaugurate, induct 3 to settle (a person, esp. oneself) in a position or state: Tony installed himself in an armchair

◇ SYNONYMS: settle, position, plant, establish, lodge, ensconce installation n

1 installing

◇ SYNONYMS: setting up, fitting, instalment, placing, positioning, establishment

2 equipment that has been installed

3 a place containing equipment for a particular purpose: radar installation instalment or (US) installment n

1 one of the portions into which a debt is divided for payment at regular intervals

◇ SYNONYMS: payment, repayment, part payment

2 a portion of something that is issued, broadcast, or published in parts

◇ SYNONYMS: part, section, chapter, episode, portion, division instance n

1 a case or particular example

◇ SYNONYMS: example, case, occurrence, occasion, sample, illustration

2 urgent request or order: at the instance of 3 for instance as an example

4 in the first instance in the first place; initially ► vb -stancing, -stanced

5 to mention as an example instant n

1 a very brief time; moment

◇ SYNONYMS: moment, second, flash, split second, jiffy (informal), trice, twinkling of an eye (informal)

2 a particular moment: at the same instant

◇ SYNONYMS: time, point, hour, moment, stage, occasion, phase, juncture

► adj

3 immediate

◇ SYNONYMS: immediate, prompt, instantaneous, direct, quick, on-the-spot, split-second

4 (of foods) able to be prepared very quickly and easily: instant coffee

◇ SYNONYMS: ready-made, fast, convenience, ready-mixed, ready-cooked, precooked

5 urgent or pressing

6 of the present month: a letter of the 7th instant instantaneous adj happening at once: the applause was instantaneous > instantaneously adv

instantly adv immediately

◇ SYNONYMS: immediately, at once, straight away, now, directly, right away, instantaneously, this minute instead adv

1 as a replacement or substitute for the person or thing mentioned

◇ SYNONYMS: rather, alternatively, preferably, in preference, in lieu, on second thoughts

2 instead of in place of or as an alternative to ◇ SYNONYMS instead of: in place of, rather than, in preference to, in lieu of, in contrast with instep n

1 the middle part of the foot forming the arch between the ankle and toes

2 the part of a shoe or stocking covering this instigate vb -gating, -gated

1 to cause to happen: to instigate rebellion

2 to urge on to some action > instigation n

> instigator n

instil or (US) instill vb -stilling, -stilled

1 to introduce (an idea or feeling) gradually in someone's mind

2 (rare) to pour in or inject drop by drop > instillation n

> instiller n

instinct n

1 the inborn tendency to behave in a particular way without the need for thought: maternal instinct

◇ SYNONYMS: natural inclination, talent, tendency, faculty, inclination, knack, predisposition, proclivity (formal)

2 natural reaction: my first instinct was to get out of the car

3 intuition: Mr Barr's mother said she knew by instinct that her son was safe

◇ SYNONYMS: intuition, impulse instinctive or instinctual adj done or happening without any logical thought:

an instinctive understanding of people

◇ SYNONYMS: natural, inborn, automatic, unconscious, inherent, spontaneous, reflex, innate > instinctively or instinctually adv

institute n

1 an organization set up for a specific purpose, esp. research or teaching

◇ SYNONYMS: establishment, body, centre, school, university, society, association, college

2 the building where such an organization is situated

3 a rule, custom, or precedent

► vb -tuting, -tuted

4 to start or establish

◇ SYNONYMS: establish, start, found, launch, set up, introduce, fix, organize

5 to install in a position or office institution n

1 a large important organization such as a university or bank

◇ SYNONYMS: establishment, body, centre, school, university, society, association, college

2 an organization providing residential care for people with special needs

3 an established custom, law, or principle: the institution of marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: custom, practice, tradition, law, rule, procedure, convention, ritual

4 (informal) a well-established person or feature: the programme has become an institution

5 an instituting or being instituted institutional adj

1 of or relating to an institution: institutional care

◇ SYNONYMS: conventional, accepted, established, formal, routine, orthodox, procedural

2 dull, routine, and uniform: institutional meals > institutionalism n

institutionalize or -lise vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 (often passive) to subject (a person) to institutional life, often causing apathy and dependence on routine

2 to make or become an institution: institutionalized religion

3 to place in an institution instruct vb

1 to order to do something

◇ SYNONYMS: order, tell, direct, charge (formal), bid, command, mandate, enjoin

2 to teach (someone) how to do something

◇ SYNONYMS: teach, school, train, coach, educate, drill, tutor

3 to brief (a solicitor or barrister) instruction n

1 a direction or order

◇ SYNONYMS: order, ruling, command, rule, demand, regulation, dictate, decree

2 the process or act of teaching

◇ SYNONYMS: teaching, schooling, training, grounding, education, coaching, lesson(s), guidance > instructional adj instructive adj informative or helpful instructor n

1 a person who teaches something

◇ SYNONYMS: teacher, coach, guide, adviser, trainer, demonstrator, tutor, mentor

2 (US & Canada) a college teacher ranking below assistant professor instrument n

1 a tool or implement, esp. one used for precision work

◇ SYNONYMS: tool, device, implement, mechanism, appliance, apparatus, gadget, contraption (informal)

2 (music) any of various devices that can be played to produce musical sounds

3 a measuring device to show height, speed, etc.: the pilot's eyes never left his instruments

4 (informal) a person used by another to gain an end

5 an important factor in something: her evidence was an instrument in his arrest

◇ SYNONYMS: agent, means, medium, agency (old-fashioned), vehicle, mechanism, organ

6 a formal legal document instrumental adj

1 helping to cause

◇ SYNONYMS: active, involved, influential, useful, helpful, contributory

2 played by or composed for musical instruments

3 of or done with an instrument: instrumental error instrumentalist n a person who plays a musical instrument instrumentation n

- 1 a set of instruments in a car, etc.
- 2 the arrangement of music for instruments
- 3 the list of instruments needed for a piece of music insubordinate adj not submissive to authority > insubordination n insufferable adj unbearable > insufferably adv

insular adj

- 1 not open to change or new ideas: theatre tradition become rather insular
 - 2 of or like an island
- > insularity n

insulate vb -lating, -lated

- 1 to prevent or reduce the transfer of electricity, heat, or sound by surrounding or lining with a nonconducting material
 - 2 to isolate or set apart
- ◇ SYNONYMS: isolate, protect, screen, defend, shelter, shield, cut off, cushion
- > insulator n

insulation n

- 1 material used to insulate something
- 2 the act of insulating insulin (in-syoo-lin) n a hormone produced in the pancreas which controls the amount of sugar in the blood insult vb

- 1 to treat or speak to rudely: they insulted us and even threatened to kill us

◇ SYNONYMS: offend, abuse, wound, slight, put down, snub, malign, affront

► n

2 an offensive remark or action

◇ SYNONYMS: jibe, slight, put-down, abuse, snub, barb, affront, abusive remark

3 a person or thing producing the effect of an insult: their explanation is an insult to our intelligence

◇ SYNONYMS: offence, slight, snub, slur, affront, slap in the face (informal), kick in the teeth (informal), insolence insuperable adj impossible to overcome; insurmountable > insuperability n

insupportable adj

1 impossible to tolerate

2 incapable of being upheld or justified: an insupportable accusation

insurance n

1 the agreement by which one makes regular payments to a company who pay an agreed sum if damage, loss, or death occurs

◇ SYNONYMS: assurance, cover, security, protection, safeguard, indemnity

2 the money paid for insurance or by an insurance company

3 a means of protection: sensible insurance against heart attacks

◇ SYNONYMS: protection, security, guarantee, shelter, safeguard, warranty insurance policy n a contract of insurance insure vb -suring, -sured

1 to guarantee or protect (against risk or loss)

◇ SYNONYMS: assure, cover, protect, guarantee, warrant, underwrite, indemnify

2 (often foll. by against) to issue (a person) with an insurance policy or take out an insurance policy (on): the players were insured against accidents

◇ SYNONYMS: protect, cover, safeguard

3 (chiefly US) same as ensure > insurable adj

> insurability n

insurgent adj

1 rebellious or in revolt against an established authority

► n

2 a person who takes part in a rebellion > insurgency n

insurmountable adj impossible to overcome: insurmountable problems insurrection n the act of rebelling against an established authority > insurrectionist n, adj intact adj not changed or damaged in any way

◇ SYNONYMS: undamaged, whole, complete, sound, perfect, entire, unscathed, unbroken intaglio (in-tah-lee-oh) n, pl -lios or -li

1 a seal or gem decorated with an engraved design

2 an engraved design > intagliated adj

intake n

1 a thing or a quantity taken in: an intake of students

2 the act of taking in 3 the opening through which fluid or gas enters a pipe or engine intangible adj

1 difficult for the mind to grasp: intangible ideas

2 incapable of being felt by touch > intangibility n integer n any positive or negative whole number or zero, as opposed to a number with fractions or decimals integral adj

1 being an essential part of a whole

◇ SYNONYMS: essential, basic, fundamental, necessary, component, constituent, indispensable, intrinsic

2 whole or complete

3 (maths)

A of or involving an integral

B involving or being an integer

► n

4 (maths) the sum of a large number of minute quantities, summed either between stated limits (definite integral) or in the absence of limits (indefinite integral) integrate vb -grating, -grated

1 to make or be made into a whole

◇ SYNONYMS: join, unite, combine, blend, incorporate, merge, fuse, assimilate

2 to amalgamate (an ethnic or a religious group) with an existing community

3 to designate (an institution) for use by all ethnicities or groups

4 (maths) to determine the integral of a function or variable > integration n

integrated circuit n a tiny electronic circuit integrity n

1 honesty

◇ SYNONYMS: honesty, principle, honour, virtue, goodness, morality, purity, probity (formal)

2 the quality of being whole or united: respect for a state's territorial integrity

◇ SYNONYMS: unity, unification, cohesion, coherence, wholeness, soundness, completeness

3 the quality of being unharmed or sound: the integrity of the cell membrane intel n (informal) information collected by the military about the plans and movements of an enemy intellect n

1 the ability to understand, think, and reason

◇ SYNONYMS: intelligence, mind, reason, understanding, sense, brains (informal), judgment

2 a particular person's mind or intelligence, esp. a brilliant one: his intellect is wasted on that job

3 (informal) a person who has a brilliant mind intellectual adj

1 of, involving, or appealing to the intellect: intellectual literature

2 clever or intelligent

◇ SYNONYMS: scholarly, learned, academic, lettered, intelligent, cerebral, erudite, scholastic

► n

3 a person who has a highly developed intellect

◇ SYNONYMS: academic, expert, genius, thinker, master, mastermind, maestro, highbrow, fundi (S African), acca (Austral slang) > intellectuality n > intellectually adv

intelligence n

1 the ability to understand, learn, and think things out quickly

◇ SYNONYMS: intellect, understanding, brains (informal), sense, knowledge, judgment, wit, perception

2 the collection of secret information, esp. for military purposes

3 a group or department collecting military information

4 (old-fashioned) news or information

◇ SYNONYMS: information, news, facts, report, findings, knowledge, data, notification, heads up intelligent adj

1 having or showing intelligence: an intelligent child; an intelligent guess

◇ SYNONYMS: clever, bright, smart, sharp, enlightened, knowledgeable, well-informed, brainy (informal)

2 (of a computerized device) able to initiate or modify action in the light of ongoing events > intelligently adv

intelligent design n a theory that rejects the theory of natural selection, arguing for an intelligent cause in the form of a creator intelligentsia n the intelligentsia the educated or intellectual people in a society intelligible adj able to be understood > intelligibility n

intemperate adj

1 unrestrained or uncontrolled: intemperate remarks

2 drinking alcohol too much or too often

3 extreme or severe: an intemperate climate > intemperance n

intend vb

1 to propose or plan (something or to do something)

◇ SYNONYMS: plan, mean, aim, propose, purpose, have in mind or view

2 to have as one's purpose

◇ SYNONYMS: plan, mean, aim, propose, purpose, have in mind or view

3 to mean to express or indicate: no criticism was intended

4 (often foll. by for) to design or destine (for a certain purpose or person): the plane was never intended for combat intense adj

1 of very great force, strength, degree, or amount: intense heat

◇ SYNONYMS: extreme, great, severe, fierce, deep, powerful, supreme, acute

2 characterized by deep or forceful feelings: an intense person

◇ SYNONYMS: passionate, emotional, fierce, heightened, ardent, fanatical, fervent, heartfelt > intensely adv

> intenseness n

intensify vb -fies, -fying, -fied to make or become intense or more intense ◇ SYNONYMS: increase, raise, add to, strengthen, reinforce, widen, heighten, sharpen > intensification n

intensity n, pl -ties

1 the state or quality of being intense

◇ SYNONYMS: passion, emotion, fervour, force, strength, fanaticism, ardour, vehemence

2 extreme force, degree, or amount

◇ SYNONYMS: force, strength, fierceness

3 (physics) the amount or degree of strength of electricity, heat, light, or sound per unit area of volume intensive adj

1 of or needing concentrated effort or resources: intensive training

◇ SYNONYMS: concentrated, thorough, exhaustive, full, demanding, detailed, complete, serious

2 using one specified factor more than others: labour-intensive

3 (agriculture) designed to increase production from a particular area: intensive farming

4 (grammar, of a word) giving emphasis, for example, very in the very same > intensively adv

> intensiveness n intent n

1 something that is intended

◇ SYNONYMS: intention, aim, purpose, meaning, end, plan, goal, design

2 (law) the will or purpose to commit a crime: loitering with intent

3 to all intents and purposes in almost every respect; virtually

► adj

4 having one's attention firmly fixed: an intent look

◇ SYNONYMS: absorbed, intense, fascinated, preoccupied, enthralled, attentive, watchful, engrossed

5 intent on or upon strongly resolved on: intent on winning the election > intently adv

> intentness n

intention n something intended; a plan, idea, or purpose: he had no intention of resigning

◇ SYNONYMS: aim, plan, idea, goal, end, design, target, wish intentional adj done on purpose > intentionally adv

inter (in-ter) vb -terring, -terred to bury (a corpse)

◇ SYNONYMS: bury, lay to rest, entomb, consign to the grave inter- prefix

1 between or among: international

2 together, mutually, or reciprocally: interdependent interact vb to act on or in close relation with each other > interaction n

> interactive adj interbreed vb -breeding, -bred

1 to breed within a related group so as to produce particular characteristics in the offspring

2 same as crossbreed intercede vb -ceding, -ceded

1 to plead in favour of 2 to act as a mediator in order to end a disagreement: a police officer was watching the beatings without interceding

intercept vb

1 to stop or seize on the way from one place to another

◇ SYNONYMS: catch, stop, block, seize, cut off, interrupt, head off, obstruct

2 (maths) to mark off or include (part of a line, curve, plane, or surface) between two points or lines

► n

3 (maths)

A a point at which two figures intersect

B the distance from the origin to the point at which a line, curve, or surface cuts a coordinate axis > interception n

> interceptor n

intercession n

- 1 the act of interceding
- 2 a prayer offered to God on behalf of others
- > intercessor n

interchange vb -changing, -changed

- 1 to change places or cause to change places
- ▶ n
- 2 the act of interchanging
- 3 a motorway junction of interconnecting roads and bridges designed to prevent streams of traffic crossing one another
- > interchangeable adj
- > interchangeably adv

intercom n an internal communication system with loudspeakers intercontinental adj travelling between or linking continents intercourse n

- 1 the act of having sex
- ◇ SYNONYMS: sexual intercourse, sex (informal), copulation (formal)
- 2 communication or dealings between individuals or groups
- ◇ SYNONYMS: contact, communication, commerce (literary), dealings interdict n

- 1 (law) an official prohibition or restraint
- 2 (RC Church) the exclusion of a person or place from certain sacraments, although not from communion
- ▶ vb
- 3 to prohibit or forbid
- > interdiction n

> interdictory adj interdisciplinary adj involving more than one branch of learning interest n

1 curiosity or concern about something or someone

2 the power of causing this: to have great interest

3 something in which one is interested; a hobby or pursuit

◇ SYNONYMS: hobby, activity, pursuit, entertainment, recreation, amusement, preoccupation, diversion

4 (often pl) advantage: in one's own interests

◇ SYNONYMS: advantage, good, benefit, profit

5 money paid for the use of credit or borrowed money: she borrowed money at 25 per cent interest

6 (often pl) a right, share, or claim, esp. in a business or property

◇ SYNONYMS: stake, investment

7 (often pl) a group of people with common aims: foreign interests

► vb

8 to arouse the curiosity or concern of

◇ SYNONYMS: arouse your curiosity, fascinate, attract, grip, entertain, intrigue, divert, captivate

9 to cause to become interested or involved in something

◇ SYNONYMS: arouse your curiosity, fascinate, attract, grip, entertain, intrigue, divert, captivate

interested adj

1 showing or having interest

◇ SYNONYMS: curious, attracted, excited, drawn, keen, gripped, fascinated, captivated

2 involved in or affected by: a consultation paper sent to interested parties

◇ SYNONYMS: involved, concerned, affected, implicated interesting adj causing interest

◇ SYNONYMS: intriguing, absorbing, appealing, attractive, engaging, gripping, entrancing, stimulating > interestingly adv

interface n

1 an area where two things interact or link: the interface between Islamic culture and Western modernity

◇ SYNONYMS: connection, link, boundary, border, frontier

2 an electrical circuit linking one device, esp. a computer, with another

3 the way that a piece of computer software appears to users, esp. in terms of being easy or difficult to operate

4 (physics, chem) a surface that forms the boundary between two liquids or chemical phases that cannot be mixed

► vb -facing, -faced

5 to connect or be connected with by interface > interfacial adj

interfaith adj relating to, between, or involving different religions interfere vb -fering, -fered

1 to try to influence other people's affairs where one is not involved or wanted

◇ SYNONYMS: meddle, intervene, intrude, butt in, tamper, pry, encroach, stick your oar in (informal)

2 (physics) to produce or cause to produce interference

3 interfere with

A to clash with or hinder: I try not to let personal feelings interfere with my work

◇ SYNONYMS interfere with something or someone: conflict with, check, clash, handicap, hamper, disrupt, inhibit, thwart

B (Brit & Austral & NZ euphemistic) to abuse sexually > interfering adj interference n

1 the act of interfering

◇ SYNONYMS: intrusion, intervention, meddling, opposition, conflict, obstruction, prying

2 any undesired signal that interferes with the reception of radio waves

3 (physics) the meeting of two waves which reinforce or neutralize each other depending on whether they are in or out of phase interferon n (biochem) a protein made by cells that stops the development of an invading virus interim adj

1 temporary or provisional: an interim government

◇ SYNONYMS: temporary, provisional, makeshift, acting, caretaker, improvised, stopgap

► n

2 in the interim during the intervening time interior n

1 a part or region that is on the inside: the interior of the earth

◇ SYNONYMS: inside, centre, heart, middle, depths, core, nucleus

2 the inside of a building or room, with respect to design and decoration

3 the central area of a country or continent, furthest from the sea

4 a picture of the inside of a room or building

► adj

5 of, situated on, or suitable for the inside

◇ SYNONYMS: inside, internal, inner

6 mental or spiritual: interior development

◇ SYNONYMS: mental, emotional, psychological, private, personal, secret, hidden, spiritual

7 coming or acting from within

◇ SYNONYMS: inside, internal, inner

8 of a nation's domestic affairs interject vb to make (a remark) suddenly or as an interruption interjection n a word or phrase which is used on its own and which expresses sudden emotion interlace vb -lacing, -laced to join by lacing or weaving together: interlaced fingers interlink vb to connect together interlock vb

1 to join or be joined firmly together

► n

2 a device used to prevent a mechanism from operating independently or unsafely interlocutor (in-ter-lock-yew-ter) n (formal) a person who takes part in a conversation interloper (in-ter-lope-er) n a person in a place or situation where he or she has no right to be interlude n

1 a period of time or different activity between longer periods or events

2

A a pause between the acts of a play

B a brief piece of music or other entertainment performed during this pause intermarry vb -ries, -rying, -ried

1 (of different ethnicities, religions, or social groups) to become connected by marriage

2 to marry within one's own family or tribe > intermarriage n

intermediary n, pl -aries

1 a person who tries to bring about agreement between others

◇ SYNONYMS: mediator, agent, middleman, broker, go-between

2 a messenger

► adj

3 acting as an intermediary

4 intermediate intermediate adj

1 occurring between two points or extremes

◇ SYNONYMS: middle, mid, halfway, in-between (informal), midway, intervening, transitional, median

2 (of a class, course, etc.) suitable for learners with some level of skill or competence

► n

3 something intermediate

4 (chem) a substance formed between the first and final stages of a chemical process > intermediation n

interment n a burial intermezzo (in-ter-met-so) n, pl -zos or -zi

1 a short piece of instrumental music performed between the acts of a play or opera

2

A a short composition between two longer movements in an extended musical work

B a similar composition intended for independent performance interminable adj seemingly endless because boring: an interminable rambling anecdote > interminably adv

intermingle vb -gling, -gled to mix together intermission n an interval between parts of a play, film, etc.

intermittent adj occurring at intervals > intermittently adv

intern vb

1 to imprison, esp. during wartime

► n

2 a student or recent graduate receiving practical training in a working environment

3 (chiefly US) a trainee doctor in a hospital > internment n

internal adj

1 of, situated on, or suitable for the inside

◇ SYNONYMS: inner, inside, interior

2 (anatomy) affecting or relating to the inside of the body: internal bleeding

3 of a nation's domestic affairs: internal politics

◇ SYNONYMS: domestic, home, national, local, civic, in-house, intramural

4 coming or acting from within an organization: an internal reorganization

5 spiritual or mental: internal conflict

> internally adv

internal-combustion engine n an engine in which power is produced by the explosion of a fuel-and-air mixture within the cylinders international adj

1 of or involving two or more nations

◇ SYNONYMS: global, world, worldwide, universal, cosmopolitan, intercontinental

2 controlling or legislating for several nations: an international court

3 available for use by all nations: international waters

► n

4 (sport)

A a game or match between the national teams of different countries

B a member of a national team > internationally adv

International Style or Modernism n a 20th-century architectural style characterized by undecorated straight forms and the use of glass, steel, and reinforced concrete internecine adj (formal) destructive to both sides: internecine war internee n a person who is interned internet n (sometimes cap) a large public access computer network linked to others worldwide

◇ SYNONYMS the internet: the information superhighway, the net (informal), the web (informal), the World Wide Web, cyberspace, the cloud, blogosphere, the interweb (facetious), blogostream, extranet, podosphere interplanetary adj of or linking planets interplay n the action and reaction of things upon each other interpolate (in-ter-pole-ate) vb -lating, -lated

1 to insert (a comment or passage) into (a conversation or text)

2 (maths) to estimate (a value of a function) between the values already known > interpolation n

interpose vb -posing, -posed

1 to place (something) between or among other things

2 to interrupt (with comments or questions)

3 to put forward so as to interrupt: he ended the discussion by interposing a veto

> interposition n interpret vb

1 to explain the meaning of ◇ SYNONYMS: explain, make sense of, decode, decipher, elucidate

2 to work out the significance of: his remarks were widely interpreted as a promise not to raise taxes

◇ SYNONYMS: take, understand, explain, construe

3 to convey the meaning of (a poem, song, etc.) in performance

◇ SYNONYMS: portray, present, perform, render, depict, enact, act out

4 to act as an interpreter

◇ SYNONYMS: translate, transliterate > interpretive adj

interpretation n

1 the act or result of interpreting or explaining

◇ SYNONYMS: explanation, analysis, exposition, elucidation

2 the particular way in which a performer expresses his or her view of a composition: an interpretation of Mahler's fourth symphony

◇ SYNONYMS: performance, portrayal, presentation, reading, rendition

3 explanation, as of a historical site, provided by the use of original objects, visual display material, etc.

interpreter n

1 a person who translates orally from one language into another

◇ SYNONYMS: translator

2 (computers) a program that translates a statement in a source program to machine language and executes it before translating and executing the next statement interregnum n, pl -nums or -na a period between the end of one ruler's reign and the beginning of the next > interregnal adj interrogate vb -gating, -gated to question (someone) closely > interrogation n

> interrogator n

interrogative (in-ter-rog-a-tiv) adj

1 used in asking a question: an interrogative pronoun

2 of or like a question: an interrogative look

► n

3 an interrogative word, phrase, sentence, or construction interrupt vb

1 to break into (a conversation or discussion) by questions or comment

◇ SYNONYMS: intrude, disturb, intervene, interfere (with), break in, heckle, butt in, barge in (informal)

2 to stop (a process or activity) temporarily

◇ SYNONYMS: suspend, stop, end, delay, cease, postpone, shelve, put off > interrupted adj

> interruptive adj

interruption n

1 something that interrupts, such as a comment or question

2 an interval or intermission

◇ SYNONYMS: disruption, break, disturbance, hitch, intrusion

3 the act of interrupting or the state of being interrupted

◇ SYNONYMS: stoppage, pause, suspension intersect vb

1 (of roads or lines) to cross (each other)

2 to divide or mark off (a place, area, or surface) by passing through or across intersection n

1 a point at which things intersect, esp. a road junction

2 the act of intersecting or the state of being intersected

3 (maths)

A a point or set of points common to two or more geometric figures

B the set of elements that are common to two sets > intersectional adj

intersex n

1 the condition of having both male and female characteristics

2 an individual exhibiting such characteristics intersperse vb -spersing, -spersed

1 to scatter among, between, or on

2 to mix (something) with other things scattered here and there > interspersion n

interstellar adj between or among stars interstice (in-ter-stiss) n (usually pl)

1 a small gap or crack between things

2 (physics) the space between adjacent atoms in a crystal lattice intertwine vb -twining, -twined to twist together interval n

1 the period of time between two events

◇ SYNONYMS: period, spell, space, stretch, pause, span

2 (Brit & Austral) a short period between parts of a play, concert, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: break, interlude, intermission, rest, gap, pause, respite, lull

3 (music) the difference of pitch between two notes

4 at intervals

A now and then: add water to the mix at intervals

B with a certain amount of space between: the poles were placed at intervals of twenty metres intervene vb -vening, -vened

1 (often foll. by in) to involve oneself in a situation, esp. to prevent conflict ◇ SYNONYMS: step in (informal), interfere, mediate, intrude, intercede, arbitrate, take a hand (informal)

2 to interrupt a conversation

◇ SYNONYMS: interrupt, involve yourself

3 to happen so as to stop something: he hoped to play but a serious injury intervened

◇ SYNONYMS: happen, occur, take place, follow, arise, ensue, befall, materialize

4 to come or be among or between: ten years had intervened since he had seen Joe intervention n the act of intervening, esp. to influence or alter a situation in some way ◇ SYNONYMS: mediation, interference, intrusion, arbitration, conciliation, agency (old-fashioned) > interventionist n, adj interview n

1 a formal discussion, esp. one in which an employer assesses a job applicant

◇ SYNONYMS: meeting

2 a conversation in which a well-known person is asked about his or her views, career, etc., by a reporter

◇ SYNONYMS: audience, talk, conference, exchange, dialogue, consultation, press conference

► vb

3 to question (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: question, interrogate, examine, investigate, pump, grill (informal), quiz, cross-examine > interviewee n > interviewer n

interweave vb -weaving, -wove or -weaved, -woven or -weaved to weave together intestate adj

1 (of a person) not having made a will

► n

2 a person who dies without having made a will > intestacy n

intestine n the part of the alimentary canal between the stomach and the anus > intestinal adj intimacy n, pl -cies

1 close or warm friendship

◇ SYNONYMS: familiarity, closeness, confidentiality

2 (often pl) intimate words or acts within a close relationship intimate¹ adj

1 characterized by a close or warm personal relationship: an intimate friend

◇ SYNONYMS: close, dear, loving, near, familiar, thick (informal), devoted, confidential

2 deeply personal, private, or secret

◇ SYNONYMS: private, personal, confidential, special, individual, secret, exclusive

3 (of knowledge) extensive and detailed

◇ SYNONYMS: detailed, minute, full, deep, particular, immediate, comprehensive, profound

4 (euphemistic) having sexual relations

5 having a friendly quiet atmosphere: an intimate nightclub

◇ SYNONYMS: cosy, relaxed, friendly, informal, harmonious, snug, comfy (informal), warm

► n

6 a close friend

◇ SYNONYMS: friend, close friend, crony, cobbler (Austral & NZ old-fashioned, informal), confidant or confidante, (constant) companion, E hoa (NZ) > intimately adv

intimate² vb -mating, -mated (formal)

1 to make (something) known in an indirect way: he has intimated his intention to retire

◇ SYNONYMS: suggest, indicate, hint, imply, insinuate

2 to announce

◇ SYNONYMS: announce, state, declare, communicate, make known > intimation n

intimidate vb -dating, -dated to subdue or influence (someone) through fear ◇ SYNONYMS: frighten, pressure, threaten, scare, bully, plague, hound, daunt > intimidating adj > intimidation n

into prep

1 to the inner part of: they went into the house

2 to the middle of so as to be surrounded by: into the bushes

3 against; up against: he drove into a wall

4 used to indicate the result of a change: they turned the theatre into a garage

5 (maths) used to indicate division: three into six is two

6 (informal) interested in: I'm really into healthy food intolerable adj more than can be endured > intolerably adv

intolerant adj refusing to accept practices and beliefs that differ from one's own > intolerance n

intonation n

1 the sound pattern produced by variations in the voice

2 the act of intoning

3 (music) the ability to play or sing in tune > intonational adj

intone vb -toning, -toned

- 1 to speak or recite in a monotonous tone
- 2 to speak with a particular tone intoxicant n

- 1 something, such as an alcoholic drink, that causes intoxication
 - adj
- 2 causing intoxication

intoxicate vb -cating, -cated

- 1 (of an alcoholic drink) to make (a person) drunk
- 2 to stimulate or excite to a point beyond self-control
 - > intoxicated adj
 - > intoxicating adj

intoxication n

- 1 the state of being drunk
- 2 great excitement and exhilaration intractable adj

- 1 (of a person) difficult to influence or direct
- 2 (of a problem or illness) difficult to solve or cure
 - > intractability n
 - > intractably adv

intranet n (computers) an internal network that makes use of internet technology intransigent adj

- 1 refusing to change one's attitude
 - n
- 2 an intransigent person, esp. in politics
 - > intransigence n

intransitive adj (of a verb) not taking a direct object: 'to faint' is an intransitive verb > intransitively adv

intrauterine adj situated within the womb intravenous (in-tra-vee-nuss) adj (anatomy) into a vein: intravenous drug users > intravenously adv

intrepid adj fearless or bold > intrepidity n > intrepidly adv

intricate adj
1 difficult to sort out: an intricate problem ◇ SYNONYMS: complicated, involved, complex, fancy, elaborate, tangled, tortuous, convoluted 2 full of complicated detail: intricate Arab mosaics ◇ SYNONYMS: complicated, involved, complex, fancy, elaborate, tangled, tortuous, convoluted > intricacy n > intricately adv

intrigue vb -triguing, -trigued 1 to make interested or curious: a question which has intrigued him for years ◇ SYNONYMS: interest, fascinate, attract, rivet, titillate 2 to plot secretly or dishonestly ◇ SYNONYMS: plot, scheme, manoeuvre, conspire, connive, machinate
► n
3 secret plotting ◇ SYNONYMS: plot, scheme, conspiracy, manoeuvre, collusion, stratagem, chicanery, wile 4 a secret love affair

◇ SYNONYMS: affair, romance, intimacy, liaison, amour > intriguing adj

> intriguingly adv

intrinsic adj

1 essential to the real nature of a thing: hedgerows are an intrinsic part of the countryside

2 (anatomy) situated within or peculiar to a part: intrinsic muscles > intrinsically adv

introduce vb -ducing, -duced

1 to present (someone) by name (to another person)

◇ SYNONYMS: present, acquaint, make known, familiarize

2 to present (a radio or television programme)

3 to present for consideration or approval: he introduced the bill to Parliament in 1967

◇ SYNONYMS: suggest, air, advance, submit, bring up, put forward, broach, moot

4 to bring into use: they introduced a new system into our political life

◇ SYNONYMS: bring in, establish, set up, start, found, launch, institute, pioneer

5 to insert

◇ SYNONYMS: add, insert, inject, throw in (informal), infuse

6 introduce to to cause to experience for the first time: his father introduced him to golf

7 introduce with to start: he introduced his talk with some music

> introducible adj

introduction n

1 the act of introducing something or someone

◇ SYNONYMS: launch, institution, pioneering, inauguration

2 a preliminary part, as of a book or musical composition

◇ SYNONYMS: opening, prelude, preface, lead-in, preamble, foreword, prologue, intro (informal)

3 a book that explains the basic facts about a particular subject to a beginner

4 a presentation of one person to another or others introductory adj serving as an introduction

◇ SYNONYMS: preliminary, first, initial, inaugural, preparatory introspection n the examining of one's own thoughts, impressions, and feelings > introspective adj

introversion n (psychol) the directing of interest inwards towards one's own thoughts and feelings rather than towards the external world or making social contacts

introvert adj

1 shy and quiet

2 (psychol) concerned more with inner feelings than with external reality

► n

3 such a person > introverted adj

intrude vb -truding, -truded to come in or join in without being invited intruder n a person who enters a place without permission ◇ SYNONYMS: trespasser, invader, prowler, interloper, infiltrator, gate-crasher (informal) intrusion n

1 the act of intruding; an unwelcome visit, etc.: an intrusion into her private life

◇ SYNONYMS: interruption, interference, infringement, trespass, encroachment

2 (geol)

A the forcing of molten rock into spaces in the overlying strata

B molten rock formed in this way > intrusive adj

intuition n instinctive knowledge of or belief about something without conscious reasoning: intuition told her something was wrong

◇ SYNONYMS: instinct, perception, insight, sixth sense > intuitional adj

intuitive adj of, possessing, or resulting from intuition: an intuitive understanding

> intuitively adv

Inuit n, pl -it or -its an indigenous inhabitant of North America or Greenland inundate vb -dating, -dated

1 to cover completely with water

2 to overwhelm, as if with a flood: the police were inundated with calls > inundation n

inured adj able to tolerate something unpleasant because one has become accustomed to it: he became inured to the casual brutality of his captors

> inurement n

invade vb -vading, -vaded

1 to enter (a country or territory) by military force

◇ SYNONYMS: attack, storm, assault, capture, occupy, seize, raid, overwhelm

2 to enter in large numbers: the town was invaded by rugby supporters

◇ SYNONYMS: infest, swarm, overrun, ravage, beset, pervade, permeate

3 to disturb (privacy, etc.)

> invader n

invalid¹ n

1 a person who is weak or disabled by illness or injury

◇ SYNONYMS: patient, sufferer, convalescent, valetudinarian

► adj

2 weak or disabled by illness or injury

◇ SYNONYMS: disabled, challenged, ill, sick, ailing, frail, infirm, bedridden

► vb

3 (chiefly Brit) to dismiss (a soldier, etc.) from active service because of illness > invalidity n

invalid² adj

1 having no legal force: an invalid cheque

◇ SYNONYMS: null and void, void, worthless, inoperative

2 (of an argument, result, etc.) not valid because it has been based on a mistake

◇ SYNONYMS: unfounded, false, illogical, irrational, unsound, fallacious, untenable

> invalidity n

invalidate vb -dating, -dated

1 to make or show (an argument) to be invalid

2 to take away the legal force of (a contract) > invalidation n

invaluable adj having great value that is impossible to calculate ◇ SYNONYMS: precious, valuable, priceless, inestimable, worth your or its weight in gold invasion n

1 the act of invading with armed forces

◇ SYNONYMS: attack, assault, capture, takeover, raid, offensive, occupation, conquering

2 any intrusion: an invasion of privacy

◇ SYNONYMS: intrusion, breach, violation, disturbance, disruption, infringement, encroachment, infraction > invasive adj

invective n abusive speech or writing inveigh (in-vay) vb inveigh against (formal) to make harsh criticisms against inveigle vb -gling, -gled to coax or manipulate (someone) into an action or situation > inveiglement n

invent vb

1 to think up or create (something new)

◇ SYNONYMS: create, make, produce, design, discover, manufacture, devise, conceive

2 to make up (a story, excuse, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: make up, devise, concoct, forge, fake, fabricate, feign, falsify > inventor n

invention n

1 something that is invented

◇ SYNONYMS: creation, machine, device, design, instrument, discovery, innovation, gadget

2 the act of inventing

◇ SYNONYMS: development, design, production, setting up, foundation, construction, creation, discovery

3 creative power; inventive skill

◇ SYNONYMS: creativity, imagination, initiative, enterprise, genius, ingenuity, originality, inventiveness

4 (euphemistic) a lie: his story is a malicious invention

◇ SYNONYMS: fiction, fantasy, lie, yarn (informal), fabrication, falsehood, untruth inventive adj creative and resourceful: her inventive use of colour

◇ SYNONYMS: creative, original, innovative, imaginative, inspired, fertile, ingenious, resourceful > inventiveness n

inventory (in-ven-tree) n, pl -tories

1 a detailed list of the objects in a particular place

◇ SYNONYMS: list, record, catalogue, listing, account, roll, file, register

► vb -tories, -torying, -toried

2 to make a list of inverse adj

1 opposite in effect, sequence, direction, etc.

2 (maths) linking two variables in such a way that one increases as the other decreases

► n

3 the exact opposite: the inverse of this image

4 (maths) an inverse element inversion n

1 the act of inverting or state of being inverted

2 something inverted, esp. a reversal of order, functions, etc.: an inversion of their previous relationship

> inversive adj

invert vb

1 to turn upside down or inside out

2 to reverse in effect, sequence, or direction > invertible adj

invertebrate n

1 any animal without a backbone, such as an insect, worm, or octopus

► adj

2 of or designating invertebrates inverted commas pl n same as quotation marks invest vb

1 (often foll. by in) to put (money) into an enterprise with the expectation of profit

◇ SYNONYMS: spend, expend, advance, venture, put in, devote, lay out, sink in 2 (often foll. by in) to devote (time or effort to a project)

◇ SYNONYMS: spend, expend, advance, venture, put in, devote, lay out, sink in 3 to give power or authority to: invested with the powers of government

◇ SYNONYMS: empower, provide, charge, sanction, license, authorize, vest 4 (often foll. by in) to install someone (in an official position)

5 (foll. by with or in) to credit or provide (a person with qualities): he was invested with great common sense

6 invest in to buy: she invested in some barbecue equipment

◇ SYNONYMS invest in something: buy, get, purchase, pay for, obtain, acquire, procure

7 invest with (usually poetic) to cover, as if with a coat: when spring invests the trees with leaves > investor n

investigate vb -gating, -gated to inquire into (a situation or problem) thoroughly in order to discover the truth: the police are currently investigating the case

◇ SYNONYMS: examine, study, research, go into, explore, look into, inspect, probe into > investigative adj

> investigator n

investigation n a careful search or examination in order to discover facts

◇ SYNONYMS: examination, study, inquiry, review, search, survey, probe, inspection investiture n the formal installation of a person in an office or rank investment n

1 the act of investing

◇ SYNONYMS: investing, backing, funding, financing, contribution, speculation, transaction, expenditure

2 money invested

◇ SYNONYMS: stake, interest, share, concern, portion, ante (informal)

3 something in which money is invested

◇ SYNONYMS: buy, asset, acquisition, venture, risk, gamble inveterate adj

1 deep-rooted or ingrained: an inveterate enemy of Marxism

2 confirmed in a habit or practice: an inveterate gambler > inveteracy n

invidious adj likely to cause resentment or unpopularity invigilate (in-vij-il-late) vb -lating, -lated (Brit) to supervise people who are sitting an examination > invigilation n

> invigilator n

invigorate vb -rating, -rated to give energy to or refresh > invigorating adj

invincible adj incapable of being defeated: an army of invincible strength > invincibility n

> invincibly adv

inviolable adj that must not be broken or violated: an inviolable oath > inviolability n

inviolate adj free from harm or injury > inviolacy n

invisible adj

1 not able to be seen by the eye: invisible radiation

◇ SYNONYMS: unseen, imperceptible, indiscernible, unseeable

2 concealed from sight

3 (econ) relating to services, such as insurance and freight, rather than goods: invisible earnings > invisibility n

> invisibly adv

invitation n

1 a request to attend a dance, meal, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: request, call, invite (informal), summons

2 the card or paper on which an invitation is written invite vb -viting, -vited

1 to ask (a person) in a friendly or polite way (to do something, attend an event, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: ask

2 to make a request for, esp. publicly or formally: we invite applications for six scholarships

◇ SYNONYMS: request, look for, bid for, appeal for

3 to bring on or provoke: his theory invites disaster

◇ SYNONYMS: encourage, attract, cause, court, ask for (informal), generate, foster, tempt

4 to tempt

► n

5 (informal) an invitation inviting adj tempting or attractive ◇ SYNONYMS: tempting, appealing, attractive, welcoming, enticing, seductive, alluring, mouthwatering in vitro adv, adj (of biological processes or reactions) happening outside the body of the organism in an artificial environment invocation n

- 1 the act of invoking
- 2 a prayer to God or another deity asking for help, forgiveness, etc.
- > invocatory adj

invoice n

- 1 a bill for goods and services supplied
- ▶ vb -voicing, -voiced
- 2 to present (a customer) with an invoice invoke vb -voking, -voked

- 1 to put (a law or penalty) into use: chapter 8 of the UN charter was invoked
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: apply, use, implement, initiate, resort to, put into effect
- 2 to bring about: the hills invoked a feeling of serenity
- 3 to call on (God or another deity) for help, inspiration, etc.
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: call upon, appeal to, pray to, petition, beseech, entreat, supplicate
- 4 to summon (a spirit) by uttering magic words
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: call upon, appeal to, pray to, petition, beseech, entreat, supplicate

involuntary adj

- 1 carried out without one's conscious wishes; unintentional
- 2 (physiol) (esp. of a movement or muscle) performed or acting without conscious control
- > involuntarily adv

involve vb -volving, -volved

- 1 to include as a necessary part
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: entail, mean, require, occasion (formal), imply, give rise to, necessitate
- 2 to have an effect on: around fifty riders were involved and some were hurt
- 3 to implicate: several people were involved in the crime
- 4 to make complicated: the situation was further involved by her disappearance
- > involvement n

involved adj

1 complicated

◇ SYNONYMS: complicated, complex, intricate, hard, confused, confusing, elaborate, tangled

2 involved in concerned in invulnerable adj not able to be wounded or damaged > invulnerability n

inward adj

1 directed towards the middle of something

◇ SYNONYMS: incoming, entering, inbound, ingoing

2 situated within

3 of the mind or spirit: inward meditation

◇ SYNONYMS: internal, inner, private, personal, inside, secret, hidden, interior

4 of one's own country or a specific country: inward investment

► adv

5 same as inwards inwardly adv

1 within the private thoughts or feelings: inwardly troubled, he kept smiling

2 not aloud: to laugh inwardly

3 in or on the inside inwards or inward adv towards the inside or middle of something iodine n (chem) a bluish-black element found in seaweed and used in medicine and in the manufacture of dyes. SYMBOL: I

iodize or -dise vb -dizing, -dized or -dising, -dised to treat with iodine > iodization or -disation n ion n an electrically charged atom or group of atoms formed by the loss or gain of one or more electrons ionic adj of or in the form of ions ionize or -ise vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised to change or become changed into ions > ionization or -isation n ionosphere n a region of ionized layers of air in the earth's upper atmosphere, which reflects radio waves > ionospheric adj

iota (eye-oh-ta) n

1 the ninth letter in the Greek alphabet (I, i)

2 a very small amount: I don't feel one iota of guilt

IOU n a written promise or reminder to pay a debt

IP address (computers) internet protocol address: a unique code that identifies each computer connected to the internet iPod n (trademark) a small portable digital audio player capable of storing thousands of tracks in a variety of formats including MP3

IQ intelligence quotient

Iranian adj

1 of Iran

► n

2 a person from Iran

3 a branch of the Indo-European family of languages, including Persian Iraqi adj

1 of Iraq

► n

2 a person from Iraq irascible adj easily angered > irascibility n

> irascibly adv

irate adj very angry ire n (literary) anger iridescent (ir-rid-ess-ent) adj having shimmering changing colours like a rainbow > iridescence n iridium n (chem) a hard yellowish-white chemical element that occurs in platinum ores and is used as an alloy with platinum. SYMBOL: Ir

iris n

1 the coloured muscular membrane in the eye that surrounds and controls the size of the pupil

2 a tall plant with long pointed leaves and large flowers

Irish adj

1 of Ireland

► n

2 the dialect of English spoken in Ireland

► pl n

3 the Irish the people of Ireland irk vb to irritate or vex irksome adj annoying or tiresome iron n

1 a strong silvery-white metallic element, widely used for structural and engineering purposes. SYMBOL: Fe

2 a tool made of iron

3 a small electrically heated device with a weighted flat bottom for pressing clothes

4 (golf) a club with an angled metal head

5 a splintlike support for a malformed leg

6 great strength or resolve: a will of iron

7 strike while the iron is hot to act at a suitable moment

► adj

8 made of iron

◇ SYNONYMS: ferrous, ferric

9 very hard or merciless: iron determination

◇ SYNONYMS: inflexible, hard, strong, tough, rigid, adamant, unconditional, steely

10 very strong: an iron constitution

◇ SYNONYMS: inflexible, hard, strong, tough, rigid, adamant, unconditional, steely

► vb

11 to smooth (clothes or fabric) by removing (creases) with an iron

► See also iron out

Iron Age n a phase of human culture that began in the Middle East about 1100 BC, during which iron tools and weapons were used ironbark n an Australian eucalyptus with hard rough bark ironic or ironical adj of, characterized by, or using irony

◇ SYNONYMS: sarcastic, dry, acid, bitter, mocking, wry, satirical, tongue-in-cheek

> ironically adv

ironing n clothes to be ironed ironing board n a narrow cloth-covered board, usually with folding legs, on which to iron clothes iron out vb to settle (a problem or difficulty) through negotiation or discussion

◇ SYNONYMS iron something out: settle, resolve, sort out, get rid of, reconcile, clear up, put right, straighten out irony n, pl -nies

1 the mildly sarcastic use of words to imply the opposite of what they normally mean

◇ SYNONYMS: sarcasm, mockery, ridicule, satire, cynicism, derision

2 a situation or result that is the direct opposite of what was expected or intended

◇ SYNONYMS: paradox, incongruity irrational adj

1 not based on logical reasoning

◇ SYNONYMS: illogical, crazy (informal), absurd, unreasonable, preposterous, nonsensical

2 incapable of reasoning

3 (maths) (of an equation or expression) involving radicals or fractional exponents > irrationality n

> irrationally adv

irrefutable adj impossible to deny or disprove irregular adj

1 uneven in shape, position, arrangement, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: uneven, rough, ragged, crooked, jagged, bumpy, contorted, lopsided

2 not conforming to accepted practice or routine

◇ SYNONYMS: inappropriate, unconventional, unethical, unusual, extraordinary, exceptional, peculiar, unofficial

3 (of a word) not following the usual pattern of formation in a language

4 not occurring at expected or equal intervals: an irregular pulse

◇ SYNONYMS: variable, erratic, occasional, random, casual, shaky, sporadic, haphazard

5 (of troops) not belonging to regular forces

◇ SYNONYMS: unofficial, underground, guerrilla, resistance, partisan, rogue, paramilitary, mercenary

► n

6 a soldier not in a regular army > irregularity n

> irregularly adv

irrelevant adj not connected with the matter in hand

◇ SYNONYMS: unconnected, unrelated, unimportant, inappropriate, peripheral, immaterial, extraneous, beside the point > irrelevance or irrelevancy n irreparable adj not able to be repaired or put right: irreparable damage to his reputation > irreparably adv

irreplaceable adj impossible to replace: acres of irreplaceable moorland were devastated irrepressible adj not capable of being repressed, controlled, or restrained

- > irrepressibility n
- > irrepressibly adv

irreproachable adj blameless or faultless > irreproachability n

irresistible adj

1 not able to be resisted or refused: irresistible pressure from the financial markets

◇ SYNONYMS: overwhelming, compelling, overpowering, urgent, compulsive

2 extremely attractive: an irresistible woman > irresistibility n > irresistibly adv

irresponsible adj

1 not showing or done with due care for the consequences of one's actions or attitudes; reckless

◇ SYNONYMS: thoughtless, reckless, careless, unreliable, untrustworthy, shiftless, scatterbrained

2 not capable of accepting responsibility > irresponsibility n

> irresponsibly adv

irreverence n

1 lack of due respect

2 a disrespectful remark or act > irreverent adj

irreversible adj not able to be reversed or put right again: irreversible loss of memory

> irreversibly adv

irrevocable adj not possible to change or undo > irrevocably adv

irrigate vb -gating, -gated

1 to supply (land) with water through ditches or pipes in order to encourage the growth of crops

2 (med) to bathe (a wound or part of the body) > irrigation n

> irrigator n

irritable adj

1 easily annoyed or angered

2 (pathol) abnormally sensitive

3 (biol) (of all living organisms) capable of responding to such stimuli as heat, light, and touch > irritability n

irritant n

1 something that annoys or irritates

2 a substance that causes a part of the body to become tender or inflamed

► adj

3 causing irritation irritate vb -tating, -tated

1 to annoy or anger (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: annoy, anger, bother, needle (informal), infuriate, exasperate, nettle, irk

2 (pathol) to cause (an organ or part of the body) to become inflamed or tender

◇ SYNONYMS: inflame, pain, rub, scratch, scrape, chafe

3 (biol) to stimulate (an organ) to respond in a characteristic manner > irritation n

is vb third person singular of the present tense of be

ISA (eye-sa) n (in Britain) individual savings account isinglass (ize-ing-glass) n

- 1 a gelatine made from the air bladders of freshwater fish
- 2 same as mica

Islam n

- 1 the Muslim religion teaching that there is only one God and that Mohammed is his prophet
- 2 Muslim countries and civilization
 - > Islamic adj
 - > Islamist adj, n island n

- 1 a piece of land that is completely surrounded by water
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: isle, atoll, islet, ait or eyot (dialect), cay or key
- 2 something isolated, detached, or surrounded
- 3 RELATED ADJECTIVE: insular

islander n

- 1 a person who lives on an island
- 2 Islander (NZ) a Pacific Islander isle n (except when part of a place name) a poetic name for an island islet n a small island isobar (ice-oh-bar) n

- 1 a line on a map connecting places of equal atmospheric pressure
- 2 (physics) any of two or more atoms that have the same mass number but different atomic numbers
 - > isobaric adj > isobarism n

isolate vb -lating, -lated

1 to place apart or alone

◇ SYNONYMS: separate, break up, cut off, detach, split up, insulate, segregate, disconnect

2 (chem) to obtain (a substance) in an uncombined form

3 (med) to quarantine (a person or animal) with a contagious disease ◇ SYNONYMS: quarantine > isolation n

isolationism n policy of not participating in international affairs > isolationist adv

isomer (ice-oh-mer) n (chem) a substance whose molecules contain the same atoms as another but in a different arrangement > isomeric adj

isometric adj

1 having equal dimensions or measurements

2 (physiol) relating to muscular contraction that does not produce shortening of the muscle

3 (of a three-dimensional drawing) having the three axes equally inclined and all lines drawn to scale > isometrically adv

isometrics n a system of isometric exercises isosceles triangle (ice-soss-ill-eez) n a triangle with two sides of equal length isotherm (ice-oh-therm) n a line on a map linking places of equal temperature isotope (ice-oh-tope) n one of two or more atoms with the same number of protons in the nucleus but a different number of neutrons > isotopic adj

> isotopy n

ISP internet service provider: a business providing its customers with connection to the internet

Israeli adj

1 of Israel

► n, pl -lis or -li

2 a person from Israel issue n

1 a topic of interest or discussion

◇ SYNONYMS: topic, point, matter, problem, question, subject, theme

2 an important subject requiring a decision

◇ SYNONYMS: point, question, bone of contention

3 a particular edition of a magazine or newspaper

◇ SYNONYMS: edition, printing, copy, publication, number, version

4 a consequence or result

5 (law) the descendants of a person

◇ SYNONYMS: children, offspring, babies, kids (informal), heirs, descendants, progeny

6 the act of sending or giving out something

7 the act of emerging; outflow

8 something flowing out, such as a river

9 at issue

A under discussion

B in disagreement

10 force the issue to compel decision on some matter

11 join issue to join in controversy

12 take issue (with) to disagree (with)

◇ SYNONYMS take issue with something or someone: disagree with, question, challenge, oppose, dispute, object to, argue with, take exception to

► vb -suing, -sued

13 to make (a statement, etc.) publicly

◇ SYNONYMS: give out, release, publish, announce, deliver, spread, broadcast, distribute

14 to supply officially (with)

15 to send out or distribute

◇ SYNONYMS: give out, release, publish, announce, deliver, spread, broadcast, distribute

16 to publish

◇ SYNONYMS: give out, release, publish, announce, deliver, spread, broadcast, distribute

17 to come forth or emerge > issuable adj

isthmus (iss-muss) n a narrow strip of land connecting two relatively large land areas it pron

1 refers to a nonhuman, animal, plant, or inanimate thing, or sometimes to a small baby

2 refers to something unspecified or implied or to a previous or understood clause, phrase, or word: I knew it

3 used to represent human life or experience in respect of the present situation: how's it going?

4 used as the subject of impersonal verbs: it is snowing; it's Friday

5 (informal) the crucial or ultimate point: the steering failed and I thought that was it

► n

6 (informal)

A sexual intercourse

B sex appeal

7 a desirable quality or ability

IT information technology

Italian adj

1 of Italy

► n

2 a person from Italy

3 the official language of Italy and one of the official languages of Switzerland italic adj

1 of a style of printing type in which the characters slant to the right

► pl n

2 italics italic type or print, used for emphasis italicize or -cise vb -cizing, -cized or -cising, -cised to print (text) in italic type > italicization or -cisation n itch n

1 a skin irritation causing a desire to scratch

◇ SYNONYMS: irritation, tingling, prickling, itchiness

2 a restless desire

◇ SYNONYMS: desire, longing, craving, passion, yen (informal), hunger, lust, yearning

3 any skin disorder, such as scabies, characterized by intense itching

► vb

4 to feel an irritating or tickling sensation

◇ SYNONYMS: prickle, tickle, tingle

5 to have a restless desire (to do something): they were itching to join the fight

◇ SYNONYMS: long, ache, crave, pine, hunger, lust, yearn, hanker itchy adj itchier, itchiest

1 having an itch

2 have itchy feet to have a desire to travel > itchiness n

item n

1 a single thing in a list or collection

◇ SYNONYMS: article, thing, object, piece, unit, component

2 a piece of information: a news item

◇ SYNONYMS: report, story, piece, account, note, feature, notice, article

3 (accounting) an entry in an account

4 (informal) a couple itemize or -ise vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised to put on a list or make a list of > itemization or -isation n iterate vb -ating, -ated to say or do again > iteration n

> iterative adj

itinerant adj

1 working for a short time in various places

► n

2 an itinerant worker or other person itinerary n, pl -aries

1 a detailed plan of a journey

◇ SYNONYMS: schedule, programme, route, timetable

2 a record of a journey

3 a guidebook for travellers its adj

1 of or belonging to it: its left rear wheel; I can see its logical consequence

► pron

2 something belonging to it: its is over there it's it is or it has itself pron

1

A the reflexive form of it: the cat scratched itself

B used for emphasis: even the money itself won't convince me

2 its normal or usual self: my parrot doesn't seem itself these days

ITV (in Britain) Independent Television

IUD intrauterine device: a coil-shaped contraceptive fitted into the womb

IVF in vitro fertilization ivory n, pl -ries

1 a hard smooth creamy white type of bone that makes up a major part of the tusks of elephants

► adj

2 yellowish-white > ivory-like adj

ivory tower n remoteness from the realities of everyday life > ivory-towered adj

ivy n, pl ivies

1 a woody climbing or trailing plant with evergreen leaves and black berry-like fruits

2 any of various other climbing or creeping plants, such as the poison ivy iwi (ee-wee) n (NZ) a Māori tribe

Jj

jab vb jabbing, jabbed

1 to poke sharply

◇ SYNONYMS: poke, dig, punch, thrust, tap, stab, nudge, prod

► n

2 a quick short punch

3 (informal) an injection: a flu jab

4 a sharp poke

◇ SYNONYMS: poke, dig, punch, thrust, tap, stab, nudge, prod

jabber vb

1 to speak very quickly and excitedly; chatter

► n

2 quick excited chatter jabiru n a large white-and-black Australian stork jacaranda n a tropical American tree with sweet-smelling wood and pale purple flowers jack n

1 a mechanical device used to raise a motor vehicle or other heavy object

2 a playing card with a picture of a pageboy on it

3 (bowls) a small white bowl at which the players aim their bowls

4 (electrical engineering) a socket into which a plug can be inserted

5 a flag flown at the bow of a ship, showing nationality

6 one of the pieces used in the game of jacks

7 every man jack everyone without exception

► See also jack up jackal n a doglike wild animal of Africa and Asia, which feeds on the decaying flesh of dead animals jackaroo or jackeroo n, pl -roos (Austral) a trainee on a sheep station jackass n

1 a fool

2 a male donkey

3 laughing jackass same as kookaburra jackboot n

1 a leather military boot reaching up to the knee

2 brutal and authoritarian rule jackdaw n a large black-and-grey crowlike bird of Europe and Asia jacket n

1 a short coat with a front opening and long sleeves

2 the skin of a potato

3 same as dust jacket

jackknife vb -knifing, -knifed

1 (of an articulated lorry) to go out of control in such a way that the trailer swings round at a sharp angle to the cab

► n, pl -knives

2 a knife with a blade that can be folded into the handle

3 a dive in which the diver bends at the waist in midair jackpot n

1 the most valuable prize that can be won in a gambling game

◇ SYNONYMS: prize, winnings, award, reward, bonanza

2 hit the jackpot (informal) to be very fortunate or very successful jack up vb

1 to raise (a motor vehicle) with a jack

2 to increase (prices or salaries)

3 (NZ informal) to organize something through unorthodox channels

► n jack-up

4 (NZ informal) something achieved dishonestly

Jacobean (jak-a-bee-an) adj of or in the reign of James I of England and Ireland (1603–25)

Jacobite n (history) a supporter of James II and his descendants

Jacquard (jak-ard) n a fabric with an intricate design incorporated into the weave

Jacuzzi (jak-oo-zee) n (trademark) a large circular bath with a mechanism that swirls the water jade n

1 an ornamental semiprecious stone, usually green in colour

► adj

2 bluish-green

jaded adj tired or bored from overindulgence or overwork jagged (jag-gid) adj having an uneven edge with sharp points jaguar n a large wild cat of south and central America, with a spotted coat jail or gaol n

1 a prison

◇ SYNONYMS: prison, penitentiary (US), confinement, dungeon, nick (Brit slang), slammer (slang), reformatory, boob (Austral slang)

► vb

2 to confine in prison

◇ SYNONYMS: imprison, confine, detain, lock up, put away, intern, incarcerate, send down jailbird n (informal) a person who is or has often been in jail jailer or gaoler n a person in charge of a jail jalopy (jal-lop-ee) n, pl -lopies (informal) a dilapidated old car jam¹ vb jamming, jammed

1 to wedge (an object) into a tight space or against another object: the table was jammed against the wall

◇ SYNONYMS: pack, force, press, stuff, squeeze, ram, wedge, cram

2 to fill (a place) with people or vehicles: the surrounding roads were jammed for miles

◇ SYNONYMS: congest, block, clog, stick, stall, obstruct

3 to make or become stuck or locked: the window was jammed open

4 (radio) to prevent the clear reception of (radio communications) by transmitting other signals on the same wavelength

5 (slang) to play in a jam session

6 jam on the brakes to apply the brakes of a vehicle very suddenly

► n

7 a situation where a large number of people or vehicles are crowded into a place: a traffic jam

8 (informal) a difficult situation: you are in a bit of a jam

◇ SYNONYMS: predicament, tight spot, situation, trouble, hole (slang), fix (informal), mess, pinch

9 same as jam session jam² n a food made from fruit boiled with sugar until the mixture sets, used for spreading on bread jamb n a side post of a doorframe or window frame jamboree n a large gathering or celebration jam-packed adj filled to capacity jam session n (slang) an improvised performance by jazz or rock musicians

Jan. January

Jandal n (trademark, NZ) a rubber-soled sandal attached to the foot by a thong between the big toe and the next toe

jangle vb -gling, -gled

1 to make a harsh unpleasant ringing noise

2 to produce an irritating or unpleasant effect on: the caffeine in coffee can jangle the nerves janitor n (chiefly Scot & US & Canad) the caretaker of a school or other building

January n the first month of the year japan n

1 a glossy black lacquer, originally from E Asia, which is used on wood or metal

- vb -panning, -panned
- 2 to varnish with japan

Japanese adj

- 1 of Japan
- n
- 2 pl -nese a person from Japan
- 3 the language of Japan

jape n (old-fashioned) a joke or prank japonica n

- 1 a Japanese shrub with red flowers and yellowish fruit
- 2 same as camellia

jar¹ n

- 1 a wide-mouthed cylindrical glass container, used for storing food
- ◇ SYNONYMS: pot, container, drum, vase, jug, pitcher, urn, crock
- 2 (Brit informal) a glass of beer

jar² vb jarring, jarred

- 1 to have an irritating or unpleasant effect: sometimes a light remark jarred on her father
- ◇ SYNONYMS: irritate, annoy, offend, nettle, irk, grate on, get on your nerves (informal)
- 2 to be in disagreement or conflict: their very different temperaments jarred
- 3 to jolt or bump
- ◇ SYNONYMS: jolt, rock, shake, bump, rattle, vibrate, convulse
- n
- 4 a jolt or shock
- > jarring adj

jargon n

1 specialized language relating to a particular subject, profession, or group ◇ SYNONYMS: parlance, idiom, usage, argot, leetspeak, l33tspeak or 1337speak (computers), netspeak (computers) 2 pretentious or unintelligible language jarrah n an Australian eucalypt yielding valuable timber jasmine n a shrub or climbing plant with sweet-smelling flowers jasper n a kind of quartz, usually red in colour, which is used as a gemstone and for ornamental decoration jaundice n yellowing of the skin and the whites of the eyes, caused by an excess of bile pigments in the blood jaundiced adj

1 bitter or cynical: the financial markets are taking a jaundiced view of the Government's motives 2 having jaundice jaunt n

1 a pleasure trip or outing
► vb
2 to go on a jaunt

jaunty adj -tier, -tiest

1 cheerful and energetic: he managed to keep up a jaunty air 2 smart and attractive: a jaunty little hat > jauntily adv

javelin n a light spear thrown in a sports competition jaw n

1 either of the bones that hold the teeth and frame the mouth

2 the lower part of the face below the mouth

3 (slang) a long chat

► vb

4 (slang) to have a long chat

◇ SYNONYMS: talk, chat, gossip, chatter, spout (informal), natter

jay n

1 a bird of Europe and Asia with a pinkish-brown body and blue-and-black wings

2 a N American bird with bright blue feathers jaywalking n crossing the road in a dangerous or careless manner > jaywalker n

jazz n

1 a kind of popular music of African-American origin that has an exciting rhythm and often involves improvisation

2 and all that jazz (slang) and other related things jazz up vb (informal)

1 to play (a piece of music) in a jazzy style

2 to make (something) appear more interesting or lively: never seek to jazz up a plain story

jazzy adj -zier, -ziest

1 colourful and modern: jazzy shop fronts

2 of or like jazz

JCB n (trademark, Brit) a large machine used in building, that has a shovel on the front and a digger arm on the back jealous adj

1 suspicious or fearful of being displaced by a rival

◇ SYNONYMS: suspicious, protective, wary, doubtful, sceptical, vigilant, watchful, possessive

2 envious: I was jealous of the girls who had boyfriends

◇ SYNONYMS: envious, grudging, resentful, green, green with envy, desirous, covetous

3 resulting from jealousy: my jealous tears > jealously adv

jealousy n, pl -ousies the state of or an instance of feeling jealous ◇ SYNONYMS: suspicion, mistrust, possessiveness, doubt, spite, resentment, wariness, dubiety jeans pl n casual denim trousers

Jeep n (trademark) a small road vehicle with four-wheel drive jeer vb

1 to be derisive towards (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: mock, deride, heckle, barrack, ridicule, taunt, scoff, gibe

► n

2 a cry of derision

◇ SYNONYMS: mockery, abuse, ridicule, taunt, boo, derision, gibe, catcall > jeering adj, n

Jehovah n God

jejune adj

1 simple and unsophisticated

2 dull and uninteresting jell vb

1 to take on a definite form: the changes have had little time to jell

2 same as gel

jellied adj prepared in a jelly: jellied eels jelly n, pl -lies

1 a fruit-flavoured dessert set with gelatine

2 a food made from fruit juice boiled with sugar until the mixture sets, used for spreading on bread

3 a savoury food preparation set with gelatine > jelly-like adj

jellyfish n, pl -fish a small sea creature with a jelly-like umbrella-shaped body and trailing tentacles jemmy or (US) jimmy n, pl -mies a short steel crowbar, used by burglars to prise open doors and windows jenny n, pl -nies a female donkey, ass, or wren jeopardize or -dise vb -dizing, -dized or -dising, -dised to put (something) at risk: the escalating violence that is jeopardizing current peace moves jeopardy n danger of harm, loss, or death: the survival of public hospitals is in jeopardy

◇ SYNONYMS: danger, risk, peril, vulnerability, insecurity jerboa n a small rodent of Asia and N Africa with long hind legs used for jumping jerk vb

1 to move with an irregular or spasmodic motion

◇ SYNONYMS: jolt, bang, bump, lurch

2 to pull or push (something) abruptly or spasmodically

◇ SYNONYMS: jolt, bang, bump, lurch

► n

3 an abrupt or spasmodic movement

◇ SYNONYMS: lurch, movement, thrust, twitch, jolt

4 an irregular jolting motion: the irritating jerk that heralded a gear change

◇ SYNONYMS: lurch, movement, thrust, twitch, jolt

5 (slang, chiefly US & Canad) a stupid or ignorant person jerkin n a short jacket jerky adj jerkier, jerkiest having an irregular jolting motion: avoid any sudden or jerky movements

> jerkily adv

> jerkiness n

jerry-built adj (of houses) built badly with cheap materials jerry can n a flat-sided can used for carrying petrol or water jersey n

1 a knitted garment covering the upper part of the body

2 a soft, slightly stretchy, machine-knitted fabric

Jersey n a breed of reddish-brown dairy cattle that produces milk with a high butterfat content

Jerusalem artichoke n a small yellowish-white vegetable that grows underground jest n

1 something done or said to amuse people

2 in jest as a joke: many a true word is spoken in jest

► vb

3 to do or say something to amuse people jester n a professional clown employed by a king or nobleman during the Middle Ages

Jesuit (jezz-yew-it) n a member of the Society of Jesus, a Roman Catholic religious order

> Jesuitical adj

jet¹ n

1 an aircraft driven by jet propulsion

2 a thin stream of liquid or gas forced out of a small hole

◇ SYNONYMS: stream, current, spring, flow, rush, flood, burst, spray

3 an outlet or nozzle through which a stream of liquid or gas is forced ► vb jetting, jetted

4 to travel by jet aircraft

◇ SYNONYMS: fly, wing, cruise, soar, zoom jet² n a hard black mineral that is polished and used in jewellery jet-black adj deep black jetboat n a motorboat propelled by a jet of water jet lag n a feeling of fatigue and disorientation often experienced by air passengers who have crossed several time zones in a short space of time jet-propelled adj driven by jet propulsion jet propulsion n a method of propulsion by which an aircraft is moved forward by the force of the exhaust gases ejected from the rear

jetsam n

1 goods thrown overboard to lighten a ship during a storm

2 flotsam and jetsam See flotsam jet set n rich and fashionable people who travel widely for pleasure > jet-setter n

> jet-setting adj

jettison vb

1 to abandon or give up: jettisoning democracy in favour of fascism

2 to throw overboard jetty n, pl -ties

1 a landing pier or dock

2 a structure built from a shore out into the water to protect a harbour

Jew n

1 a person whose religion is Judaism

2 a descendant of the ancient Hebrews jewel n

1 a precious or semiprecious stone

◇ SYNONYMS: gemstone, gem, ornament, sparkler (informal), rock (slang)

2 a person or thing regarded as precious or special: a fantastic little car, a real little jewel

◇ SYNONYMS: treasure, wonder, darling, pearl, gem, paragon, pride and joy, taonga (NZ)

3 a gemstone used as part of the machinery of a watch jeweller or (US) jeweler n a person who buys, sells, and repairs jewellery jewellery or (US) jewelry n objects such as rings, necklaces, and bracelets, worn for decoration

◇ SYNONYMS: jewels, treasure, gems, trinkets, ornaments, finery, regalia, bling (slang)

jewfish n (Austral) a freshwater catfish

Jewish adj of Jews or Judaism

Jewry n Jews collectively jew's-harp n a small musical instrument held between the teeth and played by plucking a metal strip with the finger jib¹ n

1 (naut) a triangular sail set in front of the foremast

2 the cut of someone's jib a person's manner or style jib² vb jibbing, jibbed (chiefly Brit)

1 (of an animal) to stop short and refuse to go forwards: my animal jibbed three times

2 jib at to object to: he jibs at any suggestion that his side are the underdogs jib³ n the projecting arm of a crane jibe¹ n

1 an insulting or taunting remark

► vb jibing, jibed

2 to make insulting or taunting remarks jibe² vb jibing, jibed (informal) to be in accord or be consistent: their apparent devotion hardly jibed with what he had heard about them jiffy n, pl jiffies (informal) a very short time: won't be a jiffy!

jig n

1 a lively folk dance

2 music for this dance

3 a mechanical device that holds and locates a part during machining

► vb jiggling, jiggled

4 to dance a jig

5 to move with quick jerky movements jiggery-pokery n (informal, chiefly Brit) dishonest behaviour; cheating jiggle vb -gling, -gled to move with quick jerky movements jigsaw n

1 Also called: jigsaw puzzle a puzzle in which the player has to put together a picture that has been cut into irregularly shaped interlocking pieces

2 a mechanical saw with a fine steel blade for cutting along curved or irregular lines in sheets of material jihad n an Islamic holy war against unbelievers jilt vb to leave or reject (a lover) abruptly or callously jingle n

1 a short catchy song used to advertise a product

2 a light ringing sound

► vb -gling, -gled

3 to make a light ringing sound jingoism n excessive and aggressive patriotism > jingoistic or jingoist adj jinks pl n high jinks boisterous or mischievous behaviour jinni or djinni n, pl jinn or djinn (in Islamic belief) a being or spirit that can take on human or animal form

jinx n

1 someone or something believed to bring bad luck

► vb

2 to bring bad luck to jitters pl n the jitters (informal) a feeling of extreme nervousness experienced before an important event: I had a case of the jitters before my first two speeches

jittery adj nervous jive n

1 a lively jerky dance that was popular in the 1940s and 1950s

► vb jiving, jived

2 to dance the jive > jiver n

job n

1 a person's occupation or paid employment

◇ SYNONYMS: position, work, calling, business, field, career, employment, profession

2 a piece of work; task

◇ SYNONYMS: task, duty, work, venture, enterprise, undertaking, assignment, chore

3 the performance of a task: he made a good job of the repair

4 (informal) a difficult task: they are having a job to fill his shoes

5 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) a crime, esp. a robbery

6 just the job (informal) exactly what is required

7 make the best of a bad job to cope as well as possible in unsatisfactory circumstances jobbing adj doing individual jobs for payment: a jobbing gardener

jobless adj

1 unemployed

◇ SYNONYMS: unemployed, redundant, out of work, inactive, unoccupied, idle

► pl n

2 people who are unemployed: the young jobless job lot n a miscellaneous collection of articles sold together job sharing n an arrangement by which a job is shared by two part-time workers jockey n

1 a person who rides horses in races as a profession

► vb

2 jockey for position to try to obtain an advantage by skilful manoeuvring jockstrap n an elasticated belt with a pouch to support the genitals, worn by male athletes. Also called: athletic support jocose (joke-kohss) adj (old-fashioned) playful or humorous > jocosely adv

jocular adj
1 (of a person) often joking; good-humoured 2 (of a remark) meant lightly or humorously > jocularly n > jocularly adv

jocund (jok-kund) adj (literary) cheerful or merry jodhpurs pl n trousers worn for riding, which are loose-fitting around the thighs and tight-fitting below the knees joe n (Austral) a young kangaroo jog vb jogging, jogged 1 to run at a gentle pace for exercise ◇ SYNONYMS: run, trot, canter, lope 2 to nudge slightly ◇ SYNONYMS: nudge, push, shake, prod 3 jog along to continue in a plodding way: many people jog along in second gear for the whole of their lives

4 jog someone's memory to remind someone of something
► n
5 a slow run as a form of exercise > jogger n > jogging n

joggle vb -gling, -gled to shake or move with a slightly jolting motion joie de vivre (zhwah de veev-ra) n enjoyment of life join vb

1 to become a member of (a club or organization)

◇ SYNONYMS: enrol in, enter, sign up for, enlist in

2 to become part of (a queue or list)

3 to meet (someone) as a companion: join me for a cup of coffee

4 to take part in (an activity): join the relief effort

5 (of two roads or rivers) to meet and come together

6 to bring into contact: join hands

◇ SYNONYMS: connect, unite, couple, link, combine, attach, fasten, add

7 join forces to combine efforts with someone

► n

8 a place where two things are joined together

► See also join up joined-up adj integrated by an overall strategy: joined-up government joiner n a person whose job is making finished woodwork, such as window frames and stairs joinery n the skill or work of a joiner joint adj

1 shared by or belonging to two or more parties: the two countries have issued a joint statement

◇ SYNONYMS: shared, mutual, collective, communal, united, joined, allied, combined

► n

2 (anatomy) the junction between two or more bones: a hip joint

3 a junction of two or more parts or objects: a mortar joint

◇ SYNONYMS: junction, connection, brace, bracket, hinge, intersection, node, nexus

4 a piece of meat suitable for roasting

5 (slang) a building or place of entertainment: fast-food joints

6 (slang) a cannabis cigarette

7 out of joint

A (informal) out of order or out of keeping: they find their routine lives out of joint with their training

B (of a bone) knocked out of its normal position

8 put someone's nose out of joint See nose

► vb

9 to provide a joint or joints

10 to cut or divide (meat) into joints > jointed adj

> jointly adv

join up vb to become a member of a military organization joist n a beam made of timber, steel, or concrete, used as a support in the construction of floors and roofs jojoba (hoe-hoe-ba) n a shrub whose seeds contain an oil used in cosmetics joke n

1 something that is said or done to amuse people

◇ SYNONYMS: jest, gag (informal), wisecrack (informal), witticism, crack (informal), quip, pun, one-liner (informal)

2 someone or something that is ridiculous: the country's inexperienced leaders are regarded as something of a joke

◇ SYNONYMS: laughing stock, clown, buffoon

3 no joke (informal) a serious or difficult matter: getting over mountain passes at ten thousand feet is no joke

► vb joking, joked

4 to say or do something to amuse people

◇ SYNONYMS: jest, kid (informal), mock, tease, taunt, quip, banter, play the fool > jokey adj

> jokingly adv

joker n

1 a person who jokes a lot

◇ SYNONYMS: comedian, comic, wit, clown, wag, jester, prankster, buffoon

2 (slang) a person regarded without respect: waiting for the next jokers to sign up

3 an extra playing card in a pack, which can replace any other card in some games

4 (Austral & NZ informal) a chap jollification n a merry festivity jollity n the condition of being jolly jolly adj -lier, -liest

1 full of good humour

◇ SYNONYMS: happy, cheerful, merry, upbeat, playful, cheery, genial, chirpy (informal)

2 involving a lot of fun: big jolly birthday parties

◇ SYNONYMS: happy, cheerful, merry, upbeat, playful, cheery, genial, chirpy (informal)

► adv

3 (Brit informal) very: I'm going to have a jolly good try

► vb -lies, -lying, -lied

4 jolly along (informal) to try to keep (someone) cheerful by flattery or cheerful chat jolt n

1 a severe shock

◇ SYNONYMS: surprise, blow, shock, setback, bombshell, bolt from the blue

2 a sudden violent movement

◇ SYNONYMS: jerk, start, jump, shake, bump, jar, jog, lurch

► vb

3 to surprise or shock: he was momentarily jolted by the news

◇ SYNONYMS: surprise, stun, disturb, stagger, startle, perturb, discompose

4 to bump against (someone or something) with a sudden violent movement

◇ SYNONYMS: jerk, push, shake, knock, jar, shove, jog, jostle 5 to move in a jerking manner jonquil n a narcissus with sweet-smelling yellow or white flowers josh vb (slang) to joke or tease joss stick n a stick of incense, giving off a sweet smell when burnt jostle vb -tling, -tled

1 to bump or push roughly: television crews filming the scene were jostled by police

2 to compete with someone: jostling for power

jot vb jotting, jotted

1 jot down to write a brief note of: quickly jot down the answers to these questions

► n

2 the least bit: it makes not one jot of difference jotter n a small notebook jottings pl n notes jotted down joule (jool) n (physics) the SI unit of work or energy journal n

1 a newspaper or magazine

◇ SYNONYMS: newspaper, paper, daily, weekly, monthly

2 a daily record of events

◇ SYNONYMS: diary, record, history, log, notebook, chronicle, annals, yearbook, blog (informal) journalese n a superficial style of writing regarded as typical of newspapers and magazines journalism n the profession of collecting, writing, and publishing news through newspapers and magazines or by radio, television, and other media journalist n a person who writes or edits news items for a newspaper or magazine or for radio, television, or other media

◇ SYNONYMS: reporter, writer, correspondent, newsman or newswoman, commentator, broadcaster, hack (derogatory), columnist > journalistic adj

journey n

1 the process of travelling from one place to another

◇ SYNONYMS: trip, drive, tour, flight, excursion, trek, expedition, voyage

2 the time taken or distance travelled on a journey

► vb

3 to make a journey

◇ SYNONYMS: travel, go, move, tour, progress, proceed, wander, trek, go walkabout (Austral) journeyman n, pl -men a qualified craftsman who works for an employer joust (history) n

1 a combat with lances between two mounted knights

► vb

2 to take part in such a tournament jovial adj happy and cheerful

- > joviality n
- > jovially adv

jowl¹ n

- 1 the lower jaw
- 2 cheek by jowl See cheek
- 3 jowls cheeks
- > jowled adj

jowl² n fatty flesh hanging from the lower jaw joy n

- 1 deep happiness and contentment
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: delight, pleasure, satisfaction, ecstasy, enjoyment, bliss, glee, rapture
- 2 something that brings deep happiness: a thing of beauty is a joy for ever
- 3 (informal) success or satisfaction: we checked ports and airports without any joy

joyful adj feeling or bringing great joy: joyful crowds; a joyful event

- > joyfully adv

joyless adj feeling or bringing no joy joyous adj extremely happy and enthusiastic

- > joyously adv

joyride n a drive in a car one has stolen

- > joyriding n
- > joyrider n

joystick n the control lever of an aircraft or a computer

JP (in Britain) Justice of the Peace

JPEG (jay-peg) n (computers)

A a standard compressed file format used for pictures

B a picture held in this file format

Jr Junior

JSA jobseeker's allowance: in Britain, a payment made to unemployed people jubilant adj feeling great joy > jubilantly adv

jubilation n a feeling of great joy and celebration jubilee n a special anniversary, esp. a 25th (silver jubilee) or 50th one (golden jubilee)

◇ SYNONYMS: celebration, holiday, festival, festivity

Judaic adj of Jews or Judaism

Judaism n the religion of the Jews, based on the Old Testament and the Talmud judder vb (informal, chiefly Brit) to shake or vibrate violently: the van juddered before it moved away

judder bar n (NZ) a raised strip across a road designed to slow down vehicles judge n

1 a public official with authority to hear cases and pass sentences in a court of law

◇ SYNONYMS: magistrate, justice, beak (Brit slang), His, Her or Your Honour

2 a person appointed to determine the result of a competition

◇ SYNONYMS: referee, expert, specialist, umpire, umpie (Austral slang), mediator, examiner, connoisseur, assessor

3 a person whose opinion on a particular subject is usually reliable: a fine judge of character

◇ SYNONYMS: critic, assessor, arbiter

► vb judging, judged

4 to determine the result of (a competition)

◇ SYNONYMS: adjudicate, referee, umpire, mediate, officiate, arbitrate

5 to appraise critically: she hopes people judge her on her work rather than her appearance

◇ SYNONYMS: evaluate, rate, consider, view, value, esteem (formal)

6 to decide (something) after inquiry: we use a means test to judge the most needy cases

◇ SYNONYMS: estimate, guess, assess, calculate, evaluate, gauge

7 to believe or consider: doctors judged that the benefits of such treatment outweighed the risk

judgment or judgement n

1 a decision formed after careful consideration: the editorials reserve their judgment about the new political plan

◇ SYNONYMS: opinion, view, estimate, belief, assessment, diagnosis, valuation, appraisal

2 the verdict pronounced by a court of law

◇ SYNONYMS: verdict, finding, ruling, decision, sentence, decree, arbitration, adjudication

3 the ability to make critical distinctions and achieve a balanced viewpoint: their judgment was unsound on foreign and defence issues

◇ SYNONYMS: sense, good sense, understanding, discrimination, perception, wisdom, wit, prudence

4 the formal decision of the judge of a competition

5 against one's better judgment contrary to what one thinks is sensible: against my better judgment, I applied to study law

6 pass judgment to give one's opinion, usually a critical one, on a matter judgmental or judgemental adj making judgments, esp. critical ones, about other people's conduct judicial adj

1 of judges or the administration of justice

◇ SYNONYMS: legal, official

2 showing or using good judgment: judicial self-restraint > judicially adv

judiciary n the branch of the central authority in a country that administers justice judicious adj having or showing good judgment: the judicious use of herbal remedies > judiciously adv

judo n a sport derived from jujitsu, in which the two opponents try to throw or force each other on to the ground

jug n a container with a handle and a small spout, used for holding and pouring liquids

◇ SYNONYMS: container, pitcher, urn, carafe, creamer (US & Canad), vessel, jar, crock jugged hare n hare stewed in an earthenware pot juggernaut n

1 (Brit) a very large heavy lorry

2 any terrible force that demands complete self-sacrifice juggle vb -gling, -gled

1 to throw and catch several objects continuously so that most are in the air at the same time

2 to keep (several activities) in progress at the same time: people who are adept at juggling priorities

3 to manipulate (facts or figures) to suit one's purpose

◇ SYNONYMS: manipulate, change, alter, modify, manoeuvre > juggler n

jugular n a large vein in the neck that carries blood to the heart from the head.

Also called: jugular vein juice n

1 a drink made from the liquid part of a fruit or vegetable: grapefruit juice

◇ SYNONYMS: liquid, extract, fluid, liquor, sap, nectar

2 (informal)

A petrol

B electricity

3 juices

A the fluids in a person's or animal's body: digestive juices

◇ SYNONYMS: secretion

B the liquid that comes out of meat when it is cooked juicy adj juicier, juiciest

1 full of juice

◇ SYNONYMS: moist, lush, succulent

2 (informal) interesting and exciting: juicy details

◇ SYNONYMS: interesting, colourful, sensational, vivid, provocative, spicy (informal), suggestive, racy jujitsu n the traditional Japanese system of unarmed self-defence juju n

- 1 a magic charm or fetish used by some tribes in W Africa
- 2 the power associated with a juju jukebox n a machine that plays music when a payment is made

Jul. July

julep n a sweet alcoholic drink, usually garnished with sprigs of mint

July n, pl -lies the seventh month of the year jumble n

- 1 a disordered mass or state
 - 2 articles donated for a jumble sale
- ◇ SYNONYMS: muddle, mixture, mess, disorder, confusion, clutter, disarray, mishmash
- vb -bling, -bled
- 3 to mix up
- ◇ SYNONYMS: mix, mistake, confuse, disorder, shuffle, muddle, disorganize jumble sale n a sale, usually of second-hand articles, often in aid of charity jumbo adj (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) very large: jumbo prawns

- ◇ SYNONYMS: giant, large, huge, immense, gigantic, oversized, supersize jumbuck n (Austral old-fashioned, slang) sheep jump vb

- 1 to move suddenly up into the air by using the muscles in the legs and feet

◇ SYNONYMS: leap, spring, bound, bounce, hop, skip

2 to move quickly: he jumps on a No. 6 bus

3 to jerk with astonishment or shock: he jumped when he heard a loud noise

◇ SYNONYMS: recoil, start, jolt, flinch, shake, jerk, quake, shudder

4 (of prices) to rise suddenly or abruptly

◇ SYNONYMS: increase, rise, climb, escalate, advance, soar, surge, spiral

5 to change quickly from one subject to another: any other comments before I jump on to the next section?

6 (informal) to attack without warning: the officer was jumped by three prisoners who broke his jaw

7 jump down someone's throat (informal) to speak sharply to someone

8 jump the gun See gun

9 jump the queue

A to take a place in a queue ahead of people who are already queuing

B to have an unfair advantage over other people: squatters should not be able to jump the queue for housing

10 jump to it (informal) to begin doing something immediately

► n

11 the act or an instance of jumping

◇ SYNONYMS: leap, spring, skip, bound, hop, vault

12 (sport) any of several contests that involve jumping: the long jump

13 a sudden rise: a 78% jump in taxable profits

◇ SYNONYMS: rise, increase, upswing, advance, upsurge, upturn, increment

14 a sudden change from one subject to another: stunning jumps from thought to thought

15 a step or degree: one jump ahead of the competition

16 take a running jump (informal) a contemptuous expression of dismissal

► See also jump at, jump on jump at vb to accept eagerly: I jumped at the chance to return to English county cricket jumped-up adj (informal) having suddenly risen in significance and appearing arrogant: a jumped-up bunch of ex-student-leaders

◇ SYNONYMS: conceited, arrogant, pompous, overbearing, presumptuous, insolent jumper n

1 (Brit & Austral) a knitted garment covering the upper part of the body

◇ SYNONYMS: sweater, top, jersey, cardigan, woolly, pullover

2 (US & Canad) a pinafore dress jump jet n (informal) a fixed-wing jet aircraft that can land and take off vertically jump leads pl n two heavy cables used to start a motor vehicle with a flat battery by connecting the flat battery to the battery of another vehicle jump on vb (informal) to make a sudden physical or verbal attack on: the press really jumped on him

jump suit n a one-piece garment combining trousers and top jumpy adj jumpier, jumpiest nervous or apprehensive

Jun.

1 June

2 Junior junction n a place where roads or railway lines meet, link, or cross each other juncture n a point in time, esp. a critical one: trade has been halted at a crucial juncture

June n the sixth month of the year jungle n

- 1 a forest area in a hot country with luxuriant vegetation
- 2 a confused or confusing situation: the administrative jungle
- 3 a situation where there is an intense struggle for survival: the economic jungle

junior adj

- 1 lower in rank or position: junior officers ◇ SYNONYMS: minor, lower, secondary, lesser, subordinate, inferior
- 2 younger: world junior champion ◇ SYNONYMS: younger
- 3 (in England and Wales) of schoolchildren between the ages of 7 and 11 approximately
- 4 (US) of the third year of a four-year course at college or high school
► n
- 5 a person holding a low rank or position
- 6 a person who is younger than another person: the man she is to marry is 20 years her junior
- 7 (in England and Wales) a junior schoolchild
- 8 (US) a junior student juniper n an evergreen shrub with purple berries which are used to make gin junk¹ n

- 1 old or unwanted objects ◇ SYNONYMS: rubbish, refuse, waste, scrap, litter, debris, garbage (chiefly US), trash (chiefly US & Canad)
- 2 (informal) rubbish: the sheer junk written about astrology
- 3 (slang) narcotic drugs, esp. heroin junk² n a Chinese sailing boat with a flat bottom and square sails junket n

- 1 an excursion made by a public official and paid for out of public funds

2 a sweet dessert made of flavoured milk set with rennet

3 a feast > junketing n

junk food n food with a low nutritional value junkie n (informal) a drug addict junk mail n unsolicited mail advertising goods or services junta n a group of military officers holding the power in a country after a revolution

Jupiter n

1 the king of the Roman gods

2 the largest planet juridical adj of law or the administration of justice jurisdiction n

1 the right or power to administer justice and to apply laws

◇ SYNONYMS: authority, power, control, rule, influence, command, mana (NZ)

2 the exercise or extent of such a right or power

◇ SYNONYMS: authority, power, control, rule, influence, command, mana (NZ)

3 authority in general: under the jurisdiction of the referee

◇ SYNONYMS: authority, power, control, rule, influence, command, mana (NZ)

jurisprudence n the science or philosophy of law jurist n a person who is an expert on law juror n a member of a jury jury n, pl -ries

1 a group of, usually, twelve people, sworn to deliver a true verdict according to the evidence upon a case presented in a court of law

2 a group of people appointed to judge a competition just adv

1 very recently: the results have just been published

◇ SYNONYMS: recently, lately, only now

2 at this very instant or in the very near future: news is just coming in of a nuclear explosion

◇ SYNONYMS: recently, lately, only now

3 no more than; only: nothing fancy, just simple, honest fare

◇ SYNONYMS: merely, only, simply, solely

4 exactly: just the opposite

◇ SYNONYMS: exactly, really, quite, completely, totally, perfectly, entirely, truly

5 barely: the swimmers arrived just in time for the opening ceremony

◇ SYNONYMS: barely, hardly, by a whisker, by the skin of your teeth

6 just about practically or virtually: just about everyone

7 just about to very soon going to: it was just about to explode

8 just a moment or second or minute an expression requesting someone to wait for a short time

9 just now

A a short time ago: as you said just now

B at the present time: he needs all the support he can get just now

C (S African informal) in a little while 10 just so arranged with precision: a cottage with the gardens and rooms all just so

► adj

11 fair and right: a just war

◇ SYNONYMS: fair, good, legitimate, upright, honest, equitable, conscientious, virtuous > justly adv

> justness n

justice n

1 the quality of being just

◇ SYNONYMS: fairness, equity, integrity, honesty, decency, rightfulness, right

2 the administration of law according to prescribed and accepted principles

3 a judge

◇ SYNONYMS: judge, magistrate, beak (Brit slang), His, Her or Your Honour

4 bring to justice to capture, try, and punish (a criminal)

5 do justice to to show to full advantage: the choir was not able to do justice to Handel's music justifiable adj having a good cause or reason: I reacted with justifiable indignation > justifiably adv

justify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to prove (something) to be just or valid: the idea of the end justifying the means

◇ SYNONYMS: explain, support, warrant, defend, excuse, uphold, vindicate, exonerate

2 to defend (an action) as being warranted: an essay justifying his conversion to Catholicism

◇ SYNONYMS: explain, support, warrant, defend, excuse, uphold, vindicate, exonerate

3 to arrange (text) when typing or printing so that both margins are straight > justification n

jute n a fibre that comes from the bark of an Asian plant, used in making rope, sacks, and mats jut out vb jutting, jutted to stick out juvenile adj

1 young; not fully adult: juvenile offenders

◇ SYNONYMS: young, junior, adolescent, youthful, immature

2 of or for young people: juvenile court

◇ SYNONYMS: merely, only, simply, solely

3 immature in behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: immature, childish, infantile, puerile, young, youthful, inexperienced, callow

► n

4 a young person

◇ SYNONYMS: child, youth, minor, girl, boy, teenager, infant, adolescent juvenile delinquent n a young person who is guilty of a crime > juvenile delinquency n juvenilia pl n works produced in an artist's youth juxtapose vb -posing, -posed to place (two objects or ideas) close together or side by side > juxtaposition n

Kk

K

- 1 kelvin(s)
- 2 (chess) king
- 3 (chem) potassium
- 4 one thousand
- 5 (computers) a unit of 1024 words, bits, or bytes

Kaffir (kaf-fer) n (S African taboo) a Black African kaftan or caftan n

- 1 a long loose garment worn by men in eastern countries
- 2 a dress resembling this kai n (NZ informal) food

◇ SYNONYMS: food, grub (slang), provisions, fare, tucker (Austral & NZ informal), refreshment, foodstuffs kaiser (kize-er) n (history) a German or Austro-Hungarian emperor kak (kuck) n (S African vulgar, slang)

- 1 faeces
- ◇ SYNONYMS: faeces, excrement, manure, dung, droppings, waste matter
- 2 rubbish
- ◇ SYNONYMS: rubbish, nonsense, garbage (informal), rot, drivel, tripe (informal), bizzo (Austral slang), bull's wool (Austral & NZ slang)

Kalashnikov n a Russian-made automatic rifle kale n a type of cabbage with crinkled leaves kaleidoscope n

1 a tube-shaped toy lined with angled mirrors and containing loose pieces of coloured paper that form intricate patterns when viewed through a hole in the end

2 any complicated or rapidly changing set of colours, circumstances, etc.: a kaleidoscope of shifting political groups and alliances

> kaleidoscopic adj

kamikaze (kam-mee-kah-zee) n

1 (in World War II) a Japanese pilot who performed a suicidal mission

► adj

2 (of an action) undertaken in the knowledge that it will result in the death or injury of the person performing it: a kamikaze attack

kangaroo n, pl -roos a large Australian marsupial with powerful hind legs used for leaping kangaroo court n an unofficial court set up by a group to discipline its members kangaroo paw n an Australian plant with green-and-red flowers kaolin n a fine white clay used in making porcelain and in some medicines kapok n a fluffy fibre from a tropical tree, used for stuffing pillows and padding sleeping bags kaput (kap-poot) adj (informal) ruined or broken: the chronometer, incidentally, is kaput karaoke n a form of entertainment in which members of the public sing well-known songs over a prerecorded backing tape karate n a Japanese system of unarmed combat, in which punches, chops, and kicks are made with the hands, feet, elbows, and legs karma n (Hinduism, Buddhism) a person's actions affecting his or her fate in the next incarnation karoo or karroo n, pl -roos (S African) an arid semidesert plateau of Southern Africa

karri n, pl -ris

1 an Australian eucalypt

2 its wood, used for building katipo n, pl -pos a small venomous New Zealand spider, commonly black with a red or orange stripe on the abdomen kauri n a large New Zealand conifer grown for its valuable wood and resin kayak n

1 an Inuit canoe-like boat consisting of a frame covered with animal skins

2 a fibreglass or canvas-covered canoe of similar design kbps (computers) kilobits per second kbyte (computers) kilobyte kebab n a dish consisting of small pieces of meat and vegetables, usually threaded onto skewers and grilled kedgeree n (chiefly Brit) a dish consisting of rice, fish, and eggs keel n

1 one of the main lengthways steel or timber pieces along the base of a ship, to which the frames are fastened

2 on an even keel working or progressing smoothly without any sudden changes keel over vb

1 (of an object) to turn upside down

2 (informal) (of a person) to collapse suddenly keen¹ adj

1 eager or enthusiastic: a keen gardener

◇ SYNONYMS: eager, intense, enthusiastic, passionate, ardent, avid, fervent, impassioned

2 intense or strong: a keen interest in environmental issues

◇ SYNONYMS: earnest, fierce, intense, vehement, passionate, heightened, ardent, fanatical

3 intelligent, quick, and perceptive: a keen sense of humour

◇ SYNONYMS: perceptive, quick, sharp, acute, smart, wise, clever, shrewd

4 (of sight, smell, or hearing) capable of recognizing fine distinctions

5 (of a knife or blade) having a sharp cutting edge

◇ SYNONYMS: sharp, incisive, cutting, edged, razor-like

6 very strong and cold: a keen wind

7 very competitive: keen prices

◇ SYNONYMS: intense, strong, fierce, relentless, cut-throat

8 keen on fond of; devoted to: he is very keen on sport

◇ SYNONYMS: eager, intense, enthusiastic, passionate, ardent, avid, fervent, impassioned > keenly adv

> keenness n

keen² vb

1 to lament the dead

► n

2 a lament for the dead keep vb keeping, kept

1 to have or retain possession of (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: hold on to, maintain, retain, save, preserve, nurture, cherish, conserve

2 to have temporary charge of: he'd kept my broken beads in his pocket for me all evening

◇ SYNONYMS: store, put, place, house, hold, deposit, stack, stow

3 to store in a customary place: I keep it at the back of the drawer with my journal

◇ SYNONYMS: store, put, place, house, hold, deposit, stack, stow

4 to remain or cause (someone or something) to remain in a specified state or condition: keep still

5 to continue or cause (someone) to continue: keep going straight on

6 to stay (in, on, or at a place or position): keep to the paths

7 to have as part of normal stock: they keep a small stock of first-class German wines

◇ SYNONYMS: carry, stock, sell, supply, handle

8 to support (someone) financially

◇ SYNONYMS: support, maintain, sustain, provide for, mind, fund, finance, feed

9 to detain (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: delay, detain, hinder, impede, obstruct, set back

10 to be faithful to (something): to keep a promise

11 (of food) to stay in good condition for a certain time: fish doesn't keep very well

12 to observe (a religious festival) with rites or ceremonies

13 to maintain by writing regular records in: I keep a nature diary in my spare time

14 to look after or maintain for use, pleasure, or profit: an old man who kept goats and cows

◇ SYNONYMS: raise, own, maintain, tend, farm, breed, look after, rear

15 to associate with: she has started keeping bad company

16 how are you keeping? are you well?

17 keep in with to stay friendly with a person as they may be useful to one

► n

18 the cost of food and other everyday expenses: I have to earn my keep

◇ SYNONYMS: board, food, maintenance, living, kai (NZ informal)

19 the main tower within the walls of a medieval castle or fortress

◇ SYNONYMS: tower, castle

20 for keeps (informal) permanently keeper n

1 a person in charge of animals in a zoo

2 a person in charge of a museum, collection, or section of a museum

◇ SYNONYMS: curator, guardian, steward, attendant, caretaker, preserver

3 a person who supervises a person or thing: the self-appointed keeper of the village conscience

4 short for gamekeeper, goalkeeper keep fit n exercises designed to promote physical fitness if performed regularly keeping n

1 in keeping with suitable or appropriate to or for ◇ SYNONYMS: care, charge, protection, possession, custody, guardianship, safekeeping

2 out of keeping with unsuitable or inappropriate to or for keepsake n a gift kept in memory of the giver keep up vb

1 to maintain at the present level

◇ SYNONYMS keep something up: maintain, sustain, perpetuate, retain, preserve, prolong

2 to maintain in good condition

3 keep up with

A to maintain a pace set by (someone)

B to remain informed about: he liked to think he kept up with current musical trends

C to remain in contact with (someone)

4 keep up with the Joneses (informal) to compete with one's friends or neighbours in material possessions keg n a small barrel in which beer is transported and stored kelp n a large brown seaweed rich in iodine and potash kelpie n

1 (in Scottish folklore) a water spirit in the form of a horse

2 an Australian sheepdog with a smooth coat and upright ears kelvin n (physics) the basic SI unit of thermodynamic temperature

Kelvin scale n (physics) a thermodynamic temperature scale starting at absolute zero

ken n

1 beyond one's ken beyond one's range of knowledge

► vb kenning, kenned or kent

2 (Scot & N English dialect) to know kendo n the Japanese sport of fencing using wooden staves kennel n

1 a hutlike shelter for a dog

2 kennels a place where dogs are bred, trained, or boarded

► vb -nelling, -nelled (US) -neling, -neled

3 to keep (a dog) in a kennel kept vb

1 the past of keep

2 kept woman or man n a person who is financially supported by a sexual partner keratin n a fibrous protein found in the hair and nails kerb or (US & Canad) curb n a line of stone or concrete forming an edge between a pavement and a roadway kerb crawling n (Brit) the act of driving slowly beside a kerb to pick up a prostitute > kerb crawler n

kerchief n a piece of cloth worn over the head or round the neck kerfuffle n (informal) a noisy and disorderly incident kernel n

1 the edible seed of a nut or fruit within the shell or stone

2 the grain of a cereal, such as wheat, consisting of the seed in a hard husk

3 the central or essential part of something: there is a kernel of truth in these remarks kerosene n (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) same as paraffin kestrel n a small falcon that feeds on small animals such as mice ketchup n a thick cold sauce, usually made of tomatoes kettle n

- 1 a metal container with a handle and spout, for boiling water
 - 2 any of various metal containers for heating liquid, cooking, etc.
 - 3 a different kettle of fish a different matter entirely
 - 4 a fine kettle of fish a difficult or awkward situation
- vb -tling, -tled
- 5 (of police) to force (demonstrators) into an enclosed space kettledrum n a large bowl-shaped metal drum that can be tuned to play specific notes

key n

- 1 a specially shaped metal instrument for moving the bolt of a lock so as to lock or unlock a door, suitcase, etc.
◇ SYNONYMS: opener, door key, latchkey
 - 2 an instrument that is turned to operate a valve, clock winding mechanism, etc.
 - 3 any of a set of levers pressed to operate a computer, typewriter, or musical keyboard instrument
 - 4 a scale of musical notes that starts at one specific note
 - 5 something that is crucial in providing an explanation or interpretation
 - 6 a means of achieving a desired end: education is the key to success in most walks of life today
◇ SYNONYMS: answer
 - 7 a list of explanations of symbols, codes, or abbreviations
 - 8 pitch: he spoke in a low key
- adj
- 9 of great importance: key prosecution witnesses have been giving evidence ◇ SYNONYMS: essential, leading, major, main, important, necessary, vital, crucial
- vb
- 10 to harmonize with: training and educational programmes uniquely keyed for local needs
 - 11 to adjust or fasten (something) with a key or some similar device
 - 12 to enter (information or instructions) into a computer by means of a keyboard
- See also key in keyboard n

- 1 a set of keys on a computer, typewriter, or piano
- 2 a musical instrument played using a keyboard keyhole n an opening for inserting a key into a lockkey in vb to enter (information or instructions) into a computer by means of a keyboardkeynote n

- 1 a central or dominant idea in a speech or literary work
 - 2 the note on which a scale or key is based
- adj
- 3 central or dominating: his keynote speech to the party conference

keypad n a small panel with a set of buttons for operating an electronic devicekeystone n

- 1 the most important part of a process, organization, etc.: the keystone of the government's economic policy
- 2 the central stone at the top of an arch key worker n (chiefly Brit)

- 1 a social worker, mental health worker, or nursery nurse assigned to an individual case, patient, or child
- 2 (in Britain) a worker in a public sector profession considered by the government to be essential to society

kg kilogramkhaki adj

1 dull yellowish-brown

► n

2 a hard-wearing fabric of this colour, used for military uniforms kHz kilohertz

kia ora interj (NZ) a Māori greeting

◇ SYNONYMS: hello, hi (informal), greetings, giddyay or g'day (Austral & NZ), how do you do?, good morning, good evening, good afternoon kibbutz n, pl kibbutzim a farm, factory, or other workplace in Israel, owned and run communally by its members kick vb

1 to drive, push, or hit with the foot or feet

◇ SYNONYMS: boot, knock, punt

2 to strike out with the feet, as in swimming

3 to raise a leg high, as in dancing

4 (rugby) to score (a conversion, drop kick, or penalty) with a kick: he kicked his third penalty

5 (of a firearm) to recoil when fired

6 (informal) to object or resist: school uniforms give children something to kick against

7 (informal) to free oneself of (an addiction): smokers who want to kick the habit

◇ SYNONYMS: give up, break, stop, abandon, quit, cease, eschew, leave off

8 alive and kicking (informal) active and in good health

9 kick someone upstairs to promote someone to a higher but effectively powerless position

► n

10 a thrust or blow with the foot

11 any of certain rhythmic leg movements used in swimming

12 the recoil of a firearm

13 (informal) an exciting effect: I always get a kick out of decorating the Christmas cake

◇ SYNONYMS: thrill, buzz (slang), tingle, high (informal)

14 (informal) the intoxicating effect of an alcoholic drink: a cocktail with a kick in it

15 kick in the teeth (slang) a humiliating rebuff kickback n

1 part of an income paid to a person in return for an opportunity to make a profit, esp. in an illegal arrangement

2 a strong reaction kick off vb

1 to start play in a game of football by kicking the ball from the centre of the field

2 (informal) to commence (a discussion, event, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS kick something off: begin, start, open, commence, initiate, get on the road

► n kick-off

3

A the kick that officially starts a game of football

B the time when the first kick is due to take place

4 (informal) the time when an event is due to begin kick out vb (informal) to dismiss (someone) or throw (someone) out forcefully

◇ SYNONYMS kick someone out: dismiss, remove, get rid of, expel, eject, evict, sack (informal), kennet (Austral slang), jeff (Austral slang)

kick-start n

1 Also: kick-starter a pedal on a motorcycle that is kicked downwards to start the engine

2 an action or event that reactivates something

► vb

3 to start (a motorcycle) with a kick-start

4 to do something bold or drastic in order to begin or improve the performance of something: to kick-start the economy kick up vb (informal) to cause (trouble) kid¹ n

1 (informal) a young person; child

◇ SYNONYMS: child, baby, teenager, youngster, infant, adolescent, juvenile, toddler, little (Austral informal), ankle-biter (Austral slang), tacker (Austral slang)

2 a young goat

3 soft smooth leather made from the hide of a kid

► adj

4 younger: my kid sister

► vb kidding, kidded

5 (of a goat) to give birth to (young) kid² vb kidding, kidded (informal)

1 to tease or deceive (someone) for fun

◇ SYNONYMS: tease, joke, trick, fool, pretend, wind up (Brit slang), hoax, delude

2 to fool (oneself) into believing something: don't kid yourself that no-one else knows > kidder n

kiddie n (informal) a child kidnap vb -napping, -napped (US) -naping, -naped to capture and hold (a person), usually for ransom

◇ SYNONYMS: abduct, capture, seize, snatch (slang), hijack, hold to ransom > kidnapper or (US) -naper n > kidnapping or (US) -naping n kidney n

1 either of two bean-shaped organs at the back of the abdominal cavity. They filter waste products from the blood, which are excreted as urine

2 the kidneys of certain animals used as food kidney bean n a reddish-brown kidney-shaped bean, edible when cooked kill vb

1 to cause the death of (a person or animal)

◇ SYNONYMS: slay, murder, execute, slaughter, destroy, massacre, butcher, cut down

2 (informal) to cause (someone) pain or discomfort: my feet are killing me

3 to put an end to: his obsession with work has killed his marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: destroy, crush, scotch, stop, halt, wreck, shatter, suppress

4 (informal) to quash or veto: the main opposition party tried to kill the bill

◇ SYNONYMS: destroy, crush, scotch, stop, halt, wreck, shatter, suppress

5 (informal) to overwhelm (someone) completely with laughter, attraction, or surprise: her jokes really kill me

6 kill oneself (informal) to overexert oneself

7 kill time to spend time on something unimportant or trivial while waiting for something: I'm just killing time until I can talk to the other witnesses

8 kill two birds with one stone to achieve two results with one action

► n

9 the act of causing death at the end of a hunt or bullfight

10 the animal or animals killed during a hunt

11 in at the kill present when something comes to a dramatic end with unpleasant results for someone else > killer n

killer whale n a black-and-white toothed whale, most common in cold seas killing adj

1 (informal) very tiring: a killing pace

◇ SYNONYMS: tiring, taxing, exhausting, punishing, fatiguing, gruelling, sapping, debilitating

2 (informal) extremely funny

3 causing death; fatal

► n

4 the act of causing death; slaying

◇ SYNONYMS: murder, massacre, slaughter, dispatch, manslaughter, elimination, slaying, homicide

5 make a killing (informal) to have a sudden financial success

◇ SYNONYMS make a killing: profit, gain, clean up (informal), be lucky, be successful, make a fortune, strike it rich (informal), make a bomb (slang)

killjoy n a person who spoils other people's pleasure kiln n a large oven for burning, drying, or processing pottery, bricks, etc.

kilo n, pl kilos short for kilogram, kilometre kilo- combining form

1 denoting one thousand (10^3): kilometre

2 (in computers) denoting 2^{10} (1024): kilobyte. In computer usage, kilo- is restricted to sizes of storage (eg kilobit) when it means 1024: in other computer contexts it retains its usual meaning of 1000

kilobyte n (computers) 1024 bytes kilogram or kilogramme n

1 one thousand grams

2 the basic SI unit of mass kilohertz n, pl kilohertz one thousand hertz; one thousand cycles per second kilometre or (US) kilometer n a unit of length equal to one thousand metres kilowatt n one thousand watts kilt n

1 a knee-length pleated tartan skirt-like garment, worn by men in Highland dress and by women and girls

► vb

2 to put pleats in (cloth) > kilted adj

kimono (kim-moan-no) n, pl -nos

1 a loose wide-sleeved Japanese robe, fastened with a sash

2 a European dressing gown resembling this kin n a person's relatives collectively kind¹ adj

1 considerate, friendly, and helpful: a good, kind man; a few kind words

◇ SYNONYMS: considerate, kindly, concerned, friendly, generous, obliging, charitable, benign

2 cordial; courteous: reprinted by kind permission

kind² n

1 a class or group having characteristics in common: what kind of music do you like?

◇ SYNONYMS: class, sort, type, variety, brand, category, genre

2 essential nature or character: differences of degree rather than of kind

3 in kind

A (of payment) in goods or services rather than in money

B with something of the same sort: the government threatened to retaliate in kind to any act of hostility

4 kind of to a certain extent; loosely: kind of hard; a kind of socialist

5 of a kind of a poorer quality or standard than is wanted or expected: a few farmers wrest subsistence of a kind from the thin topsoil kindergarten n a class or school for children under six years old kind-hearted adj considerate and sympathetic kindle vb -d~~ing~~, -d~~ed~~

1 to set (a fire) alight or (of a fire) to start to burn

2 to arouse or be aroused: his passions were kindled as quickly as her own kindling n material for starting a fire, such as dry wood or straw kindly adj -li~~er~~, -li~~est~~

1 having a warm-hearted and caring nature

◇ SYNONYMS: benevolent, kind, caring, warm, helpful, pleasant, sympathetic, benign

2 pleasant or agreeable: a kindly climate

► adv

3 in a considerate or humane way

◇ SYNONYMS: benevolently, politely, generously, thoughtfully, tenderly, lovingly, cordially, affectionately 4 please: will you kindly stop prattling on about it!

5 not take kindly to to react unfavourably towards > kindliness n

kindness n

1 the quality of being kind

◇ SYNONYMS: goodwill, understanding, charity, humanity, compassion, generosity, philanthropy, benevolence

2 a kind or helpful act kindred adj

1 having similar qualities: cholera, and other kindred diseases

2 related by blood or marriage

3 kindred spirit a person with whom one has something in common

► n

4 relationship by blood or marriage

5 similarity in character

6 a person's relatives collectively kindy or kindie n, pl -dies (Austral & NZ informal) a kindergarten kinetic (kin-net-ik) adj relating to or caused by motion > kinetically adv

king n

1 a male ruler of a country who has inherited the throne from his parents

◇ SYNONYMS: ruler, monarch, sovereign, leader, lord, Crown, emperor, head of state

2 a ruler or chief: the king of the fairies

◇ SYNONYMS: ruler, monarch, sovereign, leader, lord, Crown, emperor, head of state

3 a person, animal, or thing considered as the best or most important of its kind: the king of rock and roll

4 a playing card with a picture of a king on it

5 a chess piece, able to move one square in any direction: the object of the game is to checkmate one's opponent's king

6 (draughts) a piece which has moved entirely across the board and been crowned and which may therefore move backwards as well as forwards > kingship n

kingdom n

1 a territory or state ruled by a king or queen

◇ SYNONYMS: country, state, nation, territory, realm

2 any of the three groups into which natural objects may be divided: the animal, plant, and mineral kingdoms

3 a place or area considered to be under the total power and control of a person, organization, or thing: the kingdom of God kingfisher n a fish-eating bird with a greenish-blue and orange plumage king prawn n a large prawn, fished commercially in Australian waters king-size or king-sized adj larger than a standard size kink n

1 a twist or bend in something such as a rope or hair

2 (informal) a flaw or quirk in someone's personality

► vb

3 to form or cause to form a kink kinky adj kinkier, kinkiest

1 (slang) given to unusual sexual practices

2 tightly looped or curled kinsfolk pl n one's family or relatives kinship n

1 blood relationship

2 the state of having common characteristics kiosk n a small booth from which cigarettes, newspapers, and sweets are sold kip (Brit slang) n

1 sleep: a couple of hours' kip

2 a bed

► vb kippling, kipped

3 to sleep or take a nap

4 kip down to sleep in a makeshift bed kipper n

1 a herring that has been cleaned, salted, and smoked

► vb

2 to cure (a herring) by salting and smoking it kirk n (Scot) a church

Kirsch or Kirschwasser n a brandy distilled from black cherries kismet n fate or destiny kiss vb

1 to touch with the lips as an expression of love, greeting, or respect

◇ SYNONYMS: peck (informal), osculate, neck (informal)

2 to join lips with another person as an act of love or desire

◇ SYNONYMS: peck (informal), osculate, neck (informal)

3 (literary) to touch lightly: a long high free kick that kissed the top of the crossbar

◇ SYNONYMS: brush, touch, shave, scrape, graze, glance off, stroke

► n

4 a caress with the lips

◇ SYNONYMS: peck (informal), snog (Brit slang), smacker (slang), French kiss, osculation

5 a light touch

> kissable adj kissagram n (Brit & Austral & NZ) a greetings service in which a person is employed to present greetings by kissing the person celebrating kisser n (slang) the mouth or face kissing crust n (NZ) the soft end of a loaf of bread where two loaves have been separated kist n (Scot & S African) a large wooden chest kit n

1 a set of tools or supplies for use together or for a purpose: a first-aid kit

◇ SYNONYMS: equipment, materials, tackle, tools, apparatus, paraphernalia

2 the container for such a set

3 a set of parts sold ready to be assembled: a model aircraft kit

4 a basket or box for holding fish

5 clothing and other personal effects, such as those of a soldier: a complete set of school team kit

◇ SYNONYMS: gear, things, stuff, equipment, uniform

► See also kit out kitbag n a canvas or other bag for a soldier's or sailor's kit kitchen n a room equipped for preparing and cooking food kitchenette n a small kitchen or part of a room equipped for use as a kitchen kitchen garden n a garden for growing vegetables, herbs, etc.

kite n

1 a light frame covered with a thin material flown in the wind at the end of a length of string

2 a bird of prey with a long forked tail and large wings

3 a four-sided geometrical shape in which each side is equal in length to one of the sides joining it

Kite mark n (Brit) the official mark in the form of a kite on articles approved by the British Standards Institution kith n kith and kin (old-fashioned) one's friends and relations kit out or kit up vb kitting, kitted (chiefly Brit) to provide with clothes or equipment needed for a particular activity

◇ SYNONYMS kit something or someone out or up: equip, fit, supply, provide with, arm, stock, costume, furnish kitsch n tawdry or sentimental art or literature > kitschy adj

kitten n

1 a young cat

2 have kittens (informal) to react with disapproval or anxiety: she had kittens when she discovered the price

kittenish adj lively and flirtatious kittiwake n a type of seagull with pale grey black-tipped wings and a square-cut tail kitty¹ n, pl -ties a diminutive or affectionate name for a kitten, cat kitty² n, pl -ties any shared fund of money kiwi n, pl kiwis

1 a flightless bird of New Zealand with a long beak, stout legs, and no tail

2 (informal) a New Zealander kiwi fruit n an edible fruit with a fuzzy brown skin and green flesh klaxon n a type of loud horn used on fire engines and ambulances as a warning signal kleptomania n (psychol) a strong impulse to steal > kleptomaniac n

kloof n (S African) a mountain pass or gorge km kilometre(s) knack n

1 a skilful way of doing something

◇ SYNONYMS: skill, art, ability, facility, talent, gift, capacity, trick

2 an ability to do something difficult with apparent ease

◇ SYNONYMS: skill, art, ability, facility, talent, gift, capacity, trick

knacker n (Brit) a person who buys up old horses for slaughter knackered adj (slang)

1 extremely tired: they'd been marching for three hours and were absolutely knackered

2 broken or no longer functioning: a knackered TV set knapsack n a canvas or leather bag carried strapped on the back or shoulder knave n

1 (cards) the jack

2 (archaic) a dishonest man > knavish adj

knead vb

1 to work and press (a soft substance, such as dough) into a smooth mixture with the hands

2 to squeeze or press with the hands > kneader n

knee n

1 the joint of the leg between the thigh and the lower leg

2 the area around this joint

3 the upper surface of a sitting person's thigh: a little girl being cuddled on her father's knee

4 the part of a garment that covers the knee

5 bring someone to his or her knees to force someone into submission

► vb kneeling, kneed

6 to strike, nudge, or push with the knee kneecap n

1 (anatomy) a small flat triangular bone in front of and protecting the knee

► vb -capping, -capped

2 (of terrorists) to shoot (a person) in the kneecap knee-jerk n

1 (physiol) a sudden involuntary kick of the lower leg caused by a sharp tap on the tendon just below the kneecap

► adj kneejerk

2 made or occurring as a predictable and automatic response: a kneejerk reaction kneel vb kneeling, knelt or kneeled

1 to rest, fall, or support oneself on one's knees

◇ SYNONYMS: genuflect, stoop

► n

2 the act or position of kneeling knees-up n (Brit informal) a party knell n

1 the sound of a bell rung to announce a death or a funeral

2 something that indicates death or destruction

► vb

3 to ring a knell

4 to proclaim by a tolling bell knew vb the past tense of know knickerbockers pl n loose-fitting short trousers gathered in at the knee or calf knickers pl n a woman's or girl's undergarment covering the lower trunk and having separate legs or leg-holes

◇ SYNONYMS: underwear, smalls, briefs, drawers, panties, bloomers knick-knack n a small ornament or trinket knife n, pl knives

1 a cutting instrument or weapon consisting of a sharp-edged blade of metal fitted into a handle

◇ SYNONYMS: blade, carver, cutter

► vb knifing, knifed

2 to stab or kill with a knife

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, wound, stab, slash, thrust, pierce, spear, jab > knifelike adj

knight n

1 a man who has been given a knighthood in recognition of his achievements

2

A (in medieval Europe) a person who served his lord as a mounted and heavily armed soldier

B (in medieval Europe) a devoted male admirer of a noblewoman, esp. her champion in a jousting tournament

3 a chess piece shaped like a horse's head, able to move either two squares horizontally and one square vertically or two squares vertically and one square horizontally

► vb

4 to make (a man) a knight knighthood n an honorary title given to a man by the British sovereign in recognition of his achievements knightly adj of, resembling, or appropriate for a knight > knightliness n

knit vb knitting, knitted or knit

1 to make (a garment) by looping (wool) using long eyeless needles or a knitting machine

2 to join together closely

◇ SYNONYMS: join, unite, link, tie, bond, combine, bind, weave

3 to draw (one's eyebrows) together

◇ SYNONYMS: furrow, tighten, knot, wrinkle, crease, screw up, pucker, scrunch up

► n

4 a fabric made by knitting > knitter n

knitting n knitted work or the process of producing it knitwear n knitted clothes, such as sweaters knob n

1 a rounded projection from a surface, such as a rotating switch on a radio

- ◇ SYNONYMS: ball, stud, knot, lump, bump, projection, hump, protrusion
- 2 a rounded handle of a door or drawer
- 3 a small amount of butter or margarine
- > knoblike adj

knobbly adj having or covered with small bumps: a curious knobbly root vegetable knobkerrie n (S African) a club or a stick with a rounded end knock vb

- 1 to give a blow or push to
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: hit, strike, punch, belt (informal), smack, thump, cuff
- 2 to rap sharply with the knuckles: he knocked on the door of the guest room
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: bang, strike, tap, rap, thump, pummel
- 3 to make by striking: he knocked a hole in the wall
- 4 to collide (with)
- 5 to bring into a certain condition by hitting: he was knocked unconscious in a collision
- 6 (informal) to criticize adversely
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: criticize, condemn, put down, run down, abuse, slate (informal), censure, denigrate, nit-pick (informal)
- 7 to emit a regular banging sound as a result of a fault: the engine was knocking badly
- 8 knock on the head to prevent the further development of (a plan)
- n
- 9
 - A a blow, push, or rap: he gave the table a knock
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: blow, hit, punch, crack (informal), clip, slap, bash, smack
 - B the sound so caused
- 10 the sound of knocking in an engine or bearing
- 11 (informal) a misfortune, rejection, or setback
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: setback, check, defeat, blow, reverse, disappointment, hold-up, hitch
- 12 (informal) criticism
- See also knock about, knock back etc knock about or knock around vb

1 to wander or travel about: I have knocked about the world through three continents

◇ SYNONYMS knock about or around: wander, travel, roam, rove, range, drift, stray, ramble, go walkabout (Austral)

2 (foll. by with) to associate

◇ SYNONYMS knock about or around with someone: mix with, associate with, mingle with, consort with, hobnob with, socialize with, accompany

3 to treat brutally: they used to knock me about a bit and try and make me cry

◇ SYNONYMS knock someone about or around: hit, attack, beat, strike, abuse, injure, assault, batter

4 to consider or discuss informally

► adj knockabout

5 (of comedy) lively, boisterous, and physical knock back vb (informal)

1 to drink quickly: he fell over after knocking back eight pints of lager

2 to cost: lunch for two here will knock you back a small fortune

3 to reject or refuse: I don't know anyone who'd knock back an offer like that

► n knockback

4 (slang) a refusal or rejection knock down vb

1 to strike to the ground with a blow, such as in boxing

◇ SYNONYMS knock someone down: run over, hit, run down, knock over, mow down

2 (in auctions) to declare an article sold

3 to demolish

◇ SYNONYMS knock something down: demolish, destroy, flatten, tear down, level, fell, dismantle, bulldoze, kenneled (Austral slang), jeff (Austral slang)

4 (informal) to reduce (a price)

► adj knockdown

5 powerful: a knockdown argument

6 (chiefly Brit) (of a price) very cheap

7 easily dismantled: knockdown furniture knocker n

- 1 a metal object attached to a door by a hinge and used for knocking
- 2 knockers (vulgar, slang) a woman's breasts knock-knees pl n legs that are bent inwards at the knees > knock-kneed adj

knock off vb

- 1 (informal) to finish work: around ten, the day shift knocked off ◇ SYNONYMS knock off: stop work, get out, call it a day (informal), finish work, clock off, clock out
- 2 (informal) to make or do hastily or easily: she knocked off 600 books in all during her long life
- 3 (informal) to take (an amount) off the price of (an article): I'll knock off 10% if you pay cash
- 4 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) to steal ◇ SYNONYMS knock something off: steal, take, nick (slang, chiefly Brit), thief, rob, pinch (Brit informal)
- 5 (slang) to kill
- 6 (slang) to stop doing something; used as a command: knock it off!

knockout n

- 1 the act of rendering someone unconscious ◇ SYNONYMS: killer blow, coup de grâce (French), KO or K.O. (slang)
 - 2 (boxing) a blow that renders an opponent unable to continue after the referee has counted to ten
 - 3 a competition in which competitors are eliminated progressively
 - 4 (informal) a person or thing that is very impressive or attractive: at my youngest sister's wedding she was a knockout in navy and scarlet ◇ SYNONYMS: success, hit, winner, triumph, smash (informal), sensation, smash hit
- vb knock out
- 5 to render (someone) unconscious
 - 6 (boxing) to defeat (an opponent) by a knockout
 - 7 to destroy: communications in many areas were knocked out by the earthquake

8 to eliminate from a knockout competition

9 (informal) to amaze: the fantastic audience reaction knocked me out

knock up vb

1 Also: knock together (informal) to make or assemble quickly: my boyfriend can knock up a wonderful lasagne

2 (Brit informal) to waken: to knock someone up early

3 (slang) to make pregnant

4 to practise before a game of tennis, squash, or badminton

► n knock-up

5 a practice session at tennis, squash, or badminton knoll n a small rounded hill knot n

1 a fastening formed by looping and tying pieces of rope, cord, or string

◇ SYNONYMS: connection, tie, bond, joint, loop, ligature

2 a tangle, such as in hair

3 a decorative bow, such as of ribbon

◇ SYNONYMS: connection, tie, bond, joint, loop, ligature

4 a small cluster or huddled group: a knot of passengers gathered on the platform

5 a bond: to tie the knot of friendship

6

A a hard mass of wood where a branch joins the trunk of a tree

B a cross section of this, visible in timber

7 a feeling of tightness, caused by tension or nervousness: a dull knot of anxiety that sat in the pit of her stomach

8 a unit of speed used by ships and aircraft, equal to one nautical mile per hour

9 at a rate of knots very fast

10 tie someone in knots to confuse someone completely

► vb knotting, knotted

11 to tie or fasten in a knot

◇ SYNONYMS: tie, secure, bind, loop, tether

12 to form into a knot

13 to entangle or become entangled > knotted adj

> knotless adj

knotty adj -tier, -tiest

1 full of knots

2 extremely difficult or puzzling: a knotty problem know vb knowing, knew, known

1 to be or feel certain of the truth or accuracy of (a fact, answer, or piece of information)

◇ SYNONYMS: have knowledge of, see, understand, recognize, perceive, be aware of, be conscious of

2 to be acquainted with: I'd known him for many years, since I was seventeen

◇ SYNONYMS: be acquainted with, recognize, be familiar with, be friends with, be friendly with, have knowledge of, have dealings with, socialize with

3 to have a grasp of or understand (a skill or language)

◇ SYNONYMS: be familiar with, understand, comprehend, have knowledge of, be acquainted with, feel certain of, have dealings in, be versed in

4 to understand or be aware of (something, or how to do or be something): she knew how to get on with people

◇ SYNONYMS: be familiar with, understand, comprehend, have knowledge of, be acquainted with, feel certain of, have dealings in, be versed in

5 to experience: you had to have known poverty before you could give money its true value, he claimed

◇ SYNONYMS: be familiar with, understand, comprehend, have knowledge of, be acquainted with, feel certain of, have dealings in, be versed in

6 to be intelligent, informed, or sensible enough (to do something): how did he know to send the letter in the first place?

7 to be able to distinguish: I don't know one flower from another

8 know what's what to know how one thing or things in general work

9 you never know things are uncertain

► n

10 in the know (informal) aware or informed > knowable adj

know-all n (informal, derogatory) a person who pretends or appears to know a lot more than other people know-how n (informal) the ability to do something that is difficult or technical ◇ SYNONYMS: expertise, ability, skill, knowledge, facility, talent, command, capability knowing adj

1 suggesting secret knowledge: Paul saw the knowing look that passed between them

◇ SYNONYMS: meaningful, significant, expressive, enigmatic, suggestive

2 cunning or shrewd

3 deliberate > knowingly adv

> knowingness n

knowledge n

1 the facts or experiences known by a person or group of people

◇ SYNONYMS: learning, education, intelligence, instruction, wisdom, scholarship, enlightenment, erudition

2 the state of knowing

◇ SYNONYMS: understanding, sense, judgment, perception, awareness, insight, grasp, appreciation

3 specific information about a subject

4 to my knowledge as I understand it knowledgeable or knowledgable adj intelligent or well-informed

◇ SYNONYMS: intelligent, learned, educated, scholarly, erudite > knowledgeably or knowledgably adv

knuckle n

1 a joint of a finger

2 the knee joint of a calf or pig

3 near the knuckle (informal) likely to offend people because of frankness or rudeness

► See also knuckle under knuckle-duster n a metal appliance worn over the knuckles to add force to a blow knuckle under vb -ling, -led to give way under pressure or authority

KO or k.o. vb KO'ing, KO'd or k.o.'ing, k.o.'d

1 to knock out

► n, pl KO's or k.o.'s

2 a knockout

koala or koala bear n a tree-dwelling Australian marsupial with dense grey fur kohanga reo or kohanga n (NZ) an infant class where children are taught in Māori kohl n a cosmetic powder used to darken the area around the eyes kookaburra n a large Australian kingfisher with a cackling cry koori n, pl -ris (Austral) a member of an Aboriginal people kopje or koppie (kop-ee) n (S African) a small isolated hill

◇ SYNONYMS: hill, down (archaic), fell, mount, hilltop, knoll, hillock, brae (Scot)

Koran n the sacred book of Islam, believed by Muslims to be the infallible word of God dictated to Mohammed > Koranic adj

kosher (koh-sher) adj

1 (Judaism)

A conforming to religious law

B (of food) prepared in accordance with the dietary laws

2 (informal) legitimate, genuine, or proper

► n

3 kosher food

kowhai (koh-wye, koh-fye) n a small tree of New Zealand and Chile with clusters of yellow flowers

kowtow vb

1 to be humble and very respectful (towards): the senior editors accused each other of kowtowing to his demands

2 to touch the forehead to the ground in deference

► n

3 the act of kowtowing kph kilometres per hour kraal n

1 a Southern African hut village surrounded by a strong fence

2 (S African) an enclosure for livestock

Kremlin n the central government of Russia and, formerly, the Soviet Union krill n, pl krill a small shrimplike crustacean krypton n (chem) an inert gaseous element occurring in trace amounts in air and used in fluorescent lights and lasers. SYMBOL: Kr

kudos (kew-doss) n personal fame or glory kugel (koog-el) n (S African) a rich, fashion-conscious, materialistic young Jewish woman kumera or kumara (koo-ma-ra) n (NZ) a tropical root vegetable with yellow flesh kumquat (kumm-kwott) n a citrus fruit resembling a tiny orange kung fu n any of various Chinese systems of martial art, esp. unarmed combat in which punches, chops, and kicks are made with the hands and feet; certain styles involve the use of weapons

kura kaupapa Māori n (NZ) a primary school where the teaching is done in Māori kurrajong n an Australian tree or shrub with tough fibrous bark kW kilowatt kWh kilowatt-hour

Ll

l litre(s)

L

- 1 large
- 2 Latin
- 3 learner driver
- 4 usually written: £ pound
- 5 the Roman numeral for 50 lab n (informal) short for laboratory label n

- 1 a piece of card or other material attached to an object to show its contents, ownership, use, or destination
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: tag, ticket, tab, marker, sticker
- 2 a brief descriptive term given to a person, group, or school of thought: we would need a handy label to explain the new company
 - vb -belling, -belled (US) -beling, -beled
- 3 to attach a label to
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: tag, mark, stamp, ticket, tab
- 4 to describe or classify in a word or phrase

labial (lay-bee-al) adj

- 1 of or near the lips
- 2 (phonetics) relating to a speech sound made using the lips
 - n
- 3 (phonetics) a speech sound such as English p or m, that involves the lips labium (lay-bee-um) n, pl -bia (-bee-a)

- 1 a lip or liplike structure

2 any one of the four lip-shaped folds of the vulva labor n (US & Austral, sometimes Canad) same as labour laboratory n, pl -ries a building or room equipped for conducting scientific research or for teaching practical science

Labor Day n

1 (in the US and Canada) a public holiday in honour of labour, held on the first Monday in September

2 (in Australia) a public holiday observed on different days in different states laborious adj involving great exertion or prolonged effort > laboriously adv

Labor Party n the main left-wing political party in Australia labour or (US & Austral, sometimes Canad) labor n

1 productive work, esp. physical work done for wages

◇ SYNONYMS: work, effort, employment, toil, industry

2 the people involved in this, as opposed to management

◇ SYNONYMS: workers, employees, workforce, labourers, hands

3 the final stage of pregnancy, leading to childbirth ◇ SYNONYMS: childbirth, birth, delivery, parturition

4 difficult work or a difficult job

► vb

5 to do physical work: the girls were labouring madly on it

◇ SYNONYMS: work, toil, strive, work hard, sweat (informal), slave, endeavour, slog away (informal)

6 to work hard (for something)

◇ SYNONYMS: struggle, work, strain, work hard, strive, grapple, toil, make an effort

7 to make one's way with difficulty: she was now labouring down the return

length

8 to emphasize too persistently: I have laboured the point

◇ SYNONYMS: overemphasize, stress, elaborate, exaggerate, strain, dwell on, overdo, go on about 9 (usually foll. by under) to be at a disadvantage because of a mistake or false belief: she laboured under the illusion that I understood her

◇ SYNONYMS: be disadvantaged by, suffer from, be a victim of, be burdened by

Labour Day n

1 a public holiday in honour of work, held in Britain on May 1

2 (in New Zealand) a public holiday commemorating the introduction of the eight-hour day, held on the fourth Monday in October laboured or (US & Austral, sometimes Canad) labored adj undertaken with difficulty: laboured breathing

◇ SYNONYMS: difficult, forced, strained, heavy, awkward labourer or (US & Austral, sometimes Canad) laborer n a person engaged in physical work ◇ SYNONYMS: worker, manual worker, hand, blue-collar worker, drudge, navvy (Brit informal)

Labour Party n the main left-wing political party in a number of countries including Britain and New Zealand

Labrador or Labrador retriever n a powerfully built dog with short dense black, brown, or golden hair laburnum n a small ornamental tree that has clusters of yellow drooping flowers. It is highly poisonous labyrinth (lab-er-inth) n

1 a mazelike network of tunnels or paths, either natural or man-made

2 any complex or confusing system

3 the interconnecting cavities of the internal ear > labyrinthine adj

lace n

1 a delicate decorative fabric made from threads woven in an open web of patterns

◇ SYNONYMS: netting, net, filigree, meshwork, openwork

2 a cord or string drawn through eyelets to fasten a shoe or garment

◇ SYNONYMS: cord, tie, string, lacing, shoelace, bootlace

► vb lacing, laced

3 to fasten (shoes) with a lace

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, tie, tie up, do up, secure, bind, thread

4 to draw (a cord or thread) through holes as when tying shoes

5 to add a small amount of alcohol, a drug, or poison to (food or drink)

◇ SYNONYMS: mix, drug, doctor, add to, spike, contaminate, fortify, adulterate

6 to intertwine; interlace

◇ SYNONYMS: intertwine, interweave, entwine, twine, interlink lacerate (lass-er-rate) vb -ating, -ated

1 to tear (the flesh) jaggedly

2 to hurt (the feelings): it would only lacerate an overburdened conscience > laceration n

lachrymose adj

1 given to weeping; tearful

2 mournful; sad lack n

1 shortage or absence of something required or desired: a lack of confidence

◇ SYNONYMS: shortage, want, absence, deficiency, need, inadequacy, scarcity, dearth

► vb

2 (often foll. by in) to be short (of) or have need (of): lacking in sparkle ◇ SYNONYMS: miss, want, need, require, not have, be without, be short of, be in need of lackadaisical adj

- 1 lacking vitality and purpose
- 2 lazy and careless in a dreamy way lackey n

- 1 a servile follower; hanger-on
- 2 a liveried male servant or valet lacklustre or (US) lackluster adj lacking brilliance, force, or vitality laconic adj (of a person's speech) using few words > laconically adv

lacquer n

- 1 a hard glossy coating made by dissolving natural or synthetic resins in a solvent that evaporates quickly
- 2 a black resin, obtained from certain trees, used to give a hard glossy finish to wooden furniture
- 3 a clear sticky substance for spraying onto the hair to hold a style in place lacrimal or lachrymal (lack-rim-al) adj of tears or the glands that secrete tears lacrosse n a sport in which two teams try to propel a ball into each other's goal using long-handled sticks with a pouched net at the end lactation n

- 1 the secretion of milk from the mammary glands
- 2 the period during which milk is secreted lactic adj relating to or derived from milk lactose n a white crystalline sugar occurring in milk lacuna (lak-kew-na) n, pl -nae (-nee) a gap or space in a book or manuscript lacy adj lacier, laciest of or like lace lad n

- 1 a boy or young man

◇ SYNONYMS: boy, kid (informal), guy (informal), youth, fellow (old-fashioned), youngster, juvenile, nipper (informal)

- 2 (informal) any male

- 3 the lads (informal) a group of males ladder n

- 1 a portable frame consisting of two long parallel supports connected by steps, for climbing up or down

- 2 any system thought of as having a series of ascending stages: the career ladder

- 3 (chiefly Brit) a line of connected stitches that have come undone in tights or stockings

► vb

- 4 (chiefly Brit) to have or cause to have a line of undone stitches laden adj

- 1 loaded

◇ SYNONYMS: loaded, burdened, full, charged, weighed down, encumbered

- 2 burdened

◇ SYNONYMS: loaded, burdened, full, charged, weighed down, encumbered

la-di-da or lah-di-dah adj (informal) affected or pretentious in speech or manners ladle n

1 a long-handled spoon with a deep bowl for serving soup, stew, etc.

► vb -dling, -dled

2 to serve out as with a ladle lady n, pl -dies

1 a woman regarded as having the characteristics of a good family, such as dignified manners

◇ SYNONYMS: gentlewoman, duchess, noble, dame, baroness, countess, aristocrat, viscountess

2 a polite name for a woman

◇ SYNONYMS: woman, female, girl, damsel (archaic, poetic), charlie (Austral old-fashioned, slang), chook (Austral slang, sometimes derogatory), wahine (NZ)

► adj

3 (old-fashioned) female: a lady chef

Lady n, pl -dies

1 (in Britain) a title borne by various classes of women of the peerage

2 Our Lady a title of the Virgin Mary ladybird n a small red beetle with black spots lady-in-waiting n, pl ladies-in-waiting a woman who attends a queen or princess lady-killer n (informal) a man who is, or believes he is, irresistible to women ladylike adj (of a woman) refined and fastidious lag¹ vb lagging, lagged

1 (often foll. by behind) to hang (back) or fall (behind) in movement, progress, or development

◇ SYNONYMS: hang back, delay, trail, linger, loiter, straggle, dawdle, tarry

2 to fall away in strength or intensity

► n

3 a slowing down or falling behind

4 the interval of time between two events, esp. between an action and its effect: the time lag between mobilization and combat

lag² vb lagging, lagged

1 to wrap (a pipe, cylinder, or boiler) with insulating material to prevent heat loss

► n

2 the insulating casing of a steam cylinder or boiler lag³ n old lag (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) a convict or ex-convict lager n a light-bodied effervescent beer, fermented in a closed vessel using yeasts that sink to the bottom of the brew laggard n a person who lags behind lagging n insulating material wrapped around pipes, boilers, or tanks to prevent loss of heat lagoon n a body of water cut off from the open sea by coral reefs or sand bars laid vb the past of lay laid-back adj relaxed in style or character

◇ SYNONYMS: relaxed, calm, casual, easy-going, unflappable (informal), unhurried, free and easy, chilled (informal) lain vb the past participle of lie lair n

1 the resting place of a wild animal

2 (informal) a place of seclusion or hiding laird n (Scot) a landowner, esp. of a large estate laissez faire or laisser faire (less-ay fair) n the policy of nonintervention, esp. by a government in commerce laity (lay-it-ee) n

1 people who are not members of the clergy

2 all the people who do not belong to a specific profession lake¹ n an expanse of water entirely surrounded by land ◇ SYNONYMS: pond, pool, reservoir, loch (Scot), lagoon, mere, lough (Irish), tarn lake² n

1 a bright pigment produced by combining organic colouring matter with an inorganic compound

2 a red dye obtained by combining a metallic compound with cochineal lama n a Buddhist priest or monk in Mongolia or Tibet lamb n

- 1 the young of a sheep
 - 2 the meat of a young sheep eaten as food
 - 3 someone who is innocent, gentle, and good
- vb
- 4 (of a ewe) to give birth lambast or lambaste vb

- 1 to beat severely
- 2 to reprimand severely lambent adj

- 1 (of a flame or light) flickering softly over a surface
 - 2 (of wit or humour) light or brilliant
- > lambency n

lamb's fry n (Austral & NZ) lamb's liver for cooking lambskin n the skin of a lamb, usually with the wool still on, used to make coats, slippers, etc.

lame adj

- 1 unable to walk properly because of an injury or illness affecting the legs or feet
- ◇ SYNONYMS: crippled, limping, hobbling, game
- 2 weak; unconvincing: lame arguments
- ◇ SYNONYMS: unconvincing, poor, pathetic, inadequate, thin, weak, feeble, unsatisfactory
- vb laming, lamed
- 3 to make lame
- > lamely adv
- > lameness n

lamé (lah-may) n a fabric interwoven with gold or silver threads lame duck n a person who is unable to cope without the help of other people lament vb

1 to feel or express sorrow or regret (for or over)

◇ SYNONYMS: bemoan, grieve, mourn, weep over, complain about, regret, wail about, deplore

► n

2 an expression of sorrow

◇ SYNONYMS: complaint, moan, wailing, lamentation

3 a poem or song in which a death is lamented ◇ SYNONYMS: dirge, requiem, elegy, threnody (formal) > lamentation n

lamentable adj very unfortunate or disappointing > lamentably adv

lamented adj grieved for: usually said of someone dead lamine vb -nating, -nated

1 to make (material in sheet form) by sticking together thin sheets

2 to cover with a thin sheet of material

3 to split or be split into thin sheets

► n

4 a material made by sticking sheets together

► adj

5 composed of lamina; laminated > lamination n

laminated adj

1 composed of many layers stuck together

2 covered with a thin protective layer of plastic lamington n (Austral & NZ) a sponge cake covered with a sweet coating lamp n

1 a device that produces light: an electric lamp; a gas lamp; an oil lamp

2 a device that produces radiation, esp. for therapeutic purposes: an ultraviolet lamp lampoon n

1 a piece of writing ridiculing a person

► vb

2 to ridicule and criticize (someone) in a lampoon > lampooner or lampoonist n lamppost n a metal or concrete pole supporting a lamp in a street lamprey n an eel-like fish with a round sucking mouth

LAN (computers) local area network lance n

1 a long weapon with a pointed head used by horsemen

► vb lancing, lanced

2 to pierce (an abscess or boil) with a lancet

3 to pierce with or as with a lance lance corporal n a noncommissioned officer of the lowest rank lancer n (formerly) a cavalryman armed with a lance lancet n a pointed surgical knife with two sharp edges land n

1 the solid part of the surface of the earth as distinct from seas and lakes.

RELATED ADJECTIVE: terrestrial

◇ SYNONYMS: ground, earth, dry land, terra firma

2 ground, esp. with reference to its use or quality: agricultural land

◇ SYNONYMS: soil, ground, earth, clay, dirt, sod, loam

3 rural or agricultural areas: he couldn't leave the land

◇ SYNONYMS: countryside, farmland

4 (law) ground owned as property

◇ SYNONYMS: property, grounds, estate, real estate, realty, acreage, homestead (US & Canad)

5 a country, region, or area: to bring peace and riches to your land

◇ SYNONYMS: country, nation, region, state, district, territory, province, kingdom

► vb

6 to come down or bring (something) down to earth after a flight or jump

7 to transfer (something) or go from a ship to the shore: sacks of malt were landed from barges

8 to come to or touch shore

◇ SYNONYMS: arrive, dock, put down, moor, alight, touch down, disembark, come to rest

9 (informal) to obtain: he landed a handsomely paid job in a bank

◇ SYNONYMS: gain, get, win, secure, acquire

10 (angling) to retrieve (a hooked fish) from the water

11 (informal) to deliver (a blow or punch)

► See also land up > landless adj

landau (lan-daw) n a four-wheeled horse-drawn carriage with two folding hoods landed adj

1 owning land: landed gentry

2 consisting of land: landed property landfall n the act of sighting or nearing land, esp. from the sea landing n

- 1 the floor area at the top of a flight of stairs
- 2 the act of coming to land, esp. after a flight or sea voyage
- 3 a place of disembarkation landlady n, pl -dies

- 1 a woman who owns and leases property
- 2 a woman who owns or runs a lodging house or pub land line n a telecommunications wire or cable laid over landlandlocked adj (of a country) completely surrounded by landlandlord n

- 1 a man who owns and leases property
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: owner, landowner, proprietor, freeholder, lessor, landholder
- 2 a man who owns or runs a lodging house or pub
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: innkeeper, host, hotelier landlubber n (naut) any person without experience at sealandmark n

- 1 a prominent object in or feature of a particular landscape
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: feature, spectacle, monument
- 2 an important or unique event or development: a landmark in scientific progress
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: milestone, turning point, watershed, critical point, tipping point landscape n

- 1 an extensive area of land regarded as being visually distinct
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: scenery, country, view, land, scene, prospect, countryside, outlook

2 a painting, drawing, or photograph depicting natural scenery

► vb -scaping, -scaped

3 to improve the natural features of (an area of land)

► adj

4 (of a page or screen) having greater width than height landslide n

1 Also called: landslip

A the sliding of a large mass of rocks and soil down the side of a mountain or cliff

◇ SYNONYMS: landslip, avalanche, mudslide, rockfall

B the material dislodged in this way

2 an overwhelming electoral victory land up vb to arrive at a final point or condition ◇ SYNONYMS land up: end up, turn up, wind up, finish up, fetch up (informal) landward adj

1 lying, facing, or moving towards land

2 in the direction of the land

► adv also landwards

3 towards land

lane n

1 a narrow road, esp. in the country

◇ SYNONYMS: road, street, track, path, way, passage, trail, pathway

2 one of the parallel strips into which the carriageway of a major road or motorway is divided

3 any well-defined route or course, such as for ships or aircraft

4 one of the parallel strips into which a running track or swimming pool is divided for races language n

1 a system of spoken sounds or conventional symbols for communicating thought

◇ SYNONYMS: tongue, dialect, vernacular, patois

2 the language of a particular nation or people

◇ SYNONYMS: tongue, dialect, vernacular, patois

3 the ability to use words to communicate

◇ SYNONYMS: speech, communication, expression, speaking, talk, talking, discourse, parlance

4 any other means of communicating: body language

5 the specialized vocabulary used by a particular group: legal language

6 a particular style of verbal expression: rough language

7 (computers) See programming language languid adj lacking energy; dreamy and inactive > languidly adv

languish vb (literary)

1 to suffer deprivation, hardship, or neglect: she won't languish in jail for it

◇ SYNONYMS: decline, fade away, wither away, flag, weaken, wilt

2 to lose or diminish in strength or energy: the design languished into oblivion

◇ SYNONYMS: waste away, suffer, rot, be abandoned, be neglected

3 (often foll. by for) to be listless with desire; pine ◇ SYNONYMS: pine, long, desire, hunger, yearn, hanker > languishing adj languor (lang-ger) n (literary) a pleasant state of dreamy relaxation > languorous adj

lank adj

1 (of hair) straight and limp

2 thin or gaunt: a tall, lank, lean man lanky adj lankier, lankiest ungracefully tall and thin > lankiness n

lanolin n a yellowish sticky substance extracted from wool: used in some ointments lantana (lan-tay-na) n a shrub with orange or yellow flowers, considered a weed in Australia lantern n

- 1 a light with a transparent protective case
- 2 a raised part on top of a dome or roof which lets in light or air
- 3 the upper part of a lighthouse that houses the light lantern jaw n a long hollow jaw that gives the face a drawn appearance > lantern-jawed adj

lanthanide series n (chem) a class of 15 chemically related elements (lanthanides) with atomic numbers from 57 (lanthanum) to 71 (lutetium) lanthanum n (chem) a silvery-white metallic element of the lanthanide series: used in electronic devices and glass manufacture. SYMBOL: La lanyard n

- 1 a cord worn round the neck to hold a whistle, identity card, etc.
- 2 (naut) a line for extending or tightening rigging lap¹ n

- 1 the area formed by the upper surface of the thighs of a seated person
- 2 a protected place or environment: in the lap of luxury
- 3 the part of a person's clothing that covers the lap
- 4 drop in someone's lap to give someone the responsibility of lap² n

1 one circuit of a racecourse or track

◇ SYNONYMS: circuit, tour, leg, stretch, circle, orbit, loop

2 a stage or part of a journey

3

A an overlapping part

B the extent of overlap

► vb lapping, lapped

4 to overtake (an opponent) in a race so as to be one or more circuits ahead

5 to enfold or wrap around

6 to place or lie partly or completely over, or project beyond: deep-pile carpet that lapped against his ankles

7 to envelop or surround with comfort, love, or peace: she was lapped by the luxury of Seymour House

lap³ vb lapping, lapped

1 (of small waves) to wash against (the shore or a boat) with light splashing sounds

◇ SYNONYMS: ripple, wash, splash, swish, gurgle, slosh, purl, plash

2 (often foll. by up) (esp. of animals) to scoop (a liquid) into the mouth with the tongue

◇ SYNONYMS: drink, sip, lick, swallow, gulp, sup

► n

3 the act or sound of lapping

► See also lap up lapel (lap-pel) n the part on the front of a jacket or coat that folds back towards the shoulders lapidary n, pl -daries

1 a person who cuts, polishes, sets, or deals in gemstones

► adj

2 of or relating to gemstones or the work of a lapidary lapis lazuli (lap-iss lazz-yew-lie) n a brilliant blue mineral used as a gemstone lapse n

1 a temporary drop in standard as a result of forgetfulness or lack of concentration

◇ SYNONYMS: mistake, failing, fault, failure, error, slip, negligence, omission

2 a moment or instance of bad behaviour, esp. by someone who is usually well-behaved

◇ SYNONYMS: decline, fall, drop, deterioration

3 a period of time sufficient for a change to take place: we returned after a lapse of two years

◇ SYNONYMS: interval, break, gap, pause, interruption, lull, breathing space, intermission

4 a gradual decline to a lower degree, condition, or state: its lapse from the tradition of Disraeli

◇ SYNONYMS: decline, fall, drop, deterioration

5 (law) the loss of some right by neglecting to exercise or renew it

► vb lapsing, lapsed

6 to drop in standard or fail to maintain a standard

◇ SYNONYMS: slip, fall, decline, sink, drop, slide, deteriorate, degenerate

7 to decline gradually in status, condition, or degree

◇ SYNONYMS: slip, fall, decline, sink, drop, slide, deteriorate, degenerate

8 to allow to end or become no longer valid, esp. through negligence: a bid that lapsed last July

◇ SYNONYMS: end, stop, run out, expire, terminate

9 (usually foll. by into) to drift (into a condition): she appeared to lapse into a brief reverie

10 (often foll. by from) to turn away (from beliefs or standards)

11 (of time) to slip away > lapsed adj

laptop adj

1 (of a computer) small and light enough to be held on the user's lap

► n

2 a personal computer that is small and light enough to be held on the user's lap lap up vb

1 to eat or drink

2 to accept (information or attention) eagerly: the public are lapping up the scandal

◇ SYNONYMS lap something up: relish, like, enjoy, delight in, savour, revel in, wallow in, accept eagerly lapwing n a bird of the plover family with a crested head. Also called: peewit larboard n (naut) an old word for port larceny n, pl -nies (law) theft > larcenist n

larch n

- 1 a coniferous tree with deciduous needle-like leaves and egg-shaped cones
- 2 the wood of this tree lard n

- 1 the soft white fat obtained from pigs and prepared for use in cooking
- vb
- 2 to prepare (lean meat or poultry) by inserting small strips of bacon or fat before cooking
- 3 to add unnecessary material to (speech or writing) larder n a room or cupboard used for storing food large adj

- 1 having a relatively great size, quantity, or extent; big
- ◇ SYNONYMS: big, great, huge, heavy, massive, vast, enormous, tall, supersize
- 2 of wide or broad scope, capacity, or range; comprehensive: a large effect
- n
- 3 at large
- A as a whole; in general: both the Navy and the country at large

◇ SYNONYMS at large: in general, generally, chiefly, mainly, as a whole, in the main

B (of a dangerous criminal or wild animal) out of captivity; free

◇ SYNONYMS at large: free, on the run, fugitive, at liberty, on the loose, unchained, unconfined

C in full detail

► vb larging, larged

4 large it (Brit slang) to enjoy oneself or celebrate in an extravagant way > largeness n

largely adv principally; to a great extent ◇ SYNONYMS: mainly, generally, chiefly, mostly, principally, primarily, predominantly, by and large large-scale adj

1 wide-ranging or extensive

◇ SYNONYMS: wide-ranging, global, sweeping, broad, wide, vast, extensive, wholesale

2 (of maps and models) constructed or drawn to a big scale largesse or largess (lar-jess) n the generous giving of gifts, favours, or money largish adj fairly large largo (music) adv

1 in a slow and stately manner

► n, pl -gos

2 a piece or passage to be performed in a slow and stately manner lariat n (US & Canad)

1 a lasso

2 a rope for tethering animals lark¹ n a small brown songbird, esp. the skylark lark² (informal) n

1 a carefree adventure or frolic

2 a harmless piece of mischief

3 an activity or job viewed with disrespect

► vb

4 lark about to have a good time frolicking or playing pranks > larky adj

larkspur n a plant with blue, pink, or white flowers with slender spikes at the base larrikin n (Austral & NZ old-fashioned, slang) a mischievous or unruly person larva n, pl -vae the immature form of many insects before it develops into its adult form > larval adj

laryngeal adj of or relating to the larynx laryngitis n inflammation of the larynx, causing huskiness or loss of voice larynx (lar-rinks) n, pl larynges (lar-rin-jeez) or larynxes a hollow organ forming part of the air passage to the lungs: it contains the vocal cords lasagne or lasagna (laz-zan-ya) n

1 a form of pasta in wide flat sheets

2 a dish made from layers of lasagne, meat, and cheese lascivious (lass-iv-ee-uss) adj showing or producing sexual desire; lustful > lasciviously adv

laser (lay-zer) n

1 a device that produces a very narrow intense beam of light, which is used for cutting very hard materials and in surgery, etc.

► vb

2 to use a laser on (something), esp. as part of medical treatment

3 Also: laser off to remove (a tattoo, fat, etc.) with laser treatment lash¹ n

1 an eyelash

2 a sharp cutting blow from a whip

◇ SYNONYMS: blow, hit, strike, stroke, stripe, swipe (informal)

3 the flexible end of a whip

► vb

4 to hit (a person or thing) sharply with a whip, esp. formerly as punishment

◇ SYNONYMS: whip, beat, thrash, birch, flog, scourge

5 (of rain or waves) to beat forcefully against ◇ SYNONYMS: pound, beat, strike, hammer, drum, smack (dialect)

6 to attack (someone) with words of ridicule or scolding

◇ SYNONYMS: censure, attack, blast, put down, criticize, slate (informal, chiefly Brit), scold, tear into (informal)

7 to flick or wave sharply to and fro: his tail lashing in irritation

8 to urge as with a whip: to lash the audience into a violent mood

► See also lash out lash² vb to bind or secure with rope, string, or cord ◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, tie, secure, bind, strap, make fast lashings pl n (old-fashioned, informal) large amounts; lots: lashings of cream

lash out vb

1 to make a sudden verbal or physical attack

2 (informal) to spend extravagantly lass n a girl or young woman lassie n (Scot & N English informal) a little lass; girl lassitude n physical or mental weariness lasso (lass-oo) n, pl -sos or -soes

1 a long rope with a noose at one end used for catching horses and cattle

► vb -soing, -soed

2 to catch as with a lasso > lassoer n

last¹ adj

1 being, happening, or coming at the end or after all others

◇ SYNONYMS: hindmost, final, at the end, remotest, furthest behind, most distant, rearmost

2 most recent: last April

◇ SYNONYMS: most recent, latest, previous

3 only remaining: that's the last one

◇ SYNONYMS: final, closing, concluding, ultimate

4 most extreme; utmost

◇ SYNONYMS: final, closing, concluding, ultimate

5 least suitable or likely: it's the last place on earth I would have expected to be recognized

► adv

6 after all others

◇ SYNONYMS: in or at the end, after, behind, in the rear, bringing up the rear

7 most recently: we last saw him on Thursday night

8 as the last or latest item

◇ SYNONYMS: in or at the end, after, behind, in the rear, bringing up the rear

► n

9 the last

A a person or thing that is last

B the final moment; end

10 the final appearance, mention, or occurrence: the last of this season's visitors

11 at last in the end; finally 12 at long last finally, after difficulty or delay last² vb

1 to continue to exist for a length of time: the soccer war lasted 100 hours

◇ SYNONYMS: continue, remain, survive, carry on, endure, persist, keep on, abide

2 to be sufficient for the needs of (a person) for a length of time: I shall make a couple of bottles to last me until next summer

3 to remain fresh, uninjured, or unaltered for a certain time: the flowers haven't lasted well

◇ SYNONYMS: continue, remain, survive, carry on, endure, persist, keep on, abide last³ n the wooden or metal form on which a shoe or boot is made or repaired last-ditch adj done as a final resort: a last-ditch attempt lasting adj existing or remaining effective for a long time

◇ SYNONYMS: continuing, long-term, permanent, enduring, remaining, abiding, long-standing, perennial

lastly adv

1 at the end or at the last point

2 finally last post n (military)

1 a bugle call used to signal the time to retire at night

2 a similar call sounded at military funerals last straw n a small incident, irritation, or setback that coming after others is too much to cope with last word n

1 the final comment in an argument

2 the last word in the most recent or best example of something: the last word in luxury

latch n

1 a fastening for a gate or door that consists of a bar that may be slid or lowered into a groove, hole, or notch

◇ SYNONYMS: fastening, catch, bar, lock, hook, bolt, hasp

2 a spring-loaded door lock that can only be opened by a key from outside

► vb

3 to fasten, fit, or be fitted with a latch

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, bar, secure, bolt, make fast late adj

1 occurring or arriving after the correct or expected time: the plane will be late

◇ SYNONYMS: overdue, delayed, last-minute, belated, tardy, behind time, behindhand

2 towards or near the end: the late afternoon

3 occurring or being at a relatively advanced time: a late starter, his first novel was effectively his last

4 at an advanced time in the evening or at night: it's late, I have to get back

5 having died recently: her late father

◇ SYNONYMS: dead, deceased, departed (euphemistic), passed on, former, defunct

6 recent: recollect the late defeats which your enemies have experienced

◇ SYNONYMS: recent, new, advanced, fresh

7 former: the late manager of the team

8 of late recently

► adv

9 after the correct or expected time: Leela arrived late

◇ SYNONYMS: behind time, belatedly, tardily, behindhand, dilatorily

10 at a relatively advanced age: coming late to motherhood

11 recently: as late as in 1983, only 9 per cent of that labour force was unionized

12 late in the day

A at a late or advanced stage

B too late > lateness n

lately adv in recent times; of late ◇ SYNONYMS: recently, of late, just now, in recent times, not long ago, latterly latent adj lying hidden and not yet developed within a person or thing > latency n

lateral (lat-ter-al) adj of or relating to the side or sides > laterally adv

latex n a milky fluid produced by many plants: latex from the rubber plant is used in the manufacture of rubber lath n one of several thin narrow strips of wood used as a supporting framework for plaster or tiles lathe n a machine for shaping metal or wood by turning it against a fixed tool lather n

1 foam formed by soap or detergent in water

2 foamy sweat, as produced by a horse

3 (informal) a state of agitation

► vb

4 to coat or become coated with lather

5 to form a lather

6 (informal) to beat; flog > lathery adj

Latin n

1 the language of ancient Rome and the Roman Empire

2 a member of any of those peoples whose languages are derived from Latin

► adj

3 of the Latin language

4 of those peoples whose languages are derived from Latin

5 of the Roman Catholic Church

Latin America n those areas of South and Central America whose official languages are Spanish and Portuguese

> Latin American adj, n

latitude n

1

A an angular distance measured in degrees north or south of the equator

B (often pl) a region considered with regard to its distance from the equator

2 scope for freedom of action and thought

◇ SYNONYMS: scope, liberty, freedom, play, space, licence, leeway, laxity > latitudinal adj

latrine n a toilet in a barracks or camp latte (lat-tay) n a drink of strong coffee mixed with hot milk latter n

1 the latter the second or second mentioned of two

◇ SYNONYMS: second, last, last-mentioned, second-mentioned

► adj

2 near or nearer the end: the latter half of the season

◇ SYNONYMS: last, ending, closing, final, concluding

3 more advanced in time or sequence; later

◇ SYNONYMS: last, ending, closing, final, concluding latter-day adj present-day; modern latterly adv recently; lately lattice (lat-iss) n

1 Also called: latticework a framework of strips of wood or metal interlaced in a diagonal pattern

2 a gate, screen, or fence formed of such a framework

3 an array of atoms, ions, or molecules in a crystal, or an array of points indicating their positions in space

► vb -ticing, -ticed

4 to make, adorn, or supply with a lattice > latticed adj

laud (literary) vb

1 to praise or glorify

► n

2 praise or glorification laudable adj deserving praise; commendable > laudability n

> laudably adv

laudanum (lawd-a-num) n a sedative extracted from opium laudatory adj (of speech or writing) expressing praise laugh vb

1 to express amusement or happiness by producing a series of inarticulate sounds

◇ SYNONYMS: chuckle, giggle, snigger, cackle, chortle, guffaw, titter, be in stitches

2 to utter or express with laughter: he laughed his derision at the play

3 to bring or force (oneself) into a certain condition by laughter: laughing herself silly

4 laugh at to make fun of; jeer at 5 laugh up one's sleeve to laugh secretly

► n

6 the act or an instance of laughing

◇ SYNONYMS: chortle, giggle, chuckle, snigger, guffaw, titter

7 (informal) a person or thing that causes laughter: he's a laugh, that one

◇ SYNONYMS: clown, character (informal), scream (informal), entertainer, card (informal), joker, hoot (informal)

8 the last laugh final success after previous defeat

► See also laugh off > laughingly adv

laughable adj ridiculous because so obviously inadequate or unsuccessful laughing gas n nitrous oxide used as an anaesthetic: it may cause laughter and exhilaration when inhaled laughing stock n a person or thing that is treated with ridicule laugh off vb to treat (something serious or difficult) lightly ◇ SYNONYMS laugh something off: disregard, ignore, dismiss, overlook, shrug off, minimize, brush aside, make light of laughter n the action or noise of laughing

◇ SYNONYMS: amusement, entertainment, humour, glee, fun, mirth, hilarity, merriment launch¹ vb

1 to move (a vessel) into the water, esp. for the first time

2

A to start off or set in motion: to launch an appeal

◇ SYNONYMS: begin, start, open, initiate, introduce, found, set up, originate

B to put (a new product) on the market

3 to set (a rocket, missile, or spacecraft) into motion

◇ SYNONYMS: propel, fire, dispatch, discharge, project, send off, set in motion, send into orbit

4 to involve (oneself) totally and enthusiastically: Francis launched himself into the transfer market with gusto

5 launch into to start talking or writing (about)

◇ SYNONYMS launch into something: start enthusiastically, begin, initiate, embark on, instigate, inaugurate, embark upon

6 (usually foll. by out) to start (out) on a new enterprise

► n

7 an act or instance of launching > launcher n

launch² n an open motorboat launder vb

1 to wash and iron (clothes and linen)

2 to make (money illegally obtained) appear to be legally gained by passing it through foreign banks or legitimate enterprises

Launderette n (Brit & Austral & NZ, trademark) an establishment where clothes can be washed and dried, using coin-operated machines. Also called (US, Canad, Austral, NZ): Laundromat

laundry n, pl -dries

1 the clothes or linen to be laundered or that have been laundered

2 a place where clothes and linen are washed and ironed laureate (lor-ee-at) adj

1 (literary) crowned with laurel leaves as a sign of honour

► n

2 short for poet laureate > laureateship n

laurel n

1 a small Mediterranean evergreen tree with glossy leaves

2 laurels a wreath of laurel, worn on the head as an emblem of victory or honour in classical times

3 laurels honour, distinction, or fame

4 look to one's laurels to be on guard against one's rivals

5 rest on one's laurels to be satisfied with what one has already achieved and stop striving for further success

◇ SYNONYMS rest on your laurels: sit back, relax, take it easy, relax your efforts lava n

1 molten rock discharged by volcanoes

2 any rock formed by the solidification of lava lavatory n, pl -ries same as toilet lavender n

1 a plant grown for its bluish-purple flowers and as the source of a sweet-smelling oil

2 its dried flowers, used to perfume clothes

► adj

3 pale bluish-purple lavender water n a light perfume made from lavender lavish adj

1 great in quantity or richness: lavish banquets

◇ SYNONYMS: grand, magnificent, splendid, abundant, copious, profuse

2 very generous in giving

◇ SYNONYMS: generous, free, liberal, bountiful, open-handed, unstinting, munificent

3 extravagant; wasteful: lavish spending habits

◇ SYNONYMS: extravagant, wild, excessive, exaggerated, wasteful, prodigal, unrestrained, immoderate

► vb

4 to give or spend very generously or in great quantities

◇ SYNONYMS: shower, pour, heap, deluge, dissipate > lavishly adv

law n

1 a rule or set of rules regulating what may or may not be done by members of a society or community

◇ SYNONYMS: statute, act, bill, rule, order, command, regulation, resolution

2 a rule or body of rules made by the legislature or other authority. RELATED ADJECTIVES: legal, judicial, juridical

◇ SYNONYMS: constitution, code, legislation, charter

3 the control enforced by such rules: scant respect for the rule of law

4 the law

A the legal or judicial system

B the profession or practice of law

◇ SYNONYMS: the legal profession, the bar, barristers

C (informal) the police or a police officer

5 law and order the policy of strict enforcement of the law, esp. against crime and violence

6 a rule of behaviour: an unwritten law that teacher knows best

◇ SYNONYMS: principle, code, canon, precept, axiom, kaupapa (NZ)

7 Also called: law of nature a generalization based on a recurring fact or event

8 the science or knowledge of law; jurisprudence

◇ SYNONYMS: constitution, code, legislation, charter

9 a general principle, formula, or rule in mathematics, science, or philosophy: the law of gravity

◇ SYNONYMS: principle, code, canon, precept, axiom, kaupapa (NZ)

10 the Law the laws contained in the first five books of the Old Testament

11 go to law to resort to legal proceedings on some matter

12 lay down the law to speak in an authoritative manner law-abiding adj obeying the laws: a law-abiding citizen lawful adj allowed, recognized, or sanctioned by law; legal > lawfully adv

lawless adj

1 breaking the law, esp. in a wild or violent way: lawless butchery

2 not having laws > lawlessness n

lawn¹ n an area of cultivated and mown grass lawn² n a fine linen or cotton fabric lawn mower n a hand-operated or power-operated machine for cutting grass lawn tennis n

1 tennis played on a grass court

2 same as tennis lawsuit n a case in a court of law brought by one person or group against another ◇ SYNONYMS: case, action, trial, suit, proceedings, dispute, prosecution, legal action lawyer n a member of the legal profession who can advise clients about the law and represent them in court

◇ SYNONYMS: legal adviser, attorney, solicitor, counsel, advocate, barrister, counsellor, legal representative lax adj lacking firmness; not strict > laxity n laxative n

1 a medicine that induces the emptying of the bowels

► adj

2 easing the emptying of the bowels lay¹ vb lays, laying, laid

1 to put in a low or horizontal position; cause to lie: Mary laid a clean square of white towelling carefully on the grass

◇ SYNONYMS: place, put, set, spread, plant, leave, deposit, put down

2 to establish as a basis: ready to lay your new fashion foundations?

3 to place in a particular state or position: he laid a finger in his lips

◇ SYNONYMS: place, put, set, spread, plant, leave, deposit, put down

4 to regard as the responsibility of: ridiculous attempts to lay the loss at the door of the Admiralty

◇ SYNONYMS: attribute, assign, allocate, allot, ascribe, impute

5 to put forward: ruses by which we lay claim on one another

◇ SYNONYMS: put forward, offer, present, advance, lodge, submit, bring forward

6 to arrange or prepare: she would lay her plans

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, prepare, make, organize, position, set out, devise, put together

7 to place in position: he laid a wreath

◇ SYNONYMS: place, put, set, spread, plant, leave, deposit, put down

8 (of birds, esp. the domestic hen) to produce (eggs)

◇ SYNONYMS: produce, bear, deposit

9 to make (a bet) with (someone): I'll lay money he's already gone home

◇ SYNONYMS: bet, stake, venture, gamble, chance, risk, hazard, wager

10 to arrange (a table) for a meal

11 to prepare (a fire) by arranging fuel in the grate

12 (vulgar, slang) to have sexual intercourse with

13 lay bare to reveal or explain: a century of neurophysiology has now laid bare the structures of the brain

14 lay hold of to seize or grasp

15 lay oneself open to make oneself vulnerable (to criticism or attack)

16 lay open to reveal or disclose

17 lay waste to destroy completely

► n

18 the manner or position in which something lies or is placed 19 (vulgar, slang)

A an act of sexual intercourse

B a sexual partner

lay² vb the past tense of lie lay³ adj

1 of or involving people who are not members of the clergy

◇ SYNONYMS: nonclerical, secular, non-ordained

2 nonprofessional or nonspecialist

◇ SYNONYMS: nonspecialist, amateur, unqualified, untrained, inexpert, nonprofessional lay⁴ n a short narrative poem intended to be sung layabout n a lazy person lay-by n

1 (Brit) a place where drivers can stop by the side of a main road

2 (Austral & NZ) a system of payment whereby a buyer pays a deposit on an article, which is reserved for him or her until he or she has paid the full price layer n

1 a single thickness of something, such as a cover or a coating on a surface

2 a laying hen

3 (horticulture) a shoot that forms its own root while still attached to the parent plant

► vb

4 to form or make a layer or layers layette n a complete set of clothing, bedclothes, and other accessories for a newborn baby layman or (fem) laywoman n, pl -men or -women

1 a person who is not a member of the clergy

2 a person who does not have specialized knowledge of a subject: the layman's guide to nuclear power lay off vb

1 to suspend (staff) during a slack period at work

◇ SYNONYMS lay someone off: dismiss, fire (informal), release, sack (informal), pay off, discharge, let go, make redundant, kennet (Austral slang), jeff (Austral slang)

2 (informal) to leave (a person, thing, or activity) alone: 'Lay off the defence counsel bit!' he snapped

► n lay-off

3 a period of imposed unemployment lay on vb

1 to provide or supply: they laid on a treat for the entourage

2 lay it on thick (slang) to exaggerate, esp. when flattering lay out vb

1 to arrange or spread out

◇ SYNONYMS lay something out: arrange, order, design, display, exhibit, put out, spread out

2 to plan or design: the main streets were laid out on a grid system

3 to prepare (a corpse) for burial or cremation

4 (informal) to spend (money), esp. lavishly

◇ SYNONYMS lay something out: spend, pay, invest, fork out (slang), expend, shell out (informal), disburse

5 (informal) to knock (someone) unconscious

◇ SYNONYMS lay someone out: knock out, fell, floor, knock unconscious, knock for six

► n layout

6 the arrangement or plan of something, such as a building

◇ SYNONYMS: arrangement, design, outline, format, plan, formation

7 the arrangement of printed material laze vb lazing, lazed

1 to be idle or lazy

2 (often foll. by away) to spend (time) in idleness

► n

3 time spent lazing lazy adj lazier, laziest

1 not inclined to work or exert oneself

◇ SYNONYMS: idle, inactive, indolent, slack, negligent, inert, workshy, slothful (formal)

2 done in a relaxed manner with little effort

◇ SYNONYMS: lethargic, languorous, slow-moving, languid, sleepy, sluggish, drowsy, somnolent

3 moving in a sluggish manner: the lazy drift of the bubbles

◇ SYNONYMS: lethargic, languorous, slow-moving, languid, sleepy, sluggish, drowsy, somnolent > lazily adv

> laziness n

lb

1 pound (weight)

2 (cricket) leg bye lbw (cricket) leg before wicket lea n

- 1 (poetic) a meadow or field
- 2 grassland

leach vb

- 1 to remove or be removed from a substance by a liquid passing through it ◇ SYNONYMS: extract, strain, drain, filter, seep, percolate
- 2 to lose soluble substances by the action of a liquid passing through lead¹ (rhymes with seed) vb leading, led

- 1 to show the way to (an individual or a group) by going with or ahead: he led her into the house ◇ SYNONYMS: go in front (of), head, be in front, be at the head (of), walk in front (of)
- 2 to guide, control, or direct: he dismounted and led his horse back ◇ SYNONYMS: guide, conduct, steer, escort, precede, usher, pilot, show the way
- 3 to influence someone to act, think, or behave in a certain way: researching our family history has led her to correspond with relatives abroad
◇ SYNONYMS: cause, prompt, persuade, move, draw, influence, motivate, prevail
- 4 to have the principal part in (something): planners led the development of policy ◇ SYNONYMS: command, rule, govern, preside over, head, control, manage, direct
- 5 to go at the head of or have the top position in (something): the pair led the field by almost two minutes ◇ SYNONYMS: be ahead (of), be first, exceed, be winning, excel, surpass, come first, transcend
- 6 (of a road or way) to be the means of reaching a place: the footbridge leads on to a fine promenade ◇ SYNONYMS: connect to, link, open onto
- 7 to pass or spend: I've led a happy life ◇ SYNONYMS: live, have, spend, experience, pass, undergo
- 8 to guide or be guided by physical means: she took her firmly by the arm and led him home

◇ SYNONYMS: guide, conduct, steer, escort, precede, usher, pilot, show the way

9 to direct the course of (water, a rope, or wire) along, or as if along, a channel

10 (foll. by with) to have as the most important item: the Review leads with a critique of A Place of Greater Safety

11 (Brit, music) to play first violin in (an orchestra)

12 to begin a round of cards by putting down the first card

► n

13 the first or most prominent place

◇ SYNONYMS: first place, winning position, primary position, vanguard

14 example or leadership: some of his children followed his lead

◇ SYNONYMS: example, direction, leadership, guidance, model, pattern

15 an advantage over others: Essex have a lead of 24 points

◇ SYNONYMS: advantage, start, edge, margin, winning margin

16 an indication; clue: we've got a lead on how the body got into the water

◇ SYNONYMS: clue, suggestion, hint, indication, pointer, tip-off

17 a length of leather, nylon, or chain used to walk or control a dog

◇ SYNONYMS: leash, line, cord, rein, tether

18 the principal role in a play, film, or other production, or the person playing such a role

◇ SYNONYMS: leading role, principal, protagonist, title role, principal part

19 the most important news story in a newspaper: the shooting makes the lead in The Times

20 the act of playing the first card in a round of cards or the card so played

21 a wire, cable, or other conductor for making an electrical connection

► adj

22 acting as a leader or lead: lead singer

◇ SYNONYMS: main, prime, top, leading, first, head, chief, premier lead² (rhymes with bed) n

1 a heavy toxic bluish-white metallic element: used in alloys, cable sheaths, paints, and as a radiation shield. SYMBOL: Pb

2

A graphite used for drawing

B a thin stick of this as the core of a pencil

3 a lead weight suspended on a line, used to take soundings of the depth of water

- 4 lead weights or shot, as used in cartridges or fishing lines 5 a thin strip of lead for holding small panes of glass or pieces of stained glass

6 leads

A thin sheets or strips of lead used as a roof covering

B a roof covered with such sheets

7 Also called: leading (printing) a thin strip of metal, formerly used for spacing between lines of type

► adj

8 of, relating to, or containing lead

► vb

9 to surround, cover, or secure with lead or leads leaded adj

1 (of petrol) containing tetraethyl lead in order to improve combustion

2 (of windows) made from many small panes of glass held together by lead strips leaden adj

1 heavy or sluggish: my limbs felt leaden

2 of a dull greyish colour: leaden November sky

3 made of lead

4 gloomy, spiritless, or lifeless: hollow characters and leaden dialogue leader n

1 a person who rules, guides, or inspires others; head

◇ SYNONYMS: principal, president, head, chief, boss (informal), director, manager, chairperson, sherrang (Austral & NZ)

2 Also: leading article (Brit & Austral) the leading editorial in a newspaper

3 (music) the principal first violinist of an orchestra who acts as the conductor's deputy

4 the person or animal who is leading in a race

5 the best or the most successful of its kind: the company is a world leader in its field

6 the leading horse or dog in a team

7 (botany) any of the long slender shoots that grow from the stem or branch of a tree > leadership n

lead-in n an introduction to a subject leading adj

1 principal or primary: the leading designers

◇ SYNONYMS: principal, top, major, main, first, highest, greatest, chief

2 in the first position: the leading driver leading question n a question worded to suggest the desired answer, such as What do you think of the horrible effects of pollution?

leaf n, pl leaves

1 one of the flat usually green blades attached to the stem of a plant

◇ SYNONYMS: frond, blade, cotyledon

2 the foliage of a tree or plant: shrubs have been planted for their leaf interest

3 in leaf (of shrubs or trees) with all its leaves fully opened

4 a very thin sheet of metal

5 one of the sheets of paper in a book

◇ SYNONYMS: page, sheet, folio

6 a hinged, sliding, or detachable part, such as an extension to a table

7 take a leaf out of someone's book to imitate someone in a particular course of action

8 turn over a new leaf to begin a new and improved course of behaviour

► vb

9 (usually foll. by through) to turn pages casually or hurriedly without reading them

◇ SYNONYMS leaf through something: skim, glance, scan, browse, look through, dip into, flick through, flip through 10 (of plants) to produce leaves > leafless adj

leaflet n

1 a sheet of printed matter distributed, usually free, for advertising or information

◇ SYNONYMS: booklet, notice, brochure, circular, flyer, tract, pamphlet, handout

2 any small leaf

3 one of the divisions of a compound leaf

► vb -leting, -leted

4 to distribute leaflets (to) leaf mould n a rich soil consisting of decayed leaves leafy adj leafier, leafiest

1 covered with leaves

◇ SYNONYMS: green, shaded, shady, verdant (literary)

2 having many trees or shrubs: a leafy suburb

◇ SYNONYMS: green, shaded, shady, verdant (literary)

league¹ n

1 an association of people or nations formed to promote the interests of its members

◇ SYNONYMS: association, union, alliance, coalition, group, corporation, partnership, federation

2 an association of sporting clubs that organizes matches between member teams

3 (informal) a class or level: the guy is not even in the same league

◇ SYNONYMS: class, group, level, category

4 in league (with) working or planning together with ► vb leaguings, leagued

5 to form or be formed into a league league² n an obsolete unit of distance of varying length: commonly equal to 3 miles (4.8 km) leak n

1

A a crack or hole that allows the accidental escape or entrance of liquid, gas, radiation, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: hole, opening, crack, puncture, aperture, chink, crevice, fissure

B such escaping or entering liquid, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: leakage, discharge, drip, seepage, percolation

2 a disclosure of secret information

◇ SYNONYMS: disclosure, exposé, exposure, admission, revelation, uncovering, betrayal, unearthing

3 the loss of current from an electrical conductor because of faulty insulation

4 the act or an instance of leaking

◇ SYNONYMS: leakage, discharge, drip, seepage, percolation

5 (slang) urination

► vb

6 to enter or escape, or allow to enter or escape, through a crack or hole

◇ SYNONYMS: escape, pass, spill, release, drip, trickle, ooze, seep

7 to make (secret information) public, esp. deliberately

◇ SYNONYMS: disclose, tell, reveal, pass on, give away, make public, divulge, let slip > leaky adj

leakage n the act, an instance, or the result of leaking: the leakage of 60 tonnes of oil

lean¹ vb leaning, leaned or leant

1 (foll. by against or on or upon) to rest or put (something) so that it rests against a support

◇ SYNONYMS: rest, prop, be supported, recline, repose

2 to bend or make (something) bend from an upright position

◇ SYNONYMS: bend, tip, slope, incline, tilt, heel, slant

3 (foll. by to or towards) to have or express a tendency or preference

◇ SYNONYMS: tend, prefer, favour, incline, be prone to, be disposed to

► n

4 the condition of bending from an upright position

► See also lean on lean² adj

1 (esp. of a person) having a trim body with no surplus flesh

◇ SYNONYMS: thin, slim, slender, skinny, angular, trim, spare, gaunt

2 (of meat) having little or no fat

3 (of a period) sparse, difficult, or causing hardship: we've been through some lean times in recent years

► n

4 the part of meat that contains little or no fat > leanness n

leaning n a tendency or inclination

◇ SYNONYMS: tendency, bias, inclination, bent, disposition, penchant, propensity, predilection lean on vb

1 (informal) to try to influence (someone) by using threats

2 to depend on (someone) for help and advice

◇ SYNONYMS lean on someone: depend on, trust, rely on, cling to, count on, have faith in lean-to n, pl -tos a building with a sloping roof attached to another building or a wall leap vb leaping, leapt or leaped

1 to jump suddenly from one place to another

◇ SYNONYMS: jump, spring, bound, bounce, hop, skip

2 (often foll. by at) to move or react quickly

3 to jump over

► n

4 the act of jumping

◇ SYNONYMS: jump, spring, bound, vault

5 an abrupt or important change or increase: it's been a huge leap to the Premiership from where I started with Wigan

◇ SYNONYMS: rise, change, increase, soaring, surge, escalation, upsurge, upswing

6 a leap in the dark an action performed without knowledge of the consequences

7 by leaps and bounds with unexpectedly rapid progress leapfrog n

1 a children's game in which each player in turn leaps over the others' bent backs

► vb -frogging, -frogged

2

A to play leapfrog

B to leap over (something)

3 to advance by jumps or stages leap year n a calendar year of 366 days, February 29 (leap day) being the additional day, that occurs every four years learn vb learning, learned or learnt

1 to gain knowledge (of something) or acquire skill in (some art or practice)

◇ SYNONYMS: master, grasp, pick up, take in, familiarize yourself with

2 to memorize (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: memorize, commit to memory, learn by heart, learn by rote, learn parrot-fashion, get off pat

3 to gain by experience, example, or practice: I learned everything the hard way

◇ SYNONYMS: master, grasp, pick up, take in, familiarize yourself with 4 (often foll. by of or about) to become informed; find out: Captain Nelson learned of the disaster from his wireless

◇ SYNONYMS: discover, hear, understand, find out about, become aware, discern, ascertain, come to know > learnable adj

> learner n

learned (lurn-id) adj

1 having great knowledge

◇ SYNONYMS: scholarly, academic, intellectual, versed, well-informed, erudite, highbrow, well-read

2 involving or characterized by scholarship: your learned paper on the subject ◇ SYNONYMS: scholarly, academic, intellectual, versed, well-informed, erudite, highbrow, well-read learning n knowledge gained by studying ◇ SYNONYMS: knowledge, study, education, scholarship, enlightenment, e-learning or elearning lease n

1 a contract by which an owner rents buildings or land to another person for a specified period

2 a new lease of life a prospect of renewed energy, health, or happiness

► vb leasing, leased

3 to let or rent (land or buildings) by lease

◇ SYNONYMS: hire, rent, let, loan, charter, rent out, hire out leasehold n

1 land or property held under a lease

2 the holding of such property under lease > leaseholder n

leash n

1 a dog's lead

2 straining at the leash eagerly impatient to begin something

► vb

3 to put a leash on least adj, adv

1 the least the superlative of little: without encountering the least sign of civilization; the least talented player on the team

► adj

2 of very little importance

3 smallest

◇ SYNONYMS: smallest, meanest, fewest, lowest, tiniest, minimum, slightest, minimal

► adv

4 at least if nothing else: at least I wrote

5 at the least at the minimum: at the very least you should have some self-respect

6 not in the least not at all: you're not detaining me, not in the least leather n

1 the skin of an animal made smooth and flexible by tanning and removing the hair

2 leathers leather clothes, esp. as worn by motorcyclists

► adj

3 made of leather

► vb

4 to whip as if with a leather strap

5 to dress in leather leathery adj looking or feeling like leather, esp. in toughness leave¹ vb leaving, left

1 to go away (from a person or place)

◇ SYNONYMS: depart from, withdraw from, go from, escape from, quit, flee, exit, pull out of

2 to cause to remain behind, often by mistake, in a place: I left the paper under the table

◇ SYNONYMS: forget, leave behind, mislay

3 to cause to be or remain in a specified state: the poll leaves the parties neck-and-neck

4 to stop attending or belonging to a particular organization or institution: at seventeen she left the convent

◇ SYNONYMS: quit, give up, get out of, resign from, drop out of 5 to not eat something or not deal with something: he left a half-eaten lunch

6 to result in; cause: I have been terribly hurt by past partners, it leaves indelible marks

◇ SYNONYMS: cause, produce, result in, generate, deposit

7 to allow (someone) to do something without interfering: the governor left them to it for a further few hours

◇ SYNONYMS: entrust, commit, delegate, refer, hand over, assign, consign, allot

8 to be survived by (members of one's family): he leaves a widow and one daughter

9 to bequeath: her adored son left his millions to an unknown half-sister

◇ SYNONYMS: bequeath, will, transfer, endow, confer, hand down

10 to have as a remainder: 37 - 14 leaves 23

11 leave (someone) alone

A to stop annoying (someone)

B to permit to stay or be alone

► See also leave out leave² n

1 permission to be absent, for instance from work: so I asked for leave

◇ SYNONYMS: holiday, break, vacation, time off, sabbatical, leave of absence, furlough, schoolie (Austral), accumulated day off or ADO (Austral)

2 the length of such absence: weekend leave

◇ SYNONYMS: holiday, break, vacation, time off, sabbatical, leave of absence, furlough, schoolie (Austral), accumulated day off or ADO (Austral)

3 permission to do something: they were refused leave to appeal

◇ SYNONYMS: permission, freedom, sanction, liberty, concession, consent, allowance, warrant

4 on leave officially excused from work or duty

5 take (one's) leave of to say farewell to leaven (lev-ven) n also leavening

1 any substance, such as yeast, that produces fermentation in dough and makes it rise

2 an influence that produces a gradual change

► vb

3 to cause fermentation in (dough)

4 to spread through, causing a gradual change leave out vb to omit or exclude: leave out everything not necessary to living ◇ SYNONYMS leave something or someone out: omit, exclude, miss out, forget, reject, ignore, overlook, neglect lecherous (letch-er-uss) adj having or showing strong and uncontrolled sexual desire > lecher n

> lechery n

lectern n a sloping reading desk, esp. in a church lecture n

1 a talk on a particular subject delivered to an audience

◇ SYNONYMS: talk, address, speech, lesson, instruction, presentation, discourse, sermon, webinar

2 a lengthy scolding

◇ SYNONYMS: telling-off (informal), rebuke, reprimand, talking-to (informal), scolding, dressing-down (informal), reproof

► vb -turing, -tured

3 to deliver a lecture (to an audience or class)

◇ SYNONYMS: talk, speak, teach, address, discourse, spout (informal), expound, hold forth

4 to scold (someone) at length

◇ SYNONYMS: tell off (informal), berate, scold, reprimand, censure, castigate, admonish, reprove > lecturer n

> lectureship n

LED (electronics) light-emitting diode: a semiconductor that gives out light when an electric current is applied to it

ledge n

1 a narrow horizontal surface that projects from a wall or window

2 a narrow shelflike projection on a cliff or mountain ledger n (accounting) the principal book in which the commercial transactions of a company are recorded lee n

1 a sheltered part or side; the side away from the direction from which the wind is blowing

► adj

2 (naut) on, at, or towards the side away from the wind: her lee rail was awash

leech n

1 a worm which has a sucker at each end of the body and feeds on the blood or tissues of other animals

2 a person who lives off another person; parasite leek n a vegetable of the onion family with a slender white bulb and broad flat green overlapping leaves: the national emblem of Wales

leer vb

1 to give a sneering or suggestive look or grin

► n

2 such a look leery adj leerier, leeriest

1 (slang) (foll. by of) suspicious or wary

2 (chiefly dialect) knowing or sly lees pl n the sediment from an alcoholic drink ◇ SYNONYMS: sediment, grounds, deposit, dregs leeward (chiefly naut) adj

1 of, in, or moving in the direction towards which the wind blows

► n

2 the side towards the lee

► adv

3 towards the lee leeway n

1 flexibility of action or expenditure: he gave me a lot of leeway in the work I did

2 sideways drift of a boat or aircraft left¹ adj

1 denoting the side of something or someone that faces west when the front is turned towards the north

◇ SYNONYMS: left-hand, port, larboard (naut)

2 on the left side of the body: I grabbed it with my left hand

◇ SYNONYMS: left-hand, port, larboard (naut)

3 liberal, radical, or socialist

◇ SYNONYMS: socialist, radical, left-wing, leftist

► adv

4 on or in the direction of the left

► n

5 a left side, direction, position, area, or part

6 the left the people in a political party or society who have more socialist or liberal views: the biggest party of the French Left

7 (boxing)

A a blow with the left hand

B the left hand

left² vb the past of leave left-handed adj

1 better at using the left hand than the right

2 done with the left hand

3 designed for use by the left hand

4 awkward or clumsy

5 ambiguous or insincere: a left-handed compliment

6 turning from right to left; anticlockwise

► adv

7 with the left hand: I write left-handed > left-hander n

leftist adj

1 of or relating to the political left or its principles

► n

2 a person who supports the political left > leftism n

leftover n

1 (often pl) an unused portion, esp. of cooked food

► adj

2 left as an unused portion left-wing adj

1 socialist or radical: the party ditched many of its more left-wing policies

◇ SYNONYMS: socialist, communist, red (informal), radical, revolutionary, militant, Bolshevik, Leninist

2 belonging to the more radical part of a political party: a group of left-wing Conservatives

► n left wing

3 the more radical or progressive section, esp. of a political party: the left wing of the Labour Party

4 (sport)

A the left-hand side of the field of play

B a player positioned in this area in certain games > left-winger n

leg n

1 either of the two lower limbs in humans, or any similar structure in animals, that is used for movement or support

◇ SYNONYMS: limb, member, shank, lower limb, pin (informal), stump

(informal)

2 the part of a garment that covers the leg

3 a lower limb of an animal, esp. the thigh, used for food: leg of lamb

4 something similar to a leg in appearance or function, such as one of the supports of a chair

◇ SYNONYMS: support, prop, brace, upright

5 a section of a journey

◇ SYNONYMS: stage, part, section, stretch, lap, segment, portion

6 a single stage, lap, or length in a relay race

◇ SYNONYMS: stage, part, section, stretch, lap, segment, portion

7 one of a series of games, matches, or parts of games

8 (cricket) the side of the field to the left of a right-handed batsman as he faces the bowler

9 not have a leg to stand on (informal) to have no reasonable basis for an opinion or argument

10 on one's last legs worn out or exhausted

11 pull someone's leg (informal) to tease or make fun of someone

◇ SYNONYMS pull someone's leg: tease, trick, fool, kid (informal), wind up (Brit slang), hoax, make fun of, lead up the garden path

12 shake a leg (informal) to hurry up 13 stretch one's legs to stand up or walk around, esp. after sitting for some time

► vb legging, legged

14 leg it (informal) to walk, run, or hurry legacy n, pl -cies

1 money or personal property left to someone by a will

◇ SYNONYMS: bequest, inheritance, gift, estate, heirloom

2 something handed down to a successor legal adj

1 established by or permitted by law; lawful

◇ SYNONYMS: lawful, allowed, sanctioned, constitutional, valid, legitimate, authorized, permissible

2 of or relating to law

◇ SYNONYMS: judicial, judiciary, forensic, juridical, jurisdictive

3 relating to or characteristic of lawyers

◇ SYNONYMS: judicial, judiciary, forensic, juridical, jurisdictive > legally adv

legality n, pl -ties the state or quality of being legal or lawful legalize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to make lawful or legal > legalization or -lisation n legate n a messenger, esp. one representing the Pope legatee n the recipient of a legacy legation n

- 1 a diplomatic mission headed by a minister
- 2 the official residence and office of a diplomatic minister legato (leg-ah-toe) (music) adv

- 1 smoothly and evenly
- n, pl -tos
- 2 a style of playing with no gaps between notes legend n

- 1 a popular story handed down from earlier times which may or may not be true

◇ SYNONYMS: myth, story, tale, fiction, saga, fable, folk tale, folk story

- 2 such stories collectively

- 3 a person whose fame makes him or her seem exceptional: he is a living legend

◇ SYNONYMS: celebrity, star, phenomenon, genius, prodigy, luminary, megastar (informal)

- 4 modern stories about a famous person which may or may not be true: no Garland fan could complain about sordid revelations tarnishing the legend

5 words written on something to explain it: a pub mirror spelling out the legend 'Saloon Bar'

◇ SYNONYMS: inscription, title, caption, device, motto, rubric

6 an explanation on a table, map, or chart, of the symbols used legendary adj

1 very famous: the legendary beauty of the Alps

◇ SYNONYMS: famous, celebrated, well-known, acclaimed, renowned, famed, immortal, illustrious

2 of or relating to legend

◇ SYNONYMS: mythical, fabled, traditional, romantic, fabulous, fictitious, storybook, apocryphal

3 described in legend: the legendary birthplace of Aphrodite

◇ SYNONYMS: mythical, fabled, traditional, romantic, fabulous, fictitious, storybook, apocryphal

legerdemain (lej-er-de-main) n

1 same as sleight of hand

2 cunning deception leggings pl n

1 an extra outer covering for the lower legs

2 very close-fitting trousers leggy adj

1 having unusually long legs

2 (of a plant) having a long weak stem legible adj (of handwriting) able to be read > legibility n

> legibly adv

legion n

1 any large military force: the French Foreign Legion

◇ SYNONYMS: army, company, force, division, troop, brigade

2 (often pl) any very large number

◇ SYNONYMS: multitude, host, mass, drove, number, horde, myriad, throng

3 an infantry unit in the ancient Roman army of three to six thousand men

4 an association of veterans > legionary adj, n

legionnaire n (often cap) a member of a legion legislate vb -lating, -lated

1 to make or pass laws

2 to bring into effect by legislation > legislator n

legislation n

1 the act or process of making laws

◇ SYNONYMS: lawmaking, regulation, prescription, enactment

2 the laws so made

◇ SYNONYMS: law, act, ruling, rule, bill, measure, regulation, charter legislative adj

1 of or relating to the process of making laws

2 having the power or function of making laws: the House of Lords is one of the largest legislative assemblies in the world

◇ SYNONYMS: law-making, judicial, law-giving legislature n a body of people authorized to make, amend, and repeal laws

◇ SYNONYMS: parliament, congress, senate, assembly, chamber legit adj (informal) short for legitimate legitimate adj

1 authorized by or in accordance with law: legitimate accounting practices

◇ SYNONYMS: lawful, legal, genuine, authentic, authorized, rightful, kosher (informal), dinkum (Austral & NZ informal), licit

2 based on correct or acceptable principles of reasoning: a legitimate argument

◇ SYNONYMS: reasonable, correct, sensible, valid, warranted, logical, justifiable, well-founded

3 (of a child) born of parents legally married to each other

4 of, relating to, or ruling by hereditary right: under their legitimate ruling house

5 of or relating to serious drama as distinct from films, television, or vaudeville

► vb -mating, -mated

6 to make, pronounce, or show to be legitimate ◇ SYNONYMS: legitimize, allow, permit, sanction, authorize, legalize, pronounce lawful > legitimacy n

> legitimately adv

legitimize or -mise vb -mizing, -mized or -mising, -mised to make legitimate; legalize > legitimization or -misation n

legless adj

1 without legs

2 (slang) very drunk

Lego n (trademark) a construction toy consisting of plastic bricks and other components that fit together leguaan n a large amphibious S African lizard legume n

- 1 the pod of a plant of the pea or bean family
- 2 the seed from such pods, esp. beans or peas leguminous adj of or relating to any family of flowering plants having pods (or legumes) as fruits lei n (in Hawaii) a garland of flowers, worn around the neck leisure n

- 1 time or opportunity for relaxation or hobbies
- ◇ SYNONYMS: spare time, free time, rest, ease, relaxation, recreation
- 2 at leisure
- A having free time
- B not occupied
- 3 at one's leisure when one has free time
- > leisured adj leisure centre n a building providing facilities, such as a swimming pool, gym, and café, for a range of leisure pursuits leisurely adj

- 1 unhurried; relaxed
- adv
- 2 in a relaxed way
- > leisureliness n

leitmotif or leitmotiv (lite-mote-eef) n

- 1 (music) a recurring melodic phrase used to suggest a character, thing, or idea
- 2 an often repeated image in a literary work lekker adj (S African slang) pleasing, enjoyable, or tasty

- ◇ SYNONYMS: delicious, tasty, luscious, palatable, delectable, mouthwatering, scrumptious (informal), appetizing, yummo (Austral slang) lemming n

- 1 a small rodent of northern and arctic regions, reputed to rush into the sea in large groups and drown
- 2 a member of any group following an unthinking course towards destruction lemon n

- 1 a yellow oval edible fruit with juicy acidic flesh that grows on an evergreen tree in warm and tropical regions
 - 2 (slang) a person or thing considered to be useless or defective
- adj
- 3 light yellow
- > lemony adj

lemonade n a drink made from lemon juice, sugar, and water, or from carbonated water, citric acid, and sweetener lemon sole n an edible European flatfish lemur n a nocturnal animal, related to the monkey, with a foxy face and long tail, found on Madagascar lend vb lending, lent

- 1 to permit the temporary use of ◇ SYNONYMS: loan, advance, sub (Brit informal)
- 2 to provide (money) temporarily, often at interest ◇ SYNONYMS: loan, advance, sub (Brit informal)
- 3 to contribute (some abstract quality): a painted trellis lends a classical air to any garden ◇ SYNONYMS: give, provide, add, supply, grant, confer, bestow, impart
- 4 lend an ear to listen
- 5 lend itself to to be appropriate for: the building lends itself to loft

conversion

◇ SYNONYMS lend itself to something: be appropriate for, suit, be suitable for, be appropriate to, be serviceable for > lender n

length n

1 the extent or measurement of something from end to end

◇ SYNONYMS: distance, reach, measure, extent, span, longitude

2 a specified distance, esp. between two positions: the length of a cricket pitch

3 a period of time, as between specified limits or moments

◇ SYNONYMS: duration, term, period, space, stretch, span, expanse

4 the quality, state, or fact of being long rather than short

5 a piece of something, usually longer than it is wide: a length of twine

◇ SYNONYMS: piece, measure, section, segment, portion

6 (usually pl) the amount of trouble taken in doing something: to go to great lengths

7 (prosody, phonetics) the duration of a vowel or syllable

8 at length

A after a long interval or period of time

◇ SYNONYMS at length: at last, finally, eventually, in time, in the end, at long last

B in great detail

◇ SYNONYMS at length: for a long time, completely, fully, thoroughly, for hours, in detail, for ages, in depth lengthen vb to make or become longer

◇ SYNONYMS: protract, extend, prolong, draw out, spin out, make longer lengthways or lengthwise adv, adj in, according to, or along the direction of length lengthy adj lengthier, lengthiest very long or tiresome

◇ SYNONYMS: very long, rambling, interminable, long-winded, wordy, discursive, extended > lengthily adv

> lengthiness n

lenient (lee-nee-ent) adj tolerant, not strict or severe > leniency n > leniently adv

lens n

1 a piece of glass or other transparent material with a curved surface or surfaces, used to bring together or spread rays of light passing through it: used in cameras, telescopes, and spectacles

2 (anatomy) a transparent structure in the eye, behind the iris, that focuses images on the retina lent vb the past of lend

Lent n (Christianity) the period from Ash Wednesday to Easter Saturday, during which some Christians give up doing something they enjoy

> Lenten adj

lentil n any of the small edible seeds of a leguminous Asian plant lento (music) adv

1 slowly

► n, pl -tos

2 a movement or passage performed slowly leonine adj of or like a lion leopard or (fem) leopardess n a large African and Asian mammal of the cat family, which has a tawny yellow coat with black spots. Also called: panther

leotard n a tight-fitting garment covering the body from the shoulders to the thighs and worn by acrobats, ballet dancers, and people doing exercises

leper n

1 (offensive) a person who has leprosy

2 a person who is avoided lepidopterist n a person who studies or collects moths and butterflies leprechaun n (in Irish folklore) a mischievous elf leprosy n (pathol) a chronic infectious disease, characterized by painful inflamed lumps beneath the skin and disfigurement and wasting away of affected parts > leprous adj

lesbian n

1 a female homosexual

► adj

2 of or characteristic of lesbians

◇ SYNONYMS: homosexual, gay, sapphic > lesbianism n

lese-majesty (lezz-maj-ist-ee) n

1 an offence against the sovereign power in a state; treason

2 an act of disrespect towards authority lesion n

1 any structural change in an organ or tissue resulting from injury or disease

2 an injury or wound less adj

1 the comparative of little: less fibre

◇ SYNONYMS: smaller, shorter, not so much

2 (not standard) fewer

► adv

3 the comparative of little: eat less

4 less of to a smaller extent or degree: it would become less of a problem

5 no less (sometimes humorous) used to indicate admiration or surprise: sculpted by a famous Frenchman, Rodin no less

► prep

6 minus: a two pounds-a-week rise (less tax) lessee n a person to whom a lease is granted lessen vb to make or become less ◇ SYNONYMS: grow less, diminish, decrease, contract, ease, shrink lesser adj not as great in quantity, size, or worth ◇ SYNONYMS: lower, secondary, subsidiary, inferior, less important lesson n

1

A a single period of instruction in a subject

◇ SYNONYMS: class, schooling, period, teaching, coaching, session, instruction, lecture

B the content of such a period

◇ SYNONYMS: class, schooling, period, teaching, coaching, session, instruction, lecture

2 material assigned for individual study

3 something from which useful knowledge or principles can be learned: one could still learn an important lesson from these masters

◇ SYNONYMS: example, warning, message, moral, deterrent

4 an experience that serves as a warning or example: the experience will prove a sobering lesson for the military

◇ SYNONYMS: example, warning, message, moral, deterrent

5 a passage of Scripture read during a church service

◇ SYNONYMS: Bible reading, reading, text, Bible passage, Scripture passage lest conj

1 so as to prevent any possibility that: one grabbed it lest a neighbour got there first

2 for fear that: his anxiety lest anything mar the family event let¹ vb letting, let

1 to allow: a child lets a friend play with his favourite toy

◇ SYNONYMS: allow, permit, authorize, give the go-ahead, give permission

2

A an auxiliary expressing a request, proposal, or command, or conveying a warning or threat: well, let's try it; just let me catch you here again!

B an auxiliary expressing an assumption or hypothesis: let 'a' equal 'b'

C an auxiliary used to convey resigned acceptance of the inevitable: let the worst happen

3 to allow someone to rent (property or accommodation)

◇ SYNONYMS: lease, hire, rent, rent out, hire out, sublease

4 to cause the movement of (something) in a specified direction: he let the air out of the tire

5 let alone not to mention: I could hardly think, let alone find words to say

6 let alone or be stop annoying or interfering with: let the poor cat alone

7 let go to relax one's hold (on)

8 let loose

A to allow (a person or animal) to leave or escape

B (informal) to make (a sound) suddenly: he let loose a laugh

C (informal) to fire (ammunition) from a gun

► n

9 (Brit & Austral) the act of letting property or accommodation

► See also let down, let off etc let² n

1 (tennis, squash) a minor infringement or obstruction of the ball, requiring a point to be replayed

2 without let or hindrance without obstruction let down vb

1 to fail to satisfy the expectations of (someone); disappoint

◇ SYNONYMS let someone down: disappoint, fail, abandon, desert, disillusion, fall short, leave stranded, leave in the lurch

2 to lower

3 to lengthen a garment by decreasing the hem

4 to deflate: to let down a tyre

◇ SYNONYMS let something down: deflate, empty, exhaust, flatten, puncture

► n letdown

5 a disappointment lethal adj capable of causing death

◇ SYNONYMS: deadly, terminal, fatal, dangerous, devastating, destructive, mortal, murderous > lethally adv

lethargy n, pl -gies

1 sluggishness or dullness

2 an abnormal lack of energy > lethargic adj

> lethargically adv

let off vb

1 to excuse from (work or duties): I'll let you off homework for a week

◇ SYNONYMS let someone off: excuse, release, discharge, pardon, spare, forgive, exempt, exonerate

2 to spare (someone) the expected punishment: lots were let off because they couldn't be bothered to prosecute anybody

◇ SYNONYMS let someone off: excuse, release, discharge, pardon, spare, forgive, exempt, exonerate

3 to explode or fire (a bomb, gun, or firework)

◇ SYNONYMS let something off: fire, explode, set off, discharge, detonate

4 to release (liquid, air, or steam)

◇ SYNONYMS let something off: emit, release, leak, exude, give off let on vb (informal)

1 to reveal (a secret)

◇ SYNONYMS let on: reveal, disclose, say, tell, admit, give away, divulge, let slip

2 to pretend: he let on that he was a pilgrim

let out vb

1 to emit: he let out a scream

◇ SYNONYMS let something out: emit, make, produce, give vent to 2 to allow to leave; release

3 to make (property) available for people to rent

4 to make (a garment) wider by reducing the seams

5 to reveal (a secret)

► n let-out

6 a chance to escape letter n

1 a written or printed message, usually enclosed in an envelope and sent by post

◇ SYNONYMS: message, line, note, communication, dispatch, missive, epistle, email or e-mail

2 any of a set of conventional symbols used in writing or printing a language: character of the alphabet

◇ SYNONYMS: character, mark, sign, symbol, glyph (computers)

3 the strict meaning of an agreement or document; exact wording: the letter of the law

4 to the letter precisely: you have to follow treatment to the letter for it to be effective

► vb

5 to write or mark letters on (a sign) > lettering n

letter bomb n an explosive device in an envelope or parcel that explodes when the envelope or parcel is opened letter box n (chiefly Brit)

1 a slot in a door through which letters are delivered

2 Also called: pillar box, postbox a public box into which letters and postcards are put for collection lettered adj

1 well educated

2 printed or marked with letters letterhead n a printed heading on stationery giving the name and address of the sender lettuce n a plant cultivated for its large edible leaves, which are used in salads

let up vb

1 to diminish or stop

◇ SYNONYMS let up: stop, diminish, decrease, subside, relax, ease (up), moderate, lessen

2 (foll. by on) (informal) to be less harsh (towards someone)

► n let-up

3 (informal) a lessening: there has been no let-up in the war

leucocyte (loo-koh-site) n any of the various large white cells in the blood of vertebrates leukaemia or (esp US) leukemia (loo-kee-mee-a) n an acute or chronic disease characterized by extreme overproduction of white blood cells

levee n (US)

1 a natural or artificial river embankment

2 a quay level adj

1 on a horizontal plane

◇ SYNONYMS: horizontal, even, flat, smooth, uniform

2 having an even surface

◇ SYNONYMS: horizontal, even, flat, smooth, uniform

3 being of the same height as something else: the floor of the lean-to was level with the patio

◇ SYNONYMS: equal, balanced, at the same height

4 equal to or even with (something or someone else): Johnson was level with the overnight leader

◇ SYNONYMS: even, tied, equal, drawn, neck and neck, all square, level pegging

5 not exceeding the upper edge of (a spoon, etc.)

6 consistent or regular: a level pulse

7 one's level best the best one can do

► vb -velling, -velled (US) -veling, -veled

8 (sometimes foll. by off) to make horizontal or even

◇ SYNONYMS: flatten, plane, smooth, even off or out

9 to make equal in position or status

◇ SYNONYMS: equalize, balance, even up

10 to direct (an accusation or criticism) emphatically at someone

◇ SYNONYMS: direct, point, turn, train, aim, focus

11 to focus (a look) directly at someone

◇ SYNONYMS: direct, point, turn, train, aim, focus

12 to aim (a weapon) horizontally

◇ SYNONYMS: direct, point, turn, train, aim, focus

13 to demolish completely

◇ SYNONYMS: destroy, devastate, demolish, flatten, knock down, pull down, tear down, bulldoze, kenet (Austral slang), jeff (Austral slang)

► n

14 a horizontal line or plane

15 a device, such as a spirit level, for determining whether a surface is horizontal 16 position or status in a scale of values: a high-level delegation

◇ SYNONYMS: position, standard, degree (archaic), grade, standing, stage, rank, status

17 stage or degree of progress: primary-school level

◇ SYNONYMS: position, standard, degree (archaic), grade, standing, stage, rank, status

18 a specified vertical position: floor level

19 the topmost horizontal line or plane from which the height of something is calculated: sea level

20 a flat even surface or area of land

21 a degree or intensity reached on a measurable or notional scale: noise level

22 on the level (informal) sincere or genuine

◇ SYNONYMS on the level: honest, genuine, straight, fair, square, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal), above board level crossing n (Brit & Austral & NZ) a point at which a railway line and a road cross level-headed adj calm and sensible lever n

1 a handle used to operate machinery

◇ SYNONYMS: handle, bar

2 a bar used to move a heavy object or to prise something open

◇ SYNONYMS: handle, bar

3 a rigid bar that turns on a fixed support (fulcrum) to transfer effort and motion, for instance to move a load

◇ SYNONYMS: handle, bar

4 a means of exerting pressure in order to achieve an aim: using the hostages as a lever to gain concessions from the government

► vb

5 to open or move with a lever

◇ SYNONYMS: prise, force leverage n

1 the mechanical advantage gained by using a lever

◇ SYNONYMS: force, hold, pull, strength, grip, grasp

2 the ability to influence people or events: information gives leverage

◇ SYNONYMS: influence, authority, pull (informal), weight, clout (informal) leveret (lev-ver-it) n a young hare leviathan (lev-vie-ath-an) n any huge or powerful thing

Levis pl n (trademark) denim jeans levitate vb -tating, -tated to rise or cause to rise, suspended, in the air > levitation n

levity n, pl -ties a frivolous or too light-hearted attitude to serious matters levy (lev-vee) vb levies, levying, levied

1 to impose and collect (a tax, tariff, or fine)

◇ SYNONYMS: impose, charge, collect, demand, exact

2 to conscript troops for service

► n, pl levies

3

A the imposition and collection of taxes, tariffs, or fines

◇ SYNONYMS: tax, fee, toll, tariff, duty, excise, exaction

B the money so raised

◇ SYNONYMS: tax, fee, toll, tariff, duty, excise, exaction

4 troops conscripted for service lewd adj indecently vulgar; obscene > lewdly adv

> lewdness n

lexical adj

1 relating to the vocabulary of a language

2 relating to a lexicon > lexically adv

lexicography n the process or profession of compiling dictionaries > lexicographer n

lexicon n

- 1 a dictionary, esp. one of an ancient language such as Greek
- 2 the vocabulary of a language or of an individual

LGBT lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender

LGBTQ lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (or questioning) liability n, pl -ties

- 1 someone or something that is a problem or embarrassment ◇ SYNONYMS: disadvantage, burden, drawback, inconvenience, handicap, nuisance, hindrance, millstone
- 2 the state of being legally responsible ◇ SYNONYMS: responsibility, accountability, culpability, answerability
- 3 (often pl) sums of money owed by an organization liable adj

- 1 probable or likely: weak and liable to give way ◇ SYNONYMS: likely, tending, inclined, disposed, prone, apt
- 2 commonly suffering a condition: he's liable to colds in the chest ◇ SYNONYMS: vulnerable, subject, exposed, prone, susceptible, open, at risk of
- 3 legally obliged or responsible; answerable ◇ SYNONYMS: responsible, accountable, answerable, obligated liaise vb -aising, -aised (usually foll. by with) to communicate and maintain contact with liaison n

- 1 communication and cooperative contact between groups

◇ SYNONYMS: contact, communication, connection, interchange

2 a secretive or adulterous sexual relationship ◇ SYNONYMS: affair, romance, intrigue, fling, love affair, amour, entanglement liana n a woody climbing and twining plant of tropical forests liar n a person who tells lies

◇ SYNONYMS: falsifier, perjurer, fibber, fabricator

lib n (informal) liberation: used in the name of certain movements: women's lib

libel n

1 (law) the publication of something false which damages a person's reputation

◇ SYNONYMS: defamation, misrepresentation, denigration, smear, calumny, aspersion

2 any damaging or unflattering representation or statement

◇ SYNONYMS: defamation, misrepresentation, denigration, smear, calumny, aspersion

► vb -belling, -belled (US) -beling, -beled

3 (law) to make or publish a false damaging statement or representation about (a person)

◇ SYNONYMS: defame, smear, slur, blacken, malign, denigrate, revile, vilify > libellous or (US) libelous adj liberal adj

1 having social and political views that favour progress and reform

◇ SYNONYMS: progressive, radical, reformist, libertarian, forward-looking, free-thinking

2 generous in temperament or behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: generous, kind, charitable, extravagant, open-hearted, bountiful, magnanimous, open-handed

3 tolerant of other people

4 using or existing in large quantities; lavish: the world's finest gadgetry, in liberal quantities

◇ SYNONYMS: abundant, generous, handsome, lavish, ample, rich, plentiful, copious

5 not rigid; free: a more liberal interpretation

6 (of an education) designed to develop general cultural interests and intellectual ability

7 Liberal of or relating to a Liberal Party

► n

8 a person who has liberal ideas or opinions > liberalism n

> liberally adv

Liberal Democrat n a member or supporter of the Liberal Democrats, a British centrist political party that advocates proportional representation liberality n, pl -ties

1 generosity

2 the quality of being broad-minded liberalize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -ised to make (a law) less strict > liberalization or -lisation n

Liberal Party n

1 (history) a British non-Socialist political party which advocated progress and reform

2 any similar party in various other countries

3 the main right-wing political party in Australia liberate vb -rating, -rated

1 to free (someone) from social prejudices or injustices

2 to give liberty to; make free

◇ SYNONYMS: free, release, rescue, save, deliver, let out, set free, let loose

3 to release (a country) from enemy occupation

◇ SYNONYMS: free, release, rescue, save, deliver, let out, set free, let loose

- > liberation n
- > liberator n

libertarian n

- 1 a person who believes in freedom of thought and action
- adj
- 2 believing in freedom of thought and action libertine (lib-er-teen) n

- 1 a person who is promiscuous and unscrupulous
- adj
- 2 promiscuous and unscrupulous liberty n, pl -ties

- 1 the freedom to choose, think, and act for oneself
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: independence, sovereignty, liberation, autonomy, immunity, self-determination, emancipation, self-government
- 2 the right of unrestricted movement and access; freedom
- 3 (often pl) a social action regarded as being forward or improper
- 4 at liberty free or unconfined
 - ◇ SYNONYMS at liberty: free, escaped, unlimited, at large, not confined, untied, on the loose, unchained
- 5 at liberty (to) unrestricted or authorized: I am not at liberty to divulge his name
 - ◇ SYNONYMS at liberty: able, free, allowed, permitted, entitled, authorized
- 6 take liberties or a liberty (with) to be overfamiliar (towards someone)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS take liberties or a liberty: not show enough respect, show disrespect, act presumptuously, behave too familiarly, behave impertinently libidinous adj characterized by excessive sexual desire

- > libidiously adv

libido (lib-ee-doe) n, pl -dos

- 1 (psychoanalysis) psychic energy from the id

2 sexual urge or desire > libidinal adj

librarian n a person in charge of or assisting in a library > librarianship n

library n, pl -braries

- 1 a room or building where books and other literary materials are kept
- 2 a collection of literary materials, films, CDs, toys, etc., kept for borrowing or reference
- 3 the building or institution that houses such a collection
- 4 a set of books published as a series, often in a similar format
- 5 (computers) a collection of standard programs, usually stored on disk libretto n, pl -tos or -ti a text written for an opera > librettist n

lice n the plural of louse licence or (US) license n

- 1 a document giving official permission to do, use, or own something ◇ SYNONYMS: certificate, document, permit, charter, warrant
- 2 formal permission or exemption ◇ SYNONYMS: permission, the right, authority, leave, sanction, liberty, immunity, entitlement
- 3 intentional disregard of conventional rules to achieve a certain effect: poetic licence ◇ SYNONYMS: freedom, creativity, latitude, independence, liberty, deviation, leeway, free rein
- 4 excessive freedom ◇ SYNONYMS: laxity, excess, indulgence, irresponsibility, licentiousness, immoderation license vb -censing, -censed

1 to grant a licence to or for

◇ SYNONYMS: permit, sanction, allow, warrant, authorize, empower, certify, accredit

2 to give permission to or for

◇ SYNONYMS: permit, sanction, allow, warrant, authorize, empower, certify, accredit

> licensable adj licensee n a person who holds a licence, esp. one to sell alcoholic drink licentiate n a person who holds a certificate of competence to practise a certain profession licentious adj sexually unrestrained or promiscuous > licentiousness n

lichen n any of various small mossy plants that grow in patches on tree trunks, bare ground, rocks, and stone walls

licit adj (formal) lawful; permitted lick vb

1 to pass the tongue over in order to taste, wet, or clean

◇ SYNONYMS: taste, lap, tongue

2 to flicker over or round (something): flames licked the gutters

◇ SYNONYMS: flicker, touch, flick, dart, ripple, play over

3 (informal)

A to defeat

◇ SYNONYMS: beat, defeat, overcome, rout, outstrip, outdo, trounce, vanquish

B to thrash

4 lick into shape to put into a satisfactory condition

5 lick one's wounds to retire after a defeat

► n

6 an instance of passing the tongue over something

7 a small amount: a lick of paint

◇ SYNONYMS: dab, touch, stroke

8 (informal) a blow

9 (informal) a fast pace: a pulsating rhythm taken at a lick

◇ SYNONYMS: pace, rate, speed, clip (informal)

10 a lick and a promise something hastily done, esp. a hurried wash licorice n (US & Canad) same as liquorice lid n

1 a removable or hinged cover: a saucepan lid

2 short for eyelid

3 put the (tin) lid on (informal) to put an end to > lidded adj

lido (lee-doe) n, pl -dos (Brit) an open-air swimming pool or a part of a beach used by the public for swimming and sunbathing

lie¹ vb lying, lied

1 to speak untruthfully with the intention of deceiving

◇ SYNONYMS: fib, fabricate, falsify, prevaricate, not tell the truth, equivocate, dissimulate, tell untruths

2 to convey a false impression: the camera cannot lie

◇ SYNONYMS: fib, fabricate, falsify, prevaricate, not tell the truth, equivocate, dissimulate, tell untruths

► n

3 an untrue statement deliberately used to mislead

◇ SYNONYMS: falsehood, deceit, fabrication, fib, fiction, invention, deception, untruth

4 something that is deliberately intended to deceive

◇ SYNONYMS: falsehood, deceit, fabrication, fib, fiction, invention, deception, untruth

5 give the lie to

A to disprove

◇ SYNONYMS give the lie to something: disprove, expose, discredit, contradict, refute, negate, invalidate, rebut

B to accuse of lying lie² vb lying, lay, lain

1 (often foll. by down) to place oneself or be in a horizontal position

◇ SYNONYMS: recline, rest, lounge, sprawl, stretch out, loll, repose

2 to be situated: I left the money lying on the table; Nepal became the only country lying between China and India

◇ SYNONYMS: be placed, be, rest, exist, be situated

3 to be and remain (in a particular state or condition): others of their species lie asleep

4 to stretch or extend: an enormous task lies ahead

5 (usually foll. by in) to exist or comprise: her charm lies in her inner beauty

6 (foll. by with) to rest (with): the fault lies with them

► n

7 the manner, place, or style in which something is situated

8 an animal's lair

9 lie of the land the way in which a situation is developing ► See also lie in lied (leed) n, pl lieder (music) a musical setting for solo voice and piano of a romantic or lyrical poem

liege (leej) adj

1 (of a lord) owed feudal allegiance: their liege lord

2 (of a vassal or subject) owing feudal allegiance: a liege subject

3 faithful; loyal

► n

4 a liege lord

5 a subject lie in vb

1 to remain in bed late into the morning

► n lie-in

2 a long stay in bed in the morning lien n (law) a right to retain possession of someone else's property until a debt is paid lieu (lyew) n in lieu of instead of lieutenant (lef-ten-ant, loo-ten-ant) n

1 a junior officer in the army, navy, or the US police force

2 a person who acts as principal assistant > lieutenancy n

life n, pl lives

1 the state or quality that identifies living beings, characterized chiefly by growth, reproduction, and response to stimuli

◇ SYNONYMS: being, existence, vitality, sentience

2 the period between birth and death or between birth and the present time

◇ SYNONYMS: existence, being, lifetime, time, days, span

3 a living person or being: riots which claimed 22 lives

4 the remainder or extent of one's life: in that house for the rest of her life

◇ SYNONYMS: existence, being, lifetime, time, days, span

5 the process of living: rituals gave his life stability

◇ SYNONYMS: way of life, situation, conduct, behaviour, lifestyle

6 (informal) a sentence of life imprisonment, usually approximating to fifteen years

7 a characteristic state or mode of existence: country life is best

◇ SYNONYMS: way of life, situation, conduct, behaviour, lifestyle

8 the length of time that something is active or functioning: the life of a battery

9 a present condition or mode of existence: they are leading a joyous life

◇ SYNONYMS: way of life, situation, conduct, behaviour, lifestyle

10 a biography

◇ SYNONYMS: biography, story, history, profile, confessions, autobiography, memoirs, life story

11 the sum or course of human events and activities

12 liveliness or high spirits: full of life

◇ SYNONYMS: liveliness, energy, spirit, vitality, animation, vigour, verve, zest

13 a source of strength, animation, or vitality: he was the life of the show

14 all living things collectively: there is no life on Mars; marine life

15 a matter of life and death a matter of extreme urgency

16 as large as life (informal) real and living

17 not on your life (informal) certainly not 18 to the life (of a copy of a painting or drawing) resembling the original exactly

19 true to life faithful to reality life belt n an inflatable ring used to keep a person afloat when in danger of drowning lifeboat n a boat used for rescuing people at sea life cycle n the series of changes occurring in each generation of an animal or plant lifeless adj

- 1 inanimate; dead
- 2 lacking liveliness or animation
- 3 unconscious

lifelike adj closely resembling or representing life lifeline n

- 1 a single means of contact or support on which a person or an area relies
- 2 a rope used for life-saving lifelong adj lasting for a lifetime

◇ SYNONYMS: long-lasting, enduring, lasting, persistent, long-standing, perennial life science n any of the sciences concerned with the structure and behaviour of living organisms, such as biology, botany, or zoology lifespan n

- 1 the period of time for which a creature normally lives
- 2 the period of time for which a product normally functions lifestyle n a set of attitudes, habits, and possessions regarded as typical of a particular group or an individual life-support adj (of equipment or treatment) necessary to sustain life lifetime n

1 the length of time a person is alive

◇ SYNONYMS: existence, time, day(s), span

2 of a lifetime (of an opportunity or experience) the most important or memorable lift vb

1 to rise or raise upwards to a higher place: the breakdown truck was lifting the lorry

◇ SYNONYMS: raise, pick up, hoist, draw up, elevate, uplift, heave up, upraise

2 to move upwards: he slowly lifted his hand

◇ SYNONYMS: raise, pick up, hoist, draw up, elevate, uplift, heave up, upraise

3 to raise in status or estimation: lifted from poverty

4 to revoke or cancel: the government lifted its restrictions on imported beef

◇ SYNONYMS: revoke, end, remove, withdraw, stop, cancel, terminate, rescind

5 to remove (plants or underground crops) from the ground for harvesting

6 to disappear or disperse: the tension lifted

◇ SYNONYMS: disappear, clear, vanish, disperse, dissipate, rise, be dispelled

7 (informal) to plagiarize (music or writing)

► n

8 a compartment raised or lowered in a vertical shaft to transport people or goods to another floor in a building

◇ SYNONYMS: elevator (chiefly US), hoist, paternoster

9 a ride in a car or other vehicle as a passenger ◇ SYNONYMS: ride, run, drive, hitch (informal)

10 a rise in morale or feeling of cheerfulness

◇ SYNONYMS: boost, encouragement, stimulus, pick-me-up, fillip, shot in the arm (informal), gee-up

11 the act of lifting

12 the force that lifts airborne objects liftoff n the initial movement of a rocket as it leaves its launch pad ligament n (anatomy) a band of tough tissue that connects various bones or cartilage ligature n

1 a link, bond, or tie

2 (printing) a character of two or more joined letters, such as ff

3 (music) a slur or the group of notes connected by it

► vb -turing, -tured

4 to bind with a ligature light¹ n

1 the natural medium, electromagnetic radiation, that makes sight possible

◇ SYNONYMS: brightness, illumination, luminosity, shining, glow, glare, gleam, brilliance

2 anything that illuminates, such as a lamp or candle

◇ SYNONYMS: lamp, torch, candle, flare, beacon, lantern, taper

3 a particular type of light: dim yellow light

4

A daylight

B daybreak; dawn

5 anything that lets in light, such as a window

6 an aspect or view: we have seen the world in a new light

◇ SYNONYMS: aspect, context, angle, point of view, interpretation, viewpoint, slant, standpoint

7 mental understanding or spiritual insight: suddenly he saw the light

8 an outstanding person: a leading light of the movement

9 brightness of countenance, esp. a sparkle in the eyes

10

A something that ignites, such as a spark or flame

◇ SYNONYMS: match, spark, flame, lighter

B something used for igniting, such as a match

◇ SYNONYMS: match, spark, flame, lighter

11 See lighthouse

12 come to light to become known or visible

13 in (the) light of taking into account

14 see the light to understand

◇ SYNONYMS: brightness, illumination, luminosity, shining, glow, glare, gleam, brilliance

15 see the light (of day)

A to come into being

B to come to public notice

► adj

16 full of light

◇ SYNONYMS: bright, brilliant, shining, illuminated, luminous, well-lit, lustrous, well-illuminated

17 (of a colour) pale: light blue

◇ SYNONYMS: pale, fair, faded, blonde, blond, bleached, pastel, light-coloured

► vb lighting, lighted or lit

18 to ignite

◇ SYNONYMS: ignite, inflame, kindle, touch off, set alight

19 (often foll. by up) to illuminate or cause to illuminate ◇ SYNONYMS: illuminate, light up, brighten

20 to guide by light > lightish adj

light² adj

1 not heavy; weighing relatively little

◇ SYNONYMS: insubstantial, thin, slight, portable, buoyant, airy, flimsy, underweight

2 relatively low in density, strength, amount, degree, etc.: light oil; light alloy

◇ SYNONYMS: weak, soft, gentle, moderate, slight, mild, faint, indistinct

3 lacking sufficient weight

4 not bulky or clumsy: light bedclothes

◇ SYNONYMS: insubstantial, thin, slight, portable, buoyant, airy, flimsy, underweight

5 not serious or difficult to understand; entertaining: light music

◇ SYNONYMS: light-hearted, funny, entertaining, amusing, witty, humorous, frivolous, unserious

6 graceful or agile: light movements

◇ SYNONYMS: nimble, graceful, deft, agile, sprightly, lithe, limber, lissom(e)

7 without strong emphasis or serious meaning: he gazed about with a light inattentive smile

8 easily digested: a light lunch

◇ SYNONYMS: digestible, modest, frugal

9 relatively low in alcohol: a light wine

10 without burdens, difficulties, or problems: a light heart lives longest

11 dizzy or unclear: a light head

12 (of bread or cake) spongy or well risen

13

A (of transport) designed to carry light loads

B (of a vessel, aircraft, or other transport) not loaded

14 carrying light arms or equipment: light infantry

15 (of an industry) producing small consumer goods using light machinery

16 make light of to treat as insignificant or unimportant

► adv

17 with little equipment or luggage: travelling light

► vb lighting, lighted or lit

18 (esp. of birds) to settle or land after flight

19 (foll. by on or upon) to discover by chance

◇ SYNONYMS light on something: come across, find, discover, encounter, stumble on, hit upon, happen upon

► See also lights

> lightish adj

> lightly adv

> lightness n

light bulb n a hollow rounded glass fitting containing a gas and a thin metal filament that gives out light when an electric current is passed through it

lighten¹ vb to make less dark

◇ SYNONYMS: brighten, illuminate, light up, irradiate, become light lighten² vb

1 to make or become less heavy

2 to make or become more cheerful or lively

◇ SYNONYMS: ease, relieve, alleviate, allay, reduce, lessen, mitigate, assuage lighter¹ n a small portable device for lighting cigarettes, etc.

lighter² n a flat-bottomed barge used in loading or unloading a ship light-fingered adj skilful at thieving, esp. by picking pockets light-headed adj giddy; feeling faint light-hearted adj cheerful or carefree in mood or disposition > light-heartedly adv

lighthouse n a tower with a light to guide ships and warn of obstructions lighting n

1 the apparatus for and design of artificial light effects to a stage, film, or television set

2 the act or quality of illumination lightning n

1 a flash of light in the sky caused by a discharge of electricity

► adj

2 fast and sudden: a lightning attack lights pl n the lungs of sheep, bullocks, and pigs, used for feeding pets lightweight adj

1 not serious

◇ SYNONYMS: unimportant, shallow, trivial, insignificant, slight, petty, worthless, trifling

2 of relatively light weight

◇ SYNONYMS: thin, fine, delicate, sheer, flimsy, gossamer, diaphanous, filmy

► n

3 (informal) a person of little importance or influence

4 a person or animal of relatively light weight

5 a professional boxer weighing up to 135 pounds (61 kg) or an amateur weighing up to 60 kg light year n (astron) the distance travelled by light in one mean solar year, i.e. 9.4607×10^{15} metres ligneous adj of or like wood lignite (lig-nite) n a brown sedimentary rock with a woody texture: used as a fuel like¹ adj

1 resembling

◇ SYNONYMS: similar to, same as, equivalent to, parallel to, identical to, alike, corresponding to, comparable to

► prep

2 in the manner of; similar to: she was like a child; it looks like a traffic cone

3 such as: a modern material, like carbon fibre

4 characteristic of

► adv

5 in the manner of: cheering like mad

► conj

6 (not standard) as though; as if: I don't want to make it seem like I had this bad childhood

7 in the same way that: she doesn't dance like you do

► n

8 the equal or counterpart of a person or thing like² vb liking, liked

1 to find enjoyable

◇ SYNONYMS: enjoy, love, delight in, go for, relish, savour, revel in, be fond of 2 to be fond of

◇ SYNONYMS: enjoy, love, delight in, go for, relish, savour, revel in, be fond of 3 to prefer or choose: I'd like to go home

◇ SYNONYMS: wish, want, choose, prefer, desire, fancy (Brit informal), care, feel inclined

4 to feel disposed or inclined; choose; wish: do as you like

◇ SYNONYMS: wish, want, choose, prefer, desire, fancy (Brit informal), care, feel inclined

5 to indicate approval of (an item posted on a social media site)

► n

6 (usually pl) a favourable feeling, desire, or preference: tell me your likes and dislikes

7 an indication of approval for an item posted on a social media site > likeable or likable adj likelihood n chance; probability ◇ SYNONYMS: probability, chance, possibility, prospect likely adj

1 tending or inclined: likely to win

◇ SYNONYMS: inclined, disposed, prone, liable, tending, apt

2 probable: the likely effects of the tunnel

◇ SYNONYMS: probable, expected, anticipated, odds-on, on the cards, to be expected

3 appropriate for a purpose or activity: a likely candidate

► adv

4 probably or presumably

5 not likely (informal) definitely not liken vb to compare ◇ SYNONYMS: compare, match, relate, parallel, equate, set beside likeness n

1 resemblance

2 portrait

3 an imitative appearance; semblance: in the likeness of a dragon

likewise adv

1 in addition; also

2 similarly

◇ SYNONYMS: similarly, the same, in the same way, in similar fashion, in like manner liking n

1 fondness

◇ SYNONYMS: fondness, love, taste, weakness, preference, affection, inclination, penchant

2 what one likes or prefers: if it's not to your liking, do let me know

◇ SYNONYMS: fondness, love, taste, weakness, preference, affection, inclination, penchant

lilac n

1 a small tree with large sprays of purple or white sweet-smelling flowers

► adj

2 pale purple

Lilliputian (lil-lip-pew-shun) n

1 a tiny person or being

► adj

2 tiny; very small

Lilo n, pl -los (trademark) a type of inflatable plastic mattress lilt n

1 a pleasing musical quality in a speaking voice

2 (in music) a jaunty rhythm

3 a graceful rhythmic motion

► vb

4 (of a voice, tune, or song) to rise and fall in a pleasant way

5 to move gracefully and rhythmically > lilting adj

lily n, pl lilies

1 a perennial plant, such as the tiger lily, with scaly bulbs and showy white or coloured flowers

2 a water lily limb n

1 an arm, leg, or wing

◇ SYNONYMS: part, member, arm, leg, wing, extremity, appendage

2 any of the main branches of a tree

◇ SYNONYMS: branch, spur, projection, offshoot, bough

3 out on a limb

A in a precarious or questionable position

B (Brit & NZ) isolated, esp. because of unpopular opinions > limbless adj

limber adj

1 pliant; supple

2 able to move or bend the body freely; agile limbo¹ n, pl -bos

1 (often cap, RC Church) (formerly) the supposed region intermediate between heaven and hell for the unbaptized

2 in limbo not knowing the result or next stage of something and powerless to influence it limbo² n, pl -bos a West Indian dance in which dancers lean backwards and pass under a horizontal bar which is gradually lowered

lime¹ n (agriculture)

1 calcium hydroxide spread as a dressing on acidic land

► vb liming, limed

2 to spread a calcium compound upon (land) lime² n the green oval fruit of a small Asian citrus tree with acid fleshy pulp rich in vitamin C lime³ n a European linden tree planted for ornament lime-green adj light yellowish-green limelight n

1 the limelight glare of publicity: this issue will remain in the limelight

◇ SYNONYMS: publicity, recognition, fame, the spotlight, attention, prominence, stardom, public eye

2

A a type of lamp, formerly used in stage lighting, in which lime is heated to white heat

B brilliant white light produced in this way limerick (lim-mer-ik) n a form of comic verse consisting of five lines limestone n rock consisting mainly of calcium carbonate: used as a building stone and in making cement limey n (US & Canad & Austral slang)

1 a British person

2 a British sailor or ship limit n

1 (sometimes pl) the ultimate extent or amount of something: each soloist was stretched to his or her limit by the demands of the vocal writing

◇ SYNONYMS: end, ultimate, deadline, breaking point, extremity

2 (often pl) the boundary of a specific area: beyond the city limits

◇ SYNONYMS: boundary, edge, border, frontier, perimeter

3 the largest quantity or amount allowed

4 the limit (informal) a person or thing that is intolerably exasperating

► vb -iting, -ited

5 to restrict

◇ SYNONYMS: restrict, control, check, bound, confine, curb, restrain, ration > limitable adj

> limitless adj

limitation n

1 a restriction or controlling of quantity, quality, or achievement

◇ SYNONYMS: restriction, control, check, curb, restraint, constraint

2 limitations the limit or extent of an ability to achieve something: learn your own limitations limousine n any large luxurious car limp¹ vb

1 to walk with an uneven step, esp. with a weak or injured leg

◇ SYNONYMS: hobble, stagger, stumble, shuffle, hop, falter, shamble, totter

2 to advance in a labouring or faltering manner

► n

3 an uneven walk or progress

◇ SYNONYMS: lameness, hobble > limping adj, n

limp² adj

1 lacking firmness or stiffness

◇ SYNONYMS: floppy, soft, slack, drooping, flabby, pliable, flaccid

2 not energetic or vital

3 (of the binding of a book) paperback > limply adv

limpet n

1 a conical shellfish that clings tightly to rocks with its muscular foot

► adj

2 denoting certain weapons that are magnetically attached to their targets and resist removal: limpet mines

limpid adj

1 clear or transparent

2 (of speech or writing) clear and easy to understand > limpidity n

linchpin or lynchpin n

1 a pin inserted through an axle to keep a wheel in position

2 an essential person or thing: she was the linchpin of the experiment linctus n, pl -tuses a soothing syrupy cough mixture linden n a large tree with heart-shaped leaves and fragrant yellowish flowers

► See also lime line¹ n

1 a narrow continuous mark, such as one made by a pencil or brush

◇ SYNONYMS: stroke, mark, score, band, scratch, slash, streak, stripe

2 a thin indented mark or wrinkle on skin

◇ SYNONYMS: wrinkle, mark, crease, furrow, crow's foot

3 a continuous length without breadth

◇ SYNONYMS: stroke, mark, score, band, scratch, slash, streak, stripe

4 a boundary: the United Nations established a provisional demarcation line

◇ SYNONYMS: boundary, limit, edge, border, frontier, partition, borderline

5 (sport)

A a white band indicating a division on a field or track

- B a mark or imaginary mark at which a race begins or ends
- 6 a boundary or limit: there's a thin dividing line between confidence and arrogance
- ◇ SYNONYMS: boundary, limit, edge, border, frontier, partition, borderline
- 7 the edge or contour of a shape: the shoulder line
- 8 a wire or string with a particular function: a long washing line
- ◇ SYNONYMS: string, cable, wire (old-fashioned), rope, thread, cord
- 9 a telephone connection: it was a very bad line
- 10 a conducting wire, cable, or circuit for electric-power transmission or telecommunications
- 11 a system of travel or transportation: a shipping line
- 12 a route between two points on a railway
- 13 a railway track
- 14 a course or direction of movement: the birds' line of flight
- ◇ SYNONYMS: trajectory, way, course, track, channel, direction, route, path
- 15 a course of action or behaviour: to adopt a more aggressive line
- 16 a policy or prescribed way of thinking: city commentators supported the CBI line
- 17 a field of interest or activity: computer gaming – that's their line
- ◇ SYNONYMS: occupation, work, calling, business, job, area, trade, field
- 18 straight or orderly alignment: stand in line
- 19 one kind of product or article: a line of smart suits
- 20 a row of people or things
- ◇ SYNONYMS: row, queue, rank, file, column, convoy, procession
- 21 a row of printed or written words
- 22 a unit of verse consisting of words in a single row
- 23 one of a number of narrow horizontal bands forming a television picture
- 24 (music) any of the five horizontal marks that make up the stave
- 25 the most forward defensive position: the front line
- 26 a formation of ships or soldiers abreast of each other
- 27 the combatant forces of certain armies and navies
- 28 (US & Canad) a queue
- 29 all along the line at every stage in a series
- 30 draw the line (at) to object (to) or set a limit (on): I'm not a killer, I draw the line at that
- 31 drop someone a line to send someone a short note
- 32 get a line on (informal) to obtain information about
- 33 in line for likely to receive: high achievers are in line for cash bonuses
- ◇ SYNONYMS in line for: due for, shortlisted for, in the running for 34 in line with conforming to 35 lay or put on the line

A to speak frankly and directly

B to risk (one's career or reputation) on something

► vb lining, lined

36 to mark with a line or lines

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, crease, furrow, rule, score

37 to be or form a border: the square was lined with stalls selling snacks

◇ SYNONYMS: border, edge, bound, fringe

38 to place in or form a row, series, or alignment

► See also line-up > lined adj

line² vb lining, lined

1 to attach an inside layer to 2 to cover the inside of: the works of Shakespeare lined his walls

3 line one's pockets to make a lot of money, esp. dishonestly lineage (lin-ee-ij) n direct descent from an ancestor lineament n (often pl) a facial outline or feature linear (lin-ee-er) adj

1 of or in lines

2 of or relating to length

3 represented by a line or lines > linearity n

line dancing n a form of dancing performed by rows of people to country and western music linen n

1 a hard-wearing fabric woven from the spun fibres of flax

2 articles, such as sheets or tablecloths, made from linen cloth or from cotton liner¹ n

1 a passenger ship or aircraft, esp. one that is part of a commercial fleet

2 Also called: eyeliner a cosmetic used to outline the eyes liner² n something used as a lining: a plastic bin liner

linesman n, pl -men

1 an official who helps the referee or umpire in various sports, by indicating when the ball has gone out of play

2 a person who maintains railway, electricity, or telephone lines line-up n

1 people or things assembled for a particular purpose: Christmas TV line-up

◇ SYNONYMS: arrangement, team, row, selection, array

2 the members of such an assembly

◇ SYNONYMS: arrangement, team, row, selection, array

► vb line up

3 to form or organize a line-up

◇ SYNONYMS: arrangement, team, row, selection, array

ling¹ n, pl ling or lings a fish with a long slender body ling² n heather linger vb

1 to delay or prolong departure

◇ SYNONYMS: stay, remain, stop, wait, delay, hang around, idle, dally

2 to survive in a weakened condition for some time before death

3 to spend a long time doing or considering something > lingering adj

lingerie (lan-zher-ee) n women's underwear and nightwear lingo n, pl -goes (informal) any foreign or unfamiliar language or jargon lingua franca n, pl lingua francas or linguae francae

1 a language used for communication among people of different mother tongues

2 any system of communication providing mutual understanding lingual adj

1 (anatomy) of the tongue

2 articulated with the tongue

3 (rare) of language or languages > lingually adv

linguist n

1 a person who is skilled in foreign languages

2 a person who studies linguistics linguistic adj

1 of language

2 of linguistics > linguistically adv

linguistics n the scientific study of language liniment n a medicated oily liquid applied to the skin to relieve pain or stiffness lining n

1 material used to line a garment or curtain

2 any interior covering: the lining of the womb link n

1 any of the separate rings that form a chain

2 an emotional or logical relationship between people or things; association

◇ SYNONYMS: relationship, association, bond, connection, attachment, affinity

3 a connecting part or episode

◇ SYNONYMS: component, part, piece, element, constituent

4 a type of communications connection: a rail link; radio link

5 short for hyperlink

► vb

6 (often foll. by up) to connect with or as if with links

◇ SYNONYMS: connect, join, unite, couple, tie, bind, attach, fasten

7 to connect by association

◇ SYNONYMS: associate, relate, identify, connect, bracket linkage n

1 the act of linking or the state of being linked

2 a system of links links pl n a golf course beside the sea link-up n a joining together of two systems or groups linnet n a brownish finch: the male has a red breast and forehead lino n short for linoleum linoleum n a floor covering made of hessian or jute with a smooth decorative coating of powdered cork linseed n the seed of the flax plant lint n

- 1 an absorbent material with raised fibres on one side, used to dress wounds
- 2 tiny shreds of yarn or cloth; fluff lintel n a horizontal beam over a door or window lion or (fem) lioness n

- 1 a large animal of the cat family found in Africa and India, with a tawny yellow coat and, in the male, a shaggy mane
- 2 a courageous and strong person
- 3 the lion's share the largest portion lion-hearted adj very brave; courageous lip n

- 1 (anatomy) either of the two fleshy folds surrounding the mouth
- 2 any structure resembling a lip, such as the rim of a jug
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: edge, rim, brim, margin, brink
- 3 (slang) impudent talk or backchat
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: impudence, insolence, impertinence, cheek (informal), effrontery, backchat (informal), brass neck (informal)
- 4 bite one's lip to avoid showing feelings of anger or distress
- 5 keep a stiff upper lip to maintain one's composure during a time of trouble
- 6 lick or smack one's lips to anticipate or recall something with glee or relish lipo n (informal) short for liposuction liposuction n a cosmetic surgical operation in which fat is removed from the body by suction lip-reading n a method used by deaf people to understand spoken words by interpreting movements of the speaker's lips > lip-reader n

lip service n pay lip service to to appear to support or obey something publicly while actually disregarding it lipstick n a cosmetic in the form of a stick, for colouring the lips liquefy vb -fies, -fying, -fied (esp. of a gas) to make or become liquid > liquefaction n

liqueur (lik-cure) n a highly flavoured sweetened alcoholic spirit, intended to be drunk after a meal liquid n

1 a substance in a physical state which can change shape but not size

◇ SYNONYMS: fluid, solution, juice, sap

► adj

2 of or being a liquid: liquid medicines

◇ SYNONYMS: fluid, running, flowing, melted, watery, molten, runny, aqueous

3 shining and clear: liquid sunlight days

4 flowing, fluent, or smooth

5 (of assets) in the form of money or easily convertible into money

◇ SYNONYMS: convertible, disposable, negotiable, realizable liquidate vb -dating, -dated

1 to settle or pay off (a debt or claim)

2 to dissolve (a company) and divide its assets among creditors

3 to convert (assets) into cash

4 to eliminate or kill liquidation n

1

A the dissolving of a company by selling its assets to pay off its debts

B go into liquidation (of a business firm) to have its affairs so terminated

2 destruction; elimination liquidator n an official appointed to liquidate a business liquidity n the state of being able to meet financial obligations liquidize or -dise vb -dizing, -dized or -dising, -dised

1 to make or become liquid; liquefy

2 to process (food) in a liquidizer to make it liquid liquidizer or -diser n a kitchen appliance with blades for liquidizing food liquor n

1 spirits or other alcoholic drinks

◇ SYNONYMS: alcohol, drink, spirits, booze (informal), hard stuff (informal), strong drink

2 any liquid in which food has been cooked

◇ SYNONYMS: juice, stock, liquid, extract, broth liquorice or (US & Canad) licorice (lik-ker-iss) n

1 a chewy black sweet with a strong flavour

2 the dried black root of a Mediterranean plant, used as a laxative and in confectionery lira n, pl lire or liras

1 a former monetary unit of Italy

2 the standard monetary unit of Turkey lisle (rhymes with mile) n a strong fine cotton thread or fabric, formerly used to make stockings lisp n

1 a speech defect in which s and z are pronounced like the th sounds in English thin and then respectively

► vb

2 to speak with a lisp lissom or lissome adj slim and graceful and agile in movement list¹ n

1 an item-by-item record of names or things, usually written one below the other

◇ SYNONYMS: inventory, record, series, roll, index, register, catalogue, directory

► vb

2 to make a list of

◇ SYNONYMS: itemize, record, enter, register, catalogue, enumerate, note down, tabulate

3 to include in a list

◇ SYNONYMS: itemize, record, enter, register, catalogue, enumerate, note down, tabulate

list² vb

1 (esp. of ships) to lean to one side

◇ SYNONYMS: lean, tip, incline, tilt, heel over, careen

► n

2 a leaning to one side: developed a list to starboard

◇ SYNONYMS: tilt, leaning, slant, cant listen vb

1 to concentrate on hearing something

◇ SYNONYMS: hear, attend, pay attention, lend an ear, prick up your ears

2 to take heed or pay attention: listen, let me explain

◇ SYNONYMS: pay attention, observe, obey, mind, heed, take notice, take note of, take heed of > listener n

listen in vb (often foll. by on or to) to listen secretly to; eavesdrop listeriosis n a serious form of food poisoning, caused by bacteria of the genus Listeria listless adj lacking interest or energy > listlessly adv

lit vb a past of light lit.

1 literal(ly)

2 literary

3 literature

litany n, pl -nies

1 (Christianity) a prayer consisting of a series of invocations, each followed by the same response

2 any tedious recital: a litany of complaints liter n (US) same as litre literacy n

1 the ability to read and write

◇ SYNONYMS: education, learning, knowledge

2 the ability to use language effectively

◇ SYNONYMS: education, learning, knowledge

literal adj

1 in exact accordance with the explicit meaning of a word or text

◇ SYNONYMS: exact, close, strict, accurate, faithful, verbatim, word for word

2 word for word: a literal translation

◇ SYNONYMS: exact, close, strict, accurate, faithful, verbatim, word for word

3 dull or unimaginative: she's very, very literal and flat in how she interprets what she sees

4 true; actual

◇ SYNONYMS: actual, real, true, simple, plain, genuine, bona fide, unvarnished

► n

5 a misprint or misspelling in a text > literally adv

literary adj

1 of or characteristic of literature: literary criticism

◇ SYNONYMS: well-read, learned, formal, intellectual, scholarly, erudite, bookish

2 knowledgeable about literature

◇ SYNONYMS: well-read, learned, formal, intellectual, scholarly, erudite, bookish

3 (of a word) used chiefly in written work; not colloquial > literariness n

literate adj

1 able to read and write

◇ SYNONYMS: educated, informed, knowledgeable

2 educated

◇ SYNONYMS: educated, informed, knowledgeable

► n

3 a literate person

literati pl n literary or scholarly people literature n

1 written material such as poetry, novels, or essays

◇ SYNONYMS: writings, letters, compositions, lore, creative writing

2 the body of written work of a particular culture, people, or era: Elizabethan literature

◇ SYNONYMS: writings, letters, compositions, lore, creative writing

3 written or printed matter of a particular type or genre: medical literature

4 the art or profession of a writer

5 (informal) printed matter on any subject lithe adj attractively graceful and supple in movement lithium n (chem) a soft silvery element of the alkali metal series: the lightest known metal. SYMBOL: Li litho adj, adv short for lithography, lithograph lithograph n

1 a print made by lithography

► vb

2 to reproduce (pictures or text) by lithography > lithographic adj

> lithographically adv

lithography (lith-og-ra-fee) n a method of printing from a metal or stone surface on which the printing areas are made ink-receptive > lithographer n

litigant n a person involved in a lawsuit litigate vb -gating, -gated

1 to bring or contest a lawsuit

2 to engage in legal proceedings > litigator n

litigation n the process of bringing or contesting a lawsuit ◇ SYNONYMS: lawsuit, case, action, prosecution litigious (lit-ij-uss) adj frequently going to law litmus n a soluble powder obtained from lichens, which is turned red by acids and blue by alkalis. Paper treated with it (litmus paper) is used as an indicator in chemistry litmus test n something which is regarded as a simple and accurate test of a particular thing, such as a person's attitude to an issue litotes n, pl -tes understatement used for effect, for example 'She was not a little upset' meaning 'She was extremely upset' litre or (US) liter n a measure of volume equivalent to 1 cubic decimetre litter n

1 small items of rubbish carelessly dropped in public places

◇ SYNONYMS: rubbish, refuse, waste, junk, debris, garbage (chiefly US), trash (chiefly US & Canad), muck

2 a disordered or untidy collection of objects

3 a group of animals produced at one birth

◇ SYNONYMS: brood, young, offspring, progeny

4 straw or hay used as bedding for animals

5 dry material used to line a receptacle in which a domestic cat can urinate and defecate

6 (esp. formerly) a bed or seat held between parallel poles and used for carrying people

► vb

7 to strew with litter

◇ SYNONYMS: clutter, mess up, clutter up, be scattered about, disorder, disarrange, derange, muss (US & Canad)

8 to scatter or be scattered in an untidy fashion

◇ SYNONYMS: scatter, spread, shower, strew

9 (of animals) to give birth to offspring

10 to provide (an animal) with straw or hay for bedding little adj

1 of small or less than average size

◇ SYNONYMS: small, minute, short, tiny, wee, compact, miniature, diminutive

2 young: a little boy

◇ SYNONYMS: young, small, junior, infant, immature, undeveloped, babyish

3 endearingly familiar: he was a sweet little man

4 contemptible, mean, or disagreeable: he was an arrogant little squirt

5 of small quantity, extent, or duration: there was little money circulating; I could see little evidence of it

► adv

6 (usually preceded by a) to a small extent or degree; not a lot: to sleep a little

◇ SYNONYMS a little: to a small extent, slightly, to some extent, to a certain extent, to a small degree

7 not at all, or hardly: army life varied little as the years passed

◇ SYNONYMS: hardly, barely, scarcely

8 not much or often: we go there very little now

◇ SYNONYMS: rarely, seldom, scarcely, not often, infrequently, hardly ever

9 little by little by small degrees

► n

10 make little of to treat as insignificant: one episode in their history is made little of in the guide books

11 think little of to have a low opinion of ► See also less, lesser, least littoral adj

1 of or by the shore

► n

2 a coastal region liturgy n, pl -gies the forms of public services officially prescribed by a Church > liturgical adj

live¹ (rhymes with give) vb living, lived

1 to show the characteristics of life; be alive

◇ SYNONYMS: exist, last, prevail, be, have being, breathe, persist, be alive

2 to remain alive or in existence

◇ SYNONYMS: exist, last, prevail, be, have being, breathe, persist, be alive

3 to exist in a specified way: to live at ease

4 to have one's home: he went to live in Switzerland

◇ SYNONYMS: dwell (formal, literary), board, settle, lodge, occupy, abide, inhabit, reside

5 to continue or last: his childhood had always lived inside him

6 (foll. by on or upon or by) to support one's style of life: forest dwellers who live by extracting rubber

◇ SYNONYMS: survive, get along, make a living, make ends meet, subsist, eke out a living, support yourself, maintain yourself

7 (foll. by with) to endure the effects (of a crime or mistake); tolerate

8 to pass or spend (one's life)

9 to enjoy life to the full: he likes to live every day to the full

◇ SYNONYMS: thrive, flourish, prosper, have fun, enjoy yourself, live life to the full

10 to put into practice in one's daily life: the freedom to live his own life as he chooses

11 live and let live to be tolerant

► See also live down live² (rhymes with hive) adj

1 alive; living

◇ SYNONYMS: living, alive, breathing, animate

2 (radio, television) transmitted at the time of performance, rather than being prerecorded: a live broadcast

3 actual: I was able to speak to a real live Hurricane pilot

4 (of a recording) recorded during a performance

5 connected to a source of electric power: a live cable

◇ SYNONYMS: active, unexploded

6 of current interest; controversial: the document has become a live political issue

◇ SYNONYMS: topical, important, pressing, current, hot, burning, controversial, prevalent

7 loaded or capable of exploding: a live firing exercise with a 4.5in gun

◇ SYNONYMS: active, unexploded

8 (of a coal or ember) glowing or burning

► adv

9 during, at, or in the form of a live performance live down vb to withstand people's reactions to a crime or mistake until they forget it livelihood n one's job or other source of income ◇ SYNONYMS: occupation, work, employment, living, job, bread and butter (informal) lively adj -lier, -liest

1 full of life or vigour

◇ SYNONYMS: animated, spirited, quick, keen, active, alert, dynamic, vigorous

2 vivacious or animated

◇ SYNONYMS: animated, spirited, quick, keen, active, alert, dynamic, vigorous

3 vivid

◇ SYNONYMS: vivid, strong, striking, bright, exciting, stimulating, bold, colourful > liveliness n

liver n

1 a large glandular organ which secretes bile, balances nutrients, and removes certain poisons from the body

2 the liver of certain animals used as food liveried adj wearing livery liverish adj

- 1 (informal) having a disorder of the liver
- 2 feeling disagreeable and slightly irritable livermorium n (chem) a synthetic element. SYMBOL: Lv livery n, pl -eries

- 1 the identifying uniform of a servant
- 2 distinctive dress or outward appearance
- 3 the stabling, keeping, or hiring out of horses for money livestock n animals kept on a farm live together vb (of an unmarried couple) to live in the same house; cohabit live up to vb to fulfil (an expectation, obligation, or principle) live with vb to tolerate: I don't like it, but I have to live with it

livid adj

- 1 (informal) extremely angry
- 2 of a dark grey or purple colour: livid bruises living adj

- 1 possessing life; not dead or inanimate
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: alive, existing, moving, active, breathing, animate
- 2 currently in use or valid: a living alliance
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: current, present, active, contemporary, in use, extant
- 3 seeming to be real: a living doll
- 4 (of people or animals) existing in the present age
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: alive, existing, moving, active, breathing, animate

5 very: the living image

6 of or like everyday life: living costs

7 of or involving those now alive: one of our greatest living actors

◇ SYNONYMS: alive, existing, moving, active, breathing, animate

► n

8 the condition of being alive

◇ SYNONYMS: alive, existing, moving, active, breathing, animate

9 the manner of one's life: high living

◇ SYNONYMS: lifestyle, ways, situation, conduct, behaviour, customs, way of life

10 one's financial means

11 (Church of England) a benefice living room n a room in a private house or flat used for relaxation and entertainment lizard n a reptile with an elongated body, four limbs, and a long tail llama n a South American mammal of the camel family, that is used as a beast of burden and is valued for its woolly fleece

LLB Bachelor of Laws

loach n a freshwater fish with a long narrow body and barbels around the mouth load n

1 something to be borne or conveyed; weight

◇ SYNONYMS: cargo, delivery, haul, shipment, batch, freight, consignment

2 the amount borne or conveyed

◇ SYNONYMS: cargo, delivery, haul, shipment, batch, freight, consignment

3 something that weighs down or burdens: I have enough of a load to carry right now

◇ SYNONYMS: oppression, charge, worry, trouble, weight, responsibility, burden, onus

4 (electronics) the power delivered by a machine, generator, or circuit

5 an external force applied to a component or mechanism

6 a load of (informal) a quantity of: a load of half-truths

7 get a load of (informal) to pay attention to

► vb

8 to place cargo or goods upon (a ship or vehicle)

◇ SYNONYMS: fill, stuff, pack, pile, stack, heap, cram, freight

9 to burden or oppress

10 to supply in abundance: other treats are loaded with fat

11 to cause to be biased: the dice are loaded

12 to put ammunition into (a firearm)

◇ SYNONYMS: make ready, charge, prime 13 (photog) to insert film in (a camera)

14 to weight or bias (a roulette wheel or dice)

15 (computers) to transfer (a program) to a memory > loader n

loaded adj

1 carrying a load

2 charged with ammunition

3 (of a question or statement) containing a hidden trap or implication

◇ SYNONYMS: tricky, charged, sensitive, delicate, manipulative, emotive, insidious, artful

4 (of dice or a roulette wheel) weighted or otherwise biased

5 (slang) wealthy

◇ SYNONYMS: rich, wealthy, affluent, well off, flush (informal), well-heeled (informal), well-to-do, moneyed, minted (Brit slang)

6 (slang, chiefly US & Canad) drunk loaf¹ n, pl loaves

1 a shaped mass of baked bread

◇ SYNONYMS: lump, block, cake, cube, slab

2 any shaped or moulded mass of food, such as cooked meat

◇ SYNONYMS: lump, block, cake, cube, slab

3 (slang) the head; common sense: use your loaf!

◇ SYNONYMS: head, mind, sense, common sense, nous (Brit slang), gumption

(Brit informal)

loaf² vb to loiter or lounge around in an idle way

◇ SYNONYMS: idle, hang around, take it easy, lie around, loiter, laze, lounge around loafer n

1 a person who avoids work; idler

2 a moccasin-like shoe loam n fertile soil consisting of sand, clay, and decaying organic material > loamy adj

loan n

1 money lent at interest for a fixed period of time

◇ SYNONYMS: advance, credit, overdraft

2 the act of lending: I am grateful to her for the loan of her book

3 property lent

4 on loan lent out; borrowed

► vb

5 to lend (something, esp. money)

◇ SYNONYMS: lend, advance, let out loan shark n a person who lends money at an extremely high interest rate, esp. illegally loath or loth (rhymes with both) adj (usually foll. by to) reluctant or unwilling loathe vb loathing, loathed to feel strong disgust for ◇ SYNONYMS: hate, dislike, despise, detest, abhor, abominate loathing n strong disgust

◇ SYNONYMS: hatred, hate, disgust, aversion, revulsion, antipathy, repulsion, abhorrence loathsome adj causing loathing lob (sport) n

1 a ball struck or bowled in a high arc

► vb lobbing, lobbed

2 to hit or kick (a ball) in a high arc

3 (informal) to throw lobby n, pl -bies

1 a room or corridor used as an entrance hall or vestibule

◇ SYNONYMS: corridor, passage, entrance, porch, hallway, foyer, entrance hall, vestibule

2 a group which attempts to influence legislators on behalf of a particular interest

◇ SYNONYMS: pressure group, group, camp, faction, lobbyists, interest group, special-interest group, ginger group, public-interest group (US & Canad)

3 (chiefly Brit) a hall in a legislative building used for meetings between legislators and members of the public

4 (chiefly Brit) one of two corridors in a legislative building in which members vote

► vb -bies, -bying, -bied

5 to attempt to influence (legislators) in the formulation of policy ◇ SYNONYMS: campaign, press, pressure, push, influence, promote, urge, persuade lobbyist n a person who lobbies on behalf of a particular interest lobe n

1 any rounded projection

2 the fleshy lower part of the external ear

3 any subdivision of a bodily organ lobelia n a plant with blue, red, white, or yellow five-lobed flowers lobola n (S African) (in southern Africa) an African custom by which a bridegroom's family makes a payment in cattle or cash to the bride's family shortly before the marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: dowry, portion, marriage settlement, dot (archaic) lobotomy n, pl -mies the surgical cutting of nerves in the frontal lobe of the brain, formerly performed to treat severe mental illness lobster n, pl -sters or -ster

1 a large edible crustacean with large pincers and a long tail, which turns red when boiled

2 its edible flesh

3 (Austral informal) a $20 note local adj

1 of or concerning a particular area

◇ SYNONYMS: community, regional

2 restricted to a particular place

◇ SYNONYMS: confined, limited, restricted

3 (med) of, affecting, or confined to a limited area or part: a local anaesthetic

◇ SYNONYMS: confined, limited, restricted

4 (of a train or bus) stopping at all stations or stops

► n

5 an inhabitant of a specified locality: we swim, sunbathe, meet the locals, unwind

◇ SYNONYMS: resident, native, inhabitant

6 (Brit informal) a pub close to one's home > locally adv

local anaesthetic n (med) See anaesthesia local authority n the governing body of a county, district, or region locale (loh-kahl) n the place where something happens or has happened local government n the government of the affairs of counties, towns, and districts by locally elected political bodies locality n, pl -ties

1 a neighbourhood or area

2 the site or scene of an event localize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to restrict (something) to a particular place locate vb -cating, -cated

1 to discover the whereabouts of; find

◇ SYNONYMS: find, discover, detect, come across, track down, pinpoint, unearth, pin down

2 to situate or build: located around the corner from the church

◇ SYNONYMS: place, put, set, position, seat, site, establish, settle

3 to become established or settled location n

1 a site or position; situation

◇ SYNONYMS: place, point, setting, position, situation, spot, venue, locale

2 the act of locating or the state of being located: make their location and rescue a top priority

3 a place outside a studio where filming is done: shot on location

4 (in South Africa) a Black African or Coloured township loch n (Scot)

1 a lake

2 a long narrow arm of the sea

lock¹ n

1 a device for fastening a door, drawer, lid, etc., and preventing unauthorized access

◇ SYNONYMS: fastening, catch, bolt, clasp, padlock

2 a section of a canal or river closed off by gates between which the water level can be altered to aid boats moving from one level to the next

3 (Brit & NZ) the extent to which a vehicle's front wheels will turn: they adopted more steering lock

4 the interlocking of parts

5 a mechanism that fires a gun

6 lock, stock, and barrel completely; entirely

7 a wrestling hold

8 Also called: lock forward (rugby) a player in the second row of the scrum

► vb

9 to fasten or become fastened to prevent entry or exit

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, close, secure, shut, bar, seal, bolt

10 to secure (a building) by locking all doors and windows

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, close, secure, shut, bar, seal, bolt

11 to fix or become fixed together securely

◇ SYNONYMS: unite, join, link, engage, clench, entangle, interlock, entwine

12 to become or cause to become immovable: just before your knees lock

13 to clasp or entangle in a struggle or embrace

◇ SYNONYMS: embrace, press, grasp, clutch, hug, enclose, clasp, encircle

► See also lock out, lock up lock² n

1 a strand or curl of hair

◇ SYNONYMS: strand, curl, tuft, tress, ringlet

2 locks (chiefly literary) hair locker n a small compartment with a lock, used for temporarily storing clothes, valuables, or luggage locket n a small hinged ornamental pendant that holds a picture or keepsake lockjaw n (pathol) a nontechnical name for tetanus lock out vb

1 to prevent from entering by locking a door

2 to prevent (employees) from working during an industrial dispute, by shutting them out of the premises

► n lockout

3 the closing of a place of employment by an employer, in order to force employees to accept terms locksmith n a person who makes or repairs locks lock up vb

1 to imprison

◇ SYNONYMS lock someone up: imprison, jail, confine, cage, detain, shut up, incarcerate, send down (informal)

2 to secure a building by locking all the doors and windows

► n lockup

3 a jail

4 (Brit) a garage or store separate from the main premises

5 (Brit) a small shop with no attached quarters for the owner

► adj lock-up

6 (Brit & NZ) (of premises) without living quarters: a lock-up garage locomotion n the act or power of moving locomotive n

1 a self-propelled engine for pulling trains

► adj

2 of locomotion

locum n a person who stands in temporarily for a doctor or a member of the clergy locus (loh-kuss) n, pl loci

1 an area or place where something happens

2 (maths) a set of points or lines whose location satisfies, or is determined by, one or more specified conditions: the locus of points equidistant from a given point is a circle

locust n

1 an African insect, related to the grasshopper, which travels in vast swarms, stripping large areas of vegetation

2 a North American leguminous tree with prickly branches; the carob tree lode n a vein of metallic ore lodestar n

- 1 a star, esp. the North Star, used in navigation or astronomy as a point of reference
- 2 something that serves as a guide

lodestone n

1

A magnetic iron ore

B a piece of this, used as a magnet

- 2 a person or thing regarded as a focus of attraction lodge n

- 1 (chiefly Brit) the gatekeeper's house at the entrance to the grounds of a country mansion

- 2 a house or cabin used occasionally by hunters, skiers, etc.: a hunting lodge

◇ SYNONYMS: cabin, shelter, cottage, hut, chalet, gatehouse

- 3 (chiefly Brit) a room used by porters in a university or college

- 4 a local branch of certain societies

◇ SYNONYMS: society, group, club, section, wing, chapter, branch

- 5 a beaver's home

► vb lodging, lodged

- 6 to provide or be provided with rented accommodation

◇ SYNONYMS: stay, room, board, reside (formal)

- 7 to live temporarily in rented accommodation

◇ SYNONYMS: stay, room, board, reside (formal)

- 8 to embed or be embedded: the bullet lodged in his brain

◇ SYNONYMS: stick, remain, implant, come to rest, imbed

- 9 to leave for safety or storage: he lodged his wages in the bank

- 10 to bring (a charge or accusation) against someone: the Brazilians lodged a complaint

◇ SYNONYMS: register, enter, file, submit, put on record

- 11 (often foll. by in or with) to place (authority or power) in the control (of someone)

lodger n a person who pays rent in return for accommodation in someone else's home lodging n

1 a temporary residence: where might I find a night's lodging?

◇ SYNONYMS: accommodation, rooms, apartments, quarters, digs (Brit informal), shelter, residence, abode, bachelor apartment (Canad)

2 lodgings a rented room or rooms in another person's home

◇ SYNONYMS: accommodation, rooms, apartments, quarters, digs (Brit informal), shelter, residence, abode, bachelor apartment (Canad)

loft n

1 the space inside a roof

2 a gallery in a church

3 a room over a stable used to store hay

4 a raised house or coop in which pigeons are kept 5 (golf)

A the angle of the face of the club used to elevate a ball

B the height reached by a struck ball

► vb

6 (sport) to strike or kick (a ball) high in the air lofty adj loftier, loftiest

1 of majestic or imposing height

◇ SYNONYMS: high, raised, towering, soaring, elevated

2 morally admirable: lofty ideals

◇ SYNONYMS: noble, grand, distinguished, renowned, elevated, dignified, illustrious, exalted

3 unpleasantly superior: a lofty contempt

◇ SYNONYMS: haughty, proud, arrogant, patronizing, condescending, disdainful, supercilious > loftily adv

> loftiness n

log¹ n

1 a section of a felled tree stripped of branches

◇ SYNONYMS: stump, block, branch, chunk, trunk

2

A a detailed record of a voyage of a ship or aircraft

◇ SYNONYMS: record, account, register, journal, diary, logbook, blog
(informal)

B a record of the hours flown by pilots and aircrews

◇ SYNONYMS: record, account, register, journal, diary, logbook, blog
(informal)

C a book in which these records are made; logbook

◇ SYNONYMS: record, account, register, journal, diary, logbook, blog
(informal)

3 a device consisting of a float with an attached line, formerly used to measure the speed of a ship

4 sleep like a log to sleep without stirring

► vb logging, logged

5 to saw logs from (trees)

6 to enter (a distance or event) in a logbook or log ◇ SYNONYMS: record, enter, note, register, chart, put down, set down

► See also log in log² n short for logarithm loganberry n, pl -ries a purplish-red fruit, similar to a raspberry, that grows on a trailing prickly plant logarithm n the exponent indicating the power to which a fixed number, the base, must be raised to obtain a given number or variable > logarithmic adj

logbook n

1 a book containing the official record of trips made by a ship or aircraft

2 (Brit informal) the registration document of a car loggerhead n

1 a large-headed turtle occurring in most seas

2 at loggerheads engaged in dispute or confrontation loggia (loj-ya) n a covered gallery on the side of a building logging n the work of felling, trimming, and transporting timber > logger n

logic n

1 the branch of philosophy that analyses the patterns of reasoning

2 a particular system of reasoning

3 reasoned thought or argument, as distinguished from irrationality

◇ SYNONYMS: reason, reasoning, sense, good sense

4 the interdependence of a series of events or facts

5 (electronics, computers) the principles underlying the units in a computer system that produce results from data logical adj

1 relating to or characteristic of logic

◇ SYNONYMS: rational, clear, reasoned, sound, consistent, valid, coherent, well-organized

2 using or deduced from the principles of logic: a logical conclusion

◇ SYNONYMS: rational, clear, reasoned, sound, consistent, valid, coherent, well-organized

3 capable of or using clear and valid reasoning

◇ SYNONYMS: rational, clear, reasoned, sound, consistent, valid, coherent, well-organized

4 reasonable because of facts or events: the logical choice

◇ SYNONYMS: reasonable, sensible, natural, wise, plausible > logically adv

logician n a person who specializes in or is skilled at logic log in or log on vb to gain entrance to a computer system by keying in a special command logistics n the detailed planning and organization of a large complex operation, such as a military campaign > logistical or logistic adj > logistically adv

logo (loh-go) n, pl -os a special design that identifies a company or an organization and appears on all its products, printed material, etc.

loin n

1 the part of the body between the pelvis and the ribs

2 a cut of meat from this part of an animal loincloth n a piece of cloth covering only the loins loiter vb to stand or wait aimlessly or idly loll vb

1 to lounge in a lazy manner

2 to hang loosely: a wet lolling tongue; his head lolled back and forth lollipop n

1 a boiled sweet stuck on a small wooden stick

2 (Brit) an ice lolly lollipop man or lollipop lady n (Brit informal) a person holding a circular sign on a pole who stops traffic to enable children to cross the road safely

lolly n, pl -lies

1 (informal) a lollipop

2 (Brit) short for ice lolly

3 (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) money

4 (Austral & NZ informal) a sweet lone adj

1 solitary: a lone figure

◇ SYNONYMS: solitary, single, one, only, sole, unaccompanied

2 isolated: a lone isle guarded by the great Atlantic swell

3 (Brit) having no partner: a lone parent lonely adj -lier, -liest

1 unhappy as a result of solitude

◇ SYNONYMS: solitary, alone, isolated, abandoned, lone, withdrawn, single, forsaken, lonesome (chiefly US & Canad)

2 resulting from the state of being alone: command can be a lonely business

3 isolated and not much visited by people: a lonely beach

◇ SYNONYMS: desolate, deserted, remote, isolated, out-of-the-way, secluded, uninhabited, godforsaken > loneliness n

loner n (informal) a person who prefers to be alone lonesome adj

1 (chiefly US & Canad) lonely

◇ SYNONYMS: lonely, gloomy, dreary, desolate, forlorn, friendless, companionless

2 causing feelings of loneliness: it was lonesome up here on the mountain

◇ SYNONYMS: lonely, gloomy, dreary, desolate, forlorn, friendless, companionless

long¹ adj

1 having relatively great length in space or time

◇ SYNONYMS: elongated, extended, stretched, expanded, extensive, lengthy, far-reaching, spread out

2 having greater than the average or expected range, extent, or duration: a long session of talks

◇ SYNONYMS: prolonged, sustained, lengthy, lingering, protracted, interminable, spun out, long-drawn-out

3 seeming to occupy a greater time than is really so: she was quiet a long moment

◇ SYNONYMS: prolonged, sustained, lengthy, lingering, protracted, interminable, spun out, long-drawn-out

4 of a specified extent or duration: trimmed to about two cms long

5 consisting of a large number of parts: a long list

6 (phonetics, prosody) (of a vowel) of relatively considerable duration

7 from end to end; lengthwise

8 (finance) having large holdings of securities or commodities in anticipation of rising prices

9 in the long run ultimately; after or over a period of time

10 long on (informal) plentifully supplied or endowed with: long on showbiz gossip

► adv

11 for a certain time or period: how long have we got?

12 for or during an extensive period of time: to talk long into the night

13 a considerable amount of time: long after I met you; long ago

14 as or so long as

A for or during the same length of time that

B provided that; if

► n

15 anything that is long

16 before long soon

17 for long for a long time

18 the long and the short of it the essential points or facts > longish adj

long² vb to have a strong desire for something or to do something: I longed for a baby; the more I think of him the more I long to see him

◇ SYNONYMS: desire, want, wish, burn, pine, lust, crave, yearn long-distance adj

1 covering relatively long distances: a long-distance race

2 (of a telephone call) connecting points relatively far apart longevity (lon-jev-it-ee) n long life long face n a glum expression longhand n ordinary handwriting, as opposed to typing or shorthand longing n

1 a strong feeling of wanting something one is unlikely ever to have

◇ SYNONYMS: desire, hope, wish, burning, urge, ambition, hunger, yen (informal)

► adj

2 having or showing desire: longing glances > longingly adv

longitude n distance in degrees east or west of the prime meridian at 0° longitudinal adj

1 of longitude or length

2 placed or extended lengthways long johns pl n (informal) long underpants long-life adj (of milk, batteries, etc.) lasting longer than the regular kind long-lived adj living or lasting for a long time long-range adj

1 of or extending into the future: a long-range economic forecast

2 (of vehicles, aircraft, or weapons) capable of covering great distances longshoreman n, pl -men (US & Canad) a docker long shot n

1 an undertaking, guess, or possibility with little chance of success

2 a bet against heavy odds

3 not by a long shot not by any means: she wasn't beaten, not by a long shot long-sighted adj

1 able to see only distant objects in focus

2 far-sighted

long-standing adj existing for a long time

◇ SYNONYMS: established, fixed, enduring, abiding, long-lasting, long-established, time-honoured long-suffering adj enduring trouble or unhappiness without complaint long-term adj

1 lasting or extending over a long time: a long-term commitment

► n long term

2 in the long term over a long period of time: in the long term the cost of energy will have to go up long wave n a radio wave with a wavelength greater than 1000 metres long-winded adj tiresomely long > long-windedness n

loo n, pl loos (Brit & NZ informal) a toilet loofah n a long rough-textured bath sponge made from the dried pod of a gourd look vb

1 (often foll. by at) to direct the eyes (towards): he turned to look at her

◇ SYNONYMS: see, view, consider, watch, eye, study, survey, examine

2 (often foll. by at) to consider: let's look at the issues involved

◇ SYNONYMS: consider, contemplate

3 to give the impression of being; seem: Luxembourg's timetable looks a winner

◇ SYNONYMS: seem, appear, look like, strike you as

4 to face in a particular direction: Morgan's Rock looks south

◇ SYNONYMS: face, overlook

5 (foll. by for) to search or seek: the department looks for reputable firms

◇ SYNONYMS: search, seek, hunt, forage, fossick (Austral & NZ)

6 (foll. by into) to carry out an investigation

7 to direct a look at (someone) in a specified way: she looks at Teresina suspiciously

◇ SYNONYMS: see, view, consider, watch, eye, study, survey, examine

8 to match in appearance with (something): looking your best

9 to expect or hope (to do something): we would look to derive a procedure that would account for most cases

◇ SYNONYMS: hope, expect, await, anticipate, reckon on 10 look alive or lively or sharp or smart to hurry up; get busy

11 look here an expression used to attract someone's attention or add emphasis to a statement

► n

12 an instance of looking: a look of icy contempt

◇ SYNONYMS: glimpse, view, glance, observation, sight, examination, gaze, inspection

13 a view or sight (of something): take a look at my view

◇ SYNONYMS: glimpse, view, glance, observation, sight, examination, gaze, inspection

14 (often pl) appearance to the eye or mind; aspect: I'm not happy with the look of things here; better than you by the looks of it

◇ SYNONYMS: appearance, bearing, air, style, aspect, manner, expression, impression

15 style or fashion: the look made famous by the great Russian ◇ SYNONYMS: appearance, bearing, air, style, aspect, manner, expression, impression

► conj

16 an expression demanding attention or showing annoyance: look, I won't be coming back

► See also look after > looker n

look after vb to take care of ◇ SYNONYMS look after something or someone: take care of, mind, protect, tend, guard, nurse, care for, supervise lookalike n a person or thing that is the double of another, often well-known, person or thing look forward to vb to anticipate with pleasure

◇ SYNONYMS look forward to something: anticipate, expect, look for, wait for, await, hope for, long for look on vb

1 to be a spectator

2 to consider or regard: I just looked on her as a friend > looker-on n

lookout n

1 the act of watching for danger or for an opportunity: on the lookout for attack

◇ SYNONYMS: watch, guard, vigil

2 a person or people keeping such a watch

◇ SYNONYMS: watchman, guard, sentry, sentinel

3 a viewpoint from which a watch is kept

◇ SYNONYMS: watchtower, post, observatory, observation post

4 (informal) worry or concern: that is my lookout rather than theirs

◇ SYNONYMS: concern, business, worry

5 (chiefly Brit) chances or prospect: it's a bad lookout for Europe

► vb look out

6 to be careful

7 to watch out for: look out particularly for oils that have been flavoured

◇ SYNONYMS look out for something: be careful of, beware, watch out for, pay attention to, be wary of, keep an eye out for

8 to find and take out: little time to look out clothes that she might need

9 (foll. by on or over) to face in a particular direction: looking out over the courtyard look up vb

1 to discover or confirm by checking in a reference book

◇ SYNONYMS look something up: research, find, search for, hunt for, track down, seek out

2 to improve: things were looking up

◇ SYNONYMS look up: improve, develop, advance, pick up, progress, get better, shape up (informal), perk up

3 look up to to have respect for: she looked up to him as a kind of father

◇ SYNONYMS look up to someone: respect, honour, admire, esteem, revere, defer to, think highly of 4 to visit (a person): I'll look you up when I'm in town

◇ SYNONYMS look someone up: visit, call on, drop in on (informal), look in on loom¹ n a machine for weaving yarn into cloth loom² vb

1 to appear indistinctly, esp. as a tall and threatening shape ◇ SYNONYMS: appear, emerge, hover, take shape, threaten, bulk, menace, come into view

2 (of an event) to seem ominously close loony (slang) adj loonier, looniest

1 (offensive) insane

2 foolish or ridiculous

► n, pl loonies

3 (offensive) an insane person

4 a foolish person loop n

1 the rounded shape formed by a curved line that crosses itself: a loop of the highway

◇ SYNONYMS: curve, ring, circle, twist, curl, spiral, coil, twirl

2 any round or oval-shaped thing that is closed or nearly closed

◇ SYNONYMS: curve, ring, circle, twist, curl, spiral, coil, twirl

3 (electronics) a closed circuit through which a signal can circulate

4 a flight manoeuvre in which an aircraft flies vertically in a complete circle

5 a continuous strip of film or tape

6 (computers) a series of instructions in a program, performed repeatedly until some specified condition is satisfied

► vb

7 to make into a loop

◇ SYNONYMS: twist, turn, roll, knot, curl, spiral, coil, wind round

8 to fasten or encircle with a loop

9 Also: loop the loop to fly or be flown vertically in a complete circle loophole n an ambiguity or omission in the law, which enables one to evade it

◇ SYNONYMS: let-out, escape, excuse loose adj

1 (of clothing) not close-fitting: the jacket loose and unbuttoned

◇ SYNONYMS: slack, easy, relaxed, sloppy, loose-fitting

2 free or released from confinement or restraint

3 not tight, fastened, fixed, or tense

◇ SYNONYMS: free, detached, insecure, unfettered, unrestricted, untied, unattached, unfastened

4 not bundled, fastened, or put in a container: loose tobacco

5 inexact or imprecise: a loose translation

◇ SYNONYMS: vague, random, inaccurate, rambling, imprecise, ill-defined, indistinct, inexact

6 (of cash) accessible: a lot of the loose money is floating around the city

7 (old-fashioned) sexually promiscuous

◇ SYNONYMS: promiscuous, fast, abandoned, immoral, dissipated, profligate, debauched, dissolute

8 lacking a sense of propriety: loose talk

9 at a loose end bored because one has nothing to do

► n

10 on the loose free from confinement or restraint

11 the loose (rugby) the part of play when the forwards close round the ball in a ruck or loose scrum

► adv

12 in a loose manner; loosely

► vb loosing, loosed

13 to free or release from restraint or obligation: he loosed the dogs

◇ SYNONYMS: free, release, liberate, detach, unleash, disconnect, set free, untie

14 to unfasten or untie: the guards loosed his arms

◇ SYNONYMS: free, release, liberate, detach, unleash, disconnect, set free, untie

15 to make or become less strict, tight, firmly attached, or compact

16 to let fly (a bullet, arrow, or other missile) > loosely adv

> looseness n

loose-leaf adj (of a binder) allowing the removal and addition of pages loosen vb

1 to make or become less tight: loosen and relax the ankle

2 (often foll. by up) to make or become less firm, compact, or rigid: massage is used first to loosen up the muscles

3 to untie

◇ SYNONYMS: untie, undo, release, separate, detach, unloose

4 (often foll. by up) to make or become less strict: the churches loosen up on sexual teachings

◇ SYNONYMS loosen up: relax, chill (slang), soften, unwind, go easy (informal), hang loose (slang), outspan (S African), ease up or off loot n

1 goods stolen in wartime or during riots; plunder

◇ SYNONYMS: plunder, goods, prize, haul, spoils, booty, swag (slang)

2 (informal) money

► vb

3 to plunder (a city) during war or riots

◇ SYNONYMS: plunder, rob, raid, sack, rifle, ravage, ransack, pillage

4 to steal (money or goods) during war or riots

◇ SYNONYMS: plunder, rob, raid, sack, rifle, ravage, ransack, pillage

> looter n

lop vb lopping, lopped (usually foll. by off)

1 to cut (parts) off a tree or body

2 to cut out or eliminate any unnecessary parts: some parts of the legislature were lopped off lope vb loping, loped

1 to move or run with a long easy stride

► n

2 a long steady gait or stride lop-eared adj (of animals) having ears that droop lopsided adj greater in weight, height, or size on one side loquacious adj talkative > loquacity n

lord n

1 a person with power or authority over others, such as a monarch or master

◇ SYNONYMS: ruler, leader, chief, master, governor, commander, superior, liege

2 a male member of the nobility

◇ SYNONYMS: peer, nobleman, count, duke, gentleman, earl, noble, baron

3 (in medieval Europe) a feudal superior

4 my lord a respectful form of address used to a judge, bishop, or nobleman

► vb

5 lord it over someone to act in a superior manner towards someone

◇ SYNONYMS lord it over someone: boss around or about (informal), order around, threaten, bully, menace, intimidate, hector, bluster

Lord n

1 (Christianity) a title given to God or Jesus Christ

◇ SYNONYMS the Lord or Our Lord: Jesus Christ, God, Christ, Messiah, Jehovah, the Almighty

2 (Brit) a title given to certain male peers

3 (Brit) a title given to certain high officials and judges

► interj

4 an exclamation of dismay or surprise: Good Lord!

lordly adj -lier, -liest

1 haughty or arrogant

2 of or suitable to a lord > lordliness n

Lordship n (preceded by Your or His) (Brit) a title used to address or refer to a bishop, a judge of the high court, or any peer except a duke lore n collective knowledge or wisdom on a particular subject lorgnette (lor-nyet) n a pair of spectacles or opera glasses mounted on a long handle lorikeet n a small brightly coloured Australian parrot lorry n, pl -ries (Brit & S African) a large motor vehicle for transporting heavy loads lose vb losing, lost

1 to come to be without, through carelessness or by accident or theft

◇ SYNONYMS: mislay, drop, forget, be deprived of, lose track of, misplace

2 to fail to keep or maintain: to lose control

3 to suffer the loss of: he will lose his redundancy money

◇ SYNONYMS: forfeit, miss, yield, be deprived of, pass up (informal)

4 to get rid of: I've lost a stone this summer

5 to fail to get or make use of: Lysenko never lost a chance to show his erudition

6 to be defeated in a fight or competition

◇ SYNONYMS: be defeated, be beaten, lose out, come to grief

7 to fail to see, hear, or understand: she lost sight of him

8 to waste: so I'd lost a fortune

9 to go astray from: psychologists lose the trail

10 to allow to go astray or out of sight: he lost, at the Gare de Lyon, a case with most of his early manuscripts

◇ SYNONYMS: mislay, drop, forget, be deprived of, lose track of, misplace

11 to cause the loss of: I came in to have the gear attended to, which lost me a lap

12 to absorb or engross: lost in thought

13 to die or cause the death of: two lost as yacht sinks in storm

14 to outdistance or escape from: there's some satisfaction in knowing that they've lost us

15 (of a timepiece) to run slow (by a specified amount) loser n

1 a person or thing that loses

◇ SYNONYMS: failure, flop (informal), also-ran, no-hoper (Austral slang), dud (informal), non-achiever, luser (computers, slang)

2 (informal) a person or thing that seems destined to fail: he's a bit of a loser

◇ SYNONYMS: failure, flop (informal), also-ran, no-hoper (Austral slang), dud (informal), non-achiever, luser (computers, slang)

loss n

1 the act or an instance of losing

◇ SYNONYMS: losing, waste, squandering, forfeiture

2 the person, thing, or amount lost: the only loss was a sleeping bag

◇ SYNONYMS: deficit, debt, deficiency, debit, depletion

3 the disadvantage or deprivation resulting from losing: a loss of sovereignty

◇ SYNONYMS: damage, cost, injury, hurt, harm

4 at a loss

A uncertain what to do; bewildered

◇ SYNONYMS at a loss: confused, puzzled, baffled, bewildered, helpless, stumped, perplexed, mystified

B with income less than outlay: they cannot afford to run branches at a loss loss leader n an article offered at a low price to attract customers lost vb

1 the past of lose

► adj

2 unable to find one's way

3 unable to be found or recovered

◇ SYNONYMS: missing, disappeared, vanished, wayward, misplaced, mislaid

4 confused or bewildered: she seemed a bit lost

5 (sometimes foll. by on) not used, noticed, or understood by: not that the propaganda value of the game was lost on the authorities

6 no longer possessed or existing: lost credit

7 (foll. by in) engrossed (in): he remained lost in his own thoughts

8 morally ruined: in a lost condition

9 damned: a lost soul

lot pron

1 a lot a great number or quantity: not that there was a lot to tell; a lot of people

◇ SYNONYMS a lot or lots: plenty, scores, masses (informal), load(s) (informal), wealth, piles (informal), a great deal, stack(s)

► n

2 a collection of things or people: your lot have wasted enough time

◇ SYNONYMS: bunch (informal), group, crowd, crew (informal), set, band, quantity, assortment

3 destiny or fortune: helping the less well-off to improve their lot ◇ SYNONYMS: destiny, situation, circumstances, fortune, chance, accident, fate, doom

4 any object, such as a straw or slip of paper, drawn from others at random to make a selection or choice: they could only be split by the drawing of lots; the casting by lots

5 the use of lots in making a choice: chosen by lot

6 an item or set of items for sale in an auction

7 (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) an area of land: to the parking lot

8 a bad lot an unpleasant or disreputable person

9 cast or throw in one's lot with someone to join with voluntarily and share the fortunes of someone

10 the lot the entire amount or number

► adv

11 (preceded by a) (informal) to a considerable extent, degree, or amount: steroids are used a lot in weightlifting

◇ SYNONYMS a lot or lots: often, regularly, a great deal, frequently, a good deal loth (rhymes with both) adj same as loath lotion n a liquid preparation having a soothing, cleansing, or antiseptic action, applied to the skin

◇ SYNONYMS: cream, solution, balm, salve, liniment, embrocation lottery n, pl -teries

1 a method of raising money by selling tickets by which a winner is selected at random

◇ SYNONYMS: raffle, draw, lotto (Brit & NZ & S African), sweepstake

2 a venture whose outcome is a matter of luck: hospital treatment is a lottery

◇ SYNONYMS: gamble, chance, risk, hazard, toss-up (informal) lotto n

1 a game of chance similar to bingo

2 Lotto (in certain countries) the national lottery lotus n

1 (in Greek mythology) a fruit that induces dreamy forgetfulness in those who eat it

2 any of several water lilies of tropical Africa and Asia, regarded as sacred

3 a symbolic representation of such a plant loud adj

1 (of sound) relatively great in volume: loud applause

◇ SYNONYMS: noisy, booming, roaring, thundering, forte (music), resounding, deafening, thunderous

2 making or able to make sounds of relatively great volume: a loud voice

◇ SYNONYMS: noisy, booming, roaring, thundering, forte (music), resounding, deafening, thunderous

3 insistent and emphatic: loud appeals

◇ SYNONYMS: noisy, booming, roaring, thundering, forte (music), resounding, deafening, thunderous

4 (of colours or patterns) harsh to look at ◇ SYNONYMS: garish, bold, glaring, flamboyant, brash, flashy, lurid, gaudy

5 noisy, vulgar, and offensive

► adv

6 in a loud manner

7 out loud audibly > loudly adv

> loudness n

loudspeaker n a device for converting electrical signals into sounds lough n (Irish)

1 a lake

2 a long narrow arm of the sea

lounge n

1 a living room in a private house

◇ SYNONYMS: sitting room (Brit), living room, parlour (old-fashioned), drawing room, front room, reception room, television room

2 same as lounge bar

3 a communal room in a hotel, ship, or airport, used for waiting or relaxing in 4 the act of lounging

► vb lounging, lounged

5 (often foll. by about or around) to sit or lie in a relaxed manner

◇ SYNONYMS: relax, loaf, sprawl, lie about, take it easy, loiter, loll, laze, outspan (S African)

6 to pass time lazily or idly

◇ SYNONYMS: relax, loaf, sprawl, lie about, take it easy, loiter, loll, laze, outspan (S African) lounge bar n a more expensive and comfortable bar in a pub or hotel lounge suit n a man's suit for daytime wear lour vb same as lower louse n

1 pl lice a wingless blood-sucking insect which feeds off humans and some animals

2 pl louses (slang) an unpleasant or dishonourable person lousy adj lousier, lousiest

1 (slang) very mean or unpleasant

2 (slang) inferior or bad

3 (slang) ill or unwell

4 infested with lice

lout n a crude or oafish person; boor > loutish adj

louvre or (US) louver (loo-ver) n

A any of a set of horizontal slats in a door or window, slanted to admit air but not rain

B the slats and frame supporting them > louvred or (US) louvered adj

love vb loving, loved

1 to have a great affection for a person or thing

◇ SYNONYMS: adore, care for, treasure, cherish, prize, worship, be devoted to, dote on

2 to have passionate desire for someone

◇ SYNONYMS: adore, care for, treasure, cherish, prize, worship, be devoted to, dote on

3 to like (to do something) very much

◇ SYNONYMS: enjoy, like, appreciate, relish, delight in, savour, take pleasure in, have a soft spot for

► n

4 an intense emotion of affection towards a person or thing

◇ SYNONYMS: passion, affection, warmth, attachment, intimacy, devotion, tenderness, adoration, aroha (NZ)

5 a deep feeling of sexual attraction

◇ SYNONYMS: passion, affection, warmth, attachment, intimacy, devotion, tenderness, adoration, aroha (NZ)

6 wholehearted liking for or pleasure in something ◇ SYNONYMS: liking, taste, bent for, weakness for, relish for, enjoyment, devotion to, penchant for

7 a beloved person: often used as an endearment

◇ SYNONYMS: beloved, dear, dearest, lover, darling, honey, sweetheart, true love

8 (Brit informal) a commonplace term of address, not necessarily restricted to people one knows or has regard for

9 (in tennis, squash, etc.) a score of zero

10 fall in love to become in love

11 for love or money in any circumstances

12 in love feeling a strong emotional and sexual attraction

13 make love to

A to have sexual intercourse with

B (archaic) to court > lovable or loveable adj

love affair n a romantic or sexual relationship between two people who are not married to each other

◇ SYNONYMS: romance, relationship, affair, intrigue, liaison, amour lovebird n any of several small African parrots often kept as cage birds love child n (euphemistic) a child whose parents have not been married to each other loveless adj without love: a loveless marriage love life n a person's romantic or sexual relationships lovelorn adj miserable because of unreturned love or unhappiness in love lovely adj -lier, -liest

1 very attractive or beautiful

◇ SYNONYMS: beautiful, appealing, attractive, charming, pretty, handsome, good-looking, exquisite, fit (Brit informal)

2 highly pleasing or enjoyable: thanks for a lovely evening

◇ SYNONYMS: wonderful, pleasing, nice, pleasant, engaging, marvellous, delightful, enjoyable

► n, pl -lies

3 (slang) an attractive woman: suntanned lovelies > loveliness n

lovemaking n

1 sexual play and activity between lovers, including sexual intercourse

2 (archaic) courtship lover n

1 a person having a sexual relationship with another person outside marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: sweetheart, beloved, loved one, flame (informal), mistress, admirer, suitor

2 (often pl) either of the people involved in a love affair

◇ SYNONYMS: sweetheart, beloved, loved one, flame (informal), mistress, admirer, suitor

3 someone who loves a specified person or thing: an animal-lover loving adj feeling or showing love and affection

◇ SYNONYMS: tender, kind, caring, warm, gentle, sympathetic, considerate > lovingly adv

low¹ adj

1 having a relatively small distance from base to top: a low wall

◇ SYNONYMS: small, little, short, stunted, squat

2 of less than usual amount, degree, quality, or cost: low score; low inflation

3 situated at a relatively short distance above the ground, sea level, or the horizon: heavy weather with low driving cloud

4 (of numbers) small

5 involving or containing a relatively small amount of something: low-fat cheese and crackers

6 having little value or quality: it sounds as if your self-confidence is low

7 coarse or vulgar: low comedy

◇ SYNONYMS: coarse, common, rough, crude, rude, vulgar, undignified, disreputable

8 unworthy or contemptible: that's a low trick, Justin

9 inferior in culture or status

10 in a weakened physical or mental state

◇ SYNONYMS: ill, weak, frail, stricken, debilitated

11 with a hushed tone: in a low, scared voice

◇ SYNONYMS: quiet, soft, gentle, whispered, muted, subdued, hushed, muffled

12 low-necked: a low evening gown

13 (music) of or having a relatively low pitch

14 (of latitudes) situated not far north or south of the equator

15 having little or no money

16 unfavourable: he has a low opinion of Ford

17 deep: a low bow

18 (of a gear) providing a relatively low speed

► adv

19 in a low position, level, or degree: the pilot flew low over the area

20 at a low pitch; deeply: he's singing very low

21 cheaply: the bank is having to buy high and sell low

22 lay low

A to make (someone) fall by a blow

B to overcome or destroy

23 lie low to keep or be concealed or quiet

► n

24 a low position, level, or degree: shares hit new low

25 an area of low atmospheric pressure; depression > lowness n

low² n

1 Also: lowing the sound uttered by cattle; moo

► vb

2 to make a mooing sound lowbrow (derogatory) n

1 a person with uncultivated or nonintellectual tastes

► adj

2 of or for such a person

Low Church n a section of the Church of England which stresses evangelical beliefs and practices

> Low-Church adj

low-down (informal) adj

1 mean, underhand, and dishonest

► n lowdown

2 the lowdown information lower¹ (rhymes with goer) adj

1 being below one or more other things: the lower branches

◇ SYNONYMS: subordinate, under, smaller, junior, minor, secondary, lesser, inferior

2 reduced in amount or value: lower rates

◇ SYNONYMS: reduced, cut, diminished, decreased, lessened, curtailed

3 Lower (geol) denoting the early part of a period or formation

► vb

4 to cause or allow to move down: she lowered her head

◇ SYNONYMS: drop, sink, depress, let down, submerge, take down, let fall

5 to behave in a way that damages one's respect: she'd never lowered herself enough to make a call

6 to lessen or become less: the cholesterol was lowered by medication

◇ SYNONYMS: lessen, cut, reduce, diminish, slash, decrease, prune, minimize

7 to make quieter or reduce the pitch of lower² or lour² (rhymes with sour) vb (of the sky or weather) to be overcast and menacing > lowering or louring adj lower case n (in printing) small letters, as opposed to capital letters > lower-case adj

low-key or low-keyed adj

1 restrained or subdued

◇ SYNONYMS: subdued, quiet, restrained, muted, understated, toned down

2 having a low intensity or tone

◇ SYNONYMS: subdued, quiet, restrained, muted, understated, toned down lowland n

1 relatively low ground

2 (often pl) a low generally flat region

► adj

3 of a lowland or lowlands

> lowlander n

Lowland adj of the Lowlands or the dialects of English spoken there > Lowlander n

lowly adj -lier, -liest

1 humble in position or status

2 simple and unpretentious > lowliness n

low profile n a deliberate shunning of publicity: he kept a low profile > low-profile adj

low-spirited adj depressed or dejected loyal adj

1 faithful to one's friends, country, or government

◇ SYNONYMS: faithful, true, devoted, dependable, constant, staunch, trustworthy, trusty

2 of or expressing loyalty: the loyal toast > loyally adv

loyalist n a patriotic supporter of the sovereign or government > loyalism n

loyalty n, pl -ties

1 the quality of being loyal

◇ SYNONYMS: faithfulness, commitment, devotion, allegiance, fidelity, homage, obedience, constancy

2 a feeling of friendship or duty towards someone or something

◇ SYNONYMS: faithfulness, commitment, devotion, allegiance, fidelity, homage, obedience, constancy loyalty card n a swipe card issued by a supermarket or chain store to a customer, used to record credit points awarded for money spent in the store lozenge n

1 (med) a medicated tablet held in the mouth until it has dissolved

2 (geom) a rhombus

L-plate n (Brit & Austral) a letter 'L' on a square piece of plastic attached to a motor vehicle to indicate that the driver is a learner

LSD n lysergic acid diethylamide; an illegal hallucinogenic drug

Lt Lieutenant

Ltd (Brit) Limited (Liability)

lubricant n a lubricating substance, such as oil lubricate (loo-brik-ate) vb -cating, -cated

1 to cover with an oily substance to lessen friction

2 to make greasy, slippery, or smooth > lubrication n

lubricious (loo-brish-uss) adj (formal, or literary) lewd lucerne n (Brit & Austral) same as alfalfa lucid adj

1 clear and easily understood

2 capable of clear thought, particularly between periods of mental illness or confusion

3 shining or glowing > lucidity n

> lucidly adv

Lucifer n Satan luck n

1 events that are subject to chance; fortune, good or bad

◇ SYNONYMS: fortune, lot, stars, chance, accident, fate, destiny, twist of fate

2 success or good fortune

◇ SYNONYMS: good fortune, success, advantage, prosperity, blessing, windfall, godsend, serendipity

3 down on one's luck lacking good fortune to the extent of suffering hardship

4 no such luck (informal) unfortunately not

5 try one's luck to attempt something that is uncertain luckless adj unfortunate or unlucky lucky adj luckier, luckiest

1 having or bringing good fortune

◇ SYNONYMS: fortunate, successful, favoured, charmed, blessed, jammy (Brit slang), serendipitous

2 happening by chance, esp. as desired > luckily adv

lucky dip n (Brit & Austral & NZ) a box filled with sawdust containing small prizes for which children search lucrative adj profitable

◇ SYNONYMS: profitable, rewarding, productive, fruitful, well-paid, advantageous, remunerative lucre (loo-ker) n (usually facetious) money or wealth: filthy lucre

Luddite (Brit history) n

1 any of the textile workers opposed to mechanization, who organized machine-breaking between 1811 and 1816

2 any opponent of industrial change or innovation

► adj

3 of the Luddites

luderick n an Australian fish, usually black or dark brown in colour ludicrous adj absurd or ridiculous

◇ SYNONYMS: ridiculous, crazy (informal), absurd, preposterous, silly, laughable, farcical, outlandish > ludicrously adv ludo n (Brit & Austral) a simple board game in which players move counters forward by throwing dice lug¹ vb lugging, lugged to carry or drag with great effort lug² n

1 a projecting piece by which something is connected, supported, or lifted

2 (informal, Scot) an ear luggage n suitcases, trunks, and bags

◇ SYNONYMS: baggage, things, cases, bags, gear, suitcases, paraphernalia, impedimenta lugubrious (loo-goo-bree-uss) adj mournful or gloomy lugworm n a large worm which lives in burrows on sandy shores and is often used as bait by fishermen lukewarm adj

1 (of a liquid) moderately warm; tepid

2 lacking enthusiasm or conviction lull vb

1 to soothe (a person or animal) by soft sounds or motions

◇ SYNONYMS: calm, soothe, subdue, quell, allay, pacify, tranquillize

2 to calm (fears or suspicions) by deception

◇ SYNONYMS: calm, soothe, subdue, quell, allay, pacify, tranquillize

► n

3 a short period of calm

◇ SYNONYMS: respite, pause, quiet, silence, calm, hush, let-up (informal) lullaby n, pl -bies a quiet song to lull a child to sleep lumbago (lum-bay-go) n pain in the lower back; low backache lumbar adj relating to the lower back lumber¹ n

1 (Brit) unwanted disused household articles

◇ SYNONYMS: junk, refuse, rubbish, trash (chiefly US & Canad), clutter, jumble

2 (chiefly US & Canad) logs; sawn timber

► vb

3 (informal) to burden with something unpleasant: somebody gets lumbered with the extra costs

◇ SYNONYMS: burden, land, load, saddle, encumber

4 to fill up with useless household articles

5 (chiefly US & Canad) to convert trees into marketable timber lumber² vb to move awkwardly and heavily ◇ SYNONYMS: plod, shuffle, shamble, trudge, stump, waddle, trundle > lumbering adj lumberjack n (esp. in North America) a person who fells trees and prepares the timber for transport luminary n, pl -naries

1

A a famous person

B an expert in a particular subject

2 (literary) something, such as the sun or moon, that gives off light luminescence n (physics) the emission of light at low temperatures by any process other than burning > luminescent adj

luminous adj

1 reflecting or giving off light: luminous colours

2 (not in technical use) luminescent: luminous sparklers

3 enlightening or wise > luminosity n

lump¹ n

1 a small solid mass without definite shape

◇ SYNONYMS: piece, ball, block, mass, chunk, hunk, nugget

2 (pathol) any small swelling or tumour

◇ SYNONYMS: swelling, growth, bump, tumour, bulge, hump, protrusion

3 (informal) an awkward, heavy, or stupid person

4 a lump in one's throat a tight dry feeling in one's throat, usually caused by great emotion

5 the lump (Brit) self-employed workers in the building trade considered collectively

► adj

6 in the form of a lump or lumps: lump sugar

► vb

7 (often foll. by together) to consider as a single group, often without justification

◇ SYNONYMS: group, throw, mass, combine, collect, pool, consolidate, conglomerate

8 to grow into lumps or become lumpy lump² vb lump it (informal) to accept something irrespective of personal preference: if you don't like it, you can lump it lump sum n a relatively large sum of money, paid at one time lumpy adj lumpier, lumpiest full of or having lumps > lumpiness n

lunacy n, pl -cies

1 foolishness

2 (formerly) any severe mental illness lunar adj relating to the moon: lunar eclipse lunatic adj

1 foolish; eccentric

2 (archaic) having severe mental illness

► n

3 a foolish or annoying person

4 (archaic) a person with severe mental illness lunch n

1 a meal eaten during the middle of the day

► vb

2 to eat lunch luncheon n a lunch, often a formal one luncheon meat n a ground mixture of meat (often pork) and cereal, usually tinned luncheon voucher n (Brit) a voucher for a specified amount issued to employees and accepted by some restaurants as payment for food lung n the part of the body that allows an animal or bird to breathe air. Humans have two lungs, contained within the chest cavity

lunge n

1 a sudden forward motion

◇ SYNONYMS: thrust, charge, pounce, spring, swing, jab

2 (fencing) a thrust made by advancing the front foot and straightening the back leg

► vb lunging, lunged

3 to move with a lunge

◇ SYNONYMS: pounce, charge, dive, leap, plunge, thrust

4 (fencing) to make a lunge lungfish n, pl -fish or -fishes a freshwater fish with an air-breathing lung lupin n a garden plant with large spikes of brightly coloured flowers and flattened pods lupine adj of or like a wolf lurch¹ vb

1 to lean or tilt suddenly to one side

◇ SYNONYMS: tilt, roll, pitch, list, rock, lean, heel

2 to stagger

◇ SYNONYMS: stagger, reel, stumble, weave, sway, totter

► n

3 a lurching movement lurch² n leave someone in the lurch to abandon someone in trouble lure vb luring, lured

1 (sometimes foll. by away or into) to tempt or attract by the promise of reward

◇ SYNONYMS: tempt, draw, attract, invite, trick, seduce, entice, allure

► n

2 a person or thing that lures

◇ SYNONYMS: temptation, attraction, incentive, bait, carrot (informal), inducement, enticement, allurement

3 (angling) a brightly coloured artificial spinning bait

4 (falconry) a feathered decoy to which small pieces of meat can be attached lurid adj

1 vivid in shocking detail; sensational: magazines whose lurid covers sickened him

2 glaring in colour: a lurid red tartan

3 horrible in savagery or violence: reporting lurid crimes

> luridly adv

lurk vb

1 to move stealthily or be concealed, esp. for evil purposes

◇ SYNONYMS: hide, sneak, prowl, lie in wait, slink, skulk, conceal yourself

2 to be present in an unobtrusive way; be latent

◇ SYNONYMS: hide, sneak, prowl, lie in wait, slink, skulk, conceal yourself

luscious (lush-uss) adj

- 1 extremely pleasurable to taste or smell
- 2 very attractive lush¹ adj

- 1 (of vegetation) growing thickly and healthily
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: abundant, green, flourishing, dense, rank, verdant (literary)
- 2 luxurious, elaborate, or opulent
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: luxurious, grand, elaborate, lavish, extravagant, sumptuous, plush (informal), ornate
- 3 (slang) very attractive or pleasing lush² n (slang) an alcoholic lust n

- 1 a strong sexual desire
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: lechery, sensuality, lewdness, lasciviousness
- 2 a strong desire or drive: a lust for power
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: desire, longing, passion, appetite, craving, greed, thirst
- ▶ vb
- 3 (often foll. by after or for) to have a passionate desire (for)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS lust for or after someone or something: desire, want, crave, yearn for, covet, hunger for or after
 - > lustful adj
 - > lustfully adv

lustre or (US) luster n

- 1 soft shining light reflected from a surface; sheen
- 2 great splendour or glory
- 3 a shiny metallic surface on some pottery and porcelain
 - > lustrous adj lusty adj lustier, lustiest

- 1 healthy and full of strength and energy

2 strong or invigorating > lustily adv

> lustiness n

lute n an ancient plucked stringed instrument with a long fingerboard and a body shaped like a half pear

Lutheran n

1 a follower of Martin Luther (1483–1546), German leader of the Reformation, or a member of a Lutheran Church

► adj

2 of or relating to Luther, his doctrines, or any of the Churches that follow these doctrines

> Lutheranism n

luxuriant adj

1 rich and abundant; lush: luxuriant foliage

2 very elaborate or ornate > luxuriance n

> luxuriantly adv

luxuriate vb -ating, -ated

1 luxuriate in to take self-indulgent pleasure in; revel in

2 to flourish profusely luxurious adj

1 characterized by luxury

◇ SYNONYMS: sumptuous, expensive, comfortable, magnificent, splendid, lavish, plush (informal), opulent

2 enjoying or devoted to luxury > luxuriously adv

luxury n, pl -ries

1 indulgence in rich and sumptuous living

◇ SYNONYMS: opulence, splendour, richness, extravagance, affluence, hedonism, a bed of roses, the life of Riley

2 something considered an indulgence rather than a necessity

◇ SYNONYMS: extravagance, treat, extra, indulgence, frill

► adj

3 relating to, indicating, or supplying luxury: a luxury hotel

Lv livermorium

lychee (lie-chee) n a Chinese fruit with a whitish juicy pulp

lych gate or lich gate n a roofed gate to a churchyard, formerly used as a temporary shelter for a coffin

Lycra n (trademark) a synthetic elastic fabric used for tight-fitting garments, such as swimsuits

lye n

1 a caustic solution obtained from wood ash

2 a concentrated solution of sodium hydroxide or potassium hydroxide lying vb the present participle of lie lymph n the almost colourless body fluid containing chiefly white blood cells > lymphatic adj lymphocyte n a type of white blood cell lynch vb (of a mob) to kill (a person) for some supposed offence without a trial > lynching n

lynchpin n same as linchpin lynx n, pl lynxes or lynx a mammal of the cat family, with grey-brown mottled fur, tufted ears, and a short tail lyre n an ancient Greek U-shaped stringed instrument, similar to a harp but plucked with a plectrum lyric adj

1

A (of poetry) expressing the writer's personal feelings

B (of poetry) having the form and manner of a song

2 of or relating to such poetry

3 (of a singing voice) light and melodic

► n

4 a short poem of songlike quality

5 lyrics the words of a popular song: Cole invests all her lyrics with a touch of drama lyrical adj

1 same as lyric

2 enthusiastic or effusive

◇ SYNONYMS: enthusiastic, inspired, poetic, impassioned, effusive, rhapsodic > lyrically adv

lyricist n a person who writes the words for a song, opera, or musical

Mm

m

- 1 metre(s)
- 2 mile(s)
- 3 milli-
- 4 million
- 5 minute(s)

M

- 1 mach
- 2 medium
- 3 mega-
- 4 (in Britain) motorway
- 5 the Roman numeral for 1000

m.

- 1 male
- 2 married
- 3 masculine
- 4 meridian
- 5 month

ma n an informal word for mother

MA

- 1 Massachusetts
- 2 Master of Arts

ma'am n short for madam mac or mack n (Brit informal) a mackintosh macabre (mak-kahb-ra) adj strange and horrible; gruesome macadam n a road surface made of compressed layers of small broken stones, esp. one bound together with tar or asphalt macadamia (mak-a-day-mee-a) n an Australian tree with edible nuts macaroni n, pl -nis or -nies

1 pasta tubes made from wheat flour

2 (in 18th-century Britain) a man who was excessively concerned with his clothes and appearance macaroon n a sweet biscuit made of ground almonds macaw n a large tropical American parrot with a long tail and brightly coloured feathers mace¹ n

1 a ceremonial staff carried by certain officials

2 a club with a spiked metal head used in the Middle Ages mace² n a spice made from the dried outer casing of the nutmeg macerate (mass-er-ate) vb -ating, -ated to soften or be softened by soaking > macerated adj

> maceration n

machete (mash-ett-ee) n a broad heavy knife used for cutting or as a weapon

Machiavellian (mak-ee-a-vel-yan) adj cleverly deceitful and unscrupulous > Machiavellianism n

machinations (mak-in-nay-shuns) pl n cunning schemes or plots to gain power or harm an opponent: the machinations of a power-hungry institution

machine n

1 an assembly of components arranged so as to perform a particular task and usually powered by electricity

◇ SYNONYMS: appliance, device, apparatus, engine (obsolete), tool, instrument, mechanism, gadget

2 a vehicle, such as a car or aircraft

3 a system within an organization that controls activities and policies: the party machine

◇ SYNONYMS: system, structure, organization, machinery, setup (informal)

► vb -chining, -chined

4 to shape, cut, or make something using a machine > machinable adj

machine gun n

1 a rapid-firing automatic gun, using small-arms ammunition

► vb machine-gun-gunning, -gunned

2 to shoot or fire at with a machine gun machine-readable adj in a form suitable for processing by a computer machinery n, pl -eries

1 machines, machine parts, or machine systems collectively

◇ SYNONYMS: equipment, gear, instruments, apparatus, technology, tackle, tools, gadgetry

2 the mechanism of a machine

◇ SYNONYMS: equipment, gear, instruments, apparatus, technology, tackle, tools, gadgetry

3 the organization and procedures by which a system functions: the machinery of international politics

machinist n

1 a person who operates machines to cut or process materials

2 a maker or repairer of machines machismo (mak-izz-moh) n strong or exaggerated masculinity

Mach number (mak) n the ratio of the speed of a body in a particular medium to the speed of sound in that medium macho (match-oh) adj

1 strongly or exaggeratedly masculine

◇ SYNONYMS: manly, masculine, chauvinist, virile

► n

2 strong or exaggerated masculinity mackerel n, pl -rel or -rels an edible sea fish mackintosh or macintosh n (Brit)

1 a raincoat made of rubberized cloth

2 any raincoat

macramé (mak-rah-mee) n

1 the art of knotting and weaving coarse thread into patterns

2 ornaments made in this way macrobiotics n a dietary system which advocates whole grains and vegetables grown without chemical additives > macrobiotic adj

macrocosm n a complex structure, such as the universe or society, regarded as a whole mad adj madder, maddest

1 (informal) of unsound mind

2 extremely foolish; senseless: that was a mad thing to do!

◇ SYNONYMS: foolish, absurd, wild, stupid, daft (informal), irrational, senseless, preposterous

3 (informal) angry or annoyed: he's mad at her for the unjust accusation

◇ SYNONYMS: angry, furious, incensed, enraged, livid (informal), berserk, berko (Austral slang), tooshie (Austral slang), off the air (Austral slang)

4 extremely excited or confused: a mad rush

◇ SYNONYMS: frenzied, wild, excited, frenetic, uncontrolled, unrestrained

5

A (of animals) unusually ferocious: a mad bear

B (of animals) afflicted with rabies

6 like mad (informal) with great energy, enthusiasm, or haste

7 mad about or on or over wildly enthusiastic about or fond of ◇ SYNONYMS: enthusiastic, wild, crazy (informal), ardent, fanatical, avid, impassioned, infatuated > madness n

madam n, pl madams

1 pl mesdames a polite term of address for a woman

2 a woman who runs a brothel

3 (Brit & Austral informal) a spoilt or pert girl: a precocious little madam madame (mad-dam) n, pl mesdames (may-dam) a French form of address equivalent to Mrs madcap adj

1 impulsive, reckless, or unlikely to succeed: a madcap expansion of council bureaucracy

► n

2 an impulsive or reckless person madden vb to make or become mad or angry

◇ SYNONYMS: infuriate, irritate, incense, enrage, upset, annoy, inflame, drive you crazy > maddening adj

madder n

1 a plant with small yellow flowers and a red fleshy root

2 a dark reddish-purple dye formerly obtained from its root

3 an artificial pigment of this colour made vb

1 the past of make

► adj

2 (in combination) produced or shaped as specified: handmade

3 get or have it made (informal) to be assured of success

Madeira (mad-deer-a) n a fortified white wine from Madeira, an island in the N Atlantic

Madeira cake n a type of rich sponge cake mademoiselle (mad-mwah-zel) n, pl mesdemoiselles (maid-mwah-zel)

1 a French form of address equivalent to Miss

2 a French teacher or governess madly adv

1 in an crazy or foolish manner: I yelled and waved madly

◇ SYNONYMS: insanely, frantically, hysterically, crazily, deliriously, distractedly, frenziedly

2 with great speed and energy

◇ SYNONYMS: energetically, wildly, furiously, excitedly, recklessly, speedily, like mad (informal)

3 (informal) extremely or excessively: she was madly in love with him

◇ SYNONYMS: passionately, wildly, desperately, intensely, to distraction, devotedly madman or (fem) madwoman n, pl -men or -women

1 a person who behaves recklessly

2 (offensive) a person who is insane

Madonna n

1 (chiefly RC Church) the Virgin Mary

2 a picture or statue of the Virgin Mary madrigal n a type of 16th- or 17th-century part song for unaccompanied voices > madrigalist n

maelstrom (male-strom) n

1 a large powerful whirlpool

2 any confused, violent, and destructive turmoil: a maelstrom of adulterous passion maestro (my-stroh) n, pl -tri or -tros

1 a distinguished musician or conductor

2 any master of an art: Milan's maestro of minimalism

Mafia n the Mafia a secret criminal organization founded in Sicily, and carried to the US by Italian immigrants mafioso (maf-fee-oh-so) n, pl -sos or -si (-see) a member of the Mafia magazine n

1 a periodic publication containing written pieces and illustrations, usually on a particular subject

◇ SYNONYMS: journal, publication, supplement, rag (informal), issue, glossy (informal), pamphlet, periodical, ezine or e-zine

2 a television or radio programme made up of short nonfictional items

3 a metal case holding several cartridges used in some firearms

4 a rack for automatically feeding slides through a projector

5 a place for storing weapons, explosives, or military equipment magenta (maj-jen-ta) adj deep purplish-red maggot n the limbless larva of various insects, esp. the housefly and blowfly > maggoty adj

magi (maje-eye) pl n, sing magus (may-guss) the three Magi (Christianity) the wise men from the East who came to worship the infant Jesus (Matthew 2:1–12)

magic n

1 the supposed power to make things happen by using supernatural means

◇ SYNONYMS: sorcery, wizardry, witchcraft, enchantment, black art, necromancy

2 tricks done to entertain; conjuring

◇ SYNONYMS: conjuring, illusion, trickery, sleight of hand, legerdemain, prestidigitation

3 any mysterious or extraordinary quality or power: the magic of Placido Domingo

◇ SYNONYMS: charm, power, glamour, fascination, magnetism, enchantment, allurement, mojo (slang)

4 like magic very quickly

► adj also magical

5 of magic

6 possessing or considered to possess mysterious powers

7 unaccountably enchanting

◇ SYNONYMS: miraculous, entrancing, charming, fascinating, marvellous, magical, enchanting, bewitching

8 (informal) wonderful or marvellous

► vb -gicking, -gicked

9 to transform or produce as if by magic: he had magicked up a gourmet meal at a moment's notice > magically adv

magician n

1 a conjuror

◇ SYNONYMS: conjuror, illusionist, prestidigitator

2 a person with magic powers

◇ SYNONYMS: sorcerer, witch, wizard, illusionist, warlock, necromancer, enchanter or enchantress magisterial adj

1 commanding and authoritative

2 of a magistrate > magisterially adv

magistrate n

1 a public officer concerned with the administration of law

◇ SYNONYMS: judge, justice, justice of the peace, J.P.

2 (Austral & NZ) a former name for district court judge magma n, pl -mas or -mata hot molten rock within the earth's crust which sometimes finds its way to the surface where it solidifies to form igneous rock magnanimous adj generous and forgiving, esp. towards a defeated enemy > magnanimity n

> magnanimously adv

magnate n an influential or wealthy person, esp. in industry magnesia n a white tasteless substance used as an antacid and laxative; magnesium oxide magnesium n (chem) a light silvery-white metallic element that burns with a very bright white flame. SYMBOL: Mg magnet n

1 a piece of iron, steel, or lodestone that has the property of attracting iron to it

2 a person or thing that exerts a great attraction: these woods are a magnet for bird watchers magnetic adj

1 of, producing, or operated by means of magnetism

2 of or like a magnet

3 capable of being made into a magnet

4 exerting a powerful attraction: political leaders of magnetic appeal

◇ SYNONYMS: attractive, irresistible, seductive, captivating, charming, fascinating, charismatic, hypnotic > magnetically adv

magnetic tape n a long plastic strip coated with a magnetic substance, used to record sound or video signals or to store information in computers magnetism n

1 the property of attraction displayed by magnets

2 powerful personal charm

3 the branch of physics concerned with magnetic phenomena magnetize or -tise vb -tizing, -tized or -tising, -tised

1 to make a substance or object magnetic

2 to attract strongly: he was magnetized by her smile > magnetizable or -tisable adj > magnetization or -tisation n

magneto (mag-nee-toe) n, pl -tos a small electric generator in which the magnetic field is produced by a permanent magnet, esp. one used to provide the spark in an internal-combustion engine magnification n

1 the act of magnifying or the state of being magnified

2 the degree to which something is magnified

3 a magnified copy of something magnificent adj

1 splendid or impressive in appearance

◇ SYNONYMS: splendid, impressive, imposing, glorious, gorgeous, majestic, regal, sublime

2 superb or very fine: a magnificent performance

◇ SYNONYMS: brilliant, fine, excellent, outstanding, superb, splendid > magnificence n

> magnificently adv

magnify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to make something look bigger than it really is, for instance by using a lens or microscope

◇ SYNONYMS: enlarge, increase, boost, expand, intensify, blow up (informal), heighten, amplify

2 to make something seem more important than it really is; exaggerate: you are magnifying the problem out of all proportion

◇ SYNONYMS: make worse, exaggerate, intensify, worsen, exacerbate, increase, inflame

3 to make something sound louder than it really is: the stethoscope magnifies internal body sounds

4 (archaic) to glorify or praise > magnified adj

magnitude n

1 relative importance: an evil of the first magnitude

◇ SYNONYMS: importance, consequence, significance, moment, note, weight, greatness

2 relative size or extent

◇ SYNONYMS: immensity, size, extent, enormity (informal), volume, vastness

3 (astron) the apparent brightness of a celestial body expressed on a numerical scale on which bright stars have a low value magnolia n an Asian and North American tree or shrub with white, pink, purple, or yellow showy flowers magnum n, pl -nums a wine bottle of twice the normal size, holding 1.5 litres magpie n

1 a bird of the crow family with black-and-white plumage, a long tail, and a chattering call

2 any of various similar Australian birds, eg the butcherbird

3 (Brit) a person who hoards small objects maharaja or maharajah n the head of one of the royal families which formerly ruled parts of India maharani or maharanee n the wife of a maharaja mah jong or mah-jongg n a game of Chinese origin, played using tiles bearing various designs, in which the players try to obtain a winning combination of tiles

mahogany n, pl -nies

1 the hard reddish-brown wood of any of several tropical trees

► adj

2 reddish-brown: wonderful mahogany tones mahout (ma-howt) n (in India) an elephant driver or keeper maid n

1 a female servant

◇ SYNONYMS: servant, chambermaid, housemaid, menial, maidservant, female servant, domestic (archaic), parlourmaid

2 (archaic, or literary) a young unmarried girl; maiden

◇ SYNONYMS: girl, maiden (archaic, literary), lass, damsel, lassie (informal) maiden n

1 (archaic, or literary) a young unmarried girl, esp. a virgin

◇ SYNONYMS: girl, maid (archaic, literary), lass, damsel (archaic, poetic), virgin, lassie (informal)

2 (horse racing) a horse that has never won a race

► adj

3 unmarried: a maiden aunt

◇ SYNONYMS: unmarried, unwed, single

4 first or earliest: maiden voyage

◇ SYNONYMS: first, initial, inaugural, introductory > maidenhood n

> maidenly adj

maidenhead n

1 the hymen

2 virginity or maidenhood maiden name n a woman's surname before marriage maiden over n (cricket) an over in which no runs are scored maidservant n a female servant mail¹ n

1 letters and packages transported and delivered by the post office

◇ SYNONYMS: letters, post, correspondence

2 the postal system

3 a single collection or delivery of mail

4 a train, ship, or aircraft that carries mail

5 short for email

► vb

6 (chiefly US & Canad) to send by mail

◇ SYNONYMS: post, send, forward, dispatch

7 to contact or send by email

◇ SYNONYMS: email or e-mail, send, forward mail² n flexible armour made of riveted metal rings or links > mailed adj

mailbox n

1 (US & Canad & Austral) a box outside a house into which the postman puts letters for the occupiers of the house

2 (on a computer) the directory in which email messages are stored mail order n a system of buying and selling goods by post mailshot n a posting of circulars, leaflets, or other advertising to a selected large number of people at once maim vb to injure badly or cruelly, with some permanent damage resulting main adj

1 chief or principal

◇ SYNONYMS: chief, leading, head, central, essential, primary, principal, foremost

► n

2 a principal pipe or line in a system used to distribute water, electricity, or gas

◇ SYNONYMS: pipeline, channel, pipe, conduit, duct

3 mains the main distribution network for water, gas, or electricity

◇ SYNONYMS: cable, line, electricity supply, mains supply

4 great strength or force: with might and main

5 (literary) the open ocean

6 in the main on the whole

◇ SYNONYMS in the main: on the whole, generally, mainly, mostly, in general, for the most part mainframe n a high-speed, general-purpose computer, with a large storage capacity mainland n the main part of a land mass as opposed to an island mainly adv for the most part; principally ◇ SYNONYMS: chiefly, mostly, largely, principally, primarily, on the whole, predominantly, in the main mainmast n (naut) the chief mast of a sailing vessel with two or more masts mainsail n (naut) the largest and lowermost sail on the mainmast mainspring n

1 the chief cause or motive of something: the mainspring of a dynamic economy

2 the chief spring of a watch or clock mainstay n

- 1 a chief support
- 2 (naut) a rope securing a mainmast mainstream n

1 the people or things representing the most common or generally accepted ideas and styles in a society, art form, etc.: the mainstream of academic life

2 the main current of a river

► adj

3 belonging to the social or cultural mainstream: mainstream American movies

◇ SYNONYMS: conventional, general, established, received, accepted, current, prevailing, orthodox, lamestream (informal) maintain vb

1 to continue or keep in existence: we must maintain good relations with them

◇ SYNONYMS: continue, retain, preserve, sustain, carry on, keep up, prolong, perpetuate

2 to keep in proper or good condition: an expensive car to maintain

◇ SYNONYMS: look after, care for, take care of, conserve, keep in good condition

3 to sustain or keep up a particular level or speed: he set off at a high speed, but couldn't maintain it all the way

◇ SYNONYMS: continue, retain, preserve, sustain, carry on, keep up, prolong, perpetuate

4 to enable a person to have the money, food and other things he or she needs to live: the money maintained us for a month

5 to assert: he had always maintained that he never wanted children

◇ SYNONYMS: assert, state, claim, insist, declare, contend, profess, avow

6 to defend against contradiction: he maintained his innocence maintenance n

1 the act of maintaining or the state of being maintained

◇ SYNONYMS: continuation, carrying-on, perpetuation, prolongation

2 the process of keeping a car, building, etc. in good condition ◇ SYNONYMS: upkeep, keeping, care, repairs, conservation, nurture, preservation

3 (law) financial provision ordered to be made by way of periodical payments or a lump sum, usually for a separated or divorced spouse

◇ SYNONYMS: allowance, support, keep, alimony maisonette n (Brit & S African) a flat with more than one floor maitre d'hotel (met-ra dote-tell) n, pl maitres d'hotel a head waiter maize n a type of corn grown for its large yellow edible grains, which are used for food and as a source of oil

► See also sweet corn majestic adj beautiful, dignified, and impressive

◇ SYNONYMS: grand, magnificent, impressive, superb, splendid, regal, stately, monumental > majestically adv

majesty n

1 great dignity and grandeur

◇ SYNONYMS: grandeur, glory, splendour, magnificence, nobility

2 supreme power or authority major adj

1 greater in size, frequency, or importance than others of the same kind: the major political parties

◇ SYNONYMS: main, higher, greater, bigger, leading, chief, senior, supreme

2 very serious or significant: a major investigation

◇ SYNONYMS: important, critical, significant, great, serious, crucial (informal), outstanding, notable

3 main or principal: a major road

◇ SYNONYMS: main, higher, greater, bigger, leading, chief, senior, supreme

4 (music)

A (of a scale) having notes separated by a whole tone, except for the third and fourth notes, and seventh and eighth notes, which are separated by a semitone

B of or based on the major scale: the key of D major

► n

5 a middle-ranking military officer

6 (music) a major key, chord, mode, or scale

7 a person who has reached the age of legal majority

8 (US & Canad & S African & Austral & NZ) the principal field of study of a student

► vb

9 (US & Canad & S African & Austral & NZ) to study as one's principal subject: he majored in economics major-domo n, pl -mos the chief steward or butler of a great household majority n, pl -ties

1 the greater number or part of something

◇ SYNONYMS: most, mass, bulk, best part, better part, lion's share, preponderance, greater number

2 (in an election) the number of votes or seats by which the strongest party or candidate beats the combined opposition or the runner-up

3 the largest party or group that votes together in a meeting, council or parliament

4 the age at which a person legally becomes an adult ◇ SYNONYMS: adulthood, maturity, age of consent, seniority, manhood or womanhood

5 in the majority forming or part of the group of people or things made up of more than half of a larger group make vb making, made

1 to create, construct, establish, or draw up; bring into being: houses made of stone; he will have to make a will

◇ SYNONYMS: produce, cause, create, effect, lead to, generate, bring about, give rise to

2 to cause to do or be; compel or induce: please make her go away

◇ SYNONYMS: force, cause, compel, drive, require, oblige, induce, constrain

3 to bring about or produce: don't make a noise

◇ SYNONYMS: produce, cause, create, effect, lead to, generate, bring about, give rise to

4 to carry out or perform: he made his first trip to China in 1987; she made an obscene gesture

◇ SYNONYMS: perform, do, effect, carry out, execute

5 to appoint: they made him caretaker manager

6 to come into a specified state or condition: to make merry

7 to become: she will make a good diplomat

8 to cause or ensure the success of: that news has made my day

9 to amount to: 5 and 5 make 10

◇ SYNONYMS: amount to, total, constitute, add up to, count as, tot up to (informal)

10 to earn or be paid: they must be making a fortune

◇ SYNONYMS: earn, get, gain, net, win, clear, obtain, bring in 11 to have the qualities of or be suitable for: what makes this book such a good read?

12 to prepare for use: she forgot to make her bed

13 to be the essential element in: confidence makes a good salesperson

14 to use for a specified purpose: they will make this town their base

15 to deliver: he made a very good speech

16 to consider to be: what time do you make it?

17 to cause to seem or represent as being: her girlish pigtails made her look younger than she was; she made the experience sound most unpleasant

18 to acquire: she doesn't make friends easily

19 to engage in: they made war on the Turks

20 to travel a certain distance or to a certain place: we can make at least three miles before it gets dark

21 to arrive in time for: he didn't make the first act of the play

22 to win or score: he made a break of 125

23 (informal) to gain a place or position on or in: to make the headlines

24 make a day or night of it to cause an activity to last a day or night

25 make eyes at (old-fashioned) to flirt with or ogle

26 make it (informal)

A to be able to attend: I'm afraid I can't make it to your party

B to be successful

◇ SYNONYMS make it: succeed, prosper, arrive (informal), get on, crack it (informal)

27 make like (slang, chiefly US & Canad)

A to imitate

B to pretend

28 make to or as if to or as though to to act with the intention or with a show of doing something: she made as if to hit him

► n

29 manufacturer; brand: what make of car is that?

◇ SYNONYMS: brand, sort, style, model, kind, type, variety, marque

30 the way in which something is made

31 on the make (slang) out for profit or conquest

► See also make for etc > maker n

make for vb

1 to head towards

◇ SYNONYMS make for something: head for, aim for, head towards, be bound for

2 to prepare to attack

3 to help bring about: this will make for a spectacular race makeshift adj serving as a temporary substitute

◇ SYNONYMS: temporary, provisional, substitute, expedient, stopgap make-up n

1 cosmetics, such as powder or lipstick

◇ SYNONYMS: cosmetics, paint (informal), powder, face (informal), greasepaint (theatre)

2 the cosmetics used by an actor to adapt his or her appearance

◇ SYNONYMS: cosmetics, paint (informal), powder, face (informal), greasepaint (theatre)

3 the arrangement of the parts of something

◇ SYNONYMS: structure, organization, arrangement, construction, assembly, constitution, format, composition

4 mental or physical constitution

◇ SYNONYMS: nature, character, constitution, temperament, disposition

► vb make up

5 to form or constitute: these arguments make up the case for the defence

◇ SYNONYMS make up something: form, account for, constitute, compose, comprise

6 to devise or compose, sometimes with the intent to deceive: she was well known for making up stories about herself

◇ SYNONYMS make something up: invent, create, construct, compose, frame, coin, devise, originate

7 to supply what is lacking in; complete: I'll make up the difference

◇ SYNONYMS make up something: complete, supply, fill, round off

8 Also: make it up to settle differences amicably

◇ SYNONYMS make up: settle your differences, bury the hatchet, call it quits, declare a truce, be friends again

9 make up for to compensate for: one good year can make up for several bad ones

◇ SYNONYMS make up for something: compensate for, make amends for, atone for, balance out, offset, make recompense for 10 to apply cosmetics to the face

11 make up to (informal)

A to make friendly overtures to B to flirt with makeweight n an unimportant person or thing added to make up a lack making n

1 the act or process of producing something

◇ SYNONYMS: creation, production, manufacture, construction, assembly, composition, fabrication

2 be the making of to cause the success of 3 in the making in the process of becoming or being made mal- combining form bad or badly; wrong or wrongly: maladjusted; malfunction malachite (mal-a-kite) n a green mineral used as a source of copper, and for making ornaments maladjustment n (psychol) a failure to meet the demands of society, such as coping with problems and social relationships > maladjusted adj

maladroit (mal-a-droyt) adj clumsy, awkward, or tactless > maladroitly adv > maladroitness n

malady (mal-a-dee) n, pl -dies (old-fashioned) any disease or illness malaise (mal-laze) n

1 a vague feeling of unease, illness, or depression 2 a complex of problems affecting a country, economy, etc.: decades of economic malaise

malapropism n the comic misuse of a word by confusion with one which sounds similar, for example under the affluence of alcohol malaria n a disease with recurring attacks of fever, caused by the bite of some types of mosquito > malarial adj

Malay n
1 a member of a people living chiefly in Malaysia and Indonesia 2 the language of this people
▶ adj
3 of the Malays or their language

Malayan adj
1 of Malaya
▶ n
2 a person from Malaya malcontent n a person who is discontented with the existing situation male adj

1 of the sex that can fertilize female reproductive cells

2 of or characteristic of a man

◇ SYNONYMS: masculine, manly, macho, virile

3 for or composed of men or boys: a male choir

4 (of flowers) bearing stamens but lacking a pistil

5 (electronics, engineering) having a projecting part or parts that fit into a hollow counterpart: a male plug

► n

6 a male person, animal, or plant > maleness n malediction (mal-lid-dik-shun) n the utterance of a curse against someone or something > maledictory adj

malefactor (mal-if-act-or) n a criminal or wrongdoer > malefaction n

malevolent (mal-lev-a-lent) adj wishing evil to others; malicious > malevolence n

> malevolently adv

malfeasance (mal-fee-zanss) n (law) wrongful or illegal behaviour, esp. by a public official malformation n

1 the condition of being faulty or abnormal in form or shape

2 (pathol) a deformity, esp. when congenital > malformed adj

malfunction vb

1 to fail to function properly or fail to function at all

◇ SYNONYMS: break down, fail, go wrong, stop working, be defective, conk out (informal), crash

► n

2 failure to function properly or failure to function at all

◇ SYNONYMS: fault, failure, breakdown, defect, flaw, glitch malice (mal-iss) n the desire to do harm or cause mischief to others > malicious adj

> maliciously adv

malign (mal-line) vb

1 to say unpleasant and untrue things about someone; slander

► adj

2 evil in influence or effect malignant (mal-lig-nant) adj

1 seeking to harm others

2 tending to cause great harm; injurious

3 (pathol) (of a tumour) uncontrollable or resistant to therapy > malignancy n malignity (mal-lig-nit-ee) n the condition of being malign or deadly malingering (mal-ling-ger) vb to pretend to be ill, or exaggerate how ill one is, to avoid work > malingerer n

mall (mawl) n a shaded avenue, esp. one open to the public mallard n, pl -lard or -lards a common N hemisphere duck, the male of which has a dark green head malleable (mal-lee-a-bl) adj

1 (esp. of metal) capable of being hammered or pressed into shape without breaking

2 able to be influenced > malleability n

> malleably adv

mallee n a low-growing eucalypt found in dry regions of Australia mallet n

1 a hammer with a large wooden head

2 a long stick with a head like a hammer used to strike the ball in croquet or polo mallow n any of a group of plants, with purple, pink, or white flowers malnutrition n physical weakness resulting from insufficient food or an unbalanced diet malodorous (mal-lode-or-uss) adj having an unpleasant smell: the malodorous sludge of Boston harbour malpractice n illegal, unethical, or negligent professional conduct malt n

1 grain, such as barley, that is kiln-dried after it has been germinated by soaking in water

► vb

2 to make into or become malt

3 to make from malt or to add malt to > malted adj

> malty adj

maltreat vb to treat badly, cruelly, or violently > maltreatment n

malware n a computer program designed specifically to damage or disrupt a system, such as a virus mama or (esp US) mamma (mam-mah) n (old-fashioned, informal) same as mother

mamba n a very poisonous tree snake found in tropical and Southern Africa mammal n a warm-blooded animal, such as a human being, dog or whale, the female of which produces milk to feed her babies > mammalian adj, n

mammary adj of the breasts or milk-producing glands mammon n wealth regarded as a source of evil and corruption, personified in the New Testament as a false god (Mammon)

mammoth n

1 a large extinct elephant with a hairy coat and long curved tusks

► adj

2 gigantic

◇ SYNONYMS: colossal, huge, giant, massive, enormous, immense, gigantic, monumental (informal), supersize mampara n (S African derogatory, informal) a foolish or stupid person man n, pl men

1 an adult male human being

◇ SYNONYMS: male, guy (informal), fellow (old-fashioned), gentleman, bloke (Brit informal), chap (Brit informal), dude (US informal), geezer (informal)

2 a human being of either sex; person: all men are born equal

◇ SYNONYMS: human, human being, person, individual, soul

3 human beings collectively; mankind. RELATED ADJECTIVE: anthropoid

◇ SYNONYMS: humankind, humanity, mankind, people, human race, Homo sapiens

4 a human being regarded as representative of a particular period or category: Neanderthal man

5 an adult male human being with qualities associated with the male, such as courage or virility: take it like a man

6 an employee, servant, or representative

7 a member of the armed forces who is not an officer

8 a member of a group or team

9 a husband, boyfriend, or male lover

10 a movable piece in various games, such as draughts

11 (S African slang) any person: used as a term of address

12 as one man with unanimous action or response

13 he's your man he's the person needed

14 man and boy from childhood

15 sort out the men from the boys to discover who can cope with difficult or dangerous situations and who cannot

16 to a man without exception

► vb manning, manned

17 to provide with sufficient people for operation or defence

◇ SYNONYMS: staff, people, crew, occupy, garrison

18 to take one's place at or near in readiness for action > manhood n

mana n (NZ) authority, influence and prestige

◇ SYNONYMS: authority, influence, power, might, standing, status, importance, eminence manacle (man-a-kl) n

1 a metal ring or chain put round the wrists or ankles, used to restrict the movements of a prisoner or convict

► vb -cling, -cled

2 to put manacles on manage vb -naging, -naged

1 to succeed in doing something: we finally managed to sell our old house

2 to be in charge of; administer: the company is badly managed

◇ SYNONYMS: be in charge of, run, handle, direct, conduct, command, administer, supervise

3 to have room or time for: can you manage lunch tomorrow?

4 to keep under control: she disapproved of taking drugs to manage stress

◇ SYNONYMS: control, handle, manipulate

5 to struggle on despite difficulties, esp. financial ones: most people cannot manage on a cleaner's salary

◇ SYNONYMS: cope, survive, succeed, carry on, make do, get by (informal), muddle through > manageable adj

management n

1 the people responsible for running an organization or business

◇ SYNONYMS: directors, board, executive(s), administration, employers

2 managers or employers collectively

◇ SYNONYMS: directors, board, executive(s), administration, employers

3 the technique or practice of managing or controlling ◇ SYNONYMS: administration, control, running, operation, handling, direction, command, supervision manager n

1 a person who manages an organization or business

◇ SYNONYMS: supervisor, head, director, executive, boss (informal), governor, administrator, organizer, sherang (Austral & NZ)

2 a person in charge of a sports team

3 a person who controls the business affairs of an actor or entertainer > manageress fem n managerial adj of a manager or management manatee n a large plant-eating mammal occurring in tropical coastal waters of the Atlantic mandarin n

- 1 (in the Chinese Empire) a member of a senior grade of the bureaucracy
- 2 a high-ranking official with extensive powers
- 3 a person of standing and influence, esp. in literary or intellectual circles
- 4 a small citrus fruit resembling the tangerine

Mandarin Chinese or Mandarin n the official language of China since 1917 mandate n

- 1 an official or authoritative command to carry out a particular task: the UN force's mandate does not allow it to intervene ◇ SYNONYMS: command, order, commission, instruction, decree, directive, edict
 - 2 (politics) the political authority given to a government or an elected representative through an electoral victory
 - 3 Also: mandated territory (formerly) a territory administered by one country on behalf of an international body
- vb -dating, -dated
- 4 to delegate authority to
 - 5 to assign territory to a nation under a mandate mandatory adj

- 1 obligatory; compulsory ◇ SYNONYMS: compulsory, required, binding, obligatory, requisite
 - 2 having the nature or powers of a mandate
- > mandatorily adv

mandible n

- 1 the lower jawbone of a vertebrate
- 2 either of the jawlike mouthparts of an insect
- 3 either part of the bill of a bird, esp. the lower part mandolin n a musical instrument with four pairs of strings stretched over a small light body, usually played with a plectrum mandrel or mandril n

- 1 a spindle on which the object being worked on is supported in a lathe
- 2 a shaft on which a machining tool is mounted mane n

- 1 the long hair that grows from the neck in such mammals as the lion and horse
- 2 long thick human hair
- > maned adj

maneuver n, vb (US) same as manoeuvre manful adj determined and brave > manfully adv

manganese n (chem) a brittle greyish-white metallic element used in making steel. SYMBOL: Mn

mange n a skin disease of domestic animals, characterized by itching and loss of hair mangelwurzel n a variety of beet with a large yellowish root manger n a trough in a stable or barn from which horses or cattle feed mangetout (mawnzh-too) n a variety of garden pea with an edible pod mangle¹ vb -gling, -gled

1 to destroy or damage by crushing and twisting

2 to spoil

> mangled adj

mangle² n

1 a machine for pressing or squeezing water out of washed clothes, consisting of two heavy rollers between which the clothes are passed

► vb -gling, -gled

2 to put through a mangle mango n, pl -goes or -gos the egg-shaped edible fruit of a tropical Asian tree, with a smooth rind and sweet juicy flesh mangrove n a tropical evergreen tree or shrub with intertwining aerial roots that forms dense thickets along coasts

mangy adj -gier, -giest

1 having mange

2 scruffy or shabby > mangily adv

> manginess n

manhandle vb -handling, -handled

1 to handle or push someone about roughly

2 to move something by manpower rather than by machinery manhole n a hole with a detachable cover, through which a person can enter a sewer or pipe to inspect or repair it man-hour n a unit of work in industry, equal to the work done by one person in one hour mania n

1 an obsessional enthusiasm or liking

2 a mental illness characterized by great or violent excitement maniac n

1 a wild disorderly person

2 a person who has a great craving or enthusiasm for something > maniacal (man-eye-ak-kl) adj

manic adj

1 extremely excited or energetic; frenzied: manic, cavorting dancers

2 of, involving, or affected by mania: deep depression broken by periods of manic excitement

manic-depressive (old-fashioned) adj

1 relating to or having bipolar disorder

► n

2 a person with bipolar disorder manicure n

1 cosmetic care of the hands and fingernails

► vb -curing, -cured

2 to care for the fingernails and hands > manicurist n

manifest adj

1 easily noticed, obvious

◇ SYNONYMS: obvious, apparent, patent, evident, clear, glaring, noticeable, blatant

► vb

2 to reveal or display: an additional symptom now manifested itself

◇ SYNONYMS: display, show, reveal, express, demonstrate, expose, exhibit

3 to show by the way one behaves: he manifested great personal bravery

◇ SYNONYMS: display, show, reveal, express, demonstrate, expose, exhibit

4 (of a disembodied spirit) to appear in visible form

► n

5 a customs document containing particulars of a ship and its cargo

6 a list of the cargo and passengers on an aeroplane > manifestation n manifesto n, pl -tos or -toes a public declaration of intent or policy issued by a group of people, for instance by a political party manifold adj (formal)

1 numerous and varied: her talents are manifold

► n

2 a pipe with a number of inlets or outlets, esp. one in a car engine manikin n

1 a little man; dwarf or child

2 a model of the human body manila or manilla n a strong usually brown paper used to make envelopes manipulate vb -lating, -lated

1 to handle or use skilfully

◇ SYNONYMS: work, use, operate, handle

2 to control something or someone cleverly or deviously

◇ SYNONYMS: influence, control, direct, negotiate, exploit, manoeuvre > manipulation n

- > manipulator n
- > manipulative adj

mankind n

- 1 human beings collectively
- ◇ SYNONYMS: people, man, humanity, human race, humankind, Homo sapiens
- 2 men collectively manly adj -lier, -liest

- 1 possessing qualities, such as vigour or courage, traditionally regarded as appropriate to a man; masculine
- ◇ SYNONYMS: virile, masculine
- 2 characteristic of a man
- > manliness n

man-made adj made by humans; artificial

- ◇ SYNONYMS: artificial, manufactured, mock, synthetic, ersatz manna n

- 1 (Bible) the miraculous food which sustained the Israelites in the wilderness (Exodus 16:14–36)
- 2 a windfall: manna from heaven

mannequin n

- 1 a woman who wears the clothes displayed at a fashion show; model
- 2 a life-size dummy of the human body used to fit or display clothes manner n

- 1 the way a thing happens or is done
- ◇ SYNONYMS: style, way, fashion, method, custom, mode
- 2 a person's bearing and behaviour
- ◇ SYNONYMS: behaviour, air, bearing, conduct, aspect, demeanour
- 3 the style or customary way of doing something: sculpture in the Greek

manner

◇ SYNONYMS: style, way, fashion, method, custom, mode

4 type or kind

◇ SYNONYMS: type, form, sort, kind, variety, brand, category

5 in a manner of speaking in a way; so to speak

6 to the manner born naturally fitted to a specified role or activity mannered adj

1 (of speech or behaviour) unnaturally formal and put on to impress others

◇ SYNONYMS: affected, artificial, pretentious, stilted, arty-farty (informal)

2 having manners as specified: ill-mannered mannerism n

1 a distinctive and individual gesture or way of speaking

2 excessive use of a distinctive or affected manner, esp. in art or literature mannish adj (of a woman) displaying an appearance or qualities regarded as typical of a man manoeuvre or (US) maneuver (man-noo-ver) vb -vring, -vred or -vering, -vered

1 to move or do something with dexterity and skill: she manoeuvred the car easily into the parking space

2 to manipulate a situation in order to gain some advantage

◇ SYNONYMS: scheme, wangle (informal), machinate

3 to perform a manoeuvre or manoeuvres

► n

4 a movement or action requiring dexterity and skill

5 a contrived, complicated, and possibly deceptive plan or action

◇ SYNONYMS: stratagem, scheme, trick, tactic, intrigue, dodge, ploy, ruse

6 manoeuvres military or naval exercises, usually on a large scale

◇ SYNONYMS: movement, operation, exercise, war game

7 a change in course of a ship or aircraft, esp. a complicated one

8 room for manoeuvre the possibility of changing one's plans or behaviour if it becomes necessary or desirable

- > manoeuvrable or (US) maneuverable adj
- > manoeuvrability or (US) maneuverability n

manor n

- 1 (in medieval Europe) the lands and property controlled by a lord
 - 2 (Brit) a large country house and its lands
 - 3 (Brit slang) an area of operation, esp. of a local police force
- > manorial adj

manpower n the number of people needed or available for a job manqué (mong-kay) adj unfulfilled; would-be: an actor manqué manse n the house provided for a minister of some Christian denominations manservant n, pl menservants a male servant, esp. a valet mansion n

- 1 a large and imposing house
- ◇ SYNONYMS: residence, manor, hall, villa, seat
- 2 Mansions (Brit) a name given to some blocks of flats as part of their address: 18 Wilton Mansions manslaughter n (law) the unlawful but not deliberately planned killing of one human being by another mantel n a wooden, stone, or iron frame around a fireplace mantelpiece n a shelf above a fireplace often forming part of the mantel. Also: mantel shelf, chimneypiece mantilla n a woman's lace or silk scarf covering the shoulders and head, worn esp. in Spain mantis n, pl -tises or -tes a carnivorous insect resembling a grasshopper, that rests with the first pair of legs raised as if in prayer. Also: praying mantis

mantle n

1 (old-fashioned) a loose wrap or cloak

◇ SYNONYMS: cloak, wrap, cape, hood, shawl

2 anything that covers completely or envelops: a mantle of snow covered the ground

◇ SYNONYMS: covering, screen, curtain, blanket, veil, shroud, canopy, pall

3 the responsibilities and duties which go with a particular job or position: he refuses to accept the mantle of leader

4 a small mesh dome used to increase illumination in a gas or oil lamp by becoming incandescent

5 (geol) the part of the earth between the crust and the core

► vb -tling, -tled

6 to spread over or become spread over: mountains mantled in lush vegetation mantra n

1 (Hinduism, Buddhism) any sacred word or syllable used as an object of concentration

2 (Hinduism) a Vedic psalm of praise

3 any phrase that is consciously repeated because it is believed to contain an important truth manual adj

1 of a hand or hands: manual dexterity

2 physical as opposed to mental: manual labour

◇ SYNONYMS: physical, human

3 operated or done by human labour rather than automatic or computer-aided means: a manual gearbox

◇ SYNONYMS: hand-operated, hand, non-automatic

► n

4 a book of instructions or information

◇ SYNONYMS: handbook, guide, instructions, bible

5 (music) one of the keyboards on an organ > manually adv

manufacture vb -turing, -tured

1 to process or make goods on a large scale, esp. using machinery

◇ SYNONYMS: make, build, produce, construct, create, turn out, assemble, put together

2 to invent or concoct evidence, an excuse, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: concoct, make up, invent, devise, fabricate, think up, cook up (informal), trump up

► n

3 the production of goods, esp. by industrial processes

◇ SYNONYMS: making, production, construction, assembly, creation > manufacturer n

> manufacturing n, adj manure n

1 animal excrement used as a fertilizer

► vb -nuring, -nured

2 to spread manure upon fields or soil manuscript n

1 a book or other document written by hand

2 the original handwritten or typed version of a book or article submitted by an author for publication

Manx adj

1 of the Isle of Man

► n

2 an almost extinct Celtic language of the Isle of Man

► pl n

3 the Manx the people of the Isle of Man

> Manxman or (fem) Manxwoman n

Manx cat n a short-haired breed of cat without a tail many adj

1 a large number of; numerous: many times; many people think the government is incompetent

◇ SYNONYMS: numerous, various, countless, abundant, myriad, innumerable, manifold (formal), umpteen (informal)

► pron

2 a number of people or things, esp. a large one: many are seated already; have as many as you want

◇ SYNONYMS: a lot, lots (informal), plenty, scores, heaps (informal)

3 many a each of a considerable number of: many a man

► n

4 the many the majority of mankind, esp. ordinary people

Maoism n Communism as interpreted in the theories and policies of Mao Zedong (1893–1976), Chinese statesman

> Maoist n, adj

Māori n

1 pl -ri or -ris a member of the Polynesian people living in New Zealand since before the arrival of European settlers

2 the language of this people

► adj

3 of this people or their language

map n

1 a diagrammatic representation of the earth's surface or part of it, showing the geographical distributions or positions of features such as roads, towns, relief, and rainfall

2 a diagrammatic representation of the stars or of the surface of a celestial body

3 (maths) same as function

4 put on the map to make (a town or company) well-known: William Morris put Kelmscott on the map

► vb mapping, mapped

5 to make a map of 6 (maths) to represent or transform (a function, figure, or set)

► See also map out maple n

1 any of various trees or shrubs with five-pointed leaves and winged seeds borne in pairs

2 the hard wood of any of these trees map out vb to plan or design mapping n (maths) same as function mar vb marring, marred to spoil or be the one bad feature of: the coastline is marred by high-rise hotels

◇ SYNONYMS: harm, damage, hurt, spoil, stain, taint, tarnish

Mar. March

marabou n

1 a large black-and-white African stork

2 the soft white down of this bird, used to trim hats, etc.

maraca (mar-rak-a) n a shaken percussion instrument, usually one of a pair, consisting of a gourd or plastic shell filled with dried seeds or pebbles marae (mar-rye) n (NZ)

1 an enclosed space in front of a Māori meeting house

2 a Māori meeting house and its buildings maraschino cherry n a cherry preserved in maraschino marathon n

1 a race on foot of 26 miles 385 yards (42.195 kilometres)

2 any long or arduous task or event

► adj

3 of or relating to a race on foot of 26 miles 385 yards (42.195 kilometres): marathon runners

4 long and arduous: a marathon nine hour meeting marble n

1 a hard limestone rock, which usually has a mottled appearance and can be given a high polish

2 a block of marble or work of art made of marble

3 a small round glass ball used in playing marbles

► vb -bling, -bled

4 to mottle with variegated streaks in imitation of marble > marbled adj

march¹ vb

1 to walk with very regular steps, like a soldier

◇ SYNONYMS: parade, walk, file, pace, stride, swagger

2 to walk in a quick and determined manner, esp. when angry: he marched into the kitchen without knocking

◇ SYNONYMS: walk, strut, storm, sweep, stride, flounce

3 to make a person or group proceed: he was marched back to his cell

4 (of an army, procession, etc.) to walk as an organized group: the demonstrators marched down the main street

◇ SYNONYMS: parade, walk, file, pace, stride, swagger

5 to advance or progress steadily: time marches on

► n

6 a regular stride

7 a long or exhausting walk

◇ SYNONYMS: walk, trek, slog, yomp (Brit informal), routemarch

8 the steady development or progress of something: the continuous march of industrial development

◇ SYNONYMS: progress, development, advance, evolution, progression

9 a distance covered by marching

10 an organized protest in which a large group of people walk somewhere together: a march against racial violence

11 a piece of music suitable for marching to 12 steal a march on to gain an advantage over, esp. by a trick > marcher n > marching adj

march² n

1 a border or boundary

2 the land lying along a border or boundary, often of disputed ownership

March n the third month of the year marching girl n (Austral & NZ) a girl who does team formation marching as a sport marchioness (marsh-on-ness) n

1 a woman who holds the rank of marquis or marquess

2 the wife or widow of a marquis or marquess

Mardi Gras (mar-dee grah) n the festival of Shrove Tuesday, celebrated in some cities with great revelry mare n the adult female of a horse or zebra margarine n a butter substitute made from vegetable and animal fats marge n (Brit & Austral informal) margarine margin n

1 an edge, rim, or border: we came to the margin of the wood; people on the margin of society

◇ SYNONYMS: edge, side, border, boundary, verge (Brit), brink, rim, perimeter

2 the blank space surrounding the text on a page

3 an additional amount or one beyond the minimum necessary: the margin of victory was seven lengths; a small margin of error

4 (chiefly Austral) a payment made in addition to a basic wage, esp. for special skill or responsibility

5 a limit beyond which something can no longer exist or function: the margin of physical survival

6 (econ) the minimum return below which an enterprise becomes unprofitable marginal adj

1 of, in, on, or forming a margin

2 not important; insignificant: he remained a rather marginal political figure

◇ SYNONYMS: insignificant, small, minor, slight, minimal, negligible

3 close to a limit, esp. a lower limit: marginal legal ability

◇ SYNONYMS: borderline, bordering, on the edge, peripheral

4 (econ) relating to goods or services produced and sold at the margin of profitability: marginal cost

5 (politics) of or designating a constituency in which elections tend to be won by small margins: a marginal seat

6 designating agricultural land on the edge of fertile areas

► n

7 (politics, chiefly Brit & NZ) a marginal constituency > marginally adv

marguerite n a garden plant with flowers resembling large daisies marigold n any of various plants cultivated for their yellow or orange flowers marijuana or marihuana (mar-ree-wah-na) n the dried leaves and flowers of the hemp plant, used as a drug, esp. in cigarettes ◇ SYNONYMS: cannabis, pot (slang), dope (slang), grass (slang), hemp, dagga (S African) marina n a harbour for yachts and other pleasure boats marinade n

1 a mixture of oil, wine, vinegar, etc., in which meat or fish is soaked before cooking

► vb -nading, -naded

2 same as marinate marinate vb -nating, -nated to soak in marinade > marinated adj

marine adj

1 of, found in, or relating to the sea

◇ SYNONYMS: nautical, maritime, naval, seafaring, seagoing

2 of shipping or navigation

◇ SYNONYMS: nautical, maritime, naval, seafaring, seagoing

3 used or adapted for use at sea

► n

4 (esp. in Britain and the US) a soldier trained for land and sea combat

5 a country's shipping or navy collectively: the merchant marine mariner (mar-in-er) n a sailor

◇ SYNONYMS: sailor, seaman or woman, sea dog, seafarer, salt marionette n a puppet whose limbs are moved by strings marital adj of or relating to marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: matrimonial, nuptial, conjugal, connubial (formal) > maritally adv

maritime adj

1 of or relating to shipping

◇ SYNONYMS: nautical, marine, naval, oceanic, seafaring

2 of, near, or living near the sea

◇ SYNONYMS: coastal, seaside, littoral marjoram n a plant with sweet-scented leaves, used for seasoning food and in salads mark¹ n

1 a visible impression on a surface, such as a spot or scratch

◇ SYNONYMS: spot, stain, streak, smudge, line, scratch, scar, blot

2 a sign, symbol, or other indication that distinguishes something

◇ SYNONYMS: characteristic, feature, standard, quality, measure, stamp, attribute, criterion

3 a written or printed symbol, as used for punctuation

4 a letter, number, or percentage used to grade academic work

5 a thing that indicates position; marker

6 an indication of some quality: a mark of respect

◇ SYNONYMS: indication, sign, symbol, token

7 a target or goal

◇ SYNONYMS: target, goal, aim, purpose, object, objective

8 impression or influence: this book displays the mark of its author's admiration of Kafka

9 (in trade names) a particular model or type of a vehicle, machine, etc.: a

Spitfire Mark XI

10 one of the temperature settings at which a gas oven can work: bake at gas mark 5 for thirty minutes

11 make one's mark to achieve recognition

12 on your mark or marks a command given to runners in a race to prepare themselves at the starting line

13 up to the mark meeting the desired standard

► vb

14 to make a visible impression, trace, or stain on ◇ SYNONYMS: scar, scratch, stain, streak, blot, smudge, blemish

15 to have a tendency to become dirty, scratched, or damaged: this material marks easily

16 to characterize or distinguish: the gritty determination that has marked his career

◇ SYNONYMS: distinguish, show, illustrate, exemplify, denote

17 to designate someone as a particular type of person: she would now be marked as a troublemaker

◇ SYNONYMS: label, identify, brand, flag, stamp, characterize

18 to label, esp. to indicate price

19 to celebrate or commemorate an occasion or its anniversary: events marking the anniversary of Shakespeare's birth

20 to pay attention to: mark my words

◇ SYNONYMS: observe, mind, note, notice, attend to, pay attention to, pay heed to

21 to observe or notice

◇ SYNONYMS: observe, mind, note, notice, attend to, pay attention to, pay heed to 22 to grade or evaluate academic work

◇ SYNONYMS: grade, correct, assess, evaluate, appraise

23 (sport) to stay close to an opponent to hamper his or her play

24 mark off or out to set boundaries or limits on 25 mark time

A to move the feet alternately as in marching but without advancing

B to wait for something more interesting to happen mark² n See Deutschmark marked adj

1 obvious or noticeable: a marked improvement

◇ SYNONYMS: noticeable, clear, decided, striking, obvious, prominent, patent, distinct

2 singled out, esp. as the target of attack: a marked man > markedly (mark-id-lee) adv

marker n

1 an object used to show the position of something

2 Also called: marker pen a thick felt-tipped pen used for drawing and colouring market n

1 an occasion at which people meet to buy and sell merchandise

◇ SYNONYMS: fair, mart, bazaar, souk (Arabic)

2 a place at which a market is held

◇ SYNONYMS: fair, mart, bazaar, souk (Arabic)

3 the buying and selling of goods and services, esp. when unrestrained by political or social considerations: the market has been brought into health care

4 the trading opportunities provided by a particular group of people: the youth market

5 demand for a particular product

6 be in the market for to wish to buy

7 on the market available for purchase

8 seller's or buyer's market a market characterized by excess demand (or supply) and thus favourable to sellers (or buyers)

► adj

9 of, relating to, or controlled by the buying and selling of goods and services, esp. when unrestrained by political or social considerations: a market economy

► vb -keting, -keted

10 to offer or produce for sale

◇ SYNONYMS: sell, promote, retail, peddle, vend > marketable adj market garden n (chiefly Brit & NZ) a place where fruit and vegetables are grown for sale > market gardener n

marketing n the part of a business which controls the way that goods or services are sold market maker n a dealer in securities on the London Stock Exchange who can also deal with the public as a broker marketplace n

1 a place where a public market is held 2 the commercial world of buying and selling market research n the study of customers' wants and purchases, and of the forces influencing them marksman n, pl -men a person skilled in shooting > marksmanship n

marl n a fine-grained rock consisting of clay, limestone, and silt used as a fertilizer > marly adj

marlin n, pl -lin or -lins a large fish with a long spear-like upper jaw, found in warm and tropical seas marlinspike or marlinespike (mar-lin-spike) n (naut) a pointed metal tool used in separating strands of rope marmalade n a jam made from citrus fruits, esp. oranges marmoreal (mar-more-ee-al) adj of or like marble marmoset n a small South American monkey with a long bushy tail marmot n any of various burrowing rodents of Europe, Asia, and North America. They are heavily built and have coarse fur maroon¹ vb

1 to abandon someone in a deserted area, esp. on an island

◇ SYNONYMS: abandon, leave, desert, strand, leave high and dry (informal)

2 to isolate in a helpless situation: we're marooned here until the snow stops

◇ SYNONYMS: abandon, leave, desert, strand, leave high and dry (informal)

> marooned adj

maroon² adj dark purplish-red marquee n a large tent used for a party, exhibition, etc.

marquess (mar-kwiss) n

1 (in the British Isles) a nobleman ranking between a duke and an earl

2 See marquis

marquetry n, pl -quetries a pattern of inlaid veneers of wood or metal used chiefly as ornamentation in furniture marquis n, pl -quises or -quis (in various countries) a nobleman ranking above a count, corresponding to a British marquess marram grass n a grass that grows on sandy shores: often planted to stabilize sand dunes marriage n

1 the state or relationship of being married: the institution of marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: wedding, match, nuptials, wedlock, matrimony

2 the contract made by two people to live together in a partnership. RELATED

ADJECTIVES: connubial, nuptial

3 the ceremony formalizing this union; wedding

◇ SYNONYMS: wedding, match, nuptials, wedlock, matrimony

4 a close union or relationship: the marriage of scientific knowledge and industry marriageable adj suitable for marriage, usually with reference to age marrow n the fatty tissue that fills the cavities of bones marry vb -ries, -rying, -ried

1 to take (someone) as one's partner in marriage

2 to join or give in marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: tie the knot (informal), wed, get hitched (slang)

3 Also: marry up to fit together or unite; join: their playing marries Irish traditional music and rock

◇ SYNONYMS: unite, join, link, bond, ally, merge, knit, unify

Mars n

1 the Roman god of war

2 the fourth planet from the sun marsh n low poorly drained land that is wet, muddy, and sometimes flooded

◇ SYNONYMS: swamp, bog, slough, fen, quagmire, morass, muskeg (Canad) > marshy adj

marshal n

1 (in some armies and air forces) an officer of the highest rank: Field Marshall

2 an officer who organizes or controls ceremonies or public events

3 (US) the chief police or fire officer in some states

4 (formerly in England) an officer of the royal family or court

► vb -shalling, -shalled (US) -shaling, -shaled

5 to arrange in order: she marshalled her facts and came to a conclusion

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, group, order, line up, organize, deploy, array, draw up

6 to assemble and organize people or vehicles in readiness for onward movement

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, group, order, line up, organize, deploy, array, draw up

7 to guide or lead, esp. in a ceremonious way: she marshalled them towards the lecture theatre

◇ SYNONYMS: conduct, take, lead, guide, steer, escort, shepherd, usher > marshalcy n

marshalling yard n (railways) a place where railway wagons are shunted and made up into trains marshmallow n a spongy pink or white sweet marsh mallow n a plant that grows in salt marshes and has pale pink flowers. It was formerly used to make marshmallows marsupial (mar-soop-ee-al) n

1 a mammal, such as a kangaroo or an opossum, the female of which carries her babies in a pouch at the front of her body until they reach a mature state

► adj

2 of or like a marsupial mart n a market or trading centre

Martello tower n a round tower used for coastal defence, formerly much used in Europe marten n, pl -tens or -ten

1 any of several agile weasel-like mammals with bushy tails and golden-brown to blackish fur

2 the fur of these animals martial adj of or characteristic of war, soldiers, or the military life: martial music

◇ SYNONYMS: military, belligerent, warlike, bellicose martial art n any of various philosophies and techniques of self-defence originating in China, Japan, and Korea, such as judo or karate martial law n rule of law maintained by military forces in the absence of civil law

Martian (marsh-an) adj

1 of the planet Mars

► n

2 an inhabitant of Mars, in science fiction martin n a bird of the swallow family with a square or slightly forked tail martinet n a person who maintains strict discipline martini n

1 (often cap, trademark) an Italian vermouth

2 a cocktail of gin and vermouth martyr n

1 a person who chooses to die rather than renounce his or her religious beliefs

2 a person who suffers greatly or dies for a cause or belief

3 a martyr to suffering constantly from: a martyr to arthritis

► vb

4 to make a martyr of > martyrdom n

marvel vb -velling, -velled (US) -veling, -veled

1 to be filled with surprise or wonder

◇ SYNONYMS: be amazed, wonder, gape, be awed

► n

2 something that causes wonder

◇ SYNONYMS: wonder, phenomenon, miracle, portent marvellous or (US) marvelous adj

1 excellent or splendid: a marvellous idea

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, great, wonderful, brilliant, amazing, extraordinary, superb, spectacular, booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal)

2 causing great wonder or surprise; extraordinary: electricity is a marvellous thing > marvellously or (US) marvelously adv

Marxism n the economic and political theories of Karl Marx (1818–83), German political philosopher, which argue that class struggle is the basic agency of historical change, and that capitalism will be superseded by communism

> Marxist n, adj

marzipan n a mixture made from ground almonds, sugar, and egg whites that is put on top of cakes or used to make sweets masala n (Indian cookery) a mixture of spices ground into a paste masc. masculine mascara n a cosmetic for darkening the eyelashes mascot n a person, animal, or thing considered to bring good luck masculine adj

1 possessing qualities or characteristics considered typical of or appropriate to a man

◇ SYNONYMS: male, manly, mannish, boyish, manlike, virile

2 of men

◇ SYNONYMS: male, manly, mannish, boyish, manlike, virile

3 (grammar) denoting a gender of nouns that includes some male animate things

4 (prosody) denoting a rhyme between pairs of single final stressed syllables > masculinity n

mash n

1 a soft pulpy mass

2 (agriculture) bran, meal, or malt mixed with warm water and used as food for horses, cattle, or poultry

3 (Brit informal) mashed potatoes

► vb

4 to beat or crush into a mash > mashed adj

mask n

1 any covering for the whole or a part of the face worn for amusement, protection, or disguise

2 behaviour that hides one's true feelings: his mask of detachment

◇ SYNONYMS: façade, disguise, front (informal), cover, screen, veil, guise, camouflage

3 (surgery) a sterile gauze covering for the nose and mouth worn to minimize the spread of germs

4 a device placed over the nose and mouth to facilitate or prevent inhalation of a gas

5 a moulded likeness of a face or head, such as a death mask

6 the face or head of an animal such as a fox

► vb

7 to cover with or put on a mask

8 to hide or disguise: a high brick wall that masked the front of the building

◇ SYNONYMS: disguise, hide, conceal, obscure, cover (up), screen, blanket, veil

9 to cover so as to protect > masked adj

masochism (mass-oh-kiz-zum) n

1 (psychiatry) a condition in which pleasure, esp. sexual pleasure, is obtained from feeling pain or from being humiliated

2 a tendency to take pleasure from one's own suffering > masochist n, adj

> masochistic adj

mason n a person skilled in building with stone

Mason n a Freemason

Masonic adj of Freemasons or Freemasonry masonry n

1 stonework or brickwork

2 the craft of a mason

Masonry n Freemasonry masque (mask) n a dramatic entertainment of the 16th to 17th centuries, consisting of dancing, dialogue, and song > masquer n

masquerade (mask-er-aid) vb -ading, -aded

1 to pretend to be someone or something else

► n

2 an attempt to keep secret the real identity or nature of something: he was unable to keep up his masquerade as the war's victor

3 a party at which the guests wear masks and costumes

mass n

1 a large body of something without a definite shape ◇ SYNONYMS: piece, block, lump, chunk, hunk

2 a collection of the component parts of something: a mass of fibres

◇ SYNONYMS: lot, collection, load (informal), pile, quantity, bunch, stack, heap

3 a large amount or number, as of people

4 the main part or majority

5 the size of a body; bulk

◇ SYNONYMS: size, matter, weight, extent, bulk, magnitude, greatness

6 (physics) a physical quantity expressing the amount of matter in a body

7 (in painting or drawing) an area of unified colour, shade, or intensity

► adj

8 done or occurring on a large scale: mass hysteria

◇ SYNONYMS: large-scale, general, widespread, extensive, universal, wholesale, indiscriminate

9 consisting of a mass or large number, esp. of people: a mass meeting

► vb

10 to join together into a mass

◇ SYNONYMS: gather, assemble, accumulate, collect, rally, swarm, throng, congregate > massed adj

Mass n

1 (in the Roman Catholic Church and certain other Christian churches) a service in which bread and wine are consecrated to represent the body and blood of Christ

2 a musical setting of parts of this service massacre (mass-a-ker) n

1 the wanton or savage killing of large numbers of people

◇ SYNONYMS: slaughter, murder, holocaust, carnage, extermination, annihilation, butchery, blood bath

2 (informal) an overwhelming defeat

► vb -cring, -cred

3 to kill people indiscriminately in large numbers

◇ SYNONYMS: slaughter, kill, murder, butcher, wipe out, exterminate, mow down, cut to pieces

4 (informal) to defeat overwhelmingly massage (mass-ahzh) n

1 the kneading or rubbing of parts of the body to reduce pain or stiffness or help relaxation

◇ SYNONYMS: rub-down, manipulation

► vb -saging, -saged

2 to give a massage to

◇ SYNONYMS: rub down, manipulate, knead

3 to manipulate statistics or evidence to produce a desired result ◇ SYNONYMS: manipulate, alter, distort, doctor, cook (informal), fix (informal), rig, fiddle (informal) masseur (mass-ur) or (fem) masseuse (mass-uhz) n a person who gives massages massif (mass-seef) n a series of connected masses of rock forming a mountain range massive adj

1 (of objects) large, bulky, heavy, and usually solid

◇ SYNONYMS: huge, big, enormous, immense, hefty, gigantic, monumental (informal), mammoth, supersize

2 impressive or imposing

3 intensive or considerable: a massive overdose > massively adv

mass-market adj of, for, or appealing to a large number of people; popular: mass-market newspapers

mass media pl n the means of communication that reach large numbers of people, such as television, newspapers, and radio mass-produce vb -producing, -produced to manufacture standardized goods on a large scale by extensive use of machinery > mass-produced adj > mass-production n

mast¹ n

1 (naut) a vertical pole for supporting sails, radar equipment, etc., above the deck of a ship

2 a tall upright pole used as an aerial for radio or television broadcasting: a television mast

3 before the mast (naut) as an apprentice seaman mast² n the fruit of forest trees, such as beech or oak, used as food for pigs mastectomy (mass-tek-tom-ee) n, pl -mies surgical removal of a breast master n

1 the man who has authority over others, such as the head of a household, the employer of servants, or the owner of animals or, formerly, slaves

◇ SYNONYMS: lord, ruler, commander, chief, director, manager, boss (informal), head

2 a person with exceptional skill at a certain thing: a master of her craft

◇ SYNONYMS: expert, maestro, ace (informal), genius, wizard, virtuoso, doyen, past master, fundi (S African)

3 a person who has complete control of a situation: the master of his portfolio

4 an original copy or tape from which duplicates are made

5 a craftsman fully qualified to practise his trade and to train others

6 a player of a game, esp. chess or bridge, who has won a specified number of tournament games

7 a highly regarded teacher or leader

8 a graduate holding a master's degree

9 the chief officer aboard a merchant ship

10 (chiefly Brit) a male teacher

◇ SYNONYMS: teacher, tutor, instructor

11 the superior person or side in a contest

12 the heir apparent of a Scottish viscount or baron: the Master of Ballantrae

► adj

13 (of a craftsman) fully qualified to practise and to train others

14 overall or controlling: master plan

15 designating a mechanism that controls others: master switch

16 main or principal: master bedroom

◇ SYNONYMS: main, principal, chief, prime, foremost, predominant

► vb

17 to become thoroughly proficient in ◇ SYNONYMS: learn, understand, pick up, grasp, get the hang of (informal), know inside out, know backwards

18 to overcome or defeat

◇ SYNONYMS: overcome, defeat, conquer, tame, triumph over, vanquish (literary) masterful adj

1 showing great skill

2 domineering or authoritarian > masterfully adv

master key n a key that opens all the locks of a set; passkey masterly adj showing great skill; expert

◇ SYNONYMS: skilful, expert, crack (informal), supreme, world-class, consummate, first-rate, masterful mastermind vb

1 to plan and direct a complex task or project

◇ SYNONYMS: plan, manage, direct, organize, devise, conceive

► n

2 a person who plans and directs a complex task or project

◇ SYNONYMS: organizer, director, manager, engineer, brain(s) (informal), architect, planner masterpiece or masterwork n

1 an outstanding work or performance

◇ SYNONYMS: classic, tour de force (French), pièce de résistance (French), magnum opus, jewel

2 the most outstanding piece of work of an artist or craftsman

◇ SYNONYMS: classic, tour de force (French), pièce de résistance (French), magnum opus, jewel

mastery n, pl -teries

1 outstanding skill or expertise

◇ SYNONYMS: understanding, skill, know-how (informal), expertise, prowess, finesse, proficiency, virtuosity

2 complete power or control: he had complete mastery over the country

◇ SYNONYMS: control, command, domination, superiority, supremacy, upper hand, ascendancy, mana (NZ), whip hand mastic n

1 an aromatic resin obtained from a Mediterranean tree and used to make varnishes and lacquers

2 any of several putty-like substances used as a filler, adhesive, or seal masticate vb -cating, -cated to chew food > mastication n

mastiff n a large powerful short-haired dog, usually fawn or brown with dark streaks mastitis n inflammation of the breast mastodon n an extinct elephant-like mammal mastoid adj

1 shaped like a nipple or breast

► n

2 a nipple-like projection of bone behind the ear

3 (informal) mastoiditis masturbate vb -bating, -bated to fondle one's own genitals, or those of someone else, to cause sexual pleasure > masturbation n

mat n

1 a thick flat piece of fabric used as a floor covering, a place to wipe one's shoes, etc.

2 a small pad of material used to protect a surface from heat or scratches from an object placed upon it

3 a large piece of thick padded material put on the floor as a surface for wrestling, gymnastics, etc.

► vb matting, matted

4 to tangle or become tangled into a dense mass matador n the bullfighter armed with a sword, who attempts to kill the bull match¹ n

1 a formal game or sports event in which people or teams compete

◇ SYNONYMS: game, test, competition, trial, tie, contest, fixture, bout

2 a person or thing able to provide competition for another: he has met his match

◇ SYNONYMS: equal, rival, peer, counterpart

3 a person or thing that resembles, harmonizes with, or is equivalent to another: the colours aren't a perfect match, but they're close enough; white wine is not a good match for steak

4 a person or thing that is an exact copy or equal of another

5 a partnership between two people, as in marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: marriage, pairing, alliance, partnership

6 a person regarded as a possible partner in marriage: for any number of men she would have been a good match

► vb

7 to fit parts together

8 to resemble, harmonize with, or equal one another or something else: our bedroom curtains match the bedspread; she walked at a speed that he could barely match

◇ SYNONYMS: correspond with, go with, fit with, harmonize with 9 to find a match for 10 match with or against

A to compare in order to determine which is the superior

B to arrange a competition between > matching adj

match² n

1 a thin strip of wood or cardboard tipped with a chemical that ignites when scraped against a rough or specially treated surface

2 a fuse used to fire cannons' explosives matchbox n a small box for holding matches matchless adj unequalled matchmaker n a person who introduces people in the hope that they will form a couple > matchmaking n, adj

matchstick n

1 the wooden part of a match

► adj

2 (esp. of drawn figures) thin and straight: little matchstick men

matchwood n

1 wood suitable for making matches

2 splinters

mate¹ n

1

A (informal, chiefly Brit & Austral & NZ) a friend: often used as a term of address between males: I spotted my mate Jimmy McCrae at the other end of the bar; that's all right, mate

◇ SYNONYMS: friend, pal (informal), companion, buddy (informal), comrade, chum (informal), mucker (Brit informal, old-fashioned), crony, cobber (Austral & NZ old-fashioned, informal), E hoa (NZ)

B an associate or colleague: a classmate; the governor's running mate

◇ SYNONYMS: colleague, associate, companion

2 the sexual partner of an animal

3 a marriage partner

◇ SYNONYMS: partner, lover, companion, spouse, consort, helpmeet, husband or wife

4 (naut) any officer below the master on a commercial ship

5 (in some trades) an assistant: a plumber's mate

◇ SYNONYMS: assistant, subordinate, apprentice, helper, accomplice, sidekick (informal)

6 one of a pair of matching items

► vb mating, mated

7 to pair (a male and female animal) or (of animals) to pair for breeding

◇ SYNONYMS: pair, couple, breed

8 to marry

9 to join as a pair mate² n, vb mating, mated (chess) same as checkmate material n

1 the substance of which a thing is made

◇ SYNONYMS: substance, matter, stuff

2 cloth

◇ SYNONYMS: cloth, fabric, textile

3 ideas or notes that a finished work may be based on: the material of the story resembles an incident in his own life

◇ SYNONYMS: information, details, facts, notes, evidence, particulars, data, info (informal)

► adj

4 concerned with or composed of physical matter or substance; not relating to spiritual or abstract things: the material universe

◇ SYNONYMS: physical, solid, substantial (formal), concrete, bodily, tangible, palpable, corporeal

5 of or affecting economic or physical wellbeing: material prosperity

6 relevant or pertinent: material evidence

◇ SYNONYMS: relevant, important, significant, essential, vital, serious, meaningful, applicable materialism n

1 excessive interest in and desire for money or possessions

2 the belief that only the material world exists > materialist n, adj

> materialistic adj

materialize or -lise vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to become fact; actually happen: the promised pay rise never materialized

2 to appear after being invisible: trees materialized out of the gloom

3 to take shape: after hours of talks, a plan began to materialize > materialization or -lisation n materially adv to a significant extent: we were not materially affected

◇ SYNONYMS: significantly, much, greatly, essentially, seriously, gravely, substantially maternal adj

1 of or characteristic of a mother

◇ SYNONYMS: motherly, protective, nurturing, maternalistic

2 related through the mother's side of the family: his maternal uncle > maternally adv

maternity n

1 motherhood

◇ SYNONYMS: motherhood, parenthood, motherliness

2 motherliness

◇ SYNONYMS: motherhood, parenthood, motherliness

► adj

3 relating to women during pregnancy or childbirth: maternity leave matey adj (Brit informal) friendly or intimate math n (US & Canad informal) short for mathematics mathematical adj

1 using, used in, or relating to mathematics

2 having the precision of mathematics > mathematically adv

mathematician n an expert or specialist in mathematics mathematics n

1 a group of related sciences, including algebra, geometry, and calculus, which use a specialized notation to study number, quantity, shape, and space

2 numerical calculations involved in the solution of a problem maths n (Brit & Austral informal) short for mathematics matinee (mat-in-nay) n an afternoon performance of a play or film matins n an early morning service in various Christian Churches matriarch (mate-ree-ark) n the female head of a tribe or family > matriarchal adj

matriarchy n, pl -chies a form of social organization in which a female is head of the family or society, and descent and kinship are traced through the female line

matricide n

- 1 the act of killing one's mother
- 2 a person who kills his or her mother
- > matricidal adj

matriculate vb -lating, -lated to enrol or be enrolled in a college or university > matriculation n matrimony n the state of being married > matrimonial adj

matrix (may-trix) n, pl -trices or matrixes

- 1 the context or framework in which something is formed or develops: a highly complex matrix of overlapping interests
- 2 the rock in which fossils or pebbles are embedded
- 3 a mould, esp. one used in printing
- 4 (maths) a rectangular array of elements set out in rows and columns matron n

- 1 a staid or dignified married woman

- 2 a woman in charge of the domestic or medical arrangements in an institution 3 (Brit) (formerly) the administrative head of the nursing staff in a hospital > matronly adj

matt or matte adj having a dull surface rather than a shiny one matter n

- 1 the substance of which something, esp. a physical object, is made; material ◇ SYNONYMS: substance, material, body, stuff 2 substance that occupies space and has mass, as distinguished from substance that is mental or spiritual 3 substance of a specified type: vegetable matter 4 an event, situation, or subject: a matter of taste; the break-in is a matter for the police ◇ SYNONYMS: situation, concern, business, question, event, subject, affair, incident 5 a quantity or amount: a matter of a few pounds 6 the content of written or verbal material as distinct from its style or form 7 written material in general: advertising matter 8 a secretion or discharge, such as pus 9 for that matter as regards that 10 no matter regardless of; irrespective of: you have to leave, no matter what she thinks 11 the matter wrong; the trouble: there's nothing the matter
► vb
12 to be of importance ◇ SYNONYMS: be important, make a difference, count, be relevant, make any difference, carry weight, cut any ice (informal), be of account ► interj no matter 13 it is unimportant mattock n a type of large pick that has one flat, horizontal end to its blade, used for loosening soil mattress n a large flat cushion with a strong cover, filled with cotton, foam rubber, etc., and often including coiled springs, used as a bed maturation n the process of becoming mature mature adj

1 fully developed physically or mentally; grown-up

◇ SYNONYMS: grown-up, adult, of age, fully fledged, full-grown

2 (of plans or theories) fully considered and thought-out

3 sensible and balanced in personality and emotional behaviour

4 due or payable: a mature insurance policy

5 (of fruit, wine, or cheese) ripe or fully aged ◇ SYNONYMS: matured, seasoned, ripe, mellow

► vb -turing, -tured

6 to make or become mature

◇ SYNONYMS: develop, grow up, bloom, blossom, come of age, age

7 (of bills or bonds) to become due for payment or repayment > maturity n

maudlin adj foolishly or tearfully sentimental, esp. as a result of drinking maul vb

1 to tear with the claws: she was badly mauled by a lion

◇ SYNONYMS: mangle, claw, lacerate, tear, mangulate (Austral slang)

2 to criticize a play, performance, etc., severely: the film was mauled by the critics

3 to handle roughly or clumsily

◇ SYNONYMS: ill-treat, abuse, batter, molest, manhandle

► n

4 (rugby) a loose scrum maunder vb to move, talk, or act aimlessly or idly mausoleum (maw-so-lee-um) n a large stately tomb mauve adj light purple maverick n

1 a person of independent or unorthodox views

◇ SYNONYMS: rebel, radical, dissenter, individualist, protester, eccentric, heretic, nonconformist

2 (in the US and Canada) an unbranded stray calf

► adj

3 (of a person or his or her views) independent and unorthodox

◇ SYNONYMS: rebel, radical, dissenting, individualistic, eccentric, heretical, iconoclastic, nonconformist maw n the mouth, throat, or stomach of an animal mawkish adj foolishly or embarrassingly sentimental > mawkishness n

maxim n a brief expression of a general truth, principle, or rule of conduct maximal adj of or being a maximum; the greatest possible maximize or -mise vb -mizing, -mized or -mising, -mised to make as high or great as possible; increase to a maximum > maximization or -misation n

maximum n, pl -mums or -ma

1 the greatest possible amount or degree: he gave the police the maximum of cooperation

2 the greatest amount recorded, allowed, or reached: keep to a maximum of two drinks a day

◇ SYNONYMS: top, peak, ceiling, utmost, upper limit

► adj

3 of, being, or showing a maximum or maximums: maximum speed

◇ SYNONYMS: greatest, highest, supreme, paramount, utmost, most, topmost may vb, past tense might

1 used as an auxiliary to indicate that permission is requested by or granted to someone: she may leave

2 used as an auxiliary to indicate the possibility that something could happen: problems which may well have tragic consequences

3 used as an auxiliary to indicate ability or capacity, esp. in questions: may I help you?

4 used as an auxiliary to indicate a strong wish: long may she reign

May n the fifth month of the year maybe adv perhaps

◇ SYNONYMS: perhaps, possibly, perchance (archaic)

Mayday n the international radio distress signal mayfly n, pl -flies a short-lived insect with large transparent wings mayhem n

1 any violent destruction or confusion: a driver caused motorway mayhem

◇ SYNONYMS: chaos, trouble, violence, disorder, destruction, confusion, havoc (informal), fracas

2 (law) the maiming of a person mayo n (informal) short for mayonnaise mayonnaise n a thick creamy sauce made from egg yolks, oil, and vinegar mayor n the civic head of a municipal council in many countries > mayoral adj

mayoralty n, pl -ties the office or term of office of a mayor mayoress n

1 (chiefly Brit) the wife of a mayor

2 a female mayor maypole n a tall pole around which people dance during May-Day celebrations maze n

1 a complex network of paths or passages designed to puzzle people who try and find their way through or out of it

2 a puzzle in which the player must trace a path through a complex network of lines without touching or crossing any of them

3 any confusing network or system: a maze of regulations

◇ SYNONYMS: web, confusion, tangle, labyrinth, imbroglio, complex network mazurka n

1 a lively Polish dance in triple time

2 music for this dance

MB

1 Bachelor of Medicine

2 Manitoba

MBE (in Britain) Member of the Order of the British Empire

Mc moscovium

MC

- 1 Master of Ceremonies
- 2 (in the US) Member of Congress
- 3 (in Britain) Military Cross

MD

- 1 Doctor of Medicine
- 2 Managing Director
- 3 Maryland

me pron (objective)

- 1 refers to the speaker or writer: that hurts me
- n
- 2 (informal) the personality of the speaker or writer or something that expresses it: the real me

ME

- 1 Maine
- 2 Middle English

mead n a wine-like alcoholic drink made from honey, often with spices added meadow n

- 1 a grassy field used for hay or for grazing animals
- ◇ SYNONYMS: field, pasture, grassland, lea (poetic)
- 2 a low-lying piece of grassland, often near a river
- ◇ SYNONYMS: field, pasture, grassland, lea (poetic)

meadowsweet n a plant with dense heads of small fragrant cream-coloured flowers meagre or (US) meager adj

1 not enough in amount or extent: meagre wages

2 thin or emaciated meal¹ n

1 any of the regular occasions, such as breakfast or dinner, when food is served and eaten

2 the food served and eaten

3 make a meal of (informal) to perform a task with unnecessarily great effort meal² n

1 the edible part of a grain or bean pulse (excluding wheat) ground to a coarse powder

2 (Scot) oatmeal

3 (chiefly US) maize flour > mealy adj mealie or mielie n (often pl, S African) same as maize mealy-mouthed adj unwilling or afraid to speak plainly mean¹ vb meaning, meant

1 to intend to convey or express: what do you mean by that?

◇ SYNONYMS: imply, suggest, intend, hint at, insinuate

2 to denote, represent, or signify: a red light means 'stop!'; 'gravid' is a technical term meaning 'pregnant'

◇ SYNONYMS: signify, indicate, represent, express, stand for, convey, spell out, symbolize

3 to intend: I meant to phone you earlier, but didn't have time

◇ SYNONYMS: intend, want, plan, expect, design, aim, wish, think

4 to say or do in all seriousness: the boss means what she says

5 to have the importance specified: music means everything to him

6 to destine or design for a certain person or purpose: those sweets weren't meant for you

7 to produce, cause, or result in: major road works will mean long traffic delays

8 to foretell: those black clouds mean rain

9 mean well to have good intentions mean² adj

1 not willing to give or use much of something, esp. money: she was noticeably mean; don't be mean with the butter

◇ SYNONYMS: miserly, stingy, parsimonious, niggardly, mercenary, penny-pinching, ungenerous, tight-fisted, snoop (S African informal)

2 unkind or spiteful: a mean trick

3 (informal) ashamed: she felt mean about not letting the children stay out late

4 (informal, chiefly US & Canada & Austral) bad-tempered or vicious

5 shabby and poor: a mean little room

6 (slang) excellent or skilful: he plays a mean trumpet

7 no mean

A of high quality: no mean player

B difficult: no mean feat

> meanly adv

> meanness n

mean³ n

1 the middle point, state, or course between limits or extremes

◇ SYNONYMS: average, middle, balance, norm, midpoint

2 (maths)

A the mid-point between the highest and lowest number in a set

◇ SYNONYMS: average, middle, balance, norm, midpoint

B the average

◇ SYNONYMS: average, middle, balance, norm, midpoint

► adj

3 intermediate in size or quantity

◇ SYNONYMS: average, middle, standard

4 occurring halfway between extremes or limits; average

◇ SYNONYMS: average, middle, standard

meander (mee-and-er) vb

1 (of a river, road, etc.) to follow a winding course

2 to wander without definite aim or direction

► n

3 a curve or bend, as in a river

4 a winding course or movement meaning n

1 the sense or significance of a word, sentence, or symbol

◇ SYNONYMS: significance, message, substance, drift, connotation, gist

2 the inner, symbolic, or true interpretation or message: the meaning of the New Testament meaningful adj

1 serious and important: a meaningful relationship

◇ SYNONYMS: significant, important, material, useful, relevant, valid, worthwhile, purposeful

2 intended to express a feeling or opinion: a meaningful pause meaningless adj having no meaning or purpose; futile

◇ SYNONYMS: nonsensical, senseless, inconsequential, inane means test n the checking of a person's income to determine whether he or she qualifies for financial aid > means-tested adj

meantime n

1 the intervening period: in the meantime

► adv

2 same as meanwhile

◇ SYNONYMS: at the same time, simultaneously, concurrently

meanwhile adv

1 during the intervening period

◇ SYNONYMS: for now, in the interim

2 at the same time, esp. in another place measles n a highly contagious viral disease common in children, characterized by fever and a rash of small red spots

► See also German measles measly adj -slier, -sliest

1 (informal) too small in quantity or value

2 having or relating to measles measure n

1 the size, quantity, or degree of something, as discovered by measurement or calculation

◇ SYNONYMS: quantity, share, amount, allowance, portion, quota, ration, allotment

2 a device for measuring distance, volume, etc., such as a graduated scale or container

◇ SYNONYMS: gauge, rule, scale, metre, ruler, yardstick

3 a system or unit of measurement: the joule is a measure of energy

4 an amount of alcoholic drink, esp. that served as standard in a bar

5 degree or extent: a measure of success

6 a particular action intended to achieve an effect: radical measures are needed to cut unemployment

◇ SYNONYMS: action, act, step, procedure, means, control, initiative, manoeuvre

7 a legislative bill, act, or resolution

◇ SYNONYMS: law, act, bill, legislation, resolution, statute

8 (music) same as bar

9 (prosody) poetic rhythm or metre

10 (prosody) a metrical foot

11 (old-fashioned) a dance

12 for good measure as an extra precaution or beyond requirements

► vb -suring, -sured

13 to determine the size, amount, etc., of by measurement: he measured the room for a new carpet

◇ SYNONYMS: quantify, determine, assess, weigh, calculate, evaluate, compute, gauge

14 to indicate or record the size, speed, force, etc., of: this dial measures the pressure in the pipe

◇ SYNONYMS: quantify, determine, assess, weigh, calculate, evaluate, compute, gauge

15 to have the size, quantity, etc., specified: the room measures six feet

16 to estimate or assess: you cannot measure intelligence purely by exam results

◇ SYNONYMS: quantify, determine, assess, weigh, calculate, evaluate, compute, gauge

17 to function as a measurement of: the ohm measures electrical resistance

18 to bring into competition or conflict with: he measured his strength against that of his opponent > measurable adj

measured adj

1 slow or stately

◇ SYNONYMS: steady, even, slow, regular, dignified, stately, solemn, leisurely

2 carefully considered; deliberate

◇ SYNONYMS: considered, reasoned, studied, calculated, deliberate, sober, well-thought-out measurement n

1 the act or process of measuring

◇ SYNONYMS: calculation, assessment, evaluation, valuation, computation, calibration, mensuration

2 an amount, extent, or size determined by measuring

3 a system or unit used for measuring: the kilometre is the standard measurement of distance in most countries

4 measurements the size of a person's waist, chest, hips, etc., used when buying clothes meat n

1 the flesh of animals used as food

2 the essence or gist: get to the meat of your lecture as quickly as possible > meatless adj

meaty adj meatier, meatiest

1 of, like, or full of meat

2 heavily built; fleshy or brawny

3 full of import or interest: a meaty historical drama

Mecca n

1 the holy city of Islam

2 a place that attracts many visitors mechanic n a person skilled in maintaining or operating machinery or motors mechanical adj

1 made, performed, or operated by machinery

◇ SYNONYMS: automatic, automated, mechanized, power-driven, motor-driven

2 able to understand how machines work and how to repair or maintain them

3

A (of an action) done without thought or feeling

◇ SYNONYMS: unthinking, routine, automatic, instinctive, involuntary, impersonal, cursory, perfunctory

B (of a task) not requiring any thought; routine or repetitive

◇ SYNONYMS: unthinking, routine, automatic, instinctive, involuntary, impersonal, cursory, perfunctory

4 of or involving the science of mechanics > mechanically adv

mechanics n

1 the scientific study of motion and force

2 the science of designing, constructing, and operating machines

► pl n

3 the technical aspects of something mechanism n

1 a system of moving parts that performs some function, esp. in a machine ◇ SYNONYMS: machine, device, tool, instrument, appliance, apparatus, contrivance

2 any mechanical device or part of such a device

3 a process or technique: the body's defence mechanisms

◇ SYNONYMS: process, way, means, system, operation, agency (old-fashioned), method, technique > mechanistic adj

mechanize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised

1 to equip a factory or industry with machinery

2 to make mechanical or automatic

3 (military) to equip an army with armoured vehicles > mechanization or -nisation n med.

- 1 medical
- 2 medicine
- 3 medieval
- 4 medium

medal n a small flat piece of metal bearing an inscription or image, given as an award or in commemoration of some outstanding event

medallion n

- 1 a disc-shaped ornament worn on a chain round the neck
- 2 a large medal
- 3 a circular decorative device used in architecture medallist or (US) medalist n (chiefly sport) a winner of a medal or medals meddle vb -dling, -dled to interfere annoyingly

- > meddler n
- > meddlesome adj

media n

- 1 a plural of medium
- 2 the media the mass media collectively
- ▶ adj
- 3 of or relating to the mass media: media hype mediaeval (med-ee-eve-al) adj same as medieval medial (mee-dee-al) adj of or situated in the middle

- > medially adv

median n

1 a middle point, plane, or part

2 (geom) a straight line joining one corner of a triangle to the midpoint of the opposite side

3 (statistics) the middle value in a frequency distribution, below and above which lie values with equal total frequencies mediate (mee-dee-ate) vb -ating, -ated

1 to intervene between people or in a dispute in order to bring about agreement

◇ SYNONYMS: intervene, step in (informal), intercede, referee, umpire, reconcile, arbitrate, conciliate

2 to resolve differences by mediation

3 to be changed slightly by (an experience or event): clients' attitudes to social workers have often been mediated by their past experiences > mediation n

> mediator n

medic n (informal) a doctor, medical orderly, or medical student medical adj

1 of or relating to the science of medicine or to the treatment of patients without surgery

► n

2 (informal) a medical examination > medically adv

medicate vb -cating, -cated

1 to treat a patient with a medicine

2 to add a medication to a bandage, shampoo, etc.

> medicative adj

medication n

1 treatment with drugs or remedies

2 a drug or remedy medicinal (mid-diss-in-al) adj relating to or having therapeutic properties > medicinally adv

medicine n

1 any substance used in treating or alleviating the symptoms of disease

◇ SYNONYMS: remedy, drug, cure, prescription, medication, nostrum, medicament

2 the science of preventing, diagnosing, or curing disease

3 any nonsurgical branch of medical science

4 take one's medicine to accept a deserved punishment medicine man n (among certain peoples) a person believed to have supernatural powers of healing medieval or mediaeval (med-ee-eve-al) adj

1 of, relating to, or in the style of the Middle Ages

2 (informal) old-fashioned or primitive > medievalist or mediaevalist n

mediocre (mee-dee-oak-er) adj not very high quality; average or second rate ◇ SYNONYMS: second-rate, average, ordinary, indifferent, middling, pedestrian, inferior, so-so (informal), half-pie (NZ informal) > mediocrity (mee-dee-ok-rit-ee) n meditate vb -tating, -tated

1 to think about something deeply: he meditated on the problem

2 to reflect deeply on spiritual matters

3 to plan, consider, or think of doing something > meditative adj

> meditator n

meditation n

1 the act of meditating; reflection

◇ SYNONYMS: reflection, thought, study, musing, pondering, contemplation, rumination, cogitation

2 contemplation of spiritual matters, esp. as a religious practice medium adj

1 midway between extremes of size, amount, or degree: fry over a medium heat; a man of medium height

◇ SYNONYMS: average, mean, middle, middling, fair, intermediate, midway, mediocre

► n, pl -dia or -diums

2 a middle state, degree, or condition: the happy medium

◇ SYNONYMS: middle, mean, centre, average, compromise, midpoint

3 a substance which has a particular effect or can be used for a particular purpose: linseed oil is used as a thinning medium for oil paint

4 a means for communicating information or news to the public

5 a person who can supposedly communicate with the dead

◇ SYNONYMS: spiritualist, seer, clairvoyant, fortune teller, channeller

6 the substance or surroundings in which an organism naturally lives or grows

7 (art) the category of a work of art, as determined by its materials: his works in the photographic medium medium wave n a radio wave with a wavelength between 100 and 1000 metres medlar n the apple-like fruit of a small Eurasian tree, which is not edible until it has begun to decay medley n

1 a mixture of various elements

2 a musical composition consisting of various tunes arranged as a continuous whole

3 (swimming) a race in which a different stroke is used for each length medulla (mid-dull-la) n, pl -las or -lae (-lee)

1 (anatomy) the innermost part of an organ or structure

2 (anatomy) the lower stalklike section of the brain

3 (botany) the central pith of a plant stem > medullary adj meek adj quiet, and ready to do what other people say > meekly adv

meerkat n a South African mongoose meerschaum (meer-shum) n

1 a white, heat-resistant, claylike mineral

2 a tobacco pipe with a bowl made of this mineral meet¹ vb meeting, met

1 to be in or come to the same place at the same time as, either by arrangement or by accident: I met him in town

◇ SYNONYMS: encounter, come across, run into, happen on, find, contact, confront, bump into (informal)

2 to come into contact with something or each other: his head met the ground with a crack; the town where the Rhine and the Moselle meet

◇ SYNONYMS: converge, join, cross, touch, connect, come together, link up, intersect

3 to come to or be at the place of arrival of: he met his train at noon

4 to make the acquaintance of, or be introduced to, someone or each other

5 (of people) to gather together for a purpose: the board meets once a week

◇ SYNONYMS: gather, collect, assemble, get together, come together, muster, convene, congregate

6 to compete, play, or fight against

7 to cope with effectively; satisfy: they were unable to meet his demands

◇ SYNONYMS: fulfil, match (up to), answer, satisfy, discharge, comply with, come up to, conform to 8 to pay for (something): it is difficult to meet the cost of medical insurance

9 Also: meet with to experience or suffer: he met his death at the Somme

◇ SYNONYMS: experience, face, suffer, bear, go through, encounter, endure, undergo

10 there is more to this than meets the eye there is more involved in this than appears

► n

11 a sports meeting

12 (chiefly Brit) the assembly of hounds and huntsmen prior to a hunt meet² adj (archaic) proper, fitting, or correct: meet and proper meeting n

1 an act of coming together: a meeting was fixed for the following day

◇ SYNONYMS: encounter, introduction, confrontation, engagement, rendezvous, tryst, assignation

2 an assembly or gathering of people: the meeting voted in favour

◇ SYNONYMS: conference, gathering, assembly, congress, session, convention, get-together (informal), reunion, hui (NZ)

3 a sporting competition, as of athletes, or of horse racing meg n (computers, informal) short for megabyte

mega- combining form

1 denoting 10^6 : megawatt

2 (in computer technology) denoting 2^{20} (1 048 576): megabyte

3 large or great: megalith

4 (informal) very great: megastar megabyte n (computers) 2^{20} or 1 048 576 bytes megahertz n, pl megahertz one million hertz; one million cycles per second megalith n a very large stone, esp. one forming part of a prehistoric monument > megalithic adj

megalomania n

1 an obsessional delusion of power and importance

2 (informal) a craving for power > megalomaniac adj, n

megaphone n a funnel-shaped instrument used to make someone's voice sound louder, esp. out of doors megapixel n one million pixels: used to describe the resolution of digital images megapode n any of various ground-living birds of Australia, New Guinea, and adjacent islands. Their eggs incubate in mounds of sand or rotting vegetation megaton n

1 one million tons

2 an explosive power, esp. of a nuclear weapon, equal to the power of one million tons of TNT meh interj expression of indifference or boredom melaleuca (mel-a-loo-ka) n an Australian shrub or tree with a white trunk and black branches melancholia (mel-an-kole-lee-a) n an old name for depression melancholy (mel-an-kol-lee) n, pl -cholies

1 a tendency to gloominess or depression

◇ SYNONYMS: sadness, depression, misery, gloom, sorrow, unhappiness, despondency, dejection

2 a sad, thoughtful state of mind

◇ SYNONYMS: sadness, depression, misery, gloom, sorrow, unhappiness, despondency, dejection

► adj

3 characterized by, causing, or expressing sadness

◇ SYNONYMS: sad, depressed, miserable, gloomy, glum, mournful, despondent, dispirited > melancholic adj, n

melange (may-lahnzh) n a mixture or assortment: a melange of historical facts and legends melanin n a black pigment present in the hair, skin, and eyes of humans and animals melee (mel-lay) n a noisy riotous fight or crowd mellifluous (mel-lif-flew-uss) adj (of sound) smooth and sweet mellow adj

1 (esp. of colours, light, or sounds) soft or rich: the mellow stillness of a sunny Sunday morning

2 kind-hearted, esp. through maturity or old age

3 genial and relaxed, for instance through the effects of alcohol or good food

4 (esp. of fruits) sweet, ripe, and full-flavoured

◇ SYNONYMS: full-flavoured, rich, sweet, delicate

5 (esp. of wine or cheese) having developed a full smooth flavour as a result of maturing

◇ SYNONYMS: full-flavoured, rich, sweet, delicate

6 (of soil) soft and loamy

► vb

7 to make or become mellow

◇ SYNONYMS: season, develop, improve, ripen

8 (foll. by out) to make or become calm and relaxed

◇ SYNONYMS: relax, improve, settle, calm, mature, soften, sweeten melodic (mel-lod-ik) adj

1 of or relating to melody

2 tuneful and pleasant to the ear; melodious > melodically adv

melodious (mel-lode-ee-uss) adj

1 pleasant to the ear: he gave a melodious chuckle

2 tuneful and melodic > melodiousness n

melodrama n

1 a play or film full of extravagant action and emotion

2 overdramatic emotion or behaviour > melodramatic adj > melodramatics pl n

melody n, pl -dies

1 (music) a succession of notes forming a distinctive sequence; tune

◇ SYNONYMS: tune, song, theme, air, music, strain

2 sounds that are pleasant because of their tone or arrangement, esp. words of poetry

◇ SYNONYMS: tunefulness, harmony, musicality, euphony, melodiousness melon n any of various large edible fruits which have a hard rind and juicy flesh melt vb

1 to change from a solid into a liquid as a result of the action of heat

◇ SYNONYMS: dissolve, run, soften, fuse, thaw, defrost, liquefy, unfreeze

2 to dissolve: these sweets melt in the mouth

◇ SYNONYMS: dissolve, run, soften, fuse, thaw, defrost, liquefy, unfreeze

3 Also: melt away to diminish and finally disappear; fade away: he felt his inner doubts melt away

4 to blend so that it is impossible to tell where one thing ends and another begins: they melted into the trees until the gamekeeper had passed

5 to make or become emotional or sentimental; soften: she melted into tears

◇ SYNONYMS: soften, relax, disarm, mollify

► n

6 a quantity of a melted substance

7 (US & Canad) a sandwich containing and melted cheese: a tuna melt > meltingly adv

meltdown n

1 (in a nuclear reactor) the melting of the fuel rods, with the possible escape of radioactivity

2 (informal) a sudden disastrous failure

3 (informal) a process of irreversible decline member n

1 a person who belongs to a group or organization such as a club or political party

◇ SYNONYMS: representative, associate, supporter, fellow, subscriber, comrade, disciple

2 any part of a plant or animal, such as a limb or petal

3 a Member of Parliament: the member for Glasgow Central

► adj

4 (of a country or group) belonging to an organization or alliance: a summit of the member countries' heads of state is due

Member of Parliament n a person who has been elected to the House of Commons or the equivalent assembly in another country

membership n

1 the members of an organization collectively

◇ SYNONYMS: members, body, associates, fellows

2 the number of members

3 the state of being a member

◇ SYNONYMS: participation, belonging, fellowship, enrolment membrane n a thin flexible tissue that covers, lines, or connects plant and animal organs or cells > membranous adj

meme n a video, photo, or story that is spread widely on the internet, often altered by users for humorous effect memento n, pl -tos or -toes something that reminds one of past events; a souvenir memo n, pl memos short for memorandum memoir (mem-wahr) n a biography or historical account based on personal knowledge

◇ SYNONYMS: account, life, record, journal, essay, biography, narrative, monograph memorable adj worth remembering or easily remembered because it is very special or important ◇ SYNONYMS: noteworthy, celebrated, historic, striking, famous, significant, remarkable, notable > memorably adv

memorandum n, pl -dums or -da

1 a note sent by one person or department to another within a business organization ◇ SYNONYMS: note, minute, message, communication, reminder, memo, jotting, email or e-mail

2 a note of things to be remembered

◇ SYNONYMS: note, minute, message, communication, reminder, memo, jotting, email or e-mail

3 (law) a short written summary of the terms of a transaction memorial n

1 something, such as a statue, built or displayed to preserve the memory of someone or something: a war memorial

◇ SYNONYMS: monument, shrine, plaque, cenotaph

► adj

2 in memory of someone or something: a memorial service

◇ SYNONYMS: commemorative, remembrance, monumental memorize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised to commit to memory; learn by heart memory n, pl -ries

1 the ability of the mind to store and recall past sensations, thoughts, and knowledge: she can do it from memory

◇ SYNONYMS: recall, mind, retention, ability to remember, powers of recall, powers of retention

2 the sum of everything retained by the mind

3 a particular recollection of an event or person: he started awake with a sudden memory

◇ SYNONYMS: recollection, reminder, reminiscence, impression, echo, remembrance

4 the length of time one can remember: my memory doesn't go that far back

5 commemoration: in memory of our leader

◇ SYNONYMS: commemoration, respect, honour, recognition, tribute, remembrance, observance

6 a person's reputation after death: a conductor of fond memory

7 a part of a computer in which information is stored memory card n a small removable data storage device, used in mobile phones, digital cameras, etc.

Memory Stick n (computers)

1 (trademark) a standard format for memory cards

2 memory stick also: USB memory sticks same as USB drive men n the plural of man menace vb -acing, -aced

1 to threaten with violence or danger

◇ SYNONYMS: bully, threaten, intimidate, terrorize, frighten, scare

► n

2 a threat; a source of danger

◇ SYNONYMS: threat, warning, intimidation, ill-omen, ominousness

3 (informal) an annoying person or thing; nuisance

◇ SYNONYMS: nuisance, plague (informal), pest, annoyance, troublemaker > menacing adj

ménage (may-nahzh) n a household menagerie (min-naj-er-ee) n a collection of wild animals kept for exhibition mend vb

1 to repair something broken or not working

◇ SYNONYMS: repair, fix, restore, renew, patch up, renovate, refit, retouch

2 to heal or recover: a wound like that will take a while to mend

◇ SYNONYMS: heal, improve, recover, get better, be all right, be cured, recuperate, pull through

3 (esp. of behaviour) to improve; make or become better: if you don't mend your ways you'll be in serious trouble

◇ SYNONYMS: improve, reform, correct, revise, amend, rectify, ameliorate, emend

► n

4 a mended area, esp. on a garment

5 on the mend regaining one's health

◇ SYNONYMS on the mend: convalescent, improving, recovering, getting better, recuperating mendacity n the tendency to be untruthful > mendacious adj

mendicant adj

1 begging

2 (of a monk, nun, etc.) dependent on charity for food

► n

3 a mendicant friar

4 a beggar

menhir (men-hear) n a single standing stone, dating from prehistoric times menial (mean-nee-al) adj

1 involving or doing boring work of low status

► n

2 a domestic servant

meningitis (men-in-jite-iss) n inflammation of the meninges, caused by infection and causing severe headache, fever, and rigidity of the neck muscles

meniscus n, pl -nisci or -niscuses

1 the curved upper surface of a liquid standing in a tube, produced by the surface tension

2 a crescent-shaped lens menopause n the period during which a woman's menstrual cycle ceases, normally at an age of 45 to 50 > menopausal adj

menstrual adj of or relating to menstruation: the menstrual cycle menstruate vb -ating, -ated to undergo menstruation menstruation n the approximately monthly discharge of blood from the womb in women of childbearing age who are not pregnant mensuration n

- 1 the study of the measurement of geometric magnitudes such as length
- 2 the act or process of measuring mental adj

- 1 of, done by, or involving the mind: mental alertness

◇ SYNONYMS: intellectual, rational, theoretical, cognitive, brain, conceptual, cerebral

- 2 done in the mind without using speech or writing: mental arithmetic

- 3 concerned with the care of people with mental health problems: a mental hospital

- 4 (slang) extremely foolish or eccentric > mentally adv

mentality n, pl -ties a particular attitude or way of thinking: the traditional civil service mentality

◇ SYNONYMS: attitude, character, personality, psychology (informal), make-up, outlook, disposition, cast of mind menthol n an organic compound found in peppermint oil and used as an antiseptic, decongestant, and painkiller > mentholated adj

mention vb

1 to refer to or speak about briefly or incidentally

◇ SYNONYMS: refer to, point out, bring up, state, reveal, declare, disclose, intimate

2 to include in a report, list, etc., because of high standards or an outstanding achievement: the hotel is mentioned in all the guidebooks; he was twice mentioned in dispatches during the war

3 not to mention (something) to say nothing of (something too obvious to mention)

► n

4 a slight reference or allusion

◇ SYNONYMS: reference, observation, indication, remark, allusion

5 a recognition or acknowledgment of high quality or an outstanding achievement

◇ SYNONYMS: acknowledgment, recognition, tribute, citation, honourable mention mentor n an adviser or guide

◇ SYNONYMS: guide, teacher, coach, adviser, tutor, instructor, counsellor, guru menu n

1 a list of dishes served at a meal or that can be ordered in a restaurant

◇ SYNONYMS: bill of fare, tariff (chiefly Brit), set menu, table d'hôte, carte du jour (French)

2 a list of options displayed on a visual display unit from which the operator can choose meow or miaow (mee-ow) n

1 the characteristic high-pitched cry of a cat; mew

► vb

2 to make such a sound

MEP Member of the European Parliament mercantile adj of trade or traders; commercial mercenary n, pl -naries

1 a soldier who fights for a foreign army for money

► adj

2 motivated by greed or the desire for gain: calculating and mercenary businesspeople

3 of or relating to a mercenary or mercenaries merchandise n

1 goods for buying, selling, or trading with; commodities

◇ SYNONYMS: goods, produce, stock, products, commodities, wares

► vb -dising, -dised

2 to engage in the commercial purchase and sale of goods or services; trade merchant n

1 a person who buys and sells goods in large quantities and usually of one type: a wine merchant

◇ SYNONYMS: tradesperson, dealer, trader, broker, retailer, supplier, seller, salesman or woman or person

2 (chiefly Scot & US & Canad) a person engaged in retail trade; shopkeeper

◇ SYNONYMS: tradesperson, dealer, trader, broker, retailer, supplier, seller, salesman or woman or person

3 (slang) a person dealing in something undesirable: a gossip merchant

► adj

4 of ships involved in commercial trade or their crews: a merchant sailor; the British merchant fleet merchant bank n a financial institution that deals primarily with foreign trade and business finance > merchant banker n

merchantman n, pl -men a merchant ship merchant navy n the ships or crew engaged in a nation's commercial shipping merciful adj

1 (of an act or event) giving relief from pain or suffering: after months of illness, death came as a merciful release

2 showing or giving mercy; compassionate > mercifully adv

merciless adj without mercy; pitiless, cruel, or heartless > mercilessly adv

mercurial (mer-cure-ee-al) adj

1 lively and unpredictable: a mercurial and temperamental chess player

2 of or containing mercury mercury n, pl -ries (chem) a silvery toxic metal, the only element liquid at normal temperatures, used in thermometers, barometers, lamps, and dental amalgams. SYMBOL: Hg

Mercury n

1 (Roman myth) the messenger of the gods

2 the second smallest planet and the one nearest the sun mercy n, pl -cies

1 compassionate treatment of, or attitude towards, an offender or enemy who is in one's power

◇ SYNONYMS: compassion, pity, forgiveness, grace, kindness, clemency, leniency, forbearance

2 the power to show mercy: they threw themselves on the King's mercy

◇ SYNONYMS: compassion, pity, forgiveness, grace, kindness, clemency, leniency, forbearance

3 a relieving or welcome occurrence or act: it was a mercy you turned up when you did

◇ SYNONYMS: blessing, boon, godsend

4 at the mercy of in the power of

► adj

5 done or undertaken in an attempt to relieve suffering or bring help: a mercy mission

mere¹ adj nothing more than: the election in Slovenia seems a mere formality

◇ SYNONYMS: simple, nothing more than, common, plain, pure > merely adv

mere² n (Brit dialect, or archaic) a lake meretricious adj superficially or garishly attractive but of no real value merganser (mer-gan-ser) n, pl -sers or -ser a large crested marine diving duck merge vb merging, merged

1 to combine, esp. so as to become part of a larger whole: the two airlines merged in 1983

◇ SYNONYMS: combine, blend, fuse, amalgamate, unite, join, mix, mingle

2 to blend gradually, without any sudden change being apparent: late afternoon merged imperceptibly into early evening

◇ SYNONYMS: melt, blend, mingle merger n the act of merging, esp. the combination of two or more companies ◇ SYNONYMS: union, fusion, consolidation, amalgamation, combination, coalition, incorporation meridian n

1 one of the imaginary lines joining the north and south poles at right angles to the equator, designated by degrees of longitude from 0° at Greenwich to 180°

2 (in acupuncture, etc.) any of various channels through which vital energy is believed to circulate round the body

meringue (mer-rang) n

- 1 stiffly beaten egg whites mixed with sugar and baked
- 2 a small cake made from this mixture merino n, pl -nos

- 1 a sheep with long fine wool, originally reared in Spain
- 2 the yarn made from this wool merit n

- 1 worth or superior quality; excellence: the film had two sequels, neither of much merit
- 2 an admirable or advantageous quality: the relative merits of film and video as a medium of communication
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: advantage, value, quality, worth, strength, asset, virtue, strong point
- 3 have the merit of to have a positive feature or advantage that the alternatives do not have: the first version has the merit of being short
- 4 on its merits on its intrinsic qualities or virtues
 - vb -riting, -ritied
- 5 to be worthy of; deserve: the issue merits much fuller discussion
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: deserve, warrant, be entitled to, earn, have a right to, be worthy of meritocracy (mer-it-tok-rass-ee) n, pl -cies a social system in which power is held by the most talented or intelligent people > meritocrat n > meritocratic adj

meritorious adj deserving praise for being good or worthwhile merlin n a small falcon with dark plumage mermaid n an imaginary sea creature with a woman's head and upper body and a fish's tail > merman masc n

merry adj -rier, -riest

1 cheerful and jolly

◇ SYNONYMS: cheerful, happy, carefree, jolly, festive, joyous, convivial, blithe (archaic)

2 (Brit & Austral informal) slightly drunk

◇ SYNONYMS: tipsy, happy, mellow, tiddly (rare, chiefly Brit), squiffy (Brit informal, old-fashioned)

3 make merry to take part in noisy cheerful celebrations or fun > merrily adv

> merriment n

merry-go-round n

1 a fairground roundabout

2 a whirl of activity merrymaking n noisy cheerful celebrations or fun > merrymaker n

mesdames (may-dam) n the plural of madame, madam mesdemoiselles (maid-mwah-zel) n the plural of mademoiselle mesh n

1 a material resembling a net made from intersecting strands with a space between each strand

◇ SYNONYMS: net, netting, network, web, tracery

2 an open space between the strands of a net or network: the minimum permitted size of fishing net mesh

3 (often pl) the strands surrounding these spaces

4 anything that ensnares or holds like a net

► adj

5 made from mesh: a wire mesh fence

► vb

6 to entangle or become entangled

7 (of gear teeth) to engage or interlock

8 to fit together closely or work in harmony: she schedules her holidays to mesh with theirs

◇ SYNONYMS: engage, combine, connect, knit, coordinate, interlock, dovetail, harmonize mesmerize or -ise vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised

1 to fascinate and hold spellbound: his voice had the entire audience mesmerized

2 (archaic) to hypnotize > mesmerism n

> mesmerizing adj

meson (mee-zon) n (physics) any of a group of elementary particles that has a mass between those of an electron and a proton mess n

1 a state of untidiness or confusion, esp. a dirty or unpleasant one: the house was in a mess

◇ SYNONYMS: untidiness, disorder, confusion, chaos, litter, clutter, disarray, jumble

2 a confused and difficult situation; muddle: the firm is in a terrible financial mess

◇ SYNONYMS: difficulty, dilemma, plight, hole (informal), fix (informal), jam (informal), muddle, pickle (informal), uphill (S African)

3 (informal) a dirty or untidy person or thing: there was a nasty burnt mess in the saucepan

4 a building providing catering, and sometimes recreation, facilities for service personnel

5 a group of service personnel who regularly eat together

6 (old-fashioned) a portion of soft or runny food: a mess of pottage

► vb

7 (of service personnel) to eat in a group message n

1 a communication from one person or group to another

◇ SYNONYMS: communication, note, bulletin, word, letter, dispatch, memorandum, communiqué, email or e-mail, text or text message, SMS, IMS, tweet, mention or @mention

2 an implicit meaning or moral, as in a work of art

◇ SYNONYMS: point, meaning, idea, moral, theme, import, purport

3 a religious or political belief that someone attempts to communicate to others: paintings with a fierce feminist message

4 get the message (informal) to understand message board n an internet discussion forum messaging n the sending of a message by any form of electronic communication: text messaging messenger n a person who takes messages from one person or group to another ◇ SYNONYMS: courier, runner, carrier, herald, envoy, go-between, emissary, delivery boy

Messiah n

1 (Judaism) the awaited king of the Jews, who will be sent by God to free them

2 (Christianity) Jesus Christ, when regarded in this role

3 a liberator of a country or people

Messianic adj

1 of or relating to a Messiah, or the arrival on Earth of a Messiah

2 messianic of or relating to the belief that someone or something will bring about a complete transformation of the existing social order: a messianic zeal for the free market

messieurs (may-syuh) n the plural of monsieur

Messrs (mess-erz) n the plural of Mr messy adj messier, messiest

1 untidy

◇ SYNONYMS: disorganized, sloppy (informal), untidy

2 dirty

◇ SYNONYMS: dirty

3 unpleasantly confused or complicated: the messy, uncontrollable world of real life

◇ SYNONYMS: confusing, difficult, complex, confused, tangled, chaotic, tortuous > messily adv

> messiness n

met vb the past of meet metabolism (met-tab-ol-liz-zum) n the chemical processes that occur in living organisms, resulting in growth, production of energy, and elimination of waste > metabolic adj metabolize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to produce or be produced by metabolism metal n

1

A (chem) a chemical element, such as iron or copper, that reflects light and can be shaped, forms positive ions, and is a good conductor of heat and electricity

B an alloy, such as brass or steel, containing one or more of these elements

2 (informal) short for heavy metal

3 metals the rails of a railway

► adj

4 made of metal metallic adj

1 of or consisting of metal

2 sounding like two pieces of metal hitting each other: a metallic click

3 (of a voice) harsh, unpleasant, and unemotional

4 shining like metal: metallic paint

5 (of a taste) unpleasantly harsh and bitter metallurgy n the scientific study of the structure, properties, extraction, and refining of metals > metallurgical adj

> metallurgist n

metal road n (NZ) an unsealed road covered in gravel metamorphic adj

1 (of rocks) altered considerably from the original structure and composition by pressure and heat

2 of metamorphosis or metamorphism metamorphose vb -phosing, -phosed to change from one state or thing into something different: hysterical laughter which gradually metamorphosed into convulsive sobs

metamorphosis (met-a-mor-foss-is) n, pl -ses (-seez)

1 a complete change of physical form or substance

2 a complete change of character or appearance

3 (zool) the change of form that accompanies transformation into an adult in certain animals, for example the butterfly or frog metaphor n a figure of speech in which a word or phrase is applied to an object or action that it does not literally apply to in order to imply a resemblance, for example he is a lion in battle

◇ SYNONYMS: figure of speech, image, symbol, analogy, conceit (literary), allegory, trope, figurative expression > metaphorical adj

> metaphorically adv

metaphysical adj

1 of metaphysics

2 abstract, abstruse, or unduly theoretical metaphysics n

1 the philosophical study of the nature of reality

2 abstract or subtle discussion or reasoning meteor n

1 a small piece of rock or metal that has entered the earth's atmosphere from space

2 Also: shooting star the bright streak of light appearing in the sky due to a piece of rock or metal burning up because of friction as it falls through the atmosphere meteoric (meet-ee-or-rik) adj

1 of or relating to meteors

2 brilliant and very rapid: his meteoric rise to power > meteorically adv

meteorite n the rocklike remains of a meteoroid that has collided with the earth meteorol. or meteor.

1 meteorological

2 meteorology meteorology n the study of the earth's atmosphere and weather-forming processes, esp. for weather forecasting > meteorological adj

> meteorologist n

mete out vb meting, meted to impose or deal out something, usually something unpleasant: the sentence meted out to him has proved controversial

meter n

1 any device that measures and records the quantity or number of units of something that was used during a specified period or is being used at that moment: a gas meter

► vb

2 to measure the amount of something used, or a rate of flow, with a meter methane n a colourless odourless flammable gas, the main constituent of natural gas methanol n a colourless poisonous liquid used as a solvent and fuel. Also: methyl alcohol

methinks vb, past tense methought (archaic) it seems to me that method n

1 a way of doing something, esp. a systematic or regular one

◇ SYNONYMS: manner, process, approach, technique, way, system, style, procedure

2 orderliness of thought or action

◇ SYNONYMS: orderliness, planning, order, system, purpose, pattern, organization, regularity

3 the techniques of a particular field or subject methodical adj careful, well-organized, and systematic > methodically adv

Methodist n

1 a member of any of the Christian Nonconformist denominations that derive from the beliefs and practices of John Wesley and his followers

► adj

2 of or relating to Methodists or their Church

> Methodism n

methodology n, pl -gies

1 the system of methods and principles used in a particular discipline

2 the philosophical study of method > methodological adj

meths n (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) methylated spirits methyl adj of or containing the monovalent saturated hydrocarbon group of atoms CH₃: methyl mercury methyl alcohol n same as methanol methylated spirits n alcohol that has been rendered undrinkable by the addition of methanol and a violet dye, used as a solvent or as a fuel for small lamps or heaters. Also: methylated spirit meticulous adj very precise about details; careful and thorough > meticulously adv

> meticulousness n

métier (met-ee-ay) n
1 a profession or trade 2 a person's strong point or speciality metonymy (mit-on-im-ee) n, pl -mies a figure of speech in which one thing is replaced by another associated with it, for instance the use of Downing Street to mean the British government metre or (US) meter n the basic SI unit of length, equal to 100 centimetres (39.37 inches): the majority of people are between one and a half and two metres tall metric adj of or relating to the metre or metric system: use either all metric or all imperial measurements

metrical or metric adj

1 of or relating to measurement

2 of or in poetic metre > metrically adv

metro n, pl -ros an urban, usually underground, railway system in certain cities, such as Paris metronome n a device which indicates the speed music should be played at by producing a clicking sound from a pendulum with an adjustable period of swing metropolis (mit-trop-oh-liss) n the main city of a country or region metropolitan adj

1 of or characteristic of a metropolis

2 of or consisting of a city and its suburbs: the Tokyo metropolitan region

3 of or belonging to the home territories of a country, as opposed to overseas territories: metropolitan France

► n

4 (Christianity) the senior member of the clergy, esp. an archbishop, in charge of an ecclesiastical province

5 an inhabitant of a large city metrosexual n (informal) a heterosexual man who spends a lot of time and money on his appearance mettle n

1 courage or spirit: it's the first real test of the team's mettle this season

2 character or abilities: the mettle saints are made of 3 on one's mettle roused to making one's best efforts mew n

1 the characteristic high-pitched cry of a cat; meow

► vb

2 to make such a sound

mews n (chiefly Brit)

1 a yard or street lined by buildings originally used as stables but now often converted into dwellings

► adj

2 (of a flat or house) located in a mews: a mews cottage

Mexican adj

1 of Mexico

► n

2 a person from Mexico mezzanine (mez-zan-een) n an intermediate storey, esp. one between the ground and first floor mezzotint (met-so-tint) n

1 a method of engraving done by scraping and burnishing the roughened surface of a copper plate

2 a print made from a plate so treated mg milligram

MHz megahertz

miasma (mee-azz-ma) n, pl -mata or -mas an unwholesome or foreboding atmosphere mica (my-ka) n any of a group of minerals consisting of flakelike crystals of aluminium or potassium silicates. They have a high resistance to electricity and heat mice n the plural of mouse

Michaelmas (mik-kl-mass) n Sept 29, the feast of St Michael the archangel: one of the four quarter days in England, Ireland, and Wales

Michaelmas daisy n (Brit) a garden plant with small daisy-shaped purple, pink, or white flowers in autumn mickey n take the mickey (out of) (informal) to tease (someone) micro n, pl micros short for microcomputer, microprocessor microbe n any microscopic organism, esp. a disease-causing bacterium > microbial or microbic adj microblog n a blog in which there is a limitation on the length of individual postings > microblogger n > microblogging n microchip n a tiny wafer of semiconductor material, such as silicon, containing an integrated circuit. Often shortened to: chip microcomputer n a compact computer built around a central processing unit on a single microchip microcosm n

1 a miniature representation of something: this area is a microcosm of France as a whole

2 in microcosm on a small scale > microcosmic adj

microfiche (my-kroh-feesh) n a small sheet of film on which writing or other information is stored, greatly reduced in size microfilm n

1 a strip of film on which books or documents can be recorded in miniaturized form

► vb

2 to photograph a page or document on microfilm microlight or microlite n a very small, light aircraft micrometer (my-krom-it-er) n an instrument for the accurate measurement of small distances or angles micron (my-kron) n a unit of length equal to one millionth of a metre microorganism n any organism of microscopic size, such as a virus or bacterium microphone n a device for converting sound into electrical energy microprocessor n (computers) a single integrated circuit which acts as the central processing unit in a small computer microscope n

1 an optical instrument that uses a lens or combination of lenses to produce a greatly magnified image of a small close object

2 any instrument, such as the electron microscope, for producing a greatly magnified visual image of a small object microscopic adj

1 too small to be seen except with a microscope

2 very small; minute

3 of or using a microscope > microscopically adv

microscopy n the use of microscopes microsurgery n intricate surgery performed using a special microscope and miniature precision instruments microwave n

1 an electromagnetic wave with a wavelength of between 0.3 and 0.001 metres: used in radar and cooking

2 short for microwave oven

► vb -waving, -waved

3 to cook in a microwave oven microwave oven n a type of cooker which uses microwaves to cook food quickly mid adj middle midday n

1 twelve o'clock in the day; noon

◇ SYNONYMS: noon, twelve o'clock, noonday

2 the middle part of the day, from late morning to early afternoon: the midday sun midden n (Brit & Austral) a dunghill or pile of refuse middle n

1 an area or point equal in distance from the ends or edges of a place: a hotel in the middle of town

◇ SYNONYMS: centre, heart, midst, halfway point, midpoint, midsection

2 the time between the first part and last part of an event or period of time: the middle of June; the film got a bit boring in the middle

3 the part of the body around the stomach; waist

4 in the middle of busy doing something: I'm in the middle of washing the dishes

► adj

5 equally distant from the ends or outer edges of something; central: the middle finger

◇ SYNONYMS: central, medium, mid, intervening, halfway, intermediate, median

6 having an equal number of elder and younger brothers and sisters: he was the middle child of three

7 intermediate in status or situation: middle management

◇ SYNONYMS: intermediate, intervening

8 avoiding extremes; moderate: we must find a middle course between authoritarianism and anarchy middle age n the period of life between youth and old age, usually considered to occur between the ages of 40 and 60 > middle-aged adj

middle class n

1 the social class between the working and upper classes. It consists of business and professional people

► adj middle-class

2 of or characteristic of the middle class

◇ SYNONYMS: bourgeois, traditional, conventional Middle East n the area around the E Mediterranean, esp. Israel and the Arab countries from Turkey to North Africa and eastwards to Iran > Middle Eastern adj

middleman n, pl -men

- 1 a trader who buys from the producer and sells to the consumer
- 2 an intermediary or go-between middle-of-the-road adj

- 1 not extreme, esp. in political views; moderate
- 2 of or denoting popular music of wide general appeal middleweight n a professional boxer weighing up to 160 pounds (72.5 kg) or an amateur weighing up to 75 kg middling adj

- 1 neither very good nor very bad
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: mediocre, all right, indifferent, so-so (informal), unremarkable, tolerable (informal), run-of-the-mill, passable, half-pie (NZ informal)
- 2 moderate in size
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: moderate, medium, average, fair, ordinary, modest, adequate
- 3 fair to middling neither good nor bad, esp. in health
- adv
- 4 (informal) moderately: middling well midge n a small mosquito-like biting insect occurring in swarms, esp. near water midget n (old-fashioned, offensive)

- 1 a dwarf whose skeleton and features are of normal proportions

► adj

2 much smaller than normal: a midget submarine midland n the central or inland part of a country midnight n

1 the middle of the night; 12 o'clock at night

◇ SYNONYMS: twelve o'clock, middle of the night, dead of night, the witching hour

► adj

2 happening or apparent at midnight or in the middle of the night: midnight Mass

3 burn the midnight oil to work or study late into the night midriff n

1 the middle part of the human body between waist and chest

2 (anatomy) same as diaphragm midshipman n, pl -men a naval officer of the lowest commissioned rank midst n

1 in our midst among us

2 in the midst of

A surrounded by

◇ SYNONYMS in the midst of: among, in the middle of, surrounded by, amidst, in the thick of

B at a point during

◇ SYNONYMS in the midst of: during, in the middle of, amidst midsummer n the middle or height of summer

Midsummer's Day or Midsummer Day n June 24, the feast of St John the Baptist: one of the four quarter days in England, Ireland, and Wales midway adj

1 in or at the middle of the distance; halfway: the midway point

► adv

2 to the middle of the distance

◇ SYNONYMS: halfway, in the middle of, part-way, equidistant, at the midpoint, betwixt and between midwife n, pl -wives a person qualified to deliver babies and to care for women before, during, and after childbirth > midwifery (mid-wiff-fer-ree) n midwinter n the middle or depth of winter mien (mean) n (literary) a person's manner, bearing, or appearance miffed adj (informal) offended or upset might¹ vb

1 the past tense or subjunctive mood of may: he might have come

2 (used as an auxiliary) expressing possibility: he might well have gone already See may might² n

1 great power, strength, or vigour

◇ SYNONYMS: power, force, energy, strength, vigour

2 with all one's might using all one's strength and energy

3 (with) might and main See main mighty adj mightier, mightiest

1 powerful or strong

◇ SYNONYMS: powerful, strong, strapping, robust, vigorous, sturdy, forceful, lusty

2 very great in extent or importance

► adv

3 (informal, chiefly US & Canad & Austral) very: mighty hungry > mightily adv

> mightiness n

migraine (mee-grain, mye-grain) n a throbbing headache usually affecting only one side of the head and commonly accompanied by nausea and visual disturbances migrant n

1 a person or animal that moves from one place to another ◇ SYNONYMS: wanderer, immigrant, traveller, rover, nomad, emigrant, itinerant, drifter

► adj

2 moving from one place to another: migrant farm labourers

◇ SYNONYMS: itinerant, wandering, drifting, roving, travelling, shifting, immigrant, transient migrate vb -grating, -grated

1 to go from one place to settle in another, esp. in a foreign country

◇ SYNONYMS: move, travel, journey, wander, trek, voyage, roam, emigrate

2 (of living creatures, esp. birds) to journey between different habitats at specific times of the year > migration n

> migratory adj

mike n (informal) a microphone milch (miltch) adj (chiefly Brit) (esp. of cattle) kept for milk mild adj

1 (of a taste or sensation) not strong; bland

◇ SYNONYMS: bland, thin, smooth, tasteless, insipid, flavourless

2 gentle or temperate in character, climate, or behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: temperate, warm, calm, moderate, tranquil, balmy

3 not extreme; moderate: mild criticism of senior officers

4 feeble; unassertive: a mild protest

► n

5 (Brit) a dark beer flavoured with fewer hops than bitter > mildly adv

mildew n

1 a disease of plants caused by a parasitic fungus

2 same as mould

► vb

3 to affect or become affected with mildew > mildewy adj

mile n

1 Also: statute mile a unit of length used in the UK, the US and certain other countries, equal to 1760 yards. 1 mile is equivalent to 1.60934 kilometres

2 See nautical mile

3 Also: miles (informal) a great distance; great deal: he missed by miles

4 a race extending over a mile

► adv

5 miles very much: it's miles better than their first album mileage n

1 a distance expressed in miles

2 the total number of miles that a motor vehicle has travelled

3 the number of miles a motor vehicle will travel on one gallon of fuel

4 (informal) the usefulness or benefit of something: the opposition is trying to make political mileage out of the issue mileometer or milometer (mile-om-it-er) n (Brit) a device that records the number of miles that a vehicle has travelled milestone n

- 1 a stone pillar that shows the distance in miles to or from a place
- 2 a significant event in a life or history: a milestone in Turkish-Bulgarian relations

milieu (meal-yuh) n, pl milieux or milieus (meal-yuhz) the social and cultural environment in which a person or thing exists: the film takes for its milieu an apparently wholesome small town

militant adj

- 1 very active or aggressive in the support of a cause
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: aggressive, active, vigorous, assertive, combative
- 2 (formal) warring; engaged in warfare
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: aggressive, active, vigorous, assertive, combative
- n
- 3 a militant person
 - > militancy n
 - > militantly adv

militarism n the pursuit of policies intended to create and maintain aggressive and influential armed forces

- > militarist n, adj
- > militaristic adj

militarized or -rised adj occupied by armed forces: one of the most heavily militarized borders in the world

- > militarization or -risation n military adj

- 1 of or relating to the armed forces or war
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: warlike, armed, soldierly, martial

2 of or characteristic of soldiers

◇ SYNONYMS: warlike, armed, soldierly, martial

► n

3 the military the armed services, esp. the army

◇ SYNONYMS the military: the armed forces, the forces, the services, the army > militarily adv

militate vb -tating, -tated (of facts or events) to have a strong influence or effect: our position militated against counter-attacks militia (mill-ish-a) n a military force of trained civilians enlisted for use in emergency only > militiaman n

milk n

1

A a whitish fluid secreted by the mammary glands of mature female mammals and used for feeding their young

B the milk of cows, goats, etc., used by humans as a food and to make cheese, butter, and yogurt

2 any similar fluid, such as the juice of a coconut

► vb

3 to draw milk from the udder of a cow or other animal

4 to extract as much money, help, or value as possible from: he was accused of milking the situation for his own ends

◇ SYNONYMS: exploit, pump, take advantage of > milker n

> milkiness n > milky adj

milk float n (Brit) a small electrically powered vehicle used to deliver milk to houses milkmaid n a girl or woman who milks cows milkman n, pl -men (Brit & Austral & NZ) a man who delivers milk to people's houses milk shake n a cold frothy drink made of milk, flavouring, and sometimes ice cream, whisked or beaten together

milksoap n a feeble or ineffectual man or youth

Milky Way n

1 the diffuse band of light stretching across the night sky that consists of millions of distant stars in our galaxy

2 the galaxy in which the Earth is situated mill n

1 a building where grain is crushed and ground to make flour

2 a factory, esp. one which processes raw materials: a steel mill

◇ SYNONYMS: factory, works, plant, workshop, foundry

3 any of various processing or manufacturing machines, esp. one that grinds, presses, or rolls

4 a small device for grinding solids: a pepper mill

◇ SYNONYMS: grinder, crusher, quern

5 go or be put through the mill to have an unpleasant experience or ordeal
► vb

6 to grind, press, or process in or as if in a mill

◇ SYNONYMS: grind, pound, crush, powder, grate

7 to groove or flute the edge of a coin

8 (often foll. by about or around) to move about in a confused manner: the corridor was full of people milling about

◇ SYNONYMS mill about or around: swarm, crowd, stream, surge, throng millennial (mill-en-nee-al) adj

1 of or relating to a millennium

► n

2 a member of the generation who became adults in the early 21st century millennium (mill-en-nee-um) n, pl -nia (-nee-a) or -niums

1 a period of one thousand years

2 the Millennium (Christianity) the period of a thousand years of Christ's awaited reign upon earth

3 a future period of peace and happiness mill*er* n (history) a person who owns or operates a mill, esp. a corn mill millet n a cereal grass cultivated for its edible grain and as animal fodder milli- combining form denoting 10^{-3} : millimetre millibar n a unit of atmospheric pressure equal to 100 newtons per square metre millimetre or (US) millimeter n a unit of length equal to one thousandth of a metre milliner n a person who makes or sells women's hats > millinery n

million n, pl -lions or -lion

1 the number equal to one thousand thousands: 1 000 000 or 10^6

2 (often pl, informal) an extremely large but unspecified number: I've got a million things to do today

> millionth n, adj millionaire n a person who has money or property worth at least a million pounds, dollars, etc.

> millionairess fem n millipede or millepede n a small crawling animal with a cylindrical many-segmented body, each segment of which bears two pairs of legs

millstone n

1 one of a pair of heavy flat stones that are rotated one against the other to grind grain

2 a heavy burden of responsibility or obligation: the debt had become a millstone round his neck millwheel n a water wheel that drives a mill milometer (mile-om-it-er) n same as mileometer milt n the male reproductive gland, sperm, or semen of a fish mime n

1 a style of acting using only gesture and bodily movement and not words

2 a performer specializing in this

3 a performance in this style

► vb miming, mimed

4 to express or describe something in actions or gestures without using speech

5 (of musicians) to pretend to be singing or playing music that is actually prerecorded > mimer n

mimic vb -icking, -icked

1 to imitate a person or a way of acting or speaking, esp. to entertain or make fun of ◇ SYNONYMS: imitate, do (informal), take off (informal), ape, parody, caricature, impersonate

2 to take on the appearance of: certain flies mimic wasps

3 to copy closely or in a servile manner: social climbers in the colonies began to mimic their conquerors

► n

4 a person or an animal, such as a parrot, that is clever at mimicking ◇ SYNONYMS: imitator, impressionist, copycat (informal), impersonator, caricaturist mimicry n, pl -ries

1 the act or art of copying or imitating closely

2 (biol) the resemblance shown by one animal species to another dangerous or inedible one, which protects it from predators min.

1 minimum

2 minute or minutes

minaret n a slender tower of a mosque with one or more balconies mince vb mincing, minced

1 to chop, grind, or cut into very small pieces

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, grind, crumble, dice, hash, chop up

2 to walk or speak in an affected dainty manner

3 not mince one's words to be direct and to the point rather than making an effort to avoid upsetting people

► n

4 (chiefly Brit & NZ) minced meat > minced adj

> mincer n

mincemeat n

1 a mixture of dried fruit and spices used for filling pies

2 make mincemeat of (informal) to defeat completely mince pie n a small round pastry tart filled with mincemeat mincing adj (of a person or their style of walking or speaking) affectedly elegant ◇ SYNONYMS: affected, precious, pretentious, dainty, foppish mind n

1 the part of a person responsible for thought, feelings, and intention. RELATED ADJECTIVE: mental

2 intelligence as opposed to feelings or wishes

◇ SYNONYMS: intelligence, reason, reasoning, understanding, sense, brain(s) (informal), wits, intellect

3 memory or recollection: his name didn't spring to mind immediately

◇ SYNONYMS: memory, recollection, remembrance, powers of recollection

4 a person considered as an intellectual being: one of Europe's greatest minds

5 the condition or state of a person's feelings or thoughts: a confused state of mind

6 an intention or desire: I have a mind to go

◇ SYNONYMS: intention, wish, desire, urge, fancy, leaning, notion, inclination

7 attention or thoughts: keep your mind on the job

8 a sound mental state; sanity: he's out of his mind

◇ SYNONYMS: sanity, reason, senses, judgment, wits, marbles (informal), rationality, mental balance

9 change one's mind to alter one's decision or opinion

10 give someone a piece of one's mind to scold someone severely

11 in two minds undecided or wavering

12 make up one's mind to reach a decision

13 on one's mind in one's thoughts

14 to my mind in my opinion

► vb

15 to take offence at: do you mind if I open a window?

◇ SYNONYMS: take offence at, dislike, care about, object to, resent, disapprove of, be bothered by, be affronted by 16 to pay attention to: to mind one's own business

◇ SYNONYMS: pay attention to, mark, note, listen to, observe, obey, heed, take heed of 17 to make certain; ensure: mind you tell him

18 to take care of: mind the shop

◇ SYNONYMS: look after, watch, protect, tend, guard, take care of, attend to, keep an eye on 19 to be cautious or careful about: mind how you go

◇ SYNONYMS: be careful, watch, take care, be wary, be cautious, be on your guard

20 (dialect) to remember minded adj having a mind or inclination as specified: commercially minded minder n (slang) an aide or assistant, esp. one employed as a bodyguard or public relations officer for someone mindful adj mindful of being aware of and taking into account: the company is ever mindful of the need to find new markets

mindless adj

1 stupid or careless

2 requiring little or no intellectual effort

3 heedless: mindless of the risks involved > mindlessly adv

> mindlessness n

mine¹ pron

1 something or someone belonging to or associated with me: it's a great favourite of mine

2 of mine belonging to or associated with me

► adj

3 (archaic) same as my: mine eyes; mine host mine² n

1 a place where minerals, esp. coal, ores, or precious stones, are dug from the ground

◇ SYNONYMS: pit, deposit, shaft, colliery, excavation

2 a type of bomb placed in water or under the ground, and designed to destroy ships, vehicles, or people passing over or near it

3 a profitable source or abundant supply: a mine of information

◇ SYNONYMS: source, store, fund, stock, supply, reserve, treasury, wealth

► vb mining, mined

4 to dig minerals from the ground: lead has been mined here for over three centuries

◇ SYNONYMS: dig up, extract, quarry, unearth, excavate, hew, dig for 5 to dig a hole or tunnel, esp. in order to obtain minerals

6 to place explosive mines in or on: the retreating troops had mined the bridge minefield n

1 an area of ground or water containing explosive mines

2 a subject or situation full of hidden problems miner n a person who works in a mine, esp. a coal mine

◇ SYNONYMS: coalminer, pitman (Brit), collier (Brit)

mineral n

1 a naturally occurring solid inorganic substance with a characteristic chemical composition and structure

2 any inorganic matter

3 any substance obtained by mining, esp. a metal ore

4 (Brit) a soft drink containing carbonated water and flavourings

► adj

5 of, containing, or resembling minerals mineralogy (min-er-al-a-jee) n the scientific study of minerals > mineralogical adj

> mineralogist n

mineral water n water containing dissolved mineral salts or gases minestrone (min-ness-strone-ee) n a soup made from a variety of vegetables and pasta

minesweeper n a naval vessel equipped to clear mines minger n (Brit informal) an unattractive person minging n (Brit informal) unattractive or unpleasant mingle vb -gling, -gled

1 to mix or blend

◇ SYNONYMS: mix, combine, blend, merge, unite, join, interweave, intermingle

2 to associate or mix with a group of people: the performers mingled with the audience after the show

◇ SYNONYMS: associate, consort, socialize, rub shoulders (informal), hobnob, fraternize, hang about or around mingy adj -gier, -giest (Brit & NZ informal) mean or miserly mini adj

1 small; miniature

2 (of a skirt or dress) very short

► n, pl minis

3 something very small of its kind, esp. a miniskirt miniature n

1 a model or representation on a very small scale

2 a very small painting, esp. a portrait

3 a very small bottle of whisky or other spirits, which can hold 50 millilitres

4 in miniature on a small scale

► adj

5 much smaller than usual; small-scale

◇ SYNONYMS: small, little, minute, tiny, toy, scaled-down, diminutive, minuscule > miniaturist n

miniaturize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised to make a very small version of something, esp. electronic components > miniaturization or -risation n minibar n a selection of drinks and confectionery provided in a hotel room minibus n a small bus minicab n (Brit) an ordinary car used as a taxi minicomputer n a small computer which is more powerful than a microcomputer minidisc n a small recordable compact disc minim n

1 a unit of fluid measure equal to one sixtieth of a drachm

2 (music) a note with the time value of half a semibreve minimal adj of the least possible quantity or degree

◇ SYNONYMS: minimum, smallest, least, slightest, token, nominal, negligible, least possible minimize or -mise vb -mizing, -mized or -mising, -mised

1 to reduce to the lowest possible degree or amount: these measures should help minimize our costs

◇ SYNONYMS: reduce, decrease, shrink, diminish, prune, curtail, miniaturize 2 to regard or treat as less important than it really is; belittle: I don't want to minimize the importance of her contribution

◇ SYNONYMS: play down, discount, belittle, disparage, decry, underrate, deprecate, make light or little of minimum n, pl -mums or -ma

1 the least possible amount, degree, or quantity: fry the burgers in the minimum of oil

◇ SYNONYMS: lowest, least, lowest level, nadir

2 the least amount recorded, allowed, or reached: soak the beans for a minimum of eight hours

► adj

3 of, being, or showing a minimum or minimums: the minimum age

◇ SYNONYMS: lowest, smallest, least, slightest, minimal, least possible minion n a servile assistant miniseries n, pl -series a television programme in several parts that is shown on consecutive days over a short period minister n

1 (esp. in Presbyterian and some Nonconformist Churches) a member of the clergy

◇ SYNONYMS: clergyman or woman, priest, vicar, parson, preacher, pastor, cleric, rector

2 a head of a government department

3 a diplomat with a lower rank than an ambassador

► vb

4 minister to to attend to the needs of ◇ SYNONYMS minister to: attend to, serve, tend to, take care of, cater to, pander to, administer to > ministerial adj ministry n, pl -tries

1 the profession or duties of a minister of religion

◇ SYNONYMS: the priesthood, the church, the cloth, holy orders

2 ministers considered as a group

◇ SYNONYMS: administration, council

3

A a government department headed by a minister

◇ SYNONYMS: department, office, bureau, government department

B the buildings of such a department mink n, pl mink or minks

1 a mammal of Europe, Asia, and North America, resembling a large stoat

2 its highly valued fur

3 a garment made of this, esp. a coat or stole minnow n, pl -nows or -now a small slender European freshwater fish minor adj

1 lesser or secondary in size, frequency, or importance than others of the same kind: a minor poet

2 not very serious or significant: minor injuries

◇ SYNONYMS: small, lesser, slight, petty, trivial, insignificant, unimportant, inconsequential

3 (music)

A (of a scale) having a semitone between the second and third and fifth and sixth notes (natural minor)

B of or based on the minor scale: his quintet in C minor; a minor third

► n

4 a person below the age of legal majority

5 (US & Canad & Austral, education) a subsidiary subject

6 (music) a minor key, chord, mode, or scale

► vb

7 minor in (US & Canad, education) to study as a subsidiary subject: to minor in politics minority n, pl -ties

1 the smaller of two parts, factions, or groups

2 a group that is different, esp. racially or politically, from a larger group of which it is a part

3 in the minority forming or part of the group of people or things made up of less than half of a larger group

► adj

4 relating to or being a minority: a minority sport minster n (Brit) any of certain cathedrals and large churches, usually originally connected to a monastery minstrel n

1 a medieval singer and musician

2 a performer in a minstrel show mint¹ n

1 any of various plants with aromatic leaves used for seasoning and flavouring

2 a sweet flavoured with mint > minty adj

mint² n

1 a factory where the official coins of a country are made

2 a very large amount of money

► adj

3 in mint condition in perfect condition; as if new

► vb

4 to make coins by stamping metal

◇ SYNONYMS: make, produce, strike, cast, stamp, punch, coin

5 to invent or create: no-one knows who first minted the term 'yuppie' minuet (min-new-et) n

1 a stately court dance of the 17th and 18th centuries in triple time

2 music for this dance

minus prep

1 reduced by the subtraction of: six minus two equals four

2 (informal) without or lacking: he returned minus his jacket

► adj

3 indicating or involving subtraction: a minus sign

4 Also: negative less than zero: it's minus eight degrees in Montreal today

5 (education) slightly below the standard of a particular grade: a C minus for maths

► n

6 a negative quantity

7 (informal) something detrimental or negative minuscule (min-niss-skyool) adj very small minute¹ n

1 60 seconds; one sixtieth of an hour

2 any very short period of time; moment: I'll be with you in a minute

◇ SYNONYMS: moment, second, bit, flash, instant, tick (Brit informal), sec (informal), short time

3 the distance that can be travelled in a minute: it's about ten minutes away

4 a measure of angle equal to one sixtieth of a degree

5 up to the minute the very latest or newest ► vb -nuting, -nuted

6 to record in minutes: the decision was minuted in 1990

minute² adj

1 very small; tiny

◇ SYNONYMS: small, little, tiny, miniature, microscopic, diminutive, minuscule, infinitesimal

2 precise or detailed: a minute examination

◇ SYNONYMS: precise, close, detailed, critical, exact, meticulous, exhaustive, painstaking > minutely adv

minutiae (my-new-shee-eye) pl n, sing -tia trifling or precise details minx n a bold or flirtatious girl miracle n

- 1 an event contrary to the laws of nature and attributed to a supernatural cause
 - 2 any amazing and fortunate event: it's a miracle that no-one was killed in the accident
 - 3 a marvellous example of something: a miracle of organization
- ◇ SYNONYMS: wonder, phenomenon, sensation, marvel, amazing achievement, astonishing feat miracle play n a medieval play based on a biblical story or the life of a saint miraculous adj

- 1 like a miracle
 - 2 surprising or remarkable
- ◇ SYNONYMS: wonderful, amazing, extraordinary, incredible (informal), astonishing, unbelievable, phenomenal, astounding
- > miraculously adv

mirage (mir-rahzh) n

- 1 an image of a distant object or sheet of water, often inverted or distorted, caused by atmospheric refraction by hot air
- 2 something illusory: the mirage of economic recovery

mire n

- 1 a boggy or marshy area
 - 2 mud, muck, or dirt
 - 3 an unpleasant or difficult situation that is difficult to get out of: the country sank deeper into the economic mire
- vb miring, mired
- 4 to sink or be stuck in a mire: the company has been mired in financial scandal

mirror n

1 a sheet of glass with a metal coating on its back, that reflects an image of an object placed in front of it

◇ SYNONYMS: looking-glass, glass (Brit), reflector

2 a thing that reflects or depicts something else

► vb

3 to reflect or represent faithfully: the book inevitably mirrors my own interests

◇ SYNONYMS: reflect, follow, copy, echo, emulate mirth n laughter, gaiety, or merriment > mirthful adj

> mirthless adj

mis- prefix

1 wrong or bad; wrongly or badly: misunderstanding; mislead

2 lack of; not: mistrust misadventure n

1 an unlucky event; misfortune

2 (law) accidental death not due to crime or negligence misanthrope (miz-zan-thrope) or misanthropist (miz-zan-throp-ist) n a person who dislikes or distrusts people in general > misanthropic (miz-zan-throp-ik) adj > misanthropy (miz-zan-throp-ee) n misapprehend vb to misunderstand > misapprehension n

misappropriate vb -ating, -ated to take and use money dishonestly > misappropriation n miscarriage n

1 spontaneous premature expulsion of a fetus from the womb, esp. before the 20th week of pregnancy

2 an act of mismanagement or failure: a miscarriage of justice

◇ SYNONYMS: failure, error, breakdown, mishap, perversion miscarry vb -ries, -rying, -ried

1 to expel a fetus prematurely from the womb

2 to fail

miscast vb -casting, -cast to cast a role or an actor in a play or film inappropriately: the role of the avaricious boss was miscast; she was miscast as Cassandra miscegenation (miss-ij-in-nay-shun) n (old-fashioned) interbreeding of races, esp. where differences of colour are involved miscellaneous (miss-sel-lane-ee-uss) adj composed of or containing a variety of things; mixed or assorted miscellany (miss-sell-a-nee) n, pl -nies a mixed assortment of items mischance n

1 bad luck

2 an unlucky event or accident mischief n

1 annoying but not malicious behaviour that causes trouble or irritation

2 an inclination to tease

3 injury or harm caused by a person or thing mischievous (miss-chiv-uss) adj

1 full of mischief

2 teasing; slightly malicious

3 intended to cause harm: a purveyor of mischievous disinformation > mischievously adv

miscible (miss-sib-bl) adj able to be mixed: miscible with water > miscibility n

misconception n a false or mistaken view, idea, or belief misconduct n behaviour, such as adultery or professional negligence, that is regarded as immoral or unethical

◇ SYNONYMS: immorality, wrongdoing, mismanagement, malpractice, impropriety miscreant (miss-kree-ant) n a wrongdoer or villain misdeed n an evil or illegal action misdeemeanour or (US) misdemeanor n

1 a minor wrongdoing

2 (criminal law) (formerly) an offence less serious than a felony miser n a person who hoards money and hates spending it: I'm married to a miser > miserly adj

miserable adj

1 unhappy or depressed; wretched

◇ SYNONYMS: sad, depressed, gloomy, forlorn, dejected, despondent, sorrowful, wretched

2 causing misery or discomfort: a miserable existence

3 sordid or squalid: miserable living conditions

4 mean or ungenerous: a miserable pension

◇ SYNONYMS: pathetic, sorry, shameful, despicable, deplorable, lamentable > miserableness n

> miserably adv

misery n, pl -eries

1 intense unhappiness or suffering

◇ SYNONYMS: unhappiness, distress, despair, grief, suffering, depression, gloom, torment

2 something which causes such unhappiness

3 squalid or poverty-stricken conditions

4 (Brit informal) a person who is habitually depressed: he is such a misery

◇ SYNONYMS: moaner, pessimist, killjoy, spoilsport (informal), prophet of doom, wet blanket (informal), sourpuss (informal), wowser (Austral & NZ slang)

misfire vb -firing, -fired

1 (of a firearm) to fail to fire as expected

2 (of a motor engine or vehicle) to fail to fire at the appropriate time

3 to fail to have the intended result; go wrong: he was injured when a practical joke misfired

► n

4 the act or an instance of misfiring misfit n a person who is not suited to the role, social group, etc., he or she finds himself or herself in misfortune n

1 bad luck

◇ SYNONYMS: bad luck, adversity, hard luck, ill luck, infelicity, bad trot (Austral slang)

2 an unfortunate event

◇ SYNONYMS: mishap, trouble, disaster, reverse, tragedy, setback, calamity, affliction misgivings pl n feelings of uncertainty, fear, or doubt misguided adj mistaken or unwise

◇ SYNONYMS: unwise, mistaken, misplaced, deluded, ill-advised, imprudent, injudicious mishandle vb -dling, -dled to handle or treat badly or inefficiently mishap n a minor accident misinform vb to give incorrect information to > misinformation n

misjudge vb -judging, -judged to judge wrongly or unfairly > misjudgment or misjudgement n mislay vb -lays, -laying, -laid to lose something temporarily, esp. by forgetting where it is mislead vb -leading, -led to give false or confusing information to ◇ SYNONYMS: deceive, fool, delude, take someone in (informal), misdirect, misinform, hoodwink, misguide misleading adj giving a false or confusing impression: misleading use of statistical data

◇ SYNONYMS: confusing, false, ambiguous, deceptive, evasive, disingenuous mismanage vb -naging, -naged to organize or run something badly > mismanagement n

misnomer (miss-no-mer) n 1 an incorrect or unsuitable name for a person or thing 2 the use of the wrong name misogyny (miss-oj-in-ee) n hatred of women > misogynist n > misogynous adj misplace vb -placing, -placed 1 to lose something temporarily by forgetting where it was placed 2 to put something in the wrong place misprint n

1 an error in printing
▶ vb
2 to print a letter incorrectly misrepresent vb to represent wrongly or inaccurately > misrepresentation n

miss vb
1 to fail to notice, see, or hear: it's right at the top of the hill, so you can't miss it; I missed what he said because I was talking at the time
◇ SYNONYMS: fail to notice, overlook, pass over 2 to fail to hit something aimed at: he threw the ball at the stumps but missed
3 to fail to achieve or reach: they narrowly missed promotion last season 4 to fail to take advantage of: he never missed a chance to make money
5 to fail or be unable to be present: he had missed the last three meetings ◇ SYNONYMS: not go to, skip (informal), cut, omit, be absent from, fail to attend, skive off (informal), play truant from, bludge (Austral & NZ informal)

6 to be too late for: we missed the bus and had to walk

7 to discover or regret the loss or absence of: the boys miss their father when he's away on business

◇ SYNONYMS: long for, yearn for, pine for, long to see, ache for, feel the loss of, regret the absence of 8 to escape or avoid narrowly: it missed the helicopter's rotors by inches

◇ SYNONYMS: avoid, beat, escape, skirt, duck (informal), cheat, bypass, dodge

► n

9 a failure to hit, reach, etc.: an easy miss in the second frame gave his opponent the advantage

◇ SYNONYMS: mistake, failure, error, blunder, omission, oversight

10 give something a miss to decide not to do, go to, or take part in something: I'll give the pub a miss and have a quiet night in

Miss n a title of a girl or unmarried woman, usually used before the surname:
Miss Brown to you

missal n (RC Church) a book containing the prayers and rites of the Masses for a complete year misshapen adj badly shaped; deformed missile n

1 a rocket with an exploding warhead, used as a weapon

◇ SYNONYMS: projectile, weapon, shell, rocket

2 an object or weapon that is thrown, launched, or fired at a target

◇ SYNONYMS: projectile, weapon, shell, rocket

missing adj

1 not in its proper or usual place and unable to be found

◇ SYNONYMS: lost, misplaced, not present, astray, unaccounted for, mislaid

2 not able to be traced and not known to be dead: seven men were reported missing after the raid

3 not included in something although it perhaps should have been: two things are missing from the report mission n

- 1 a specific task or duty assigned to a person or group of people
- 2 a task or duty that a person believes he or she must achieve; vocation: he felt it was his mission to pass on his knowledge to other people ◇ SYNONYMS: task, job, commission, duty, undertaking, quest, assignment, vocation
- 3 a group of people representing or working for a particular country or organization in a foreign country: the UN peacekeeping mission
- 4 a group of people sent by a church to a foreign country to do religious and social work
- 5 the place in which a church or government mission is based
- 6 the dispatch of aircraft or spacecraft to achieve a particular task
- 7 a charitable centre that offers shelter or aid to poor or needy people
- 8 (S African) a long and difficult process missionary n, pl -naries

- 1 a person sent abroad by a church to do religious and social work ◇ SYNONYMS: evangelist, preacher, apostle
- adj
- 2 of or relating to missionaries: missionary work
- 3 resulting from a desire to convert people to one's own beliefs: missionary zeal missive n a formal or official letter missus or missis n

- 1 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) one's wife or the wife of the person addressed or referred to: the missus is a teacher
- 2 an informal term of address for a woman mist n

- 1 a thin fog

- ◇ SYNONYMS: fog, cloud, steam, spray, film, haze, vapour, smog
- 2 a fine spray of liquid, such as that produced by an aerosol container
- ◇ SYNONYMS: fog, cloud, steam, spray, film, haze, vapour, smog
- 3 condensed water vapour on a surface
- 4 something that causes haziness or lack of clarity, such as a film of tears
- vb
- 5 to cover or be covered with mist: the windscreen has misted up again; his eyes misted over and he shook with rage
- > misty adj
- > mistiness n

mistake n

- 1 an error or blunder
- ◇ SYNONYMS: error, blunder, oversight, slip, gaffe (informal), miscalculation, faux pas, barry or Barry Crocker (Austral slang)
- 2 a misconception or misunderstanding
- ◇ SYNONYMS: oversight, error, slip, fault, howler (informal), erratum, barry or Barry Crocker (Austral slang)
- vb -taking, -took, -taken
- 3 to misunderstand or misinterpret: the chaplain quite mistook her meaning
- ◇ SYNONYMS: misunderstand, misinterpret, misjudge, misread, misconstrue, misapprehend
- 4 (foll. by for) to confuse a person or thing with another: they saw the HMS Sheffield and mistook her for the Bismarck
- ◇ SYNONYMS mistake something or someone for something or someone: confuse with, take for, mix up with
- 5 to choose badly or incorrectly: he mistook his path

Mister n the full form of Mr mistletoe n a Eurasian evergreen shrub with waxy white berries, which grows as a parasite on various trees mistral n a strong cold dry northerly wind of S France mistress n

1 a woman who has a continuing sexual relationship with a man who is usually married to somebody else

◇ SYNONYMS: lover, girlfriend, concubine (old-fashioned), kept woman, paramour (old-fashioned)

2 a woman in a position of authority, ownership, or control

3 a woman having control over something specified: she is a mistress of disguise

4 (chiefly Brit) a female teacher mistrial n (law) a trial which is invalid because of some error mistrust vb

1 to have doubts or suspicions about

► n

2 lack of trust > mistrustful adj

> mistrustfully adv

misunderstand vb -standing, -stood to fail to understand properly ◇ SYNONYMS: misinterpret, misread, mistake, misjudge, misconstrue, misapprehend, be at cross-purposes with misunderstanding n

1 a failure to understand properly

◇ SYNONYMS: mistake, error, mix-up, misconception, misinterpretation, misjudgment

2 a disagreement misuse n

1 incorrect, improper, or careless use: misuse of drugs

◇ SYNONYMS: waste, squandering

2 cruel or inhumane treatment

► vb -using, -used

3 to use wrongly

◇ SYNONYMS: abuse, misapply, prostitute (old-fashioned, derogatory)

4 to treat badly or harshly mite¹ n any of numerous very small creatures of the spider family, some of which live as parasites mite² n

1 a very small creature or thing

2 a mite (informal) somewhat: the main course was a mite bland mitigate vb -gating, -gated to make less severe or harsh > mitigating adj

> mitigation n

mitre or (US) miter (my-ter) n

1 (Christianity) the headdress of a bishop or abbot, consisting of a tall pointed cleft cap

2 Also: mitre joint a corner joint formed by cutting bevels of equal angles at the ends of each piece of material

► vb -tring, -tred or -tering, -tered

3 to join with a mitre joint mitt n

1 a glovelike hand covering that does not cover the fingers

2 short for mitten

3 (slang) a hand

4 a baseball glove

mitten n a glove with one section for the thumb and a single section for the fingers mix vb

1 to combine or blend into one mass or substance: mix the water, yeast, and flour into a smooth dough

◇ SYNONYMS: combine, blend, merge, join, cross, fuse, mingle, jumble

2 to be able to combine into one substance: oil and water do not mix

3 to form by combining different substances: to mix cement

4 to do at the same time: to mix business and pleasure

◇ SYNONYMS: combine, marry, blend, integrate, amalgamate, coalesce, meld

5 to be outgoing in social situations: he mixed well

◇ SYNONYMS: socialize, associate, hang out (informal), mingle, circulate, consort, hobnob, fraternize

6 (music) to balance and adjust individual performers' parts to make an overall sound by electronic means

► n

7 something produced by mixing; mixture

◇ SYNONYMS: mixture, combination, blend, fusion, compound, assortment, alloy, medley

8 a mixture of ingredients, esp. one commercially prepared for making a cake

9 (music) the sound produced by mixing

► See also mix-up > mixed adj

mixer n

1 a kitchen appliance, usually electrical, used for mixing foods

2 any of various other devices or machines used for mixing things: a cement mixer

3 a nonalcoholic drink such as tonic water or ginger ale that is mixed with an alcoholic drink

4 (informal) a person considered in relation to his or her ability to mix socially: he's not a good mixer

mixture n

1 something produced by blending or combining other things: top with the cheese and breadcrumb mixture

◇ SYNONYMS: composite, compound

2 a combination of different things, such as feelings: he speaks of her with a mixture of loyalty and regret

◇ SYNONYMS: blend, mix, variety, fusion, assortment, brew, jumble, medley 3 (chem) a substance consisting of two or more substances mixed together without any chemical bonding between them

mix-up n

1 a confused condition or situation

◇ SYNONYMS: confusion, mistake, misunderstanding, mess, tangle, muddle

► vb mix up

2 to make into a mixture

◇ SYNONYMS mix something up: blend, beat, mix, stir, fold

3 to confuse: he mixes Ryan up with Lee

4 mixed up in involved in (an activity or group, esp. one that is illegal): she's mixed up in a drugs racket

mizzenmast n (naut) (on a vessel with three or more masts) the third mast from the bow mm millimetre(s) mnemonic (nim-on-ik) n

1 something, for instance a verse, intended to help the memory

► adj

2 aiding or meant to aid one's memory > mnemonically adv

mo n (informal, chiefly Brit) short for moment

MO

1 Medical Officer

2 Missouri

moa n a recently extinct large flightless bird of New Zealand that resembled the ostrich

moan n

1 a low prolonged cry of pain or suffering

◇ SYNONYMS: groan, sigh, sob, lament, wail, grunt, whine

2 any similar sound, esp. that made by the wind

3 (informal) a grumble or complaint

◇ SYNONYMS: complaint, protest, grumble, whine, grouse, gripe (informal), grouch (informal)

► vb

4 to make a low cry of, or talk in a way suggesting, pain or suffering: he moaned in pain

◇ SYNONYMS: groan, sigh, sob, whine, lament

5 to make a sound like a moan: the wind moaned through the trees

6 (informal) to grumble or complain

◇ SYNONYMS: grumble, complain, groan (informal), whine, carp, grouse, whinge (informal), bleat > moaner n

moat n a wide ditch, originally filled with water, surrounding a fortified place such as a castle mob n

1 a riotous or disorderly crowd of people

◇ SYNONYMS: crowd, pack, mass, host, drove, flock, swarm, horde

2 (informal) any group of people

◇ SYNONYMS: gang, group, set, lot, crew (informal)

3 the masses

4 (slang) a gang of criminals

► vb mobbing, mobbed

5 to attack in a group resembling a mob

6 to surround in a crowd to acclaim or attack: she was mobbed by her fans when she left the theatre

◇ SYNONYMS: surround, besiege, jostle, fall on, set upon, crowd around, swarm around mobile adj

1 able to move or be moved: mobile toilets

◇ SYNONYMS: movable, moving, travelling, wandering, portable, itinerant, peripatetic

2 changing quickly in expression: a mobile face

3 (sociol) (of individuals or social groups) moving within and between classes, occupations, and localities

► n

4 a light structure suspended in midair with delicately balanced parts that are set in motion by air currents

5 short for mobile phone > mobility n

mobile phone n a portable telephone powered by batteries mobilize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to prepare for war or another emergency by organizing resources and the armed services

◇ SYNONYMS: deploy, prepare, ready, rally, assemble, call up, marshal, muster

2 to organize for a purpose: we must mobilize local residents behind our campaign

◇ SYNONYMS: rally, organize, stimulate, excite, prompt, marshal, activate, awaken > mobilization or -lisation n moccasin n

1 a type of soft leather shoe traditionally worn by some Native American peoples

2 a soft leather shoe with a raised seam at the front above the toe mocha (mock-a) n

1 a dark brown coffee originally imported from the port of Mocha in Arabia

2 a flavouring made from coffee and chocolate mock vb

1 to behave with scorn or contempt towards a person or thing: her husband mocked her attempts to educate herself

◇ SYNONYMS: laugh at, tease, ridicule, taunt, scorn, sneer, scoff, deride

2 to imitate or mimic, esp. in fun

3 to defy or frustrate: the team mocked the visitors' attempts to score

► n

4 mocks (informal) (in England and Wales) school examinations taken as practice before public exams

► adj

5 sham or imitation: mock Georgian windows

◇ SYNONYMS: imitation, pretended, artificial, fake, false, dummy, sham, feigned

6 serving as an imitation or substitute, esp. for practice purposes: a mock battle

◇ SYNONYMS: imitation, pretended, artificial, fake, false, dummy, sham, feigned

► See also mock-up > mocking n, adj mockers pl n put the mockers on (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) to ruin the chances of success of mockery n, pl -eries

1 ridicule, contempt, or derision

2 a person, thing, or action that is so worthless that it seems like a parody: the interview was a mockery from start to finish

3 make a mockery of something to make something appear worthless or foolish: the judge's decision makes a mockery of the law mockingbird n an American songbird which can mimic the song of other birds mock orange n a shrub with white fragrant flowers like those of the orange mock-up n a working full-scale model of a machine or apparatus for test or research purposes mod n an annual Highland Gaelic meeting with musical and literary competitions

MOD (in Britain) Ministry of Defence mod.

1 moderate

2 modern mode n

1 a manner or way of doing, acting, or existing

◇ SYNONYMS: method, way, system, form, process, style, technique, manner

2 a particular fashion or style

◇ SYNONYMS: fashion, style, trend, rage, vogue, look, craze

3 (music) any of the various scales of notes within one octave

4 (maths) the most frequently occurring of a range of values model n

1 a three-dimensional representation, usually on a smaller scale, of a device or structure: an architect's model of the proposed new housing estate

◇ SYNONYMS: representation, image, copy, miniature, dummy, replica, imitation, duplicate

2 an example or pattern that people might want to follow: her success makes her an excellent role model for other women

◇ SYNONYMS: pattern, example, standard, original, ideal, prototype, paradigm, archetype

3 an outstanding example of its kind: the report is a model of clarity

4 a person who poses for a sculptor, painter, or photographer

◇ SYNONYMS: sitter, subject, poser

5 a person who wears clothes to display them to prospective buyers; mannequin

6 a design or style of a particular product: the cheapest model of this car has a 1300cc engine

7 a theoretical description of the way a system or process works: a working model of the human immune system

► adj

8 excellent or perfect: a model husband

9 being a small-scale representation of: a model aeroplane

► vb -elling, -elled (US) -eling, -eled

10 to make a model of: he modelled a plane out of balsa wood

◇ SYNONYMS: shape, form, design, fashion, carve, mould, sculpt

11 to plan or create according to a model or models: it had a constitution modelled on that of the United States

12 to display (clothing and accessories) as a mannequin ◇ SYNONYMS: show off (informal), wear, display, sport (informal)

13 to pose for a sculptor, painter, or photographer modem (mode-em) n (computers) a device for transmitting information between two computers by a telephone line, consisting of a modulator that converts computer signals into audio signals and a corresponding demodulator

moderate adj

1 not extreme or excessive: a man of moderate views; moderate consumption of alcohol

◇ SYNONYMS: mild, reasonable, controlled, limited, steady, modest, restrained, middle-of-the-road

2 (of a size, rate, intensity, etc.) towards the middle of the range of possible values: a moderate-sized garden; a moderate breeze

◇ SYNONYMS: average, middling, fair, ordinary, indifferent, mediocre, so-so (informal), passable, half-pie (NZ informal)

3 of average quality or extent: moderate success

◇ SYNONYMS: average, middling, fair, ordinary, indifferent, mediocre, so-so (informal), passable, half-pie (NZ informal)

► n

4 a person who holds moderate views, esp. in politics

► vb -rating, -rated

5 to make or become less extreme or violent: he has moderated his opinions since then

◇ SYNONYMS: soften, control, temper, regulate, curb, restrain, subdue, lessen 6 to preside over a meeting, discussion, etc. > moderately adv

moderation n

- 1 the quality of being moderate
- 2 the act of moderating
- 3 in moderation within moderate or reasonable limits moderator n

- 1 (Presbyterian Church) a minister appointed to preside over a Church court, synod, or general assembly
- 2 a person who presides over a public or legislative assembly
- 3 a material, such as heavy water, used for slowing down neutrons in nuclear reactors modern adj

- 1 of the present or a recent time; contemporary: there have been very few outbreaks of the disease in modern times
◇ SYNONYMS: current, contemporary, recent, present-day, latter-day
- 2 using the latest techniques, equipment, etc.; up-to-date: modern and efficient railways ◇ SYNONYMS: up-to-date, fresh, new, novel, newfangled
- 3 of contemporary styles or schools of art, literature, and music, esp. those of an experimental kind
- n
- 4 a contemporary person
- > modernity n modernism n an early- and mid-twentieth century movement in art, literature, and music that rejected traditional styles and techniques > modernist n, adj

modernize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised

1 to make modern in style, methods, or equipment: a commitment to modernizing industry

2 to adopt modern ways or ideas > modernization or -nisation n modest adj

1 having a humble opinion of oneself or one's accomplishments

2 not extreme or excessive: a modest increase in inflation

◇ SYNONYMS: moderate, small, limited, fair, ordinary, middling, meagre, frugal

3 not ostentatious or pretentious: a modest flat in the suburbs

◇ SYNONYMS: unpretentious, reserved, retiring, shy, coy, reticent, self-effacing, demure

4 shy or easily embarrassed

◇ SYNONYMS: unpretentious, reserved, retiring, shy, coy, reticent, self-effacing, demure

5 (old-fashioned) (esp. of clothes) not revealing much of the body: a modest dress > modestly adv

> modesty n

modicum n a small amount modifier n (grammar) a word or phrase that makes the sense of another word more specific: for example, the noun garage is a modifier of door in garage door

modify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to change or alter slightly

◇ SYNONYMS: change, reform, convert, alter, adjust, adapt, revise, remodel

2 to make less extreme or uncompromising

◇ SYNONYMS: tone down, lower, qualify, ease, moderate, temper, soften, restrain

3 (grammar) (of a word or phrase) to act as a modifier to another word or phrase > modification n

modish (mode-ish) adj in the current fashion or style > modishly adv

modulate vb -lating, -lated

1 to change the tone, pitch, or volume of (one's voice)

2 to adjust or regulate the degree of: the hormone which modulates the development of the sexual organs

3 (music) to change from one key to another

4 (physics, electronics) to superimpose the amplitude, frequency, or phase of a wave or signal onto another wave or signal > modulation n > modulator n

module n

1 a standard self-contained unit, such as an assembly of electronic components or a standardized piece of furniture, that can be used in combination with other units

2 (astronautics) a self-contained separable unit making up a spacecraft

3 (education) a short course of study that together with other such courses counts towards a qualification > modular adj

modus operandi (mode-uss op-er-an-die) n, pl modi operandi (mode-eye) method of operating mogul (moh-gl) n an important or powerful person

◇ SYNONYMS: tycoon, baron (old-fashioned), magnate, big shot (informal), big noise (informal), big hitter (informal), heavy hitter (informal), V.I.P.

mohair n

1 the long soft silky hair of the Angora goat

2 a fabric made from yarn of this hair and cotton or wool mohican n a punk hairstyle in which the head is shaved at the sides and the remaining strip of hair is worn stiffly erect and often brightly coloured moiety (moy-it-ee) n, pl -ties (archaic)

1 a half

2 one of two parts or divisions of something moist adj slightly damp or wet

◇ SYNONYMS: damp, wet, soggy, humid, clammy, dewy moisten vb to make or become moist moisture n water diffused as vapour or condensed on or in objects

◇ SYNONYMS: damp, water, liquid, dew, wetness moisturize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised to add moisture to the air or the skin > moisturizer or -riser n mojo n, pl mojos or mojoes (US slang)

1 a charm or magic spell

2 the art of casting magic spells

3 uncanny personal power or influence, esp. the power to attract sexually moke n

1 (Brit slang) a donkey

2 (Austral & NZ) a horse of inferior quality molar n

1 a large back tooth specialized for crushing and chewing food

► adj

2 of any of these teeth molasses n

1 the thick brown bitter syrup obtained from sugar during refining

2 (US & Canad) same as treacle mold n, vb (US) same as mould mole¹ n a small dark raised spot on the skin mole² n

1 a small burrowing mammal with velvety dark fur and forelimbs specialized for digging

2 (informal) a spy who has infiltrated an organization and become a trusted member of it mole³ n (chem) the basic SI unit of amount of substance: the amount that contains as many elementary entities as there are atoms in 0.012 kilogram of carbon-12

mole⁴ n

1 a breakwater

2 a harbour protected by a breakwater molecular (mol-lek-yew-lar) adj of or relating to molecules molecule (mol-lik-kyool) n

1 the simplest unit of a chemical compound that can exist, consisting of two or more atoms held together by chemical bonds

2 a very small particle

◇ SYNONYMS: particle, jot, speck molest vb

1 to accost or attack someone with the intention of assaulting her or him sexually

2 to disturb or injure, esp. by using or threatening violence: killing, capturing, or molesting the local wildlife was strictly forbidden > molestation n

> molester n

moll n (slang) a gangster's female accomplice or girlfriend mollify vb -fies, -fying, -fied to make someone less angry or upset; soothe: he sought to mollify his critics

> mollification n

mollusc or (US) mollusk n an invertebrate with a soft unsegmented body and often a shell, such as a snail, mussel, or octopus mollycoddle vb -coddling, -coddled to give an excessive amount of care and protection to Molotov cocktail n a simple bomb made from a bottle filled with petrol and a cloth wick; petrol bomb molt vb, n (US) same as moult molten adj so hot that it has melted and formed a liquid: molten metal molybdenum (mol-lib-din-um) n (chem) a very hard silvery-white metallic element used in alloys, esp. to harden and strengthen steels. SYMBOL: Mo

moment n

1 a short period of time

◇ SYNONYMS: instant, second, flash, twinkling, split second, jiffy (informal), trice

2 a specific instant or point in time: at that moment the phone rang

◇ SYNONYMS: time, point, stage, juncture

3 the moment the present point of time: for the moment he is out of prison

4 importance, significance, or value: a matter of greatest moment

5 (physics)

A a tendency to produce motion, esp. rotation about a point or axis

B the product of a physical quantity, such as force or mass, and its distance from a fixed reference point momentary adj lasting for only a moment; temporary > momentarily adv

momentous (moh-men-tuss) adj of great significance ◇ SYNONYMS: significant, important, vital, critical, crucial (informal), historic, pivotal, fateful > momentousness n momentum (moh-men-tum) n

1 the impetus to go forward, develop, or get stronger: the campaign steadily gathered support and momentum

◇ SYNONYMS: impetus, force, power, drive, push (informal), energy, strength, thrust

2 the impetus of a moving body: the sledge gathered momentum as it slid ever faster down the slope

3 (physics) the product of a body's mass and its velocity monarch n a sovereign head of state, esp. a king, queen, or emperor, who rules by hereditary right

◇ SYNONYMS: ruler, king or queen, sovereign, tsar, potentate, emperor or empress, prince or princess > monarchical or monarchic adj monarchy n, pl -chies

1 a form of government in which supreme authority is held by a single hereditary ruler, such as a king

◇ SYNONYMS: sovereignty, autocracy, kingship, queenship, royalism, monocracy

2 a country reigned over by a monarch

◇ SYNONYMS: kingdom, empire, realm, principality monastery n, pl -teries the building or group of buildings where a community of monks lives

◇ SYNONYMS: abbey, convent, priory, cloister, nunnery, friary monastic adj

1 of or relating to monasteries, monks, or nuns

2 (of a way of life) simple and austere; ascetic > monasticism n

Monday n the second day of the week, and the first day of the working week monetarism n

1 the theory that inflation is caused by an excess quantity of money in an economy

2 an economic policy based on this theory and a belief in the efficiency of free market forces > monetarist n, adj monetary adj of money or currency

◇ SYNONYMS: financial, money, economic, capital, cash, fiscal, budgetary, pecuniary money n

1 a means of payment and measure of value: some cultures used to use shells as money

◇ SYNONYMS: cash, capital, currency, hard cash, readies (informal), riches, silver, coin, kembala (Austral slang)

2 the official currency, in the form of banknotes or coins, issued by a government

◇ SYNONYMS: cash, capital, currency, hard cash, readies (informal), riches, silver, coin, kembala (Austral slang)

3 moneys or monies (law, old-fashioned) a financial sum or income

4 an unspecified amount of wealth: money to lend

5 (informal) a rich person or rich people: he married money

6 for my money in my opinion

7 one's money's worth full value for the money one has paid for something

8 put money on to place a bet on RELATED ADJECTIVE: pecuniary moneyed or monied adj having a great deal of money; rich mongol n (offensive) (not in technical use) a person affected by Down's syndrome > mongoloid n, adj

Mongolian adj

1 of Mongolia

► n

2 a person from Mongolia

3 the language of Mongolia mongolism n (offensive) a former name (not in technical use) for Down's syndrome mongoose n, pl -gooses a small long-tailed predatory mammal of Asia and Africa that kills snakes mongrel n

1 a dog of mixed breeding

2 something made up of things from a variety of sources: despite using components from three other cars, this new model is no mongrel

► adj

3 of mixed breeding or origin monitor n

1 a person or device that warns, checks, controls, or keeps a continuous record of something

◇ SYNONYMS: guide, observer, supervisor, invigilator

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ) a pupil assisting a teacher with various duties

◇ SYNONYMS: prefect (Brit), head girl, head boy, senior boy, senior girl

3 a screen used to display certain kinds of information, for example in airports or television studios

4 a large predatory lizard inhabiting warm regions of Africa, Asia, and Australia

► vb

5 to act as a monitor of

◇ SYNONYMS: check, follow, watch, survey, observe, keep an eye on, keep track of, keep tabs on

6 to observe or record the condition or performance of a person or thing

◇ SYNONYMS: check, follow, watch, survey, observe, keep an eye on, keep track of, keep tabs on

7 to check a broadcast for acceptable quality or content > monitorial adj

monk n a male member of a religious community bound by vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. RELATED ADJECTIVE: monastic

◇ SYNONYMS: friar, brother > monkish adj

monkey n

1 any long-tailed primate that is not a lemur or tarsier

◇ SYNONYMS: simian, ape, primate

2 (loosely) any primate that is not a human

◇ SYNONYMS: simian, ape, primate

3 a naughty or mischievous child

◇ SYNONYMS: rascal, horror (informal), devil, rogue, imp, tyke, scallywag, scamp, nointer (Austral slang)

4 (slang) £500 or $500

5 give a monkey's (Brit slang) to care about or regard as important: who gives a monkey's what he thinks?

► vb

6 monkey around or about with to meddle or tinker with monkey nut n (Brit) a peanut monkey puzzle n a South American coniferous tree with branches shaped like a candelabrum and stiff sharp leaves monkey wrench n (chiefly Brit) a wrench with adjustable jaws mono- or (before a vowel) mon- combining form

1 one; single: monorail; monolingual

2 (chem) indicating that a chemical compound contains a single specified atom or group: monoxide

monochrome adj

1 (photog, television) black-and-white

► n

2 a painting or drawing done in a range of tones of a single colour monocle (mon-a-kl) n (formerly) a lens worn for correcting defective sight in one eye only, held in position by the facial muscles

> monocled adj

monogamy n the state or practice of having only one husband or wife at a time > monogamous adj

monogram n a design of one or more letters, esp. initials, on clothing, stationery, etc.

monograph n a paper, book, or other work concerned with a single subject or aspect of a subject monolith n

1 a large block of stone

2 a statue, obelisk, or column cut from one block of stone

3 something which can be regarded as forming one large, single, whole: the Christian religion should not be thought of as a monolith

> monolithic adj

monologue n

1 a long speech made by one actor in a play or film; soliloquy

2 a dramatic piece for a single performer

3 any long speech by one person, esp. one which prevents other people talking or expressing their views monomania n an obsession with one thing or idea > monomaniac n, adj

monoplane n an aeroplane with only one pair of wings monopolize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to have full control or use of, to the exclusion of others

2 to hold exclusive control of a market or supply monopoly n, pl -lies

1 exclusive control of the market supply of a product or service

2

A an enterprise exercising this control

B the product or service so controlled

3 (law) the exclusive right granted to a person or company by the state to trade in a specified commodity or area

4 exclusive control, possession, or use of something > monopolist n

> monopolistic adj

Monopoly n (trademark) a board game for two to six players who deal in 'property' as they move tokens around the board monorail n a single-rail railway monotheism n the belief or doctrine that there is only one God > monotheist n, adj

> monotheistic adj

monotone n

1 a single unvaried pitch level in speech or sound

2 a way of speaking which lacks variety of pitch or expression: he rambled on in a dull monotone

3 lack of variety in style or expression

► adj

4 unvarying monotonous adj tedious because of lack of variety > monotonously adv

monotony n, pl -nies

- 1 wearisome routine; dullness
- 2 lack of variety in pitch or tone

Monseigneur (mon-sen-nyur) n, pl Messeigneurs (may-sen-nyur) a title given to French prelates and princes monsieur (muss-syuh) n, pl messieurs (may-syuh) a French form of address equivalent to sir or Mr

Monsignor n, pl Monsignors or Monsignori (RC Church) a title given to certain senior clergymen monsoon n

- 1 a seasonal wind of S Asia which blows from the southwest in summer and from the northeast in winter
- 2 the rainy season when the SW monsoon blows, from about April to October monster n

- 1 an imaginary beast, usually frightening in appearance
- 2 a very large person, animal, or thing
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: giant, mammoth, titan, colossus, monstrosity
- 3 an exceptionally cruel or wicked person
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: brute, devil, beast, demon, villain, fiend
- 4 a person, animal, or plant with a marked deformity monstrance n (RC Church) a vessel in which the consecrated Host is exposed for adoration monstrosity n, pl -ties

- 1 an outrageous or ugly person or thing
- 2 the state or quality of being monstrous monstrous adj

1 hideous or unnatural in size or character

◇ SYNONYMS: unnatural, horrible, hideous, grotesque, gruesome, frightful, freakish, fiendish

2 atrocious, unjust, or shocking: the President described the invasion as monstrous

◇ SYNONYMS: outrageous, shocking, foul, intolerable, disgraceful, scandalous, inhuman, diabolical

3 huge

◇ SYNONYMS: huge, massive, enormous, tremendous, immense, mammoth, colossal, prodigious

4 of or like a monster

5 (of plants and animals) abnormal in structure > monstrously adv

montage (mon-tahzh) n

1 a picture made by combining material from various sources, such as other pictures or photographs

2 the technique of producing pictures in this way

3 a method of film editing by juxtaposition or partial superimposition of several shots to form a single image

4 a film sequence of this kind month n

1 one of the twelve divisions (calendar months) of the calendar year

2 a period of time extending from one date to a corresponding date in the next calendar month

3 a period of four weeks or of 30 days monthly adj

1 happening or payable once every month: a monthly magazine

2 lasting or valid for a month: a monthly travel pass

► adv

3 once a month

► n, pl -lies

4 a magazine published once a month monument n

1 something, such as a statue or building, erected in commemoration of a person or event

◇ SYNONYMS: memorial, cairn, marker, shrine, tombstone, mausoleum, commemoration, headstone

2 an ancient building which is regarded as an important part of a country's history

3 an exceptional example of the results of something: the whole town is a monument to bad sixties' architecture monumental adj

1 large, impressive, or likely to last or be remembered for a long time: a monumental three-volume biography

◇ SYNONYMS: important, significant, enormous, historic, memorable, awesome, majestic, unforgettable

2 of or being a monument

3 (informal) extreme: a monumental gamble

◇ SYNONYMS: immense, great, massive, staggering, colossal moo n

1 the characteristic deep long sound made by a cow

► vb

2 to make this sound; low mooch vb (slang)

1 to loiter or walk aimlessly

2 to cadge or scrounge mood¹ n

1 a temporary state of mind or temper: a happy mood

◇ SYNONYMS: state of mind, spirit, humour, temper, disposition, frame of mind

2 a sullen or gloomy state of mind, esp. when temporary: she's in a mood

3 a prevailing atmosphere or feeling: the current mood of disenchantment with politics

4 in the mood inclined to do or have (something) mood² n (grammar) a form of a verb indicating whether the verb expresses a fact (indicative mood), a wish or supposition (subjunctive mood), or a command (imperative mood)

moody adj moodier, moodiest

1 sullen, sulky, or gloomy

◇ SYNONYMS: gloomy, sad, sullen, glum, morose

2 temperamental or changeable

◇ SYNONYMS: changeable, volatile, unpredictable, erratic, fickle, temperamental, impulsive, mercurial > moodily adv

> moodiness n

moon n

1 the natural satellite of the earth. RELATED ADJECTIVE: lunar

2 this satellite as it is seen during its revolution around the earth, esp. at one of its phases: new moon; full moon

3 any natural satellite of a planet

◇ SYNONYMS: satellite

4 a month

5 over the moon (informal) extremely happy; ecstatic

► vb

6 moon about or around to be idle in a listless or dreamy way

◇ SYNONYMS: idle, drift, loaf, languish, waste time, daydream, mope

> moonless adj

moonlight n

1 light from the sun received on earth after reflection by the moon

► adj

2 illuminated by the moon: a moonlight walk

► vb -lighting, -lighted

3 (informal) to work at a secondary job, esp. illegally > moonlighter n

moonshine n

1 (US & Canad) illegally distilled or smuggled whisky

2 foolish or nonsensical talk or thought moonstone n a white translucent form of feldspar, used as a gem moonstruck adj slightly mad or odd, as if affected by the moon moor¹ n (Brit) an expanse of open uncultivated ground covered with heather, coarse grass, and bracken

◇ SYNONYMS: moorland, fell (Brit), heath

moor² vb to secure a ship or boat with cables, ropes, or anchors so that it remains in one place

◇ SYNONYMS: tie up, secure, anchor, dock, lash, berth, make fast

> moorage n

Moor n a member of a Muslim people of North Africa who ruled much of Spain and Portugal between the 8th and 15th centuries

moorhen n a waterfowl with black plumage and a red bill mooring n a place where a ship or boat can be tied up or anchored

Moorish adj

1 of or relating to the Moors

2 of a style of architecture used in Spain from the 8th to the 15th centuries, characterized by the horseshoe arch moose n, pl moose a large North American deer with large flattened antlers; the American elk moot adj

1 subject or open to debate: a moot point

► vb

2 to suggest or bring up for debate: a compromise proposal, involving building fewer flats, was mooted

► n

3 (in Anglo-Saxon England) a local administrative assembly mop n

1 a tool with a head made of twists of cotton or sponge and a long handle used for washing or polishing floors

◇ SYNONYMS: squeegee, sponge, swab

2 a similar tool, except smaller and without a long handle, used to wash dishes

◇ SYNONYMS: squeegee, sponge, swab

3 a thick untidy mass of hair

◇ SYNONYMS: mane, shock, mass, tangle, mat, thatch

► vb mopping, mopped

4 to clean or soak up with or as if with a mop: she mopped her brow with a handkerchief

◇ SYNONYMS: clean, wash, wipe, sponge, swab mope vb moping, moped

1 to be gloomy or apathetic

2 to walk around in a gloomy and aimless manner moped n a light motorcycle not over 50cc mopoke n

1 a small spotted owl of Australia and New Zealand

2 (Austral slang) a slow or lugubrious person moraine n a ridge or mound formed from debris deposited by a glacier moral adj

1 concerned with or relating to the distinction between good and bad or right and wrong behaviour: moral sense

2 based on a sense of right and wrong according to conscience: moral duty

3 displaying a sense of right and wrong; (of support or a victory) psychological rather than practical

◇ SYNONYMS: good, just, right, principled, decent, noble, ethical, honourable

► n

4 a lesson about right or wrong behaviour that is shown in a fable or event

◇ SYNONYMS: lesson, meaning, point, message, teaching, import, significance, precept

5 morals principles of behaviour in accordance with standards of right and wrong

◇ SYNONYMS: morality, standards, conduct, principles, behaviour, manners, habits, ethics > morally adv

morale (mor-rahl) n the degree of confidence or optimism of a person or group ◇ SYNONYMS: confidence, heart, spirit, self-esteem, team spirit, esprit de corps moralist n

1 a person who has a strong sense of right and wrong

2 someone who criticizes other people for not doing what he or she thinks is morally correct > moralistic adj

morality n, pl -ties

1 good moral conduct

◇ SYNONYMS: virtue, justice, morals, honour, integrity, goodness, honesty, decency

2 the degree to which something is morally acceptable: we discussed the morality of fox-hunting

◇ SYNONYMS: rights and wrongs, ethics

3 a system of moral principles

◇ SYNONYMS: ethics, conduct, principles, morals, manners, philosophy, mores morality play n a medieval type of drama concerned with the conflict between personified virtues and vices moralize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to discuss or consider something in the light of one's own moral beliefs, esp. with disapproval

2 to interpret or explain in a moral sense

3 to improve the morals of morass n

1 a tract of swampy low-lying land

2 a disordered, confusing, or muddled state of affairs moratorium n, pl -ria or -riums

1 a legally authorized postponement of the payment of a debt

◇ SYNONYMS: postponement, freeze, halt, suspension, standstill

2 an agreed suspension of activity

◇ SYNONYMS: postponement, freeze, halt, suspension, standstill moray n a large marine eel marked with brilliant colours morbid adj

1 having an unusual interest in death or unpleasant events

2 (med) relating to or characterized by disease > morbidity n

> morbidly adv

mordant adj

1 sarcastic or caustic: mordant wit

► n

2 a substance used in dyeing to fix colours

3 an acid or other corrosive fluid used to etch lines on a printing plate more adj

1 the comparative of much, many: more joy than you know; even more are leaving the country

2 additional or further: no more apples

◇ SYNONYMS: extra, additional, new, other, added, further, new-found, supplementary

3 more of to a greater extent or degree: more of a nuisance

► adv

4 used to form the comparative of some adjectives and adverbs: more quickly

5 the comparative of much: people listen to the radio more now

6 more or less

A as an estimate; approximately

B to an unspecified extent or degree: the film was a disaster, more or less

moreover adv in addition to what has already been said

◇ SYNONYMS: furthermore, also, further, in addition, too, as well, besides, additionally mores (more-rayz) pl n the customs and conventions embodying the fundamental values of a community

Moreton Bay bug n an Australian flattish edible shellfish morgue n

1 a mortuary

2 (informal) a store of clippings and back numbers used for reference in a newspaper moribund adj

1 near death

2 no longer performing effectively or usefully: a moribund economy

Mormon n

1 a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, founded in 1830 in New York by Joseph Smith

► adj

2 of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, its members, or their beliefs

> Mormonism n morn n (poetic, or Austral) morning morning n

1 the first part of the day, ending at noon

◇ SYNONYMS: before noon, forenoon, morn (poetic), a.m.

2 daybreak; dawn

◇ SYNONYMS: dawn, sunrise, first light, daybreak, break of day

3 the morning after (informal) the aftereffects of excess, esp. a hangover

► adj

4 of or in the morning: morning coffee morning-glory n, pl -ries a tropical climbing plant with trumpet-shaped blue, pink, or white flowers, which close in late afternoon

Moroccan adj

1 of Morocco

► n

2 a person from Morocco morocco n a fine soft leather made from goatskins moron n

1 (informal, derogatory) a foolish or stupid person

2 (not in technical use, offensive) a person having an intelligence quotient of between 50 and 70

> moronic adj

morose (mor-rohss) adj ill-tempered, sullen, and unwilling to talk very much > morosely adv

morphine or morphia n a drug extracted from opium: used in medicine as an anaesthetic and sedative morphology n the science of forms and structures of organisms or words > morphological adj

morris dance n an old English folk dance performed by men (morris men) who wear a traditional costume decorated with bells morrow n the morrow (old-fashioned, or poetic)

1 the next day

2 the morning

Morse code n a code formerly used internationally for transmitting messages, in which letters and numbers are represented by groups of dots and dashes, or by shorter and longer sounds morsel n a small piece of something, esp. of food mortal adj

1 (of living beings, esp. humans) destined to die sometime rather than living forever

◇ SYNONYMS: human, worldly, passing, fleshly, temporal, transient, ephemeral, perishable

2 causing death; fatal: a mortal wound

◇ SYNONYMS: fatal, killing, terminal, deadly, destructive, lethal, murderous, death-dealing

3 deadly or unrelenting: he is my mortal enemy

4 of or resulting from the fear of death: mortal terror

5 of or involving life or the world: the hangman's noose ended his mortal existence

◇ SYNONYMS: human, worldly, passing, fleshly, temporal, transient, ephemeral, perishable

6 great or very intense: mortal pain

7 (informal) conceivable or possible: there was no mortal reason to leave

8 (slang) long and tedious: for three mortal hours

► n

9 a human being

◇ SYNONYMS: human being, being, man, woman, person, human, individual, earthling > mortally adv

mortality n, pl -ties

1 the condition of being mortal

◇ SYNONYMS: humanity, transience, impermanence, corporeality, impermanency

2 great loss of life, as in war or disaster

◇ SYNONYMS: death, dying, fatality

3 the number of deaths in a given period

◇ SYNONYMS: death, dying, fatality mortal sin n (Christianity) a sin that will lead to damnation unless repented of mortar n

1 a small cannon that fires shells in high arcs

2 a mixture of cement or lime or both with sand and water, used to hold bricks or stones together

3 a vessel, usually bowl-shaped, in which substances are crushed with a pestle

► vb

4 to fire on with mortars

5 to join bricks or stones with mortar mortarboard n

1 a black tasselled academic cap with a flat square top

2 a small square board with a handle on the underside for carrying mortar mortgage n

1 an agreement under which a person borrows money to buy property, esp. a house, and the lender can take possession of the property if the borrower fails to repay the money

2 a loan obtained under such an agreement: a mortgage of three times one's income

3 a regular repayment of money borrowed under such an agreement: the monthly mortgage on the building

► vb -gaging, -gaged

4 to pledge a house or other property as security for the repayment of a loan

► adj

5 of or relating to a mortgage: a mortgage payment mortgagee n the person or organization who lends money in a mortgage agreement mortgagor or -ger n the person who borrows money in a mortgage agreement mortice or mortise (mor-tiss) n

1 a slot or recess cut into a piece of wood or stone to receive a matching projection (tenon) on another piece, or a mortice lock

► vb -ticing, -ticed or -tising, -tised

2 to cut a slot or recess in a piece of wood or stone

3 to join two pieces of wood or stone by means of a mortice and tenon mortice lock n a lock set into the edge of a door so that the mechanism of the lock is enclosed by the door

mortify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to make someone feel ashamed or embarrassed

2 (Christianity) to subdue one's emotions, the body, etc., by self-denial

3 (of flesh) to become gangrenous > mortification n

> mortifying adj

mortuary n, pl -aries a building or room where dead bodies are kept before cremation or burial mosaic (moh-zay-ik) n a design or decoration made up of small pieces of coloured glass or stone

Mosaic adj of or relating to Moses or the laws and traditions ascribed to him moscovium n (chem) a synthetic radioactive element produced in small quantities. SYMBOL: Mc

moselle n a German white wine from the valley of the river Moselle

Moslem adj same as Muslim mosque n a Muslim place of worship mosquito n, pl -toes or -tos a two-winged insect, the females of which pierce the skin of humans and animals to suck their blood

moss n

1 a very small flowerless plant typically growing in dense mats on trees, rocks, or moist ground

2 (Scot & N English) a peat bog or marsh > mossy adj

most n

1 the greatest number or degree: the most I can ever remember being paid

2 the majority: most of his records are dreadful

3 at (the) most at the maximum: she is fifteen at the most

4 make the most of to use to the best advantage: they made the most of their chances

► adj

5 of or being the majority of a group of things or people or the largest part of something: most people don't share your views

6 the most the superlative of many, much: he has the most talent

► adv

7 the most used to form the superlative of some adjectives and adverbs: the most beautiful places in the world

8 the superlative of much: what do you like most about your job?

9 very; exceedingly: a most unfortunate accident mostly adv

1 almost entirely; generally: the men at the party were mostly young

◇ SYNONYMS: mainly, largely, chiefly, principally, primarily, on the whole, predominantly

2 on many or most occasions; usually: rattlesnakes mostly hunt at night

◇ SYNONYMS: generally, usually, on the whole, as a rule

MOT

1 (Brit) short for MOT test

2 (Brit) the certificate showing that a vehicle has passed its MOT test

3 (NZ) Ministry of Transport motel n a roadside hotel for motorists motet (moh-tet) n a religious song for a choir in which several voices, usually unaccompanied, sing contrasting parts simultaneously moth n any of numerous chiefly nocturnal insects resembling butterflies, that typically have stout bodies and do not have club-shaped antennae

mothball n

1 a small ball of camphor or naphthalene placed in stored clothing to repel clothes moths

2 put in mothballs to postpone work on

► vb

3 to take something out of operation but maintain it for future use

4 to postpone work on moth-eaten adj

1 decayed or scruffy

2 eaten away by or as if by moths: a moth-eaten suit mother n

1 a female who has given birth to offspring

◇ SYNONYMS: female parent, mum (Brit informal), mummy (Brit informal), ma (informal), mater, dam, foster mother, biological mother

2 a person's own mother

◇ SYNONYMS: female parent, mum (Brit informal), mummy (Brit informal), ma (informal), mater, dam, foster mother, biological mother

3 a title given to certain members of female religious orders

4 motherly qualities, such as maternal affection: it appealed to the mother in her

5 the mother of a female or thing that creates, founds, or protects something: the mother of modern feminism; necessity is the mother of invention

6 the mother of all (informal) the greatest example of its kind: the mother of all parties

► adj

7 of or relating to a female or thing that creates, founds, or protects something: our mother company is in New York

8 native or innate: mother wit

◇ SYNONYMS: native, natural, innate, inborn

► vb

9 to give birth to or produce

10 to nurture or protect

◇ SYNONYMS: nurture, raise, protect, tend, nurse, rear, care for, cherish > motherless adj

> motherly adj

motherboard n (electronics) a printed circuit board through which signals between all other boards are routed motherhood n the state of being a mother mother-in-law n, pl mothers-in-law the mother of one's wife or husband mother tongue n the language first learned by a child motif (moh-teef) n

1 a distinctive idea, esp. a theme elaborated on in a piece of music or literature

◇ SYNONYMS: theme, idea, subject, concept, leitmotif, trope

2 a recurring shape in a design

◇ SYNONYMS: design, shape, decoration, ornament

3 a single decoration, such as a symbol or name on a piece of clothing

◇ SYNONYMS: design, shape, decoration, ornament

motion n

1 the process of continual change in the position of an object; movement: the motion of the earth round the sun RELATED ADJECTIVE: kinetic

◇ SYNONYMS: movement, mobility, travel, progress, flow, locomotion

2 a movement or gesture: he made stabbing motions with the spear

3 a way or style of moving: massage the back with steady circular motions

4 a formal proposal to be discussed and voted on in a debate or meeting

◇ SYNONYMS: proposal, suggestion, recommendation, proposition, submission

5 (Brit)

A the evacuation of the bowels

B excrement

6 go through the motions to do something mechanically or without sincerity

7 set in motion to make operational or start functioning

► vb

8 to signal or direct a person by a movement or gesture: she motioned to me to sit down

◇ SYNONYMS: gesture, direct, wave, signal, nod, beckon, gesticulate > motionless adj motion picture n (US & Canad) a film; movie motivate vb -vating, -vated

1 to give a reason or inspiration for a course of action to someone: he was motivated purely by greed

◇ SYNONYMS: inspire, drive, stimulate, move, cause, prompt, stir, induce

2 to inspire and encourage someone to do something: a good teacher must motivate her pupils

◇ SYNONYMS: stimulate, drive, inspire, stir, arouse, galvanize, incentivize > motivation n

motive n

1 the reason, whether conscious or unconscious, for a certain course of action

◇ SYNONYMS: reason, ground(s), purpose, object, incentive, inspiration, stimulus, rationale

2 same as motif

► adj

3 of or causing motion: a motive force motley adj

1 made up of people or things of different types: a motley assortment of mules, donkeys, and camels

2 multicoloured

► n

3 (history) the costume of a jester motocross n the sport of motorcycle racing across rough ground motor n

1 the engine, esp. an internal-combustion engine, of a vehicle

2 a machine that converts energy, esp. electrical energy, into mechanical energy

3 (chiefly Brit informal) a car

► adj

4 (chiefly Brit) of or relating to cars and other vehicles powered by petrol or diesel engines: the motor industry

5 powered by or relating to a motor: a new synthetic motor oil

6 (physiol) producing or causing motion

► vb

7 to travel by car

8 (informal) to move fast > motorized or -ised adj motorbike n (informal) a motorcycle motorboat n any boat powered by a motor motorcar n a more formal word for car motorcycle n a two-wheeled vehicle driven by an engine > motorcyclist n

motorhome n a large motor vehicle designed for living in while travelling motorist n a driver of a car motor scooter n a light motorcycle with small wheels and an enclosed engine motorway n (Brit & Austral & NZ) a dual carriageway for fast-moving traffic, with no stopping permitted and no crossroads

MOT test n (in Britain) a compulsory annual test of the roadworthiness of motor vehicles over 3 years old mottled adj coloured with streaks or blotches of different shades > mottling n

motto n, pl -toes or -tos

1 a short saying expressing the guiding maxim or ideal of a family or organization, esp. when part of a coat of arms

◇ SYNONYMS: saying, slogan, maxim, rule, adage, proverb, dictum, precept

2 a verse or maxim contained in a paper cracker

3 a quotation prefacing a book or chapter of a book mould¹ or (US) mold¹ n

1 a shaped hollow container into which a liquid material is poured so that it can set in a particular shape: pour the mixture into a buttered mould, cover, and steam for two hours

◇ SYNONYMS: cast, shape, pattern

2 a shape, nature, or type: an orthodox Communist in the Stalinist mould

◇ SYNONYMS: nature, character, sort, kind, quality, type, stamp, calibre

3 a framework around which something is constructed or shaped: the heated glass is shaped round a mould inside a kiln

4 something, esp. a food, made in or on a mould: salmon mould

► vb

5 to make in a mould

6 to shape or form: a figure moulded out of clay

◇ SYNONYMS: shape, make, work, form, create, model, fashion, construct

7 to influence or direct: cultural factors moulding our everyday life

◇ SYNONYMS: influence, make, form, control, direct, affect, shape mould² or (US) mold² n a coating or discoloration caused by various fungi that develop in a damp atmosphere on food, fabrics, and walls

◇ SYNONYMS: fungus, blight, mildew mould³ or (US) mold³ n loose soil, esp. when rich in organic matter: leaf mould moulder or (US) molder vb to crumble or cause to crumble, as through decay: John Brown's body lies mouldering in the grave moulding or (US) molding n a shaped ornamental edging mouldy or (US) moldy adj -dier, -diest

1 covered with mould

2 stale or musty, esp. from age or lack of use

3 (slang) dull or boring moult or (US) molt vb

1 (of birds and animals) to shed feathers, hair, or skin so that they can be replaced by a new growth

► n

2 the periodic process of moulting mound n

1 a heap of earth, debris, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: heap, pile, drift, stack, rick

2 any heap or pile

◇ SYNONYMS: heap, pile, drift, stack, rick

3 a small natural hill

◇ SYNONYMS: hill, bank, rise, dune, embankment, knoll, hillock, kopje or koppie (S African) mount¹ vb

1 to climb or ascend: he mounted the stairs to his flat

◇ SYNONYMS: ascend, scale, climb (up), go up, clamber up

2 to get up on a horse, a platform, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: get (up) on, jump on, straddle, climb onto, hop on to, bestride, get on the back of 3 Also: mount up to increase or accumulate: costs do mount up; the tension mounted

◇ SYNONYMS: accumulate, increase, collect, gather, build up, pile up, amass

4 to fix onto a backing, setting, or support: sensors mounted on motorway bridges

5 to organize and stage a campaign, play, etc.: the Allies mounted a counter attack on the eastern front

◇ SYNONYMS: display, present, prepare, put on, organize, put on display

► n

6 a backing, setting, or support onto which something is fixed: a diamond set in a gold mount

◇ SYNONYMS: backing, setting, support, stand, base, frame

7 a horse for riding: none of his mounts at yesterday's race meeting finished better than third

◇ SYNONYMS: horse, steed (literary) mount² n a mountain or hill: used in literature and (when cap.) in proper names: Mount Etna mountain n

1 a very large, high, and steep hill: the highest mountain in the Alps

◇ SYNONYMS: peak, mount, horn, ridge, fell (Brit), berg (S African), alp, pinnacle

2 a huge heap or mass: a mountain of papers

◇ SYNONYMS: heap, mass, masses, pile, a great deal, ton, stack, abundance

3 a surplus of a commodity, esp. in the European Union: a butter mountain

► adj

4 of, found on, or for use on a mountain or mountains: a mountain village mountain bike n a type of bicycle with straight handlebars and heavy-duty tyres, originally designed for use over rough hilly ground mountaineer n

1 a person who climbs mountains

► vb

2 to climb mountains > mountaineering n

mountainous adj

1 having many mountains: a mountainous region

2 like a mountain or mountains, esp. in size: mountainous waves mountain oyster n (NZ informal) a sheep's testicle eaten as food mountebank n

1 (formerly) a person who sold quack medicines in public places

2 a charlatan or fake

Mountie or Mounty n, pl Mounties (informal) a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police mourn vb to feel or express sadness for the death or loss of someone or something ◇ SYNONYMS: grieve for, lament, weep for, wail for > mourner n

mournful adj

1 feeling or expressing grief and sadness: he stood by, a mournful expression on his face

2 (of a sound) suggestive or reminiscent of grief or sadness: the locomotive gave a mournful bellow > mournfully adv

mourning n

1 sorrow or grief, esp. over a death

◇ SYNONYMS: grieving, grief, bereavement, weeping, woe, lamentation

2 the conventional symbols of grief for a death, such as the wearing of black

◇ SYNONYMS: black, sackcloth and ashes, widow's weeds

3 the period of time during which a death is officially mourned

► adj

4 of or relating to mourning mouse n, pl mice

1 a small long-tailed rodent similar to but smaller than a rat

2 a quiet, timid, or cowardly person

3 a hand-held device used to control cursor movements and computing functions without using a keyboard

► vb mousing, moused

4 (rare) to stalk and catch mice mouser n a cat or other animal that is used to catch mice mousse n

1 a light creamy dessert made with eggs, cream, and fruit set with gelatine

2 a similar dish made from fish or meat moustache or (US) mustache n unshaved hair growing on the upper lip mousy or mousey adj mousier, mousiest

1 (of hair) dull light brown in colour

2 shy or ineffectual > mousiness n

mouth n, pl mouths

1 the opening through which many animals take in food and issue sounds

◇ SYNONYMS: lips, jaws, gob (slang, esp Brit), maw, cakehole (Brit slang)

2 the visible part of the mouth; lips

◇ SYNONYMS: lips, jaws, gob (slang, esp Brit), maw, cakehole (Brit slang)

3 a person regarded as a consumer of food: three mouths to feed

4 a particular manner of speaking: a foul mouth

5 (informal) boastful, rude, or excessive talk: she is all mouth

6 the point where a river issues into a sea or lake

◇ SYNONYMS: inlet, outlet, estuary, firth, outfall, debouchment

7 an opening, such as that of a bottle, tunnel, or gun

◇ SYNONYMS: entrance, opening, gateway, door, aperture, orifice

8 down in the mouth in low spirits

► vb

9 to form words with movements of the lips but without speaking

10 to speak or say something insincerely, esp. in public: ministers mouthing platitudes mouthful n, pl -fuls

1 the amount of food or drink put into the mouth at any one time when eating or drinking

2 a long word, phrase, or name that is difficult to say

3 (Brit informal) an abusive response: I asked him to move and he just gave me a mouthful mouth organ n same as harmonica mouthpiece n

1 the part of a wind instrument into which the player blows

2 the part of a telephone receiver into which a person speaks

3 a person or publication expressing the views of an organization movable or moveable adj

1 able to be moved; not fixed

2 (of a festival, esp. Easter) varying in date from year to year

► n

3 movables movable articles, esp. furniture move vb moving, moved

1 to go or take from one place to another; change in position: I moved your books off the table

◇ SYNONYMS: transfer, change, switch, shift, transpose

2 to start to live or work in a different place: I moved to Brighton from Bristol last year

◇ SYNONYMS: relocate, leave, remove, quit, migrate, emigrate, decamp, up sticks (Brit informal)

3 to be or cause to be in motion: the trees were moving in the wind; the car moved slowly down the road

4 to act or begin to act: the government plans to move to reduce crime

5 to cause or prompt to do something: public opinion moved the President to act

◇ SYNONYMS: drive, cause, influence, persuade, shift, inspire, prompt, induce

6 to change the time when something is scheduled to happen: can I move the appointment to Friday afternoon, please?

◇ SYNONYMS: transfer, change, switch, shift, transpose

7 to arouse affection, pity, or compassion in; touch: her story moved me to tears

◇ SYNONYMS: touch, affect, excite, impress, stir, disquiet

8 to change, progress, or develop in a specified way: the conversation moved to more personal matters

9 to suggest a proposal formally, as in a debate: to move a motion

◇ SYNONYMS: propose, suggest, urge, recommend, request, advocate, submit, put forward

10 to spend most of one's time with a specified social group: they both move in theatrical, arty circles

11 (in board games) to change the position of a piece

12 (of machines) to work or operate

13

A (of the bowels) to excrete waste

B to cause the bowels to excrete waste

14 (of merchandise) to be disposed of by being bought

15 to travel quickly: this car can really move

16 move heaven and earth to do everything possible to achieve a result

► n

17 the act of moving; movement

◇ SYNONYMS: action, step, manoeuvre

18 one of a sequence of actions, usually part of a plan: the first real move towards disarmament

◇ SYNONYMS: ploy, action, measure, step, initiative, stroke, tactic, manoeuvre

19 the act of moving one's home or place of business

◇ SYNONYMS: transfer, posting, shift, removal, relocation

20

A (in a boardgame) a player's turn to move his piece

◇ SYNONYMS: turn, go, play, chance, shot (informal), opportunity

B (in a boardgame) a manoeuvre of a piece

◇ SYNONYMS: turn, go, play, chance, shot (informal), opportunity

21 get a move on (informal) to hurry up

22 make a move (informal)

A to prepare or begin to leave a place to go somewhere else: we'd better make a move if we want to be home before dark

B to do something which will produce a response: neither of us wanted to make the first move

23 on the move travelling from place to place movement n

1 the act, process, or an instance of moving

◇ SYNONYMS: move, action, motion, manoeuvre

2 the manner of moving: their movement is jerky

◇ SYNONYMS: move, action, motion, manoeuvre

3

A a group of people with a common ideology

◇ SYNONYMS: group, party, organization, grouping, front, faction

B the organized action and campaigning of such a group: a successful movement to abolish child labour

◇ SYNONYMS: campaign, drive, push (informal), crusade

4 a trend or tendency: a movement towards shorter working hours

5 (finance) a change in the price or value of shares, a currency, etc.: adverse currency movements

◇ SYNONYMS: development, change, variation, fluctuation

6 (music) a principal self-contained section of a large-scale work, such as a symphony

◇ SYNONYMS: section, part, division, passage

7 movements a person's location and activities during a specific time: police were trying to piece together the recent movements of the two men

8

A the evacuation of the bowels

B the matter evacuated

9 the mechanism which drives and regulates a watch or clock movie n

1 (informal) a cinema film

◇ SYNONYMS: film, picture, feature, flick (slang, old-fashioned), MP4, MPEG

2 the movies the cinema: I want to go to the movies tonight

mow vb mowing, mowed, mowed or mown

1 to cut down grass or crops: a tractor chugged along, mowing hay

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, crop, trim, shear, scythe

2 to cut the growing vegetation of a field or lawn: to mow a meadow

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, crop, trim, shear, scythe

> mower n

mow down vb to kill in large numbers, esp. by gunfire

◇ SYNONYMS mow something or someone down: massacre, butcher, slaughter, cut down, shoot down, cut to pieces mozzarella (mot-sa-rel-la) n a moist white curd cheese originally made in Italy from buffalo milk

MP

1 Member of Parliament

2 Military Police

3 Mounted Police

MP3 n a format for processing a digital audio file so as to remove unneeded data and produce a smaller file for transmission on the internet, for use in portable players, etc.

MP3 player n a small portable digital audio player capable of storing and playing files downloaded from the internet or transferred from a CD

MPEG (em-peg) n (computers)

A a standard compressed file format used for audio and video files

B a file in this format mpg miles per gallon mph miles per hour

Mr n, pl Messrs a title used before a man's name or before some office that he holds: Mr Pickwick; Mr President

Mrs n, pl Mrs or Mesdames a title used before the name of a married woman

Ms (mizz) n a title used before the name of a woman to avoid indicating whether she is married or not

MS

1 Mississippi

2 multiple sclerosis

MS. or ms. pl MSS. or mss. manuscript

MSc Master of Science

MSP (in Britain) Member of the Scottish Parliament

Mt Mount: Mt Everest

much adj more, most

1 a large amount or degree of: there isn't much wine left

◇ SYNONYMS: great, a lot of, plenty of, considerable, substantial, piles of (informal), ample, abundant, shedful (slang)

► n

2 a large amount or degree

◇ SYNONYMS: a lot, plenty, a great deal, lots (informal), masses (informal), loads (informal), tons (informal), heaps (informal)

3 a bit much (informal) rather excessive

4 make much of

A to make sense of: he couldn't make much of her letter

B to give importance to: the press made much of the story

5 not much of not to any appreciable degree or extent: he's not much of a cook

6 not up to much (informal) of a low standard: this beer is not up to much

► adv

7 considerably: I'm much better now

◇ SYNONYMS: greatly, a lot, considerably, decidedly, exceedingly, appreciably

8 practically or nearly: it's much the same

9 often or a great deal: that doesn't happen much these days

◇ SYNONYMS: often, a lot, routinely, a great deal, many times, habitually, on many occasions, customarily

10 (as) much as even though; although: much as I'd like to, I can't come

► See also more, most muck n

1 dirt or filth

◇ SYNONYMS: dirt, mud, filth, ooze, sludge, mire, slime, gunge (informal), kak (S African vulgar, slang)

2 farmyard dung or decaying vegetable matter

◇ SYNONYMS: manure, dung, ordure

3 (slang, chiefly Brit & NZ) something of poor quality; rubbish: I don't want to eat this muck

4 make a muck of (slang, chiefly Brit & NZ) to ruin or spoil

► vb

5 to spread manure upon mucky adj

- 1 dirty or muddy: don't come in here with your mucky boots on!
- 2 sexually explicit; obscene: a mucky book mucous membrane n a mucus-secreting tissue that lines body cavities or passages mucus (mew-kuss) n the slimy protective secretion of the mucous membranes

- > mucosity n
- > mucous adj

mud n

- 1 soft wet earth, as found on the ground after rain or at the bottom of ponds
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: dirt, clay, ooze, silt, sludge, mire, slime
- 2 (someone's) name is mud (informal) (someone) is disgraced
- 3 throw mud at (informal) to slander or vilify
 - adj
- 4 made from mud or dried mud: a mud hut

muddle n

- 1 a state of untidiness or confusion: the files are in a terrible muddle
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: confusion, mess, disorder, chaos, tangle, mix-up, disarray, predicament
- 2 a state of mental confusion or uncertainty: the government are in a muddle over the economy
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: confusion, mess, disorder, chaos, tangle, mix-up, disarray, predicament
 - vb -dling, -dled
- 3 Also: muddle up to mix up or confuse (objects or items): you've got your books all muddled up with mine
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: jumble, disorder, scramble, tangle, mix up
- 4 to make (someone) confused: don't muddle her with too many suggestions
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: confuse, bewilder, daze, confound, perplex, disorient, stupefy, befuddle
 - > muddled adj

muddy adj -dier, -diest

1 covered or filled with mud

◇ SYNONYMS: boggy, swampy, marshy, quaggy

2 not clear or bright: muddy colours

3 cloudy: a muddy liquid

4 (esp. of thoughts) confused or vague

► vb -dies, -dying, -died

5 to make muddy

6 to make a situation or issue less clear: the allegations of sexual misconduct only serve to muddy the issue

> muddily adv

mudguard n a curved part of a bicycle or other vehicle attached above the wheels to reduce the amount of water or mud thrown up by them muesli (mewz-lee) n a mixture of rolled oats, nuts, and dried fruit, usually eaten with milk muezzin (moo-ezz-in) n (Islam) the official of a mosque who calls the faithful to prayer from the minaret muff¹ n a tube of fur or cloth into which the hands are placed for warmth muff² vb

1 to do (something) badly: I muffed my chance to make a good impression

2 to bungle (a shot or catch) muffin n

1 a small cup-shaped sweet bread roll, usually eaten hot with butter

2 a thick round baked yeast roll, usually toasted and served with butter muffle vb -fling, -fled

- 1 to deaden (a sound or noise), esp. by wrapping the source of it in something:
the sound was muffled by the double glazing
- 2 to wrap up in a scarf or coat for warmth
- 3 to censor or restrict: an attempt to muffle criticism
- > muffled adj

muffler n

- 1 (Brit) a thick scarf worn for warmth
- 2 (US & Canad) a device to deaden sound, esp. one on a car exhaust; silencer

mug¹ n

- 1 a large drinking cup with a handle
- ◇ SYNONYMS: cup, pot (informal), beaker, tankard
- 2 the quantity held by a mug or its contents: a mug of coffee
- ◇ SYNONYMS: cup, pot (informal), beaker, tankard

mug² n

- 1 (slang) a person's face or mouth: keep your ugly mug out of this
- ◇ SYNONYMS: face, features, countenance (literary), visage (formal)
- 2 (slang) a gullible person, esp. one who is swindled easily
- ◇ SYNONYMS: fool, sucker (slang), chump (informal), simpleton, easy or soft touch (slang), dorba or dorb (Austral slang), bogan (Austral slang)
- 3 a mug's game a worthless activity mug³ vb mugging, mugged to attack someone in order to rob them

- ◇ SYNONYMS: attack, assault, beat up, rob, set about or upon
- > mugger n
- > mugging n

muggins n (slang)

- A a stupid or gullible person
- B a title used humorously to refer to oneself muggy adj -gier, -giest (of weather or air) unpleasantly warm and humid > mugginess n

mulatto (mew-lat-toe) n, pl -tos or -toes (old-fashioned, offensive) a person with one Black and one White parent mulberry n, pl -ries

- 1 a tree with edible blackberry-like fruit, the leaves of which are used to feed silkworms
 - 2 the fruit of any of these trees
- adj
- 3 dark purple

mulch n

- 1 a mixture of half-rotten vegetable matter and peat used to protect the roots of plants or enrich the soil
- vb
- 2 to cover soil with mulch

mule¹ n

- 1 the sterile offspring of a male donkey and a female horse
- 2 a machine that spins cotton into yarn mule² n a backless shoe or slipper mulga n

- 1 an Australian acacia shrub growing in desert regions
- 2 (Austral) the outback mulish adj stubborn; obstinate mull n (Scot) a promontory or headland: the Mull of Galloway mullah n (formerly) a Muslim scholar, teacher, or religious leader mulled adj (of wine or ale) flavoured with sugar and spices and served hot mullet n, pl mullets or mullet any of various marine food fishes mulligatawny n a curry-flavoured soup of Anglo-Indian origin mullion n a slender vertical bar between the casements or panes of a window > mullioned adj

mulloway n a large Australian sea fish, valued for sport and food multi- combining form

1 many or much: multimillion

2 more than one: multistorey multifarious (mull-tee-fare-ee-uss) adj many and varied: multifarious religious movements and political divisions sprang up around this time

multilateral adj of or involving more than two nations or parties: multilateral trade negotiations

multiple adj

1 having or involving more than one part, individual, or element

◇ SYNONYMS: many, several, various, numerous, sundry, manifold (formal), multitudinous

► n

2 a number or polynomial which can be divided by another specified one an exact number of times: 6 is a multiple of 2

> multiply adv

multiplex n, pl -plexes

1 a purpose-built complex containing several cinemas and usually restaurants and bars

► adj

2 having many elements; complex multiplicand n a number to be multiplied by another number (the multiplier) multiplication n

1 a mathematical operation, equivalent to adding a number to itself a specified number of times. For instance, 4 multiplied by 3 equals 12 (i.e. 4+4+4)

2 the act of multiplying or state of being multiplied multiplicity n, pl -ties

1 a large number or great variety

2 the state of being multiple multiply vb -plies, -plying, -plied

1 to increase or cause to increase in number, quantity, or degree

◇ SYNONYMS: increase, extend, expand, spread, build up, proliferate

2 to combine numbers or quantities by multiplication

3 to increase in number by reproduction

◇ SYNONYMS: reproduce, breed, propagate multipurpose adj having many uses: a giant multipurpose enterprise multipurpose vehicle n a large car, similar to a van, designed to carry up to eight passengers multitude n

1 a large number of people or things: a multitude of different pressure groups

◇ SYNONYMS: great number, host, army, mass, horde, myriad

2 the multitude ordinary people collectively > multitudinous adj mum¹ n (chiefly Brit informal) same as mother

mum² adj

1 keep mum remain silent

2 mum's the word keep quiet (about something) mumble vb -bling, -bled

1 to speak or say something indistinctly, with the mouth partly closed: I could hear him mumbling under his breath

► n

2 an indistinct or low utterance or sound mumbo jumbo n

1 meaningless language; nonsense or gibberish

2 foolish religious ritual or incantation mummer n one of a group of masked performers in a folk play or mime mummified adj (of a body) preserved as a mummy > mummification n

mummy¹ n, pl -mies (chiefly Brit) an embalmed body as prepared for burial in ancient Egypt mummy² n, pl -mies a child's word for mother mumps n an infectious viral disease in which the glands below the ear become swollen and painful munch vb to chew noisily and steadily mundane adj

1 everyday, ordinary, and therefore not very interesting

◇ SYNONYMS: ordinary, routine, commonplace, banal, everyday, day-to-day, prosaic, humdrum

2 relating to the world or worldly matters

◇ SYNONYMS: earthly, worldly, secular, mortal, terrestrial, temporal municipal adj of or relating to a town or city or its local government ◇ SYNONYMS: civic, public, local, council, district, urban, metropolitan municipality n, pl -ties

1 a city, town, or district enjoying local self-government

2 the governing body of such a unit munificent (mew-niff-fiss-sent) adj very generous > munificence n

muniments (mew-nim-ments) pl n (law) the title deeds and other documentary evidence relating to the title to land munitions (mew-nish-unz) pl n military equipment and stores, esp. ammunition munted adj (NZ slang)

- 1 destroyed or ruined
- 2 abnormal or peculiar mural (myoor-al) n

- 1 a large painting on a wall
- adj
- 2 of or relating to a wall
- > muralist n

murder n

- 1 the unlawful intentional killing of one human being by another
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: killing, homicide, massacre, assassination, slaying, bloodshed, carnage, butchery
- 2 (informal) something dangerous, difficult, or unpleasant: shopping on Christmas Eve is murder
- 3 cry blue murder (informal) to make an outcry
- 4 get away with murder (informal) to do as one pleases without ever being punished
- vb
- 5 to kill someone intentionally and unlawfully
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: kill, massacre, slaughter, assassinate, eliminate (slang), butcher, slay, bump off (slang)
- 6 (informal) to ruin a piece of music or drama by performing it very badly: he absolutely murdered that song
- 7 (informal) to beat decisively
- > murderer or (fem) murderess n
- > murderous adj

murk n thick gloomy darkness murky adj murkier, murkiest

- 1 gloomy or dark
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: dark, gloomy, grey, dull, dim, cloudy, misty, overcast
- 2 cloudy or hard to see through: a murky stagnant pond

◇ SYNONYMS: dark, cloudy

3 obscure and suspicious; shady: murky goings-on; his murky past > murkily adv

> murkiness n

murmur vb

1 to speak or say in a quiet indistinct way

◇ SYNONYMS: mumble, whisper, mutter

2 to complain

► n

3 a continuous low indistinct sound, such as that of a distant conversation

4 an indistinct utterance: a murmur of protest

◇ SYNONYMS: whisper, drone, purr

5 a complaint or grumble: he left without a murmur

6 (med) any abnormal soft blowing sound heard usually over the chest: a heart murmur > murmuring n, adj

> murmurous adj

muscle n

1 a tissue in the body composed of bundles of elongated cells which produce movement in an organ or part by contracting or relaxing

◇ SYNONYMS: tendon, sinew

2 an organ composed of muscle tissue: the heart is essentially just another muscle

3 strength or force: we do not have the political muscle to force through these reforms

◇ SYNONYMS: strength, might, power, weight, stamina, brawn

► vb -cling, -cled

4 muscle in to force one's way into a situation; intrude: I don't like the way he's trying to muscle in here

◇ SYNONYMS muscle in: impose yourself, encroach, butt in, force your way in muscular adj

1 having well-developed muscles; brawny

◇ SYNONYMS: strong, powerful, athletic, strapping, robust, vigorous, sturdy, sinewy

2 of or consisting of muscle: great muscular effort is needed

3 forceful or powerful: a muscular account of Schumann's Fourth Symphony

◇ SYNONYMS: strong, powerful, athletic, strapping, robust, vigorous, sturdy, sinewy > muscularity n

muscular dystrophy n a hereditary disease in which the muscles gradually weaken and waste away muse¹ vb musing, mused to think deeply and at length about: she mused unhappily on how right her sister had been

◇ SYNONYMS: ponder, consider, reflect, contemplate, deliberate, brood, meditate, mull over muse² n a force or person that inspires a creative artist museum n a building where objects of historical, artistic, or scientific interest are exhibited and preserved mush n

1 a soft pulpy mass

2 (informal) cloying sentimentality mushroom n

1 an edible fungus consisting of a cap at the end of a stem

2 something resembling a mushroom in shape or rapid growth

► vb

3 to grow rapidly: the deficit has mushroomed mushy adj mushier, mushiest

1 soft and pulpy

2 (informal) excessively sentimental music n

- 1 an art form consisting of sequences of sounds organized melodically, harmonically, and rhythmically
- 2 such sounds, esp. when produced by singing or musical instruments
- 3 any written or printed representation of musical sounds: I can't read music
- 4 any sequence of sounds perceived as pleasing or harmonious
- 5 face the music (informal) to confront the consequences of one's actions
- 6 music to one's ears something, such as a piece of news, that one is pleased to hear musical adj

- 1 of or used in music
 - 2 talented in or fond of music
 - 3 pleasant-sounding; harmonious: musical laughter ◇ SYNONYMS: melodious, lyrical, harmonious, melodic, tuneful, dulcet, sweet-sounding, euphonious
 - 4 involving or set to music: a musical biography of Judy Garland
- n
- 5 a play or film that has dialogue interspersed with songs and dances
- > musicality n > musically adv

music hall n (chiefly Brit)

- 1 (formerly) a variety entertainment consisting of songs and comic turns
- 2 a theatre at which such entertainments were staged musician n a person who plays or composes music, esp. as a profession musicology n the scholarly study of music

- > musicologist n

musk n

- 1 a strong-smelling glandular secretion of the male musk deer, used in perfumery
- 2 any similar substance produced by animals or plants, or manufactured synthetically musket n a long-barrelled muzzle-loading gun fired from the shoulder, a forerunner of the rifle > musketeer n

muskrat n, pl -rats or -rat

- 1 a North American beaver-like amphibious rodent
- 2 the brown fur of this animal musky adj muskier, muskiest having a heady sweet smell > muskiness n

Muslim or Moslem n, pl -lims or -lim

- 1 a follower of the religion of Islam
- adj
2 of or relating to Islam muslin n a very fine plain-weave cotton fabric mussel n an edible shellfish, with a dark slightly elongated hinged shell, which lives attached to rocks must¹ vb

- 1 used as an auxiliary to express or indicate the need or necessity to do something: I must go to the shops
- 2 used as an auxiliary to express or indicate obligation or requirement: you must not smoke in here

3 used as an auxiliary to express or indicate the probable correctness of a statement: he must be finished by now

4 used as an auxiliary to express or indicate inevitability: all good things must come to an end

5 used as an auxiliary to express or indicate determination: I must try and finish this

6 used as an auxiliary to express or indicate conviction or certainty on the part of the speaker: you must be kidding!

► n

7 an essential or necessary thing: strong boots are a must for hill walking

◇ SYNONYMS: necessity, essential, requirement, fundamental, imperative, requisite, prerequisite, sine qua non (Latin) must² n the pressed juice of grapes or other fruit ready for fermentation mustache n (US) same as moustache mustang n a small breed of horse, often wild or half wild, found in the southwestern US mustard n

1 a hot, spicy paste made from the powdered seeds of any of a family of plants

2 any of these plants, which have yellow flowers and slender pods

► adj

3 brownish-yellow mustard gas n an oily liquid with poisonous vapour used in chemical warfare, esp. in World War I, which can cause blindness, burns, and sometimes death muster vb

1 to summon or gather: I put as much disbelief in my expression as I could muster

◇ SYNONYMS: summon up, marshal

2 to call or be called together for duty or inspection: the battalion mustered on the bank of the river

◇ SYNONYMS: rally, gather, assemble, marshal, mobilize, call together

► n

3 an assembly of military personnel for duty or inspection

4 a collection, assembly, or gathering

◇ SYNONYMS: assembly, meeting, collection, gathering, rally, convention, congregation, roundup, hui (NZ), runanga (NZ)

5 pass muster to be acceptable musty adj -tier, -tiest

1 smelling or tasting old, stale, or mouldy

2 old-fashioned, dull, or hackneyed: musty ideas

> mustily adv

> mustiness n

mutable (mew-tab-bl) adj able to or tending to change > mutability n

mutant (mew-tant) n

1 an animal, organism, or gene that has undergone mutation

► adj

2 of or resulting from mutation mutate (mew-tate) vb -tating, -tated to undergo or cause to undergo mutation mutation (mew-tay-shun) n

1 a change or alteration

◇ SYNONYMS: change, variation, evolution, transformation, modification, alteration, metamorphosis, transfiguration

2 a change in the chromosomes or genes of a cell which may affect the structure and development of the resultant offspring

◇ SYNONYMS: change, variation, evolution, transformation, modification, alteration, metamorphosis, transfiguration

3 a physical characteristic in an organism resulting from this type of chromosomal change

◇ SYNONYMS: anomaly, variation, deviant (old-fashioned), freak of nature mute adj

1 not giving out sound or speech; silent

◇ SYNONYMS: close-mouthed, silent

2 (old-fashioned, offensive) unable to speak

◇ SYNONYMS: dumb (old-fashioned, offensive), speechless, voiceless

3 unspoken or unexpressed: she shot him a look of mute entreaty

◇ SYNONYMS: silent, dumb, unspoken, tacit, wordless, voiceless, unvoiced

4 (of a letter in a word) silent: the 'k' in 'know' is mute

► n

5 (old-fashioned, offensive) a person who is unable to speak

6 any of various devices used to soften the tone of stringed or brass instruments

► vb muting, muted

7 to reduce the volume or soften the tone of a musical instrument by means of a mute or soft pedal

8 to reduce the volume of a sound: the double glazing muted the noise

> mutely adv

> muteness n

muted adj

1 (of a sound or colour) softened: a muted pink shirt

2 (of an emotion or action) subdued or restrained: his response was muted

3 (of a musical instrument) being played while fitted with a mute: muted trumpet muti (moo-tee) n (S African) medicine, esp. herbal mutilate (mew-till-ate) vb -lating, -lated

1 to injure by tearing or cutting off a limb or essential part; maim

2 to damage a book or text so as to render it unintelligible

3 to spoil or damage severely

- > mutilated adj
- > mutilation n
- > mutilator n

mutineer n a person who mutinies mutinous adj

- 1 openly rebellious
- 2 characteristic or indicative of mutiny mutiny (mew-tin-ee) n, pl -nies

- 1 open rebellion against authority, esp. by sailors or soldiers against their officers
- ▶ vb -nies, -nying, -nied
- 2 to engage in mutiny: soldiers who had mutinied and taken control

mutt n (slang)

- 1 a foolish or stupid person
- 2 a mongrel dog

mutter vb

- 1 to say something or speak in a low and indistinct tone: he muttered an excuse
- ◇ SYNONYMS: grumble, complain, murmur, rumble, whine, mumble, grouse, bleat
- 2 to grumble
- ◇ SYNONYMS: grumble, complain, murmur, rumble, whine, mumble, grouse, bleat
- ▶ n
- 3 a muttered sound or complaint
- > muttering n, adj

mutton n

1 the flesh of mature sheep, used as food

2 mutton dressed as lamb (derogatory) an older woman dressed up to look young mutton bird n

1 (Austral) a migratory sea bird with dark plumage

2 (NZ) any of a number of migratory sea birds, the young of which are a Māori delicacy mutual (mew-chew-al) adj

1 experienced or expressed by each of two or more people about the other; reciprocal: mutual respect

◇ SYNONYMS: shared, common, joint, returned, reciprocal, interchangeable, requited

2 common to or shared by two or more people: a mutual friend

◇ SYNONYMS: shared, common, joint, returned, reciprocal, interchangeable, requited

3 denoting an organization, such as an insurance company, in which the policyholders or investors share the profits and expenses and there are no shareholders > mutuality n

> mutually adv

Muzak n (trademark) recorded light music played in places such as restaurants and shops muzzle n

1 the projecting part of an animal's face, usually the jaws and nose

2 a guard, made of plastic or strap of strong material, fitted over an animal's nose and jaws to prevent it biting or eating

3 the front end of a gun barrel

► vb -zling, -zled

4 to prevent from being heard or noticed: an attempt to muzzle the press

5 to put a muzzle on an animal muzzy adj -zier, -ziest

1 confused and groggy: he felt muzzy and hung over

2 blurred or hazy: the picture was muzzy and out of focus > muzzily adv

> muzziness n

MW

1 megawatt

2 (radio) medium wave

my adj

1 of, belonging to, or associated with the speaker or writer (me): my own way of doing things

2 used in various forms of address: my lord

► interj

3 an exclamation of surprise or awe: my, how you've grown!

myall n an Australian acacia with hard scented wood mycology n the study of fungi mynah or myna n a tropical Asian starling which can mimic human speech myopia (my-oh-pee-a) n inability to see distant objects clearly because the images are focused in front of the retina; short-sightedness > myopic (my-op-ik) adj myriad (mir-ree-ad) adj

1 innumerable: the myriad demands of the modern world

◇ SYNONYMS: innumerable, countless, untold, incalculable, immeasurable, multitudinous

► n

2 a large indefinite number: myriads of tiny yellow flowers

◇ SYNONYMS: multitude, host, army, swarm, horde myrrh (mur) n the aromatic resin of an African or Asian shrub or tree, used in perfume, incense, and medicine myrtle (mur-tl) n an evergreen shrub with pink or white flowers and aromatic blue-black berries myself pron

1 the reflexive form of I or me: I really enjoyed myself at the party

2 I or me in person, as distinct from anyone else: I myself know of no answer

3 my usual self: I'm not myself today mysterious adj

1 of unknown cause or nature: a mysterious illness

◇ SYNONYMS: strange, puzzling, secret, weird, perplexing, uncanny, mystifying, arcane

2 creating a feeling of strangeness, curiosity, or wonder: a fascinating and mysterious place

◇ SYNONYMS: secretive, enigmatic, evasive, discreet, covert, reticent, furtive, inscrutable > mysteriously adv

mystery n, pl -teries

1 an unexplained or inexplicable event or phenomenon

◇ SYNONYMS: puzzle, problem, question, secret, riddle, enigma, conundrum, teaser

2 a person or thing that arouses curiosity or suspense because of an unknown, obscure, or enigmatic quality

◇ SYNONYMS: puzzle, problem, question, secret, riddle, enigma, conundrum, teaser

3 a story or film which arouses suspense and curiosity because of facts concealed

4 a religious rite, such as the Eucharist in Christianity mystic n

1 a person who achieves mystical experience

► adj

2 same as mystical mystical adj

1 relating to or characteristic of mysticism

◇ SYNONYMS: supernatural, mysterious, transcendental, occult, metaphysical, paranormal, inscrutable, otherworldly

2 (Christianity) having a sacred significance that is beyond human understanding

3 having occult or metaphysical significance

◇ SYNONYMS: supernatural, mysterious, transcendental, occult, metaphysical, paranormal, inscrutable, otherworldly

> mystically adv

mysticism n

1 belief in or experience of a reality beyond normal human understanding or experience

2 the use of prayer and meditation in an attempt to achieve direct intuitive experience of the divine mystify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to confuse, bewilder, or puzzle: his success mystifies many in the fashion industry

2 to make obscure: it is important for us not to mystify the function of the scientist

> mystification n

> mystifying adj

mystique (miss-steek) n an aura of mystery, power, and awe that surrounds a person or thing myth n

1

A a story about superhuman beings of an earlier age, usually of how natural phenomena or social customs came into existence

◇ SYNONYMS: legend, story, fiction, saga, fable, allegory, fairy story, folk tale

B same as mythology

2

A an idea or explanation which is widely held but untrue or unproven: the myth that the USA is a classless society

◇ SYNONYMS: illusion, story, fancy, fantasy, imagination, invention, delusion, superstition

B a person or thing whose existence is fictional or unproven: the Loch Ness Monster is a myth

◇ SYNONYMS: illusion, story, fancy, fantasy, imagination, invention, delusion, superstition myth.

1 mythological

2 mythology

mythical or mythic adj

1 of or relating to myth

2 imaginary or fictitious > mythically adv

mythology n, pl -gies

1 myths collectively, esp. those associated with a particular culture or person

◇ SYNONYMS: legend, folklore, tradition, lore

2 a body of stories about a person, institution, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: legend, folklore, tradition, lore

3 the study of myths > mythological adj

myxomatosis (mix-a-mat-oh-siss) n an infectious and usually fatal viral disease of rabbits causing swellings and tumours

Nn

n n

- 1 (maths) a number whose value is not stated: two to the power n
 - adj
- 2 an indefinite number of: there are n objects in the box
 - > nth adj

N

- 1 (chess) knight
- 2 (chem) nitrogen
- 3 (physics) newton(s)
- 4 North(ern)
- 5 nuclear: N plant

n.

- 1 neuter
- 2 noun
- 3 number

Na (chem) sodium

Naafi n

- 1 (Brit) Navy, Army, and Air Force Institutes
- 2 a canteen or shop run by this organization, esp. for military personnel

naan n same as nan bread naartjie (nahr-chee) n (S African) a tangerine nab vb nabbing, nabbed (informal)

1 to arrest (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: catch, arrest, apprehend, seize, grab, capture, collar (informal), snatch

2 to catch (someone) doing something wrong nadir n

1 the point in the sky directly below an observer and opposite the zenith

2 the lowest or worst point of anything: I had touched the very nadir of despair naevus or (US) nevus (nee-vuss) n, pl -vi a birthmark or mole naff adj (Brit slang) in poor taste: naff frocks and trouser suits

> naffness n

nag¹ vb nagging, nagged

1 to scold or find fault constantly

◇ SYNONYMS: scold, harass, badger, pester, worry, plague, hassle (informal), upbraid

2 nag at to be a constant source of discomfort or worry to

► n

3 a person who nags

◇ SYNONYMS: complainer, grumbler, moaner > nagging adj, n

nag² n

1 (often derogatory) an old horse

◇ SYNONYMS: horse, hack

2 a small riding horse

◇ SYNONYMS: horse, hack

naiad (nye-ad) n, pl naiads or naiades (nye-ad-deez) (Greek myth) a water nymph nail n

1 a piece of metal with a point at one end and a head at the other, hit with a hammer to join two objects together

◇ SYNONYMS: tack, spike, rivet, hobnail, brad (technical)

2 the hard covering of the upper tips of the fingers and toes

◇ SYNONYMS: fingernail, toenail, talon, thumbnail, claw

3 hit the nail on the head to say something exactly correct or accurate

4 on the nail at once: he paid always in cash, always on the nail

► vb

5 to attach (something) with nails

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, fix, secure, attach, pin, hammer (informal), tack

6 (informal) to arrest or catch (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: catch, arrest, capture, apprehend, trap, snare, ensnare, entrap

7 (informal) to execute (an act or performance) to the highest level: you nailed that song!

nail varnish or nail polish n a thick liquid applied to the nails as a cosmetic naive or naïve (nye-eev) adj

1 innocent and gullible

◇ SYNONYMS: gullible, trusting, credulous, unsuspecting, green, simple, innocent, callow

2 simple and lacking sophistication: naive art > naively adv

naivety (nye-eev-tee) or naïveté n the state or quality of being naive naked adj

1 without clothes

◇ SYNONYMS: nude, stripped, exposed, bare, undressed, starkers (informal), stark-naked, unclothed

2 not concealed: naked aggression

3 without any covering: it was dimly lit by naked bulbs

4 the naked eye the eye unassisted by any optical instrument: difficult to spot with the naked eye

> nakedly adv

> nakedness n

namby-pamby adj (Brit & Austral & NZ) excessively sentimental or prim name n

1 a word or term by which a person or thing is known. RELATED ADJECTIVE: nominal

◇ SYNONYMS: title, nickname, designation, term, handle (slang), epithet, sobriquet, moniker or monicker (slang)

2 reputation, esp. a good one: he was making a name for himself

3 a famous person: she's a big name now

4 call someone names or a name to insult someone by using rude words to describe him or her

5 in name only not possessing the powers or status implied by one's title: a leadership in name only

6 in the name of

A for the sake of: in the name of decency

B by the authority of: in the name of the law

7 name of the game the most significant or important aspect of something: survival is the name of the game in wartime

8 to one's name in one's possession: she hasn't a penny to her name

► vb naming, named

9 to give a name to ◇ SYNONYMS: call, christen, baptize, dub, term, style, label, entitle

10 to refer to by name: he refused to name his source

11 to fix or specify: he named a time for the meeting

◇ SYNONYMS: nominate, choose, select, appoint, specify, designate

12 to appoint: she was named Journalist of the Year

◇ SYNONYMS: nominate, choose, select, appoint, specify, designate

13 to ban (an MP) from the House of Commons by mentioning him or her formally by name as being guilty of disorderly conduct

14 name names to cite people in order to blame or accuse them nameless adj

1 without a name

2 unspecified: the individual concerned had better remain nameless

3 too horrible to speak about: the nameless dread namely adv that is to say

◇ SYNONYMS: specifically, to wit, viz.

namesake n a person or thing with the same name as another nan bread or naan n a slightly leavened Indian bread in a large flat leaf shape nanny n, pl -nies

1 a person, usually a woman, whose job is looking after young children

► vb nannies, nannying, nannied

2 to nurse or look after someone else's children

3 to be too protective towards (someone) nanny goat n a female goat nano- combining form denoting one thousand millionth (10^{-9}): nanosecond

nap¹ n

1 a short sleep

◇ SYNONYMS: sleep, rest, kip (Brit slang), siesta, catnap, forty winks (informal)

► vb napping, napped

2 to have a short sleep

◇ SYNONYMS: sleep, rest, drop off (informal), doze, kip (Brit slang), snooze (informal), nod off (informal), catnap

3 catch someone napping to catch someone unprepared: they don't want to be caught napping when the army moves again

nap² n the raised fibres of velvet or similar cloth

◇ SYNONYMS: pile, down, fibre, weave, grain nap³ n

1 a card game similar to whist

2 (horse racing) a tipster's choice for a certain winner

► vb napping, napped

3 (horse racing) to name (a horse) as a likely winner napalm n

1 a highly inflammable jellied petrol, used in firebombs and flame-throwers

► vb

2 to attack (people or places) with napalm nape n the back of the neck naphtha n (chem) a liquid mixture distilled from coal tar or petroleum, used as a solvent and in petrol naphthalene n (chem) a white crystalline substance distilled from coal tar or petroleum, used in mothballs, dyes, and explosives napkin n a piece of cloth or paper for wiping the mouth or protecting the clothes while eating

◇ SYNONYMS: serviette, cloth

nappy n, pl -pies (Brit & NZ) a piece of soft absorbent material, usually disposable, wrapped around the waist and between the legs of a baby to absorb its urine and excrement narcissism n an exceptional interest in or admiration for oneself > narcissistic adj

narcissus (nahr-siss-uss) n, pl -cissi (-siss-eye) a yellow, orange, or white flower related to the daffodil narcosis n unconsciousness caused by a narcotic or general anaesthetic narcotic n

1 a drug, such as opium or morphine, that produces numbness and drowsiness, used medicinally but addictive

◇ SYNONYMS: drug, anaesthetic, painkiller, sedative, opiate, tranquillizer, anodyne, analgesic

► adj

2 of narcotics or narcosis

◇ SYNONYMS: sedative, calming, hypnotic, analgesic, soporific, painkilling nark (slang) vb

1 to annoy

► n

2 an informer or spy: copper's nark

3 (Brit) someone who complains in an irritating or whining manner narky adj narkier, narkiest (slang) irritable, complaining, or sarcastic narrate vb -rating, -rated

1 to tell (a story); relate

2 to speak the words accompanying and telling what is happening in a film or TV programme > narrator n

narration n

1 a narrating

2 a narrated account or story narrative n

1 an account of events

◇ SYNONYMS: story, report, history, account, statement, tale, chronicle

2 the part of a literary work that relates events

► adj

3 telling a story: a narrative account of the main events

4 of narration: narrative clarity narrow adj

1 small in breadth in comparison to length

◇ SYNONYMS: thin, fine, slim, slender, tapering, attenuated

2 limited in range, extent, or outlook: a narrow circle of academics

◇ SYNONYMS: limited, restricted, confined, tight, close, meagre, constricted

3 with little margin: a narrow advantage

► vb

4 to make or become narrow

◇ SYNONYMS: get narrower, taper, shrink, tighten, constrict

5 narrow down to restrict or limit: the search can be narrowed down to a single room

◇ SYNONYMS: restrict, limit, reduce, constrict

► See also narrows > narrowly adv

> narrowness n

narrow boat n (Brit) a long bargelike canal boat narrow-minded adj bigoted, intolerant, or prejudiced > narrow-mindedness n narrows pl n a narrow part of a strait, river, or current narwhal n an arctic whale with a long spiral tusk

NASA (in the US) National Aeronautics and Space Administration

nasal adj

1 of the nose

2 (of a sound) pronounced with air passing through the nose

3 (of a voice) characterized by nasal sounds > nasally adv

nascent adj (formal) starting to grow or develop

NASDAQ (in the US) National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotations (System)

nasturtium n a plant with yellow, red, or orange trumpet-shaped flowers nasty adj -tier, -tiest

1 unpleasant: a nasty odour

◇ SYNONYMS: unpleasant, ugly, disagreeable

2 dangerous or painful: a nasty burn

◇ SYNONYMS: serious, bad, dangerous, critical, severe, painful (informal)

3 (of a person) spiteful or ill-natured

◇ SYNONYMS: spiteful, mean (informal), offensive, vicious, unpleasant, vile, malicious, despicable

► n, pl -ties

4 something unpleasant: free from chemical nasties > nastily adv

> nastiness n

natal (nay-tl) adj of or relating to birth nation n a large body of people of one or more cultures or ethnicities, organized into a single state: a major industrialized nation ◇ SYNONYMS: country, state, realm, micronation national adj

1 of or serving a nation as a whole

◇ SYNONYMS: nationwide, public, widespread, countrywide

2 characteristic of a particular nation: the national character

► n

3 a citizen of a particular country: Belgian nationals

◇ SYNONYMS: citizen, subject, resident, native, inhabitant

4 a national newspaper > nationally adv

National Curriculum n (in England and Wales) the curriculum of subjects taught in state schools since 1989

National Health Service n (in Britain) the system of national medical services financed mainly by taxation national insurance n (in Britain) state insurance based on contributions from employees and employers, providing payments to unemployed, sick, and retired people nationalism n

1 a policy of national independence

2 patriotism, sometimes to an excessive degree

◇ SYNONYMS: patriotism, loyalty to your country, chauvinism, jingoism, allegiance > nationalist n, adj > nationalistic adj

nationality n, pl -ties

1 the fact of being a citizen of a particular nation

◇ SYNONYMS: citizenship, birth

2 a group of people of the same ethnicity: young men of all nationalities

◇ SYNONYMS: race, nation

nationalize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to put (an industry or a company) under state control > nationalization or -lisation n national park n an area of countryside protected by a national government for its scenic or environmental importance and visited by the public national service n (chiefly Brit) compulsory military service native adj

1 relating to a place where a person was born: native land

2 born in a specified place: a native New Yorker

3 native to originating in: a plant native to alpine regions

4 natural or inborn: native genius

5 relating to the original inhabitants of a country: archaeology may uncover magnificent native artefacts

6 go native (of a settler) to adopt the lifestyle of the local population

► n

7 a person born in a specified place: a native of Palermo

◇ SYNONYMS: inhabitant, national, resident, citizen, countryman, aborigine, dweller

8 an indigenous animal or plant: the saffron crocus is a native of Asia Minor

9 a member of the original race of a country, as opposed to colonial immigrants

◇ SYNONYMS: inhabitant, national, resident, citizen, countryman, aborigine, dweller

Native American n

1 a member of any of the original peoples of North America

► adj

2 of any of these peoples native bear n (Austral) same as koala native companion n (Austral) same as brolga native dog n (Austral) same as dingo

Nativity n (Christianity)

1 the birth of Jesus Christ

2 the feast of Christmas celebrating this NATO or Nato North Atlantic Treaty Organization: an international organization established for purposes of collective security natter (Brit & NZ informal) vb

1 to talk idly and at length

► n

2 a long idle chat

natty adj -tier, -tiest (informal) smart and spruce > nattily adv

natural adj

1 as is normal or to be expected: the natural consequence

◇ SYNONYMS: logical, valid, legitimate

2 genuine or spontaneous: talking in a relaxed, natural manner

◇ SYNONYMS: unaffected, open, genuine, spontaneous, unpretentious, unsophisticated, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal), ingenuous, real

3 of, according to, existing in, or produced by nature: natural disasters

4 not acquired; inborn: their natural enthusiasm

◇ SYNONYMS: innate, native, characteristic, inherent, instinctive, intuitive, inborn, essential

5 not created by human beings

6 not synthetic: natural fibres such as wool

◇ SYNONYMS: pure, plain, organic, whole, unrefined

7 (of a parent) not adoptive

8 (music) not sharp or flat: F natural

► n

9 (informal) a person with an inborn talent or skill: she's a natural at bridge

10 (music) a note that is neither sharp nor flat > naturalness n

natural gas n a gaseous mixture, consisting mainly of methane, found below ground; used widely as a fuel natural history n the study of animals and plants in the wild naturalism n a movement in art and literature advocating detailed realism > naturalistic adj

naturalist n

1 a student of natural history

2 a person who advocates or practises naturalism naturalize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to give citizenship to (a person born in another country)

2 to introduce (a plant or animal) into another region

3 to cause (a foreign word or custom) to be adopted > naturalization or -lisation n naturally adv

1 of course; surely ◇ SYNONYMS: of course, certainly

2 in a natural or normal way

◇ SYNONYMS: typically, simply, normally, spontaneously

3 instinctively natural selection n a process by which only those creatures and plants well adapted to their environment survive nature n

1 the whole system of the existence, forces, and events of the physical world that are not controlled by human beings

◇ SYNONYMS: creation, world, earth, environment, universe, cosmos, natural world

2 fundamental or essential qualities: the theory and nature of science

◇ SYNONYMS: quality, character, make-up, constitution, essence, complexion

3 kind or sort: problems of a financial nature

◇ SYNONYMS: kind, sort, style, type, variety, species, category, description

4 temperament or personality: an amiable and pleasant nature

◇ SYNONYMS: temperament, character, personality, disposition, outlook, mood, humour, temper

5 by nature essentially: he was by nature a cautious man

6 in the nature of essentially; by way of: it was in the nature of a debate rather than an argument

naturism n the practice of not wearing clothes; nudism > naturist n, adj

naught n

1 (archaic, or literary) nothing

2 (chiefly US) the figure 0

► adv

3 (archaic, or literary) not at all: I care naught naughty adj -tier, -tiest

1 (of children) mischievous or disobedient

◇ SYNONYMS: disobedient, bad, mischievous, badly behaved, wayward, wicked, impish, refractory

2 mildly indecent: naughty lingerie

◇ SYNONYMS: obscene, vulgar, improper, lewd, risqué, smutty, ribald > naughtily adv

> naughtiness n

nausea (naw-zee-a) n

1 the feeling of being about to vomit

◇ SYNONYMS: sickness, vomiting, retching, squeamishness, queasiness, biliousness

2 disgust

nauseate vb -ating, -ated

1 to cause (someone) to feel sick

2 to arouse feelings of disgust in (someone) > nauseating adj

nauseous adj

1 as if about to be sick: he felt nauseous

2 sickening

nautical adj of the sea, ships, or navigation nautical mile n a unit of length, used in navigation, standardized as 6080 feet nautilus n, pl -luses or -li a sea creature with a shell and tentacles naval adj of or relating to a navy or ships ◇ SYNONYMS: nautical, marine, maritime nave n the long central part of a church navel n the slight hollow in the centre of the abdomen, where the umbilical cord was attached navigable adj

1 wide, deep, or safe enough to be sailed through: the navigable portion of the Nile

2 able to be steered: the boat has to be watertight and navigable navigate vb -gating, -gated

1 to direct or plot the course or position of a ship or aircraft

2 to travel over or through safely: your cousin, who's just navigated the Amazon

3 (informal) to direct (oneself) carefully or safely: he navigated his unsteady way to the bar

4 (of a passenger in a vehicle) to read the map and give directions to the driver > navigation n

> navigational adj

> navigator n

navvy n, pl -vies (Brit & Austral informal) a labourer on a building site or road navy n, pl -vies

1 the branch of a country's armed services comprising warships with their crews, and all their supporting services

2 the warships of a nation

◇ SYNONYMS: fleet, flotilla, armada

► adj

3 short for navy-blue navy-blue adj very dark blue nay interj

1 (old-fashioned) no

► n

2 a person who votes against a motion

► adv

3 used for emphasis: I want, nay, need to know

Nazi n, pl -zis

1 a member of the fascist National Socialist German Workers' Party, which came to power in Germany in 1933 under Adolf Hitler

► adj

2 of or relating to the Nazis

> Nazism n

NB

1 New Brunswick

2 note well

NCO noncommissioned officer

NE

1 Nebraska

2 northeast(ern)

Neanderthal (nee-ann-der-tahl) adj

1 of a type of primitive human that lived in Europe before 12 000 BC

2 (informal) having or characterized by excessively conservative views: his notoriously Neanderthal attitude to women

neap tide n a tide that occurs at the first and last quarter of the moon when there is the smallest rise and fall in tidal level near prep

1 at or to a place or time not far away from

► adv

2 at or to a place or time not far away

3 short for nearly: the pain damn near crippled him

► adj

4 at or in a place or time not far away: in the near future

◇ SYNONYMS: close, neighbouring, nearby, adjacent, adjoining

5 closely connected or intimate: a near relation

6 almost being the thing specified: a mood of near rebellion

► vb

7 to draw close (to): the participants are nearing agreement > nearness n

nearby adj

1 not far away: a nearby village

◇ SYNONYMS: neighbouring, adjacent, adjoining

► adv

2 close at hand: I live nearby nearly adv

1 almost

◇ SYNONYMS: practically, almost, virtually, just about, as good as, well-nigh

2 not nearly nowhere near: it's not nearly as easy as it looks nearside n

1 (chiefly Brit) the side of a vehicle that is nearer the kerb

2 the left side of an animal neat adj

1 clean and tidy

◇ SYNONYMS: tidy, trim, orderly, spruce, shipshape, spick-and-span

2 smoothly or competently done: a neat answer

◇ SYNONYMS: graceful, elegant, adept, nimble, adroit, efficient

3 (of alcoholic drinks) undiluted

◇ SYNONYMS: undiluted, straight, pure, unmixed

4 (slang, chiefly US & Canad) admirable; excellent ◇ SYNONYMS: cool, great (informal), excellent, brilliant, superb, fantastic (informal), tremendous, fabulous (informal), booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal) > neatly adv

> neatness n

nebula (neb-yew-la) n, pl -lae (-lee) (astron) a hazy cloud of particles and gases > nebular adj

nebulous adj vague and unclear: a nebulous concept necessarily adv

1 as a certainty: the factors were not necessarily connected with one another

◇ SYNONYMS: automatically, naturally, definitely, undoubtedly, certainly

2 inevitably: tourism is an industry that has a necessarily close connection with governments

◇ SYNONYMS: inevitably, of necessity, unavoidably, incontrovertibly, nolens volens (Latin) necessary adj

1 needed in order to obtain the desired result: the necessary skills

◇ SYNONYMS: needed, required, essential, vital, compulsory, mandatory, imperative, indispensable

2 certain or unavoidable: the necessary consequences

◇ SYNONYMS: inevitable, certain, unavoidable, inescapable

► n

3 do the necessary (informal) to do something that is necessary in a particular situation

4 the necessary (informal) the money required for a particular purpose necessitate vb -tating, -tated to compel or require necessity n, pl -ties

1 a set of circumstances that inevitably requires a certain result: the necessity to maintain safety standards

2 something needed: the daily necessities

◇ SYNONYMS: essential, need, requirement, fundamental, requisite, prerequisite, sine qua non (Latin), desideratum, must-have

3 great poverty

4 of necessity inevitably neck n

1 the part of the body connecting the head with the rest of the body

2 the part of a garment around the neck

3 the long narrow part of a bottle or violin

4 the length of a horse's head and neck taken as the distance by which one horse beats another in a race: to win by a neck

5 (informal) impudence

6 by a neck by a very small margin: beaten only by a neck

7 get it in the neck (informal) to be reprimanded or punished severely

8 neck and neck absolutely level in a race or competition

9 neck of the woods (informal) a particular area: how did they get to this neck of the woods?

10 stick one's neck out (informal) to risk criticism or ridicule by speaking one's mind

11 up to one's neck in (informal) to be deeply involved in: he was up to his neck in the scandal

► vb

12 (slang) to swallow quickly

13 (informal) (of two people) to kiss each other passionately neckerchief n a piece of cloth worn tied round the neck necklace n a decorative piece of jewellery worn round the neck necromancy (neck-rome-man-see) n

1 communication with the dead

2 sorcery

> necromancer n necropolis (neck-rop-pol-liss) n a cemetery nectar n

1 a sugary fluid produced by flowers and collected by bees

2 (classical myth) the drink of the gods

3 any delicious drink nectarine n a smooth-skinned variety of peach ned n (Scot slang) a hooligan née prep indicating the maiden name of a married woman: Jane Gray (née Blandish)

need vb

1 to require or be in want of: they desperately need success

◇ SYNONYMS: require, want, demand, call for, entail, necessitate

2 to be obliged: the government may need to impose a statutory levy

◇ SYNONYMS: have to, be obliged to 3 used to express necessity or obligation and does not add -s when used with singular nouns or pronouns: need he go?

► n

4 the condition of lacking something: he has need of a new coat

5 a requirement: the need for closer economic co-operation

◇ SYNONYMS: requirement, demand, essential, necessity, requisite, desideratum, must-have

6 necessity: there was no need for an explanation

◇ SYNONYMS: necessity, call, demand, obligation

7 poverty or destitution: the money will go to those areas where need is greatest

◇ SYNONYMS: poverty, deprivation, destitution, penury

8 distress: help has been given to those in need

◇ SYNONYMS: emergency, want, necessity, urgency, exigency

► See also needs needful adj

1 necessary or required

► n

2 the needful (informal) what is necessary, usually money needle n

1 a pointed slender piece of metal with a hole in it through which thread is passed for sewing

2 a long pointed rod used in knitting

3 same as stylus

4 (med) the long hollow pointed part of a hypodermic syringe, which is inserted into the body

5 a pointer on the scale of a measuring instrument

6 a long narrow stiff leaf: pine needles

7 (Brit informal) intense rivalry or ill-feeling in a sports match

8 have or get the needle (Brit informal) to be or become annoyed

► vb -dling, -dled

9 (informal) to goad or provoke

◇ SYNONYMS: irritate, provoke, annoy, harass, taunt, nag, goad, rile needless adj not required; unnecessary

◇ SYNONYMS: unnecessary, pointless, gratuitous, useless, unwanted, redundant, superfluous, groundless > needlessly adv

needlework n sewing and embroidery needs adv

1 necessarily: they must needs be admired

► pl n

2 what is required: he provides them with their needs needy adj needier, neediest in need of financial support ◇ SYNONYMS: poor, deprived, disadvantaged, impoverished, penniless, destitute, poverty-stricken, underprivileged ne'er adv (poetic) never ne'er-do-well n

1 an irresponsible or lazy person

► adj

2 useless; worthless: his ne'er-do-well brother nefarious (nif-fair-ee-uss) adj (literary) evil; wicked negate vb -gating, -gated

1 to cause to have no value or effect: his prejudices largely negate his accomplishments

2 to deny the existence of negation n

1 the opposite or absence of something

2 a negative thing or condition

3 the act of negating negative adj

1 expressing a refusal or denial: a negative response

◇ SYNONYMS: dissenting, contradictory, refusing, denying, rejecting, opposing, resisting, contrary

2 lacking positive qualities, such as enthusiasm or optimism

◇ SYNONYMS: pessimistic, cynical, unwilling, gloomy, jaundiced, uncooperative

3 (med) indicating absence of the condition for which a test was made

4 (physics)

A (of an electric charge) having the same electrical charge as an electron

B (of a body or system) having a negative electric charge; having an excess of electrons

5 same as minus

6 measured in a direction opposite to that regarded as positive

7 of a photographic negative

► n

8 a statement or act of denial or refusal

◇ SYNONYMS: denial, no, refusal, rejection, contradiction

9 (photog) a piece of photographic film, exposed and developed, bearing an image with a reversal of tones or colours, from which positive prints are made

10 a word or expression with a negative meaning, such as not

11 a quantity less than zero

12 in the negative indicating denial or refusal > negatively adv

neglect vb

1 to fail to give due care or attention to: she had neglected her child

◇ SYNONYMS: disregard, ignore, fail to look after

2 to fail (to do something) through carelessness: he neglected to greet his guests

◇ SYNONYMS: shirk, forget, overlook, omit, evade, pass over, skimp, be remiss in or about

3 to disregard: he neglected his duty

► n

4 lack of due care or attention: the city had a look of shabbiness and neglect

◇ SYNONYMS: negligence, inattention

5 the state of being neglected neglectful adj not paying enough care or attention: abusive and neglectful parents

negligee (neg-lee-zhay) n a woman's light, usually lace-trimmed dressing gown negligence n neglect or carelessness ◇ SYNONYMS: carelessness, neglect, disregard, dereliction, slackness, inattention, laxity, thoughtlessness > negligent adj

> negligently adv

negligible adj so small or unimportant as to be not worth considering negotiable adj

1 able to be changed or agreed by discussion: the prices were negotiable

2 (of a bill of exchange or promissory note) legally transferable negotiate vb -ating, -ated

1 to talk with others in order to reach (an agreement)

◇ SYNONYMS: bargain, deal, discuss, debate, mediate, hold talks, cut a deal, conciliate

2 to succeed in passing round or over (a place or a problem)

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, work out, bring about, transact > negotiation n > negotiator n

Negro (old-fashioned, offensive) n, pl -groes

1 a member of any of the dark-skinned peoples originating in Africa

► adj

2 of Black people

Negroid adj (old-fashioned, offensive) of or relating to the dark-skinned peoples originating in Africa neigh n

1 the high-pitched sound made by a horse

► vb

2 to make this sound

neighbour or (US) neighbor n

1 a person who lives near or next to another

2 a person, thing, or country near or next to another neighbourhood or (US) neighborhood n

1 a district where people live

◇ SYNONYMS: district, community, quarter, region, locality, locale

2 the immediate environment; surroundings

◇ SYNONYMS: vicinity, environs

3 the people in a district

4 in the neighbourhood of approximately

► adj

5 in and for a district: our neighbourhood cinema neighbouring or (US) neighboring adj situated nearby: the neighbouring island

◇ SYNONYMS: nearby, next, near, bordering, surrounding, connecting, adjacent, adjoining neighbourly or (US) neighborly adj kind, friendly, and helpful

◇ SYNONYMS: helpful, kind, friendly, obliging, harmonious, considerate, sociable, hospitable neither adj

1 not one nor the other (of two): neither enterprise went well

► pron

2 not one nor the other (of two): neither completed the full term

► conj

3

A used preceding alternatives joined by nor; not: sparing neither strength nor courage

B same as nor

► adv

4 (not standard) same as either nemesis (nem-miss-iss) n, pl -ses (-seez) a means of retribution or vengeance neo- combining form new, recent, or a modern form of: neoclassicism; neo-Nazi neocon n, adj (chiefly US) short for neoconservative neoconservative adj

1 favouring a return to a set of established (esp. political) conservative values which have been updated to suit current conditions

► n

2 a person subscribing to neoconservative philosophy

Neolithic adj of the period that lasted in Europe from about 4000 to 2400 BC, characterized by primitive farming and the use of polished stone and flint tools and weapons

neologism (nee-ol-a-jiz-zum) n a newly coined word, or an established word used in a new sense neon n

1 (chem) a colourless odourless rare gas, used in illuminated signs and lights.

SYMBOL: Ne

► adj

2 of or illuminated by neon: a flashing neon sign neonatal adj relating to the first few weeks of a baby's life > neonate n

neophyte n (formal)

- 1 a beginner
- 2 a person newly converted to a religious faith
- 3 a novice in a religious order nephew n a son of one's sister or brother nephritis (nif-frite-tiss) n inflammation of the kidney nepotism (nep-a-tiz-zum) n favouritism shown to relatives and friends by those with power

Neptune n

- 1 the Roman god of the sea
- 2 the eighth planet from the sun nerd or nurd n (slang)

- 1 a boring or unpopular person, esp. one who is obsessed with a particular subject: a computer nerd
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: bore, obsessive, anorak (informal), geek (informal), trainspotter (informal), dork (slang), wonk (informal), techie (informal), alpha geek
 - 2 a stupid and feeble person
- > nerdish or nurdish or nerdy or nurdy adj nerve n

- 1 a cordlike bundle of fibres that conducts impulses between the brain and other parts of the body
 - 2 bravery and determination
- ◇ SYNONYMS: bravery, courage, bottle (Brit slang), resolution, daring, guts (informal), pluck, grit

3 (informal) impudence: you've got a nerve!

◇ SYNONYMS: impudence, cheek (informal), audacity, boldness, temerity, insolence, impertinence, brazenness

4 lose one's nerve to lose self-confidence and become afraid about what one is doing

5 strain every nerve to make every effort (to do something)

► vb nerving, nerved

6 nerve oneself to prepare oneself (to do something difficult or unpleasant)

◇ SYNONYMS nerve yourself: brace yourself, prepare yourself, steel yourself, fortify yourself, gear yourself up, gee yourself up nerve centre n

1 a place from which a system or organization is controlled: an underground nerve centre of intelligence

2 a group of nerve cells associated with a specific function nerveless adj

1 (of fingers or hands) without feeling; numb

2 (of a person) fearless nerve-racking or nerve-wracking adj very distressing or harrowing nervous adj

1 apprehensive or worried

◇ SYNONYMS: apprehensive, anxious, uneasy, edgy, worried, tense, fearful, uptight (informal), toey (Austral slang), adrenalized

2 excitable; highly strung

3 of or relating to the nerves: the nervous system > nervously adv

> nervousness n

nervous breakdown n a mental illness in which a person ceases to function properly, and experiences symptoms including tiredness, anxiety, and severe depression

nervy adj nervier, nerviest (Brit & Austral informal) excitable or nervous nest n

1 a place or structure in which birds or other animals lay eggs or give birth to young

2 a cosy or secluded place

◇ SYNONYMS: refuge, retreat, haunt, den, hideaway

3 a set of things of graduated sizes designed to fit together: a nest of tables

► vb

4 to make or inhabit a nest

5 (of a set of objects) to fit one inside another

6 (computers) to position (data) within other data at different ranks or levels nest egg n a fund of money kept in reserve nestle vb -tling, -tled

1 to snuggle or cuddle closely

◇ SYNONYMS: snuggle, cuddle, huddle, curl up, nuzzle

2 to be in a sheltered position: honey-coloured stone villages nestling in wooded valleys nestling n a young bird not yet able to fly

◇ SYNONYMS: chick, fledgling, baby bird

net¹ n

1 a very fine fabric made from intersecting strands of material with a space between each strand

◇ SYNONYMS: mesh, netting, network, web, lattice, openwork

2 a piece of net, used to protect or hold things or to trap animals

◇ SYNONYMS: mesh, netting, network, web, lattice, openwork

3 (in certain sports) a strip of net over which the ball or shuttlecock must be hit

4 the goal in soccer or hockey

5 a strategy intended to trap people: innocent fans were caught in the police

net

6 (informal) short for internet

► vb netting, netted

7 to catch (a fish or other animal) in a net

◇ SYNONYMS: catch, bag, capture, trap, entangle, ensnare, enmesh

net² or nett² adj

1 remaining after all deductions, as for taxes and expenses: net income

◇ SYNONYMS: after taxes, final, clear, take-home

2 (of weight) excluding the weight of wrapping or container

3 final or conclusive: the net effect

► vb netting, netted

4 to yield or earn as a clear profit

◇ SYNONYMS: earn, make, clear, gain, realize, bring in, accumulate, reap netball n a team game, usually played by women, in which a ball has to be thrown through a net hanging from a ring at the top of a pole nether adj (old-fashioned) lower or under: nether regions

nett adj, vb same as net netting n a fabric or structure made of net nettle n

1 a plant with stinging hairs on the leaves

2 grasp the nettle to attempt something unpleasant with boldness and courage nettled adj irritated or annoyed network n

1 a system of intersecting lines, roads, veins, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: web, system, arrangement, grid, lattice

2 an interconnecting group or system: a network of sympathizers and safe-houses

3 (radio, television) a group of broadcasting stations that all transmit the same programme at the same time

4 (electronics, computers) a system of interconnected components or circuits

► vb

5 (radio, television) to broadcast (a programme) over a network

6 to form business contacts through informal social meetings neural adj of a nerve or the nervous system neuralgia n severe pain along a nerve > neuralgic adj

neuritis (nyoor-rite-tiss) n inflammation of a nerve or nerves, often causing pain and loss of function in the affected part neurology n (med) the scientific study of the nervous system > neurological adj

> neurologist n neurosis (nyoor-oh-siss) n, pl -ses (-seez) a mental health condition characterized by anxiety, depression, or obsessive behaviour neurotic adj

1 tending to be emotionally unstable

2 affected by neurosis

► n

3 a person with a neurosis or tending to be emotionally unstable neuter adj

1 (grammar) denoting a gender of nouns which are neither male nor female

2 (of animals and plants) sexually underdeveloped

► n

3 (grammar)

A the neuter gender

B a neuter noun

4 a sexually underdeveloped female insect, such as a worker bee

5 a castrated animal

► vb

6 to castrate (an animal) neutral adj

1 not taking any side in a war or dispute

◇ SYNONYMS: unbiased, impartial, disinterested, even-handed, uninvolved, nonpartisan, unprejudiced, nonaligned

2 of or belonging to a neutral party or country

◇ SYNONYMS: unbiased, impartial, disinterested, even-handed, uninvolved, nonpartisan, unprejudiced, nonaligned

3 not displaying any emotions or opinions

◇ SYNONYMS: expressionless, dull

4 (of a colour) not definite or striking

◇ SYNONYMS: colourless

5 (chem) neither acidic nor alkaline

6 (physics) having zero charge or potential

► n

7 a neutral person or nation

8 the position of the controls of a gearbox that leaves the gears unconnected to the engine > neutrality n

neutralize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to make electrically or chemically neutral

2 to make ineffective by counteracting

3 to make (a country) neutral by international agreement: the great powers neutralized Belgium in the 19th century

> neutralization or -lisation n

neutrino (new-tree-no) n, pl -nos (physics) an elementary particle with no mass or electrical charge neutron n (physics) a neutral elementary particle of about the same mass as a proton neutron bomb n a nuclear weapon designed to kill people and animals while leaving buildings virtually undamaged never adv

1 at no time; not ever

◇ SYNONYMS: at no time, not once, not ever

2 certainly not; not at all

◇ SYNONYMS: under no circumstances, not at all, on no account, not ever 3 Also: well I never! surely not!

never-never n the never-never (informal) hire-purchase: they are buying it on the never-never nevertheless adv in spite of that ◇ SYNONYMS: even so, still, however, yet, regardless, nonetheless, notwithstanding, in spite of that new adj

1 recently made, brought into being, or acquired: a new car

◇ SYNONYMS: brand new

2 of a kind never before existing; novel: a new approach to monetary policy

3 recently discovered: testing new drugs

◇ SYNONYMS: modern, recent, contemporary, up-to-date, latest, current, original, fresh

4 recently introduced to or inexperienced in a place or situation: new to this game

◇ SYNONYMS: unfamiliar, strange

5 fresh; additional: you can acquire new skills

◇ SYNONYMS: extra, more, added, new-found, supplementary

6 unknown: this is new to me

◇ SYNONYMS: unfamiliar, strange

7 (of a cycle) beginning again: a new era

8 (of crops) harvested early: new potatoes

9 changed for the better: she returned a new woman

◇ SYNONYMS: renewed, changed, improved, restored, altered, revitalized

► adv

10 recently, newly: new-laid eggs

► See also news

> newish adj

> newness n

New Age n

1 a philosophy, originating in the late 1980s, characterized by a belief in alternative medicine, astrology, and spiritualism

► adj

2 of the New Age: New Age therapies

> New Ager n

newbie n (informal) a person new to a job, club, etc.

newborn adj recently or just born newcomer n a recent arrival or participant

◇ SYNONYMS: new arrival, stranger

newel n

1 Also called: newel post the post at the top or bottom of a flight of stairs that supports the handrail

2 the central pillar of a winding staircase newfangled adj objectionably or unnecessarily modern newlyweds pl n a recently married couple new moon n the moon when it appears as a narrow crescent at the beginning of its cycle news n

1 important or interesting new happenings

◇ SYNONYMS: information, latest (informal), report, story, exposé, intelligence, rumour, revelation, goss (informal)

2 information about such events, reported in the mass media

◇ SYNONYMS: information, latest (informal), report, story, exposé, intelligence, rumour, revelation, goss (informal)

3 the news a television or radio programme presenting such information

4 interesting or important new information: it's news to me

5 a person or thing widely reported in the mass media: reggae is suddenly big news again newsagent n (Brit) a shopkeeper who sells newspapers and magazines newsflash n a brief item of important news, which interrupts a radio or television programme newsletter n a periodical bulletin issued to members of a group newspaper n a weekly or daily publication consisting of folded sheets and containing news, features, and advertisements newsprint n an inexpensive wood-pulp paper used for newspapers newsreader n a news announcer on radio or television newsreel n a short film with a commentary which presents current events newsroom n a room in a newspaper office or radio or television station where news is received and prepared for publication or broadcasting: a journalist who was in the newsroom at the time newsworthy adj sufficiently interesting to be reported as news newsy adj newsier, newsiest (of a letter) full of news newt n a small amphibious creature with a long slender body and tail and short legs newton n the SI unit of force that gives an acceleration of 1 metre per second per second to a mass of 1 kilogram

next adj

1 immediately following: the next generation

◇ SYNONYMS: following, later, succeeding, subsequent

2 immediately adjoining: in the next room

◇ SYNONYMS: adjacent, closest, nearest, neighbouring, adjoining

3 closest to in degree: the next-best thing

► adv

4 at a time immediately to follow: the patient to be examined next

◇ SYNONYMS: afterwards, then, later, following, subsequently, thereafter

5 next to

A adjacent to: the house next to ours

B following in degree: next to my wife, I love you most

C almost: the evidence is next to totally useless

nexus n, pl nexus

1 a connection or link

2 a connected group or series

Nh nihonium

NHS (in Britain) National Health Service nib n the writing point of a pen nibble vb -bling, -bled

1 to take little bites (of)

2 to bite gently: she nibbled at her lower lip

► n

3 a little bite

4 a light hurried meal nibs n his or her nibs (slang) a mock title used of an important or self-important person nice adj

1 pleasant

◇ SYNONYMS: pleasant, delightful, agreeable, good, attractive, charming, pleasurable, enjoyable

2 kind: it's really nice of you to worry about me

◇ SYNONYMS: kind, helpful, obliging, considerate

3 good or satisfactory: a nice clean operation

4 subtle: a nice distinction

◇ SYNONYMS: precise, fine, careful, strict, subtle, delicate, meticulous, fastidious > nicely adv

> niceness n

nicety n, pl -ties

1 a subtle point: the niceties of our arguments

2 a refinement or delicacy: social niceties

3 to a nicety precisely niche (neesh) n

1 a recess in a wall for a statue or ornament

◇ SYNONYMS: recess, opening, corner, hollow, nook, alcove

2 a position exactly suitable for the person occupying it: perhaps I will find my niche in a desk job

◇ SYNONYMS: position, calling, place, slot (informal), vocation, pigeonhole (informal)

► adj

3 of or aimed at a specialist group or market: niche retailing ventures nick vb

1 to make a small cut in ◇ SYNONYMS: cut, mark, score, chip, scratch, scar, notch, dent

2 (chiefly Brit slang) to steal

◇ SYNONYMS: steal, pinch (informal), swipe (slang), pilfer

3 (chiefly Brit slang) to arrest

► n

4 a small notch or cut

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, mark, scratch, chip, scar, notch, dent

5 (slang) a prison or police station

6 (informal) condition: in good nick

7 in the nick of time just in time nickel n

1 (chem) a silvery-white metallic element that is often used in alloys. SYMBOL: Ni

2 a US or Canadian coin worth five cents nickelodeon n (US) an early type of jukebox nickname n

1 a familiar, pet, or derisory name given to a person or place

◇ SYNONYMS: pet name, label, diminutive, epithet, sobriquet, moniker or monicker (slang)

► vb -naming, -named

2 to call (a person or place) by a nickname: Gaius Caesar Augustus Germanicus, nicknamed Caligula nicotine n a poisonous alkaloid found in tobacco > nicotinic adj

niece n a daughter of one's sister or brother nifty adj -tier, -tiest (informal) neat or smart niggard n a stingy person niggardly adj not generous: it pays its staff on a niggardly scale > niggardliness n

niggle vb -gling, -gled 1 to worry slightly 2 to find fault continually
▶ n
3 a small worry or doubt 4 a trivial objection or complaint > niggling adj

nigh (archaic, poetic) adv
1 nearly ▶ adj
2 near ▶ prep 3 close to night n

1 the period of darkness that occurs each 24 hours, between sunset and sunrise. RELATED ADJECTIVE: nocturnal
◇ SYNONYMS: darkness, dark, night-time 2 the period between sunset and bedtime; evening

3 the time between bedtime and morning

4 nightfall or dusk

5 an evening designated for a specific activity: opening night

6 make a night of it to celebrate the whole evening

► adj

7 of, occurring, or working at night: the night sky nightcap n

1 a drink taken just before bedtime

2 a soft cap formerly worn in bed nightclub n a place of entertainment open until late at night, that offers drink and dancing nightdress n a loose dress worn in bed by women or girls nightfall n the approach of darkness; dusk nightie n (informal) short for nightdress nightingale n a small bird with a musical song, usually heard at night nightjar n a nocturnal bird with a harsh cry nightlife n the entertainment and social activities available at night in a town or city: New York nightlife

nightly adj

1 happening each night

◇ SYNONYMS: nocturnal, night-time

► adv

2 each night

◇ SYNONYMS: every night, nights (informal), each night, night after night nightmare n

1 a terrifying or deeply distressing dream

◇ SYNONYMS: bad dream, hallucination

2 a terrifying or unpleasant experience

◇ SYNONYMS: ordeal, trial, hell (informal), horror, torture, torment, tribulation, purgatory

3 a thing that is feared: wheels and loose straps are a baggage handler's nightmare > nightmarish adj

night school n an educational institution that holds classes in the evening nightshade n a plant which produces poisonous berries with bell-shaped flowers nightshirt n a long loose shirtlike garment worn in bed night-time n the time from sunset to sunrise nihilism (nye-ill-liz-zum) n a total rejection of all established authority and institutions > nihilist n, adj

> nihilistic adj nihonium n (chem) a synthetic radioactive element produced in small quantities. SYMBOL: Nh

nil n nothing: esp. as a score in games

◇ SYNONYMS: nothing, love, zero nimble adj

1 agile and quick in movement

2 mentally alert or acute > nimbly adv

nimbus n, pl -bi or -buses

1 a dark grey rain cloud

2 a halo

nincompoop n (informal) a stupid person nine n

1 the cardinal number that is the sum of one and eight

2 a numeral, 9 or IX, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of nine units

4 dressed up to the nines (informal) elaborately dressed

5 999 (in Britain) the telephone number of the emergency services

► adj

6 amounting to nine: nine men > ninth adj, n

ninepins n the game of skittles nineteen n

1 the cardinal number that is the sum of ten and nine

2 a numeral, 19 or XIX, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of nineteen units

4 talk nineteen to the dozen to talk very fast

► adj

5 amounting to nineteen: nineteen years > nineteenth adj, n

ninety n, pl -ties

1 the cardinal number that is the product of ten and nine

2 a numeral, 90 or XC, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of ninety units

► adj

4 amounting to ninety: ninety degrees > ninetieth adj, n niobium n (chem) a white superconductive metallic element. SYMBOL: Nb

nip¹ vb nipping, nipped

1 (informal) to hurry

◇ SYNONYMS: pop, go, run, rush, dash

2 to pinch or squeeze

◇ SYNONYMS: pinch, squeeze, tweak

3 to bite lightly

◇ SYNONYMS: bite

4 (of the cold) to affect (someone) with a stinging sensation

5 to check the growth of (something): a trite script nips all hope in the bud

► n

6 a pinch or light bite

◇ SYNONYMS: pinch, squeeze, tweak

7 sharp coldness: a nip in the air

nip² n a small drink of spirits

◇ SYNONYMS: dram, shot (informal), drop, sip, draught, mouthful, snifter (informal) nipper n (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) a small child nipple n

- 1 the small projection in the centre of each breast, which in females contains the outlet of the milk ducts
- 2 a small projection through which oil or grease can be put into a machine or component nippy adj -pier, -piest

- 1 (of weather) frosty or chilly
- 2 (informal) quick or nimble
- 3 (of a motor vehicle) small and relatively powerful niqab n a veil of lightweight opaque fabric, covering all the face except the eyes, worn by some Muslim women nirvana (near-vah-na) n (Buddhism, Hinduism) the ultimate state of spiritual enlightenment and bliss attained by extinction of all desires and individual existence

◇ SYNONYMS: paradise, peace, joy, bliss, serenity, tranquillity nit¹ n the egg or larva of a louse nit² n (informal) short for nitwit nit-picking (informal) n

1 a concern with insignificant details, usually with the intention of finding fault

► adj

2 showing such concern nitrate (chem) n

1 a salt or ester of nitric acid

2 a fertilizer containing nitrate salts

► vb -trating, -trated

3 to treat with nitric acid or a nitrate 4 to convert or be converted into a nitrate > nitration n

nitric adj (chem) of or containing nitrogen nitrogen (nite-roj-jen) n (chem) a colourless odourless gas that forms four-fifths of the air and is an essential part of all animal and plant life. SYMBOL: N > nitrogenous adj

nitroglycerine or nitroglycerin n (chem) a thick pale yellow explosive liquid made from glycerol and nitric and sulphuric acids nitty-gritty n the nitty-gritty (informal) the basic facts of a matter or situation nitwit n (informal) a stupid person no¹ interj

1 used to express denial, disagreement, or refusal

◇ SYNONYMS: not at all, certainly not, of course not, absolutely not, never, no way, nay

► n, pl noes or nos

2 an answer or vote of no

◇ SYNONYMS: refusal, rejection, denial, negation

3 a person who answers or votes no no² adj

1 not any, not a, or not one: I have no money; no comment

2 not at all: he's no exception

No (chem) nobelium

No. or no. pl Nos. or nos. number nob n (chiefly Brit old-fashioned, slang) a person of wealth or social distinction noble vb -bling, -bled (chiefly Brit & Austral & NZ slang)

1 to bribe or threaten

2 to disable (a racehorse) to stop it from winning

3 to steal

nobelium n (chem) a radioactive element produced artificially from curium.

SYMBOL: No

Nobel prize (no-bell) n a prize for outstanding contributions to chemistry, physics, physiology and medicine, literature, economics, and peace that may be awarded annually nobility n

1 the quality of being noble; dignity

2 the class of people who hold titles and high social rank noble adj

1 having or showing high moral qualities: a noble cause

◇ SYNONYMS: worthy, generous, upright, honourable, virtuous, magnanimous

2 belonging to a class of people who hold titles and high social rank ◇ SYNONYMS: aristocratic, lordly, titled, patrician, blue-blooded, highborn (old-fashioned)

3 impressive and magnificent: a noble beast

◇ SYNONYMS: dignified, great, imposing, impressive, distinguished, splendid, stately

4 (chem) (of certain metals) resisting oxidation

► n

5 a person who holds a title and high social rank

◇ SYNONYMS: lord or lady, peer, aristocrat, nobleman or woman > nobly adv

nobleman or (fem) noblewoman n, pl -men or -women a person of noble rank nobody pron

1 no person; no-one

◇ SYNONYMS: no-one

► n, pl -bodies

2 a person of no importance

◇ SYNONYMS: nonentity, lightweight (informal), zero, no-mark (Brit slang, old-fashioned), cipher no-brainer n (slang) something, esp. a decision that requires little or no thought nocturnal adj

1 of the night

2 (of animals) active at night nocturne n a short dreamy piece of music nod vb nodding, nodded

1 to lower and raise (one's head) briefly, to express agreement or greeting

2 to express by nodding: he nodded his approval

◇ SYNONYMS: signal, indicate, motion, gesture

3 to sway or bend forwards and back

◇ SYNONYMS: incline, bow

4 to let one's head fall forward with sleep

5 nodding acquaintance a slight knowledge (of a subject or person)

► n

6 a quick down-and-up movement of the head, in agreement

◇ SYNONYMS: signal, sign, motion, gesture, indication

7 land of Nod an imaginary land of sleep noddle n (chiefly Brit informal) the head or brains node n

1 (botany) the point on a plant stem from which the leaves grow

2 (maths) a point at which a curve crosses itself

3 a knot or knob

4 (physics) a point in a vibrating body at which there is practically no vibration

5 (anatomy) any natural bulge or swelling: lymph node

6 (astron) either of the two points at which the orbit of a body intersects the path of the sun or the orbit of another body > nodal adj

nod off vb (informal) to fall asleep nodule n

1 a small rounded lump, knot, or node

2 a rounded mineral growth on the root of a plant such as clover > nodular adj

Noel or Noël n same as Christmas noggin n

1 (informal) the head

2 a small quantity of spirits no-go area n a district that is barricaded off so that the police or army can enter only by force noise n

1 a sound, usually a loud or disturbing one

◇ SYNONYMS: sound, row, racket, clamour, din, uproar, commotion, hubbub

2 loud shouting; din

◇ SYNONYMS: sound, row, racket, clamour, din, uproar, commotion, hubbub

3 an undesired electrical disturbance in a signal

4 unwanted or irrelevant elements in a visual image: removing noise from pictures

5 noises conventional utterances conveying a reaction: he made the appropriate noises

► vb noising, noised

6 be noised abroad (of news or gossip) to be spread noiseless adj making little or no sound > noiselessly adv

noisome adj (formal)

1 (of smells) offensive

2 extremely unpleasant

noisy adj noisier, noisiest

1 making a lot of noise

◇ SYNONYMS: rowdy, strident, boisterous, vociferous, uproarious, clamorous

2 (of a place) full of noise > noisily adv

nomad n

1 a member of a tribe who move from place to place to find pasture and food

2 a wanderer > nomadic adj

no-man's-land n land between boundaries, esp. an unoccupied zone between opposing forces nom de plume n, pl noms de plume same as pen name nomenclature (no-men-klatch-er) n (formal) the system of names used in a particular subject nominal adj

1 in name only: nominal independence

◇ SYNONYMS: titular, formal, purported, in name only, supposed, so-called, theoretical, professed

2 very small in comparison with real worth: a nominal amount of aid

◇ SYNONYMS: token, small, symbolic, minimal, trivial, trifling, insignificant, inconsiderable > nominally adv

nominate vb -nating, -nated

1 to propose (someone) as a candidate

◇ SYNONYMS: propose, suggest, recommend, put forward

2 to appoint (someone) to an office or position

◇ SYNONYMS: appoint, name, choose, select, elect, assign, designate > nomination n

nominal n (grammar) a grammatical case in some languages that identifies the subject of a verb nominee n a person who is nominated to an office or as a candidate ◇ SYNONYMS: candidate, applicant, entrant, contestant, aspirant, runner non- prefix

1 indicating negation: nonexistent

2 indicating refusal or failure: noncooperation

3 indicating exclusion from a specified class: nonfiction

4 indicating lack or absence: nonevent nonagenarian n a person who is from 90 to 99 years old nonaggression n the policy of not attacking other countries nonagon n (geom) a figure with nine sides > nonagonal adj

nonalcoholic adj containing no alcohol nonaligned adj (of a country) not part of a major alliance or power bloc > nonalignment n

nonbinary adj relating to a gender identity that does not belong to the categories of male or female nonce n for the nonce for the present nonchalant (non-shall-ant) adj casually unconcerned or indifferent > nonchalance n > nonchalantly adv

noncombatant n a member of the armed forces whose duties do not include fighting, such as a chaplain or surgeon noncommissioned officer n (in the armed forces) a person who is appointed as a subordinate officer, from the lower ranks, rather than by a commission noncommittal adj not committing oneself to any particular opinion non compos mentis adj of unsound mind nonconductor n a substance that is a poor conductor of heat, electricity, or sound

nonconformist n

1 a person who does not conform to generally accepted patterns of behaviour or thought

► adj

2 (of behaviour or ideas) not conforming to accepted patterns: people who pride themselves on their nonconformist past

> nonconformity n

Nonconformist n

1 a member of a Protestant group separated from the Church of England

► adj

2 of or relating to Nonconformists noncontributory adj (Brit) denoting a pension scheme for employees, the premiums of which are paid entirely by the employer nondescript adj lacking outstanding features none pron

1 not any: none of the men was represented by a lawyer; none of it meant anything to him

◇ SYNONYMS: not any, nothing, zero, not one, nil

2 no-one; nobody: none could deny it

◇ SYNONYMS: no-one, nobody, not one

3 none the in no degree: her parents were none the wiser nonentity (non-enn-tit-tee) n, pl -ties an insignificant person or thing nonetheless adv despite that; however ◇ SYNONYMS: nevertheless, however, yet, even so, despite that, in spite of that nonevent n a disappointing or insignificant occurrence which was expected to be important nonflammable adj not easily set on fire nonintervention n refusal to intervene in the affairs of others nonpareil (non-par-rail) n a person or thing that is unsurpassed non-payment n failure to pay money owed nonplussed or (US) nonplused adj perplexed nonsense n

1 something that has or makes no sense

◇ SYNONYMS: rubbish, hot air (informal), twaddle, drivel, tripe (informal), gibberish, claptrap (old-fashioned), double Dutch (Brit informal), bizzo (Austral slang), bull's wool (Austral & NZ slang)

2 unintelligible language

3 foolish behaviour: she'll stand no nonsense

◇ SYNONYMS: idiocy, stupidity > nonsensical adj

non sequitur (sek-wit-tur) n a statement having little or no relation to what preceded it nonstandard adj denoting words, expressions, or pronunciations that are not regarded as correct by educated native speakers of a language nonstarter n a person or an idea that has little chance of success nonstick adj (of cooking utensils) coated with a substance that food will not stick to when cooked nonstop adj

1 without a stop: two weeks of nonstop rain

◇ SYNONYMS: continuous, constant, relentless, uninterrupted, endless, unbroken, interminable, incessant

► adv

2 without a stop: most days his phone rings nonstop

◇ SYNONYMS: continuously, constantly, endlessly, relentlessly, perpetually, incessantly, ceaselessly, interminably nontoxic adj not poisonous noodles pl n ribbon-like strips of pasta nook n

1 a corner or recess

2 a secluded or sheltered place noon n the middle of the day; 12 o'clock

◇ SYNONYMS: midday, high noon, noontide, twelve noon, noontide noontide adj happening or appearing at noon no-one or no one pron no person; nobody noose n a loop in the end of a rope, tied with a slipknot, such as one used to hang people nor conj

1 used to join alternatives, the first of which is preceded by neither; and not: neither willing nor able

2 and not ... either: he had not arrived yet, nor had any of the models

Nordic adj of Scandinavia or its typically tall, blond, and blue-eyed people norm n a standard that is required or regarded as normal ◇ SYNONYMS: standard, rule, pattern, average, par, criterion, benchmark, yardstick normal adj

1 usual, regular, or typical: the study of normal behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: usual, common, standard, average, natural, regular, ordinary, typical

2 free from serious mental or physical health problems

◇ SYNONYMS: sane, reasonable, rational, well-adjusted, compos mentis (Latin), in your right mind, mentally sound

3 (geom) same as perpendicular

► n

4 the usual, regular, or typical state, degree, or form

5 (geom) a perpendicular line or plane > normality or (esp US) normalcy n normalize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to make or become normal

2 to bring into conformity with a standard > normalization or -lisation n

normally adv

1 as a rule; usually

◇ SYNONYMS: usually, generally, commonly, regularly, typically, ordinarily, as a rule, habitually

2 in a normal manner

◇ SYNONYMS: as usual, naturally, properly, conventionally, in the usual way

Norse adj

1 of ancient and medieval Scandinavia

2 of Norway

► n

3

A the N group of Germanic languages spoken in Scandinavia

B any one of these languages, esp. in their ancient or medieval forms north n

1 one of the four cardinal points of the compass, at 0° or 360°

2 the direction along a meridian towards the North Pole

3 the direction in which a compass needle points; magnetic north

4 the north any area lying in or towards the north

► adj

5 in or towards the north

◇ SYNONYMS: northern, polar, arctic, boreal, northerly

6 (esp. of the wind) from the north

◇ SYNONYMS: northern, polar, arctic, boreal, northerly

► adv

7 in, to, or towards the north

◇ SYNONYMS: northward(s), in a northerly direction

North n

1 the North

A the northern part of England, generally regarded as reaching the southern boundaries of Yorkshire, Derbyshire, and Cheshire

B (in the US) the states north of the Mason-Dixon Line that were known as the Free States during the Civil War

C the economically and technically advanced countries of the world

► adj

2 of or denoting the northern part of a country or area northerly adj

1 of or in the north

► adv, adj

2 towards the north

3 from the north: a cold northerly wind northern adj

1 situated in or towards the north

2 facing or moving towards the north

3 (sometimes cap) of or characteristic of the north or North > northernmost adj

Northerner n a person from the north of a country or area, esp. England

North Pole n the northernmost point on the earth's axis, at a latitude of 90°N, which has very low temperatures northward adj, adv also northwards

1 towards the north

► n

2 the northward part or direction

Nos. or nos. numbers nose n

1 the organ situated above the mouth, used for smelling and breathing

◇ SYNONYMS: snout, bill, beak (slang), hooter (slang), proboscis

2 the sense of smell

3 the front part of a vehicle

4 the distinctive smell of a wine or perfume

- 5 instinctive skill in finding something: he had a nose for media events
- 6 get up someone's nose (informal) to annoy someone
- 7 keep one's nose clean to stay out of trouble
- 8 look down one's nose at (informal) to be haughty towards
- 9 pay through the nose (informal) to pay a high price
- 10 put someone's nose out of joint (informal) to make someone envious by doing what he or she would have liked to do or had expected to do
- 11 rub someone's nose in it (informal) to remind someone unkindly of a failing or error
- 12 turn up one's nose at (informal) to show contempt for
- 13 win by a nose to win by a narrow margin
- vb nosing, nosed
- 14 to move forward slowly and carefully: a motorboat nosed out of the mist
- ◇ SYNONYMS: ease forward, push, edge, shove, nudge
- 15 to pry or snoop
- 16 nose out to discover by searching or prying nose dive n

- 1 (of an aircraft) a sudden plunge with the nose pointing downwards
- 2 (informal) a sudden drop: when we fail our self-confidence takes a nose dive
- vb nose-dive-diving, -dived
- 3 to take a nose dive nosegay n a small bunch of flowers nosey or nosy adj nosier, nosiest (informal) prying or inquisitive > nosiness n

nosh (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) n

- 1 food
- vb
- 2 to eat nostalgia n

1 a sentimental yearning for the past

◇ SYNONYMS: reminiscence, longing, pining, yearning, remembrance, homesickness, wistfulness

2 homesickness > nostalgic adj

> nostalgically adv

nostril n either of the two openings at the end of the nose nostrum n

1 a quack medicine

2 a favourite remedy not adv

1 used to negate the sentence, phrase, or word that it modifies: I will not stand for it

2 not that which is not to say that: not that I've ever heard him complain notable (note-a-bl) adj

1 worthy of being noted; remarkable

◇ SYNONYMS: remarkable, striking, unusual, extraordinary, outstanding, memorable, uncommon, conspicuous

► n

2 a person of distinction

◇ SYNONYMS: celebrity, big name, dignitary, luminary, personage, V.I.P.

> notability n

> notably adv

notary or notary public (note-a-ree) n, pl notaries or notaries public a public official, usually a solicitor, who is legally authorized to attest and certify documents

notation (no-tay-shun) n

- 1 representation of numbers or quantities in a system by a series of symbols
- 2 a set of such symbols notch n

- 1 a V-shaped cut
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: cut, nick, incision, indentation, mark, score, cleft
- 2 (informal) a step or level: the economy moved up another notch
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: level, step, degree, grade
- vb
- 3 to cut a notch in
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: cut, mark, score, nick, scratch, indent
- 4 notch up (informal) to score or achieve: he notched up a hat trick of wins

note n

- 1 a brief informal letter
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: message, letter, communication, memo, memorandum, epistle, email or e-mail, text
- 2 a brief record in writing for future reference
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: record, reminder, memo, memorandum, jotting, minute
- 3 a critical comment or explanation in a book
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: annotation, comment, remark
- 4 an official written communication, as from a government or from a doctor
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: document, form, record, certificate
- 5 short for banknote
- 6 (Brit & NZ) a musical sound of a particular pitch
- 7 a written symbol representing the pitch and duration of a musical sound
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: symbol, mark, sign, indication, token
- 8 (chiefly Brit) a key on a piano, organ, or other keyboard instrument
- 9 a particular feeling or atmosphere: an optimistic note
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: tone, touch, trace, hint, sound
- 10 a distinctive vocal sound, as of a type of animal
- 11 a sound used as a signal or warning: the note to retreat was sounded
- 12 of note
 - A distinguished or famous
 - B important: nothing of note
- 13 strike the right note to behave appropriately
- 14 take note of to pay attention to ► vb noting, noted

15 to notice; pay attention to: such criticism should be noted

◇ SYNONYMS: notice, see, observe, perceive

16 to make a written note of: he noted it in his diary

◇ SYNONYMS: write down, record, scribble, set down, jot down

17 to remark upon: I note that you do not wear shoes

◇ SYNONYMS: mention, record, mark, indicate, register, remark notebook n a book for writing in ◇ SYNONYMS: notepad, exercise book, journal, diary noted adj well-known: a noted scholar

◇ SYNONYMS: famous, celebrated, distinguished, well-known, prominent, acclaimed, notable, renowned noteworthy adj worth noting; remarkable nothing pron

1 not anything: I felt nothing

◇ SYNONYMS: nought, zero, nil, not a thing, zilch (slang)

2 a matter of no importance: don't worry, it's nothing

◇ SYNONYMS: a trifle

3 absence of meaning, value, or worth: the industry shrank to almost nothing

◇ SYNONYMS: void, emptiness, nothingness, nullity

4 the figure 0

◇ SYNONYMS: nought, zero, nil, not a thing, zilch (slang)

5 have or be nothing to do with to have no connection with 6 nothing but not something other than; only

7 nothing doing (informal) an expression of dismissal or refusal 8 nothing less than downright: nothing less than complete withdrawal

9 think nothing of something to regard something as easy or natural

► adv

10 not at all: he looked nothing like his brother

► n

11 (informal) a person or thing of no importance or significance

◇ SYNONYMS: nobody, cipher, nonentity nothingness n

1 nonexistence

2 total insignificance notice n

1 observation or attention: to attract notice

◇ SYNONYMS: attention, interest, note, regard, consideration, observation, scrutiny, heed

2 a displayed placard or announcement giving information

3 advance notification of something such as intention to end a contract of employment: she handed in her notice

◇ SYNONYMS: notification, warning, advice, intimation, news, communication, announcement, instruction, heads up (US & Canad)

4 a theatrical or literary review: the film reaped ecstatic notices

5 at short notice with very little notification

6 take no notice of to ignore or disregard

7 take notice to pay attention

► vb -ticing, -ticed

8 to become aware (of)

◇ SYNONYMS: observe, see, note, spot, distinguish, perceive, detect, discern

9 to point out or remark upon

◇ SYNONYMS: observe, see, note, spot, distinguish, perceive, detect, discern noticeable adj easily seen or detected ◇ SYNONYMS: obvious, clear, striking, plain, evident, manifest, conspicuous, perceptible > noticeably adv

notifiable adj having to be reported to the authorities: a notifiable disease notification n

1 the act of notifying someone of something

2 a formal announcement notify vb -fies, -fying, -fied to inform: notify gas and electricity companies of your moving date

◇ SYNONYMS: inform, tell, advise, alert to, announce, warn notion n

1 an idea or opinion

◇ SYNONYMS: idea, view, opinion, belief, concept, impression, sentiment, inkling

2 a whim

◇ SYNONYMS: whim, wish, desire, fancy, impulse, inclination, caprice notional adj hypothetical, imaginary, or unreal: a notional dividend payment notorious adj well known for some bad reason

◇ SYNONYMS: infamous, disreputable, opprobrious > notoriety n

> notoriously adv

notwithstanding prep

1 in spite of

◇ SYNONYMS: despite, in spite of, regardless of

► adv

2 nevertheless nougat n a hard chewy pink or white sweet containing chopped nuts nought n

1 the figure 0

◇ SYNONYMS: zero, nil, aught or ought ► n, adv

2 same as naught

noughties pl n (informal) the decade from 2000 to 2009 noun n a word that refers to a person, place, or thing nourish vb

1 to provide with the food necessary for life and growth

◇ SYNONYMS: feed, supply, sustain, nurture

2 to encourage or foster (an idea or feeling)

◇ SYNONYMS: encourage, support, maintain, promote, sustain, foster > nourishing adj nourishment n the food needed to nourish the body nouvelle cuisine (noo-vell kwee-zeen) n a style of preparing and presenting food with light sauces and unusual combinations of flavours

Nov. November

nova n, pl -vae or -vas a star that undergoes an explosion and fast increase of brightness, then gradually decreases to its original brightness

novel¹ n a long fictional story in book form

◇ SYNONYMS: story, tale, fiction, romance, narrative novel² adj fresh, new, or original: a novel approach

◇ SYNONYMS: new, different, original, fresh, unusual, innovative, uncommon novelist n a writer of novels novella n, pl -las a short narrative tale or short novel novelty n, pl -ties

1 the quality of being new and interesting

◇ SYNONYMS: newness, originality, freshness, innovation, surprise, uniqueness, strangeness, unfamiliarity

2 a new or unusual experience or thing

◇ SYNONYMS: curiosity, rarity, oddity, wonder

3 a small cheap toy or trinket

◇ SYNONYMS: trinket, souvenir, memento, bauble, trifle, knick-knack

November n the eleventh month of the year novena (no-vee-na) n, pl -nas or -nae (-nee) (RC Church) a set of prayers or services on nine consecutive days novice (nov-viss) n

1 a beginner

◇ SYNONYMS: beginner, pupil, amateur, newcomer, trainee, apprentice, learner, probationer

2 a person who has entered a religious order but has not yet taken vows now adv

1 at or for the present time

2 immediately: bring it now

◇ SYNONYMS: immediately, promptly, instantly, at once, straight away

3 in these times; nowadays

◇ SYNONYMS: nowadays, at the moment

4 given the present circumstances: now do you understand why?

5

A used as a hesitation word: now, I can't really say

B used for emphasis: now listen to this

C used at the end of a command: run along now

6 just now

A very recently: he left just now

B very soon: I'm going just now

7 now and again or then occasionally

◇ SYNONYMS now and then or again: occasionally, sometimes, from time to time, on and off, intermittently, infrequently, sporadically

8 now now! an exclamation used to tell someone off or to calm someone

► conj

9 Also: now that seeing that: now you're here, you can help me

► n

10 the present time: now is the time to go nowadays adv in these times: nowadays his work is regarded as out-of-date

◇ SYNONYMS: now, today, at the moment, in this day and age nowhere adv

1 in, at, or to no place

2 getting nowhere (informal) making no progress

3 nowhere near far from: the stadium is nowhere near completion

► n

4 in the middle of nowhere (of a place) completely isolated noxious adj

1 poisonous or harmful

2 extremely unpleasant

nozzle n a projecting spout from which fluid is discharged

NSPCC (in Britain) National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children

NSW New South Wales

NT

- 1 (in Britain) National Trust
- 2 New Testament
- 3 Northern Territory
- 4 Nunavut

nuance (new-ahnss) n a subtle difference, as in colour, meaning, or tone nub n the point or gist: this is the nub of his theory nubile (new-bile) adj

- 1 (of a young woman) sexually attractive
- 2 (of a young woman) old enough or mature enough for marriage nuclear adj

- 1 of nuclear weapons or energy
- 2 of an atomic nucleus: nuclear fission nuclear energy n energy released during a nuclear reaction as a result of fission or fusion nuclear fission n (physics) the splitting of an atomic nucleus, either spontaneously or by bombardment by a neutron: used in atomic bombs and nuclear power plants nuclear fusion n (physics) the combination of two nuclei to form a heavier nucleus with the release of energy: used in hydrogen bombs nuclear power n power produced by a nuclear reactor nuclear reaction n (physics) a process in which the structure and energy content of an atomic nucleus is changed by interaction with another nucleus or particle nuclear reactor n a device in which a nuclear reaction is maintained and controlled to produce nuclear energy nuclear winter n a theoretical period of low temperatures and little light that has been suggested would occur after a nuclear war nucleic acid n (biochem) a complex compound, such as DNA or RNA, found in all living cells nucleus n, pl -clei

1 (physics) the positively charged centre of an atom, made of protons and neutrons, about which electrons orbit

2 a central thing around which others are grouped

◇ SYNONYMS: centre, heart, focus, basis, core, pivot, kernel, nub

3 a centre of growth or development: the nucleus of a new relationship

◇ SYNONYMS: centre, heart, focus, basis, core, pivot, kernel, nub

4 (biol) the part of a cell that contains the chromosomes and associated molecules that control the characteristics and growth of the cell

5 (chem) a fundamental group of atoms in a molecule serving as the base structure for related compounds nude adj

1 completely undressed

◇ SYNONYMS: naked, stripped, bare, undressed, stark-naked, disrobed, unclothed, unclad

► n

2 a naked figure in painting, sculpture, or photography

3 in the nude naked > nudity n

nudge vb nudging, nudged

1 to push (someone) gently with the elbow to get attention

◇ SYNONYMS: push, touch, dig, jog, prod, elbow, shove, poke

2 to push (something or someone) lightly: the dog nudged the stick with its nose

◇ SYNONYMS: push, touch, dig, jog, prod, elbow, shove, poke

3 to persuade (someone) gently

◇ SYNONYMS: prompt, influence, persuade, spur, prod, coax

► n

4 a gentle poke or push

◇ SYNONYMS: push, touch, dig, elbow, bump, shove, poke, jog nudism n the practice of not wearing clothes, esp. on beaches or in camps set aside for this purpose > nudist n, adj nugatory (new-gat-tree) adj (formal)

1 of little value

2 not valid: their rejection rendered the treaty nugatory nugget n

1 a small lump of gold in its natural state

2 something small but valuable: a nugget of useful knowledge

► vb -getting, -geted

3 (NZ) to polish footwear nuisance n

1 a person or thing that causes annoyance or bother

◇ SYNONYMS: trouble, problem, trial, drag (informal), bother, pest, irritation, hassle (informal)

► adj

2 causing annoyance or bother: nuisance calls nuke (slang) vb nuking, nuked

1 to attack with nuclear weapons

► n

2 a nuclear bomb null adj

1 null and void not legally valid

2 null set (maths) a set with no members > nullity n

nulla-nulla n a wooden stick used by Australian Aboriginal people for hunting, digging, fighting, and for ceremonial purposes nullify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to make (something) ineffective

2 to make (something) legally void > nullification n

numb adj

1 deprived of feeling through cold, shock, or fear

◇ SYNONYMS: unfeeling, dead, frozen, paralysed, insensitive, deadened, immobilized, torpid

2 unable to move; paralysed

► vb

3 to make numb

◇ SYNONYMS: stun, knock out, paralyse, daze > numbly adv

> numbness n

numbat n a small Australian marsupial with a long snout and tongue number n

1 a concept of quantity that is or can be derived from a single unit, a sum of units, or zero

2 the word or symbol used to represent a number

◇ SYNONYMS: numeral, figure, character, digit, integer

3 a numeral or string of numerals used to identify a person or thing: an account number

4 the person or thing so identified: he was seeded number two

5 sum or quantity: a very large number of people have telephoned

◇ SYNONYMS: amount, quantity, collection, aggregate

6 one of a series, as of a magazine

◇ SYNONYMS: issue, copy, edition, imprint, printing

7 a self-contained piece of pop or jazz music

8 a group of people: one of their number might be willing

◇ SYNONYMS: group, set, band, crowd, gang

9 (informal) an admired article: that little number is by Dior

10 (grammar) classification of words depending on how many people or things are referred to 11 any number of many 12 beyond or without number innumerable 13 have someone's number (informal) to have discovered someone's true character or intentions

14 one's number is up (Brit & Austral informal) one is about to die

► vb

15 to count

◇ SYNONYMS: calculate, account, reckon, compute, enumerate

16 to assign a number to: numbered seats

17 to add up to: the illustrations numbered well over fifty

◇ SYNONYMS: amount to, come to, total, add up to 18 to include in a group: he numbered several Americans among his friends

◇ SYNONYMS: include, count

19 one's days are numbered something unpleasant, such as death, is likely to happen to one soon number crunching n (informal) the large-scale processing of numerical data > number cruncher n

numberless adj too many to be counted number one n

1 (informal) oneself: he looks after number one

2 (informal) the bestselling pop record in any one week

► adj

3 first in importance, urgency, or quality: he's their number one suspect numberplate n a plate on a motor vehicle showing the registration number numbskull or numskull n (informal, derogatory) a stupid person numeral n a word or symbol used to express a sum or quantity numerate adj able to do basic arithmetic > numeracy n

numeration n

1 the act or process of numbering or counting

2 a system of numbering numerator n (maths) the number above the line in a fraction numerical or numeric adj measured or expressed in numbers: record the severity of your symptoms in numerical form > numerically adv

numerous adj

1 many: they carried out numerous bombings

◇ SYNONYMS: many, several, countless, lots, abundant, plentiful, innumerable, copious

2 consisting of a large number of people or things: the cast is not as numerous as one might suppose

◇ SYNONYMS: many, several, countless, lots, abundant, plentiful, innumerable, copious

numskull n same as numbskull nun n a female member of a religious order nuncio n, pl -cios (RC Church) a papal ambassador nunnery n, pl -neries a convent nuptial adj relating to marriage: a nuptial blessing nuptials pl n a wedding nurd n (slang) same as nerd nurse n

1 a person trained to look after sick people, usually in a hospital

2 short for nursemaid

► vb nursing, nursed

3 to look after (a sick person)

◇ SYNONYMS: look after, treat, tend, care for, take care of, minister to 4 to breast-feed (a baby)

◇ SYNONYMS: breast-feed, feed, nurture, nourish, suckle, wet-nurse

5 (of a baby) to feed at its mother's breast

6 to try to cure (an ailment)

7 to harbour or foster (a feeling)

◇ SYNONYMS: harbour, have, maintain, preserve, entertain, cherish

8 to clasp fondly: she nursed her drink > nursing n, adj

nursemaid or nurserymaid n a woman employed to look after children nursery n, pl -ries

1 a room in a house where children sleep or play

2 a place providing care for children during the working day

◇ SYNONYMS: crèche, kindergarten, playgroup, play-centre (NZ)

3 a place where plants and young trees are grown for sale nurseryman n, pl -men a person who raises plants and trees for sale nursery nurse n a person trained to look after children of pre-school age nursery school n a school for young children from three to five years old nursery slopes pl n gentle slopes used by beginners in skiing nursing home n a private hospital or home for people who are old or ill nursing officer n (in Britain) the administrative head of the nursing staff of a hospital nurture n

1 the act or process of promoting the development of a child or young plant ◇ SYNONYMS: upbringing, training, education, instruction, rearing, development

► vb -turing, -tured

2 to promote or encourage the development of ◇ SYNONYMS: bring up, raise, look after, rear, care for, develop nut n

- 1 a dry one-seeded fruit that grows inside a hard shell
- 2 the edible inner part of such a fruit
- 3 a small piece of metal with a hole in it, that screws on to a bolt
- 4 (slang) a foolish or eccentric person
- 5 (offensive) a person with a mental illness
- 6 (slang) an enthusiast: a health nut
- 7 (slang) the head
- ◇ SYNONYMS: head, skull
- 8 (Brit) a small piece of coal
- 9 a hard or tough nut to crack a person or thing that presents difficulties
- 10 do one's nut (Brit & Austral slang) to be very angry

nutcase n (slang)

- 1 a foolish or eccentric person
- 2 (offensive) a person with a mental illness

nutcracker n a device for cracking the shells of nuts. Also: nutcrackers nuthatch n a songbird that feeds on insects, seeds, and nuts nutmeg n a spice made from the seed of a tropical tree nutria (new-tree-a) n the fur of the coypu nutrient (new-tree-ent) n

- 1 a substance that provides nourishment: their only source of nutrient
- adj
- 2 providing nourishment nutriment (new-tree-ment) n the food or nourishment required by all living things to grow and stay healthy nutrition (new-trish-un) n

1 the process of taking in and absorbing nutrients

◇ SYNONYMS: food, nourishment, sustenance, nutriment

2 the process of being nourished

3 the study of nutrition > nutritional adj

> nutritionist n nutritious adj providing nourishment nutter n (Brit & NZ slang)

1 a foolish or eccentric person

2 (offensive) a person with a mental illness

nutty adj -tier, -tiest

1 containing or resembling nuts

2 (slang) foolish or eccentric > nuttness n

nuzzle vb -zling, -zled to push or rub gently with the nose or snout

NW northwest(ern)

nylon n a synthetic material used for clothing and many other products nymph n

1 (myth) a spirit of nature, represented as a beautiful young woman

2 the larva of certain insects, resembling the adult form

3 (chiefly poetic) a beautiful young woman nymphet n a girl who is attractive and sexually precocious nymphomaniac n a woman with an abnormally intense sexual desire > nymphomania n

NZ or N.Z. New Zealand

NZE New Zealand English

NZRFU New Zealand Rugby Football Union

Oo

O

- 1 (chem) oxygen
- 2 Old
- 3 same as nought

oaf n a stupid or clumsy person > oafish adj

oak n

- 1 a large forest tree with hard wood, acorns as fruits, and leaves with rounded projections
- 2 the wood of this tree, used as building timber and for making furniture
- > oaken adj

oak apple or oak gall n a brownish round lump or ball produced on oak trees by certain wasps oakum n loose fibre obtained by unravelling old rope, used for filling cracks in wooden ships

OAP (in Britain) old age pensioner oar n

- 1 a long pole with a broad blade, used for rowing a boat
- 2 put or stick one's oar in to interfere or interrupt oasis n, pl -ses

- 1 a fertile patch in a desert

2 a place or situation offering relief in the midst of difficulty oast n (chiefly Brit) an oven for drying hops oat n

1 a hard cereal grown as food

2 oats the edible grain of this cereal

3 sow one's wild oats to have casual sexual relationships while young > oaten adj

oath n, pl oaths

1 a solemn promise, esp. to tell the truth in a court of law

◇ SYNONYMS: promise, bond, pledge, vow, word, affirmation, avowal

2 an offensive or blasphemous expression; a swearword

◇ SYNONYMS: swear word, curse, obscenity, blasphemy, expletive, four-letter word, profanity

3 on or under oath having made a solemn promise to tell the truth, esp. in a court of law oatmeal n

1 a coarse flour made by grinding oats

► adj

2 greyish-yellow obbligato (ob-lig-gah-toe) (music) adj

1 not to be omitted in performance

► n, pl -tos

2 an essential part or accompaniment: an aria with bassoon obbligato obdurate adj not to be persuaded; hardhearted or obstinate > obduracy n

OBE (in Britain) Officer of the Order of the British Empire obedient adj obeying or willing to obey > obedience n

> obediently adv

obeisance (oh-bay-sanss) n (formal)

1 an attitude of respect or humble obedience

2 a bow or curtsy showing this attitude > obeisant adj

obelisk (ob-bill-isk) n

1 a four-sided stone pillar that tapers to a pyramid at the top

2 (printing) same as dagger obese (oh-beess) adj very fat > obesity n

obey vb

1 to carry out instructions or orders; be obedient

◇ SYNONYMS: carry out, follow, implement, act upon, carry through

2 to act in accordance with one's feelings, an impulse, etc.: I had obeyed the impulse to open the gate and had walked up the drive

◇ SYNONYMS: abide by, keep, follow, comply with, observe, heed, conform to, keep to obfuscate vb -cating, -cated (formal) to make something unnecessarily difficult to understand > obfuscation n

> obfuscatory adj

obituary n, pl -aries a published announcement of a death, usually with a short biography of the dead person > obituarist n

object¹ n

1 a thing that can be touched or seen

◇ SYNONYMS: thing, article, body, item, entity

2 a person or thing seen as a focus for feelings, actions, or thought: she had become for him an object of compassion

◇ SYNONYMS: target, victim, focus, recipient

3 an aim or purpose: the main object of the exercise

◇ SYNONYMS: purpose, aim, end, point, plan, idea, goal, design

4 (philosophy) that which can be perceived by the mind, as contrasted with the thinking subject

5 (grammar) a noun, pronoun, or noun phrase that receives the action of a verb or is governed by a preposition, such as the bottle in she threw the bottle

6 no object not a hindrance or obstacle: money's no object

object² vb

1 to express disapproval or opposition: my colleagues objected strongly to further delays

◇ SYNONYMS: protest against, oppose, argue against, draw the line at, take exception to, cry out against, complain against, expostulate against

2 to state as one's reason for opposing: he objected that his small staff would be unable to handle the added work

> objector n

objection n

1 an expression or feeling of opposition or disapproval

◇ SYNONYMS: protest, opposition, complaint, doubt, dissent, outcry, protestation, scruple

2 a reason for opposing something: the planning officer had raised no objection to the proposals

◇ SYNONYMS: protest, opposition, complaint, doubt, dissent, outcry, protestation, scruple objectionable adj offensive or unacceptable objective n

1 an aim or purpose: the objective is to highlight the environmental threat to the planet

◇ SYNONYMS: purpose, aim, goal, end, plan, hope, idea, target

2 (grammar) a grammatical case in some languages that identifies the direct object of a verb or preposition

3 (optics) the lens nearest to the object observed in an optical instrument

► adj

4 not distorted by personal feelings or bias: I have tried to be as objective as possible in my presentation

◇ SYNONYMS: unbiased, detached, fair, open-minded, impartial, impersonal, disinterested, even-handed

5 of or relating to actual facts as opposed to thoughts or feelings: stand back and try to take a more objective view of your life as a whole

◇ SYNONYMS: unbiased, detached, fair, open-minded, impartial, impersonal, disinterested, even-handed

6 existing independently of the mind; real

◇ SYNONYMS: factual, real > objectival adj

> objectively adv

> objectivity n

objet d'art (ob-zhay dahr) n, pl objets d'art (ob-zhay dahr) a small object considered to be of artistic worth oblation n

1 (Christianity) the offering of bread and wine to God at Communion

2 any offering made for religious purposes > oblational adj

obligated adj being morally or legally bound to do something: they are obligated to provide temporary accommodation

> obligative adj obligation n

1 a moral or legal duty

◇ SYNONYMS: duty, compulsion

2 the binding power of such a duty: I feel under some obligation to help you with your education

◇ SYNONYMS: responsibility, duty, liability, accountability, answerability

3 a sense of being in debt because of a service or favour: I don't want him marrying me out of obligation obligatory adj required or compulsory because of custom or law oblige vb obliging, obliged

1 to compel someone by legal, moral, or physical means to do something

◇ SYNONYMS: compel, make, force, require, bind, constrain, necessitate, impel

2 to make (someone) indebted or grateful for a favour: I am obliged to you for your help

3 to do a favour to someone: she obliged the guests with a song

◇ SYNONYMS: help, assist, benefit, please, humour, accommodate, indulge, gratify obliging adj willing to be helpful

◇ SYNONYMS: accommodating, kind, helpful, willing, polite, cooperative, agreeable, considerate > obligingly adv

oblique (oh-bleak) adj

1 at an angle; slanting

2 (geom) (of lines or planes) neither perpendicular nor parallel to one another

3 indirect or evasive: only oblique references have been made to the anti-government unrest

> obliquely adv

> obliqueness n

oblique angle n an angle that is not a right angle or any multiple of a right angle

obliterate vb -rating, -rated to destroy every trace of; wipe out completely > obliteration n

oblivion n

1 the condition of being forgotten or disregarded: the Marxist-Leninist wing of the party looks set to sink into oblivion

2 the state of being unaware or unconscious: guests seemed to feel a social obligation to drink themselves into oblivion oblivious adj unaware or unconscious: oblivious of her soaking clothes; I was oblivious to the beauty > obliviousness n

oblong adj

1 having an elongated, rectangular shape

► n

2 a figure or object having this shape obloquy (ob-lock-wee) n, pl -quies (formal)

1 abusive statements or blame: the British press was held up to moral obloquy

2 disgrace brought about by this: the punishment of lifelong public obloquy and private embarrassment obnoxious adj extremely unpleasant > obnoxiousness n

oboe n a double-reeded woodwind instrument with a penetrating nasal tone > oboist n

obscene adj

1 offensive to accepted standards of decency or modesty

◇ SYNONYMS: indecent, dirty, offensive, filthy, improper, immoral, pornographic, lewd

2 (law) tending to deprave or corrupt: an obscene publication

3 disgusting: a great dark obscene pool of blood

◇ SYNONYMS: offensive, shocking, evil, disgusting, outrageous, revolting, sickening, vile > obscenity n obscure adj

1 not well-known: the concerts feature several obscure artists

◇ SYNONYMS: unknown, little-known, humble, unfamiliar, out-of-the-way, lowly, unheard-of, undistinguished

2 not easily understood: the contracts are written in obscure language

◇ SYNONYMS: abstruse, complex, confusing, mysterious, vague, unclear, ambiguous, enigmatic

3 unclear or indistinct

◇ SYNONYMS: unclear, uncertain, confused, mysterious, doubtful, indeterminate

► vb -scuring, -scured

4 to make unclear or vague; hide: no amount of bluster could obscure the fact that the prime minister had run out of excuses

◇ SYNONYMS: hide, screen, mask, disguise, conceal, veil, cloak, camouflage

5 to cover or cloud over

◇ SYNONYMS: obstruct, hinder > obscuration n > obscurity n

obsequies (ob-sick-weez) pl n, sing -quy (formal) funeral rites obsequious (ob-seek-wee-uss) adj being overattentive in order to gain favour > obsequiousness n

observance n

- 1 the observing of a law or custom
- 2 a ritual, ceremony, or practice, esp. of a religion observant adj quick to notice details around one; sharp-eyed observation n

- 1 the act of watching or the state of being watched
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: watching, study, survey, review, investigation, monitoring, examination, inspection
- 2 a comment or remark
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: comment, thought, note, statement, opinion, remark, explanation, reflection
- 3 detailed examination of something before analysis, diagnosis, or interpretation: you may be admitted to hospital for observation and rest
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: watching, study, survey, review, investigation, monitoring, examination, inspection
- 4 the facts learned from observing
- 5 the ability to notice things: she has good powers of observation
 - > observational adj observatory n, pl -ries a building specially designed and equipped for studying the weather and the stars observe vb -serving, -served

- 1 to see or notice: after some hours I observed a change in the animal's behaviour
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: notice, see, note, discover, spot, regard, witness, distinguish
- 2 to watch (something) carefully
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: watch, study, view, look at, check, survey, monitor, keep an eye on (informal)
- 3 to make scientific examinations of
- 4 to remark: the speaker observed that times had changed
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: remark, say, comment, state, note, reflect, mention, opine (formal)
- 5 to keep (a law or custom)

◇ SYNONYMS: comply with, keep, follow, respect, carry out, honour, discharge, obey > observable adj > observer n

obsess vb

1 to be constantly in the thoughts of (someone): maps obsess Tim 2 (foll. by about or over) to be constantly worried: I tend to obsess about my work > obsessive adj, n

obsessed adj thinking about someone or something all the time: he had become obsessed with her

◇ SYNONYMS: absorbed, dominated, gripped, haunted, distracted, hung up (slang), preoccupied obsession n

1 something that preoccupies a person to the exclusion of other things: his principal obsession was with trying to economize
◇ SYNONYMS: preoccupation, thing (informal), complex, hang-up (informal), mania, phobia, fetish, fixation 2 (psychiatry) a persistent idea or impulse, often associated with anxiety and mental illness ◇ SYNONYMS: preoccupation, thing (informal), complex, hang-up (informal), mania, phobia, fetish, fixation > obsessional adj

obsidian n a dark glassy volcanic rock obsolescent adj becoming obsolete or out of date > obsolescence n obsolete adj no longer used; out of date

◇ SYNONYMS: outdated, old, passé, old-fashioned, discarded, extinct, out of date, archaic obstacle n

1 a situation or event that prevents something being done: there are obstacles which could slow the development of a vaccine

◇ SYNONYMS: hindrance, bar, difficulty, barrier, handicap, hurdle, hitch, drawback, uphill (S African)

2 a person or thing that hinders movement

◇ SYNONYMS: obstruction, block, barrier, hurdle, snag, impediment, blockage, hindrance obstetrician n a doctor who specializes in obstetrics obstetrics n the branch of medicine concerned with pregnancy and childbirth > obstetric adj

obstinate adj

1 keeping stubbornly to a particular opinion or course of action

2 difficult to treat or deal with: obstinate weeds > obstinacy n

> obstinately adv

obstreperous adj noisy and difficult to control: her obstreperous teenage son obstruct vb

1 to block a way with an obstacle

◇ SYNONYMS: block, close, bar, plug, barricade, stop up, bung up (informal)

2 to make progress or activity difficult: this government will never obstruct the course of justice

◇ SYNONYMS: hold up, stop, check, block, restrict, slow down, hamper, hinder

3 to block a clear view of ◇ SYNONYMS: obscure, screen, cover obstruction n

- 1 a person or thing that obstructs
- 2 the act of obstructing or being obstructed
- 3 (sport) the act of unfairly impeding an opposing player obstructive adj deliberately causing difficulties or delays

- > obstructively adv
- > obstructiveness n

obtain vb

- 1 to gain possession of; get
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: get, gain, acquire, land (informal), net, pick up, secure, procure
- 2 (formal) to be customary or accepted: silence obtains from eight in the evening
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: prevail, hold, exist, be the case, abound, predominate, be in force, be current
- > obtainable adj

obtrude vb -truding, -truded

- 1 to push oneself or one's opinions on others in an unwelcome way
- 2 to be or make unpleasantly noticeable
- > obtrusion n

obtrusive adj unpleasantly noticeable: the music should fit your mood, it shouldn't be too obtrusive

- > obtrusiveness n obtuse adj

- 1 slow to understand or emotionally insensitive
- 2 (maths) (of an angle) between 90° and 180°
- 3 not sharp or pointed; blunt
- > obtuseness n

obverse n

1 a counterpart or opposite: his true personality being the obverse of his outer image

2 the side of a coin that bears the main design

3 the front, top, or main surface of anything obviate vb -ating, -ated (formal) to avoid or prevent (a need or difficulty): a mediator will obviate the need for independent legal advice

obvious adj

1 easy to see or understand

◇ SYNONYMS: clear, plain, apparent, evident, distinct, manifest, noticeable, conspicuous

► n

2 state the obvious to say something that is unnecessary or already known: he is prone to stating the obvious > obviously adv

> obviousness n

ocarina n a small egg-shaped wind instrument with a mouthpiece and finger holes occasion n

1 a particular event or the time at which it happens

◇ SYNONYMS: time, moment, point, stage, instance, juncture

2 a need or reason to do or be something: we barely knew him and never had occasion to speak of him

◇ SYNONYMS: reason, cause, call, ground(s), excuse, incentive, motive, justification

3 a suitable time or opportunity to do something

◇ SYNONYMS: opportunity, chance, time, opening, window

4 a special event, time, or celebration: a wedding day is a truly special occasion

◇ SYNONYMS: function, event, affair, do (informal), happening, experience, gathering, celebration

5 on occasion every so often

6 rise to the occasion to meet the special demands of a situation

► vb

7 (formal) to cause, esp. incidentally

◇ SYNONYMS: cause, produce, lead to, inspire, result in, generate, prompt, provoke occasional adj happening from time to time; not frequent or regular ◇ SYNONYMS: infrequent, odd, rare, irregular, sporadic, intermittent, few and far between, periodic > occasionally adv

Occident n the western hemisphere, esp. Europe and America

> Occidental adj

occiput (ox-sip-putt) n (anatomy) the back of the head or skull > occipital adj occlude vb -cluding, -cluded (formal)

1 to block or stop up (a passage or opening): the arteries are occluded by deposits of plaque

2 to shut in or out: slowly occluding him from Nash's vision

3 (chem) (of a solid) to absorb and retain (a gas or other substance) > occlusion n

occluded front n (meteorol) the front formed when the cold front of a depression overtakes a warm front, raising the warm air from ground level occult adj

1 involving mystical or supernatural phenomena or powers

◇ SYNONYMS: supernatural, magical, mysterious, psychic, mystical, unearthly, esoteric, uncanny

2 beyond ordinary human understanding

3 secret or mysterious

► n

4 the occult the knowledge and study of occult phenomena and powers ◇ SYNONYMS the occult: magic, witchcraft, sorcery, wizardry, enchantment, black art, necromancy occupancy n, pl -cies

1 the act of occupying a property

2 the period of time during which one is an occupant of a property occupant n a person occupying a property, position, or place

◇ SYNONYMS: occupier, resident, tenant, inmate, inhabitant, incumbent, dweller, lessee occupation n

1 a person's job or profession

◇ SYNONYMS: job, calling, business, line (of work), trade, career, employment, profession

2 any activity on which someone's time is spent: a pleasant and rewarding occupation

◇ SYNONYMS: hobby, pastime, diversion, relaxation, leisure pursuit, (leisure) activity

3 the control of a country by a foreign military power

◇ SYNONYMS: invasion, seizure, conquest, incursion, subjugation

4 the act of occupying or the state of being occupied: the occupation of Kuwait

◇ SYNONYMS: invasion, seizure, conquest, incursion, subjugation > occupational adj

occupational therapy n treatment of people with physical, emotional, or social problems using purposeful activity to help them overcome or learn to accept their problems occupier n (Brit) the person who lives in a particular house, whether as owner or tenant occupy vb -pies, -pying, -pied

1 to live, stay, or work in (a house, flat, or office)

◇ SYNONYMS: inhabit, own, live in, dwell in, reside in, abide in

2 to keep (someone or someone's mind) busy

◇ SYNONYMS: engage, involve, employ, divert, preoccupy, engross

3 to take up (time or space)

◇ SYNONYMS: take up, consume, tie up, use up, monopolize

4 to move in and take control of (a country or other place): soldiers have occupied the country's television station

◇ SYNONYMS: invade, take over, capture, seize, conquer, overrun, annex, colonize, cybersquat (computers)

5 to fill or hold (a position or office)

◇ SYNONYMS: hold, control, dominate, possess occur vb -curing, -curred

1 to happen

◇ SYNONYMS: happen, take place, come about, turn up (informal), crop up (informal), transpire (informal), befall

2 to be found or be present; exist

◇ SYNONYMS: exist, appear, be found, develop, turn up, be present, manifest itself, present itself

3 occur to to come into the mind of ◇ SYNONYMS occur to someone: come to mind, strike someone, dawn on someone, spring to mind, cross someone's mind, enter someone's head, suggest itself to someone occurrence n

1 something that happens

◇ SYNONYMS: incident, happening, event, fact, matter, affair, circumstance, episode

2 the fact of occurring: the likelihood of its occurrence increases with age

◇ SYNONYMS: existence, instance, appearance, manifestation, materialization

OCD n obsessive-compulsive disorder: a condition that causes people to feel anxiety and repeat certain acts over and over again

ocean n

1 the vast area of salt water covering about 70 per cent of the earth's surface

2 one of the five principal divisions of this: the Atlantic, Pacific, Indian, Arctic, and Antarctic

3 (informal) a huge quantity or expanse: oceans of replies

4 (literary) the sea > oceanic adj

ocean-going adj (of a ship or boat) suited for travel on the open ocean oceanography n the study of oceans and their environment > oceanographer n

> oceanographic adj

ocelot (oss-ill-lot) n a large cat of Central and South America with a dark-spotted yellow-grey coat oche (ok-kee) n (darts) a mark on the floor behind which a player must stand when throwing a dart ochre or (US) ocher (oak-er) n

1 a yellow or reddish-brown earth used in paints or dyes

► adj

2 moderate yellow-orange to orange o'clock adv used after a number between one and twelve to specify an hour: five o'clock in the morning

Oct. October

octagon n a geometric figure with eight sides > octagonal adj octahedron (ok-ta-heed-ron) n, pl -drons or -dra a solid figure with eight plane faces octane n a liquid hydrocarbon found in petroleum octane number or octane rating n a number indicating the quality of a petrol octave n

1

A the musical interval between the first note and the eighth note of a major or minor scale

B the higher of these two notes

C the series of notes filling this interval

2 (prosody) a rhythmic group of eight lines of verse octet n

1 a group of eight instrumentalists or singers

2 a piece of music for eight performers

October n the tenth month of the year octogenarian n

1 a person between 80 and 89 years old

► adj

2 between 80 and 89 years old octopus n, pl -puses a sea creature with a soft oval body and eight long tentacles with suckers ocular adj of or relating to the eyes or sight

OD (informal) n

1 an overdose of a drug

► vb OD'ing, OD'd

2 to take an overdose of a drug odd adj

1 unusual or peculiar: his increasingly odd behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: peculiar, strange, unusual, extraordinary, bizarre, offbeat, freakish, daggy (Austral & NZ informal)

2 occasional or incidental: the odd letter from a friend abroad, the occasional postcard from a chum

◇ SYNONYMS: occasional, various, random, casual, irregular, periodic, sundry, incidental

3 leftover or additional: we use up odd pieces of fabric to make up jerseys in wild designs

◇ SYNONYMS: spare, remaining, extra, surplus, solitary, leftover, unmatched, unpaired

4 (of a number) not divisible by two

5 being part of a pair or set when the other or others are missing: the drawer was full of odd socks

6 somewhat more than the round number specified: I had known him for the past twenty-odd years

7 odd man or one out a person or thing excluded from others forming a group or unit

► See also odds

> oddly adv

> oddness n

oddity n, pl -ties

1 an odd person or thing

2 a peculiar characteristic

3 the quality of being or appearing unusual or strange oddments pl n odd pieces or things; leftovers: oddments of wool odds pl n

1 the probability, expressed as a ratio, that something will or will not happen: the odds against an acquittal had stabilized at six to four

2 the difference, expressed as a ratio, between the money placed on a bet and the amount that would be received as winning payment: the current odds are ten to one

3 the likelihood that a certain state of affairs will be so: the odds are that you are going to fail

◇ SYNONYMS: probability, chances, likelihood 4 the advantage that one contender is judged to have over another: the odds are in his favour

5 at odds

A on bad terms

◇ SYNONYMS at odds: in conflict, arguing, quarrelling, at loggerheads, at daggers drawn

B at variance

◇ SYNONYMS at odds: at variance, conflicting, contrary to, at odds, out of line, out of step, at sixes and sevens (informal)

6 it makes no odds (Brit & Austral) it does not matter

7 over the odds more than is expected or necessary odds and ends pl n small, usually unimportant, objects, jobs to be done, etc.: I have brought a few odds and ends with me

◇ SYNONYMS odds and ends: scraps, bits, remains, fragments, debris, remnants, bits and pieces, bric-a-brac ode n a lyric poem, usually addressed to a particular subject, with lines of varying lengths and metres odious adj offensive or hateful: I steeled myself for the odious task > odiousness n

odium (oh-dee-um) n (formal) widespread dislike or disapproval of a person or action odour or (US) odor n a particular and distinctive scent or smell ◇ SYNONYMS: smell, scent, perfume, fragrance, stink, bouquet, aroma, stench > odorous adj > odourless adj

odyssey (odd-iss-ee) n a long eventful journey ◇ SYNONYMS: journey, tour, trip, quest, trek, expedition, voyage, crusade

OE (NZ informal) overseas experience: he's away on his OE

OECD Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development oedema or edema (id-deem-a) n, pl -mata (pathol) an abnormal accumulation of fluid in the tissues of the body, causing swelling oesophagus or (US) esophagus (ee-soff-a-guss) n, pl -gi (-guy) the tube through which food travels from the throat to the stomach; gullet > oesophageal or (US) esophageal adj oestrogen or (US) estrogen (ee-str-a-jen) n a female sex hormone that controls the reproductive cycle, and prepares the body for pregnancy of prep

1 belonging to; situated in or coming from; because of: the inhabitants of

- former East Germany; I saw five people die of chronic hepatitis*
- 2 used after words or phrases expressing quantities: a pint of milk
- 3 specifying an amount or value: we had to release the bombs at a height of 400 metres
- 4 made up of, containing, or characterized by: a length of rope; she was a woman of strong character
- 5 used to link a verbal noun with a following noun or noun phrase that is either the subject or the object of the verb: the sudden slipping of the plates of the Earth's crust; the bombing of civilian targets
- 6 at a given distance or space of time from: you can still find wood within a mile of the village; he had been within hours of leaving for Romania
- 7 used to specify or give more information about: the city of Glasgow; a meeting on the subject of regional security
- 8 about or concerning: speaking of boycotts
- 9 (US) before the hour of: about quarter of eight in the evening

off prep

- 1 so as to be no longer in contact with: take the wok off the heat
- 2 so as to be no longer attached to or associated with: to take the tax off children's clothes
- 3 away from: he was driven off the road
- 4 situated near to or leading away from: they were laying out a bombing range off the coast
- 5 no longer having a liking for: she's gone off you lately
- 6 no longer using: he was off heroin for a year
- adv
- 7 so as to deactivate or disengage: turn off the gas supply
- 8
- A so as to get rid of: he was flying at midnight so he had to sleep off his hangover
- B as a reduction in price: she took 20% off
- 9 spent away from work or other duties: it was the assistant manager's day off
- ◇ SYNONYMS: absent, gone, unavailable
- 10 away; at a distance: the men dashed back to their car and sped off
- ◇ SYNONYMS: away, out, apart, elsewhere, aside, hence, from here
- 11 away in the future: the date was six weeks off
- 12 so as to be no longer taking place: the investigation was hastily called off
- 13 removed from contact with something: he took the jacket off

14 off and on occasionally; not regularly or continuously: we lived together off and on

► adj

15 not on; no longer operating: her bedroom light was off

16 cancelled or postponed: the deal is off and your deposit will be returned in full

◇ SYNONYMS: cancelled, abandoned, postponed, shelved

17 in a specified condition, esp. regarding money or provisions: I'd be better off without this job; how are you off for money?

18 not up to the usual standard: an off year for good wine

19 no longer on the menu: haddock is off

20 (of food or drink) having gone bad or sour: this milk is off

◇ SYNONYMS: bad, rotten, rancid, mouldy, turned, spoiled, sour, decayed

► n

21 (cricket) the side of the field to the right of a right-handed batsman when he is facing the bowler offal n the edible internal parts of an animal, such as the heart or liver offal pit or offal hole n (NZ) a place on a farm for the disposal of animal offal off colour adj

1 slightly ill; unwell

2 slightly indecent: an off-colour joke offcut n a piece of paper, wood, or fabric remaining after the main pieces have been cut; remnant offence or (US) offense n

1 a breaking of a law or rule; crime

◇ SYNONYMS: crime, sin, fault, violation, wrongdoing, trespass, felony, misdemeanour

2 annoyance or anger

◇ SYNONYMS: outrage, shock, anger, trouble, bother, resentment, irritation, hassle (informal)

3 a cause of annoyance or anger

◇ SYNONYMS: insult, slight, hurt, outrage, injustice, snub, affront, indignity

4 give offence to cause to feel upset or angry

5 take offence to feel hurt or offended offend vb

1 to hurt the feelings of (a person); insult

◇ SYNONYMS: distress, upset, outrage, wound, slight, insult, annoy, snub

2 to be disagreeable to; disgust: she was offended by what she saw

3 to commit a crime

◇ SYNONYMS: break the law, sin, err, do wrong, fall, go astray > offender n

> offending adj

offensive adj

1 unpleasant or disgusting to the senses: there was an offensive smell of beer

◇ SYNONYMS: disgusting, gross, foul, unpleasant, revolting, vile, repellent, obnoxious, festy (Austral slang), yucko (Austral slang)

2 causing annoyance or anger; insulting

◇ SYNONYMS: insulting, rude, abusive, degrading, contemptuous, disparaging, objectionable, disrespectful

3 for the purpose of attack rather than defence

◇ SYNONYMS: attacking, threatening, aggressive, striking, hostile, invading, combative

► n

4 an attitude or position of aggression: to go on the offensive

5 an attack or hostile action: troops had launched a major offensive against the rebel forces

◇ SYNONYMS: attack, charge, campaign, strike, push (informal), assault, raid, drive > offensively adv

offer vb

1 to present for acceptance or rejection: I offered her a lift

2 to provide: this department offers a wide range of courses

◇ SYNONYMS: provide, present, furnish, afford

3 to present itself: if an opportunity should offer

4 to be willing (to do something): his father offered to pay his tuition

◇ SYNONYMS: volunteer, come forward, offer your services

5 to put forward (a proposal, information, or opinion) for consideration: may I offer a different view?

◇ SYNONYMS: propose, suggest, advance, submit

6 to present for sale

◇ SYNONYMS: put up for sale, sell

7 to propose as payment; bid

◇ SYNONYMS: bid, submit, propose, tender, proffer

8 to present (a prayer or sacrifice) as an act of worship

9 to show readiness for: to offer resistance

◇ SYNONYMS: give, show, bring, provide, render, impart

► n

10 something that is offered

◇ SYNONYMS: proposal, suggestion, proposition, submission

11 the act of offering offering n

1 something that is offered

2 a contribution to the funds of a religious organization

◇ SYNONYMS: contribution, gift, donation, present, subscription, hand-out

3 a sacrifice to a god

◇ SYNONYMS: sacrifice, tribute, libation, burnt offering offertory n, pl -tories (Christianity)

1 the part of a church service when the bread and wine for communion are offered for consecration

2 the collection of money at this service

3 the prayers said or sung while the worshippers' offerings are being brought to the altar offhand adj also offhanded

1 curt or casual in manner: I felt calm enough to adopt a casual offhand manner

► adv

2 without preparation: I don't know offhand why that should be so > offhandedly adv

> offhandedness n

office n

1 a room, set of rooms, or building in which business, professional duties, or clerical work are carried out

◇ SYNONYMS: place of work, workplace, base, workroom, place of business

2 a department of an organization dealing with particular business: Zoe worked in the store's cash office for 18 months

◇ SYNONYMS: branch, department, division, section, wing, subdivision, subsection

3 the group of people working in an office: she assured him that the office was running smoothly

4 a government department or agency: Serious Fraud Office

5 a position of trust or authority, as in a government: he would not seek a second term of office

◇ SYNONYMS: post, place, role, situation, responsibility, function, occupation

6 a place where tickets, information, or some service can be obtained: why don't you give the ticket office a ring?

7 (Christianity) a religious ceremony or service

8 good offices the help given by someone to someone else: Syria's good offices finally led to the release of two Western hostages

9 in or out of office (of a government) in or out of power officer n

1 a person in the armed services, or on a non-naval ship, who holds a position of authority

2 a member of a police force, esp. a constable

◇ SYNONYMS: police officer, detective, PC, police constable, policeman, policewoman

3 a person holding a position of authority in a government or organization

◇ SYNONYMS: official, executive, agent, representative, appointee, functionary, office-holder, office bearer official adj

1 of an office or position of authority: I'm not here in any official capacity

◇ SYNONYMS: authorized, formal, sanctioned, licensed, proper, legitimate, authentic, certified

2 approved by or derived from authority: there has been no official announcement

◇ SYNONYMS: authorized, formal, sanctioned, licensed, proper, legitimate, authentic, certified

3 formal or ceremonial: he was speaking at an official dinner in Warsaw

◇ SYNONYMS: formal, bureaucratic, ceremonial, solemn, ritualistic

► n

4 a person holding a position of authority

◇ SYNONYMS: officer, executive, agent, representative, bureaucrat, appointee, functionary, office-holder > officially adv

officialdom n officials or bureaucrats collectively

Official Receiver n (Brit) an officer appointed by the government to deal with the affairs of a bankrupt person or company officiate vb -ating, -ated

1 to perform the duties of an office; act in an official capacity: the referee will officiate at the match

2 to conduct a religious or other ceremony: the priest officiated at the wedding > officiation n

> officiator n officious adj offering unwanted advice or services; interfering > officiousness n

offing n

1 the part of the sea that can be seen from the shore

2 in the offing (Brit & Austral & NZ) not far off; likely to occur soon off-licence n (Brit) a shop or a counter in a shop where alcoholic drink is sold for drinking elsewhere offline adj

1 disconnected from a computer or the internet

► adv

2 while not connected to a computer or the internet off-road adj (of a motor vehicle) designed for use away from public roads offset vb -setting, -set

1 to cancel out or compensate for ◇ SYNONYMS: cancel out, balance, set off, make up for, compensate for, counteract, neutralize, counterbalance

2 to print (something) using the offset process

► n

3 a printing method in which the impression is made onto a surface, such as a rubber roller, which transfers it to the paper

4 (botany) a short runner in certain plants that produces roots and shoots at the tip offshoot n

1 a shoot growing from the main stem of a plant

2 something that has developed from something else offside adj, adv

1 (sport) (of a player) in a position illegally ahead of the ball when it is played

► n

2 (chiefly Brit) the side of a vehicle nearest the centre of the road offspring n

1 the immediate descendant or descendants of a person or animal ◇ SYNONYMS: child, baby, kid (informal), youngster, infant, successor, babe, toddler, little (Austral informal), ankle-biter (Austral slang), tacker (Austral slang)

2 a product, outcome, or result: the women's liberation movement was the offspring of the 1960s oft adv (old-fashioned, or poetic) short for often often adv

1 frequently; much of the time

◇ SYNONYMS: frequently, generally, commonly, repeatedly, time and again, habitually, not infrequently

2 as often as not quite frequently

3 every so often occasionally

4 more often than not in more than half the instances

Og oganesson

oganesson n (chem) a synthetic radioactive element produced in small quantities. SYMBOL: Og ogle vb ogling, ogled to stare at (someone) lustfully ogre n

1 (in folklore) a giant that eats human flesh

2 any monstrous or cruel person > ogreish adj

> ogress fem n

oh interj an exclamation of surprise, pain, pleasure, fear, or annoyance ohm n the SI unit of electrical resistance

OHMS (in Britain and the Commonwealth) On Her (or His) Majesty's Service

oil n

1 any of a number of viscous liquids with a smooth sticky feel, which are usually flammable, insoluble in water, and are obtained from plants, animals, or mineral deposits by synthesis

2 same as petroleum

3 a substance derived from petroleum and used for lubrication

◇ SYNONYMS: lubricant, grease, lubrication, fuel oil

4 (Brit) paraffin as a domestic fuel

5 oil colour or paint

6 an oil painting

► vb

7 to lubricate with oil or apply oil to

◇ SYNONYMS: lubricate, grease

8 oil the wheels to make things run smoothly oilfield n an area containing reserves of oil oil rig n a structure used as a base when drilling an oil well oilskin n

1 a thick cotton fabric treated with oil to make it waterproof

2 a protective outer garment made of this fabric oily adj oilier, oiliest

1 soaked or covered with oil

◇ SYNONYMS: greasy, slimy (Brit), fatty, slippery, oleaginous

2 of, containing, or like oil

◇ SYNONYMS: greasy, slimy (Brit), fatty, slippery, oleaginous

3 attempting to gain favour by insincere behaviour and flattery > oiliness n

ointment n a smooth greasy substance applied to the skin to heal or protect, or as a cosmetic: home-made creams and ointments

O.K. (informal) interj

1 an expression of approval or agreement

◇ SYNONYMS: all right, right, yes, agreed, very good, roger, very well, ya (S African), righto (Brit informal), yebo (S African informal)

► adj

2 in good or satisfactory condition

◇ SYNONYMS: all right, fine, fitting, in order, permitted, suitable, acceptable, allowable

► adv

3 reasonably well or in a satisfactory manner

► vb O.K.ing, O.K.ed

4 to approve or endorse

◇ SYNONYMS: approve, allow, agree to, permit, sanction, endorse, authorize, rubber-stamp (informal)

► n, pl O.K.s

5 approval or agreement

◇ SYNONYMS: authorization, agreement, sanction, approval, go-ahead (informal), blessing, permission, consent okapi (oh-kah-pee) n, pl -pis or -pi an African mammal related to the giraffe, but with a shorter neck, a reddish coat, and white stripes on the legs okay interj, adj, adv, vb, n same as O.K. okra n a tall plant with long green pods that are used as food old adj

1 having lived or existed for a long time: the old woman; burning witches is one old custom I've no desire to see revived

◇ SYNONYMS: aged, elderly, ancient, mature, venerable, antiquated

2 of or relating to advanced years or a long life: I twisted my knee as I tried to squat and cursed old age

3 worn with age or use: the old bathroom fittings

4 having lived or existed for a specified period: he is 60 years old

5 the earlier or earliest of two or more things with the same name: the old edition; the Old Testament

◇ SYNONYMS: former, earlier, past, previous, prior, one-time, erstwhile

6 designating the form of a language in which the earliest known records are written: Old English

7 familiar through long acquaintance or repetition: an old acquaintance; the legalization argument is an old and familiar one

8 dear: used as a term of affection or familiarity: always rely on old Tom to turn out

9 out of date; unfashionable

10 former or previous: my old housekeeper lent me some money

◇ SYNONYMS: former, earlier, past, previous, prior, one-time, erstwhile

11 of long standing: he's an old and respected member of staff

12 good old days an earlier period of time regarded as better than the present

► n

13 an earlier or past time: in days of old > oldish adj

olden adj (archaic, or poetic) old: the steam trains of olden times

old-fashioned adj

1 in the style of a previous period; outdated: she wore her hair in a strangely old-fashioned tight hairdo

◇ SYNONYMS: out of date, dated, outdated, unfashionable, outmoded, passé, old hat, behind the times

2 favouring or denoting the styles or ideas of a former time: old-fashioned values

◇ SYNONYMS: oldfangled, square (informal), outdated, unfashionable, obsolescent old guard n a group of people in an organization who have traditional values:

the company's old guard is making way for a new, more youthful team old hat adj old-fashioned or dull oldie n (informal) an old song, film, or person old maid n (sometimes offensive) a woman regarded as unlikely ever to marry old master n

1 one of the great European painters of the period 1500 to 1800

2 a painting by one of these

Old Nick n (informal) Satan old school tie n the system of mutual help supposed to operate among the former pupils of independent schools

Old Testament n the first part of the Christian Bible, containing the sacred Scriptures of the Hebrews

Old World n that part of the world that was known to Europeans before the discovery of the Americas; the eastern hemisphere oleaginous (oh-lee-aj-in-uss) adj like or producing oil; oily oleander (oh-lee-ann-der) n an evergreen Mediterranean shrub with fragrant white, pink, or purple flowers olfactory adj of the sense of smell oligarch (ol-lee-gark) n a member of a small group of powerful people oligarchy (ol-lee-gark-ee) n, pl -chies

1 government by a small group of people

2 a state governed this way

3 a small group of people governing such a state > oligarchic or oligarchical adj olive n

1 an evergreen Mediterranean tree

2 the small green or black fruit of this tree olive branch n a peace offering: I should offer some kind of olive branch and get in touch with them

olive-green adj deep yellowish-green

Olympian adj

1 of Mount Olympus or the classical Greek gods

2 majestic or godlike

► n

3 (trademark) a competitor in the Olympic Games

4 a god of Mount Olympus

Olympic Games n

1 an ancient Greek festival, held every fourth year in honour of Zeus, consisting of games and festivities

2 Also called: the Olympics (trademark) the modern revival of these games, consisting of international athletic and sporting contests held every four years in a selected country ombudsman n, pl -men an official who investigates citizens' complaints against the government or its servants omelette or (esp US) omelet n a dish of beaten eggs cooked in a flat pan and often folded round a savoury filling omen n

1 a thing or occurrence regarded as a sign of future happiness or disaster

2 prophetic significance: birds of ill omen ominous adj warning of evil

◇ SYNONYMS: threatening, sinister, grim, fateful, foreboding, unpromising, portentous, inauspicious > ominously adv

omission n

1 something that has been left out or passed over

◇ SYNONYMS: gap, space, exclusion, lacuna

2 an act of missing out or failing to do something: we regret the omission of these and the names of the other fine artists

◇ SYNONYMS: exclusion, removal, elimination, deletion, excision omit vb omitting, omitted

1 to fail to include; leave out

◇ SYNONYMS: leave out, drop, exclude, eliminate, skip

2 to fail (to do something)

◇ SYNONYMS: forget, overlook, neglect, pass over, lose sight of omnibus n, pl -buses

1 a collection of works by one author or several works on a similar topic, reprinted in one volume

2 Also called: omnibus edition a television or radio programme consisting of two or more episodes of a serial broadcast earlier in the week

3 (old-fashioned) a bus

► adj

4 consisting of or dealing with several different things at once: this year's version of an omnibus crime bill omnipotent (om-nip-a-tent) adj having very great or unlimited power > omnipotence n

omnipresent adj (esp. of a god) present in all places at the same time > omnipresence n omniscient (om-niss-ee-ent) adj knowing or seeming to know everything > omniscience n

omnivore (om-niv-vore) n an animal that eats any type of food omnivorous (om-niv-or-uss) adj

1 eating any type of food

2 taking in everything indiscriminately: he was an omnivorous reader

on prep

1 in contact with or at the surface of: let the cakes stand in the tins on a wire rack; she had dirt on her dress

2 attached to: a piece of paper on a clipboard

3 carried with: the message found on her

4 near to or along the side of: the hotel is on the coast

5 within the time limits of (a day or date): they returned to Moscow on 22nd September

6 being performed upon or relayed through the medium of: a construction of refined sounds played on special musical instruments; what's on television?

7 at the occasion of: she had received numerous letters congratulating her on her election

8 immediately after or at the same time as: check with the tourist office on arrival

9 through the use of: an extraordinarily vigorous man who thrives on physical activity; the program runs on the Unix operating system

10 regularly taking (a drug): she's on the pill

11 by means of (a mode of transport): his only way up the hill had to be on foot; they get around on bicycles

12 in the process or course of: he is away on a climbing expedition; the miners went on strike

13 concerned with or relating to: an emotional documentary on homelessness among war veterans

14 (of a statement or action) having as basis or grounds: I have it on good authority

15 charged to: all drinks are on the house for the rest of the evening

16 staked as a bet: I'll have a bet on the favourite

► adv

17 in operation; functioning: the lights had been left on all night

18 attached to, surrounding, or placed in contact with something: they escaped with nothing on except sleeveless shirts and shorts

19 taking place: what do you have on tonight?

20 continuously or persistently: the crisis must not be allowed to drag on indefinitely

21 forwards or further: they trudged on 22 on and off occasionally; not regularly or continuously

23 on and on without ceasing; continually

► adj

24 (informal) performing: who's on next?

25 (informal) definitely taking place: is the party still on?

26 (informal) tolerable, practicable, or acceptable: that's just not on 27 on at (informal) nagging: he was always on at her to stop smoking

► n

28 (cricket) the side of the field to the left of a right-handed batsman when he is facing the bowler once adv

1 one time; on one occasion only

◇ SYNONYMS: on one occasion, one time, one single time

2 at some past time, but no longer: I was in love once

◇ SYNONYMS: at one time, previously, formerly, long ago, once upon a time

3 by one degree (of relationship): he was Deirdre's cousin once removed

4 once and for all conclusively; for the last time

5 once in a while occasionally; now and then

6 once or twice a few times

7 once upon a time used to begin fairy tales and children's stories

► conj

8 as soon as: once you have learned good grammar you can leave it to nature and forget it

◇ SYNONYMS: as soon as, when, after, the moment, immediately, the instant

► n

9 one occasion or case: once is enough

10 all at once

A suddenly

B simultaneously

◇ SYNONYMS at once: simultaneously, together, at the same time, concurrently

11 at once

A immediately

◇ SYNONYMS at once: immediately, now, straight away, directly, promptly, instantly, right away, forthwith

B simultaneously

◇ SYNONYMS at once: simultaneously, together, at the same time, concurrently

12 for once this time, even if at no other time once-over n (informal) a quick examination or appraisal oncogene (ong-koh-jean) n a gene present in all cells, that when abnormally activated can cause cancer oncology n the branch of medicine concerned with cancerous tumours > oncologist n

oncoming adj coming nearer in space or time; approaching: oncoming traffic

one adj, n

1 single or lone (person or thing); not two or more: one civilian has died and thirty-three have been injured

2 only or unique (person or thing): he is the one to make correct judgments and influence the public; she was unique, inimitable, one of a kind

3 a specified (person or thing) as distinct from another or others of its kind: place one hand under the knee and the other under the ankle; which one is correct?

4 one or two a few

► adj

5 a certain, indefinite, or unspecified (time): one day he would learn the truth about her

6 (informal, emphatic) a: we're on to one hell of a story

► pron

7 an indefinite person regarded as typical of every person: one can always hope that there won't be an accident

8 any indefinite person: one can catch fine trout in this stream

9 I or me: one only wonders what he has against the dogs

► n

10 the smallest natural number and first cardinal number

11 a numeral, 1 or I, representing this number

12 something representing or consisting of one unit

13 (informal) a joke or story: have you heard the one about the actress and the bishop?

14 (all) in one combined or united 15 all one of no consequence: leave if you want to, it's all one to me

16 at one with in agreement or harmony with 17 one and all everyone, without exception

18 one by one one at a time; individually one-armed bandit n (informal) a fruit machine operated by pulling down a lever at one side one-liner n (informal) a short joke or witty remark oneness n

- 1 agreement
- 2 uniqueness
- 3 sameness

one-night stand n

- 1 (informal) a sexual encounter lasting only one evening or night
- 2 a performance given only once at any one place onerous (own-er-uss) adj (of a task) difficult to carry out > onerousness n

oneself pron

- 1 the reflexive form of one
- 2 one's normal or usual self: one doesn't feel oneself after such an experience

one-sided adj

- 1 considering or favouring only one side of a matter: a one-sided version of events
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: biased, prejudiced, weighted, unfair, partial, distorted, partisan, slanted
- 2 having all the advantage on one side: it was a one-sided match with Brazil missing a succession of chances
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: unequal, unfair, uneven, unjust, unbalanced, lopsided, ill-matched one-way adj

- 1 moving or allowing travel in one direction only: the town centre has a baffling one-way system
- 2 involving no reciprocal obligation or action: he does not get anything back out of the one-way relationship ongoing adj in progress; continuing: there are still ongoing discussions about the future role of NATO

◇ SYNONYMS: in progress, developing, progressing, evolving, unfolding, unfinished onion n

1 a vegetable with an edible bulb with a strong smell and taste

2 know one's onions (Brit & NZ slang) to be fully acquainted with a subject > oniony adj

online adj

1 connected to a computer or the internet

► adv

2 while connected to a computer or the internet onlooker n a person who observes without taking part ◇ SYNONYMS: spectator, witness, observer, viewer, looker-on, watcher, eyewitness, bystander > onlooking adj

only adj

1 alone of its or their kind: I will be talking to the only journalist to have been inside the prison

◇ SYNONYMS: sole, one, single, individual, exclusive, unique, lone, solitary

2 (of a child) having no brothers or sisters

3 unique by virtue of superiority; best: first class is the only way to travel

4 one and only incomparable: the one and only Usain Bolt

► adv

5 without anyone or anything else being included; alone: only you can decide if you can abide by this compromise

6 merely or just: it's only Henry

◇ SYNONYMS: just, simply, purely, merely

7 no more or no greater than: I was talking to a priest only a minute ago

◇ SYNONYMS: hardly, just, barely, only just, scarcely, at a push

8 merely: they had only to turn up to win the competition

◇ SYNONYMS: just, simply, purely, merely

9 not earlier than; not until: I've only found out today why you wouldn't come

10 if only or if ... only used to introduce a wish or hope

11 only too extremely: they were only too willing to do anything to help

► conj

12 but or however: those countries are going through the same cycle, only a little later than us onomatopoeia (on-a-mat-a-pee-a) n use of a word which imitates the sound it represents, such as hiss > onomatopoeic or onomatopoetic adj onset n a start; beginning

◇ SYNONYMS: beginning, start, birth, outbreak, inception, commencement onside adj, adv

1 (sport) (of a player) in a legal position, for example, behind the ball or with a required number of opponents between oneself and the opposing team's goal line

2 in a position of support or sympathy: phoning shareholders in an attempt to bring them onside onslaught n a violent attack

◇ SYNONYMS: attack, charge, campaign, strike, assault, raid, invasion, offensive onto or on to prep

1 to a position that is on: step onto the train

2 having discovered or become aware of: the police are onto us

3 into contact with: get onto the factory ontology n (philosophy) the study of the nature of being > ontological adj

onus (own-uss) n, pl onuses a responsibility, task, or burden: the courts put the onus on parents onward adj

1 directed or moving forward

► adv also onwards

2 continuing; progressing

◇ SYNONYMS: forward, on, forwards, ahead, beyond, in front, forth (formal, old-fashioned) onyx n a kind of quartz with alternating coloured layers, used as a gemstone oodles pl n (informal) great quantities: he has shown he can raise oodles of cash

ooze¹ vb oozing, oozed

1 to flow or leak out slowly; seep

◇ SYNONYMS: seep, well, escape, leak, drain, filter, drip, trickle

2 (of a substance) to discharge moisture

◇ SYNONYMS: emit, release, leak, drip, dribble, give off, pour forth

3 to overflow with (a feeling or quality): he oozes confidence

◇ SYNONYMS: exude, emit

► n

4 a slow flowing or leaking > oozy adj

ooze² n a soft thin mud, such as that found at the bottom of a lake, river, or sea

◇ SYNONYMS: mud, clay, dirt, silt, sludge, mire, slime, alluvium opacity (ohp-ass-it-tee) n, pl -ties

1 the state or quality of being opaque

2 the quality of being difficult to understand; unintelligibility opal n a precious stone, usually milky or bluish in colour, with shimmering changing reflections opalescent adj having shimmering changing reflections, like opal > opalescence n

opaque adj

- 1 not able to be seen through; not transparent or translucent
- 2 hard to understand; unintelligible

op. cit. (op sit) (in textual annotations) in the work cited

OPEC Organization of Petroleum-Exporting Countries

open adj

- 1 not closed, fastened, or blocked up: the doctor's office was open ◇ SYNONYMS: unclosed, unlocked, ajar, unfastened, yawning
- 2 not enclosed, covered, or wrapped: the parcel was open ◇ SYNONYMS: unsealed, unstoppered
- 3 extended, expanded, or unfolded: an open flower ◇ SYNONYMS: extended, unfolded, stretched out, unfurled, straightened out, unrolled
- 4 ready for business: some of the crafts rooms and photography shops are open all night
- 5 (of a job) available: all the positions on the council should be open to everyone ◇ SYNONYMS: vacant, free, available, empty, unoccupied, unfilled
- 6 unobstructed by buildings or trees: we lived in a small market town surrounded by open countryside
◇ SYNONYMS: clear, passable, unhindered, unimpeded, navigable, unobstructed
- 7 free to all to join in, enter, or use: there was an open competition and I was appointed ◇ SYNONYMS: general, public, free, universal, blanket, across-the-board, unrestricted, overarching

8 (of a season or period) not restricted for purposes of hunting game of various kinds

9 not decided or finalized: the legality of these sales is still an open question

◇ SYNONYMS: unresolved, unsettled, undecided, debatable, moot, arguable

10 ready to consider new ideas: I was able to approach their problem with an open mind

◇ SYNONYMS: receptive, sympathetic, responsive, amenable

11 honest and frank

◇ SYNONYMS: frank, direct, straightforward, sincere, transparent, honest, candid, truthful

12 generous: she has given me love and the open hand

13 exposed to view; blatant: there has never been such sustained and open criticism of the President

14 unprotected; susceptible: a change of policy which would leave vulnerable youths open to exploitation

15 having spaces or gaps: open ranks; an open texture

16 (computers) designed to an internationally agreed standard to allow communication between computers irrespective of size or manufacturer

17 (music)

A (of a string) not stopped with the finger

B (of a note) played on such a string

18 (sport) (of a goal or court) unguarded or relatively unprotected

19 (of a wound) exposed to the air

► vb

20 to make or become open: it was easy to open the back door and to slip noiselessly outside; she knelt and tried to open the drawer

◇ SYNONYMS: unfasten, unlock, unzip

21 to set or be set in action; start: the US will have to open talks on Palestinian rights; I want to open a dress shop

◇ SYNONYMS: begin, start, commence

22 to arrange for (a bank account), usually by making an initial deposit

23 to declare open ceremonially or officially

► n

24 (sport) a competition which anyone may enter

25 the open any wide or unobstructed area > opener n

> openly adv

> openness n

opencast mining n mining by excavating from the surface open day n a special occasion on which a school, university, or other institution is open for the public to visit open-handed adj generous open-hearted adj

1 kind or generous

2 willing to speak one's mind; candid open-heart surgery n surgical repair of the heart during which the heart is exposed and the blood circulation is maintained mechanically open house n a situation in which people allow friends or visitors to come to their house whenever they want to opening n

1 the beginning or first part of something

◇ SYNONYMS: beginning, start, launch, dawn (literary), outset, initiation, inception, commencement

2 the first performance of a theatrical production

3 a chance or opportunity: an opening into show business

◇ SYNONYMS: opportunity, chance, time, moment, occasion, look-in (informal)

4 a hole or gap

◇ SYNONYMS: hole, space, tear, crack, gap, slot, puncture, aperture open letter n a letter, esp. one of protest, addressed to an individual but published in a newspaper or magazine for all to read

open-minded adj willing to consider new ideas; unprejudiced

◇ SYNONYMS: unprejudiced, liberal, balanced, objective, reasonable, tolerant, impartial, receptive open-plan adj having no or few dividing walls between areas: the house includes an open-plan living room and dining area

open prison n a prison in which the prisoners are not locked up, thus extending the range of work they can do

open source n

1 intellectual property, esp. computer source code, made freely available to the public by its creators

► adj open-source

2 relating to this code: open-source software open verdict n a finding by a coroner's jury of death, without stating the cause opera¹ n

1 a dramatic work in which most or all of the text is sung to orchestral accompaniment

2 the branch of music or drama relating to operas

3 a group that produces or performs operas

4 a theatre where opera is performed opera² n a plural of opus operate vb -ating, -ated

1 to work

◇ SYNONYMS: function, work, act

2 to control the working of (a machine)

◇ SYNONYMS: run, work, use, control, manoeuvre

3 to manage, direct, or run (a business or system)

- ◇ SYNONYMS: manage, run, direct, handle, supervise, be in charge of
- 4 to perform a surgical operation (upon a person or animal)
- 5 to conduct military or naval operations operatic adj

- 1 of or relating to opera
- 2 overdramatic or exaggerated: he was about to go out with his operatic strut operation n

- 1 the act or method of operating
- ◇ SYNONYMS: performance, action, movement, motion
- 2 the condition of being in action: there are 20 teleworking centres in operation around the country
- 3 an action or series of actions done to produce a particular result: a large-scale police operation has been in place to manage the heavy traffic
- 4 (surgery) a surgical procedure carried out to remove, replace, or repair a diseased or damaged part of the body
- 5 a military or naval manoeuvre
- 6 (maths) any procedure, such as addition, in which a number is derived from another number or numbers by applying specific rules operational adj

- 1 in working order and ready for use
- ◇ SYNONYMS: working, going, running, ready, functioning, operative, viable, functional
- 2 of or relating to an action done to produce a particular result operative (op-rat-tiv) adj

- 1 in force, effect, or operation: these pension provisions became operative from 1978
- ◇ SYNONYMS: in force, effective, functioning, active, in effect, operational, in operation
- 2 (of a word) particularly relevant or significant: 'if' is the operative word
- 3 of or relating to a surgical operation
- n

4 a worker with a special skill

◇ SYNONYMS: worker, employee, labourer, workman or woman or person, artisan operator n

1 a person who operates a machine or instrument, esp. a telephone switchboard

◇ SYNONYMS: worker, driver, mechanic, operative, conductor, technician, handler

2 a person who runs a business: your tour operator will arrange a visa for you

3 (informal) a person who manipulates affairs and other people: she considered him a shrewd operator who only liked to appear to be simple

4 (maths) any symbol, term, or letter used to indicate or express a specific operation or process operetta n a type of comic or light-hearted opera ophthalmic adj of or relating to the eye ophthalmic optician n See optician ophthalmology n the branch of medicine concerned with the eye and its diseases > ophthalmologist n opiate (oh-pee-it) n

1 a narcotic or sedative drug containing opium

2 something that causes mental dullness or inactivity opine vb opining, opined (formal) to hold or express an opinion: he opined that the navy would have to start again from the beginning

opinion n

1 belief not founded on certainty or proof but on what seems probable

◇ SYNONYMS: belief, feeling, view, idea, theory, conviction, point of view, sentiment

2 evaluation or estimation of a person or thing: they seemed to share my high opinion of her

◇ SYNONYMS: estimation, view, impression, assessment, judgment, appraisal, considered opinion

3 a judgment given by an expert: medical opinion

◇ SYNONYMS: estimation, view, impression, assessment, judgment, appraisal, considered opinion

4 a matter of opinion a point open to question opinionated adj holding very strong opinions which one is convinced are right opinion poll n same as poll opium (oh-pee-um) n an addictive narcotic drug made from the seed capsules of the opium poppy and used in medicine as a painkiller and sedative

opossum n, pl -sums or -sum

1 a thick-furred American marsupial, with a long snout and a hairless prehensile tail

2 (Austral & NZ) a similar Australian animal, such as a phalanger opponent n a person who opposes another in a contest, battle, or argument

◇ SYNONYMS: adversary, rival, enemy, competitor, challenger, foe (formal, literary), contestant, antagonist opportune adj (formal)

1 happening at a time that is suitable or advantageous: there was an opportune knock at the door

2 (of time) suitable for a particular purpose: I have arrived at a very opportune moment opportunist n

1 a person who adapts his or her actions to take advantage of opportunities and circumstances without regard for principles

► adj

2 taking advantage of opportunities and circumstances in this way > opportunism n

> opportunistic adj

opportunity n, pl -ties

1 a favourable combination of circumstances

2 a good chance or prospect

◇ SYNONYMS: chance, opening, time, turn, moment, possibility, occasion, slot (informal) opportunity shop n (Austral & NZ) a shop selling second-hand clothes, sometimes for charity. Sometimes shortened to: op-shop

oppose vb -posing, -posed

1 Also: be opposed to to be against (something or someone) in speech or action

◇ SYNONYMS: be against, fight (against), block, take on, counter, contest, resist, combat

2 as opposed to in strong contrast with: I'm a realist as opposed to a theorist > opposing adj

opposite adj

1 situated on the other or further side

◇ SYNONYMS: facing, other, opposing

2 facing or going in contrary directions: he saw another small craft heading the opposite way

◇ SYNONYMS: facing, other, opposing

3 completely different: I have a different, in fact, opposite view on this subject

◇ SYNONYMS: different, conflicting, contrasted, contrasting, unlike, contrary, dissimilar, divergent

4 (maths) (of a side in a triangle) facing a specified angle

► n

5 a person or thing that is opposite; antithesis

◇ SYNONYMS: reverse, contrary, converse, antithesis, contradiction, inverse, obverse

► prep

6 facing; across from ◇ SYNONYMS: facing, face to face with, across from, eyeball to eyeball with (informal)

► adv

7 in an opposite position: fragments smashed through the windows of the house opposite opposition n

1 the act of opposing or being opposed

2 hostility, resistance, or disagreement

◇ SYNONYMS: hostility, resistance, resentment, disapproval, obstruction, animosity, antagonism, antipathy

3 a person or group antagonistic or opposed to another

◇ SYNONYMS: opponent(s), competition, rival(s), enemy, competitor(s), other side, challenger(s), foe

4 a political party or group opposed to the ruling party or government

5 (astrol) a diametrically opposite position of two heavenly bodies oppress vb

1 to put down or control by cruelty or force

◇ SYNONYMS: subjugate, abuse, suppress, wrong, master, overcome, subdue, persecute

2 to make anxious or uncomfortable

◇ SYNONYMS: depress, burden, discourage, torment, harass, afflict, sadden, vex > oppression n > oppressor n

oppressive adj

1 cruel, harsh, or tyrannical

◇ SYNONYMS: tyrannical, severe, harsh, cruel, brutal, authoritarian, unjust, repressive

2 uncomfortable or depressing: a small flat can become rather oppressive

3 (of weather) hot and humid

◇ SYNONYMS: stifling, close, sticky, stuffy, humid, sultry, airless, muggy > oppressiveness n

opprobrium (op-probe-ree-um) n (formal)

1 the state of being abused or scornfully criticized

2 a cause of disgrace or shame > opprobrious adj

op-shop n (Austral & NZ) short for opportunity shop opt vb to show preference (for) or choose (to do something)

◇ SYNONYMS: choose, decide, prefer, select, elect optic adj of the eye or vision optical adj

1 of or involving light or optics

2 of the eye or the sense of sight; optic

3 (of a lens) helping vision optical fibre n a thin flexible glass fibre used in fibre optics to transmit information optician n

1 Also called: ophthalmic optician a person who is qualified to examine the eyes and prescribe and supply spectacles and contact lenses

2 Also called: dispensing optician a person who supplies and fits spectacle frames and lenses, but is not qualified to prescribe lenses optics n the science dealing with light and vision optimal adj best or most favourable optimism n

1 the tendency to take the most hopeful view in all matters

2 (philosophy) the doctrine of the ultimate triumph of good over evil > optimist n > optimistic adj

> optimistically adv

optimize or -mise vb -mizing, -mized or -mising, -mised to make the most of optimum n, pl -ma or -mums

1 the most favourable conditions or best compromise possible

► adj

2 most favourable or advantageous; best: balance is a critical part of an optimum diet

◇ SYNONYMS: ideal, best, highest, finest, perfect, supreme, peak, outstanding option n

1 the power or liberty to choose: we have no option other than to fully comply

◇ SYNONYMS: choice, alternative, selection, preference, freedom of choice, power to choose

2 something that is or may be chosen: the menu includes a vegetarian option

3 an exclusive right, usually for a limited period, to buy or sell something at a future date: a producer could extend his option on the material for another six months

4 keep or leave one's options open not to commit oneself

5 soft option an easy alternative

► vb

6 to obtain or grant an option on: the film rights are optioned by an international film director

optional adj possible but not compulsory; open to choice

◇ SYNONYMS: voluntary, open, discretionary, possible, extra, elective optometrist (op-tom-met-trist) n a person qualified to examine the eyes and prescribe and supply spectacles and contact lenses > optometry n

opt out vb

1 (often foll. by of) to choose not to be involved (in) or part (of), used esp. of schools and hospitals that leave the public sector

► n opt-out

2 the act of opting out, esp. of a local authority administration opulent (op-pew-lent) adj

1 having or indicating wealth

2 abundant or plentiful > opulence n

opus (oh-puss) n, pl opuses or opera an artistic creation, esp. a musical work by a particular composer, numbered in order of publication: Beethoven's opus 61

◇ SYNONYMS: work, piece, production, creation, composition, work of art, brainchild, oeuvre (French)

or conj

1 used to join alternatives: do you want to go out or stay at home?

2 used to join rephrasings of the same thing: twelve, or a dozen oracle n

- 1 a shrine in ancient Greece or Rome at which gods were consulted through the medium of a priest or priestess for advice or prophecy
- 2 a prophecy or statement made by an oracle
- 3 any person believed to indicate future action with infallible authority oracular adj

- 1 of or like an oracle
- 2 wise and prophetic
- 3 mysterious or ambiguous

oral adj

- 1 spoken or verbal; using spoken words ◇ SYNONYMS: spoken, vocal, verbal, unwritten
- 2 of or for use in the mouth: an oral thermometer
- 3 (of a drug) to be taken by mouth: an oral contraceptive

► n

- 4 an examination in which the questions and answers are spoken rather than written > orally adv

orange n

- 1 a round reddish-yellow juicy citrus fruit
- 2 the evergreen tree on which it grows
- 3 a colour between red and yellow; the colour of an orange

► adj

- 4 of a colour between red and yellow orangeade n (Brit) a usually fizzy orange-flavoured drinkorangery n, pl -eries a conservatory or greenhouse in which orange trees are grown in cooler climates orang-utan or orang-utang n a large ape of the forests of Sumatra and Borneo, with shaggy reddish-brown hair and long arms oration n a formal or ceremonial public speech orator (or-rat-tor) n a person who gives an oration, esp. one skilled in persuasive public speaking oratorio (or-rat-tor-ee-oh) n, pl -rios a musical composition for soloists, chorus, and orchestra, based on a religious theme oratory¹ (or-rat-tree) n the art or skill of public speaking oratory² n, pl -ries a small room or building set apart for private prayer orb n

1 an ornamental sphere with a cross on top, carried by a king or queen in important ceremonies

2 a sphere; globe

3 (poetic) the eye

4 (obsolete, or poetic) a heavenly body, such as the sun orbit n

1 the curved path followed by something, such as a heavenly body or spacecraft, in its motion around another body

◇ SYNONYMS: path, course, cycle, circle, revolution, rotation, trajectory, sweep

2 a range or sphere of action or influence

◇ SYNONYMS: sphere of influence, reach, range, influence, province, scope, domain, compass

3 (anatomy) the eye socket

► vb -biting, -bited

4 to move around (a heavenly body) in an orbit

◇ SYNONYMS: circle, ring, go round, revolve around, encircle, circumscribe, circumnavigate

5 to send (a satellite or spacecraft) into orbit > orbital adj

orca n same as killer whale orchard n an area of land on which fruit trees are grown orchestra n

1 a large group of musicians whose members play a variety of different instruments

2 Also called: orchestra pit the space, in front of or under the stage, reserved for musicians in a theatre > orchestral adj

orchestrate vb -trating, -trated

1 to score or arrange (a piece of music) for orchestra

◇ SYNONYMS: score, set, arrange, adapt

2 to arrange (something) in order to produce a particular result: he had orchestrated today's meeting

◇ SYNONYMS: organize, plan, run, set up, arrange, put together, marshal, coordinate > orchestration n

orchid n a plant having flowers of unusual shapes and beautiful colours, usually with one lip-shaped petal which is larger than the other two ordain vb

1 to make (someone) a member of the clergy

◇ SYNONYMS: appoint, name, commission, select, invest, nominate, anoint, consecrate

2 (formal) to decree or order with authority

◇ SYNONYMS: order, will, rule, demand, require, direct, command, dictate > ordainment n

ordeal n

1 a severe or trying experience

◇ SYNONYMS: hardship, trial, difficulty, test, suffering, nightmare, torture, agony

2 (history) a method of trial in which the accused person was subjected to physical danger order n

1 an instruction that must be obeyed; command

◇ SYNONYMS: instruction, ruling, demand, direction, command, dictate, decree, mandate

2 a state in which everything is arranged logically, comprehensibly, or naturally: she strove to keep more order in the house

◇ SYNONYMS: organization, system, method, pattern, symmetry, regularity, neatness, tidiness

3 an arrangement of things in succession; sequence: group them by letter and then put them in numerical order

◇ SYNONYMS: sequence, grouping, series, structure, chain, arrangement, line-up, array

4 an established or customary system of society: there is an opportunity here for a new world order

5 a peaceful or harmonious condition of society: riot police were called in to restore order

◇ SYNONYMS: peace, control, law, quiet, calm, discipline, law and order, tranquillity

6

A an instruction to supply something in return for payment: the waitress came to take their order

◇ SYNONYMS: request, booking, demand, commission, application, reservation, requisition

B the thing or things supplied

7 a written instruction to pay money: post the coupon below with a cheque or postal order

8 a social class: the result will be harmful to society as a whole and to the lower orders in particular

◇ SYNONYMS: class, set, rank, grade, caste

9 (biol) one of the groups into which a class is divided, containing one or more families

◇ SYNONYMS: kind, group, class, family, sort, type, variety, category

10 kind or sort: the orchestra played superbly and the singing was of the highest order

11 Also called: religious order a religious community of monks or nuns

12 a group of people who have been awarded a particular honour: the Order of the Garter

◇ SYNONYMS: society, company, group, club, community, association, institute, organization

13 the office or rank of a Christian minister: he studied for the priesthood as a young man, but never took Holy Orders

14 the procedure and rules followed by an assembly or meeting: a point of order

15 one of the five major classical styles of architecture, classified by the type of columns used

16 a tall order something difficult or demanding

17 in order

A in sequence

B properly arranged: everything is in order for your trip

C appropriate or fitting

18 in order that so that

19 in order to so that it is possible to: a healthy diet is necessary in order to keep fit

20 in or of the order of amounting approximately to: summer temperatures are usually in the order of 35°

21 keep order to ensure that people obey the law or behave in an acceptable manner

22 on order having been ordered but not yet delivered

23 out of order

A not in sequence

B not working: the lift was out of order, so we had to use the stairs

C not following the rules or customary procedure: the chairperson ruled the motion out of order

24 to order according to a buyer's specifications

► vb

25 to command or instruct (to do something): she ordered her son to wash the dishes; the police ordered her into the house

◇ SYNONYMS: command, instruct, direct, charge (formal), demand, require, bid, compel

26 to request (something) to be supplied in return for payment: I ordered a new car three weeks ago, but it hasn't been delivered yet

◇ SYNONYMS: request, ask (for), book, seek, reserve, apply for, solicit, send away for 27 to arrange (things) methodically or in their proper places

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, group, sort, position, line up, organize, catalogue, sort out

► interj

28 an exclamation demanding that orderly behaviour be restored orderly adj

1 tidy or well-organized: they evacuated the building in an orderly manner

◇ SYNONYMS: well-organized, regular, in order, organized, precise, neat, tidy, systematic

2 well-behaved; law-abiding

◇ SYNONYMS: well-behaved, controlled, disciplined, quiet, restrained, law-abiding, peaceable

► n, pl -lies

3 (med) a male hospital attendant

4 (military) a soldier whose duty is to carry out orders or perform minor tasks for a more senior officer > orderliness n

ordinal number n a number indicating position in a sequence, such as first, second, third ordinance n an official rule or order ordinarily adv in ordinary or usual practice; usually; normally ordinary adj

1 usual or normal: it was an ordinary working day for them

◇ SYNONYMS: usual, standard, normal, common, regular, typical, conventional, routine

2 not special or different in any way: her campaign speech dwells on the problems faced by ordinary Americans

◇ SYNONYMS: commonplace, plain, modest, humble, mundane, banal, unremarkable, run-of-the-mill

3 dull or unexciting: the restaurant charged very high prices for very ordinary cooking

► n, pl -naries

4 (RC Church) the parts of the Mass that do not vary from day to day

5 out of the ordinary unusual ordination n the act or ceremony of making someone a member of the clergy ordnance n

1 weapons and other military supplies

2 the ordnance a government department dealing with military supplies

Ordnance Survey n the British government organization that produces detailed maps of Britain and Ireland ordure n excrement; dung ore n rock or mineral from which valuable substances such as metals can be extracted oregano (or-rig-gah-no) n a sweet-smelling herb used as seasoning organ n

1 a part in animals and plants that is adapted to perform a particular function, for example the heart or lungs

◇ SYNONYMS: body part, part of the body, element, biological structure

2

A a musical keyboard instrument which produces sound by forcing air through pipes of a variety of lengths

B Also called: electric organ a keyboard instrument which produces similar sounds electronically

3 a means of communication, such as a newspaper issued by a specialist group or party

◇ SYNONYMS: newspaper, medium, voice, vehicle, gazette, mouthpiece

4 (euphemistic) a penis organdie n a fine, slightly stiff cotton fabric organic adj

1 of, produced by, or found in plants or animals: the rocks were carefully searched for organic remains

◇ SYNONYMS: natural, biological, living, live, animate

2 not using, or grown without, artificial fertilizers or pesticides: organic vegetables; an organic farm

3 (chem) of or belonging to the class of chemical compounds that are formed from carbon

4 (of change or development) gradual and natural rather than sudden or forced

5 made up of many different parts which contribute to the way in which the whole society or structure works: an organic whole

◇ SYNONYMS: systematic, ordered, structured, organized, integrated, orderly, methodical > organically adv

organism n

1 an animal or plant

◇ SYNONYMS: creature, being, thing, body (informal), animal, structure, beast, entity

2 anything resembling a living creature in structure, behaviour, or complexity: cities are more complicated organisms than farming villages

organist n a person who plays the organ organization or -nisation n

1 an organized group of people, such as a club, society, union, or business

◇ SYNONYMS: group, company, party, body, association, band, institution, corporation

2 the act of organizing: setting up the European tour took a lot of organization

◇ SYNONYMS: management, running, planning, control, operation, handling, structuring, administration

3 the structure and arrangement of the different parts of something: the report recommended radical changes in the organization of the social services department

◇ SYNONYMS: structure, form, pattern, make-up, arrangement, construction, format, formation

4 the state of being organized: the material in this essay lacks any sort of organization

◇ SYNONYMS: structure, form, pattern, make-up, arrangement, construction, format, formation > organizational or -isational adj organize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised

1 to plan and arrange (something): we organized a protest meeting in the village hall

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, run, plan, prepare, set up, devise, put together, take care of, jack up (NZ informal)

2 to arrange systematically: the files are organized in alphabetical order and by date

◇ SYNONYMS: put in order, arrange, group, list, file, index, classify, inventory

3 to form, join, or recruit (people) into a trade union: the seasonal nature of tourism makes it difficult for hotel workers to organize

> organizer or -niser n orgasm n the most intense point of pleasure and excitement during sexual activity > orgasmic adj

orgy n, pl -gies

1 a wild party involving promiscuous sexual activity and excessive drinking

2 an act of immoderate or frenzied indulgence: the rioters were engaged in an orgy of destruction

> orgiastic adj

oriel window or oriel n a window built out from the wall of a house at an upper level orient vb

1 to position or set (for example, a map or chart) with relation to the points of the compass or other specific directions

2 orient oneself to adjust or align oneself or one's ideas according to new surroundings or circumstances: new employees can take some time to orient themselves to the company's procedures

◇ SYNONYMS: adjust, adapt, alter, accustom, align, familiarize, acclimatize

3 be oriented to or towards to work or act with a particular aim, idea, or person in mind: training programmes oriented towards older people

► n

4 (poetic) the east

Orient n the Orient East Asia

Oriental adj

1 of East Asia

► n

2 (offensive) a person from East Asia orientate vb -tating, -tated same as orient orientation n

1 the activities and aims that a person or organization is interested in: the course has a practical rather than theoretical orientation

◇ SYNONYMS: inclination, tendency, disposition, predisposition, predilection, proclivity (formal), partiality

2 the position of an object with relation to the points of the compass or other specific directions: the room's southerly orientation means that it receives a lot of light

◇ SYNONYMS: position, situation, location, bearings, direction, arrangement, whereabouts

► adj

3 of or providing information or training needed to understand a new situation or environment: nearly every college has an orientation programme orienteering n a sport in which contestants race on foot over a cross-country course consisting of checkpoints found with the aid of a map and compass orifice (or-rif-fiss) n an opening or hole through which something can pass, esp. one in the body such as the mouth or anus origami (or-rig-gah-mee) n the art, originally Japanese, of folding paper intricately into decorative shapes origin n

1 the point, source, or event from which something develops: the origin of the term 'jazz' is obscure; the war had its origin in the clash between rival nationalists

◇ SYNONYMS: beginning, start, birth, launch, foundation, creation, emergence, onset

2 the country, race, or social class of a person's parents or ancestors: an Australian of Greek origin; he was proud of his working-class origins

3 (maths) the point at which the horizontal and vertical axes intersect original adj

1 first or earliest: the dining room also has attractive original beams

◇ SYNONYMS: first, earliest, initial

2 fresh and unusual; not copied from or based on something else: the composer's work has created some original and attractive choreography ◇ SYNONYMS: new, fresh, novel, unusual, unprecedented, innovative, unfamiliar, seminal

3 able to think of or carry out new ideas or concepts: he is an excitingly original writer

◇ SYNONYMS: creative, inspired, imaginative, artistic, fertile, ingenious, visionary, inventive

4 being the first and genuine form of something, from which a copy or translation is made: all French recipes were translated from the original abridged versions

► n

5 the first and genuine form of something, from which others are copied or translated: the original is in the British Museum

◇ SYNONYMS: prototype, master, pattern

6 a person or thing used as a model in art or literature: she claimed to be the original on whom Lawrence based Lady Chatterley

> originality n

> originally adv

original sin n a state of sin believed by some Christians to be inborn in all human beings as a result of Adam's disobedience originate vb -nating, -nated to come or bring (something) into existence: humans probably originated in East Africa

◇ SYNONYMS: begin, start, emerge, come, happen, rise, appear, spring > origination n

> originator n

oriole n a songbird with a long pointed bill and a mostly yellow-and-black plumage ormolu n a gold-coloured alloy of copper, tin, or zinc, used to decorate furniture and other articles ornament n

1 anything that adorns someone or something; decoration: the room's only ornament was a dim, oily picture of the Holy Family

◇ SYNONYMS: decoration, trimming, accessory, festoon, trinket, bauble, knick-knack

2 decorations collectively: he had no watch, nor ornament of any kind

◇ SYNONYMS: embellishment, decoration, embroidery, elaboration, adornment, ornamentation

3 a small decorative object: I hit a garden ornament while parking

4 a person whose character or talent makes them an asset to society or the group to which they belong: an ornament of the firm

5 (music) a note or group of notes which embellishes the melody but is not an integral part of it, for instance a trill

► vb

6 to decorate or adorn: the hall had a high ceiling, ornamented with plaster fruits and flowers

◇ SYNONYMS: decorate, adorn, array, do up (informal), embellish, festoon, beautify, prettify > ornamental adj

> ornamentation n > ornamented adj

ornate adj

1 heavily or elaborately decorated: an ornate ceiling painted with allegorical figures

2 (of style in writing) overelaborate; using many literary expressions > ornately adv

ornithology n the study of birds > ornithological adj > ornithologist n

orphan n

1 a child whose parents are dead

► vb

2 to cause (someone) to become an orphan: she was orphaned at 16 when her parents died in a car crash orphanage n a children's home for orphans and abandoned children orphaned adj having no living parents orrery n, pl -ries a mechanical model of the solar system in which the planets can be moved around the sun orris n

1 a kind of iris that has fragrant roots

2 Also: orrisroot the root of this plant prepared and used as perfume orthodontics n the branch of dentistry concerned with correcting irregularities of the teeth > orthodontic adj > orthodontist n

orthodox adj conforming to traditional or established standards in religion, behaviour, or attitudes: orthodox medicine; the concerto has a more orthodox structure than is usual for this composer

◇ SYNONYMS: established, official, accepted, received, common, traditional, normal, usual > orthodoxy n

Orthodox adj

1 of the Orthodox Church of Eastern Europe

2 of or being the form of Judaism characterized by traditional interpretation of and strict adherence to Mosaic Law: an Orthodox Jew

Orthodox Church n the Christian Church dominant in Greece, Russia, and some Eastern European countries, which has the Greek Patriarch of Constantinople as its head orthography n

1 spelling considered to be correct: British and American orthography is different in many cases

2 the study of spelling > orthographic adj

orthopaedics or (US) orthopedics n the branch of surgery concerned with disorders of the bones and joints > orthopaedic or (US) orthopedic adj > orthopaedist or (US) orthopedist n

oryx n any of various large straight-horned African antelopes

Oscar n an award in the form of a small gold statuette awarded annually in the US for outstanding achievements in various aspects of the film industry: he won an Oscar for Best Supporting Actor in 1974

oscillate (oss-ill-late) vb -lating, -lated

1 to swing repeatedly back and forth: its wings oscillate up and down many times a second

2 to waver between two extremes of opinion, attitude, or behaviour: the government oscillates between a desire for reform and a desire to keep its powers intact

3 (physics) (of an electric current) to vary between minimum and maximum values > oscillation n

> oscillator n

oscilloscope (oss-sill-oh-scope) n an instrument that produces a visual representation of an oscillating electric current on the screen of a cathode-ray tube

osier (oh-zee-er) n

1 a willow tree whose flexible branches or twigs are used for making baskets and furniture

2 a twig or branch from this tree osmium n (chem) a very hard brittle bluish-white metal, the heaviest known element. SYMBOL: Os osmosis n

1 the diffusion of liquids through a membrane until they are mixed

2 the process by which people or ideas influence each other gradually and subtly > osmotic adj

osprey n a large fish-eating bird of prey, with a dark back and whitish head and underparts ossify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to change into bone; harden

2 to become rigid, inflexible, or unprogressive: ossified traditions > ossification n

ostensible adj apparent or seeming; alleged: our ostensible common interest is boats > ostensibly adv

ostentation n pretentious, showy, or vulgar display: she felt the gold taps in the bathroom were tasteless ostentation > ostentatious adj

> ostentatiously adv

osteopathy n a system of healing based on the manipulation of bones or muscle > osteopath n

osteoporosis (ost-ee-oh-pore-oh-siss) n brittleness of the bones, caused by lack of calcium ostracize or -cise vb -cizing, -cized or -cising, -cised to exclude or banish (a person) from a particular group or from society: he was ostracized from his family when his affair became known

> ostracism n

ostrich n

1 a large African bird which runs fast but cannot fly, and has a long neck, long legs, and soft dark feathers

2 a person who refuses to recognize an unpleasant truth: he accused the Minister of being 'an ostrich with its head stuck in the sand, while all around him unemployment soars'

other adj

1 remaining (one or ones) in a group of which one or some have been specified: she wasn't getting on with the other children

2 being a different one or ones from the one or ones already specified or understood: other people might not be so tolerant of your behaviour; are you sure it's not in your other pocket?

◇ SYNONYMS: different, alternative, contrasting, distinct, diverse, dissimilar, separate, alternative

3 refers to a place or time which is not the one the speaker or writer is in: results in other countries have been most encouraging

◇ SYNONYMS: different, alternative, contrasting, distinct, diverse, dissimilar, separate, alternative

4 additional; further: there is one other thing for the government to do

◇ SYNONYMS: additional, more, further, new, added, extra, fresh, spare

5 every other every alternate: the doctor sees me every other week

6 other than

A apart from: he knew little of the country other than it was Muslim

B different from: treatment other than a hearing aid will be possible for those with inner ear deafness

7 or other used to add vagueness to the preceding word or phrase: she could take some evening course or other which could lead to an extra qualification; he was called away from the house on some pretext or other

8 the other day a few days ago

► n

9 an additional person or thing: show me one other

10 others people apart from the person who is being spoken or written about: she devoted her entire life to helping others

11 the others the people or things remaining in a group of which one or some have been specified: I can't speak for the others

► adv

12 otherwise; differently: they couldn't behave other than they do > otherness n

otherwise conj

1 or else; if not, then: you need to leave by ten o'clock, otherwise you'll be late

◇ SYNONYMS: or else, or, if not, or then

► adv

2 differently: it was fruitless to pretend or to hope otherwise

◇ SYNONYMS: differently, any other way, contrarily

3 in other respects: shrewd psychological twists perk up an otherwise predictable storyline

◇ SYNONYMS: apart from that, in other ways, in (all) other respects

► adj

4 different: circumstances beyond our control dictated that it should be otherwise

► pron

5 or otherwise or not; or the opposite: he didn't want company, talkative or otherwise

otherworldly adj

1 concerned with spiritual rather than practical matters: his otherworldly manner concealed a ruthless business mind

2 mystical or supernatural: this part of Italy has an otherworldly beauty otiose (oh-tee-oze) adj serving no useful purpose: such a strike is almost otiose otter n a small freshwater fish-eating animal with smooth brown fur, a streamlined body, and webbed feet ottoman n, pl -mans a storage chest with a padded lid for use as a seat

Ottoman adj

1 (history) of the Ottomans or the Ottoman Empire, the Turkish empire which lasted from the late 13th century until the end of World War I, and at its height included the Balkans and much of N Africa

► n, pl -mans

2 a member of a Turkish people who formed the basis of this empire ouch interj an exclamation of sharp sudden pain ought vb

1 used to express duty or obligation: she ought to tell this to the police

2 used to express advisability: we ought to get the roof repaired before the attics get any damper

3 used to express probability or expectation: a good lawyer ought to be able to fix it for you

4 used to express a desire on the part of the speaker: you ought to have a good breakfast before you hit the road

Ouija board or Ouija (weej-a) n (trademark) a board on which are marked the letters of the alphabet. Answers to questions are spelt out by a pointer, which is supposedly guided by spirits ounce n

1 a unit of weight equal to one sixteenth of a pound or 28.4 grams

2 short for fluid ounce

3 a small amount: you haven't got one ounce of control over her

◇ SYNONYMS: shred, bit, drop, trace, scrap, grain, fragment, atom

our adj

1 of, belonging to, or associated with us: our daughter

2 a formal word for my used by monarchs ours pron

1 something belonging to us: our son has blue eyes while ours are brown; the money is ours

2 of ours belonging to or associated with us: my wife and a friend of ours had both deserted me

ourselves pron

1

A the reflexive form of we or us: we humiliated ourselves

B used for emphasis: we ourselves will finish it

2 our usual selves: we've not been feeling quite ourselves since the accident

3 (not standard) used instead of we or us in compound noun phrases: other people and ourselves ousel n same as ouzel oust vb to force (someone) out of a position; expel: the coup which ousted the President

◇ SYNONYMS: expel, turn out, dismiss, exclude, exile, throw out, displace, topple out adv, adj

1 away from the inside of a place: she took her purse out; inspection of the eggs should be done when the hen is out of the nest

2 away from one's home or place of work for a short time: I called earlier but you were out; a search party is out looking for survivors

◇ SYNONYMS: not in, away, elsewhere, outside, gone, abroad, from home, absent

3 no longer burning, shining, or functioning: he switched the light out; the living-room fire went out while we were next door eating

◇ SYNONYMS: extinguished, ended, finished, dead, exhausted, expired, used up, at an end

4 used up; not having any more of: their supplies ran out after two weeks; we're out of milk

5 public; revealed: our dirty little secret is out

◇ SYNONYMS: revealed, exposed, common knowledge, public knowledge, (out) in the open

6 available to the public: her biography will be out in December

◇ SYNONYMS: available, on sale, in the shops, to be had, purchasable

7 (of the sun, stars, or moon) visible

8 in bloom: the roses are out early this year

◇ SYNONYMS: in bloom, opening, open, flowering, blooming, in flower, in full bloom

9 not in fashion or current usage: 'skinny' is out

10 excluded from consideration: pricey ski holidays are out

11 not allowed: smoking on duty is out

12 out for or to wanting or intent on (something or doing something): the young soldiers were out for revenge; they're out to get me

13 (sport) (of a player in a sport like cricket or baseball) no longer batting because he or she has been dismissed by being caught, bowled, etc.

14 on strike

15 in or into a state of unconsciousness: he went outside and passed out in an alley

16 used to indicate a burst of activity as indicated by a verb: war broke out in the Gulf

17 out of existence: the mistakes were scored out

18 to the fullest extent: spread out

19 loudly; clearly: he cried out in shock and pain

20 to a conclusion; completely: she'd worked it out for herself

21 existing: the friendliest dog out

22 inaccurate or incorrect: the estimate was out by £60

23 not in office or authority: she was finally voted out as party leader

24 (of a period of time) completed: before the year is out

25 having made it known that one is not heterosexual: I came out as a lesbian when I was still in my teens

26 (old-fashioned) (of a young woman) in or into upper-class society life: Lucinda had a large party when she came out

27 out of

A at or to a point outside: the train pulled out of the station

B away from; not in: they're out of touch with reality; out of focus

C because of; motivated by: out of jealousy

D from (a material or source): made out of plastic

E no longer in a specified state or condition: out of work; out of practice

► adj

28 (informal) not concealing one's homosexuality

► prep

29 (US, or not standard) out of; out through: he ran out the door

► interj

30

A an exclamation of dismissal

B (in signalling and radio) an expression used to signal that the speaker is signing off: over and out!

► vb (informal)

31 to name (a person, esp. a public figure) as being not heterosexual, often against their will

◇ SYNONYMS: expose

32 to reveal something embarrassing or unknown about (a person): he was outed as a talented goal scorer

out- prefix

1 excelling or surpassing in a particular action: outlast; outlive

2 at or from a point away, outside: outpost; outpatient

3 going away, outward: outcrop; outgrowth outback n the remote bush country of Australia outbid vb -bidding, -bided or -bid to offer a higher price than (another person) outboard motor n a portable petrol engine that can be attached externally to the stern of a boat to propel it outbox n a folder in a computer mailbox in which outgoing messages are stored outbreak n a sudden occurrence of disease or war

◇ SYNONYMS: eruption, burst, explosion, epidemic, rash, outburst, flare-up, upsurge outburst n

1 a sudden strong expression of emotion, esp. of anger: such emotional outbursts do nothing to help calm discussion of the matter

◇ SYNONYMS: explosion, surge, outbreak, eruption, flare-up

2 a sudden period of violent activity: this sudden outburst of violence has come as a shock

◇ SYNONYMS: fit, flare-up, eruption, spasm, outpouring outcast n a person who is rejected or excluded from a particular group or from society outclass vb to surpass (someone) in performance or quality outcome n the result or consequence of something ◇ SYNONYMS: result, end, consequence, conclusion, payoff (informal), upshot outcrop n part of a rock formation that sticks out of the earth outcry n, pl -cries a widespread or vehement protest: there was great popular outcry against the plan for a dual carriageway

◇ SYNONYMS: protest, complaint, objection, dissent, outburst, clamour, uproar, commotion outdated adj old-fashioned or obsolete

◇ SYNONYMS: old-fashioned, dated, obsolete, out of date, passé, archaic, unfashionable, antiquated outdo vb -does, -doing, -did, -done to be more successful or better than (someone or something) in performance: this car easily outdoes its rivals when it comes to comfort

outdoor adj

1 taking place, existing, or intended for use in the open air: have a swim at the beach or outdoor pool; she was just taking off her outdoor clothing

◇ SYNONYMS: open-air, outside, out-of-door(s), alfresco

2 fond of the outdoors: Paul was a butch outdoor type outdoors adv

1 in the open air; outside: he hardly ever went outdoors

► n

2 the world outside or far away from buildings; the open air: he'd forgotten his fear of the outdoors outer adj

1 on the outside; external: the building's outer walls were painted pale pink

◇ SYNONYMS: external, outside, outward, exterior, exposed, outermost

2 further from the middle: the outer suburbs

◇ SYNONYMS: outlying, distant, provincial, out-of-the-way, peripheral, far-flung

► n

3 (archery)

A the white outermost ring on a target

B a shot that hits this ring outermost adj furthest from the centre or middle outer space n space beyond the atmosphere of the earth outface vb -facing, -faced to subdue or disconcert (someone) by staring outfield n

1 (cricket) the area of the field far from the pitch

2 (baseball) the area of the playing field beyond the lines connecting first, second, and third bases > outfielder n

outfit n

1 a set of clothes worn together

◇ SYNONYMS: costume, dress, clothes, clothing, suit, get-up (informal), kit, ensemble

2 (informal) a group of people working together as a unit

◇ SYNONYMS: group, company, team, party, unit, crowd, squad, organization

3 a set of equipment for a particular task; kit: a complete anti-snakebite outfit

outfitter n (old-fashioned) a shop or person that sells men's clothes outflank vb

1 to go around and beyond the side of (an enemy army)

2 to get the better of (someone) outgoing adj

1 leaving: some members of the outgoing government continued to attend the peace talks

◇ SYNONYMS: leaving, former, previous, retiring, withdrawing, prior, departing, erstwhile

2 friendly and sociable

◇ SYNONYMS: sociable, open, social, warm, friendly, expansive, affable, extrovert outgoings pl n expenses

◇ SYNONYMS: expenses, costs, payments, expenditure, overheads, outlay outgrow vb -growing, -grew, -grown

1 to grow too large for (clothes or shoes): it's amazing how quickly children outgrow their clothes

2 to lose (a way of behaving or thinking) in the course of becoming more mature: most teenagers outgrow their moodiness as they near adulthood

3 to grow larger or faster than (someone or something): the weeds threatened to outgrow and choke the rice plants

outgrowth n

1 a natural development or consequence: he argued that religion was an outgrowth of magic

2 a thing growing out of a main body; offshoot outhouse n a building near to, but separate from, a main building outing n

1 a trip or excursion

◇ SYNONYMS: journey, run, trip, tour, expedition, excursion, spin (informal), jaunt

2 (informal) the naming of people as being not heterosexual, often against their will outlandish adj extremely unconventional; bizarre outlaw n

1 (history) a criminal who has been deprived of legal protection and rights

◇ SYNONYMS: bandit, criminal, thief, robber, fugitive, outcast, felon, highwayman or woman

► vb

2 to make (something) illegal: racial discrimination was formally outlawed

◇ SYNONYMS: ban, bar, veto, forbid, exclude, prohibit, disallow, proscribe

3 (history) to make (someone) an outlaw

◇ SYNONYMS: banish, put a price on (someone's) head > outlawed adj outlay n the money, effort, or time spent on something outlet n

1 a means of expressing one's feelings: the shock would give her an outlet for her own grief

◇ SYNONYMS: channel, release, medium, avenue, vent, conduit

2

A a market for a product: there is a huge sales outlet for personal computers

B a shop or organization selling the goods of a particular producer or wholesaler or manufacturer: her own brand is now sold to outlets throughout the world

◇ SYNONYMS: shop, store, supermarket, market, boutique, emporium (old- fashioned), hypermarket

3 an opening permitting escape or release: make sure the exhaust outlet is not blocked

◇ SYNONYMS: pipe, opening, channel, exit, duct outline n

1 a general explanation or description of something, which does not give all the details: the course gave a brief outline of twentieth-century music

◇ SYNONYMS: summary, review, résumé, rundown, synopsis, précis, thumbnail sketch, recapitulation

2 outlines the important features of something: the outlines of his theory are correct, we just need to fill in the details

3 the general shape of something, esp. when only the profile and not the details are visible: it was still light enough to see the outline of the distant mountains

◇ SYNONYMS: shape, lines, form, figure, profile, silhouette, configuration, contour(s)

4 a drawing showing only the external lines of an object

► vb -lining, -lined

5 to give the main features or general idea of (something): I outlined what we had done and what we had still to do

◇ SYNONYMS: summarize, draft, plan, trace, sketch (in), sum up, encapsulate, delineate

6 to show the general shape of an object but not its details, as light does coming from behind an object: we could see the towers of the city outlined against the night sky

◇ SYNONYMS: silhouette, etch outlook n

1 a general attitude to life: my whole outlook on life had changed

◇ SYNONYMS: attitude, opinion, position, approach, mood, perspective, point of view, stance

2 the probable condition or outcome of something: the economic outlook is not good

◇ SYNONYMS: prospect(s), future, expectations, forecast, prediction, probability, prognosis

3 the weather forecast for the next few days: the outlook for the weekend

4 the view from a place: a dreary outlook of chimneys and smoke outlying adj far away from the main area outmanoeuvre or (US) outmaneuver vb -vring, -vred or -vering, -vered to gain an advantage over (someone) by skilful dealing: the management outmanoeuvred us into accepting redundancies outmoded adj no longer fashionable or accepted outnumber vb to exceed in number: they were outnumbered by fifty to one out-of-date adj, adv old-fashioned; outmoded outpatient n a patient who visits a hospital for treatment but does not stay there overnight outpost n a small settlement in a distant part of the country or in a foreign country, which is used for military or trading purposes outpouring n

1 a great amount of something that is produced very rapidly: a prolific outpouring of ideas and energy

2 a passionate outburst: the hysterical outpourings of fanatics output n

1 the amount of something that is made or produced: our weekly output has increased by 240 tonnes

◇ SYNONYMS: production, manufacture, manufacturing, yield, productivity

2 (electronics) the power, voltage, or current delivered by a circuit or component

3 (computers) the information produced by a computer

► vb -putting, -putted or -put

4 (computers) to produce (data) at the end of a process outrage n

1 deep indignation, anger, or resentment: she felt a sense of outrage that he should abandon her like that

◇ SYNONYMS: indignation, shock, anger, rage, fury, hurt, resentment, scorn

2 an extremely vicious or cruel act; gross violation of decency, morality, or honour: there have been reports of another bombing outrage in the capital

► vb -raging, -raged

3 to cause deep indignation, anger, or resentment in (someone): they were outraged by the news of the assassination

◇ SYNONYMS: offend, shock, upset, wound, insult, infuriate, incense, madden outrageous adj

1 unusual and shocking: his sense of humour made him say and do the most outrageous things

◇ SYNONYMS: atrocious, shocking, terrible, offensive, appalling, cruel, savage, horrifying

2 shocking and socially or morally unacceptable: I will fight these outrageous accusations of corruption in the courts if necessary

◇ SYNONYMS: unreasonable, unfair, steep (informal), shocking, extravagant, scandalous, preposterous, unwarranted > outrageously adv

outré (oo-tray) adj eccentric and rather shocking outrider n a person who rides a motorcycle or horse in front of or beside an official vehicle as an attendant or guard outrigger n

1 a stabilizing framework projecting from the side of a boat or canoe

2 a boat or canoe equipped with such a framework outright adj

1 complete; total: he is close to an outright victory

◇ SYNONYMS: absolute, complete, total, perfect, sheer, thorough, unconditional, unqualified

2 straightforward and direct: outright hostility

◇ SYNONYMS: definite, clear, certain, flat, absolute, black-and-white, straightforward, unequivocal

► adv

3 completely: the film was banned outright

◇ SYNONYMS: absolutely, completely, totally, fully, entirely, thoroughly, wholly, utterly

4 instantly: my driver was killed outright

5 openly: ask her outright why she treated you as she did

◇ SYNONYMS: openly, frankly, plainly, overtly, candidly, unreservedly, unhesitatingly, forthrightly outrun vb -running, -ran, -run

1 to run faster or further than (someone)

2 to develop faster than (something): the population of the city is in danger of outrunning the supply of houses outset n a start; beginning: we never really hit it off from the outset

◇ SYNONYMS: beginning, start, opening, onset, inauguration, inception, commencement, kickoff (informal) outshine vb -shining, -shone to be better than (someone) at something: by university she had begun to outshine me in sports

outside prep

1 on or to the exterior of: a crowd gathered outside the court

2 beyond the limits of: it was outside my experience and beyond my ability

3 apart from; other than: no-one knows outside us

► adj

4 on or of the outside: an outside light is also a good idea

◇ SYNONYMS: external, outer, exterior, outward, extraneous

5 remote; unlikely: I still had an outside chance of the title

◇ SYNONYMS: remote, small, unlikely, slight, slim, distant, faint, marginal

6 coming from outside a particular group or organization: the patient had been subjected to outside influences

7 of or being the lane in a road which is further from the side than other lanes going in the same direction: he was doing 120 in the outside lane

► adv

8 outside a thing or place; out of doors: we went outside to get some fresh air

◇ SYNONYMS: outdoors, out of the house, out-of-doors

9 (slang) not in prison

► n

10 the external side or surface of something

◇ SYNONYMS: exterior, face, front, covering, skin, surface, shell, coating

11 at the outside (informal) at the very most: I'll be away four days at the outside outsider n

1 a person excluded from a group

◇ SYNONYMS: stranger, incomer, visitor, newcomer, intruder, interloper, odd one out

2 a contestant thought unlikely to win outsize adj

1 Also: outsized very large or larger than normal

► n

2 an outsize garment outskirts pl n the parts of a town or city that are furthest from the centre: an office in the northernmost outskirts of Glasgow

◇ SYNONYMS: edge, boundary, suburbs, fringe, perimeter, periphery, suburbia, environs outsmart vb same as outwit outspan (S African) n

1 an area on a farm kept available for travellers to rest and refresh their animals

► vb -spanning, -spanned

2 to unharness or unyoke (animals)

3 to relax

◇ SYNONYMS: relax, chill out (slang), take it easy, loosen up, put your feet up outspoken adj

1 saying exactly what one thinks: an outspoken critic of human rights abuses

◇ SYNONYMS: forthright, open, frank, straightforward, blunt, explicit, upfront (informal), unequivocal

2 spoken candidly: she is known for her outspoken views

◇ SYNONYMS: forthright, open, frank, straightforward, blunt, explicit, upfront (informal), unequivocal

> outspokenness n

outstanding adj

1 very good; excellent: an outstanding performance

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, good, great (informal), important, special, fine, brilliant, impressive, booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal)

2 still to be dealt with or paid: outstanding bills; a few outstanding problems have to be put right

◇ SYNONYMS: unpaid, remaining, due, pending, payable, unsettled, uncollected

3 very obvious or important: there are significant exceptions, of which oil is the outstanding example

> outstandingly adv

outstrip vb -stripping, -stripped

1 to surpass (someone) in a particular activity: his newspapers outstrip all others in vulgarity

2 to go faster than (someone) outtake n an unreleased take from a recording session, film, or television programme outward adj

1 apparent or superficial: to outward appearances the house is largely unchanged today

◇ SYNONYMS: apparent, seeming, surface, ostensible

2 of or relating to the outside: outward shape

3 (of a journey) away from a place to which one intends to return

► adv also outwards

4 in an outward direction; towards the outside > outwardly adv

outweigh vb

1 to be more important, significant, or influential than: these niggles are outweighed by the excellent cooking and service

◇ SYNONYMS: override, cancel (out), eclipse, offset, compensate for, supersede, neutralize, counterbalance

2 to be heavier than outwit vb -witting, -witted to gain an advantage over (someone) by cunning or ingenuity ouzel or ousel (ooze-el) n same as dipper ova n the plural of ovum oval adj

1 egg-shaped

◇ SYNONYMS: elliptical, egg-shaped, ovoid

► n

2 anything that is oval in shape, such as a sports ground ovary n, pl -ries

1 a reproductive organ in women and female animals in which eggs are produced

2 (botany) the lower part of a pistil, containing the ovules > ovarian adj

ovation n an enthusiastic round of applause

◇ SYNONYMS: applause, hand, cheers, praise, tribute, acclaim, clapping, accolade oven n

1 an enclosed heated compartment or container for baking or roasting food, or for drying or firing ceramics

► vb

2 to cook in an oven over prep

1 directly above; across the top or upper surface of: set the frying pan over a low heat

◇ SYNONYMS: above, on top of

2 on or to the other side of: the pilot flew over the Channel

◇ SYNONYMS: across, (looking) onto

3 during or throughout (a period of time): over the next few months it became clear what was happening

4 throughout the whole extent of: the effects are being felt all over the country now

5 by means of (an instrument of telecommunication): there was an announcement over the Tannoy system

6 more than: she had met him over a year ago

◇ SYNONYMS: more than, above, exceeding, in excess of, upwards of 7 concerning; about: there has been much argument over these figures

◇ SYNONYMS: about, regarding, relating to, concerning, apropos of 8 while occupied in: I'll tell you over dinner tonight

9 having recovered from the effects of: he appeared to be over his niggling injury problems

10 all over someone (informal) extremely affectionate or attentive towards someone 11 over and above added to; in addition to

► adv

12 in a state, condition, or position over something: to climb over

13 onto its side: the jug toppled over

14 at or to a point across an intervening space: she carried him over to the other side of the river

15 covering the whole area: there's poverty the world over

16 from beginning to end: to read a document over

17 all over

A finished

B over one's entire body

C typically: that's him all over

18 over again once more

19 over and over (again) repeatedly

► interj

20 (in signalling and radio) it is now your turn to speak

► adj

21 finished; no longer in progress: the second round of voting is over

◇ SYNONYMS: finished, done (with), through, ended, closed, past, completed, complete

► adj, adv

22 remaining: there wasn't any money left over

◇ SYNONYMS: extra, more, further, beyond, additional, in addition, surplus, in excess

► n

23 (cricket)

A a series of six balls bowled by a bowler from the same end of the pitch

B the play during this over- prefix

1 excessive or excessively: overcharge; overdue

2 superior in rank: overlord

3 indicating location or movement above: overhang

4 indicating movement downwards: overthrow overall adj

1 from one end to the other: the overall length

2 including everything; total: the overall cost

◇ SYNONYMS: total, full, whole, general, complete, entire, global, comprehensive

► adv

3 in general; on the whole: overall, I think this is the better car

◇ SYNONYMS: in general, generally, mostly, all things considered, on average, on the whole, predominantly, in the main

► n

4 (Brit & NZ) a coat-shaped work garment worn over ordinary clothes as a protection against dirt

5 overalls work trousers with a bib and braces or jacket attached, worn over ordinary clothes as a protection against dirt and wear

overarm (sport) adj

1 bowled, thrown, or performed with the arm raised above the shoulder

► adv

2 with the arm raised above the shoulder overawe vb -awing, -awed to affect (someone) with an overpowering sense of awe: he was overawed by the prospect of meeting the Prime Minister

overbalance vb -lancing, -lanced to lose one's balance overbearing adj

1 imposing one's views in an unpleasant or forceful manner

2 of particular or overriding importance: an overbearing need overblown adj inflated or excessive: humiliation comes from having overblown expectations for yourself

overboard adv

1 from a boat or ship into the water: many passengers drowned when they jumped overboard to escape the flames

2 go overboard (informal)

A to be extremely enthusiastic

B to go to extremes

3 throw overboard to reject or abandon (an idea or a plan) overcast adj (of the sky or weather) cloudy overcoat n a warm heavy coat worn in cold weather overcome vb -coming, -came, -come

1 to deal successfully with or control (a problem or feeling): once I'd overcome my initial nerves I discovered hang-gliding was great fun

◇ SYNONYMS: conquer, beat, master, subdue, triumph over, vanquish (literary)

2 (of an emotion or a feeling) to affect (someone) strongly or make (someone) powerless: he was overcome by a sudden surge of jealousy

3 to defeat (someone) in a conflict

◇ SYNONYMS: defeat, beat, conquer, master, overwhelm, subdue, rout, overpower overcrowded adj containing more people or things than is desirable: overcrowded commuter trains overdo vb -does, -doing, -did, -done

1 to do (something) to excess

2 to exaggerate (something)

3 to cook (something) too long

4 overdo it or things to do something to a greater degree than is advisable or healthy overdose n

1 a larger dose of a drug than is safe: she tried to kill herself with an overdose of alcohol and drugs

► vb -dosing, -dosed

2 to take more of a drug than is safe, either accidentally or deliberately: this drug is rarely prescribed because it is easy to overdose fatally on it

overdraft n

1 the withdrawal of more money from a bank account than there is in it

2 the amount of money withdrawn thus overdraw vb -drawing, -drew, -drawn to withdraw more money from a bank account than is in it overdrawn adj

1 having overdrawn one's bank account

2 (of an account) in debit overdrive n

1 a very high gear in a motor vehicle, used at high speeds to reduce wear

2 a state of great activity or excitement: the government propaganda machine went into overdrive to try to play down the Minister's comments

overdue adj

1 not having arrived or happened by the time expected or desired: a reassessment of policy on this issue is long overdue

◇ SYNONYMS: delayed, belated, late, behind schedule, tardy, unpunctual, behindhand

2 (of money) not having been paid by the required date: by this time his rent was three weeks overdue

◇ SYNONYMS: unpaid, owing

3 (of a library book) not having been returned to the library by the required date overgrown adj covered over with plants or weeds: they headed up the overgrown and winding trail

overhaul vb

1 to examine (a system or an idea) carefully for faults

◇ SYNONYMS: check, service, maintain, examine, restore, tune (up), repair, go over

2 to make repairs or adjustments to (a vehicle or machine)

◇ SYNONYMS: check, service, maintain, examine, restore, tune (up), repair, go over

3 to overtake (a vehicle or person)

◇ SYNONYMS: overtake, pass, leave behind, catch up with, get past, outstrip, get ahead of, outdistance

► n

4 a thorough examination and repair

◇ SYNONYMS: check, service, examination, going-over (informal), inspection, once-over (informal), checkup, reconditioning overhead adj

1 situated or operating above head height: overhead compartments

◇ SYNONYMS: raised, suspended, elevated, aerial, overhanging

► adv

2 over or above head height: the missile streaked overhead

◇ SYNONYMS: above, in the sky, on high, aloft, up above overheads pl n the general costs of running a business, such as rent, electricity, and stationery

◇ SYNONYMS: running costs, expenses, outgoings, operating costs overhear vb -hearing, -heard to hear (a speaker or remark) unintentionally or without the knowledge of the speaker overjoyed adj extremely pleased overkill n any treatment that is greater than that required: the overkill in negative propaganda resulted in this upsurge

overland adj, adv by land overlap vb -lapping, -lapped

1 (of two things) to share part of the same space as or lie partly over (each other): slice the meat and lay it in overlapping slices in a serving dish

2 to coincide partly in time or subject: their careers have overlapped for the last ten years

► n

3 a part that overlaps

4 the amount or length of something overlapping overleaf adv on the other side of the page overlook vb

1 to fail to notice (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: miss, forget, neglect, omit, disregard, pass over

2 to disregard or ignore (misbehaviour or a fault): I'm prepared to overlook your failure, but don't do it again

◇ SYNONYMS: ignore, excuse, forgive, pardon, disregard, condone, turn a blind eye to, wink at 3 to give a view of (something) from above: a cliff overlooking the Atlantic

◇ SYNONYMS: look over or out on, have a view of overly adv too; excessively overnight adv

1 during the night

2 in or as if in the course of one night; suddenly: we are not saying that a change like this would happen overnight

► adj

3 done in, occurring in, or lasting the night: the army has ordered an overnight curfew

4 staying for one night: overnight guests

5 for use during a single night: should I pack an overnight case?

6 happening very quickly; sudden: he doesn't expect the programme to be an overnight success overpower vb

1 to conquer or subdue (someone) by superior force

◇ SYNONYMS: overcome, master, overwhelm, overthrow, subdue, quell, subjugate, prevail over

2 to have such a strong effect on (someone) as to make him or her helpless or ineffective: I was so appalled, so overpowered by my guilt and my shame that I was unable to speak

◇ SYNONYMS: overwhelm, overcome, bowl over (informal), stagger > overpowering adj

overreach vb overreach oneself to fail by trying to be too clever or achieve too much: he built up a successful media empire before he overreached himself and lost much of his fortune

override vb -riding, -rode, -ridden

1 to set aside or disregard (a person or a person's decisions) by having superior authority or power: the managing director can override any decision he doesn't like

◇ SYNONYMS: overrule, cancel, overturn, repeal, rescind, annul, nullify, countermand

2 to be more important than or replace (something): unsurprisingly the day-to-day struggle for survival overrode all moral considerations

◇ SYNONYMS: outweigh, eclipse, supersede, take precedence over, prevail over > overriding adj

overrule vb -ruling, -ruled

1 to reverse the decision of (a person or organization with less power): the President overruled the hardliners in the party who wanted to use force

2 to rule or decide against (an argument or decision): the initial judgment was overruled by the Supreme Court

overrun vb -running, -ran, -run

1 to conquer (territory) rapidly by force of numbers

◇ SYNONYMS: overwhelm, attack, assault, occupy, raid, invade, penetrate, rout

2 to spread over (a place) rapidly: dirty tenements, overrun by lice, rats, and roaches

◇ SYNONYMS: spread over, overwhelm, choke, swamp, infest, inundate, permeate, swarm over

3 to extend or run beyond a set limit: Tuesday's lunch overran by three-quarters of an hour

◇ SYNONYMS: exceed, go beyond, surpass, overshoot, run over or on overseas adv

1 across the sea; abroad

► adj

2 of, to, from, or in a distant country or countries

► n

3 (informal) a foreign country or foreign countries collectively oversee vb -seeing, -saw, -seen to watch over and direct (someone or something); supervise > overseer n

overshadow vb

1 to make (someone or something) seem insignificant or less important by comparison

◇ SYNONYMS: outshine, eclipse, surpass, dwarf, tower above, leave or put in the shade

2 to sadden the atmosphere of: news of their team-mate's injury overshadowed the victory celebrations

◇ SYNONYMS: spoil, ruin, mar, wreck, blight, crool or cruel (Austral slang), mess up, put a damper on oversight n a mistake caused by not noticing something overspill n (Brit) the rehousing of people from crowded cities in smaller towns overstay vb overstay one's welcome to stay as a guest longer than one's host or hostess would like overstayer n a person who remains in a country after his or her permit has expired overt adj done or shown in an open and obvious way: jurors were now looking at the defendant with overt hostility

◇ SYNONYMS: open, obvious, plain, public, manifest, blatant, observable, undisguised > overtly adv

overtake vb -taking, -took, -taken

1 (chiefly Brit) to move past (another vehicle or person) travelling in the same direction

◇ SYNONYMS: pass, leave behind, overhaul, catch up with, get past, outdistance, go by or past

2 to do better than (someone) after catching up with him or her

◇ SYNONYMS: outdo, top, exceed, eclipse, surpass, outstrip, get the better of, outclass

3 to come upon (someone) suddenly or unexpectedly: a mortal tiredness overtook him

◇ SYNONYMS: befall (archaic, literary), hit, happen to, catch off guard, catch unawares overthink vb -thinking, -thought to think about (something) for longer than is necessary or productive overthrow vb -throwing, -threw, -thrown

1 to defeat and replace (a ruler or government) by force

◇ SYNONYMS: defeat, overcome, conquer, bring down, oust, topple, rout, overpower

2 to replace (standards or values)

► n

3 downfall or destruction: the overthrow of the US-backed dictatorship

◇ SYNONYMS: downfall, fall, defeat, collapse, destruction, ousting, undoing, unseating overtime n

1 work at a regular job done in addition to regular working hours

2 pay for such work

► adv

3 in addition to one's regular working hours: she had been working overtime and she fell asleep at the wheel

overtone n

1 an additional meaning or hint: I don't want to deny that from time to time there are political overtones

2 (music, acoustics) any of the tones, with the exception of the principal or lowest one, that make up a musical sound overture n

1 (music)

A a piece of orchestral music played at the beginning of an opera, oratorio, ballet, musical comedy, or film, often containing the main musical themes of the work

B a one-movement orchestral piece, usually having a descriptive or evocative title: the 1812 Overture

2 overtures opening moves towards a new relationship or agreement: the German government made a variety of friendly overtures towards the French overturn vb

1 to turn over or upside down

◇ SYNONYMS: tip over, topple, upturn, capsize, upend, keel over, overbalance 2 to overrule or reverse (a legal decision)

◇ SYNONYMS: reverse, change, cancel, abolish, overthrow, set aside, repeal, quash

3 to overthrow or destroy (a government)

◇ SYNONYMS: overthrow, defeat, destroy, overcome, bring down, oust, topple, depose overweight adj

1 (of a person) weighing more than is healthy

◇ SYNONYMS: fat, heavy, stout, hefty, plump, bulky, chunky, chubby

2 weighing more than is usual or permitted overwhelm vb

1 to overpower the thoughts, emotions, or senses of (someone): we were overwhelmed with grief

◇ SYNONYMS: overcome, devastate (informal), stagger, bowl over (informal), knock (someone) for six (informal), sweep (someone) off their feet, take (someone's) breath away

2 to overcome (people) with irresistible force: gang violence has overwhelmed an ailing police force

◇ SYNONYMS: destroy, defeat, overcome, crush, massacre, conquer, wipe out, overthrow > overwhelming adj

> overwhelmingly adv

overwrought adj tense, nervous, and agitated ovoid (oh-void) adj egg-shaped ovulate (ov-yew-late) vb -lating, -lated (biol) to produce or release eggs from an ovary > ovulation n

ovum (oh-vum) n, pl ova an unfertilized female egg cell owe vb owing, owed

1 to be under an obligation to pay an amount of money to (someone): he owes me a lot of money

◇ SYNONYMS: be in debt (to), be in arrears (to), be overdrawn (by), be obligated or indebted (to)

2 to feel an obligation to do or give: I think I owe you an apology

3 owe something to to have something as a result of: many serving officers owe their present position to the former president owl n a bird of prey which has a flat face, large eyes, and a small hooked beak, and which is active at night

> owlish adj

own adj (preceded by a possessive)

1 used to emphasize that something belongs to a particular person: rely on your own instincts

◇ SYNONYMS: personal, special, private, individual, particular, exclusive

► pron (preceded by a possessive)

2 the one or ones belonging to a particular person: I had one of my own

3 the people that someone feels loyalty to, esp. relations: we all look after our own around here

4 come into one's own to fulfil one's potential

5 hold one's own to have the necessary ability to deal successfully with a situation: he chose a partner who could hold her own with the best

6 on one's own

A without help: you'll never manage to lift that on your own

B by oneself; alone: he lives on his own in a flat in town

► vb

7 to have (something) as one's possession: he owns homes in four countries

◇ SYNONYMS: possess, have, keep, hold, enjoy, retain, be in possession of, have to your name

8 Also: own up to to confess or admit: I own I could not bear to think of it; I thought she was going to own up to an affair

> owner n

> ownership n

ox n, pl oxen a castrated bull used for pulling heavy loads and for meat

Oxbridge n (Brit) the universities of Oxford and Cambridge considered together

Oxfam Oxford Committee for Famine Relief oxide n (chem) a compound of oxygen with another element oxidize or -dise vb -dizing, -dized or -dising, -dised to react chemically with oxygen, as in burning or rusting > oxidization or -disation n oxygen n (chem) a colourless, odourless gaseous element essential to life processes and to combustion. SYMBOL: O

oxygenate vb -nating, -nated to add oxygen to: to oxygenate blood oxymoron (ox-see-more-on) n a figure of speech that combines two apparently contradictory terms, for example cruel kindness

oyez or oyes interj a cry usually uttered three times by a public crier or court official calling for silence and attention oyster n

1 an edible shellfish, some types of which produce pearls

2 the world is your oyster you are in a position where there is every possible chance of personal advancement and satisfaction

► adj

3 greyish-white oystercatcher n a wading bird with black-and-white plumage and a long stout red bill

OZ or OZ. ounce

Oz n (slang) Australia

ozone n

1 a form of oxygen with a strong odour, formed by an electric discharge in the atmosphere

2 (informal) clean bracing air, as found at the seaside ozone layer n a layer of ozone in the upper atmosphere that absorbs harmful ultraviolet rays from the sun

Pp

p or P n, pl p's, P's or Ps

1 the 16th letter of the English alphabet

2 mind one's p's and q's to be careful to behave correctly and use polite language

p

1 (Brit & Austral & NZ) penny

2 (Brit) pence

P

1 (chem) phosphorus

2 (on road signs) parking

3 (chess) pawn

p.

1 pl pp. page

2 per pa¹ n (informal) father pa² n (NZ) (formerly) a fortified Māori settlement

PA

1 Pennsylvania

2 personal assistant

3 public-address system p.a. yearly pace n

1

A a single step in walking

◇ SYNONYMS: footstep, step, stride

B the length of a step

2 speed of walking or running

3 speed of doing some other activity: efforts to accelerate the pace of change are unlikely to succeed

◇ SYNONYMS: speed, rate, tempo, velocity

4 manner of walking

◇ SYNONYMS: step, walk, stride, tread, gait

5 keep pace with to advance at the same speed as 6 put someone through his or her paces to test someone's ability

7 set the pace to determine the speed at which a group advances

► vb pacing, paced

8 to walk with regular steps, often in anxiety or impatience: he paced up and down the foyer impatiently

◇ SYNONYMS: stride, walk, pound, patrol, march up and down

9 to set the speed for (the competitors) in a race

10 pace out to measure by paces pacemaker n

1 an electronic device positioned in the body, next to the heart, to regulate the heartbeat

2 a competitor who, by leading a race, causes it to be run at a particular speed pachyderm (pak-ee-durm) n a large thick-skinned mammal, such as an elephant or rhinoceros pacifist n a person who is totally opposed to violence and refuses to take part in war > pacifism n

pacify vb -fies, -fying, -fied to soothe or calm > pacification n

pack n

1 a bundle or load carried on the back

◇ SYNONYMS: bundle, parcel, load, burden, rucksack, knapsack, back pack, kitbag

2 (Brit & NZ) a complete set of playing cards

3 a group of animals that hunt together: a pack of hounds

4 any collection of people or things: a pack of lies

◇ SYNONYMS: group, crowd, company, band, troop, gang, bunch (informal), mob

5 (chiefly US & Canad) same as packet

◇ SYNONYMS: packet, box, package, carton

► vb

6 to put (articles) in a case or container for moving

◇ SYNONYMS: package, load, store, bundle, stow

7 to roll (articles) up into a bundle

8 to press tightly together; cram: thousands of people packed into the city's main square

◇ SYNONYMS: cram, crowd, press, fill, stuff, jam, ram, compress

9 (foll. by off) to send away hastily: their young son came in to say good night and was packed off to bed

◇ SYNONYMS pack someone off: send away, dismiss, send packing (informal)

► See also pack in package n

1 a small parcel

◇ SYNONYMS: parcel, box, container, packet, carton

2 Also: package deal a deal in which separate items are presented together as a unit

◇ SYNONYMS: collection, lot, unit, combination, compilation

3 (US & Canad) same as packet

► vb -aging, -aged

4 to put (something) into a package

◇ SYNONYMS: pack, box, parcel (up) > packaging n

package holiday n a holiday in which everything is arranged by one company for a fixed price packet n

1 a container, together with its contents: a packet of crisps

◇ SYNONYMS: container, box, package, carton

2 a small parcel

◇ SYNONYMS: package, parcel

3 Also: packet boat a boat that transports mail, passengers, or goods on a fixed short route

4 (slang) a large sum of money: she was paid a packet

◇ SYNONYMS: a fortune, a bomb (Brit slang), a pile (informal), a small fortune, a tidy sum (informal), a king's ransom (informal), top whack (informal)

5 (computers) a unit into which a larger piece of data is broken down for more efficient transmission packhorse n a horse used to carry goods pack ice n a large area of floating ice, consisting of pieces that have become massed together pack in vb (informal) to stop doing (something): I'm going to pack it in and resign

◇ SYNONYMS pack something in: stop, give up, kick (informal), cease, chuck (informal) pact n a formal agreement between two or more parties

◇ SYNONYMS: agreement, alliance, treaty, deal (informal), understanding, bargain, covenant pad¹ n

1 a thick piece of soft material used for comfort, shape, protection, or absorption

◇ SYNONYMS: wad, dressing, pack, padding, compress, wadding

2 a number of sheets of paper fastened together along one edge

◇ SYNONYMS: notepad, block, notebook, jotter, writing pad

3 the fleshy cushioned underpart of an animal's paw

◇ SYNONYMS: paw, foot, sole

4 a level area or flat-topped structure, from which rockets are launched or helicopters take off

5 (informal) a person's residence

◇ SYNONYMS: home, flat, apartment (chiefly US), place, bachelor apartment (Canad)

► vb padding, padded

6 to fill (something) out with soft material for comfort, shape, or protection

◇ SYNONYMS: pack, fill, protect, stuff, cushion

7 pad out to lengthen (a speech or piece of writing) with unnecessary words or pieces of information pad² vb padding, padded to walk with a soft or muffled step ◇ SYNONYMS: sneak, creep, steal, go barefoot padding n

1 any soft material used to pad something

◇ SYNONYMS: filling, stuffing, packing, wadding

2 unnecessary information put into a speech or written work to make it longer ◇ SYNONYMS: waffle (informal, chiefly Brit), hot air (informal), verbiage, wordiness, verbosity paddle¹ n

1 a short light oar with a flat blade at one or both ends

◇ SYNONYMS: oar, scull

2 a paddle wheel used to move a boat

3 a blade of a water wheel or paddle wheel

► vb -dling, -dled

4 to move (a boat) with a paddle

◇ SYNONYMS: row, pull, scull

5 to swim with short rapid strokes, like a dog

6 (US & Canad informal) to spank paddle² vb -dling, -dled

1 to walk barefoot in shallow water

- ◇ SYNONYMS: wade, splash (about), slop 2 to dabble (one's fingers, hands, or feet) in water
► n
3 the act of paddling in water paddle steamer n a ship propelled by paddle wheels turned by a steam engine paddle wheel n a large wheel fitted with paddles, turned by an engine to propel a ship paddock n

- 1 a small enclosed field for horses 2 (in horse racing) the enclosure in which horses are paraded and mounted before a race 3 (Austral & NZ) any area of fenced land paddy¹ n, pl -dies

- 1 Also: paddy field a field planted with rice 2 rice as a growing crop or when harvested but not yet milled paddy² n, pl -dies (Brit & NZ informal) a fit of temper pademelon or paddymelon (pad-ee-mel-an) n a small Australian wallaby padlock n

- 1 a detachable lock with a hinged hoop fastened through a ring on the object to be secured
► vb
2 to fasten (something) with a padlock padre (pah-dray) n (informal) a chaplain to the armed forces paean (pee-an) n (literary) an expression of praise or joy paediatrician or (US) pediatrician n a doctor who specializes in children's diseases paediatrics or (US) pediatrics n the branch of medicine concerned with children and their diseases > paediatric or (US) pediatric adj paedophile or (US) pedophile n a person who is sexually attracted to children paedophilia or (US) pedophilia n the condition of being sexually attracted to children paella (pie-ell-a) n a Spanish dish made from rice, shellfish, chicken, and vegetables pagan adj

1 having, being, or relating to religious beliefs, esp. ancient ones, which are not part of any of the world's major religions: this was the site of a pagan temple to the sun

◇ SYNONYMS: heathen, infidel, polytheistic, idolatrous

2 irreligious

◇ SYNONYMS: heathen, infidel, polytheistic, idolatrous

► n

3 a person who does not belong to any of the world's major religions

◇ SYNONYMS: heathen (old-fashioned), infidel, polytheist, idolater

4 a person without any religion

◇ SYNONYMS: heathen (old-fashioned), infidel, polytheist, idolater > paganism n

page¹ n

1 one side of one of the leaves of a book, newspaper, or magazine

◇ SYNONYMS: folio, side, leaf, sheet

2 one of the leaves of a book, newspaper, or magazine

◇ SYNONYMS: folio, side, leaf, sheet

3 (literary) a period or event: a new page in the country's political history

4 a screenful of information from a website or teletext service page² n

1 a small boy who attends a bride at a wedding

◇ SYNONYMS: servant, attendant, squire, pageboy

2 a youth employed to run errands for the guests in a hotel or club

◇ SYNONYMS: attendant, pageboy

3 (medieval history) a boy in training for knighthood

► vb paging, paged

4 to summon (a person), by bleeper or loudspeaker, in order to pass on a message

◇ SYNONYMS: call, summon, send for pageant n

1 an outdoor show portraying scenes from history

2 any magnificent display or procession pageantry n spectacular display or ceremony pageboy n

1 a hairstyle in which the hair is smooth and the same medium length with the ends curled under

2 same as page

pagination n the numbering in sequence of the pages of a book or manuscript > paginate vb

pagoda n a pyramid-shaped Asian temple or tower paid vb

1 past of pay

2 put paid to to end or destroy: a knee injury put paid to his promising sporting career

pail n

1 a bucket

2 Also called: pailful the amount contained in a pail: a pail of water pain n

1 physical hurt or discomfort caused by injury or illness

◇ SYNONYMS: suffering, discomfort, hurt, irritation, tenderness, soreness

2 emotional suffering

◇ SYNONYMS: sorrow, suffering, torture, distress, despair, misery, agony, sadness

3 Also called: pain in the neck (informal) a person or thing that is annoying or irritating

4 on pain of subject to the penalty of: orders which their soldiers were bound to follow on pain of death

► vb

5 to cause (a person) physical or mental suffering

◇ SYNONYMS: distress, hurt, torture, grieve, torment, sadden, agonize, cut to the quick

6 (informal) to annoy; irritate > painless adj

painful adj

1 causing pain or distress: painful inflammation of the joints; he began the painful task of making funeral arrangements

◇ SYNONYMS: distressing, unpleasant, grievous, distasteful, agonizing, disagreeable

2 affected with pain: the symptoms include fever and painful joints

◇ SYNONYMS: sore, smarting, aching, tender

3 tedious or difficult: the hours passed with painful slowness

◇ SYNONYMS: difficult, arduous, trying, hard, troublesome, laborious

4 (informal) extremely bad: a painful so-called comedy > painfully adv

painkiller n a drug that relieves pain painstaking adj extremely careful and thorough > painstakingly adv

paint n

1 a coloured substance, spread on a surface with a brush or a roller, that forms a hard coating

◇ SYNONYMS: colouring, colour, stain, dye, tint, pigment, emulsion

2 a dry film of paint on a surface

3 (informal) face make-up

► vb

4 to apply paint to paper or canvas to make a picture of ◇ SYNONYMS: depict, draw, portray, picture, represent, sketch

5 to coat (a surface) with paint

◇ SYNONYMS: colour, cover, coat, stain, whitewash, daub, distemper, apply paint to 6 to describe vividly in words: the survey paints a dismal picture of growing hunger and disease

7 to apply make-up to (the face)

8 to apply (liquid) to (a surface): paint the varnish on and leave it to dry for at least four hours

9 paint the town red (informal) to celebrate in a lively way painter n

1 an artist who paints pictures

2 a person who paints surfaces of buildings as a trade painting n

- 1 a picture produced by using paint
- 2 the art of producing pictures by applying paints to paper or canvas
- 3 the act of applying paint to a surface pair n

- 1 two identical or similar things matched for use together: a pair of shoes ◇ SYNONYMS: set
- 2 two people, animals, or things used or grouped together: a pair of tickets ◇ SYNONYMS: couple, brace, duo
- 3 an object consisting of two identical or similar parts joined together: a pair of jeans
- 4 a male and a female animal of the same species kept for breeding purposes
- 5 (parliament) two opposed members who both agree not to vote on a specified motion
- 6 two playing cards of the same denomination
- 7 one member of a matching pair: I can't find the pair to this glove
► vb
- 8 to group (people or things) in twos ◇ SYNONYMS: team, match (up), join, couple, twin, bracket
- 9 pair off to separate into groups of two paisley pattern or paisley n a detailed pattern of small curving shapes, used in fabric pajamas pl n (US) pyjamas pakeha (pah-kee-hah) n, pl pakeha or pakehas (NZ) a person of European descent, as distinct from a Māori

Pakistani adj

- 1 of Pakistan
► n
- 2 a person from Pakistan pal (informal) n

1 a close friend

◇ SYNONYMS: friend, companion, mate (informal), buddy (informal), comrade, chum (informal), crony, cobbler (Austral & NZ old-fashioned, informal), E hoa (NZ)

► vb palling, palled

2 pal up with to become friends with palace n

1 the official residence of a king, queen, president, or archbishop

2 a large and richly furnished building palaeography or (US) paleography (pal-ee-og-ra-fee) n the study of ancient handwriting

Palaeolithic or (US) Paleolithic (pal-ee-oh-lith-ik) adj of the period from about 2.5 to 3 million years ago until about 12,000 BC, during which primitive humans emerged and unpolished chipped stone tools were made palaeontology or (US) paleontology (pal-ee-on-tol-a-jee) n the study of past geological periods and fossils > palaeontologist or (US) paleontologist n

Palagi (pa-lang-gee) n, pl -gis (NZ) the Samoan name for a Pakeha palatable adj

1 (of food or drink) pleasant to taste

2 (of an experience or idea) acceptable or satisfactory palate n

1 the roof of the mouth

2 the sense of taste: a range of dishes to tempt every palate palatial adj like a palace; magnificent: his palatial home palaver (pal-lah-ver) n time-consuming fuss: all the palaver involved in obtaining a visa

pale¹ adj

1 (of a colour) whitish and not very strong: pale yellow

◇ SYNONYMS: light, soft, faded, subtle, muted, bleached, pastel, light-coloured 2 (of a complexion) having a whitish appearance, usually because of illness, shock, or fear

◇ SYNONYMS: white, pasty, bleached, wan, colourless, pallid, ashen

3 lacking brightness or colour: the pale, chill light of an October afternoon

◇ SYNONYMS: dim, weak, faint, feeble, thin, wan, watery

► vb paling, paled

4 to become pale or paler: the girl paled at the news

◇ SYNONYMS: become pale, blanch, whiten, go white, lose colour

> paleness n

pale² n

1 a wooden post used in fences

2

A a fence made of pales

B a boundary

3 beyond the pale outside the limits of social convention: the destruction of forests is beyond the pale

palette n

1 a flat board used by artists to mix paints

2 the range of colours characteristic of a particular artist or school of painting: he uses a cool palette with no strong red

3 the range of colours or patterns that can be displayed on the visual display unit of a computer palindrome n a word or phrase that reads the same backwards or forwards, such as able was I ere I saw Elba paling n

- 1 a fence made of pales
- 2 pales collectively
- 3 a single pale palisade n

- 1 a fence made of stakes driven into the ground
- 2 one of the stakes used in such a fence

pall¹ n

- 1 a cloth spread over a coffin
- 2 a coffin at a funeral ceremony
- 3 a dark heavy covering: a pall of smoke and dust hung in the air
- 4 a depressing atmosphere: a pall hung on them all after his death

pall² vb to become boring or uninteresting, esp. by continuing for too long: any pleasure had palled long before the two-hour programme was over palladium n (chem) a rare silvery-white element of the platinum metal group, used in jewellery. SYMBOL: Pd pallbearer n a person who helps to carry or who escorts the coffin at a funeral pallet¹ n a straw-filled mattress or bed pallet² n

- 1 a tool with a flat, sometimes flexible, blade used for shaping pottery
- 2 a portable platform for storing and moving goods palliate vb -ating, -ated

- 1 to lessen the severity of (pain or disease) without curing it
- 2 to cause (an offence) to seem less serious palliative adj

- 1 relieving without curing
- n
- 2 something that palliates, such as a sedative drug
- 3 something that alleviates or lessens a problem: a scheme offered as a palliative for economic pain

pallid adj

- 1 lacking colour, brightness, or vigour: a pallid autumn sun
- 2 lacking energy or vitality; insipid: many militants find the party's socialism too pallid pallor n paleness of complexion, usually because of illness, shock, or fear pally adj -lier, -liest (informal) on friendly terms palm¹ n

- 1 the inner surface of the hand from the wrist to the base of the fingers
- 2 the part of a glove that covers the palm
- 3 in the palm of one's hand at one's mercy or command: he had the jury in the palm of his hand
- vb
- 4 to hide (something) in the hand: he palmed the key
- See also palm off

palm² or palm tree² n a tropical or subtropical tree with a straight unbranched trunk crowned with long pointed leaves palmistry n fortune-telling by examining the lines and bumps of the hand > palmist n

palm off vb

1 to get rid of (someone or something) by passing it on to another: the risk has to be shared with subcontractors, not simply palmed off on them

2 to divert (someone) by a lie or excuse: Mark was palmed off with a series of excuses

Palm Sunday n (Christianity) the Sunday before Easter palmtop adj

1 (of a computer) small enough to be held in the hand

► n

2 a personal computer that is small enough to be held in the hand palomino n, pl -nos a golden or cream horse with a white mane and tail palpable adj

1 obvious: palpable nonsense

2 (of a feeling or an atmosphere) so intense that it seems capable of being touched: an air of palpable gloom hung over him

> palpably adv

palpate vb -pating, -pated (med) to examine (an area of the body) by touching > palpation n

palpitate vb -tating, -tated

1 (of the heart) to beat rapidly

2 to flutter or tremble > palpitation n

palsy (pawl-zee) n (pathol) paralysis of a specified type: cerebral palsy > palsied adj

paltry adj -trier, -triest insignificant pampas n the extensive grassy plains of South America pampas grass n a South American grass with large feathery silver-coloured flower branches pamper vb to treat (someone) with excessive indulgence or care; spoil ◇ SYNONYMS: spoil, indulge, pet, cosset, coddle, mollycoddle pamphlet n a thin paper-covered booklet, often on a subject of current interest ◇ SYNONYMS: booklet, leaflet, brochure, circular, tract pamphleteer n a person who writes or issues pamphlets pan¹ n

1 a wide long-handled metal container used in cooking

◇ SYNONYMS: pot, container, saucepan

2 any of various similar containers used in industry, etc.

3 either of the two dishes on a set of scales

4 (Brit) the bowl of a lavatory

5 a natural or artificial hollow in the ground: a saltpan

► vb panning, panned

6 to sift gold from (a river) in a shallow pan

◇ SYNONYMS: sift out, look for, search for 7 (informal) to criticize harshly: his first film was panned by the critics

◇ SYNONYMS: criticize, knock (informal), slam (slang), censure, tear into (informal)

► See also pan out

pan² vb panning, panned

1 to move (a film camera) or (of a film camera) to be moved to follow a moving object or to take in a whole scene

◇ SYNONYMS: move along or across, follow, track, sweep

► n

2 the act of panning pan- combining form including or relating to all parts or members: Pan-American panacea (pan-a-see-a) n a remedy for all diseases or problems panache (pan-ash) n a confident and stylish manner: the orchestra played with great panache panama hat or panama n a straw hat with a rounded crown and a wide brim panatella n a long slender cigar pancake n

1 a thin flat circle of fried batter

2 Also called: pancake landing an aircraft landing made by levelling out a few feet from the ground and then dropping onto it panchromatic adj (photog) (of an emulsion or film) sensitive to light of all colours pancreas (pang-kree-ass) n a large gland behind the stomach, that produces insulin and aids digestion > pancreatic adj

panda n

1 Also called: giant panda a large black-and-white bearlike animal from the high mountain bamboo forests of China

2 Also called: lesser panda, red panda a raccoon-like animal of the mountain forests of S Asia, with a reddish-brown coat and ringed tail panda car n (Brit) a police patrol car pandemic n, adj (a disease) occurring over a wide geographical area pandemonium n wild confusion; uproar pander vb

1 (foll. by to) to indulge (a person or his or her desires): he pandered to popular fears

► n

2 (chiefly archaic) a person who procures a sexual partner for someone p & p (Brit) postage and packing pane n a sheet of glass in a window or door panegyric (pan-ee-jirr-rik) n a formal speech or piece of writing that praises a person or event panel n

1 a distinct section of a larger surface area, such as that in a door

2 any distinct section of something formed from a sheet of material, such as part of a car body

3 a piece of material inserted in a garment

4 a group of people acting as a team, such as in a quiz or a discussion before an audience

5 (law)

A a list of jurors

B the people on a jury

► adj

6 of a group acting as a panel: a panel game

► vb -elling, -elled (US) -eling, -eled

7 to cover or decorate with panels panel beater n a person who repairs damage to car bodies panelling or (US) paneling n panels collectively, such as on a wall or ceiling panellist or (US) panelist n a member of a panel, usually on radio or television pang n a sudden sharp feeling of pain or sadness pangolin n an animal of tropical countries with a scaly body and a long snout for feeding on ants and termites. Also called: scaly anteater

panic n

1 a sudden overwhelming feeling of terror or anxiety, sometimes affecting a whole group of people

◇ SYNONYMS: fear, alarm, terror, anxiety, hysteria, fright, trepidation (formal), a flap (informal)

► adj

2 of or resulting from such terror: panic measures

► vb -nicking, -nicked

3 to feel or cause to feel panic

◇ SYNONYMS: go to pieces, become hysterical, lose your nerve > panicky adj

panic-stricken adj affected by panic panini n, pl -ni or -nis a type of Italian bread usually served grilled with a variety of fillings pannier n

- 1 one of a pair of bags fixed on either side of the back wheel of a bicycle or motorcycle
- 2 one of a pair of large baskets slung over a beast of burden panoply (pan-a-plee) n a magnificent array: ambassadors equipped with the full panoply of diplomatic bags, codes and ciphers

panorama n

- 1 a wide unbroken view in all directions: the beautiful panorama of the Cornish coast ◇ SYNONYMS: view, prospect, vista
- 2 a wide or comprehensive survey of a subject: the panorama of American life ◇ SYNONYMS: survey, perspective, overview, overall picture
- 3 a picture of a scene unrolled before spectators a part at a time so as to appear continuous > panoramic adj

pan out vb

- 1 (informal) to work out; result: Parker's research did not pan out too well
- 2 (of gravel) to yield gold by panning pansy n, pl -sies

- 1 a garden plant whose flowers have rounded white, yellow, or purple velvety petals
- 2 (offensive, slang) an effeminate or homosexual man or boy

pant vb

1 to breathe with noisy gasps after exertion

◇ SYNONYMS: puff, blow, breathe, gasp, wheeze, heave

2 to say (something) while breathing in this way

3 (foll. by for) to have a frantic desire for

► n

4 the act of panting pantaloon pl n baggy trousers gathered at the ankles pantehnicon n (Brit) a large van used for furniture removals pantheism n

1 the belief that God is present in everything

2 readiness to worship all gods > pantheist n

> pantheistic adj

pantheon n

1 (in ancient Greece or Rome) a temple built to honour all the gods

2 all the gods of a particular creed: the Celtic pantheon of horse gods

3 a group of very important people: he deserves a place in the pantheon of social reformers panther n a leopard, usually a black one panties pl n women's or children's underpants pantile n a roofing tile, with an S-shaped cross section pantomime n

- 1 (in Britain) a play based on a fairy tale and performed at Christmas time
- 2 a theatrical entertainment in which words are replaced by gestures and bodily actions
- 3 (informal, chiefly Brit) a confused or farcical situation pantry n, pl -tries a small room or large cupboard in which food is kept pants pl n

- 1 (Brit) an undergarment with two leg holes, covering the body from the waist or hips to the thighs ◇ SYNONYMS: underpants, briefs, drawers, knickers, panties, boxer shorts, broekies (S African), underdaks (Austral slang)
- 2 (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) trousers or shorts ◇ SYNONYMS: trousers, slacks
- 3 bore or scare the pants off someone (informal) to bore or scare someone very much pap n

- 1 a soft food for babies or invalids
- 2 worthless or oversimplified entertainment or information
- 3 (S African) maize porridge papacy (pay-pa-see) n, pl -cies

- 1 the office or term of office of a Pope
- 2 the system of government in the Roman Catholic Church that has the Pope as its head papal adj of the Pope or the papacy paparazzo (pap-a-rat-so) n, pl -razzi (-rat-see) a freelance photographer who specializes in taking shots of famous people without their knowledge or consent papaya (pap-pie-a) n a large green fruit with sweet yellow flesh, that grows in the West Indies paper n

1 a flexible material made in sheets from wood pulp or other fibres and used for writing on, decorating walls, or wrapping parcels

2 short for newspaper, wallpaper

◇ SYNONYMS: newspaper, daily, journal, gazette

3 papers documents, such as a passport, which can identify the bearer

◇ SYNONYMS: documents, records, certificates, identification, deeds, identity papers, I.D. (informal)

4 a set of examination questions

◇ SYNONYMS: examination, test, exam

5 papers the collected diaries or letters of someone's private or public life

◇ SYNONYMS: letters, records, documents, file, diaries, archive, paperwork, dossier

6 a lecture or an essay on a specific subject

◇ SYNONYMS: essay, article, treatise, dissertation

7 on paper in theory, as opposed to fact: countless ideas which look good on paper just don't work in practice

► adj

8 made of paper: paper towels; a paper bag

9 recorded on paper but not yet existing in practice: a paper profit of more than $50 million

► vb

10 to cover (walls) with wallpaper

◇ SYNONYMS: wallpaper, hang > papery adj

paperback n

1 a book with covers made of flexible card

► adj

2 of a paperback or publication of paperbacks: a paperback novel paperweight n a small heavy object placed on top of loose papers to prevent them from scattering paperwork n clerical work, such as the writing of reports or letters papier-mâché (pap-yay mash-ay) n

1 a hard substance made of layers of paper mixed with paste and moulded when moist

► adj

2 made of papier-mâché papist n, adj (offensive) (a) Roman Catholic papoose n a Native American baby paprika n a mild powdered seasoning made from red peppers papyrus (pap-ire-uss) n, pl -ri (-rye) or -ruses

1 a tall water plant of Africa

2 a kind of paper made from the stem of this plant, used by the ancient Egyptians, Greeks, and Romans

3 an ancient document written on this paper par n

1 the usual or average condition: I feel slightly below par most of the time

2 (golf) a standard score for a hole or course that a good player should make: four under par with two holes to play

3 (finance) the established value of the unit of one national currency in terms of the unit of another

4 on a par with equal or equivalent to: an environmental disaster on a par with Chernobyl

5 par for the course to be expected: random acts of violence were par for the course in the capital parable n a short story that uses familiar situations to illustrate a religious or moral point

parabola (par-ab-bol-a) n (geom) an open plane curve formed by the intersection of a cone by a plane parallel to its side > parabolic adj paracetamol n a mild pain-relieving drug parachute n

1 a large fabric canopy connected by a harness, that slows the descent of a person or package from an aircraft

► vb -chuting, -chuted

2 to land or to drop (supplies or troops) by parachute from an aircraft > parachutist n

parade n

1 an ordered march or procession

◇ SYNONYMS: procession, march, pageant, cavalcade

2 a public promenade or street of shops

3 a blatant but sometimes insincere display: a man who made a parade of liking his own company best

► vb -rading, -raded

4 to exhibit or flaunt: he neither paraded nor disguised his devout faith

◇ SYNONYMS: flaunt, display, exhibit, show off (informal)

5 to walk or march, esp. in a procession

◇ SYNONYMS: march, process, promenade paradigm (par-a-dime) n a model or example: his experience is a paradigm for the young artist

◇ SYNONYMS: model, example, pattern, ideal paradise n

1 heaven; where the good go after death

◇ SYNONYMS: heaven, Promised Land, Elysian fields

2 the Garden of Eden

3 any place or condition that fulfils a person's desires ◇ SYNONYMS: bliss, delight, heaven (informal), felicity, utopia paradox n

1 a statement that seems self-contradictory but may be true: it's a strange paradox that a musician must practise improvising to become a good improviser

◇ SYNONYMS: contradiction, puzzle, anomaly, enigma, oddity

2 a self-contradictory proposition, such as I always tell lies

◇ SYNONYMS: contradiction, puzzle, anomaly, enigma, oddity

3 a person or thing that is made up of contradictory elements

◇ SYNONYMS: contradiction, puzzle, anomaly, enigma, oddity

> paradoxical adj

> paradoxically adv

paraffin n (Brit) a liquid mixture distilled from petroleum or shale and used as a fuel or solvent paragon n a model of perfection: a paragon of integrity and determination paragraph n

1 a section of a piece of writing, usually devoted to one idea, which begins on a new line and is often indented

◇ SYNONYMS: section, part, item, passage, clause, subdivision

2 (printing) the character ¶, used to indicate the beginning of a new paragraph

► vb

3 to put (a piece of writing) into paragraphs parakeet n a small colourful parrot with a long tail parallax n an apparent change in an object's position due to a change in the observer's position parallel adj

1 separated by an equal distance at every point: parallel lines; a path parallel to the main road

◇ SYNONYMS: equidistant, alongside, side by side

2 precisely corresponding: we decide our salaries by comparison with parallel jobs in other charities

◇ SYNONYMS: matching, corresponding, like, similar, resembling, analogous

3 (computers) operating on several items of information or instructions at the same time

► n

4 (maths) one of a set of parallel lines or planes

5 something with similar features to another

◇ SYNONYMS: equivalent, counterpart, match, equal, twin, analogue

6 a comparison; similarity between two things: she attempted to excuse herself by drawing a parallel between her behaviour and ours

◇ SYNONYMS: similarity, comparison, analogy, resemblance, likeness

7 Also called: parallel of latitude any of the imaginary lines around the earth parallel to the equator, marking degrees of latitude

8 (printing) the character ||, used as a reference mark

► vb

9 to correspond to: the increase in smoking is paralleled by an increase in lung cancer parallelogram n (geom) a plane figure whose opposite sides are parallel and equal in length paralyse or (US) -lyze vb -lysing, -lysed or -lyzing, -lyzed

1 (pathol) to affect with paralysis

◇ SYNONYMS: disable, cripple, lame, incapacitate

2 to make immobile: he was paralysed by fear

◇ SYNONYMS: freeze, stun, numb, petrify, halt, immobilize paralysis n

1 (pathol) inability to move all or part of the body due to damage to the nervous system

◇ SYNONYMS: immobility, palsy

2 a state of inactivity: the economic chaos and political paralysis into which the country has sunk

◇ SYNONYMS: standstill, breakdown, stoppage, halt paralytic adj

1 of or relating to paralysis

2 (Brit informal) very drunk

► n

3 a person who is paralysed paramedic n a person, such as a member of an ambulance crew, whose work supplements that of the medical profession > paramedical adj

parameter (par-am-it-er) n

1 (maths) an arbitrary constant that determines the specific form of a mathematical expression, such as a and b in $y = ax^2 + b$

2 (informal) any limiting factor: exchange rates are allowed to fluctuate only within designated parameters

◇ SYNONYMS: limit, restriction, framework, limitation, specification paramilitary adj denoting a group of people organized on military lines paramount adj of the greatest importance

◇ SYNONYMS: principal, prime, first, chief, main, primary, supreme, cardinal paramour n (old-fashioned) someone's lover paranoia n

1 a mental health condition which causes delusions of grandeur or of persecution

2 (informal) intense fear or suspicion, usually unfounded > paranoid or paranoiac adj, n

paranormal adj

1 beyond normal scientific explanation

► n

2 the paranormal paranormal happenings or matters generally parapet n

1 a low wall or railing along the edge of a balcony or roof

2 (military) a mound of sandbags in front of a trench to conceal and protect troops from fire paraphernalia n various articles or bits of equipment paraphrase n

1 an expression of a statement or text in other words

► vb -phrasing, -phrased

2 to put (a statement or text) into other words paraplegia (par-a-pleej-ya) n (pathol) paralysis of the lower half of the body > paraplegic adj, n

parapsychology n the study of mental phenomena such as telepathy

Paraquat n (trademark) an extremely poisonous weedkiller parasite n

1 an animal or plant that lives in or on another from which it obtains nourishment

2 a person who habitually lives at the expense of others; sponger ◇ SYNONYMS: sponger (informal), leech, hanger-on, scrounger (informal), bloodsucker (informal), quandong (Austral slang) > parasitic adj

parasol n an umbrella-like sunshade paratrooper n a member of the paratroops paratroops pl n troops trained to be dropped by parachute into a battle area parboil vb to boil (food) until partially cooked parcel n

1 something wrapped up; a package

◇ SYNONYMS: package, case, box, pack, bundle

2 a group of people or things sharing something in common: a parcel of fools

3 a distinct portion of land: he was the recipient of a substantial parcel of land

► vb -celling, -celled (US) -celing, -celed

4 (often foll. by up) to wrap (something) up into a parcel

◇ SYNONYMS: wrap, pack, package, tie up, do up, gift-wrap, box up, fasten together

5 (foll. by out) to divide (something) into portions: the children were parcelled out to relatives

parch vb

1 to deprive (something) of water; dry up: the summer sun parched the hills

2 to make (someone) very thirsty: I'm parched. Have we got any lemonade?

parchment n

1 a thick smooth material made from animal skin and used for writing on

- 2 a manuscript made of this material
- 3 a stiff yellowish paper resembling parchment pardon vb

1 to forgive or excuse (a person) for (an offence, mistake, etc.): I hope you'll pardon the wait

◇ SYNONYMS: acquit, let off (informal), exonerate, absolve

► n

2 forgiveness

◇ SYNONYMS: forgiveness, absolution

3 official release from punishment for a crime

◇ SYNONYMS: acquittal, amnesty, exoneration

► interj

4 Also: pardon me, I beg your pardon

A sorry; excuse me

◇ SYNONYMS pardon me: forgive me, excuse me

B what did you say?

> pardonable adj

pare vb paring, pared

1 to peel (the outer layer) from (something): thinly pare the rind from the grapefruit

2 to trim or cut the edge of 3 to decrease bit by bit: the government is prepared to pare down the armed forces parent n

1 a father or mother

◇ SYNONYMS: father or mother, sire, progenitor, procreator, old (Austral & NZ informal), oldie (Austral informal), patriarch

2 a person acting as a father or mother; guardian

3 a plant or animal that has produced one or more plants or animals > parental adj > parenthood n

parentage n ancestry or family parenthesis (par-en-thiss-iss) n, pl -ses (-seez)

1 a word or phrase inserted into a passage, and marked off by brackets or dashes

2 Also called: bracket either of a pair of characters (), used to enclose such a phrase > parenthetical adj

> parenthetically adv parenting n the activity of bringing up children pariah (par-rye-a) n a social outcast: the man they regard as a pariah parietal (par-rye-it-al) adj (anatomy, biol) of or forming the walls of a body cavity: the parietal bones of the skull

paring n something that has been cut off something parish n

1 an area that has its own church and a priest or pastor. RELATED ADJECTIVE:

parochial

2 the people who live in a parish

◇ SYNONYMS: community, flock, church, congregation

3 (in England and, formerly, Wales) the smallest unit of local government

◇ SYNONYMS: district, community parishioner n a person who lives in a particular parish parity n

1 equality, for example of rank or pay

2 close or exact equivalence: the company maintained parity with the competition

3 (finance) equivalence between the units of currency of two countries park n

1 a large area of open land for recreational use by the public

◇ SYNONYMS: recreation ground, garden, playground, pleasure garden, playpark, domain (NZ), forest park (NZ)

2 a piece of open land for public recreation in a town

◇ SYNONYMS: parkland, grounds, estate (Brit), lawns, woodland, grassland

3 (Brit) a large area of private land surrounding a country house

◇ SYNONYMS: parkland, grounds, estate (Brit), lawns, woodland, grassland

4 an area designed to accommodate a number of related enterprises: a science park

5 (US & Canad) a playing field or sports stadium

◇ SYNONYMS: field, pitch, playing field

6 the park (Brit informal) the pitch in soccer

► vb

7 to stop and leave (a vehicle) temporarily: I parked between the two cars already outside; police vans were parked on every street corner

8 (informal) to leave or put (someone or something) somewhere: she parked herself on the sofa and stayed there all evening > parking n

parka n a long jacket with a quilted lining and a fur-trimmed hood

Parkinson's disease or Parkinsonism n a progressive disorder of the central nervous system which causes tremor, rigidity, and impaired muscular coordination parky adj parkier, parkiest (Brit informal) (of the weather) chilly parlance n the manner of speaking associated with a particular group or subject: he had, in Marxist parlance, a 'petit bourgeois' mentality

parley (old-fashioned) n

1 a discussion between members of opposing sides to decide terms of agreement

► vb

2 to have a parley parliament n a law-making assembly of a country

◇ SYNONYMS: assembly, council, congress, senate, convention, legislature parliamentary adj

1 of or from a parliament: parliamentary elections

◇ SYNONYMS: governmental, legislative, law-making

2 conforming to the procedures of a parliament: parliamentary language parlour or (US) parlor n

1 (old-fashioned) a living room for receiving visitors

◇ SYNONYMS: sitting room (Brit), lounge, living room, drawing room, front room

2 a room or shop equipped as a place of business: an ice-cream parlour

◇ SYNONYMS: establishment, shop, store, salon parlous adj (archaic, or humorous) dangerously bad; dire: the parlous state of the economy

Parmesan (par-miz-zan) n a hard strong-flavoured cheese used grated on pasta dishes and soups parochial adj

1 narrow in outlook; provincial

2 of or relating to a parish > parochialism n

parody n, pl -dies

1 a piece of music or literature that mimics the style of another composer or author in a humorous way

◇ SYNONYMS: takeoff (informal), satire, caricature, send-up (Brit informal), spoof (informal), skit, burlesque, piss-take (informal)

2 something done so badly that it seems like an intentional mockery

► vb -dies, -dying, -died

3 to make a parody of ◇ SYNONYMS: take off (informal), caricature, send up (Brit informal), burlesque, satirize, do a takeoff of (informal) > parodist n

parole n

1 the freeing of a prisoner before his or her sentence has run out, on condition that he or she behaves well

2 a promise given by a prisoner to behave well if granted liberty or partial liberty

3 on parole conditionally released from prison

► vb -roling, -roled

4 to place (a person) on parole paroxysm n

1 an uncontrollable outburst of emotion: a paroxysm of grief

2 (pathol)

A a sudden attack or recurrence of a disease

B a fit or convulsion > paroxysmal adj

parquet (par-kay) n

1 a floor covering made of blocks of wood

► vb

2 to cover (a floor) with parquetry parquetry (par-kit-tree) n pieces of wood arranged in a geometric pattern, used to cover floors parricide n

1 a person who kills one of his or her parents

2 the act of killing either of one's parents > parricidal adj

parrot n

1 a tropical bird with a short hooked beak, bright plumage, and an ability to mimic human speech

2 a person who repeats or imitates someone else's words

3 sick as a parrot (usually facetious) extremely disappointed

► vb -roting, -roted

4 to repeat or imitate (someone else's words) without understanding them

◇ SYNONYMS: repeat, echo, imitate, copy, mimic parry vb -ries, -rying, -ried

1 to ward off (an attack)

◇ SYNONYMS: ward off, block, deflect, repel, rebuff, repulse

2 to avoid answering (questions) in a clever way

◇ SYNONYMS: evade, avoid, dodge, sidestep

► n, pl -ries

3 an instance of parrying

4 a skilful evasion of a question parse (parz) vb parsing, parsed to analyse (a sentence or the words in a sentence) grammatically parsimony n (formal) extreme caution in spending > parsimonious adj

parsley n a herb with curled pleasant-smelling leaves, used for seasoning and garnishing food parsnip n a long tapering cream-coloured root vegetable parson n

1 a parish priest in the Church of England

2 any member of the clergy

◇ SYNONYMS: clergyman, minister, priest, vicar, preacher, pastor, cleric, churchman

3 (NZ) a nonconformist minister parsonage n the residence of a parson, provided by the parish part n

1 a piece or portion

◇ SYNONYMS: piece, share, proportion, percentage, bit, section, scrap, portion

2 one of several equal divisions: a salad dressing made with two parts oil to one part vinegar

◇ SYNONYMS: component, bit, unit, constituent

3 an actor's role in a play

◇ SYNONYMS: role, representation, persona, portrayal, depiction, character part

4 a person's duty: his ancestors had done their part nobly and well at Bannockburn

5 an involvement in or contribution to something: he was jailed for his part in the fraud

6 a region or area: he's well known in these parts; the weather in this part of the country is extreme

◇ SYNONYMS: region, area, district, neighbourhood, quarter, vicinity

7 (anatomy) an area of the body

◇ SYNONYMS: organ, member, limb

8 a component that can be replaced in a vehicle or machine

◇ SYNONYMS: component, bit, unit, constituent

9 (US & Canad & Austral) same as parting

10 (music) a melodic line assigned to one or more instrumentalists or singers 11 for my part as far as I am concerned

12 for the most part generally 13 in part to some degree; partly 14 on the part of on behalf of 15 part and parcel of an essential ingredient of 16 play a part

A to pretend to be what one is not

B (foll. by in) to have something to do with: examinations play a large part in education and in schools

17 take part in to participate in 18 take someone's part to support someone, for example in an argument

19 take something in good part to respond to (teasing or criticism) with good humour

► vb

20 to divide or separate from one another: her lips parted in laughter; the cord parted with a pop

◇ SYNONYMS: divide, separate, break, tear, split, rend (literary), detach, sever

21 to go away from one another: we parted with handshakes all round

◇ SYNONYMS: part company, separate, split up

22 to split: the path parts here

23 to arrange (the hair) in such a way that a line of scalp is left showing

24 part from to cause (someone) to give up: I was astonished at the way Henry parted his audience from their money

25 part with to give up: check carefully before you part with your cash

► adv

26 to some extent; partly: this book is part history, part travelogue partake vb -taking, -took, -taken

1 partake in to take part in 2 partake of to take (food or drink) partial adj

1 relating to only a part; not complete: partial deafness

◇ SYNONYMS: incomplete, unfinished, imperfect, uncompleted

2 biased: religious programmes can be as partial as they like

◇ SYNONYMS: biased, prejudiced, discriminatory, partisan, unfair, one-sided, unjust

3 be partial to to have a particular liking for > partiality n

> partially adv participate vb -pating, -pated > participate in to become actively involved in > participant n > participation n

> participatory adj

participle n (grammar) a form of a verb that is used in compound tenses or as an adjective > participial adj

particle n

1 an extremely small piece or amount: clean thoroughly to remove all particles of dirt

◇ SYNONYMS: bit, piece, scrap, grain, shred, mite, jot, speck

2 (grammar) an uninflected part of speech, such as an interjection or preposition

3 (physics) a minute piece of matter, such as an electron or proton particular adj

1 of, belonging to, or being one person or thing; specific: the particular type of tuition on offer

◇ SYNONYMS: specific, special, exact, precise, distinct, peculiar

2 exceptional or special: the report voices particular concern over the state of the country's manufacturing industry

◇ SYNONYMS: special, exceptional, notable, uncommon, marked, unusual, remarkable, singular

3 providing specific details or circumstances: a particular account

4 difficult to please; fussy

◇ SYNONYMS: fussy, demanding, fastidious, choosy (informal), picky (informal), finicky, picky (informal), nit-picky (informal)

► n

5 a separate distinct item as opposed to a generalization: moving from the general to the particular

6 an item of information; detail: she refused to go into particulars

◇ SYNONYMS: detail, fact, feature, item, circumstance, specification

7 in particular especially or exactly: three painters in particular were responsible for these developments > particularly adv

particularize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised to give details about (something) > particularization or -risation n parting n

1 a departure or leave-taking

◇ SYNONYMS: farewell, goodbye

2 (Brit & NZ) the line of scalp showing when sections of hair are combed in opposite directions

3 the act of dividing (something): the parting of the Red Sea

◇ SYNONYMS: division, breaking, split, separation, rift, rupture partisan n

1 a person who supports a particular cause or party

◇ SYNONYMS: supporter, devotee, adherent, upholder

2 a member of an armed resistance group within occupied territory

◇ SYNONYMS: underground fighter, guerrilla, freedom fighter, resistance fighter

► adj

3 prejudiced or one-sided

◇ SYNONYMS: prejudiced, one-sided, biased, partial, sectarian > partisanship n

partition n

1 a large screen or thin wall that divides a room

◇ SYNONYMS: screen, wall, barrier

2 the division of a country into two or more independent countries

◇ SYNONYMS: division, separation, segregation

► vb

3 to separate (a room) into sections: the shower is partitioned off from the rest of the bathroom

◇ SYNONYMS: separate, screen, divide

4 to divide (a country) into separate self-governing parts: the subcontinent was partitioned into India and Pakistan

partly adv not completely

◇ SYNONYMS: partially, somewhat, slightly partner n

1 either member of a couple in a relationship

◇ SYNONYMS: spouse, consort, significant other (informal, chiefly US), mate, husband or wife, plus-one (informal)

2 a member of a business partnership

◇ SYNONYMS: associate, colleague, collaborator

3 one of a pair of dancers or of players on the same side in a game: her bridge partner

4 an ally or companion: the country's main European trading partner

◇ SYNONYMS: companion, ally, colleague, associate, mate, comrade

► vb

5 to be the partner of (someone) partnership n

1 a relationship in which two or more people or organizations work together in a business venture

◇ SYNONYMS: cooperation, alliance, sharing, union, connection, participation, copartnership

2 the condition of being a partner part of speech n (grammar) a class of words, such as a noun, verb, or adjective, sharing important syntactic or semantic features partridge n, pl -tridges or -tridge a game bird with an orange-brown head, greyish neck, and a short rust-coloured tail

part-time adj

1 for less than the normal full working time: a part-time job

► adv part time

2 on a part-time basis: he works part time > part-timer n parturition n (formal) the process of giving birth party n, pl -ties

1 a social gathering for pleasure

◇ SYNONYMS: get-together (informal), celebration, do (informal), gathering, function, reception, festivity, social gathering

2 a group of people involved in the same activity: a search party

◇ SYNONYMS: group, team, band, company, unit, squad, crew, gang

3 a group of people sharing a common political aim

◇ SYNONYMS: faction, set, side, league, camp, clique, coterie

4 the person or people who take part in or are involved in something, esp. a legal action or dispute: a judge will decide who the guilty party is

5 (informal, humorous) a person: he's an odd old party

► vb -ties, -tying, -tied

6 (informal) to celebrate; have a good time party line n

1 the policies of a political party

2 a telephone line shared by two or more subscribers party wall n (property law) a common wall separating two properties parvenu or (fem) parvenue (par-ven-new) n a person newly risen to a position of power or wealth who is considered to lack culture or education

pascal n the SI unit of pressure; the pressure exerted on an area of 1 square metre by a force of 1 newton

pash (Austral & NZ slang) vb

1 to kiss or embrace passionately

► n

2 a passionate kiss or embrace pashmina (pash-mee-na) n a type of cashmere scarf or shawl made from the underfur of Tibetan goats paspalum (pass-pale-um) n (Austral & NZ) a type of grass with wide leaves pass vb

1 to go by or past (a person or thing)

◇ SYNONYMS: go by or past, overtake, drive past, lap, leave behind, pull ahead of

2 to continue or extend in a particular direction: the road to Camerino passes through some fine scenery

3 to go through or cause (something) to go through (an obstacle or barrier): the bullet passed through his head

◇ SYNONYMS: go, move, travel, progress, flow, proceed

4 to be successful in (a test or examination)

◇ SYNONYMS: be successful in, qualify (in), succeed (in), graduate (in), get through, do, gain a pass (in)

5 to spend (time) or (of time) go by: the time passed surprisingly quickly

◇ SYNONYMS: elapse, progress, go by, lapse, wear on, go past, tick by

6 to hand over or be handed over: she passed me her glass

◇ SYNONYMS: give, hand, send, transfer, deliver, convey

7 to be inherited by: his mother's small estate had passed to him after her death

◇ SYNONYMS: be left, come, be bequeathed, be inherited by 8 (sport) to hit, kick, or throw (the ball) to another player

◇ SYNONYMS: kick, hit, loft, head, lob

9 (of a law-making body) to agree to (a law or proposal): the bill was passed by parliament last week

◇ SYNONYMS: approve, accept, decree, enact, ratify, ordain (formal), legislate (for)

10 to pronounce (judgment): the court is expected to pass sentence later today

11 to move onwards or over: a flicker of amusement passed over his face

◇ SYNONYMS: go, move, travel, progress, flow, proceed

12 to exceed: Australia's population has just passed the 25 million mark

◇ SYNONYMS: exceed, beat, overtake, go beyond, surpass, outstrip, outdo

13 to go without comment: the insult passed unnoticed

14 to choose not to answer a question or not to make a bid or a play in card games

15 to discharge (urine, etc.) from the body

16 to come to an end or disappear: today's jitters will soon pass

◇ SYNONYMS: end, go, cease, blow over

17 (foll. by for or as) to be likely to be mistaken for (someone or something else): the few sunny days that pass for summer in this country

18 (old-fashioned) to take place: what passed at the meeting?

19 pass away or on (euphemistic) to die

◇ SYNONYMS pass away or on: die, pass on, expire, pass over, snuff it (informal), kick the bucket (slang), shuffle off this mortal coil, cark it (Austral & NZ informal)

► n

20 a successful result in an examination or test

21 (sport) the transfer of a ball from one player to another

22 a route through a range of mountains where there is a gap between peaks

◇ SYNONYMS: gap, route, canyon, gorge, ravine

23 a permit or licence

◇ SYNONYMS: licence, ticket, permit, passport, warrant, authorization

24 (military) a document authorizing leave of absence

25 (bridge, etc.) an instance of choosing not to answer a question or not to make a bid or a play in card games

26 a pretty pass a bad state of affairs

27 make a pass at (informal) to try to persuade (someone) to have sex

► See also pass out etc passable adj

1 adequate or acceptable: passable if hardly faultless German

2 (of a road, path, etc.) capable of being travelled along: most main roads are passable with care despite the snow

> passably adv

passage n

1 a channel or opening providing a way through ◇ SYNONYMS: alley, way, close (Brit), course, road, channel, route, path

2 a hall or corridor

◇ SYNONYMS: corridor, hall, lobby, vestibule

3 a section of a written work, speech, or piece of music

◇ SYNONYMS: extract, reading, piece, section, text, excerpt, quotation

4 a journey by ship

◇ SYNONYMS: journey, crossing, trip, trek, voyage

5 the act of passing from one place or condition to another: Ireland faced a tough passage to qualify for the World Cup finals

6 the right or freedom to pass: the aid convoys were guaranteed safe passage through rebel-held areas

◇ SYNONYMS: safe-conduct, right to travel, freedom to travel, permission to travel

7 the establishing of a law by a law-making body passageway n a corridor or passage passbook n

1 a book issued by a bank or building society for recording deposits and withdrawals

2 (S African) (formerly) an official identity document passé (pas-say) adj out-of-date: smoking is a bit passé these days passenger n

1 a person travelling in a vehicle driven by someone else

◇ SYNONYMS: traveller, rider, fare, commuter, fare payer

2 (Brit & NZ) a member of a team who does not take an equal share of the work: you'll have to pull your weight – we can't afford passengers passer-by n, pl passers-by a person who is walking past someone or something ◇ SYNONYMS: bystander, witness, observer, viewer, spectator, looker-on, watcher, onlooker passim adv throughout: used to indicate that what is referred to occurs frequently in a particular piece of writing passing adj

1 momentary or short-lived: a passing fad

◇ SYNONYMS: momentary, fleeting, short-lived, transient, ephemeral, brief, temporary, transitory

2 casual or superficial: a passing resemblance

◇ SYNONYMS: superficial, short, quick, glancing, casual, summary, cursory, perfunctory

► n

3 (euphemistic) death

4 the ending of something: the passing of the old order in Eastern Europe

5 in passing briefly and without going into detail; incidentally: this fact is only noted in passing passion n

1 intense sexual love

◇ SYNONYMS: love, desire, lust, infatuation, ardour

2 any strongly felt emotion

◇ SYNONYMS: emotion, feeling, fire, heat, excitement, intensity, warmth, zeal

3 a strong enthusiasm for something: a passion for football

◇ SYNONYMS: mania, enthusiasm, obsession, bug (informal), craving, fascination, craze

4 the object of an intense desire or enthusiasm: flying is his abiding passion

◇ SYNONYMS: mania, enthusiasm, obsession, bug (informal), craving, fascination, craze

> passionless adj

Passion n (Christianity) the sufferings of Christ from the Last Supper to his death on the cross passionate adj

1 showing intense sexual desire

◇ SYNONYMS: loving, ardent, amorous, lustful

2 capable of or revealing intense emotion: a passionate speech ◇ SYNONYMS: emotional, eager, strong, intense, fierce, ardent, fervent, heartfelt > passionately adv

passionflower n a tropical plant with brightly coloured showy flowers passion fruit n the edible egg-shaped fruit of the passionflower

Passion play n a play about the Passion of Christ passive adj

1 not taking an active part

◇ SYNONYMS: inactive, uninvolved

2 submissive and receptive to outside forces

◇ SYNONYMS: submissive, compliant, receptive, docile, quiescent

3 (grammar) denoting a form of verbs used to indicate that the subject is the recipient of the action, as was broken in The glass was broken by that boy over there

4 (chem) (of a substance) chemically unreactive

► n

5 (grammar) the passive form of a verb > passively adv

> passivity n

passive-aggressive adj (psychol) of or relating to a personality that harbours aggressive emotions while behaving in a calm or detached manner passive resistance n resistance to a government or the law by nonviolent acts such as fasting, peaceful demonstrations, or refusing to cooperate passive smoking n the unwilling inhalation of smoke from other people's cigarettes by a nonsmoker pass out vb

1 (informal) to become unconscious; faint

◇ SYNONYMS pass out: faint, black out (informal), lose consciousness, become unconscious

2 (Brit) (of an officer cadet) to qualify for a military commission

Passover n an eight-day Jewish festival commemorating the sparing of the Israelites in Egypt passport n

1 an official document issued by a government, which identifies the holder and grants him or her permission to travel abroad

2 an asset that gains a person admission or acceptance: good qualifications are no automatic passport to a job

pass up vb (informal) to let (something) go by; disregard: am I passing up my one chance to be really happy?

◇ SYNONYMS pass something up: miss, let slip, decline, neglect, forgo, abstain from, give (something) a miss (informal) password n a secret word or phrase that ensures admission by proving identity or membership past adj

1 of the time before the present: the past history of the world

◇ SYNONYMS: former, early, previous, ancient, bygone, olden

2 no longer in existence: past happiness

◇ SYNONYMS: over, done, ended, finished, gone

3 immediately previous: the past year

◇ SYNONYMS: last, previous

4 former: a past president

◇ SYNONYMS: previous, former, one-time, ex-

5 (grammar) indicating a tense of verbs used to describe actions that have been begun or completed at the time of speaking

► n

6 the past the period of time before the present: a familiar face from the past

◇ SYNONYMS: former times, long ago, days gone by, the olden days

7 the history of a person or nation

◇ SYNONYMS: background, life, history, past life, life story, career to date

8 an earlier disreputable period of someone's life: a man with a bit of a past

9 (grammar)

A the past tense

B a verb in the past tense

► adv

10 on or onwards: I called but he just walked past

◇ SYNONYMS: on, by, along

11 at a time before the present; ago: three years past

► prep

12 beyond in time: it's past midnight

◇ SYNONYMS: after, beyond, later than 13 beyond in place: a procession of mourners filed past the coffin

◇ SYNONYMS: by, across, in front of 14 beyond the limit of: riches past his wildest dreams

15 not put it past someone to consider someone capable of (a particular action): I wouldn't put it past him to double-cross us

16 past it (informal) unable to do the things one could do when younger pasta n a type of food, such as spaghetti, that is made from a dough of flour and water and formed into different shapes paste n

1 a soft moist mixture, such as toothpaste

2 an adhesive made from water and flour or starch, for use with paper

◇ SYNONYMS: adhesive, glue, cement, gum

3 a smooth creamy preparation of fish, meat, or vegetables for spreading on bread: sausage paste

◇ SYNONYMS: purée, pâté, spread

4 (Brit & NZ) dough for making pastry

5 a hard shiny glass used to make imitation gems

► vb pasting, pasted

6 to attach by paste: she bought a scrapbook and carefully pasted in it all her clippings

◇ SYNONYMS: stick, glue, cement, gum

7 (slang) to beat or defeat (someone) pasteboard n a stiff board made by pasting layers of paper together pastel n

1

A a crayon made of ground pigment bound with gum

B a picture drawn with such crayons

2 a pale delicate colour

► adj

3 (of a colour) pale and delicate: pastel pink

◇ SYNONYMS: pale, light, soft, delicate, muted pasteurize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised to destroy bacteria (in beverages or solid foods) by a special heating process > pasteurization or -risation n

pastiche (past-eesh) n a work of art that mixes styles or copies the style of another artist pastille n a small fruit-flavoured and sometimes medicated sweet pastime n an activity which makes time pass pleasantly ◇ SYNONYMS: activity, game, entertainment, hobby, recreation, amusement, diversion pasting n

1 (slang) a thrashing or heavy defeat

2 (informal) strong criticism past master n a person with a talent for or experience in a particular activity: a past master at manipulating the media

pastor n a member of the Christian clergy in charge of a congregation ◇ SYNONYMS: clergyman or woman, minister, priest, vicar, parson, rector, curate, churchman or woman pastoral adj

1 of or depicting country life or scenery

◇ SYNONYMS: rustic, country, rural, bucolic

2 (of land) used for pasture

3 of or relating to a member of the Christian clergy or his or her duties

◇ SYNONYMS: ecclesiastical, priestly, ministerial, clerical

4 of or relating to shepherds or their work

► n

5 a literary work, picture, or piece of music portraying country life

6 (Christianity) a letter from a bishop to the clergy or people of his diocese pastrami n highly seasoned smoked beef pastry n

1 a dough of flour, water, and fat

2 pl -tries an individual cake or pie

3 baked foods, such as tarts, made with this dough pasture n

1 land covered with grass, suitable for grazing by farm animals

◇ SYNONYMS: grassland, grass, meadow, grazing

2 the grass growing on this land pasty¹ (pay-stee) adj pastier, pastiest (of the complexion) pale and unhealthy-looking pasty² (past-ee) n, pl pasties a round of pastry folded over a filling of meat and vegetables pat¹ vb patting, patted

1 to tap (someone or something) lightly with the hand

◇ SYNONYMS: stroke, touch, tap, pet, caress, fondle

► n

2 a gentle tap or stroke

◇ SYNONYMS: tap, stroke, clap

3 a small shaped lump of something soft, such as butter pat² adv

1 Also: off pat thoroughly learned: he had all his answers off pat

► adj

2 quick, ready, or glib: a pat generalization patch n

1 a piece of material used to cover a hole in a garment

◇ SYNONYMS: reinforcement, piece of fabric, piece of cloth, piece of material, piece sewn on

2 a small contrasting section: there was a bald patch on the top of his head

◇ SYNONYMS: spot (Brit), bit, scrap, shred, small piece

3 a small plot of land

◇ SYNONYMS: plot, area, ground, land, tract

4 (med) a protective covering for an injured eye

5 a scrap or remnant

◇ SYNONYMS: spot (Brit), bit, scrap, shred, small piece

6 the area under someone's supervision, such as a police officer or social worker

7 a bad patch a difficult time

8 not a patch on not nearly as good as

► vb

9 to mend (a garment) with a patch

◇ SYNONYMS: sew (up), mend, repair, reinforce, stitch (up)

10 patch together to produce (something) by piecing parts together hurriedly or carelessly

11 patch up

A to mend (something) hurriedly or carelessly

◇ SYNONYMS: mend, cover, reinforce

B to make up (a quarrel) patchwork n

1 needlework done by sewing together pieces of different materials

2 something made up of various parts patchy adj patchier, patchiest

1 of uneven quality or intensity: since then her career has been patchy

2 having or forming patches pate n (old-fashioned, or humorous) the head or the crown of the head pâté (pat-ay) n a spread of finely minced meat, fish, or vegetables often served as a starter patella (pat-tell-a) n, pl -lae (-lee) (anatomy) kneecap > patellar adj

patent n

1

A an official document granting the exclusive right to make, use, and sell an invention for a limited period

◇ SYNONYMS: copyright, licence, franchise, registered trademark

B the right granted by such a document

◇ SYNONYMS: copyright, licence, franchise, registered trademark

2 an invention protected by a patent

► adj

3 open or available for inspection: letters patent

4 obvious: their scorn was patent to everyone

◇ SYNONYMS: obvious, apparent, evident, clear, glaring, manifest

5 concerning protection of or appointment by a patent

6 (of food, drugs, etc.) made or held under a patent

► vb

7 to obtain a patent for (an invention) patent leather n leather processed with lacquer to give a hard glossy surface patently adv clearly and obviously: an outdated and patently absurd promise

paternal adj

1 fatherly: paternal authority

2 related through one's father: his paternal grandmother > paternally adv

paternalism n authority exercised in a way that limits individual responsibility > paternalistic adj

paternity n

1 the fact or state of being a father

2 descent or derivation from a father path n, pl paths

1 a road or way, often a narrow trodden track

◇ SYNONYMS: way, road, walk, track, trail, avenue, footpath, berm (NZ)

2 a surfaced walk, such as through a garden

◇ SYNONYMS: way, road, walk, track, trail, avenue, footpath, berm (NZ)

3 the course or direction in which something moves: his car skidded into the path of an oncoming lorry

◇ SYNONYMS: route, way, course, direction

4 a course of conduct: the path of reconciliation and forgiveness

◇ SYNONYMS: course, way, road, route pathetic adj

1 arousing pity or sympathy

◇ SYNONYMS: sad, moving, touching, affecting, distressing, tender, poignant, plaintive

2 distressingly inadequate: his pathetic attempt to maintain a stiff upper lip failed > pathetically adv

pathname n (computers) the name of a file or directory together with its position in relation to other directories pathogen n any agent, such as a bacterium, that can cause disease > pathogenic adj

pathological adj
1 of or relating to pathology 2 (informal) compulsively motivated: pathological jealousy pathology n the branch of medicine that studies diseases > pathologist n pathos n the power, for example in literature, of arousing feelings of pity or sorrow patience n

1 the capacity for calmly enduring difficult situations: the endless patience of the nurses
◇ SYNONYMS: forbearance, tolerance, serenity, restraint, calmness, sufferance
2 the ability to wait calmly for something to happen without complaining or giving up: he urged the international community to have patience to allow sanctions to work
◇ SYNONYMS: endurance, resignation, submission, fortitude, long-suffering, perseverance, stoicism, constancy 3 (Brit & NZ) a card game for one player only patient adj

1 enduring difficult situations with an even temper ◇ SYNONYMS: forbearing, understanding, forgiving, mild, tolerant, indulgent, lenient, even-tempered 2 persevering or diligent: his years of patient work may finally pay off ◇ SYNONYMS: long-suffering, resigned, calm, enduring, philosophical, persevering, stoical, submissive

► n

3 a person who is receiving medical care

◇ SYNONYMS: sick person, case, sufferer, invalid > patiently adv

patina n

1 a film formed on the surface of a metal

2 the sheen on the surface of an old object, caused by age and much handling patio n, pl -tios

1 a paved area adjoining a house: a barbecue on the patio

2 an open inner courtyard in a Spanish or Spanish-American house patois (pat-wah) n, pl patois (pat-wahz)

1 a regional dialect of a language

2 the jargon of a particular group patriarch n

1 the male head of a tribe or family

2 (Bible) any of the men regarded as the fathers of the human race or of the Hebrew people

3

A (RC Church) the pope

B (Eastern Orthodox Church) a highest-ranking bishop

4 an old man who is respected > patriarchal adj

patriarchy n

1 a form of social organization in which males hold most of the power

2 pl -chies a society governed by such a system patrician n

- 1 a member of the nobility of ancient Rome
- 2 an aristocrat
- 3 a person of refined conduct and tastes
- adj
- 4 (in ancient Rome) of or relating to patricians
- 5 aristocratic patricide n

- 1 the act of killing one's father
- 2 a person who kills his or her father
- > patricidal adj

patrimony n, pl -nies an inheritance from one's father or other ancestor patriot n a person who loves his or her country and passionately supports its interests

- ◇ SYNONYMS: nationalist, loyalist, chauvinist
- > patriotic adj
- > patriotically adv
- > patriotism n

patrol n

- 1 the action of going round an area or building at regular intervals for purposes of security or observation
- 2 a person or group that carries out such an action
- ◇ SYNONYMS: guard, watch, watchman, sentinel, patrolman
- 3 a group of soldiers or ships involved in patrolling a particular area
- 4 a division of a troop of Scouts or Guides
- vb -trolling, -trolled
- 5 to engage in a patrol of (a place): peacekeepers patrolled several areas of the city
- ◇ SYNONYMS: police, guard, keep watch (on), inspect, safeguard, keep guard (on) patron n

1 a person who financially supports artists, writers, musicians, or charities

◇ SYNONYMS: supporter, friend, champion, sponsor, backer, helper, benefactor, philanthropist

2 a regular customer of a shop, hotel, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: customer, client, buyer, frequenter, shopper, habitué patronage n

1 the support or custom given by a patron

◇ SYNONYMS: support, promotion, sponsorship, backing, help, aid, assistance

2 (in politics) the ability or power to appoint people to jobs

3 a condescending manner patronize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised

1 to treat (someone) in a condescending way

2 to be a patron of > patronizing or -nising adj > patronizingly or -nisingly adv

patron saint n a saint regarded as the particular guardian of a country or a group of people patronymic n a name derived from one's father's or a male ancestor's patter¹ vb

1 to make repeated light tapping sounds

2 to walk with quick soft steps

► n

3 a quick succession of light tapping sounds, such as by feet: the steady patter of rain against the window

patter² n

1 the glib rapid speech of comedians or salespeople

- 2 chatter
- 3 the jargon of a particular group
- ▶ vb
- 4 to speak glibly and rapidly pattern n

- 1 an arrangement of repeated parts or decorative designs
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: design, arrangement, motif, figure, device, decoration
- 2 a regular recognizable way that something is done: I followed a normal eating pattern
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: order, plan, system, method, sequence
- 3 a plan or diagram used as a guide to making something: a knitting pattern
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: plan, design, original, guide, diagram, stencil, template
- 4 a model worthy of imitation: a pattern of kindness
- 5 a representative sample
- ▶ vb
- 6 (foll. by after or on) to model: an orchestra patterned after Count Basie's patterned adj having a decorative pattern on it: a selection of plain and patterned fabrics

patty n, pl -ties

- 1 a small flattened cake of minced food
- 2 a small round pie filled with meat or vegetables paucity n (formal)

- 1 scarcity
- 2 smallness of amount or number paunch n a protruding belly or abdomen > paunchy adj

pauper n

- 1 a person who is extremely poor
- 2 (formerly) a person supported by public charity pause vb pausing, paused

- 1 to stop doing (something) for a short time
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: stop briefly, delay, break, wait, rest, halt, cease, interrupt
- 2 to hesitate: she answered him without pausing
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: stop briefly, delay, break, wait, rest, halt, cease, interrupt
- n
- 3 a temporary stop or rest in speech or action
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: stop, break, interval, rest, gap, halt, respite, lull
- 4 (music) a continuation of a note or rest beyond its normal length
- 5 give someone pause to cause someone to hesitate: it gave him pause for reflection

pave vb paving, paved

- 1 to cover (a road or area of ground) with a firm surface to make it suitable for walking or travelling on
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: cover, floor, surface, concrete, tile
- 2 pave the way for to prepare or make easier: the arrests paved the way for the biggest-ever Mafia trial

pavement n

- 1 a hard-surfaced path for pedestrians, alongside and a little higher than a road
- 2 the material used in paving
- 3 (US) the surface of a road pavilion n

- 1 a building at a sports ground, esp. a cricket pitch, in which players can wash and change
- 2 an open building or temporary structure used for exhibitions
- 3 a summerhouse or other decorative shelter
- 4 a large ornate tent

paw n

1 a four-legged mammal's foot with claws and pads

2 (informal) a hand

► vb

3 to scrape or hit with the paws

4 (informal) to touch or caress (someone) in a rough or overfamiliar manner

◇ SYNONYMS: manhandle, grab, maul, molest, handle roughly pawn¹ vb

1 to deposit (an article) as security for money borrowed

2 to stake or risk: I will pawn my honour on this matter

► n

3 an article deposited as security

4 the condition of being so deposited: in pawn pawn² n

1 a chessman of the lowest value, usually able to move only one square forward at a time

2 a person or thing manipulated by someone else: our city is just a pawn in their power games pawnbroker n a person licensed to lend money on goods deposited > pawnbroking n

pay vb pays, paying, paid

1 to give (money) in return for goods or services: Willie paid for the drinks; nurses are not very well paid

◇ SYNONYMS: reward, compensate, reimburse, recompense, requite, remunerate (formal), front up

2 to settle (a debt or obligation) by giving or doing something: he has paid his debt to society

◇ SYNONYMS: settle

3 to suffer: she paid dearly for her mistake

4 to give (a compliment, regards, attention, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: give, extend, present with, grant, hand out, bestow

5 to profit or benefit (someone): it doesn't always pay to be honest

◇ SYNONYMS: be profitable, make money, make a return

6 to make (a visit or call)

7 to yield a return of: the account pays 5% interest

◇ SYNONYMS: bring in, earn, return, net, yield

8 pay one's way

A to contribute one's share of expenses

B to remain solvent without outside help

► n

9 money given in return for work or services; a salary or wage ◇ SYNONYMS: wages, income, payment, earnings, fee, reward, salary, allowance

10 in the pay of employed by payable adj

1 (often foll. by on) due to be paid: the instalments are payable on the third of each month

◇ SYNONYMS: due, outstanding, owed, owing

2 that is capable of being paid: pensions are payable to those disabled during the wars

payday n the day on which wages or salaries are paid

PAYE (in Britain, Australia, and New Zealand) pay as you earn; a system by which income tax is deducted by employers and paid directly to the government payee n the person to whom a cheque or money order is made out paying guest n (euphemistic) a lodger payload n

1 the amount of passengers, cargo, or bombs which an aircraft can carry

2 the part of a cargo which earns revenue

3 the explosive power of a warhead or bomb carried by a missile or aircraft payment n

1 the act of paying

◇ SYNONYMS: settlement, paying, discharge, remittance

2 a sum of money paid

◇ SYNONYMS: remittance, advance, deposit, premium, instalment, e-payment

3 something given in return; punishment or reward

◇ SYNONYMS: wages, fee, reward, hire, remuneration pay off vb

1 to pay the complete amount of (a debt)

◇ SYNONYMS pay something off: settle, clear, square, discharge, pay in full

2 to pay (someone) all that is due in wages and dismiss him or her from employment

3 to turn out successfully: her persistence finally paid off

◇ SYNONYMS pay off: succeed, work, be effective

4 (informal) to give a bribe to ► n payoff

5 (informal) the climax or outcome of events

6 (informal) a bribe

7 the final payment of a debt

8 the final settlement, esp. in retribution: the payoff came when the gang besieged the squealer's house

payola n (informal) a bribe to secure special treatment, esp. to promote a commercial product pay out vb

1 to spend (money) on a particular thing

2 to release (a rope) gradually, bit by bit

► n payout

3 a sum of money paid out payroll n a list of employees, giving the salary or wage of each paywall n a system preventing a user from accessing certain information on a website unless a fee is paid

pc

1 per cent

2 postcard

PC

1 personal computer

2 (in Britain) Police Constable

3 politically correct

4 (in Britain) Privy Council or Counsellor

5 (in Canada) Progressive Conservative

PDA personal digital assistant

PDF portable document format: a format in which electronic documents may be viewed

PE

1 physical education

2 Prince Edward Island

pea n

1 an annual climbing plant with green pods containing green seeds

2 the seed of this plant, eaten as a vegetable peace n

1 stillness or silence

◇ SYNONYMS: stillness, rest, quiet, silence, calm, hush, tranquillity, seclusion

2 absence of mental anxiety: peace of mind

◇ SYNONYMS: serenity, calm, composure, contentment, repose, equanimity, peacefulness, harmoniousness

3 absence of war

4 harmony between people or groups

◇ SYNONYMS: harmony, accord, agreement, concord

5 a treaty marking the end of a war

◇ SYNONYMS: truce, ceasefire, treaty, armistice

6 law and order within a state: a breach of the peace

7 at peace

A dead: the woman is at peace now

B in a state of harmony or serenity

8 hold or keep one's peace to keep silent

9 keep the peace to maintain law and order peaceable adj

1 inclined towards peace

2 tranquil or calm peaceful adj

1 not in a state of war or disagreement

◇ SYNONYMS: friendly, at peace, harmonious, amicable, nonviolent

2 calm or tranquil

◇ SYNONYMS: calm, still, quiet, tranquil, restful, chilled (informal) > peacefully adv

peach n

1 a soft juicy fruit with a downy skin, yellowish-orange sweet flesh, and a single stone

2 (informal) a person or thing that is especially pleasing: a peach of a goal

► adj

3 pale pinkish-orange peacock n, pl -cocks or -cock

1 a large male bird of the pheasant family with a crested head and a very large fanlike tail with blue and green eyelike spots

2 a vain strutting person > peahen fem n

peak n

1 a pointed tip or projection: the peak of the roof

◇ SYNONYMS: point, top, tip, summit, brow, crest, pinnacle, apex

2

A the pointed summit of a mountain

◇ SYNONYMS: point, top, tip, summit, brow, crest, pinnacle, apex

B a mountain with a pointed summit

3 the point of greatest success or achievement: the peak of his career

◇ SYNONYMS: high point, crown, climax, culmination, zenith, acme

4 a projecting piece on the front of some caps

► vb

5 to form or reach a peak

◇ SYNONYMS: culminate, climax, come to a head

► adj

6 of or relating to a period of greatest demand: hotels are generally dearer in peak season

peaked adj having a peak peaky adj peakier, peakiest pale and sickly peal n

1 a long loud echoing sound, such as of bells or thunder

► vb

2 to sound with a peal or peals peanut n a plant with edible nutlike seeds which ripen underground pear n

- 1 a sweet juicy fruit with a narrow top and a rounded base
- 2 go pear-shaped (informal) to go wrong: the plan started to go pear-shaped

pearl n

- 1 a hard smooth greyish-white rounded object found inside the shell of a clam or oyster and much valued as a gem
 - 2 a person or thing that is like a pearl in beauty or value
- adj
- 3 of, made of, or set with pearl or mother-of-pearl
- vb
- 4 to set with or as if with pearls
 - 5 to shape into or assume a pearl-like form or colour
 - 6 to dive for pearls pearly adj pearlier, pearliest

- 1 resembling a pearl, esp. in lustre
- 2 decorated with pearls or mother-of-pearl peasant n

- 1 a member of a low social class employed in agricultural labour
- ◇ SYNONYMS: rustic, countryman
- 2 (informal) an uncouth or uncultured person peasantry n peasants as a class peat n decaying vegetable matter found in uplands and bogs and used as a fuel (when dried) and as a fertilizer pebble n

- 1 a small smooth rounded stone, esp. one worn by the action of water
- vb -bling, -bled
- 2 to cover with pebbles > pebbly adj

pebble dash n (Brit & Austral) a finish for external walls consisting of small stones set in plaster pecan (pee-kan) n a smooth oval nut with a sweet oily kernel that grows on hickory trees in the Southern US peccadillo n, pl -loes or -los a trivial misdeed peck vb

1 to strike or pick up with the beak

◇ SYNONYMS: pick, hit, strike, tap, poke, jab, prick

2 (informal) to kiss (a person) quickly and lightly

◇ SYNONYMS: kiss, plant a kiss, give someone a smacker, give someone a peck or kiss

3 peck at to eat slowly and reluctantly: pecking away at your lunch

► n

4 a quick light blow from a bird's beak

5 a mark made by such a blow

6 (informal) a quick light kiss

◇ SYNONYMS: kiss, smacker, osculation (rare) peckish adj (informal) feeling slightly hungry pectin n (biochem) a water-soluble carbohydrate that occurs in ripe fruit: used in the manufacture of jams because of its ability to gel

pectoral adj

1 of or relating to the chest, breast, or thorax: pectoral fins

2 worn on the breast or chest: a pectoral cross

► n

3 a pectoral organ or part, esp. a muscle or fin peculiar adj

1 strange or odd: a peculiar idea

◇ SYNONYMS: odd, strange, unusual, bizarre, funny, extraordinary, curious, weird

2 distinct or special

◇ SYNONYMS: special, particular, unique, characteristic

3 (foll. by to) belonging exclusively (to): a fish peculiar to these waters peculiarity n, pl -ties

1 a strange or unusual habit; eccentricity

2 a distinguishing trait

3 the state or quality of being peculiar pecuniary adj

1 of or relating to money

2 (law) (of an offence) involving a monetary penalty pedagogue or (sometimes US) pedagog n a teacher, esp. a pedantic one > pedagogic adj

pedal n

1 a foot-operated lever used to control a vehicle or machine, or to modify the tone of a musical instrument

► vb -dalling, -dalled (US) -daling, -daled

2 to propel (a bicycle) by operating the pedals

3 to operate the pedals of an organ or piano pedant n a person who is concerned chiefly with insignificant detail or who relies too much on academic learning > pedantic adj

> pedantically adv

pedantry n, pl -ries the practice of being a pedant, esp. in the minute observance of petty rules or details peddle vb -dling, -dled

1 to sell (goods) from place to place

◇ SYNONYMS: sell, trade, push (informal), market, hawk, flog (slang)

2 to sell (illegal drugs)

3 to advocate (an idea or information) persistently: the version of events being peddled by his opponents pederast or paederast n a man who has homosexual relations with boys > pederasty or paederasty n pedestal n

1 a base that supports something, such as a statue

2 put someone on a pedestal to admire someone very much pedestrian n

1 a person who travels on foot

◇ SYNONYMS: walker, foot-traveller

► adj

2 dull or commonplace: a pedestrian performance

◇ SYNONYMS: dull, ordinary, boring, commonplace, mundane, mediocre, banal, prosaic, half-pie (NZ informal) pedestrian crossing n (Brit & Austral) a path across a road marked as a crossing for pedestrians pedestrian precinct n (Brit) an area of a town for pedestrians only, esp. an area of shops pedicure n medical or cosmetic treatment of the feet pedigree n

1 the line of descent of a purebred animal

◇ SYNONYMS: lineage, family, line, race, stock, blood, breed, descent

2 a document recording this

3 a genealogical table, esp. one indicating pure ancestry pediment n a triangular part over a door, as used in classical architecture pedlar or (esp US) peddler n a person who peddles pee (informal) vb peeing, peed

1 to urinate

► n

2 urine

3 the act of urinating peek vb

1 to glance quickly or secretly

► n

2 such a glance peel vb

1 to remove the skin or rind of (a fruit or vegetable)

◇ SYNONYMS: skin, scale, strip, pare, shuck, flake off, take the skin or rind off

2 to come off in flakes

3 (of a person or part of the body) to shed skin in flakes as a result of sunburn

► n

4 the skin or rind of a fruit, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: rind, skin, peeling peelings pl n strips of skin or rind that have been peeled off: potato peelings

peep¹ vb

1 to look slyly or quickly, such as through a small opening or from a hidden place

◇ SYNONYMS: peek, look, eyeball (slang), sneak a look, steal a look

2 to appear partially or briefly: the sun peeped through the clouds

► n

3 a quick or sly look

◇ SYNONYMS: look, glimpse, peek, look-see (slang)

4 the first appearance: the peep of dawn

peep² vb

1 (esp. of young birds) to make small shrill noises

► n

2 a peeping sound

Peeping Tom n a man who furtively observes people undressing peer¹ n

1 a member of a nobility

◇ SYNONYMS: noble, lord, aristocrat, nobleman or woman

2 a person who holds any of the five grades of the British nobility: duke, marquess, earl, viscount, and baron

◇ SYNONYMS: noble, lord, aristocrat, nobleman or woman

3 a person of equal social standing, rank, age, etc.: he is greatly respected by his peers in the arts world

◇ SYNONYMS: equal, like, fellow (old-fashioned), contemporary, compeer peer² vb

1 to look intently or as if with difficulty: Amir peered anxiously at his father's face

◇ SYNONYMS: squint, look, spy, gaze, scan, inspect, peep, peek

2 to appear dimly: the sun peered through the fog peerage (Brit) n

- 1 the whole body of peers; aristocracy
- 2 the position, rank, or title of a peer peeress n

- 1 (in Britain) a woman holding the rank of a peer
- 2 the wife or widow of a peer peer group n a social group composed of people of similar age and status peerless adj having no equals; unsurpassed peer pressure n influence from one's peer group peevish adj fretful or irritable > peevishly adv

peewee n a black-and-white Australian bird peewit or pewit n same as lapwing peg n

1 a small pin or bolt used to join two parts together, to fasten, or to mark

◇ SYNONYMS: pin, spike, rivet, skewer, dowel, spigot

2 a hook or knob for hanging things on 3 (music) a pin on a stringed instrument which can be turned to tune the string wound around it

4 Also called: clothes peg a split or hinged pin for fastening wet clothes to a line to dry

5 (Brit) a small drink of spirits

6 an opportunity or pretext for doing something: the play's subject matter provides a perfect peg for a discussion of issues like morality and faith

7 bring or take (someone) down a peg to lower the pride of (someone)

8 off the peg (Brit & NZ) (of clothes) ready-to-wear, as opposed to tailor-made ► vb pegging, pegged

9 to insert a peg into

10 to secure with pegs: the balloon was pegged down to stop it drifting away

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, join, fix, secure, attach 11 to mark (a score) with pegs, as in some card games

12 (chiefly Brit) to work steadily: he pegged away at his job for years

13 to fix or maintain something, such as prices, at a particular level or value: a fixed-rate mortgage, pegged at 4.6 per cent

peggy square n (NZ) a small hand-knitted square peignoir (pay-nwahr) n a woman's light dressing gown pejorative (pij-jor-a-tiv) adj

1 (of a word or expression) having an insulting or critical sense

► n

2 a pejorative word or expression

Pekingese or Pekinese n

- 1 pl -ese a small dog with a long straight coat, curled plumed tail, and short wrinkled muzzle 2 the dialect of Mandarin Chinese spoken in Beijing pelargonium n a plant with circular leaves and red, pink, or white flowers: includes many cultivated geraniums pelican n a large water bird with a pouch beneath its long bill for holding fish pelican crossing n (in Britain) a type of road crossing with a pedestrian-operated traffic-light system pellagra n (pathol) a disease caused by a diet lacking in vitamin B, which results in scaling of the skin, diarrhoea, and mental disorder pellet n

- 1 a small round ball, esp. of compressed matter 2
A an imitation bullet used in toy guns
B a piece of small shot 3 a small pill

pell-mell adv

- 1 in a confused headlong rush: the hounds ran pell-mell into the yard 2 in a disorderly manner: the things were piled pell-mell in the room pellucid adj (literary)

- 1 transparent or translucent 2 extremely clear in style and meaning pelmet n a board or piece of fabric used to conceal the curtain rail pelt¹ vb

1 to throw (missiles) at 2 (foll. by along etc) to hurry

3 to rain heavily

► n

4 a blow

5 at full pelt very quickly: she ran down the street at full pelt pelt² n the skin or fur of an animal, esp. as material for clothing or rugs: the lucrative international trade in beaver pelts pelvis n, pl -vises or -ves

1 the framework of bones at the base of the spine, to which the hips are attached

2 the bones that form this structure > pelvic adj

pen¹ n

1 an instrument for writing or drawing using ink

► See also ballpoint, fountain pen

2 the pen writing as an occupation

► vb penning, penned

3 to write or compose

◇ SYNONYMS: write (down), draft, compose, pencil, draw up, scribble, take down, inscribe pen² n

1 an enclosure in which domestic animals are kept ◇ SYNONYMS: enclosure, pound, fold, cage, coop, hutch, sty

2 any place of confinement

► vb penning, penned or pent

3 to enclose (animals) in a pen

◇ SYNONYMS: enclose, confine, cage, fence in, coop up, hedge in, shut up or in 4 penned in being or feeling trapped or confined: she stood penned in by bodies at the front of the crowd

pen³ n (US & Canad informal) short for penitentiary

pen⁴ n a female swan penal (pee-nal) adj

1 of or relating to punishment

2 used as a place of punishment: a penal colony > penally adv

penalize or -ise vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised

1 to impose a penalty on (someone) for breaking a law or rule

2 to inflict a disadvantage on: use of the car is penalized by increasing parking charges > penalization or -isation n penalty n, pl -ties

1 a legal punishment for a crime or offence

◇ SYNONYMS: punishment, price, fine, handicap, forfeit

2 loss or suffering as a result of one's own action: we are now paying the penalty for neglecting to keep our equipment up to date

3 (sport, games, etc.) a handicap awarded against a player or team for illegal play, such as a free shot at goal by the opposing team penance n

1 voluntary self-punishment to make amends for a sin

2 (RC Church) a sacrament in which repentant sinners are forgiven provided they confess their sins to a priest and perform a penance pence n a plural of penny penchant (pon-shon) n strong inclination or liking: a stylish woman with a penchant for dark glasses

pencil n

1 a rod of graphite encased in wood which is used for writing or drawing

► vb -cilling, -cilled (US) -ciling, -ciled

2 to draw, colour, write, or mark with a pencil

3 pencil in to note, arrange, or include provisionally or tentatively pendant n

A an ornament worn on a chain round the neck: a beautiful pearl pendant

B an ornament that hangs from a piece of jewellery pendent adj (literary)

1 dangling

2 jutting pending prep

1 while waiting for

◇ SYNONYMS: awaiting, until, waiting for, till

► adj

2 not yet decided or settled

◇ SYNONYMS: undecided, unsettled, in the balance, undetermined

3 imminent: these developments have been pending for some time

◇ SYNONYMS: forthcoming, imminent, prospective, impending, in the wind pendulous adj (literary) hanging downwards and swinging freelypendulum n

1 a weight suspended so it swings freely under the influence of gravity

2 such a device used to regulate a clock mechanism

3 a movement from one attitude or belief towards its opposite: the pendulum has swung back to more punitive measures penetrate vb -trating, -trated

1 to find or force a way into or through ◇ SYNONYMS: pierce, enter, go through, bore, stab, prick

2 to diffuse through; permeate: the smell of cooking penetrated through to the sitting room

3 to see through: the sunlight did not penetrate the thick canopy of leaves

4 (of a man) to insert the penis into the vagina or anus of (a person)

5 to grasp the meaning of (a principle, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: grasp, work out, figure out (informal), comprehend, fathom, decipher, suss (out) (slang), get to the bottom of > penetrable adj

> penetrative adj

penetrating adj tending to or able to penetrate: a penetrating mind; a penetrating voice

◇ SYNONYMS: sharp, harsh, piercing, carrying, piping, loud, strident, shrill penetration n

1 the act or an instance of penetrating

◇ SYNONYMS: piercing, entry, entrance, puncturing, incision

2 the ability or power to penetrate

3 keen insight or perception pen friend n a person with whom one exchanges letters, often a person in another country whom one has not met penguin n a flightless black-and-white sea bird with webbed feet and wings modified as flippers for swimming penicillin n an antibiotic used to treat diseases caused by bacteria peninsula n a narrow strip of land projecting from the mainland into a sea or lake > peninsular adj

penis n, pl -nises or -nes the organ of copulation in higher vertebrates, also used for urinating in many mammals > penile adj

penitent adj
1 feeling regret for one's sins; repentant
▶ n
2 a person who is penitent > penitence n penitential adj of, showing, or as a penance penitentiary n, pl -ries 1 (in the US and Canada) a state or federal prison

▶ adj
2 of or for penance 3 used for punishment and reformation: the penitentiary system

penknife n, pl -knives a small knife with one or more blades that fold into the handle pen name n a name used by a writer instead of his or her real name; nom de plume pennant n

1 a long narrow flag, esp. one used by ships as identification or for signalling 2 (chiefly US & Canad & Austral) a flag indicating the winning of a championship in certain sports penniless adj very poor penny n, pl pennies or pence

- 1 a British bronze coin worth one hundredth of a pound
- 2 a former British and Australian coin worth one twelfth of a shilling
- 3 pl pennies (US & Canad) a cent
- 4 (informal, chiefly Brit) the least amount of money: I don't have a penny
- 5 a pretty penny (informal) a considerable sum of money
- 6 spend a penny (Brit & NZ informal) to urinate
- 7 the penny dropped (informal) the explanation of something was finally understood pension¹ n

- 1 a regular payment made by the state or a former employer to a person who has retired or to a widowed or disabled person
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: allowance, benefit, welfare, annuity, superannuation
 - ▶ vb
- 2 to grant a pension to
 - ▶ See also pension off
 - > pensionable adj
 - > pensioner n

pension² (pon-syon) n (in France and some other countries) a relatively cheap boarding house pension off vb to cause (someone) to retire from a job and pay him or her a pension pensive adj deeply thoughtful, often with a tinge of sadness

- > pensively adv

pentagon n (geom) a figure with five sides

- > pentagonal adj

Pentagon n a five-sided building in Washington DC that houses the headquarters of the US Department of Defense pentameter (pen-tam-it-er) n a line of poetry consisting of five metrical feet

Pentateuch (pent-a-tyuke) n the first five books of the Old Testament > Pentateuchal adj

Pentecost n a Christian festival occurring on Whit Sunday celebrating the descent of the Holy Ghost to the apostles penthouse n a luxurious flat built on the top floor or roof of a building pent-up adj not released; repressed: full of pent-up emotional violence penultimate adj second last penumbra n, pl -brae or -bras

1 the partially shadowed region which surrounds the full shadow in an eclipse

2 (literary) a partial shadow > penumbral adj

penurious adj (formal)

1 niggardly with money

2 lacking money or means penury n (formal)

1 extreme poverty

2 extreme scarcity peony n, pl -nies a garden plant with showy pink, red, white, or yellow flowers people pl n

1 persons collectively or in general

◇ SYNONYMS: humankind, persons, individuals, folk (informal), men and women, humanity, mankind, mortals, the human race

2 a group of persons considered together: young people

3 pl -ples the persons living in a particular country: the American people

◇ SYNONYMS: nation, public, community, subjects, population, residents, citizens, folk

4 one's family or ancestors: her people originally came from Skye

◇ SYNONYMS: family, parents, relations, relatives, folk, folks (informal), clan, kin, rellies (Austral slang)

5 the people

A the mass of ordinary persons without rank or privileges

B the body of persons in a country who are entitled to vote

► vb -pling, -pled

6 to provide with inhabitants: the centre of the continent is sparsely peopled

◇ SYNONYMS: inhabit, occupy, settle, populate, colonize people mover n (Brit & Austral & NZ) same as multipurpose vehicle pep n

1 high spirits, energy, or vitality

► vb pepping, pepped

2 pep up to make more lively or interesting: the company has spent thousands trying to pep up its image

pepper n

1 a sharp hot condiment obtained from the fruit of an Asian climbing plant

◇ SYNONYMS: seasoning, flavour, spice

2 Also called: capsicum a colourful tropical fruit used as a vegetable and a condiment

► vb

3 to season with pepper

4 to sprinkle liberally: his speech is heavily peppered with Americanisms

- ◇ SYNONYMS: sprinkle, spot, scatter, dot, fleck, intersperse, speck, spatter 5 to pelt with small missiles ◇ SYNONYMS: pelt, hit, shower, blitz, rake, bombard, assail, strafe peppercorn n the small dried berry of the pepper plant peppercorn rent n (Brit) a rent that is very low or nominal peppermint n

- 1 a mint plant which produces a pungent oil, used as a flavouring
- 2 a sweet flavoured with peppermint pepper spray n a defence spray agent derived from hot cayenne peppers, which causes temporary blindness and breathing difficulty peppery adj

- 1 tasting of pepper
- 2 irritable

pep talk n (informal) a talk designed to increase confidence and enthusiasm peptic adj

- 1 of or relating to digestion
- 2 of or caused by pepsin or the action of the digestive juices: a peptic ulcer

per prep

- 1 for every: three pence per pound; 30 pounds per week
- 2 by; through
- 3 as per according to: proceed as per the instructions
- 4 as per usual or as per normal (informal) as usual perambulate vb -lating, -lated (formal) to walk about (a place) > perambulation n perambulator n (formal) same as pram per annum adv in each year per capita adj, adv of or for each person: the average per capita wage has increased perceive vb -ceiving, -ceived

1 to become aware of (something) through the senses

◇ SYNONYMS: see, notice, note, identify, discover, spot, observe, recognize

2 to understand or grasp ◇ SYNONYMS: understand, gather, see, learn, realize, grasp, comprehend, suss (out) (slang) > perceivable adj

per cent adv

1 in each hundred. SYMBOL: %

► n also percent

2 a percentage or proportion percentage n

1 proportion or rate per hundred parts

2 any proportion in relation to the whole: a small percentage of the population

3 (informal) profit or advantage perceptible adj able to be perceived; recognizable > perceptibly adv

perception n

1 the act of perceiving

2 insight or intuition: his acute perception of other people's emotions

◇ SYNONYMS: understanding, intelligence, observation, discrimination, insight, sharpness, cleverness, keenness

3 the ability to perceive

4 way of viewing: advertising affects the customer's perception of a product

◇ SYNONYMS: awareness, understanding, sense, impression, feeling, idea, notion, consciousness > perceptual adj

perceptive adj

1 observant

2 able to perceive > perceptively adv

> perceptiveness n

perch¹ n

1 a branch or other resting place above ground for a bird

◇ SYNONYMS: resting place, post, branch, pole

2 any raised resting place: from his perch on the bar stool

► vb

3 (of birds) to alight or rest on a perch: it fluttered to the branch and perched there for a moment

◇ SYNONYMS: sit, rest, balance, settle

4 to place or position precariously: he was perched uneasily on the edge of his chair

◇ SYNONYMS: place, put, rest, balance perch² n, pl perch or perches

1 a spiny-finned edible freshwater fish of Europe and North America

2 any of various similar or related fishes perchance adv (archaic, or poetic)

1 perhaps

2 by chance percipient adj (formal) quick at perceiving; observant > percipience n

percolate vb -lating, -lated

1 to pass or filter through very small holes: the light percolating through the stained-glass windows cast coloured patterns on the floor

2 to spread gradually: his theories percolated through the academic community

3 to make (coffee) or (of coffee) to be made in a percolator > percolation n

percolator n a coffee pot in which boiling water is forced up through a tube and filters down through the coffee grounds into a container percussion n

1 the striking of one thing against another

2 (music) percussion instruments collectively > percussive adj

percussion instrument n a musical instrument, such as the drums, that produces a sound when struck directly perdition n

1 (Christianity) final and unalterable spiritual ruin; damnation

2 same as hell peregrine falcon n a European falcon with dark plumage on the back and wings and lighter underparts peremptory adj

1 urgent or commanding: a peremptory knock on the door

2 expecting immediate obedience without any discussion: he gave peremptory instructions to his son

3 dogmatic

> peremptorily adv

perennial adj

1 lasting throughout the year or through many years

◇ SYNONYMS: continual, lasting, constant, enduring, persistent, abiding, recurrent, incessant

► n

2 a plant that continues its growth for at least three years > perennially adv

perfect adj

1 having all essential elements

◇ SYNONYMS: faultless, correct, pure, impeccable, exemplary, flawless, foolproof

2 faultless: a perfect circle

◇ SYNONYMS: faultless, correct, pure, impeccable, exemplary, flawless, foolproof

3 correct or precise: perfect timing

◇ SYNONYMS: exact, true, accurate, precise, correct, faithful, unerring

4 utter or absolute: a perfect stranger

◇ SYNONYMS: complete, absolute, sheer, utter, consummate, unmitigated

5 excellent in all respects: a perfect day

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, ideal, supreme, superb, splendid, sublime, superlative

6 (maths) exactly divisible into equal integral or polynomial roots: 36 is a perfect square

7 (grammar) denoting a tense of verbs used to describe a completed action

► n

8 (grammar) the perfect tense

► vb

9 to improve to one's satisfaction: he is in Paris to perfect his French

◇ SYNONYMS: improve, develop, polish, refine

10 to make fully accomplished: he perfected the system > perfectly adv

perfection n the state or quality of being perfect ◇ SYNONYMS: excellence, integrity, superiority, purity, wholeness, sublimity, exquisiteness, faultlessness perfectionism n the demand for the highest standard of excellence > perfectionist n, adj perfidious adj (literary) treacherous or deceitful > perfidy n

perforate vb -rating, -rated

1 to make a hole or holes in 2 to punch rows of holes between (stamps) for ease of separation > perforable adj

> perforator n

perforation n

1 a hole or holes made in something

2 a series of punched holes, such as that between individual stamps perforce adv (formal) of necessity perform vb

1 to carry out (an action): the hospital performs more than a hundred such operations each year

◇ SYNONYMS: do, achieve, carry out, complete, fulfil, accomplish, execute, pull off

2 to present (a play or concert): he performed a couple of songs from his new album

◇ SYNONYMS: present, act (out), stage, play, produce, represent, put on, enact

3 to fulfil: you have performed the first of two conditions

◇ SYNONYMS: fulfil, carry out, execute, discharge > performable adj > performer n

performance n

1 the act or process of performing

◇ SYNONYMS: presentation, playing, acting (out), staging, production, exhibition, rendering, portrayal

2 an artistic or dramatic production: the concert includes the first performance of a new trumpet concerto

◇ SYNONYMS: show, appearance, concert, gig (informal), recital

3 manner or quality of functioning: the car's overall performance is excellent

4 (informal) conduct or behaviour, esp. when distasteful: what did you mean by that performance at the restaurant?

perfume n

1 a liquid cosmetic worn for its pleasant smell

◇ SYNONYMS: fragrance, scent

2 a fragrant smell

◇ SYNONYMS: scent, smell, fragrance, bouquet, aroma, odour

► vb -fuming, -fumed

3 to impart a perfume to > perfumed adj

perfunctory adj (formal) done only as a matter of routine: he gave his wife a perfunctory kiss > perfunctorily adv

> perfunctoriness n

pergola n an arched trellis or framework that supports climbing plants perhaps adv

1 possibly; maybe

◇ SYNONYMS: maybe, possibly, it may be, it is possible (that), conceivably, perchance (archaic), feasibly, happen (N English dialect) 2 approximately; roughly: it would have taken perhaps three or four minutes pericardium n, pl -dia the membranous sac enclosing the heart > pericardial adj

perihelion n, pl -lia (astron) the point in its orbit around the sun when a planet or comet is nearest the sun peril n great danger or jeopardy ◇ SYNONYMS: danger, risk, threat, hazard, menace, jeopardy, perilousness > perilous adj > perilously adv

perimeter (per-rim-it-er) n
1 (maths)
A the curve or line enclosing a plane area
B the length of this curve or line 2 any boundary around something ◇ SYNONYMS: boundary, edge, border, bounds, limit, margin, confines, periphery perinatal adj of or occurring in the period from about three months before to one month after birth period n

1 a portion of time: six inches of rain fell in a 24-hour period ◇ SYNONYMS: time, term, season, space, run, stretch, spell, phase 2 a portion of time specified in some way: the President's first period of office 3 an occurrence of menstruation 4 (geol) a unit of geological time during which a system of rocks is formed: the Jurassic period

5 a division of time at school, college, or university when a particular subject is taught

6 (physics, maths) the time taken to complete one cycle of a regularly recurring phenomenon

7 (chem) one of the horizontal rows of elements in the periodic table

8 (chiefly US & Canad) same as full stop

► adj

9 dating from or in the style of an earlier time: a performance on period instruments periodic adj recurring at intervals ◇ SYNONYMS: recurrent, regular, repeated, occasional, cyclical, sporadic, intermittent > periodically adv

> periodicity n

periodical n

1 a publication issued at regular intervals, usually monthly or weekly

► adj

2 of or relating to such publications

3 periodic or occasional periodic table n (chem) a table of the elements, arranged in order of increasing atomic number, based on the periodic law peripatetic (per-rip-a-tet-ik) adj

1 travelling from place to place

2 (Brit) employed in two or more educational establishments and travelling from one to another: a peripatetic violin teacher

► n

3 a peripatetic person peripheral (per-if-er-al) adj

1 not relating to the most important part of something; incidental ◇ SYNONYMS: secondary, minor, marginal, irrelevant, unimportant, incidental, inessential

2 of or relating to a periphery

◇ SYNONYMS: outermost, outside, external, outer, exterior

► n

3 (computers) any device, such as a printer, that can be connected to a computer periphery (per-if-er-ee) n, pl -eries

1 the boundary or edge of an area or group: slums sprouted up on the periphery of the city

2 fringes of a field of activity: less developed countries on the periphery of the capitalist system

periscope n an optical instrument used, esp. in submarines, to give a view of objects on a different level perish vb

1 to be destroyed or die

◇ SYNONYMS: be destroyed, fall, decline, collapse, disappear, vanish

2 to cause to suffer: we were perished with cold

3 to rot or cause to rot: to prevent your swimsuit from perishing, rinse it in clean water before it dries

◇ SYNONYMS: rot, waste away, decay, disintegrate, decompose, moulder perishable adj

1 liable to rot

► n

2 (often pl) a perishable article, esp. food perishing adj

1 (informal) (of weather) extremely cold

2 (slang) confounded or blasted: get rid of the perishing lot!

peritoneum (per-rit-toe-nee-um) n, pl -nea (-nee-a) or -neums a serous sac that lines the walls of the abdominal cavity and covers the abdominal organs > peritoneal adj

peritonitis (per-rit-tone-ite-iss) n inflammation of the peritoneum, causing severe abdominal pain periwinkle¹ n same as winkle periwinkle² n a Eurasian evergreen plant with trailing stems and blue flowers perjury (per-jer-ee) n, pl -juries (criminal law) the act of deliberately giving false evidence while under oath perk n (informal) an incidental benefit gained from a job, such as a company car ◇ SYNONYMS: bonus, benefit, extra, plus (informal), fringe benefit, perquisite (formal) perk up vb

1 to make or become more cheerful

2 to rise or cause to rise briskly: the dog's ears perked up suddenly perky adj perkier, perkiest

1 jaunty or lively

2 confident or spirited perlemoen (per-la-moon) n (S African) same as abalone perm n

1 a hairstyle with long-lasting waves or curls produced by treating the hair with chemicals

► vb

2 to give a perm to (hair) permafrost n ground that is permanently frozen permanent adj

1 existing or intended to exist forever: a permanent solution

◇ SYNONYMS: lasting, constant, enduring, persistent, eternal, abiding, perpetual, everlasting

2 not expected to change: a permanent condition

◇ SYNONYMS: long-term, established, secure, stable, steady > permanence n > permanently adv

permeable adj capable of being permeated, esp. by liquids > permeability n

permeate vb -ating, -ated

1 to penetrate or spread throughout (something): his mystical philosophy permeates everything he creates

2 to pass through or cause to pass through by osmosis or diffusion: the rain permeated her anorak > permeation n permissible adj permitted or allowable > permissibility n

permission n authorization to do something ◇ SYNONYMS: authorization, sanction, licence, approval, leave, go-ahead (informal), liberty, consent permissive adj tolerant or lenient, esp. in sexual matters: the so-called permissive society > permissiveness n

permit vb -mitting, -mitted

1 to allow (something) to be done or to happen: smoking is not permitted in the office

◇ SYNONYMS: allow, grant, sanction, let, entitle, license, authorize, consent to

2 to allow (someone) to do something: her father does not permit her to eat sweets

◇ SYNONYMS: allow, grant, sanction, let, entitle, license, authorize, consent to

3 to allow the possibility (of): they saw each other as often as time and circumstances permitted

◇ SYNONYMS: enable, let, allow, cause

► n

4 an official document granting permission to do something

◇ SYNONYMS: licence, pass, document, certificate, passport, visa, warrant, authorization permutation n

1 (maths) an ordered arrangement of the numbers or terms of a set into specified groups: the permutations of a, b, and c, taken two at a time, are ab, ba, ac, ca, bc, cb

2 a combination of items made by reordering

3 a transformation

4 a fixed combination for selections of results on football pools pernicious adj (formal)

1 wicked or malicious: pernicious lies

2 causing grave harm; deadly pernickety adj (informal)

1 excessively fussy about details

2 (of a task) requiring close attention peroration n (formal) the concluding part of a speech which sums up the points made previously peroxide n

1 hydrogen peroxide used as a hair bleach

2 any of a class of metallic oxides, such as sodium peroxide, Na_2O_2

► adj

3 bleached with or resembling peroxide: a peroxide blonde

► vb -iding, -ided

4 to bleach (the hair) with peroxide perp n (US & Canad informal) a person who has committed a crime perpendicular adj

1 at right angles to a given line or surface

2 upright; vertical

3 denoting a style of English Gothic architecture characterized by vertical lines

► n

4 (geom) a line or plane perpendicular to another > perpendicularity n perpetrate vb -trating, -trated to perform or be responsible for (a deception or crime) > perpetration n > perpetrator n

perpetual adj

1 never ending or never changing: Mexico's colourful scenery and nearly perpetual sunshine

◇ SYNONYMS: everlasting, permanent, endless, eternal, lasting, perennial, infinite, never-ending

2 continually repeated: his mother's perpetual worries about his health

◇ SYNONYMS: continual, repeated, constant, endless, continuous, persistent, recurrent, never-ending > perpetually adv

perpetuate vb -ating, -ated to cause to continue: we must not perpetuate the divisions of the past ◇ SYNONYMS: maintain, preserve, keep going, immortalize > perpetuation n perpetuity n, pl -ties 1 eternity

2 the state of being perpetual 3 something perpetual, such as a pension that is payable indefinitely 4 in perpetuity forever perplex vb

1 to puzzle or bewilder 2 to complicate: this merely perplexes the issue > perplexing adj

perplexity n, pl -ties 1 the state of being perplexed 2 something that perplexes perquisite n (formal) same as perk perry n, pl -ries an alcoholic drink made from fermented pear juice per se (per say) adv in itself persecute vb -cuting, -cuted 1 to oppress or maltreat (someone), because of ethnicity or religion

◇ SYNONYMS: victimize, torture, torment, oppress, pick on, ill-treat, maltreat 2 to harass (someone) persistently

◇ SYNONYMS: harass, bother, annoy, tease, hassle (informal), badger, pester > persecution n > persecutor n

perseverance n continued steady belief or efforts; persistence persevere vb -severing, -severed (often foll. by with or in) to continue to make an effort despite difficulties

Persian adj

1 of ancient Persia or modern Iran

► n

2 a person from Persia (now Iran)

3 the language of Iran or of Persia

Persian carpet n a hand-made carpet or rug with flowing or geometric designs in rich colours

Persian cat n a long-haired variety of domestic cat persimmon n a sweet red tropical fruit persist vb

1 to continue without interruption: if the symptoms persist, see your doctor

◇ SYNONYMS: continue, last, remain, carry on, keep up, linger

2 (often foll. by in or with) to continue obstinately despite opposition: she persisted in using these controversial methods

◇ SYNONYMS: persevere, continue, go on, carry on, keep on, keep going, press on, not give up, crack on (informal) persistent adj

1 unrelenting: persistent rain

◇ SYNONYMS: continuous, constant, repeated, endless, perpetual, continual, never-ending, incessant

2 showing persistence: a persistent critic of the government

◇ SYNONYMS: determined, dogged, steady, stubborn, persevering, tireless, tenacious, steadfast > persistence n

> persistently adv

person n, pl people or persons

1 an individual human being

◇ SYNONYMS: individual, being, body (informal), human, soul, creature, mortal, man or woman

2 the body of a human being: he was found to have a knife concealed about his person

3 (grammar) a category into which pronouns and forms of verbs are subdivided to show whether they refer to the speaker, the person addressed, or some other individual or thing

4 in person actually doing something or being somewhere oneself: I had the chance to hear her speak in person

◇ SYNONYMS in person: personally, yourself persona (per-soh-na) n, pl -nae (-nee) the personality that a person adopts and presents to other people personable adj pleasant in appearance and personality personage n

1 an important or distinguished person

2 any person personal adj

1 of the private aspects of a person's life: redundancy can put an enormous strain on personal relationships

◇ SYNONYMS: private

2 of a person's body: personal hygiene

3 belonging to, or for the sole use of, a particular individual: he disappeared, leaving his passport, diary and other personal belongings in his flat

◇ SYNONYMS: own, special, private, individual, particular, peculiar

4 undertaken by an individual: the sponsorship deal requires him to make a number of personal appearances for publicity purposes

5 offensive in respect of an individual's personality or intimate affairs: he has suffered a lifetime of personal remarks about his weight

◇ SYNONYMS: offensive, nasty, insulting, disparaging, derogatory

6 having the attributes of an individual conscious being: a personal God

7 (grammar) of person

8 (law) of movable property, such as money personal computer n a computer that is used by one person at a time in a business or school or at home personality n, pl -ties

1 (psychol) the distinctive characteristics which make an individual unique

◇ SYNONYMS: nature, character, make-up, identity, temperament, disposition, individuality

2 the distinctive character of a person which makes him or her socially attractive: some people find him lacking in personality and a bit colourless

◇ SYNONYMS: character, charm, attraction, charisma, magnetism

3 a well-known person in a certain field; celebrity

◇ SYNONYMS: celebrity, star, notable, household name, famous name, personage, megastar (informal)

4 a remarkable person: she is a personality to be reckoned with 5 (often pl) an offensive personal remark: the argument never degenerated into personalities

personally adv

1 without the help of others: she had seen to it personally that permission was granted

◇ SYNONYMS: by yourself, alone, independently, solely, on your own

2 in one's own opinion: personally, I think it's overrated

◇ SYNONYMS: in your opinion, in your book, for your part, from your own viewpoint, in your own view

3 as if referring to oneself: yes, he was rather rude but it's not worth taking it personally

4 as a person: I don't like him personally, but he's fine to work with personal pronoun n a pronoun such as I, you, he, she, it, we, and they that represents a definite person or thing personal stereo n (chiefly Brit) a small portable cassette or CD player used with lightweight headphones

personify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to give human characteristics to (a thing or abstraction)

2 to represent (an abstract quality) in human or animal form

3 (of a person or thing) to represent (an abstract quality), as in art

4 to be the embodiment of: she can be charm personified > personification n

personnel n

1 the people employed in an organization or for a service

◇ SYNONYMS: employees, people, staff, workers, workforce, human resources, helpers

2 the department in an organization that appoints or keeps records of employees

3 (in the armed forces) people, as opposed to machinery or equipment perspective n

1 a way of regarding situations or facts and judging their relative importance: recent events have given her a new perspective on life

◇ SYNONYMS: outlook, attitude, context, angle, frame of reference

2 objectivity: Kiara's problems helped me put my minor worries into perspective

◇ SYNONYMS: objectivity, proportion, relation, relativity, relative importance

3 a method of drawing that gives the effect of solidity and relative distances and sizes

4 the appearance of objects or buildings relative to each other, determined by their distance from the viewer

Perspex n (trademark) a clear acrylic resin used as a substitute for glass perspicacious adj (formal) acutely perceptive or discerning > perspicacity n

perspiration n

1 the salty fluid secreted by the sweat glands of the skin; sweat

2 the act of sweating perspire vb -spiring, -spired to sweat persuade vb -suading, -suaded

1 to make (someone) do something by reason or charm: we tried to persuade him not to come up the mountain with us

◇ SYNONYMS: talk (someone) into, urge, influence, win (someone) over, induce, sway, entice, coax

2 to cause to believe; convince: persuading people of the need for enforced environmental protection may be difficult

◇ SYNONYMS: convince, satisfy, assure, cause to believe > persuadable adj

persuasion n

1 the act of persuading

◇ SYNONYMS: urging, inducement, wheedling, enticement, cajolery

2 the power to persuade

3 a set of beliefs; creed: the Roman Catholic persuasion; literary intellectuals of the modernist persuasion

◇ SYNONYMS: belief, views, opinion, party, school, side, camp, faith persuasive adj able to persuade: a persuasive argument

◇ SYNONYMS: convincing, telling, effective, sound, compelling, influential, valid, credible > persuasively adv

pert adj

1 saucy or impudent

2 attractive in a neat way: pert buttocks pertain vb (often foll. by to) 1 to have reference or relevance: the notes pertaining to the case

2 to be appropriate: the product pertains to real user needs

3 to belong (to) or be a part (of) pertinacious adj

1 doggedly resolute in purpose or belief

2 stubbornly persistent > pertinacity n pertinent adj relating to the matter at hand; relevant > pertinence n

perturb vb

1 to disturb the composure of 2 to throw into disorder perturbation n (literary) anxiety or worry peruse vb -rusing, -rused

- 1 to read or examine with care
- 2 to browse or read in a leisurely way
- > perusal n

pervade vb -vading, -vaded to spread through or throughout (something)

- > pervasion n
- > pervasive adj

perverse adj

- 1 deliberately acting in a way different from what is regarded as normal or proper
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: abnormal, unhealthy, improper, deviant (old-fashioned)
- 2 wayward or contrary; obstinate
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: stubborn, contrary, dogged, troublesome, rebellious, wayward, intractable, wilful
 - > perversely adv
 - > perversity n

perversion n

- 1 any means of obtaining sexual satisfaction that is considered abnormal or unacceptable
- 2 the act of perverting pervert vb

- 1 to use wrongly or badly
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: distort, abuse, twist, misuse, warp, misrepresent, falsify
- 2 to interpret wrongly or badly; distort
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: distort, abuse, twist, misuse, warp, misrepresent, falsify
- 3 to lead (someone) into abnormal behaviour, esp. sexually; corrupt
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: corrupt, degrade, deprave, debase (formal), debauch, lead astray
- 4 to debase
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: corrupt, degrade, deprave, debase (formal), debauch, lead astray
 - n
- 5 a person who practises sexual perversion
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: deviant (old-fashioned), degenerate, sicko (informal), weirdo or weirdie (informal) > perverted adj

pervious adj

- 1 able to be penetrated; permeable: the thin walls were pervious to the slightest sound
- 2 receptive to new ideas; open-minded peseta (pess-say-ta) n a former monetary unit of Spain pessary n, pl -ries (med)

- 1 a device worn in the vagina, either as a support for the uterus or as a contraceptive
- 2 a vaginal suppository pessimism n

- 1 the tendency to expect the worst in all things
 - 2 the doctrine of the ultimate triumph of evil over good
- > pessimist n > pessimistic adj > pessimistically adv

pest n

- 1 an annoying person or thing; nuisance
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: nuisance, trial, pain (informal), drag (informal), bother, irritation, annoyance, bane
- 2 any organism that damages crops, or injures or irritates livestock or humans
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: infection, bug, insect, plague, epidemic, blight, scourge, pestilence, gogga (S African informal) pester vb to annoy or nag continually pesticide n a chemical used to destroy pests, esp. insects pestilence n (literary) any deadly epidemic disease, such as the plague pestilent adj

- 1 annoying or irritating
 - 2 highly destructive morally or physically
 - 3 likely to cause infectious disease
- > pestilential adj

pestle n a club-shaped instrument for grinding or pounding substances in a mortar pet n

- 1 a tame animal kept for companionship or pleasure
- 2 a person who is favoured or indulged: teacher's pet
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: favourite, treasure, darling, jewel, idol
- ▶ adj
- 3 kept as a pet: a pet hamster
- 4 of or for pet animals: pet food
- 5 strongly felt or particularly cherished: my pet hate; he would not stand by and let his pet project be abandoned
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: favourite, favoured, dearest, cherished, fave (informal), dear to your heart
- ▶ vb petting, petted
- 6 to treat as a pet; pamper
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: pamper, spoil, indulge, cosset, baby, dote on, coddle, mollycoddle
- 7 to pat or stroke affectionately
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: fondle, pat, stroke, caress
- 8 (informal) (of two people) to caress each other in an erotic manner
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: cuddle, kiss, snog (Brit slang), smooch (informal), neck (informal), canoodle (slang) petal n any of the brightly coloured leaflike parts which form the head of a flower > petalled adj

petard n

1 (formerly) a device containing explosives used to break through a wall or door

2 hoist with one's own petard being the victim of one's own schemes peter out vb to come gradually to an end: the road petered out into a rutted track petite (pit-eat) adj (of a woman) small and dainty petition n

1 a written document signed by a large number of people demanding some form of action from a government or other authority

◇ SYNONYMS: appeal, round robin, list of signatures

2 any formal request to a higher authority

◇ SYNONYMS: entreaty, appeal, suit, application, request, prayer, plea, solicitation

3 (law) a formal application in writing made to a court asking for some specific judicial action: she filed a petition for divorce

◇ SYNONYMS: entreaty, appeal, suit, application, request, prayer, plea, solicitation

► vb

4 to address or present a petition to (a government or to someone in authority): he petitioned the Crown for mercy

◇ SYNONYMS: appeal, plead, ask, pray, beg, solicit, beseech, entreat

5 (foll. by for) to seek by petition: the firm's creditors petitioned for liquidation > petitioner n

petrel n a sea bird with a hooked bill and tubular nostrils, such as the albatross, storm petrel, or shearwater petrify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to stun or daze with fear: he was petrified of going to jail

2 (of organic material) to turn to stone

3 to make or become unable to change or develop: a society petrified by outmoded conventions > petrification n

petrochemical n a substance, such as acetone, obtained from petroleum > petrochemistry n

petrol n a volatile flammable liquid obtained from petroleum and used as a fuel for internal-combustion engines petrol bomb n a simple grenade consisting of a bottle filled with petrol. A piece of cloth is put in the neck of the bottle and set alight just before the bomb is thrown petroleum n a dark-coloured thick flammable crude oil occurring in sedimentary rocks, consisting mainly of hydrocarbons: the source of petrol and paraffin petticoat n a woman's underskirt pettifogging adj (old-fashioned) excessively concerned with unimportant detail > pettifogger n

petty adj -tier, -tiest

1 trivial or unimportant: petty details

◇ SYNONYMS: trivial, insignificant, little, small, slight, trifling, negligible, unimportant

2 small-minded: petty spite

◇ SYNONYMS: small-minded, mean, shabby, spiteful, ungenerous, mean-minded

3 low in importance: petty criminals

> pettily adv

> pettiness n

petty cash n a small cash fund for minor incidental expenses petty officer n a noncommissioned officer in the navy petulant adj unreasonably irritable or peevish > petulance n

> petulantly adv

petunia n a tropical American plant with pink, white, or purple funnel-shaped flowers pew n

1

A (in a church) a long benchlike seat with a back, used by the congregation

B (in a church) an enclosed compartment reserved for the use of a family or group

2 take a pew (informal) take a seat pewter n

1 an alloy containing tin, lead, and sometimes copper and antimony

2 dishes or kitchen utensils made from pewter pH n potential of hydrogen; a measure of the acidity or alkalinity of a solution phalanger n an Australian marsupial with dense fur and a long tail phalanx (fal-lanks) n, pl phalanxes or phalanges (fal-lan-jeez)

- 1 any closely grouped mass of people: a solid phalanx of reporters and photographers
- 2 a number of people united for a common purpose
- 3 an ancient Greek battle formation of infantry in close ranks phallic adj of or resembling a phallus: a phallic symbol phallus (fal-luss) n, pl -luses or -li (-lie)

- 1 same as penis
- 2 an image of the penis as a symbol of reproductive power phantasm n

- 1 a phantom
 - 2 an unreal vision; illusion
- > phantasmal adj

phantasmagoria n (psychol) a shifting medley of dreamlike figures > phantasmagoric adj

phantom n

- 1 an apparition or spectre
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: spectre, ghost, spirit, shade (literary), spook (informal), apparition, wraith, phantasm
- 2 the visible representation of something abstract, such as in a dream or hallucination: the phantom of liberty
 - adj
- 3 deceptive or unreal: she regularly took days off for what her bosses considered phantom illnesses

Pharaoh (fare-oh) n the title of the ancient Egyptian kings pharmaceutical adj of or relating to drugs or pharmacy pharmacist n a person qualified to prepare and dispense drugs pharmacology n the science or study of drugs > pharmacological adj

> pharmacologist n

pharmacopoeia (far-ma-koh-pee-a) n an authoritative book containing a list of medicinal drugs along with their uses, preparation, and dosages pharmacy n

1 the preparation and dispensing of drugs

2 pl -cies a dispensary pharyngitis (far-rin-jite-iss) n inflammation of the pharynx, causing a sore throat pharynx (far-rinks) n, pl pharynges (far-rin-jeez) or pharynxes the part of the alimentary canal between the mouth and the oesophagus > pharyngeal adj

phase n

1 any distinct or characteristic stage in a sequence of events: two distinct phases in the singer's career

◇ SYNONYMS: stage, time, point, position, step, development, period, chapter

2 (astron) one of the recurring shapes of the portion of the moon, Mercury, or Venus illuminated by the sun

3 (physics) a particular stage in a periodic process or phenomenon

4 (physics) in or out of phase (of two waves or signals) reaching or not reaching corresponding phases at the same time

► vb phasing, phased

5 to do or introduce gradually: the redundancies will be phased over two years

► See also phase in phase in vb to introduce in a gradual or cautious manner: the scheme was phased in over seven years

◇ SYNONYMS phase something in: introduce, incorporate, ease in, start

PhD Doctor of Philosophy

pheasant n a long-tailed bird with a brightly coloured plumage in the male: native to Asia but introduced elsewhere phenobarbitone or phenobarbital n a sedative used to treat insomnia and epilepsy phenol n a white crystalline derivative of benzene, used as an antiseptic and disinfectant and in the manufacture of resins, explosives, and pharmaceutical substances phenomenal adj

1 extraordinary or outstanding: a phenomenal success

◇ SYNONYMS: extraordinary, outstanding, remarkable, fantastic (informal), unusual, marvellous, exceptional, miraculous

2 of or relating to a phenomenon > phenomenally adv

phenomenon n, pl -ena or -enons

1 anything that can be perceived as an occurrence or fact ◇ SYNONYMS: occurrence, happening, fact, event, incident, circumstance, episode

2 any remarkable occurrence or person

◇ SYNONYMS: wonder, sensation, exception, miracle, marvel, prodigy, rarity phial n a small bottle for liquid medicine philadelphus n a shrub grown for its strongly scented showy flowers philanthropy n, pl -pies

1 the practice of helping people less well-off than oneself

2 love of mankind in general > philanthropic adj

> philanthropist n philately (fill-lat-a-lee) n the collection and study of postage stamps > philatelist n

philharmonic adj

1 fond of music

► n

2 a specific choir, orchestra, or musical society: the Vienna Philharmonic

philistine n

1 a person who is hostile towards culture and the arts

► adj

2 boorishly uncultured > philistinism n

philology n the science of the structure and development of languages > philological adj

> philologist n

philosopher n

1 a person who studies philosophy

◇ SYNONYMS: thinker, theorist, sage, wise man, logician, metaphysician

2 a person who remains calm and stoical in the face of difficulties or disappointments philosophical or philosophic adj

1 of or relating to philosophy or philosophers

◇ SYNONYMS: theoretical, abstract, wise, rational, logical, thoughtful, sagacious

2 calm and stoical in the face of difficulties or disappointments

◇ SYNONYMS: stoical, calm, composed, cool, collected, serene, tranquil, unruffled > philosophically adv

philosophize or -phise vb -phizing, -phized or -phising, -phised to discuss in a philosophical manner > philosophizer or -phiser n philosophy n, pl -phies

- 1 the academic study of knowledge, thought, and the meaning of life ◇ SYNONYMS: thought, knowledge, thinking, reasoning, wisdom, logic, metaphysics
- 2 the particular doctrines of a specific individual or school relating to these issues: the philosophy of John Locke ◇ SYNONYMS: thought, knowledge, thinking, reasoning, wisdom, logic, metaphysics
- 3 any system of beliefs or values ◇ SYNONYMS: outlook, values, principles, convictions, thinking, beliefs, doctrine, ideology
- 4 a personal outlook or viewpoint
◇ SYNONYMS: outlook, values, principles, convictions, thinking, beliefs, doctrine, ideology

philtre or (US) philter n a drink supposed to arouse desire phishing n the practice of using fraudulent emails and copies of legitimate websites to extract financial data from computer users for criminal purposes phlebitis (fleb-bite-iss) n inflammation of a vein, usually in the legs > phlebitic adj

phlegm (flem) n

- 1 the thick yellowish substance secreted by the walls of the respiratory tract

◇ SYNONYMS: mucus, catarrh, sputum, mucous secretion

2 apathy or stolidity

3 calmness

> phlegmy adj

phlegmatic (fleg-mat-ik) adj having an unemotional disposition phlox n, pl phlox or phloxes a plant with clusters of white, red, or purple flowers phobia n (psychiatry) an intense and irrational fear of a given situation or thing > phobic adj, n

phoenix n a legendary Arabian bird said to set fire to itself and rise anew from the ashes every 500 years phone n, vb phoning, phoned short for telephone phone-in n a radio or television programme in which telephone questions or comments from the public are broadcast live as part of a discussion phonetic adj

1 of phonetics

2 denoting any perceptible distinction between one speech sound and another

3 conforming to pronunciation: phonetic spelling > phonetically adv

phonetics n the study of speech processes, including the production, perception, and analysis of speech sounds phoney or (esp US) phony (informal) adj -nier, -niest

1 not genuine: a phoney two-pound coin

2 (of a person) insincere or pretentious

► n, pl -neys (esp US) -nies

3 an insincere or pretentious person

4 something that is not genuine phonograph n

1 an early form of record player capable of recording and reproducing sound on wax cylinders

2 (US & Canad) a record player phosphate n

1 any salt or ester of any phosphoric acid

2 (often pl) chemical fertilizer containing phosphorous compounds > phosphatic adj

phosphorescence n

1 (physics) a fluorescence that persists after the bombarding radiation producing it has stopped

2 the light emitted in phosphorescence > phosphorescent adj phosphorus n (chem) a toxic flammable nonmetallic element which appears luminous in the dark. It exists in two forms, white and red. SYMBOL: P

photo n, pl -tos short for photograph

photocopier n a machine using light-sensitive photographic materials to reproduce written, printed, or graphic work photocopy n, pl -copies

1 a photographic reproduction of written, printed, or graphic work

► vb -copies, -copying, -copied

2 to reproduce on photographic material photoelectric adj of or concerned with electric or electronic effects caused by light or other electromagnetic radiation > photoelectricity n

photo finish n a finish of a race in which contestants are so close that a photograph is needed to decide the result photogenic adj

1 (esp. of a person) always looking attractive in photographs

2 (biol) producing or emitting light photograph n

1 a picture made using a camera, either by the chemical action of light on sensitive film or by the creation of a digital image

◇ SYNONYMS: picture, photo (informal), shot, print, snap (informal), snapshot, selfie (informal), transparency, JPEG, thumbnail, avatar

► vb

2 to take a photograph of ◇ SYNONYMS: take a picture of, record, film, shoot, snap (informal), take (someone's) picture photographic adj

1 of or like photography or a photograph

◇ SYNONYMS: pictorial, visual, graphic, cinematic, filmic

2 (of a person's memory) able to retain facts or appearances in precise detail ◇ SYNONYMS: accurate, exact, precise, faithful, retentive > photographically adv

photography n

1 the process of recording images either on sensitized material by the action of light or by equipment which enables images to be stored digitally and viewed on a screen

2 the practice of taking photographs > photographer n

Photoshop n

1 (trademark) a software application for managing and editing digital images

► vb -shopping, -shopped

2 (informal) to alter (a digital image) using Photoshop or a similar application photostat n

1 a type of photocopying machine or process

2 any copy made by such a machine

► vb -statting, -statted or -stating, -stated

3 to make a photostat copy (of) photosynthesis n (in plants) the process by which a green plant uses sunlight to build up carbohydrate reserves > photosynthesize or -sise vb

> photosynthetic adj

phrasal verb n a phrase that consists of a verb plus an adverb or preposition, esp. one whose meaning cannot be deduced from its parts, such as take in meaning deceive

phrase n

1 a group of words forming a unit of meaning in a sentence

◇ SYNONYMS: expression, saying, remark, construction, quotation, maxim, idiom, adage

2 an idiomatic or original expression

◇ SYNONYMS: expression, saying, remark, construction, quotation, maxim, idiom, adage

3 (music) a small group of notes forming a coherent unit of melody

► vb phrasing, phrased

4 to express orally or in a phrase: I could have phrased that better

◇ SYNONYMS: express, say, word, put, voice, communicate, convey, put into words

5 (music) to divide (a melodic line or part) into musical phrases, esp. in performance > phrasal adj

phraseology (fray-zee-ol-a-jee) n, pl -gies the manner in which words or phrases are used physical adj

1 of the body, as distinguished from the mind or spirit

◇ SYNONYMS: corporal, fleshly, bodily, corporeal

2 of material things or nature: the physical world

◇ SYNONYMS: earthly, fleshly, mortal, incarnate

3 of or concerned with matter and energy

◇ SYNONYMS: material, real, substantial (formal), natural, solid, tangible, palpable

4 of or relating to physics > physically adv

physical education n training and practice in sports and gymnastics physician n

1 a medical doctor

◇ SYNONYMS: doctor, doc (informal), medic (informal), general practitioner, medical practitioner, doctor of medicine, G.P., M.D.

2 (archaic) a healer physicist n a person versed in or studying physics physics n

- 1 the branch of science concerned with the properties of matter and energy and the relationships between them 2 physical properties of behaviour: the physics of the electron physiognomy (fiz-ee-on-om-ee) n (formal)

- 1 a person's face considered as an indication of personality 2 the outward appearance of something: the changed physiognomy of the forests physiology n

- 1 the branch of science concerned with the functioning of organisms 2 the processes and functions of all or part of an organism > physiologist n > physiological adj

physiotherapy n the treatment of disease or injury by physical means, such as massage or exercises, rather than by drugs > physiotherapist n physique n a person's bodily build and muscular development pi n, pl pis

- 1 the 16th letter in the Greek alphabet (Π, π) 2 (maths) a number that is the ratio of the circumference of a circle to its diameter; approximate value: 3.141592.... SYMBOL: π pianissimo adj, adv (music) to be performed very quietly piano n, pl -anos a musical instrument played by depressing keys that cause hammers to strike strings and produce audible vibrations

Pianola (pee-an-oh-la) n (trademark) a type of mechanical piano, the music for which is encoded in perforations in a paper roll piazza n

1 a large open square in an Italian town

2 (chiefly Brit) a covered passageway or gallery pic n, pl pics or pix (informal) a photograph or illustration picador n (bullfighting) a horseman who wounds the bull with a lance to weaken it picaresque adj (literary) of or relating to a type of fiction in which the hero, a rogue, goes through a series of episodic adventures piccalilli n a pickle of mixed vegetables in a mustard sauce piccolo n, pl -los a woodwind instrument an octave higher than the flute pick¹ vb

1 to choose or select

◇ SYNONYMS: select, choose, identify, elect, nominate, specify, opt for, single out, flag up

2 to gather (fruit, berries, or crops) from (a tree, bush, or field)

◇ SYNONYMS: gather, pull, collect, take in, harvest, pluck, garner

3 to remove loose particles from: she picked some bits of fluff off her sleeve

4 (foll. by at) to nibble (at) without appetite

5 to provoke (an argument or fight) deliberately

◇ SYNONYMS: provoke, start, cause, stir up, incite, instigate

6 to separate (strands or fibres), as in weaving

7 to steal from (someone's pocket)

8 to open (a lock) with an instrument other than a key ◇ SYNONYMS: open, force, crack (informal), break into, break open

9 to make (one's way) carefully on foot: they picked their way through the rubble

10 pick and choose to select fastidiously or fussily

► n

11 choice: take your pick

◇ SYNONYMS: choice, decision, option, selection, preference

12 the best: the pick of the country's young cricketers

◇ SYNONYMS: best, prime, finest, elect, elite, cream, jewel in the crown, the crème de la crème

► See also pick on etc pick² n

1 a tool with a handle and a long curved steel head, used for loosening soil or breaking rocks

2 any tool used for picking, such as an ice pick or toothpick

3 a plectrum

► vb

4 to pierce or break up (a hard surface) with a pick pickaxe or (US) pickax n a large pick picket n

1 a person or group standing outside a workplace to dissuade strikebreakers from entering

◇ SYNONYMS: protester, demonstrator, picketer

2 a small unit of troops posted to give early warning of attack

◇ SYNONYMS: lookout, watch, guard, patrol, sentry, sentinel

3 a pointed stake that is driven into the ground to support a fence

◇ SYNONYMS: stake, post, pale, paling, upright, stanchion

► vb -eting, -eted

4 to act as pickets outside (a workplace)

◇ SYNONYMS: blockade, boycott, demonstrate outside picket line n a line of people acting as pickets pickings pl n money or profits acquired easily pickle n

1 (often pl) food, esp. vegetables preserved in vinegar or brine

◇ SYNONYMS: chutney, relish, piccalilli

2 a liquid or marinade, such as spiced vinegar, for preserving vegetables, meat, or fish

3 (informal) an awkward or difficult situation: to be in a pickle; they are in a pickle over what to do with toxic waste

◇ SYNONYMS: predicament, fix (informal), difficulty, bind (informal), jam (informal), dilemma, scrape (informal), hot water (informal), uphill (S African)

► vb -ling, -led

4 to preserve or treat in a pickling liquid

◇ SYNONYMS: preserve, marinade, steep pickled adj

1 (of food) preserved in a pickling liquid

2 (informal) drunk pick-me-up n (informal) a tonic, esp. a special drink taken as a stimulant pick on vb to continually treat someone unfairly

◇ SYNONYMS pick on someone: torment, bully, bait, tease, get at (informal), badger, persecute, hector pick out vb

1 to select for use or special consideration: she picked out a wide gold wedding ring

2 to distinguish (an object from its surroundings), such as in painting: the wall panels are light brown, with their edges picked out in gold

3 to recognize (a person or thing): she picked the man out in a police identity parade

◇ SYNONYMS pick something or someone out: identify, recognize, distinguish, perceive, discriminate, make someone or something out, tell someone or something apart 4 to play (a tune) tentatively, as by ear pickpocket n a person who steals from the pockets of others in public places pick up vb

1 to lift or raise: he picked up his glass

◇ SYNONYMS pick something or someone up: lift, raise, gather, take up, grasp, uplift

2 to obtain or purchase: a couple of pictures she had picked up in a flea market in Paris

◇ SYNONYMS pick something up: obtain, get, find, buy, discover, purchase, acquire, locate

3 to improve in health or condition: business had picked up after a difficult first quarter

◇ SYNONYMS pick up: improve, recover, rally, get better, bounce back, make progress, perk up, turn the corner

4 to learn as one goes along: she had a good ear and picked up languages quickly

◇ SYNONYMS pick something up: learn, master, acquire, get the hang of (informal), become proficient in

5 to raise (oneself) after a fall or setback: she picked herself up and got on with her life

6 to resume; return to 7 to accept the responsibility for paying (a bill)

8 to collect or give a lift to (passengers or goods)

◇ SYNONYMS pick something or someone up: collect, get, call for 9 (informal) to become acquainted with for a sexual purpose

10 (informal) to arrest

11 to receive (sounds or signals) pick-up n

1 a small truck with an open body used for light deliveries

2 (informal) a casual acquaintance made for a sexual purpose

3 (informal)

A a stop to collect passengers or goods

B the people or things collected

4 a device which converts vibrations into electrical signals, such as that to which a record player stylus is attached picnic n

1 an excursion on which people bring food to be eaten in the open air

◇ SYNONYMS: excursion, barbecue, barbie (informal), cookout (US & Canad), alfresco meal, clambake (US & Canad), outdoor meal, outing

2 an informal meal eaten out-of-doors

◇ SYNONYMS: excursion, barbecue, barbie (informal), cookout (US & Canad), alfresco meal, clambake (US & Canad), outdoor meal, outing

3 no picnic (informal) a hard or disagreeable task

► vb -nicking, -nicked

4 to eat or take part in a picnic > picnicker n

Pict n a member of any of the peoples who lived in N Britain in the first to the fourth centuries AD

> Pictish adj

pictorial adj

1 relating to or expressed by pictures

► n

2 a periodical containing many pictures picture n

1 a visual representation produced on a surface, such as in a photograph or painting

◇ SYNONYMS: representation, drawing, painting, portrait, image, print, illustration, sketch, avatar

2 a mental image: neither had any clear picture of whom they were looking for

◇ SYNONYMS: idea, vision, concept, impression, notion, visualization, mental picture, mental image

3 a description or account of a situation considered as an observable scene: the reports do not provide an accurate picture of the spread of the disease ◇ SYNONYMS: description, impression, explanation, report, account, image, sketch, depiction

4 a person or thing resembling another: he is the picture of a perfect host

5 a person or scene typifying a particular state: his face was a picture of dejection

◇ SYNONYMS: personification, embodiment, essence, epitome, avatar

6 the image on a television screen

7 a cinema film

◇ SYNONYMS: film, movie (US informal), flick (slang), feature film, motion picture

8 in the picture informed about a situation

9 the pictures a cinema or film show

► vb -turing, -tured

10 to visualize or imagine

◇ SYNONYMS: imagine, see, envision, visualize, conceive of, fantasize about, conjure up an image of 11 to describe or depict vividly: a documentary that had pictured them as good-natured dolts

◇ SYNONYMS: represent, show, draw, paint, illustrate, sketch, depict

12 to put in a picture or make a picture of: the people pictured above are all the same age

◇ SYNONYMS: show, photograph, capture on film picturesque adj

1 visually pleasing, as in being striking or quaint: a small picturesque harbour

◇ SYNONYMS: interesting, pretty, beautiful, attractive, charming, scenic, quaint

2 (of language) graphic or vivid

◇ SYNONYMS: vivid, striking, graphic, colourful, memorable picture window n a large window with a single pane of glass, usually facing a view piddle vb -dling, -dled (informal)

1 to urinate

2 piddle about or around or away to spend (one's time) aimlessly: we have been piddling around for seven months pidgin n a language made up of elements of two or more languages and used between the speakers of the languages involved pie n

1 a sweet or savoury filling baked in pastry

2 pie in the sky illusory hope or promise of some future good piebald adj

1 marked in two colours, esp. black and white

► n

2 a black-and-white horse piece n

1 a separate bit or part

◇ SYNONYMS: bit, slice, part, block, quantity, segment, portion, fragment

2 an instance or occurrence: a piece of luck

3 an example or specimen of a style or type: each piece of furniture is crafted from native red pine by traditional methods

4 a literary, musical, or artistic composition

◇ SYNONYMS: composition, work, production, opus

5 a coin: a fifty-pence piece

6 a firearm or cannon

7 a small object used in playing various games: a chess piece

8 go to pieces (of a person) to lose control of oneself; have a breakdown

► vb piecing, pieced

9 (often foll. by together) to fit or assemble bit by bit

10 (often foll. by up) to patch or make up (a garment) by adding pieces pièce de résistance (pyess de ray-zeest-onss) n the most outstanding item in a series piecemeal adv

1 bit by bit; gradually

► adj

2 fragmentary or unsystematic: a piecemeal approach piecework n work paid for according to the quantity produced pie chart n a circular graph divided into sectors proportional to the sizes of the quantities represented pied adj having markings of two or more colours pied-à-terre (pyay-da-tair) n, pl pieds-à-terre (pyay-da-tair) a flat or other lodging for occasional use pier n

1 a structure with a deck that is built out over water and used as a landing place or promenade

◇ SYNONYMS: jetty, wharf, quay, promenade, landing place

2 a pillar or support that bears heavy loads

◇ SYNONYMS: pillar, support, post, column, pile, upright, buttress

3 the part of a wall between two adjacent openings pierce vb piercing, pierced

1 to make a hole in (something) with a sharp point

◇ SYNONYMS: penetrate, stab, spike, enter, bore, drill, puncture, prick

2 to force (a way) through (something)

3 (of light) to shine through (darkness)

4 (of sounds or cries) to sound sharply through (the silence)

5 to penetrate: the cold pierced the air piercing adj

1 (of a sound) unpleasantly loud and sharp: a piercing scream

2 very intense: a piercing stare

► n

3 a hole made in the body so that an item of jewellery can be inserted into it: a nose piercing

Pierrot (pier-roe) n a male character from French pantomime with a whitened face, white costume, and pointed hat piety n, pl -ties

1 dutiful devotion to God and observance of religious principles

2 the quality of being pious

3 a pious action or saying piffle n (informal) nonsense pig n

1 a mammal with a long head, a snout, and bristle-covered skin, which is kept and killed for pork, ham, and bacon. RELATED ADJECTIVE: porcine

◇ SYNONYMS: hog (US), sow, boar, swine, porker

2 (informal) a dirty, greedy, or bad-mannered person

◇ SYNONYMS: slob, glutton

3 (offensive, slang) a police officer

4 a mass of metal cast into a simple shape

5 (Brit informal) something that is difficult or unpleasant: the coast is a pig for little boats

6 a pig in a poke something bought or received without previous sight or knowledge

7 make a pig of oneself (informal) to overeat

► vb pigging, pigged

8 (of a sow) to give birth

9 (often foll. by out) (slang) to eat greedily or to excess: she had pigged out on pizza before the show

pigeon¹ n

1 a bird which has a heavy body, small head, and short legs, and is usually grey in colour

2 (slang) a victim or dupe pigeon² n (informal) concern or responsibility: this is our pigeon – there's nothing to keep you pigeonhole n

1 a small compartment, such as in a bureau, for filing papers

► vb -holing, -holed

2 to classify or categorize

3 to put aside pigeon-toed adj with the toes or feet turned inwards piggery n, pl -geries a place where pigs are kept piggish adj

1 like a pig in appetite or manners

2 stubborn > piggishness n

piggyback or pickaback n

1 a ride on the back and shoulders of another person

► adv, adj

2 on the back and shoulders of another person pig-headed adj stupidly stubborn pig iron n crude iron produced in a blast furnace and poured into moulds pigment n

1 any substance which gives colour to paint or dye

◇ SYNONYMS: colour, colouring, paint, stain, dye, tint, tincture

2 a substance which occurs in plant or animal tissue and produces a characteristic colour > pigmentary adj

pigmentation n colouring in plants, animals, or humans, caused by the presence of pigments

Pigmy n, pl -mies same as Pygmy pigsty or (US & Canad) pigpen n, pl -sties

1 a pen for pigs

2 an untidy place

pigtail n a plait of hair or one of two plaits on either side of the face pike¹ n, pl pike or pikes a large predatory freshwater fish with a broad flat snout, strong teeth, and a long body covered with small scales pike² n a medieval weapon consisting of a metal spearhead on a long pole > pikeman n

pikelet n a small thick pancake piker n (Austral & NZ slang) a shirker pikey n (Brit slang, derogatory)

1 a traveller or vagrant

2 a member of the underclass pilaster n a shallow rectangular column attached to the face of a wall > pilastered adj

Pilates (pil-lah-teez) n a system of gentle exercises that stretch and lengthen the muscles, designed to improve posture and flexibility pilau or pilaf n a Middle Eastern dish, consisting of rice flavoured with spices and cooked in stock, to which meat, poultry, or fish may be added

pilchard n a small edible sea fish of the herring family, with a rounded body covered with large scales

pile¹ n

1 a collection of objects laid on top of one another

◇ SYNONYMS: heap, collection, mountain, mass, stack, mound, accumulation, hoard

2 (informal) a large amount: boxing has made him a pile of money; I've got piles of work to do

◇ SYNONYMS: lot(s), mountain(s), load(s) (informal), oceans, wealth, great deal, stack(s), abundance

3 same as pyre

4 a large building or group of buildings

◇ SYNONYMS: mansion, building, residence, manor, country house, seat, big house, stately home

5 (physics) a nuclear reactor

► vb piling, piled

6 (often foll. by up) to collect or be collected into a pile: snow piled up in the drive

◇ SYNONYMS: load, stuff, pack, stack, charge, heap, cram, lade

7 (foll. by in or into or off or out etc) to move in a group, often in a hurried manner: the crew piled into the van

◇ SYNONYMS: crowd, pack, rush, climb, flood, stream, crush, squeeze

8 pile it on (informal) to exaggerate pile² n a long heavy beam driven into the ground as a foundation for a structure

◇ SYNONYMS: foundation, support, post, column, beam, upright, pillar

pile³ n the fibres in a fabric that stand up or out from the weave, such as in carpeting or velvet

◇ SYNONYMS: nap, fibre, down, hair, fur, plush piles pl n swollen veins in the rectum; haemorrhoids pilfer vb to steal (minor items) in small quantities pilgrim n

1 a person who journeys to a holy place

◇ SYNONYMS: traveller, wanderer, devotee, wayfarer

2 any wayfarer

◇ SYNONYMS: traveller, wanderer, devotee, wayfarer

pilgrimage n

1 a journey to a shrine or other holy place

2 a journey or long search made for sentimental reasons: a pilgrimage to the poet's birthplace

◇ SYNONYMS: journey, tour, trip, mission, expedition, excursion pill n

1 a small mass of medicine intended to be swallowed whole

◇ SYNONYMS: tablet, capsule, pellet

2 the pill (informal) an oral contraceptive taken by a woman

3 something unpleasant that must be endured: her reinstatement was a bitter pill to swallow; the pill was sweetened by a reduction in interest

pillage vb -laging, -laged

1 to steal property violently, often in war

► n

2 the act of pillaging

3 something obtained by pillaging; booty pillar n

1 an upright support of stone, brick, or metal; column

◇ SYNONYMS: support, post, column, prop, shaft, upright, pier, stanchion

2 something resembling this: a pillar of smoke

3 a prominent supporter or member: a pillar of society

◇ SYNONYMS: supporter, leader, mainstay, leading light (informal), upholder

4 from pillar to post from one place to another pillar box n (in Britain) a red pillar-shaped public letter box situated in the street pillion n

1 a seat for a passenger behind the rider of a motorcycle or horse

► adv

2 on a pillion: the motorbike on which he was riding pillion

pillory n, pl -ries

1 (formerly) a wooden frame in which offenders were locked by the neck and wrists and exposed to public abuse and ridicule

► vb -ries, -rying, -ried

2 to expose to public ridicule

3 (formerly) to punish by putting in a pillory pillow n

1 a cloth bag stuffed with feathers, polyester fibre, or pieces of foam rubber used to support the head in bed

► vb

2 to rest (one's head) on or as if on a pillow: he pillowed his head in her lap pillowcase or pillowslip n a removable washable cover for a pillow pilot n

1 a person who is qualified to fly an aircraft or spacecraft

◇ SYNONYMS: airman, flyer (old-fashioned), aviator, aeronaut

2 a person employed to steer a ship into or out of a port

◇ SYNONYMS: helmsman, navigator, steersman or woman or person

3 a person who acts as a guide

◇ SYNONYMS: helmsman, navigator, steersman or woman or person

► adj

4 serving as a test or trial: a pilot scheme

◇ SYNONYMS: trial, test, model, sample, experimental

5 serving as a guide: a pilot beacon

► vb -loting, -loted

6 to act as pilot of ◇ SYNONYMS: fly, operate, be at the controls of 7 to guide or lead (a project or people): the legislation was piloted through its committee stage

◇ SYNONYMS: direct, conduct, steer pilot light n a small flame that lights the main burner of a gas appliance pimento n, pl -tos same as allspice pimp n

1 a man who obtains customers for a prostitute, in return for a share of his or her earnings

► vb

2 to act as a pimp

3 (informal) (often foll. by up or out) to make (someone or something, esp. a car) more extravagantly decorated, as with flashy accessories, etc.

pimpernel n a plant, such as the scarlet pimpernel, typically having small star-shaped flowers pimple n a small swollen infected spot on the skin > pimpled adj

> pimply adj

pin n

1 a short stiff straight piece of wire with a pointed end and a rounded head: used mainly for fastening

◇ SYNONYMS: tack, nail, needle, safety pin

2 a wooden or metal peg

◇ SYNONYMS: peg, rod, brace, bolt

3 a pin-shaped brooch

4 (in various bowling games) a club-shaped wooden object set up in groups as a target

5 a clip that prevents a hand grenade from exploding until it is removed or released

6 (golf) the flagpole marking the hole on a green

7 (informal) a leg

► vb pinning, pinned

8 to fasten with a pin or pins

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, stick, attach, join, fix, secure, nail, clip

9 to seize and hold fast: they pinned his arms behind his back

◇ SYNONYMS: hold fast, hold down, constrain, immobilize, pinion

10 pin something on someone (informal) to place the blame for something on someone: corruption charges are the easiest to pin on former dictators

► See also pin down

PIN Personal Identification Number: a secret number used to gain access an automated system, for example to authorize a financial transaction

pinafore n

1 (chiefly Brit) an apron with a bib

2 a dress with a sleeveless bodice or bib top, worn over a jumper or blouse pinball n an electrically operated table game in which the player shoots a small ball through several hazards pince-nez (panss-nay) n, pl pince-nez glasses that are held in place only by means of a clip over the bridge of the nose pincers pl n

- 1 a gripping tool consisting of two hinged arms and curved jaws
- 2 the jointed grasping arms of crabs and lobsters pinch vb

- 1 to squeeze (something, esp. flesh) between a finger and thumb
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: nip, press, squeeze, grasp, compress
- 2 to squeeze by being too tight: shoes that pinch
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: hurt, crush, squeeze, pain, cramp
- 3 to cause stinging pain to: the cold pinched his face
- 4 to make thin or drawn-looking, such as from grief or cold
- 5 (informal) to steal
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: steal, lift (informal), nick (slang, chiefly Brit), swipe (slang), knock off (slang), pilfer, purloin, filch
- 6 (informal) to arrest
- 7 (usually foll. by out or back) to remove the tips of (a plant shoot) to correct or encourage growth
- n
- 8 a squeeze or sustained nip
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: nip, squeeze
- 9 the quantity that can be taken up between a thumb and finger: a pinch of ground ginger
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: dash, bit, mite, jot, speck, soupçon (French)
- 10 extreme stress or need: most companies are feeling the pinch of recession
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: emergency, crisis, difficulty, plight, scrape (informal), strait, uphill (S African), predicament
- 11 at a pinch if absolutely necessary
- 12 feel the pinch to be forced to economize pinchbeck n

- 1 an alloy of copper and zinc, used as imitation gold
- adj
- 2 sham or cheap

pin down vb

1 to force (someone) to make a decision or carry out a promise

◇ SYNONYMS pin someone down: force, pressure, compel, put pressure on, pressurize, nail someone down, make someone commit themselves

2 to define clearly: the courts have found it difficult to pin down what exactly obscenity is

◇ SYNONYMS pin something down: determine, identify, locate, name, specify, pinpoint pine¹ n

1 an evergreen tree with long needle-shaped leaves and brown cones

2 the light-coloured wood of this tree pine² vb pining, pined

1 (often foll. by for) to feel great longing (for)

◇ SYNONYMS pine for something or someone: long, ache, crave, yearn, eat your heart out over

2 (often foll. by away) to become ill or thin through grief or longing

◇ SYNONYMS: waste, decline, sicken, fade, languish pineal gland or pineal body (pin-ee-al) n a small cone-shaped gland at the base of the brain pineapple n a large tropical fruit with juicy flesh and a thick hard skin pine cone n the woody seed case of a pine tree pine marten n a mammal of N European and Asian coniferous woods, with dark brown fur and a creamy-yellow patch on the throat

ping n

1 a short high-pitched sound, such as of a bullet striking metal

► vb

2 to make such a noise ping-pong n same as table tennis pinion¹ n

1 (chiefly poetic) a bird's wing

2 the outer part of a bird's wing including the flight feathers

► vb

3 to immobilize (someone) by holding or tying his or her arms

4 to confine pinion² n a cogwheel that engages with a larger wheel or rack pink n

1 a colour between red and white

2 anything pink, such as pink paint or pink clothing: packaged in pink

3 a garden plant with pink, red, or white fragrant flowers

4 in the pink in good health

► adj

5 of a colour between red and white

◇ SYNONYMS: rosy, rose, salmon, flushed, reddish, roseate

6 (informal) having mild left-wing sympathies

7 (informal) relating to homosexuals or homosexuality: the pink vote

► vb

8 same as knock > pinkish or pinky adj

pinking shears pl n scissors with a serrated edge that give a wavy edge to material cut and so prevent fraying pin money n a small amount of extra money earned to buy small luxuries pinnacle n

1 the highest point of fame or success

◇ SYNONYMS: height, top, crown, crest, zenith, apex, vertex

2 a towering peak of a mountain

◇ SYNONYMS: summit, top, height, peak

3 a slender spire pinotage (pin-oh-tazh) n a red wine blended from the Pinot Noir and Hermitage grapes that is unique to South Africa pinpoint vb

1 to locate or identify exactly: we've pinpointed the fault

◇ SYNONYMS: locate, find, identify, zero in on

► adj

2 exact: pinpoint accuracy

pinstripe n (in textiles) a very narrow stripe in fabric or the fabric itself pint n

1 (Brit) a unit of liquid measure equal to one eighth of an imperial gallon (0.568 litre)

2 (US) a unit of liquid measure equal to one eighth of a US gallon (0.473 litre)

3 (Brit informal) a pint of beer pin-up n

1 (informal) a picture of a sexually attractive person, often partially or totally undressed

2 (slang) a person who has appeared in such a picture: your favourite pin-up

3 a photograph of a famous personality pioneer n

1 an explorer or settler of a new land or region

◇ SYNONYMS: settler, explorer, colonist

2 an originator or developer of something new

◇ SYNONYMS: founder, leader, developer, innovator, trailblazer

► vb

3 to be a pioneer (in or of)

4 to initiate or develop: the new technique was pioneered in France

◇ SYNONYMS: develop, create, establish, start, discover, institute, invent, initiate pious adj

1 religious or devout

2 insincerely reverent; sanctimonious > piousness n

pip¹ n the seed of a fleshy fruit, such as an apple or pear pip² n

1 a short high-pitched sound used as a time signal on radio

2 any of the spots on a playing card, dice, or domino

3 (informal) the emblem worn on the shoulder by junior officers in the British Army, indicating their rank

pip³ n

1 a contagious disease of poultry

2 (facetious, slang) a minor human ailment

3 get or have the pip (NZ slang) to sulk

4 give someone the pip (Brit & NZ & S African slang) to annoy someone: it really gives me the pip pipe n

1 a long tube for conveying water, oil, or gas

◇ SYNONYMS: tube, drain, canal, pipeline, line, main, passage, cylinder

2

A a tube with a small bowl at the end for smoking tobacco

B the amount of tobacco that fills the bowl of a pipe

3 (zool, botany) any of various hollow organs, such as the respiratory passage of certain animals

4

A a tubular instrument in which air vibrates and produces a musical sound

B any of the tubular devices on an organ

5 a boatswain's whistle

6 put that in your pipe and smoke it (informal) accept that fact if you can 7 the pipes See bagpipes

► vb piping, piped

8 to play (music) on a pipe or on bagpipes

9 to summon or lead by a pipe: to pipe in the haggis

10

A to signal orders to (the crew) by a boatswain's pipe

B to signal the arrival or departure of: he piped his entire ship's company on deck

11 to utter in a shrill tone

12 to convey (water, oil, or gas) by pipe

◇ SYNONYMS: convey, channel, conduct

13 to force (cream or icing) through a shaped nozzle to decorate food ► See also pipe down, pipe up pipéd music n light music played as background music in public places pipe down vb (informal) to stop talking or making noise

◇ SYNONYMS pipe down: be quiet, shut up (informal), hush, stop talking, quieten down, shush, shut your mouth, hold your tongue pipe dream n a fanciful or impossible plan or hope pipeline n

1 a long pipe for transporting oil, water, or gas

◇ SYNONYMS: tube, passage, pipe, conduit, duct

2 a means of communication

3 in the pipeline in preparation piper n a person who plays a pipe or bagpipes pipette n a slender glass tube for transferring or measuring out liquids pipe up vb to speak up unexpectedly pipi n, pl pipi or pipis (Austral & NZ) an edible mollusc of Australia and New Zealand piping n

1 a system of pipes

2 a string of icing or cream used to decorate cakes and desserts

3 a thin strip of covered cord or material, used to edge hems or cushions

4 the sound of a pipe or bagpipes

5 a shrill voice or whistling sound: a dove's cool piping

► adj

6 making a shrill sound

► adv

7 piping hot extremely hot pipit n a small songbird with a brownish speckled plumage and a long tail pippin n a type of eating apple piquant (pee-kant) adj

1 having a spicy taste

2 stimulating to the mind: love was a forbidden piquant secret > piquancy n

pique (peek) n

1 a feeling of resentment or irritation, such as from hurt pride

► vb piquing, piqued

2 to hurt (someone's) pride

3 to excite (curiosity or interest) piqué (pee-kay) n a stiff ribbed fabric of cotton, silk, or spun rayon piquet (pik-ket) n a card game for two people played with a reduced pack piracy n, pl -cies

1 robbery on the seas

2 a crime, such as hijacking, committed aboard a ship or aircraft

3 the unauthorized use of patented or copyrighted material piranha n a small fierce freshwater fish of tropical America, with strong jaws and sharp teeth pirate n

1 a person who commits piracy

◇ SYNONYMS: buccaneer, raider, marauder, corsair, freebooter

2 a vessel used by pirates

3 a person who illegally sells or publishes someone else's literary or artistic work

4 a person or group of people who broadcast illegally

► vb -rating, -rated

5 to sell or reproduce (artistic work, ideas, etc.) illegally ◇ SYNONYMS: copy, steal, reproduce, bootleg, appropriate, poach, crib (informal), plagiarize > piratical adj

pirouette n

1 a body spin performed on the toes or the ball of the foot

► vb -etting, -etted

2 to perform a pirouette piss (vulgar) vb

1 to urinate

2 to discharge as or in one's urine: to piss blood

► n

3 an act of urinating

4 urine

5 take the piss to make fun of or mock someone pistachio n, pl -chios a Mediterranean nut with a hard shell and an edible green kernel piste (peest) n a slope or course for skiing pistil n the seed-bearing part of a flower pistol n a short-barrelled handgun piston n a cylindrical part that slides to and fro in a hollow cylinder: in an engine it is attached by a rod to other parts, thus its movement causes the other parts to move pit n

1 a large deep opening in the ground

◇ SYNONYMS: hole, depression, hollow, crater, trough, cavity, abyss, chasm

2 a coal mine

◇ SYNONYMS: coal mine, mine, shaft, colliery, mine shaft

3 (anatomy)

A a small natural depression on the surface of a body or organ

B the floor of any natural bodily cavity: the pit of the stomach

4 (pathol) a pockmark

5 a concealed danger or difficulty

6 an area at the side of a motor-racing track for servicing or refuelling vehicles

7 the area occupied by the orchestra in a theatre

8 (Brit history) an enclosure for fighting animals or birds

9 the back of the ground floor of a theatre

10 same as pitfall

11 the pit hell

► vb pitting, pitted

12 (often foll. by against) to match in opposition, esp. as antagonists: sister pitted against sister

13 to mark with small dents or scars

◇ SYNONYMS: scar, mark, dent, indent, pockmark

14 to place or bury in a pit

15 pit one's wits against to compete against in a test or contest pit bull terrier n a strong muscular terrier with a short coat pitch¹ vb

1 to hurl or throw

◇ SYNONYMS: throw, cast, toss, hurl, fling, chuck (informal), sling, lob (informal)

2 to set up (a tent or camp)

◇ SYNONYMS: set up, raise, settle, put up, erect

3 to slope or fall forwards or downwards: she pitched forwards like a diver

◇ SYNONYMS: fall, drop, plunge, dive, tumble, topple, plummet, fall headlong

4 (of a ship or plane) to dip and raise its back and front alternately

◇ SYNONYMS: toss (about), roll, plunge, lurch

5 to set the level or tone of: his ambitions were pitched too high

6 to aim to sell (a product) to a specified market or on a specified basis

7 (music) to sing or play (a note or interval) accurately

► n

8 (chiefly Brit) (in many sports) the field of play

◇ SYNONYMS: sports field, ground, stadium, arena, park, field of play

9 a level of emotion: children can wind their parents up to a pitch of anger and guilt

◇ SYNONYMS: level, point, degree, summit, extent, height, intensity, high point

10 the degree or angle of slope

11 the distance between corresponding points or adjacent threads on a screw thread

12 the pitching motion of a ship or plane

13 (music) the highness or lowness of a note in relation to other notes: low pitch

◇ SYNONYMS: tone, sound, key, frequency, timbre, modulation

14 the act or manner of pitching a ball

15 (chiefly Brit) the place where a street or market trader regularly sells

16 (slang) a persuasive sales talk, esp. one routinely repeated

◇ SYNONYMS: talk, patter, spiel (informal)

► See also pitch in, pitch into pitch² n

1 a thick sticky substance formed from coal tar and used for paving or waterproofing

2 any similar substance, such as asphalt, occurring as a natural deposit

► vb

3 to apply pitch to pitch-black adj extremely dark; unlit: it was a wild night, pitch-black, with howling gales pitchblende n a blackish mineral which is the principal source of uranium and radium pitcher n a large jug, usually rounded with a narrow neck pitchfork n

1 a long-handled fork with two or three long curved prongs for tossing hay

► vb

2 to use a pitchfork on (something) pitch in vb to cooperate or contribute ◇ SYNONYMS pitch in: help, contribute, participate, join in, cooperate, chip in (informal), get stuck in (Brit informal), lend a hand pitch into vb (informal) to attack (someone) physically or verbally piteous adj arousing or deserving pity: the piteous mewing of an injured kitten > piteousness n

pitfall n

1 an unsuspected difficulty or danger

◇ SYNONYMS: danger, difficulty, peril, catch (informal), trap, hazard, drawback, snag, uphill (S African)

2 a trap in the form of a concealed pit, designed to catch people or wild animals pith n

1 the soft white lining inside the rind of fruits such as the orange

2 the essential part: policy, though, isn't the pith of what happened yesterday

3 the soft spongy tissue in the centre of the stem of certain plants pithy adj pithier, pithiest

1 terse and full of meaning

2 of, resembling, or full of pith > pithiness n

pitiful adj arousing or deserving great pity or contempt > pitifully adv

> pitifulness n

pitiless adj feeling no pity or mercy > pitilessly adv

piton (peet-on) n (mountaineering) a metal spike that may be driven into a crack and used to secure a rope pittance n a very small amount of money pituitary or pituitary gland n the gland at the base of the brain which secretes hormones that affect skeletal growth, development of the sex glands, and other functions of the body

pity n, pl pities

1 sorrow felt for the sufferings of others

◇ SYNONYMS: compassion, charity, sympathy, kindness, fellow feeling

2 a cause of regret: it's a great pity he did not live longer

◇ SYNONYMS: shame, sin (informal), misfortune, bummer (slang), crying shame

3 have or take pity on to have sympathy or show mercy for ► vb pitied, pitying, pitied

4 to feel pity for ◇ SYNONYMS: feel sorry for, feel for, sympathize with, grieve for, weep for, bleed for, have compassion for > pitying adj

pivot n

1 a central shaft around which something turns

2 the central person or thing necessary for progress or success

► vb -oting, -oted

3 to turn on or provide with a pivot pivotal adj

1 of crucial importance

◇ SYNONYMS: crucial, central, vital, critical, decisive

2 of or acting as a pivot pix n (informal) a plural of pic pixel n the smallest constituent unit of an image, as on a computer screen pixelate or pixellate vb -lating, -lated to blur (a video image) by overlaying it with a grid of squares, often to disguise the identity of a person > pixelation or pixellation n pixie or pixy n, pl pixies (in folklore) a fairy or elf pizza n a dish of Italian origin consisting of a baked disc of dough covered with a wide variety of savoury toppings pizzazz or pizazz n (informal) an attractive combination of energy and style pizzicato (pit-see-kah-toe) adj, adv (music) (in music for the violin family) to be plucked with the finger placard n

1 a notice that is paraded in public

► vb

2 to attach placards to placate vb -cating, -cated to calm (someone) to stop him or her feeling angry or upset > placatory adj

place n

1 a particular part of a space or of a surface

◇ SYNONYMS: spot, point, position, site, area, location, venue, whereabouts

2 a geographical point, such as a town or city

◇ SYNONYMS: region, quarter, district, neighbourhood, vicinity, locality, locale, dorp (S African)

3 a position or rank in a sequence or order

◇ SYNONYMS: position, point, spot, location

4 an open square lined with houses in a city or town

5 space or room

6 a house or living quarters: he's buying his own place

◇ SYNONYMS: home, house, room, property, accommodation, pad (slang, old-fashioned), residence, dwelling (formal, literary), bachelor apartment (Canad)

7 any building or area set aside for a specific purpose

◇ SYNONYMS: spot, point, position, site, area, location, venue, whereabouts

8 the point reached in reading or speaking: her finger was pressed to the page as if marking her place

9 right or duty: it's not my place to do their job for them

◇ SYNONYMS: duty, right, job, charge, concern, role, affair, responsibility

10 appointment, position, or job: she won a place at university

11 position, condition, or state: if I were in your place, I'd change things

◇ SYNONYMS in your/his/her/their place: situation, position, circumstances, shoes (informal)

12 a space or seat, as at a dining table

◇ SYNONYMS: space, position, seat, chair

13 (maths) the relative position of a digit in a number

14 all over the place in disorder or disarray

15 go places (informal) to become successful

16 in or out of place in or out of the proper or customary position

17 in place of

A instead of: leeks can be used in place of the broccoli

B in exchange for: he gave her it in place of her ring

18 know one's place to be aware of one's inferior position

◇ SYNONYMS know one's place: know one's rank, know one's standing, know one's position, know one's footing, know one's station, know one's status, know one's grade, know one's niche

19 put someone in his or her place to humble someone who is arrogant, conceited, etc.

20 take place to happen or occur

◇ SYNONYMS take place: happen, occur, go on, go down (US & Canad), arise, come about, crop up, transpire (informal)

21 take the place of to be a substitute for ► vb placing, placed

22 to put in a particular or appropriate place

◇ SYNONYMS: lay (down), put (down), set (down), stand, position, rest, station, stick (informal)

23 to find or indicate the place of: I bet you the media couldn't have placed Neath on the map before the by-election

24 to identify or classify by linking with an appropriate context: I felt I should know him, but could not quite place him

◇ SYNONYMS: identify, remember, recognize, pin someone down, put your finger on, put a name to 25 to make (an order or bet)

26 to find a home or job for (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: entrust to, give to, assign to, appoint to, allocate to, find a home for 27 (often foll. by with) to put under the care (of)

◇ SYNONYMS: entrust to, give to, assign to, appoint to, allocate to, find a home for

28 (of a racehorse, greyhound, athlete, etc.) to arrive in first, second, third, or sometimes fourth place placebo (plas-see-bo) n, pl -bos or -boes (med) an inactive substance given to a patient usually to compare its effects with those of a real drug but sometimes for the psychological benefit gained by the patient through believing that he or she is receiving treatment placenta (plass-ent-a) n, pl -tas or -tae the organ formed in the womb of most mammals during pregnancy, providing oxygen and nutrients for the fetus > placental adj

placid adj having a calm appearance or nature: placid waters; a placid temperament > placidity or placidness n > placidly adv

plagiarize or -rise (play-jer-ize) vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised to steal ideas or passages from (another's work) and present them as one's own > plagiarism n > plagiarizer or -riser n

plague n

1 any widespread and usually highly contagious disease with a high fatality rate

◇ SYNONYMS: disease, infection, epidemic, pestilence

2 an infectious disease of rodents transmitted to humans by the bite of the rat flea; bubonic plague

3 something that afflicts or harasses: a plague of locusts

◇ SYNONYMS: infestation, invasion, epidemic, influx, host, swarm, multitude

4 (informal) a nuisance

► vb plaguing, plagued

5 to afflict or harass: a playing career plagued by injury

◇ SYNONYMS: torment, trouble, torture

6 (informal) to annoy or pester

◇ SYNONYMS: pester, trouble, bother, annoy, tease, harry, harass, hassle plaice n, pl plaice or plaices an edible European flatfish with a brown body marked with red or orange spots plaid n

1 a long piece of tartan cloth worn over the shoulder as part of Highland costume

2 a crisscross weave or cloth plain adj

1 flat or smooth

2 easily understood: he made it plain what he wanted from me

◇ SYNONYMS: clear, obvious, patent, evident, visible, distinct, understandable, manifest

3 honest or blunt: the plain fact is that my mother has no time for me

◇ SYNONYMS: straightforward, open, direct, frank, blunt, outspoken, honest, downright

4 without adornment: a plain brown envelope

◇ SYNONYMS: unadorned, simple, basic, severe, bare, stark, austere, spartan, bare-bones

5 not good-looking

◇ SYNONYMS: ugly, unattractive, homely (US & Canad), unlovely, unprepossessing, not beautiful, no oil painting (informal), ill-favoured

6 (of fabric) without pattern or of simple weave

7 lowly, esp. in social rank or education: the plain people of the nation

◇ SYNONYMS: ordinary, common, simple, everyday, commonplace, unaffected, unpretentious

8 (knitting) of or done in plain stitch

► n

9 a level stretch of country

◇ SYNONYMS: flatland, plateau, prairie, grassland, steppe, veld

10 a simple stitch in knitting made by passing the wool round the front of the needle

► adv

11 clearly or simply: that's just plain stupid!

> plainly adv

> plainness n

plain clothes pl n ordinary clothes, as opposed to uniform, worn by a detective on duty plain sailing n

1 (informal) smooth or easy progress

2 (naut) sailing in a body of water that is unobstructed; clear sailing plainsong n the style of unaccompanied choral music used in the medieval Church, esp. in Gregorian chant plain speaking n saying exactly what one thinks > plain-spoken adj plaintiff n a person who sues in a court of law plaintive adj sad and mournful > plaintively adv

plait (platt) n

1 a length of hair that has been plaited

► vb

2 to intertwine (strands or strips) in a pattern plan n

1 a method thought out for doing or achieving something

◇ SYNONYMS: scheme, system, design, programme, proposal, strategy, method, suggestion

2 a detailed drawing to scale of a horizontal section through a building

◇ SYNONYMS: diagram, map, drawing, chart, representation, sketch, blueprint, layout

3 an outline or sketch

◇ SYNONYMS: diagram, map, drawing, chart, representation, sketch, blueprint, layout

► vb planning, planned

4 to form a plan (for)

◇ SYNONYMS: devise, arrange, scheme, plot, draft, organize, outline, formulate

5 to make a plan of (a building)

◇ SYNONYMS: design, outline, draw up a plan of 6 to intend

◇ SYNONYMS: intend, aim, mean, propose, purpose plane¹ n

1 an aeroplane

◇ SYNONYMS: aeroplane, aircraft, jet, airliner, jumbo jet

2 (maths) a flat surface in which a straight line joining any two of its points lies entirely on that surface

3 a level surface: an inclined plane

◇ SYNONYMS: flat surface, the flat, horizontal, level surface

4 a level of existence or attainment: her ambition was set on a higher plane than pulling pints in a pub

◇ SYNONYMS: level, position, stage, condition, standard, degree (archaic), rung, echelon

► adj

5 level or flat

◇ SYNONYMS: level, even, flat, regular, smooth, horizontal 6 (maths) lying entirely in one plane

► vb planing, planed

7 to glide or skim: they planed over the ice

◇ SYNONYMS: skim, sail, skate, glide plane² n

1 a tool with a steel blade for smoothing timber

► vb planing, planed

2 to smooth (timber) using a plane

3 (often foll. by away or off) to remove using a plane planet n any of the eight celestial bodies, Mercury, Venus, Earth, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, or Neptune, that revolve around the sun in oval-shaped orbits > planetary adj

planetarium n, pl -riums or -ria

- 1 an instrument for projecting images of the sun, moon, stars, and planets onto a domed ceiling
- 2 a building in which such an instrument is housed plane tree or plane n a tree with rounded heads of fruit and leaves with pointed lobes plangent (plan-jent) adj (of sounds) mournful and resounding plank n

- 1 a long flat piece of sawn timber
- 2 one of the policies in a political party's programme
- 3 walk the plank to be forced by sailors to walk to one's death off the end of a plank jutting out from the side of a ship

plankton n the small drifting plants and animals on the surface layer of a sea or lake planner n

- 1 a person who makes plans, esp. for the development of a town, building, etc.
- 2 a chart for recording future appointments, etc.

plant n

- 1 a living organism that grows in the ground and lacks the power of movement
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: flower, bush, vegetable, herb, weed, shrub
- 2 the land, building, and equipment used in an industry or business
- 3 a factory or workshop
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: factory, works, shop, yard, mill, foundry
- 4 mobile mechanical equipment for construction or road-making
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: machinery, equipment, gear, apparatus
- 5 (informal) a thing positioned secretly for discovery by someone else, often in order to incriminate an innocent person

► vb

6 to set (seeds or crops) into the ground to grow: it's the wrong time of year for planting roses

◇ SYNONYMS: sow, scatter, transplant, implant, put in the ground

7 to place firmly in position: I planted my chair beside hers

◇ SYNONYMS: place, put, set, fix

8 to introduce into someone's mind: once Wendy had planted the idea in the minds of the owners, they quite fancied selling

◇ SYNONYMS: place, put, establish, found, fix, insert

9 (slang) to deliver (a blow or kiss)

10 (informal) to position or hide (someone) in order to deceive or observe

◇ SYNONYMS: hide, put, place, conceal

11 (informal) to hide or secrete (something), usually for some illegal purpose or in order to incriminate someone

◇ SYNONYMS: hide, put, place, conceal

plantain¹ n a plant with a rosette of broad leaves and a slender spike of small greenish flowers plantain² n

1 a large tropical fruit like a green-skinned banana

2 the tree on which this fruit grows plantation n

1 an estate, esp. in tropical countries, where cash crops such as rubber or coffee are grown on a large scale

2 a group of cultivated trees or plants

3 (formerly) a colony of settlers plant-based adj using foods and materials derived from plants rather than animals: a plant-based diet

planter n

1 the owner or manager of a plantation

2 a decorative pot for house plants plaque n

1 a commemorative inscribed stone or metal plate

2 Also called: dental plaque a filmy deposit on teeth consisting of mucus, bacteria, and food, that causes decay plasma n

1 the clear yellowish fluid portion of blood which contains the corpuscles and cells

2 a sterilized preparation of such fluid, taken from the blood, for use in transfusions

3 a former name for protoplasm

4 (physics) a hot ionized gas containing positive ions and free electrons plasma screen n a type of flat television or computer screen that produces high-quality images plaster n

1 a mixture of lime, sand, and water that is applied to a wall or ceiling as a soft paste and dries as a hard coating

◇ SYNONYMS: mortar, stucco, gypsum, plaster of Paris

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ) an adhesive strip of material for dressing a cut or wound

◇ SYNONYMS: bandage, dressing, sticking plaster, Elastoplast (trademark), adhesive plaster

► vb

3 to coat (a wall or ceiling) with plaster

4 to apply like plaster: he plastered his face with shaving cream

◇ SYNONYMS: cover, spread, coat, smear, overlay, daub

5 to cause to lie flat or to adhere: his hair was plastered to his forehead > plasterer n plastered adj (slang) drunk plaster of Paris n a white powder that sets to a hard solid when mixed with water, used for making sculptures and casts for setting broken limbs plastic n

1 any of a large number of synthetic materials that can be moulded when soft and then set

2 (informal) Also called: plastic money credit cards, etc. as opposed to cash

► adj

3 made of plastic

4 easily influenced

5 capable of being moulded or formed

◇ SYNONYMS: pliant, soft, flexible, supple, pliable, ductile, mouldable

6 of moulding or modelling: the plastic arts

7 (slang) superficially attractive yet artificial or false: glamorous models with plastic smiles > plasticity n

plastic bullet n a solid PVC cylinder fired by the police in riot control

Plasticine n (trademark) a soft coloured material used, esp. by children, for modelling plastic surgery n the branch of surgery concerned with the repair or reconstruction of missing, injured, or malformed tissues or parts > plastic surgeon n

plate n

1 a shallow dish made of porcelain, earthenware, glass, etc., on which food is served

◇ SYNONYMS: platter, dish, dinner plate, salver, trencher (archaic)

2 Also called: plateful the contents of a plate

◇ SYNONYMS: helping, course, serving, dish, portion, platter, plateful

3 a shallow dish for receiving a collection in church

4 flat metal of even thickness obtained by rolling

5 a thin coating of metal usually on another metal

◇ SYNONYMS: layer, panel, sheet, slab

6 dishes or cutlery made of gold or silver

7 a sheet of metal, plastic, or rubber having a printing surface produced by a process such as stereotyping

8 a print taken from such a sheet or from a woodcut

◇ SYNONYMS: illustration, picture, photograph, print, engraving, lithograph

9 a thin flat sheet of a substance, such as glass

10 a small piece of metal or plastic with an inscription, fixed to another surface: a brass name plate

11 (photog) a sheet of glass coated with photographic emulsion on which an image can be formed by exposure to light

12 (informal) same as denture

13 (anatomy) any flat platelike structure

14 a cup awarded to the winner of a sporting contest, esp. a horse race

15 any of the rigid layers of the earth's crust

16 have a lot on one's plate to have many pressing things to deal with 17 on a plate acquired without trouble: he got the job handed to him on a plate

► vb plating, plated

18 to coat (a metal surface) with a thin layer of another metal

◇ SYNONYMS: coat, gild, laminate, cover, overlay

19 to cover with metal plates, usually for protection

20 to form (metal) into plate, usually by rolling plateau (plat-oh) n, pl -teaus or -teaux (-ohs)

1 a wide level area of high land

◇ SYNONYMS: upland, table, highland, tableland

2 a relatively long period of stability: the body temperature rises to a plateau that it keeps until shortly before bedtime

◇ SYNONYMS: levelling off, level, stage, stability

► vb

3 to remain stable for a long period plate glass n glass produced in thin sheets, used for windows and mirrors platen n

- 1 the roller on a typewriter, against which the keys strike
- 2 a flat plate in a printing press that presses the paper against the type platform n

- 1 a raised floor
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: stage, stand, podium, rostrum, dais, pulpit, soapbox
- 2 a raised area at a railway station where passengers get on or off the trains
- 3 the declared aims of a political party
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: policy, programme, principle, objective(s), manifesto, party line
- 4 the thick raised sole of some shoes
- 5 a type of computer hardware or operating system platinum n a silvery-white metallic element, very resistant to heat and chemicals: used in jewellery, laboratory apparatus, electrical contacts, dentistry, electroplating, and as a catalyst. SYMBOL: Pt platinum blonde n a girl or woman with silvery-blonde hair platitude n a trite or unoriginal remark: it's a platitude, but people need people > platitudinous adj

platonic adj friendly or affectionate but without physical desire: platonic love platoon n (military) a subunit of a company, usually comprising three sections of ten to twelve men platteland n the platteland (in South Africa) the country districts or rural areas platter n a large shallow, usually oval, dish platypus or duck-billed platypus n, pl -puses an Australian egg-laying amphibious mammal, with dense fur, webbed feet, and a ducklike bill plaudit n (usually pl) an expression of enthusiastic approval plausible adj

1 apparently reasonable or true: a plausible excuse

◇ SYNONYMS: believable, possible, likely, reasonable, credible, probable, persuasive, conceivable

2 apparently trustworthy or believable: he is an extraordinarily plausible liar

◇ SYNONYMS: glib, smooth, specious, smooth-talking, smooth-tongued > plausibility n

> plausibly adv

play vb

1 to occupy oneself in (a sport or recreation)

◇ SYNONYMS: amuse yourself, have fun, sport, fool, romp, revel, trifle, entertain yourself

2 to compete against (someone) in a sport or game: I saw Brazil play Argentina recently

◇ SYNONYMS: compete against, challenge, take on, oppose, contend against

3 to fulfil (a particular role) in a team game: he usually plays in midfield

4 (often foll. by about or around) to behave carelessly: he's only playing with your affections, you know

5 to act the part (of) in a dramatic piece: he has played Hamlet to packed Broadway houses

◇ SYNONYMS: act, portray, represent, perform, act the part of 6 to perform (a dramatic piece)

7

A to perform (music) on a musical instrument

◇ SYNONYMS: perform on, strum, make music on

B to be able to perform on (a musical instrument): she plays the bassoon

8 to send out (water) or cause to send out (water): they played a hose across the wrecked building

9 to cause (a radio, etc.) to emit sound

10 to move freely or quickly: the light played across the water

11 (Stock Exchange) to speculate for gain in (a market)

12 (angling) to tire (a hooked fish) by alternately letting out and reeling in the line

13 to put (a card) into play

14 to gamble

15 play fair or false with to act fairly or unfairly with 16 play for time to gain time to one's advantage by the use of delaying tactics

17 play into the hands of to act unwittingly to the advantage of (an opponent)

18 play politics

A to negotiate politically

B to exploit an important issue merely for political gain

C to make something into a political issue

► n

19

A a dramatic piece written for performance by actors

◇ SYNONYMS: drama, show, piece, comedy, tragedy, farce, soapie or soapy (Austral slang), pantomime

B the performance of such a piece

◇ SYNONYMS: drama, show, piece, comedy, tragedy, farce, soapie or soapy (Austral slang), pantomime

20 games or other activity undertaken for pleasure

◇ SYNONYMS: amusement, pleasure, leisure, games, sport, fun, entertainment, relaxation, me-time

21 the playing of a game or the time during which a game is in progress: rain stopped play

22 conduct: fair play

23 gambling

24 activity or operation: radio allows full play to your imagination

25 scope for freedom of movement: there was a lot of play in the rope

26 free or rapidly shifting motion: the play of light on the water

27 fun or jest: I used to throw cushions at her in play

28 in or out of play (of a ball in a game) in or not in a position for continuing play according to the rules

29 make a play for (informal) to make an obvious attempt to gain (something) > playable adj

playboy n a rich man who devotes himself to such pleasures as nightclubs and female company

◇ SYNONYMS: womanizer, philanderer, rake, roué, ladies' man playcentre n (NZ) a centre for preschool children run by parents playdate n an arrangement for children from different families to meet and play play down vb to minimize the importance of: she played down the problems of the company

◇ SYNONYMS play something down: minimize, make light of, gloss over, talk down, underrate, underplay, pooh-pooh (informal), soft-pedal (informal) player n

1 a person who takes part in a game or sport

◇ SYNONYMS: sportsman or sportswoman, competitor, participant, contestant

2 a person who plays a musical instrument

◇ SYNONYMS: musician, artist, performer, virtuoso, instrumentalist

3 (informal) a leading participant in a particular field or activity: one of the key players in Chinese politics

4 an actor

◇ SYNONYMS: performer, entertainer, Thespian, troupier, actor or actress playful adj

1 good-natured and humorous: a playful remark

2 full of high spirits and fun: a playful child > playfully adv

playgroup n a regular meeting of infants for supervised creative play playhouse n a theatre playing field n (sometimes pl, Brit & NZ) a field or open space used for sport play-lunch n (Austral & NZ) a child's mid-morning snack at school play off vb

1 to set (two people) against each other for one's own ends: she delighted in playing one parent off against the other

2 to take part in a play-off

► n play-off

3 (sport) an extra contest to decide the winner when there is a tie

4 (chiefly US & Canad) a contest or series of games to determine a championship play on vb to exploit (the feelings or weakness of another): he played on my sympathy

◇ SYNONYMS play on something: take advantage of, abuse, exploit, impose on, trade on, capitalize on playschool n a nursery group for preschool children

PlayStation n (trademark) a type of games console plaything n

1 a toy

2 a person regarded or treated as a toy play up vb

1 to highlight: the temptation is to play up the sensational aspects of the story

◇ SYNONYMS play something up: emphasize, highlight, underline, stress, accentuate

2 (Brit & Austral informal) to behave in an unruly way

◇ SYNONYMS play up: be awkward, misbehave, give trouble, be disobedient, be stropky (Brit slang)

3 to give (one) trouble or not be working properly: my back's playing me up again; the photocopier's started to play up

◇ SYNONYMS play up: hurt, be painful, bother you, trouble you, be sore, pain you

4 play up to to try to please by flattery playwright n a person who writes plays plaza n

1 an open public square, usually in Spain

2 (chiefly US & Canad) a modern shopping complex

PLC or plc (in Britain) Public Limited Company plea n

1 an emotional appeal

◇ SYNONYMS: appeal, request, suit, prayer, petition, entreaty, intercession, supplication (formal)

2 (law) a statement by or on behalf of a defendant

3 an excuse: his plea of poverty rings a little hollow

◇ SYNONYMS: excuse, defence, explanation, justification plead vb pleading, pleaded, plead (esp Scot & US) pled

1 (sometimes foll. by with) to ask with deep feeling

◇ SYNONYMS: appeal, ask, request, beg, petition, implore, beseech, entreat

2 to give as an excuse: whenever she invites him to dinner, he pleads a prior engagement

3 (law) to declare oneself to be (guilty or not guilty) of the charge made against one

4 (law) to present (a case) in a court of law pleasant adj

1 pleasing or enjoyable: what a pleasant surprise

◇ SYNONYMS: pleasing, nice, fine, lovely, amusing, delightful, enjoyable, agreeable, lekker (S African slang)

2 having pleasing manners or appearance: he was a pleasant boy

◇ SYNONYMS: friendly, nice, agreeable, likable or likeable, engaging, charming, amiable, genial > pleasantly adv

pleasantry n, pl -ries

1 (often pl) a polite or jocular remark: we exchanged pleasantries about the weather

2 agreeable jocularity please vb pleasing, pleased

1 to give pleasure or satisfaction to (a person)

◇ SYNONYMS: delight, entertain, humour, amuse, suit, satisfy, indulge, gratify

2 to regard as suitable or satisfying: he can get almost anyone he pleases to work with him

3 if you please if you wish, sometimes used in ironic exclamation

4 pleased with happy because of 5 please oneself to do as one likes

► adv

6 used in making polite requests or pleading: please sit down

7 yes please a polite phrase used to accept an offer or invitation > pleased adj

pleasing adj giving pleasure

◇ SYNONYMS: enjoyable, satisfying, charming, delightful, gratifying, agreeable, pleasurable pleasurable adj enjoyable or agreeable > pleasurably adv

pleasure n

1 a feeling of happiness and contentment: the pleasure of hearing good music

◇ SYNONYMS: happiness, delight, satisfaction, enjoyment, bliss, gratification, gladness, delectation (formal)

2 something that gives enjoyment: his garden was his only pleasure

◇ SYNONYMS: amusement, joy

3 the activity of enjoying oneself: business before pleasure

4 (euphemistic) sexual gratification: he took his pleasure of her

5 a person's preference pleat n

1 a fold formed by doubling back fabric and pressing or stitching into place

► vb

2 to arrange (material) in pleats pleb n (Brit informal, often offensive) a common vulgar person plebeian (pleb-ee-an) adj

1 of the lower social classes

2 unrefined: plebeian tastes

► n

3 one of the common people, usually of ancient Rome

4 a coarse or unrefined person plebiscite (pleb-iss-ite) n a direct vote by all the electorate on an issue of national importance plectrum n, pl -trums or -tra an implement for plucking the strings of a guitar or similar instrument pledge n

1 a solemn promise

◇ SYNONYMS: promise, vow, assurance, word, undertaking, warrant, oath, covenant

2

A something valuable given as a guarantee that a promise will be kept or a debt paid

◇ SYNONYMS: guarantee, security, deposit, bail, collateral, pawn, surety

B the condition of being used as security: in pledge

◇ SYNONYMS: guarantee, security, deposit, bail, collateral, pawn, surety

3 a token: a pledge of good faith

4 an assurance of support or goodwill, given by drinking a toast: we drank a pledge to their success

5 take or sign the pledge to vow not to drink alcohol

► vb pledging, pledged

6 to promise solemnly

◇ SYNONYMS: promise, vow, swear, contract, engage, give your word, give your oath

7 to promise to give (money to charity, etc.)

8 to bind by or as if by a pledge: I was pledged to secrecy

9 to give (one's word or property) as a guarantee

10 to drink a toast to (a person or cause) plenary adj

1 (of an assembly) attended by all the members

2 full or complete: plenary powers plenipotentiary adj

1 (usually of a diplomat) invested with full authority

► n, pl -aries

2 a diplomat or representative who has full authority to transact business plenitude n (literary)

1 abundance

2 fullness or completeness plenteous adj (literary)

1 abundant: a plenteous supply

2 producing abundantly: a plenteous harvest plentiful adj existing in large amounts or numbers ◇ SYNONYMS: abundant, liberal, generous, lavish, ample, overflowing, copious, bountiful > plentifully adv

plenty n, pl -ties

1 (often foll. by of) a great number or amount: plenty of time

◇ SYNONYMS: lots of (informal), enough, a great deal of, masses of, piles of (informal), stacks of, heaps of (informal), an abundance of

2 abundance: an age of plenty

◇ SYNONYMS: abundance, wealth, prosperity, fertility, profusion, affluence, plenitude, fruitfulness

► adj

3 very many: there's plenty more fish in the sea

► adv

4 (informal) more than adequately: that's plenty fast enough for me

pleonasm n (rhetoric)

1 the use of more words than necessary, such as a tiny little child

2 an unnecessary word or phrase > pleonastic adj

plethora n an excess pleurisy n inflammation of the pleura, making breathing painful > pleuritic adj, n

pliable adj

1 easily bent: pliable branches

2 easily influenced: his easy and pliable nature > pliability n

pliant adj

1 easily bent; supple: pliant young willow and hazel twigs

2 easily influenced: he was a far more pliant subordinate than his predecessor > pliancy n

pliers pl n a gripping tool consisting of two hinged arms usually with serrated jaws plight¹ n a dangerous or difficult situation: the plight of the British hostages

◇ SYNONYMS: difficulty, condition, state, situation, trouble, predicament plight² vb plight one's troth (old-fashioned) to make a promise to marry

Plimsoll line n a line on the hull of a ship showing the level that the water should reach if the ship is properly loaded plimsolls pl n (Brit) light rubber-soled canvas sports shoes plinth n

1 a base on which a statue stands

2 the slab that forms the base of a column or pedestal

PLO Palestine Liberation Organization

plod vb plodding, plodded

1 to walk with heavy slow steps

2 to work slowly and steadily

► n

3 the act of plodding

4 (Brit slang) a police officer > plodder n

plonk¹ vb

1 to put down heavily and carelessly: he plonked himself down on the sofa

► n

2 the act or sound of plonking plonk² n (informal) cheap inferior wine plop n

1 the sound made by an object dropping into water without a splash

► vb plopping, plopped

2 to drop with such a sound: a tear rolled down his cheek and plopped into his soup

3 to fall or be placed heavily or carelessly: we plopped down on the bed and went straight to sleep

plot¹ n

1 a secret plan for an illegal purpose

◇ SYNONYMS: plan, scheme, intrigue, conspiracy, cabal, stratagem, machination

2 the story of a play, novel, or film

◇ SYNONYMS: story, action, subject, theme, outline, scenario, narrative, story line

► vb plotting, plotted

3 to plan secretly; conspire

◇ SYNONYMS: plan, scheme, conspire, intrigue, manoeuvre, contrive, collude, machinate

4 to mark (a course) on a map

◇ SYNONYMS: chart, mark, map, locate, calculate, outline

5 to make a plan or map of 6

A to locate (points) on a graph by means of coordinates

B to draw (a curve) through these points

7 to construct the plot of (a play, novel, or film)

◇ SYNONYMS: devise, design, lay, conceive, hatch, contrive, concoct, cook up (informal) > plotter n

plot² n a small piece of land: there was a small vegetable plot in the garden

◇ SYNONYMS: patch, lot, area, ground, parcel, tract, allotment plough or (US) plow n

1 an agricultural tool for cutting or turning over the earth

2 a similar tool used for clearing snow

► vb

3 to turn over (the soil) with a plough

◇ SYNONYMS: turn over, dig, till, cultivate

4 to make (furrows or grooves) in (something) with or as if with a plough

◇ SYNONYMS: turn over, dig, till, cultivate

5 (sometimes foll. by through) to move (through something) in the manner of a plough: the ship ploughed through the water

◇ SYNONYMS plough through something: forge, cut, drive, press, push, plunge, wade

6 (foll. by through) to work at slowly or perseveringly

7 to invest (money): he ploughed the profits back into the business

8 plough into (of a vehicle, plane, etc.) to go out of control and crash into (something): the aircraft ploughed into a motorway embankment

ploughman or (US) plowman n, pl -men a man who ploughs ploughshare or (US) plowshare n the cutting blade of a plough plover n a shore bird with a round head, straight bill, and long pointed wings plow n, vb (US) same as plough ploy n a manoeuvre designed to gain an advantage in a situation: a cheap political ploy

◇ SYNONYMS: tactic, move, trick, device, scheme, manoeuvre, dodge, ruse pluck vb

1 to pull or pick off

◇ SYNONYMS: tug, catch, snatch, clutch, jerk, yank, tweak, pull at 2 to pull out the feathers of (a bird for cooking)

◇ SYNONYMS: pull out or off, pick, draw, collect, gather, harvest

3 (foll. by off or away etc) to pull (something) forcibly or violently (from something or someone)

4 to sound the strings of (a musical instrument) with the fingers or a plectrum

◇ SYNONYMS: tug, catch, snatch, clutch, jerk, yank, tweak, pull at

► n

5 courage

◇ SYNONYMS: courage, nerve, bottle (Brit slang), guts (informal), grit, bravery, backbone, boldness

6 a pull or tug

► See also pluck up pluck up vb to summon up (courage) plucky adj pluckier, pluckiest courageous > pluckily adv

> pluckiness n

plug n

1 an object used to block up holes or waste pipes

◇ SYNONYMS: stopper, cork, bung, spigot

2 a device with one or more pins which connects an appliance to an electricity supply

3 (informal) a favourable mention of a product, etc., for example on television, to encourage people to buy it

◇ SYNONYMS: mention, advertisement, advert (Brit), push, publicity, hype

4 See spark plug

5 a piece of tobacco for chewing ► vb plugging, plugged

6 to block or seal (a hole or gap) with a plug

◇ SYNONYMS: seal, close, stop, fill, block, stuff, pack, cork

7 (informal) to make frequent favourable mentions of (a product, etc.), for example on television

◇ SYNONYMS: mention, push, promote, publicize, advertise, build up, hype

8 (slang) to shoot

9 (slang) to punch

10 (foll. by along or away etc) (informal) to work steadily ◇ SYNONYMS plug away: slog away, labour, toil away, grind away (informal), peg away, plod away

► See also plug in plug in vb to connect (an electrical appliance) to a power source by pushing a plug into a socket plum n

1 an oval dark red or yellow fruit with a stone in the middle, that grows on a small tree

2 a raisin, as used in a cake or pudding

3 (informal) something of a superior or desirable kind

► adj

4 made from plums: plum cake

5 dark reddish-purple

6 very desirable: plum targets for attack

◇ SYNONYMS: choice, prize, first-class plumage n the feathers of a bird plumb vb

1 to understand (something obscure): to plumb a mystery

2 to test the alignment of or make vertical with a plumb line

3 (foll. by in or into) to connect (an appliance or fixture) to a water pipe or drainage system: the shower should be plumbed in professionally

4 plumb the depths (usually foll. by of) to experience the worst extremes (of something): to plumb the depths of despair

► n

5 a lead weight hanging at the end of a string and used to test the depth of water or to test whether something is vertical

6 out of plumb not vertical

► adv

7 vertical or perpendicular

◇ SYNONYMS: exactly, precisely, bang, slap, spot-on (Brit informal)

8 (informal, chiefly US) utterly: plumb stupid

9 (informal) exactly: plumb in the centre

◇ SYNONYMS: exactly, precisely, bang, slap, spot-on (Brit informal)

plumber n a person who fits and repairs pipes and fixtures for water, drainage, or gas systems plumbing n

1 the pipes and fixtures used in a water, drainage, or gas system

2 the trade or work of a plumber plumb line n a string with a metal weight at one end, used to test the depth of water or to test whether something is vertical plume n

1 a large ornamental feather

2 a group of feathers worn as a badge or ornament on a hat

3 something like a plume: a plume of smoke

► vb pluming, plumed

4 to adorn with plumes

5 (of a bird) to preen (its feathers)

6 plume oneself (foll. by on or upon) to be proud of oneself or one's achievements, esp. unjustifiably: she was pluming herself on her figure

plummet vb -meting, -meted

1 to drop down; plunge

◇ SYNONYMS: drop, fall, crash, nosedive, descend rapidly

► n

2 the weight on a plumb line or fishing line plump¹ adj

1 full or rounded: until puberty I was really quite plump

◇ SYNONYMS: chubby, fat, stout, round, tubby, dumpy, roly-poly, rotund

► vb

2 (often foll. by up or out) to make (something) fuller or rounded: she plumped up the cushions on the couch

> plumpness n

plump² vb

1 (often foll. by down or into etc) to drop or sit suddenly and heavily: he plumped down on the seat

2 plump for to choose (one) from a selection

► n

3 a heavy abrupt fall or the sound of this

► adv

4 suddenly or heavily

5 directly: the plane landed plump in the middle of the field plunder vb

1 to seize (valuables or goods) from (a place) by force, usually in wartime; loot

◇ SYNONYMS: steal, rob, take, nick (informal), pinch (informal), embezzle, pilfer, thief

► n

2 anything plundered; booty

◇ SYNONYMS: loot, spoils, booty, swag (slang), ill-gotten gains

3 the act of plundering; pillage

◇ SYNONYMS: pillage plunge vb plunging, plunged

1 (usually foll. by into) to thrust or throw (something or oneself) forcibly or suddenly: they plunged into the sea; he plunged the knife in to the hilt

◇ SYNONYMS: submerge, dip

2 to throw or be thrown into a certain condition: the room was plunged into darkness

3 (usually foll. by into) to involve or become involved deeply (in)

4 to move swiftly or impetuously

◇ SYNONYMS: hurtle, charge, career, jump, tear, rush, dive, dash

5 to descend very suddenly or steeply: temperatures were plunging

◇ SYNONYMS: descend, fall, drop, crash, pitch, sink, dive, tumble

► n

6 a leap or dive

◇ SYNONYMS: dive, jump, duck, descent

7 (informal) a swim

8 a pitching motion

◇ SYNONYMS: fall, crash (informal), slump, drop, tumble

9 take the plunge (informal) to make a risky decision which cannot be reversed later plunger n

1 a rubber suction cup used to clear blocked drains

2 a device with a plunging motion; piston

Plunket baby n (NZ) a baby brought up according to the principles of the Plunket Society pluperfect (grammar) adj

1 denoting a tense of verbs used to describe an action completed before a past time. In English this is a compound tense formed with had plus the past participle

► n

2 the pluperfect tense plural adj

1 of or consisting of more than one

2 (grammar) denoting a word indicating more than one

► n

3 (grammar)

A the plural number

B a plural form pluralism n

- 1 the existence and toleration in a society of a variety of groups of different ethnic origins, cultures, or religions
- 2 the holding of more than one office by a person
 - > pluralist n, adj
 - > pluralistic adj

plus prep

- 1 increased by the addition of: four plus two
- 2 with the addition of: a good salary, plus a company car
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: and, with, added to, coupled with
- ▶ adj
- 3 indicating addition: a plus sign
- 4 (maths) same as positive
- 5 on the positive part of a scale
- 6 indicating the positive side of an electrical circuit
- 7 involving advantage: a plus factor
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: additional, added, extra, supplementary, add-on
- 8 (informal) having a value above the value stated: it must be worth a thousand pounds plus
- 9 slightly above a specified standard: he received a B plus for his essay
- ▶ n
- 10 a plus sign (+), indicating addition
- 11 a positive quantity
- 12 (informal) something positive or an advantage
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: advantage, benefit, asset, gain, extra, bonus, good point
- 13 a gain, surplus, or advantage
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: advantage, benefit, asset, gain, extra, bonus, good point plus fours pl n men's baggy knickerbockers gathered in at the knee, now only worn for hunting or golf plush n

- 1 a velvety fabric with a long soft pile, used for furniture coverings
 - ▶ adj
- 2 Also: plushy (informal) luxurious

◇ SYNONYMS: luxurious, luxury, lavish, rich, sumptuous, opulent, de luxe plus-one n (informal) someone who accompanies an invited person to a social function

Pluto n

1 (classical myth) the god of the underworld

2 a dwarf planet in the solar system, classified as a planet until 2006 plutocrat n a person who is powerful because of being very rich plutonium n (chem) a toxic radioactive metallic element, used in nuclear reactors and weapons. SYMBOL: Pu

ply¹ vb plies, plying, plied

1 to work at (a job or trade)

◇ SYNONYMS: work at, follow, exercise, pursue, carry on, practise

2 to use (a tool)

3 (usually foll. by with) to provide (with) or subject (to) persistently: he plied us with drink; he plied me with questions

4 to work steadily

5 (of a ship) to travel regularly along (a route): to ply the trade routes

ply² n, pl plies

1 a layer or thickness, such as of fabric or wood

2 one of the strands twisted together to make rope or yarn plywood n a board made of thin layers of wood glued together under pressure, with the grain of one layer at right angles to the grain of the next

PM

- 1 Prime Minister
- 2 Postmaster
- 3 Paymaster
- 4 project manager

p.m.

- 1 after noon
- 2 postmortem (examination)

PMS premenstrual syndrome

PMT premenstrual tension pneumatic adj

- 1 operated by compressed air: pneumatic drill
- 2 containing compressed air: a pneumatic tyre
- 3 of or concerned with air, gases, or wind pneumonia n inflammation of one or both lungs

PO

- 1 Also: p.o. (Brit) postal order
- 2 Post Office
- 3 petty officer
- 4 Pilot Officer

poach¹ vb

- 1 to catch (game or fish) illegally on someone else's land
- 2
- A to encroach on (someone's rights or duties)
- B to steal (an idea, employee, or player)
- > poacher n

poach² vb to simmer (food) very gently in liquid pocket n

1 a small pouch sewn into clothing for carrying small articles

2 any pouchlike container, esp. for catching balls at the edge of a snooker table

◇ SYNONYMS: pouch, bag, sack, compartment, receptacle

3 a small isolated area or group: a pocket of resistance

4 a cavity in the earth, such as one containing ore

5 in one's pocket under one's control

6 out of pocket having made a loss

► vb -eting, -eted

7 to put into one's pocket

8 to take secretly or dishonestly

◇ SYNONYMS: steal, take, lift (informal), appropriate, pilfer, purloin (formal), filch

9 (billiards, etc.) to drive (a ball) into a pocket

10 to conceal or suppress: he pocketed his pride and asked for help

► adj

11 small: a pocket edition

◇ SYNONYMS: small, compact, miniature, portable, little pocket money n

1 a small weekly sum of money given to children by parents

2 money for small personal expenses pockmarked adj

1 (of the skin) marked with pitted scars after the healing of smallpox

2 (of a surface) covered in many small hollows: the building is pockmarked with bullet holes

> pockmark n

pod n

1

A a long narrow seedcase containing peas, beans, etc.

B the seedcase as distinct from the seeds

◇ SYNONYMS: shell, case, hull, husk, shuck

► vb podding, podded

2 to remove the pod from podcast n

1 an audio file similar to a radio broadcast, which can be downloaded and listened to on a computer, mobile electronic device, etc.

► vb -casts, -casting, -cast or -casted

2 to create such files and make them available for downloading

3 to make (music, interviews, etc.) available using this format > podcaster n

> podcasting n

podgy adj podgier, podgiest short and fat > podginess n

podiatry (pod-eye-a-tree) n another word for chiropody > podiatrist n

podium n, pl -diums or -dia

1 a small raised platform used by conductors or speakers

◇ SYNONYMS: platform, stand, stage, rostrum, dais

2 a plinth that supports a colonnade or wall poem n

1 a literary work, often in verse, usually dealing with emotional or descriptive themes in a rhythmic form

◇ SYNONYMS: verse, song, lyric, rhyme, sonnet, ode, verse composition

2 a literary work that is not in verse but deals with emotional or descriptive themes in a rhythmic form: a prose poem

3 anything like a poem in beauty or effect: his painting is a poem on creation poep (poop) n (S African vulgar)

1 an emission of intestinal gas from the anus

2 a mean or despicable person poesy n (archaic) poetry poet n

1 a writer of poetry

◇ SYNONYMS: bard (archaic, literary), rhymmer, lyricist, lyric poet, versifier, elegist

2 a person with great imagination and creativity poetic or poetical adj

1 like poetry, by being expressive or imaginative

◇ SYNONYMS: figurative, creative, lyric, symbolic, lyrical

2 of poetry or poets

◇ SYNONYMS: lyrical, lyric, elegiac, metrical

3 recounted in verse poetic justice n an appropriate punishment or reward for previous actions poet laureate n, pl poets laureate (Brit) the poet selected by the British sovereign to write poems on important occasions poetry n

1 poems in general

◇ SYNONYMS: verse, poems, rhyme, rhyming, verse composition

2 the art or craft of writing poems

◇ SYNONYMS: verse, poems, rhyme, rhyming, verse composition

3 a poetic quality that prompts an emotional response: her acting was full of poetry pogrom n an organized persecution and massacre poignant adj

1 sharply painful to the feelings: a poignant reminder

◇ SYNONYMS: moving, touching, sad, bitter, intense, painful, distressing, pathetic

2 cutting: poignant wit

3 pertinent in mental appeal: a poignant subject > poignancy n

poinsettia n a shrub of Mexico and Central America, widely grown for its showy scarlet bracts, which resemble petals point n

1 the essential idea in an argument or discussion: I agreed with the point he made

◇ SYNONYMS: essence, meaning, subject, question, heart, import, drift, thrust

2 a reason or aim: what is the point of this exercise?

◇ SYNONYMS: purpose, aim, object, end, reason, goal, intention, objective

3 a detail or item

◇ SYNONYMS: aspect, detail, feature, quality, particular, respect, item, characteristic

4 a characteristic: he has his good points

◇ SYNONYMS: aspect, detail, feature, quality, particular, respect, item, characteristic

5 a location or position

◇ SYNONYMS: place, area, position, site, spot, location, locality, locale

6 a dot or tiny mark

◇ SYNONYMS: pinpoint, mark, spot, dot, fleck

7 a dot used as a decimal point or a full stop

8 the sharp tip of anything: the point of the spear

◇ SYNONYMS: end, tip, sharp end, top, spur, spike, apex, prong

9 a headland: the soaring cliffs at Dwerja Point in the southwest of the island

10 (maths) a geometric element having a position located by coordinates, but no magnitude

11 a specific condition or degree: freezing point

◇ SYNONYMS: stage, level, position, condition, degree, pitch, circumstance, extent

12 a moment: at that point he left

◇ SYNONYMS: moment, time, stage, period, phase, instant, juncture, moment in time

13 (often pl) any of the extremities, such as the tail, ears, or feet, of a domestic animal

14 (often pl, ballet) the tip of the toes

15 a single unit for measuring something such as value, or of scoring in a game

◇ SYNONYMS: score, tally, mark

16 (printing) a unit of measurement equal to one twelfth of a pica

17 (naut) one of the 32 direction marks on the compass

18 (cricket) a fielding position at right angles to the batsman on the off side

19 either of the two electrical contacts that make or break the circuit in the distributor of a motor vehicle

20 (Brit & Austral & NZ, often pl) a movable section of railway track used to direct a train from one line to another

21 (Brit) short for power point

22 (boxing) a mark awarded for a scoring blow or knockdown

23 beside the point irrelevant

24 make a point of

A to make a habit of (something)

B to do (something) because one thinks it important 25 on or at the point of about to; on the verge of: on the point of leaving

26 to the point relevant

27 up to a point not completely

► vb

28 (usually foll. by at or to) to show the position or direction of something by extending a finger or other pointed object towards it

◇ SYNONYMS point at or to something or someone: indicate, show, signal, point to, point out, specify, designate, gesture towards

29 (usually foll. by at or to) to single out one person or thing from among several: all the symptoms pointed to epilepsy

30 to direct or face in a specific direction: point me in the right direction

◇ SYNONYMS: aim, level, train, direct

31 to finish or repair the joints in brickwork with mortar or cement

32 (of a gun dog) to show where game is lying by standing rigidly with the muzzle turned towards it point-blank adj

1 fired at a very close target

2 plain or blunt: a point-blank refusal to discuss the matter

► adv

3 directly or bluntly: the Minister was asked point-blank if he intended to resign point duty n the control of traffic by a police officer at a road junction pointed adj

1 having a sharp tip

◇ SYNONYMS: sharp, edged, acute, barbed

2 cutting or incisive: pointed wit

◇ SYNONYMS: cutting, telling, biting, sharp, keen, acute, penetrating, pertinent

3 obviously directed at a particular person: a pointed remark

4 emphasized or obvious: pointed ignorance > pointedly adv

pointer n

1 something that is a helpful indicator of how a situation has arisen or may turn out: a significant pointer to the likely resumption of talks

◇ SYNONYMS: hint, tip, suggestion, recommendation, caution, piece of information, piece of advice

2 an indicator on a measuring instrument

◇ SYNONYMS: indicator, hand, guide, needle, arrow

3 a long stick used by teachers, to point out particular features on a map, chart, etc.

4 a large smooth-coated gun dog pointless adj without meaning or purpose

◇ SYNONYMS: senseless, meaningless, futile, fruitless, stupid, silly, useless, absurd point of view n, pl points of view

1 a mental viewpoint or attitude: she refuses to see the other person's point of view

2 a way of considering something: a scientific point of view point-to-point n (Brit) a steeplechase organized by a hunt poise n

1 dignified manner

2 physical balance: the poise of a natural model

3 mental balance: he recovered his poise

► vb poising, poised

4 to be balanced or suspended

5 to hold in readiness: to poise a lance poised adj

1 absolutely ready

◇ SYNONYMS: ready, waiting, prepared, standing by, all set

2 behaving with or showing poise

◇ SYNONYMS: composed, calm, together (informal), collected, dignified, self-confident, self-possessed poison n

1 a substance that causes death or injury when swallowed or absorbed

◇ SYNONYMS: toxin, venom, bane (archaic)

2 something that destroys or corrupts: the poison of Nazism

► vb

3 to give poison to someone

◇ SYNONYMS: give someone poison, murder, kill, administer poison to 4 to add poison to (something)

5 to have a harmful or evil effect on ◇ SYNONYMS: contaminate, foul, infect, spoil, pollute, blight, taint, befoul

6 (foll. by against) to turn (a person's mind) against: he poisoned her mind against me

◇ SYNONYMS: corrupt, colour, undermine, bias, sour, pervert, warp, taint > poisoner n poisonous adj

1 of or like a poison

◇ SYNONYMS: toxic, fatal, deadly, lethal, mortal, virulent, noxious, venomous

2 malicious

◇ SYNONYMS: evil, malicious, corrupting, pernicious (formal), baleful poison-pen letter n a malicious anonymous letter poke vb poking, poked

1 to jab or prod with an elbow, finger, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: jab, push, stick, dig, stab, thrust, shove, nudge

2 to make a hole by poking

3 (sometimes foll. by at) to thrust (at): she poked at the food with her fork

4 (usually foll. by in or through etc) to thrust forward or out: yellow hair poked from beneath his cap

◇ SYNONYMS: protrude, stick, thrust, jut

5 to stir (a fire) by poking

6 (often foll. by about or around) to search or pry

7 poke one's nose into to meddle in

► n

8 a jab or prod

◇ SYNONYMS: jab, dig, thrust, nudge, prod poker¹ n a metal rod with a handle for stirring a fire poker² n a card game of bluff and skill in which players bet on the hands dealt poky adj pokier, pokiest (of a room) small and cramped > pokiness n

polar adj

1 of or near either of the earth's poles or the area inside the Arctic or Antarctic Circles

2 of or having a pole or polarity

3 directly opposite in tendency or nature: polar opposites polar bear n a white bear of coastal regions of the North Pole polarization or -risation n

1 the condition of having or giving polarity

2 (physics) the condition in which waves of light or other radiation are restricted to certain directions of vibration

polarize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised

1 to cause people to adopt directly opposite opinions: political opinion had polarized since the restoration of democracy

2 to have or give polarity or polarization

Polaroid n (trademark)

1 a type of plastic that polarizes light: used in sunglasses to eliminate glare

2 Polaroid camera a camera that produces a finished print by developing and processing it inside the camera within a few seconds

3 Polaroids sunglasses with Polaroid plastic lenses polder n a stretch of land reclaimed from the sea pole¹ n

1 a long slender rounded piece of wood, metal, or other material

◇ SYNONYMS: rod, post, support, staff, bar, stick, stake, paling

2 up the pole (Brit & Austral & NZ informal)

A slightly mad

B in a predicament pole² n

1 either end of the earth's axis of rotation

► See also North Pole, South Pole

2 (physics)

A either of the opposite forces of a magnet

B either of two points at which there are opposite electric charges

3 either of two directly opposite tendencies or opinions

4 poles apart having widely divergent opinions or tastes poleaxe or (US) poleax vb -axing, -axed

1 to hit or stun with a heavy blow

► n

2 an axe formerly used in battle or used by a butcher polecat n, pl -cats or -cat

1 a dark brown mammal like a weasel that gives off a foul smell

2 (US) a skunk pole dancing n a form of entertainment in which a scantily dressed woman dances erotically, turning on and posing against a vertically fixed pole on stage > pole dancer n

polemic (pol-em-ik) n

1 a fierce attack on or defence of a particular opinion, belief, etc.: anti-capitalist polemic

► adj also polemical

2 of or involving dispute or controversy > polemicist n

Pole Star n the Pole Star the star closest to the northern celestial pole police n

1 (often preceded by the) the organized civil force in a state which keeps law and order

◇ SYNONYMS: the law (informal), police force, constabulary, the fuzz (slang), boys in blue (informal, archaic), the Old Bill (slang), the rozzers (slang)

2 the men and women who are members of such a force

◇ SYNONYMS: the law (informal), police force, constabulary, the fuzz (slang), boys in blue (informal, archaic), the Old Bill (slang), the rozzers (slang)

3 an organized body with a similar function: security police

► vb -licing, -liced

4 to maintain order or control by means of a police force or similar body

◇ SYNONYMS: control, patrol, guard, watch, protect, regulate policeman or (fem) policewoman n, pl -men or -women a member of a police force; police officer policy¹ n, pl -cies

1 a plan of action adopted by a person, group, or government

◇ SYNONYMS: procedure, plan, action, practice, scheme, code, custom

2 (archaic) wisdom or prudence policy² n, pl -cies a document containing an insurance contract > policyholder n

polio n short for poliomyelitis poliomyelitis (pole-ee-oh-my-el-lite-iss) n a viral disease which affects the brain and spinal cord, often causing paralysis polish vb

1 to make smooth and shiny by rubbing

◇ SYNONYMS: shine, wax, smooth, rub, buff, brighten, burnish

2 to perfect or complete: media experts he had hired to polish his image

◇ SYNONYMS: perfect, improve, enhance, refine, finish, brush up, touch up

3 to make or become elegant or refined: not having polished his accent didn't help his career

◇ SYNONYMS: perfect, improve, enhance, refine, finish, brush up, touch up

► n

4 a substance used for polishing

◇ SYNONYMS: varnish, wax, glaze, lacquer, japan

5 a shine or gloss

◇ SYNONYMS: sheen, finish, glaze, gloss, brightness, lustre

6 elegance or refinement

◇ SYNONYMS: style, class (informal), finish, breeding, grace, elegance, refinement, finesse

► See also polish off

Polish adj

1 of Poland

► n

2 the language of Poland polished adj

1 accomplished: a polished actor

◇ SYNONYMS: accomplished, professional, masterly, fine, expert, skilful, adept, superlative

2 done or performed well or professionally: a polished performance

◇ SYNONYMS: accomplished, professional, masterly, fine, expert, skilful, adept, superlative polish off vb (informal)

1 to finish completely

2 to dispose of or kill polite adj

1 having good manners; courteous

◇ SYNONYMS: mannerly, civil, courteous, gracious, respectful, well-behaved, complaisant, well-mannered

2 cultivated or refined: polite society

◇ SYNONYMS: refined, cultured, civilized, polished, sophisticated, elegant, genteel, well-bred

3 socially correct but insincere: he smiled a polite response and stifled an urge to scream > politely adv

> politeness n

politic adj

1 wise or possibly advantageous: I didn't feel it was politic to mention it

◇ SYNONYMS: wise, diplomatic, sensible, prudent, advisable, expedient, judicious

2 artful or shrewd: a politic manager

3 crafty; cunning: a politic old scoundrel

4 (archaic) political political adj

1 of the state, government, or public administration

◇ SYNONYMS: governmental, government, state, parliamentary, constitutional, administrative, legislative, ministerial

2 relating to or interested in politics: she was always a very political person

3 of the parties and the partisan aspects of politics: the government blames political opponents for fanning the unrest

> politically adv

politically correct adj displaying progressive attitudes, esp. in using vocabulary which is intended to avoid any implied prejudice > political correctness n

political prisoner n a person imprisoned for holding particular political beliefs politician n a person actively engaged in politics, esp. a member of parliament

◇ SYNONYMS: statesman or woman or person, representative, senator (US), Member of Parliament (Brit), congressman or woman or person (US), legislator, public servant politics n

1 (functioning as sing) the art and science of government

◇ SYNONYMS: affairs of state, government, public affairs, civics

2 (functioning as pl) political opinions or sympathies: his conservative politics

◇ SYNONYMS: political beliefs, party politics, political allegiances, political leanings, political sympathies

3 (functioning as pl) political activities or affairs: party politics

4 (functioning as sing) the business or profession of politics

5 (functioning as sing or pl) any activity concerned with the acquisition of power: company politics are often vicious polka n

1 a lively 19th-century dance

2 music for this dance

► vb -kaing, -kaed

3 to dance a polka polka dots pl n a regular pattern of small bold spots on a fabric poll n

1 Also called: opinion poll the questioning of a random sample of people to find out the general opinion

◇ SYNONYMS: survey, figures, count, sampling, returns, ballot, tally, census

2 the casting, recording, or counting of votes in an election

◇ SYNONYMS: election, vote, voting, referendum, ballot, plebiscite

3 the result of such a voting: a marginal poll

4 the head

► vb

5 to receive (a certain number of votes)

◇ SYNONYMS: gain, return, record, register, tally

6 to record the votes of: he polled the whole town

7 to question (a person, etc.) as part of an opinion poll

◇ SYNONYMS: question, interview, survey, sample, ballot, canvass

8 to vote in an election

9 to clip or shear

10 to remove or cut short the horns of (cattle) pollen n a fine powder produced by flowers to fertilize other flowers of the same species pollen count n a measure of the amount of pollen in the air over a 24-hour period, often published as a warning to people with hay fever pollinate vb -nating, -nated to fertilize by the transfer of pollen > pollination n

polling station n a building where voters go during an election to cast their votes pollster n a person who conducts opinion polls pollutant n a substance that pollutes, usually the chemical waste of an industrial process pollute vb -luting, -luted

1 to contaminate with poisonous or harmful substances

◇ SYNONYMS: contaminate, dirty, poison, soil, foul, infect, spoil, stain

2 to corrupt morally

◇ SYNONYMS: defile, corrupt, sully, deprave, debase, profane, desecrate, dishonour > pollution n

polo n

1 a game like hockey played on horseback with long-handled mallets and a wooden ball

2 short for water polo polonaise n

1 a stately Polish dance

2 music for this dance

polo neck n a sweater with a high tight turned-over collar polonium n (chem) a rare radioactive element found in trace amounts in uranium ores. SYMBOL: Po poltergeist n a spirit believed to be responsible for noises and acts of mischief, such as throwing objects about poltroon n (obsolete) a complete coward poly- combining form many or much: polyhedron; polysyllabic polyandry n the practice of having more than one husband at the same time > polyandrous adj

polyanthus n, pl -thuses a hybrid garden primrose with brightly coloured flowers polychromatic adj

1 having many colours

2 (of radiation) containing more than one wavelength polyester n a synthetic material used to make plastics and textile fibres polygamy (pol-ig-a-mee) n the practice of having more than one wife or husband at the same time > polygamist n > polygamous adj

polyglot adj

1 able to speak many languages

2 written in or using many languages

► n

3 a person who can speak many languages polygon n a geometrical figure with three or more sides and angles > polygonal adj

polyhedron n, pl -drons or -dra a solid figure with four or more sides > polyhedral adj

polymer n a natural or synthetic compound with large molecules made up of simple molecules of the same kind polymerization or -isation n the process of forming a polymer > polymerize or -ise vb

polyp n

1 (zool) a small sea creature that has a hollow cylindrical body with a ring of tentacles around the mouth

2 (pathol) a small growth on the surface of a mucous membrane polyphonic adj (music) consisting of several melodies played together polystyrene n a synthetic material used esp. as white rigid foam for insulating and packing polytechnic n

1 (in New Zealand and formerly in Britain) a college offering courses in many subjects at and below degree level

► adj

2 of or relating to technical instruction polytheism n belief in more than one god > polytheistic adj

> polytheist n

polythene n a light plastic material made from ethylene, usually made into thin sheets or bags polyunsaturated adj of a group of fats that are less likely to contribute to the build-up of cholesterol in the body polyurethane n a synthetic material used esp. in paints pom n (Austral & NZ slang) same as pommy pomander n

1 a mixture of sweet-smelling substances in a container, used to perfume drawers or cupboards

2 a container for such a mixture pomegranate n a round tropical fruit with a tough reddish rind containing many seeds in a juicy red pulp

Pomeranian n a toy dog with a long straight silky coat pommel n

1 the raised part on the front of a saddle

2 a knob at the top of a sword handle

► vb -melling, -melled (US) -meling, -meled

3 same as pummel pommy n, pl -mies (sometimes cap, slang) a word used by Australians and New Zealanders for a British person. Sometimes shortened to: pom pomp n

1 stately display or ceremony

2 ostentatious display

pompom n

1 a decorative ball of tufted silk or wool

2 the small round flower head of some dahlias and chrysanthemums pompous adj

1 foolishly dignified or self-important

2 foolishly grand in style: a pompous speech

> pomposity n

> pompously adv

ponce (offensive, slang, chiefly Brit) n

1 an effeminate man

2 same as pimp

► vb poncing, ponced

3 (often foll. by around or about) (Brit & Austral) to act stupidly or waste time poncho n, pl -chos a type of cloak made of a piece of cloth with a hole in the middle for the head pond n a pool of still water

◇ SYNONYMS: pool, tarn, small lake, fish pond, duck pond, millpond ponder vb (sometimes foll. by on or over) to consider thoroughly or deeply ◇ SYNONYMS: think about, consider, reflect on, contemplate, deliberate about, muse on, brood on, meditate on > ponderable adj

ponderous adj

1 serious and dull: much of the film is ponderous and pretentious

2 heavy or huge

3 (of movement) slow and clumsy pong (Brit & Austral informal) n

1 a strong unpleasant smell

► vb

2 to give off a strong unpleasant smell

> pongy adj

pontiff n the Pope pontificate vb -cating, -cated

1 to speak in a dogmatic manner

2 to officiate as a pontiff

► n

3 the term of office of a Pope pontoon¹ n a floating platform used to support a bridge pontoon² n a card game in which players try to obtain sets of cards worth 21 points pony n, pl -nies a breed of small horse ponytail n a hairstyle in which the hair is tied in a bunch at the back of the head and hangs down like a tail poodle n a dog with curly hair, which is sometimes clipped poof n (Brit & Austral & NZ offensive, slang) a homosexual man > poofy adj

pool¹ n

1 a small body of still water

◇ SYNONYMS: pond, lake, mere, tarn

2 a small body of spilt liquid: a pool of blood

◇ SYNONYMS: puddle, drop, patch

3 See swimming pool

4 a deep part of a stream or river pool² n

1 a shared fund of resources or workers: a typing pool

◇ SYNONYMS: supply, reserve, fall-back

2 a billiard game in which all the balls are potted with the cue ball

3 the combined stakes of those betting in many gambling games

◇ SYNONYMS: kitty, bank, fund, stock, store, pot, jackpot, stockpile

4 (commerce) a group of producers who agree to maintain output levels and high prices

► vb

5 to put into a common fund

◇ SYNONYMS: combine, share, merge, put together, amalgamate, lump together, join forces on poop n (naut) a raised part at the back of a sailing ship poor adj

1 having little money and few possessions

◇ SYNONYMS: impoverished, broke (informal), hard up (informal), short, needy, penniless, destitute, poverty-stricken

2 less than is necessary or expected: it was a poor reward for all his effort

◇ SYNONYMS: meagre, inadequate, insufficient, lacking, incomplete, scant, deficient, skimpy

3 (sometimes foll. by in) lacking in (something): a food which is rich in energy but poor in vitamins

◇ SYNONYMS: meagre, inadequate, insufficient, lacking, incomplete, scant, deficient, skimpy

4 inferior: poor quality

◇ SYNONYMS: inferior, unsatisfactory, mediocre, second-rate, rotten (informal), low-grade, below par, substandard, half-pie (NZ informal), bodger or bodgie (Austral slang)

5 disappointing or disagreeable: a poor play

◇ SYNONYMS: inferior, unsatisfactory, mediocre, second-rate, rotten (informal), low-grade, below par, substandard, half-pie (NZ informal), bodger or bodgie (Austral slang)

6 pitiable; unlucky: poor John is ill

◇ SYNONYMS: unfortunate, unlucky, hapless, pitiful, luckless, wretched, ill-starred, pitiable

7 poor man's (something) a cheaper substitute for (something): pewter, sometimes known as poor man's silver

poorly adv

1 badly

◇ SYNONYMS: badly, incompetently, inadequately, unsuccessfully, insufficiently, unsatisfactorily, inexpertly

► adj

2 (informal) rather ill

◇ SYNONYMS: ill, sick, unwell, crook (Austral & NZ informal), seedy (informal), below par, off colour, under the weather (informal), feeling rotten (informal) pop¹ vb popping, popped

1 to make or cause to make a small explosive sound

◇ SYNONYMS: burst, crack, snap, bang, explode, go off (with a bang)

2 (often foll. by in or out etc) (informal) to enter or leave briefly or suddenly:

his mother popped out to buy him an ice cream

3 to place suddenly or unexpectedly: Benny popped a sweet into his mouth

◇ SYNONYMS: put, insert, push, stick, slip, thrust, tuck, shove

4 to burst with a small explosive sound

◇ SYNONYMS: burst, crack, snap, bang, explode, go off (with a bang)

5 (of the eyes) to protrude

6 (informal) to pawn

7 pop the question (informal) to propose marriage

► n

8 a light sharp explosive sound

◇ SYNONYMS: bang, report, crack, noise, burst, explosion

9 (Brit informal) a nonalcoholic fizzy drink

► adv

10 with a pop

pop² n

1 music of general appeal, esp. to young people, that usually has a strong rhythm and uses electrical amplification

► adj

2 relating to pop music: a pop concert

3 (informal) short for popular pop³ n (informal)

1 father

2 an old man

popcorn n grains of maize heated until they puff up and burst

Pope n the bishop of Rome as head of the Roman Catholic Church

◇ SYNONYMS: Holy Father, pontiff, His Holiness, Bishop of Rome, Vicar of Christ popish (pope-ish) adj (offensive) relating to Roman Catholicism poplar n a tall slender tree with light soft wood, triangular leaves, and catkins poplin n a strong plain-woven fabric, usually of cotton, with fine ribbing poppadom or poppadum n a thin round crisp fried Indian bread poppy n, pl -pies

1 a plant with showy red, orange, or white flowers

2 a drug, such as opium, obtained from these plants

3 an artificial red poppy worn to mark Remembrance Sunday and in New Zealand to mark Anzac Day

► adj

4 reddish-orange populace n the ordinary people of an area; masses popular adj

1 widely liked or admired

◇ SYNONYMS: well-liked, liked, in, accepted, favourite, approved, in favour, fashionable, trending

2 (often foll. by with) liked by a particular person or group: the bay is popular with windsurfers and water-skiers

◇ SYNONYMS: well-liked, liked, in, accepted, favourite, approved, in favour, fashionable, trending

3 common among the general public: the groundswell of popular feeling

◇ SYNONYMS: common, general, prevailing, current, conventional, universal, prevalent

4 designed to appeal to a mass audience: an attack on him in the popular press > popularity n

> popularly adv

popularize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised

1 to make popular

2 to make easily understandable > popularization or -risation n

populate vb -lating, -lated

1 (often passive) to live in: a mountainous region populated mainly by Armenians

◇ SYNONYMS: inhabit, people, live in, occupy, reside in, dwell in (formal)

2 to provide with inhabitants

◇ SYNONYMS: settle, occupy, pioneer, colonize > populated adj

population n

1 all the inhabitants of a place

◇ SYNONYMS: inhabitants, people, community, society, residents, natives, folk, occupants

2 the number of such inhabitants

3 all the people of a particular class in a place: the bulk of the rural population lives in poverty

4 (ecology) a group of individuals of the same species inhabiting a given area: a population of grey seals populism n a political strategy based on a calculated appeal to the interests or prejudices of ordinary people: they preach a heady message of populism and religion

> populist adj, n populous adj containing many inhabitants pop-up adj

1 (of an appliance) characterized by or having a mechanism that pops up

2 (of a book) having pages that rise when opened, to simulate a three-dimensional form

3 (computers) (of a menu on a computer screen, etc.) suddenly appearing when an option is selected

4 (of a shop, restaurant, etc.) intentionally trading for a short time only: a pop-up boutique

► n

5 (computers) something that appears over or above the open window on a computer screen porbeagle n a large shark of the N Atlantic and Mediterranean porcelain n

1 a delicate type of china

2 an object or objects made of this porch n a covered approach to the entrance of a building porcine adj of or like a pig porcupine n a large rodent covered with long pointed quills pore¹ vb poring, pored > pore over to examine or study intently: I pored over account books and ledgers all day

pore² n a small opening in the skin or surface of an animal or plant ◇ SYNONYMS: opening, hole, outlet, orifice pork n the flesh of pigs used as food porker n a pig fattened for food porn or porno n, adj (informal) short for pornography, pornographic pornography n writings, pictures, or films designed to be sexually exciting ◇ SYNONYMS: obscenity, porn (informal), dirt, filth, indecency, smut > pornographer n

> pornographic adj

porous adj

1 allowing air and liquids to be absorbed

2 (biol, geol) having pores > porosity n

porphyry (por-fir-ee) n, pl -ries a reddish-purple rock with large crystals of feldspar in it > porphyritic adj

porpoise n, pl -poises or -poise a small mammal of the whale family with a blunt snout porridge n

1 a dish made of oatmeal or other cereal, cooked in water or milk

2 (chiefly Brit slang) a term of imprisonment port¹ n a town with a harbour where ships can load and unload ◇ SYNONYMS: harbour, haven, anchorage, seaport port² n

1 the left side of an aircraft or ship when facing the front of it

► vb

2 to turn or be turned towards the port port³ n a strong sweet fortified wine, usually dark red port⁴ n

1 (naut)

A an opening with a watertight door in the side of a ship, used for loading, etc.

B See porthole

2 a location on a computer where peripherals and other components can be plugged in portable adj

1 easily carried

◇ SYNONYMS: light, compact, convenient, handy, manageable, movable, easily carried

► n

2 an article designed to be easily carried, such as a television or a games console > portability n

portal n

1 (literary) a large and impressive gateway or doorway

2 (computers) an internet site providing links to other sites portcullis n an iron grating suspended in a castle gateway, that can be lowered to bar the entrance portend vb to be an omen of: the 0.5% increase certainly portends higher inflation ahead

portent n

1 a sign of a future event

2 great or ominous significance: matters of great portent

3 a marvel portentous adj

1 of great or ominous significance

2 self-important or pompous: there was nothing portentous or solemn about him

porter¹ n

1 a person employed to carry luggage at a railway station or hotel

◇ SYNONYMS: baggage attendant, carrier, bearer, baggage-carrier

2 a hospital worker who transfers patients from one part of the hospital to another > portage n

porter² n (chiefly Brit) a doorman or gatekeeper of a building

◇ SYNONYMS: doorman, caretaker, janitor, concierge, gatekeeper portfolio n, pl -os

1 a flat case for carrying maps, drawings, or papers

2 selected examples, such as drawings or photographs, that show an artist's recent work

3 the area of responsibility of the head of a government department: the defence portfolio

4 a list of investments held by an investor

5 Minister without portfolio a cabinet minister without responsibility for a government department porthole n a small round window in a ship or aircraft portico n, pl -coes or -cos a porch or covered walkway with columns supporting the roof portion n

1 a part of a whole

◇ SYNONYMS: part, bit, piece, section, scrap, segment, fragment, chunk

2 a part belonging to a person or group

◇ SYNONYMS: share, allowance, lot, measure, quantity, quota, ration, allocation

3 a helping of food served to one person

◇ SYNONYMS: helping, serving, piece, plateful

4 (law) a dowry

5 (literary) someone's fate or destiny: utter disaster was my portion

► vb

6 to divide (something) into shares portly adj -lier, -liest stout or rather fat portmanteau n, pl -teaus or -teaux (old-fashioned) a large suitcase made of stiff leather that opens out into two compartments portrait n

1 a painting, drawing, or photograph of a person, often only of the face ◇ SYNONYMS: picture, painting, image, photograph, representation, likeness

2 a description

◇ SYNONYMS: description, profile, portrayal, depiction, characterization, thumbnail sketch

► adj

3 (of a page or screen) having greater height than width > portraitist n

portray vb to describe or represent (someone) by artistic means, such as in writing or on film

◇ SYNONYMS: play, take the role of, act the part of, represent, personate (rare) > portrayal n

Portuguese adj

1 of Portugal

► n

2 pl -gueese a person from Portugal

3 the language of Portugal and Brazil

Portuguese man-of-war n a large sea creature like a jellyfish, with long stinging tentacles pose vb posing, posed

1 to take up a particular position to be photographed or drawn

◇ SYNONYMS: position yourself, sit, model, arrange yourself

2 to behave in an affected way in order to impress others

◇ SYNONYMS: put on airs, posture, show off (informal)

3 (often foll. by as) to pretend to be (someone one is not)

◇ SYNONYMS pose as something or someone: impersonate, pretend to be, profess to be, masquerade as, pass yourself off as

4 to create or be (a problem, threat, etc.): dressing complicated wounds has always posed a problem for doctors

5 to put forward or ask: the question you posed earlier

► n

6 a position taken up for an artist or photographer

◇ SYNONYMS: posture, position, bearing, attitude, stance

7 behaviour adopted for effect

◇ SYNONYMS: act, façade, air, front, posturing, pretence, mannerism, affectation poser¹ n (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) a person who likes to be seen in trendsetting clothes in fashionable bars, clubs, etc.

poser² n a baffling question poseur n a person who behaves in an affected way in order to impress others posh adj (informal, chiefly Brit)

1 smart or elegant

◇ SYNONYMS: smart, grand, stylish, luxurious, classy (slang), swish (informal), chiefly Brit), up-market, swanky (informal), schmick (Austral informal)

2 upper-class

◇ SYNONYMS: upper-class, high-class posit (pozz-it) vb -iting, -ited to lay down as a basis for argument: the archetypes posited by modern psychology

position n

1 place or location: the hotel is in an elevated position above the River Wye

◇ SYNONYMS: location, place, point, area, post, situation, station, spot

2 the proper or usual place

3 the way in which a person or thing is placed or arranged: an upright position

◇ SYNONYMS: posture, attitude, arrangement, pose, stance

4 point of view; attitude: the Catholic Church's position on contraception

◇ SYNONYMS: attitude, view, perspective, point of view, opinion, belief, stance, outlook

5 social status, esp. high social standing

◇ SYNONYMS: status, place, standing, footing, station, rank, reputation, importance

6 a job; appointment

◇ SYNONYMS: job, place, post, opening, office, role, situation, duty

7 (sport) a player's allotted role or place in the playing area

8 (military) a place occupied for tactical reasons

9 in a position to able to: you were not in a position to repay the money

► vb

10 to put in the proper or usual place; locate

◇ SYNONYMS: place, put, set, stand, arrange, locate, lay out > positional adj

positive adj

1 expressing certainty: a positive answer

◇ SYNONYMS: definite, real, clear, firm, certain, express, absolute, decisive, nailed-on (slang)

2 definite or certain: are you absolutely positive about the date?

◇ SYNONYMS: certain, sure, convinced, confident, satisfied, assured, free from doubt

3 tending to emphasize what is good; constructive: positive thinking

4 tending towards progress or improvement: investment that could have a positive impact on the company's fortunes

◇ SYNONYMS: beneficial, useful, practical, helpful, progressive, productive, worthwhile, constructive

5 (philosophy) constructive rather than sceptical

6 (informal) complete; downright: a positive delight

◇ SYNONYMS: absolute, complete, perfect, right (Brit informal), real, total, sheer, utter 7 (maths) having a value greater than zero: a positive number

8 (grammar) denoting the unmodified form of an adjective as opposed to its comparative or superlative form

9 (physics) (of an electric charge) having an opposite charge to that of an electron

10 (med) (of the result of an examination or test) indicating the presence of a suspected condition or organism

► n

11 something positive

12 (maths) a quantity greater than zero

13 (photog) a print showing an image whose colours and tones correspond to those of the original subject

14 (grammar) the positive degree of an adjective or adverb

15 a positive object, such as a terminal in a voltaic cell > positively adv

> positiveness or positivity n

positive discrimination n the provision of special opportunities for a disadvantaged group positron n (physics) the antiparticle of the electron, having the same mass but an equal and opposite charge posse (poss-ee) n

1 (US) a selected group of men on whom the sheriff may call for assistance

2 (informal) a group of friends or associates: a posse of reporters

3 (in W Canada) a troop of horses and riders who perform at rodeos possess vb

1 to have as one's property; own

◇ SYNONYMS: own, have, hold, be in possession of, be the owner of, have in your possession

2 to have as a quality or attribute: he possessed an innate elegance, authority, and wit on screen

◇ SYNONYMS: be endowed with, have, enjoy, benefit from, be possessed of, be gifted with

3 to gain control over or dominate: absolute terror possessed her

◇ SYNONYMS: seize, hold, control, dominate, occupy, take someone over, have power over, have mastery over > possessor n

possession n

1 the state of possessing; ownership: how had this compromising picture come into the possession of the press?

◇ SYNONYMS: ownership, control, custody, hold, hands, tenure

2 anything that is possessed

3 possessions wealth or property

◇ SYNONYMS: property, things, effects, estate, assets, belongings, chattels

4 the state of being controlled by or as if by evil spirits

5 the occupancy of land or property: troops had taken possession of the airport

6 a territory subject to a foreign state

7 the criminal offence of having something illegal on one's person: arrested for drug dealing and possession

8 (sport) control of the ball by a team or player: City had most of the possession, but couldn't score

possessive adj

1 of possession

2 desiring excessively to possess, control, or dominate: a possessive partner

3 (grammar) denoting a form of a noun or pronoun used to convey possession, as my or Harry's: a possessive pronoun

► n

4 (grammar)

A the possessive case

B a word in the possessive case > possessiveness n

possibility n, pl -ties

- 1 the state of being possible ◇ SYNONYMS: feasibility, likelihood, potentiality, practicability, workableness
- 2 anything that is possible
- 3 a competitor or candidate with a chance of success
- 4 a future prospect or potential: all sorts of possibilities began to open up ◇ SYNONYMS: potential, promise, prospects, talent, capabilities, potentiality possible adj

- 1 capable of existing, happening, or proving true: the earliest possible moment ◇ SYNONYMS: feasible, viable, workable, achievable, practicable, attainable, doable, realizable
- 2 capable of being done: I am grateful to the library staff for making this work possible
◇ SYNONYMS: feasible, viable, workable, achievable, practicable, attainable, doable, realizable
- 3 having potential: a possible buyer ◇ SYNONYMS: aspiring, would-be, promising, hopeful, prospective, wannabe (informal)
- 4 feasible but less than probable: it's possible that's what he meant, but I doubt it ◇ SYNONYMS: conceivable, likely, credible, plausible, hypothetical, imaginable, believable, thinkable
- n
- 5 same as possibility possibly adv

- 1 perhaps or maybe ◇ SYNONYMS: perhaps, maybe, perchance (archaic)
- 2 by any means; at all: he can't possibly come possum n

1 (informal) an opossum

2 (Austral & NZ) a phalanger

3 play possum to pretend to be dead, ignorant, or asleep in order to deceive an opponent post¹ n

1 an official system of mail delivery

◇ SYNONYMS: mail, collection, delivery, postal service, snail mail (informal)

2 letters or packages that are transported and delivered by the Post Office; mail

◇ SYNONYMS: correspondence, letters, cards, mail

3 a single collection or delivery of mail

◇ SYNONYMS: mail, collection, delivery, postal service, snail mail (informal)

4 a postbox or post office: take this to the post

5 (computers) a blog or message made publicly available

► vb

6 to send by post

◇ SYNONYMS: send (off), forward, mail, get off, transmit, dispatch, consign

7 (computers) to make (a blog or message) publicly available

8 (accounting)

A to enter (an item) in a ledger

B (often foll. by up) to enter all paper items in (a ledger)

9 keep someone posted to inform someone regularly of the latest news

◇ SYNONYMS keep someone posted: notify, brief, advise, inform, report to, keep someone informed, keep someone up to date, apprise

post² n

1 a length of wood, metal, or concrete fixed upright to support or mark something ◇ SYNONYMS: support, stake, pole, column, shaft, upright, pillar, picket

2 (horse racing)

A either of two upright poles marking the beginning and end of a racecourse

B the finish of a horse race

► vb

3 (sometimes foll. by up) to put up (a notice) in a public place

◇ SYNONYMS: put up, display, affix, pin something up

4 to publish (a name) on a list post³ n

1 a position to which a person is appointed; job

◇ SYNONYMS: job, place, office, position, situation, employment, appointment, assignment

2 a position to which a soldier or guard is assigned for duty

◇ SYNONYMS: position, place, base, beat, station

3 a permanent military establishment

4 (Brit) either of two military bugle calls (first post and last post) giving notice of the time to retire for the night

► vb

5 (Brit & Austral) to send (someone) to a new place to work

◇ SYNONYMS: station, assign, put, place, position, situate, put on duty

6 to assign to or station at a particular place or position: guards were posted at the doors

◇ SYNONYMS: station, assign, put, place, position, situate, put on duty

post- prefix

1 after in time: postgraduate

2 behind: postorbital postage n the charge for sending a piece of mail by post postage stamp n same as stamp postal adj of a post office or the mail-delivery service postal order n a written money order sent by post and cashed at a post office by the person who receives it postbag n

1 (chiefly Brit) a mailbag

2 the mail received by a magazine, radio programme, or public figure postcard n a card, often with a picture on one side, for sending a message by post without an envelope postcode n a system of letters and numbers used to aid the sorting of mail postdate vb -dating, -dated

1 to write a future date on (a cheque or document)

2 to occur at a later date than 3 to assign a date to (an event or period) that is later than its previously assigned date poster n

1 a large notice displayed in a public place as an advertisement

◇ SYNONYMS: notice, bill, announcement, advertisement, sticker, placard, public notice

2 a large printed picture posterior n

1 (formal, or humorous) the buttocks

► adj

2 at the back of or behind something: posterior leg muscles

3 coming after in a series or time posterity n

1 future generations

2 all of one's descendants postern n a small back door or gate postgraduate n

1 a person who is studying for a more advanced qualification after obtaining a degree

► adj

2 of or for postgraduates posthaste adv with great speed posthumous (poss-tume-uss) adj

1 happening after one's death

2 born after the death of one's father

3 (of a book) published after the author's death > posthumously adv

postie n (Scot & Austral & NZ informal) a postman postilion or postillion n (esp. formerly) a person who rides one of a pair of horses drawing a coach postman or (fem) postwoman n, pl -men or (fem) -women a person who collects and delivers mail as a profession postmark n

1 an official mark stamped on mail, showing the place and date of posting

► vb

2 to put such a mark on (mail) postmaster n

1 Also (fem): postmistress an official in charge of a post office

2 a person who is responsible for managing the email system in an organization postmortem n

1 In full: postmortem examination medical examination of a dead body to discover the cause of death

2 analysis of a recent event: a postmortem on the party's recent appalling by-election results

► adj

3 occurring after death postnatal adj occurring after childbirth: postnatal depression post office n a building where stamps are sold and postal business is conducted postpone vb -poning, -poned to put off until a future time ◇ SYNONYMS: put off, delay, suspend, adjourn, shelve, defer, put back, put on the back burner (informal) > postponement n

postscript n a message added at the end of a letter, after the signature postulant n an applicant for admission to a religious order postulate (formal) vb -lating, -lated

1 to assume to be true as the basis of an argument or theory

2 to ask, demand, or claim

► n

3 something postulated > postulation n

posture n

1 a position or way in which a person stands, walks, etc.: good posture

◇ SYNONYMS: bearing, set, attitude, stance, carriage, disposition

2 a mental attitude: a cooperative posture

3 an affected attitude: an intellectual posture

► vb -turing, -tured

4 to behave in an exaggerated way to attract attention

◇ SYNONYMS: show off (informal), pose, affect, put on airs

5 to assume an affected attitude > postural adj

posy n, pl -sies a small bunch of flowers pot¹ n

1 a round deep container, often with a handle and lid, used for cooking

◇ SYNONYMS: container, bowl, pan, vessel, basin, cauldron, skillet

2 the amount that a pot will hold

3 short for teapot

4 a handmade piece of pottery

◇ SYNONYMS: container, bowl, pan, vessel, basin, cauldron, skillet

5 (billiards, etc.) a shot by which a ball is pocketed

6 a chamber pot

7 the money in the pool in gambling games

8 (often pl, informal) a large sum of money

9 (informal) a cup or other trophy

10 go to pot (informal) to go to ruin

► vb potting, potted

11 to put (a plant) in soil in a flowerpot

12 (billiards, etc.) to pocket (a ball)

13 to preserve (food) in a pot

14 to shoot (game) for food rather than for sport

15 to shoot casually or without careful aim 16 (informal) to capture or win pot² n (slang) cannabis potable (pote-a-bl) adj (formal) drinkable potash n

1 potassium carbonate, used as fertilizer

2 a compound containing potassium: permanganate of potash potassium n (chem) a light silvery element of the alkali metal group. SYMBOL: K

potato n, pl -toes

1 a starchy vegetable that grows underground

2 the plant from which this vegetable is obtained poteen or poitín n (in Ireland) illegally made alcoholic drink potent adj

1 having great power or influence

◇ SYNONYMS: powerful, commanding, dynamic, dominant, influential, authoritative

2 (of arguments) persuasive or forceful

3 highly effective: a potent poison

◇ SYNONYMS: strong, powerful, mighty, vigorous, forceful

4 (of a male) capable of having sexual intercourse > potency n

potentate n a ruler or monarch potential adj

1

A possible but not yet actual: potential buyers

◇ SYNONYMS: possible, future, likely, promising, probable

B capable of being or becoming; latent: potential danger

◇ SYNONYMS: possible, future, likely, promising, probable

► n

2 ability or talent not yet in full use: she has great potential as a painter

◇ SYNONYMS: ability, possibilities, capacity, capability, aptitude, wherewithal, potentiality

3 In full: electric potential the work required to transfer a unit positive electric charge from an infinite distance to a given point > potentially adv

potentiality n, pl -ties latent capacity for becoming or developing pothole n

- 1 a hole in the surface of a road
- 2 a deep hole in a limestone area potholing n the sport of exploring underground caves > potholer n

potion n a drink of medicine, poison, or some supposedly magic liquid pot luck n take pot luck (informal) to accept whatever happens to be available: we'll take pot luck at whatever restaurant might still be open

potoroo n, pl -roos an Australian leaping rodent potpourri (po-poor-ee) n, pl -ris

- 1 a fragrant mixture of dried flower petals
- 2 an assortment or medley pot shot n

- 1 a shot taken without careful aim
- 2 a shot fired at an animal within easy range pottage n a thick soup or stew potted adj

- 1 grown in a pot: potted plant
- 2 cooked or preserved in a pot: potted shrimps
- 3 (informal) shortened or abridged: a potted history

potter¹ n a person who makes pottery potter² or (esp US & Canad) putter² vb

1 to move with little energy or direction: I saw him pottering off to see to his canaries

2 potter about or around or away to be busy in a pleasant but aimless way: he potters away doing God knows what all day

◇ SYNONYMS: mess about, tinker, dabble, footle (informal) pottery n, pl -teries

1 articles made from baked clay

◇ SYNONYMS: ceramics, terracotta, crockery, earthenware, stoneware

2 a place where such articles are made

3 the craft of making such articles potting shed n a garden hut in which plants are put in flowerpots and potting materials are stored potty¹ adj -tier, -tiest (informal)

1 foolish or slightly crazy

2 trivial or insignificant

3 (foll. by about) very keen (on) > pottiness n

potty² n, pl -ties a bowl used as a toilet by a small child pouch n

1 a small bag

2 a baglike pocket in various animals, such as the cheek fold in hamsters

► vb

3 to place in or as if in a pouch

4 to make or be made into a pouch pouf or pouffe (poof) n a large solid cushion used as a seat poulterer n (Brit) a person who sells poultry poultice (pole-tiss) n (med) a moist dressing, often heated, applied to painful and swollen parts of the body poultry n domestic fowls pounce vb pouncing, pounced

1 (often foll. by on or upon) to spring upon suddenly to attack or capture

◇ SYNONYMS: attack, strike, jump, leap, swoop

► n

2 the act of pouncing; a spring or swoop

pound¹ n

1 the standard monetary unit of the United Kingdom and some other countries, made up of 100 pence. Official name: pound sterling

2 the standard monetary unit of various other countries, such as Cyprus and Malta

3 a unit of weight made up of 16 ounces and equal to 0.454 kilograms pound² vb

1 (sometimes foll. by on or at) to hit heavily and repeatedly

◇ SYNONYMS: beat, strike, hammer (informal), batter, thrash, thump, clobber (slang), pummel

2 to crush to pieces or to powder

◇ SYNONYMS: crush, powder, pulverize

3 (foll. by out) to produce, by typing heavily

4 (of the heart) to throb heavily

◇ SYNONYMS: pulsate, beat, pulse, throb, palpitate

5 to run with heavy steps

◇ SYNONYMS: stomp, tramp, march, thunder (informal) pound³ n an enclosure for stray dogs or officially removed vehicles

◇ SYNONYMS: enclosure, yard, pen, compound, kennels pour vb

1 to flow or cause to flow out in a stream

◇ SYNONYMS: let flow, spill, splash, dribble, drizzle, slop (informal), slosh (informal), decant

2 to rain heavily

◇ SYNONYMS: rain, pelt (down), teem, bucket down (informal)

3 to be given or obtained in large amounts: suggestions are pouring in 4 to move together in large numbers: the fans poured onto the pitch

◇ SYNONYMS: stream, crowd, flood, swarm, gush, throng, teem

pout vb

1 to thrust out (the lips) sullenly or provocatively

◇ SYNONYMS: sulk, glower, look petulant, pull a long face

► n

2 a pouting

◇ SYNONYMS: sullen look, glower, long face poverty n

1 the state of lacking adequate food or money

◇ SYNONYMS: pennilessness, want, need, hardship, insolvency, privation (formal), penury, destitution

2 lack or scarcity: a poverty of information

◇ SYNONYMS: scarcity, lack, absence, want, deficit, shortage, deficiency, inadequacy

3 inferior quality or inadequacy: the poverty of political debate in this country

POW prisoner of war powder n

1 a substance in the form of tiny loose particles

◇ SYNONYMS: dust, talc, fine grains, loose particles

2 a medicine or cosmetic in this form

► vb

3 to cover or sprinkle with powder

◇ SYNONYMS: dust, cover, scatter, sprinkle, strew, dredge > powdery adj

powdered adj

1 sold in the form of a powder, esp. one which has been formed by grinding or drying the original material: powdered milk

2 covered or made up with a cosmetic in the form of a powder: liveried footmen in powdered wigs powder room n (euphemistic) a women's cloakroom or toilet power n

1 ability to do something

◇ SYNONYMS: ability, capacity, faculty, property, potential, capability, competence, competency

2 (often pl) a specific ability or faculty

3 political, financial, or social force or authority: the strong have power over the weak; economic power is the bedrock of political power

◇ SYNONYMS: strength, might, energy, muscle, vigour, potency, brawn, hard power

4 a position of control, esp. over the running of a country: he seized power in a coup in 1966

◇ SYNONYMS: control, authority, influence, command, dominance, domination, mastery, dominion, mana (NZ)

5 a state with political, industrial, or military strength

6 a person or group having authority

7 a prerogative or privilege: the power of veto

◇ SYNONYMS: authority, right, licence, privilege, warrant, prerogative, authorization

8 official or legal authority

9 (maths) the value of a number or quantity raised to some exponent

10 (physics, engineering) a measure of the rate of doing work expressed as the work done per unit of time

11 the rate at which electrical energy is fed into or taken from a device or system, measured in watts

12 mechanical energy as opposed to manual labour

13 a particular form of energy: nuclear power

14 the magnifying capacity of a lens or optical system

15 (informal) a great deal: a power of good

16 the powers that be established authority

► vb

17 to supply with power

► adj

18 producing or using electrical energy: a large selection of power tools power cut n a temporary interruption in the supply of electricity powerful adj

1 having great power or influence

◇ SYNONYMS: influential, dominant, controlling, commanding, prevailing, authoritative, skookum (Canad)

2 having great physical strength

◇ SYNONYMS: strong, strapping, mighty, vigorous, potent, energetic, sturdy

3 extremely effective: a powerful drug > powerfully adv

> powerfulness n

powerless adj without power or authority; unable to act ◇ SYNONYMS: defenceless, vulnerable, dependent, subject, tied, ineffective, unarmed > powerlessly adv

> powerlessness n

power point n an electrical socket fitted into a wall for plugging in electrical appliances power station n an installation for generating and distributing electricity powwow n

- 1 a talk or meeting
- 2 a meeting of Native Americans
- vb
- 3 to hold a powwow

pox n

- 1 a disease in which pus-filled blisters or pimples form on the skin
- 2 the pox (informal) syphilis

pp

- 1 past participle
- 2 (in signing documents on behalf of someone else) by delegation to

pp. pages

PPTA (in New Zealand) Post Primary Teachers' Association

PR

- 1 proportional representation
- 2 public relations practicable adj

- 1 capable of being done
- 2 usable
- > practicability n

practical adj

- 1 involving experience or actual use rather than theory
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: empirical, real, applied, actual, hands-on, in the field, experimental, factual
- 2 concerned with everyday matters: the kind of practical and emotional upheaval that divorce can bring ◇ SYNONYMS: sensible, ordinary, realistic, down-to-earth, matter-of-fact, businesslike, hard-headed, grounded

3 sensible, useful, and effective rather than fashionable or attractive: it's a marvellous design, because it's comfortable, it's practical, and it actually looks good

◇ SYNONYMS: functional, realistic, pragmatic

4 involving the simple basics: practical skills

◇ SYNONYMS: useful, ordinary, appropriate, sensible, everyday, functional, utilitarian, serviceable

5 being very close to (a state); virtual: it's a practical certainty

► n

6 an examination or lesson in which something has to be made or done > practicality n

> practically adv

practical joke n a trick intended to make someone look foolish > practical joker n

practice n

1 something done regularly or repeatedly

◇ SYNONYMS: custom, way, system, rule, method, tradition, habit, routine, tikanga (NZ)

2 repetition of an activity in order to gain skill: regular practice is essential if you want to play an instrument well

◇ SYNONYMS: training, study, exercise, preparation (old-fashioned), drill, rehearsal, repetition

3 the business or surgery of a doctor or lawyer

◇ SYNONYMS: profession, work, business, career, occupation, pursuit, vocation

4 the act of doing something: I'm not sure how effective these methods will be when put into practice

◇ SYNONYMS: use, experience, action, operation, application, enactment

5 in practice

A what actually happens as distinct from what is supposed to happen: many ideas which look good on paper just don't work in practice

B skilled in something through having had a lot of regular recent experience at it: I still go shooting, just to keep in practice

6 out of practice not having had much regular recent experience at an activity: although out of practice, I still love playing my violin practise or (US) practice vb -tising, -tised or -ticing, -ticed

1 to do repeatedly in order to gain skill

◇ SYNONYMS: rehearse, study, prepare, perfect, repeat, go through, go over, refine

2 to take part in or follow (a religion, etc.): none of them practise Islam

◇ SYNONYMS: carry out, follow, apply, perform, observe, engage in

3 to work at (a profession): he originally intended to practise medicine

◇ SYNONYMS: work at, pursue, carry on 4 to do regularly: they practise meditation

◇ SYNONYMS: do, train, exercise, drill practitioner n a person who practises a profession pragmatic adj

1 concerned with practical consequences rather than theory

◇ SYNONYMS: practical, sensible, realistic, down-to-earth, utilitarian, businesslike, hard-headed

2 (philosophy) of pragmatism > pragmatically adv

pragmatism n

1 policy dictated by practical consequences rather than by theory

2 (philosophy) the doctrine that the content of a concept consists only in its practical applicability > pragmatist n, adj prairie n (often pl) a large treeless area of grassland of North America prairie dog n a rodent that lives in burrows in the N American prairies praise vb praising, praised

1 to express admiration or approval for ◇ SYNONYMS: acclaim, approve of, honour, cheer, admire, applaud, compliment, congratulate

2 to express thanks and worship to (one's God)

◇ SYNONYMS: give thanks to, bless, worship, adore, glorify, exalt

► n

3 the expression of admiration or approval

◇ SYNONYMS: approval, acclaim, tribute, compliment, congratulations, eulogy, commendation, approbation

4 sing someone's praises to praise someone highly praiseworthy adj deserving praise; commendable praline (prah-leen) n a sweet made of nuts with caramelized sugar pram n a four-wheeled carriage for a baby, pushed by a person on foot prance vb prancing, pranced

1 to walk with exaggerated movements

2 (of an animal) to move with high springing steps

► n

3 the act of prancing prang (Brit & Austral slang) n

1 a crash in an aircraft or car

► vb

2 to crash or damage (an aircraft or car) prank n a mischievous trick > prankster n

prat n (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) an incompetent or ineffectual person prattle vb -tling, -tled

1 to chatter in a foolish or childish way

► n

2 foolish or childish talk prawn n a small edible shellfish praxis n

1 practice as opposed to the theory

2 accepted practice or custom pray vb

1 to say prayers (to one's God)

◇ SYNONYMS: say your prayers, offer a prayer, recite the rosary

2 to ask earnestly; beg ◇ SYNONYMS: beg, ask, plead, petition, request, solicit, implore, beseech

► adv

3 (archaic) I beg you; please: pray, leave us alone

prayer n

1 a thanksgiving or an appeal spoken to one's God

◇ SYNONYMS: orison, litany, invocation, intercession

2 a set form of words used in praying: the Lord's Prayer

3 an earnest request

◇ SYNONYMS: plea, appeal, request, petition, entreaty, supplication (formal)

4 the practice of praying: call the faithful to prayer

5 (often pl) a form of devotion spent mainly praying: morning prayers

◇ SYNONYMS: supplication, devotion

6 something prayed for pre- prefix before in time or position: predate; pre-eminent preach vb

1 to talk on a religious theme as part of a church service

◇ SYNONYMS: deliver a sermon, address, evangelize, preach a sermon

2 to speak in support of (something) in a moralizing way

◇ SYNONYMS: urge, teach, champion, recommend, advise, counsel, advocate, exhort preacher n a person who preaches

◇ SYNONYMS: clergyman or woman, minister, parson, missionary, evangelist preamble n an introduction that comes before something spoken or written prearranged adj arranged beforehand > prearrangement n

prebendary n, pl -daries a member of the clergy who is a member of the chapter of a cathedral precarious adj (of a position or situation) dangerous or insecure ◇ SYNONYMS: dangerous, shaky, insecure, unsafe, unreliable > precariously adv

precaution n an action taken in advance to prevent an undesirable event ◇ SYNONYMS: safeguard, insurance, protection, provision, safety measure > precautionary adj

precede vb -ceding, -ceded to go or be before (someone or something) in time, place, or rank

◇ SYNONYMS: go before, antedate precedence (press-i-denss) n formal order of rank or position precedent n

1 a previous occurrence used to justify taking the same action in later similar situations

◇ SYNONYMS: instance, example, standard, model, pattern, prototype, paradigm, antecedent

2 (law) a judicial decision that serves as an authority for deciding a later case

► adj

3 preceding precentor n a person who leads the singing in church services precept n

1 a rule of conduct

2 a rule for morals

3 (law) a writ or warrant > preceptive adj

precinct n

1 (Brit & Austral & S African) an area in a town closed to traffic: a shopping precinct

2 (Brit & Austral & S African) an enclosed area around a building

3 (US) an administrative area of a city

◇ SYNONYMS: area, quarter, section, sector, district, zone precious adj

1 very costly or valuable: precious jewellery

◇ SYNONYMS: valuable, expensive, fine, prized, dear, costly, invaluable, priceless

2 loved and treasured

◇ SYNONYMS: loved, prized, dear, treasured, darling, beloved, adored, cherished

3 very affected in speech, manners, or behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: affected, artificial, twee (Brit informal), overrefined, overnice

► adv

4 (informal) very: there's precious little to do in this town precious metal n gold, silver, or platinum precious stone n a rare mineral, such as diamond, ruby, or opal, that is highly valued as a gem precipice n the very steep face of a cliff precipitate vb -tating, -tated

1 to cause to happen earlier than expected: the scandal could bring the government down, precipitating a general election

◇ SYNONYMS: quicken, trigger, accelerate, advance, hurry, speed up, bring on, hasten

2 to condense or cause to condense and fall as snow or rain

3 (chem) to cause to be deposited in solid form from a solution

4 to throw from a height: the encircled soldiers chose to precipitate themselves into the ocean

◇ SYNONYMS: throw, launch, cast, hurl, fling, let fly

► adj

5 done rashly or hastily

◇ SYNONYMS: hasty, rash, reckless, impulsive, precipitous, impetuous, heedless

6 rushing ahead

◇ SYNONYMS: sudden, quick, brief, rushing, rapid, unexpected, swift, abrupt

► n

7 (chem) a precipitated solid precipitation n

1 the formation of a chemical precipitate

2 (meteorol)

A rain, hail, snow, or sleet formed by condensation of water vapour in the atmosphere

B the falling of these

3 rash haste: they decamped with the utmost precipitation precipitous adj

1 very steep: precipitous cliffs

2 very quick and severe: a precipitous decline

3 rapid and unplanned; hasty: European governments urged the Americans not to make a precipitous decision

précis (pray-see) n, pl précis

1 a short summary of a longer text

► vb

2 to make a précis of precise adj

1 particular or exact: this precise moment

◇ SYNONYMS: exact, specific, particular, express, correct, absolute, accurate, explicit

2 strictly correct in amount or value: precise measurements

3 working with total accuracy: precise instruments

4 strict in observing rules or standards

◇ SYNONYMS: strict, particular, exact, formal, careful, stiff, rigid, meticulous > precisely adv

precision n

1 the quality of being precise

◇ SYNONYMS: exactness, care, accuracy, particularity, meticulousness, preciseness

► adj

2 accurate: precision engineering preclude vb -cluding, -cluded (formal) to make impossible to happen precocious adj having developed or matured early or too soon > precocity n

precognition n (psychol) the alleged ability to foresee future events preconceived adj (of ideas, etc.) formed without real experience or reliable information > preconception n

precondition n something that is necessary before something else can come about precursor n

1 something that comes before and signals something to follow; a forerunner

2 a predecessor predate vb -dating, -dated

1 to occur at an earlier date than 2 to write a date on (a document) that is earlier than the actual date predator n an animal that kills and eats other animals predatory (pred-a-tree) adj

1 (of animals) habitually hunting and killing other animals for food

2 eager to gain at the expense of others predecease vb -ceasing, -ceased to die before (someone else) predecessor n

1 a person who precedes another in an office or position

◇ SYNONYMS: previous job holder, precursor, forerunner, antecedent

2 an ancestor

◇ SYNONYMS: ancestor, forebear, antecedent, forefather, tupuna or tipuna (NZ)

3 something that precedes something else: the library will be more extravagant than its predecessors predestination n (Christian theol) the belief that future events have already been decided by God predestined adj (Christian theol) determined in advance by God predicament n an embarrassing or difficult situation

◇ SYNONYMS: fix (informal), situation, spot (informal), hole (slang), mess, jam (informal), dilemma, pinch predicate n

1 (grammar) the part of a sentence in which something is said about the subject

2 (logic) something that is asserted about the subject of a proposition

► vb -cating, -cated

3 to base or found: the process of unification is predicated on the hope of economic growth

4 to declare or assert: it has been predicated that the consequence of the budget will be immediate recession

5 (logic) to assert (something) about the subject of a proposition > predication n

> predicative adj

predict vb to tell about in advance; prophesy ◇ SYNONYMS: foretell, forecast, divine, prophesy, augur, portend > predictable adj > predictably adv

> predictor n

prediction n

1 the act of forecasting in advance

◇ SYNONYMS: prophecy, forecast, prognosis, divination, prognostication, augury

2 something that is forecast in advance

◇ SYNONYMS: prophecy, forecast, prognosis, divination, prognostication, augury predictive adj

1 relating to or able to make predictions

2 (of mobile phone technology) enabling mobile phones to predict the word being entered in a text message from the first few letters: predictive text

predilection n (formal) a preference or liking predispose vb -posing, -posed (often foll. by to)

1 to influence (someone) in favour of something: some scientists' social class background predisposes them to view the natural world in a certain way

2 to make (someone) susceptible to something: a high-fat diet appears to predispose men towards heart disease

> predisposition n

predominant adj being more important or noticeable than others: improved living conditions probably played the predominant role in reducing disease in the nineteenth century > predominance n

> predominantly adv

predominate vb -nating, -nated

1 to be the most important or controlling aspect or part: the image of brutal repression that has tended to predominate since the protests were crushed

2 to form the greatest part or be most common: women predominate in this gathering pre-eminent adj outstanding > pre-eminence n

pre-empt vb to prevent an action by doing something which makes it pointless or impossible: he pre-empted his expulsion from the party by resigning pre-emption n (law) the purchase of or right to buy property in advance of others pre-emptive adj (military) designed to damage or destroy an enemy's attacking strength before it can be used: a pre-emptive strike

preen vb

1 (of birds) to clean or trim (feathers) with the beak

2 to smarten (oneself) carefully

3 preen oneself (often foll. by on) to be self-satisfied prefab n a prefabricated house prefabricated adj (of a building) made in shaped sections for quick assembly preface (pref-iss) n

1 an introduction to a book, usually explaining its intention or content

2 anything introductory

► vb -facing, -faced

3 to say or do something before proceeding to the main part

4 to act as a preface to prefatory adj concerning a preface prefect n

1 (Brit & Austral & NZ) a senior pupil in a school with limited power over the behaviour of other pupils

2 (in some countries) the chief administrative officer in a department prefecture n the office or area of authority of a prefect prefer vb -ferring, -ferred

1 to like better: most people prefer television to reading books

◇ SYNONYMS: like better, favour, go for, pick, fancy (Brit informal), opt for, incline towards, be partial to

2 (law) to put (charges) before a court for judgment

3 (often passive) to promote over another or others preferable adj more desirable or suitable ◇ SYNONYMS: better, best, chosen, preferred, recommended, favoured, superior, more suitable > preferably adv

preference n

1 a liking for one thing above the rest

◇ SYNONYMS: liking, wish, taste, desire, leaning, bent, bias, inclination

2 a person or thing preferred

◇ SYNONYMS: first choice, choice, favourite, pick, option, selection preferential adj

1 showing preference: preferential treatment

2 indicating a special favourable status in business affairs: the President is to renew China's preferential trading status

3 indicating a voting system which allows voters to rank candidates in order of preference: a multi-option referendum with preferential voting preferment n promotion to a higher position prefigure vb -guring, -gured

1 to represent or suggest in advance

2 to imagine beforehand

prefix n

1 (grammar) a letter or group of letters put at the beginning of a word to make a new word, such as un- in unhappy

2 a title put before a name, such as Mr

► vb

3 (grammar) to add (a letter or group of letters) as a prefix to the beginning of a word

4 to put before pregnant adj

1 carrying a fetus or fetuses within the womb

◇ SYNONYMS: expectant, expecting, with child (archaic), in the club (Brit slang), up the duff (Brit slang, rare), big or heavy with child (archaic)

2 full of meaning or significance: a pregnant pause

◇ SYNONYMS: meaningful, pointed, charged, significant, telling, loaded, expressive, eloquent > pregnancy n

prehensile adj capable of curling round objects and grasping them: a prehensile tail prehistoric adj of human development before the appearance of the written word > prehistory n

prejudice n

1 an unreasonable or unfair dislike or preference

◇ SYNONYMS: bias, preconception, partiality, preconceived notion, prejudgment

2 intolerance of or dislike for people because they belong to a specific race, religion, or group: class prejudice

◇ SYNONYMS: discrimination, injustice, intolerance, bigotry, unfairness, chauvinism, narrow-mindedness, faith hate

3 the act or condition of holding such opinions

◇ SYNONYMS: discrimination, injustice, intolerance, bigotry, unfairness, chauvinism, narrow-mindedness, faith hate

4 harm or detriment: conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline

5 without prejudice (law) without harm to an existing right or claim

► vb -dicing, -diced

6 to cause (someone) to have a prejudice

◇ SYNONYMS: bias, influence, colour, poison, distort, slant, predispose

7 to harm: the incident prejudiced his campaign

◇ SYNONYMS: harm, damage, hurt, injure, mar, undermine, spoil, impair, crool or cruel (Austral slang) prejudicial adj harmful; damaging prelate (prel-it) n a high-ranking member of the clergy, such as a bishop preliminary adj

1 occurring before or in preparation; introductory ◇ SYNONYMS: first, opening, trial, initial, test, pilot, prior, introductory

► n, pl -naries

2 an action or event occurring before or in preparation for an activity: the discussions are a preliminary to the main negotiations

◇ SYNONYMS: introduction, opening, beginning, start, prelude, preface, overture, preamble

3 a qualifying contest held before a main competition prelude (prel-yewd) n

1

A an introductory movement in music

◇ SYNONYMS: overture, opening, introduction, introductory movement

B a short piece of music for piano or organ

2 an event introducing or preceding the main event

◇ SYNONYMS: introduction, beginning, start

► vb -luding, -luded

3 to act as a prelude to (something)

4 to introduce by a prelude premarital adj occurring before marriage: premarital sex premature adj

1 happening or done before the normal or expected time: premature ageing

◇ SYNONYMS: early, untimely, before time, unseasonable

2 impulsive or hasty: a premature judgment

◇ SYNONYMS: hasty, rash, too soon, untimely, ill-timed, overhasty

3 (of a baby) born weeks before the date when it was due to be born > prematurely adv

premeditated adj planned in advance > premeditation n

premenstrual adj occurring or experienced before a menstrual period premier n

1 a prime minister

◇ SYNONYMS: head of government, prime minister, chancellor, chief minister, P.M.

2 a head of government of a Canadian province or Australian state

► adj

3 first in importance or rank: Torbay, Devon's premier resort

◇ SYNONYMS: chief, leading, first, highest, head, main, prime, primary

4 first in occurrence > premiership n

premiere n

1 the first public performance of a film, play, or opera

◇ SYNONYMS: first night, opening, debut

► vb -ering, -ered

2 to give, or (of a film, play, or opera) be, a premiere: the play was premiered last year in Johannesburg; the movie premieres tomorrow

premise or premiss n (logic) a statement that is assumed to be true and is used as a basis for an argument

◇ SYNONYMS: assumption, proposition, argument, hypothesis, assertion, supposition, presupposition, postulation premises pl n

1 a piece of land together with its buildings

◇ SYNONYMS: building(s), place, office, property, site, establishment

2 (law) (in a deed) the matters referred to previously premium n

1 an extra sum of money added to a standard rate, price, or wage: the superior taste persuades me to pay the premium for bottled water

◇ SYNONYMS: surcharge, extra charge, additional fee or charge

2 the (regular) amount paid for an insurance policy

◇ SYNONYMS: fee, charge, payment, instalment

3 the amount above the usual value at which something sells: some even pay a premium of up to 15% for the privilege

◇ SYNONYMS: bonus, reward, prize, perk (Brit informal), bounty, perquisite (formal)

4 great value or regard: we do put a very high premium on common sense

5 at a premium

A in great demand, usually because of scarcity

◇ SYNONYMS at a premium: in great demand, rare, scarce, in short supply, hard to come by

B at a higher price than usual premonition n a feeling that something unpleasant is going to happen; foreboding > premonitory adj

prenatal adj before birth; during pregnancy preoccupy vb -pies, -pying, -pied to fill the thoughts or mind of (someone) to the exclusion of other things > preoccupation n

preordained adj decreed or determined in advance

prep.

- 1 preparation
- 2 preparatory
- 3 preposition

prepacked adj (of goods) sold already wrapped prepaid adj paid for in advance preparation n

- 1 the act of preparing or being prepared
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: groundwork, preparing, getting ready
- 2 (often pl) something done in order to prepare for something else: to make preparations for a wedding
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: arrangement, plan, measure, provision
- 3 something that is prepared, such as a medicine
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: mixture, medicine, compound, concoction
- 4 (Brit old-fashioned)
 - A homework
 - B the period reserved for this preparatory (prip-par-a-tree) adj

- 1 preparing for: a preparatory meeting to organize the negotiations
- 2 introductory
- 3 preparatory to before: Imran cleared his throat preparatory to speaking preparatory school n

- 1 (Brit & S African) a private school for children between the ages of 6 and 13, generally preparing pupils for public school 2 (in the US) a private secondary school preparing pupils for college prepare vb -paring, -pared

- 1 to make or get ready: the army prepared for battle ◇ SYNONYMS: make or get ready, arrange, jack up (NZ informal) 2 to put together using parts or ingredients: he had spent most of the afternoon preparing the meal ◇ SYNONYMS: make, cook, put together, get, produce, assemble, muster, concoct 3 to equip or outfit, as for an expedition 4 be prepared to to be willing and able to: I'm not prepared to say preponderant adj greater in amount, force, or influence > preponderance n

preposition n a word used before a noun or pronoun to relate it to the other words, for example in in he is in the car

> prepositional adj prepossessing adj making a favourable impression; attractive preposterous adj utterly absurd prep school n (informal) See preparatory school prepuce (pree-pyewss) n

- 1 the retractable fold of skin covering the tip of the penis; foreskin 2 the retractable fold of skin covering the tip of the clitoris prequel n a film, novel, or play that portrays events that occurred before the events of an existing work

prerequisite n

1 something that is required before something else is possible

► adj

2 required before something else is possible prerogative n a special privilege or right presage (press-ij) vb -aging, -aged

1 to be a warning or sign of something about to happen: the windless air presaged disaster

► n

2 an omen

3 a misgiving

Presbyterian adj

1 of any of the Protestant Churches governed by lay elders

► n

2 a member of a Presbyterian Church

> Presbyterianism n presbytery n, pl -teries

1 (Presbyterian Church) a local Church court

2 (RC Church) the residence of a parish priest

3 elders collectively

4 the part of a church east of the choir; a sanctuary prescience (press-ee-enss) n (formal) knowledge of events before they happen > prescient adj

prescribe vb -scribing, -scribed

1 (med) to recommend the use of (a medicine or other remedy)

◇ SYNONYMS: specify, order, direct, stipulate, write a prescription for

2 to lay down as a rule

◇ SYNONYMS: ordain (formal), set, order, rule, recommend, dictate, lay down, decree prescription n

1

A written instructions from a doctor for the preparation and use of a medicine

◇ SYNONYMS: instruction, direction, formula, script (informal), recipe

B the medicine prescribed

◇ SYNONYMS: medicine, drug, treatment, preparation, cure, mixture, dose, remedy

2 written instructions from an optician specifying the lenses needed to correct bad eyesight

3 a prescribing prescriptive adj

1 laying down rules

2 based on tradition presence n

1 the fact of being in a specified place: the test detects the presence of sugar in the urine

◇ SYNONYMS: being, existence, residence, attendance, showing up, occupancy, inhabitation

2 impressive personal appearance or bearing: a person of dignified and commanding presence

◇ SYNONYMS: personality, bearing, appearance, aspect, air, carriage, aura, poise

3 the company or nearness of a person: she seemed completely unaware of my presence

4 (military) a force stationed in another country: the American-led military presence in the Gulf

5 an invisible spirit felt to be nearby: I felt a presence in the room presence of mind n the ability to stay calm and act sensibly in a crisis ◇ SYNONYMS presence of mind: level-headedness, assurance, composure, poise, cool (slang), wits, countenance, coolness present¹ adj

1 being in a specified place: he had been present at the birth of his son

◇ SYNONYMS: here, there, near, ready, nearby, at hand

2 existing or happening now

◇ SYNONYMS: current, existing, immediate, contemporary, present-day, existent

3 current: the present exchange rate

◇ SYNONYMS: current, existing, immediate, contemporary, present-day, existent

4 (grammar) of a verb tense used when the action described is happening now

► n

5 (grammar) the present tense

6 at present now

7 for the present for now; temporarily

8 the present the time being; now

◇ SYNONYMS the present: now, today, the time being, here and now, the present moment present² n (prez-int)

1 a gift

◇ SYNONYMS: gift, offering, grant, donation, hand-out, endowment, boon (archaic), gratuity, bonsela (S African), koha (NZ)

► vb (*pri-zent)

2 to introduce (a person) formally to another

◇ SYNONYMS: introduce, make known, acquaint someone with

3 to introduce to the public: the Museum of Modern Art is presenting a retrospective of his work

◇ SYNONYMS: put on, stage, perform, give, show, render

4 to introduce and compere (a radio or television show)

5 to show or exhibit: they took advantage of every tax dodge that presented itself

6 to bring about: the case presented a large number of legal difficulties

7 to put forward or submit: they presented a petition to the Prime Minister

8 to give or offer formally: he was presented with a watch to celebrate his twenty-five years with the company

◇ SYNONYMS: give, award, hand over, grant, hand out, confer, bestow

9 to hand over for action or payment: to present a bill

10 to portray in a particular way: his lawyer presented him as a naive young man who had got into bad company

11 to aim (a weapon)

12 present arms to salute with one's weapon presentable adj

1 fit to be seen by or introduced to other people

2 acceptable: the team reached a presentable total > presentability n

presentation n

1 the act of presenting or being presented

◇ SYNONYMS: giving, award, offering, donation, bestowal, conferral

2 the manner of presenting

3 a talk or lecture; the manner of presenting

◇ SYNONYMS: appearance, look, display, packaging, arrangement, layout

4 a formal ceremony in which an award is made

5 a public performance, such as a play or a ballet

◇ SYNONYMS: performance, production, show presenter n a person who introduces a radio or television show and links the items in it presentiment (priz-zen-tim-ent) n a sense that something unpleasant is about to happen; premonition presently adv

1 soon: you will understand presently

◇ SYNONYMS: soon, shortly, directly, before long, momentarily (US & Canad), by and by, in a jiffy (informal)

2 (chiefly Scot & US & Canad) at the moment: these methods are presently being developed

◇ SYNONYMS: at present, currently, now, today, these days, nowadays, at the present time, in this day and age preservative n

1 a chemical added to foods to prevent decay

► adj

2 preventing decay preserve vb -serving, -served

1 to keep safe from change or extinction; protect: we are interested in preserving world peace

◇ SYNONYMS: protect, keep, save, maintain, defend, shelter, shield, care for

2 to protect from decay or damage: the carefully preserved village of Cregneish

3 to treat (food) in order to prevent it from decaying

4 to maintain; keep up: the 1.2% increase in earnings needed to preserve living standards

◇ SYNONYMS: maintain, keep, continue, sustain, keep up, prolong, uphold, conserve

► n

5 an area of interest restricted to a particular person or group: tattoos were once the preserve of sailors

◇ SYNONYMS: area, department (informal), field, territory, province, arena, sphere

6 (usually pl) fruit preserved by cooking in sugar

7 an area where game is kept for private hunting or fishing > preservation n

preshrunk adj (of fabric or a garment) having been shrunk during manufacture so that further shrinkage will not occur when washed preside vb -siding, -sided

1 to chair a meeting

- ◇ SYNONYMS: officiate, chair, moderate, be chairperson 2 to exercise authority: he presided over the burning of the books presidency n, pl -cies the office or term of a president president n

- 1 the head of state of a republic, such as the US 2 the head of a company, society, or institution 3 a person who presides over a meeting 4 the head of certain establishments of higher education > presidential adj

press¹ vb

- 1 to apply weight or force to: he pressed the button on the camera
◇ SYNONYMS: push (down), depress, lean on, press down, force down 2 to squeeze: she pressed his hand ◇ SYNONYMS: hug, squeeze, embrace, clasp, crush, hold close, fold in your arms 3 to compress to alter in shape ◇ SYNONYMS: compress, grind, reduce, mill, crush, pound, squeeze, tread 4 to smooth out creases by applying pressure or heat ◇ SYNONYMS: iron, steam, smooth, flatten 5 to make (objects) from soft material by pressing with a mould 6 to crush to force out (juice) 7 to urge (someone) insistently: they pressed for an answer 8 to force or compel: I was pressed into playing rugby at school ◇ SYNONYMS: urge, beg, petition, exhort (formal), implore, pressurize, entreat 9 to plead or put forward strongly: they intend to press their claim for damages in the courts ◇ SYNONYMS: plead, present, lodge, submit, tender, advance insistently 10 to be urgent: time presses
11 (sometimes foll. by on or forward) to continue in a determined way: they pressed on with their journey 12 to crowd; push: shoppers press along the pavements ◇ SYNONYMS: crowd, push, gather, surge, flock, herd, swarm, seethe 13 pressed for short of: pressed for time

► n

14 any machine that exerts pressure to form or cut materials or to extract liquids or compress solids

15 the art or process of printing

16 the opinions and reviews in the newspapers: the government is not receiving a good press at the moment

17 the act of pressing or state of being pressed: at the press of a button

18 a crowd: a press of people at the exit

19 a cupboard for storing clothes or linen

20 go to press to go to be printed: when is this book going to press?

21 the press

A news media collectively, esp. newspapers

B journalists collectively press² vb

1 to recruit (men) forcibly for military service

2 to use for a purpose other than intended: press into service press box n a room at a sports ground reserved for reporters press conference n an interview for reporters given by a prominent person press gang n

1 (formerly) a group of men used to capture men and boys and force them to join the navy

► vb press-gang

2 to force (a person) to join the navy by a press gang

3 to persuade (someone) to do something that he or she does not want to do: he was press-ganged into joining the family business

pressie or prezzie n (informal) a present pressing adj demanding immediate attention ◇ SYNONYMS: urgent, serious, vital, crucial (informal), imperative, important, high-priority, importunate (formal) pressure n

1 the state of pressing or being pressed

◇ SYNONYMS: force, crushing, squeezing, compressing, weight, compression

2 the application of force by one body on the surface of another

◇ SYNONYMS: force, crushing, squeezing, compressing, weight, compression

3 urgent claims or demands: to work under pressure

◇ SYNONYMS: stress, demands, strain, heat, load, burden, urgency, hassle (informal), uphill (S African)

4 a condition that is hard to bear: the pressure of grief

◇ SYNONYMS: power, influence, force, constraint, sway, compulsion, coercion

5 (physics) the force applied to a unit area of a surface

6 bring pressure to bear on to use influence or authority to persuade

► vb -suring, -sured

7 to persuade forcefully: he was pressured into resignation pressure cooker n an airtight pot which cooks food quickly by steam under pressure > pressure-cook vb

pressure group n a group that tries to influence policies or public opinion prestidigitation n (formal) same as sleight of hand > prestidigitator n prestige n

1 high status or respect resulting from success or achievements: a symbol of French power and prestige

◇ SYNONYMS: status, standing, credit, reputation, honour, importance, fame, distinction, mana (NZ)

2 the power to impress: a humdrum family car with no prestige > prestigious adj

presto (music) adv, adj

1 very fast

► n, pl -tos

2 a passage to be played very quickly presumably adv one supposes or guesses; probably: he emerged from what was presumably the kitchen carrying a tray

◇ SYNONYMS: it would seem, probably, apparently, seemingly, on the face of it, in all probability, in all likelihood presume vb -suming, -sumed

1 to take (something) for granted: I presume he's dead

◇ SYNONYMS: believe, think, suppose, assume, guess (informal), take for granted, infer, conjecture

2 to dare (to): I would not presume to lecture you on medical matters, Dr Jacobs

◇ SYNONYMS: dare, venture, go so far as, take the liberty, make so bold as

3 (foll. by on or upon) to rely or depend: don't presume on his agreement

4 (foll. by on or upon) to take advantage (of): I'm afraid I presumed on Aunt Ginny's generosity > presumedly adv

> presuming adj

presumption n

1 the act of presuming

2 a basis on which an assumption is made

3 bold insolent behaviour 4 a belief or assumption based on reasonable evidence > presumptive adj

presumptuous adj bold and insolent presuppose vb -posing, -posed

1 to require as a previous condition in order to be true: the idea of integration presupposes a disintegrated state

2 to take for granted > presupposition n

pretence or (US) pretense n

1 an action or claim that could mislead people into believing something which is not true: the pretence that many unemployed people are on 'training schemes'

2 a false display; affectation: she abandoned all pretence of work and watched me

3 a claim, esp. a false one, to a right, title, or distinction

4 make-believe

5 a pretext: they were placed in a ghetto on the pretence that they would be safe there pretend vb

1 to claim or give the appearance of (something untrue): he pretended to be asleep

◇ SYNONYMS: feign, affect, assume, allege, fake, simulate, profess, sham

2 to make believe: the children pretended to be pop stars

◇ SYNONYMS: make believe, suppose, imagine, act, make up

3 (foll. by to) to present a claim, esp. a doubtful one: to pretend to the throne pretender n a person who makes a false or disputed claim to a throne or title pretension n

1 (often pl) a false claim to merit or importance

2 the quality of being pretentious pretentious adj

1 making (unjustified) claims to special merit or importance: many critics thought her work and ideas pretentious and empty

2 vulgarly showy; ostentatious: a family restaurant with no pretentious furnishing preternatural adj beyond what is natural; supernatural pretext n a false reason given to hide the real one: delivering the book had been a good pretext for seeing her again

pretty adj -tier, -tiest

1 attractive in a delicate or graceful way

◇ SYNONYMS: attractive, beautiful, lovely, charming, fair, good-looking, bonny (Scot & N English dialect), comely (old-fashioned), fit (Brit informal)

2 pleasant to look at

3 (informal, often humorous) excellent or fine: well, this is a pretty state of affairs to have got into

► adv

4 (informal) fairly: I think he and Nicholas got on pretty well

◇ SYNONYMS: fairly, rather, quite, kind of (informal), somewhat, moderately, reasonably

5 sitting pretty (informal) in a favourable state > prettily adv

> prettiness n

pretzel n a brittle salted biscuit in the shape of a knot prevail vb

1 (often foll. by over or against) to prove superior; gain mastery: moderate nationalists have until now prevailed over the radicals

◇ SYNONYMS: win, succeed, triumph, overcome, overrule, be victorious

2 to be the most important feature: a casual good-natured mood prevailed

3 to be generally established: this attitude has prevailed for many years

◇ SYNONYMS: be widespread, abound, predominate, be current, be prevalent, exist generally

4 prevail on or upon to succeed in persuading: he had easily been prevailed upon to accept a lift prevailing adj

1 widespread: the prevailing mood

◇ SYNONYMS: widespread, general, established, popular, common, current, usual, ordinary

2 most usual: the prevailing wind is from the west

◇ SYNONYMS: predominating, ruling, main, existing, principal prevalent adj widespread or common ◇ SYNONYMS: common, established, popular, general, current, usual, widespread, universal > prevalence n

prevaricate vb -cating, -cated to avoid giving a direct or truthful answer > prevarication n > prevaricator n

prevent vb

1 to keep from happening: vitamin C prevented scurvy

◇ SYNONYMS: stop, avoid, frustrate, hamper, foil, inhibit, avert, thwart

2 (often foll. by from) to keep (someone from doing something):

circumstances prevented her from coming

◇ SYNONYMS: stop, avoid, frustrate, hamper, foil, inhibit, avert, thwart > preventable adj

> prevention n

preventive adj

1 intended to prevent or hinder

2 (med) tending to prevent disease

► n

3 something that serves to prevent

4 (med) any drug or agent that tends to prevent disease. Also: preventative preview n

1 an opportunity to see a film, exhibition, or play before it is shown to the public

◇ SYNONYMS: sample, sneak preview, trailer, taster, foretaste, advance showing

► vb

2 to view in advance previous adj

1 coming or happening before

◇ SYNONYMS: earlier, former, past, prior, preceding, erstwhile

2 (informal) happening too soon; premature: such criticism is a bit previous because no definite decision has yet been taken

3 previous to before > previously adv

prey n

1 an animal hunted and killed for food by another animal

◇ SYNONYMS: quarry, game, kill

2 the victim of a hostile person, influence, emotion, or illness: children are falling prey to the disease

◇ SYNONYMS: victim, target, mug (Brit slang), dupe, fall guy (informal)

3 bird or beast of prey a bird or animal that kills and eats other birds or animals

► vb (often foll. by on or upon)

4 to hunt and kill for food

5 to worry or obsess: it preyed on his conscience

6 to make a victim (of others), by profiting at their expense price n

1 the amount of money for which a thing is bought or sold

◇ SYNONYMS: cost, value, rate, charge, figure, worth, damage (informal), amount

2 the cost at which something is obtained: the price of making the wrong decision

◇ SYNONYMS: consequences, penalty, cost, result, toll, forfeit

3 (gambling) odds

4 at any price whatever the price or cost

5 at a price at a high price

6 what price (something)? what are the chances of (something) happening now?

► vb pricing, priced

7 to fix the price of ◇ SYNONYMS: evaluate, value, estimate, rate, cost, assess

8 to discover the price of priceless adj

1 extremely valuable

◇ SYNONYMS: valuable, expensive, precious, invaluable, dear, costly

2 (informal) extremely amusing pricey adj pricier, priciest (informal) expensive prick vb

1 to pierce lightly with a sharp point

◇ SYNONYMS: pierce, stab, puncture, punch, lance, jab, perforate

2 to cause a piercing sensation (in): a needle pricked her finger

3 to cause a sharp emotional pain (in): the film pricked our consciences about the plight of the Afghan refugees

4 prick up one's ears

A (of a dog) to make the ears stand erect

B (of a person) to listen attentively

► n

5 a sudden sharp pain caused by pricking

6 a mark made by a sharp point

◇ SYNONYMS: puncture, hole, wound, perforation, pinhole

7 a sharp emotional pain: a prick of conscience

8 (vulgar, slang) a penis

9 (vulgar, derogatory, slang) a man who provokes contempt prickle n

1 (botany) a thorn or spike on a plant

2 a pricking or stinging sensation

► vb -ling, -led

3 to feel a stinging sensation prickly adj -lier, -liest

1 having prickles

◇ SYNONYMS: spiny, barbed, thorny, bristly

2 tingling or stinging: he had a prickly feeling down his back

◇ SYNONYMS: itchy, sharp, smarting, stinging, crawling, tingling, scratchy

3 touchy or irritable: you know how prickly they can be about the issue prickly heat n an itchy rash that occurs in very hot moist weather pride n

1 satisfaction in one's own or another's success or achievements: his obvious pride in his son's achievements

◇ SYNONYMS: satisfaction, achievement, fulfilment, delight, content, pleasure, joy, gratification

2 an excessively high opinion of oneself

◇ SYNONYMS: conceit, vanity, arrogance, pretension, hubris, self-importance, egotism, self-love

3 a sense of dignity and self-respect: he must swallow his pride and ally himself with his political enemies

◇ SYNONYMS: self-respect, honour, ego, dignity, self-esteem, self-image, self-worth

4 one of the better or most admirable parts of something: the pride of the main courses is the Japanese fish and vegetable tempura

5 a group of lions

6 pride and joy the main source of pride: the car was his pride and joy

7 pride of place the most important position

► vb priding, prided

8 (foll. by on or upon) to take pride in (oneself) for priest or (fem) priestess n

1 (in the Christian Church) a person ordained to administer the sacraments and preach

◇ SYNONYMS: clergyman or woman, minister, father, divine, vicar, pastor, cleric, curate

2 a minister of any religion

◇ SYNONYMS: clergyman or woman, minister, father, divine, vicar, pastor, cleric, curate

3 an official who performs religious ceremonies > priesthood n

> priestly adj

prig n a person who is smugly self-righteous and narrow-minded > priggish adj

> priggishness n

prim adj primmer, primmest affectedly proper, or formal, and rather prudish > primly adv

prima ballerina n a leading female ballet dancer primacy n, pl -cies

1 the state of being first in rank, grade, or order

2 (Christianity) the office of an archbishop prima donna n, pl prima donnas

- 1 a leading female opera singer
- 2 (informal) a temperamental person primaeval adj same as primeval prima facie (prime-a fay-shee) adj, adv as it seems at first primal adj

- 1 of basic causes or origins
- 2 chief or most important primarily adv

- 1 chiefly or mainly
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: chiefly, largely, generally, mainly, essentially, mostly, principally, fundamentally
- 2 originally
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: at first, originally, initially, in the first place, in the beginning, first and foremost, at or from the start primary adj

- 1 first in importance
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: chief, main, first, highest, greatest, prime, principal, cardinal
 - 2 first in position or time, as in a series: he argued that the country was only in the primary stage of socialism
 - 3 fundamental or basic: the new policy will put the emphasis on primary health care rather than hospital care
 - 4 being the first stage; elementary: all new recruits participated in the same primary training courses
 - 5 relating to the education of children up to the age of 11 or 12
 - 6 (of an industry) involving the obtaining of raw materials
 - 7 (of the flight feathers of a bird's wing) outer and longest
 - 8 being the part of an electric circuit in which a changing current causes a current in a neighbouring circuit: a primary coil
- n, pl -ries

9 a person or thing that is first in position, time, or importance

10 (in the US) an election in which the voters of a state choose a candidate for office. Full name: primary election

11 a primary school

12 a primary colour

13 any of the outer and longest flight feathers of a bird's wing

14 a primary part of an electric circuit primary colours pl n

1 (physics) the colours red, green, and blue from which all other colours can be obtained by mixing

2 (art) the colours red, yellow, and blue from which all other colours can be obtained by mixing primary school n

1 (in England and Wales) a school for children between the ages of 5 and 11

2 (in Scotland, Australia and New Zealand) a school for children between the ages of 5 and 12

3 (in the US and Canada) a school equivalent to the first three or four grades of elementary school primate¹ n a mammal with flexible hands and feet and a highly developed brain, such as a monkey, an ape, or a human being primate² n an archbishop prime adj

1 first in importance: the prime aim

◇ SYNONYMS: main, leading, chief, central, major, key, primary, supreme

2 of the highest quality: prime beef

◇ SYNONYMS: best, top, select, highest, quality, choice, excellent, first-class

3 typical: a prime example

► n

4 the time when a thing is at its best

◇ SYNONYMS: peak, flower, bloom, height, heyday, zenith

5 a period of power, vigour, and activity: he was in the prime of life

◇ SYNONYMS: peak, flower, bloom, height, heyday, zenith

6 (maths) short for prime number

► vb priming, primed

7 to give (someone) information in advance to prepare him or her ◇ SYNONYMS: inform, tell, train, coach, brief, fill in (informal), notify, clue in (informal)

8 to prepare (a surface) for painting

9 to prepare (a gun or mine) before detonating or firing

◇ SYNONYMS: prepare, set up, load, equip, get ready, make ready

10 to fill (a pump) with its working fluid, to expel air from it before starting

11 to prepare (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: prepare, set up, load, equip, get ready, make ready

Prime Minister n the leader of a government prime number n an integer that cannot be divided into other integers but is only divisible by itself or 1, such as 2, 3, 5, 7, and 11

primer¹ n

1 a substance applied to a surface as a base coat or sealer

2 a device for detonating the main charge in a gun or mine primer² n an introductory text, such as a school textbook primeval (prime-ee-val) adj of the earliest age of the world primitive adj

1 of or belonging to the beginning

◇ SYNONYMS: early, first, earliest, original, primary, elementary, primordial, primeval

2 (biol) of an early stage in development: primitive amphibians

3 characteristic of an early simple state, esp. in being crude or basic: a primitive dwelling

◇ SYNONYMS: crude, simple, rough, rudimentary, unrefined

► n

4 a primitive person or thing

5 a painter of any era whose work appears childlike or untrained

6 a work by such an artist primogeniture n

1 (formal) the state of being the first-born child

2 (law) the right of an eldest son to inherit all the property of his parents primordial adj (formal) existing at or from the beginning primrose n

1 a wild plant which has pale yellow flowers in spring

► adj

2 Also: primrose yellow pale yellow

3 of primroses

primula n a type of primrose with brightly coloured funnel-shaped flowers

Primus n (trademark) a portable paraffin cooking stove, used esp. by campers prince n

1 a male member of a royal family, esp. the son of the king or queen

2 the male ruler of a small country

◇ SYNONYMS: ruler, lord, monarch, sovereign, crown prince, liege, prince regent, crowned head

3 an outstanding member of a specified group: Dryden, that prince of poets prince consort n the husband of a queen, who is himself a prince princely adj -lier, -liest

1 of or characteristic of a prince

◇ SYNONYMS: regal, royal, imperial, noble, sovereign, majestic

2 generous or lavish

◇ SYNONYMS: substantial, considerable, large, huge, massive, enormous, sizable or sizeable

Prince of Wales n the eldest son of the British sovereign princess n

1 a female member of a royal family, esp. the daughter of the king or queen

2 the wife of a prince

◇ SYNONYMS: ruler, lady, monarch, sovereign, liege, crowned head, crowned princess, dynast

Princess Royal n a title sometimes given to the eldest daughter of the British sovereign principal adj

1 first in importance, rank, or value: salt is the principal source of sodium in our diets; the Republic's two principal parties

◇ SYNONYMS: main, leading, chief, prime, first, key, essential, primary

► n

2 the head of a school or other educational institution

◇ SYNONYMS: headmaster or headmistress, head (informal), dean, head teacher, rector, master or mistress

3 a person who holds one of the most important positions in an organization: she became a principal in the home finance department

4 the leading actor in a play

◇ SYNONYMS: star, lead, leader, prima ballerina, leading man or lady, coryphée

5 (law)

A a person who engages another to act as his or her agent

B a person who takes an active part in a crime

C the person held responsible for fulfilling an obligation

6 (finance)

A capital or property, as contrasted with income

◇ SYNONYMS: capital, money, assets, working capital

B the original amount of a debt on which interest is calculated > principally adv

principal boy n (Brit) the leading male role in a pantomime, traditionally played by a woman principality n, pl -ties a territory ruled by a prince principle n

1 a moral rule guiding personal conduct: he'd stoop to anything – he has no principles

2 a set of such moral rules: a man of principle

◇ SYNONYMS: morals, standards, ideals, honour, virtue, ethics, integrity, conscience, kaupapa (NZ)

3 a basic or general truth: the principle of freedom of expression

◇ SYNONYMS: rule, law, truth, precept

4 a basic law or rule underlying a particular theory or philosophy: the government has been deceitful and has violated basic principles of democracy

◇ SYNONYMS: rule, law, truth, precept

5 a general law in science: the principle of the conservation of mass

◇ SYNONYMS: rule, law, truth, precept

6 (chem) a constituent of a substance that determines its characteristics

7 in principle in theory though not always in practice

◇ SYNONYMS in principle: in theory, ideally, on paper, theoretically, in an ideal world, en principe (French)

8 on principle because of one's beliefs print vb

1 to reproduce (a newspaper, book, etc.) in large quantities by mechanical or electronic means

◇ SYNONYMS: publish, release, circulate, issue, disseminate

2 to reproduce (text or pictures) by applying ink to paper

◇ SYNONYMS: run off, publish, copy, reproduce, issue, engrave

3 to write in letters that are not joined up

4 to stamp (fabric) with a design

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, impress, stamp, imprint

5 to produce (a photograph) from a negative

6 to fix in the mind or memory

► n

7 printed content, such as newsprint

8 a printed publication, such as a book

9 a picture printed from an engraved plate or wood block

◇ SYNONYMS: picture, plate, etching, engraving, lithograph, woodcut, linocut

10 printed text, with regard to the typeface: italic print

11 a photograph produced from a negative

◇ SYNONYMS: photograph, photo, snap

12 a fabric with a printed design

13 a mark made by pressing something onto a surface

14 See fingerprint

15 in print

A in printed or published form

B (of a book) available from a publisher

16 out of print no longer available from a publisher printed circuit n an electronic circuit in which the wiring is a metallic coating printed on a thin insulating board printer n

1 a person or business engaged in printing

2 a machine that prints

3 a machine connected to a computer that makes copies on paper of documents or other information held by the computer printing n

1 the process of producing printed matter

2 printed text

3 all the copies of a book printed at one time

4 a form of writing in which the letters are not joined together prior¹ adj

1 previous: prior knowledge

◇ SYNONYMS: earlier, previous, former, preceding, foregoing, pre-existing, pre-existent

2 prior to before

◇ SYNONYMS prior to: before, preceding, earlier than, in advance of, previous to prior² n

1 the head monk in a priory

2 the abbot's deputy in a monastery > prioress fem n

priority n, pl -ties

1 the most important thing that must be dealt with first

◇ SYNONYMS: prime concern

2 the right to be or go before others

◇ SYNONYMS: precedence, preference, primacy, predominance priory n, pl -ories a religious house where certain orders of monks or nuns live prise or prize vb prising, prised or prizing, prized to force open or out by levering prism n

1 a transparent block, often with triangular ends and rectangular sides, used to disperse light into a spectrum or refract it in optical instruments

2 (maths) a polyhedron with parallel bases and sides that are parallelograms prismatic adj

1 of or shaped like a prism

2 exhibiting bright spectral colours; rainbow-like: prismatic light prison n

1 a public building used to hold convicted criminals and accused people awaiting trial

◇ SYNONYMS: jail, confinement, nick (Brit slang), cooler (slang, old-fashioned), jug (slang, old-fashioned), dungeon, clink (slang), gaol, boob (Austral slang)

2 any place of confinement

prisoner n

1 a person kept in prison as a punishment for a crime, or while awaiting trial

◇ SYNONYMS: convict, con (slang), lag (slang), jailbird

2 a person confined by any restraints: he's a prisoner of his own past

3 take (someone) prisoner to capture and hold (someone) as a prisoner prisoner of war n a member of the armed forces captured by an enemy in wartime prissy adj -sier, -siest prim and prudish > prissily adv

pristine adj

1 completely new, clean, and pure: pristine white plates

2 of or involving the original, unchanged, and unspoilt period or state: the viewing of wild game in its pristine natural state

privacy n

1 the condition of being private

◇ SYNONYMS: seclusion, isolation, solitude, retirement, retreat

2 secrecy

private adj

1 not for general or public use: a private bathroom

◇ SYNONYMS: exclusive, individual, privately owned, own, special, reserved

2 confidential or secret: a private conversation

◇ SYNONYMS: secret, confidential, covert, unofficial, clandestine, off the record, hush-hush (informal)

3 involving someone's domestic and personal life rather than his or her work or business: what I do in my private life is none of your business

4 owned or paid for by individuals rather than by the government: private enterprise

5 not publicly known: they had private reasons for the decision

◇ SYNONYMS: personal, individual, secret, intimate, undisclosed, unspoken, innermost, unvoiced

6 having no public office, rank, or position: the Red Cross received donations from private citizens

7 (of a place) quiet and secluded: the garden is completely private

◇ SYNONYMS: secluded, secret, separate, isolated, sequestered

8 (of a person) quiet and retiring: she was private – her life was her own

◇ SYNONYMS: solitary, reserved, retiring, withdrawn, discreet, secretive, self-contained, reclusive

► n

9 a soldier of the lowest rank in the army

10 in private in secret > privately adv

privateer n

1 a privately owned armed vessel authorized by the government to take part in a war

2 a captain of such a ship privation n (formal) loss or lack of the necessities of life privatize or -tise vb -tizing, -tized or -tising, -tised to sell (a state-owned company) to individuals or a private company > privatization or -tisation n privet n a bushy evergreen shrub used for hedges privilege n

1 a benefit or advantage granted only to certain people: a privilege of rank

◇ SYNONYMS: right, due, advantage, claim, freedom, liberty, concession, entitlement

2 the opportunity to do something which gives you great satisfaction and which most people never have the chance to do: I had the privilege of meeting the Queen when she visited our school

3 the power and advantages that come with great wealth or high social class: the use of violence to protect class privilege and thwart popular democracy privileged adj enjoying a special right or immunity

◇ SYNONYMS: special, advantaged, favoured, honoured, entitled, elite privy adj privier, priviest

1 (archaic) secret

2 privy to sharing in the knowledge of something secret

► n, pl privies

3 (obsolete) a toilet, esp. an outside one

Privy Council n

1 the private council of the British king or queen

2 (in Canada) a formal body of advisers of the governor general

> Privy Counsellor n

prize¹ n

1 something of value, such as a trophy, given to the winner of a contest or game

◇ SYNONYMS: reward, cup, award, honour, medal, trophy, accolade

2 something given to the winner of any game of chance, lottery, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: winnings, haul, jackpot, stakes, purse

3 something striven for

► adj

4 winning or likely to win a prize: a prize bull

◇ SYNONYMS: champion, best, winning, top, outstanding, award-winning, first-rate prize² vb prizing, prized to value highly

◇ SYNONYMS: value, treasure, esteem, cherish, hold dear pro¹ adv

1 in favour of a motion, etc.

► prep

2 in favour of ► See also pros and cons pro² (informal) adj

1 short for professional

► n, pl pros

2 short for professional

3 a prostitute pro- prefix

1 in favour of; supporting: pro-Chinese

2 acting as a substitute for: pronoun probability n, pl -ties

1 the condition of being probable

◇ SYNONYMS: likelihood, prospect, chance, odds, expectation, liability, likeliness

2 an event or other thing that is likely to happen or be true

3 (statistics) a measure of the likelihood of an event happening

◇ SYNONYMS: chance, odds, possibility, likelihood probable adj

1 likely to happen or be true

◇ SYNONYMS: likely, possible, apparent, reasonable to think, credible, plausible, feasible, presumable

2 most likely: the probable cause of the accident

◇ SYNONYMS: likely, possible, apparent, reasonable to think, credible, plausible, feasible, presumable

► n

3 a person who is likely to be chosen for a team, event, etc.

probably adv in all likelihood or probability: the wedding's probably going to be in late August

◇ SYNONYMS: likely, perhaps, maybe, possibly, presumably, most likely, doubtless, perchance (archaic) probate n

1 the process of officially proving the validity of a will

2 the official certificate stating that a will is genuine probation n

1 a system of dealing with offenders, esp. juvenile ones, by placing them under supervision

2 on probation

A under the supervision of a probation officer

B undergoing a test or trial period, such as at the start of a new job > probationary adj

probationer n

1 a person on a trial period in a job

2 a person under the supervision of a probation officer probe vb probing, probed

1 to investigate, or look into, closely

◇ SYNONYMS: examine, go into, investigate, explore, search, look into, analyze, dissect

2 to poke or examine (something) with or as if with a probe: he probed carefully with his fingertips

◇ SYNONYMS: explore, examine, poke, prod, feel around

► n

3 (surgery) a slender instrument for exploring a wound, etc.

4 a thorough inquiry, such as one into corrupt practices

◇ SYNONYMS: investigation, study, inquiry, analysis, examination, exploration, scrutiny, scrutinization probiotic n

1 a bacterium that protects the body from harmful bacteria

► adj

2 of or relating to probiotics: probiotic yogurts probity n (formal) honesty; integrity problem n

1 something or someone that is difficult to deal with ◇ SYNONYMS: difficulty, trouble, dispute, plight, obstacle, dilemma, headache (informal), complication

2 a puzzle or question set for solving

◇ SYNONYMS: puzzle, question, riddle, enigma, conundrum, poser

3 (maths) a statement requiring a solution usually by means of several operations

► adj

4 of a literary work that deals with difficult moral questions: a problem play

5 difficult to deal with or creating difficulties for others: a problem child problematic or problematical adj difficult to solve or deal with ◇ SYNONYMS: tricky, puzzling, doubtful, dubious, debatable, problematical proboscis (pro-boss-iss) n

1 a long flexible trunk or snout, such as an elephant's

2 the elongated mouthpart of certain insects procedure n

1 a way of doing something, esp. an established method

◇ SYNONYMS: method, policy, process, course, system, action, practice, strategy

2 the established form of conducting the business of a legislature > procedural adj

proceed vb

1 to advance or carry on, esp. after stopping

◇ SYNONYMS: continue, go on, progress, carry on, go ahead, press on, crack on (informal)

2 (often foll. by with) to start or continue doing: he proceeded to pour himself a cup of tea

◇ SYNONYMS: begin, go ahead

3 (formal) to walk or go

◇ SYNONYMS: go on, continue, progress, carry on, go ahead, move on, move forward, press on, crack on (informal)

4 (often foll. by against) to start a legal action

5 (formal) to arise (from): their mutual dislike proceeded from differences of political opinion

◇ SYNONYMS: arise, come, issue, result, spring, flow, stem, derive proceeds pl n the amount of money obtained from an event or activity

◇ SYNONYMS: income, profit, revenue, returns, products, gain, earnings, yield process n

1 a series of actions or changes: a process of genuine national reconciliation

◇ SYNONYMS: procedure, means, course, system, action, performance, operation, measure

2 a series of natural developments which result in an overall change: the ageing process

◇ SYNONYMS: development, growth, progress, movement, advance, evolution, progression

3 a method of doing or producing something: the various production processes use up huge amounts of water

◇ SYNONYMS: method, system, practice, technique, procedure

4

A a summons to appear in court

B an action at law

5 a natural outgrowth or projection of a part or organism

6 in the process of during or in the course of

► vb

7 to handle or prepare by a special method of manufacture

8 (computers) to perform operations on (data) in order to obtain the required information processed adj (of food) treated by adding colouring, preservatives, etc., to improve its appearance or the period it will stay edible: processed cheese

procession n

1 a line of people or vehicles moving forwards in an orderly or ceremonial manner

◇ SYNONYMS: parade, train, march, file, cavalcade, cortege

2 the act of proceeding in a regular formation processor n a person or thing that carries out a process proclaim vb

1 to announce publicly; declare: Greece was proclaimed an independent kingdom in 1832

◇ SYNONYMS: pronounce, announce, declare

2 to indicate plainly: the sharp hard glint in the eye proclaimed her determination

◇ SYNONYMS: announce, declare, advertise, publish, indicate, herald, circulate, profess > proclamation n

proclivity n, pl -ties (formal) a tendency or inclination procrastinate vb -nating, -nated to put off (an action) until later; delay > procrastination n > procrastinator n procreate vb -ating, -ated (formal) to produce (offspring) > procreative adj

> procreation n procurator fiscal n (in Scotland) a legal officer who acts as public prosecutor and coroner procure vb -curing, -cured

1 to get or provide: it remained very difficult to procure food and fuel

2 to obtain (people) to act as prostitutes > procurement n

procurer n a person who obtains people to act as prostitutes prod vb prodding, prodded

1 to poke with a pointed object

◇ SYNONYMS: poke, push, dig, shove, nudge, jab

2 to rouse (someone) to action

◇ SYNONYMS: prompt, move, urge, motivate, spur, stimulate, rouse, incite

► n

3 the act of prodding

◇ SYNONYMS: poke, push, dig, shove, nudge, jab

4 a reminder

◇ SYNONYMS: prompt, signal, cue, reminder, stimulus prodigal adj

1 recklessly wasteful or extravagant

2 prodigal of lavish with: you are prodigal of both your toil and your talent

► n

3 a person who squanders money > prodigality n

prodigious adj

- 1 very large or immense
- 2 wonderful or amazing

prodigy n, pl -gies

- 1 a person, esp. a child, with marvellous talent
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: genius, talent, wizard, mastermind, whizz (informal), up-and-comer (informal)
- 2 anything that is a cause of wonder produce vb -ducing, -duced

- 1 to bring (something) into existence
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: cause, effect, generate, bring about, give rise to
- 2 to present to view: he produced his passport
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: display, show, present, proffer
- 3 to make: this area produces much of Spain's best wine
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: make, create, develop, manufacture, construct, invent, fabricate
- 4 to give birth to
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: bring forth, bear, deliver, breed, give birth to, beget (old-fashioned), bring into the world
- 5 to present on stage, film, or television: the girls and boys write and produce their own plays
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: present, stage, direct, put on, do, show, mount, exhibit
- 6 to act as producer of
 - n
 - 7 food grown for sale: farm produce
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: fruit and vegetables, goods, food, products, crops, yield, harvest, greengrocery (Brit)
 - 8 something produced
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: fruit and vegetables, goods, food, products, crops, yield, harvest, greengrocery (Brit)
 - > producible adj

producer n

- 1 a person with the financial and administrative responsibility for a film or television programme
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: director, promoter, impresario

2 a person responsible for the artistic direction of a play

◇ SYNONYMS: director, promoter, impresario

3 a person who supervises the arrangement, performance, and mixing of a recording

4 a person or thing that produces

◇ SYNONYMS: maker, manufacturer, builder, creator, fabricator product n

1 something produced

◇ SYNONYMS: goods, produce, creation, commodity, invention, merchandise, artefact

2 a consequence: their skill was the product of hours of training

◇ SYNONYMS: result, consequence, effect, outcome, upshot

3 (maths) the result achieved by multiplication production n

1 the act of producing

◇ SYNONYMS: producing, making, manufacture, manufacturing, construction, formation, fabrication

2 anything that is produced

3 the amount produced or the rate at which it is produced

4 (econ) the creation or manufacture of goods and services

5 any work created as a result of literary or artistic effort

6 the presentation of a play, opera, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: presentation, staging, mounting

7 the artistic direction of a play

◇ SYNONYMS: management, administration, direction

8 the overall sound of a recording productive adj

1 producing or having the power to produce

◇ SYNONYMS: creative, inventive

2 yielding favourable results

◇ SYNONYMS: useful, rewarding, valuable, profitable, effective, worthwhile, beneficial, constructive

3 (econ) producing goods and services that have exchange value: the country's productive capacity

4 (foll. by of) resulting in: a period highly productive of books and ideas

◇ SYNONYMS: fertile, rich, prolific, plentiful, fruitful, fecund > productivity n

profane adj

1 showing disrespect for religion or something sacred

2 secular

3 coarse or blasphemous: profane language

► vb -fanning, -fanned

4 to treat (something sacred) with irreverence

5 to put to an unworthy use > profanation n

profanity n, pl -ties

1 the quality of being profane

2 coarse or blasphemous action or speech profess vb

1 to claim (something as true), often falsely: he professes not to want the job of Prime Minister

◇ SYNONYMS: claim, allege, pretend, fake, make out, purport, feign

2 to acknowledge openly: he professed great relief at getting some rest

◇ SYNONYMS: state, admit, announce, declare, confess, assert, proclaim, affirm

3 to have as one's belief or religion: most Indonesians profess the Islamic faith > professed adj

profession n

1 a type of work that requires special training, such as in law or medicine

◇ SYNONYMS: occupation, calling, business, career, employment, office, position, sphere

2 the people employed in such an occupation

3 a declaration of a belief or feeling: a profession of faith professional adj

1 of a profession

◇ SYNONYMS: qualified, trained, skilled, white-collar

2 taking part in an activity, such as sport or music, as a means of livelihood

3 displaying a high level of competence or skill: a professional and polished performance

◇ SYNONYMS: expert, experienced, skilled, masterly, efficient, competent, adept, proficient

4 undertaken or performed by people who are paid: professional golf

► n

5 a professional person

◇ SYNONYMS: expert, master, pro (informal), specialist, guru, adept, maestro, virtuoso, fundi (S African) > professionalism n

> professionally adv

professor n

1 the highest rank of teacher in a university

◇ SYNONYMS: don (Brit), fellow (Brit), prof (informal)

2 (chiefly US & Canad) any teacher in a university or college

3 (rare) a person who professes his or her opinions or beliefs > professorial adj

> professorship n

proffer vb (formal) to offer for acceptance proficient adj skilled; expert > proficiency n

profile n

1 an outline, esp. of the human face, as seen from the side

◇ SYNONYMS: outline, lines, form, figure, silhouette, contour, side view

2 a short biographical sketch

◇ SYNONYMS: biography, sketch, vignette, characterization, thumbnail sketch

3 an area of a social media site containing a person's name, picture, and personal information profiling n the practice of categorizing people and predicting their behaviour according to particular characteristics such as race or age profit n

1 (often pl) money gained in business or trade

◇ SYNONYMS: earnings, return, revenue, gain, yield, proceeds, receipts, takings

2 a benefit or advantage

◇ SYNONYMS: benefit, good, use, value, gain, advantage, advancement

► vb -iting, -ited

3 to gain a profit or advantage: we do not want to profit from someone else's problems

◇ SYNONYMS: benefit, help, serve, gain, promote, be of advantage to profitable adj making money or gaining an advantage or benefit ◇ SYNONYMS: money-making, lucrative, paying, commercial, worthwhile, cost-effective, fruitful, remunerative > profitability n > profitably adv

profiteer n

1 a person who makes excessive profits at the expense of the public

► vb

2 to make excessive profits > profiteering n

profligate adj

1 recklessly extravagant

2 shamelessly immoral

► n

3 a profligate person > profligacy n

pro forma adj

1 laying down a set form

► adv

2 performed in a set manner profound adj

1 showing or needing great knowledge: a profound knowledge of Greek literature

◇ SYNONYMS: wise, learned, deep, penetrating, philosophical, sage, abstruse, sagacious (formal)

2 strongly felt; intense: profound relief

◇ SYNONYMS: sincere, acute, intense, great, keen, extreme, heartfelt, deeply felt

3 extensive: profound changes

4 situated at or having a great depth > profoundly adv

> profundity n

profuse adj

1 plentiful or abundant: he broke out in a profuse sweat

2 (often foll. by in) generous in the giving (of): he was profuse in his apologies > profusely adv

> profusion n

progenitor (pro-jen-it-er) n

1 a direct ancestor

2 an originator or founder progeny (proj-in-ee) n, pl -nies

1 offspring; descendants

2 an outcome progesterone n a hormone, produced in the ovary, that prepares the womb for pregnancy and prevents further ovulation prognosis n, pl -noses

- 1 (med) a forecast about the course or outcome of an illness
- 2 any forecast program n

- 1 a sequence of coded instructions which enables a computer to perform various tasks
- ▶ vb -gramming, -grammed
- 2 to arrange (data) so that it can be processed by a computer
- 3 to feed a program into (a computer)
- > programmer n

programmable or programable adj capable of being programmed for computer processing programme or (US) program n

- 1 a planned series of events
- ◇ SYNONYMS: schedule, plan, agenda, timetable, listing, list, line-up, calendar
- 2 a broadcast on radio or television
- ◇ SYNONYMS: show, performance, production, broadcast, episode, presentation, transmission, telecast, podcast
- 3 a printed list of items or performers in an entertainment
- ▶ vb -gramming, -grammed (US) -graming, -gramed
- 4 to schedule (something) as a programme
- > programmatic adj programming language n a language system by which instructions to a computer are coded, that is understood by both user and computer progress n

- 1 improvement or development

◇ SYNONYMS: development, growth, advance, gain, improvement, breakthrough, headway

2 movement forward or advance

◇ SYNONYMS: movement forward, passage, advancement, course, advance, headway

3 in progress taking place

◇ SYNONYMS in progress: going on, happening, continuing, being done, occurring, taking place, proceeding, under way

► vb

4 to become more advanced or skilful

◇ SYNONYMS: develop, improve, advance, grow, gain

5 to move forwards

◇ SYNONYMS: move on, continue, travel, advance, proceed, go forward, make headway, crack on (informal) progression n

1 the act of progressing; advancement

◇ SYNONYMS: progress, advance, advancement, gain, headway, furtherance, movement forward

2 the act or an instance of moving from one thing in a sequence to the next

3 (maths) a sequence of numbers in which each term differs from the succeeding term by a fixed ratio

◇ SYNONYMS: sequence, course, series, chain, cycle, string, succession progressive adj

1 favouring political or social reform

◇ SYNONYMS: enlightened, liberal, modern, advanced, radical, revolutionary, avant-garde, reformist

2 happening gradually: a progressive illness

◇ SYNONYMS: growing, continuing, increasing, developing, advancing, ongoing

3 (of a dance, card game, etc.) involving a regular change of partners

► n

4 a person who favours political or social reform > progressively adv

prohibit vb -biting, -bited

1 to forbid by law or other authority

◇ SYNONYMS: forbid, ban, veto, outlaw, disallow, proscribe, debar

2 to hinder or prevent: the paucity of information prohibits us from drawing reliable conclusions

◇ SYNONYMS: prevent, restrict, stop, hamper, hinder, impede > prohibitor n

prohibition n

1 the act of forbidding

2 a legal ban on the sale or drinking of alcohol

3 an order or decree that forbids ◇ SYNONYMS: ban, boycott, embargo, bar, veto, prevention, exclusion, injunction, restraining order (US, law) > prohibitionist n

prohibitive adj

1 (esp. of prices) too high to be affordable

2 prohibiting or tending to prohibit: a prohibitive distance > prohibitively adv

project n

1 a proposal or plan

◇ SYNONYMS: scheme, plan, job, idea, campaign, operation, activity, venture

2 a detailed study of a particular subject

◇ SYNONYMS: assignment, task, homework, piece of research

► vb

3 to make a prediction based on known data and observations

◇ SYNONYMS: forecast, expect, estimate, predict, reckon, calculate, gauge, extrapolate

4 to cause (an image) to appear on a surface

5 to communicate (an impression): he wants to project an image of a deep-thinking articulate gentleman

6 to jut out

◇ SYNONYMS: stick out, extend, stand out, bulge, protrude, overhang, jut

7 to cause (one's voice) to be heard clearly at a distance

8 to transport in the imagination: it's hard to project oneself into his situation projectile n

1 an object thrown as a weapon or fired from a gun

► adj

2 designed to be thrown forwards

3 projecting forwards projection n

1 a part that juts out

◇ SYNONYMS: forecast, estimate, reckoning, calculation, estimation, computation, extrapolation

2 a forecast based on known data

3 the process of showing film on a screen

4 the representation on a flat surface of a three-dimensional figure or curved line projectionist n a person who operates a film projector projector n an apparatus for projecting photographic images, film, or slides onto a screen prolapse (pathol) n

1 Also: prolapsus the slipping down of an internal organ of the body from its normal position

► vb -lapsing, -lapsed

2 (of an internal organ) to slip from its normal position prole n (chiefly Brit offensive, slang) a proletarian proletarian (pro-lit-air-ee-an) adj

1 of the proletariat

► n

2 a member of the proletariat proletariat (pro-lit-air-ee-at) n the working class proliferate vb -rating, -rated

1 to increase rapidly in numbers

2 to grow or reproduce (new parts, such as cells) rapidly > proliferation n

prolific adj

1 producing a constant creative output: a prolific author

◇ SYNONYMS: productive, creative, fertile, inventive, copious

2 producing fruit or offspring in abundance

3 (often foll. by in or of) rich or fruitful

◇ SYNONYMS: fruitful, fertile, abundant, luxuriant, profuse, fecund > prolifically adv

prolix adj (of a speech or piece of writing) overlong and boring > prolixity n

prologue or (often US) prolog n

1 an introduction to a play or book

2 an event that comes before another: this success was a happy prologue to their transatlantic tour prolong vb to make (something) last longer

◇ SYNONYMS: lengthen, continue, perpetuate, draw out, extend, delay, stretch out, spin out > prolongation n

prom n

- 1 (Brit) short for promenade, promenade concert 2 (informal) a formal dance held at a high school or college promenade n

- 1 (chiefly Brit) a paved walkway along the seafront at a holiday resort 2 (old-fashioned) a leisurely walk for pleasure or display ► vb -nading, -naded
3 (old-fashioned) to take a leisurely walk promenade concert n a concert at which some of the audience stand rather than sit prominent adj

- 1 standing out from the surroundings; noticeable ◇ SYNONYMS: noticeable, obvious, outstanding, pronounced, conspicuous, eye-catching, obtrusive 2 widely known; famous ◇ SYNONYMS: famous, leading, top, important, main, distinguished, well-known, notable 3 jutting or projecting outwards: prominent eyes > prominence n > prominently adv

promiscuous adj

- 1 taking part in many casual sexual relationships 2 (formal) consisting of different elements mingled indiscriminately > promiscuity n

promise vb -mising, -mised

- 1 to say that one will definitely do or not do something: I promise I'll have it finished by the end of the week
◇ SYNONYMS: guarantee, pledge, vow, swear, contract, assure, undertake, warrant 2 to undertake to give (something to someone): he promised me a car for my birthday

◇ SYNONYMS: guarantee, pledge, vow, swear, contract, assure, undertake, warrant

3 to show signs of; seem likely: she promises to be a fine singer

◇ SYNONYMS: seem likely, look like, show signs of, augur, betoken

4 to assure (someone) of the certainty of something: everything's fine, I promise you

► n

5 an undertaking to do or not do something

◇ SYNONYMS: guarantee, word, bond, vow, commitment, pledge, undertaking, assurance

6 indication of future success: a young player who shows great promise

◇ SYNONYMS: potential, ability, talent, capacity, capability, aptitude promising adj likely to succeed or turn out well

◇ SYNONYMS: encouraging, likely, bright, reassuring, hopeful, favourable, rosy, auspicious promo n, pl -mos (informal) an item produced to promote a product, esp. a video used to promote a pop record promontory n, pl -ries a point of high land that juts out into the sea promote vb -moting, -moted

1 to encourage the progress or success of: all attempts to promote a lasting ceasefire have failed

◇ SYNONYMS: help, back, support, aid, forward, encourage, advance, boost

2 to raise to a higher rank or position

◇ SYNONYMS: raise, upgrade, elevate, exalt

3 to encourage the sale of (a product) by advertising

◇ SYNONYMS: advertise, sell, hype, publicize, push, plug (informal)

4 to work for: he actively promoted reform

◇ SYNONYMS: help, back, support, aid, forward, encourage, advance, boost > promotion n

> promotional adj

promoter n

- 1 a person who helps to organize and finance an event, esp. a sports one
- 2 a person or thing that encourages the progress or success of: a promoter of peace

prompt vb

- 1 to cause (an action); bring about: the killings prompted an anti-Mafia crackdown
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: cause, occasion (formal), provoke, give rise to, elicit
- 2 to motivate or cause someone to do something: I still don't know what prompted me to go
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: cause, occasion (formal), provoke, give rise to, elicit
- 3 to remind (an actor) of lines forgotten during a performance
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: remind, assist, cue, help out
- 4 to refresh the memory of
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: remind, assist, cue, help out
- ▶ adj
- 5 done without delay
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: immediate, quick, rapid, instant, timely, early, swift, speedy
- 6 quick to act
- ▶ adv
- 7 (informal) punctually: at 8 o'clock prompt
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: exactly, sharp, promptly, on the dot, punctually
- ▶ n
- 8 anything that serves to remind
 - > promptly adv
 - > promptness n

prompter n

- A a person offstage who reminds the actors of forgotten lines
- B a device which performs a similar function for public speakers, TV presenters, etc.

promulgate vb -gating, -gated

- 1 to put (a law or decree) into effect by announcing it officially
- 2 to make widely known

- > promulgation n
- > promulgator n

prone adj

1 having a tendency to be affected by or do something: I am prone to indigestion

◇ SYNONYMS: liable, given, subject, inclined, tending, bent, disposed, susceptible

2 lying face downwards; prostrate ◇ SYNONYMS: face down, flat, horizontal, prostrate, recumbent prong n a long pointed projection from an instrument or tool such as a fork pronoun n a word, such as she or it, that replaces a noun or noun phrase that has already been or is about to be mentioned pronounce vb -nouncing, -nounced

1 to speak (a sound or sounds), esp. clearly or in a certain way

◇ SYNONYMS: say, speak, sound, articulate, enunciate

2 to announce or declare officially: a specialist pronounced her fully fit

◇ SYNONYMS: declare, announce, deliver, proclaim, decree, affirm

3 to declare as one's judgment: he pronounced the wine drinkable

◇ SYNONYMS: declare, announce, deliver, proclaim, decree, affirm > pronounceable adj

pronounced adj very noticeable: he speaks with a pronounced lisp

◇ SYNONYMS: noticeable, decided, marked, striking, obvious, evident, distinct, definite pronouncement n a formal announcement pronto adv (informal) at once pronunciation n

- 1 the recognized way to pronounce sounds in a given language
- 2 the way in which someone pronounces words proof n

- 1 any evidence that confirms that something is true or exists
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: evidence, demonstration, testimony, confirmation, verification, corroboration, authentication, substantiation
- 2 (law) the total evidence upon which a court bases its verdict
- 3 (maths, logic) a sequence of steps or statements that establishes the truth of a proposition
- 4 the act of testing the truth of something
- 5 an early copy of printed matter for checking before final production
- 6 (photog) a trial print from a negative
- 7 (esp. formerly) a defined level of alcoholic content used as a standard measure for comparing the alcoholic strength of other liquids: Moldavian ruby port, 17° proof
 - ▶ adj
- 8 (foll. by against) able to withstand: proof against tears
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: impervious, strong, resistant, impenetrable, repellent
- 9 (esp. formerly) having a level of alcoholic content used as a standard measure for comparing the alcoholic strength of other liquids
 - ▶ vb
- 10 to take a proof from (type matter)
- 11 to render (something) proof, esp. to waterproof proofread vb -reading, -read to read and correct (printers' proofs) > proofreader n

prop¹ vb propping, propped (often foll. by up)

- 1 to support (something or someone) in an upright position: she was propped up by pillows
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: support, sustain, hold up, brace, uphold, bolster, buttress
- 2 to sustain or support: the type of measures necessary to prop up the sagging economy
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: support, sustain, hold up, brace, uphold, bolster, buttress

3 (often foll. by against) to place or lean

◇ SYNONYMS: lean, place, set, stand, position, rest, lay, balance

► n

4 something that gives rigid support, such as a pole

◇ SYNONYMS: support, stay, brace, mainstay, buttress, stanchion

5 a person or thing giving moral support

◇ SYNONYMS: mainstay, support, sustainer, anchor, backbone, cornerstone, upholder prop² n a movable object used on the set of a film or play prop³ n (informal) a propeller propaganda n

1 the organized promotion of information to assist or damage the cause of a government or movement

◇ SYNONYMS: information, advertising, promotion, publicity, hype, disinformation

2 such information

◇ SYNONYMS: information, advertising, promotion, publicity, hype, disinformation > propagandist n, adj propagate vb -gating, -gated

1 to spread (information or ideas)

2 (biol) to reproduce or breed

3 (horticulture) to produce (plants)

4 (physics) to transmit, esp. in the form of a wave: the electrical signal is propagated through a specialized group of conducting fibres > propagation n > propagator n

propane n a flammable gas found in petroleum and used as a fuel propel vb -pelling, -pelled to cause to move forwards

◇ SYNONYMS: drive, launch, force, send, shoot, push, thrust, shove > propellant n, adj

propeller n a revolving shaft with blades to drive a ship or aircraft propensity n, pl -ties (formal) a natural tendency: his problem had always been a propensity to live beyond his means

proper adj

1 real or genuine: a proper home

◇ SYNONYMS: real, actual, genuine, true, bona fide, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal)

2 appropriate or usual: good wine must have the proper balance of sugar and acid

◇ SYNONYMS: correct, accepted, established, appropriate, right, formal, conventional, precise

3 suited to a particular purpose: they set out without any proper climbing gear

◇ SYNONYMS: correct, accepted, established, appropriate, right, formal, conventional, precise

4 correct in behaviour: they denied that they doctored reports or did anything that was not proper

◇ SYNONYMS: polite, right, becoming, seemly, fitting, fit, mannerly, suitable

5 excessively moral: she was very strait-laced and proper

6 being or forming the main or central part of something: a suburb some miles west of the city proper

7 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) complete: you made him look a proper fool > properly adv

property n, pl -ties

1 something owned

2 (law) the right to possess, use, and dispose of anything

3 possessions collectively

◇ SYNONYMS: possessions, goods, effects, holdings, capital, riches, estate, assets

4 land or buildings owned by someone

◇ SYNONYMS: land, holding, estate, real estate, freehold

5 a quality or attribute: the oils have healing properties

◇ SYNONYMS: quality, feature, characteristic, attribute, trait, hallmark

6 same as prop

prophecy n, pl -cies

1 a prediction

◇ SYNONYMS: prediction, forecast, prognostication, augury

2

A a message revealing God's will

B the act of uttering such a message

3 the function or activity of a prophet

◇ SYNONYMS: second sight, divination, augury, telling the future, soothsaying prophesy vb -sies, -syng, -sied to foretell prophet n

1 a person supposedly chosen by God to pass on His message

2 a person who predicts the future: a prophet of doom

◇ SYNONYMS: soothsayer, forecaster, diviner, oracle, seer, sibyl, prophesier

3 a spokesman for, or advocate of, some cause: a prophet of revolution > prophetess fem n prophetic adj

1 foretelling what will happen

2 of the nature of a prophecy > prophetically adv

prophylactic adj

1 preventing disease

► n

2 a drug or device that prevents disease

3 (chiefly US) a condom propitiate vb -ating, -ated to appease (someone, esp. a god or spirit); make well disposed > propitiable adj > propitiation n

> propitiator n

> propitiatory adj

propitious adj

1 favourable or auspicious: a propitious moment

2 likely to prove favourable; advantageous: his origins were not propitious for a literary career proponent n a person who argues in favour of something proportion n

1 relative size or extent: a large proportion of our revenue comes from advertisements

◇ SYNONYMS: part, share, amount, division, percentage, segment, quota, fraction

2 correct relationship between parts

◇ SYNONYMS: balance, harmony, correspondence, symmetry, concord, congruity

3 a part considered with respect to the whole: the proportion of women in the total workforce

◇ SYNONYMS: relative amount, relationship, ratio

4 proportions dimensions or size: a building of vast proportions

◇ SYNONYMS: dimensions, size, volume, capacity, extent, expanse

5 (maths) a relationship between four numbers in which the ratio of the first pair equals the ratio of the second pair

6 in proportion

A comparable in size, rate of increase, etc.

B without exaggerating

► vb

7 to adjust in relative amount or size: the size of the crops are very rarely proportioned to the wants of the inhabitants

8 to cause to be harmonious in relationship of parts proportional adj

1 being in proportion

◇ SYNONYMS: correspondent, corresponding, even, balanced, consistent, compatible, equitable, in proportion

► n

2 (maths) an unknown term in a proportion, for example in $a/b = c/x$, x is the fourth proportional > proportionally adv

proposal n

1 the act of proposing

2 a suggestion put forward for consideration

◇ SYNONYMS: suggestion, plan, programme, scheme, offer, project, bid, recommendation

3 an offer of marriage propose vb -posing, -posed

1 to put forward (a plan) for consideration

◇ SYNONYMS: put forward, present, suggest, advance, submit

2 to nominate (someone) for a position

◇ SYNONYMS: nominate, name, present, recommend

3 to intend (to do something): I don't propose to waste any more time discussing it

◇ SYNONYMS: intend, mean, plan, aim, design, scheme, have in mind

4 to ask people to drink (a toast)

5 (often foll. by to) to make an offer of marriage ◇ SYNONYMS: offer marriage, pop the question (informal), ask for someone's hand (in marriage) proposition n

1 a proposal or offer

◇ SYNONYMS: proposal, plan, suggestion, scheme, bid, recommendation

2 (logic) a statement that affirms or denies something and is capable of being true or false

◇ SYNONYMS: theory, idea, argument, concept, thesis, hypothesis, theorem, premise

3 (maths) a statement or theorem, usually containing its proof

4 (informal) a person or matter to be dealt with: even among experienced climbers the mountain is considered a tough proposition

◇ SYNONYMS: task, problem, activity, job, affair, venture, undertaking

5 (informal) an invitation to engage in sexual intercourse

◇ SYNONYMS: advance, pass (informal), proposal, overture, improper suggestion, come-on (informal)

► vb

6 (informal) to invite (someone) to engage in sexual intercourse ◇ SYNONYMS: make a pass at, solicit, accost, make an improper suggestion to propound vb to put forward for consideration proprietary adj

1 denoting a product manufactured and distributed under a trade name

2 possessive: she watched them with a proprietary eye

3 privately owned and controlled proprietor n an owner of a business establishment

◇ SYNONYMS: owner, titleholder, landlord or landlady > proprietress fem n

> proprietary adj

propriety n, pl -ties

1 the quality or state of being appropriate or fitting

2 correct conduct

3 the proprieties the standards of behaviour considered correct by polite society propulsion n

1 a force that moves (something) forward

2 the act of propelling or the state of being propelled > propulsive adj

pro rata adv, adj in proportion prorogue vb -roguing, -rogued to suspend (Parliament) without dissolving it > prorogation n

prosaic (pro-zay-ik) adj 1 lacking imagination; dull 2 having the characteristics of prose > prosaically adv

pros and cons pl n the advantages and disadvantages of a situation proscenium (proh-see-nee-um) n, pl -nia or -niums the arch in a theatre separating the stage from the auditorium proscribe vb -scribing, -scribed 1 to prohibit (something) 2 to condemn (something); outlaw or banish > proscription n > proscriptive adj

prose n
1 ordinary spoken or written language in contrast to poetry 2 a passage set for translation into a foreign language 3 commonplace or dull talk prosecute vb -cuting, -cuted 1 to bring a criminal charge against (someone) ◇ SYNONYMS: take someone to court, try, sue, indict, arraign, put someone on trial, litigate, bring someone to trial 2 to continue to do (something): the business of prosecuting a cold war through propaganda

3

A to seek redress by legal proceedings

B to institute or conduct a prosecution > prosecutor n

prosecution n

1 the act of bringing criminal charges against someone

2 the institution and conduct of legal proceedings against a person

3 the lawyers acting for the Crown to put the case against a person

4 the carrying out of something begun proselyte (pross-ill-ite) n a recent convert > proselytism n

proselytize or -tise (pross-ill-it-ize) vb -tizing, -tized or -tising, -tised to attempt to convert (someone) prospect n

1 (pl) chances or opportunities for future success: a job with impossible workloads and poor career prospects

◇ SYNONYMS: possibilities, chances, future, potential, expectations, outlook, scope

2 expectation, or something anticipated: she was terrified at the prospect of bringing up two babies on her own

◇ SYNONYMS: idea, outlook

3 (old-fashioned) a view or scene: a prospect of spires, domes, and towers

◇ SYNONYMS: view, landscape, scene, sight, outlook, spectacle, vista

► vb

4 (sometimes foll. by for) to search for gold or other valuable minerals

◇ SYNONYMS: look, search, seek, dowse prospective adj

1 future: prospective customers

◇ SYNONYMS: potential, possible

2 expected or likely: the prospective loss

◇ SYNONYMS: expected, coming, future, likely, intended, anticipated, forthcoming, imminent > prospectively adv

prospector n a person who searches for gold or other valuable minerals prospectus n, pl -tuses a booklet produced by a university, company, etc., giving details about it and its activities

◇ SYNONYMS: catalogue, list, programme, outline, syllabus, synopsis prosper vb to be successful

◇ SYNONYMS: succeed, advance, progress, thrive, get on, do well, flourish prosperity n success and wealth

◇ SYNONYMS: success, riches, plenty, fortune, wealth, luxury, good fortune, affluence prosperous adj wealthy and successful

◇ SYNONYMS: wealthy, rich, affluent, well-off, well-heeled (informal), well-to-do, moneyed, minted (Brit slang) prostate n a gland in male mammals that surrounds the neck of the bladder.

Also called: prostate gland prosthesis (pross-theess-iss) n, pl -ses (-seez) (surgery)

A the replacement of a missing body part with an artificial substitute

B an artificial body part such as a limb, eye, or tooth > prosthetic adj

prostitute n

1 a person who offers sexual intercourse in return for payment

◇ SYNONYMS: sex worker, call girl, hooker (US slang, derogatory), pro (slang)

► vb -tuting, -tuted

2 to offer (oneself or another) in sexual intercourse for money

3 to offer (oneself or one's talent) for unworthy purposes

◇ SYNONYMS: cheapen, sell out, pervert, degrade, devalue, squander, demean, debase > prostitution n

prostrate adj

1 lying face downwards

2 physically or emotionally exhausted

► vb -trating, -trated

3 prostrate oneself to cast (oneself) face downwards, as in submission

4 to exhaust physically or emotionally > prostration n

protagonist n

1 a supporter of a cause: a great protagonist of the ideas and principles of mutuality

◇ SYNONYMS: supporter, champion, advocate, exponent

2 the leading character in a play or story

◇ SYNONYMS: leading character, principal, central character, hero or heroine protea (pro-tee-a) n an African shrub with showy heads of flowers protean (pro-tee-an) adj capable of constantly changing shape or form: he is a protean stylist who can move from blues to ballads with consummate ease

protect vb

1 to defend from trouble, harm, or loss

◇ SYNONYMS: keep someone safe, defend, support, save, guard, preserve, look after, shelter

2 (econ) to assist (domestic industries) by taxing imports protection n

1 the act of protecting or the condition of being protected

◇ SYNONYMS: safety, care, defence, protecting, security, custody, safeguard, aegis

2 something that keeps one safe

◇ SYNONYMS: safeguard, cover, guard, shelter, screen, barrier, shield, buffer

3

A the charging of taxes on imports, to protect domestic industries

B Also called: protectionism the policy of such taxation

4 (informal) Also called: protection money money paid to gangsters to avoid attack or damage > protectionism n

> protectionist n, adj

protective adj

1 giving protection: protective clothing

◇ SYNONYMS: protecting

2 tending or wishing to protect someone

◇ SYNONYMS: caring, defensive, motherly, fatherly, maternal, vigilant, watchful, paternal > protectively adv

> protectiveness n

protector n

1 a person or thing that protects

◇ SYNONYMS: defender, champion, guard, guardian, patron, bodyguard

2 (history) a person who acts for the king or queen during his or her childhood, absence, or incapacity > protectress fem n

protectorate n

1 a territory largely controlled by a stronger state

2 the office or term of office of a protector protégé or (fem) protégée (pro-tizh-ay) n a person who is protected and helped by another protein n any of a large group of nitrogenous compounds that are essential for life pro tempore adv, adj for the time being. Often shortened to: pro tem protest n

1 public, often organized, demonstration of objection

◇ SYNONYMS: demonstration, march, rally, sit-in, demo (informal), hikoi (NZ)

2 a strong objection

◇ SYNONYMS: objection, complaint, dissent, outcry, protestation, remonstrance

3 a formal statement declaring that a debtor has dishonoured a bill

4 the act of protesting

► vb

5 to take part in a public demonstration to express one's support for or disapproval of an action, proposal, etc.: the workers marched through the city to protest against the closure of their factory

◇ SYNONYMS: object, demonstrate, oppose, complain, disagree, cry out, disapprove, demur

6 to disagree or object: 'I'm OK,' she protested

7 to assert in a formal or solemn manner: all three repeatedly protested their innocence

◇ SYNONYMS: assert, insist, maintain, declare, affirm, profess, attest, avow

8 (US & NZ) to object forcefully to: students and teachers have protested the budget reductions > protestant adj, n > protester n

Protestant n

1 a follower of any of the Christian Churches that separated from the Roman Catholic Church in the 16th century

► adj

2 of or relating to any of these Churches or their followers

> Protestantism n

protestation n (formal) a strong declaration proto- or (sometimes before a vowel) prot- combining form

1 first: protomartyr

2 original: prototype protocol n

1 the rules of behaviour for formal occasions

◇ SYNONYMS: code of behaviour, manners, conventions, customs, etiquette, propriety, decorum

2 a record of an agreement in international negotiations

3 (computers) a standardized format for exchanging data, esp. between different computer systems proton (pro-ton) n a positively charged elementary particle, found in the nucleus of an atom protoplasm n (biol) a complex colourless substance forming the living contents of a cell > protoplasmic adj

prototype n

1 an early model of a product, which is tested so that the design can be changed if necessary

◇ SYNONYMS: original, model, first, example, standard

2 a person or thing that serves as an example of a type

◇ SYNONYMS: original, model, first, example, standard

protozoan (pro-toe-zoe-an) n, pl -zoa a very tiny single-celled invertebrate, such as an amoeba. Also: protozoon protractor n an instrument for measuring angles, usually a flat semicircular piece of plastic protrude vb -truding, -truded to stick out or project > protrusion n

> protrusive adj

protuberant adj swelling out; bulging > protuberance n

proud adj

1 feeling pleasure or satisfaction: she was proud of her daughter's success

◇ SYNONYMS: satisfied, pleased, content, thrilled, glad, gratified, joyful, well-pleased

2 feeling honoured

3 haughty or arrogant

◇ SYNONYMS: conceited, arrogant, lordly, imperious, overbearing, haughty, snobbish, self-satisfied

4 causing pride: the city's proud history

5 dignified: too proud to accept charity

6 (of a surface or edge) projecting or protruding

► adv

7 do someone proud to entertain someone on a grand scale: Mum did us all proud last Christmas > proudly adv

prove vb proving, proved, proved or proven

1 to establish the truth or validity of: such a claim is difficult to prove scientifically

◇ SYNONYMS: verify, establish, determine, show, confirm, demonstrate, justify, substantiate

2 (law) to establish the genuineness of (a will)

3 to show (oneself) to be: he proved equal to the task

4 to be found to be: it proved to be a trap

◇ SYNONYMS: turn out, come out, end up

5 (of dough) to rise in a warm place before baking > provable adj

proven vb

1 a past participle of prove

► adj

2 known from experience to work: a proven ability to make money

◇ SYNONYMS: established, proved, confirmed, tested, reliable, definite, verified, attested provenance (prov-in-anss) n a place of origin provender n (old-fashioned) fodder for livestock proverb n a short memorable saying that expresses a truth or gives a warning, for example half a loaf is better than no bread

proverbial adj

1 well-known because commonly or traditionally referred to 2 of a proverb > proverbially adv

provide vb -viding, -vided

1 to make available

◇ SYNONYMS: supply, give, distribute, outfit, equip, donate, furnish, dispense

2 to afford; yield: social activities providing the opportunity to meet new people

◇ SYNONYMS: give, bring, add, produce, present, serve, afford, yield

3 (often foll. by for or against) to take careful precautions: we provide for the possibility of illness in the examination regulations

4 (foll. by for) to support financially: both parents should be expected to provide for their children

◇ SYNONYMS provide for someone: support, care for, keep, maintain, sustain, take care of, fend for 5 provide for (formal) (of a law, treaty, etc.) to make possible: a bill providing for stiffer penalties for racial discrimination

> provider n

providence n

1 God or nature seen as a protective force that oversees people's lives

2 the foresight shown by a person in the management of his or her affairs provident adj

1 thrifty

2 showing foresight providential adj fortunate, as if through divine involvement province n

1 a territory governed as a unit of a country or empire

◇ SYNONYMS: region, section, district, zone, patch, colony, domain

2 an area of learning, activity, etc.

3 the provinces those parts of a country lying outside the capital provincial adj

1 of a province

◇ SYNONYMS: regional, state, local, county, district, territorial, parochial

2 unsophisticated or narrow-minded

◇ SYNONYMS: parochial, insular, narrow-minded, unsophisticated, limited, narrow, small-town (chiefly US), inward-looking

3 (NZ) denoting a football team representing a province

► n

4 an unsophisticated person

5 a person from a province or the provinces > provincialism n

provision n

1 the act of supplying something

◇ SYNONYMS: supplying, giving, providing, supply, delivery, distribution, catering, presentation

2 something supplied

3 provisions food and other necessities

◇ SYNONYMS: food, supplies, stores, fare, rations, foodstuff, kai (NZ informal), victuals (old-fashioned), edibles

4 a condition incorporated in a document

◇ SYNONYMS: condition, term, requirement, demand, rider, restriction, qualification, clause

5 make provision for to make arrangements for beforehand: the company has made provision for future losses

► vb

6 to supply with provisions provisional adj temporary or conditional: a provisional diagnosis

◇ SYNONYMS: conditional, limited, qualified, contingent, tentative > provisionally adv

proviso (pro-vize-oh) n, pl -sos or -soes a condition or stipulation > provisory adj

provocation n

1 the act of provoking or inciting

◇ SYNONYMS: cause, reason, grounds, motivation, stimulus, incitement

2 something that causes indignation or anger

◇ SYNONYMS: offence, challenge, insult, taunt, injury, dare, grievance, annoyance provocative adj provoking or inciting, esp. to anger or sexual desire: a provocative remark

◇ SYNONYMS: offensive, provoking, insulting, stimulating, annoying, galling, goading > provocatively adv

provoke vb -voking, -voked

1 to deliberately act in a way intended to anger someone: waving a red cape, Delgado provoked the animal into charging

◇ SYNONYMS: anger, annoy, irritate, infuriate, hassle (informal), aggravate (informal), incense, enrage

2 to incite or stimulate: the army seems to have provoked this latest confrontation

3 (often foll. by into) to cause a person to react in a particular, often angry, way: keeping your true motives hidden may provoke others into being just as two-faced with you

4 to bring about: the case has provoked furious public debate

◇ SYNONYMS: rouse, cause, produce, promote, occasion (formal), prompt, stir, induce > provoking adj

provost n

- 1 the head of certain university colleges or schools
- 2 the chief councillor of a Scottish town prow n the bow of a vessel prowess n

- 1 superior skill or ability

◇ SYNONYMS: skill, ability, talent, expertise, genius, excellence, accomplishment, mastery

- 2 bravery or fearlessness

◇ SYNONYMS: bravery, daring, courage, heroism, mettle, valour, fearlessness, valiance prowl vb

- 1 (sometimes foll. by around or about) to move stealthily around (a place) as if in search of prey or plunder

► n

- 2 the act of prowling

- 3 on the prowl moving around stealthily > prowler n

proximate adj

- 1 next or nearest in space or time

- 2 very near

- 3 immediately coming before or following in a series

- 4 approximate

proximity n

- 1 nearness in space or time

◇ SYNONYMS: nearness, closeness

- 2 nearness or closeness in a series

◇ SYNONYMS: nearness, closeness

proxy n, pl proxies

1 a person authorized to act on behalf of someone else: the firm's creditors can vote either in person or by proxy

◇ SYNONYMS: representative, agent, deputy, substitute, factor (Scot), delegate

2 the authority to act on behalf of someone else prude n a person who is excessively modest or prim, esp. regarding sex > prudery n

> prudish adj

prudent adj

1 sensible and careful

◇ SYNONYMS: cautious, careful, wary, discreet, vigilant

2 discreet or cautious

◇ SYNONYMS: cautious, careful, wary, discreet, vigilant

3 exercising good judgment

◇ SYNONYMS: wise, politic, sensible, shrewd, discerning, judicious > prudence n

> prudently adv

prudential adj (old-fashioned) showing prudence: prudential reasons

> prudentially adv

prune¹ n a purplish-black partially dried plum prune² vb pruning, pruned

1 to cut off dead or surplus branches of (a tree or shrub)

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, trim, clip, dock, shape, shorten, snip

2 to shorten or reduce ◇ SYNONYMS: reduce, cut, cut back, trim, cut down, pare down, make reductions in prurient adj

- 1 excessively interested in sexual matters
- 2 exciting lustfulness
- > prurience n

pry vb pries, prying, pried (often foll. by into) to make an impertinent or uninvited inquiry (about a private matter)

PS

- 1 Also: ps postscript
- 2 private secretary

PSA (in New Zealand) Public Service Association

psalm n (often cap) any of the sacred songs that make up a book (Psalms) of the Old Testament psalmist n a writer of psalms

Psalter n

- 1 the Book of Psalms
- 2 a book containing a version of Psalms psaltery n, pl -teries an ancient musical instrument played by plucking strings

PSBR (in Britain) public sector borrowing requirement: the money needed by the public sector of the economy for items not paid for by income psephology (sef-fol-a-jee) n the statistical and sociological study of elections > psephologist n

pseud n (informal) a pretentious person pseudo- or (sometimes before a vowel) pseud- combining form false, pretending, or unauthentic: pseudo-intellectual pseudonym n a fictitious name adopted, esp. by an author > pseudonymity n

> pseudonymous adj

psittacosis n a viral disease of parrots that can be passed on to humans psoriasis (so-rye-a-siss) n a skin disease with reddish spots and patches covered with silvery scales psyche n the human mind or soul

◇ SYNONYMS: soul, mind, self, spirit, personality, individuality, anima, wairua (NZ) psychedelic adj

1 denoting a drug that causes hallucinations

2 (informal) having vivid colours and complex patterns similar to those experienced during hallucinations psychiatry n the branch of medicine concerned with the study and treatment of mental health conditions > psychiatric adj

> psychiatrist n

psychic adj

1 relating to or having powers (esp. mental powers) which cannot be explained by natural laws

◇ SYNONYMS: supernatural, mystic, occult

2 relating to the mind

◇ SYNONYMS: psychological, emotional, mental, spiritual, inner, psychiatric, cognitive

► n

3 a person who has psychic powers

◇ SYNONYMS: clairvoyant, fortune teller > psychical adj

psycho (informal) n, pl -chos

1 same as psychopath

► adj

2 same as psychopathic psychoanalyse or (US) -lyze vb -lysing, -lysed or -lyzing, -lyzed to examine or treat (a person) by psychoanalysis psychoanalysis n a method of treating mental and emotional conditions by discussion and analysis of the patient's thoughts and feelings > psychoanalyst n

> psychoanalytical or psychoanalytic adj psychological adj

1 relating to the mind or mental activity

◇ SYNONYMS: mental, emotional, intellectual, inner, cognitive, cerebral

2 relating to psychology

3 having its origin in the mind: his backaches are purely psychological

◇ SYNONYMS: imaginary, psychosomatic, irrational, unreal, all in the mind > psychologically adv

psychology n, pl -gies

1 the scientific study of all forms of human and animal behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: behaviourism, study of personality, science of mind

2 (informal) the mental make-up of a person

◇ SYNONYMS: way of thinking, attitude, behaviour, temperament, mentality, thought processes, mental processes, what makes you tick > psychologist n

psychopath n a person with a personality disorder which can cause him or her to commit antisocial and sometimes violent acts > psychopathic adj

psychosis (sike-oh-siss) n, pl -ses (-seez) a severe mental disorder in which the individual's contact with reality becomes highly distorted: a classic case of psychosis > psychotic adj

psychosomatic adj (of a physical disorder) thought to have psychological causes, such as stress psychotherapy n the treatment of nervous disorders by psychological methods > psychotherapeutic adj > psychotherapist n

psych up vb to prepare (oneself or another) mentally for a contest or task pt 1 part 2 past tense 3 point 4 port 5 pro tempore

PT (old-fashioned) physical training

pt. pint

PTA Parent Teacher Association

ptarmigan (tar-mig-an) n a bird of the grouse family that turns white in winter pterodactyl (terr-roe-dak-til) n an extinct flying reptile with batlike wings

PTO or pto please turn over ptomaine or ptomain (toe-main) n any of a group of poisonous alkaloids found in decaying matter

Pty (Austral & S African) Proprietary

pub n

1 (chiefly Brit) a building with a licensed bar where alcoholic drinks may be bought and drunk

◇ SYNONYMS: tavern, bar, inn, saloon, beer parlour (Canad), beverage room (Canad)

2 (Austral & NZ) a hotel puberty (pew-ber-tee) n the beginning of sexual maturity > pubertal adj

pubescent adj

1 arriving or arrived at puberty

2 covered with down, as some plants and animals > pubescence n

pubic (pew-bik) adj of or relating to the pubes or pubis: pubic hair public adj

1 relating to the people as a whole

◇ SYNONYMS: general, popular, national, shared, common, widespread, universal, collective

2 provided by the government: public service

◇ SYNONYMS: civic, government, state, national, local, official, community, social

3 open to all: public gardens

◇ SYNONYMS: open, accessible, communal, unrestricted

4 well-known: a public figure

◇ SYNONYMS: well-known, leading, important, respected, famous, celebrated, recognized, distinguished

5 performed or made openly: a public proclamation

6 maintained by and for the community: a public library

7 open, acknowledged, or notorious: a public scandal

◇ SYNONYMS: known, open, obvious, acknowledged, plain, patent, overt

8 go public

A (of a private company) to offer shares for sale to the public: few German firms have gone public in recent years

B to make information, plans, etc., known: the group would not have gone public with its suspicions unless it was fully convinced of them

► n

9 the community or people in general

◇ SYNONYMS: people, society, community, nation, everyone, citizens, electorate, populace

10 a particular section of the community: the racing public > publicly adv

publican n (Brit & Austral & NZ) a person who owns or runs a pub publication n

1 the publishing of a printed work

2 any printed work offered for sale

◇ SYNONYMS: pamphlet, newspaper, magazine, issue, title, leaflet, brochure, periodical, blog (informal)

3 the act of making information known to the public ◇ SYNONYMS: publishing, announcement, broadcasting, reporting, declaration, disclosure, proclamation, notification public house n

1 (Brit) a pub

2 (US & Canad) an inn or small hotel publicist n a person, such as a press agent or journalist, who publicizes something publicity n

1 the process or information used to arouse public attention

◇ SYNONYMS: advertising, press, promotion, hype, boost, plug (informal)

2 the public interest so aroused

◇ SYNONYMS: attention, exposure, fame, celebrity, fuss, public interest, limelight, notoriety publicize or -cise vb -cizing, -cized or -cising, -cised to bring to public attention public relations n the practice of gaining the public's goodwill and approval for an organization public school n

1 (in England and Wales) a private independent fee-paying secondary school

2 (in certain Canadian provinces) a public elementary school as distinguished from a separate school

3 (in the US) any school that is part of a free local educational system public-spirited adj having or showing an active interest in the good of the community publish vb

1 to produce and issue (printed matter) for sale

◇ SYNONYMS: put out, issue, produce, print

2 to have one's written work issued for publication

3 to announce formally or in public

◇ SYNONYMS: announce, reveal, spread, advertise, broadcast, disclose, proclaim, circulate > publishing n

publisher n

1 a company or person that publishes books, periodicals, music, etc.

2 (US & Canad) the proprietor of a newspaper puce adj dark brownish-purple: his face suddenly turned puce with futile rage

puck¹ n a small disc of hard rubber used in ice hockey puck² n a mischievous or evil spirit > puckish adj

pucker vb

1 to gather into wrinkles

► n

2 a wrinkle or crease pudding n

1 a dessert, esp. a cooked one served hot

◇ SYNONYMS: dessert, afters (Brit informal), sweet, pud (informal)

2 a savoury dish with pastry or batter: steak-and-kidney pudding

3 a sausage-like mass of meat: black pudding puddle n

1 a small pool of water, esp. of rain

2 a worked mixture of wet clay and sand that is impervious to water

► vb -dling, -dled

3 to make (clay, etc.) into puddle > puddly adj

puerile adj silly and childish > puerility n

puerperal (pew-er-per-al) adj concerning the period following childbirth puff n

1 a short quick blast of breath, wind, or smoke

◇ SYNONYMS: blast, breath, whiff, draught, gust

2 the amount of wind or smoke released in a puff

◇ SYNONYMS: blast, breath, whiff, draught, gust

3 the sound made by a puff

4 an act of inhaling and expelling cigarette smoke

◇ SYNONYMS: drag, pull (slang), smoke

5 a light pastry usually filled with cream and jam

6 out of puff out of breath: by the third flight of stairs she was out of puff

► vb

7 to blow or breathe in short quick blasts

◇ SYNONYMS: breathe heavily, pant, exhale, blow, gasp, gulp, wheeze, fight for breath

8 (often foll. by out) to cause to be out of breath

9 to take draws at (a cigarette)

◇ SYNONYMS: smoke, draw, drag (slang), suck, inhale, pull at or on 10 to move with or by the emission of puffs: the steam train puffed up the incline

11 (often foll. by up or out) to swell > puffy adj

puffball n a ball-shaped fungus that sends out a cloud of brown spores when mature puffin n a black-and-white sea bird with a brightly coloured beak puff pastry or (US) puff paste n a light flaky pastry pug n a small dog with a smooth coat, lightly curled tail, and a short wrinkled nose pugilist (pew-jil-ist) n a boxer > pugilism n

> pugilistic adj

pugnacious adj (formal) ready and eager to fight > pugnacity n

pug nose n a short stubby upturned nose > pug-nosed adj

puissance n a showjumping competition that tests a horse's ability to jump large obstacles puke (slang) vb puking, puked

1 to vomit

► n

2 the act of vomiting

3 the matter vomited pulchritude n (formal, or literary) physical beauty > pulchritudinous adj

pull vb

1 to exert force on (an object) to draw it towards the source of the force

◇ SYNONYMS: draw, haul, drag, trail, tow, tug, jerk, yank

2 to strain or stretch

◇ SYNONYMS: strain, tear, stretch, rip, wrench, dislocate, sprain

3 to remove or extract: he pulled a crumpled handkerchief from his pocket

◇ SYNONYMS: extract, pick, remove, gather, take out, pluck, uproot, draw out

4 (informal) to draw out (a weapon) for use: he pulled a knife on his attacker

5 (informal) to attract: the game is expected to pull a large crowd

◇ SYNONYMS: attract, draw, bring in, tempt, lure, interest, entice, pull in 6 (Brit slang) to attract a sexual partner

◇ SYNONYMS: attract, draw, bring in, tempt, lure, interest, entice, pull in

7 (usually foll. by on or at) to drink or inhale deeply: he pulled on his pipe

8 to possess or exercise the power to move: this car doesn't pull well on hills

9 to withdraw or remove: the board pulled their support

10 (printing) to take (a proof) from type

11 (golf, baseball, etc.) to hit (the ball) in the direction of one's follow-through 12 (cricket) to hit (a ball) to the leg side

13 to row (a boat) or take a stroke of (an oar) in rowing

14 pull a face to make a grimace

15 pull a fast one (slang) (often foll. by on) to play a sly trick

16 pull apart or to pieces to criticize harshly

17 pull (one's) punches to limit the force of one's criticisms or blows

► n

18 the act of pulling

◇ SYNONYMS: tug, jerk, yank, twitch, heave

19 the force used in pulling: the pull of the moon affects the tides

20 the act of taking in drink or smoke

◇ SYNONYMS: puff, drag (slang), inhalation

21 (printing) a proof taken from type

22 something used for pulling, such as a handle

23 (informal) power or influence: his uncle is chairman of the company, so he has quite a lot of pull

◇ SYNONYMS: influence, power, weight, muscle, clout (informal), kai (NZ informal)

24 (informal) the power to attract attention or support

25 a single stroke of an oar in rowing

26 the act of pulling the ball in golf, cricket, etc.

► See also pull in etc pullet n a hen less than one year old pulley n a wheel with a grooved rim in which a belt, chain, or piece of rope runs in order to lift weights by a downward pull pull in vb

- 1 Also: pull over (of a motor vehicle) to draw in to the side of the road
- 2 (often foll. by to) to reach a destination: the train pulled in to the station
- 3 to attract: his appearance will pull in the crowds
- 4 (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) to arrest
- 5 to earn (money): he pulls in at least thirty thousand a year

Pullman n, pl -mans (chiefly Brit) a luxurious railway coach pull off vb (informal) to succeed in accomplishing (something difficult): superheroes who pull off the impossible

◇ SYNONYMS pull something off: succeed in, manage, carry out, accomplish pull out vb

1

A (of a motor vehicle) to draw away from the side of the road

B (of a motor vehicle) to move out from behind another vehicle to overtake

2 to depart: the train pulled out of the station

3 to withdraw: several companies have pulled out of the student market

◇ SYNONYMS pull out (of): withdraw, quit

4 to remove by pulling

◇ SYNONYMS pull something out: produce, draw, bring out, draw out

5 to abandon a situation

◇ SYNONYMS pull out (of): leave, abandon, get out, quit, retreat from, depart (US), evacuate pullover n a sweater that is pulled on over the head pull up vb

1 (of a motor vehicle) to stop

◇ SYNONYMS pull up: stop, halt, brake

2 to remove by the roots

3 to rebuke

◇ SYNONYMS pull someone up: reprimand, rebuke, admonish, read the riot act to, tell someone off (informal), reprove, bawl someone out (informal), tear someone off a strip (Brit informal) pulmonary adj

1 of or affecting the lungs

2 having lungs or lunglike organs pulp n

1 a soft wet substance made from matter which has been crushed or beaten:

mash the strawberries to a pulp

◇ SYNONYMS: paste, mash, mush

2 the soft fleshy part of a fruit or vegetable: halve the tomatoes then scoop the seeds and pulp into a bowl

◇ SYNONYMS: flesh, meat, soft part

3 printed or recorded material with little depth or designed to shock: a music player churned out disco pulp

► vb

4 to reduce (a material) to pulp: he began to pulp the orange in his fingers

◇ SYNONYMS: crush, squash, mash, pulverize > pulpy adj

pulpit n

1 a raised platform in churches used for preaching

2 (usually preceded by the) preaching or the clergy pulsar n a very small star which emits regular pulses of radio waves pulsate vb -sating, -sated

- 1 to expand and contract rhythmically, like a heartbeat
 - 2 to quiver or vibrate: the images pulsate with energy and light
 - 3 (physics) to vary in intensity or magnitude
- > pulsation n

pulse¹ n

- 1 (physiol)
 - A the regular beating of blood through the arteries at each heartbeat
 - B a single such beat
 - 2 (physics, electronics) a sudden change in a quantity, such as a voltage, that is normally constant in a system
 - 3 a regular beat or vibration
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: beat, rhythm, vibration, beating, throb, throbbing, pulsation
 - 4 bustle or excitement: the lively pulse of a city
 - 5 the feelings or thoughts of a group as they can be measured: the political pulse of the capital
- vb pulsing, pulsed
- 6 to beat, throb, or vibrate
- ◇ SYNONYMS: beat, throb, vibrate, pulsate pulse² n the edible seeds of pod-bearing plants, such as peas, beans, and lentils pulverize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised

- 1 to reduce to fine particles by crushing or grinding
 - 2 to destroy completely
- > pulverization or -risation n

puma n a large American wild cat with a plain greyish-brown coat and a long tail pumice (pumm-iss) n a light porous stone used for scouring and for removing hard skin. Also called: pumice stone pummel vb -melling, -melled (US) -meling, -meled to strike repeatedly with the fists pump¹ n

1 a device to force a gas or liquid to move in a particular direction

► vb

2 (sometimes foll. by from or out etc) to raise or drive (air, liquid, etc.) with a pump, esp. into or from something

3 (usually foll. by in or into) to supply in large amounts: pumping money into the economy

◇ SYNONYMS: supply, send, pour, inject

4 to operate (a handle, etc.) in the manner of a pump: he was warmly applauded, and his hand was pumped by well-wishers

5 to obtain information from (someone) by persistent questioning

◇ SYNONYMS: interrogate, probe, quiz, cross-examine 6 pump iron (slang) to exercise with weights; do body-building exercises pump² n

1 (chiefly Brit) a shoe with a rubber sole, used in games such as tennis; plimsoll

2 a woman's flat-heeled shoe that does not cover the top part of the foot pumpkin n

1 a large round fruit with a thick orange rind, pulpy flesh, and many seeds

2 the creeping plant that bears this fruit pun n

1 the use of words to exploit double meanings for humorous effect, for example my dog's a champion boxer

► vb punning, punned

2 to make puns punch¹ vb

1 to strike at with a clenched fist

◇ SYNONYMS: hit, strike, box, smash, belt (informal), sock (slang, old-fashioned), swipe (informal), bop (informal)

► n

2 a blow with the fist

◇ SYNONYMS: blow, hit, sock (slang), jab, swipe (informal), bop (informal), wallop (informal)

3 (informal) point or vigour: the jokes are mildly amusing but lack any real punch

◇ SYNONYMS: effectiveness, bite, impact, drive, vigour, verve, forcefulness punch² n

1 a tool or machine for shaping, piercing, or engraving

► vb

2 to pierce, cut, stamp, shape, or drive with a punch

◇ SYNONYMS: pierce, cut, bore, drill, stamp, puncture, prick, perforate punch³ n a mixed drink containing fruit juice and, usually, wine or spirits, generally hot and spiced punch-drunk adj dazed and confused through suffering repeated blows to the head punchy adj punchier, punchiest (informal) effective or forceful: learn to compose short concise punchy letters punctilious adj (formal)

1 paying careful attention to correct social behaviour

2 attentive to detail > punctiliously adv

punctual adj

1 arriving or taking place at an arranged time

2 (of a person) always keeping exactly to arranged times

- > punctuality n
- > punctually adv

punctuate vb -ating, -ated

- 1 to insert punctuation marks into (a written text)
- 2 to interrupt at frequent intervals: the meeting was punctuated by heckling
- ◇ SYNONYMS: interrupt, break, pepper, sprinkle, intersperse
- 3 to emphasize: he punctuated the question by pressing the muzzle into the pilot's neck

punctuation n

- 1 the use of symbols, such as commas, to indicate speech patterns and meaning not otherwise shown by the written language
- 2 the symbols used for this purpose puncture n

- 1 a small hole made by a sharp object
- ◇ SYNONYMS: hole, opening, break, cut, nick, leak, slit
- 2 a tear and loss of pressure in a tyre
- ◇ SYNONYMS: flat tyre, flat, flattie (NZ)
- 3 the act of puncturing or perforating
- vb -turing, -tured
- 4 to pierce a hole in (something) with a sharp object
- ◇ SYNONYMS: pierce, cut, nick, penetrate, prick, rupture, perforate, bore a hole (in)
- 5 to cause (a tyre, etc.) to lose pressure by piercing pundit n

- 1 an expert on a subject who often speaks or writes about it for a non-specialist audience: Spain's leading sports pundit, who hosts two TV programmes
- 2 a Hindu scholar learned in Sanskrit, religion, philosophy, or law

pungent adj

1 having a strong sharp bitter smell or taste

2 (of speech or writing) biting; critical > pungency n

punish vb

1 to force (someone) to undergo a penalty for some crime or misbehaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: discipline, correct, castigate, chastise, sentence, chasten, penalize

2 to inflict punishment for (some crime or misbehaviour)

3 to treat harshly, esp. by overexertion: he continued to punish himself in the gym > punishable adj

> punishing adj

punishment n

1 a penalty for a crime or offence

◇ SYNONYMS: penalty, penance

2 the act of punishing or state of being punished

◇ SYNONYMS: penalizing, discipline, correction, retribution, chastening, chastisement

3 (informal) rough physical treatment: the boxer's face could not withstand further punishment punitive (pew-nit-tiv) adj relating to punishment: punitive measures

◇ SYNONYMS: retaliatory, in reprisal, retaliative punk n

1 (US informal) a worthless person

2 a youth movement of the late 1970s, characterized by anti-Establishment slogans, short spiky hair, and the wearing of worthless articles such as safety pins for decoration

3 a follower of the punk movement or of punk rock

► adj

4 relating to the punk youth movement of the late 1970s: a punk band

5 (US informal) worthless or insignificant punnet n a small basket for fruit punt¹ n

1 an open flat-bottomed boat, propelled by a pole

► vb

2 to propel (a punt) by pushing with a pole on the bottom of a river punt² n

1 a kick in certain sports, such as rugby, in which the ball is dropped and kicked before it hits the ground

► vb

2 to kick (a ball) using a punt punt³ (chiefly Brit) vb

1 to gamble or bet

◇ SYNONYMS: bet, back, stake, gamble, lay, wager

► n

2 a gamble or bet, esp. against the bank, such as in roulette

◇ SYNONYMS: bet, stake, gamble, wager punter n

1 a person who places a bet

◇ SYNONYMS: gambler, better, backer

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) any member of the public, esp. when a customer: the punters are flocking into the sales puny adj -nier, -niest small and weakly pup n

1

A a young dog; puppy

B the young of various other animals, such as the seal

► vb pupping, pupped

2 (of dogs, seals, etc.) to give birth to pups pupa (pew-pa) n, pl -pae (-pee) or -pas an insect at the stage of development between larva and adult > pupal adj

pupil¹ n a student who is taught by a teacher ◇ SYNONYMS: student, schoolboy or schoolgirl, schoolchild pupil² n the dark circular opening at the centre of the iris of the eye puppet n

1 a small doll or figure moved by strings attached to its limbs or by the hand inserted in its cloth body

◇ SYNONYMS: marionette, doll, glove puppet, sock puppet, finger puppet

2 a person or state that appears independent but is controlled by another: the former cabinet ministers have denied that they are puppets of a foreign government

◇ SYNONYMS: pawn, tool, instrument (informal), mouthpiece, stooge (slang), cat's-paw puppeteer n a person who operates puppets puppy n, pl -pies

1 a young dog

2 (informal, derogatory) a brash or conceited young man > puppyish adj purchase vb -chasing, -chased

1 to obtain (goods) by payment

◇ SYNONYMS: buy, pay for, obtain, get, score (slang), gain, pick up, acquire

2 to obtain by effort or sacrifice: he had purchased his freedom at the expense of his principles

► n

3 something that is bought

◇ SYNONYMS: acquisition, buy, investment, property, gain, asset, possession

4 the act of buying

5 the mechanical advantage achieved by a lever

6 a firm leverage or grip

◇ SYNONYMS: grip, hold, support, leverage, foothold > purchaser n

purdah n the custom in some Muslim and Hindu communities of keeping women in seclusion, with clothing that conceals them completely when they go out pure adj

1 not mixed with any other materials or elements: pure wool

◇ SYNONYMS: unmixed, real, simple, natural, straight, genuine, neat, authentic

2 free from tainting or polluting matter: pure water

◇ SYNONYMS: clean, wholesome, sanitary, spotless, sterilized, squeaky-clean, untainted, uncontaminated

3 innocent: pure love

◇ SYNONYMS: innocent, modest, good, moral, impeccable, righteous, virtuous, squeaky-clean

4 complete: Pamela's presence on that particular flight was pure chance

◇ SYNONYMS: complete, total, perfect, absolute, sheer, patent, utter, outright

5 (of a subject) studied in its theoretical aspects rather than for its practical applications: pure mathematics

6 of unmixed descent: a pure Dalmatian > purely adv

> pureness n

puree (pure-ray) n

1 a smooth thick pulp of sieved fruit, vegetables, meat, or fish

► vb -reeing, -reed

2 to make (foods) into a puree purgative (med) n

1 a medicine for emptying the bowels

► adj

2 causing emptying of the bowels

purgatory n

1 (chiefly RC Church) a place in which the souls of those who have died undergo limited suffering for their sins on earth before they go to heaven

2 a situation of temporary suffering or torment: it was purgatory living in the same house as him

> purgatorial adj

purge vb purging, purged

1 to rid (something) of undesirable qualities

◇ SYNONYMS: rid, clear, cleanse, strip, empty, void

2 to rid (an organization, etc.) of undesirable people: the party was purged

3

A to empty (the bowels)

B to cause (a person) to empty his or her bowels

4

A (law) to clear (a person) of a charge

B to free (oneself) of guilt by showing repentance

5 to be purified

► n

6 the act or process of purging

7 the removal of undesirables from a state, organization, or political party

◇ SYNONYMS: removal, elimination, expulsion, eradication, ejection

8 a medicine that empties the bowels purify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to free (something) of harmful or inferior matter

2 to free (a person) from sin or guilt

3 to make clean, for example in a religious ceremony > purification n

puritan n

1 a person who follows strict moral or religious principles

► adj

2 of or like a puritan: he maintained a streak of puritan self-denial > puritanism n

Puritan (history) n

1 a member of the extreme English Protestants who wished to strip the Church of England of most of its rituals

► adj

2 of or relating to the Puritans

> Puritanism n

puritanical adj

1 (usually derogatory) strict in moral or religious outlook

2 (sometimes cap) of or relating to a puritan or the Puritans > puritanically adv

purity n the state or quality of being pure ◇ SYNONYMS: cleanness, cleanliness, wholesomeness, pureness, faultlessness, immaculateness purl n

1 a knitting stitch made by doing a plain stitch backwards

2 a decorative border, such as of lace

► vb

3 to knit in purl stitch purloin vb (formal) to steal purple n

1 a colour between red and blue

2 cloth of this colour, often used to symbolize royalty or nobility

3 the official robe of a cardinal

4 anything purple, such as purple paint or purple clothing: dressed in purple

► adj

5 of a colour between red and blue

6 (of writing) excessively elaborate: purple prose > purplish adj

purport vb

1 to claim to be or do something, esp. falsely: painkillers may actually cause the headaches they purport to cure

◇ SYNONYMS: claim, allege, assert, profess

2 (of speech or writing) to signify or imply

► n

3 meaning or significance purpose n

1 the reason for which anything is done, created, or exists

◇ SYNONYMS: reason, point, idea, aim, object, intention

2 a fixed design or idea that is the object of an action

◇ SYNONYMS: aim, end, plan, hope, goal, wish, desire, object

3 determination: his easy manner only lightly conceals a clear sense of purpose

◇ SYNONYMS: determination, resolve, will, resolution, ambition, persistence, tenacity, firmness

4 practical advantage or use: we debated senseless points of dogma for hours to no fruitful purpose

5 on purpose intentionally

◇ SYNONYMS on purpose: deliberately, purposely, intentionally, knowingly, designedly

► vb -posing, -posed

6 to intend or determine to do (something) purposely adv on purpose

◇ SYNONYMS: deliberately, expressly, consciously, intentionally, knowingly, with intent, on purpose purr vb

1 (esp. of cats) to make a low vibrant sound, usually considered as expressing pleasure

2 to express (pleasure) by this sound or by a sound suggestive of purring

► n

3 a purring sound purse n

1 a small pouch for carrying money

◇ SYNONYMS: pouch, wallet, money-bag, e-wallet or eWallet

2 (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) a woman's handbag

◇ SYNONYMS: handbag, bag, shoulder bag, pocket book, clutch bag

3 wealth or resources: the public purse appeared bottomless

◇ SYNONYMS: funds, means, money, resources, treasury, wealth, exchequer

4 a sum of money that is offered as a prize

► vb pursing, pursed

5 to pull (the lips) into a small rounded shape ◇ SYNONYMS: pucker, contract, tighten, pout, press together purser n an officer aboard a ship who keeps the accounts pursue vb -suing, -sued

1 to follow (a person, vehicle, or animal) in order to capture or overtake ◇ SYNONYMS: follow, track, hunt, chase, dog, shadow, tail (informal), hound

2 to try hard to achieve (some desire or aim)

◇ SYNONYMS: try for, seek, desire, search for, aim for, work towards, strive for

3 to follow the guidelines of (a plan or policy)

◇ SYNONYMS: engage in, perform, conduct, carry on, practise

4 to apply oneself to (studies or interests)

5 to follow persistently or seek to become acquainted with 6 to continue to discuss or argue (a point or subject)

◇ SYNONYMS: continue, maintain, carry on, keep on, persist in, proceed in, persevere in > pursuer n

pursuit n

1 the act of pursuing

◇ SYNONYMS: quest, seeking, search, aim, aspiration, striving towards

2 an occupation or pastime

◇ SYNONYMS: occupation, activity, interest, line, pleasure, hobby, pastime purulent (pure-yew-lent) adj of, relating to, or containing pus > purulence n

purvey vb

1 to sell or provide (foodstuffs)

2 to provide or make available: the foreign ministry used him to purvey sensitive items of diplomatic news

> purveyor n

purview n

1 scope of operation: each designation falls under the purview of a different ministry

2 breadth or range of outlook: he hopes that the purview of science will be widened

pus n the yellowish fluid that comes from inflamed or infected tissue push vb

1 (sometimes foll. by off or away etc) to apply steady force to in order to move

◇ SYNONYMS: shove, force, press, thrust, drive, knock, sweep, plunge

2 to thrust (one's way) through something, such as a crowd

◇ SYNONYMS: make or force your way, move, shoulder, inch, squeeze, thrust, elbow, shove

3 (sometimes foll. by for) to be an advocate or promoter (of): there are many groups you can join to push for change

4 to spur or drive (oneself or another person) in order to achieve more effort or better results: you must be careful not to push your children too hard

◇ SYNONYMS: urge, encourage, persuade, spur, press, incite, impel

5 (informal) to sell (narcotic drugs) illegally

► n

6 the act of pushing; thrust

◇ SYNONYMS: shove, thrust, butt, elbow, nudge

7 (informal) drive or determination: everything depends on him having the push to obtain the money

◇ SYNONYMS: drive, go (informal), energy, initiative, enterprise, ambition, vitality, vigour

8 (informal) a special effort to achieve something: when this push spent itself it was obvious the bid had failed

9 the push (Brit & NZ informal) dismissal from employment

◇ SYNONYMS the push: dismissal, the sack (informal), discharge, the boot (slang), your cards (informal) pushchair n (Brit) a small folding chair on wheels in which a small child can be wheeled around: escalators are difficult with pushchairs

pusher n (informal) a person who sells illegal drugs pushy adj pushier, pushiest (informal) offensively assertive or ambitious pusillanimous adj (formal) timid and cowardly: pusillanimous behaviour > pusillanimity n

puss n

1 (informal) a cat

2 (slang) a girl or woman pussy¹ n, pl pussies

1 Also called: pussycat (informal) a cat

2 (vulgar, slang) the female genitals pussy² adj -sier, -siest containing or full of pus pussyfoot vb (informal)

1 to move about stealthily

2 to avoid committing oneself: don't let's pussyfoot about naming the hit man pustule n a small inflamed raised area of skin containing pus > pustular adj

put vb putting, put

1 to cause to be (in a position or place): he put the book on the table

◇ SYNONYMS: place, leave, set, position, rest, park (informal), plant, lay

2 to cause to be (in a state or condition): what can be done to put things right?

3 to lay (blame, emphasis, etc.) on a person or thing: don't try to put the blame on someone else!

4 to set or commit (to an action, task, or duty), esp. by force: she put him to work weeding the garden

5 to estimate or judge: I wouldn't put him in the same class as Verdi as a composer

6 (foll. by to) to utilize: he put his culinary skills to good use when he opened a restaurant

7 to express: he didn't put it quite as crudely as that

◇ SYNONYMS: express, state, word, phrase, utter

8 to make (an end or limit): opponents claim the scheme will put an end to much of the sailing and boating in the area

9 to present for consideration; propose: he put the question to the committee

10 to invest (money) in or expend (time or energy) on: they put a lot of money into the sport

11 to throw or cast: put the shot

► n

12 a throw, esp. in putting the shot

► See also put across etc put across vb to communicate successfully: he's not very good at putting his ideas across Also: put over

◇ SYNONYMS put something across or over: communicate, explain, convey, make clear, get across, make yourself understood putative (pew-tat-iv) adj (formal)

1 commonly regarded as being: the desire of the putative father to establish his possible paternity

2 considered to exist or have existed; inferred: a putative earlier form

put off vb

1 to postpone: ministers have put off making a decision until next month

◇ SYNONYMS put something off: postpone, delay, defer, adjourn, hold over, put on the back burner (informal), take a rain check on (US & Canada informal)

2 to evade (a person) by delay: they tried to put him off, but he came anyway

3 to cause dislike in: he was put off by her appearance

4 to cause to lose interest in: the accident put him off sailing

◇ SYNONYMS put someone off: discourage, intimidate, deter, daunt, dissuade, demoralize, scare off, dishearten

5 to distract: a swerving cyclist may have put off the driver

◇ SYNONYMS put someone off: disconcert, confuse, unsettle, throw (informal), dismay, perturb, faze, discomfit putrefy vb -fies, -fying, -fied (formal) (of organic matter) to rot and produce an offensive smell > putrefaction n

putrescent adj (formal) becoming putrid; rotting: putrescent toadstools > putrescence n

putrid adj

1 (of organic matter) rotting: putrid meat

2 sickening or foul: a putrid stench

3 (informal) deficient in quality or value: a penchant for putrid puns

4 morally corrupt > putridity n

putsch n a violent and sudden political revolt: an attempted putsch against the general

putt (golf) n

1 a stroke on the green with a putter to roll the ball into or near the hole

► vb

2 to strike (the ball) in this way putter n (golf) a club, usually with a short shaft, for putting putty n, pl -ties

1 a stiff paste used to fix glass into frames and fill cracks in woodwork

► vb -ties, -tying, -tied

2 to fix or fill with putty put up vb

1 to build or erect: I want to put up a fence round the garden

◇ SYNONYMS put something up: build, raise, set up, construct, erect, fabricate

2 to display (a poster, sign, etc.)

3 to accommodate or be accommodated at: can you put me up for tonight?

◇ SYNONYMS put someone up: accommodate, house, board, lodge, quarter, take someone in, billet

4 to increase (prices)

5 to submit (a plan, case, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS put something up: offer, present, mount, put forward

6 to offer: the factory is being put up for sale

7 to give: they put up a good fight

8 to provide (money) for: they put up 35% of the film's budget

9 to nominate or be nominated as a candidate: the party have yet to decide whether to put up a candidate

◇ SYNONYMS put someone up: nominate, put forward, offer, present, propose, recommend, submit 10 put up to to incite to: I wonder who put them up to it?

11 put up with (informal) to endure or tolerate

► adj put-up

12 (informal) dishonestly or craftily prearranged: a put-up job puzzle vb -zling, -zled

1 to baffle or bewilder

◇ SYNONYMS: perplex, confuse, baffle, stump, bewilder, confound, mystify, faze

2 puzzle out to solve (a problem) by mental effort

3 puzzle over to think deeply about in an attempt to understand: he puzzled over the squiggles and curves on the paper

► n

4 a problem that cannot be easily solved

◇ SYNONYMS: mystery, problem, paradox, enigma, conundrum

5 a toy, game, or question presenting a problem that requires skill or ingenuity for its solution

◇ SYNONYMS: problem, riddle, question, conundrum, poser > puzzlement n

> puzzled adj

> puzzler n

> puzzling adj

PVC polyvinyl chloride

pygmy n, pl -mies

1 something that is a very small example of its type

2 an abnormally undersized person

3 a person of little importance or significance

► adj

4 very small: the pygmy anteater

Pygmy n, pl -mies a member of one of the very short peoples of Equatorial Africa pyjamas or (US) pajamas pl n a loose-fitting jacket or top and trousers worn to sleep in pylon n

1 (chiefly Brit) a large vertical steel tower-like structure supporting high-tension electrical cables

2 (US & Canad) a plastic cone used to demarcate areas, esp. on public roads pyramid n

1 a huge stone building with a square base and four sloping triangular sides meeting in a point, such as the royal tombs built by the ancient Egyptians

2 (maths) a solid figure with a polygonal base and triangular sides that meet in a common vertex > pyramidal adj

pyre n a pile of wood for cremating a corpse

Pyrex n (trademark) a variety of heat-resistant glassware used in cookery and chemical apparatus pyromania n (psychiatry) the uncontrollable impulse and practice of setting things on fire > pyromaniac n, adj

pyrotechnics n

1 the art of making fireworks

2 a firework display

3 a brilliant display of skill: all those courtroom pyrotechnics

> pyrotechnic adj

Pyrrhic victory (pir-ik) n a victory in which the victor's losses are as great as those of the defeated python n a large nonpoisonous snake of Australia, Africa, and S Asia which kills its prey by crushing it with its body

Qq

QC

- 1 Queen's Counsel
- 2 Quebec

QED which was to be shown or proved

QLD or Qld Queensland

QM Quartermaster

qr. pl qrs

- 1 quarter
- 2 quire

QR code n a type of bar code that can be read both horizontally and vertically qt pl qt or qts quart qua (kwah) prep in the capacity of; by virtue of being quack¹ vb

- 1 (of a duck) to utter a harsh guttural sound
- 2 to make a noise like a duck
- n
- 3 the sound made by a duck quack² n

1 an unqualified person who claims medical knowledge

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) a doctor > quackery n

quad¹ n short for quadrangle quad² n (informal) a quadruplet quad bike or quad n a vehicle like a small motorcycle, with four large wheels, designed for agricultural and sporting uses quadrangle n

1 a rectangular courtyard with buildings on all four sides

2 (geom) a figure consisting of four points connected by four lines > quadrangular adj

quadrant n

1 (geom)

A a quarter of the circumference of a circle

B the area enclosed by two perpendicular radii of a circle

2 a piece of a mechanism in the form of a quarter circle

3 an instrument formerly used in astronomy and navigation for measuring the altitudes of stars quadrasonic adj using four independent channels to reproduce or record sound > quadrasonics n

quadratic (maths) n

1 Also called: quadratic equation an equation in which the variable is raised to the power of two, but nowhere raised to a higher power: solve the quadratic

equation $2x^2-3x-6=3$

► adj

2 of or relating to the second power quadrennial adj

1 occurring every four years

2 lasting four years

quadri- or (before a vowel) quadr- combining form four: quadrilateral

quadrilateral adj

1 having four sides

► n

2 a polygon with four sides quadrille n

1 a square dance for four couples

2 music for this dance

quadriplegia (kwod-rip-pleej-ya) n paralysis of all four limbs > quadriplegic adj, n

quadruped (kwod-roo-ped) n an animal, esp. a mammal, that has four legs quadruple vb -pling, -pled

1 to multiply by four

► adj

2 four times as much or as many

3 consisting of four parts

4 (music) having four beats in each bar

► n

5 a quantity or number four times as great as another quadruplet n one of four children born at one birth quaff (kwoff) vb (old-fashioned) to drink heartily or in one draught quagmire (kwog-mire) n a soft wet area of land that gives way under the feet; bog

quail¹ n, pl quails or quail a small game bird of the partridge family quail² vb to shrink back with fear; cower quaint adj attractively unusual, esp. in an old-fashioned style quake vb quaking, quaked

1 to shake or tremble with or as if with fear

◇ SYNONYMS: shake, tremble, quiver, move, rock, shiver, shudder, vibrate

2 to shudder because of instability

◇ SYNONYMS: shake, tremble, quiver, move, rock, shiver, shudder, vibrate

► n

3 (informal) an earthquake

Quaker n a member of a Christian sect, the Religious Society of Friends

> Quakerism n

qualification n

1 an official record of achievement awarded on the successful completion of a course of training or passing of an examination

2 an ability, quality, or attribute, esp. one that fits a person to perform a particular job or task

◇ SYNONYMS: eligibility, quality, ability, skill, fitness, attribute, capability, aptitude

3 a condition that modifies or limits; restriction

◇ SYNONYMS: condition, proviso, requirement, rider, reservation, limitation, modification, caveat

4 the act of qualifying or being qualified qualified adj

1 having successfully completed a training course or passed the exams necessary in order to be entitled to work in a particular profession: a qualified lawyer

◇ SYNONYMS: capable, trained, experienced, seasoned, able, fit, expert, chartered

2 having the abilities, qualities, or attributes necessary to perform a particular job or task

◇ SYNONYMS: capable, trained, experienced, seasoned, able, fit, expert, chartered

3 having completed a training or degree course and gained the relevant certificates

◇ SYNONYMS: capable, trained, experienced, seasoned, able, fit, expert, chartered

4 limited or restricted; not wholehearted: the mission was only a qualified success

◇ SYNONYMS: restricted, limited, provisional, conditional, reserved, bounded, adjusted, moderated qualify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to have the abilities or attributes required in order to do or have something, such as a job: he qualified as a teacher; she did not qualify for a State pension at that time

2 to moderate or restrict (a statement one has made)

◇ SYNONYMS: restrict, limit, reduce, ease, moderate, regulate, diminish, temper

3 to describe or be described as having a particular quality: it was neither witty nor subtle enough to qualify as a spoof

4 to be successful in one stage of a competition and as a result progress to the next stage: Lewis failed to qualify for the semi-final

5 (grammar) to modify the sense of (a word) > qualifier n

qualitative adj involving or relating to distinctions based on quality quality n, pl -ties

1 degree or standard of excellence

◇ SYNONYMS: excellence, status, merit, position, value, worth, distinction, virtue

2 a distinguishing characteristic or attribute

◇ SYNONYMS: characteristic, feature, attribute, point, side, mark, property, aspect

3 the basic character or nature of something

◇ SYNONYMS: nature, character, make, sort, kind

4 a feature of personality

◇ SYNONYMS: characteristic, feature, attribute, point, side, mark, property, aspect

5 (formerly) high social status

► adj

6 excellent or superior: a quality product quality assurance n (commerce) the process of verifying that a product conforms to required standards, often performed by an independent assessor

qualm (kwahm) n

1 a pang of conscience; scruple

2 a sudden sensation of misgiving

3 a sudden feeling of sickness or nausea quandary n, pl -ries a situation in which it is difficult to decide what to do; predicament; dilemma quandong (kwon-dong) n

1 a small Australian tree with edible fruit and nuts used in preserves

2 an Australian tree with pale timber quango n, pl -gos a semipublic government-financed administrative body whose members are appointed by the government quantify vb -fies, -fying, -fied to discover or express the quantity of > quantifiable adj > quantification n

quantitative adj
1 involving considerations of amount or size 2 capable of being measured quantitative easing or quantitive easing n the practice of increasing the supply of money in order to stimulate economic activity quantity n, pl -ties 1 a specified or definite amount or number ◇ SYNONYMS: amount, lot, total, sum, part, number 2 the aspect of anything that can be measured, weighed, or counted ◇ SYNONYMS: size, measure, mass, volume, length, capacity, extent, bulk 3 a large amount 4 (maths) an entity having a magnitude that may be denoted by a numerical expression quantity surveyor n a person who estimates the cost of the materials and labour necessary for a construction job quantum n, pl -ta

1 an amount or quantity, esp. a specific amount 2 (physics) the smallest quantity of some physical property that a system can possess
▶ adj
3 of or designating a major breakthrough or sudden advance: a quantum leap in business computing

quantum theory n a theory concerning the behaviour of physical systems based on the idea that they can only possess certain properties, such as energy and angular momentum, in discrete amounts (quanta)

quarantine n

1 a period of isolation, esp. of people or animals arriving from abroad, to prevent the spread of disease

► vb -ting, -tined

2 to isolate in or as if in quarantine quark n (physics) the hypothetical elementary particle supposed to be a fundamental unit of all baryons and mesons quarrel n

1 an angry disagreement; argument

◇ SYNONYMS: disagreement, fight, row, argument, dispute, controversy, breach, contention, biff (Austral slang)

2 a cause of dispute; grievance

► vb -relling, -relled (US) -reling, -reled (often foll. by with)

3 to engage in a disagreement or dispute; argue ◇ SYNONYMS: disagree, fight, argue, row, clash, dispute, differ, fall out (informal)

4 to find fault; complain quarrelsome adj inclined to quarrel or disagree quarry¹ n, pl -ries

1 a place where stone is dug from the surface of the earth

► vb -ries, -rying, -ried

2 to extract (stone) from a quarry quarry² n, pl -ries

1 an animal that is being hunted; prey

◇ SYNONYMS: prey, victim, game, goal, aim, prize, objective

2 anything pursued

◇ SYNONYMS: prey, victim, game, goal, aim, prize, objective quart n a unit of liquid measure equal to one quarter of a gallon or two pints (1.136 litres) quarter n

1 one of four equal parts of something such as an object or quantity

2 the fraction equal to one divided by four ($\frac{1}{4}$)

3 a fourth part of a year; three months

4 (Brit informal) a unit of weight equal to four ounces (113.4 grams)

5 a region or district of a town or city: the French quarter of New Orleans

◇ SYNONYMS: district, region, neighbourhood, place, part, side, area, zone

6 a region, direction, or point of the compass

7 (US & Canad) a coin worth 25 cents

8 (astron)

A one fourth of the moon's period of revolution around the earth

B either of two phases of the moon when half of the lighted surface is visible

9 (sometimes pl) an unspecified person or group of people: it met stiff opposition in some quarters

10 mercy or pity shown to a defeated opponent: no quarter was asked or given

◇ SYNONYMS: mercy, pity, compassion, charity, sympathy, tolerance, kindness, forgiveness

11 any of the four limbs of a quadruped

► vb

12 to divide into four equal parts

13 (formerly) to dismember (a human body)

14 to billet or be billeted in lodgings

◇ SYNONYMS: accommodate, house, lodge, place, board, post, station, billet

15 (heraldry) to divide (a shield) into four separate bearings

► adj

16 being or consisting of one of four equal parts quarter day n (Brit) any of four days in the year when certain payments become due quarterdeck n (naut) the rear part of the upper deck of a ship, traditionally for official or ceremonial use quarter-final n the round before the semi-final in a competition quarterly adj

1 occurring, done, due, or issued at intervals of three months

► n, pl -lies

2 a periodical issued every three months

► adv

3 once every three months quartermaster n

1 a military officer responsible for accommodation, food, and equipment

2 a naval officer responsible for navigation quartet n

1 a group of four singers or instrumentalists

2 a piece of music for four performers

3 any group of four quarto n, pl -tos a book size resulting from folding a sheet of paper into four leaves or eight pages quartz n a hard glossy mineral consisting of crystalline silicon dioxide quasar (kway-zar) n any of a class of extremely distant starlike objects that are powerful sources of radio waves and other forms of energy

quash vb

1 to officially reject (something, such as a judgment or decision) as invalid

◇ SYNONYMS: annul, overturn, reverse, cancel, overthrow, revoke, overrule, rescind

2 to defeat or suppress forcefully and completely ◇ SYNONYMS: suppress, crush, put down, beat, overthrow, squash, subdue, repress quasi- (kway-zie) combining form

1 almost but not really; seemingly: a quasi-religious cult

2 resembling but not actually being; so-called: a quasi-scholar quatrain n a stanza or poem of four lines quaver vb

1 (esp. of the voice) to quiver or tremble

2 to say or sing (something) with a trembling voice

► n

3 (music) a note having the time value of an eighth of a semibreve

4 a tremulous sound or note > quavering adj

quay (kee) n a wharf built parallel to the shoreline queasy adj -sier, -siest

1 having the feeling that one is about to vomit; nauseous

2 feeling or causing uneasiness > queasily adv

> queasiness n

queen n

1 a female sovereign who is the official ruler or head of state

◇ SYNONYMS: sovereign, ruler, monarch, leader, Crown, princess, majesty, head of state

2 the wife of a king

◇ SYNONYMS: sovereign, ruler, monarch, leader, Crown, princess, majesty, head of state

3 a woman, thing, or place considered the best or most important of her or its kind: the rose is considered the queen of garden flowers

◇ SYNONYMS: leading light, star, favourite, celebrity, darling, mistress, big name

4 (offensive, slang) an effeminate homosexual man

5 the only fertile female in a colony of bees, wasps, or ants

6 a playing card with a picture of a queen on it

7 a chess piece, able to move in a straight line in any direction

► vb

8 (chess) to promote (a pawn) to a queen when it reaches the eighth rank

9 queen it (informal) to behave in an overbearing manner: she is more beautiful than ever and still queening it over everybody

> queenly adj

Queen's Counsel n

1 (in Britain, Australia, and New Zealand) a barrister or advocate appointed Counsel to the Crown

2 (in Canada and New Zealand) an honorary title bestowed on a lawyer with long experience queer adj

1 not normal or usual; odd or strange

◇ SYNONYMS: strange, odd, funny, unusual, extraordinary, curious, weird, peculiar

2 dubious; shady

◇ SYNONYMS: strange, odd, funny, unusual, extraordinary, curious, weird, peculiar

3 (Brit) faint, giddy, or queasy

◇ SYNONYMS: faint, dizzy, giddy, queasy, light-headed

4 (informal, sometimes offensive) not heterosexual

5 (informal) eccentric or slightly mad

► n

6 (informal, sometimes offensive) a person who is not heterosexual

► vb

7 queer someone's pitch (informal) to spoil or thwart someone's chances of something quell vb

- 1 to suppress (rebellion or unrest); subdue
- 2 to overcome or allay quench vb

- 1 to satisfy (one's thirst)
- 2 to put out; extinguish
- 3 to suppress or subdue
- 4 (metallurgy) to cool (hot metal) by plunging it into cold water quern n a stone hand mill for grinding corn querulous (kwer-yew-luss) adj complaining; whining or peevish > querulously adv

query n, pl -ries

- 1 a question, esp. one expressing doubt
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: question, inquiry, enquiry, problem
- 2 a question mark
 - vb -ries, -rying, -ried
- 3 to express uncertainty, doubt, or an objection concerning (something)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: question, challenge, doubt, suspect, dispute, object to, distrust, mistrust
- 4 to express as a query; ask
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: ask, inquire or enquire, question quest n

- 1 a looking for or seeking; search
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: search, hunt, mission, enterprise, crusade
- 2 the object of a search; a goal or target
 - vb

- 3 quest for to go in search of 4 (of dogs) to search for game question n

- 1 a form of words addressed to a person in order to obtain an answer; interrogative sentence ◇ SYNONYMS: inquiry, enquiry, query, investigation, examination, interrogation
- 2 a point at issue: they were silent on the question of social justice ◇ SYNONYMS: issue, point, matter, subject, problem, debate, proposal, theme
- 3 a difficulty or uncertainty ◇ SYNONYMS: difficulty, problem, doubt, argument, dispute, controversy, query, contention
- 4
A an act of asking B an investigation into some problem
- 5 a motion presented for debate
- 6 beyond (all) question beyond (any) doubt
- 7 call something into question
A to make something the subject of disagreement B to cast doubt upon the validity or truth of something
- 8 in question under discussion: the area in question was not contaminated
- 9 out of the question beyond consideration; impossible ◇ SYNONYMS out of the question: impossible, unthinkable, inconceivable, not on (informal), hopeless, unimaginable, unworkable, unattainable
- vb
- 10 to put a question or questions to (a person); interrogate ◇ SYNONYMS: interrogate, cross-examine, interview, examine, probe, quiz, ask questions
- 11 to make (something) the subject of dispute ◇ SYNONYMS: dispute, challenge, doubt, suspect, oppose, query, mistrust, disbelieve
- 12 to express uncertainty; doubt ◇ SYNONYMS: dispute, challenge, doubt, suspect, oppose, query, mistrust, disbelieve

questionable adj

1 (esp. of a person's morality or honesty) doubtful

◇ SYNONYMS: dubious, suspect, doubtful, controversial, suspicious, dodgy (Brit & Austral & NZ informal), debatable, moot, shonky (Austral & NZ informal)

2 of disputable value or authority

◇ SYNONYMS: dubious, suspect, doubtful, controversial, suspicious, dodgy (Brit & Austral & NZ informal), debatable, moot, shonky (Austral & NZ informal)

> questionably adv

question mark n

1 the punctuation mark (?), used at the end of questions

2 a doubt or uncertainty: a question mark still hangs over their success questionnaire n a set of questions on a form, used to collect statistical information or opinions from people

◇ SYNONYMS: set of questions, form, survey form, question sheet queue n

1 a line of people or vehicles waiting for something

◇ SYNONYMS: line, row, file, train, series, chain, string, column

► vb queuing or queueing, queued

2 (often foll. by up) to form or remain in a line while waiting quibble vb -bling, -bled

1 to make trivial objections

► n

2 a trivial objection or equivocation, esp. one used to avoid an issue

3 (archaic) a pun quiche (keesh) n a savoury flan with an egg custard filling to which cheese, bacon, or vegetables are added

quick adj

1 characterized by rapidity of movement or action; fast

◇ SYNONYMS: fast, swift, speedy, express, cracking (Brit informal), smart, rapid, fleet

2 lasting or taking a short time

◇ SYNONYMS: brief, passing, hurried, flying, fleeting, summary, lightning, short-lived

3 immediate or prompt: her quick action minimized the damage

◇ SYNONYMS: immediate, instant, prompt, sudden, abrupt, instantaneous

4 eager or ready to perform (an action): quick to condemn

◇ SYNONYMS: excitable, passionate, irritable, touchy, irascible, testy

5 responsive to stimulation; alert; lively: they were impressed by his quick mind

◇ SYNONYMS: intelligent, bright, alert, sharp, acute, smart, clever, shrewd

6 easily excited or aroused: he is impulsive and has a quick temper

◇ SYNONYMS: excitable, passionate, irritable, touchy, irascible, testy

7 nimble in one's movements or actions; deft: she has quick hands

► n

8 any area of sensitive flesh, esp. that under a nail

9 cut someone to the quick to hurt someone's feelings deeply

10 the quick (archaic) living people

► adv

11 in a rapid manner; swiftly > quickly adv

> quickness n

quicken vb

1 to make or become faster; accelerate

◇ SYNONYMS: speed up, hurry, accelerate, hasten, gee up (informal)

2 to impart to or receive vigour or enthusiasm: science quickens the imagination

◇ SYNONYMS: stimulate, inspire, arouse, excite, revive, incite, energize, invigorate

3

A (of a fetus) to begin to show signs of life

B (of a pregnant woman) to reach the stage of pregnancy at which movements of the fetus can be felt quicklime n a white caustic solid, mainly composed of calcium oxide, used in the manufacture of glass and steel quicksand n a deep mass of loose wet sand that submerges anything on top of it quicksilver n the metal mercury quickstep n

1 a modern ballroom dance in rapid quadruple time

2 music for this dance

quid n, pl quid (Brit slang)

1 a pound (sterling)

2 be quids in to be in a very favourable or advantageous position quid pro quo n, pl quid pro quos one thing, esp. an advantage or object, given in exchange for another quiescent (kwee-ess-ent) adj (formal) quiet, inactive, or dormant > quiescence n quiet adj

1 characterized by an absence of noise

◇ SYNONYMS: soft, low, muted, lowered, whispered, faint, suppressed, stifled

2 calm or tranquil: the sea is quiet today

◇ SYNONYMS: calm, peaceful, tranquil, mild, serene, placid, restful, chilled (informal)

3 untroubled: a quiet life

◇ SYNONYMS: still, calm, peaceful, tranquil

4 not busy: business is quiet this morning

5 private or secret: I had a quiet word with her

6 free from anger, impatience, or other extreme emotion

◇ SYNONYMS: calm, peaceful, tranquil, mild, serene, placid, restful, chilled (informal)

7 not showy: quiet colours; a quiet wedding

8 modest or reserved: quiet humour

◇ SYNONYMS: reserved, retiring, shy, gentle, mild, sedate, meek

► n

9 the state of being silent, peaceful, or untroubled

◇ SYNONYMS: peace, rest, tranquillity, ease, silence, solitude, serenity, stillness

10 on the quiet without other people knowing

► vb

11 to make or become calm or silent > quietly adv

> quietness n

quieten vb (Brit & NZ)

1 (often foll. by down) to make or become calm or silent

2 to allay (fear or doubts) quietism n (formal) passivity and calmness of mind towards external events > quietist n, adj

quietude n (formal) quietness, peace, or tranquillity quiff n (Brit) a tuft of hair brushed up above the forehead quill n

1 Also called: quill pen a feather made into a pen

2

A any of the large stiff feathers of the wing or tail of a bird

B the hollow stem of a feather

3 any of the stiff hollow spines of a porcupine or hedgehog quilt n

1 a cover for a bed, consisting of a soft filling sewn between two layers of material, usually with crisscross seams

◇ SYNONYMS: bedspread, duvet, coverlet, eiderdown, counterpane, doona (Austral), continental quilt

2 a continental quilt; duvet

◇ SYNONYMS: bedspread, duvet, coverlet, eiderdown, counterpane, doona (Austral), continental quilt

► vb

3 to stitch together two layers of (fabric) with padding between them > quilted adj

quin n a quintuplet quince n the acid-tasting pear-shaped fruit of an Asian tree, used in preserves quinine n a bitter drug extracted from cinchona bark, used as a tonic and formerly in malaria therapy quinquennial adj occurring once every five years or over a period of five years quinsy n inflammation of the tonsils and throat, with abscesses quintessence n

1 the perfect representation of a quality or state

2 an extract of a substance containing its central nature in its most concentrated form > quintessential adj quintet n

1 a group of five singers or instrumentalists

- 2 a piece of music for five performers
- 3 any group of five quintuplet n one of five children born at one birth quip n

- 1 a witty saying
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: joke, sally, jest, riposte, wisecrack (informal), retort, pleasantry, gibe
 - vb quipping, quipped
- 2 to make a quip

quire n a set of 24 or 25 sheets of paper quirk n

- 1 a peculiarity of character; mannerism or foible
- 2 an unexpected twist or turn: a strange quirk of fate
 - > quirky adj

quisling n a traitor who aids an occupying enemy force; collaborator quit vb quitting, quit

- 1 to stop (doing something)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: stop, give up, cease, end, drop, abandon, halt, discontinue
- 2 to resign (from): the Prime Minister's decision to quit; he quit his job as an editor
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: resign (from), leave, retire (from), pull out (of), step down (from) (informal), abdicate
- 3 to leave (a place)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: leave, depart from, go out of, go away from, pull out from
 - > quitter n

quite adv

1 (not used with a negative) to a greater than average extent; somewhat: he found her quite attractive

◇ SYNONYMS: somewhat, rather, fairly, reasonably, relatively, moderately

2 absolutely: you're quite right

◇ SYNONYMS: absolutely, perfectly, completely, totally, fully, entirely, wholly

3 in actuality; truly

4 quite a or an of an exceptional kind: she is quite a girl

5 quite something a remarkable thing or person

► interj

6 an expression used to indicate agreement quits adj (informal)

1 on an equal footing

2 call it quits to end a dispute or contest, agreeing that honours are even quiver¹ vb

1 to shake with a tremulous movement; tremble

► n

2 a shaking or trembling > quivering adj

quiver² n a case for holding or carrying arrows quixotic (kwik-sot-ik) adj unrealistically optimistic or chivalrous > quixotically adv

quiz n, pl quizzes

1 an entertainment in which the knowledge of the players is tested by a series of questions

2 any set of quick questions designed to test knowledge

3 an investigation by close questioning

◇ SYNONYMS: examination, questioning, interrogation, interview, investigation, grilling (informal), cross-examination, cross-questioning

► vb quizzing, quizzed

4 to investigate by close questioning; interrogate

◇ SYNONYMS: question, ask, interrogate, examine, investigate quizzical adj questioning and mocking or supercilious: the question elicits a quizzical expression > quizzically adv

quoit n a large ring used in the game of quoits quokka n a small Australian wallaby quorum n the minimum number of members required to be present in a meeting or assembly before any business can be transacted quota n

1 the share that is due from, due to, or allocated to a person or group

◇ SYNONYMS: share, allowance, ration, part, limit, slice, quantity, portion

2 the prescribed number or quantity allowed, required, or admitted

◇ SYNONYMS: share, allowance, ration, part, limit, slice, quantity, portion quotation n

1 a written or spoken passage repeated exactly in a later work, speech, or conversation, usually with an acknowledgment of its source

◇ SYNONYMS: passage, quote (informal), excerpt, reference, extract, citation

2 the act of quoting

◇ SYNONYMS: passage, quote (informal), excerpt, reference, extract, citation

3 an estimate of costs submitted by a contractor to a prospective client

◇ SYNONYMS: estimate, price, tender, rate, cost, charge, figure, quote (informal) quotation marks pl n the punctuation marks used to begin and end a quotation, either " and " or ' and '

quote vb quoting, quoted

1 to repeat (words) exactly from (an earlier work, speech, or conversation), usually with an acknowledgment of their source

◇ SYNONYMS: repeat, recite, recall

2 to state a price for goods or a job of work

3 to put quotation marks round (words)

► n

4 (informal) a quotation

5 quotes (informal) quotation marks

► interj

6 an expression used to indicate that the words that follow are a quotation > quotable adj quoth vb (archaic) (foll. by I or he or she) said quotidian adj

1 daily

2 (literary) commonplace

3 (esp. of fever) recurring daily quotient n the result of the division of one number or quantity by another q.v. (denoting a cross-reference) which (word, item, etc.) see

Rr

r

- 1 radius
- 2 ratio
- 3 right
- 4 (cricket) run(s)

R

- 1 (chem) radical
- 2 Regina
- 3 Registered Trademark
- 4 (physics, electronics) resistance
- 5 Rex
- 6 River
- 7 (chess) rook

RA

- 1 rear admiral
- 2 (in Britain) Royal Academy
- 3 (in Britain) Royal Artillery

RAAF Royal Australian Air Force

rabbi (rab-bye) n, pl -bis

- 1 the spiritual leader of a Jewish congregation
- 2 an expert in or teacher of Jewish Law
- > rabbinical adj

rabbit n, pl -bits or -bit

- 1 a common burrowing mammal with long ears and a short fluffy tail
- vb -biting, -bited

2 (informal) to talk too much: he keeps rabbiting on about interrogation rabble n

1 a disorderly crowd of noisy people

2 the rabble (derogatory) ordinary people collectively rabid adj

1 fanatical: a rabid separatist

2 having rabies

> rabidity n

rabies (ray-beez) n (pathol) a fatal infectious viral disease of the nervous system transmitted by dogs and certain other animals

RAC (in Britain) Royal Automobile Club raccoon or racoön n, pl -coons or -coon a small American mammal with a long striped tail race¹ n

1 a contest of speed

◇ SYNONYMS: competition, contest, chase, dash, pursuit

2 any competition or rivalry: the arms race

◇ SYNONYMS: contest, competition, rivalry

3 a rapid current of water

4 a channel of a stream: a mill race

5 (Austral & NZ) a narrow passage through which sheep pass individually, as to a sheep dip

► vb racing, raced

6 to take part in a contest of speed with (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: compete, run, contend, take part in a race

7 to enter (an animal or vehicle) in a race: to race greyhounds

8 to travel as fast as possible

◇ SYNONYMS: run, fly, career, speed, tear, dash, hurry, dart

9 (of an engine) to run faster than normal

10 (of the heart) to beat faster than normal > racer n

> racing adj, n

race² n

1 a group of people of common ancestry with distinguishing physical features, such as skin colour or build

◇ SYNONYMS: people, nation, blood, stock, type, folk, tribe

2 the human race human beings collectively

3 a group of animals or plants having common characteristics that distinguish them from other members of the same species racecourse n a long broad track on which horses are raced racehorse n a horse specially bred for racing raceme (rass-eem) n (botany) a cluster of flowers along a central stem, as in the foxglove racetrack n

1 a circuit used for races between cars, bicycles, or runners

2 (US & Canad) a racecourse racial adj

1 relating to the division of the human species into races

◇ SYNONYMS: ethnic, ethnological, national, folk, genetic, tribal, genealogical

2 typically associated with any such group > racially adv

racism or racialism n

1 hostile or oppressive behaviour towards people because they belong to a different race

2 the belief that some races are innately superior to others because of hereditary characteristics > racist or racialist n, adj

rack¹ n

1 a framework for holding particular articles, such as coats or luggage

◇ SYNONYMS: frame, stand, structure, framework

2 a straight bar with teeth on its edge, to work with a cogwheel

3 the rack (history) an instrument of torture that stretched the body of the victim

► vb

4 to cause great suffering to: Italy was racked by internal disputes

◇ SYNONYMS: torture, torment, afflict, oppress, harrow, crucify, agonize, pain

5 rack one's brains to try very hard to think of something rack² n go to rack and ruin to be destroyed through neglect racket¹ n

1 a noisy disturbance

◇ SYNONYMS: noise, row, fuss, disturbance, outcry, clamour, din, pandemonium

2 an illegal activity done to make money

◇ SYNONYMS: fraud, scheme

3 (slang) a business or occupation: I've been in the racket since I was sixteen

► vb -eting, -eted

4 to make a commotion > rackety adj

racket² or racquet² n a bat consisting of an oval frame surrounding a mesh of strings, with a handle, used in tennis, badminton, and squash

► See also rackets racketeer n a person who makes money from illegal activities > racketeering n

rackets n a game similar to squash, played by two or four people raconteur (rak-on-tur) n a person skilled in telling stories racquet n same as racket racy adj racier, raciest

- 1 slightly shocking: a racy comedy
- 2 spirited or lively: a racy literary style
- > racily adv
- > raciness n

radar n

- 1 a method of detecting the position and velocity of a distant object by bouncing a narrow beam of extremely high-frequency radio pulses off it
- 2 the equipment used in this radial adj

- 1 spreading out from a common central point
- 2 of a radius or ray
- 3 short for radial-ply
- n
- 4 a radial-ply tyre
- > radially adv

radial-ply adj (of a tyre) having the fabric cords in the outer casing running radially to enable the sidewalls to be flexible radiant adj

- 1 characterized by health and happiness: radiant good looks
 - 2 shining
 - 3 emitted as radiation: radiant heat
 - 4 sending out heat by radiation: radiant heaters
- > radiance n

radiate vb -ating, -ated

- 1 to spread out from a central point
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: spread out, diverge, branch out
 - 2 to show (an emotion or quality) to a great degree: she radiated competence and composure
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: show, display, demonstrate, exhibit, emanate, give off or out
 - 3 to emit or be emitted as radiation
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: shine, be diffused
- adj
- 4 having rays or a radial structure radiation n

- 1 (physics)
 - A the emission of energy as particles, electromagnetic waves or sound
 - B the particles or waves emitted
- 2 the process of radiating radiator n

- 1 (Brit) a device for heating a room or building, consisting of a series of pipes containing hot water
- 2 a device for cooling an internal-combustion engine, consisting of thin-walled tubes containing water
- 3 (Austral & NZ) an electric fire radical adj

- 1 favouring fundamental change in political or social conditions: a radical student movement
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: revolutionary, extremist, fanatical

2 of the essential nature of a person or thing; fundamental: a radical fault

◇ SYNONYMS: fundamental, natural, basic, profound, innate, deep-seated

3 searching or thorough: a radical interpretation

◇ SYNONYMS: fundamental, natural, basic, profound, innate, deep-seated

4 (maths) of or containing roots of numbers or quantities

► n

5 a person who favours fundamental change in existing institutions or in political, social, or economic conditions

◇ SYNONYMS: extremist, revolutionary, militant, fanatic

6 (maths) a root of a number or quantity, such as $\sqrt[3]{5}$, \sqrt{x}

7 (chem) an atom or group of atoms that acts as a unit during chemical reactions > radicalism n

> radically adv

radicle n (botany)

A the part of the embryo of seed-bearing plants that develops into the main root

B a very small root or rootlike part radii n a plural of radius radio n, pl -dios

1 the use of electromagnetic waves for broadcasting or two-way communication without the use of linking wires

2 an electronic device for converting radio signals into sounds

3 a communications device for sending and receiving messages using radio waves

4 sound broadcasting

► vb

5 to transmit (a message) by radio

► adj

6 of, relating to, or using radio broadcasting or radio signals: a radio interview

7 using or producing electromagnetic waves in the range used for radio signals: radio astronomy

radio- combining form

1 (denoting) radio: radio-controlled

2 (denoting) radioactivity or radiation: radiocarbon radioactive adj showing or using radioactivity radioactivity n the spontaneous emission of radiation from atomic nuclei. The radiation can consist of alpha or beta particles, or gamma rays radiography (ray-dee-og-ra-fee) n the production of radiographs for use in medicine or industry > radiographer n radiology (ray-dee-ol-a-jee) n the use of X-rays and radioactive substances in the diagnosis and treatment of disease > radiologist n

radiotherapy n the treatment of disease, esp. cancer, by radiation radish n a small hot-flavoured red root vegetable eaten raw in salads radium n (chem) a highly radioactive luminescent metallic element, found in pitchblende. SYMBOL: Ra radius (ray-dee-uss) n, pl -dii (-dee-eye) or -diuses

1 a straight line joining the centre of a circle to any point on the circumference

2 the length of this line

3 (anatomy) the outer, slightly shorter of the two bones of the forearm

4 a circular area of a specified size round a central point: within a seven-mile radius of the club radon (ray-don) n (chem) a colourless radioactive element of the noble gas group. SYMBOL: Rn

RAF (in Britain) Royal Air Force

raffia n a fibre obtained from the leaves of a palm tree, used for weaving raffish adj unconventional or slightly disreputable raffle n

1 a lottery, often to raise money for charity, in which the prizes are goods rather than money

► vb -fling, -fled

2 to offer as a prize in a raffle raft n a floating platform of logs or planks tied together rafter n any of the parallel sloping beams that form the framework of a roof rag¹ n

1 a small piece of cloth

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) a newspaper

3 rags old tattered clothing

4 from rags to riches from being extremely poor to being extremely wealthy rag² (Brit) vb ragging, ragged

1 to tease

2 to play rough practical jokes on

► n

3 a boisterous practical joke

► adj

4 (in British universities and colleges) of various events organized to raise money for charity: a rag week

ragamuffin n a ragged dirty child rage n

1 intense anger or passion

◇ SYNONYMS: anger, passion, madness, wrath, ire

2 a fashion or craze: the dance was the rage of Europe

◇ SYNONYMS: craze, fashion, enthusiasm, vogue, fad (informal), latest thing

3 aggressive behaviour associated with a specified activity or environment: road rage; school rage

4 all the rage (informal) very popular

5 (Austral & NZ informal) a dance or party

► vb raging, raged

6 to feel or show intense anger

◇ SYNONYMS: be furious, blow up (informal), fume, lose it (informal), seethe, lose the plot (informal), go ballistic (slang), lose your temper

7 to proceed violently and without restraint: the argument was still raging ragged (rag-gid) adj

1 dressed in shabby or torn clothes

◇ SYNONYMS: tatty (Brit), worn, torn, rundown, shabby, seedy, scruffy, in tatters

2 (of clothes) tattered and torn

◇ SYNONYMS: tatty (Brit), worn, torn, rundown, shabby, seedy, scruffy, in tatters

3 having a rough or uneven surface or edge

◇ SYNONYMS: rough, rugged, unfinished, uneven, jagged, serrated

4 neglected or untidy: the ragged stone-built village raglan adj

1 (of a sleeve) joined to the garment by diagonal seams from the collar to the underarm

2 (of a garment) with this style of sleeve ragout (rag-goo) n a richly seasoned stew of meat and vegetables ragtime n a style of jazz piano music with a syncopated melody raid n

1 a sudden surprise attack: a bombing raid

◇ SYNONYMS: attack, invasion, foray, sortie, incursion, sally, inroad

2 a surprise visit by police searching for people or goods: a drugs raid

◇ SYNONYMS: bust (informal), swoop

► vb

3 to make a raid on

◇ SYNONYMS: attack, invade, assault

4 to sneak into (a place) in order to steal

◇ SYNONYMS: steal from, plunder, pillage, sack > raider n

rail¹ n

1 a horizontal bar supported by vertical posts, used as a fence or barrier

2 a horizontal bar on which to hang things: a curtain rail

3 one of a pair of parallel bars that serve as a running surface for the wheels of a train

4 railway: by car or by rail

5 go off the rails to start behaving improperly or eccentrically

► vb

6 to fence (an area) with rails rail² vb rail against or at to complain bitterly or loudly about rail³ n a small wading marsh bird railing n a fence made of rails supported by posts

◇ SYNONYMS: fence, rails, barrier, paling, balustrade raillery n, pl -leries good-natured teasing railway n

- 1 a track composed of a line of parallel metal rails fixed to sleepers, on which trains run
- 2 any track on which the wheels of a vehicle may run: a cable railway
- 3 the rolling stock, buildings, and tracks used in such a transport system
- 4 the organization responsible for operating a railway network raiment n (archaic, or poetic) clothing rain n

1

A water falling from the sky in drops formed by the condensation of water vapour in the atmosphere

◇ SYNONYMS: rainfall, fall, showers, deluge, drizzle, downpour, raindrops, cloudburst

B a fall of rain RELATED ADJECTIVE: pluvial

2 a large quantity of anything falling rapidly: a rain of stones descended on the police

3 (come) rain or shine regardless of circumstances

4 right as rain (informal) perfectly all right

► vb

5 to fall as rain: it's raining back home

◇ SYNONYMS: pour, pelt (down), teem, bucket down (informal), drizzle, come down in buckets (informal)

6 to fall rapidly and in large quantities: steel rungs and sawdust raining down

◇ SYNONYMS: fall, shower, be dropped, sprinkle, be deposited

7 rained off cancelled or postponed because of rain. US and Canad term:

rained out > rainy adj

rainbow n an arched display in the sky of the colours of the spectrum, caused by the refraction and reflection of the sun's rays through rain rainbow nation n the South African nation raincoat n a coat made of a waterproof material rainfall n the amount of rain, hail, or snow in a specified place and time rainforest n dense forest found in tropical areas of heavy rainfall raise vb raising, raised

1 to lift to a higher position or level

◇ SYNONYMS: lift, elevate, uplift, heave

2 to place in an upright position

◇ SYNONYMS: set upright, lift, elevate

3 to increase in amount, quality, or intensity: to raise interest rates

◇ SYNONYMS: increase, intensify, heighten, advance, boost, strengthen, enhance, enlarge

4 to collect or gather together: to raise additional capital; to raise an army

◇ SYNONYMS: collect, gather, obtain

5 to cause to be expressed: to raise a smile

◇ SYNONYMS: cause, start, produce, create, occasion (formal), provoke, originate, engender

6 to stir up

7 to bring up: to raise a family

◇ SYNONYMS: bring up, develop, rear, nurture

8 to grow: to raise a crop

9 to put forward for consideration: they raised controversial issues

◇ SYNONYMS: put forward, suggest, introduce, advance, broach, moot

10 to arouse from sleep or death

11 to build: to raise a barn

◇ SYNONYMS: build, construct, put up, erect

12 to bring to an end: to raise a siege

13 to establish radio communications with: we raised Moscow last night

14 to advance in rank; promote 15 (maths) to multiply (a number) by itself a specified number of times: 8 is 2 raised to the power 3

16 to cause (dough) to rise, as by the addition of yeast

17 (cards) to bet more than (the previous player)

18 raise Cain

A to create a disturbance

B to protest vehemently

► n

19 (US & Canad & NZ) an increase in pay raisin n a dried grape raison d'être (ray-zon det-ra) n, pl raisons d'être (ray-zon det-ra) reason or justification for existence

Raj n the Raj the British government in India before 1947 raja or rajah n (history) an Indian prince or ruler rake¹ n

1 a farm or garden tool consisting of a row of teeth set in a headpiece attached to a long shaft and used for gathering leaves or straw, or for smoothing loose earth

2 any of various implements similar in shape or function

► vb raking, raked

3 to scrape or gather with a rake

◇ SYNONYMS: gather, collect, remove

4 to smooth (a surface) with a rake

5 Also: rake out to clear (ashes) from (a fire)

6 rake together or up to gather (items or people) with difficulty, as from a limited supply

7 to search or examine carefully: raking over the past is not always popular

◇ SYNONYMS: search, comb, scour, scrutinize, fossick (Austral & NZ)

8 to direct (gunfire) along the length of (a target): the machine guns raked up and down their line

9 to scrape or graze: he raked the tip of his shoe across the pavement

► See also rake-off etc rake² n an immoral man

◇ SYNONYMS: libertine, playboy, swinger (slang), lecher, roué, debauchee rake-off n (slang) a share of profits, esp. an illegal one rake up vb to bring back memories of (a forgotten unpleasant event): she doesn't want to rake up the past

rakish (ray-kish) adj dashing or jaunty: a hat which he wore at a rakish angle rally n, pl -lies

1 a large gathering of people for a meeting

◇ SYNONYMS: gathering, convention, meeting, congress, assembly, hui (NZ)

2 a marked recovery of strength, as during illness

◇ SYNONYMS: recovery, improvement, revival, recuperation

3 (Stock Exchange) a sharp increase in price or trading activity after a decline

4 (tennis, squash, etc.) an exchange of several shots before one player wins the point

5 a car-driving competition on public roads

► vb -lies, -lying, -lied

6 to bring or come together after being dispersed

◇ SYNONYMS: gather together, unite, regroup, reorganize, reassemble

7 to bring or come together for a common cause

◇ SYNONYMS: gather together, unite, regroup, reorganize, reassemble

8 to summon up (one's strength or spirits)

9 to recover (sometimes only temporarily) from an illness

◇ SYNONYMS: recover, improve, revive, get better, recuperate

10 (Stock Exchange) to increase sharply after a decline ram n

1 an uncastrated adult male sheep

2 a hydraulically or pneumatically driven piston

3 the falling weight of a pile driver

4 short for battering ram

► vb ramming, rammed

5 to strike against with force

◇ SYNONYMS: hit, force, drive into, crash, impact, smash, dash, butt

6 to force or drive: he rammed his sword into the man's belly

◇ SYNONYMS: cram, force, stuff, jam, thrust

7 to stuff or cram

◇ SYNONYMS: cram, force, stuff, jam, thrust

8 ram something home to make something clear or obvious: to ram home the message

9 ram something down someone's throat to put forward or emphasize an argument or idea with excessive force

RAM (computers) random access memory: a temporary storage space which loses its contents when the computer is switched off

Ramadan n

1 the ninth month of the Muslim year, 29 or 30 days long, during which strict fasting is observed from dawn to sunset

2 the fast itself

ramble vb -bling, -bled

1 to walk for relaxation, sometimes with no particular direction

◇ SYNONYMS: walk, range, wander, stroll, stray, roam, rove, saunter, go walkabout (Austral)

2 to speak or write in a confused style

◇ SYNONYMS: babble, ramble (on) (Brit informal), waffle (informal, chiefly Brit), witter on (informal)

3 to grow or develop in a random fashion

► n

4 a walk, esp. in the countryside

◇ SYNONYMS: walk, tour, stroll, hike, roaming, roving, saunter rambler n

- 1 a person who takes country walks
- 2 a climbing rose ramekin (ram-ik-in) n a small container for baking and serving one portion of food ramp n

- 1 a slope that joins two surfaces at different levels
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: slope, incline, gradient, rise
- 2 a place where the level of a road surface changes because of roadworks
- 3 a movable stairway by which passengers enter and leave an aircraft
- 4 (Brit) a small hump on a road to make traffic slow down rampage vb -paging, -paged

- 1 to rush about violently
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: go berserk, storm, rage, run riot, run amok
- n
 - 2 on the rampage behaving violently or destructively
 - ◇ SYNONYMS on the rampage: berserk, wild, violent, raging, out of control, amok, riotous, berko (Austral slang)

rampant adj

- 1 growing or spreading uncontrollably
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: widespread, prevalent, rife, uncontrolled, unchecked, unrestrained, profuse, spreading like wildfire
- 2 (heraldry) (of a beast) standing on the hind legs, the right foreleg raised above the left: a lion rampant
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: upright, standing, rearing, erect rampart n a mound of earth or a wall built to protect a fort or city ramshackle adj badly made or cared for: a curious ramshackle building ran vb the past tense of run ranch n

1 a large cattle farm in the American West

2 (chiefly US & Canad) a large farm for the rearing of a particular kind of livestock or crop: they owned a sheep ranch in Montana

► vb

3 to run a ranch > rancher n

rancid adj (of fatty foods) stale and having an offensive smell > rancidity n

rancour or (US) rancor n deep bitter hate > rancorous adj

rand n the standard monetary unit of the Republic of South Africa

R & D research and development random adj

1 lacking any definite plan or prearranged order: a random sample

◇ SYNONYMS: casual

2 (informal) unknown or unspecified: some random guy

► n

3 (informal) an unknown or unspecified person

4 at random not following any prearranged order

◇ SYNONYMS at random: haphazardly, randomly, arbitrarily, by chance, willy-nilly, unsystematically > randomly adv

> randomness n

randy adj randier, randiest (informal) sexually aroused

◇ SYNONYMS: lustful, hot, turned-on (slang), aroused, horny (slang), amorous, lascivious > randily adv

> randiness n

rang vb the past tense of ring range n

1 the limits within which a person or thing can function effectively: academic ability range

◇ SYNONYMS: limits, reach

2

A the maximum effective distance of a projectile fired from a weapon

B the distance between a target and a weapon

3 the total distance which a ship, aircraft, or vehicle can travel without taking on fresh fuel

4 the difference in pitch between the highest and lowest note of a voice or musical instrument

5 a whole set of related things: a range of treatments was available

◇ SYNONYMS: series, variety, selection, assortment, lot, collection, gamut

6 the total products of a manufacturer, designer, or stockist: the latest skin-care range

7 the limits within which something can lie: a range of prices

◇ SYNONYMS: limits, reach

8 (US & Canad) an extensive tract of open land on which livestock can graze

9 a chain of mountains

10 an area set aside for shooting practice or rocket testing

11 a large cooking stove with one or more ovens

12 (maths) the set of values that a function or variable can take ► vb ranging, ranged

13 to vary between one point and another

◇ SYNONYMS: vary, run, reach (informal), extend, stretch

14 to cover a specified period or specified things: attitudes ranged from sympathy to indifference

15 to roam (over)

◇ SYNONYMS: roam, wander, rove, ramble, traverse

16 to establish or be situated in a line or series

17 to put into a specific category: they ranged themselves with the opposition rangefinder n an instrument for finding how far away an object is ranger n

1 an official in charge of a park or nature reserve

2 (US) an armed trooper employed to police a State or district: a Texas ranger

Ranger or Ranger Guide n (Brit & Austral) a member of the senior branch of the Guides rangy (rain-jee) adj rangier, rangiest having long slender limbs rank¹ n

1 a position within a social organization: the rank of superintendent

◇ SYNONYMS: status, level, position, grade, order, sort, type, division

2 high social or other standing: accusations were made against people of high rank

3 a person's social class: it was too grand for someone of his lowly rank

◇ SYNONYMS: class, caste

4 the position of an item in any ordering or sequence

5 a line or row of people or things

◇ SYNONYMS: row, line, file, column, group, range, series, tier

6 a place where taxis wait to be hired

7 a line of people, esp. soldiers, positioned one beside the other

◇ SYNONYMS: row, line, file, column, group, range, series, tier

8 any of the eight horizontal rows of squares on a chessboard

9 close ranks to maintain solidarity

10 pull rank to get one's own way by virtue of one's superior position

11 rank and file the ordinary people or members of a group

12 the ranks the ordinary soldiers in an armed force

► vb

13 to give or hold a specific position in an organization or group

◇ SYNONYMS: order, dispose

14 to arrange in rows or lines

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, sort, line up, array, align

15 to arrange in sequence: to rank students according to their grades

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, sort, line up, array, align

16 to be important: the legendary coronation stone ranks high in the hearts of patriots

rank² adj

1 complete or absolute: rank incompetence

2 smelling offensively strong

◇ SYNONYMS: foul, bad, offensive, disgusting, revolting, stinking, noxious, rancid, festy (Austral slang)

3 growing too quickly: rank weeds

◇ SYNONYMS: abundant, lush, luxuriant, dense, profuse rankle vb -cling, -kled to continue to cause resentment or bitterness ransack vb

1 to search through every part of (a place or thing)

2 to plunder or pillage ransom n

1 the money demanded in return for the release of someone who has been kidnapped

◇ SYNONYMS: payment, money, price, payoff

2 hold to ransom

A to keep (a prisoner) in confinement until payment is received

B to attempt to force (a person) to do something

► vb

3 to pay money to obtain the release of (a prisoner)

4 to set free (a prisoner) in return for money > ransomer n

ransomware n illegal software that disables a computer or blocks access to data until a payment is received rant vb

1 to talk in a loud and excited way

◇ SYNONYMS: shout, roar, yell, rave, cry, declaim

► n

2 loud excited speech > ranting adj, n

rap vb rapping, rapped

1 to hit with a sharp quick blow

◇ SYNONYMS: hit, strike, knock, crack (informal), tap

2 to knock loudly and sharply

◇ SYNONYMS: hit, strike, knock, crack (informal), tap

3 rap out to utter in sharp rapid speech: he rapped out his address

4 to perform a rhythmic monologue with musical backing

5 (slang) to talk in a relaxed and friendly way

6 to rebuke or criticize sharply

7 rap over the knuckles to reprimand

► n

8 a sharp quick blow or the sound produced by it

◇ SYNONYMS: blow, knock, crack (informal), tap, clout (informal)

9 a fast rhythmic monologue over a musical backing

10 a sharp rebuke or criticism

◇ SYNONYMS: rebuke, blame, responsibility, punishment

11 (slang) a legal charge: a murder rap

12 take the rap (slang) to suffer the punishment for a crime, whether guilty or not > rapper n

rapacious adj

1 greedy or grasping

2 (of animals or birds) living by catching prey > rapacity n

rape¹ vb raping, raped

1 to commit the offence of rape upon (a person)

◇ SYNONYMS: sexually assault, violate, abuse

► n

2 the offence of forcing a person to submit to sexual intercourse against that person's will

◇ SYNONYMS: sexual assault, violation

3 any violation or abuse: the rape of the country's natural resources > rapist n

rape² n a yellow-flowered plant cultivated for its seeds, rapeseed, which yield a useful oil, rape oil, and as a fodder plant rapid adj

1 (of an action) taking or lasting a short time

◇ SYNONYMS: sudden, prompt, speedy, express, swift

2 acting or moving quickly: a rapid advance

◇ SYNONYMS: quick, fast, hurried, swift, brisk, hasty > rapidly adv

> rapidity n

rapids pl n part of a river where the water is very fast and turbulent rapier (ray-pyer) n a long narrow two-edged sword rapport (rap-pore) n a sympathetic relationship or understanding rapprochement (rap-prosh-mong) n a re-establishment of friendly relations: diplomatic rapprochement with North Korea rapt adj

1 totally engrossed: rapt attention

2 arising from or showing rapture: with a rapt look on his face rapture n

1 extreme happiness or delight

2 raptures ecstatic joy: they will be in raptures over the rugged scenery > rapturous adj

rare¹ adj

1 uncommon or unusual: a rare plant

◇ SYNONYMS: uncommon, unusual, few, strange, scarce, singular, sparse, infrequent

2 not happening or done very often: a rare appearance in London

◇ SYNONYMS: uncommon, unusual, few, strange, scarce, singular, sparse, infrequent

3 of uncommonly high quality: a rare beauty

◇ SYNONYMS: superb, great (informal), fine, excellent, superlative, choice, peerless

4 (of air at high altitudes) having low density; thin rare² adj (of meat) very lightly cooked rarebit n short for Welsh rarebit

rarefied (rare-if-ide) adj

1 highly specialized: the rarefied world of classical ballet

2 (of air) thin

3 exalted in character: the rarefied heights of academic excellence rarely adv

1 hardly ever

◇ SYNONYMS: seldom, hardly, hardly ever, infrequently

2 to an unusual degree; exceptionally raring adj raring to do something keen and willing to do something ◇ SYNONYMS raring to: eager to, impatient to, longing to, ready to, keen to, desperate to, enthusiastic to rarity n, pl -ties

1 something that is valuable because it is unusual

◇ SYNONYMS: curio, find, treasure, gem, collector's item

2 the state of being rare

◇ SYNONYMS: uncommonness, scarcity, infrequency, unusualness, shortage, strangeness, sparseness rascal n

1 a scoundrel or rogue

2 a mischievous child

> rascally adj

rash¹ adj acting or done without proper thought or consideration; hasty: rash actions

◇ SYNONYMS: reckless, hasty, impulsive, imprudent, careless, ill-advised, foolhardy, impetuous > rashly adv

> rashness n

rash² n

1 an outbreak of spots or patches on the skin, caused by illness or allergy

◇ SYNONYMS: outbreak of spots, (skin) eruption

2 an outbreak of occurrences: a rash of censorship trials

◇ SYNONYMS: spate, series, wave, flood, plague, outbreak rasher n a thin slice of bacon rasp n

1 a harsh grating noise

2 a coarse file with rows of raised teeth

► vb

3 to say or speak in a grating voice

4 to make a harsh grating noise

5 to scrape or rub (something) roughly

6 to irritate (one's nerves) raspberry n, pl -ries

1 the red fruit of a prickly shrub of Europe and North America

2 (informal) a spluttering noise made with the tongue and lips to express contempt: she blew a loud raspberry

Rastafarian or Rasta n

1 a believer in a religion of Jamaican origin that regards Ras Tafari, the former emperor of Ethiopia, Haile Selassie, as God

► adj

2 of Rastafarians rat n

1 a long-tailed rodent, similar to but larger than a mouse

2 (informal) someone who is disloyal or treacherous

3 smell a rat to detect something suspicious

► vb ratting, ratted

4 rat on

A to betray (someone): good friends don't rat on each other

B to go back on (an agreement): his ex-wife claims he ratted on their divorce settlement

5 to hunt and kill rats ratafia (rat-a-fee-a) n

1 a liqueur made from fruit

2 an almond-flavoured biscuit ratatouille (rat-a-twee) n a vegetable casserole made of stewed tomatoes, aubergines, etc.

ratchet n

- 1 a device in which a toothed rack or wheel is engaged by a pivoted lever which permits motion in one direction only
- 2 the toothed rack or wheel in such a device
- 3 to operate using a ratchet
- 4 (usually foll. by up or down) to increase or decrease, esp. irreversibly: the director ratchets up the tension once again

rate n

- 1 a quantity or amount considered in relation to or measured against another quantity or amount: he was publishing at the rate of about 10 books a year
◇ SYNONYMS: degree, standard, scale, proportion, ratio
- 2 a price or charge with reference to a standard or scale: an exchange rate ◇ SYNONYMS: charge, price, cost, fee, figure
- 3 the speed of progress or change: crime is increasing at an alarming rate ◇ SYNONYMS: speed, pace, tempo, velocity, frequency
- 4 a charge made per unit for a commodity or service ◇ SYNONYMS: charge, price, cost, fee, figure
- 5 relative quality: a third-rate power
- 6 at any rate in any case ◇ SYNONYMS at any rate: in any case, anyway, anyhow, at all events
- vb rating, rated
- 7 to assign a position on a scale of relative values: he is rated as one of the top caterers in the country
◇ SYNONYMS: evaluate, consider, rank, reckon, value, measure, estimate, count
- 8 to estimate the value of: we rate your services highly ◇ SYNONYMS: evaluate, consider, rank, reckon, value, measure, estimate, count
- 9 to consider or regard: it could hardly be rated a success ◇ SYNONYMS: evaluate, consider, rank, reckon, value, measure, estimate, count
- 10 to be worthy of: it barely rates a mention ◇ SYNONYMS: deserve, merit, be entitled to, be worthy of
- 11 (informal) to have a high opinion of: the cognoscenti have always rated his political skills

rateable adj

- 1 able to be rated or evaluated
- 2 liable to payment of rates ratepayer n a person who pays local rates on a building rather adv

- 1 fairly: that was a rather narrow escape
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: to some extent, quite, a little, fairly, relatively, somewhat, moderately, to some degree
- 2 to a limited extent: I rather thought that was the case
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: to some extent, quite, a little, fairly, relatively, somewhat, moderately, to some degree
- 3 more truly or appropriately: they tend to be cat rather than dog people
- 4 more willingly: I would rather go straight home
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: preferably, sooner, more readily, more willingly
- interj
- 5 an expression of strong affirmation: Is it worth seeing? — Rather!

ratify vb -fies, -fying, -fied to give formal approval to: they ratified the treaty

- ◇ SYNONYMS: approve, establish, confirm, sanction, endorse, uphold, authorize, affirm
- > ratification n

rating n

- 1 a valuation or assessment
- 2 a classification according to order or grade
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: position, placing, rate, order, class, degree (archaic), rank, status
- 3 a noncommissioned sailor
- 4 ratings the size of the audience for a TV or radio programme ratio n, pl -tios

1 the relationship between two numbers or amounts expressed as a proportion: a ratio of one instructor to every five pupils

◇ SYNONYMS: proportion, rate, relation, percentage, fraction

2 (maths) a quotient of two numbers or quantities ration n

1 a fixed allowance of something that is scarce, such as food or petrol in wartime

◇ SYNONYMS: allowance, quota, allotment, helping, part, share, measure, portion

2 rations a fixed daily allowance of food, such as that given to a soldier

► vb

3 to restrict the distribution of (something): the government has rationed petrol

◇ SYNONYMS: limit, control, restrict, budget

4 to distribute a fixed amount of (something) to each person in a group > rationing n

rational adj

1 reasonable or sensible

◇ SYNONYMS: sensible, sound, wise, reasonable, intelligent, realistic, logical, sane, grounded

2 using reason or logic in thinking out a problem

3 capable of reasoning: man is a rational being

4 sane: rational behaviour

5 (maths) able to be expressed as a ratio of two integers: a rational number > rationality n

> rationally adv

rationale (rash-a-nahl) n the reason for an action or belief ◇ SYNONYMS: reason, grounds, theory, principle, philosophy, logic, motivation, raison d'être (French) rationalism n the philosophy that regards reason as the only basis for beliefs or actions > rationalist n

> rationalistic adj

rationalize or -ise vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised

1 to find reasons to justify or explain (one's actions)

2 to apply logic or reason to (something)

3 to get rid of unnecessary equipment or staff to make (a business) more efficient > rationalization or -isation n rat race n a continual routine of hectic competitive activity: get out of the rat race for a while rattan n a climbing palm with tough stems used for wickerwork and canes rattle vb -tling, -tled

1 to make a rapid succession of short sharp sounds, such as when loose pellets are shaken in a container

◇ SYNONYMS: clatter, bang, jangle

2 to send, move, or drive with such a sound: rain rattled against the window

◇ SYNONYMS: clatter, bang, jangle

3 to shake briskly causing sharp sounds

◇ SYNONYMS: shake, jolt, vibrate, bounce, jar

4 (informal) to frighten or confuse

◇ SYNONYMS: fluster, shake, upset, disturb, disconcert, perturb, faze

5 rattle off or out to recite perfunctorily or rapidly

6 rattle on or away to talk quickly and at length about something unimportant

7 rattle through to do (something) very quickly: she rattled through a translation

► n

8 a rapid succession of short sharp sounds

9 a baby's toy filled with small pellets that rattle when shaken > rattly adj

rattlesnake n a poisonous snake with loose horny segments on the tail that make a rattling sound ratty adj -tier, -tiest (informal)

1 cross and irritable

2 (of the hair) straggly and greasy > rattily adv

> rattiness n

raucous adj loud and harsh raunchy adj -chier, -chiest (slang) sexy or earthy ravage vb -vaging, -vaged

1 to cause extensive damage to ◇ SYNONYMS: destroy, ruin, devastate, spoil, demolish, ransack, lay waste, despoil (formal)

► n

2 ravages the damaging effects: the ravages of weather and pollution

◇ SYNONYMS: damage, destruction, devastation, ruin, havoc, ruination, spoliation rave vb raving, raved

1 to talk in a wild or incoherent manner

◇ SYNONYMS: rant, rage, roar, go mad (informal), babble, be delirious

2 (informal) to write or speak (about) with great enthusiasm

◇ SYNONYMS: enthuse, praise, gush, be mad about (informal), be wild about (informal)

► n

3 (informal) an enthusiastically favourable review

4 (slang) a professionally organized large-scale party with electronic dance music

5 a name given to various types of dance music, such as techno, that feature a fast electronic rhythm ravel vb -velling, -velled (US) -veling, -veled

1 to tangle or become entangled

2 (of a fabric) to fray out in loose ends; unravel raven n

1 a large bird of the crow family with shiny black feathers

► adj

2 (of hair) shiny black ravenous adj very hungry > ravenously adv

ravine (rav-veen) n a deep narrow steep-sided valley worn by a stream raving adj

1 delirious

◇ SYNONYMS: mad, wild, crazy, hysterical, irrational, crazed, delirious

2 (informal) great or exceptional: a raving beauty

► adv

3 to an excessive degree: raving mad

► n

4 ravings frenzied or wildly extravagant talk ravioli pl n small squares of pasta with a savoury filling, such as meat or cheese ravish vb

1 to enrapture or delight: tourists ravished by our brilliant costumes

2 (literary) to rape > ravishment n ravishing adj lovely or delightful > ravishingly adv

raw adj

1 (of food) not cooked

◇ SYNONYMS: uncooked, natural, fresh

2 in an unfinished or unrefined state: raw sewage

◇ SYNONYMS: unrefined, natural, crude, unprocessed, basic, rough, coarse, unfinished

3 not selected or modified: raw data

4 (of the skin or a wound) painful, with the surface scraped away

5 untrained or inexperienced: a raw recruit

◇ SYNONYMS: inexperienced, new, green, immature, callow

6 (of the weather) harshly cold and damp

◇ SYNONYMS: chilly, biting, cold, freezing, bitter, piercing, parky (Brit informal)

7 frank or realistic: a raw reality

8 raw deal (informal) unfair or dishonest treatment

► n

9 in the raw

A (informal) naked

B in a natural and uncivilized state: to see life in the raw rawhide n

1 untanned hide

2 a whip or rope made of strips of this ray¹ n

1 a narrow beam of light

◇ SYNONYMS: beam, bar, flash, shaft, gleam

2 any of a set of lines spreading from a central point

3 a slight indication: a ray of hope

4 (maths) a straight line extending from a point

5 a thin beam of electromagnetic radiation or particles

6 any of the spines that support the fin of a fish ray² n a sea fish related to the sharks, with a flattened body and a long whiplike tail rayon n a textile fibre or fabric made from cellulose raze or rase vb razing, razed or rasing, rased to destroy (buildings or a town) completely razor n an implement with a sharp blade, used for shaving razorbill n a black-and-white sea bird with a stout sideways flattened bill razzle-dazzle or razzmatazz n (slang)

1 noisy or showy fuss or activity

2 a spree or frolic

RC

1 Red Cross

2 Roman Catholic

Rd road

re prep with reference to ◇ SYNONYMS: concerning, about, regarding, with regard to, with reference to, apropos

RE (in Britain)

1 Religious Education

2 Royal Engineers

re- prefix

1 (used with many main words to mean) repetition of an action: remarry

2 (used with many main words to mean) return to a previous condition: renew reach vb

1 to arrive at or get to (a place)

◇ SYNONYMS: arrive at, get to, make, attain

2 to make a movement (towards), as if to grasp or touch: she reached for her bag

◇ SYNONYMS: touch, grasp, extend to, stretch to, contact

3 to succeed in touching: I can't reach that shelf unless I stand on a chair

◇ SYNONYMS: touch, grasp, extend to, stretch to, contact

4 to make contact or communication with: to reach a wider audience

◇ SYNONYMS: contact, get in touch with, get through to, communicate with, get hold of 5 to extend as far as (a point or place): to reach the ceiling

6 to come to (a certain condition or situation): to reach a compromise

7 to arrive at or amount to (an amount or value): temperatures in Greece reached 35° yesterday

◇ SYNONYMS: attain, get to 8 (informal) to give (something to a person) with the outstretched hand

► n

9 the extent or distance of reaching: within easy reach

◇ SYNONYMS: grasp, range, distance, stretch, capacity, extent, extension, scope

10 the range of influence or power: it symbolized America's global reach

◇ SYNONYMS: jurisdiction, power, influence

11 reaches a section of river, land, or sky: the quieter reaches of the upper Thames > reachable adj reach out vb (often foll. by to) to attempt to establish friendly or sympathetic relations (with someone) react vb

1 (of a person or thing) to act in response to another person, a stimulus, or a situation

◇ SYNONYMS: respond, act, proceed, behave

2 react against to act in an opposing or contrary manner

3 (chem) to undergo a chemical reaction

4 (physics) to exert an equal force in the opposite direction to an acting force reactance n (electronics) the resistance to the flow of an alternating current caused by the inductance or capacitance of the circuit reaction n

1 a physical or emotional response to a stimulus

◇ SYNONYMS: response, answer, reply

2 any action resisting another

◇ SYNONYMS: counteraction, backlash, recoil

3 opposition to change

◇ SYNONYMS: conservatism, the right

4 (med) any effect produced by a drug or by a substance (allergen) to which a person is allergic

5 (chem) a process that involves changes in the structure and energy content of atoms, molecules, or ions

6 the equal and opposite force that acts on a body whenever it exerts a force on another body

7 reactions someone's ability to act in response to something that happens reactionary adj

1 opposed to political or social change

◇ SYNONYMS: conservative, right-wing

► n, pl -aries

2 a person opposed to radical change

◇ SYNONYMS: conservative, die-hard, right-winger reactive adj

1 readily taking part in chemical reactions: ozone is a highly reactive form of oxygen gas

2 of or having a reactance

3 responsive to stimulus > reactively adv

> reactivity n

reactor n short for nuclear reactor

read vb reading, read

1 to look at and understand or take in (written or printed matter)

◇ SYNONYMS: understand, interpret, comprehend, construe, decipher, see, discover

2 to look at and say aloud

3 to have a certain wording: the memorandum read as follows

4 to interpret in a specified way: it can be read as satire

5 to interpret the significance or meaning of: an astrologer who reads Tarot

6 to register or show: the meter reads 100

◇ SYNONYMS: register, show, record, display, indicate

7 to make out the true nature or mood of: she had read his thoughts

8 to interpret (signs, characters, etc.) other than by visual means: to read Braille

9 to have sufficient knowledge of (a language) to understand the written word

◇ SYNONYMS: understand, interpret, comprehend, construe, decipher, see, discover

10 to undertake a course of study in (a subject): to read economics

11 to gain knowledge by reading: he read about the war

12 to hear and understand, esp. when using a two-way radio: we are reading you loud and clear

13 (computers) to obtain (data) from a storage device, such as magnetic tape

► n

14 matter suitable for reading: this book is a very good read

15 a spell of reading readable adj

1 enjoyable to read

2 (of handwriting or print) legible reader n

1 a person who reads

2 a person who reads aloud in public

3 a person who reads and judges manuscripts sent to a publisher

4 a book of texts for those learning a foreign language

5 (Brit) a member of staff below a professor but above a senior lecturer at a university 6 a proofreader readership n all the readers collectively of a publication or author: a new format would alienate its readership

reading n

- 1 the act of reading
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: perusal, study, examination, inspection, scrutiny
- 2 ability to read: disputes over methods of teaching reading
- 3 material for reading
- 4 a public recital of a literary work
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: recital, performance, lesson, sermon
- 5 a measurement indicated by a gauge or dial
- 6 one of the three stages in the passage of a bill through a legislative assembly
- 7 the form of a particular word or passage in a given text
- 8 an interpretation of a situation or something said
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: interpretation, version, impression, grasp
- adj
- 9 of or for reading: reading glasses readjust vb to adapt to a new situation > readjustment n

ready adj readier, readiest

- 1 prepared for use or action
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: prepared, set, primed, organized
- 2 prompt or eager: the ready use of corporal punishment
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: willing, happy, glad, disposed, keen, eager, inclined, prone
- 3 quick or intelligent: a ready wit
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: prompt, smart, quick, bright, sharp, keen, alert, clever
- 4 ready to on the point of or liable to: ready to pounce
- 5 easily available: his ready tears
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: available, handy, present, near, accessible, convenient
- n

6 at the ready poised for use: with pen at the ready

► vb readies, readying, readied

7 to make ready; prepare > readily adv

> readiness n

ready-made adj

1 for immediate use by any customer

2 extremely convenient or ideally suited: a ready-made audience reagent (ree-age-ent) n a chemical substance that reacts with another, used to detect the presence of the other real adj

1 existing or occurring in the physical world

◇ SYNONYMS: true, genuine, sincere, factual, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal), unfeigned

2 actual: the real agenda

◇ SYNONYMS: actual, true

3 important or serious: the real challenge

4 rightly so called: a real friend

◇ SYNONYMS: proper, true, valid

5 genuine: the council has no real authority

◇ SYNONYMS: actual, true

6 (of food or drink) made in a traditional way to ensure the best flavour

7 relating to immovable property such as land or buildings: real estate

8 (econ) (of prices or incomes) considered in terms of purchasing power rather than nominal currency value

9 the real thing the genuine article, not a substitute or imitation real ale n (chiefly Brit) beer that has fermented in the barrel real estate n immovable property, esp. land and houses realism n

1 awareness or acceptance of things as they are, as opposed to the abstract or ideal

2 a style in art or literature that attempts to show the world as it really is

3 (philosophy) the theory that physical objects continue to exist whether they are perceived or not > realist n

> realistic adj

> realistically adv

reality n, pl -ties

1 the state of things as they are or appear to be, rather than as one might wish them to be

◇ SYNONYMS: fact, truth, realism, validity, verity, actuality

2 something that is real

◇ SYNONYMS: truth, fact, actuality

3 the state of being real

◇ SYNONYMS: fact, truth, realism, validity, verity, actuality

4 in reality in fact reality TV n television programmes focusing on members of the public living in conditions created especially by the programme makers realize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to be aware of or grasp the significance of ◇ SYNONYMS: become aware of, understand, take in, grasp, comprehend, get the message

2 to achieve (a plan or ambition)

◇ SYNONYMS: fulfil, achieve, accomplish, make real

3 to convert (property or goods) into cash

4 (of goods or property) to sell for (a certain sum): this table realized a large sum at auction

5 to produce (a complete work of art) from an idea or draft

◇ SYNONYMS: achieve, do, effect, complete, perform, fulfil, accomplish, carry out or through > realizable or -lisable adj > realization or -lisation n

really adv

1 truly: really boring

2 in reality: it's really quite harmless

◇ SYNONYMS: truly, actually, in fact, indeed, in actuality

► interj

3 an exclamation of dismay, doubt, or surprise realm n

1 a kingdom

◇ SYNONYMS: kingdom, country, empire, land, domain, dominion

2 a field of interest or study: the realm of science

◇ SYNONYMS: field, world, area, province, sphere, department (informal), branch, territory ream n

1 a number of sheets of paper, now equal to 500 or 516 sheets (20 quires)

2 reams (informal) a large quantity (of written material): reams of verse reap vb

1 to cut and gather (a harvest)

◇ SYNONYMS: collect, gather, bring in, harvest, garner, cut

2 to receive as the result of a previous activity: reap the benefits of our efforts

◇ SYNONYMS: get, gain, obtain, acquire, derive reaper n

1 a person who reaps or a machine for reaping

2 the grim reaper death reappear vb to come back into view > reappearance n

rear¹ n

1 the back part

◇ SYNONYMS: back part, back

2 the area or position that lies at the back

◇ SYNONYMS: back, end, tail, rearguard, tail end

3 (informal) the buttocks

4 bring up the rear to come last

► adj

5 of or in the rear: the rear carriage

◇ SYNONYMS: back, hind, last, following rear² vb

1 to care for and educate (children) until maturity

◇ SYNONYMS: bring up, raise, educate, train, foster, nurture

2 to breed (animals) or grow (plants)

◇ SYNONYMS: breed, keep

3 (of a horse) to lift the front legs in the air and stand nearly upright

4 to place or lift (something) upright rear admiral n a high-ranking naval officer rearguard n

1 the troops who protect the rear of a military formation

► adj

2 rearguard action an effort to prevent or postpone something that is unavoidable rearmost adj nearest the back rearrange vb -ranging, -ranged to organize differently > rearrangement n

reason n

1 a cause or motive for a belief or action: he had two reasons for his dark mood

◇ SYNONYMS: cause, grounds, purpose, motive, goal, aim, object, intention

2 the ability to think or argue rationally

◇ SYNONYMS: sense, mind, understanding, judgment, logic, intellect, sanity, rationality

3 an argument in favour of or a justification for something: there is every reason to encourage people to keep fit

4 soundness of mind

5 by reason of because of 6 within reason within moderate or justifiable bounds

7 it stands to reason it is logical or obvious

► vb

8 to think logically in forming conclusions

◇ SYNONYMS: deduce, conclude, work out, make out, infer, think

9 reason with to persuade by logical arguments into doing something

◇ SYNONYMS reason with someone: persuade, bring round, urge, win over, prevail upon (formal), talk into or out of 10 reason out to work out (a problem) by reasoning reasonable adj

1 sensible

◇ SYNONYMS: sensible, sound, practical, wise, logical, sober, plausible, sane, grounded

2 not making unfair demands

◇ SYNONYMS: fair, just, right, moderate, equitable, tenable

3 logical: a reasonable explanation

◇ SYNONYMS: sensible, sound, practical, wise, logical, sober, plausible, sane, grounded

4 moderate in price

◇ SYNONYMS: low, cheap, competitive, moderate, modest, inexpensive

5 average: a reasonable amount of luck

◇ SYNONYMS: average, fair, moderate, modest, O.K. or okay (informal) > reasonably adv

> reasonableness n reassess vb to reconsider the value or importance of > reassessment n

reassure vb -assuring, -assured to relieve (someone) of anxieties ◇ SYNONYMS: encourage, comfort, hearten, gee up, restore confidence to, put or set your mind at rest > reassurance n

> reassuring adj

rebate n a refund or discount

◇ SYNONYMS: refund, discount, reduction, bonus, allowance, deduction rebel vb -belling, -belled

1 to fight against the ruling power

◇ SYNONYMS: revolt, resist, rise up, mutiny

2 to reject accepted conventions of behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: defy, dissent, disobey

► n

3 a person who rebels

◇ SYNONYMS: revolutionary, insurgent, secessionist, revolutionist

4 a person who rejects accepted conventions of behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: nonconformist, dissenter, heretic, apostate, schismatic

► adj

5 rebelling: rebel councillors

◇ SYNONYMS: rebellious, revolutionary, insurgent, insurrectionary rebellion n

1 organized opposition to a government or other authority involving the use of violence

◇ SYNONYMS: resistance, rising, revolution, revolt, uprising, mutiny

2 nonviolent opposition to a government or other authority: a Tory backbenchers' rebellion

◇ SYNONYMS: nonconformity, defiance, heresy, schism

3 rejection of accepted conventions of behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: nonconformity, defiance, heresy, schism

rebellious adj rebelling or showing a tendency towards rebellion

◇ SYNONYMS: revolutionary, rebel, disorderly, unruly, insurgent, disloyal, seditious, mutinous > rebelliously adv

rebirth n a revival or renaissance: the rebirth of their nation

reboot vb

1 to shut down and then restart (a computer system)

► n

2 an instance of shutting down and restarting a computer system

3 (informal) a new version of something rebore or reboring n the boring of a cylinder to restore its true shape reborn adj active again after a period of inactivity rebound vb

1 to spring back from a sudden impact

◇ SYNONYMS: bounce, ricochet, recoil

2 (of a plan or action) to misfire so as to hurt the person responsible

◇ SYNONYMS: misfire, backfire, recoil, boomerang

► n

3 the act of rebounding

4 on the rebound (informal) while recovering from rejection: she married him on the rebound

rebuff vb

1 to snub and reject an offer or suggestion

◇ SYNONYMS: reject, refuse, turn down, cut (informal), slight, snub, spurn, knock back (slang)

► n

2 a blunt refusal; snub

◇ SYNONYMS: rejection, snub, knock-back, slight, refusal, repulse, cold shoulder, slap in the face (informal) rebuke vb -buking, -buked

1 to scold sternly

◇ SYNONYMS: scold, censure, reprimand, castigate, chide, dress down (informal), admonish, tell off (informal)

► n

2 a stern scolding

◇ SYNONYMS: scolding, censure, reprimand, row, dressing-down (informal), telling-off (informal), admonition rebus (ree-buss) n, pl -buses a puzzle consisting of pictures and symbols representing syllables and words rebut vb -butting, -butted to prove that (a claim) is untrue > rebuttal n recalcitrant adj wilfully disobedient > recalcitrance n

recall vb

1 to bring back to mind

◇ SYNONYMS: recollect, remember, evoke, call to mind

2 to order to return

◇ SYNONYMS: call back

3 to annul or cancel

◇ SYNONYMS: annul, withdraw, cancel, repeal, revoke, retract, countermand

► n

4 the ability to remember things

◇ SYNONYMS: recollection, memory, remembrance

5 an order to return recant vb to take back (a former belief or statement) publicly > recantation n

recap (informal) vb -capping, -capped 1 to recapitulate
▶ n
2 a recapitulation recapitulate vb -lating, -lated to restate the main points of (an argument or speech) recapitulation n

1 the act of recapitulating 2 (music) the repeating of earlier themes, esp. in the final section of a movement recapture vb -turing, -tured 1 to relive vividly (a former experience or sensation): recaptured some of those first feelings

2 to capture again
▶ n
3 the act of recapturing recce (chiefly Brit slang) vb -ceing, -ced or -ceed 1 to reconnoitre

▶ n
2 reconnaissance recede vb -ceding, -ceded 1 to withdraw from a point or limit: the tide had receded ◇ SYNONYMS: fall back, withdraw, retreat, return, retire, regress 2 to become more distant: the threat of intervention had receded

3 (of a man's hair) to stop growing at the temples and above the forehead

4 to slope backwards: a receding chin receipt n

1 a written acknowledgment that money or goods have been received

◇ SYNONYMS: sales slip, proof of purchase, counterfoil

2 the act of receiving

◇ SYNONYMS: receiving, delivery, reception, acceptance

3 receipts money taken in over a particular period by a shop or business receive vb -ceiving, -ceived

1 to get (something offered or sent to one)

◇ SYNONYMS: get, accept, be given, pick up, collect, obtain, acquire, take

2 to experience: he received a knife wound

◇ SYNONYMS: experience, suffer, bear, encounter, sustain, undergo

3 to greet (guests)

◇ SYNONYMS: greet, meet, admit, welcome, entertain, accommodate

4 to have (an honour) bestowed: he received the Order of the Garter

◇ SYNONYMS: get, accept, be given, pick up, collect, obtain, acquire, take

5 to admit (a person) to a society or condition: he was received into the Church

6 to convert (incoming radio or television signals) into sounds or pictures

7 to be informed of (news)

8 to react to: the article was well received

9 to support or sustain (the weight of something)

10 (tennis, etc.) to play at the other end from the server

11 (Brit & Austral & NZ) to buy and sell stolen goods received adj generally accepted or believed: contrary to received wisdom receiver n

1 the part of a telephone that is held to the ear

2 the equipment in a telephone, radio, or television that converts the incoming signals into sound or pictures

3 a person appointed by a court to manage property of a bankrupt

4 a person who receives stolen goods knowing they have been stolen receivership n (law) the state of being administered by a receiver: the company went into receivership

recent adj

1 having happened lately

2 new

◇ SYNONYMS: new, modern, up-to-date, late, current, fresh, novel, present-day > recently adv

receptacle n

1 an object used to contain something

2 (botany) the enlarged or modified tip of the flower stalk that bears the flower reception n

1 an area in an office, hotel, etc., where visitors are received or reservations dealt with

2 a formal party for guests, esp. after a wedding

◇ SYNONYMS: party, gathering, get-together, social gathering, function, celebration, festivity, soirée

3 the manner in which something is received: an enthusiastic reception

◇ SYNONYMS: response, reaction, acknowledgment, treatment, welcome, greeting

4 the act of formally welcoming

5 (radio, television) the quality of a received broadcast: the reception was poor receptionist n a person employed to receive guests or clients and deal with reservations and appointments receptive adj willing to consider and accept new ideas or suggestions > receptivity or receptiveness n recess n

1 a space, such as an alcove, set back in a wall

◇ SYNONYMS: alcove, corner, bay, hollow, niche, nook

2 a holiday between sessions of work

◇ SYNONYMS: break, rest, holiday, interval, vacation, respite, intermission, schoolie (Austral)

3 recesses secret hidden places: the recesses of her brain

4 (US & Canad) a break between classes at a school recessed adj hidden or placed in a recess recession n

1 a period of economic difficulty when little is being bought or sold

◇ SYNONYMS: depression, drop, decline, credit crunch, slump

2 the act of receding recessive adj

1 tending to recede

2 (genetics) (in a pair of genes) designating a gene that has a characteristic which will only be passed on if the other gene has the same characteristic recherché (rish-air-shay) adj

1 studiously refined or elegant

2 known only to connoisseurs recidivism n habitual relapse into crime > recidivist n, adj

recipe n

1 a list of ingredients and directions for making a particular dish

◇ SYNONYMS: directions, instructions, ingredients

2 a method for achieving something: a recipe for industrial chaos recipient n a person who receives something reciprocal (ris-sip-pro-kl) adj

1 done or felt by each of two people or groups to or about the other: a reciprocal agreement

2 given or done in return: a reciprocal invitation

3 (grammar) (of a pronoun) indicating that action is given and received by each subject, for example, each other in they started to shout at each other

► n

4 Also called: inverse (maths) a number or quantity that when multiplied by a given number or quantity gives a product of one: the reciprocal of 2 is 0.5

> reciprocally adv

reciprocate vb -cating, -cated

1 to give or feel in return: not everyone reciprocated his enthusiasm

2 (of a machine part) to move backwards and forwards > reciprocation n

reciprocity n

1 reciprocal action or relation

2 a mutual exchange of commercial or other privileges recital (ris-site-al) n

1 a musical performance by a soloist or soloists

◇ SYNONYMS: performance, rendering, rehearsal, reading

2 the act of reciting something learned or prepared

◇ SYNONYMS: recitation

3 a narration or description: she plagued her with the recital of constant ailments and illnesses

◇ SYNONYMS: account, telling, statement, relation, narrative recitation n

1 the act of reciting poetry or prose from memory

2 something recited recitative (ress-it-a-teev) n a narrative passage in an opera or oratorio, reflecting the natural rhythms of speech recite vb -citing, -cited

1 to repeat (a poem or passage) aloud from memory before an audience

◇ SYNONYMS: perform, deliver, repeat, declaim

2 to give a detailed account of reckless adj having no regard for danger or consequences: reckless driving

◇ SYNONYMS: careless, wild, rash, precipitate, hasty, mindless, headlong, thoughtless > recklessly adv

> recklessness n

reckon vb

1 (informal) to be of the opinion: she reckoned she could find them

◇ SYNONYMS: think, believe, suppose, imagine, assume, guess (informal)

2 to consider: he reckoned himself a failure

◇ SYNONYMS: consider, rate, account, judge, regard, count, esteem (formal), deem

3 to calculate or compute ◇ SYNONYMS: count, figure, total, calculate, compute, add up, tally, number

4 to expect

5 reckon with to take into account: there are a few problems to reckon with 6 reckon without to fail to take into account

7 reckon on or upon to rely on or expect: they can't reckon on your automatic support reckoning n

1 counting or calculating: by his reckoning, he owed him money

◇ SYNONYMS: count, estimate, calculation, addition

2 retribution for one's actions: the moment of reckoning came

3 settlement of an account or bill reclaim vb

1 to get back possession of: the club is now trying to reclaim the money from the blockaders

◇ SYNONYMS: retrieve, regain

2 to convert (unusable or submerged land) into land suitable for farming or building on

◇ SYNONYMS: regain, salvage, recapture

3 to recover (useful substances) from waste products > reclamation n

recline vb -clining, -clined to rest in a leaning position reclining adj (of a seat) with a back that can be adjusted to slope at various angles recluse n a person who lives alone and avoids people > reclusive adj

recognition n

1 the act of recognizing

◇ SYNONYMS: identification, recollection, discovery, remembrance

2 acceptance or acknowledgment

◇ SYNONYMS: acceptance, admission, allowance, confession

3 formal acknowledgment of a government or of the independence of a country

4 in recognition of as a token of thanks for recognizance or recognisance (rik-og-nizz-anss) n (law)

A an undertaking made before a court or magistrate to do something specified, such as to appear in court on a stated day

B a sum of money promised as a guarantee of this undertaking recognize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised

- 1 to identify (a person or thing) as someone or something already known ◇ SYNONYMS: identify, know, place, remember, spot, notice, recall, recollect
- 2 to accept or be aware of (a fact or problem): to recognize change ◇ SYNONYMS: acknowledge, allow, accept, admit, grant, concede
- 3 to acknowledge formally the status or legality of (something or someone):
an organization recognized by the UN
- 4 to show approval or appreciation of (something) ◇ SYNONYMS: appreciate, respect, notice
- 5 to make formal acknowledgment of (a claim or duty): I must ask for her to be recognized as a hostile witness > recognizable or -nizable adj

recoil vb

- 1 to jerk or spring back
- 2 to draw back in fear or horror
- 3 (of an action) to go wrong so as to hurt the person responsible
► n
- 4 the backward movement of a gun when fired
- 5 the act of recoiling recollect vb to remember

- > recollection n

recommend vb

- 1 to advise as the best course or choice ◇ SYNONYMS: advocate, suggest, propose, approve, endorse, commend
- 2 to praise or commend: I would wholeheartedly recommend his books
- 3 to make attractive or advisable: she has everything to recommend her > recommendation n

recompense vb -pensing, -pensed

- 1 to pay or reward for work or help
- 2 to compensate or make up for loss or injury
► n
- 3 compensation for loss or injury

4 reward or repayment reconcile vb -ciling, -ciled

1 to make (two apparently conflicting things) compatible or consistent with each other: in many cases science and religion are reconciled

◇ SYNONYMS: resolve, settle, square, adjust, compose, rectify, put to rights

2 to re-establish friendly relations with (a person or people) or between (people)

◇ SYNONYMS: reunite, bring back together, conciliate

3 to accept or cause to accept an unpleasant situation: we reconciled ourselves to a change reconciliation n

1 the state of being reconciled

◇ SYNONYMS: reunion, conciliation, pacification, reconcilment

2 the act of reconciling people or groups

3 (S African) a political term emphasizing the need to acknowledge the wrongs of the past recondite adj (formal)

1 requiring special knowledge

2 dealing with abstruse or profound subjects recondition vb to restore to good condition or working order > reconditioned adj reconfigure vb -guring, -gured (computers) to rearrange the elements or settings of (a system, device, etc.)

reconnaissance (rik-kon-iss-anss) n

1 the process of obtaining information about the position and movements of an enemy

2 a preliminary inspection reconnoitre or (US) reconnoiter (rek-a-noy-ter) vb to make a reconnaissance of reconsider vb to think about again, with a view to changing one's policy or course of action

◇ SYNONYMS: rethink, review, revise, think again, reassess > reconsideration n

reconstitute vb -tuting, -tuted

1 to reorganize in a slightly different form

2 to restore (dried food) to its former state by adding water > reconstitution n

reconstruct vb

1 to build again

◇ SYNONYMS: rebuild, restore, re-create, remake, renovate, remodel, regenerate

2 to reorganize: three works proved useful in reconstructing the training routine

3 to form a picture of (a past event, esp. a crime) by piecing together evidence

◇ SYNONYMS: build up a picture of, build up, piece together, deduce > reconstruction n record n (rek-ord)

1 a document or other thing that preserves information

◇ SYNONYMS: document, file, register, log, report, account, entry, journal, blog (informal)

2 records information or data on a subject collected over a long period: dental records

◇ SYNONYMS: document, file, register, log, report, account, entry, journal, blog (informal)

3 a thin disc of a plastic material upon which sound has been recorded in a continuous spiral groove on each side

◇ SYNONYMS: disc (old-fashioned), single, album, LP, vinyl

4 the best recorded achievement in some field: her score set a Games record

5 the known facts about a person's achievements

◇ SYNONYMS: background, history, performance, career

6 a list of crimes of which an accused person has previously been convicted

◇ SYNONYMS: background, history, performance, career

7 anything serving as evidence or as a memorial: the First World War is a record of human folly

◇ SYNONYMS: evidence, trace, documentation, testimony, witness

8 (computers) a group of data or piece of information preserved as a unit in machine-readable form

9 for the record for the sake of strict factual accuracy

10 go on record to state one's views publicly

11 have a record to have previous criminal convictions

12 off the record not for publication

13 on record

A stated in a public document

B publicly known

► adj

14 being the highest or lowest, or best or worst ever achieved: record losses

► vb (rik-kord)

15 to put in writing to preserve the true facts: to record the minutes of a meeting

◇ SYNONYMS: set down, minute, note, enter, document, register, log, chronicle

16 to preserve (sound, TV programmes, etc.) on plastic disc, magnetic tape, etc., for reproduction on a playback device

◇ SYNONYMS: make a recording of, video, tape, video-tape, tape-record

17 to show or register

◇ SYNONYMS: register, show, indicate, give evidence of recorder n

1 a person who keeps records

◇ SYNONYMS: chronicler, archivist, historian, clerk, scribe, diarist

2 a device for recording sound, data, or pictures

3 (music) a wind instrument, blown through the end, with finger-holes and a reedlike tone

4 (in England and Wales) a barrister or solicitor appointed to sit as a part-time judge in the crown court recording n

1 something that has been recorded

◇ SYNONYMS: record, video, tape, disc (old-fashioned)

2 the process of storing sounds or visual signals for later use record player n a device for reproducing the sounds stored on a record recount vb to tell the story or details of ◇ SYNONYMS: tell, report, describe, relate, repeat, depict, recite, narrate re-count vb

1 to count again

► n

2 a second or further count, esp. of votes in an election recoup (rik-koop) vb

1 to regain or make good (a loss)

2 to reimburse or compensate (someone) for a loss > recoupment n

recourse n

1 have recourse to to turn to a source of help or course of action

2 a source of help or course of action that is turned to when in difficulty recover vb

1 (of a person) to regain health, spirits, or composure

◇ SYNONYMS: get better, improve, get well, recuperate, heal, revive, mend, convalesce

2 to regain a former and better condition: real wages have recovered from the recession

◇ SYNONYMS: rally

3 to find again or obtain the return of (something lost)

◇ SYNONYMS: recoup, restore, get back, regain, retrieve, reclaim, redeem, recapture

4 to get back or make good (expense or loss)

◇ SYNONYMS: save, rescue, retrieve, salvage, reclaim

5 to obtain (useful substances) from waste

6 (law) to gain (something) by the judgment of a court: it should be possible to recover damages

◇ SYNONYMS: recoup, restore, get back, regain, retrieve, reclaim, redeem, recapture > recoverable adj

recovery n, pl -veries

1 the act of recovering from sickness, a shock, or a setback

◇ SYNONYMS: improvement, healing, revival, mending, recuperation, convalescence

2 restoration to a former and better condition

3 the regaining of something lost

◇ SYNONYMS: retrieval, repossession, reclamation, restoration

4 the extraction of useful substances from waste re-create vb -creating, -created to make happen or exist again > re-creation n

recreation n an activity done for pleasure or relaxation

◇ SYNONYMS: leisure, play, sport, fun, entertainment, relaxation, enjoyment, amusement, me-time > recreational adj recrimination n accusations made by two people or groups about each other:

bitter recrimination > recriminatory adj

recruit vb

1 to enlist (people) for military service

◇ SYNONYMS: enlist, draft, enrol

2 to enrol or obtain (members or support)

◇ SYNONYMS: assemble, raise, levy, muster, mobilize

► n

3 a newly joined member of a military service

4 a new member or supporter

◇ SYNONYMS: beginner, trainee, apprentice, novice, convert, initiate, helper, learner > recruitment n

rectangle n an oblong shape with four straight sides and four right angles > rectangular adj rectify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to put right; correct

2 (chem) to separate (a substance) from a mixture by distillation

3 (electronics) to convert (alternating current) into direct current > rectification n

> rectifier n

rectilinear (rek-tee-lin-ee-er) adj (formal)

1 in a straight line

2 bounded by or formed of straight lines rectitude n moral or religious correctness: a model of rectitude

recto n, pl -tos

1 the right-hand page of a book

2 the front of a sheet of printed paper rector n

1 (Church of England) a member of the clergy in charge of a parish

2 (RC Church) a cleric in charge of a college or congregation

3 (chiefly Brit) the head of certain academic institutions

4 (in Scotland) a high-ranking official in a university, elected by the students > rectorship n

rectory n, pl -ries the house of a rector rectum n, pl -tums or -ta the lower part of the alimentary canal, ending in the anus recumbent adj lying down recuperate vb -rating, -rated to recover from illness or exhaustion > recuperation n > recuperative adj

recur vb -curing, -curred 1 to happen or occur again ◇ SYNONYMS: happen again, return, repeat, persist, revert, reappear, come again 2 (of a thought or feeling) to come back to the mind > recurrence n > recurrent adj > recurring adj

recycle vb -cling, -cled 1 to reprocess (something already used) for further use: public demand for recycled paper ◇ SYNONYMS: reprocess, reuse, salvage, reclaim, save 2 to pass (a substance) through a system again for further use > recyclable adj

red adj redder, reddest 1 of a colour varying from crimson to orange; of the colour of blood

- ◇ SYNONYMS: crimson, scarlet, ruby, vermillion, cherry, coral, carmine
- 2 reddish in colour or having parts or marks that are reddish: red deer
- ◇ SYNONYMS: chestnut, reddish, flame-coloured, sandy, Titian, carrotty, ginger
- 3 flushed in the face from anger or shame
- ◇ SYNONYMS: flushed, embarrassed, blushing, florid, shamefaced
- 4 (of the eyes) bloodshot
- 5 (of wine) made from black grapes and coloured by their skins
- n
- 6 the colour red; the colour of blood
- ◇ SYNONYMS: crimson, scarlet, ruby, vermillion, cherry, coral, carmine
- 7 anything red, such as red clothing or red paint: she had dressed in red
- 8 in the red (informal) in debt
- ◇ SYNONYMS in the red: in debt, insolvent, in arrears, overdrawn
- 9 see red (informal) to become very angry
- ◇ SYNONYMS see red: lose your temper, lose it (informal), go mad (informal), crack up (informal), lose the plot (informal), go ballistic (slang), fly off the handle (informal), blow your top
- > redness n
- > reddish adj

Red (informal) n

- 1 a Communist or socialist
- adj
- 2 Communist or socialist redback spider n a small venomous Australian spider with a red stripe on the back of the abdomen red-blooded adj (informal) vigorous or virile redbrick adj (of a British university) founded in the late 19th or early 20th century red card (soccer) n

1 a piece of red pasteboard raised by a referee to indicate that a player has been sent off

► vb red-card

2 to send off (a player)

red carpet n very special treatment given to an important guest redcoat n

1 (history) a British soldier

2 (Canad informal) a Mountie

Red Cross n an international organization (Red Cross Society) which helps victims of war or natural disaster redcurrant n a very small red edible fruit that grows in bunches on a bush redde vb

1 to make or become red or redder

2 to blush redeem vb

1 to make up for

◇ SYNONYMS: make up for, compensate for, atone for, make amends for

2 to reinstate (oneself) in someone's good opinion: he missed a penalty but redeemed himself by setting up the winning goal

◇ SYNONYMS: reinstate, absolve, restore to favour

3 (Christianity) (of Christ as Saviour) to free (humanity) from sin by death on the Cross

4 to buy back: she didn't have the money to redeem it

◇ SYNONYMS: buy back, recover, regain, retrieve, reclaim, repurchase

5 to pay off (a loan or debt)

6 to convert (bonds or shares) into cash

7 to exchange (coupons) for goods

8 to fulfil (a promise): I vowed to abide by the bill and have redeemed my pledge > redeemable adj

> redeemer n

redemption n

1 the act of redeeming

◇ SYNONYMS: compensation, amends, reparation, atonement

2 the state of being redeemed

◇ SYNONYMS: salvation, release, rescue, liberation, emancipation, deliverance

3 (Christianity) deliverance from sin through the incarnation and death of Christ > redemptive adj

redeploy vb to assign (people) to new positions or tasks > redeployment n

redevelop vb to rebuild or renovate (an area or building) > redeveloper n

> redevelopment n

red-handed adj catch someone red-handed to catch someone in the act of doing something wrong or illegal red herring n something which diverts attention from the main issue red-hot adj

1 (of metal) glowing hot

2 extremely hot

3 very keen or excited

4 furious: one of those red-hot blazes of temper

5 very recent or topical: red-hot information

red light n

- 1 a traffic signal to stop
- 2 a danger signal

red meat n meat, such as beef or lamb, that is dark brown when cooked redolent adj redolent of or with

- 1 reminiscent or suggestive of: a castle redolent of historical novels
 - 2 smelling of: the warm heavy air was redolent of sea and flowers
- > redolence n

redouble vb -bling, -bled

- 1 to make or become much greater: the party will have to redouble its efforts
- 2 (bridge) to double (an opponent's double) redoubt n

- 1 a small fort defending a hill top or pass
- 2 a stronghold redoubtable adj to be feared and respected: the redoubtable Mr Brooks

> redoubtably adv

redound vb

- 1 redound to to have an advantageous or disadvantageous effect on: individual rights redound to the common good
- 2 redound on or upon to recoil or rebound on redox n a chemical reaction between two substances, in which one is oxidized and the other reduced redress vb

1 to make amends for ◇ SYNONYMS: make amends for, make up for, compensate for

2 to adjust in order to make fair or equal: to redress the balance

◇ SYNONYMS: put right, balance, correct, adjust, regulate, rectify, even up

► n

3 compensation or reparation

◇ SYNONYMS: amends, payment, compensation, reparation, atonement, recompense

4 the setting right of a wrong red tape n time-consuming official rules or procedure reduce vb -ducing, -duced

1 to bring down or lower: monitoring could reduce the number of perinatal deaths

◇ SYNONYMS: lessen, cut, lower, moderate, dial down, weaken, diminish, decrease, cut down, kennet (Austral slang), jeff (Austral slang)

2 to weaken or lessen: vegetarian diets reduce cancer risk

◇ SYNONYMS: lessen, cut, lower, moderate, dial down, weaken, diminish, decrease, cut down, kennet (Austral slang), jeff (Austral slang)

3 to bring by force or necessity to some state or action: it reduced her to helpless laughter

4 to slim

5 to set out systematically as an aid to understanding: reducing the problem to three main issues

6 (cooking) to thicken (a sauce) by boiling away some of its liquid

7 to impoverish: to be in reduced circumstances

8 (chem)

A to undergo a chemical reaction with hydrogen

B to lose oxygen atoms

C to increase the number of electrons

9 (maths) to simplify the form of (an expression or equation), esp. by substitution of one term by another > reducible adj

reduction n

- 1 the act of reducing
 - 2 the amount by which something is reduced
 - 3 a reduced form of an original, such as a copy of a document on a smaller scale
- > reductive adj

redundant adj

- 1 deprived of one's job because it is no longer necessary or sufficiently profitable
 - 2 surplus to requirements
- ◇ SYNONYMS: superfluous, extra, surplus, unnecessary, unwanted, inessential, supernumerary
- > redundancy n

reed n

- 1 a tall grass that grows in swamps and shallow water
 - 2 a straight hollow stem of this plant
 - 3 (music)
- A a thin piece of cane or metal in certain wind instruments, which vibrates producing a musical note when the instrument is blown
- B a wind instrument or organ pipe that sounds by means of a reed reedy adj reedier, reediest

- 1 harsh or thin in tone: his reedy, hesitant voice
 - 2 (of a place) full of reeds
- > reedily adv
- > reediness n

reef¹ n

- 1 a ridge of rock, sand, or coral, lying just beneath the surface of the sea: a coral reef
- 2 a vein of ore

reef² (naut) n

1 the part of a sail which can be rolled up to reduce its area

► vb

2 to reduce the area of (sail) by taking in a reef reefer n

1 Also called: reefer jacket a man's short heavy double-breasted woollen jacket

2 (old-fashioned, slang) a hand-rolled cigarette containing cannabis reef knot n a knot consisting of two overhand knots turned opposite ways reek vb

1 to give off a strong unpleasant smell

2 reek of to give a strong suggestion of: the scene had reeked of insincerity

3 (dialect) to give off smoke or fumes

► n

4 a strong unpleasant smell

5 (dialect) smoke or steam reel¹ n

1 a cylindrical object or frame that turns on an axis and onto which film, tape, wire, or thread is wound

2 a winding device attached to a fishing rod, used for casting and winding in the line

3 a roll of film for projection

► vb

4 reel in to wind or draw in on a reel reel² vb

1 to move unsteadily or spin round, as if about to fall

◇ SYNONYMS: whirl, spin, revolve, swirl

2 to be in a state of confusion or stress: my mind was still reeling

reel³ n

1 a lively Scottish dance

2 music for this dance

reel off vb to recite or write fluently or quickly ref n (informal) the referee in a sport refectory n, pl -ries a dining hall in a religious or academic institution refer vb -ferring, -ferred

> refer to

1 to mention or allude to

◇ SYNONYMS refer to something or someone: allude to, mention, cite, speak of, bring up

2 to be relevant or relate (to): the word cancer refers to many quite specific different diseases

◇ SYNONYMS refer to something or someone: relate to, concern, apply to, pertain to, be relevant to

3 to seek information (from): he referred to his notes

◇ SYNONYMS refer to something or someone: consult, go, apply, turn to, look up

4 to direct the attention of (someone) for information: the reader is referred to the introduction

◇ SYNONYMS: direct, point, send, guide

5 to direct (a patient or client) to another doctor or agency: her GP referred her to a specialist

6 to hand over for consideration or decision: to refer a complaint to another department > referable or referrable adj > referral n

referee n

1 the umpire in various sports, such as football and boxing

◇ SYNONYMS: umpire, umpie (Austral slang), judge, ref (informal), arbiter, arbitrator, adjudicator

2 a person who is willing to provide a reference for someone for a job

3 a person referred to for a decision or opinion in a dispute

► vb -reeing, -reed

4 to act as a referee

◇ SYNONYMS: umpire, judge, mediate, adjudicate, arbitrate reference n

1 the act of referring

2 a mention: this book contains several references to the Civil War

◇ SYNONYMS: allusion, note, mention, quotation

3 direction to a passage elsewhere in a book or to another book

4 a book or passage referred to

◇ SYNONYMS: citation

5 a written testimonial regarding one's character or capabilities

◇ SYNONYMS: testimonial, recommendation, credentials, endorsement, character reference

6 a person referred to for such a testimonial

7 relation or restriction, esp. to or by membership of a specific group: without reference to sex or age

8 with reference to concerning

► adj

9 containing information or facts: reference books > referential adj

referendum n, pl -dums or -da a direct vote of the electorate on a question of importance

◇ SYNONYMS: public vote, popular vote, plebiscite refill vb

1 to fill (something) again

► n

2 a second or subsequent filling: I held out my glass for a refill

3 a replacement supply of something in a permanent container > refillable adj refine vb -fining, -fined

1 to make free from impurities; purify

◇ SYNONYMS: purify, process, filter, cleanse, clarify, distil

2 to improve: surgical techniques are constantly being refined

◇ SYNONYMS: improve, perfect, polish, hone

3 to separate (a mixture) into pure constituents: molasses is a residual syrup obtained during sugar refining refined adj

1 cultured or polite

◇ SYNONYMS: cultured, polished, elegant, polite, cultivated, civilized, well-bred

2 freed from impurities

◇ SYNONYMS: purified, processed, pure, filtered, clean, clarified, distilled

3 highly developed and effective: refined intelligence tests

◇ SYNONYMS: discerning, fine, sensitive, delicate, precise, discriminating, fastidious refinement n

1 an improvement to something, such as a piece of equipment

2 fineness of taste or manners

3 a subtle point or distinction

4 the act of refining refinery n, pl -neries a factory for purifying a raw material, such as sugar or oil reflation n an increase in the supply of money and credit designed to encourage economic activity > reflate vb

> reflationary adj

reflect vb

1 (of a surface or object) to throw back (light, heat, or sound)

◇ SYNONYMS: throw back, return, mirror, echo, reproduce

2 (of a mirror) to form an image of (something) by reflection

◇ SYNONYMS: throw back, return, mirror, echo, reproduce

3 to show: many of her books reflect her obsession with fine art

◇ SYNONYMS: show, reveal, display, indicate, demonstrate, manifest

4 to consider carefully

◇ SYNONYMS: consider, think, muse, ponder, meditate, ruminate, cogitate, wonder

5 reflect on or upon to cause to be regarded in a specified way: the incident reflects very badly on me

6 to bring as a consequence: the programme reflected great credit on the technicians reflection n

1 the act of reflecting

2 the return of rays of light, heat, or sound

3 an image of an object given back in a mirror

◇ SYNONYMS: image, echo, mirror image

4 careful or long consideration

◇ SYNONYMS: consideration, thinking, thought, idea, opinion, observation, musing, meditation

5 on reflection after careful consideration or reconsideration

6 discredit or blame: it's a sad reflection on modern morality

7 (maths) a transformation of a shape in which right and left, or top and bottom, are reversed reflective adj

1 characterized by quiet thought or contemplation

◇ SYNONYMS: thoughtful, contemplative, meditative, pensive

2 capable of reflecting: a reflective coating reflector n

1 a polished surface for reflecting light

2 a reflecting telescope reflex n

- 1 an immediate involuntary response to a given stimulus
- 2 a mechanical response to a particular situation, involving no conscious decision
- 3 an image produced by reflection
- adj
- 4 of or caused by a reflex: a reflex action
- 5 reflected
- 6 (maths) (of an angle) between 180° and 360°

reflexive adj

- 1 (grammar) denoting a pronoun that refers back to the subject of a sentence or clause. Thus, in that man thinks a great deal of himself, the pronoun himself is reflexive
- 2 (grammar) denoting a verb used with a reflexive pronoun as its direct object, as in to dress oneself
- 3 (physiol) of or relating to a reflex
- n
- 4 a reflexive pronoun or verb reflexology n foot massage as a therapy in alternative medicine > reflexologist n

reform n

- 1 correction of abuses or malpractices: a programme of economic reforms
- ◇ SYNONYMS: improvement, amendment, rehabilitation, betterment
- 2 improvement of morals or behaviour
- vb
- 3 to improve (a law or institution) by correcting abuses
- ◇ SYNONYMS: improve, correct, restore, amend, mend, rectify
- 4 to give up or cause to give up a bad habit or way of life
- ◇ SYNONYMS: mend your ways, go straight (informal), shape up (informal), turn over a new leaf, clean up your act (informal), pull your socks up (Brit informal)
- > reformative adj
- > reformer n

reformation (ref-fer-may-shun) n

1 a reforming

2 the Reformation a religious movement in 16th-century Europe that began as an attempt to reform the Roman Catholic Church and resulted in the establishment of the Protestant Churches reformatory n, pl -ries (formerly) a place where young offenders were sent to be reformed refract vb to cause light, heat, or sound to undergo refraction > refractive adj

> refractor n

refraction n (physics)

1 the change in direction of a wave, such as light or sound, in passing from one medium to another in which it has a different velocity

2 the amount by which a wave is refracted refractory adj

1 (formal) stubborn or rebellious

2 (med) not responding to treatment

3 (of a material) able to withstand high temperatures without fusion or decomposition refrain¹ vb refrain from to keep oneself from doing

◇ SYNONYMS: stop, avoid, cease, renounce, abstain, leave off, desist, forbear refrain² n

1 a frequently repeated part of a song

◇ SYNONYMS: chorus, tune, melody

2 a much repeated saying or idea refresh vb

1 to revive or reinvigorate, for example through rest, drink, or food

◇ SYNONYMS: revive, freshen, revitalize, stimulate, brace, enliven, invigorate

2 to stimulate (the memory)

◇ SYNONYMS: stimulate, prompt, renew, jog > refresher n

refreshing adj

1 having a reviving effect

◇ SYNONYMS: stimulating, fresh, bracing, invigorating

2 pleasantly different or new: refreshing candour

◇ SYNONYMS: new, original, novel refreshment n

1 the act of refreshing

2 refreshments snacks and drinks served as a light meal

◇ SYNONYMS: food and drink, drinks, snacks, titbits, kai (NZ informal) refrigerate vb -rating, -rated to chill or freeze in order to preserve > refrigeration n refrigerator n the full name for fridge refuge n

1 shelter or protection from danger or hardship

◇ SYNONYMS: protection, shelter, asylum

2 a place, person, or thing that offers protection or help

◇ SYNONYMS: haven, retreat, sanctuary, hide-out refugee n a person who has fled from some danger, such as war or political persecution

◇ SYNONYMS: exile, émigré, displaced person, escapee refulgent adj (literary) shining brightly > refulgence n

refund vb

1 to give back (money)

◇ SYNONYMS: repay, return, restore, pay back, reimburse

2 to pay back (a person)

► n

3 return of money to a purchaser or the amount returned ◇ SYNONYMS: repayment, reimbursement, return > refundable adj

refurbish vb to renovate and brighten up ◇ SYNONYMS: renovate, restore, repair, clean up, overhaul, revamp, mend, do up (informal) > refurbishment n refusal n

1 the act of refusing

◇ SYNONYMS: rejection, denial, rebuff, knock-back (slang)

2 the opportunity to reject or accept: he was given first refusal on all three scripts refuse¹ (rif-yooz) vb -fusing, -fused

1 to be determined not (to do something): he refuses to consider it

◇ SYNONYMS: decline, reject, turn down, say no to

2 to decline to give or allow (something) to (someone): if the judge refuses bail, he'll appeal

◇ SYNONYMS: deny, decline, withhold

3 to decline to accept (something offered): he refused the captaincy

◇ SYNONYMS: decline, reject, turn down, say no to 4 (of a horse) to be unwilling to jump a fence refuse² (ref-yoos) n anything thrown away; rubbish

◇ SYNONYMS: rubbish, waste, junk (informal), litter, garbage (chiefly US), trash (chiefly US & Canad) refute vb -futing, -futed to prove (a statement or theory) to be false or incorrect > refutation n

regain vb

1 to get back or recover

◇ SYNONYMS: recover, get back, retrieve, recapture, win back, take back, recoup

2 to reach again: to regain the shore

◇ SYNONYMS: get back to, return to, reach again regal adj

1 of or fit for a king or queen

◇ SYNONYMS: royal, majestic, kingly or queenly, noble, princely, magnificent

2 splendid and dignified; magnificent: a luxury cruise liner on her serene and regal way around the better ports

◇ SYNONYMS: royal, majestic, kingly or queenly, noble, princely, magnificent > regality n

> regally adv

regale vb -galing, -galed

1 to give delight or amusement to: she would regale her friends with stories

2 to provide with abundant food or drink regalia n the ceremonial emblems or robes of royalty or high office regard vb

1 to look upon or think of in a specified way: angina can therefore be regarded as heart cramp

◇ SYNONYMS: consider, see, rate, view, judge, think of, esteem (formal), deem

2 to look closely or attentively at (something or someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: look at, view, eye, watch, observe, clock (Brit slang), check out (informal), gaze at

3 to take notice of: he has never regarded the conventions

4 as regards on the subject of ◇ SYNONYMS as regards: concerning, regarding, relating to, pertaining to

► n

5 respect or affection: you haven't a high regard for her opinion

◇ SYNONYMS: respect, esteem, thought, concern, care, consideration

6 attention: he eats what he wants with no regard to health

7 a gaze or look

◇ SYNONYMS: look, gaze, scrutiny, stare, glance

8 reference or connection: with regard to my complaint

9 regards an expression of goodwill: give her my regards

◇ SYNONYMS: good wishes, respects, greetings, compliments, best wishes regardless adj

1 regardless of taking no notice of: the illness can affect anyone regardless of their social class

◇ SYNONYMS: irrespective of, heedless of, unmindful of

► adv

2 in spite of everything: I carried on regardless

◇ SYNONYMS: in spite of everything, anyway, nevertheless, in any case regatta n a series of races of boats or yachts regency n, pl -cies

1 government by a regent

2 the status of a regent

3 a period when a regent is in power regenerate vb (ri-jen-er-ate) -rating, -rated

1 to undergo or cause to undergo physical, economic, or spiritual renewal

2 to come or bring into existence once again

3 to replace (lost or damaged tissues or organs) by new growth

► adj (ri-jen-er-it)

4 physically, economically, or spiritually renewed > regeneration n

> regenerative adj

regent n

- 1 the ruler of a country during the childhood, absence, or illness of its monarch 2 (US & Canad) a member of the governing board of certain schools and colleges
▶ adj
3 acting as a regent: the Prince Regent reggae n a type of popular music of Jamaican origin with a strong beat regicide n

- 1 the killing of a king 2 a person who kills a king regime (ray-zheem) n

- 1 a system of government ◇ SYNONYMS: government, rule, management, leadership, reign
2 a particular administration: the corrupt regime
◇ SYNONYMS: government, rule, management, leadership, reign
3 (med) a regimen ◇ SYNONYMS: plan, course, system, policy, programme, scheme, regimen regimen n a prescribed system of diet and exercise regiment n

- 1 an organized body of troops as a unit in the army 2 a large number or group > regimental adj regimented adj very strictly controlled: the regimented confines of the school > regimentation n

region n

1 an administrative division of a country

◇ SYNONYMS: area, place, part, quarter, section, sector, district, territory

2 an area considered as a unit for geographical or social reasons

◇ SYNONYMS: area, place, part, quarter, section, sector, district, territory

3 a sphere of activity or interest

4 a part of the body: the lumbar region

5 in the region of approximately: in the region of 100 000 troops

6 the regions the parts of a country away from the capital: discord between Moscow and the regions

> regional adj

register n

1 an official list recording names, events, or transactions

◇ SYNONYMS: list, record, roll, file, diary, catalogue, log, archives

2 the book in which such a list is written

◇ SYNONYMS: list, record, roll, file, diary, catalogue, log, archives

3 a device that records data, totals sums of money, etc.: a cash register

4 a style of speaking or writing, such as slang, used in particular circumstances or social situations

5 (music)

A the timbre characteristic of a certain manner of voice production

B any of the stops on an organ in respect of its tonal quality: the flute register

► vb

6 to enter (an event, person's name, ownership, etc.) in a register

◇ SYNONYMS: enrol, enlist, list, note, enter

7 to show on a scale or other measuring instrument

◇ SYNONYMS: indicate, show

8 to show in a person's face or bearing: his face registered surprise

◇ SYNONYMS: show, mark, indicate, manifest

9 (informal) to have an effect or make an impression: the news did not register at first > registration n

register office n (Brit) a government office where civil marriages are performed and births, marriages, and deaths are recorded registrar n

- 1 a person who keeps official records
- 2 an official responsible for student records and enrolment in a college
- 3 (Brit & Austral & S African) a hospital doctor senior to a house officer but junior to a consultant
- 4 an organization that administers the reservation of internet domain names

registration number n (Brit) a sequence of letters and numbers given to a motor vehicle when it is registered, displayed on numberplates at the front and rear

Regius professor (reej-yuss) n (Brit) a person appointed by the Crown to a university chair founded by a royal patron regress vb

- 1 to return to a former and worse condition
- n
- 2 a return to a former and worse condition
- > regressive adj

regression n

- 1 the act of regressing
- 2 (psychol) the use by an adult of behaviour more appropriate to a child regret vb -gretting, -gretted

- 1 to feel sorry or upset about
- ◇ SYNONYMS: mourn, miss, grieve for or over
- 2 to express apology or distress about: we regret any misunderstanding caused
- n
- 3 a feeling of repentance, guilt, or sorrow
- ◇ SYNONYMS: sorrow
- 4 regrets a polite expression of refusal: she had sent her regrets
- > regretful adj

- > regretfully adv
- > regrettable adj
- > regrettably adv

regular adj

- 1 normal, customary, or usual
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: normal, common, usual, ordinary, typical, routine, customary, habitual
- 2 symmetrical or even: regular features
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: even, level, balanced, straight, flat, fixed, smooth, uniform
- 3 according to a uniform principle, arrangement, or order
- 4 occurring at fixed or prearranged intervals: we run regular advertisements in the press
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: frequent
- 5 following a set rule or normal practice
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: normal, common, usual, ordinary, typical, routine, customary, habitual
- 6 (grammar) following the usual pattern of formation in a language: regular verbs
- 7 of or serving in the permanent military services: the regular armed forces
- 8 (maths) (of a polygon) having all its sides and angles the same
- 9 officially qualified or recognized: he's not a regular doctor
- 10 (informal) not constipated: eating fresh vegetables helps keep you regular
- 11 (US & Canad informal) likeable: a regular guy
- 12 complete or utter: a regular fool
- 13 subject to the rule of an established religious community: canons regular
- n
- 14 a professional long-term serviceman or servicewoman in a military unit
- 15 (informal) a frequent customer or visitor
- > regularity n
- > regularize or -rise vb
- > regularly adv

regulate vb -lating, -lated

- 1 to control by means of rules: a code of practice to regulate advertising by schools
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: control, run, rule, manage, direct, guide, handle, govern

2 to adjust slightly: he had to take drugs to regulate his heartbeat

◇ SYNONYMS: moderate, control, modulate, fit, tune, adjust > regulatory adj

regulation n

1 a rule that governs procedure or behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: rule, order, law, dictate, decree, statute, edict, precept

2 the act of regulating

◇ SYNONYMS: control, government, management, direction, supervision

► adj

3 in accordance with rules or conventions: dressed in the orchestra's regulation black tie regulator n

1 a mechanism that automatically controls pressure, temperature, etc.

2 the mechanism by which the speed of a clock is regulated regurgitate vb -tating, -tated

1 to vomit

2 (of some birds and animals) to bring back (partly digested food) to the mouth to feed the young

3 to reproduce (ideas or facts) without understanding them > regurgitation n

rehabilitate vb -tating, -tated

1 to help (a person) to readapt to society after illness or imprisonment

2 to restore to a former position or rank

3 to restore the good reputation of > rehabilitation n

rehash vb

1 to use (old or already used ideas) in a slightly different form without real improvement

► n

2 old ideas presented in a new form rehearse vb -hearsing, -hearsed

1 to practise (a play, concert, etc.) for public performance

◇ SYNONYMS: practise, prepare, run through, go over, train, repeat, drill, recite

2 to repeat aloud: he rehearsed his familiar views on the press

3 to train (a person) for public performance > rehearsal n

> rehearser n

rehouse vb -housing, -housed to provide with a new and better home reign n

1 the period during which a monarch is the official ruler of a country

◇ SYNONYMS: rule, power, control, command, monarchy, dominion

2 a period during which a person or thing is dominant: a reign of terror

► vb

3 to rule (a country)

◇ SYNONYMS: rule, govern, be in power, influence, command

4 to be supreme: a sense of confusion reigns in the capital

◇ SYNONYMS: be supreme, prevail, predominate, hold sway reimburse vb -bursing, -bursed to repay (someone) for (expenses or losses) > reimbursement n

rein n

1 reins

A long narrow straps attached to a bit to control a horse

◇ SYNONYMS: control, harness, bridle, hold, check, brake, curb, restraint

B narrow straps attached to a harness to control a young child

◇ SYNONYMS: control, harness, bridle, hold, check, brake, curb, restraint

C means of control: to take up the reins of government

2 give (a) free rein to allow a considerable amount of freedom

3 keep a tight rein on to control carefully: we have to keep a tight rein on expenditure

► vb

4 to restrain or halt with reins

5 to control or limit: reining her thoughts, she tried to be objective reincarnate vb -nating, -nated (often passive) to be born again in a different body: souls may be reincarnated in human forms

reincarnation n

1 the belief that after death the soul is reborn in another body

◇ SYNONYMS: rebirth

2 an instance of rebirth in another body

3 reappearance in a new form of a principle or idea: he was the reincarnation of the old Republican Party isolationist reindeer n, pl -deer or -deers a deer with large branched antlers that lives in the arctic regions reinforce vb -inforcing, -inforced

1 to give added emphasis to (an idea or feeling): his tired face reinforced his own weariness

2 to make physically stronger or harder: the plastic panels were reinforced with carbon fibre

◇ SYNONYMS: support, strengthen, fortify, toughen, stress, prop, supplement, emphasize

3 to give added support to (a military force) by providing more men or equipment: the army garrison had been reinforced with helicopters

◇ SYNONYMS: increase, extend, add to, strengthen, supplement > reinforcement n

reinforced concrete n concrete with steel bars or mesh embedded in it to strengthen it reinstate vb -stating, -stated

1 to restore to a former rank or status

◇ SYNONYMS: restore, recall, re-establish, return

2 to cause to exist or be important again: reinstate some semblance of order > reinstatement n

reiterate vb -rating, -rated (formal) to repeat again and again

◇ SYNONYMS: repeat, restate, say again, do again > reiteration n

reject vb

1 to refuse to accept, use, or believe

◇ SYNONYMS: deny, exclude, veto, relinquish, renounce, disallow, forsake, disown

2 to deny to (a person) the feelings hoped for: the boy had been rejected by his mother

◇ SYNONYMS: rebuff, jilt, turn down, spurn, refuse, say no to, repulse, unfollow, unfriend

3 to pass over or throw out as useless

◇ SYNONYMS: discard, decline, eliminate, scrap, jettison, throw away or out

4 (of an organism) to fail to accept (a tissue graft or organ transplant)

► n

5 a person or thing rejected as not up to standard

◇ SYNONYMS: failure, loser, flop (informal) > rejection n

rejig vb -jigging, -jigged

1 to re-equip (a factory or plant)

2 (informal) to rearrange or manipulate, sometimes in an unscrupulous way: the promoter hastily rejigged the running order

rejoice vb -joicing, -joiced to feel or express great happiness

◇ SYNONYMS: be glad, celebrate, be happy, glory, be overjoyed, exult > rejoicing n

rejoin¹ vb to come together with (someone or something) again rejoin² vb to reply in a sharp or witty way

◇ SYNONYMS: reply, answer, respond, retort, riposte rejoinder n a sharp or witty reply rejuvenate vb -nating, -nated to give back youth or vitality to > rejuvenation n

relapse vb -lapsing, -lapsed

1 to fall back into bad habits or illness

► n

2 the act of relapsing

3 the return of ill health after an apparent or partial recovery relate vb -lating, -lated

1 to establish a relation between ◇ SYNONYMS relate to something or someone: connect with, associate with, link with, couple with, join with, correlate to

2 to have reference or relation to ◇ SYNONYMS relate to something or someone: concern, refer to, apply to, have to do with, pertain to, be relevant to

3 to have an understanding (of people or ideas): the inability to relate to others

4 to tell (a story) or describe (an event)

◇ SYNONYMS: tell, recount, report, detail, describe, recite, narrate related adj

1 linked by kinship or marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: akin, kindred

2 connected or associated: salts and related compounds

◇ SYNONYMS: associated, linked, joint, connected, affiliated, akin, interconnected relation n

1 the connection between things or people

◇ SYNONYMS: similarity, link, bearing, bond, comparison, correlation, connection

2 a person who is connected by blood or marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: relative, kin, kinsman or woman or person, rellie (Austral slang)

3 connection by blood or marriage

4 an account or narrative

5 in or with relation to with reference to: an inquiry into export controls in relation to Iraq

relationship n

1 the dealings and feelings that exist between people or groups

◇ SYNONYMS: association, bond, connection, affinity, rapport, kinship

2 an emotional or sexual affair

◇ SYNONYMS: affair, romance, liaison, amour, intrigue

3 the connection between two things: the relationship between exercise and mental health

◇ SYNONYMS: connection, link, parallel, similarity, tie-up, correlation, read-across

4 association by blood or marriage relative adj

1 true to a certain degree or extent: a zone of relative affluence

◇ SYNONYMS: comparative

2 having significance only in relation to something else: time is relative

3 relative to in proportion to: it will benefit from high growth in earnings relative to prices

◇ SYNONYMS: in proportion to, proportionate to 4 respective: the relative qualities of speed and accuracy

◇ SYNONYMS: corresponding

5 relevant: the facts relative to the enquiry

6 (grammar) of a clause (relative clause) that modifies a noun or pronoun occurring earlier in the sentence

7 (grammar) of or belonging to a class of words, such as who, which, or that, which function as conjunctions introducing relative clauses

► n

8 a person who is related by blood or marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: relation, kinsman or woman or person, member of your or the family, cuzzie or cuzzie-bro (NZ), rellie (Austral slang) > relatively adv

relativity n

1 either of two theories developed by Albert Einstein, the special theory of relativity, which requires that the laws of physics shall be the same as seen by any two different observers in uniform relative motion, and the general theory of relativity, which considers observers with relative acceleration and leads to a theory of gravitation

2 the state of being relative relax vb

1 to make or become less tense, looser, or less rigid

◇ SYNONYMS: make less tense, rest

2 to ease up from effort or attention

◇ SYNONYMS: calm down, calm, unwind

3 to make (rules or discipline) less strict

◇ SYNONYMS: moderate, ease, relieve, weaken, slacken

4 to become more friendly

◇ SYNONYMS: be or feel at ease, chill out (slang), take it easy, lighten up (slang), outspan (S African)

5 to lessen the intensity of: he relaxed his vigilance in the lulls between attacks

◇ SYNONYMS: lessen, reduce, ease, relieve, weaken, loosen, let up, slacken > relaxed adj

> relaxing adj

relaxation n

1 rest after work or effort

◇ SYNONYMS: leisure, rest, fun, pleasure, recreation, enjoyment, me-time

2 a form of recreation: his favoured form of relaxation was walking on the local moors

◇ SYNONYMS: leisure, rest, fun, pleasure, recreation, enjoyment, me-time

3 the act of relaxing relay n

1 a fresh set of people or animals relieving others

2 short for relay race

3 an automatic device that controls a valve or switch, esp. one in which a small change in current or voltage controls the switching on or off of circuits

4 (radio) a combination of a receiver and transmitter designed to receive radio signals and retransmit them

► vb

5 to pass on (a message)

6 to retransmit (a signal) by means of a relay

◇ SYNONYMS: broadcast, carry, spread, communicate, transmit, send out, stream

7 (Brit) to broadcast (a performance or event) as it happens

◇ SYNONYMS: broadcast, carry, spread, communicate, transmit, send out, stream

relay race n a race between teams in which each contestant covers a specified portion of the distance release vb -leasing, -leased

1 to free (a person or animal) from captivity or imprisonment

◇ SYNONYMS: set free, free, discharge, liberate, drop, loose, undo, extricate

2 to free (someone) from obligation or duty

◇ SYNONYMS: acquit, let go, let off, exonerate, absolve

3 to free (something) from (one's grip)

4 to allow (news or information) to be made public or available

◇ SYNONYMS: issue, publish, make public, make known, launch, distribute, put out, circulate

5 to allow (something) to move freely: she released the handbrake

6 to issue (a music recording, film, or book) for sale or public showing: When was the film originally released?

7 to give out (heat, energy, radiation, etc.): the explosion released a cloud of toxic gas

► n

8 the act of freeing or state of being freed

◇ SYNONYMS: liberation, freedom, liberty, discharge, emancipation, deliverance

9 a statement to the press

◇ SYNONYMS: issue, publication, proclamation

10 the act of issuing for sale or publication

11 something issued for sale or public showing relegate vb -gating, -gated

1 to put in a less important position

◇ SYNONYMS: demote, degrade, downgrade

2 to demote (a sports team) to a lower division: four clubs were relegated from the first division

◇ SYNONYMS: demote, degrade, downgrade

> relegation n

relent vb

1 to change one's mind about some decision

2 to become milder or less severe: the weather relented relentless adj

1 never stopping or reducing in severity: relentless deterioration in standards

◇ SYNONYMS: unrelenting, persistent, unrelenting, incessant, nonstop, unrelieved

2 (of a person) determined and pitiless

◇ SYNONYMS: merciless, fierce, cruel, ruthless, unrelenting, implacable, remorseless, pitiless relevant adj to do with the matter in hand

◇ SYNONYMS: significant, appropriate, related, fitting, to the point, apt, pertinent, apposite > relevance n

reliable adj able to be trusted ◇ SYNONYMS: dependable, trustworthy, sure, sound, true, faithful, staunch > reliability n

> reliably adv

reliance n the state of relying on or trusting (a person or thing)

◇ SYNONYMS: trust, confidence, belief, faith > reliant adj

relic n

1 an object or custom that has survived from the past

◇ SYNONYMS: remnant, vestige, memento, trace, fragment, souvenir, keepsake

2 something valued for its past associations

◇ SYNONYMS: remnant, vestige, memento, trace, fragment, souvenir, keepsake

3 relics remaining parts or traces 4 (RC Church, Eastern churches) a body part or possession of a saint, venerated as holy relict n

1 a group of animals or plants that exists as a remnant of a formerly widely distributed group in an environment different from that in which it originated

2 (archaic) anything that is left behind from an earlier time relief n

1 a feeling of cheerfulness that follows the removal of anxiety, pain, or distress

◇ SYNONYMS: ease, release, comfort, cure, remedy, solace, deliverance, mitigation

2 a temporary pause in anxiety, pain, or distress

◇ SYNONYMS: rest, respite, relaxation, break, breather (informal)

3 money, food, or clothing given to people in special need: disaster relief

◇ SYNONYMS: aid, help, support, assistance, succour

4 the act of freeing a besieged town or fortress: the relief of Mafeking

5 a person who replaces another at some task or duty

6 a bus, plane, etc., that carries additional passengers when a scheduled service is full

7 Also called: relievo (sculpture, archit) the projection of a carved design from the surface

8 any vivid effect resulting from contrast: a welcome relief

◇ SYNONYMS: ease, release, comfort, cure, remedy, solace, deliverance, mitigation

9 the difference between the highest and lowest level: study the map of relief and the rainfall map

10 on relief (US & Canad) (of people) in receipt of government aid because of personal need relief map n a map showing the shape and height of the land surface by contours and shading relieve vb -lieving, -lieved

1 to lessen (pain, distress, boredom, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: ease, soothe, alleviate, relax, comfort, calm, cure, soften

2 to bring assistance to (someone in need): a plan to relieve those facing hunger

◇ SYNONYMS: help, support, aid, sustain, assist, succour

3 to free (someone) from an obligation: a further attempt to relieve the taxpayers of their burdens

4 to take over the duties of (someone): the night nurse came in to relieve her

5 to free (a besieged town or fort)

6 relieve oneself to urinate or defecate

7 to set off by contrast: painted walls are marginally relieved by some abstract prints

8 (informal) to take from: the prince had relieved him of his duties > relieved adj

religion n

1 belief in or worship of a supernatural power or powers considered to be divine or to have control of human destiny

◇ SYNONYMS: belief, faith, theology, creed

2 any formal expression of such belief: the Christian religion

◇ SYNONYMS: belief, faith, theology, creed

3 (chiefly RC Church) the way of life entered upon by monks and nuns: to enter religion religious adj

1 of religion

◇ SYNONYMS: spiritual, holy, sacred, devotional

2 pious or devout

3 scrupulous or conscientious: religious attention to detail

◇ SYNONYMS: conscientious, faithful, rigid, meticulous, scrupulous, punctilious (formal)

4 (Christianity) relating to the way of life of monks and nuns

► n

5 (Christianity) a monk or nun > religiously adv

relinquish vb (formal)

1 to give up: that hope has to be relinquished

◇ SYNONYMS: give up, leave, drop, abandon, surrender, let go, renounce, forsake

2 to renounce (a claim or right)

◇ SYNONYMS: give up, leave, drop, abandon, surrender, let go, renounce, forsake

3 to release one's hold on > relinquishment n

reliquary (rel-lik-wer-ee) n, pl -quaries a container for relics of saints relish vb

1 to savour or enjoy (an experience) to the full

◇ SYNONYMS: enjoy, like, savour, revel in

2 to anticipate eagerly

◇ SYNONYMS: look forward to, fancy (informal), delight in

► n

3 liking or enjoyment: he has an enormous relish for life

◇ SYNONYMS: enjoyment, liking, love, taste, fancy, penchant, fondness, gusto

4 pleasurable anticipation: his early relish for a new challenge

5 an appetizing or spicy food, such as a pickle, added to a main dish to improve its flavour

◇ SYNONYMS: condiment, seasoning, sauce

6 a zestful quality: he tells stories with great relish relocate vb -cating, -cated to move or be moved to a new place of work > relocation n

reluctance n

1 unwillingness to do something

◇ SYNONYMS: unwillingness, dislike, loathing, distaste, aversion, disinclination, repugnance

2 (physics) a measure of the resistance of a closed magnetic circuit to a magnetic flux reluctant adj unwilling or disinclined

◇ SYNONYMS: unwilling, hesitant, loath, disinclined, unenthusiastic > reluctantly adv

rely vb -lies, -lying, -lied > rely on or upon

A to be dependent on: the organization relies on voluntary contributions

◇ SYNONYMS: depend on, lean on

B to have trust or confidence in: you can rely on his judgment

◇ SYNONYMS: be confident of, bank on, trust, count on, bet on remain vb

1 to continue to be: the situation remains alarming

◇ SYNONYMS: stay, continue, go on, stand, dwell (formal, literary)

2 to stay behind or in the same place: to remain at home

◇ SYNONYMS: stay behind, wait, delay

3 to be left after use or the passage of time

4 to be left to be done, said, etc.: whether this will be a long-term trend remains to be seen remainder n

1 a part or portion that is left after use or the passage of time: we ate some biscuits and the remainder of the jam

◇ SYNONYMS: rest, remains, balance, excess, surplus, remnant, residue, leavings

2 (maths)

A the amount left over when one quantity cannot be exactly divided by another: for $10 \div 3$, the remainder is 1

B the amount left over when one quantity is subtracted from another

3 a number of copies of a book sold cheaply because it has been impossible to sell them at full price

► vb

4 to sell (copies of a book) as a remainder remains pl n

1 parts left over from something after use or the passage of time: the remains of the old Roman fortress

◇ SYNONYMS: remnants, leftovers, rest, debris, residue, dregs, leavings

2 a corpse

◇ SYNONYMS: corpse, body, carcass, cadaver remand vb

1 (law) to send (a prisoner or accused person) back into custody or put on bail before trial

► n

2 the sending of a person back into custody or putting on bail before trial

3 on remand in custody or on bail awaiting trial remand centre n a place where accused people are detained while awaiting trial remark vb

1 to pass a casual comment (about)

◇ SYNONYMS: comment, say, state, reflect, mention, declare, observe, pass comment

2 to say

◇ SYNONYMS: comment, say, state, reflect, mention, declare, observe, pass comment

3 to observe or notice

◇ SYNONYMS: notice, note, observe, perceive, see, mark, make out, espy

► n

4 a brief casually expressed thought or opinion

◇ SYNONYMS: comment, observation, reflection, statement, utterance remarkable adj

1 worthy of note or attention: a remarkable career

◇ SYNONYMS: extraordinary, striking, outstanding, wonderful, rare, unusual, surprising, notable

2 striking or extraordinary: a thing of remarkable beauty

◇ SYNONYMS: extraordinary, striking, outstanding, wonderful, rare, unusual, surprising, notable > remarkably adv

remedial adj

1 providing or intended as a remedy

2 of special teaching for slow learners: remedial classes > remedially adv

remedy n, pl -edies

1 a drug or treatment for curing pain or disease

◇ SYNONYMS: cure, treatment, medicine, nostrum

2 a way of solving a problem: every statesman promised a remedy for unemployment

► vb -edies, -edying, -edied

3 to put right or improve

◇ SYNONYMS: put right, rectify, fix, correct, set to rights > remediable adj

remember vb

1 to become aware of (something forgotten) again

◇ SYNONYMS: recall, think back to, recollect, reminisce about, call to mind

2 to keep (an idea, intention, etc.) in one's mind: remember to write

◇ SYNONYMS: bear in mind, keep in mind

3 to give money to (someone), as in a will or in tipping

4 remember to to mention (a person's name) to another person, by way of greeting: remember me to her

5 to commemorate: we are here to remember the dead

◇ SYNONYMS: look back (on), commemorate remembrance n

1 a memory

◇ SYNONYMS: memory, recollection, thought, recall, reminiscence

2 a memento or keepsake

◇ SYNONYMS: souvenir, token, reminder, monument, memento, keepsake

3 the act of honouring some past event or person

◇ SYNONYMS: commemoration, memorial remind vb

1 to cause to remember: remind her that she was on duty

◇ SYNONYMS: jog your memory, prompt, make you remember

2 to put in mind (of someone or something): you remind me of Alice in Wonderland reminder n

1 something that recalls the past

2 a note to remind a person of something not done reminisce vb -niscing, -niscd to talk or write about old times or past experiences reminiscence n

1 the act of recalling or narrating past experiences

2 something remembered from the past

3 reminiscences stories about a person's life, often presented in a book reminiscent adj

1 reminiscent of reminding or suggestive of ◇ SYNONYMS: suggestive, evocative, similar

2 characterized by reminiscence remiss adj (formal) careless in attention to duty or responsibility remission n

1 a reduction in the length of a prison term

2 forgiveness for sin

3 easing of intensity of the symptoms of a disease

4 a release from an obligation remit vb (rim-mitt) -mitting, -mitted

1 to send (money) for goods or services

2 to cancel (a punishment or debt)

3 (law) to send back (a case) to a lower court for further consideration

4 to slacken or ease off

5 (archaic) to forgive (crime or sins)

► n (ree-mitt)

6 area of authority: within the review body's remit remittance n money sent as payment remnant n

1 a part left over

◇ SYNONYMS: remainder, remains, trace, fragment, end, rest, residue, leftovers

2 a piece of material from the end of a roll

3 a surviving trace or vestige: the authorities drafted in the military to crush any remnant of protest

◇ SYNONYMS: remainder, remains, trace, fragment, end, rest, residue, leftovers remonstrance n (formal) a strong protest about something remonstrate vb -strating, -strated (formal) to argue in protest or objection: the player remonstrated loudly with the official > remonstration n

remorse n a sense of deep regret and guilt for something one did ◇ SYNONYMS: regret, shame, guilt, grief, sorrow, anguish, repentance, contrition > remorseful adj

remorseless adj

1 constantly unkind and lacking pity: remorseless fate

2 continually intense: the superintendent's remorseless gaze remote adj

1 far away

◇ SYNONYMS: distant, far, isolated, out-of-the-way, secluded, inaccessible, in the middle of nowhere

2 far from civilization

◇ SYNONYMS: distant, far, isolated, out-of-the-way, secluded, inaccessible, in the middle of nowhere

3 distant in time

◇ SYNONYMS: far, distant

4 not relevant: the issues seem remote from the general population

5 (of a person's manner) aloof or abstracted

◇ SYNONYMS: aloof, cold, reserved, withdrawn, distant, abstracted, detached, uncommunicative

6 slight or faint: a remote possibility

◇ SYNONYMS: slight, small, outside, unlikely, slim, faint, doubtful, dubious

7 operated from a distance; remote-controlled: a remote manipulator arm > remotely adv

remote control n control of an apparatus from a distance by radio or electrical signals > remote-controlled adj remould vb

- 1 to change completely: to remould the country
- 2 (Brit) to bond a new tread onto the casing of (a worn pneumatic tyre)
▶ n
- 3 (Brit) a tyre made by this process removable adj capable of being removed from a place or released from another object: a farmer's truck with removable wooden sides

removal n

- 1 the act of removing or state of being removed ◇ SYNONYMS: dismissal, expulsion, elimination, ejection
- 2 the process of moving one's possessions from a previous address to a new one ◇ SYNONYMS: move, transfer, departure, relocation, flitting (Scot & N English dialect) remove vb -moving, -moved

- 1 to take away and place elsewhere ◇ SYNONYMS: take away, detach, displace
- 2 to take (clothing) off ◇ SYNONYMS: take off
- 3 to get rid of ◇ SYNONYMS: erase, eliminate, take out
- 4 to dismiss (someone) from office ◇ SYNONYMS: dismiss, eliminate, get rid of, discharge, abolish, expel, throw out, oust
- 5 (formal) to change the location of one's home or place of business ◇ SYNONYMS: move, depart, relocate, flit (Scot & N English dialect)
▶ n
- 6 the degree of difference: one remove away from complete rebuttal

7 (Brit) (in certain schools) a class or form designed to prepare pupils for senior classes remunerate vb -rating, -rated (formal) to reward or pay for work or service > remuneration n

> remunerative adj

renaissance n a renewal of interest or creativity in an area: a complete renaissance in maze building

◇ SYNONYMS: rebirth, revival, restoration, renewal, resurgence, reappearance, reawakening

Renaissance n

1 the Renaissance the great revival of art, literature, and learning in Europe in the 14th, 15th, and 16th centuries

► adj

2 of or from the Renaissance renal (ree-nal) adj of the kidneys renascent adj (literary) becoming active or vigorous again: renascent nationalism

> renaissance n

rend vb rending, rent (literary)

1 to tear violently

◇ SYNONYMS: tear, rip, separate, wrench, rupture

2 (of a sound) to break (the silence) with a shrill or piercing tone

◇ SYNONYMS: tear, rip, separate, wrench, rupture render vb

1 to cause to become: he was rendered unconscious by his wound

◇ SYNONYMS: make, cause to become, leave

2 to give or provide (aid, a service, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: provide, give, pay, present, supply, submit, tender, hand out

3 (formal) to present or submit (a bill)

4 to translate

5 to represent in painting, music, or acting

◇ SYNONYMS: represent, portray, depict, do, give, play, act, perform

6 to yield or give: he rendered up his soul to God

7 to cover with plaster

8 to melt down (fat) > rendering n

rendezvous (ron-day-voo) n, pl -vous (-vooz)

1 an appointment to meet at a specified time and place

2 a place where people meet

► vb

3 to meet at a specified time or place rendition n (formal)

1 a performance of a piece of music or a dramatic role

2 a translation renegade n a person who deserts a cause for another renege (rin-nayg) vb -neging, -neged to go back (on an agreement or promise):

the politicians reneged on every promise renew vb

1 to begin again

◇ SYNONYMS: recommence, continue, extend, repeat, resume, reopen, re-create, reaffirm

2 to take up again after a break: they wanted to renew diplomatic ties

◇ SYNONYMS: recommence, continue, extend, repeat, resume, reopen, re-create, reaffirm

3 to make valid again: we didn't renew the lease

4 to grow again

5 to restore to a new or fresh condition

◇ SYNONYMS: restore, repair, overhaul, mend, refurbish, renovate, refit, modernize

6 to replace (an old or worn-out part or piece)

◇ SYNONYMS: replace, refresh, replenish, restock

7 to restate or reaffirm (a promise) > renewal n

renewable adj

1 able to be renewed

2 (of energy or an energy source) inexhaustible or capable of being perpetually replenished

► pl n renewables

3 renewable energy sources, such as wind and wave power rennet n a substance prepared from the stomachs of calves and used for curdling milk to make cheese renounce vb -nouncing, -nounced

1 to give up (a belief or habit) voluntarily

◇ SYNONYMS: disown, quit, forsake, recant, forswear, abjure

2 to give up formally (a claim or right): he would renounce his rights to the throne

◇ SYNONYMS: disclaim, deny, give up, relinquish, waive, abjure renovate vb -vating, -vated to restore to good condition ◇ SYNONYMS: restore, repair, refurbish, do up (informal), renew, overhaul, refit, modernize > renovation n

> renovator n

renown n widespread good reputation renowned adj famous ◇ SYNONYMS: famous, noted, celebrated, well-known, distinguished, esteemed, notable, eminent rent¹ vb

1 to give or have use of (land, a building, a machine, etc.) in return for periodic payments

◇ SYNONYMS: let, lease

► n

2 a payment made periodically for the use of land, a building, a machine, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: hire, rental, lease, fee, payment rent² n

1 a slit made by tearing

◇ SYNONYMS: tear, split, rip, slash, slit, gash, hole

► vb

2 the past of rend rental n

1 the amount paid or received as rent

► adj

2 of or relating to rent renunciation n

1 the act or an instance of renouncing

2 a formal declaration renouncing something reoffend vb to commit another offence reorganize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised to organize in a new and more efficient way > reorganization or -nisation n rep¹ n (theatre) short for repertory company rep² n

1 a sales representative

2 someone elected to represent a group of people: the union rep

3 (NZ informal) a rugby player selected to represent his district repair¹ vb

1 to restore (something damaged or broken) to good condition or working order

◇ SYNONYMS: mend, fix, restore, heal, patch, renovate, patch up

2 to make up for (a mistake or injury)

◇ SYNONYMS: put right, make up for, compensate for, rectify, redress

3 to heal (a breach or division) in (something): he is attempting to repair his country's relations with America

► n

4 the act, task, or process of repairing

◇ SYNONYMS: mending, restoration, overhaul

5 a part that has been repaired

◇ SYNONYMS: darn, mend, patch

6 state or condition: many museums may have to close because they are in such bad repair

◇ SYNONYMS: condition, state, form, shape (informal) > repairable adj

repair² vb repair to (formal) to go to (a place) reparation n

1 the act of making up for loss or injury

2 reparations compensation paid by a defeated nation after a war for the damage and injuries it caused repartee n

1 conversation consisting of witty remarks

2 a sharp witty remark made as a reply repast n (literary) a meal repatriate vb -ating, -ated

1 to send back (a person) to the country of his or her birth or citizenship

► n

2 a person who has been repatriated: Algerian repatriates > repatriation n

repay vb -paying, -paid

1 to refund or reimburse

◇ SYNONYMS: pay back, refund, settle up, return, square, compensate, reimburse, recompense

2 to make a return for (something): to repay hospitality > repayable adj > repayment n repeal vb

1 to cancel (a law) officially

◇ SYNONYMS: abolish, reverse, revoke, annul, recall, cancel, invalidate, nullify

► n

2 the act of repealing: the repeal of repressive legislation

◇ SYNONYMS: abolition, cancellation, annulment, invalidation, rescindment > repealable adj

repeat vb

1 to say, write, or do again

◇ SYNONYMS: reiterate (formal), restate

2 to tell to another person (the secrets told to one by someone else)

◇ SYNONYMS: retell, echo, replay, reproduce, rerun, reshow

3 to recite (a poem, etc.) from memory

4 to occur more than once: this pattern repeats itself many times

5 (of food) to be tasted again after eating as the result of belching

6 to say (the words or sounds) uttered by someone else; echo

► n

7 the act or an instance of repeating

◇ SYNONYMS: repetition, echo, reiteration

8 a word, action, pattern, etc., that is repeated

9 (radio, television) a broadcast of a programme which has been broadcast before

◇ SYNONYMS: rerun, replay, reshowing

10 (music) a passage that is an exact restatement of the passage preceding it > repeated adj > repeatedly adv

> repeatable adj

repeater n

1 a gun capable of firing several shots without reloading

2 a clock or watch which strikes the hour or quarter-hour just past, when a spring is pressed repel vb -elling, -pelled

1 to cause (someone) to feel disgusted

◇ SYNONYMS: disgust, offend, revolt, sicken, nauseate, gross you out (US slang)

2 to force or drive back (someone or something)

◇ SYNONYMS: drive off, fight, resist, parry, hold off, rebuff, ward off, repulse

3 to be effective in keeping away or controlling: these buzzers are claimed to repel female mosquitoes

◇ SYNONYMS: drive off, fight, resist, parry, hold off, rebuff, ward off, repulse

4 to fail to mix with or absorb: water and oil repel each other

5 to reject or spurn: she repelled his advances repellent adj

1 disgusting or distasteful

2 resisting water, etc.

► n

3 a chemical used to keep insects or other creatures away repent vb to feel regret for (something bad one has done) > repentance n

> repentant adj

repertoire n

1 all the works that a company or performer can perform

2 the entire stock of skills or techniques that someone or something, such as a computer, is capable of: a superb repertoire of shots

◇ SYNONYMS: range, list, stock, supply, store, collection, repertory repertory n, pl -ries

1 same as repertoire

2 short for repertory company repertory company n a permanent theatre company producing a succession of plays repetition n

1 the act of repeating

◇ SYNONYMS: recurrence, repeating, echo

2 a thing that is repeated

◇ SYNONYMS: repeating, replication, restatement, reiteration, tautology

3 a replica or copy > repetitious adj

> repetitive adj

rephrase vb -phrasing, -phrased to express in different words > rephrasing n

repine vb -pining, -pined (literary) to be worried or discontented replace vb -placing, -placed

1 to take the place of ◇ SYNONYMS: take the place of, follow, succeed, oust, take over from, supersede, supplant

2 to substitute a person or thing for (another): we need to replace that chair

◇ SYNONYMS: substitute, change, exchange, switch, swap

3 to put (something) back in its rightful place

◇ SYNONYMS: put back, restore replacement n

1 the act or process of replacing

◇ SYNONYMS: replacing

2 a person or thing that replaces another

◇ SYNONYMS: successor, double, substitute, stand-in, proxy, surrogate, understudy replay n

1 a showing again of a sequence of action immediately after it happens

2 a second sports match played because an earlier game was drawn

► vb

3 to play (a recording, match, etc.) again replenish vb to make full or complete again by supplying what has been used up > replenishment n replete adj

1 pleasantly full of food and drink

2 well supplied: a world replete with true horror > repletion n

replica n an exact copy

◇ SYNONYMS: duplicate, copy, carbon copy replicate vb -cating, -cated to make or be an exact copy of; reproduce ◇ SYNONYMS: copy, reproduce, re-create, mimic, duplicate, reduplicate > replication n

reply vb -plies, -plying, -plied

1 to make answer (to) in words or writing or by an action

◇ SYNONYMS: answer, respond, retort, counter, rejoin, retaliate, reciprocate

2 to say (something) in answer: she replied that she did not believe him

◇ SYNONYMS: answer, respond, retort, counter, rejoin, retaliate, reciprocate

► n, pl -plies

3 an answer or response

◇ SYNONYMS: answer, response, reaction, counter, retort, retaliation, counterattack, rejoinder report vb

1 to give an account (of)

◇ SYNONYMS: inform of, communicate, recount

2 to give an account of the results of an investigation (into): the commission is to report on global warming

◇ SYNONYMS: communicate, tell, state, detail, describe, relate, broadcast, post, tweet, pass on

3 to make a formal report on (a subject)

◇ SYNONYMS: communicate, tell, state, detail, describe, relate, broadcast, post, tweet, pass on

4 to make a formal complaint about

5 to present (oneself) at an appointed place or for a specific purpose: report to the manager's office

◇ SYNONYMS: present yourself, come, appear, arrive, turn up

6 report to to be responsible to and under the authority of 7 to act as a reporter

► n

8 an account prepared after investigation and published or broadcast

◇ SYNONYMS: article, story, piece, write-up

9 an account of the discussions of a committee or other group of people: I have the report of the mining union

◇ SYNONYMS: account, record, statement, communication, description, narrative

10 a story for which there is no absolute proof: according to report, he is not dead

◇ SYNONYMS: rumour, talk, buzz, gossip, goss (informal), hearsay

11 a statement on the progress of a schoolchild

12 a loud bang made by a gun or explosion

◇ SYNONYMS: bang, sound, crack, noise, blast, boom, explosion, discharge

13 comment on a person's character or actions: he is of good report here > reportedly adv

reporter n a person who gathers news for a newspaper or broadcasting organization ◇ SYNONYMS: journalist, writer, correspondent, hack (derogatory), pressman or presswoman, journo (slang) repose n

1 a state of quiet restfulness

2 calmness or composure

3 sleep

► vb -posing, -posed

4 to lie or lay down at rest

5 to lie when dead repository n, pl -ries

1 a place or container in which things can be stored for safety: a repository for national treasures

2 a person to whom a secret is entrusted repossess vb (of a lender) to take back (property) from a customer who is behind with payments, for example mortgage repayments > repossession n reprehensible adj deserving criticism: Willie's reprehensible behaviour

represent vb

1 to act as the authorized delegate for (a person, country, etc.): she represented her country at the Olympic Games

◇ SYNONYMS: act for, speak for

2 to act as a substitute (for)

◇ SYNONYMS: stand for, serve as

3 to stand as an equivalent of ◇ SYNONYMS: express, correspond to, symbolize, mean

4 to be a means of expressing: the lights are relit to represent resurrection

◇ SYNONYMS: depict, show, describe, picture, illustrate, outline, portray, denote

5 to display the characteristics of: romanticism in music is represented by Liszt

◇ SYNONYMS: exemplify, embody, symbolize, typify, personify, epitomize

6 to describe as having a specified character or quality: the magical bird was often represented as having two heads

7 to state or explain

8 to present an image of through a picture or sculpture

◇ SYNONYMS: depict, show, describe, picture, illustrate, outline, portray, denote

9 to bring clearly before the mind representation n

1 the state of being represented

2 anything that represents, such as a pictorial portrait

◇ SYNONYMS: portrayal, depiction, account, description

3 representations formal statements made to an official body by a person making a complaint > representational adj representative n

1 a person chosen to act for or represent a group

◇ SYNONYMS: delegate, member, agent, deputy, proxy, spokesman or woman or person

2 a person who tries to sell the products or services of a firm

◇ SYNONYMS: agent, salesperson, rep, commercial traveller

3 a typical example

► adj

4 typical of a class or kind

◇ SYNONYMS: typical, characteristic, archetypal, exemplary

5 representing

◇ SYNONYMS: symbolic

6 including examples of all the interests or types in a group

◇ SYNONYMS: typical, characteristic, archetypal, exemplary

7 acting as deputy for another

8 of a political system in which people choose a person to make decisions on their behalf repress vb

1 to keep (feelings) under control

◇ SYNONYMS: control, suppress, hold back, bottle up, check, curb, restrain, inhibit

2 to restrict the freedom of: he continued to repress his people

◇ SYNONYMS: subdue, abuse, wrong, persecute, quell, subjugate, maltreat

3 (psychol) to banish (unpleasant thoughts) from one's conscious mind > repression n

> repressive adj

reprieve vb -prieving, -prieved

1 to postpone the execution of (a condemned person)

◇ SYNONYMS: grant a stay of execution to, pardon, let off the hook (slang)

2 to give temporary relief to

► n

3 a postponement or cancellation of a punishment

◇ SYNONYMS: stay of execution, amnesty, pardon, remission, deferment, postponement of punishment

4 a warrant granting a postponement or cancellation

5 a temporary relief from pain or harm reprimand vb

1 to blame (someone) officially for a fault

► n

2 an instance of blaming someone officially reprint vb

1 to print further copies of (a book)

► n

2 a reprinted copy reprisal n an act of taking revenge: many residents say they are living in fear of reprisals by the army

reproach n

1 blame or rebuke

2 a scolding

3 beyond reproach beyond criticism

► vb

4 to express disapproval of (someone's actions) > reproachful adj

reprobate (rep-roh-bate) n

1 an unprincipled bad person

► adj

2 morally unprincipled reproduce vb -ducing, -duced

1 to make a copy or representation of ◇ SYNONYMS: print, copy

2 (biol) to produce offspring

◇ SYNONYMS: breed, procreate (formal), multiply, spawn, propagate

3 to re-create > reproducible adj

reproduction n

1 (biol) a process by which an animal or plant produces one or more individuals similar to itself

◇ SYNONYMS: breeding, increase, generation, multiplication

2 a copy of a work of art

- ◇ SYNONYMS: copy, picture, print, replica, imitation, duplicate, facsimile
- 3 the quality of sound from an audio system
- 4 the act or process of reproducing
- ▶ adj
- 5 made in imitation of an earlier style: reproduction furniture
- > reproductive adj reproof n a severe blaming of someone for a fault reprove vb -proving, -proved to speak severely to (someone) about a fault > reprovingly adv

reptile n

- 1 a cold-blooded animal, such as a tortoise, snake, or crocodile, that has an outer covering of horny scales or plates and lays eggs
- 2 a contemptible grovelling person
- > reptilian adj

republic n

- 1 a form of government in which the people or their elected representatives possess the supreme power
- 2 a country in which the head of state is an elected or nominated president

Republican adj

- 1 belonging to the Republican Party, the more conservative of the two main political parties in the US
- 2 advocating a united Ireland
- ▶ n
- 3 a member or supporter of the Republican Party in the US
- 4 an advocate of a united Ireland
- > Republicanism n

repudiate (rip-pew-dee-ate) vb -ating, -ated

- 1 to reject the authority or validity of
- 2 to disown (a person)
- 3 to refuse to acknowledge or pay (a debt)
- > repudiation n

repugnant adj offensive or disgusting > repugnance n

repulse vb -pulsing, -pulsed

- 1 to be disgusting to: this act of feminist rage repulsed as many as it delighted
- 2 to drive (an army) back
- 3 to reject with coldness or discourtesy: she repulsed his advances
- n
- 4 a driving back
- 5 a cold discourteous rejection or refusal repulsion n

- 1 a feeling of disgust or aversion
- 2 (physics) a force separating two objects, such as the force between two like electric charges repulsive adj

- 1 disgusting or distasteful
- 2 (physics) of repulsion
- > repulsively adv

reputable (rep-pew-tab-bl) adj trustworthy or respectable > reputably adv

reputation n

- 1 the opinion generally held of a person or thing
- ◇ SYNONYMS: name, standing, character, esteem, stature, renown, repute
- 2 a high opinion generally held about a person or thing

3 notoriety or fame, esp. for some specified characteristic repute n good reputation: a sculptor of international repute reputed adj supposed or rumoured: the island was reputed to have held a Roman temple; the reputed murderess > reputedly adv

request vb

1 to ask for or politely demand: we requested a formal meeting with the committee

◇ SYNONYMS: seek, ask (for), solicit

► n

2 the act or an instance of asking for something: a polite request

◇ SYNONYMS: asking, plea

3 something asked for 4 on request if asked for: most companies will send samples on request

Requiem (rek-wee-em) n

1 (RC Church) a Mass celebrated for the dead

2 a musical setting of this Mass require vb -quiring, -quired

1 to need

◇ SYNONYMS: need, crave, want, miss, lack, wish, desire

2 to impose as a necessary condition: the decision requires a logical common-sense approach

3 to insist upon

◇ SYNONYMS: order, demand, command, compel, exact, oblige, call upon, insist upon

4 to order or command: family doctors are required to produce annual reports

◇ SYNONYMS: ask

requirement n

1 something demanded or imposed as an obligation

◇ SYNONYMS: necessity, demand, stipulation, want, need, must, essential, prerequisite

2 a specific need or want

◇ SYNONYMS: necessity, demand, stipulation, want, need, must, essential, prerequisite requisite (rek-wizz-it) adj

1 absolutely essential

► n

2 something essential requisition vb

1 to demand and take for use, esp. for military or public use

► n

2 a formal request or demand for the use of something

3 the act of taking something over, esp. for military or public use

4 a formal written demand requite vb -quiting, -quited to return to someone (the same treatment or feeling as received): an Australian who requites her love

> requital n

reredos (rear-doss) n a screen or wall decoration at the back of an altar rescind vb to annul or repeal > rescission n

rescue vb -cuing, -cued

1 to bring (someone or something) out of danger or trouble

◇ SYNONYMS: salvage, deliver, redeem

► n

2 the act or an instance of rescuing

◇ SYNONYMS: saving, salvage, deliverance, release, recovery, liberation, salvation, redemption > rescuer n

research n

1 systematic investigation to establish facts or collect information on a subject ◇ SYNONYMS: investigation, study, analysis, examination, probe, exploration

► vb

2 to carry out investigations into (a subject)

◇ SYNONYMS: investigate, study, examine, explore, probe, analyse > researcher n

resemble vb -bling, -bled to be or look like ◇ SYNONYMS: be like, look like, mirror, parallel, be similar to, bear a resemblance to > resemblance n resent vb to feel bitter or indignant about ◇ SYNONYMS: be bitter about, object to, grudge, begrudge, take exception to, take offence at > resentful adj > resentment n

reservation n

1 a doubt: his only reservation was, did he have the stamina?

◇ SYNONYMS: doubt, scruples, hesitancy

2 an exception or limitation that prevents one's wholehearted acceptance: work I admire without reservation

3 a seat, room, etc. that has been reserved

4 (esp. in the US) an area of land set aside for Native American peoples: the Cherokee reservation

◇ SYNONYMS: reserve, territory, preserve, sanctuary

5 (Brit) short for central reservation reserve vb -serving, -served

1 to keep back or set aside for future use

◇ SYNONYMS: keep, hold, save, store, retain, set aside, stockpile, hoard

2 to obtain by arranging beforehand: I phoned to reserve two tickets

◇ SYNONYMS: book, prearrange, engage

3 to keep for oneself: the association reserves the right to charge a fee

◇ SYNONYMS: keep, hold, save, store, retain, set aside, stockpile, hoard

4 to delay announcing (a legal judgment)

► n

5 something kept back or set aside for future use

◇ SYNONYMS: store, fund, savings, stock, supply, reservoir, hoard, cache

6 the state or condition of being reserved: we're keeping these two in reserve

7 (sport) a substitute

◇ SYNONYMS: substitute, extra, spare, fall-back, auxiliary

8 a protected area for wildlife: an elephant reserve

◇ SYNONYMS: park, reservation, preserve, sanctuary, tract, forest park (NZ)

9 the hiding of one's feelings and personality

◇ SYNONYMS: shyness, silence, restraint, constraint, reticence, secretiveness, taciturnity

10 the part of a nation's armed services not in active service

11 reserves (finance) money or assets held by a bank or business to meet future expenses

12 (Canada) a reservation for an indigenous people reserved adj

1 not showing one's feelings

◇ SYNONYMS: uncommunicative, retiring, silent, shy, restrained, secretive, reticent, taciturn

2 set aside for use by a particular person

◇ SYNONYMS: set aside, taken, kept, held, booked, retained, engaged, restricted reservist n a member of a nation's military reserve reservoir n

1 a natural or artificial lake for storing water for community use

◇ SYNONYMS: lake, pond, basin

2 a large supply of something: a vast reservoir of youthful enthusiasm

◇ SYNONYMS: store, stock, source, supply, reserves, pool reshuffle n

1 a reorganization of jobs in a government or company

► vb -fling, -fled

2 to reorganize jobs or duties in a government or company reside vb -siding, -sided (formal)

1 to live permanently (in a place): my daughter resides in Europe

◇ SYNONYMS: live, lodge, dwell (formal, literary), stay, abide

2 to be present (in): desire resides in the unconscious residence n

1 a person's home or house

◇ SYNONYMS: home, house, dwelling (formal, literary), place, flat, lodging, abode, habitation (formal)

2 a large imposing house

3 the fact of residing in a place

4 a period of residing in a place

5 in residence

A living in a particular place: the Monarch was not in residence

B (of an artist) working for a set period at a college, gallery, etc.: composer in residence resident n

1 a person who lives in a place

◇ SYNONYMS: tenant, occupant, lodger

2 a bird or animal that does not migrate

► adj

3 living in a place

4 living at a place in order to carry out a job: a resident custodian

5 employed for one's specialized abilities: the Museum's resident expert on seventeenth-century Dutch art

6 (of birds and animals) not in the habit of migrating residential adj

1 (of a part of a town) consisting mainly of houses

2 providing living accommodation: residential clubs for homeless boys residual adj

1 of or being a remainder

► n

2 something left over as a residue residue n

1 what is left over after something has been removed

◇ SYNONYMS: remainder, remains, remnant, leftovers, rest, extra, excess, surplus

2 (law) what is left of an estate after the discharge of debts and distribution of specific gifts resign vb

1 to give up office or a job

◇ SYNONYMS: quit, leave, step down (informal), vacate, abdicate, give or hand in your notice

2 to accept (an unpleasant fact): he resigned himself to the inevitable

◇ SYNONYMS resign yourself to something: accept, succumb to, submit to, give in to, yield to, acquiesce to

3 to give up (a right or claim)

◇ SYNONYMS: give up, abandon, yield, surrender, relinquish, renounce, forsake, forgo resignation n

1 the act of resigning

◇ SYNONYMS: leaving, departure, abandonment, abdication

2 a formal document stating one's intention to resign

3 passive endurance of difficulties: full of quiet resignation

◇ SYNONYMS: acceptance, patience, submission, compliance, endurance, passivity, acquiescence, sufferance resigned adj content to endure something unpleasant

◇ SYNONYMS: stoical, patient, subdued, long-suffering, compliant, unresisting > resignedly adv

resilient adj

1 (of a person) recovering easily and quickly from misfortune or illness

2 (of an object) capable of regaining its original shape or position after bending or stretching > resilience n

resin (rezz-in) n

1 a solid or semisolid substance obtained from certain plants: cannabis resin

2 a similar substance produced synthetically > resinous adj

resist vb

1 to stand firm against or oppose: the party's old guard continue to resist economic reform

◇ SYNONYMS: oppose, battle against, combat, defy, stand up to, hinder

2 to refrain from in spite of temptation: I couldn't resist a huge portion of almond cake

◇ SYNONYMS: refrain from, avoid, keep from, forgo, abstain from, forbear

3 to refuse to comply with: to resist arrest

4 to be proof against: airport design should be strengthened to help resist explosion

◇ SYNONYMS: withstand, be proof against > resistible adj

resistance n

1 the act of resisting

◇ SYNONYMS: fighting, fight, battle, struggle, defiance, obstruction, impediment, hindrance

2 the capacity to withstand something, esp. the body's natural capacity to withstand disease

3 (electronics) the opposition to a flow of electric current through a circuit, component, or substance

4 any force that slows or hampers movement: wind resistance

5 line of least resistance the easiest, but not necessarily the best, course of action > resistant adj, n resistor n an electrical component designed to introduce a known value of resistance into a circuit resit vb -sitting, -sat

1 to sit (an examination) again

► n

2 an examination which one must sit again resolute adj firm in purpose or belief > resolutely adv

resolution n

1 firmness or determination

◇ SYNONYMS: determination, purpose, resolve, tenacity, perseverance, willpower, firmness, steadfastness

2 a decision to do something

◇ SYNONYMS: decision, resolve, intention, aim, purpose, determination, intent

3 a formal expression of opinion by a meeting

◇ SYNONYMS: declaration

4 the act of resolving

5 (music) the process in harmony whereby a dissonant note or chord is followed by a consonant one

6 the ability of a television, camera, etc. to reproduce fine detail

7 (physics) Also called: resolving power the ability of a telescope or microscope to produce separate images of closely placed objects resolve vb -solving, -solved

1 to decide or determine firmly

◇ SYNONYMS: decide, determine, agree, purpose, intend, fix, conclude

2 to express (an opinion) formally by a vote

3 to separate or cause to separate into (constituent parts)

4 to find the answer or solution to ◇ SYNONYMS: work out, answer, clear up, crack, fathom

5 to explain away or dispel: to resolve the controversy

6 (music) to follow (a dissonant note or chord) by one producing a consonance

7 (physics) to distinguish between (separate parts) of (an image) as in a microscope, telescope, or other optical instrument

► n

8 absolute determination: he spoke of his resolve to deal with the problem of terrorism

◇ SYNONYMS: determination, resolution, willpower, firmness, steadfastness, resoluteness resolved adj determined resonance n

1 the condition or quality of being resonant

2 sound produced by a body vibrating in sympathy with a neighbouring source of sound resonant adj

1 resounding or re-echoing

2 producing resonance: the resonant cavities of the mouth

